

Harber Advanced To President Of Local Bank

Norlan Dudley announced this week that Bob Harber Executive Vice-President of the Citizens State Bank was promoted to President of the bank during the regular meeting of the board of directors Tuesday afternoon.

BOB HARBER

Dudley went on to explain that since he was currently serving as co-chairman of the board and chief executive officer at Winkler County State Bank at Winkler and Vice-President of the Farmers State Bank at Hart, this did not permit him to spend full time at any one of the three banks. He went on to confide that with Harber as President banking business could be carried on a hundred percent in his absence.

Harber has been associated with the local bank three years and has been Executive Vice-President since 1969.

Harber and his family will move to Earth in the very near future to make their home here.

The 13th Annual Olton Chamber Banquet is set for 7:30 p. m. on Tuesday, March 17 in the Olton School Cafeteria. Guest speaker for the evening will be Lt. Governor Ben Barnes.

Awards will be presented to the Outstanding Man and Woman in the Olton area, honoring them for their contributions toward the betterment of Olton. Ben Barnes, the 37th Lieutenant Governor of Texas, was born April 17, 1938, in German, Texas. After serving two terms as the Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, Barnes became, at the age of thirty, the youngest man in the State's history to serve as Lieutenant Governor. In leading the ticket in the 1968 General Election, Barnes was the first candidate in Texas to ever receive two million votes.

Barnes has served as President of the National Legislative Conference, an organization of state legislative leaders. He is on the Executive Committee of the Council of State Governments and is a past chairman of its Southern Conference. He also served on President Johnson's Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations. In 1968, Barnes represented the United States Department of State at the Committee on Agriculture of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe. Barnes represented this department again at the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Civil Defense Committee Conference in Brussels. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Texas Partners of the Alliance with Peru.

Among many honors, Barnes was named one of Five Outstanding Young Texans by the Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1965.

Barnes was recently named one of the Ten Outstanding Young Men in America by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce. Each year, the Jaycees choose ten men between the ages of 21 and 35 who are judged to have made a substantial contribution to their profession, their community, and their fellow citizens. Statistics No Bore To Department Of Health Statistics may seem a bore to a lot of people, but to the Texas State Department of Health its Records and Statistics Section is an active--and very necessary--part of its services to the people of Texas and a tool to plan and evaluate health programs.

The Bureau of Vital Statistics is the one place for storing the vast numbers of records of Texas births, deaths, marriages, divorces, adoptions and other matters.

In the old days the fact that you were on the earth and breathing was enough to satisfy any inquiry about your birth. Most schools require a birth certificate for children entering the first grade. A birth certificate is the best proof of citizenship for your passport. You may need it to satisfy military requirements, to satisfy the Internal Revenue as to your dependents, to satisfy Veteran Administration or other claims against the government, or to apply for Social Security.

The big three today, according to W. D. Carroll, chief of the Records and Statistics Section and state registrar, are schools, passports and Social Security.

Last fall more than a quarter-million children entered school for the first time, and most needed a certified copy of his or her birth certificate. These were obtained in the counties or cities of birth, or from the Austin office of the State Health Department for a $1.50 fee.

The records on file of births, deaths and fatal deaths come in from some 1,000 registrars throughout the state. In many cases the registrar is the city or county health officer. Each of the 254 counties of Texas has one or more local registrars. In rural areas it might be a justice of the peace. In towns of 2,500 or more it may be the city secretary, city clerk or some other person designated as the city registrar. In some counties the county clerk is the registrar. In larger health departments in Texas, the person in charge of vital statistics normally is the registrar.

Reports of marriages are forwarded into the central office at Austin by the county clerks for each county. Divorces and adoptions come from the district clerks. The reporting network fans out into every nook and cranny of the state.

Just having records on file isn't enough. They must be indexed and stored with easy access in order to be useful, therefore, the records are placed on microfilm and now are being placed on magnetic tape for adaption to computer reference and recall.

As an example of the numbers involved, by the end of 1970 total vital records on file will reach the 17 million mark. Last year more than half a million current records went into the files--deaths, fetal deaths, births, marriages and divorces.

