Phil Raught, was doubtless the most surprised man of the year Friday night when he was called to the front to present to Dean Foshee, (he thought), the Citizen of the Year Award... Phil, with confidence, walked to the front of the room with his notes typed out in his hand, telling of the many, many things Foshee had accomplished throughout the year... Instead, when he reached the head table, Dr. C. H. Bausman, master of ceremonies, shocked Phil, but good, when he handed him the coveted award for "The Outstanding Citizen of the Year."

That Springlake School Stage Band are r-e-a-l good... They entertained at the Chamber of Commerce banquet Friday night and compliments were numerous about the great little band Dean Foshee had...

Banquets... Banquets... Banquets, nothing I like better than Banquets... And this week has been a week of Banquets... We took in three... All I can say is we've never been so well fed for a whole week at a time in our lives... Not only have we been well fed; we have been privileged to hear some of the most wonderful speakers deliver the best messages ever...

Post recently had a meeting to discuss a rainmaking proposal, by two scientific rainmakers from Houston, to the tune of $20,000, if they could double the 1964 rainfall... Nearly 21 inches of moisture... during the present year.

They plan to produce rain by cloud seeding methods... And ask a little over $3,000 per inch of moisture over and above the 1964 rainfall... However, if they failed to double the moisture over a prescribed farm area, that farmer was not to pay anything, but if they succeeded, then farmers were to pay so much per acre...

Did you hear about the lady who wanted her stove leveled so that the food would burn more evenly? Or the man who didn't need an alarm clock because his wife always woke him up scraping the toast?...

The paragraph below is very unusual, it was written by a Muleshoe student. See if you can figure it out in the time mentioned in the paragraph... Here goes... How quickly can you find out what is so unusual about this paragraph? It looks so ordinary that you would think that nothing was wrong with it at all, and in fact, nothing is. But it is unusual. Why? If you study it and think about it you may find out, but I'm not going to assist you in any way. You must do it without coaching. No doubt, if you work at it for long, it will dawn on you. Who knows? Go to work and try your skill. Par is about half an hour. A answer will be in next weeks column.

Senior Class Play Set For April 30

The Senior Class Play will be presented at 8:00 p.m. Friday, April 30 in the High School Auditorium.

Directors of the play, are class sponsors, Mrs. Gladys McCaskill and Jodie Mahan.

The play, "Willie's Weekend" is a 3 act comedy, designed to entertain folks of all ages. It stars Mrs. Winkle, who is a typical "son coddler" who fears that her wealthy son might have a heart attack, in which case his large inheritance goes to a cat hospital. Willie has a heart attack but in this case it is concerned with a pretty nurse called Eva, instead of the thrombosis of which his mother is afraid.

It all started when Willie was sent, in a convalescent state, to the Bide Awee Nursing Home while his mother redecorated their home.

First he meets Eva and then he is made very much aware of the "befuddled" patients who believe themselves to be "Captain Kidd" and "Napoleon." Along with these unusual patients, a supposed burglary and kidnapping takes place, topped off with a ransom note left by Captain Kidd, a sprained ankle, and an elopement, along with many other amusing and confusing incidents before the curtain comes down on a side-splitting ending.

This play makes the most of every situation, and is full of them! "Willie's Weekend" is lively, entertaining fun for all ages.

Be sure you don't miss this exciting play.

The Case for Mississippi, Alabama, and the South

Mississippi, Alabama, and other states of the Deep South have been reviled for more than a century by holier-than-thou fanatics. In the civil rights troubles of recent years, this "Hate the South" campaign has reached a crescendo, with the area represented as a lawless land where hate and fear stalk hand in hand. Everywhere he looks--be it in the press, on television, in books, in movies--the white Southerner sees himself libeled, lied about, and dragged through the mud of vindictive misrepresentation.

