City Calls for Bids on New Sewer Construction; Authorizes Tax Suits

City Commissioners Monday night ordered "Yield Right of Way" signs placed on Lynn street, at the intersection of Lynn and Panhandle and the intersection of Lynn and Texas Avenue.

Nine additional delinquent tax accounts were turned over to the City Attorney for collection. That brought to a total of 29 the number of delinquent accounts which have been reviewed and passed on by the commission before being turned over to the attorney for collection. Notices are being sent those persons involved, and if no response is made, suit will be filed to collect the taxes.

Seven additional firemen were authorized by the commission to be added to the present strength of the Slaton Volunteer Fire Department. The addition came as a result of the last inspection by the State Fire Insurance Commission. An increase in population was cited as causing the need for additional firemen.

On the first reading, an ordinance allowing a 25c increase in the minimum gas rates charged Slaton customers by Pioneer Natural Gas Company was approved.

Bids for construction of sanitary sewer lines are being advertised for, with the bids to be returned no later than 4 p.m. November 7. Bids will be opened and possible contracts awarded at that time.

Dog Being Sought After Youth Bitten Wednesday in Post Office

Aid in locating a small black dog was being requested today, in order to check the dog for possible rabies. The dog bit David Cross on the hand Wednesday afternoon about 5:30 while in the Post Office.

Young Cross was attempting to pet the dog, thought to be either a Mexican Chihuahua or a toy terrier, when it bit him. The dog was described as black and having brown spots.

Witnesses said they thought the dog belonged to a Latin American man who parked his car in the island across from the Post Office. They said they thought he was in a green car, but that information was not positive.

Mrs. Marinell deVries, mother of the Cross boy, asked that the owner of the dog contact her at VA 6-3386, or get in touch with either The Slatonite or the Slaton Police Department.

Examination of the dog will determine whether or not the youth will have to undergo a series of rabies shots. If the dog is not found, the youth will have to take the shots as a precautionary measure.

IN DEFENSE OF HEELS

If any one feminine fashion excites male derision, it is high heels. They strike the average man as being totally impractical, though they may add to the decorative effect.

Could he be wrong? Dr. Owen McDonagh, a British physician, has defended the custom in the British Medical Journal. High-heeled shoes, he says, put a girl's weight on her heels, make her watch her balance, add to the joy of walking, improve her breathing, and make it impossible to slouch. Psychologically, says the doctor, they give a feeling of slimmness and of superiority over the lower-heeled of their sex.

This defense, however, is not strictly necessary. Whatever men may say, apparently women will continue to wear high heels when they choose.

INFORMED CITIZENRY

When a moral issue involving freedom reaches the practical plane of action it is, in a democratic society, inevitably bound up in politics. This is one factor which helps to explain why the American race question in general, and the school desegregation issue in particular, is so involved in national politics.

Politicians are not the professionals they are because they want to lose; they want to win, to be elected and re-elected. And they want their parties to prevail over the opposition. Especially in America, because of the size of the country, our wealth, the high stakes of success and the many regional feelings, compromises are inevitable. Only in acute crises can the need for compromises be shoved aside.

Organizations, separate from the political parties, are necessary to agitate and work to win on issues involving change. But today, the moral issue involved in equality and an end to discrimination is inescapably involved in national politics and may even become the decisive issue in the elections of 1958 and 1960.

These features of politics point to the necessity of an informed and truly influential citizenry. An informed citizenry can, in the last analysis, determine whether compromises are necessary and more or less desirable, or not acceptable.

Drive for Expansion of Tech's Jones Stadium Has $1,700,000 Goal

The Texas Tech Stadium Expansion Committee has started a program to raise $1,700,000 for expansion and new construction at Jones Stadium prior to the 1960 full Southwest Conference participation of Red Raiders, Marshall Pennington, committee chairman, said last week.

Offices to headquarter the drive have been opened in suite 233 of the Insurance Building, 2109 Avenue Q, and has been occupied by a staff to administer the program by which funds for the program are to be raised, he said.

The committee chairman explained that expansion of the stadium was needed to accommodate expected heavy attendance at games when the Red Raiders host Southwest Conference games here in the future. State money is not available for the needed expansion, he said. The Clifford B. and Audrey Jones Stadium was opened in 1947 and seats 28,000.