E-944 variety is a late-maturing, special-cross hybrid. It will mature early enough for grain production anywhere in Texas. The stalks are very stiff and erect. The plants stand well for harvesting. It produces a high yield of grain or silage and also has a good resistance to the corn ear-worm and to leaf blights. The recommended planting rate is a stalk every 8 inches in a 40 inch row or approximately 20,000 plants per acre.

E-8244 variety will mature satisfactorily in all of Northeastern Nebraska and is an early maturing hybrid on the Texas Plains. This hybrid has a most excellent yield record in Nebraska, Kansas and Texas. It has an unusually high yield record at thin planting rates or at high planting rates of 24,000 plants per acre. It is very tolerant to Maize Dwarf Mosaic Virus and one of the few hybrids that is highly tolerant to the western corn root worm. The stalks are rather short and the standability of this hybrid is very outstanding. It is a quick-drying hybrid after it matures.

Women's BB Tourney Gets Going Thursday

Amarillo--The second annual Amarillo National Invitational women's tournament gets underway here next Thursday, March 19, for a three-day run at the Civic Center with eight teams bidding for the championship title.

Wayland Baptist's Hutcherson Flying Queens of Plainview are defending champions and currently own a 20-4 record. The Queens won the title last year by beating Ouachita Baptist of Arkadelphia, Ark., 54-24 after downing Kansas State of Manhattan and Midwestern College of Denton, Iowa.

Seeded second in the tournament, sponsored by the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, is Midwestern with Ouachita seeded third and John F. Kennedy College of Wahoo, Neb., seeded fourth. Also in the tourney are junior college powers, Temple and Ranger, plus returnee Kansas State and newcomer West Texas State.

Four games will be played each day, all at the Civic Center. Tickets are now on sale at the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce office and other Amarillo locations and will be available soon at other Panhandle-West Texas locations.

Adult tickets, good for all four games each day, are priced at $2.50 with a book of three for the entire tourney priced at $6. Student ducats are $1 each or $1.50 for the entire event.

Tickets will be available at the door each day. So far this season, the Queens have split with Midwestern, won three of four from Ouachita, split with JFK, downed Ranger three times and have beaten Temple five times.

Every team in the tournament is sporting a good record and with the new five-player rule in effect, this year's event promises to be one of the highlights in women's college basketball for 1969-70.

protected plants are held off by Terraclor Super-X. You get a healthy, vigorous stand from only one planting.

About seed treatments: They are great... as far as they go. But seed treatment protection lasts only until the seed coat opens and the seedling grows into untreated soil. That's when you need Terraclor Super-X in the furrow.

Terraclor Super-X is available from your Olin dealer in three formulations: granular, liquid and dust. A special formulation is available with a quality soil systemic insecticide impregnated in the granules for combination fungus and insect control.

If you don't know your local Olin dealer, write to Terraclor Super-X, P. O. Box 991, Little Rock, Ark. 72203 for his name.

You ought to get to know him. He can help you get a good stand from only one planting. That's one good reason he is known as the rare bird in the business.

Olin

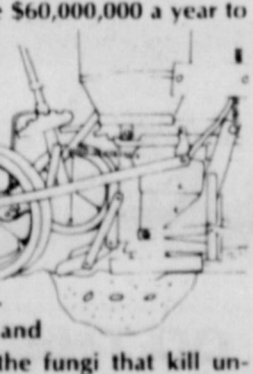

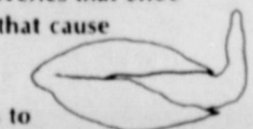

Apply Terraclor Super-X the first time you plant cotton.

Think for a minute what it costs to replant an acre of cotton that doesn't make a stand. There's the cost of seed, fertilizer, herbicides, insecticides, equipment, operators and the precious time. Multiply that by the number of acres you could lose to seed and seedling disease.

Now think about Terraclor Super-X Soil Fungicide. It could very well eliminate replanting. Here's why: Terraclor Super-X is a combination of two Olin discoveries that effectively control the fungi that cause cotton seedling disease.

