

NOSIN... With Polly

We received a letter this week from Bill Bright, President of Prayer Crusade, Headquartered in San Bernardino, California. Along with the letter came a copy of the Congressional Record Proclaiming Tuesday, April 30 as National Day of Prayer.

This is the first time the United States Senate has taken such a historic step since confirming President Abraham Lincoln's call to prayer in 1863.

There are many Americans who believe, Matthew 19:20 that reads "for where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." So we know that if two or three gathered in humble prayer is pleasing to God. How much more pleasing it probably would be to Him to see the populous of the U.S.A. on their knees in prayer and humble submissiveness to Him. Jesus believed in prayer He prayed all night. He prayed while on the cross. The Bible teaches the value of prayer. It commands us to pray. 1 Thessalonians 5:17 says "pray without ceasing." We are encouraged to pray in Luke 11:19 and I say unto you, ask, and it shall be given you; Seek, and you shall find; Knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

All through the Bible there is much evidence that prayer is the answer to all our problems. For through prayer we communicate with God and are brought into His presence and He hears our prayers and answers them. We find that Isaac prayed for children.

Jabez prayed for prosperity 1 Chronicles 4:10 "and Jabez called on God of Israel saying, oh that thou wouldst bless me indeed, and enlarge my coast, and that Thine hand might be with me, and that Thou wouldst keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me: and God granted him that which he requested."

Elisha prayed for deliverance from the Syrians. Ezra prayed for the sins of the people.

Hannah prayed for a son. David prayed a prayer of Thanksgiving as he was dying. In all these prayers we find God gave an answer.

He is the same God, yesterday, today and tomorrow. So, Tuesday, if the populous of the U.S.A. turned to prayer and fasting, it might surprise the world what might happen. The Lord might come to gather up His own.

Remember the quote by Eugene O'Neill, Man is born broken. He lives by mending. The grace of God is glue.

"NOSIN"

The Baptist and Methodist Churches will be open all day Tuesday for those who wish to come and pray. Wednesday afternoon, no special services had been scheduled for National Prayer Day.

Saturday, May 4, Texans will be called on to vote on a Pari-mutuel Gambling Referendum. The real issue is legalized gambling not horse racing. There is nothing wrong with horse racing in and of itself. However, when pari-mutuel betting is included we have opened Pandora's box.

The New York Times, on January 10, 1974, said, "A privately circulated Police Department white paper concludes that off-track betting, rather than eliminating organized crime from gambling and driving out bookmakers, led to a 62% increase in illegal betting and brought more mob-connected figures into bookmaking. Can we afford that in Texas when organized crime is already taking one billion dollars per year out of the state? The argument is being used that legalized pari-mutuel betting will bring in sufficient additional revenue to lighten the State's tax burden. However, consider this tidbit of information from John Bisagno, Pastor of First Baptist Church, Houston: "In all three neighboring states -- Louisiana, New Mexico, and

IT'S HIGH TIME...

"Whereas, intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us," reads a portion of a resolution adopted by the United States Senate proclaiming April 30, 1974 as a National Day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer.

The resolution, modeled after a proclamation made by Abraham Lincoln in 1863, was introduced in the U. S. Senate by Senator Mark Hatfield (R-Oregon).

Lincoln asked citizens to unite for worship in their homes and churches during the Civil War when the Union cause had reached a low point. Hatfield proposed his resolution at a time when, "We witness a country torn apart with division and lacking the spiritual foundation which would restore its vision and purpose."

Hatfield went on to say in his speech to the Senate "We, as a people, through our acquiescence to corruption and waste, have helped to create a moral abyss that produces a disdain for honesty and humility in high levels of national leadership."

In a response to the action by the Senate, evangelist Billy Graham said, "I think it is high time that we Christians who live in America put more emphasis on prayer and fasting. I'm delighted that the Senate has taken the leadership on this day. I intend to spend most of April 30th in prayer and meditation."

The resolution was adopted by voice vote with no debate or opposition. The lawmakers indicated that, because of the nation's failings, it "behooves us to humble ourselves before Almighty God, to confess our national sins and to pray for clemency and forgiveness."

Dr. Bill Bright, founder and president of Campus Crusade for Christ International, declared that April 30 could be a "turning point in the history of our nation. We may well experience a new birth of faith and freedom as a result of this day of prayer." Dr. Bright went on to urge his staff of more than 4,000 to "set an example and spend at least the full day of April 30 in prayer, fasting and repentance for our nation."

The resolution is waiting action by the sub-committee on Civil Rights and Constitutional Rights of the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives. This committee is presently dominated by Watergate and impeachment investigation.

When asked what the chances were for the resolution to be passed by the House committee, Senator Hatfield replied, "Very, very remote." He went on to explain that regardless of the action taken by the House committee, there will still be a day of prayer.

Arkansas, which have legalized pari-mutuel betting, less than one half of one percent of the entire state budget comes from this revenue, and that is before they take off for additional agencies set up to manage, legislate, control, and tax the gambling industry and all the other administrative cost which are massive. In our state the most to be expected in tax revenue is 1% of the total state budget. Can we afford this "drop in the bucket" source of revenue?

Bisagno further states that legal gambling has a devastating effect on the economy. Note what he says:

"New York's legal off-track betting parlors pay an average of every $22 out of every dollar wagered. Someone is losing 18¢ on the dollar. Bad debts, debit spending, lost jobs, and embezzling to cover losses are all part of Fortune Magazine's picture of the financial holocaust created by gambling. It takes 1 1/2 to 2% to collect other kinds of taxes. It takes 25 to 40% of the tax money itself to collect gambling tax.... bad debts, bad promises, bad relationships, bad credit, and broken homes follow quickly on the heels of legalized gambling." Can Texans afford this kind of havoc?

There are psychological and moral aspects in pari-mutuel wagering that must not be overlooked.