Ever since we have had a nation, the North and East have been infested with a surplus of self-righteous folks with a Messiah complex. They say: "Look at me. See how pure I am. Why can't you be like me?" Forthwith, they set out to save the world--in fact, to remake it in their own image. But many people don't like the image--and refuse to be recast by it.

This is the crime of the people of Mississippi--and Alabama--and the South. They don't want to be recast in someone else's image. They don't regard themselves as any better or any worse than people in other parts of the nation.

There is much in the South that needs to be changed. We have all the unlovely traits of people everywhere. But the good people of the South--a section chockful of fine folks of kindness and good will--despite lawlessness and murder. Yet they have never been able to understand why a murder in Mississippi is any more heinous than one in New York's Harlem or Chicago's South Side. Murder for any reason is a despicable crime. And is an Alabama murder inspired by racial conflict any more damnable than murder resulting from a labor dispute in Pennsylvania? Every good person is against murder, no matter why and where it happens.

Moreover, when Southern people hear their states condemned as a lawless land, they wonder where their critics are getting their crime statistics. Of crime, for example, Mississippi has less than its share, ranking lowest among the states. In spite of lurid stories to the contrary, the vast majority of people--white and colored--are living together in all our Southern states in peace and good will.

Much publicity has been given to the Oberlin contingent that has come South to rebuild a burned church. But how many know of the Mississippi Committee of Concern, a local group, whose sole purpose is to rebuild burned or damaged churches? And how many know that this group is rebuilding 20 or more burned Negro churches?

Of course, we must face plain facts. Not even its most sympathetic friends can condone the restriction of voter registration in any state on a basis of the voter's color. The right to vote is a free man's most precious possession. And while we recognize the problem facing white citizens where they are outnumbered two or three to one, there is no alternative to giving the vote to all who can qualify.

There is no excuse for the mass violation of laws by civil righters. Often, Southern officials play into their hands by not letting them demonstrate. We say: Let them demonstrate so long as they are law abiding. Throw them in jail if they get rowdy, obstruct traffic, or otherwise break the law. Many times when given permission to parade, they decide not to. For, 9 out of 10 of their leaders are more interested in publicity than in establishing the right to vote.

Those who seek to gain their ends by any means, no matter how destructive or vicious, are nothing new in history. But it does seem to us we have those today who, to gain their ends, would throw overboard all the principles that have made us the strongest and most envied nation in the world. America must choose between law and order and responsible democracy or mobocracy and anarchy. Either we make that choice or no citizenry--East, North, West, or South, will tomorrow be safe.

Cotton Sign-Up Extended Time 1,624 County Farmers Sign Up For 1965 Feed Grain Program

More than 1,624 Lamb County farmers signed up to participate in the 1965 feed grain program according to figures released by L.D. Aten, ASCS manager here. The deadline for signing was last Friday and the 1,624 figure includes all but the final day's signing.

207,230 acres of feed grain base was involved, with grain sorghum accounting for all but 4,039 of the acreage. Farmers signing up in the program will grow 2,654 acres of corn and 1,385 of barley.

Included in the acreage is 81,184 acres which is to be diverted from not planting to feed grain and they will get paid for not planting. Aten said that a total of $2,045,405.53 will be paid for the 81,184 acres. This will be paid in two payments, one now and the other this fall.

Mr. Aten said that the average of $12 an acre for grain sorghum is expected again this year which would gross the farmers participating in the program $1,512,552 for their 126,046 acres of grain sorghum. It is also hoped that the price support figure is exceeded this year. Nationally the average support rates established for the crop are: grain sorghum $2 per cwt; corn $1.25 per bushel and barley 96 cents per bushel.

The farmers participating qualify for diverted-acre and price support payments as well as being eligible for price support loans. Farmers who signed up for the program must make a mandatory 20 percent reduction in their feed grain acreage but the diversion may be increased voluntarily to 50 percent of the allotment.