How important is this to you? The regional Cotton Disease Council reports that losses average $60,000,000 a year to seedling diseases alone.

Terraclor Super-X is applied while you plant. Your cotton seed is surrounded by protection in the furrow, where it counts. As the seed germinates and the seedling emerges, the fungi that kill un-

In a lovely ring ceremony at 6 p. m. Saturday, March 7 in the First Baptist Church in Earth, Miss Pruda Kay Sanders, Hereford, became the bride of Harold Eugene Fults, of Priona. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin W. Sanders of Earth. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Romie Fults of Saquache, Colorado. Rev. David Hartman, pastor, read the vows before an altar decorated with candelabra entwined in greenery and centered at the base with pink satin bows, each held fourteen lighted white tapers. The windows of the church were decorated with white votive candles encircled with greenery.

The center pews of the church were enhanced with pink satin bows on either side of the aisles. Soloist Dale Durham, Educational Director of the First Baptist Church of Brownfield, sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer." He was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Larry Tunnell, Earth.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was adorned in a lovely white peau de sole wedding gown embellished with chantilly lace medallions outlined with tiny seed pearls and scattered about over the bodice and down the front of her skirt. Matching chantilly lace embossed with tiny seed pearls outlined the elbow length sleeves and scooped neckline of the gown. The bell shaped skirt designed with an empire waistline was accented with a self fabric bow. The chapel length train caught at high waistline, was designed with scalloped borders and outlined with the same chantilly lace embossed with seed pearls and enhanced further with matching lace medallions and seed pearls scattered the length of the train.

The three tiered veil of silk illusion was held in place with a crown designed of chantilly lace fashioned in a cluster of leaves bound in tiny seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of lovely white feathered carnations and clusters of bridal flowers centered with a white cattail orchid and long white satin streamers tied in love knots. She carried it atop a white bible.

Mrs. Sandy Sanders, Giddings, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of pink designed with a scalloped neckline.

Sandy Sanders, Giddings, brother of the bride, served as Best Man.

Ring bearer was Jeff Sanders, Giddings, nephew of the bride. The flower girl, was De Lynn Sanders, Giddings, niece of the bride. She was dressed in a floor length gown trimmed in white pearls, matching that of the Matron of Honor.

Candle lighters were Stacy and Caron Koeninger, Austin. They were dressed in pink formals, designed with midriff trimmed in white pearls and long sleeves. Their head pieces were designed in matching pink. They wore lovely pink and white corsages.

Ushers were Tim Sanders, Midland; John Patterson, Portales, New Mexico and Kent Kelley of Earth.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall, assisting with hospitalities were Mrs. Guy F. Kelley, Mrs. Perry Martin and Mrs. Bill Mann.

The brides table was decorated with a white floor length lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white candelabra and white roses.

Mrs. Duane Vershelde of Hereford registered the guests.

For traveling the bride chose a pink decron suit and pink accessories. She wore the orchid corsage from the bouquet.

Sixty Attend Scouts Program Monday At Springlake

The Springlake Girl Scouts Troop and Brownie Troops were hostess at a joint meeting of the Earth Girl Scouts and Brownies on Monday afternoon in the Springlake Community Building. Approximately 50 Scouts and 10 leaders attended.

The event was staged in connection with National Girl Scout Week. The program was entitled "Scouts Owa" giving the origin and background of Scouting.

The Springlake girls opened the program by presenting the Scout Promise and Law.

The Earth Girl Scouts gave the "Pledge of Allegiance" and led the group in singing "America" and "Girl Scouts Together."

Pam Eagle addressed the group and gave a brief history of when and how the Girl Scout organization began.

The attention of the group was brought to focus on a table covered with a blue cloth holding three large candles and ten smaller ones. Rana Winder lit the three large candles, which signified the three parts of the Girl Scout Promise. She then led the group in repeating the Scout Promise in unison. The ten smaller candles represented the ten Laws of Scouting. Those were lit by ten Scouts as each repeated one of the Scout Laws.