Again I am quoting Bisagno, "Psychologically, gambling is as addictive as alcohol and drugs as witnessed by the membership of thousands of Gamblers Anonymous. There is not only the masochistic desires to lose, the fantasy of winning, and a myriad of other motivating factors; there is the illusive mirage which says, "Tomorrow I will win..."

Pari-mutuel betting arouses covetousness, greed, and materialism. The Bible takes a dim view of all these. Gambling also provokes an attitude of "Something for nothing". The Bible strongly urges the honest work ethic. (See Eph. 4:28)

Can Texans afford legalized pari-mutuel gambling? No!

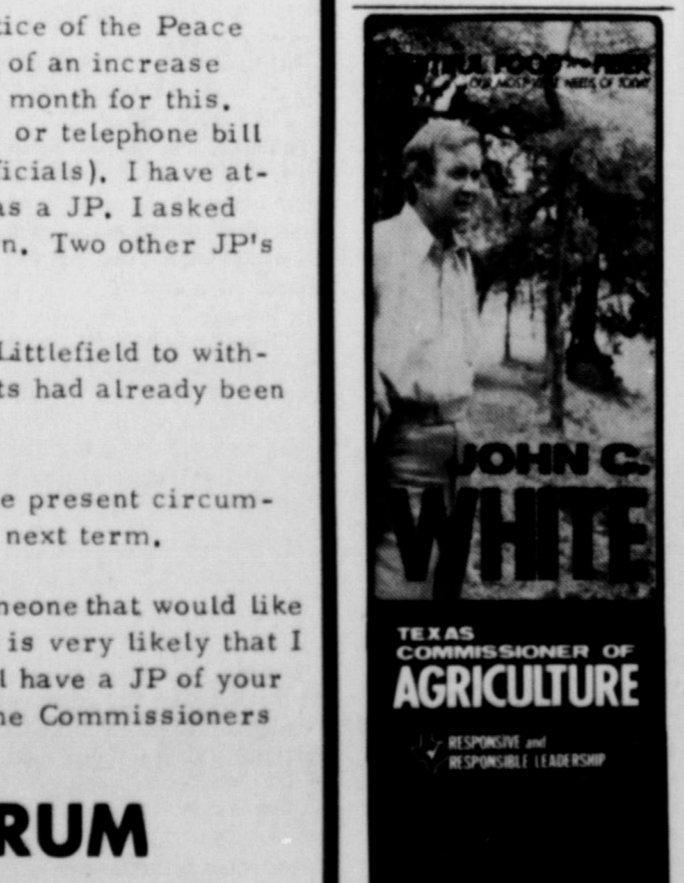

Therefore, I urge you to vote against, "THE PROPOSITION THAT THE SIXTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE SHALL ENACT A LAW TO PERMIT THE PARI-MUTUEL WAGERING ON HORSERACING BY LOCAL OPTION", on May 4th.

Thoughts

From The Living Bible

"It's like this: when I was a child I spoke and thought and reasoned as a child does. But when I became a man my thoughts grew far beyond those of my childhood, and now I have put away the childish things. In the same way, we can see and understand only a little about God now, as if we were peering at his reflection in a poor mirror; but someday we are going to see him in his completeness, face to face.

MOVING FROM one home to another is never an easy task. To make the most of its excitement and anticipation, get organized and let it be a real adventure.

Expenses incurred since that reporting date are to be turned in April 24.

Candidates who are unopposed do not have to account for their expenses.

In the county judge's race, Bill Angel spent $521.72 and G.T. Sides showed expenditures of $514.14.

The two candidates for county treasurer reported expenditures of $398 for Lucy M. Moxland and $316.79 for Fannie B. Rogers.

NOTICE TO VOTERS OF PRECINCT 2

When I filed for a place on the Poll for Justice of the Peace in the Primary Election I had been assured of an increase in pay for it. You see I only receive $100 a month for this. The County does not pay any rent, utilities, or telephone bill (other than calls made collect to County Officials). I have attended all schools to better qualify myself as a JP. I asked for this increase in pay and was turned down. Two other JP's in the County had received increases.

After a lot of thought, on April 2 I went to Littlefield to withdraw my name from the race, but the ballots had already been printed.

My name will be on the Ballot, but under the present circumstances I do not wish to serve in this office next term.

I would suggest a write-in campaign for someone that would like this job, and that you not vote for me, as it is very likely that I will resign if elected. By doing this you will have a JP of your choice in place of one that is appointed by the Commissioners Court.

Hulcy Completes 81 Hour Emergency Medical Course

Hershel Hulcy, driver for the local Parson-Ellis-Singleton General Home ambulance, completed an Emergency Medical Technician Course March 18 from Lubbock Christian College in Lubbock. The course consisted of 81 classroom hours, plus written reports of five Emergency Ambulance runs and 10 hours in-hospital training. The hospital hours consisted of tours of St. Marys and the Methodist Hospitals in Lubbock. With most of the hours spent in the Emergency rooms observing and assisting with the treatment. Following completion of the in-hospital hours, reports on all the trainees had seen and assisted in treating, were required. The 81 classroom hours were filled with lectures by Specialists in every field of medicine. Hulcy will receive an Emergency Medical Technicians Certificate within the near future.

Feeling as though this area, without a doctor, with the exception of one day each week, might at any moment need emergency assistance, besides the help received from Mrs. Weldon Barton, a former nurse, and Mrs. Paul Wood, school nurse, Hulcy is currently enrolled in an Advance E.M.T. course.

The present (advanced) course requires 81 hours and is being held in the Methodist Hospital. The instructor, Dr. Paul Huffington, is Chief of Staff for the Methodist Hospital.

Plans are in the making for the E.M.T. course to become a regular course in the LCC curriculum. College students taking the course can receive college credit. All who take the course will be registered as an E.M.T. with the State of Texas.

Hulcy who has been driver for the local ambulance for several years is employed at Plant X, and is ambulance driver when not on duty at Plant X.

