TIGERS MEET JACKRABBITS TO FINISH HOME SCHEDULE

Last Friday night the Spur Bulldogs used everything but the kitchen sink to rout Slaton 39-0. Slaton, after beating Morton week before last, was blasted off the field by a powerful Spur eleven. It was easy to see that the Tigers were outclassed in every department. The Bulldogs had a more experienced squad and a more polished attack, both on the offensive and defensive. The Tigers are to be commended for playing a good clean, hard fought, ball game.

Tonight the Ralls Jackrabbits invade Tiger Field looking for another win. Ralls has a very good record for the season, but those never say die Tigers are big enough to run Ralls off the field.

Jerry Reynolds will be the man under the "T" formation for the Tigers, and we expect Jerry to play a big part in tonight's contest.

All football fans are urged to come out and boost our team over the hump.

Tickets for the game will be on sale at the gate. Admission will be the same as before, $1.00 for adults, and 35c for students.

Game time will be 8:00 p.m.

Probable starting line-ups:

Slaton — Corley, E. Tomlinson, T. Lemon, G. Clifton, C. Singleton, G. Turner, T. Bourn, E. Reynolds, B. Sooter, B. Aiken, B. Lambert.

Ralls — Bennett, B. Fowler, B. Hunt, G. Campbell, B. Morrison, E. James, E. Langdon, T. Cooper, T. Roznovsky, B. Alsop, C. Scroggins, G.

Police Make Big Liquor Haul Here

Chief of Police Gentry and his force made a big haul in a liquor arrest in the flats last week when Mr. Gentry was on a routine check of that part of town. In a vacant lot he noticed a truck that appeared to be broken down so he investigated and found it loaded with over $1,000.00 worth of liquor in assorted kinds of intoxicants such as beer, whiskey and wine.

The truck belonged to an Amarillo negro who had been arrested a short time ago in Slaton with a small amount of liquor in it. He was arrested near where the truck was found and turned over to the liquor board officers.

Mrs. A. L. Robertson and granddaughter, Suzanna Robertson, went to the Dallas Fair this week end and will see "Guys and Dolls" while they are there. They will go from there to Austin to visit Mrs. Robertson's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kimbro.

Week's Question . . .

Some Think Churches Could Unite, All Agree That It Should Be Done

Many church officials and some government officials, including President Truman, have suggested that the Christian churches would be the best source of resistance to communism, the best means of counteracting it, and maybe the only means of defeating it.

Slaton people who answered this week's question are members of the First Baptist Church, First Methodist Church, Assembly of God Church, Church of God, Catholic Church, Church of Christ, and Presbyterian Church, but not in that order.

When they answered the question "Do you think all the Christian Churches should band together to fight communism?" in the affirmative, they were asked, "Do you think it could be done?"

Mr. George Taylor, "I certainly do. I doubt very seriously that it could be done. We're too busy battling among ourselves."

Mrs. C. L. Ellis, "Well, now that's a question to which I haven't given much thought, but I think it is good idea. I do really believe in the good of all they should be would be so good if all could see alike and go in together." She says that would mean we would all be of one faith, because we all now what we must do to be saved.

Mr. Fred Schmidt, "I do. I believe it could be done. I see no reason why they shouldn't, in a use of that kind especially. Com-

Legion Auxiliary Sponsors Gift Box

The American Legion Auxiliary is again sponsoring a box for Christmas gifts for disabled Veterans at the Veteran's Hospital at Big Spring, who are unable to do their own Christmas shopping. The gifts are not for the veterans themselves, but for the disabled veterans to send to their families, sweethearts, or friends.

The box of gifts must be mailed to the hospital by December 1, so that the veterans will have time to choose appropriate gifts and mail them to their families. Mrs. Alvin White, chairman of the committee, says they will have a box at the next regular meeting to be held November 6, and at the joint meeting on October 29, at which the American Legion will entertain the Auxiliary. This is a reminder to the members to bring gifts for the box. The gifts may be bought or made and any type of gift is suitable.

If townspeople who are not members of the American Legion or the Auxiliary wish to donate gifts to the box, they may leave them with Mrs. White at 855 W. Division.

Attorneys Meet In Lubbock For Clinic

Hundreds of attorneys from almost 50 Panhandle and South Plains counties, including this county, will attend a regional legal institute in the 72nd District Courtroom in Lubbock on Monday, Oct. 29. Tom Milam of Lubbock, registration chairman, said this week.

Milam said early registration indicated enthusiastic endorsement of the State Bar Association's plan "to bring as close as possible to the lawyer's door" recognized authorities in the various fields of legal practice and also, for private consultation, high officials of state and federal agencies.

Charles L. Cobb, president of the Lubbock County Bar Association, host at the "clinic," forecast this week that this would be the largest group of Panhandle and South Plains attorneys ever gathered, except possibly for a state Bar meeting.

Mrs. R. H. Stevenson of Paris, Texas, has been visiting with her daughters, Miss Christine Stevens and Mrs. Billie Jo Hayles.

Mrs. O. B. Herring of Dumas, Texas spent last week visiting friends in Slaton while Rev. Herring was in a meeting at Brady, Texas.