Funds for the expansion will come from large donors and from the exercising of seat options on the better seats, Pennington revealed. He noted, however, that the contracts of current seat option holders would be honored in the fund-raising program.

Pennington said that opportunity to claim options for stadium seats would not be offered until final plans for the construction and the campaign organizations were completed, probably in early November.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Davis, and Randy spent from Thursday until Tuesday at Granite Shoals Lake fishing. They brought home 91 fish.

TELEPHONE TALK

by J. C. Oakley, Manager

Dorothy Jones, our service representative here in Slaton, has completed 10 years of service with our company. She went to work October 20, 1947, as an operator and later moved into the office where she has been ever since.

Dorothy has lived in Slaton most of her life and is just about everyone there. She certainly enjoys work and is happy to discuss any questions you might have on your telephone service.

Billie Nell Farmer is the new addition to our office here. She has just completed a 3 week telephone school at Big Spring and this is her first week on the job.

Although she is new in the telephone field, all reports have received on her indicate she is going to make us a very fine representative.

Please feel free to call the Business Office VA 8-4591 any time you have a question on your telephone service.

FOOTBALL FUN

Another football season is underway. If there are any around your house, it's likely that the radio and television sets will be working overtime for the next few months bringing the games into your home. It's the best thing to having a 50-yard line seat.

Maybe you've never realized it but the telephone company plays an important part in bringing you these football broadcasts, as well as other radio and television programs you enjoy. We handle the transmission of programs from distant places for your enjoyment.

Telephone engineers have worked constantly through the years to improve these facilities. Today we use both cable and microwave to transmit these broadcasts.

And, of course, improved transmission means more pleasure from the programs for you.

This is another example of how the telephone company always seeks to bring you improved communications—in radio, television, on a local telephone call across town or a Long Distance call across the nation.

Getting back to football, have you attended any of the Slaton Tigers games this season? If not, why don't you plan to be at the next one. Better still, go to all the Tigers games this year. You'll enjoy them and the team will appreciate your support.

SAVE 1/3 ON OUT-OF-TOWN CALLS

Whether you're making a business call or just keeping in touch with members of the family in other cities, it's smart to place your Long Distance calls Station-to-Station. You save money because Station-to-Station rates are about one-third lower than Person-to-Person rates. This means you can make three calls for the price of two.

And here's another Long Distance tip to remember: Call by number—it's twice as fast.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Distributive Education Notes

This is the third in an indefinite number of articles you are going to find in your Slatonite. If you will allow me to be a bit personal, I would like to say that our family is enjoying being back home more than you will ever know. After being away for four years, we find that some of the stories that we heard are not so. For instance, we heard that the people had changed, were losing their sense of personal interest in friends, neighbors etc., but we find that it just isn't so.

We find that the same spirit of congeniality, hospitality, and friendliness is just as evident as it ever was. We have hungered for the homeland for quite a while. Maybe it's just a thing of child-likeness, but if that is what you call it, well and good. We are just plain happy to be back home.

We have just had a visit from our area supervisor, Mr. Will Inkman of Big Spring. He seemed to be well pleased with the way we are getting started with this year of distributive education. Two weeks ago he asked us to try to bring our enrollment up to a certain number and have jobs for them. So that has been our emphasis for the past two weeks. With the help of students, businessmen and others concerned, we were able to tell Mr. Inkman that we had reached the desired goal so far as the minimum number enrolled in concerned, but we are just getting started. We want to keep all students, parents and business concerns reminded that we are not going to become static in the field of distributive education. We are planning now to have at least 24 enrolled for the second semester this year.

Maybe I should remind some of you who read this column that Distributive Education isn't a "crip" course where people can fumble and piddle around, but it is a field where many a young man and woman has found themselves, and credit this program of their work. Recently I was stopped in the corridor of a certain institution by an alert and interesting young man, who has heard I was working with the D.E. Program. He said, "Mr. Smoot, the job I now have was discovered for me through distributive education." I asked him how long he had been on his present job, and he said about two years.

