

'Around the Hub City' Dunbar PTA Presents Show Friday

How was your Thanksgiving Holidays? I am sure that the majority of you had turkey and watched football, that is, the man of the house.

But, with all sincerity, it is the most enjoyable for a family to be together on such a holiday.

I couldn't happen but notice all of the young college students who were present with their families for the holidays. I only hope that these young energetic collegians spent a 'little time' with their parents. You know they sometimes forget how important it is to spend time with their parents...the ones who make it possible for them to receive some of the opportunities they have.

This column will acknowledge any writings from some of our college students in regard to some of their new experiences. Or, if they may choose, we would like to know of some of the plans they may have for the Christmas holidays. So if there are any of our college students who are planning activities for the holidays, please send them to this column. We will publish pictures also.

You know, this time last year, the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority was getting ready for their bi-annual Debutante Ball which involved sixteen of our lovely young ladies of the South Plains Area.

It's too bad that this activity can't be given each year instead of every other year. Let me hear from you in regard to this event. Express to me your opinion about this fete being held every year instead of every other.

Among the students home from college for the Thanksgiving season were Misses Dianna Baldwin, Linda Scott, Florence Mayse, Linda Strong, Loyce Graves, Alberat Lincoln, Sue K. Brown, Sherley Wiley, James Page, Tommie Knowles and John Knowles.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ward, Jr., of Muskogee, Oklahoma were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Teague and family. They are relatives of Mrs. Teague.

Mrs. Juanita Wilson of Houston was the week-end guest of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. E.C. Struggs, and family. She left last Sunday evening for home.

Mrs. C. L. Barnes of Houston, Texas, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ida R. Sedberry and other members of her family.

Rev. J.L. Walker, pastor of Messiah Presbyterian Church, was guest speaker at the Annual Thanksgiving assembly at the Dunbar High School last week. Special music was sponsored by the school orchestra under the direction of Mr. J. T. Braxton.

Many people enjoyed a guided tour of the new post office facing Avenue E and 14th Street. This facility may be considered a beacon for improvement in our city.

Mrs. Fulton Berry (nee Judy Struggs) and son left Wednesday via plane for Philadelphia to visit with the child's paternal grandparents. Mrs. Berry will re-enter Howard University at the second semester.

Mr. Burton McCutcheon, Sr., of 1801 Avenue B, suffered a massive stroke last Saturday morning at his home and is listed in critical condition in the intensive care ward at the West Texas Hospital.

HATS OFF TO DUNBAR PANTHERS

Those fighting Dunbar Panthers are to be commended for a job well done in 3-AAA competition this year. We are sure there are some of you of Dunbar who were disappointed with the outcome of the game at Sweetwater, Texas, last week in a bi-district tilt between a charging eleven of Brownwood. True, the score was 18-0, but it, too, was a great victory for a fighting eleven from the Maroon and White.

Before we become disgusted with this contest, please think of what position the Panthers were picked by the so called experts before the season go off the ground. They were picked for sixth with only seven teams in 3-AAA competition.

The Panthers, under the direction of Coach James Hill- yer and his crew, surprised the so-called experts with a 7-0 record in district play. This came by the Panthers defeating Sweetwater, Littlefield, Lamesa, Brownfield, Levelland, Lake- view and Snyder. Perhaps the hardest contest for the Pan- thers was against Sweetwater when they barely shaved the eleven from Sweetwater, 9-8.

This victory was only an omen of what the Dunbar fans saw through the remaining games of district play.

Aside from this, the Panthers landed seven of their greats on the All-City squad—including defensive and of- fensive teams.

Fellows, you are to be commended for a splen- did job this year, and with this type of an effort— your chances for next season should prove to be better.

As Panther fans, we are behind you. You were a team that wouldn't give up no matter how tuff the com- petition came or the grapeline talk of some of your so-called fans. We are looking forward to seeing you perform next season — with the same type of effort.

Thank you fellows, you were a good representative for our neighbor hood, Lubbock Public School System and our city.

The Dunbar Parent-Teachers Association will present its third annual Musical Extravanganza tomorrow night, Friday the 1st of December at 8:00 p.m. in the Dunbar Auditorium. This year's theme will be "An Evening With Christ."