Work Program Of WTCC Explained

P. G. Meading, local Chamber of Commerce Manager, and Ralph E. Duncan, manager of Community Services department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce were visiting Slaton members of that organization last Thursday.

Since February 1, members of the headquarters staff of the WTCC have visited in 100 of the 142 towns where there are local directors, said Meading.

In addition, all of the more than 5,000 members of the organization have been invited to one or more of 11 meetings held throughout the 132 county area for the purpose of explaining the work program of the WTCC, Meading added.

"This is in line with the policy adopted when the West Texas Chamber was reorganized last winter," said Meading, and "Fred H. Husbands, executive vice president and general manager, and his assistants, are carrying out the policy of the board of directors, which emphasized in its annual convention last fall that the regional chamber should create and maintain close relationship both with individual members and with local chambers of commerce."

Forty Arrested Over Week End

Mayor Lee Wootton, who is also City Police Judge, reported that over forty arrests were made over last week end for gaming, fighting and for intoxication. Fines were assessed against all of those arrested.

While there has been more than average arrests made this fall in Slaton for offenses of this kind, there has been very few arrests made for major offenses and the Mayor feels that Slaton has been fortunate in being able to keep the professional criminals out of the town.

A few cases of petty thefts have occurred but most of all of the more serious crimes have been cleared up. "We hope our good fortune continues," said the Mayor.

Rotary Governor To Visit Here

He will confer with President Hoffman, Secretary P. G. Meading and other local officers on Rotary administration and service activities.

Mr. Bridgewater is Secretary and Treasurer of Midland Federal Savings and Loan Association in Midland, Texas and is a member of the Rotary Club of Midland. He is one of 203 Rotary District Governors supervising the activities of some 7,300 Rotary Clubs which have a membership of 350,000 business and professional executives in 83 countries and geographical regions throughout the world.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are located, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Slaton, because they are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.

Each year, this world-wide service organization continues to grow in numbers and in strength. During the last fiscal year, for example, 257 new Rotary Clubs were organized in 35 countries of North, South and Central America, Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Islands of the Pacific.

Annual Boy Scouts Finance Drive Starts Oct. 15th

LET'S MAKE SLATON'S QUOTA GO . . . .

OVER THE TOP IN '51!

SLATON'S QUOTA $2500

The South Plains Area BSA Council's Annual Fund raising drive commences Oct. 15 with a "kick-off" breakfast for volunteer workers. Slaton's goal this year is $2,500.00 . . . let's top that. Remember, scouting is an investment in a boy's future . . . most of the money collected in Slaton remains here to be directly used to sponsor Boy Scout work in Slaton. Give . . . to help Scouting.

Slaton Scout Troop No. 28 and Troop No. 29

News Of Slaton Men In Service

Walter O. Heinrich, Route 2, Slaton, with the 7th Inf. Div. in Korea, recently won a combat promotion to the grade of sergeant for excellent performance of duty in ground combat.

7th Division artillery units which have boomed from Pusan to the Korea-Manchuria border, recently helped crush the eastern anchor of the Communist's "Iron Triangle" in Central Korea.

Heinrich and his buddies of the 57th Field Artillery Battalion belong to the most traveled division in the Far East. They have fought on difficult terrain and under adverse weather conditions on both coasts of the Korean peninsula.

A cannoneer, Sgt. Heinrich joined the 7th Division in June 1951.

Pvt. and Mrs. Alvin Kitten from Fort Sill, Okla., were in Slaton last week end, visiting relatives and friends.

John R. Burks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Burks has been promoted to the rank of Corporal. Cpl. Burks is in Japan with the 128th Hospital as a dental technician. He is sending a coffee service from Japan to his sister, Dortha, for a wedding gift.

Pfc. Harold Culver has been released from the Army Hospital at Camp Polk, where he had spent five weeks. He may be transferred nearer home, either to Fort Bliss or White Sands. He recently spent a week end in Shreveport.

One year ago six Slaton men were in Marine boot training at San Diego, Calif. They left Slaton together on October 2 for Dallas where they were inducted and then all went to San Diego for basic training. Today one of them is overseas, four are on the West Coast, one on the East Coast, and one has married during the year.

Cpl. Tip Culver, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Culver, is in Communications and stationed at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, Calif. He was home in June on a 20 day furlough, and expects to have 7 days at Christmas or the first of next year.

Cpl. Alton Kenney, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Kenney, is at the Supply Depot at Bartow, Calif. He had a 15 day furlough in July and was home Sept. 1, on a three day pass.

Cpl. Jerry Lovelady, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Lovelady, is with the Supply Division at Bartow. He was home in May, when he had 10 days enroute from Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, to Bartow, and was home Sept. 1, on a 72 hour pass.

Pfc. Mac Hudgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hudgins of Fort Worth, is with the 2nd 80MM AAA Gun Battalion at Tent Camp, Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. He was home for about 13 days in January, when he was enroute from the West Coast to Quantico, where he went to school for 3 months. He had a 10 day furlough the last of August. Mac and Miss Paula Jeanne Maxey of Slaton were married at Camp Lejeune October 5.