He is very happy and says that some day he hopes to own a business of his own. This is just one example of what distributive education has done and can do for our own community. It was a distinct pleasure to be the guest of M. G. Davis, president of the Rotary Club, last week. Since it was the closing game of the world series there was not time, desire, or even the slightest hint that they should have a program. So Mr. Davis introduced me to the group, and it was a "first" on my agenda to say "thanks" to the businessmen of Slaton for their cooperation in this most worthy program.

We want to keep you reminded that this is going to be a plan of work that will keep growing and affording people the opportunity to find themselves, just as the young man referred to above found himself. So give us a ring if you have a spot, place, or position where you can employ one of these students.

Baylor Termed 'Big Stumbling Block' in Tech Path Saturday

Baylor University is the next big stumbling block in Texas Tech's path to a football victory this season, since the Red Raiders are hosts to the Bears in Lubbock Saturday night. Both teams have played better football than their records, 2-2 for Baylor, and 0-4 for Tech, indicate. Both have been dealt heavy blows by the flu, and possibly, illness may have cost each a pair of victories in their past two games.

Senator Preston Smith

Some said we shouldn't... others said we should... and some said Texas couldn't afford a special session... but here we are. There has been some unhappiness on the part of many lawmakers since we got here, too, because a special session was called. Among the more outspoken legislators were those opposed to the special session. House Speaker Waggoner Carr of Lubbock went on record early again calling a special session because of the cost involved. Personally, I feel that this special session is very important and very necessary.

Texas has gone to have a stricter lobby control bill, one of the reasons the Governor gives for calling the special session. Unless some stricter lobby controls are revised, Texas, and all its people, could lose a hundred times more money than this special session will cost. In his opening speech to the Legislature Monday, the Governor also called for action on the water program left unfinished at the last session. He also called for the establishment of a commission to study ways to improve law enforcement.

The big difference in this special session and the regular sessions is that during a special session, the Legislature considers only what the Governor gives them to work on. It's not that way during the regular session, so, the Governor, by calling a special session has placed our work before the Legislature, which cannot be held here more than 30 days.

During the 14 years preceding World War I more than 11 million immigrants were admitted to the U.S.

Indications are that the Southwest's most widely-acclaimed passer and hard-luck performer, Baylor's Doyle Traylor, will be in top form for the game Saturday night. Disabled most of two previous seasons, Traylor had to sit out much of last week's 20-17 upset at the hands of Arkansas.

Tech, too, should be almost completely back in shape after some severe bouts with the flu. In addition, its only letterman quarterback, John Riddle of Artesia, N. M., should be available for full duty. Riddle, who broke a hand in September, was used sparingly in the fourth quarter of Tech's 26-14 loss to Texas Western last week and looked like he could shoulder more of the burden this week.

Tech's ranks will still be thinned by the loss of guard Billy Woodin of Roaring Springs, who broke a thumb last week.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed proposals addressed to The Honorable Mayor and City Commission of the City of Slaton, Texas, will be received at the office of J. J. Maxey, City Secretary, until 4:00 P.M., November 7, 1957, for furnishing all necessary materials, machinery, equipment, superintendence and labor for constructing certain Sanitary Sewer Improvements for the City of Slaton, Texas, consisting of the following principal items of work and the necessary incidentals and appurtenances: construction of one Lift Station complete; furnishing and installing approximately 14,170 feet of 15", 7,530 feet of 12" and 13,382 feet of 6" Vitrified Clay Sewer Mains (depths of cut varying from 4 feet to 18 feet) including the necessary Manholes, Cleanouts, and Branch Connections; and furnishing and installing approximately 440 feet of 10" Cast Iron Force Main.

Bidders must submit a Cashier's or Certified Check issued by a bank satisfactory to the Owner, or a Proposal Bond from a reliable Surety Company, payable without recourse to the order of The City of Slaton, Texas, in an amount not less than five per cent (5%) of the largest possible bid submitted as a guaranty that the Bidder will enter into a contract and execute bond and guaranty in the forms provided within ten (10) days after notice of award of contract to him. Bids without the required check or Proposal Bond will not be considered.

