Charlotte Love & Pearline Holmes Present One Act Play at St. Luke

Almo Sedberry Serving His Apprenticeship at Houston

Lonnie Love Sponsors One Act Play at St. Luke Baptist Sun.

Lonnie Love, assisted by Mrs. R. A. Harris of St. Luke Baptist Church, is directing a one act play presented by the intermediate department at Greater St. Luke Baptist Church.

The play will be presented Sunday morning, March 11, after the close of study period. The play titled "The Pure in Heart," was written and will be presented by members of the intermediate department.

Lonnie, a very conscientious faithful Christian worker at his church, was born at Waco, Texas, May 18, 1920. He is the son of Silas and the late Mrs. Emma Love. He is a member of a family of nine children. He is the middle child with four older and four younger.

Lonnie was a small boy 4 years old when his parents moved to Lubbock in 1924. He began his elementary school work here, and when he was a sophomore in Dunbar High School he volunteered for U. S. Army service Aug. 20. At Ft. Sill, Okla., he spent 2 and one half years and in 1944 he was sent overseas. Among the places he was stationed are England, Berlin, France and Belgium.

He was honorably dis-

The one act play will be presented by the following characters in the intermediate group:

Doctor, Gerry Brewer; Nurse, Antoinette Roberson; Announcer, Edward Lester. In the play people have been ill a long time and a doctor was asked for help. The general theme of the play is the need of each of us to get right with God. Sponsors: Lonnie O. Love and Mrs. R. A. Harris.

The members are urged to be sure and be present and on time.

Pearline, 14 years old, was born in Lubbock June 17, 1947. She with her parents lived a year in Hobbs, N. M. Then they moved to Abilene where Pearline began school. She attended Woodson Elementary School from the first grade through fourth. Then back in Lubbock she went through 5th and 6th grades at Ella Iles and is now a freshman at Dunbar High School. The Bates live at 2601 Ivory.

Charlotte was also born in Lubbock and has begun her public school work here. She is 16 years old and a sophomore at Dunbar High School. These girls feel

Girl Scouts to Observe 50th Anniversary this Week

This year Girl Scouts Week begins March 11. The Girl Scouts are organized on a plan similar to that of the Boy Scouts.

March 12, 1912, Daisy Gordon with ten other young girls gathered in an unsued stable belonging to her aunt, Mrs. Juliette Low, in Savannah, Ga., and organized the first patrol of Girl Guides which later developed into the Girl Scouts. Mrs. Low, the daughter of General W. W. Gordon, had married William Low of Warwickshire, England, and maintained a home in London as well as in Savannah. She became acquainted with Sir Robert Baden-Powell, the founder of the Boy Scouts and became interested in the Girl Guides, an or-

Two weeks ago Almo Sedberry, one of Lubbock's leading barbers, left for Houston where he began his apprenticeship in funeral directing. He has completed previous courses that entitled him to assist his brother Leo, who owns and operates Sedberry's Funeral Home. One of the requirements for assisting is to handle a required number of bodies. Alma plans to practice at the late Carl Barnes' Mortuary. A few days prior to his leaving here for Houston, Mr. Barnes passed away at Houston after a long illness from a malignancy. His son Titus will operate his late father's business.

Mr. Barnes was the brother of Dr. C. L. Barnes, one of Houston's

Student Council Members Attend Arkansas Meeting

Mrs. M. K. Lusk, sponsor of the Student Council, and members of the Council returned early Sunday morning from Texarkana, Ark., where they attended the Lone Star State Association of Student Council. The following students and officers made the trip: president Marvin Davis, vice president Mattie Rutherford, treasurer Carolyn Woodard, musician Judith Ann Struggs and alternate Sandra Strong. Also making the trip was Linda Marie Lusk. The group left Lubbock by bus Wednesday evening. Judith Ann and Mattie Rutherford represented Lubbock on the talent program. They reported a very pleasant trip.

Mrs. Grace Sullivan left Tuesday for San Antonio, Texas. She received message that her husband had suffered a stroke. Their daughter, Carolyn, is with him.

Mrs. Mildred Long is not doing well at all. She has been ill several months.

leading dentists, who is also the son-in-law of Mrs. Ida R. Sedberry of Lubbock.

Accompanying Almo as far as Belton, Texas, was his wife, Mrs. Almo Sedberry, who will visit with her sister, Aurine, and family until Almo comes home.

Mrs. Sedberry, "Louise," is one of Lubbock's leading beauticians.

Considering the size of Houston in ratio and proportion to Lubbock and also considering the death rates, Almo should finish his course in a very short time.

Both the Sedberry boys work as barbers in their own shop between funeral arrangements.

Sharon Elaine Sparks Honored

Howdy, Folks! Guess I'll start out talking about the state basketball tournament in Prairie View and West Texas, since this will probably be the last time I'll mention basketball. Of course, the memories will linger on.

1961-62 sure looked at one time to be a complete West-Texas year. First Crane, Texas, won Class "B" state championship, Colorado City won Class A, Dunbar won Class 1AA and until 10:30 p.m. Friday night I thought Monterey High School of Lubbock would win Class 3-AAAA. At this writing and until about 9:30 p.m. Tuesday night, March 6, 1962, Texas Tech could win the Southwest Conference.

