ADVERTISERS

The Baptist Church and its friends feel very grateful toward the big-hearted business men of Slaton who contributed space in this issue of The Slatonite for advertising the Baptist 75 Million Campaign. They are very generous. That sort of business men will make any town a good place to live. They are very worthy of our patronage. I trust that those who are religious and believe in promoting church work will not fail to see the generosity of these good business men and see to it that their merits do not go unrewarded. Gal. 6:10—"As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them of the household of faith." These business men paid full advertising rates for the space they contributed. However, The Slatonite will also contribute twenty-five per cent toward the fund, for which we are very grateful to The Slatonite also. It is a worthy local paper in every way fit to be associated with our worthy business men. We should not fail to remember and reward The Slatonite also.

Thanking every one and all, I am,
Yours very truly,

Caldwell's Residence Burned Early Tuesday

The residence of Andy Caldwell, 4 miles west of Slaton, was destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning, while Mrs. Caldwell was preparing breakfast. It originated in the ceiling of the kitchen, presumably from the cook stove. The building, a 4-room house, was a total loss, and only a small portion of the household goods were saved. It is stated that Mr. Caldwell had no insurance and the loss is a very heavy one.

WHY ARE THE BAPTISTS ASKING FOR 75 MILLION DOLLARS

J. H. McCauley
Pastor Slaton Baptist Church.

The only reason that can be given is that it is now needed to undertake to obey the Savior's command to evangelize, baptize and teach the world. That command was given with the last words Jesus ever uttered on Matt. 28:16-20, Acts 1:6-11, 4:14-20.

Should consider the need first. Secular leaders and missionaries and Bible schools, like everything else on earth, have to finance their own way. The work cannot go on without support. It never has and never will. Jesus personally supported his workers while he was with them and gave directions concerning "scrip and purse sword," meaning literally collections, money and Bibles which were to be used as equipment after his departure. See Luke 22:35-36. It has always since been a necessary part of any religious endeavor. The 75 million is much more than has ever been needed before, but the needs for Christian work at home and abroad are greater, much greater. 75 million is no greater comparatively than the former needs. Christianity faces a problem here, of course. The world reasons it as follows: Since large sums have been spent for missions and the need has grown consequently, spending a still larger sum may again multiply the needs so that the requirement will be billions next time. Certainly, then all we spend makes the world worse. There is only one answer to give to the World's argument. That answer is a confession that we have not been doing enough for God and His Christ. The small work of the past years has been only a sample. The nations have tasted it only and now they are begging for more. They really want the Bread of Life. As a matter of fact, the World's war and its present needs indicates that the Christian work of construction in the last few centuries has been too temporary and superficial to stand the test. The fault is in the manner of construction rather than in Christianity itself. Another illustration can be found in the failure of a physician's prescription to cure a patient when the remedy was not at fault, but the amount of it was not enough to halt the disease. Heretofore, we have believed hundreds and thousands would do the work thoroughly enough. Now we see it will require millions, many millions. The whole world is much worse than we supposed it to be.

The next word we should consider is the word NOW. Why do we need 75 millions now? Never since Jesus himself commanded it has it been possible to do what He commanded with reference to a whole world. At times along the course of the centuries of history there have been a few nations apparently ready for the whole work, but at no time under the Christian dispensation has it been possible before to preach the gospel to all the whole world. It can now be done. We have not a nation on earth that does not now tolerate the preaching of Christianity. We have all along been dependent upon Providence to open the way for us. As the way has been opened we have come through the centuries from one nation to another, always with some measure of success. If we had thoroughly reconstructed the peoples we have had a chance to evangelize upon Christian principles. Europe would be a Christian continent today. The World war too, would have never been. So much that was temporarily done has fallen down. We know it had done so before the war came. But now it can be reconstructed upon a more permanent theology. The work in America is only partially done. Much of it could easily be broken down to no more than debris of a "form of Godliness, but denying the power." We must strengthen the things that remain. Our task assigned us nineteen centuries ago is now possible of accomplishment. We have an invitation to try Christianity on this old World's needs at home and abroad. Christianity itself is on trail. If it cannot give the world what the world needs now, then the world must look elsewhere for relief and spiritual direction. "If the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be salted?" Everything else has failed. The world looks to us now. What shall we do? If we let this pivotal day go by without swinging our entire powers of wealth and influence forward on our Master's command, then we shall stand condemned as unfit for the responsibility we have assumed and the thinkers of all the earth will think our claims for Christianity are false and hollow. Whatever we are to do must now be undertaken. Considering the immensity of the task 75 million dollars are not enough. Yet it does seem to represent our ability to do. It will cost us our money and much of our other earthly possessions. Will we fail now and disgrace our denomination and blot with shame the sacred pages of Baptist history and humiliate in the eyes of the world the very Christ of God who commands us? Our answer: yes or no, will go forever on record "Victory Week," Nov. 30 to Dec. 8, 1919. The need is NOW.

THIS EDITOR HAS REAL ADVERTISING FORESIGHT

Springfield, Ill.—Clipped from an Illinois newspaper the following article of the accidental shooting of a small boy in that city indicates a depth of advertising foresight in describing the account:

"Billy Dingbats, 10 years, 2 months, 1 day and 17 ticks old (Wilson time), son of old Hiram Dingbats, the well-known and popular junk man, had his hide fatally punctured yesterday while playing in front of Hawkins' large and up-to-date lumber yard, by a 22-caliber revolver just bought of Al McClain, the good-looking and accommodating clerk in Charley Auer's complete hardware store.

"The bullet, entering his left side, made a bad powder burn in a new suit recently purchased at Reinheimer's big sale now in progress (see ad elsewhere in this issue).

"The lad was attempting to open an 11-cent box of Mike Poulos' delicious crackerjack with the barrel of the gun when the sad accident happened. As Billy fell to the ground he almost busted an expensive never squirt fountain pen, sold only by Engle, it being saved only by a triple composition rubber case, furnished each purchaser without extra charge.

"The funeral was held in the commodious undertaking parlors of our well-known and flowing-haired Sipe, and the service was in charge of that eloquent and tear-producing pulpit pounder and sob artist, Rev. I. M. Mournful. It was a very sad affair and many handkerchiefs were in evidence, among which were several of those beautiful lace-edged ones which Sully is now selling at $1.38. The remains were laid to rest in one of Goggin's imperishable concrete vaults in the beautiful planting ground just north of John Hall's alfalfa patch, which, by the way, is one of the finest pieces of alfalfa ever grown on the chin of any human being."

GEORGIA WIDOW MAKES GIFT OF GOLD TO GOD

From a small town in Georgia comes the news of a Baptist widow who had saved up $20 in gold to apply toward her funeral expenses when she passed away and who has become so heartened by the Baptist 75 Million Campaign that she now wants to live a good while longer. So trusting in God to spare her life she has contributed that gold—all her savings from several years—to the Campaign.

TYPICAL WINTER COAT

The importance of being modishly dressed makes itself felt more and more, and women who have only a limited allowance for clothing require good style without extravagance in all their garments. This puts the talent and fine taste of designers at a premium, since style becomes the first consideration when clothes are selected.

The new top coats for winter are straight-hanging and voluminous, with large collars that roll up about the face. They are ample and easy with large armholes and a variety of belts. They look warm and comfortable like the typical smart coat pictured here.

Assembly of God.

(Pentecostal) meetings, Sundays 10:30 a. m., and 8 p. m.; Wednesdays and Fridays 8 p. m. Everybody welcome. We desire to know of all Pentecostal families in or about Slaton. God says, Matt. 10:7, Mark 16:15-8, Acts 5:32, 2:39. Pastor, C. Brooks Neidholt, route 1, box 34, Slaton, Tex.