The Successful Bidder must furnish bond on the attached form in the amount of 100% of the total contract price from a Surety Company holding a permit from the State of Texas to act as surety, or other Surety or Sureties acceptable to the Owner.

All lump sum and unit prices must be stated in both script and figures. The Owner reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive formalities. In case of ambiguity or lack of clearness in stating the prices in the bids, the Owner reserves the right to consider the most advantageous construction thereof, or to reject the bid. Unreasonable (or "Unbalanced") unit prices will authorize the Owner to reject the bid.

Bidders are expected to inspect the site of the work and to inform themselves regarding all local conditions under which the work is to be done. Attention is called to the provisions of the Acts of the 43rd Legislature of the State of Texas, Page 91, Chapter 45 (Article No. 5159A Civil Statutes 1925) concerning the wage scale and payment of prevailing wage established by the Owner. Said scale of prevailing minimum rates of wages is set forth in the specifications.

Information for bidders, proposal forms, specifications and plans are on file at the office of J. J. Maxey, City Secretary, Slaton, Texas, and Parkhill, Smith & Cooper, Consulting Engineers, 201 Avenue R, Lubbock, Texas.

Copies of the Plans and Specifications may be secured from Parkhill, Smith & Cooper, Consulting Engineers, 201 Avenue R, Lubbock, Texas, upon a deposit of $30.00 as a guarantee of the safe return of the plans and specifications. The full amount of the deposit will be returned to the Contractor on submission of a bona fide bid on the work, with such Plans and Specifications, or upon returning the plans and specifications immediately after examination of same, and advising the Engineer that bid will not be submitted; otherwise, the deposit shall be forfeited.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITOL

There's talk of not just one, but two sessions of the Legislature. Texas House members, however, are pushing for a session in the spring. They are asking Price Daniel for a bill to put through some laws to prevent trouble that develops in Little Rock, say the East. Specifically, they propose a law to allow local schools to close in case of occupation by troops. A measure directing the General to assist local systems involved in federal integration. "It may be we take some further action," he said. "I thought Texas were wise in suggesting the segregation bill added to the agenda which opened Monday was called to work on registration, regulation of before state agencies, conservation and crime. Most observers think out all the details on will take a full 30 days."

to serve on state boards are: W. W. Heath, Austin attorney, rancher and banker... to the State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools.

Dr. B. B. Brown of Dallas (reappointed) and Dan McKnight of Rocksprings to the State Board of Pharmacy.
Dr. Elmer C. Baum of Austin, Cyrus Hill Lambert, a pharmacist of El Paso, and Dr. William Hibbitts of Texarkana, to the State Board of Health.

Dale Broussard of Beaumont and Norman Bratcher of Denison to the State Board of Morticians.

SHORT SHORTS — People in Brazos County, home of Texas A&M, are unhappy. Their county was assigned auto license plates with the prefix letters TU. That, to Aggies, sounds too much like the initials of their arch-rival, the University of Texas. What they don't know is that tags with AM letters now are appearing on Austin cars.

Texans leaving the Armed Forces in September was more than double the number entering service, reports State Selective Service Headquarters. Despite an attorney general's ruling that the House speaker legally entitled to Capitol living quarters, former State Sen. Joe Hill is still trying to get them thrown out. Hill has carried his fight to the Court of Civil Appeals where he contended the practice was unconstitutional and "ridiculous," besides.

ROD AND GUN STATISTICS—Texans spent twice as much money to hunt and fish as they do for admission to all football, baseball and basketball games, plus all other spectator sports, plus all the movies and other theatrical attractions combined.

So said L. A. Wilke of the Texas Game and Fish Commission at a Rotary Club luncheon in Austin.

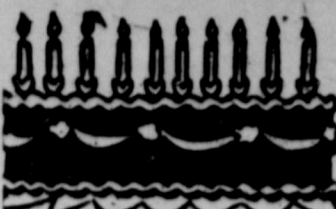

Here are some other facts with which Wilke surprised the Austin Rotarians: Anglers and hunters outnumber golfers 9 to 1. They also spend more on hunting and fishing than all Texans spend on medical and dental care and hospitalization insurance.

