NEW SERVICE ANNOUNCED

In a new development this week, the publisher of The MANHATTAN HEIGHTS Times announced the establishment of subscription service for the paper.

"This service," said Mr. Williamson, "will enable us to give more and better service to our readers."

"By more and better service we mean, in the fall of the year, when the newsboys are in school people will be able to receive their weekly copy of 'The Times' in the mail each Thursday morning, if they are subscribers. Also, readers in area towns will be able through subscription to be sure they receive their copy of the paper each week."

"We hope," he concluded, "that this is just the first of many steps to be taken in the future to improve 'The Times'."

Norvell Hutchinson Receives General Mills Scholarship

Norvell Hutchinson, 17 year old son of Mr. and Mr. H.S. Hutchinson, of 2915 Beech, will leave Lubbock July 10, via Braniff Airline, for the Minnesota Outward Bound School, located in Superior National Forest near Ely, Minnesota.

Norvell received the $350 scholarship from General Mills, Inc. through Morton Foods, Inc., where his father has been employed for more than 20 years. He and two other boys from other cities in Texas were chosen from all the thousands of Morton family employees all over Texas to represent the company.

Norvell will be one of the 96 young men, 16 - 23 years of age, who were chosen on

JUST THANKS!

With all due respect to the readers of this paper, and incidently, to Mr. Patterson who generally fills this space each week, I find it necessary that the publisher, or yours truly, be called upon to do the job. This is mainly due to the fact that T. J. has been required to fight the yearly battle of North Fort Hood, Texas, which I myself am no stranger to. So at any rate, I will set forth some words in the hope that I am neither run out of town by irrate readers, nor forced to take this particular assignment permanately.

Since the job has more or less been forced upon me this week, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the many citizens in Lubbock and the immediate West Texas area that have helped over the past four and one-half years to make the "Times" the type of newspaper it is today. I have been most fortunate, I believe, to be the owner of a weekly newspaper that now sells more than 2,500 papers every week. This type of growth in the weekly business is perhaps not record-setting, but to me most gratifying. I have always stressed to "Pat" and James Roy that the paper must always be treated as though it belonged to them, as far as news and advertising was concerned, and for them to handle their end of the business in such a manner. Fortunately, the three of us have been able to work together in a manner that provided just such accord, but, more important you the reader have provided us with the news and selling media that has helped to make the paper the success it is. With this in mind, I would again like to thank each and every one of you loyal readers for your patronage and for the opportunity we have had to serve you.

Thanks too, to the many people in the local towns who have sent us news stories concerning the happenings and events in their area. We will always endeavor to print this material and try our best to place the news in such a manner that each local correspondent can find his or her story. It has been the policy of the "Times" to solícite news from area towns in the hope that we can stimulate interest in our paper, and at the same time relay to other readers of the area what is going on.

Of course, as is the case with any publication, any information that we do receive, we reserve the right to edit, with the idea in mind that only the best information available will be published for our readers.

May I, since I'm taking so much liberty this week, at the same time ask that anyone who sees need or room for improvement in the "Times" feel free at anytime to write us a letter about the way they feel, since I want to always provide the Negro citizens of Lubbock and West Texas with the type of newspaper coverage they deserve.

Here's hoping that the above number of lines is just about what is prescribed to fill the necessary spece, and in closing let me say that I would greatly appreciate it if we could carry a page of news for every community in West Texas. Maybe in the future we will be able to see just such news coverage possible.

Enjoyed it just some, this editor's position, and "scouts honor", T.J. will be back next week.

From The Firing Line

By Dick J. Reavis, Demopolis, Alabama

Work in Marengo County continues despite minor harrassments. Monday, the 21st of June, was one of the two days allotted each month to voter registration. One-hundred and forty Negroes made the trip to the county courthouse, in Linden. Once there, they waited, and waited, and stood in line. The registrars passed whites through the lines, and generally hampered progress. Altogether, only forty-six Negro citizens were allowed to go through the procedure, which includes Alabama's devilish literacy test. Then at four in the afternoon, the ordeal of patience was over; the courthouse was closed and the ninety-one waiting Negroes returned to their communities. On Tuesday, the 6th of July, we will again attempt to mass voting prospects on the courthouse lawn.