Take a Walk into Summer

Summer '74 will see ladylike shoes return to the fashion scene, and platform looks decline in importance, forecasters say.

"New shoes feature a single sole and slimmer, higher heels, ranging from two-and-a-half to three inches," Marilyn Brown, consumer education - clothing and textiles specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The Texas A&M University System, explained.

Termed "needles" or "shafts," higher heels receive most attention when combined with open-toed pumps and sandals. Toes, whether open or closed, are gracefully rounded, the specialist noted.

"Rich, classic dress shoes feature halter lacing, snappy sandals and slimmer-toed pumps." Spectators also will enjoy renewed popularity in both sling and pump styling, she said.

"This styling reflects the Chanel influence, as do the darker color treatments in toes and heels. Striking color combinations - ivory and deep tone pinks, brown with hunter green, and sandpiper beige with white - create fashion excitement, she continued.

"Metallic accents, such as gold bandings on heels or chains outlining sandal straps, remain popular for dress shoes.

"Mid-heel - especially in reptile prints and soft glove leathers - offer a fashionable alternative to the new, higher heels," Miss Brown said.

The specialist cited spectator pumps with stack, mid-height heels as "an important look for skirts or pants.

"Some spring lines feature stacked heels and toes accented with metallics for day wear.

"In these, gold, silver, gunmetal and bronze offset white or ivory. Geared to the younger set, these fashions flaunt a broader toe."

Espadrilles, on the other hand, reflect current interest in hand-crafts, she added.

"For example, vampis of woven leather, bright embossing or needlepoint join with wedge heels. Slight platform soles, outlined with woven rope, provide an effective contrast for bright pastel leathers.

"This year's jeans shoe is an espadrille in denim or bandana fabric with rope trim and crepe sole."

Overall, spring finds shoes softer, slimmer and more graceful. Comfort and individual tastes are stressed along with fashion for today's woman, the specialist concluded.

A Mini-Garden Can Be Fun

"Don't despair just because there isn't enough yard space for a vegetable garden. Instead, try a 'mini-garden,' or growing vegetables in containers," suggest Sam Comer of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Almost any vegetable that grows in a typical back yard garden will do as well in a container placed on a window sill, patio, balcony or doorstep," says Comer, a vegetable specialist. "And when gardening in containers, you don't have to worry about soil borne diseases, nematodes and poor soil conditions like yard gardeners do."

Vegetables suitable for mini-gardening include tomatoes, peppers, eggplant, green onions, lettuce, squash, radishes, parsley and herbs. Vining plants like pole beans and cucumbers do well when given adequate space for their vining habit.

"The container size will vary with the crop selected and the space available," says the Texas A&M University System specialist. "Tomatoes, peppers and eggplant do best in a six-inch size container while six-inch pots are satisfactory for green onions, parsley and herbs."

Bushel baskets, drums, gallon cans, tubs, plastic trash containers, wooden boxes and similar containers are all suitable for a mini-garden.

A synthetic soil, which can be bought at a garden center or prepared at home, gives best results. It includes a mix of sawdust, wood chips, shavings, perlite, vermiculite, peat moss or almost any other type of growing media.

"Regardless of the soil mixture used, it must be free of diseases and weed seeds, capable of holding moisture and nutrients, and yet, well-drained," cautions the specialist.

Comer also recommends that vegetables be transplanted into the containers rather than direct seeded. Transplant with care so that the young plants' root systems receive no injury.

To provide plants with adequate nutrients, water once a day with a nutrient solution. Prepare a base solution by dissolving two cups of a complete fertilizer such as 10-10-15 or 10-10-10 in one gallon of water and use this to water plants about once a day.

To avoid a build-up or non-soluble materials in the soil, Comer advises watering with tap water instead of the nutrient solution at least once a week.

The specialist has one addition suggestion: "Since a mini-garden is mobile, locate the containers where they will receive adequate sunlight. All vegetables do better in full sun."

The New York Times, on January 10, 1974, said, "A privately circulated Police Department white paper concludes that off-track betting, rather than eliminating organized crime: from gambling and driving out bookmakers, led to a 62% increase in illegal betting and brought more mob-connected figures into bookmaking." Can we afford that in Texas when organized crime is already taking one billion dollars per year out of the state?

The argument is being used that legalized pari-mutuel betting will bring in sufficient additional revenue to lighten the State's tax burden. However, consider this tidbit of information from John Bisagno, Pastor of First Baptist Church, Houston: "In all three neighboring states -- Louisiana, New Mexico, and

IT'S HIGH TIME...

"Whereas, intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us," reads a portion of a resolution adopted by the United States Senate proclaiming April 30, 1974 as a National Day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer.

The resolution, modeled after a proclamation made by Abraham Lincoln in 1863, was introduced in the U. S. Senate by Senator Mark Hatfield (R-Oregon).

Lincoln asked citizens to unite for worship in their homes

Arkansas, which have legalized pari-mutuel betting, less than one half of one percent of the entire state budget comes from this revenue, and that is before they take off for additional agencies set up to manage, legislate, control, and tax the gambling industry and all the other administrative cost which are massive. In our state the most to be expected in tax revenue is 1% of the total state budget. Can we afford this "drop in the bucket" source of revenue?

Bisagno further states that legal gambling has a devastating effect on the economy. Note what he says:

"New York's legal off-track betting parlors pay an average of every 82¢ out of every dollar wagered. Someone is losing 18¢ on the dollar. Bad debts, debit spending, lost jobs, and embezzling to cover losses are all part of Fortune Magazine's picture of the financial holocaust created by gambling. It takes 1 1/2 to 2% to collect other kinds of taxes. It takes 25 to 40% of the tax money itself to collect gambling tax... bad debts, bad promises, bad relationships, bad credit, and broken homes follow quickly on the heels of legalized gambling." Can Texans afford this kind of havoc?

There are psychological and moral aspects in pari-mutuel wagering that must not be overlooked.