Great Majestic Range BARGAIN WEEK

SPECIAL DEMONSTRATION AND BARGAIN SALE OF

Majestic Ranges

AT OUR STORE—ONE WEEK ONLY

Closing Saturday Night, Nov. 22

To Be Truly Economical There Should Be A Majestic In Your Kitchen

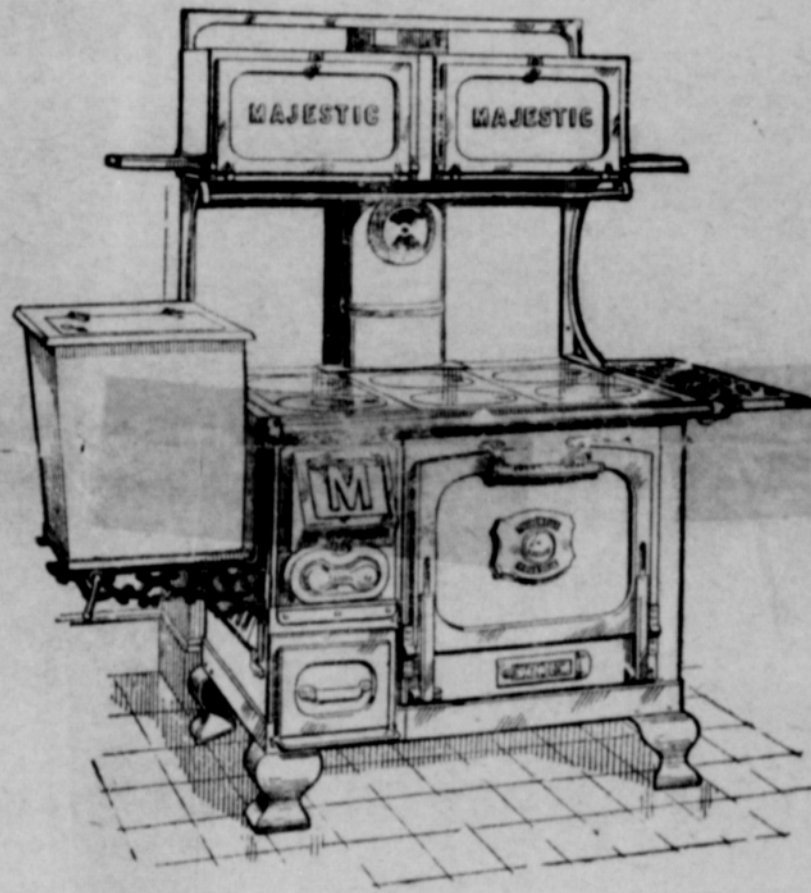

ECONOMY IS NOT MERELY SPENDING THE LEAST MONEY—BUYING A RANGE AT TOO LOW A PRICE IS INDEED FALSE ECONOMY. THE FIRST COST IS NOT THE ONLY COST—THE LITTLE ADDITIONAL FIRST COST OF A MAJESTIC IS NOTHING COMPARED WITH ITS ECONOMY OF FUEL, DURABILITY AND SATISFACTORY SERVICE.

NEARLY A MILLION MAJESTIC RANGES, NOW ECONOMICALLY, SCIENTIFICALLY AND SATISFACTORILY SERVING MILLIONS AND MILLIONS OF PEOPLE, CIVILIANS AND SOLDIERS, IS PROOF POSITIVE OF THEIR SUPERIORITY OVER ALL OTHERS.

THERE IS ONLY ONE BEST. THE PUBLIC HAS JUDGED. THE MAJESTIC IS RECOGNIZED AS THE STANDARD OF ALL RANGES. THE CONSTRUCTION, MATERIAL, WORKMANSHIP AND BEAUTY OF THIS WONDERFUL RANGE IS UNEQUALLED, AND IT EMBODIES IMPORTANT FEATURES POSSESSED BY NO OTHER RANGE.

Your Opportunity Is Here

AT OUR STORE—DURING OUR MAJESTIC BARGAIN WEEK. IT'S YOUR CHANCE TO GET ACQUAINTED WITH REAL FACTS ABOUT RANGES. WE ASSURE YOU IT WILL BE WORTH YOUR WHILE TO INVESTIGATE.

THE BARGAIN

—AND IT'S WELL WORTH YOUR WHILE!

THROUGH SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE MANUFACTURERS, AND DURING THIS BARGAIN WEEK ONLY, A BEAUTIFUL, USEFUL AND SUBSTANTIAL SET OF COOKING WARE WILL BE GIVEN WITH EVERY MAJESTIC RANGE SOLD. THIS WARE IS GOOD WARE (NOT CHEAP WARE)—IT'S WORTH A LOT TO YOU. COME AND SEE FOR YOURSELF.

THE PRICE OF A MAJESTIC RANGE THIS WEEK WILL NOT BE INCREASED, AND THERE WILL HARDLY BE A GREAT REDUCTION FOR YEARS TO COME, IF EVER, BUT THERE MAY BE AN INCREASE SOON.

Two New and Important Features

THE WONDERFUL UNSEEN RIVETING. Yes, it's rivet-tight, just like the old Majestic, but the rivets clinch inside of nicked parts, leaving nickel smooth as glass, and there are no big, bulky bolt-heads on the inside. And, remember, rivets hold tight; bolts with only one or two threads holding are bound to work loose and cause no end of trouble. The Majestic is smooth inside and outside—it's a striking beauty—more than skin deep.

OH, JOY! TOP NEEDS NO BLACKING. A smooth, highly polished cooking top, burnished blue, not only adds to the beauty of the Majestic, but absolutely eliminates the work, dirt and worry of trying to keep the range looking nice—just an occasional thin coat of paraffine retains its beautiful velvet blue color.

IF YOU HAVEN'T A MAJESTIC, AVAIL YOURSELF OF THIS OPPORTUNITY TO GET ACQUAINTED WITH THIS WONDERFUL RANGE—KNOW THE INSIDE OF RANGES.

Rix Furniture and Undertaking Co.

While the above name is new to some of the people living in this section, this firm is composed of a family that has been living in this part of the country for over thirty years. This business was started fifteen years ago in Big Spring, the first building occupied being a small wooden shack 20 by 40. Today it consists of two modern stores located in Big Spring and Lubbock. The Big Spring store covers 13,500 square feet while the Lubbock store occupies the new Jones building of over 6,500 square feet. Their warehouse facilities gives them an additional 15,000 or a total of over 35,000 square feet of floor space.

While the business is incorporated, it is still a family affair—consisting of three brothers, H. L., W. W. and J. A. Rix, the father, B. C., and sister, Ruth Rix. H. L., the oldest of the brothers, started the business. All he had at the beginning was nearly ten years experience as a clerk in a mercantile business and plenty of nerve. His total assets were $1000 in borrowed money. Today the capital and surplus of the company amount to $60,000. As the business grew, other members of the family were taken in. H. L. Rix manages the Big Spring store and J. A. Rix is in charge of the Lubbock business. In every successful business there must be a financier, and that place in this concern is filled by W. W. Rix. His experience was gained in 15 years service with the First National Bank of Big Spring.

While the success of this concern can be attributed to team work, (each member of the firm doing the work for which he was best fitted), a great deal of credit is due to the personality of the founder, Harvey L. Rix. It is an easy matter to find people all over the Plains who, when the name Rix is mentioned, will say "Any kin to Harvey Rix. Sure I know him—bought all my furniture from him fifteen years ago."

The first year's business of this firm, which was formerly conducted under the name of H. L. Rix & Co., amounted to about $15,000, all of the work being done by two people. The business this year will amount to approximately $250,000; there are twenty people employed.

This is the fact that at one time five members of one family were employed by the Rix Company.

One of the principal features of this concern has been their idea of not confining their efforts to a single community. Long before the time of automobile trucks the country surrounding Big Spring was served with a wagon and team. "Dick and Coley," the faithful old black team, have made many a trip fifty and sixty miles delivering a piano, sewing machine or phonograph to some out of the way place. When autos became more popular, this firm was the first in this part of the country to take advantage of this method of serving their customers.

This concern has enjoyed the reputation of always doing its part towards building up the community in which it has done business. One noticeable feature along this line was when it was quite a task for the farmers to get their products to town. Quite a number of them had cream, eggs and chickens to dispose of, but had not the means of bringing these things to a market. In order to relieve this situation, the Rix Company purchased an automobile truck and added a man to their payroll whose business was to make regular trips thru the country gathering up these products. All of this was handled at exact cost to the farmers. To ascertain whether or not this was appreciated, all that is necessary is to ask any of the Howard County farmers of those days.