Cpl. Bobby Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cook of Lubbock, is now in special Communications

School in San Diego, Calif. In about 2 weeks, when his six week course is completed, he will go back to Camp Pendleton. He was home for 10 days the last of July and hopes to be home for Christmas.

Pfc. Joe Tucker, son of Mrs. I. C. Tucker, has been overseas since September 1. He was home in May on a 24 day furlough. He is a radio operator in Communications. Mrs. Tucker received a very interesting letter from him this week in which he describes some of the places he has seen recently. He wrote that they had left Naples, Italy, on Sept. 30 and had made a tour of Pompeii and Mount Sorrento. Of the ancient city he says, "Pompeii was about the best I have seen over here yet. As you remember, it was and lava when Vesuvius erupted back before Christ. They have been uncovered it for years. They have some bodies they found and they seemed like small people. They were very civilized tho. They had dentists tools very much like ours today. They had drinking fountains with copper pipe. You could see in the stone streets where the chariots went. We also saw the big arena where they used to throw humans to the lions."

They left Malta on their way to Sicily and were going back to Naples on Oct. 8 and that time he planned to go to the Isle of Capri.

They also made a tour of Malta. He liked the town of Valletta best because most of the people spoke English and there were not so many people asking for money, etc. They got a pound of English money for $2.80 and in Italy 625 lire for $1.00. In Malta they had steak, 2 eggs, potatoes, ham, tomatoes, tea, and dessert for 57c.

In speaking of the Rule of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem on Malta, he says, "We went on a tour of the Church of St. John and the Palace of St. John. The church was the most beautiful thing I have ever seen. It took an artist 5 years to paint the pictures on the ceiling alone. The altar was of pure silver. Under the floor are buried 400 of the Knights of St. John. They say Malta is the world's most heavily bombed spot, and you can sure tell it. They were bombed every day for 260 days and once were bombed 40 days and 40 nights without let-up. They had an election here in 1951 and all the people voted British because that is all there is to vote for, but they took a sort of Gallup Pole and 95 percent of the people said they wanted to get out from under British rule and come under American rule."

Marlee Holloman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holloman, sailed from Guam Oct. 10 on the U.S.S. Aultman and expects to dock the last of this month. He went overseas in July and has been in the Seabees since Aug. of 1950. He will receive his discharge Nov. 1. His wife is looking for a house in Slaton.

Cpl. Cecil Tefertiller, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Tefertiller, is home on a 20 day leave. He has been working as a clerk typist at March Field, Riverside, Calif.

Fawcett's Fables

To start this column, I think I should tell you just why I'm an authority on sports. While in High School I learned everything there is to know about football, as I was on the squad as liquid carrier. I'm not going to try and tell you what's wrong with Slatons football team because I've only watched them work out one afternoon, however, I noticed while watching the boys work out that one man on the whole squad was really trying to play football. I'd like to see some of those big boys get mad and block, tackle and run with the ball like they are surely capable of doing.

A football team takes good close team work and without it you have no football team. Instead you have just what I've seen this week; a bunch of boys loafing around and none of them working together. Well I just did what I said I wasn't going to do, but Friday night I'd like to see our boys play a good hard football game. All we can ask is that our boys play HARD and clean and we'll back them all the way.

I think I'll try my luck at a few predictions on a few games this week and if I'm lucky I might get at least one right:

Ralls over Slaton — Experience.
Lubbock over Berger — More Polish.
Odessa over San Angelo — Track meet.
Texas A. & M. over T. C. U. — Everything Tech — Larry Isbell.
S. M. U. over Rice — Beners.
Texas over Arkansas — Defense.
Ohio over Indiana — Power.
Don't forget to read Blair Cherry's magazine article in this week's Saturday Evening Post entitled, "Why I Quit Coaching." This story by Blair Cherry, former head football coach at the University of Texas, tells the inside story of the headaches of a football coach.

Taken From Oct. 24, 1941

Mr. Truman Shelton, who has been attending Texas Tech in Lubbock was appointed Band Director of the Slaton Tiger Band this week and has taken up his duties, which also include instruction of two World History classes.

With one of the best cotton crops in the field in the history of the South Plains, the Gins report fewer bales ginned so far than in any year on record for this late in the season.

The few bales that have been ginned are of poor quality due to the excessive moisture. The staple of the cotton is damaged when ginned and it causes damage to ginning machinery, causing many delays and breakdowns.

A speech contest was held at the Rotary Club yesterday to select a student from the High School to represent Slaton in the Lubbock contest. Joe Turner was awarded first place and Viola Martin second.

At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last Thursday night, Mr. Jack Norman who has been Secretary and Manager of the B.C.D. and C. of C., requested a leave of absence for the duration of the war so that he could volunteer for the Marines.

JUST TALK

by A.M.J.