Mrs. Desma Moore, local pianist and choir director, is directress of this year's annual musical fete.

According to Mrs. Thelma Evans, president of the organization, "This year's program should prove itself to be one of the better."

The program will include such talent as Gertrude Las- ley, R.A. Harris, Minnie Dow- dy, Jewel McKinney, Helen Davis, Pearlle McIntire, Grace Taylor, Gloria Smith, Ruby Phillips, Louise Sparks, Bob- bie Patterson, Henretta Phil- lips, Lucille Graves, Lydia Fury, Clara Leonard, Shirley Moore, Doug Sedberry, Rubin Caro, Lewis and son, Melvin Mason, Charlie Williams, Les- ter Winters, Wilson Baldwin, Clarence Ervin, James Mc- Daniels, Lawrence Fury, and David McFalls, and Americus Smith.

Arrangements Pending For Mrs. May Stewart

Services for Mrs. Lena Mae Stewart, 50, were pending at press time at the South Plains Funeral Home.

Mrs. Stewart, 2512 Globe Avenue, died last Thursday evening in West Texas Hos- pital. She was employed as a cook at Texas Tech from 1949 until being hospitalized in October of this year. She worked at Clement and Hulén Hall.

She is survived by three sons, a daughter and grand- children.

All monies raised from this program will go toward the aid of the organization. Tic- kets for adults is only $1.00 while high school students will pay $.50. All other stu- dents are to be charged 25c.

Everyone is invited to at- tend this program and at the same time help support this worthy organization.

BRENDA NELL HARVEY NAMED SECOND PLACE WINNER IN ORATORICAL CONTEST

Brenda Nell Harvey was named second place winner in the City of Lubbock Ameri- can Legion Oratorical Contest held at Lubbock High School, November 22. Having placed first in Dunbar's competition, Brenda became eligible to participate in the contest in which Lubbock Christian and Lubbock High and Coronado High, also participated.

"The Constitution in a Changing World" was the to- pic which Brenda prepared and delivered at Dunbar and then at Lubbock High.

Brenda, Daughter of Mrs. N.R. Harvey is an eleventh grade student at Dunbar High School where she is a member of the Lubbock Youth Coun- cil, F.U.T.U.R.E., Vice-Presi- dent of Student Council, Vice President of Y-Teens, and a member of the Speaker's For- um.

Aside from this, Brenda is also an active member of the Messiah Presbyterian Church where she is pianist for the Sunday School.

No one knows how happy it makes us to read in the San Diego Union the statements attributed to the great Archie Moore in explaining the problems facing this great nation of ours. Mr. Moore's statements prove to us and should to a great many other people that the many problems presently being blamed only on the Negro should be reconsidered in a different light. In our view, he hits the nail on the head when he says:

The devil is at work in America, and it is up to us to drive him out. Snipers and looters, white or black, and those who set fellow Americans upon each other deserve no mercy.

I am a Negro, and proud to be one. I am also an American, and proud of that. I was born in a ghetto, but I refused to stay there. Young people today who think they have a hard lot should have been around in the '30's when I was coming up in St. Louis. We had no way to go, but a lot of us made it. I became light-heavyweight champion. A kid down the block became one of our most famous jazz musicians. There were doctors, lawyers and chiefs who came out of that ghetto—and one of the top policemen in St. Louis.

Don't think I didn't grow up hating injustices. I despised the whites who cheated me, but I used that feeling to make me push on.

I am a staunch advocate of the Negro revolution for the good of mankind, and I've seen almost unbelievable progress made in the last few years. Now the professional rabble-rousers adhere to the idea of giving up all you've gained to revenge yourself for wrongs done in the past. Granted, the Negro still has a long way to go to gain a fair shake with the white man in this country. But if we resort to lawlessness, the only thing we can hope for is civil war, bloodshed and end of our dreams. No responsible Negro wants anarchy. Law and order are the only edge we have.

No truer words have ever been spoken and it behoves all of us to take heed now.