With an institution doing as large a business as the Rix Company, it is necessary to turn some of the departments over to the employees, and it may be said that the employees of this concern are given every opportunity to show that they are capable of responsibilities, but there is one department that is always given the personal attention of the managers, and that is the undertaking end of the business. H. L. and J. A. Rix are both licensed embalmers, with years of experience, and they both feel that this is one part of the business that deserves their personal supervision. This department in the Lubbock store is said to be one of the most modern and best equipped institutions of this kind in Texas. The fact that they have nearly $10,000 invested in hearses and ambulances goes to show that they believe in sparing no expense to give their customers the best service possible.

Some concerns are contented to take what comes to them in the way of business, never making an improvement of any kind in the way of store facilities or equipment. This is not true of the Rix Company, as it has been their policy since the establishment of their business to never be contented with what they have done in the past, but to be always striving to out-do their past record. During the past year this concern has sold goods in over twenty counties, this outside business being handled with a fleet of six automobile trucks. It may be said that their decision to establish a business in Lubbock is the result of the volume of business reached in the country.

AGED MAN PRAYS ALL NIGHT; GIVES HIS FARM

From a veteran of the Cross, eighty-two years old, Dr. S. B. Rogers, director of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign for Florida, has received the following letter:
"This is the day of prayer for the 75 Million Campaign and the day of prayer for the advancement of Christ's kingdom in the world. It should be the day to contribute in a substantial way to the great cause. I have been praying for it since hte organization, but last night I prayed all night. I could not think how I could give anything to the cause. I am eighty-two years old, poor and afflicted, but about daybreak this morning I remembered I owned 120 acres of land valued at $720, so I asked God why I could not give it. Well, I decided at once to give it. Now, I ask you to whom and how I shall make the deed."

"BACK TO GOD'S COUNTRY."

This is a unique and unusual picture and will be shown at the Lyric Theatre, Lubbock, Nov. 26 and 27, Thanksgiving.
Sixteen varieties of animals appear in their natural roles, the wild folk at peace with the world, and the wild folk battling each other and man for life.
It was written by the greatest living portrayer of animal life, James Oliver Curwood. The scenes were taken in the arctic ice fields, north of 56 degrees. The intense cold reached 60 degrees below zero.
One player lost his life; one man's foot was frozen and the entire company suffered terrible privations to make this picture true to life.
It is a picture you can never forget.

MISSOURI LADS SET PACE IN BAPTIST DRIVE

It remained to six little boys between the ages of four and nine from the congregation of the Baptist church at Oak Ridge, Mo., a village of 300 people, to set the pace in the collection there for the Baptist 75 Million Campaign. Four of them gave $25 each and two gave $50 each. Inspired by the spirit of these boys, 41 members of the church exceeded the quota of $4,500 by subscribing $5,480 at the time, and the pastor has hopes of the quota being doubled.

ALABAMA FARMER GIVES 1000 ACRES OF FERTILE LAND TO BAPTIST DRIVE

While the solicitation of cash and pledges for the Baptist 75 Million Campaign will not be made until Victory Week, Nov. 30 to Dec. 7, there are a number of people in various sections who have become so enthused with the spirit of the campaign that they do not want to wait until then. Such an one is a layman in Alabama who has contributed a thousand acres of fertile land in that state. There is a strong prospect that the land is rich in mineral resources and in that event it will be worth many thousands of dollars as these resources are developed.

E. M. Crosnoe, 880 pounds; S. E. Crosnoe, 770 pounds; E. H. Crosnoe, 720 pounds; and W. S. Crosnoe, 13 years old, and the youngest of the four, 300 pounds.

Gifts for Grandparents

Just what to get for grandparents seems to be the hardest question to decide at Christmas time. They like things that add to their comfort. In the picture above are two suggestions. One is a reading glass, which will prove useful, when ordinary spectacles fail to reveal to the eyes that are growing old. Below is something pretty and useful for grandmamma. It is a bouquet made of paper flowers, and in the heart of each flower is something needful for sewing or darning. The center of one flower is a small spool of black thread; in others are loops of tape, pins, needles, hooks and eyes.

Dainty Bonbon Boxes

There are many lovely bonbon boxes among gifts on display in the shops. Here are two of them—a round one covered with handsome cretonne which is glued to the foundation. The box is lined with a plain silk and the lid is edged with gold lace. It contains a small glass dish for holding the candies.

The square box is covered with silk and has a frill of finely plaited chiffon about it. Over this there is a tiny vine of very narrow ribbon formed into leaves with little roses set between them. Gold lace finishes the sides and top of this box and with the ribbon vine, makes an ornament for the center of the top.

Pretty Candle Shades

Both the pretty candle shades shown here are made of crepe paper cut to simulate flower petals. They are only two of many equally pretty designs. Two strongly contrasting colors are used for the shade at the left as red and white, or green and red. Three shades of rose appear in the pretty affair at the right in which small curly petals that look like sweet peas are glued to a plain foundation of pink paper. A gay paper butterfly is perched at the right side of the shade.

WIDOW WALKS ELEVEN MILES TO GIVE 30 CENTS

News of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign was carried to the rural people of Scraggy Mountain community, near Asheville, N. C., and an aged widow, supporting herself and four little orphan grandchildren by her own labors, walked eleven miles to the little Baptist church in the suburbs of Asheville in order to make a contribution of 30 cents, all the cash that she had. From the standpoint of sacrificial giving, this is the largest gift made to the campaign, Dr. Scarborough believes.

BOOTH TARKINGTON
COPYRIGHT BY DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & COMPANY

"I said it was a 'painful satisfaction,' Fanny," he explained. "The property has gone down in value, and they assessed it lower than they did fifteen years ago."

"But farther out—"
"Oh, yes, 'farther out!' Prices are magnificent 'farther out,' and farther in, too! We just happen to be the wrong spot, that's all. Not that I don't think something could be done if father would let me have a hand; but he won't. He can't, I suppose I ought to say. He's 'always done his own figuring,' he says; and it's his lifelong habit to keep his affairs, and even his books, to himself, and just hand us out the money. Heaven knows he's done enough of that!"

"There seem to be so many ways of making money nowadays," Fanny said thoughtfully. "Every day I hear of a new fortune some person has got hold of, one way or another—nearly always it's somebody you never have heard of. It doesn't seem all to be in just making motor cars; I hear there's a great deal in manufacturing these things that motor cars use—new inventions particularly. I met dear old Frank Bronson the other day, and he told me—"

"The Property Has Gone Down in Value."

"Oh, yes, even dear old Frank's got the fever," Amberson laughed. "He's as wild as any of them. He told me about this invention he's gone into, too. 'Millions in it!' Some new electric headlight better than anything yet—'every car in America can't help but have 'em,' and all that. He's putting half he's laid by into it, and the fact is he almost talked me into getting father to 'finance me' enough for me to go into it. Poor father! he's financed me before! I suppose he would again if I had the heart to ask him. At any rate I've been thinking it over."

"So have I," Fanny admitted. "He seemed to be certain it would pay twenty-five per cent the first year, and enormously more after that; and I'm only getting four on my little principal. People are making such enormous fortunes out of everything to do with motorcars, it does seem as if—" She paused. "Well, I told him I'd think it over seriously."

"We may turn out to be partners and millionaires then," Amberson laughed. "I thought I'd ask Eugene's advice."

"I wish you would," said Fanny. "He probably knows exactly how much profit there would be in this."

Eugene's advice was to "go slow;" he thought electric lights for automobiles were "coming—some day," but probably not until certain difficulties could be overcome. Altogether he was discouraging, but by this time his two friends "had the fever" as thoroughly as old Frank Bronson himself had it; for they had been with Bronson to see the light working beautifully in a machine shop. "Perfect!" Fanny cried. "And if it worked in the shop it's bound to work any place else, isn't it?"

Eugene would not agree it was "bound to"—yet, being pressed, was driven to admit that "it might," and retiring from what was developing into an oratorical contest, repeated a warning about not "putting too much into it."

George Amberson also laid stress on caution later, though the Major had "financed him" again, and he was "going in." "You must be careful to leave yourself a 'margin of safety,' Fanny," he said. "You must be careful to leave yourself enough to fall back on, in case anything should go wrong."

Fanny deceived him. In the impossible event of "anything going wrong" she would have enough left to "live on," she declared, and laughed excitedly, for she was having the best time that had come to her since Wilbur's death. Like so many women for whom money has always been provided without their understanding how, she was prepared to be a thorough and irresponsible plunger.