The diversion payments have been set up under two rate systems. The lower rate applies to the first 20 percent of the feed grain base actually diverted. The higher rate applies to diverted acreage in excess of the minimum. If both the intended diversion and the acreage actually diverted are equal to at least 40 percent of the base, the higher base applies to the entire acreage diverted.

Meanwhile the sign-up period for domestic cotton program has been extended to April 9. Only 214 farmers have signed up voluntarily for the program while an additional 128 were automatically signed up for the program because their cotton acreage is less than 15 acres.

This is the first year that it is necessary to sign-up for the program prior to planting. A similar program of domestic allotment was in effect last year but no sign-up was required until August which gave the farmer an opportunity to gauge yield before deciding to participate.

Farmers have a choice of planting within their domestic allotment, thereby qualifying for a payment of 4.35 cents per pound on the farm's established yield times the acreage planted for harvest in 1965 in addition to the price support of 29 cents per pound basis middling one-inch at average location or planting within their effective allotment.

Effective allotment is total acreage allotted after any release and reapportionment, and farmers electing to plant their effective allotment qualify for the 29 cents price support only, without the necessity for signing up.

Domestic allotment on most High Plains farms is 65 percent of the 1965 effective allotment, but on small farms for which 1965 allotment are not released to the County ASCS committee, domestic allotment is the smaller of 15 acres or the 1965 effective allotment.

He will now compete in District public speaking contest; Ken Dawson, speaking on the farmer's profit margin, won 2nd place; and Jimmy Stockstill, speaking on water conservation, won 3rd place.

Unfinished business was completed and then the committee reports were given and the officers for 1965 were elected.

Those chosen were as follows: President, Bob Coker; Vice President, Jimmy Stockstill; Secretary, Danny Haberer; Treasurer, Ken Dawson; Reporter, Lonnie Dear.

The end of school trip to Brownfield was discussed. The meeting was closed and refreshments were served. Bob Coker will represent the Springlake-Earth FFA chapter in the district meeting Wednesday, April 14, in Amherst. Those chosen were a group of six boys who were speakers at a FFA oratorical contest. withholding by $40 or more, and either (1) income is expected to exceed $5,000 for an individual or $10,000 for a married couple filing jointly, head of household, or certain widows and widowers; or (2) when more than $200 of income comes from sources not subject to withholding.

Q-How can I tell whether I can claim someone as a dependent?
 A-There are five tests that have to be met before a dependent can be claimed. These are income, support, married dependents, nationality and relationship. These tests are described in the 1040 instruction booklet.

Q-How much can a working mother deduct for child care expenses?
 A-The deduction is for what you actually spent, with a maximum limit of $600 for one child under 13 and $900 for two or more dependent children under 13. Check your instruction booklet to see how this deduction is affected by the amount of your gross income.

Q-Can I exclude all the pay I got when I was out sick or is some of it taxable?
 A-It depends on what percentage of your pay you received and whether you were hospitalized or not.

If you received over 75 percent of your wages as sick pay there is a 30-day waiting period before any pay can be excluded. This is true even if you were hospitalized. After the waiting period you may exclude your weekly pay up to a maximum of $100 per week.

If your sick pay was 75 percent or less of your regular pay and you were not hospitalized, then there is a 7-day waiting period. If you were hospitalized at least one day there is no waiting period. After the waiting period up to $75 a week may be excluded. This goes up to $100 a week after 30 days of absence from work.

Both the 7-day and 30-day waiting periods begin with the first day you are absent from work.

Q-Is it true that profits on the sale of your personal residence are not taxable if the sales price was $20,000 or under and you sold it on or after your 65th birthday?
 A-Yes, it's true, if on or after your 65th birthday, you sold property owned and used by you as your personal residence for at least 5 of the last 8 years. You may elect not to be taxed when the sales figure is $20,000, or under. If the sales price is over $20,000, part of the gain may have to be included in income.