The Earth Scouts played a musical number using their "lemon sticks" as instruments. The Springlake troops exhibited art work they had done in order to earn drawing and painting badges.

Refreshments of ice cream sandwiches were served to the 60 attending.

Financial Facts

By Norlan Dudley

Are money and wealth the same thing? Wealth is the result of production and consumption. Money is merely the medium we use for measuring wealth and for relating the value of one thing to another. The acquisition of more money does not necessarily bring greater wealth unless it can command more goods. What would be the result of having an ever increasing supply of money, but no increase in the amount of actual goods which that money could buy? The price of goods would rise. You would have to spend more of your increased income to buy the same amount of goods which you could previously purchase for less money. Thus, increased income without increased production leads to a decline in the purchasing power of money.

Food for Thought

As far back as we know man has always been interested in adding more flavor to his food. Throughout history constant references appear mentioning spices, herbs, seeds.

Homer mentioned celery seed back about 800 B.C.; Menander the Greek, talked about cummin seed in 300 B.C. when he described a miser as a "cummin splitter."

Coriander seed is mentioned in the book of Exodus, and the New Testament tells the parable of the tiny mustard seed.

Often ancient attributed interesting powers to spices, also. Some thought rosemary promised fidelity... cummin seeds guarded against theft... dill thwarted witches... anise averted evil... thyme exposed the supernatural... bay leaves arrested lightning... coriander conferred immortality, and basil blessed the home.

Even though modern food has better flavor and texture thanks to the development of superb cooking equipment and improved agriculture, good cooks still like to use seasonings.

Among the spices still popular is anise, a small, gray-brown seed that has a slight licorice taste. It is from the parsley family as is the caraway seed we use in so many ways—to top buns, spice liqueur, enhance cheese, flavor pork roasts, soups and stews. Poppy seed and sesame are other favorites used in similar ways.

Lamb County 4-H Members Enter District II Food Show

"Foreign Foods" is the theme for the 1970 District II 4-H Favorite Food Show to be held on the Texas Tech campus Saturday, April 4. All exhibits will be in the downstairs ballroom of the Student Union Building. The judging will start at 10:30 a.m. At 2:00 p.m. the exhibits will be open for the public to view, and at 2:30 p.m. the awards program will be held. Lamb County contestants are Virginia and Vicki Vandenberg, Vicki Cook, in the Senior Division and Beth Duffey, Denise Cornelius, Cathie Mellett and Alycia MacAlarney in the Junior Division. The senior 4-H favorite food show winners from the twenty counties in District II will feature their favorite foreign food. Senior entrants will be prepared to discuss the origin of their foreign food dish, location of the country and the significance to the diet. District II 4-H girls and boys increased their understanding of their own nutrition patterns by studying the food habits, customs, and traditions of their brothers in other countries. The 4-H'ers have also gained an appreciation of the foods of other cultural, ethnic, and national groups. The Food Show will represent an opportunity to experiment with English, Irish, German, Italian, Indian, Seoul, Chinese, etc. foods. In Texas over forty district cultural groups are represented. The foreign foods 4-H project was an excellent avenue for increased communication and understanding. Other contestants in Lamb County Food Show were: Michael and Tommy Graham, Dawn and Wendy Branscum, Brian May, Cathie and Gary Ham, Lee Brown, Clint Dawson, Jeffrey Washington, Brent Washington, Lynn Brown, Kent Hinson, Susan Clayton, and Sherri Higgins.

