President Names Black General To U.S. Military Academy

President Bill Clinton has appointed General Benjamin O. Davis as a member of the Board of Visitors of the U.S. Military Academy. The Board of Visitors provides recommendations to the President on the Academy's morale and discipline, curriculum, instruction, physical equipment, fiscal affairs and academic methods. General Davis, who retired from the U.S. Air Force at the rank of Lt. General in 1970, was the first African American to graduate from West Point in the 20th century and led the distinguished all-black Tuskegee Airman flying unit, during World War.

Juneteenth to Be Celebrated June 19th

Juneteenth will be celebrated on June 19th. It is the oldest African American celebration in the country. It has been going on since 1865 and is marked as the time that President Abraham Lincoln sent soldiers, with Col. Granter as their head, to inform black people in the Southwest, states such as Louisiana and Texas, who were still working under white plantation and ranch owners, dominated, that slavery had been abolished with the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation in 1864.

House Passes Medgar Evers Bill

The U.S. House has passed H.R. 3863, which named the main post office in Jackson, Mississippi after slain civil rights leader, Medgar Wiley Evers. "Passage of this legislation is a tribute to the many sacrifices Medgar made for this nation," said Mississippi's black Congressman Bennie Thompson. Evers, who was killed decades ago, was Field Secretary for the NAACP. Thompson says that the most visible evidence Evers' legacy is that fact that Mississippi currently has more African American elected officials than any other state.

Coalition of Blacks Want To Buy Baseball Team

A coalition of black businessmen want to purchase the Oakland A's major league baseball team. According to Charles S. Farrell, head of the Commission for Fairness, a group of blacks which consists of former athletes, entertainers and business leaders they will soon submit an offer to buy the team from Walter Haas. Haas has indicated that he is willing to sell the club for the right price. The Oakland A's have reportedly been losing money for the past several years.

Cathedral Of Praise Works With Children

by Candida Johnson

A puppet show, T-shirts, a colorful stage while it may sound like any other children's show. Gary Scoggins, Pastor of the Cathedral Of Praise said it is a program which takes bible stories and applies them to everyday life. The group of 35 children between the ages of 4-12 meet each Wednesday at 7:00pm at 2011 E. 13th Street. Adult volunteers in the church put on puppet shows and award T-shirts to children completing a four week program. "We want to teach them responsibility so we reward those who come in four weeks in a row, bring a friend, and memorize three Bible scriptures," said Scoggins.

Volunteer Cheryl Goforth said the objective is for the children to come so that they will learn. "The children all have cards which we punch each time they come to Kingdom Kids. If they forget their cards and they've been four weeks in a row they still do not receive their T-shirts. Along with learning the bible we want the kids to learn responsibility," she said. Kids receiving their T-shirts wear them each Wednesday night. The goal is for each child to have a T-shirt.

Transportation is provided for those wishing to attend program. "We have a bus which goes into the Parkway, Clayton Carter, and Arnett area," said Teresa Scoggins, pastor and wife of Scoggins.

While Scoggins would like more African-American male volunteers he said all volunteers must be members of his church. "You have to remember these are kids we are working with. We do a back ground check on all volunteers. Asking that they be members of the church is another way to screen potential volunteers."

Kingdom Kids volunteers say that if a child is exposed to the Bible between the ages of birth-12 years, they are more likely to stay practicing Christians. Kingdom Kids participants

Marissa, 11, and Tiffany, 4, said they enjoy the program.

"It's fun so you listen and learn what is being taught", said Marissa. Tiffany likes the puppets and is looking forward to receiving her T-shirt. This type of response from children in Kingdom Kids is what Teresa Scoggins believes will help the program to succeed. "Instead of the children sitting there not understanding, we come down to their level," she said.

Attendance is at an all-time high at Kingdom Kids. Gary Scoggins said the objective is not to have the best kids' program in Lubbock. "We just want to establish Jesus in the life of these kids."

Neighborhood Primary Care Clinic Opens with Ceremony

Chatman Community Health Center, a service of University Medical Center, celebrated its opening today with a ribbon cutting and open house.