Again I am quoting Bisagno. "Psychologically, gambling is as addictive as alcohol and drugs as witnessed by the membership of thousands of Gamblers Anonymous. There is not only the masochistic desire to lose, the fantasy of winning, and a myriad of other motivating factors; there is the illusive mirage which says, "Tomorrow I will win."

Pari-mutuel betting arouses covetousness, greed, and materialism. The Bible takes a dim view of all these. Gambling also provokes an attitude of "Something for nothing". The Bible strongly urges the honest work ethic. (See Eph. 4:28)

Can Texans afford legalized pari-mutuel gambling? No!

Therefore, I urge you to vote against, "THE PROPOSITION THAT THE SIXTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE SHALL ENACT A LAW TO PERMIT THE PARI-MUTUEL WAGERING ON HORSE RACING BY LOCAL OPTION", on May 4th.

and churches during the Civil War when the Union cause had reached a low point. Hatfield proposed his resolution at a time when, "We witness a country torn apart with division and lacking the spiritual foundation which would restore its vision and purpose."

Hatfield went on to say in his speech to the Senate "We, as a people, through our acquiescence to corruption and waste, have helped to create a moral abyss that produces a disdain for honesty and humility in high levels of national leadership."

In a response to the action by the Senate, evangelist Billy Graham said, "I think it is high time that we Christians who live in America put more emphasis on prayer and fasting. I'm delighted that the Senate has taken the leadership on this day. I intend to spend most of April 30th in prayer and meditation."

The resolution was adopted by voice vote with no debate or opposition. The lawmakers indicated that, because of the nation's failings, it behooves us to humble ourselves before Almighty God, to confess our national sins and to pray for clemency and forgiveness.

Dr. Bill Bright, founder and president of Campus Crusade for Christ International, declared that April 30 could be a "turning point in the history of our nation. We may well experience a new birth of faith and freedom as a result of this day of prayer." Dr. Bright went on to urge his staff of more than 4,000 to "set an example and spend at least the full day of April 30 in prayer, fasting and repentance for our nation."

The resolution is waiting action by the sub-committee on Civil Rights and Constitutional Rights of the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives. This committee is presently dominated by Watergate and impeachment investigation.

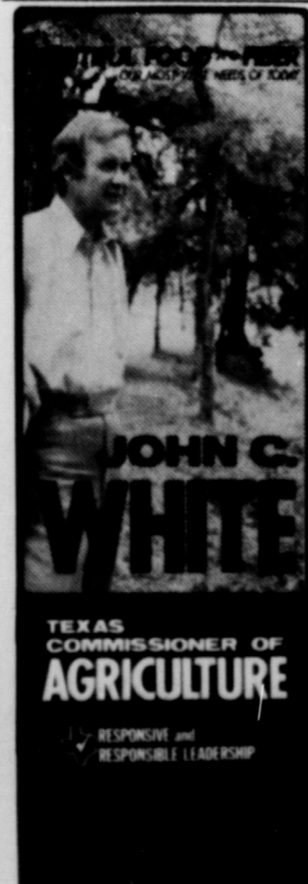

When asked what the chances were for the resolution to be passed by the House committee, Senator Hatfield replied, "Very, very remote." He went on to explain that regardless of the action taken by the House committee, there will still be a day of prayer.

Thoughts

From The Living Bible

"It's like this: when I was a child I spoke and thought and reasoned as a child does. But when I became a man my thoughts grew far beyond those of my childhood, and now I have put away the childish things. In the same way, we can see and understand only a little about God now, as if we were peering at his reflection in a poor mirror; but someday we are going to see him in his completeness, face to face.

NOTICE TO VOTERS OF PRECINCT 2

When I filed for a place on the Poll for Justice of the Peace in the Primary Election I had been assured of an increase in pay for it. You see I only receive $100 a month for this. The County does not pay any rent, utilities, or telephone bill (other than calls made collect to County Officials). I have attended all schools to better qualify myself as a JP. I asked for this increase in pay and was turned down. Two other JP's in the County had received increases.

After a lot of thought, on April 2 I went to Littlefield to withdraw my name from the race, but the ballots had already been printed.

My name will be on the Ballot, but under the present circumstances I do not wish to serve in this office next term.

I would suggest a write-in campaign for someone that would like this job, and that you not vote for me, as it is very likely that I will resign if elected. By doing this you will have a JP of your choice in place of one that is appointed by the Commissioners Court.

Hulcy Completes 81 Hour Emergency Medical Course

Hershel Hulcy, driver for the local Parson-Ellis-Singleton General Home ambulance, completed an Emergency Medical Technician Course March 18 from Lubbock Christian College in Lubbock.

The course consisted of 81 classroom hours, plus written reports of five Emergency Ambulance runs and 10 hours in-hospital training. The hospital tours consisted of tours of St. Marys and the Methodist Hospitals in Lubbock. With most of the hours spent in the Emergency rooms observing and assisting with the treatment.

Following completion of the in-hospital hours, reports on all the trainees had seen and assisted in treating, were required.

The 81 classroom hours were filled with lectures by Specialists in every field of medicine. Hulcy will receive an Emergency Medical Technicians Certificate within the near future.

Feeling as though this area, without a doctor, with the exception of one day each week, might at any moment need emergency assistance, besides the help received from Mrs. Weldon Barton, a former nurse, and Mrs. Paul Wood, school nurse, Hulcy is currently enrolled in an Advance E. M. T. course.

The present (advanced) course requires 81 hours and is being held in the Methodist Hospital. The instructor, Dr. Paul Huffington, is Chief of Staff for the Methodist Hospital.

Plans are in the making for the E. M. T. course to become a regular course in the LCC curriculum. College students taking the course can receive college credit. All who take the course will be registered as an E. M. T. with the State of Texas.

Hulcy who has been driver for the local ambulance for several years is employed at Plant X, and is ambulance driver when not on duty at Plant X.