Amberson, in his wearier way, shared her excitement, and in the winter, when the exploiting company had been formed, and he brought Fanny her importantly engraved shares of stock, he reverted to his prediction of possibilities, made when they first spoke of the new light.

"We seem to be partners, all right," he laughed. "Now let's go ahead and be millionaires before Isabel and young George come home."

"When they come home!" she echoed sorrowfully—and it was a phrase which found an evasive echo in Isabel's letters. In these letters Isabel was always planning pleasant things that she and Fanny and the Major and George and "brother George" would do—when she and her son came home. "They'll find things pretty changed, I'm afraid," Fanny said. "If they ever do 'come home!'"

Amberson went over the next summer and joined his sister and nephew in Paris, where they were living. "Isabel does want to come home," he told Fanny gravely on the day of his return in October. "She's wanted to for a long while—and she ought to come while she can stand the journey—" And he amplified this statement, leav-

Brewer-Greer.
 The Decatur News gave the following account of the marriage of Irvin M. Brewer of this city to Miss DeAlva Greer of Decatur:
 The First Methodist Church of Decatur was filled with relatives and friends who gathered last Saturday afternoon at 3:00 to witness the marriage of Miss DeAlva Greer and Mr. Irvin M. Brewer. It was one of the prettiest weddings of the season. The chancel rail and altar of the church were tastefully decorated with cut flowers, ferns and palms, making an attractive appearance.
 Just before the arrival of the bridal party, Mrs. Newton Baker, attired in an after-dinner gown of taupe dove-tine with accessories to match, sang "I Love You Truly," and accompanied by Mrs. Terrell Lillard who wore a beautiful gown of gray velvet, Miss Bess Coleman, wearing blue brocade velvet and black satin with large picture hat, presided at the piano.
 After entering from the pastor's study, with Misses Naomi Scott and Ruth Bennett of Fort Worth and Miss Jessie Brewer of Arlington, bridesmaids, wearing satin and velvet and with corsage of pink roses, enter the groomsmen, Messrs. Philip Bates, Harry H. Gose, and Paul Harding. They were followed by the little flower girls, Katherine Lewis, Frances Ratliff and Dorothy Louise Greer, sister of the bride, dressed in pink and blue satin frocks. The ring bearer, Mary Louise Alston, carried the rings in a large pink rose. The bride, attired in a tailored suit of brown dove-tine with squirrel trimmings, entered with her maid of honor, Miss Nell Blankenship of Muntalm, and wearing a gown of gray velvet with corsage of pink roses. They were met at the altar by the groom with his best man, Mr. Lillas W. Lockhart, a musician of Fort Worth. Dr. Alonzo Monk, Jr., pastor of the First Methodist Church of Arlington, read the double ring ceremony. The ushers were Miss Marie Wolcott and Miss Mildred Kerr, both of Decatur.
 After the ceremony the bridal party left the church by the south side, leaving on the afternoon Fort Worth and Denver train for a short honeymoon.
 Mr. and Mrs. Brewer will make their home in Slaton where Mr. Brewer holds the position of assistant cashier of the First State Bank of that city. His bride is one of Decatur's most popular young ladies and holds the love of many friends who join the News in extending good wishes for a happy and useful wedded life.

Missionary Society.
 The devotional meeting was held at the church Monday with Mrs. J. S. Edwards leading in a very impressive way. Several members were present to enjoy the program.
 Monday, Nov. 27, will be our first meeting in our new Mission Study Book, "Christian Americanization," A Task for the Churches.
 Foreword: The theme of this book is one which is giving great concern to our government and to all those agencies and people who realize the necessity of quickened effort toward unity. It is an important theme at this time, when America occupies so conspicuous a place in world influence and power, while within her borders press social problems of the largest magnitude. The church must assume a dominant place in this effort and address itself definitely with profound earnestness and purpose to this stupendous task.
 Program for Mission Study:
 Devotional exercises.
 Leader, Mrs. A. E. Whitehead.
 Topic, The Present Issue.
 Practical Democracy, Mrs. R. A. DeLong.
 A Test of Sincerity, Mrs. J. M. McCann.
 Confusing the Issue, Mrs. S. H. Adams.
 Americanization, a Prowess, Mrs. T. A. Worley.
 National Unity, Mrs. M. A. Pember.
 Some Fundamental Principles to be Kept in Mind, Mrs. Scott.
 Our Rights to Our Ideals, Mrs. McReynolds.
 The Foundation of Democracy, Mrs. L. C. Odum.
 United We Stand, Mrs. J. D. Butler.
Shower Given Miss Greer Sets Record in Attendance.
 The Decatur Messenger gave the following account of a shower given Miss DeAlva Greer, who recently became the bride of Irvin M. Brewer of this city:
 Misses Bell Coleman and Cora Boyd entertained 165 guests last Tuesday night with a miscellaneous shower for Miss DeAlva Greer, who is to become the bride of Mr. Irvin M. Brewer on Saturday afternoon. A delightful musical program was given during which Mesdames Heathington and Ratdorff sang a duet, and Mrs. Collins sang a solo. Mrs. J. H. Cates presided as toastmistress, and the following toasts were given: "To the groom," Mrs. John G. Gose; "To the bride," Mrs. Roy Heathington; "To the girls left behind," Miss Bell Ford. The bride-to-be received many beautiful and useful gifts, which were brought in by two cupids in the persons of little Misses Sister Ann Lewis and Louise Greer, and the presentation was made by little Miss Sarah Mable Elder. A salad course, bread and butter sandwiches and hot coffee were served. It was the largest attended function of its kind ever given in Decatur, beautifully attesting the love and esteem in which the honoree is held by Decatur people. The occasion was a most enjoyable one to all present.
High School Notes.
 Friday the senior class telegraphed to Ohio for a number of copies of "Miss Topsy Turvy" or "The Courtship of the Deacon," a play which we expect to present before the Christmas holidays are here.
 Wednesday morning at 7:15 the faculty enjoyed a very delicious breakfast, prepared and served by the second year Domestic Economy class. From the talk we have heard we gather that the faculty would not mind attending these breakfasts real often.
 By the way, a concrete walk from the public square to the school grounds would actually be a good thing in case it should take a notion to rain again this winter.
 Wednesday evening, Nov. 26, a box supper is to be held in the school auditorium. Every one is invited. Girls, bring your box, and boys, bring your coin. The proceeds of this affair will be used by the senior class in the publication of the 1920 annual.
 Well, it's getting cloudy again. Looks as though we'll have some rain. Then we can use the new sidewalk that we hope is going to be laid before the bad weather arrives.
 To show their patriotism, the senior class and most of the other classes, went to the country Saturday and picked cotton. About 50 bales, more or less, were picked. At this rate we hope the bumper crop will soon be gathered.
Looney-Eoff.
 Marcus L. Looney and Miss Frances Pearl Eoff, both of Amarillo, were married here Saturday evening at 7 o'clock by Rev. J. H. McCauley, at the Baptist parsonage. They will reside in Slaton. The groom is an employe of the Santa Fe.
Massey-Bradley.
 Misses Marie and Aileen McDonald, Sallie Mathis and Florence Dodgen, and W. B. Finger went to Floydada Sunday and attended the marriage of Miss Katie Bradley of that city to Charles Massey of Abilene. Miss Bradley is a niece of J. W. McDonald of this city.
Junior Missionary Society.
 The program for last Sunday will be rendered next Sunday afternoon as there was no meeting last Sunday.
 MRS. R. E. McREYNOLDS, Superintendent.

McDonald-Smith Nuptials.
 J. H. McDonald and Miss Flora Smith were united in marriage at 7:30 Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's brother, L. W. Smith, in South Slaton. Rev. T. C. Willett officiated, using the ring ceremony, which was very impressive.
 The bride was attended by Miss Corinne Witt and the groom by his brother, Homer McDonald, who preceded the bride to the parlor while Mendelssohn's Wedding March was beautifully rendered by Miss Ramsey.
 The home was beautifully decorated with carnations, white and pink roses. The maid of honor wore a bouquet of pink carnations, while the bride wore white carnations.
 The groom in this happy event is a valued employe of the Santa Fe here and during his residence in Slaton has made many warm friends. The bride is a daughter of Col. L. W. H. Smith, one of the most honored citizens of Slaton. She is a young lady of many accomplishments and by her charming disposition has surrounded herself by a large circle of warm friends.
 The marriage was solemnized in the presence of only the immediate relatives and a few friends, after which the party indulged in "42" until a late hour when refreshments consisting of fruit gelatin with whipped cream, bride's cake, and cocoa were served.
 The newly-weds were the recipients of a large number of beautiful and useful gifts.
 They left on the 6 o'clock train Thursday morning for Kansas City, where they will spend ten days, after which they will return to Slaton to make their home.
 The Slatonite joins a host of friends in extending congratulations and best wishes.