Patients will be seen starting tomorrow. The clinic, located at 2301 Cedar, will serve both adults and children. Services will include treatment of minor illnesses and injuries, physical examinations, flu shots, x-rays, prescriptions for medication, school immunizations, pregnancy testing and screenings for high blood pressure, glucose, diabetes and cholesterol levels.

Anyone living in the area is welcome to use the clinic, which will be open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Appointments are recommended, but patients may be seen on a walk-in basis.

Dwight Hood, M.D., and Linda Childers, L.V.N., will work full time at the health center. A financial counselor will be available to screen patients needing financial assistance for eligibility for programs such as Medicaid and Medicare.

The Chatman Memorial Center board raised $225,000 toward renovating Chatman Hospital—built for black and hispanic patients in 1945—for use as a community health center.

University Medical Center and the city of Lubbock agreed to contribute up to $250,000 each for renovations if the board met its fund raising goal by June 1, 1993. The goal was met.

The city's contribution is in the form of federal community development block grant funds.

UMC will pay for the ongoing operations of the center.

UMC already operates Slaton Primary Medical Clinic, Freedom Square Community Health Center, 50th Street and Avenue L, and Parkway Community Health Center, Parkway Drive and Martin Luther King, Jr. Boulevard.

Since the opening of UMC's first primary care clinic in October 1992, the hospital's Emergency Center has seen a decrease in patient visits (44,941 in 1992 vs. 38,589 projected in 1994) and a dramatic increase in the percentage of patients admitted to the hospital from the Emergency Center (6,322 in 1992 vs. 7,089 projected in 1994). This statistic is used to measure the seriousness of injuries and illnesses seen in the Emergency Center. Hospital officials attribute the increased acuity directly to the opening of the community health centers.

Sixth Annual Ring of Black Roses Scholarship Banquet Set

On June 4, 1994, The Ring of Black Roses, Inc. will hold its Sixth Annual Scholarship Banquet at the Parkway Neighborhood Center, 504 North Martin Luther King, Jr. Boulevard at 7:00 p.m.

$41,000 Reward Offered for Information

A $41,000 reward is offered to anyone with information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who shot and killed Randy Lawson.

On April 9, 1994, Randy Lawson was finishing up his newspaper route when at 4:40 a.m. he was accosted by a subject or subjects who fired upon his car numerous times with a medium-sized weapon. He was critically wounded and died. The police have some good leads and it's just a matter of time before the case will be solved. Those offering information will be kept confidential. Call Crime Line at 741-1000.

Smokey Robinson

Really Smoked!

Angry callers from around the country gave school administrators in Sarasota, Fla., an earful for canceling a speech by Smokey Robinson because his talk touched on religion.

Mr. Robinson, the legendary Motown producer-composer-singer, was the speaker at an anti-drug rally. On last Wednesday he spoke to 1,400 middle school students and briefly talked of how religion changed his life.

School officials reacted by canceling a second planned rally, saying Mr. Robinson had agreed to keep religion out of his comments.

Conservative radio hosts Rush Limbaugh and G. Gordon Liddy got wind of the story, and phone lines at the school district started lighting up.

Jackson Receives Award

Daren Jackson's efforts to aim high and achieve paid off. Daren, who was a 6th grader at Posey Elementary, received the "Presidential Academic Fitness Award."

Daren is the son of Irene Moya and Rufus Cambers, who reside at 1715 E. 2nd Street.

Irene & Rufus would like to say congratulations to Daren and encourage him to keep reaching as they keep lifting him up.

Wheatley Elementary Starts a Tradition

During the annual Recognition Assembly on Monday morning at Wheatley, two awards were presented that will start a tradition.

The Grover C. Colvin Top Tiger Award was established to recognize a sixth-grade boy for outstanding citizenship, cooperation and academic achievement.

The Hattie M. Gipson Top Tiger Award was established to recognize a sixth-grade girl for outstanding citizenship, cooperation and academic achievement.

These awards will be presented on an annual basis and a perpetual plaque will hang in the hallway of the school. Names will be added each year as another sixth grader is selected for each award.

Receiving the awards for the 1993-94 school year are Johnathan and Jennifer Strong, children of Linda Strong. They are the twin grandchildren of Mr. Joe Strong and the late Mrs. C. G. Strong.