Q-I'm a teacher and have to keep taking courses to keep my job. Can these costs be deducted on my return?
 A-Yes, they can if the courses are required by your employer as a condition of your employment, or if they are taken primarily to maintain or improve skills required in performing your present duties. Educational expenses are not deductible when they are incurred to obtain a promotion or another position.

Q-I do not owe any taxes this year. Do I still have to file a return?
 A-Whether you owe any taxes or not is not the determining factor in deciding if you have to file a return. A return is required when certain income levels are reached. If your income was $600 or more, or $1200 if you are 65 or older, you must file. If you have self-employment income of $400 or more you must file a return and pay self-employment tax.

Q-Where can I get a copy of the table showing average sales tax deductions by income and family size?
 A-At any local Internal Revenue office.

Q-I just received my refund check for 1964. Does this mean that my return has been accepted and that I no longer have to keep last year's tax records?
 A-Even though you have received a refund, your return may still be checked. As to your records, for most income and expense purposes they should be retained for a minimum of three years from the time your return was due to be filed. However, for some items, such as the sale of your old residence tax free due to the purchase of a new residence for instance, you should retain the records as long as they may be material in the administration of the tax laws.

Q-How can I tell if my return will be audited?
 A-You really can't. Any return may be selected for audit. Some are selected because of the types or amounts of income and/or deductions reported. Still more are selected at random.

This little lass with the doll-like expression, has perhaps been a beauty all her life, for today though a grown up senior who has attended Springlake-Earth School during her entire School career, is likewise still a beauty.

Being a good cook, she enjoys as her No. 1 hobby, collecting and keeping a recipe file. Her favorite sport is swimming.

She loves records and can spend many long hours listening to music, her favorite song being, "Red Roses for a Blue Lady." Blue, by the way, is her favorite color.

At the table, or for in-between meal snacks, she favors steak and Dr. Peppers. Her favorite TV program is the "Virginian" she loves to watch it, partly because it is in color. Her favorites at the movies are Robert Mitchum and Debbie Reynolds.

Spray new Caparol when planting your cotton to control weeds.

Spray new Caparol* in a band or broadcast when planting your cotton for effective, early-season control of most annual broadleaf weeds... like carelessweed (pigweed), annual morning glory, cocklebur, lambsquarter and many other problem weeds.

You'll also get control of many grass-type weeds, such as crabgrass and goosegrass.

Early-season weed control with Caparol means you'll be able to eliminate that first, slow cultivation. So you won't be plowing out or covering up young cotton. All it takes is moisture to move Caparol into the soil.

You can also apply new Caparol after your cotton is up six inches or higher, or at layby. Just direct the spray to the base of the plants and apply to weeds no larger than two inches in height.

Whatever program you decide on, you'll have no soil residue carryover to harm next year's spring-seeded crops when you use Caparol.

Ask your local supplier or custom spray applicator for new Caparol. Geigy Agricultural Chemicals, Division of Geigy Chemical Corporation, Ardsley, New York.

Miss Parish Wed To Johnny M. Cornett Dixie

Miss Dixie Lynne Parish and Johnny Maurice Cornett were married at 3:00 p. m. Sunday in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Parish. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Joe W. Cornett of Dickens and the late Joe W. Cornett. Officiant for the double ring ceremony was Rev. Albert Lindley, pastor of the Earth Methodist Church.

Wedding selections were played by Mrs. Bob Belew, who also accompanied Mrs. Cecil Slover, soloist, as she sang, "O Perfect Love", and "Whither Thou Goest". Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white formal gown of organza. Swiss embroidered motifs of three dimensional design accented the round neckline, elbow length sleeves, and flowing panels of the bell shaped skirt, which terminated in a brush train. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a pearl trimmed pill box of white satin. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom. Her bouquet was of white feathered mums and ribbon, centered with a white orchid corsage.

