Elks Caprock Lodge Marks "Mid-Summer Festival"

Yes, it has happened again! The brothers of Caprock Lodge #1540 Elks I.B.P.O.E.W. ignited a bomb of activities which shook the entire city of Lubbock, Saturday, July 4th, with their "Mid-Summer Festival."

The Festival began rolling by entering the Fourth of July parade sponsored by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. Their float (pictured above) was decorated in a most eloquent fashion riding on the float was the brothers of the organization. The theme used by Caprock was "Forever Forward".

Saturday afternoon at the luxurious Ko Ko Palace, Caprock Lodge sponsored a luncheon. This delicious meal was really an appetizer for everyone.

At nine o'clock P. M. the "Mid-Summer Ball" the highlight of the day's activities, began in the main ball room of the Ko Ko Palace, with the music rendered by the "Bobby Williams Combo". At this dance hundreds

In assigning Negro teachers to a school formerly staffed exclusively by Whites, the Lubbock School Board really "kept in step" with the times. The big question though is "Why did the announcement of these assignments have to sound so apologetic?" Isn't it true that qualified teachers should be assigned to schools without regard to race, creed, or color? It is a pity that of Lubbockites really celebrated the fourth of July with a big bang, when they twisted and two-stepped the evening away.

This day of activities "Mid-Summer Festival", has been adopted by the Caprock Lodge as an annual festival. Although Caprock Lodge is in its infant stage, it is still making preparations to become one of the better chapters of the improved benevolent protective order Elks of the world.

such a golden breakthrough should be tarnished by such an apologetic and bush league statement.

Let's stop doing things because of race, creed, or color. Let's do good because it's right and fair. Let's do good because it's from our hearts. Let's not be hypocritical. There is no need to hide behind flimsy excuses.

Registration for swimming classes will be held tomorrow, Friday at nine o'clock A. M. at Mae Simmons Party House. Classes will be held three days per week for forty-five minutes each.

Four sections will be opened and they are as follows: pre-beginners, beginners, intermediate, and swimmers. There will be special instructions given in diving.

Grand Chancellor Visits Here

Shown at right is a welcoming committee for the Grand Chancellor of Knights of Pythian R. A. Hester (center) who was a guest in our city last Sunday. This photo was made at the Municipal Airport as Mr. Hester was coming down the gang plank of Continental Airlines. Chancellor, Clinton Hobdy, is shown welcoming Mr. Hester to our city. At left, Mrs. Lorraine Crawford, District deputy of the Calantheans, and at right Mrs. Coraine Fair, the worthy counselor and State Herald.

Mr. Hester was here to outline in detail the organizational structure necessary for the entertainment of the Grand Lodge and Grand Court Convention. This particular convention is scheduled for 1966, here in the city of Lubbock.

and Oak St. in the city of Lubbock was named Loud Memorial Methodist Church. New members joined were Mr. Frank Day, Mrs. Lovie Day, and Mr. Alvin Bouston. Rev. Stanley and congregation worshipped with the Loud Memorial Church last Sunday at 3:00 P. M.

The Missionary Society honored their pastor on Father's Day. They presented him with a suit, shirt, and house shoes.

Rev. Tisdale motored to Roaring Springs, Tex. last Sunday and preached for the Eastern Stars of Roaring Springs.

Rev. I. M. Woodland of Midland, Texas is holding a revival at Greater St. Paul. It will last through July 10th.

Due to something beyond our control, Rev. Ockletree of Odessa, Texas, was not able to be here as planned.

Ten souls have been added to the roll at St. Paul Baptist Church during the month of June. If you don't have a church home, then feel free to visit the Greater St. Paul Baptist Church, 1602 16th.

tist Church, 1602 16th. Vacation Bible School Commencement exercises were held on last Sunday night beginning at 7:00 P. M. Bible School for this year was rather successful.

Let us pray for and visit our sick. Bro. Wilmar Wilson is improving. We are thankful for that. Sister Mary Brown, Sister Herietta Mims, and Brothers Howard and Earnest Cook are ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Egene Washington of 2406 E. 28th Street entertained with a backyard barbecue dinner, Saturday July 4th, from twelve noon to six o'clock P. M. The Washingtons were happy to have these guests present: Mr. and Mrs. Wakfiels Jones Mr. and Mrs. David

Mrs. Dorothy Douglas, a former graduate of Dunbar High School, and a certified beautician, wishes to announce that she is now employed at Jessie Mae's Beauty Shop at 2107 Date Avenue. She stated that "for early and late appointments call me at SH4-0479, or SH4-1302."

The Queen of Sheba Circle met in the home of Sister L. Curry last Monday night at 8:00. The Rachel Circle met in the home of Sister Mattie Smart on Tues.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor a former resident of the Hub city, has come back to visit her relatives and friends. She was living in the Hub city during the years of 1947-1953, then she left for Calif.

Presently, she resides in the city of Pasadena. She is the parent of Clarence James Johnson, Jr., and Margaret A. Wallace, two students who have attended Dunbar High School since 1959.

While living in California, Mrs. Taylor is attending fashion school at Los Angeles. She is planning on being a designer.

Mrs. Taylor plans to spend her two-week vacation here, afterwards she will return with her son to California.

Cecille J. Graves, an eleventh grader at Mary & Mac, attended Texas Tech's Music Camp, where she took piano and organ. While at Tech, she had an opportunity to attend a three day clinic under the direction of Dr. Nagy, a professor from Boston University.

Gentry and son, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Owens and children, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mc Gowen,

Mrs. Annie Mae Milus Miss Johnny B. Cox and Mrs. Burrough. The sons of the Washingtons entertained the smaller guests with a water hose shower, which was just right for the small fry. Everyone enjoyed a lovely afternoon and a peaceful fourth of July celebration.