Sex Parties Here

Parents, I would like to take this opportunity of informing you that you should be more concerned about the whereabouts of your children. As many of you know, by now at least, that a group of young people were involved in a sex party in Northeast Lubbock over the past several weeks. This incident was a rare one, but, by the same token, you should be concerned about it.

Vandalism

Naoma Green, 1707 East 13th St., reported to the Police Department that someone threw a rock in her living room window. Would you believe the value of the window to be only $5.00.

Car Burglary

Melba Payne, 1710 East 14th Street, reported to the police that someone unknown took a purse from her automobile while it was parked in the Mae Simmons Park one day last week.

According to Payne, the Purse contained $5.00. This brought the total damage to $18.00 with a damage given to the vent window for which the unknown party broke open for entry.

Theft

Fred Shaw, 1811 Avenue B, Told police that some one had pryed his foot locker open and took from it $20.00. He said it was taken while he was asleep in the room.

However, he admitted that an unknown lady was in the vicinity of the room, but he could not identify her.

Shaw went on to say that the door was unlocked. It would appear to me that he was inviting a theft with his front door open.

Burglary

Jacquelyn Macuen, 3502 Ute Avenue, reported that an unknown person came into this house and took several items.

The burglary came about with the unknown person breaking out the porch light and tearing open a screen from the front room window.

Victim of Lye Water

Bod Eden, resident in the Sanarua Hotel, told police that he was in a local cafe eating his lunch when a man merely walked up to him and threw some lye water on him.

Can you imagine a man minding his own business when out of the clear sky someone comes up to him and throws lye water on him? Well, it happened to Eden and he admits it!

He was taken to Methodist Hospital where he was treated for second degree burns all down the front of his neck and knees.

Eden said he would file charges.

Burglary

Doyal McCurry, resident of East Lubbock, reported that someone did gain entry into his building. He admitted that ten dollars in change was taken from the cash register. Aside from this, a PA system and a title to a car was taken. Value of the items was to be believed to be $85.

Gunshot Victim

Wilmer McMullen, 2638 East Auburn, told police that something rather shocking happened to him last weekend. You see, he was sitting in front of some grey apartments in the 2600 block of Railroad Avenue when a woman came up out from of the clear blue sky and shot once into the hip McMullen who was caught by surprise.

He was taken to Methodist Hospital by a friend. He told police that he would definitely file charges.

THE FUTURE is purchased by the present.

Mt. Gilead Baptist Church

The Mt. Gilead Baptist Church celebrated its 50th Anniversary, last Sunday, November 19, 1967 at 3:00 P.M.

The Mt. Gilead Baptist Church was organized on October 7, 1917, and was the first church for the Negroes in the city. Mrs. Miriah Green, now deceased, was the first candidate for baptismal in Mt. Gilead, and Mrs. Rosa Henry was one of the original charter members. Our membership now consists of (373) members under pastorate of Rev. S.R. Roberts, who has served as pastor for (17) years.

The Missionary department held a very fine program, Sunday, October 15, 1967, with leadership such as Mrs. L.T. Thornton, President; Mrs. Edwina Woods, Vice-President; Mrs. Vinia Thompson, Mrs. Jessie Evans, and Mrs. J.M. Roberts, Chairwomen of the Program Committee.

AMONG THE STARS

By Lee Ivory

Now they're wondering what to do with her! They've put her in many different bags, but nothing has ever panned out the way they wanted it to. So, now they're wondering what to do with sensational Liz Lands.

I certainly wish someone would tell 'em so the poor girl can find the fame and fortune that comes with recognition.

services were held throughout the day by the Brother of Mt. Gilead. Such selections as "Bless This House" were rendered with Mr. Charles W. Johnson as soloist, Garnett Lee, organist, and Mrs. Ellen McWilliams, accompanist. The New Hope Baptist Church served as our guest, with Rev. A. L. Dunn delivering a dynamic sermon. The chairman of the Deacons and the chairman of the program committee, along with all the brothers wish to thank the members, ex-members and friends for their fine support in this spiritual and financial matter. Our proceeds netted over the $2,000.00 mark. Rev. S.R. Roberts, pastor, Mr. Walthre Solomon, treasurer, Mrs. Laura Mitchell, Secretary Deacons: Mrs. E.P. Taylor, Chairman, Mr. W.R. Solomon, Mr. C.C. Mr. Charles W. Johnson, Chairman of the Program Committee.