Take a Walk into Summer

Summer '74 will see ladylike shoes return to the fashion scene, and platform looks decline in importance, forecasters say.

"New shoes feature a single sole and slimmer, higher heels, ranging from two-and-a-half to three inches," Marilyn Brown, consumer education - clothing and textiles specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, explained.

Termed "needles" or "shafts," higher heels receive most attention when combined with open-toed pumps and sandals. Toes, whether open or closed, are gracefully rounded, the specialist noted.

"Rich, classic dress shoes feature halter linings, snappy sandals and slimmer-toed pumps," Spectators also will enjoy renewed popularity in both sling and pump styling, she said. "This styling reflects the Chanel influence, as do the darker color treatments in toes and heels. Striking color combinations - ivory and deep tone patents, brown with hunter green, and sandpiper beige with white - create fashion excitement, she continued.

"Metallic accents, such as gold bandings on heels or chains outlining sandal straps, remain popular for dress shoes.

"Mid-heel - especially in reptile prints and soft glove leathers - offer a fashionable alternative to the new, higher heels," Miss Brown said.

The specialist cited spectator pumps with stack, mid-height heels as "an important look for skirts or pants."

"Some spring lines feature stacked heels and toes accented with metallics for day wear.

"In these, gold, silver, gunmetal and bronze offset white or ivory. Geared to the younger set, these fashions flaunt a broader toe."

Espadrilles, on the other hand, reflect current interest in hand-crafts, she added.

"For example, vamps of woven leather, bright embossing or needlepoint join with wedge heels. Slight platform soles, outlined with woven rope, provide an effective contrast for bright pastel leathers.

"This year's jeans shoe is an espadrille in denim or boudana fabric with rope trim and crepe sole."

Overall, spring finds shoes softer, slimmer and more graceful. Comfort and individual tastes are stressed along with fashion for today's woman, the specialist concluded.

Cancer Drive Goes Over Goal

The local Cancer Drive was ended this week with the Earth, Springlake, Pleasant Valley, area going way over their goal. According to Mrs. Norman Ellis chairman for the over-all Earth area drive the goal was $1600.00 and when all was totaled up the amount collected in was $1,907.86.

Mrs. Phil Neinast, chairman for the Springlake Drive collected in $438.00 from that area. Mrs. Lillie Weurlein was chairman for the Pleasant Valley area and received $187

00 in that community. According to Mrs. Ellis everyone working did a good job and they all responded willingly and graciously to the cause.

L. H. Dent who has been recovering from surgery the past weeks, was not feeling good last week. He was reported to be feeling some better Monday.

Mrs. Belew Re-elected to Head PTA

Mrs. Bob Belew was re-elected to head the local Springlake Earth PTA for the forthcoming two year period at a meeting Thursday night in the Home making Cottage. The installation of Officers will be held in Mid-May.

Other officers elected at the meeting were Mrs. Bryan Dutton, as Vice president, Miss Brenda Bullard was named secretary and Mrs. Melvin Chisholm, treasurer. Parliamentarian for the association is Mrs. Ray Joe Riley. The President will appoint a Historian at a later date.

The mock style show was a classic, as the girls had prepared and presented a delightful show.

A Mini-Garden Can Be Fun

"Don't despair just because there isn't enough yard space for a vegetable garden. Instead, try a 'mini-garden,' or growing vegetables in containers," suggest Sam Corner of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Almost any vegetable that grows in a typical back yard garden will do as well in a container placed on a window sill, patio, balcony or doorstep," says Corner, a vegetable specialist. "And when gardening in containers, you don't have to worry about soil borne diseases, nematodes and poor soil conditions like yard gardeners do."

Vegetables suitable for mini-gardening include tomatoes, peppers, eggplant, green onions, lettuce, squash, radishes, parsley and herbs. Vining plants like pole beans and cucumbers do well when given adequate space for their vining habit. "The container size will vary with the crop selected and the space available," says the Texas A&M University System specialist. "Tomatoes, peppers and eggplant do best in a five-gallon size container while six-inch pots are satisfactory for green onions, parsley and herbs.

Bushel baskets, drums, gallon cans, tubs, plastic trash containers, wooden boxes and similar containers are all suitable for a mini-garden.

A synthetic soil, which can be bought at a garden center or prepared at home, gives best results. It includes a mix of sawdust, wood chips, shavings, perlite, vermiculite, peat moss or almost any other type of growing media.

"Regardless of the soil mixture used, it must be free of diseases and weed seeds, capable of holding moisture and nutrients, and yet, well-drained," cautions the specialist.

Corner also recommends that vegetables be transplanted into the containers rather than direct seeded. Transplant with care so that the young plants' root systems receive no injury.

To provide plants with adequate nutrients, water once a day with a nutrient solution. Prepare a base solution by dissolving two cups of a complete fertilizer such as 10-10-15 or 10-10-10 in one gallon of water and use this to water plants about once a day.

To avoid a build-up or non-soluble materials in the soil, Corner advises watering with tap water instead of the nutrient solution at least once a week.

The specialist has one addition suggestion: "Since a mini-garden is mobile, locate the containers where they will receive adequate sunlight. All vegetables do better in full sun."

She wore a beautiful floor length gown fashioned with an empire bodice and bishop sleeves of baby blue nylon satin trimmed with matching lace and tiny pearl buttons. She carried a bouquet of white rose buds, baby breath, and light blue forget-me-nots atop a white bible given to her by Suzanne Allmon, sister of the groom. The bride carried out the traditional something old, something new, something borrowed, and something blue. For good luck she had a penny in each shoe with their birth-dates on them.

Miss Suzanne Allmon, sister of the groom, served as maid of honor. She wore a floor length dress of royal blue crepe trimmed with white lace. She was also wearing a hand engraved necklace given to her by the bride and a corsage of white rose buds, forget-me-nots, and baby breath.

