LISD Announces Policy For Providing Free & Reduced-Price Meals

The Lubbock Independent School District has announced its policy for providing free and reduced-price meals for students served under the National School Lunch Program. Each school or the central office has a copy of the policy, which may be reviewed by any interested party.

The household size and income criteria identified below will be used to determine eligibility for free and reduced-price benefits. Students from households whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free or reduced-price meals. Foster children who are the legal responsibility of the state agency or court are eligible for free meal benefits regardless of the income of the household with whom they reside.

Application forms are being distributed to all households with a letter informing household of the availability of free and reduced-price meals for their children. Applications also are available at the administration office in each school. To apply for free and reduced-price meals, households must fill out the application and return it to the school. Applications may be submitted anytime during the school year. The information households provide on the application will be used for the purpose of determining eligibility and verification of data. Applications may be verified by the school officials at any time during the school year.

For school officials to determine eligibility for free and reduced-price benefits, households receiving Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits (formerly Food Stamps)/Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) only have to list their child's name and SNAP or TANF eligibility group number. An adult household member must sign the application.

Households that do not list a SNAP/TANF eligibility group number must list the names of all household members, the amount and source of the income received by each household member, and the last four digits of the Social Security number of the adult household member who signs the application. If the adult who signs the application does not have a Social Security number, the household member must indicate that a Social Security number is not available by writing the word "None," "No Number," or some indication that the person does not have a Social Security number. The application must be signed by an adult household member.

Under the provisions of the free and reduced-price meal policy, Free and Reduced Clerk will review applications and determine eligibility. Parents or guardians dissatisfied with the ruling of the official may wish to discuss the decision with the reviewing official on an informal basis.

Parents wishing to make a formal appeal for a hearing on the decision may make a request either orally or in writing to: Traci Robertson, Executive Director of Purchasing and Contract Services, 1628 19th Street, Lubbock Texas, 79401, (806) 766-1098.

Family Fun Day At Patterson Library

The Patterson Branch Library held their annual Family Fun Day on August 14, 2012. Family Fun Day is an event held every year at the end of summer and is a great way for newcomers to be introduced to this specific branch as well as a way to remind residents living nearby of the enormous amount of resources available at the branch and at the other library locations in Lubbock. It was a huge success this year with an estimated attendance of well over 600 people. There were bounce houses, games, food, drink, and over 20 door prizes given away. The top prize given away was a Kindle ereader and the lucky winner, Dianna Humphrey, was very excited to receive the prize. The Lubbock Fire Department also made an appearance. Children were allowed to see a fire engine up close and sit inside while the firefighters answered questions about their chosen profession. The success of this event would not have been possible without the generous support of Friends of the Library and these sponsors: United Supermarkets, their Manager Chris Edwards and the

From the Desk of Parson D.A. Smith
Racism Is Alive and Well In Lubbock, Texas

Closest racism in America since the election of President Obama has opened its doors and is presently spreading like a wild fire across an open prairie in America. One would think that these supposedly God fearing Americans would not feel this way since they claim to fear God the Father and are saved by their Jesus and sanctified with their brand of the Holy Ghost!

An article by Cesar Chelala (a co-winner of an Overseas Press Club of America award and contributing editor to The Globalist) noted for people throughout the world, the election of Barack Obama to the U.S. presidency seemed to signal in a new era, that of the end of racism. Indeed, Obama's election was a momentous occasion and, one would have hoped, a milestone on the road to reconciliation. However, some recent, very ominous events cast a worrisome veil over the democratic process in the United States.

There are many reasons that can explain Obama's election as President: his penetrating intelligence, a wonderfully orchestrated campaign, and a life devoted to public service in which each action was like a brilliant chess move by a master of the game. But there were other factors of equal significance.

Before Obama's election, not only was the country involved in wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, in what increasingly looks like a quagmire, particularly in the latter country. The economy was in a desperate state, and unemployment and health costs were rising. There was a feeling of widespread malaise in the country believed by many to be the result of an incompetent president manipulated by darker forces, an opinion widely shared throughout the world.