For something old she wore a wedding band which belonged to her paternal grandmother. For good luck she wore a penny in her shoe, and for something blue she wore a blue garter. Miss Aline Powell of Earth, maid of honor, wore a street length blue dress of nubby silk. Her bouquet was of feathered daisies with white satin ribbon. Glenn Harvey, of Littlefield, was best man.

Usher was C. J. Cornett of Blackwell, brother of the groom. Following the ceremony Mrs. C. J. Cornett and Miss Powell assisted at the reception table. For travel to Corpus Christi, the bride chose a canary yellow three piece ensemble of corded nylon knit with straw colored accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornett will reside in Lubbock where he is employed as engineer for the Texas State Highway Department, and where she will continue her studies at Jessie Lee's Institute of Hair Design.

FHA Week, Huge Success

FHA Week at Springlake-Earth High School was well observed. These FHA girls, joining one-half million other girls throughout the nation observed the special week of April 4-8.

Good deeds were performed daily in the homes by the girls. Bulletin boards were placed in the school, and posters in store windows illustrated some of the activities of the special week.

Teachers of the High School were presented with a rose by the girls in honor of Teacher's Appreciation Day Monday.

Tuesday was Color Day, when the girls wore the FHA emblems and colors of red and white. An afternoon tea, using these colors, was given in honor of former members of FHA.

A "Come as You Are" breakfast was the event of Wednesday. Thirty five eighth-grade girls were called for and entertained with an early breakfast in the Homemaking Department, by twenty FHA girls. Sweet rolls and drinks were served, and the girls enjoyed learning about FHA projects, dues, jobs as officers, etc., as they will be in High School FHA next year.

The highlight of the week was Thursday evening, when the FHA girls honored the senior citizens of the community with a style show in the School Cafeteria. Forty-five girls of the first, second, and third year homemaking department modeled clothing which they had made. Six girls of Mrs. Maxey's classes modeled spring outfits; the girls of Mrs. Slover's classes modeled winter outfits. Approximately sixty attended. Refreshments were served by the girls to the guests.

Red roses were planted on the school campus by the girls, on Friday.

You show by your presence that you are interested in the youth of today.

Listening to the True Confessions of today's co-ed's, I learn that all of them want Modern Romances and True Love that will end in happy Marriage and Happy Living. The American Girl, from her first Date Book to the time she becomes a Modern Bride, wants a House Beautiful in both Town and Country in which she will retain her Glamour on up through the time she is Expecting. Many of today's women are Parent's before they are out of their teens.

In recalling my own Teen Times, I know that the Co-ed of today is not too different from those of yesteryear in these desires. But I also know that goals in Life are not achieved through a dependence on the Horoscope. Individuals are the Ingenuer for achieving their own goals. "An Evening in Paris" was the theme of the Junior-Senior Banquet which was held Saturday evening, April 17, in the Springlake-Earth School Cafeteria.

Guests were seated at tables for four, which featured white linen cloths, centered with blue angel's hair. Individual place cards and programs in Senior colors of blue and white, portrayed the Eiffel Tower in Paris, France. Favors of tiny jugs filled with confetti were conversation items of interest.

The head table was a typical Paris scene, with a large Eiffel Tower, tall tapers and arrangements to accentuate the motif. French puddies and a donkey with cart stood on a mat of grass in front of the table.

"The Torquays," a four piece stage band from Plainview entertained the guests with musical selections.

The programme was original and interesting: Can Can, from Follies Bergere; "I Love Paris In the Springtime," by Edith Piaf; Parisian Haut Couture, from House of Dior; Bon Jour (Welcome) by Junior Class President, Ken Dawson; Comedie Francaise, by Jester; Bon Nuit (response), by Senior Class President, Thomas Gregory; Closing Tableau, by artists and Models; and "Paris in the Spring (song) by Entire Assembly. This young man has all his income tax records in one simple stack. It took him only a few minutes to check through his First State Bank cancelled checks for tax deductible items. If you are having a headache computing your income tax, why not open a checking account now at the First State Bank, and make next year's income deductions simple? We'll be pleased to serve you.