Lanny Swanner has a reddish colored cocker that he calls Dusty and occasionally Dusty stops, sits on his haunches and works himself over with one of his hind feet. "Don't scratch like that," Lanny admonishes, "folks will think you have fleas, which you have."

gregate on different parts of his anatomy. You can see the luxurious feeling that comes over him when he is scratching, and one should not deny any cocker such enjoyment. I have often wondered if a lot of folks would not enjoy life more, if, on occasions, they would drop a few pebbles in one shoe and walk a while, then take them out so that the pleasure of having them out of shoe could be enjoyed. One never realizes how much just ordinary good health means until a tooth starts aching, or a boil arrives in some very inconvenient place, and any place is inconvenient.

Some day I'm going to try a gravel in the shoe experiment on my wife.

Last week I was going along not being bothered with anything more complicated than some leaky faucets, a balky zipper, on my second best pair of slacks, and a shirt that was too tight in the neck, when Bruce Pember came over and brought on a major catastrophe. He informed me that I had been appointed as a special committee of one to secure a speaker for a night meeting of the Rotary Club when all of the wives of Rotary members and all the members of the Slaton Independent School Faculty had been asked to attend. The program could not be a run of the mill program such as motion pictures of how coffee is grown in Brazil or how rubber is gathered in Africa, that are nearly always on tap from Coffee makers, or tire dealers. This program had to be amusing, inspiring and understandable by educated people as well as by Rotarians.

In the day time I went around with a feeling that there was something terribly wrong with the world and at night I twisted and turned groping around in the dark and dismal passages of my mind trying to think of someone who could save me from disgrace and final break down of my nervous system. In desperation I phoned Charley Guy at the Avalanche-Journal.

"No trouble at all," said Charley, "just phone Raymond Elliott, head of the Music Department at Texas Tech, and he'll come down and make everybody happy."

I spent three dollars, three days and three miles of conversation getting Mr. Elliott to come down, but not until I had given him the wrong date, the wrong hour and the wrong place over the telephone. Mr. Elliott, I am sure believes I'm pretty well off my rocker and I'm afraid I've messed him up as a good prospect for other newspaper men who get into trouble for Rotary programs and such, but we had a rip roaring good program, although a number of the customers seemed rather dazed when I announced at the meeting that the head of the Music Department at Tech would give them some information on the technical qualities of music.

Mr. Elliott did start out in a monotone reading some poetry and I noticed Mrs. Howard Hoffman, who was seated next to him. She had a glassy stare as if she realized that she would have to sit it out regardless of all the pain that was sure to come, but it was not long until she was having more fun than anybody. Mr. Elliott, who has a voice with a range of an octave and a half and sounds like it may get out of control at any time, mixed song and story together in a most entertaining way and I feel sure that my terrible suffering was worth while but I'm still trying to find out who it was who appointed me as a special committee of one.

It pays to advertise and particularly in the Slatonite. A couple of weeks ago I complained bitterly about the fact that the food stores are offering only mushy, half ripe tomatoes from California and that I have been craving good home grown tomatoes for a long time. The night after the paper was published I went home and on our front porch there was a big sack full of extra select, rosy red, tomatoes, and I did not wait to take off my hat to go in and gobble up three of them. My wife nearly lost a finger trying to get one slice out of my plate while I ate.

She has been staying awake until nine o'clock nearly every night wondering who put that orphan sack of tomatoes on our porch, but I left the worrying up to her about who the life saver was, and ate tomatoes regularly until yesterday when they gave out.

Thanks a million to whoever it was, and if you have any more tomatoes that need a good comfortable home where good care will be taken of them, a phone call will bring me on the run. The number is 20 at the Slatonite and 397-J at the house. Call any time of the day or night.

Overheard in the Post Office not long ago, "He said I can't take it with me and I told him that I am not going unless I do."

A lot of the folks who got their taxes raised recently have been howling just from habit, but so far I have seen no one who put any real effort in griping. It seems that when eggs are nearly a dollar a dozen, bread nearly a quarter a loaf and cookies a nickel a bite, there is no use to howl. If your taxes are doubled, your feet jerked out from under you or your income tax made twice as much as you can get out of your business, let her go there's no telling where things will end up, we're just going along for the ride.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Phillips left Tuesday for a trip through Galveston and New Orleans to Florida, Alabama, and other Southern States.

Area Has More Defoliation Than Last Year; New Guide Is Available

The new cotton defoliation guide for Texas has been issued by the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service and is available in Lubbock, said Dave Sherrill, county agent.

"We have sufficient copies of the guide in our office for all Lubbock county farmers," Sherrill said. "The guides are available free to anyone who wants them," he added.

The 1951 guide is written by Fred Elliott, cotton specialist for the extension service.

It gives rates of application of various defoliating chemicals, both spray and dust.

Elliott said, "Defoliants should be applied at least 35 days after the period of maximum flower fall. Another way to time application of the defoliants is 25 days after cotton bolls making or when the youngest bolls expected to open are 25 days old. Application should also be made two to three weeks prior to intended picking on the High Plains."

Defoliation is most efficient, he added, when cotton is mature and the leaves are in a condition of maturity, not wilted and not toughened by drought or by lack of fertility and where the plant moisture is adequate and the weather warm and humid.

He cautions farmers to defoliate only enough acreage to stay ahead of picking.