Ruby Jay's Corner

The New Hope Baptist Church, 2002 Birch Avenue, is the Church Where The People Really Care, and Rev. Billy R. Moton is the proud pastor, who always has a message that is good for the soul each Sunday morning.

Sunday School began at 9:30 a. m. last Sunday morning with the singing of "I Need Thee Every Hour," which is very much needed. Prayer was offered by Supi. Thelma Brown, which was followed by music while the classes were passing to the various classes for learning. The classes reassembled in thirty minutes.

High points of the lesson were given by Pastor Moton, it was very good.

Services continued with the devotional services led by the Ervins which included the reading of the 23rd Psalms by Sister Ervin Joan Ervin and prayer given by Deacon Clarence Ervin.

The morning processional began with the singing of "Glad To Be In The Service," by the Senior Choir. Altar prayer was offered by Rev. Robby Johnson. A song, "I Can't Feel At Home Anymore." Sister Dorothy Stovall read the scripture which was Psalms 34:1-7. Another song, "Brand New Life," was sung.

Responsive reading was done with the leadership of Sister Dorothy Kinner, and the congregation sang "Blessed Assurance."

Pastoral observations were given by Pastor Moton. A song, "Joy, Faith, Peace, After All I Have Been Through, I Still Have Love."

Pastor Moton's sermon was entitled "Peace That The World Can't Take Away." His scripture was St. John 14:27. It was a wonderful message. The remainder of the services were the same as usual.

Prayer meeting is held each Wednesday evening at 7:00 p. m. at the church. We need more prayer, because prayer changes things.

Annual Women's Day will be observed on Sunday afternoon, June 5, 1994 at 3:00 p. m. Rev. Ms. Monica Hall will be guest speaker. The Unity Baptist women will be special guest.

Keep praying for our sick and shut-ins of the community. Our love and sympathy as well as our prayers go out to the bereaved families.

Sister Vassie Ball has just returned from attending the funeral services of her uncle who was funeralized in Dallas, Texas. She had to leave again for a funeral in Mineral Wells, Texas for another relative's funeral services.

Mrs. Billy R. Moton lost two relatives last week.

Mr. T. J. Patterson attended the final rites of his grandmother in-law, Mrs. Sara Crawford on late Friday here, and had to leave immediately for services of his father, Samuel Collins, Sr., in San Antonio, Texas on Saturday afternoon.

Funeral services for Roxie McKinney were held on Wednesday, June 1, 1994. She is the sister-in-law of Bernice Kelly and Jewel McKinney. Roxie was a former member of New Hope Baptist Church in past years. The rest of the family were in attendance of the services.

Something wonderful just got a whole lot better...

The Mobile Mammography Unit of St. Mary Hospital has received accreditation from the American College of Radiology's Mammography Accreditation Program.

Only 6,000 facilities have been accredited nationwide in the six-year history of the program. The vehicle has met the necessary requirements, which include a stringent review by a panel of breast cancer-detection experts.

The St. Mary Mobile Mammography Unit is used extensively throughout the region to serve the areas where this service is not available on a full-time basis, and for those with limited financial resources. The vehicle was provided in part by a grant from St. Joseph Health System. A limited number of Saturday screenings are available in Lubbock.

WHAT IS HAPPENING LOCALLY To Complete The Unfinished Work of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

ADIP is a networking process for organizations engaged in an overall community-building approach to addressing the root causes of all types of life among Black and similarly-situated minorities. ADIP's overall objective, via this interorganizational coalition, is to immediately transform the discrete communities within Black America, through pride-instilling "togetherness," into a rich Shining Cities of Hope that all therein not only will be motivated to want to learn and become productive parts of our then-wonderful communities, but also there will be a greatly lessened desire, or "felt need," to abandon support for Black-led organizations that opened economic and other doors, Black-owned businesses and professional entities, Black churches, etc. by inordinately integrating and/or invading the communities and social and other institutions developed by (and for) other ethnic groups. ADIP has a redemptive mission of completing the "unfinished work of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr." The information listed below about your organization should (as best possible) be focused on what your group is doing to help complete that "unfinished work."