Rogers-Teal.
 Lois F. Rodgers and Miss Geraldine Teal were united in marriage at Lubbock Saturday, Rev. Brooks, who was attending the Methodist Conference in that city officiating. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. — — Rodgers of the Union community. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Teal of the same community. Both are members of highly respected families and are very deserving young people. The Slatonite joins a host of friends in wishing for them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Birthday Party.
 On November 14th an entertainment was given at the home of Mrs. C. Jacobson, honoring the fifteenth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Miss Lois. Quite a number of girls were present and enjoyed games and music, rendered on the violin by Mr. Vaughn. About 8:30 the party repaired to the dining room which was beautifully decorated with white and red chrysanthemums and green ferns. A beautiful birthday cake in the center of the table was lit up with fifteen colored candles. Cake, grape juice and hot chocolate were served the guests. Miss Lois was the recipient of many nice gifts.

Home-Made Ornaments for the Christmas Tree

By A. NEELY HALL

(Copyright, by A. Neely Hall.)

Suppose that you prepare some homemade Christmas-tree ornaments like those in the illustrations, to go with the ornaments which you have, for this year's tree. They will help to cover the tree, and, not only that, they will make your tree more interesting because they will be different from anything you can buy.

The pretty spear top ornament in Fig. 1 is made of a sheet of letter-paper rolled into a cornucopia, with a thread spool glued in the open end (Figs. 2 and 3), and a small silk-spool slipped over the small end (Figs. 3 and 4); then all is covered with tinfoil, and a tassel made of pieces of red, white and blue paper, slashed into fringe (Fig. 5), is fastened in the apex. Tinfoil can be obtained from a florist.

Unless you can have electric lights, it is better not to light the tree at all, than to run the risk of its catching fire. But unlit candles make pretty ornaments, so I have shown a homemade holder in Fig. 6. This is made by wrapping a clothespin with tinfoil, the upper edge of the tinfoil forming a cup for the candle. The end of the candle is made to fit the cup, and the clothespin sets down over the tip of a branch, as shown in Fig. 6, and the weight made of a marble or piece of clay, wrapped in tinfoil (Fig. 9), is suspended by thread from one leg of the clothespin (Fig. 6), to balance the holder.

Little Santa Claus dolls like that shown in Fig. 10, to straddle the tree branches, are pretty and easily made. The bodies are clothespins, with trouser legs of red paper (A, Fig. 11) slipped over the ends (Fig. 12), a red paper coat (B and C, Fig. 11), glued close to the head of the pin (Fig. 13), cotton whiskers (D, Fig. 11), a red paper peaked hat (E), and eyes marked with ink upon the clothespin head.

The airship in Fig. 14 has a balloon with ends made of the halves of an egg-shell (A, Figs. 15 and 16). The ends are connected by a cylindrical piece (B) rolled of cardboard, to which they are glued; and a strip of cardboard (C) is glued along each side. The car is a small box, and the propeller (D) is pivoted to its end with a pin. Threads suspend the car from the balloon, and others suspend the balloon from the Christmas tree. Paint the balloon red and the car yellow.

Probably you have prepared colored popcorn strings, but I wonder if you have made strings of cranberries and glass beads? Fig. 17 suggests a way to alternate the beads and cranberries so they will present the form of glass ball strings. To make the cranberries sparkle like glass balls, coat some with glue and sprinkle with the powdered mica sold for imitation snow, and gild others with gold bronze—the kind sold for decorating radiators or wrap in tinfoil.

Games for Children at Christmas Time

By A. NEELY HALL

(Copyright, by A. Neely Hall.)

It may be for a Christmas party, or for the family gathering, that you will need ideas; for either, the following games will furnish fun for young and old alike.

The Game of Tip.

This old English game requires the use of enough assorted Christmas candies, nuts, raisins, and other dainties, to make a small pile upon a table; also a pair of sugar tongs. One of the party is chosen, who must retire to another room while the remaining players decide upon one of the dainties in the pile to be known as "Tip." The chosen person is then recalled, and with the tongs removes pieces from the pile, trying to avoid the piece named Tip, of which, however, he does not know the location. All pieces removed belong to him, unless he removes Tip, when all must be returned to the pile, and the turn passes to the next player, who retires to the other room while another Tip is named. A player may pass his turn when, after drawing several pieces, he wants to avoid the possibility of losing them through drawing Tip. The game continues until the pile disappears.

A Fill-in Game.

For a laughter producer this game has no peer. A poem is selected and copied upon paper, with each noun omitted and a line drawn in its place. Then the nouns are copied upon small cards, one upon each. The cards are dealt, an equal number to each player, and a player is chosen as reader. The reader reads the poem, pausing at each space, and the players fill in, in turn, a noun from the cards in their pile. The nouns will seldom come in their original places, and the result will be a ridiculous mix-up.

Sliced Toy Puzzles.

From advertisements cut pictures of toys, and paste these upon pieces of cardboard; then with a sharp knife slice the cardboard into irregular pieces as indicated in Fig. 1. Place the parts of each picture in an envelope by itself. When ready to play the game, give each player an envelope, and direct him to put together the parts so as to make the picture of the toy. At the expiration of a given length of time, direct an exchange of the toys.

Acrostic Place Cards.

An original idea for the place cards for the Christmas party is to prepare them in the form of letters from Santa

WHEN FATHER CARVES THE TURKEY

Thanksgiving and Christmas are two festive occasions when father delights to appear to good advantage in showing his dexterity as an expert carver. Imagine his embarrassment at his utter failure to accomplish an expert job all on account of a dull old carving knife. Now mother, you can use a good carving knife to advantage almost every day and it seems to us it is up to you to save father the embarrassment on probably the only two occasions in which he is vitally interested in a good carving knife. OUR STOCK INCLUDES A NICE ASSORTMENT OF CARVING SETS.

Claus, with the names and addresses of the guests worked out in acrostics, as is suggested on the two specimen envelopes in the illustration; and have the guests find their places by interpreting the inscriptions upon the envelopes. The first envelope illustrated reads, "Miss Lillian Cook, 415 Adams Street," the second one, "Mr. Harry Underwood, 518 Bell Avenue." Some of the addresses may be harder to make into acrostics; others will be easier. Making them will be fun; deciphering them will afford several minutes of keen enjoyment.

Handy Bag and Case

Among the examples of convenient belongings embodying beautiful work that makes a gift precious, there are handkerchief cases and darning or knitting bags, like those shown above. The darning bag is made of ribbon and may be carried, with its contents, over the arm. The handkerchief case employs heavy linen, with a coarse linen thread for making its decoration.

For a Little Boy

An "aviator" coat and cap made of chinchilla, elderdown, or other thick, soft fabric will make a fine gift for a little boy. The round cap has earflaps attached and the coat is provided with a collar that may be turned up about the face. Such an outfit will fill a youngster's heart with pride and insure him against the cold.

For a Tiny Girl

A bonnet, scarf and muff of satin, trimmed with imitation ermine fur, is enough to make the eyes and heart of any little girl dance at Christmas time. Here is a set that loving mothers or aunts who know how to sew can make without much trouble. Beds for muffs are sold at the department stores. The scarf fastens with a snap fastener at the throat, and the muff is suspended on a silk cord.

Household Finery

A dark-brown willow basket lined with silk and decked out with ribbons and ribbon roses in two colors cannot fail to please its recipient at Christmas time, be she young or old. It is a luxurious bit of furnishing that can be used for many things.

A tray or server, like that shown in the picture, is made of silk tapestry gold lace and glass, over any suitable foundation. Trays of this kind in sizes that correspond to a dinner plate or smaller look very much at home on a dressing table among other pretty luxuries.