Canvassing for the July 6th assault is underway. At every city and farmhouse door in Marengo County, SCOPE workers are knocking, asking Negroes to summon their courage for the march to the polls. Classes in political education are scheduled, because if we are to grasp freedom, the political machinery of this state---the system---must become a familar enemy to us. By the time July has seen its end, community organization will begin, for it is intolerable that field hands should return to slavery by working under the yoke of a $15 weekly wage. Boycotts are in force against stores where Negroes are denied the right to work. The undramatic, long-range work of improvng daily living conditions has begun, because poverty has for too long been the central fact of the black belt life, soiling ambition with its inflexible manacles. Freedom road is more than eating a hamburger at Howard Johnson's or marching to Montgomery. It is a long, weary trail that must be walked every day.

PURSES STOLEN

A woman at the address of 1515 East 28th, called police and reported that someone had broken into the north window of her apartment and taken two purses off her bed. The screen was pulled loose from the window. One purse was found outside the window and the second was found in the alley near the area.

FIGHTING AND DISTURBING THE PEACE

Police received a call about someone fighting in the 500 block of East 23rd. Upon arriving they found the two, Vell C. Lewis and Ruthie Spilliman fighting in the street. All of a sudden Lewis was thrown through a plate glass window by Spilliman at 508 East 23rd, (Nettie Lou's Barber Shop). The cost of the window was estimated at between $80 and $90.

DANCING IN THE STREET

John Preston Hayes, 101 East 28th, Apt. 27, was observed by an officer standing in the lane of traffic turning around and around, as if he were trying to perform a dance. The officer stopped his car and got out, but when the subject saw him, he started toward the door leading into Aaron's Tea Room. The officer caught up with him and called the paddy wagon.

A resident of 1717 Avenue D was stopped by officers while driving a 1956 Pontiac bearing Texas license. Officers proceeded to give the man a ticket for defective brakes and lights. After a search of the man's car had turned up 12 quarts of Falstaff, 12 half pints of whiskey, 4 James E. Pepper, 4 Old Crow and 4 Hiram Walker; he received another ticket.

flash compared to an eye-flash and a mirth-flash? Flowers cannot smile; this is a charm that even they cannot claim. It is the prerogative of man; it is the color which love wears, and cheerfulness, and joy--these three. It is a light in the windows of the face, by which the heart signifies it is at home and waiting. A face that cannot smile, is like a bud that cannot blossom, and dries upon the stalk. Laughter is day, and sobriety is night, and a smile is the twilight that hovers gently between both more bewitching than either.

Project Head Start Launched In Slaton This Week

By La Joyce Flanagan
Correspondent

Project Head Start got under way Monday, June 28th, and will last for a period of eight weeks, here in Slaton.

Approximately forty five youngsters were registered Monday. There is still time for the Slaton area people to enroll their children in Project Head Start.

Project Head Start is for the five and six year old child from low income families, that will be eligible for school in September.

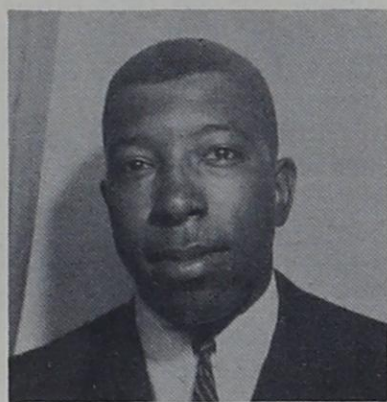

Convening at 9:00 am, teachers and their aids carryout daily activities ranging from words, pictures, and music learning experiences to art and social activities.

School health and special services are provided to check immunizations, vision, hearing, teeth, deformities and other difficulties so that each child may start school in September in the best possible health and ready, able and eager to learn.

We still need adult volunteers. The program is not designed primarily for the child, but for the adult as well. Parents are urged to participate in the program as helpers and observers, in group and individual counseling sessions on the needs of their youngsters. Volunteers that are interested may call Project Head Start in Slaton at VA 8-4268.

Dedication of Cornerstone

William Sedberry

Mrs. I.R. Sedberry

The Messiah United Presbyterian Church celebrated its 37th anniversary in a cornerstone dedication service in honor of the late Elder William Sedberry and his wife, Mrs. I.R. Sedberry.

Elder Sedberry and his wife played a major role in the building and molding of this great church as well as in the city of Lubbock. In its long and glorious history Messiah United Presbyterian, has been a giant in the community in civic, political and health affairs.

The Christian Education Organization was organized June 3, 1929. The Women's Organization was organized October 20, 1929; the Choir, October 1, 1938; the Boy Scouts, October 28, 1938 and the Presbyterian Men in February of 1939.