More defoliation has been done this year than had been done last year at this date, according to local praying and dusting concerns. King and Moore, who had defoliated only 500 or 600 acres at this date last year have already worked 1800 acres and have 500 more acres booked.

They are using the new liquid defoliant exclusively because of lack of dew. Mr. Moore says it is new to him as to everybody, but he thinks they have it where they want it. About three years of experimentation had gone into perfecting the liquid spray before it was released to the consumer this year. Experiments are still being made to improve it, and several more test plots have been put out by King and Moore with different chemicals added. They have been getting excellent results with the type chosen from earlier test plots for use on the plains.

According to Mr. Moore, the leaves start dropping on the 4th or 5th day after application of a defoliant, and 12 to 14 days after application the defoliation is complete. Usually 85 to 90 percent of foliage is removed, and damaged leaves which don't fall off dry out and give no trouble at the gins. It is usually the green leaf stain which causes the lower grade.

A mechanical puller will be used on a patch of cotton defoliated this year, starting this week and on the first of next week, on a farm 12 miles west and 1 mile north of the Union Gin.

Farmers in the area have said they can buy defoliant, have it applied, and even if their mechanical harvester leaves one-third of the cotton in the field they will come out ahead and clear more money than if they have it pulled by hand. Jim Moore thinks the more widespread use of defoliants and mechanical harvesters this year is a result of the labor shortage. Some farmers are finding it impossible to get hands, and for those who can get them it is an expensive proposition.

Smith Raises Large Sweet Potato Here

Mr. Horace Smith brought a sweet potato as big as a gallon bucket into the Slatonite office this week. The potato had grown so fast that it was cracked in several places. It seems the outside couldn't keep up with the inside, and large cracks appeared in the skin. Weighed on the scales in the office, it registered 12 lbs. A sweet potato that size would make a lot of pie.

Mr. Smith didn't say what he plans to do with his monstrosity, but he did give some information on how it got that way. The phenomenal growth was the result of vigoro and plenty of water applied to the plant. Mr. Smith, who lives at 600 S. 14th, was formerly a Justice of the Peace in Slaton.

No Coastal Bermuda Sprigs This Fall

No Coastal Bermuda grass sprigs will be distributed by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station this fall, according to J. E. Roberts, superintendent of the Main Station Farm.

The Coastal Bermuda being grown at College Station did not die during the past several months of dry weather, but Roberts does not want to distribute sprigs that may be in poor condition. Fertilizer is being applied to the Coastal plots now, and plenty of sprigs will be available next spring—provided no unusual weather occurs.

A. W. Crain, associate Extension pasture specialist, suggests that farmers send in their orders now for the Coastal Bermuda sprigs they want next spring. These orders will be accepted and filled in the order received. Some sections of the state will need sprigs earlier than others, Crain points out.

Farmers should send no money now just state the number of sacks of sprigs wanted. They will be contacted by Roberts before the sprigs are shipped next spring. Last spring the Experiment Station sold 15 to 25 pounds sacks of Coastal Bermuda sprigs for $2.50 per sack plus express charges.

Orders for sprigs should be sent to J. E. Roberts, Superintendent, Main Station Farm, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, College Station, Texas.

The damage caused by cattle grubs is charged back to the producer in the form of lower prices for beef animals and lower milk production from dairy cows. The pests can be controlled.

West Texas Roundup

A man was one day visiting a lunatic asylum, and while walking in the grounds he met a patient, to whom he said:

"Well, how did you get here?"

The man replied: "Well sir, you see I married a widow with a grown up daughter, and then my father married my wife's daughter and that made my wife the mother-in-law of her father-in-law and my father became my stepson. Then my step mother, the daughter of my wife, had a son, and that boy, of course was my brother, because he was my father's son, and then he was the son of my wife's daughter and therefore her grandson, and that made me the grandfather of my half-brother. Then my wife had a son, so my mother-in-law, the half-sister of my son, is also his grand-mother, because he is her step-son's child; my father is the brother-in-law of my own child because his half-sister is his wife, I am the brother of my own son, and so I am the son of my step-mother. I am my mother's brother-in-law; my wife is her own child's aunt; my son is my father's nephew; and I am my own grandfather. That's why I'm here sir."

A flash fire Tuesday night starting in the pack slide of Red Ball gin at Roaring Springs for a time threatened the plant with destruction.

Quick and efficient work of the plant crew saved the gin, E. E. Moss, manager declared yesterday. The fire started when the packer slide became clogged and an employee removing the cotton struck a swinging electric light drop. In breaking the bulb the highly inflammable lint was ignited spreading the fire in the matter of seconds to the roof of the plant.

A raging blaze inside the Levland Independent Order of Odd Fellows building which burned undetected until 12:12 a.m. Thursday, resulted in an estimated $3,000 loss before it could be brought under control.

—The Sun News

Provisions for setting up a new elementary school to take care of the great increase in enrollment expected during the harvest were made Thursday night at a meeting of the Levland School Board.