After the initial high of Obama's election, there is now a changed atmosphere in the country. Violence is an inescapable companion to racism. And violence, or violent outbursts racially motivated, are certainly on the increase in the U.S. Threats against President Obama have increased by 400% since President George W. Bush left office, the highest numbers on record.

What makes that situation particularly worrisome is that they come not only from fringe elements in society. Thinly disguised, they also originate from certain political leaders who seem intent on creating an atmosphere of violence and disrespect around the President and the presidency.

How else can one interpret this statement by House Minority Leader John Boehner? "There is a political rebellion going on in America, and what we have seen was just a glimpse of it" he stated after last November's elections. One doesn't need to be a psychologist or a linguist to understand that such statements stroke the fires of rebellion, and are all the more dangerous when coming from a leader holding one of the most powerful offices in Washington.

As if this weren't enough, Boehner added, "Clearly it's been a difficult year. For us it's been like standing in front of machine gun-liberal ideas every single week, one after another. I think it really has the American concerned. They are scared to death, actually."

(Editor's Note: This article will continue in our next issue on Thursday, September 20, 2012. There is more very good information. The Ed)

We Thank God for Jesus
"Lord, The Watchman's Off The Wall!"

Written by Evangelist Billy "B.J." Morrison, III - Your brother in Christ Jesus always.

Isaiah 58:1 -- The Lord said, cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgressions (sins).

Matthew 23:37-38 -- O' Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee. How often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathered her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house church is left unto you desolate (forsaken).

Lord, that watchman has a homosexual in the choir. He says he is praising You with songs -- he is a liar!

Amos 5:21-24 -- The Lord said, I hate, I depise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies. Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings. I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts. Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs. For I will not hear thy melody of thy viols. But let judgement run down as water, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

Lord, that watchman lets his missionary shack, but you called it "Sin" and that's a fact.

I Corinthian 5:2-4; 6-9 -- Ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away among you. In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, to deliver such and one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh. That the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven (sin) leaveneth the whole lump. I wrote unto you in an epitle not to company with fornicators.

I Corinthians 7:9 -- If they cannot contain, let them marry; for it is better to marry than to burn.

Lord, that watchman has 5 musicians, "say we don't want to be saved." But every Sunday, they come with instruments, and they can play. (They play rock & soul)...

Lord, the watchman says leave them alone. "I'm gonna save them." But blind leading the blind. "Lord, please save him. (If I'm gonna save someone, then Jesus didn't have to go to the cross). I think that's right!!!"

Lord, the watchman let all this sin come in, as if "saying pay your tithes for your sins."

Lord, there are other reasons he lets in sin. It is the love of money, and to pay for his -- Mercedes Benz.

Matthew 15:7-8 -- Ye hypocrities, well done E-sai'as as prophesy of you, saying, this people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoreth me their lips; but their heart is far from me.

Romans 1:22 -- Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools.

Luke 16:13 -- Jesus said, no servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon (money).

Yes, The Watchman will rob God!!!

Malachi 2:1 -- The Lord said, O' Ye Priests, this commandment is for you. If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord of host. I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessing; yea I have cursed them already. Behold I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung (dung) upon your face.

Outreach Prayer Breakfast

Since the beginning of time, Nicodemus undoubtedly had a plan of his own until he had an encounter with Christ, and it was revealed to him. Paul, before his conversion, surely had a plan of his own, and it was only after the Lord knocked him off his beast and blinded him that Paul fully realized God's plan.

Man's plan of salvation is any age has always resulted in his disobedience of God's command and disobedience is nothing, but another word of sin. The end result of sin is death. Romans 6:23.

Trying to pay ones sins away is not in God's plan of salvation. Neither is having your name on some one's church roll. Some men feel that abiding by some philosophy or living a morally good life on earth will insure them of a place in heaven. "What a tragic mistake!"

My friend, let us face this one fact: Man with all of his knowledge and ingenuity cannot save himself. No, not even in this scientifically advanced, but spiritually decaying world.