Horton Brandon, of Petersburg, served as best man. Elvis Kelly of Austin, Jearl Thorpe of Irving, and Bill Gover of Plainview served as ushers.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Gover chose a street length dress of blue and silver double knit with silver accessories and a white rose bud corsage. The mother of the groom wore a street length dress of pale peach double knit with bone accessories and a white rose bud corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in fellowship hall of the Main Street Church of Christ. The brides table was covered with a white cut work tablecloth. The lovely four tiered wedding cake was iced in white and decorated with blue roses topped with a figurine of the bride and groom. Punch, mints, and nuts were served from silver and crystal appointments.

For the wedding trip the bride wore a pink and white pant suit with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Springlake-Earth High School and Wayland Baptist College of Plainview. She is presently employed by the Petersburg school system. The groom is a graduate of Petersburg High School, Spartan School of aeronautics of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Texas Tech University in Lubbock. The couple will make their home in Petersburg where he is presently engaged in farming East of Petersburg.

My heart is filled with love and gratitude for all my friends and loved ones who have expressed so much encouragement and comfort during my recent surgery and hospitalization.

Thanks so much for your cards, calls, flowers, visits, prayers, and spoken words of reassurance. They have done so much to cheer me through these days.

May God bless each of you.

I would like to especially thank those who worked so faithfully on the drive, especially Donna Neinast who was the chairman for the Springlake drive and Lillie Wueflein who worked the Pleasant Valley area.

With such concern and generosity we hope that our dream of finding a cure for cancer in our life time will become a reality.

To each of you again thank you.

Rabies Should Be of Concern to Everyone

Rabies is a subject that has lost its concern to the average person unless.....

Your dog is picked up and impounded for not having a tag.....

A pet goes wild, frothing at the mouth.....

Or, maybe your child is bitten by a stray dog, or wild animal, which runs away.

Then, rabies becomes very personal. You may have to pay a fine, have your pet put to sleep and a rabies examination performed, or--worse-- have your child submit to a series of painful rabies shots.

During 1973, reports the Veterinary Public Health Division of the State Health Department, there were 271 laboratory confirmed animal rabies cases in Texas. This is a decrease from the 343 cases reported in 1972 but still a sizable figure. The State Health Department furnished 721 antirabies treatment series to people of the state of in 1973.

Only a small fraction of the cases of confirmed rabies appeared in pets. But, during 1973, seven dogs and 18 cats had confirmed rabies cases. Most pet owners are extremely lax about having their cats vaccinated.

Forty cases of rabies were confirmed in livestock during 1973, five more cases than were reported the previous year. Cattle accounted for 23 cases, horses 16 cases and sheep one case.

Rabies in livestock can be a rather dangerous situation for both farmers and ranchers and for veterinarians. Often in attempting to diagnose an animal's illness, a person will expose himself to rabies.

Wildlife produced the largest number of rabies cases last year. Two hundred six rabies cases were confirmed in wildlife, and skunks headed the list with more than half the total. Skunks accounted for 140 cases, foxes 31 cases and bats 26 cases. Rabies also was found in raccoons, bobcats, and ring-tails.

Which brings up another good point. If you observe any wild animal acting strangely, with no fear of man, keep away from it. Also train your children to avoid animals in the wild. These friendly animals could be rabid. It's sure bet that something is wrong if they don't flee from man.

Rabies appeared in 97 Texas counties last year, and suspected rabies specimen were sent into State Department of Health Laboratories from all sections of the state. In fact, 6,757 specimens were received by Health Department laboratories for rabies examinations.

Rabies may be of little concern to the average person these days, but to your State Health Department and local health departments rabies still is a very serious matter. You can do your part to insure the safety of your family and friends by having all pets vaccinated against this disease.

Thoughts

From The Living Bible

When Moses saw that the bush was on fire and that it didn't burn up, he went over to investigate. Then God called out to him, "Moses! Moses!" "Who is it?" Moses asked. "Don't come any closer." God told him. "Take off your shoes. For you are standing on holy ground. I am the God of your fathers -- the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

Shearing of Sheep Underway in Lamb

"Spring shearing of goats and sheep is under way in Lamb County and 1974 promises to be a profitable year for the mohair and wool producer," Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has announced.

Though production figures for the 1974 season are not expected to equal the spectacular 1973 yields, goat and sheep raisers can look for substantial increases over previous slump years.

Sheep shearing, underway for the 12-month clip, is expected to run into the first of June. Producers in the southern part of the state who clip twice a year have completed their first clipping.

Experts expect wool shearing yields to be down a little from last year's production, due principally to West Texas drought conditions.

Prices are quoted as fair for wool, with wool sold at a recent Sanderson sale averaging $.80 per pound for the better quality wools.

January exports of wool top and raw wool, clean basis, totaled 1,375,636 lbs. and 380,254 lbs. respectively. Texas produces 20% of the total U.S. wool production, which is more wool than any other state in the nation.

"Goat shearing has been completed statewide with adult hair bringing an average of $1.54 - $1.70 per pound," Commissioner White said.

With Texas producing about

97% of the U.S. mohair, statewide exports of mohair in January totaled 272,926 lbs., clean basis.

Prices received for wool and mohair made tremendous jump in 1973 over previous figures. A combination of increased world demand and the worry of decreased supplies of synthetic fibers due to the energy crisis helped bring about the surge of 1973 receipts.

Prices for the 26,352,000 lbs. of wool sold in 1973 averaged $.88 a pound, compared to $.48 a pound in 1972.