Classes in the new elementary school will begin Monday morning on a split-session schedule in a frame building at the West Elementary school. One group of children will be enrolled for the morning session and will attend school from 7:30 a.m. to 12 o'clock noon. The other session will start at 12:30 and close at 5 p.m. No transportation can be provided for pupils enrolled in this school, officials said.

The U. S. Department of Labor has approved this type of program and has agreed that pupils attending the morning session may be employed legally in the afternoon, while those enrolled in the afternoon session may be employed legally during the morning hours.

The new school was deemed necessary by school officials after it became apparent that the three elementary schools now operating would not be able to care for the approximately 300 new pupils expected when the harvest gets in full swing.

Under the guidance of Dudley Bayne, the City Hall is getting a new face-lifting and paint job. Although not completed yet, the building is already taking on the atmosphere of a new and greater dignity. The white stripe about the top of the building shimmers with a rejuvenated type of majestic splendor.

Inside the building has been brightened up with new paint and wains high ridge wood paneling. The job is not complete yet but should be finished by the end of the week. After the ridge wood is all up it will be given a coat of varnish to make it blend more perfectly with the other woodwork and fixtures.

Both break-ins were believed to have occurred Sunday night or early Monday morning. At Grimes,

Presented By Dr. Salsbury's Laboratories

GET TO KNOW POULTRY DISEASES

One of the common faults found in the management practices of poultry raisers is the failure to recognize and treat poultry diseases before they make headway in a flock. This is especially true in the case of the unsuccessful raiser, who often becomes disillusioned and confused when he repeatedly loses birds to disease.

In the first place, a poultryman must become a student of disease problems. Any grower who ignores the disease factor in poultry raising is certain to be handicapped in his efforts sooner or later. The successful control of poultry diseases and parasites depends to a great extent on the prompt diagnosis of such diseases. Quick recognition of the disease enables the poultryman to curtail its spread in the flock and keep down the losses.

Watch Birds Closely

Too often the raisers believe killing ailing birds is the best policy, feeling that by eliminating sick birds they can prevent further spread of the disease. Actually, however, it is best to separate sick birds from the other poultry and observe them for additional symptoms. Following observation, a post mortem examination should be performed.

If a poultryman is to make a success of his enterprise, he owes it to himself to become familiar with the symptoms of poultry diseases. All diseases have distinct symptoms. By learning to recognize these symptoms quickly and accurately, the poultry raiser often can detect diseases early and head-off discouraging outbreaks.

Common Symptoms

Some common symptoms and the various ailments which they frequently characterize are as follows:

General unthrifty condition — Examine birds for external parasites, such as lice, mites, ticks, etc. Also internal parasites. Examine birds' droppings for roundworms or segments of tape worms.

Lameness — Lameness in turkeys may be due to range paralysis, bumble foot, scaly leg, rickets, fracture or bruises.

Diarrhea — This may be caused by digestive disorders, cholera, coecidiosis, fowl typhoid or worms.

Bloody droppings — These may be due to coecidiosis, enteritis, or worms.

Gasping — Gasping symptoms usually indicate disorders in the wind pipe or larynx. "Colds," coryza or roup may also be responsible for the same symptoms.

Woodpile—

A man was approached by a tramp on the street, who asked him for a dollar. "If I give you a dollar," replied the man, "you will only gamble it away."
"Oh, no," said the tramp, "I do not gamble."
"Well then, you will spend it on some woman," replied the man.
"Absolutely not," insisted the tramp. "I never associate with women."
"Then you will spend it on whiskey," said the man.
"Never drink!" said the tramp.
"Tell you what I'll do," beamed the man, "I'll give you five dollars if you will come home with me and show my wife what happens to a man who has no vices."

According to statistics, women live four years longer than men. So, you might as well give up, fella, the wife will get in the last word anyway.
Can't quite understand this weather—sunny, sandy, cold. But we certainly get a variation—sandy, sunny, cold, and then cold, sandy, sunny! Oh, well, who wants to control the weather anyhow?
—The Olton Enterprise

Between You, Me, And The Gatepost—

Give a little serious thought before you start complaining about how early Christmas arrives. Remember the story about the man who claimed that telephone booths were becoming smaller. He also complained about newspaper print becoming finer and the distance to the bus stop farther away. Finally someone enlightened the poor fellow and told him that nothing had changed. The complainer was merely getting older and had not realized it.
Digging into the corn department for a joke about age, we find an actress named Joan Crawford. As the story goes, Miss Crawford was complaining to a certain cameraman about his work. She claimed that he was not catching her in as beautiful a pose as he had in another picture they had worked together in several years before. After taking all the complaints he could stand the cameraman said, "Look, Miss Crawford, don't blame me, this camera is ten years older than it was in the other picture where you were so beautiful.