This is a public service courtesy of the Southwest Digest. We will list your meeting date, time and place; special activities, annual meetings, etc. Anything else will be considered advertisement and will be charged as such. Such as hand-bills, brochures, promotions, etc. This is necessary, because of the inflated cost of doing business. We have to pay our expenses. There will also be a charge for photos, other than news events. For more information about getting your announcement on this page, call Eddie P. Richardson at 762-3612

I sent a prayer of need to God,
It wasn't big or grand,
More like a string, a tiny hope,
He held it in his hand.

More strings piled up, did God care?
My hopes were growing dim,
He closed his hand and drew the strings
Around my heart to him.

Sodom And Gomorrah Revisited!!!

by Eddie P. Richardson

Bible scholars and others that know any thing or have heard anything about the Bible has heard or read about Sodom and Gomorrah and the associated civil, sins, law and no morality, overall terrible to the highest degree.

Sodom and Gomorrah was places, villages, not people like many people think. God destroyed them because they were so sinful, God used Lot to try to save them from themselves. No one wanted to change from their wicked ways, so God spared Lot and his family, allowed them to move before he destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.

Now as well as in Sodom and Gomorrah, during the time of Abraham and Lot as well as present time, people feel no shame or sorrow for sins, it is more accepted to be sinful, violent, vulgar, than righteous. We are revisiting Sodom and Gomorrah even in Lubbock.

As an example, a few weeks ago we met with pastors and ministers in East Lubbock; shockingly, just a couple of the major Baptist ministers were there. This was after the Digest ran the front page of alleged dope dealers in our community. We were begging and hoping for their assistance in eradicating crime, dope and gangs in our community. Wonder why we have not heard from them lending their support for such an important issue.

Now, as in the days of Abraham and Lot, there is no shame or guilt for any kind of sin. Like Lot's daughters filling him with wine and sleeping with him, we have alleged immorality in our community starting from the so-called lowest street life to the so-called highest of religious life—every kind of immoral act, including alleged homosexual acts, across the board. If this is even sort of true we have a major problem. If our so-called religious leaders are immoral, what can we expect from our so-called gutter or street people? If the shepherd is weak what can we expect from the flock of sheep? If this kind of thing is happening, God knows we hope it is not, but if it is we have the same thing for them as we have for drug dealers: retire, resign, or leave Lubbock. Our children's lives are at stake. The Digest is all out for protecting our children from all evil. We hope others will work on this matter with more than lip service and ego tripping, lay it on the line like the Digest is doing and everyone will know without a doubt where you really stand.

We are so sick and tired of hearing East Lubbock or over here. Our goal is to make East Lubbock the most respected and admired area of Lubbock, to change the image from negativity and crime to morality and positivity. By us for us, nuff said, why not?

In the May 29th Lubbock Avalanche-Journal it was announced that Sonny S. Garza had left his job as a commercial action officer with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in San Antonio and was assuming a new position as vice president in the consumer lending department of Plains National Bank. You will recall that a few months ago Jesu Silva left his job at American State Bank for a promotion to a vice president at First National Bank.

There will be more activity in Lubbock banks over the summer as they scramble to jockey their group ranking as the highest in Texas for rejecting minorities for home mortgage loans. Hopefully, this recent flurry of activity is signaling a permanent change of attitude and action in Lubbock towards compliance with the letter and spirit of the Community Reinvestment Act.

"If there is no struggle there is no progress. Those who profess to favor freedom and yet deprecate agitation, are men who want crops without plowing up the ground, they want rain without thunder and lightning. They want the ocean without the awful roar of its many waves. This struggle may be a moral one, or it may be a physical one, and it may be both, but it must be a struggle. Power concedes nothing without a demand. It never did and it never will."

by Renetta W. Howard

About twenty years ago, many young adults read George Orwell's book 1984 and had some uneasy feelings about the future, but we did not put as much emphasis on the contents of Anthony Burgess' A Clockwork Orange.

When I read A Clockwork Orange, I was very happy and grateful that I lived in America and not in a foreign country where the kinds of things that occurred in this book could take place. The theme of the book was frightening, but the very knowledge that this was a work of fiction made it possible for me to sleep in peace until 1994. It appears that Orwell was a decade off in his estimate and Burgess was more on target than anyone imagined.