Here is God's plan of salvation as revealed by the Holy Scripture: One must hear the word of God. (Romans 10:14) Believe in Jesus Christ as the Son of God. (St. John :16, 18 & 36).

Repent of your sins. In other words, turn from your wicked ways and turn to God. Experience a change of ind, heart and direction. (St. Mark 1:15; St. Luke 24:47).

Thanks so much, Sister Devine. God bless you for this lesson salvation. We love y ou!!

Thought For The Week:
"Stand up for Jesus. If you have to stand alone, and with Jesus, who can stand against you!!"

Think about it!!

For all of you who are sick, read and believe St. Mark 11:22-26; II Chronicles 7:14.

Remember, you are always invited to join us each month. We just love the Lord. Many of our members have gone home to be with the Lord, but we are still standing. He's always with us, and we will continue doing what we know best. Serve the Lord. Call us: (80) 762-2774.

Sister Dorothy Hood, president; and Sister Elnora Jones, teacher.

"PRAISE THE LORD!!"

I thank God for the cutting of the lots, cleaning of the rubbish, and cutting of the right-of-way in Yellowhouse Canyon in East Lubbock. I made a complaint to City Councilman Floyd Price and Stuart Walker of Codes Department. They got busy and took care of busy right away. They made Yellowhouse Canyon look good!

Of course, people have started back dumping already!!! This is being done at East 50th Street and Olive Avenue and 60th Street and Redwood Avenue. They have no fear of the law. Again, thanks for making our community look good! We're proud of Lubbock also.

NAACP Mourns the Loss of Sarah Moore Greene

Baltimore, MD - The NAACP mourns the passing of Sarah Moore Greene, a long time activist and former member of the NAACP National Board of Directors. She was 102. A memorial service will take place today in Knoxville.

"Sarah Moore Greene acted as Knoxville's conscience for much of the twentieth century," stated NAACP Chairman Roslyn M. Brock. "When she joined the NAACP National Board of Directors she brought with her years of experience fighting injustice, and left an indelible mark on the Association. She will be truly missed by those who learned from her - her students, but also her colleagues, family and friends."

"Sarah Moore Greene was a brave and talented civil rights icon," stated NAACP President Benjamin Todd Jealous. "Whether she was conducting a sit-in at a segregated restaurant, or sitting in the mayor's office to negotiate fair treatment, Mrs. Greene was consistently effective and persistently active. We extend our deepest sympathies to her family and friends."

Mrs. Greene, the daughter of a former slave, taught in Knoxville for years before becoming the first African American to serve on the Knoxville City School Board. She became a civil rights icon for her work leading sit-ins and fighting discrimination and segregation in her community.

Mrs. Greene served on the National Board of Directors from 1972 to 1997. She came on the Board to fill the unexpired one year term of Arthur Spingarn. She also served as president of the Tennessee NAACP State Conference and secretary of the NAACP Knoxville Branch.

A community memorial service will take place Monday, August 20, from 6:00 to 8:00 pm at Mt. Zion Baptist Church, 2714 Brooks Road, Knoxville, TN 37914. Celebration services followed on Tuesday, August 21 at Great Warner A.M.E. Zion Church, 3800 Martin Luther King, Jr. Avenue, Knoxville, TN. Messages of condolence can be forwarded to the Tennessee

NAACP State Conference (tnnaacp3@bellsouth.net) or 27 Brentshire Square, Suite A, Jackson, TN 38305.

Founded in 1909, the NAACP is the nation's oldest and largest civil rights organization. Its members throughout the United States and the world are the premier advocates for civil rights in their communities, conducting voter mobilization and monitoring equal opportunity in the public and private sectors.

West Nile Virus Case Confirmed in Lubbock County

The City of Lubbock Health Department has confirmed the first Lubbock West Nile Virus (WNV) human case for 2012 in an adult male over 70. Two additional reports have been received on adults but have not yet been confirmed.

Vector Control staff have been spraying for mosquitoes for several months and have increased targeted spraying around areas where WNV-positive mosquito pools have been detected.