Lubbock Theatre Center At Work On Comedy

Now deep in rehearsals under the sharp eye of managing director G.W. Bailey, the Lubbock Theatre Centre is preparing its fifth production of the current season, "Invitation to a March", by Arthur Laurents, slated to open March 20 and run for five performances. The play is a delightful high-style comedy, the kind of literate, graceful, imaginative and sharp-witted comedy American dramatists have neglected to write in recent years. "Invitation to a March" was first presented by the Theatre Guild at the Music Box Theatre, New York City, October 29, 1960, with an outstanding cast including Celeste Holm, Madeleine Sherwood and Eileen Heckart. The setting is the South Shore of Long Island, where the wealthy spend the summer. An impending marriage of two socially desirable persons is to take place on the weekend. The players have assembled; the music starts to play; but the bride-to-be keeps falling asleep. It seems that the prospect of social prominence and stability are more sedative than stimulating. Sleeping Beauty is awakened by Prince Charming, really a Prince Plumber, and is now faced with a decision; choice between conformity with the aristocracy, which she thought she always wanted, or forsake all for "love." The cast includes Dorris Jeanne Smith, Pam Brown, Gene Chandler, Jane Ratliff, Jay Brown, Dorris Horton, Joe Smalley and Bill Lysal. The playwrite Arthur Laurents is remembered for "West Side Story" and "Gypsy." The box office opens Monday, March 16th. Performances are at 8:15 p.m. and on Sunday, two shows, one a matinee at 2:30 and again at 8:15. The Theatre is located at 2801 Avenue P, Lubbock, 79405. Phone SH 4-3681.

BOY SCOUT DRIVE INCOMPLETE

The Boy Scout Drive in Progress in the Earth area is lagging behind with only $282.00 of the $600.00 goal turned in at the present time, according to Dave Cavitt. Twenty workers have been assigned areas to canvass for donations to the Scout Fund, as yet all of the workers have not made their report. The Drive will probably be concluded by the middle of next week.

U.S. Center Of Population Marches Westward But The Pace Changes

Late in October 1970, when population totals from the 19th Bureau of Census and the Coast and Geodetic Survey--sister agencies of the U. S. Department of Commerce--will get together over complicated mathematics with terms like "ground triangulations" and "map coordinates" and come up with a new U. S. center of population. The 1970 center of population will continue its westward march, but its pace is uncertain because migration rates won't be known until the census is complete. In the previous 18 decades the center moved 701 miles west and 47 miles south of the first center established after the 1790 Census near Chestertown, Md., 23 miles east of Baltimore. The average move west each decade thereafter was about 39 miles.

The center of population as defined by the Census Bureau is that point upon which the United States would balance, if it were a rigid plane and its inhabitants were distributed where they live with each individual assumed to have equal weight. This should not be confused with the geographical center. The geographical center, the point on which the surface of the United States would balance if it were a plane of uniform weight per unit of area, is located in Butte County, S. D. (latitude 44 degrees 58' North, longitude 103 degrees 46' West.) On July 1, 1969, Bureau demographers issued estimates of the current population for each State. Based on these estimates, the center of population as of July 1, 1969, would be located in Looking Glass Township, Clinton County, Illinois, about 2 1/2 miles southeast of the community of New Memphis and approximately 30 miles east southeast of St. Louis, Mo. This point is about 35 miles west and 10 miles south of Centralia, Illinois, 1960 center of population. If the current estimates hold true, it would mean that 1970 Census center of population would be somewhere near the July 1 computed center in Looking Glass Township.

The 1890 census found the center of population in Indiana where it was to remain for six decennial censuses. The 1890 location was near Westport, 20 miles east of Columbus. A granite boulder on the Columbus-Versailles highway marks the location. In 1910, the center reached Bloomington, Ind., and by 1920, it had shifted the 10 miles noted above, to a point on a beech-covered hillside near Whitehall in the western suburbs of Bloomington. The year 1930 found the center located three miles northeast of Linton, Ind., and in 1940, for the last stop in Indiana, the center was 9 miles southeast of Carlisle, in Sullivan County. During World War II, the center crossed the Wabash River, marking the Indiana-Illinois boundary. The north-south movement has been slight. During the 18 decades, the point farthest north was the 1790 location, and the point farthest south, the 1960 location, a difference of about 47 miles or 2.6 miles per decade. Aurelia Sanders visited friends and relatives in Quitaque over the week-end.

Los Voladores Highlight New Six Flags Season

Six Flags Over Texas will begin its 1970 season April 11, featuring one of the world's most colorful and exciting attractions, Los Voladores, the Flying Indians Spectacular.