I have very serious doubts that today's teens in America have read A Clockwork Orange or even had a desire to do so even though it is a book whose theme is about teenage gangs dominating the world.

If we look about us, we see the signs: graffiti everywhere you go; drive-by shootings; armed robbery; lack of interest or motivation to do well in school; ridicule of the students with name-calling, i.e. "geek" and "nerd"; lack of respect for adults; rebellious and argumentative with teachers and parents; gross disregard for ownership of property in any denomination; widespread use of drugs; belief that life is an on-going state of "party hardy." We need to get "in cinque" and reverse the trend of values which our young people have acquired. Learning BEGINS AT HOME!

The Southwest Digest is an independent newspaper serving the Lubbock, West Texas, South Plains of Texas and Eastern New Mexico area... printing the news impartially supporting what it believes to be right without opposing what it believes to be wrong without regard to party politics.

Devoted to the Industrial, Educational, Social, Political, and Economical Advancement of African-American People.

We may be critical of some things that are written, but at least you will have the satisfaction of knowing they are truthful and to the point. People will react to that which is precise, and we will publish these articles as precisely and factually as is humanly possible. We will also give credit and respect to those who are doing good things for the Lubbock Area and the people. We will be critical of those who are not doing as they have said they would, and this, we think, is fair.

So, this is our resolution to you: "Feel free at any time to call this office for information concerning this newspaper or any other matter that is of concern to you."

Tidbits of BLACK HISTORY

by Eddie P. Richardson

All too often in the past the tendency has to present the black person in the role of a subjugated slave, with little or no recognition of the achievements and accomplishments of the black population. In order to present a more accurate picture, we are devoting Tid Bits to black leaders, church men, abolitionists, business persons, etc.

In 1787 Richard Allen and Absalom Jones, two free black men of Philadelphia, established the Free African Society. This was the first known organization to be founded by Blacks for the improvement of the economic and social conditions of blacks in the United States. Earlier that year, while Jones and Allen were worshipping at St. George's Methodist Church in Philadelphia, they had been forcibly removed from the church by white members for refusing to sit in the "colored section." Following this removal from the white church, Jones left the Methodist denomination and became the first black Protestant Episcopal Clergyman in the nation. Allen, realizing that worship could not be confined to benches reserved for "Black and Whites," organized The African Methodist Episcopal Church and became its first bishop, his church was Mother Bethel A.M.E. Church it is on the site of the original Mother Bethel A.M.E. Church.

We have only one Black candidate in the up coming November general election for county Commissioner Precinct #2... Abraham SPIres... This is contemporary history.. not past history.

Read the book of Genesis Then you can understand the problems of today.

Crispus Attucks, a seaman in Boston, was the first of five men shot and killed by the British during the "Boston Massacre" in March 1770. During The Revolutionary War Blacks served the integrated units. Many of these black soldiers, among them Peter Salem, a hero of Bunker Hill, were noted for their valor in battle.

Dorie Miller was the first black hero of WW II. Miller was a messman on a ship in Pearl Harbor at the time of the Japanese attack. Though untrained as a gunner, Miller manned a search gun after it had been shot down. He was credited with having destroyed four enemy planes and was awarded The Navy Cross. In 1943 he was killed in action. Dorie was from Waco Texas. He has a center there named in his honored

Poems Wanted For New Contest And Anthology

Poems are now being accepted for entry in Sparrowgrass Poetry Forum's new "Awards of Poetic Excellence" poetry contest. Cash prizes totaling $1,000 will be awarded, including $500 grand prize. The contest is free to enter.

Poets may enter one poem only, 20 lines or less, on any subject, in any style. Contest closes July 31, 1994, but poets are encouraged to send their work as soon as possible. Poems entered in the contest also will be considered for publication in the Spring 1995 edition of Poetic Voices of America, a hardcover anthology to be published in Feb. 1995. Anthology purchase may be required to ensure publication, but is not required to enter or win contest. Prize winners will be notified by Sept. 30, 1994.