WNV is a disease of birds. Humans and horses get exposed to the virus when they are bitten by mosquitoes that have fed on infected birds. The infected mosquitoes become the link (vector) that spreads the disease from birds to man or horse through a mosquito bite. WNV cannot be spread from bird to man, horse to man or person-to-person.

Symptoms can develop within 3 to 14 days and can last from 3 to 6 days. The symptoms can be mild to severe, starting with fever, and any of the following: weakness, loss of appetite, nausea, vomiting, eye pain, headache, muscle aches, rash and swollen glands. The elderly and those with weakened immune systems are at higher risk of developing severe WNV symptoms.

Prevention is key in eliminating the risk of exposure to mosquitoes. Citizens can further reduce exposure with the following activities:

Remember the 4 Ds when enjoying outdoor activities.

Dawn and Dusk, DEET, Drain, Dress

1. Avoid being out when mosquitoes feed - usually at Dawn and Dusk.
2. Wear protective clothing. Long sleeves and pants when outdoors. (DRESS)
3. Use appropriate repellent and according to instructions on the label. Spray clothing with repellent as mosquitoes can bite through thin fabric. Apply repellent to exposed skin. CDC guidelines recommend repellents containing up to 35% DEET for adults, up to 10% DEET for children. Repellents can irritate the eyes and mouth so avoid applying to children's hands.
4. Avoid perfume - they attract mosquitoes.

Protecting the Home:

1. Install or repair window and door screens to keep mosquitoes from indoors.
2. Get rid of standing water around the house. Mosquitoes need water to breed. Empty plant saucers, pet dishes, and any containers, such as old tires that have collected water. Change the water in kiddie pools and birdbaths daily. (DRAIN)
3. Keep yard mowed. Mosquitoes hide in tall brush and grasses.
4. Residents are asked to report problem areas with mosquitos by calling the Mosquito Hotline at 775-3110

Consult your physician for any illness that you suspect may be "West Nile Virus".

No new cases as of Tuesday morning, September 3, 2012. Total cases to date remains at 3.

anything can tell you that cut the Medicare cost

There is a lot of talk and even a few groups working to 'save' young men, especially young Black men. One of the reasons being that the houses for correction, or jails have an excessive number of Black men as residents. In addition, correctional institutions are being constructed every day and the fact is that these constructions outnumber those being built for learning, or schools.

There is a lot of lip service and only a few learned studies that highlight the reasons why so many young men are traveling down the wrong path. I have not done a study, but I have observed and concluded that one of the reasons that young men are having so many problems is old men. What are the old men doing to lead young men astray? There are several things that they are doing.

The first thing that old men are doing to lead young men astray is nothing. They are not around to guide the young men. Chances are that they had no guidance and do not see why it is necessary. These men are completely satisfied with who they are regardless of their status in life. A few have been successful in whatever they have done and consider themselves 'self-made men.' Ironically, they feel that young men can do the same thing that they did. They see no need to help.

The second thing that is wrong with old men is that some of them feel that they are right about everything and with them, a young man either see it 'their way or the highway.' Many mothers put up with this attitude to placate their husbands at the expense of their sons. Boys have minds and should be given an opportunity to express themselves sometimes. Parents should listen and together some decisions about what to do or not to do can be decided.

The third thing about old men is that some set such poor examples of what is right and wrong in their home until a young man can only know and understand what he sees. A man who abuses his wife and children is not the model to grow with. Young men from this kind of home have a tendency to be like their fathers. This can lead to very serious consequences, especially if they connect with a female with a very different outlook.

The fourth thing is that men with morals, standards and all of the characteristics that are desirable in men, are not doing enough to help young men to grow into model citizens. The clubs and organizations that foster ideals for young men need more male volunteers. Good men could offer a hand to young men or even one young man in the neighborhood. In large cities, men know their neighborhoods and most of the children in it. It is not difficult to observe where some help is needed and will probably be accepted. Old men: get 'in cinque' and save our young men. Our women need to nudge our men to help.