IS THIS YOUR DOUBLE? He looks rather disgusted after hours of digging through old 1964 bills for income tax deductions. He is sure that there is more car expenses, but he's misplaced the receipts... Well, he'll just have to dig a little deeper to pay Uncle Sam, because he needs records of all his expenditures. Even if he had lost his cancelled checks, he could get photostatic copies of them from our bank.

Fowler Replacing Saunders As District Manager

General Telephone Company of the Southwest today announced the appointment of James H. (Jim) Fowler as manager of the firm's Littlefield district. He replaces R.E. (Bob) Saunders who has served as commercial manager and district manager in Littlefield for the past 7 years. The company operates and maintains around 11,650 telephones in the twelve South Plains communities which compose its Littlefield district. Announcement of the supervisory changes came from General's western division manager, H. B. Elam of Brownfield.

A native of Achele, Oklahoma, Fowler joined the General System in Sherman in 1942 as a lineman. In 1960 he was named installation and maintenance foreman in the Company's Garland exchange, and in 1961 he moved to Dickinson as plant supervisor.

Fowler transferred to Lamesa in 1964 as plant supervisor, a position he held until his assignment as head of the Littlefield district. The new manager attended Denison High School, and North Texas State University at Denton.

He served in the U.S. Army Signal Corps during World War II, earning European, African and Middle Eastern service medals. He was honorably discharged from active duty in 1945, having attained the rank of staff sergeant.

Saunders moves to the phone firm's western division office in Brownfield, where he will serve as commercial supervisor. He joined General's predecessor Company-Southwestern Association in Lubbock in 1945 and held numerous positions in the company's commercial department until 1957, when he was named commercial manager of the Littlefield district. He became Littlefield district manager in June of 1963.

Born in Detroit, Michigan, Saunders attended Detroit's Benby High School, and ICS at Scranton, Pennsylvania. He served in the U.S. Navy Air Corps from 1943-47.

Saunders has been active in various local organizations including the Rotary and Testmaster's clubs and the Masonic Lodge. He has served on several committees of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce and is a past director of the Lamb County United Fund.

Saunders and his wife, Joan, have three children.

COLORED SCHOOL NEWS

By Mary Dell T. Osborne

We attended District 13 teachers meeting and were greatly benefitted especially by the lectures given by Mrs. Beverly Kinner of the Fort Angeles Public School system of the State of Washington. Although she has lived in Texas, she has a wide experience of teaching methods in Europe, where her officer husband was stationed in Germany. She gave us a series of suggested lesson plans and suggested literature to read for children, on all levels in booklet form.

We visited Dr. E.C. Struggs and wife, the Lubbock High School principal, in March at Bethel A.M.E. Methodist Church. The pastor of this church is the Rev. Wilson who ran third last year in the city election contest of five candidates for one of the Lubbock council men.

At the close of his sermon, he emphasized that although Dunbar High offers several occupational opportunities fitting youth for employment that are not going to college, many of the youth fail to take it seriously and are not attempting to keep jobs they are recommended to. He said he appreciated the nurses, the auto mechanics, hair dressers, and the business education students who were employed in the IBM system of a few Lubbock's banks but that more should be more appreciative of the opportunities offered in their high school and apply themselves more diligently when hired.

We also visited the homes of several of the principals of the

4-H CLUB
Lamb County Home Demonstration agent, Mrs. Phillips, and assistant county agent, Mr. McNutt hold our 4-H Club meeting every 1st Wednesday of each month. The 26 or more club members are not only being benefitted but are enjoying them very much. The subject for the year has been greatly explored by the members. A worksheet leaflet No. 1, L-367, "Farmstead Safety" is a picture puzzle safety device which stirs their enthusiasm to not only discover unsafe methods in the picture but also to look for unsafe things at home which they can correct or call attention of their parents to.