—The Canyon News

You Be The Judge—

The labor Snafu is complete and perfect in Crosby County as far as I can see. One farmer was heard to remark that the situation is not at all discouraging; there are about forty thousand bales open now, and we are getting out about forty bales a day. Mathematically speaking, we'll get it all out in about 30 years if we don't lose any time and if no more opens. But the cotton is opening at about the rate of two thousand bales a day, and we're going to have some cold weather some time this winter, so there may be a slight delay in resolving the Snafu.
—The Crosbyton Review

Yours Truly—

Wonder how many million man-hours will be lost each day of the World Series? With the radio broadcasts starting at 12:00, it's hard to tear oneself away and return to work at 1:00, with the bases loaded . . . and?
—The Wink Bulletin

Lou Plyka—

Pacing nervously up and down the sidewalk, the GI in Germany was muttering this little incantation to himself:
"Did she say nine, or nein? Did she say nine, or nein?"
Consulting his watch, which now showed 20 minutes past 10, he decided it must have been "Nein!" What he said next we will not repeat, not even in German.
Since the days of the building of the Tower of Babylon, man has been all mixed up, at least as far as languages go. "Da, Da" in Russian means, "Yes, Yes." In English, though, it merely means that Junior is growing up, and perhaps asking for Papa! "Oui" is French for "Yes" but "We" is just another personal pronoun, in English. Yes, this language business can, and does, get slightly confusing, sometimes.
—The Prairie

Strickingly Speaking—

We have just found out what a traitor to a political party really is. He is the guy that leaves your party and joins the opposition. But the bird that leaves the other party and joins yours—he's uh—converted patriot.
—Terry County Herald

The Hired Hand—

If radio could be killed, such programs as the one we heard the other night would do the trick.
It happened that we were sorting out the rotten tomatoes from a basket of fruit picked several days earlier, and did not wash our hands to switch to another station.

Soon thereafter we finished sorting the tomatoes and dialed the program out, so we lost the rest of the story.
This much, however, serves to illustrate our point. Virtually all the plots in night-time "family" programs depend on father or husband being a blundering, bigtalking, inefficient pinhead, while the kids are the smart ones and Mama is the one who makes the household click.
Maybe this is true. But we'll dial away from all such programs in the future.
—The Seminole Sentinel

"It was a varmit of somekind." That's the only way O. H. Conrad, farmer west of town, could describe what bit him on the shin late Saturday night.
Conrad was fastening up the chicken house and had returned to the back door of the house. As he was opening the screen door, something he was unable to see bit him on the shin, leaving two slight incisions about an inch apart.
Not taking any chances, he is in the Permian General Hospital receiving 14 rabies shots.

'50,000 Miles No Wear'

with New Conoco Super Motor Oil!

says C. B. Simonds
Aircraft Communicator
Fort Worth, Texas

"Regardless of weather, throughout the year I have to make trips to the airfield, day or night," reports C. B. Simonds, aircraft communicator. "My car has to be ready to go when I need it. So when I heard the story of 50,000 Miles—No Wear, I changed over to new Conoco Super Motor Oil immediately."

Change Now—For Summertime Performance All Winter! Protect your engine from winter's rasping wear. Change to new Conoco Super Motor Oil, with OIL-PLATING. Get quick starts, fast pickup, better performance all winter.

"I've driven considerably more than 50,000 miles since I changed to Conoco Super. So I know—50,000 Miles—No Wear has certainly been true for my car. It still runs like new, and my gasoline mileage is as good, too! Conoco Super's the oil for me!"

Proof of 50,000 Miles—No Wear! After a punishing 50,000 mile road test, with proper drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence; in fact, an average of less than one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts. Factory finishing marks were still visible on piston rings! Gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000!

CONVERT YOUR OLD LAMP

Into a beautiful, modern 3 light lamp

Now! . . . the glow of mellow light in your home at night. More light downward to see by, more light upward for indirect room lighting. Little loss of light from dust collecting . . . bulb and reflector are one . . . like the sealed beam headlight on your car. A quick swipe of your dust cloth and efficiency restored. AND, less blackening than with ordinary home-type bulbs. Below is illustrated how to convert your lamp so that you can use this new bulb.

Use of this new bulb (either single or three-way light) takes harsh glaring out of your present portable lamps. It gives you soft diffusion . . . the "Hollywood touch" . . . you've always wanted for restful comfort of your eyes.

- NO TOOLS NEEDED
- ALL MATERIALS INCLUDED
- PUTS NEW LIFE IN YOUR LIGHT
- THREE-WAY LIGHTING ON YOUR OLD LAMPS
- LESS BULB BLACKENING
- BETTER LIGHT . . . BETTER SIGHT
- LIKE THE SEALED BEAM HEADLIGHTS ON YOUR AUTO

With the three-way bulb you have a choice of lighting level simply by flicking the switch. Plenty of good light for proper reading . . . general conversation . . . or, a "light on while you're out of the house".

In most cases the harps (shade support) on most portable lamps are not wide enough to permit the use of this amazing new bulb . . . so you must obtain from your electric dealer the simple materials illustrated.

For those type of lamps that have no harp support for shades, there is a broad harp that has a screw-on base. It simply screws on the outside of the bulb socket which, of course, must be the type that is threaded. Your electric dealer can help you.

Simple Conversion Materials are for Sale at your Electric Dealers

NO TOOLS OF ANY KIND ARE NEEDED . . . this is a simple step-by-step process that anyone can do in a matter of minutes. No electrical connections to make . . . everything CLAMPS in place.