The best known feature of the Los Voladores presentation is the "flight" by four members of the troupe who spiral from the top of a 100-foot pole while grasping four slender ropes. The breathtaking descent of the flyers is preceded by a performance by the group's chief who dances on a 12-inch platform at the top of the pole. . . .

Los Voladores will present four to five shows each day, and like all rides, shows and attractions at SIX FLAGS, the performances are free to Park guests who have bought the popular one-price ticket.

Tickets are priced at $5.00 for adults and $4.00 for children (under 12).

From April 11, until May 22, SIX FLAGS will be open on Fridays from 5 p. m. to 11 p. m. and on Saturdays and Sundays from 10 a. m. until 10 p. m.

The Park's summer schedule begins May 23, and extends through September 7 (Labor Day). Summer hours will be 10 a. m. until 10 p. m. seven days a week.

From September 12, through September 27, the Park will be open Saturdays and Sundays only from 10 a. m. until 8 p. m. From October 3, until closing day, November 29, the Saturday-Sunday hours will be 10 a. m. until 6 p. m.

Workmen have been busy throughout the winter months adding new surprises to many sections of the 145-acre family fun center at Arlington.

New, electric-powered boats will move swiftly through the "treacherous" waters of the La-Salle River Boat ride, passing animated figures never seen before by SIX FLAGS visitors. One of the new scenes portrays the building of the first Spanish mission in Texas, with animated figures hard at work. Colorful animations from the studios of puppeteers Sid and Marty Krofft bring added excitement and fun to the Caddo War Canoes.

Along the tracks of the Park's narrow gauge railroad, visitors will see a ghost town populated by well-dressed skeletons, and at Mexican Junction—a comical, animated band pounds out rhythm for huge, smiling hot tamales doing their own version of "The Twist."

Johnson noted that this will be the last April 15 inspection deadline, because on September 1, 1969 the Texas Legislature adopted a year-around inspection program. Inspections will come due one year after the current month of inspection. This will establish an anniversary month for each vehicle to be inspected and prevent the log-jam of over six million vehicles to be inspected at one time.

The new inspection sticker will be placed on the left-hand side of the windshield. The number of the current month of inspection will appear on the sticker.

Auto Accidents Set Record in '69

The total number of accidents on the nation's highways in November, 1969, was 8.3 per cent above the record for the same month in 1968, although the number of persons killed and injured declined slightly, the Insurance Information Institute reported.

The year 1969 will go down as the worst in the nation's history, with 20,389,000 traffic accidents causing an estimated 56,310 deaths, 4,629,000 injuries and an unparalleled economic loss of $16.5 billion, the Institute forecast.

The Institute pointed out that for the first 11 months of 1969, the economic loss already stands at more than $15 billion, a gain of 16 per cent over the same period in 1968.

Despite the rise in accidents for November, there were 4.07 per cent fewer fatalities and 1.7 per cent fewer injuries than in the corresponding period of 1968.

Sides Farm Tests Importance Of Irrigation - Fertilizer To Corn

The importance of irrigation and fertilizer to corn production was emphasized in a test conducted by High Plains Research Foundation scientists on the George Sides farm near Dimmitt.

Although the value of fertilizer has been pointed out, this 1969 corn irrigation-fertilizer study showed that irrigation, specifically the timing of irrigation, influenced yields more than different fertilizer rates.

An early irrigation at one week after tasseling initiation appeared to cause vegetative growth, resulting in taller plants and lower yields.

The corn irrigated at this time produced an average yield of 91 bushels per acre while corn irrigated two weeks later produced 107.2 bushels per acre, an increase of 16.2 bushels per acre.

The addition of 30 pounds of sulfur gave indications of economic increases. When sulfur was added along with 180 pounds of nitrogen, the yield was increased 2.3 bushels per acre with the early irrigation and 5.3 bushels per acre with the later irrigation. Both areas also were irrigated at tasseling and milk stages of plant development.