The 9,930,000 lbs. of mohair sold in 1973 averaged $1.87 per pound, jumping from $.83 a pound in 1972.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 183 - National Day for Humiliation, Fasting, and Prayer

"WHEREAS, it is the duty of nations, as well as of men to owe their dependence upon the overruling power of God, to confess their sins and transgressions, in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon, and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations are blessed whose God is Lord; and

"WHEREAS, we know that we have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of Heaven; we have preserved these many years in peace and prosperity; we have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has ever grown; but we have forgotten God; and

"WHEREAS, we have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace, and multiplied and enriched us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own; and

"WHEREAS, we have made such an idol out of our pursuit of 'national security' that we have forgotten that only God can be the ultimate guardian of our true livelihood and safety; and

"WHEREAS, we have failed to respond, personally and collectively, with sacrifice and uncompromised commitment to the inmet needs of our fellow man, both at home and abroad; as a people, we have become so absorbed with the selfish pursuits of pleasure and profit that we have blinded ourselves to God's standard of justice and righteousness for this society; and

"WHEREAS, it therefore behooves us to humble ourselves before Almighty God, to confess our national sins, and to pray for clemency and forgiveness: Now, therefore be it

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled, that the Congress hereby proclaims that April 30, 1974 be a National Day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer; and calls upon the people of our nation to humble ourselves as we see fit, before our Creator to acknowledge our final dependence upon Him and to repent of our national sins."

Senate Joint Resolution 183 was passed by the United States Senate on December 20, 1973. It is still pending in the House of Representatives as of March 26, 1974.

Join Millions of Americans in Prayer on April 30

Our country faces crisis. Our nation needs a moral and spiritual awakening. If ever we need to pray—it is now.

Support the U.S. Senate call to prayer

"The Congress hereby proclaims that April 30, 1974 be a National Day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer; and calls upon the people of our nation to humble ourselves as we see fit, before our Creator to acknowledge our final dependence upon Him and to repent of our national sins."

This is the first time the United States Senate has taken such a historic step since confirming President Abraham Lincoln's Call to Prayer in 1863.

Here is God's Promise!

"If my people who are called by my name shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, will forgive their sins, and will heal their land" (II Chronicles 7:14).

God wants to change the hearts of men and women. He wants to mend broken families. He wants to turn suspicion, hate, discord into love, forgiveness, harmony. God wants to give our nation a new birth of faith and freedom!

God is able—if we will turn from ourselves, look to Him and pray!

On April 30 millions will be joining together to pray for change. Millions will be praying for a moral and spiritual awakening in our country and in the world. You can join them!

In your home, at the office, by yourself, with a neighbor, you can have a part in releasing the mightiest force for good known to man—prayer to a loving, all-powerful God!

There is a way to peace, equality, security, harmony.

Let's take the first step toward a new America!

To Help You Pray on April 30

Pray for national repentance, acknowledging God's mercy and forgiveness (II Chronicles 7:14).

Pray for the leaders of our country—national, state and local—that they may have wisdom, integrity, protection, guidance and an awareness of God's presence in mind and heart (I Timothy 1:6; Jeremiah 33:3).

Pray that, as individuals, we will realize God's love and draw upon His wisdom and understanding (James 1:5, Proverbs 3:5, 6; I Corinthians 13).

Pray for young people and their families, that they may desire and be willing to listen to and learn from each other (Colossians 1:10; Ephesians 5:15-6:4).

Pray for those who are prisoners of drugs, alcohol, immorality, obscenity, pornography, crime, prejudice, belief and despair (Matthew 5:44, 45; John 8:36).

David Wisian to Receive Outstanding Student Award

David Wisian, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Wisian of Springlake, and students at South Plains College of Levelland will be presented the "Outstanding Law Enforcement Graduate" award at 10 o'clock in the morning of May 1 in the college auditorium.

A letter from George L. Lawless, Co-ordinator of Police Science, at South Plains College informed his parents recently of the honor for their son.

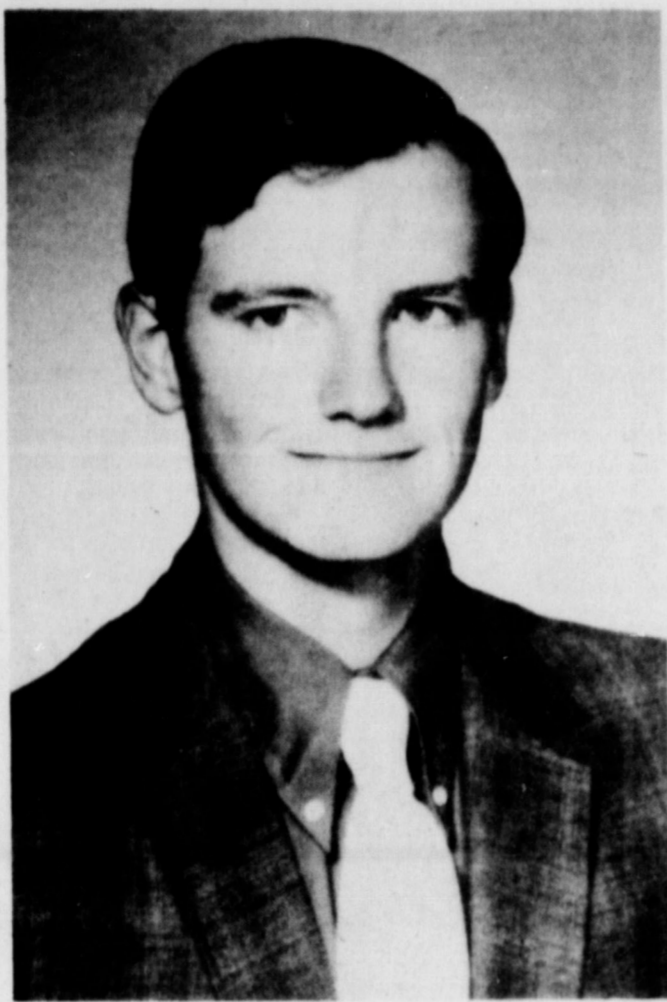

The letter said in part "In my association with David, as an instructor and friend, for the past two years at South Plains College I have found David to be a fine outstanding Christian Student."

He went on to divulge "Hours and hours David has spent helping other people as well as being prepared for his classes."