"Poetry is more popular than ever" says Jerome P. Welch, Publisher. "Our contest offers a public forum for new poets that allows them to share their work. We welcome poetry of all styles and themes. Many of our contest winners are new poets with new ideas." Poems should be sent to Sparrowgrass Poetry Forum, Inc. Dept. C, 203 Diamond St., Sistersville, WV 26175.

Seekers Of Power

from the Desk Of Parson D.A. Smith

Sometime we have a tendency to forget that God keeps exact records of our deeds done in the flesh. There will come a day when all people are going to be called into God's presence and confronted with the evidence of their actions in this life. Sinners will have their ungodliness publicly exposed. With the evidence before them they will be judged guilty. It will, at that time, be too late to seek the mercy of God.

We often hear people saying that we are living in the last days. They base their heartfelt belief on the assumption that our times are the most evil and corrupt in all history. This may be difficult to prove statistically, but the mass media bombard us with horror stories of juvenile crime and gang warfare, underhanded political activities, psychological and economic racism. Exposed to enough of this, it is easy to become cynical and pessimistic about our age. This cynicism is likely to lead us in one of two directions. When we see wrong so often triumphant and the good so often defeated, we may say, "What's the use? There nothing we can do about it!" And so we protect ourselves as best we can, and do nothing.

The other response is to say, "Everybody's doing it! Let's get ours while we can!" and so we join the corrupt crowd. However, there is a third option. We can stand fast in the faith and do what we can to right the wrongs about us. We may not win every battle, and we may get dirty or hurt or castigated in the process. But we can stand and fight for the truth because we know there is a great Day of Judgment coming. That fact can sustain us when we're tired and hurt and defeated.

A young man whose father had assigned him the task of planting Kentucky Wonder Beans tells this story: The corn was knee high and my father decided it was time to plant the Kentucky Wonder beans in the corn rows. The job fell to me, but since the day was hot and there were many other things I preferred to do, I approached the job with a lot less enthusiasm than my father had in assigning it. I started out as I was instructed, but after a couple of rows that seemed hundred of yards long, I grew weary. Soon a clever plot was hatched to get out of the work. I began to plant the beans only every twenty or thirty feet apart. Of course, after all the rows were done, I still had a sack of beans left. These I took to the far end of the garden and planted them in one large hole. I had not much more than finished this task when it started to rain. Now I was set, I had completed the perfect crime. As soon as Dad came home from work I knew he would ask about the beans. I could honestly say that I had planted them. If he asked if I had planted every row, I could still say, a least half truthfully, that I had. Even if he asked if I had planted all the bean, I could answer truthfully that I had.

About two weeks later Dad came in from the garden. "Son," he said, "the beans in the corn didn't come up to well."

"Must have been bad seed," I mumbled.

"Oh, is that right?" he responded, his voice taking on a firmer note. "Those you planted at the end of the garden came up very well." The justice that followed was swift and painful.

It is with frequency that we confront temptations like this young man. Can you remember the time that you faced an unpleasant job, or when you decided to sneak across town to taste the forbidden fruit that you received as a reward for being a self-imposed leader-tattler? Do you remember that moral short-cut your used to betray your own people?

Sometimes when we plan carefully our scheme we get away with it for weeks, perhaps years and maybe even a lifetime. But sooner or later that moment of truth comes, and we learn to our dismay that wicked deeds, like beans will eventually sprout and reveal their presence.

So preachers, politicians and those persons with political aspiration, remember that "you can fool some folk part of the time but you cannot fool all people all the time." "For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known" (Luke 12:2).

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

Young Black African-Americans: Be somebody, young people. The Earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, the world and they that dwell therein (Psalms 24:1). All the riches, wealth, money and knowledge belong to God. You are God's child and redeemed by his Son, Jesus Christ. Knowledge and wealth.

God wants you to be a producer of services through hard work and study at school, acquiring a trade or skill with the use of your hands and mind, and most importantly, through your faith in God. Through Jesus Christ, you can own, manage, and control much wealth, land, knowledge and money. You must not lead yourself to idleness, laziness and bad company. Be somebody, be a part of the profits of this great land. Be a good citizen. Do good works for yourself, your family, humanity, and to the Glory of God.

What happens when prayer becomes a real dynamic in our lives? We will be able to walk on the water, while the storms of life are raging, and rocking our ships and boats of life. Jesus is saying to us as he did to Peter, simply, "Come."