A soil test indicated the study area was very low in both nitrogen and phosphate and also low

College Men More Inclined To Have Lasting Marriage

Men with low incomes are less likely than men with higher incomes to marry before they reach age 35, according to findings from a nation-wide survey conducted by the Bureau of the Census. Moreover, men with low incomes are less likely, if they marry, to be still living with their wife when they reach middle age.

At the same time, men with a college education are more likely than men with a high school education to delay marriage until they are 25 to 34 years old. But, for men of each educational level, those with low incomes are most likely to delay marriage until their late twenties or early thirties.

Married men who have not attended college are more likely than married men with college training to discontinue living with their wife by the time they are 45 to 54 years old.

WORTH TALKING ABOUT

"A typical new car coming off the assembly line today produces about a third of the carbon monoxide and hydrocarbon pollution produced by a car back in 1962, before the first pollution control devices were put on all new automobiles across the nation. This advance, though recent, is already beginning to have an effect. In Los Angeles, for example, where pollution controls were introduced somewhat earlier, the number of smog days per year is declining, and levels of hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide are on the down-grade. Over the next several years, over-all reductions in levels of these two pollutants will be substantial in the congested urban areas where problems now exist, because many of our older cars, without controls, will be phased off the roads and replaced with newer, low-pollution vehicles."

Circuit Assembly Of Jehovah's Witnesses Set April 10-12

"Withstanding the Pressures of Our Day," will be the main subject to be discussed during the forthcoming Circuit Assembly of Jehovah's witnesses to be held in Memphis, Texas April 10-12.

More than 500 are expected to attend from 16 neighboring counties in the Plains and Golden Spread according to Loyd Lowery, presiding minister of the Littlefield congregation. Hundreds of family groups will make up the delegation with expectations for having their faith strengthened in what Lowery described as an assembly to encourage all in attendance to measure up to the fine Christian principles of the Bible. "The Bible was written for every kind of man, in every walk of life, in every generation," Lowery said. "It touches on every aspect of man's existence and speaks authoritatively as regards his past, his present and his future. It has survived centuries of violent opposition and misrepresentation and still stands as man's oldest time-tested guide and counselor. The desire of every one in attendance will be to learn more of its unsurpassed qualities," Lowery indicated.

A baptism of new ministers and the above mentioned Bible lecture on the subject, "Withstanding the Pressures of Our Day," will be two of the convention highlights.

Emphysema Is Fastest Growing Disease In USA

Did you ever hear of emphysema or chronic bronchitis? Chances are you have since it is one of the hazards of cigarette smoking.

The problem of chronic obstructive lung disease isn't new, but its prominence in the field of health is making itself known by the rapidity with which it is disabling people from one part of the state to the other.

Pulmonary diseases are the second most common cause of disability in the state and the number of cases is rising rapidly, according to Dr. Albert G. Randall, deputy commissioner for Tuberculosis Control Services with the Texas State Department of Health.

And here's another fact given by Dr. Randall: In the past 10 years the gross mortality from emphysema and chronic bronchitis in the United States and continues to grow faster than for any other disease. Put another way, deaths from emphysema and chronic bronchitis in this country have just about doubled every five years since 1952.

Why should this be of importance to you? You may be a candidate for a pulmonary disease even though you think you have no problem. Statistics gathered during a national Health Survey indicate that some three million Americans have limited activities due to emphysema and chronic bronchitis. And...the number is growing annually.

It has been estimated that some 25 per cent of those over 40 have abnormal lung function. Although women and younger people suffer from emphysema, there are 10 men victims for every woman. Most of the more than 10 million victims are men past 40. And here's another shocker for you who haven't concerned yourself before with emphysema: There are more sufferers from emphysema in the United States than from lung cancer and tuberculosis combined, according to one estimate.

What marks you as a candidate for diagnosis as a sufferer with emphysema or chronic bronchitis? Frequent colds, a lingering cough, increasing shortness of breath with normal activities, frequent respiratory infections, general weakness and a tendency to tire easily, a feeling of tightness in the chest. These are signs which shouldn't be ignored but all too often are ignored until serious problems develop.