FLU CASES PILE UP—"That foreign flu" is getting familiar to Texans. Reported cases doubled in a week, according to the State Health Department, bringing the total of flu-like illnesses to 62,319.

A number of schools had to close after absence skyrocketed. Many others canceled football games, band concerts and other special events.

COTTON FORECAST UP — Texas' 1957 cotton crop will be 83 per cent of normal, says the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture. October estimate is for 4,100,000 bales—a half million bales more than was expected in September.

USDA also reported that mild fall weather was helping farmers in many areas. Scattered showers brought up winter wheat on the plains and encouraged volunteer oats and other pasturage for cattle over wide areas. Weather also was favorable for harvesting peanuts, rice and sweet potatoes.

THE WONDROUS YEARS OF OUR TIME...

Man's use of petroleum — of oil and natural gas — began before the first records of history. But petroleum's full usefulness to man has been a matter of decades only. They have been wondrous years, those decades. Years that saw automobiles built by the millions because gasoline was available as a cheap source of power. Years that saw the oceans dwindle under the high speed of great ships powered by oil. Years that saw the evolution of a more comfortable living in homes warmed by oil and natural gas. Years that saw rubber, fibers, paints and many other useful items of everyday living produced from petroleum's hydrocarbons. Years that saw the earth shrink under the wings of the airplane, and great wars decided by the availability of oil. Thus, the oil industry has led the way into the wondrous years of our time. The industry, through foresight, ingenuity, research, and risk-taking, has found and produced the oil required in greater quantity each year, has conserved oil for the future, has devised the transportation systems that move oil economically, has built the refineries and plants that convert crude oil and natural gas to the hundreds of useful products needed by a growing United States. The Humble Company, founded in 1917, has participated in petroleum's progress during four great decades, and has pioneered in the development of many current techniques for finding, producing and refining oil. This week, with the industry, Humble invites you to consider the variety and extent of oil's progress... Surely no other industry has contributed more to the making of modern America.

'What School Means To Me' Topic of Evans Pupils Theme-Writing Contest

"What School Means To Me" was the title of compositions submitted by members of the English Department at Evans School recently. Mrs. Ione Walton Greer, English instructor, rated the composition by Shirley Ray Anderson as best submitted by students.

Second rating went to the theme of Edith Fields, while Winston Ramsey placed third. Fourth place went to Sedalia Anderson.

In other work, first place award for the best poster on the use of correct English went to Winston Ramsey and Herbert Clark. Audrey Washington took second place, and Ossie Johnson third place.

The first-place winning theme by Shirley Ray Anderson is as follows:

"What School Means To Me" School means to me more than I can ever express in words. It means free education, knowledge, and the all of learning.

School means to me the up-building of my personality which teaches me good behavior toward others, to treat them as I wish to be treated, and to do unto them as I would have them do unto me.

It also means to me the developing of my physical self, the attitude in which to take, under certain conditions and an understanding that I may know the right and wrong side of a problem.

School means to me respect for myself and others.

Too, school seems to me to be what energy is to the body. It means the ability to work, and the ability of knowing how to work, also the type of work that I may gain respect for myself and my community.

School means to me to have a respectable place in my community, which means the up-building of my citizenship, and a better place in the world, and a brighter life that someone else might want to pattern after.

School means to me that in the future I can live and let live, which means a better place for those that have patterned after me.

THE WEEKLY WITNESS

by BRYAN ROSS

Westview Baptist Church
830 S. 15th St.

REV. BRYAN ROSS

On one occasion Paul wrote to his Christian friend Timothy and challenged him to prepare for more effective Christian service. He put it this way: "Study thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

It is very important that Christians be trained witnesses. The Lord was able to do much through Paul because of his training as well as his Christian spirit. We have a training program in our church which meets from 8:30 until 7:30 p.m. each Sunday evening. We call it "Training Union." The purpose of this phase of our program is to help to train Christians in church membership. We have departments and unions for the whole family based on the ages of the individuals. Our motto is "Training Union is a family affair."

The adult theme for the month of October is "Found Faithful in His Service." We have three adult unions to serve you. If you are not attending other services at this time, you are invited to come and worship with us.

As we consider the matter we realize that we need training as Timothy of old needed it.