Silk Toilet Bag

Never was anything finer for a Christmas gift than the bag filled with toilet requisites, shown above. It is made of dark silk, having a figure printed on it, and lined with plain satin. The bag closes by means of a

NEILL OF BROWNFIELD LAMBASTS LUBBOCK MEN

The following item was taken from the Terry County Herald and was written by Geo. W. Neill:

"Our business and commercial relations with Lubbock for the past several years have been pleasant and agreeable to us and profitable to Lubbock. We feel toward them as a neighbor. Many of her best citizens and business men got their start in Terry County, and yet have holdings here. Some of her wisest heads have the commendable pride of claiming Terry as part of their trade territory, and yet we sometimes feel proud that we live as close to her as we do. We regret the necessity of registering a kick against some of her lying land agents. We would cuss, were it not for the fact that we still believe most of her real citizens would speak a kind word for us, or at least would tell the truth in referring to our country, but many new comers—homeseekers in the West, on their way to Terry County, are met by the Lubbock land agents, who tell them this county is a solid sand bed, "they can't get here for the sand, they absolutely can't travel here in a car, the farms are all blown away," and "it is a cheap land county," and many other untruthful remarks, which many times, to their delight, knocks an immigrant out of a happy home. In this the only way Lubbock can sell its lands? Can't she get other immigrants than those who have to come through there on their way to Terry County? Do the real citizens there sanction these untruths and unjust knocks on her most resourceful neighbor? We'll see later.

The truth of the matter is, Terry County has 100 miles of graded roads, and over another 100 miles of good smooth passable roads. Nearly all the farmers and ranchmen have cars, and automobiles run to and through every nook of the county. We dare say that the last year we shipped out more farm produce than Lubbock did, and will likely do so this year. The north half of our county, and many sections through the central part are as smooth as Lubbock County. It's true we have some sandy land, and that's from whence the produce came that took 21 Blue and Red ribbons at the recent State Fair at Dallas, just across the aisle from Lubbock's booth. Maybe that's the reason they knock on the sand.

No, Mr. Lubbock land agent, we stand on the merits of Terry County and its products, rank where we may, but we resent all untrue statements."

That building work that you held off during the war should be your first consideration during these hustling days of peace. This town needs more up to date and better homes to make it a real pleasure to live in. If you can't build a new one, a little of the right kind of remodeling and painting will really restore it to present day standards.

NOT COMPLETE WITHOUT PIE

Time Was When No Thanksgiving Dinner Was Worthy of the Name in Its Absence.

Thanksgiving without pumpkin pie was held to be unthinkable. Yet there could be no pumpkin pie without molasses; because Colchester, Connecticut, did not receive its supply of molasses in season, it voted, in 1705, to put off its Thanksgiving from the first to the second Thursday of November! Pumpkin pies thus featured were usually baked in square tins, having only four corner pieces to each pie.

Second only to the pumpkin pie in importance at such a Thanksgiving feast as Whittier sings was the turkey which had been fattened for the occasion and which, when slowly roasting before the open fire and painstakingly basted from the dripping pan beneath, was fit to be the lord of any feast. Chicken there was, too, though always in the form of chicken pie and vegetables of every sort, with raisins and citron, walnuts and popcorn apples and cider galore.

Surely few could have really wished joys such as these to be sacrificed to a second service in the meeting house!

Golden Promise of the Future.

We are thankful for the assurance that out of all the tumult and madness of the past years the world of mankind is to find a life richer, truer, grander than any it has heretofore known, a life of truer freedom, of sweeter tolerance and of a broader goodwill and brotherhood.

And we are thankful for the thought, amounting almost to a settled conviction, that as a consequence of the great awakening which has come to it with all its blood and tears and suffering, the world will from now on have forever done with every form of organized hypocrisy and oppression, will love the truth and nothing but the truth, and will deal justly, and love mercy.

Worldly Spirit Too Much With Us.

It must be admitted that our country has been an egotistical nation, because of our great material expansion and prosperity, and that the true spirit of Thanksgiving day has not been felt by a very large proportion of the people during the past few years. The intent of the pioneers who established it has been regarded too much simply as a day to be observed by the church people, while the crowd took advantage of the holiday to indulge worldly pleasures.—Houston Post.

GUMBI SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed with Sulphur it Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

METHODISTS SAVE BELGIAN AND SERBIAN ORPHANS

Southern Church Buys Homes in Brussels and Belgrade and Supports Serbian Refugees in England.

The Centenary Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will specialize in caring for the children of Belgium, Serbia and other stricken countries of Europe, according to an announcement made by Dr. W. B. Beauchamp, the director-general. Dr. Beauchamp and a Church Commission have just returned from Europe.

For this purpose a large home, formerly a famous boys' school, has been purchased at Uccle, a suburb of Brussels. Several hundred children can be accommodated in this building, and the Methodists will assume entire responsibility for them and their future.

Another home has been bought at Belgrade, Serbia, and here the underfed orphans of the Southern Slavs will be given medical attention and cared for. A staff of women physicians, secured from Scotland, will be in charge of this home.

Still another orphanage has been taken over at Faversham, England. This home already contains more than a hundred Serbian children, orphaned refugees who were taken from their homes during the Austrian invasion.

Plight of Children Deplorable.

"One can scarcely imagine the plight of the Belgian and Serbian children," declared Dr. Beauchamp. "The mines of northern France have been flooded or filled with concrete by the Germans, and thousands of children will literally freeze to death this winter."

"I have seen them living in the old trenches and dug-outs left by the enemy, with little to eat save what is gathered from the passers-by."

Relief stations will be established as quickly as workers can be obtained and supplies sent. These will be at Brussels, Ypres, St. Quentin, Montdidier, Belgrade, and other centers.

The Centenary Commission is organizing for two young nurses, a dozen workers, and a number of staff. These will be sent abroad at once.

The Church has a fund of $5,000,000 for this purpose. It is a part of the $53,000,000 fund which was raised in the recent Centenary Drive.

BAPTIST WOMEN TO RAISE $15,000,000

FIFTH OF SUM SOUGHT IN FIVE-YEAR PROGRAM WILL COME FROM THEM.

ARE DOING A LARGE WORK

als, Mountain Schools, Good Will Centers and Church Building Funds Maintained by Them in Addition to Regular Gifts.

MISS KATHLEEN MALLORY
Corresponding Secretary, W. M. U., Baltimore.

Evidencing the larger sphere which women have come to occupy in church life, as well as other activities, when the Baptist 75 Million Campaign was decided upon at the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in Atlanta last May, the women, through their regular organization, the Woman's Missionary Union, at once agreed to be responsible for one-fifth of the sum sought, or $15,000,000. This means that the Baptist women of the South will raise for missions of all kinds, Christian education and benevolences, the sum of $3,000,000 a year for the next five years, in addition to their contributions to local enterprises and special work.

Through the channels of the Woman's Missionary Union, with headquarters at Baltimore, Md., the Baptist women of the South have since their organization contributed more than $5,000,000 in cash to various denominational purposes. With the addition of boxes of food and clothing sent to orphanages and other benevolent institutions, the total of their contributions through this channel has reached $5,710,433.71.

Miss Kathleen Mallory is the corresponding secretary of the Woman's Missionary Union, and in appreciation of the service she has rendered in that connection the Baptist women of Alabama have established the Kathleen Mallory Hospital for Women at Lairoh-Fu, Shantung, China, Miss Mallory being a native of Alabama.

Women of many of the other states have also undertaken special enterprises of their own. Those in Georgia, for instance, established the Ayers Hospital for Women at Hwanghien, a girls' school at Tumamoto, the Catherine Bryan Kinder School at Cahton, China, and Mary P. Willingham School for at Blue Ridge, Ga., a school devoted especially for the education of in the mountainous section of state.

any of the other state unions have projects such as Good Will centers in the tenement, factory and mining districts, where effort is made to bring more sunshine and enlightenment and love into the home and of needy families, especially of foreign birth; church building, scholarships for young women want to obtain training for special Christian service, and similar undertakings.