For written reports in discovering the 62 common hazards in the picture, Daisy Ruth Washington, club president was given first prize and Margaret Hood second prize by the county supervisors. After the regular meeting, a five to eight minute game is played.

This week our 4-H meeting has an "American Heritage" theme of safety in teaching the children our government heritage, how it can be maintained and how our farms, health, and safety is secured by the selection of officers and agencies to carry out these duties by the vote of all.

EXTRA CURRICULAR READING
The first semester we read books from our elementary library and our weekly readers but this semester we have gone visiting to other libraries and

Poor Management Results In 50% Of Water Pumped Being Wasted

The hum of irrigation well motors once more fills the air. Farmers have started the pre-plant irrigation. In weak water areas, many motors will not be shut off until well into the growing season.

Have you ever wondered where all the water goes? Millions of gallons of water are pumped every day. How much of this water is being used by the plants?

Research shows that it takes about 868 pounds of water to produce one pound of grain sorghum, and about 568 pounds of water to make one pound of cotton. Only a small part of the water that is pumped is used by the plant. The rest is lost through evaporation, seepage, and runoff or "tailwater."

Poor management of irrigation water is resulting in over half of the water pumped being wasted. Most of the water will be lost to evaporation if too small an amount is used. On the other hand, too large an application causes seepage loss in open soils and leaching of plant nutrients. The biggest loss of irrigation water is due to runoff or "tailwater."

This "tailwater" costs the farmer in pumping costs and depletion of the underground water supply. It costs every taxpayer because of maintenance problem of county and state roads, it creates a health and safety problem.

Service personnel have shown amounts of tailwater loss from one field varying from fifty gallons to two hundred gallons per minute.

The tailwater, carrying rich soil and nutrients, ends up in shallow lakes only to be evaporated and lost. This wasted water costs more than the water to be used by the plants because of the soil and nutrients that it takes with it.

Control and management of your irrigation water can be accomplished in several ways. Sloping land may need to be leveled. The furrow stream, length of run, and time for each set may need to be changed.

The Soil Conservation Service, working through the Lamb County Soil Conservation District is willing and able to help you solve your irrigation problems. Go by and discuss your irrigation problem with them. They will be happy to help you get the most efficient irrigation system on your farm.

Six Flags Sets Season Opener For April 16

Six Flags Over Texas will commence its 1966 season at 10 a. m. Friday, April 16, according to Angus G. Wynne, Jr., president of Great Southwest Corporation, owner-operators of the popular tourist attraction. For the opening weekend, April 16, 17, and 18, the gates are open from 10 a. m. to 10:00 p. m. A crew of about 150 specialists ranging from landscape gardeners to builders and lighting engineers, have been busy engaged over the winter and early spring months in completing a $600,000 expansion program before April 16. The Six Flags personnel department which has the awesome job of interviewing thousands of applicants of college age each season for positions as hosts and hostesses, has settled on approximately 1,200 to begin the season. Another 400-500 personnel will be added when Six Flags commences daily operations May 29. The bulk of the expenditures for this year is centered on expanding the Park's historical value and landscaping. Other attractions have been added including a new ride called "El Sombrero" for the Mexican Section. An Aviary located in the Animal Kingdom, will be the new home of nearly 100 exotic birds recently imported from all over the world.

Young Farmers Elect Officers

The Young Farmers met Monday, April 15, in the Springlake-Earth School Cafeteria to elect officers, as follows: President, Jerry Taylor; Vice President, Leon Collins; Treasurer, DeWitt Kelley; Secretary, Cary Latham; and Reporter, Johnny Pellham. A discussion concerning farm programs was held. The next meeting will be held Monday, May 3, at 8:00 p. m. in the School Cafeteria. Weed control, feed and cotton programs will be discussed. All members and interested people are urged to attend.

Tammra and Hoppy are to spend the Easter holidays in Dekalb visiting their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Jennings. The Jennings will also attend to business on their ranch while there.