Antioch Baptist Church

You are cordially invited to attend our services held each Sunday morning and evening. Rev. W.D. Collins, pastor, extends the doors open to the church to you.

In services last Sunday morning, he delivered a dynamic sermon.

Our Savior Lutheran Church

The public is invited to come to church, and share its wonderful blessings. It offers to poor sinners in the name of Jesus, the only Savior, forgiveness of sins, comfort in affliction, peace of soul, reconciliation with God, power for good living, and hope in the hour of death. As you begin to share in these blessings, you will also gladly share in the church's support.

The public is cordially invited to join us each week in worship services. Sunday School is at 9:30 a.m. and church services take up at 10:30 a.m. every Sunday. Also, we have a Day School every Wednesday evening for children of all grades from 4:30 p.m. until 6:30 p.m.

Everybody in the business who is anybody, has—at one time or another—run across this wisp of a singer. And they have never been quite the same afterwards.

Lisome Lis has been called everything from a "Screaming Mimi" to an "Yma Sumac with Soul! Even with an overcoat on her frail back, she weighs only 98 pounds but is noted for her two tons of voice that defies verbal description. You've got to hear it—if you can!

Her range is thought to be somewhere near five octaves, but how do you measure soul? Mercury Records tried to record her quite some time ago—and failed; Motown Records tried to record her some time ago—and failed; several independent producers who felt that they—above all others—knew what to do with her voice recorded her with the same disastrous results.

There have been many songs recorded by Miss Lands and none of them were of such brilliance that I can readily recall them to memory. This, I feel, is another case of a good singer being forced into a bag not of her own making.

Liz sang with Mahalia and won awards; she sang with Belafonte and was a show-stopper; she has performed with only brass accompaniment; and—when bands get in her vocal line of fire—I have seen her work completely alone.

Each time, she has completely swayed an audience. The people have literally been swept away with the beauty of her voice on more than one occasion. And I, being the eternal nite-lifer, saw a noisy roomful of hard-drinking "soulbrothers" rise as one to give Liz a standing ovation. You don't hardly get that in one of those hole-in-the-wall clubs!

Now, though, they are wondering what in the world to do with her.

If any one person in the world can record the elusive and beautiful voice of Liz Lands, it just might be comic-singer Tommy Brown, her husband. Perhaps he, more than anyone else, has the necessary knowledge needed to bring home the musical bacon, as it were.

But, until the time that record companies realize that Tommy may be the man, they will continue to wonder what to do with the enormously-talented girl.

Ant that, ironically, is another one of the tragedies of show business.

See you Among the Stars...

YOUR HEALTH

Air travelers with long memories can recall a time when any trip in windy weather might cover almost as much distance up-and-down as cross-country. The proudest passenger planes of those days were less than half as big or as fast as today's giant jets.

Now a days people boarding a plane need give little thought to wind velocity, air pockets or the location of that little brown paper bag. Pressurized cabins have increased comfort and safety, too. But air travel still holds some health hazards, and the airline people are the first to point them out. Passengers who develop medical complications are no fun or profit to anyone.

Recently an airline medical director volunteered some simple guidelines for health safety in sky travel. People who have colds, or any condition in which fever might develop, should stay on the ground—ear trouble is a particular hazard to them.

Nor should anyone fly who has had a heart attack as recently as three weeks ago. This doesn't apply to heart conditions of longer standing, if the sufferer has been able to function normally.

Emphysema patients who require oxygen, and persons with other conditions involving shortness of breath, should refrain from flying. So should those with severe anemia, and anyone who has recently undergone eye surgery. Women in the final month of pregnancy are discouraged from flying unless equipped with a doctor's certificate saying that they are fit for air travel.

Fewer types of illness are affected by flying now than in earlier days. Your Christmas Seal association, concerned with general health as well as with the fight against TB and other diseases.