The general W. M. U., representing the women of the Southern Baptist convention, owns and operates the Women's Training School at Louisville, Ky., which has already sent out 700 trained women for special service in all parts of the world; and has established the Margaret Fund for the education in the Baptist schools of the South the sons and daughters of missionaries on the foreign fields, and the Fannie E. S. Heck Memorial, a church building fund established in honor of one of the greatest leaders Southern Baptist women have known. But money for the support of these institutions as well as that for the payment of the women's pledge of $15,000,000 in the 75 Million Campaign, will be raised by the actual work of the women and through economy and sacrifice. Church fairs, bazaars, suppers, ice cream socials and the like, are frowned upon by the organized Baptist women of the South as unworthy means for raising funds for carrying forward the work of the kingdom of God and their contributions will not come from this source, it is announced.

BAPTIST 75 MILLION CAMPAIGN NOW WELL ORGANIZED

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 12.—The Southern Baptist 75 Million Campaign has entered its fifth and final month with the Texas forces well organized, under instruction and rapidly getting ready for Victory Week, Nov. 30 to Dec. 7. Dr. F. S. Groner, State Campaign Director, and those associated with him at state headquarters, have full confidence in victory. Heroic action on the part of the leaders has lifted the campaign out of the mud and every report coming to headquarters brings cheer and optimism.

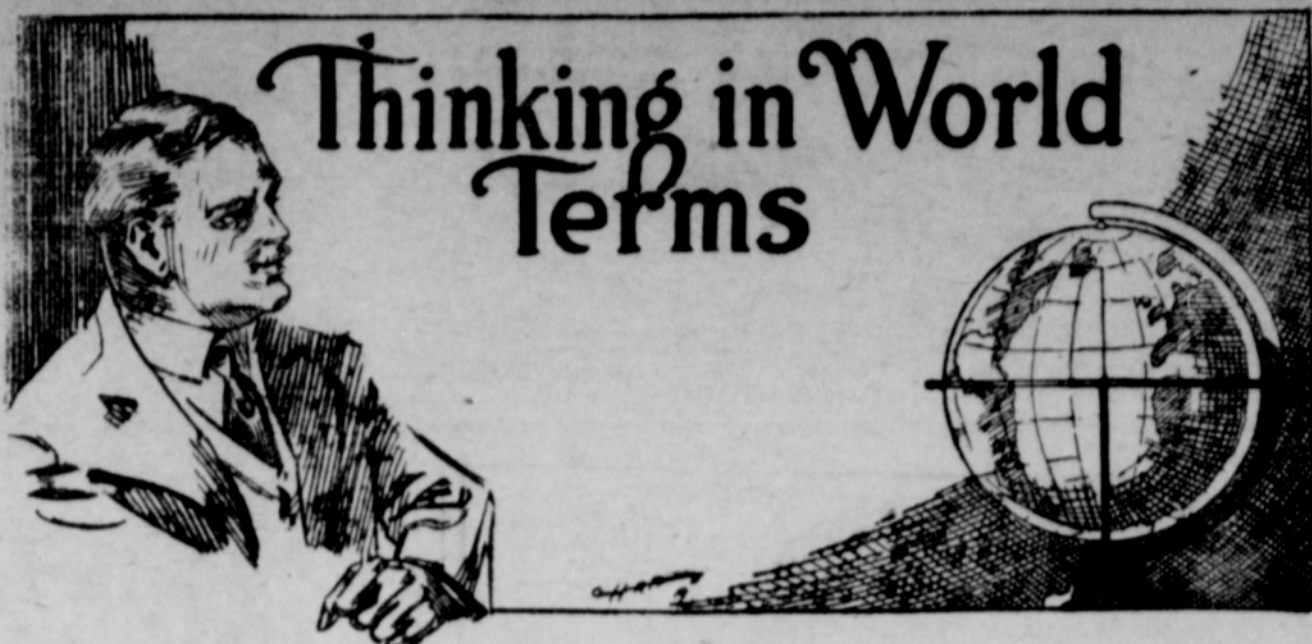

According to reports in the office of Dr. T. V. Neal, state organizer, fully 1500 churches have been fully organized for the final stroke. Among the associations first reporting 100 per cent organizations are Coleman, Tarrant, Burleson, Williamson, Austin, Jones, Scurry, Big Springs, Henderson, Cherokee, Nacogdoches, Canadian, Trans Canadian, Collingsworth, Childress, Palo Duro, Union, Baylor, Throckmorton, Panola, Archer, Enon, South Panhandle, Red Fork.

From now until the end of the campaign its issues and its vital importance in meeting the needs of the enlarged world-program of the Southern Baptists will be presented in every district, county, association and church of Texas. Many speakers are coming from other states to make their appeal for the raising of Texas' quota, $16,000,000 plus. There will be many good, enlarged, successful rallies and field days.

Most of the churches are organizing "victory schools" for the training of their forces, so as to make victory week easier. Five thousand church boosters are now busy stirring up interest in the campaign and 2,000 four-minute speakers are telling its message. Literature is going forward from the state headquarters by the ton. In the next three weeks every church and the last member is to be reached through campaign literature, as well as by the spoken word.

H. L. Kokernot, organizer for the San Antonio district, has just announced that he will give $50,000 to the campaign. His home is in San Antonio. The big individual gifts in the state have now reached a total of nearly $500,000.

Just received full line Weed and Rid-O-Skid mud chains. Prices are right. BIG STATE GARAGE.

"The 52 Biggest Problems of the Average Southern Farmer"

EVERY member of The Progressive Farmer staff has had actual farm experience—most of us are running Southern farms now—and from our own experiences, and from the multitude of farmers' letters that come to us every year, we believe we have figured out a pretty nearly perfect list of these "fifty-two biggest problems" of the average Southern farmer, and we are going to treat them in next year's Progressive Farmer,

We are going to treat them, too, in order of timeliness, just as far as possible. For the aim of The Progressive Farmer, always, is to tell the subscriber just what he wants to know, just when he wants to know it, and in as few words as possible.

Here's the list of big problems we shall treat during the fall months, and the date on which each discussion will appear:

- November 1—Financing the Farmer: (Personal and Short-term Credit; Long-term Credit for Land Purchase; Avoiding "Time-prices"; Utilizing National Farm Loan Associations, etc.)
- November 8—Systems of Farming—Affecting Soil Fertility, Money Profits, Prosperity and Permanence of Rural Life.
- November 15—Arranging and Erecting Fences; Relative Values of Different Systems, Material, etc.
- November 22—How to Reduce Land-washing to a Minimum. (Terracing, Ditching, Filling Land with Humus, Proper Use of Steep Hill-sides, etc.)
- November 29—What Changes Are Needed to Insure Better Health for Men, Women and Children on the Farm?
- December 6—Winter Care and Feeding of Horses, Mules, Cattle and Hogs.
- December 13—Getting Rocks and Stumps Off the Land.
- December 20—How Farm Neighbors May Work Together for Greater Profits and Happiness.
- December 27—Business Methods on the Farm; (Inventories; Records; Accounts; Banking; Cost-keeping; Advertising; System in Correspondence and Making Sales, etc.)

The above subjects are of vital importance to you and alone are worth the price we ask, and remember The Progressive Farmer carries many other big features not mentioned above.

Hail the Turkey!

Here's to the Turkey, glorious bird of copper hue, who gladdened well each Pilgrim heart when, guided by an ancient chart, there came that small, God-fearing crew.

Here's to the Turkey, that bird of gorgeousness and pride, who strutted through the virgin wood when, for a firmer brotherhood, our forbears worked fought and died.

Here's to the Turkey, how often, through the early snow, some sturdy pilgrim sought thee for his feast Thanksgiving day, but fell before the red man's bow.

Here's to the Turkey, proudest, rarest of the living, and, as we bow before our Lord around the yearly festive board, the gem of our Thanksgiving.

—Lewis Allen in Utica Saturday Globe.

WHERE THE BIRDS ARE BRED

Small Farms Are Large Producers of Piece de Resistance of the Thanksgiving Feast.

Although there are many great turkey ranches, and whole communities which live principally upon the raising of turkeys for market, such as Cuero, Tex., whose annual turkey parade preceding Thanksgiving includes thousands of turkeys bound for northern markets, as a rule turkeys are raised in small groups on farms which are interested in other commodities. They are often the sole dependence of the farmer's wife for pocket money throughout the year, and many a farmer's daughter also has been able to make a shining appearance in her world of fashion principally through the successful marketing of the turkey brood.