Another great and dedicated officer of the church was the late Elder Selma Vivian Sedberry. Mrs. Juanita Polard Simmons has been a member of the Messiah Church for a long time. When she first moved to Lubbock from Meridian, Texas, she took an active part in all the activities of the church. She served in many capacities, among them; Elder, Trustee, Superintendent, of the Sunday School, an office she held for 28 years; and president of the Women's Organization.

The Church is ever grateful for their many friends and members in the great part they have played in making this such a great church.

Not my will, but thine, be done—(Luke 22:42).

We should relax. We should let go. We should let God's will be done in us, through us and for us. If there is a need for peace in our mind we relax. We should let God's peace come flooding in upon us. We know that God's will is good, and God's good is ours if we seek it out.

Mills has been directed to Odessa five weeks early to assist in the oversight of the search for rooms for the Negro delegates that will be attending the "Word of Truth" convention. Much effort is being extended to canvas the Odessa residents to care for the numerous requests already received.

CHURCH MANNERS

Christians are commanded to assemble for worship each Lord's day. We are to worship in Spirit and in truth. Whenever we assemble, the Lord is in our midst. All things are to be done decently and in order. God is not the author of confusion.

sible from household tasks, etc.

2. If you desire to have a better atmosphere in the worship, make it a point to come early and be in your seat before the worship begins.

3. After being seated, remain as quiet as possible instead of talking to someone; pick up a song book or your Bible and begin to meditate upon spiritual things.

4. If you happen to be late, wait until the song or prayer has been completed before entering.

5. If you find that the sermon has begun, take the nearest seat. Don't disturb the worshippers by taking "the long walk" up front.

6. If you have a baby,

SERMON OF THE WEEK:

By Rev. W. D. Havnes, Pastor, Church of God in Christ #2

God caused the Syrians to hear a noise that sounded like the marching hosts of the Hittites and the great armies of the Egyptians combined, and they fled for their lives, breaking the siege of the city of Samaria and leaving their provisions behind to feed the starving people of God. But God's intervention went even further, for He had given divine foreknowledge to the prophet and caused him to prophesy to the people that the following day there would be an abundance of wheat and barley for sale in the gate of Samaria. But both the message of hope and its fulfillment were promised upon a daring action of faith by the four lepers.

On another occasion God intervened when Abraham took his son Isaac up on the mountain to offer him up as a burnt offering before the Lord. He laid the wood in order, bound the boy on the wood and raised the knife to plunge it into the heart of his son. His own heart was breaking, but he was dedicated to obedience to God, determined to follow out God's instructions, even though he couldn't understand—and he would actually have slain the boy. God did not intervene until Abraham had raised his knife, demonstrating complete faith in God. He had no way of knowing that God would intervene, but he was going all the way in obedience to faith, and his act brought God on the scene and spared the life of Isaac.

The three Hebrew children refused to worship the gods of Nebuchadnezzar or to bow down to the golden image he created, and they were thrown into a burning fiery furnace. Their very refusal to bow was an act of faith that caused the laws of nature to be suspended so that they were unharmed by the flaming fire.

Blind Bartimaeus, clothed in rags, sat by the wayside begging. He drank daily of the dregs of poverty—hunger and frustration were his constant companions. On his journey to Jericho Jesus traveled a road that was lined with blind beggars, resigned to their pathetic lot. But this man, when he was told that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by, began to cry aloud, "Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me!" With his determined action of faith he created a scene which produced a divine intervention for his great need, and the wonder of sight was restored to his blinded eyes.

In each of these examples an act of faith provoked an act of divine intervention, and such wonders and miracles did not end with Bible days. Your own life has undoubtedly been enriched at times by divine interventions.

take advantage of the nursery which has supervision each time we meet for service. However, if you wish to keep the baby with you, try to sit near an exit so that if it becomes necessary you can quietly be dismissed and return later. Do not feel that because you have a child that such gives you a right to remain at home.

that you have not come to show off, to gossip, whisper, to go back and forth after water, or to the restroom.

8. Do your best to take care of all church equipment or property. DON'T put gum under the seats, write on the song books, or put them on the floor.

9. Don't sit in such a position that others have to crawl over you.

10. After prayer, do not rush out as if to say, "Boy, I'm glad that's over, now I can go home."

11. Be friendly to the visitors. This will make a lasting impression upon them. It may be the means of leading them to the truth.

12. Those who take a public part in worship should be reverent, sincere, and all should speak loud and distinctly that all might hear and always be on time.

13. Remember the reason that you came to this place and that was to worship God. Remember that you are a Christian, and act like one.