We will be honoring two of our people that were on the organization of the Breakfast on Saturday at 10 a.m. at 2403 E. 9th in the home of Sis. Ernestine Frazier.

Please come by, these are deserving people. If you have been to the Breakfast or been an active part in the past, or just a concerned person or group, please come by.

To all people hurting in any way, please read Mark 11:22-26 and II Chron. 7:14. We love you and God does too, keep smiling and loving those who throw mudballs at you. Rejoice and be exceedingly glad that it's only mud and not a fiery dart.

Can any good come out of Nazareth? You come and see.

We Thank God for Jesus America Is Damned! Part 2

Jeremiah 8:6a, 7, I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright; no man repented him of his wickedness. Yea, the stork in heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgment of the Lord.

(The Greek word for damned is: KAT-AK-REE' NO, MEANS TO JUDGE AGAINST.)

The RIGHTS IN THE GARDEN, are the same WRONGS OF ADAM AND EVE, THE DEVIL telling man TODAY HIS RIGHTS ARE OK, HE IS BEING DECEIVED.

Proverbs 14:12, There is a way which seemeth right unto man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

(You see GOD didn't say give MAN HIS RIGHTS, He said: GO INTO ALL THE WORLD AND PREACH THE GOSPEL. If GOD wanted man to have RIGHTS, HE would have said so, But HE DIED ON THE CROSS, FOR ALL MAN'S SINS, THE ONLY RIGHT MAN HAS IS, THEY HAVE A RIGHT TO BELIEVE ON JESUS CHRIST AND BE SAVED, LIKE EVERYONE.) THIS COUNTRY IS BLIND, and it's leading THE CHILDREN, WHO ARE PLIND, WE even say: WE'RE AGAINST DRUGS, and PUT IT BEFORE THE CHILDREN ALL THE TIME.

LUKE 23:28, Jesus said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

Our CHILDREN love SPORTS, and there is plenty of it on TV, We SHOW THEM LITE-BEER TEAS-

ING THEM; YOU THANK THEY ONLY WANT IT TO SEE.

Isaiah 5:20, Woe (CURSES) unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

AMERICA LOVES MONEY; and don't care how it gets it, NOR WHERE FROM, THAT'S WHY THERE'S CHEATING IN THE WHITE HOUSE, THE CHURCH HOUSE, & BEYOND.

I Timothy 6:10, For the money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

THIS COUNTRY WAS BUILT ON PRAYER; AND THE WORD OF GOD, BUT NOW ITS HELL BOUND, BECAUSE IT DON'T WANT TO OBEY: THE WORDS OF THE LORD.

John 14:6, Jesus said, I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. (I've heard that AMERICA IS A CHRISTIAN NATION, but that is not TRUE. THIS IS A SAVAGE LAND! The word SAVAGE means, it's not under HUMAN CONTROL, IT'S UNTAMED, IT'S FEROCIOUS, UNCIVILIZED, RUDE & SICK. IT KILLS PEOPLE FOR DRUGS.)

 WILL AMERICA ROB GOD?**

This country has LOST IT'S MORALS, EVERYTHING THAT'S SIN IS ALL RIGHT, EVEN THE LESBIANS & HOMOSEXUALS, COME OUT TODAY ONCE IT WAS ONLY AT NIGHT.

Jude 7, Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

AMERICA CAN NOW GO TO THE MOON, DO HEART & KIDNEY TRANSPLANTS and SAY WE'RE WISE—THAT'S THE WAY OF A FOOL; PROUD, ARROGANT, SELF-ESTEEMED IN HER OWN EYES.

Psalms 14:1, The fool hath said in his heart, THERE IS NO God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

(If you take the MIDDLE three letters out of JERUSALEM, AND YOU'LL GET U.S.A. JESUS was talking to JERUSALEM, but its for the U.S.A. TODAY HOW WE DON'T LOOK AFTER OUR OWN CHILDREN.)

Luke 13:34, 35, Jesus said, O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate; and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the LORD.

God is not through with us yet. So lets pray for one another always.