On the 5,000,000 farms of the United States there were, according to careful statistics taken some years ago, only 6,500,000 turkeys. Texas led among the states, producing 650,000. The other states which were large producers were Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Ohio and Indiana. The state of Rhode Island, noted as it is for its turkeys, produced only 5,000. But the quality of the Rhode Island turkeys always has been excellent and they usually bring prices vastly in excess of those from other parts of the country.

And that ought to be enough about turkeys to get up a pretty good appetite for Thursday's dinner!

REALLY SURFEITED.

Weary—No, tanks, ma'am. I've et so much turkey dis week dat I gobbles in my sleep.

Great Reason for Gladness.

The day set apart for Thanksgiving for the blessings of the year is a day when the nation is invited to inspect the tapestry of time and to see how steadfastly and how gratifying the old weaver has used the loom for the picture of American contentment and American happiness and American hope. Into the picture enters no public calamity, into it enters no widespread want. Thus the nation has great reason for gladness that it can hang upon the walls of civilization the picture that has been wrought out as the picture of American life from the busy weave of the multitude of individuals who make up that life.

The Best Remedy For Unrest

Strikes and riots and revolutions are not as bad in themselves as are the conditions of which they are the symptoms.

What the world needs above everything else today is the saving gospel of Jesus Christ applied in the lives of individuals and nations.

Such an application will insure an adequate wage for labor, a square deal for capital and a spirit of true brotherhood among all men everywhere. The is the plan of the Southern Baptists to apply this remedy more intensively at home and throughout the world.

Baptist 75 Million Campaign

Ranks With Christmas.

Thanksgiving day is an old and honored institution in this country. In 1789 the Protestant Episcopal church formally recognized the government's authority to appoint such a "feast," but it was celebrated with more zest in New England than in any other section. There it is an occasion for annual family reunions, and as a Boston writer says, "it takes the place which in England is accorded to Christmas."

THANKSGIVING

By JAMES W. BECKMAN.

We observe Thanksgiving day in keeping with the time-honored custom of the Pilgrims.

Thanksgiving day was born in the hearts of a grateful little group of people who had survived a harrowing season.

Real thanksgivings are those which come spontaneously in moments of gratitude for deliverance from distress, appreciation of the beauties of life or enjoyment of genuine friendship.

We are thankful that most of our troubles never happened and that those which did pass over like the storms.

The wealth of the world has been filling our coffers to overflowing. Minions of Mammon give thanks like the blatant fatted calf, all unmindful of the fate of the fattened and batted.

We are thankful to have gone through another year with its alternating joys and sorrows and await with hope and fortitude the things the next may bring forth.—Illustrated Sunday Magazine of the Boston Herald.

Ain't It Splendid?

AIN'T it splendid to be livin' 'long about this time o' year,
 Just around before 'Thanksgivin', with the mornings crisp and clear;
 With the children's cheeks a-glowin', with the future lookin' bright,
 And the shops and mills a'goin' like red blazes, day and night?

Ain't it bracin', ain't it cheerin', when the
 colts kick up their heels,
 To approach the corn crib, hearin' turkeys gobblin' for their meals?
 Don't it make a fellow kinda satisfied with life and glad,
 When it's got so hard to find a thing
 that's goin' to the bad?

Ain't it fine to feel the nippin' of the brisk breeze at your nose
 When the old dead leaves go zippin'
 down the lanes, in scraggly rows,
 When you've hay to feed the cattle, when you love your fellow men,
 And you've money you can rattle in your trousers, now and then?

Ain't it fine to wake from dreamin' of the home your boyhood knew
 And to find the glad sun beamin' just the way it used to do,
 Long ago, about 'Thanksgivin', when you'd energy to spare,
 When your pa and ma were livin', and the days were always fair?

Remember Those Who Served.
 The great spirits of earth have been men and women who, with thanksgiving in their hearts and on their lips, served faithfully the ages in which they lived. They won the victories and reconstructed the situations through which our blessings have been handed down to us. For their consecrated services let us be truly thankful. Nor in our thanksgiving must we overlook the heroic service rendered by our own boys in the great, recent conflict, and the supreme sacrifice many of them made. They, together with their brave comrades of the nations allied with us in the battle for righteousness, saved democracy for the world.

 President Lincoln it was who appointed the last Thursday in Novemeach president of the United States since that time has followed Lincoln's example. In 1858 proclamations of a others, then does the printing for the yields no profit. The printers have complained long and loud but all to no to get some help in trying to persuade Uncle Sam not to set up in competi-

So far our religious effort has not been on a scale commensurate with the needs.

We have been too pre-occupied with other things to give proper consideration to Kingdom interests.

BAPTIST 75 Million Campaign

Represents the awakened conscience of Southern Baptists to world demands.

Political and social upheavals everywhere show that individuals and nations need something that the world cannot give.

That something is the reconstruction of society and government, along with individual thinking, upon the basis of sound Christian principles.

To supply this supreme need $75,000,000 is asked in cash and five-year pledges by December 7.

It is a big, comprehensive program, making provision for every division of Christian effort calculated to bring about a permanent peace and order and make the world a saner, happier place in which to live.

ITS TOO IMPORTANT—DON'T WAIT TILL AFTER CHRISTMAS

Our students are with us from many different states and the majority of them do not go home for the holidays owing to the great distance, therefore, we teach right on through the holidays. The sooner you enter, the sooner you will be holding a good position. Our school is like a big bank or mercantile establishment, it runs throughout the year; we are always well organized and receiving new business every day. Every student gets individual instruction; he is not held back by slow students, or crowded too fast by bright ones; he goes just as fast as his ability will permit. Should he happen to be slow or backward in his work, he is not embarrassed by others knowing how he is getting along. With our methods of individual instruction, and our own copyrighted systems, we are demonstrating that it is useless to attend a commercial school teaching other systems and requiring from seven to ten months to finish the course, when they can finish with us in half that time at half the cost, be more efficient and get a better position, because of their thorough and extensive training. It is our practical methods, our personal attention and our modern systems that enable us to accomplish so much in so short a time.

Our literary subjects, which are given free with our courses, are woven into the main courses in such a practical way that they are mastered in half the time required by the old methods, and are thoroughly understood from practical application. We guarantee a better course in less time, at a less expense, and a better position than any other school, and it is evident that we have been securing these results or we could not have built up an enrollment of more than 3500, and drawn patronage from 39 states and seven foreign countries, and received the approval of the government to train the returning soldiers and sailors.

EVERY TEXAS MAN AND WOMAN CALLED UPON TO SAVE AT LEAST $10.00 AND PUT IT IN WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

FRANK M. SMITH
Federal District Director

Between Sunday, November 9th, and Sunday, November 16th, every person in Texas is called upon to save not less than $10.00 and invest it in Government War Savings Stamps. By special arrangement it has been made most convenient for all persons who desire to avail themselves of the privilege to purchase the wonderfully attractive new $100 and $1000 Registered Treasury Savings Certificates from their banker or postmaster.

"This period from November 9th to November 16th, is the first anniversary of the Great Victory which was won for us by our American soldiers just one year ago. Every person who appreciates this victory, every person who is a real American and every person who recognizes that he ought to save for himself as every intelligent man and woman does, should celebrate the Great Victory and honor our heroes by purchasing War Savings Stamps and Registered Treasury Savings Certificates." Frank M. Smith, Federal District Director, of the Treasury Savings Division, announced today.

"Knowing that the people of Texas—every man, woman and child of them are loyal Americans and that they all recognize it is the intelligent thing, the right thing and the necessary thing to save, I, therefore, confidently call upon them to celebrate wisely, patriotically and intelligently the great Victory Savings Week, as our Government requests us to do.

"Texans, I ask you during this Victory Savings Week to do honor to the men who gave their lives for you and who now moulder in Flanders Fields. The Government has indicated to you how it would have this week observed.

"Texans, let us who dwell in the great Blue Bonnet State each do our duty to the fullest of our ability! During Victory Savings Week from the 9th of November to the 16th of November, make your investments in Government War Savings Stamps and the new Registered Treasury Savings Certificates. By your action do honor to our heroes and in honoring them lay away funds for your pleasure and your needs."