Prairie View College, in the first round of the Interscholastic League Basketball tournament: Game No. 1, Class AA

Dunbar High of Livingston, Texas, defeated Valley View High of Gilmer, Texas, 70 to 54. In game No. 2 Fidelity, Galena Park of Houston, Texas, easily downed Turner High of Waxahachie 64 to 32. Game No. 3 is when Dunbar Panthers of Lubbock led, trailed and then overtook Carver High of Omaha, Texas, in the last four minutes to win 70 to 64. Game No. 4 saw Wharton Training of Wharton, Texas, spank another Carver High of Greenville, Texas, 59 to 44. In the semi-finals Galena Park felled Livingston 75 to 64. Dunbar of Lubbock walloped Wharton 86 to 54 and right to meet Galena Park in the finals and defeated them 63 to 52 to become Class 1AA state champions.

Class 3AAA: Game No. 5 was a real battle right down to the last second and Como of Ft. Worth barely escaped a defeat and won over Carver High of Baytown 56 to 54. I still think Baytown should have won the game. Game No. 6 was another runaway. Turner High of Carthage, Texas, manhandled Dunbar High of Temple, Texas, 64 to 49. In the finals Como of Ft. Worth had another close call and didn't get their breath either until the buzzer. Como of Ft. Worth 57, Carthage 56. Class 3AAA state champions, Como of Ft. Worth. Class 4AAAA: Game No. 7 found Worthing of Houston eliminating Emmett Scott of Tyler, with ease 81 to 63. Game No. 8 paired Madison High of Dallas with Charlton-Pollard of Beaumont and Madison of Dallas won that one without a big struggle 71 to 66, and a chance to meet mighty David (Leaping) Latin and the Worthing High team of Houston in the finals, and man, boy or girl, what a game that was. When 32 minutes were up, it was just like they started, all even 54 to 54. They played 3 minutes overtime and Madison scored only 2 points and Worthing scored 8 points to win the Class 4AAAA state championship 62 to 56. That was a game I wish all of Lubbock could have seen. This David (Leaping) Latin was a lad a coach would dream about and any coach would want him. Too much for a team on the backboards. The officiating was fair. While on that subject I would like to mention that the best game I have ever seen or should I say one of the best if not the best officiated games in my life was the play-off game between Dunbar and Midland at Dunbar gym Feb. 14, 1962.

Here is a reprint of a letter I received from Mr. Lloyd C. A. Wells, sports writer for "The Houston Informer" upon my return from the state basketball tournament held in Prairie View, Feb. 23-24, 1962. I was very happy to receive such nice compliments, but I wanted to pass it on to our many readers so they could see what was said and how one felt about Lubbock, our school, our principal, our coach and the team. After all he is from Houston and we beat a Houston team to win the state championship. I would like to add that the Dunbar Panthers organization founded in 1909 by his sister, intended to do for girls what the scouts did for boys. It was at her suggestion that her niece and her girl friends started the organization in Savannah.

Time passed and other groups were formed in other cities and the headquarters were removed to Washington in 1915 and the name changed to Girl Scouts. The headquarters were later moved to New York. The anniversary of the founding of the organization is observed with special ceremonies each year.

Womanless Wedding Termed a Success

Snyder, Texas---The Lincoln P-TA "Womanless Wedding" was a huge success. The P-TA president would like to thank all who participated in making this project a success, and especially those who acted in the wedding and sold tickets.

The children and parents are still talking and laughing about the capers and antics of "Mama Truly" as played by Willie Daniels Sr. and Otis Archie, Allen Powell, Roosevelt Asbury, Charlie Collins, Mrs. Sedalia Malone and others are to be commended for their parts.

The P-TA is planning another project to be presented in the form of a basketball game. The "World's Greatest No Basketball Players" will play the "Snyder All Star Clowns." Be sure and come see Willie Daniels as "Ball Crazy" the Star Clown.

The program chairman, Mr. Davis, is in charge of this game which will be held in the Lincoln gym, March 23, at 8 p. m. The prices will be 50¢ and 15¢. The public is invited.

and honor to their school and the city of Lubbock. Congratulations to Coach E. P. Mallory and his fighting Panthers.

February 28, 1962
Dear Mr. Lewis:

It was most refreshing meeting you in Prairie View last week for the state championship basketball tournament and your novel idea of "casting the keys on a rod and reel" was amusing indeed. I hope you are aware that it caused me and hundreds of others quite a lot of fun and amusement.

I read your column with interest; understand and admire you for what you are doing for the youth and sports in your community, and take this opportunity to commend you for a noteworthy effort. I also observed with admiration and interest in the type of vocal support and encouragement you gave the Lubbock team from your vantage position on the floor at several of their important games in P. V. I don't know if they appreciated it or not, but I do know it helped them. Keep up the good work and if there is any assistance I can lend my support... please feel free to ask.

Lubbock has one of the finest high school teams I have seen anywhere in Texas this year... in any class and it is my qualified opinion that Joe McWilliams is the most intelligent and talented basketball player I have seen in recent years. I spoke to Coach Leroy Moore in regard to offering him a scholarship and if he doesn't get one there, I want you and/or this lad to let me know and I can quickly secure him one at several major colleges.

Please give my regards to the Lubbock principal, the coach and the team for the splendid way they conducted themselves in winning the state championship last week.

Yours very truly,

The party was given four days before her birthday because it came in mid-week and the weekend was a more appropriate time. Many useful gifts were received by Sharon and after she opened the gifts she thanked each of her friends and passed out favors of balloons and miniature hats. The guests gathered around a table centered with a huge birthday cake, decorated with 8 candles and sang Happy Birthday, "Penny." Ice cream and cake were served.

Sharon is known to all her friends and family as Penny. She has two older sisters and one brother. They all had a happy time.