Letter to the Editor "Here We Go Again!"

Almost to the day in August 2009, Judge Head caused negative national attention and embarrassment to Lubbock County residents. Those of us who were offended by his illustrated lack of judgment and racial insensitivity called for his immediate resignation at the time. In an apology letter, Judge Head stated that he was wrong and that he would never again be guilty of embarrassing the local Republican Party. Either he suffers from Alzheimer's or simply is blatantly arrogant about his hatred of President Obama, because we are right back here again. This time, however, even the most conservative groups are distancing themselves from this misguided official who has brought international shame to good and decent people by espousing a crazy theory of imminent danger coming to his constituents if the President is re-elected.

Judge Head, I can assure you that the lack of eloquent speech has absolutely nothing to do with paranoid and warped ideology. Lubbock County can and should be better represented, lest we become the laughingstock of the universe for continuing to defend the many unthoughtful blunders of the "Christian" man. Judge Head your saving grace lies in resignation because you're not a trustworthy official.

Covenant Health Continues to Host Oncology Caregivers Support Hour

Covenant Health will host an oncology support hour for caregivers. The first support hour of the month will be September 11 from 5:30-6:30 p.m. at the American Cancer Society's Hope Lodge.

Joe Velasquez, supervisor of patient and community services at Joe Arrington Cancer Center said the support hour was started last July. They started the support hour because as the number of cancer survivors grow in the nation, the number of caregivers and the length of care they provide increases also.

"Often, they need to be acknowledged and thanked for the difficult job they do, as they rarely receive much in the way of support," Velasquez said. "We also spend a lot of time trying to re-frame their thinking into the concept of taking care of themselves in order to be a better caregiver to their loved one."

Lincoln-Douglass Says: "We're Sorry!"

The Lincoln-Douglass Committee felt it to be unfair for us not to say something about the reason we did not advertise about scholarship applications. As you know, February 10, 2012 was one of the worse winter days we had all winter. But there were interruptions FACTS : wrong address put on the internet. KoKo Inn instead of the Memorial Civic Center diverted funds to another organization, trying to make sure our 501(c) 3 was not in order, changed name on City Bank Community Rewards Application. We feel this is enough for the time being. We are just sorry things turned out the way they did. But we are working for February 10, 2013.

We also suspect telephone tapping and computer hacking. This we have tried to prove. But as the commercial says, the other things mentioned, "the proof is in the puddin." Short on attendees but. The Event did take place because the performers made it into town before the weather came in.

The people who were there seemed to have had a good time, even the children who were in attendance.

Congratulations to everyone who attended this family reunion this year, July 14, 2012. We need family support to keep the reunion going. Please send your dues on time in order to help. This is necessary so we can get the building on time.

Another year has gone. Be advised that information will be sent out to you January, 2013 for the July, 2013 Minter & Reed Reunion.

A special thanks to our Aunties for enjoying the sun with the family in the Sedberry Park.

Uncle Willie, we missed you and your family this year!

Aunt Thelma was the oldest person present this year.

Family members, let's keep praying for each other. The family that prays together stays together. Keep our Prayer Line open. Let us stay connected with God. We have an awesome God all the time. Prayer is power. God is still smiling on our family.

We have received word that all family members have returned to their locations safe and sound.

The plaque will be passed to Crystal Nelson for the year 2012-2013.

Everyone looked so bright and beautiful. Everyone was happy and uplifting this year.

Our family is so funny when we are together. Do you remember the family in 2011 when we changed our T-shirts. Our T-shirts had the family poem on it. Let's order our T-shirts on time for 2013. Family members, we have plenty of time to order our T-shirts..

Family, let's stay in order and do things to make our 20th Year. Keep up t he good work every-one.

Our last death in the family was Louis Minter in May, 2009; and Geraldine Scott on June, 2012.

We want to give our blessing to Jehovah God. This reunion turned out to be a happy occasion. Again, thanks for coming back home.

May God bless us to return next year, July 2013.

Oh, yes, everyone returned home on July 15, 2012!