The Lazbuddie School turns out Wednesday afternoon of this week and will resume classes Tuesday of next week.

One of the highlights of the student body and faculty members at school this week is the fact that the school's year books have arrived.

Fourteen members of the Lazbuddie Baptist Church attended a Bible Study Clinic at Dimmitt Monday, April 12, Women going were: Mrs. Calvin Beach, Mrs. Ted Treider, Mrs. Clyde Redwine, Mrs. Raymond Houston, Mrs. J. C. Redwine, Mrs. Gene Smith, Mrs. Chuck Smith, Mrs. Orville Burnett, Mrs. Cruz Garza, Mrs. Macy Pugey, Mrs. J. T. Mayfield, Mrs. Sam Bradley, and Mrs. Scotty Windham.

Congratulations to the five Lazbuddie girls on receiving their State Degrees in FHA March 20, in Lubbock. The girls are: Katie Blackstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Blackstone, Charlotte Seaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Seaton, Linda Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Gleason, and Linda Monk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Monk. The five girls are seniors this year.

The Lasting Rose Chapter attended the FHA area 1 meeting in Lubbock March 19-20. Besides members attending the house of delegate meeting, a supper given by the house management on the Tech campus, the area choir rehearsal, they toured the campus of Tech.

While attending the Area 1 meeting Saturday morning, Charlotte Seaton presented her report on ambassador FHA. Following the installing of the new officers during the Saturday morning session the Lazbuddie group returned to the hotel, where they stayed Friday night. Forty four Lazbuddie persons attended the Area 1 meeting.

Roy Miller, Everett McBroom, Max Bush, Ralph Broyles, and Harvey Blackstone are the Lazbuddie Adult leaders that will be working with the 4-H Field-Crop program in the future of this year. If you are between 9 and 19 you are asked to send a card to the Farmer County Agent, Farwell, Texas now. This 4-H program plan is a change from former crop contest. It is thought this type of program will better teach members better points in crop production, also the value of fertilizer, insect control, proper water management, accurate record book keeping on crops and etc. Awards will be on separate contest for wheat, cotton, and grain sorghum of two or more acres in each entry.

Do not have a pending charge of a moving violation and have not been convicted of such a violation in the 12 months prior to the National Finals.

The Jaycees will take the winner of the local contest to the State contest in Ft. Worth, May 8.

The State Champion will be taken on a four day all expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. There will be a special tour of the White House, a trip through FBI headquarters, a visit with your U.S. Senator from Texas, a meeting with Miss Teenage America, a big award banquet honoring the winners.

In the National Finals the winner will win a Mercury Comet Calliente convertible with all the trimmings, plus a $2,000 scholarship to the college or university of the winners choice. Second and third place winners will receive a $1,500 and a $1,000 scholarship respectively.

Safe driving by a Texas Teenage Student will be rewarded by a $1,000.00 college scholarship when the winner of the annual Texas Teenage Safe Driving Road-E-O is declared in Fort Worth in May. H. C. Pittman, Executive Vice President of the Texas Automobile Dealers Association, and Jim Reese, President of the Texas Jaycees, announced today in Austin that TADA, state association of franchised new-car and truck dealers, will award the one thousand dollar scholarship this year.

Local member dealers of TADA throughout Texas will cooperate during the next few weeks with local Jaycee chapters in staging local Road-E-O contests to select boy and girl winners to be sent to Fort Worth. The state finalist will represent Texas in the National Road-E-O finals in Washington, D.C., in August.

More than 5,000 Texas youngsters enter Road-E-O competition each year," said Pittman. "The Road-E-O provides the teenager with the opportunity to demonstrate his acquired skills in driving, while at the same time showing responsible citizens, parents, teachers and others, the need for driver education. We in TADA are very pleased to share the responsibility of promoting driving safety, particularly among this group of teenagers who are clearly demonstrating that they want to become safe and responsible Texas citizen-drivers."