Is It The Climate That Does It? ...

Is there a difference between the people who live in West Texas and those who live in Central and South Texas? Most every one who is in this more recently settled part of Texas has, at some time in their lives, lived in other parts of the state and yet there is a definite difference between the people on the South Plains and those in the more closely settled parts of the country.

Most folks who first come to the South Plains are unhappy for six months, but once they get the spirit of West Texas there is no other place that can draw them away of their own free will.

Texas is perhaps the greatest stronghold of real Democracy in our nation and West Texas has more independent people in it than most any part of Texas. We have had to be independent to exist against the rigors of our part of the world and it is not going to be easy to put the stamp of socialism on the people of the South Plains.

WHAT CAN WE DO ABOUT IT? You answer that one!

The Age Of Gimmie ...

This has become the age of "gimmie." An age in which most issues are subordinated to the overwhelming importance of the handout. Right and justice and integrity and intelligence must give way before the expanding demands of this group and that.

But, thinking soberly, we know that we can't all have everything we want. We know we can't provide cradle-to-grave security, minimum work hours, soaring wages, and endless featherbedding, both political and social. Still we promise it, hoping that some miracle will save us ...

The sad point is this ... that we have come to believe that the great man, the great organization, the great government, is the one that would promise the most. Years ago, Garibaldi's soldiers shouted at him: "What will you give us if we follow you." His reply was: "I'll give you wounds and sickness and suffering and death. But I'll give you with them the freedom of Italy."

But we—we offer nothing but the full stomach, the lax muscles, the stifled heart. We have nothing to offer the mind and the spirit that once led men to achievement; nothing to support the belief that any sacrifice is worthwhile that leaves us free, standing on our own feet, thinking our own thoughts and obligated to no one but ourselves.

We talk of the "good life." But what we mean is the ample life—more free benefits, more free time, more free protection. And for what? That there may be better men and women, better education, better hearts, better homes? Nothing of the kind. Just material things. Not a word about wounds and suffering and the achievement of freedom. Only the slow attrition of hunger satisfied without effort, of security achieved without sacrifice, of production at the sweat of no man's brow. That was not the way this or any country was born. That is not the way any free country survives. — from editorial Meaford (Ont.) Express.

Iran Oil — A U.N. Issue ...

Transfer of the Iranian oil dispute to the United Nations Security Council illustrates anew the usefulness of the UN forum as an alternative to the use of force.

Whether or not its arbitrament proves effective and satisfactory, the appeal of Great Britain and the determination of Premier Mossadeq to lead his own case in New York proves the value which nations large and small attach of the good opinion of their peers.

In a former era the coup executed by Iran in occupying the refinery at Abadan might either have virtually closed the matter or precipitated an invasion which would end in general war. In the world of 1951, however, this does not exhaust the remedies of international law and diplomacy. One may hope the discussions will result in acceptance by Iran of World Court jurisdiction in the issue.

What has happened relieves Britain of possible blame for giving the Russians a pretext to move into northern Iran, though it by no means eases the threat that Soviet pressure might topple the Teheran government or in other ways gain control of Iranian oil.

Even seizure of the refinery leaves Iranian officials with the staggering unsolved problem of how to get their oil out of the earth, refine it into gasoline, and distribute that to former Anglo-Iranian Oil Company overseas markets, which already are being largely supplied from Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, and elsewhere.

It also leaves to Iran the sobering task of satisfying international opinion that it has regard for sanctity of contracts and its own credit rating in view of its unilateral dispossession of the Anglo-Iranian company. The proposal to set aside 25 per cent of the income of the nationalized company after expenses would not assure that there would be any net earnings from which to make such deposits or that they would approach satisfying legitimate claims of the British for their investment.

Both sides have taken deeply entrenched positions, yet it is not impossible that wisdom, patience, and events will bring them closer together. Dr. Mossadeq took an encouraging stand when he addressed an apparently spontaneous gathering of Iranians outside the Parliament building who shouted for bloodshed against the British.—Selected.

Timetable For Terror ...

Among the scraps of news reported by refugees and other travelers coming out of China is one item with an ironically familiar ring. The trains run on time.

Does anyone today remember the rise of Mussolini in Italy? In those far-off days certain British and American travelers, conveniently overlooking the gangster methods and moral bankruptcy of fascism, brought back glowing reports of the "order" that the Italian dictator was bringing to his disorganized country. The trains, they announced triumphantly, now ran on time.

The world has learned since then that certain sorts of efficiency can be bought too dearly. The trains in pre-war Japan ran on time, too—since an engineer might be expected to commit hara-kiri if he brought one in late. The ruthless bloodletting in China today, the terrorism of the police state, the systematic poisoning of men's minds—is not this too terrible a price to pay for a more efficient transportation record?

The American industrial system has put a high value on efficiency, but it has long since learned that the men and women who keep it running are human beings and not mere parts of a machine. Humanity is a higher value than efficiency, and in the long run efficiency without humanity proves itself a shame and a delusion. A nation may keep its trains running on time and yet miss the boat when the hour of crisis arrives. — Christian Science Monitor.