Unleashed Police Dog Greets Seniors in Bend, Oregon

by Mike Axley, Skanner Staff Reporter

PORTLAND, OR—For more than 100 senior residents of Northeast Portland, a recent trip to Nevada ended in a bizarre brush with racism.

The incident left a number of those present angry at the bigotry displayed by employees of a McDonald's restaurant in Bend. They are also disillusioned by what is described as a discriminatory encounter with the Bend Police Department.

On May 8, Mother's Day, a gambling junket organized by Rutherford Enterprises stopped in Bend for take-out food on the way back to Portland from Winnemucca, Nev.

The parking lot where the two buses parked is adjacent to a number of restaurants, including a buffet—J.J. No. 1—and a McDonald's.

According to Barbara Bell, one of the passengers who went to McDonald's, the atmosphere was uncomfortable from the first.

"They acted like they didn't want to wait on us," she said. "She wouldn't look at us. The woman behind us said, 'I think these people are ready to order.' She still wouldn't say anything but 'Who's next?'"

As Bell started to leave with her food, she said, she heard one of the other passengers ask for a special order. She wanted french fries cooked for two-and-a-half minutes instead of three. She was told that the restaurant couldn't make them that way. At this point Bell said, "I heard somebody say, 'Where did all these niggers come from anyway?' It sounded like it came from behind the counter. The one girl just shrugged her shoulders."

There are conflicting statements about what followed. Some reports suggest that another passenger chewed out the counter staff for improper service. This could not be verified because restaurant personnel told the Skanner they had been directed not to speak to reporters.

The franchise owner, Nanette Bloom, did not return calls. In addition, the regional office of McDonald's Corp. in Lake Oswego also did not return repeated calls. Charlie Strong, McDonald's regional vice president, could not be reached for comment.

What is clear is the fact that someone employed by McDonald's called 911. The caller told the operator that the staff had been verbally harassed "by a group of Negroes" who had all gone out to the parking lot. Within two minutes, three squad cars—one a K9 unit holding a police dog—arrived at the parking lot.

"The only matter of concern to the City of Bend Police Department is that police dogs were on the scene and that those dogs were loose...the suggestion is that the City of Bend set its police dogs loose on this situation, and that simply is not accurate," said Ron Marceau, Bend city attorney.

"One of the officers let a dog out of his car before he had even stopped it," said Eleanor Eidelberg, another witness. "It wasn't even on a leash...he let the dog out with no train of command or anything."

A videotape taken by Sharje Smith, one of the passengers, shows an officer putting a leash on a German shepherd and then moving to investigate the scene. There is also some question as to why the dog was allowed out of the car at all.

"I am not aware of anyone in Oregon that uses canines for crowd control," said Lt. C.W. Jensen of the Portland Police Bureau. "In 16 years I have never seen anyone use a dog in a crowd control situation."

Lt. Robert Glynn of the Bend Police

Department said the department's four K9 units double up, also acting as routine patrol officers.

"They respond to a number of things, but not as a K9 unit," he said. "Most of the time he is not a K9 unit because the dog is not employed because the dog is not needed." When the dog is not needed, Glynn said, "it sits in the car."

Like other police departments, the Bend police use dogs for tracking, search-and-rescue and searching for narcotics. Asked which of these applied in this instance, Glynn noted that dogs are also used for "officer safety situations."

"The sergeant responded to a report of a disturbance and possible assault to have the dog ready in case it was needed. It was not needed, and the officer left," he said.

It seems that instead of a group of middle-aged and elderly African Americans, the Bend police may have been under the perception that they were going to face a group of unruly Black youth. The dispatch tape refers to numerous "fights" at the scene, and Glynn said the parking lot had been a place for "gangs" to gather.

"We have had some problems there, including some assaultive behavior, typically one group vs. another type of youth," he said.

Asked whether Bend police regularly respond to gang incidents, Glynn qualified his statement. "I misspoke," he said. "Gangs are on everybody's mind. By gang I meant gathering."

"I am representing them to investigate allegations that McDonald's violated both state and federal laws pertaining to public accommodation," said attorney John Friedman. "At a very bare minimum, these folks were treated rudely and shabbily. The other side of it that they may well have had their civil rights infringed upon as a consequence."