Henderson Injured at Junior Rodeo Friday Night

Things did not go as planned Friday night at the Junior rodeo, in Earth. At least not for Donnie Henderson 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Henderson.

Donnie, was the first bareback bronc rider to come out of the chute. There he was on top of one an energetic bucking bronc, but his time on top was short lived, for shortly thereafter the scene was reversed. The horse not only threw him, but it is believed the horse stepped on Henderson.

Henderson was taken by ambulance to the Littlefield Hospital where numerous sutures, about his nose, were required to close the wound and repair the damage. He also received painful bruises on his left shoulder. Henderson was hospitalized until Sunday.

Henderson had been performing in rodeos for the past three years. He is a member of the Tri State Rodeo Association also the Muleshoe High School Rodeo Club.

Henderson is a senior student at Springlake-Earth High School.

Trees Are Environmental Bargain

COLLEGE STATION---"Trees are our biggest environmental improvement bargain and offer homeowners many benefits," says Dr. William Welch, landscape horticulturist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Trees furnish protection from extreme heat, cold, wind, drought and floods. At the same time, they reduce air and noise pollution while providing shelter and food for birds, animals and man."

A source of year-round beauty, trees also increase property value and indicate community pride, points out the Texas A & M University System specialist.

In general, planting a tree demonstrates a feeling of continuity with the past--and anticipation for the future, notes the horticulturist. When cared for properly, a well-placed, carefully-selected tree provides pleasure for many generations.

Careful selection involves choosing trees adapted to the area--and which meet specific needs, adds Welch. And now late winter and early spring--is a good time to set out trees for most of Texas.

County Extension agents have specific information on selecting and caring for trees.

Refunds on Hazardous Items

Consumers can get refunds on hazardous products they've already purchased, the Consumer Product Safety Commission ruled recently.

"This involves all products banned by the Federal Hazardous Substance Act-- including toys for children and other articles," Mrs. Doris Myers, home management specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, noted.

As a result of the ruling, dealers must post signs which read, "Banned Articles or Substances List and Repurchase Procedures." The signs must inform customers:

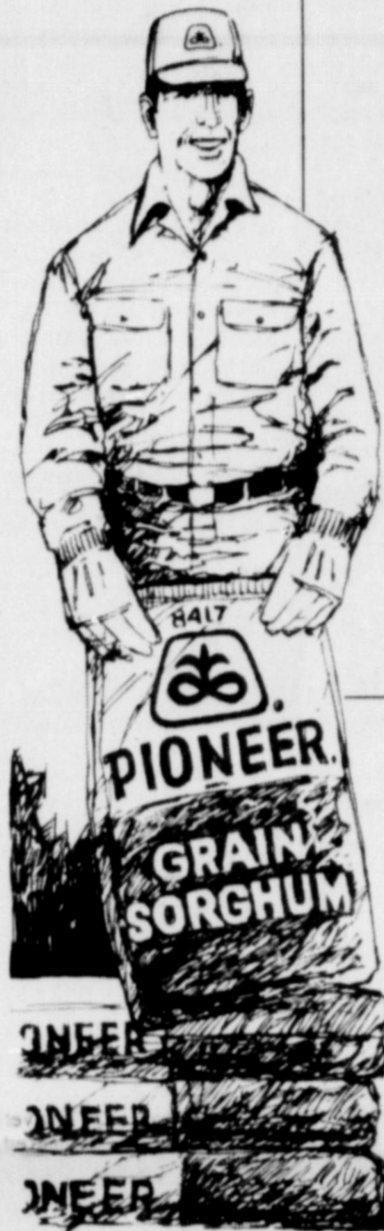

- which products have been banned, on or after March 6, including model number or other distinguishing characteristics,
- name and address of manufacturer,
- dates notice was received from manufacturer or distributor (a manufacturer must notify wholesalers and/or retailers whenever one of his products is banned),
- nature of hazard involved, and
- how they can get a full refund.

"Signs listing banned products and telling consumers how to get refunds must remain posted for 120 days."

Mrs. Myers said consumers can be reimbursed for "reasonable and necessary transportation charges that include actual costs of returning the article by mail or car."

If you can't get PIONEER Brand 8311 here are some excellent alternative hybrids for High Plains farmers.

Pioneer Brand 8311, the "Golden Bronze Yield Leader," has been our most popular hybrid this year -- so popular, in fact, that it may be in short supply in some areas. One reason is that the demand has been so great downstate where 8311's disease tolerance is so important. Fortunately, there are several other Pioneer Brand hybrids that are proven top performers on the High Plains. If you can't get 8311, ask your dealer about these.

PIONEER Brand 8417

This versatile yellow endosperm sorghum is a champion yielder in the medium-late maturity class, for irrigated or non-irrigated land. It has large open heads, uniform head height, strong stalks for easy threshing, good tolerance to smut and anthracnose.

PIONEER Brand 820

This top-notch full-season hybrid, is a consistently high yielder. Excellent drought resistance and standability plus good roots and stalks make it a good choice for irrigated or non-irrigated farming on the plains.

PIONEER Brand 828

One of the highest yielding sorghums you can plant, this full-season hybrid responds well to good management on good land with plenty of water. Plains growers like it because it holds its quality and threshes well even after an early freeze. It produces sturdy stalks with semi-compact heads of dark red grain.

PIONEER Brand 846

Famous for its versatility and adaptability, this medium maturity hybrid yields along with the full-season varieties. Resistant to smut, rust and MDM, its outstanding hybrid vigor and excellent drought resistance help it turn in consistently high yields even under stress.

GI Loans Easier Microwave Ovens Save Energy to Get, Now

The Veterans Administration reminds married home-minded veterans that it is now easier to qualify for GI home loans.

Jack Coker, VA Regional Office Director, noted that VA now accords full recognition to incomes and expenses of both veteran and spouse in determining ability to repay loan obligations.

Coker said VA is required by law to determine if contemplated terms of repayment bear a proper relation to the veteran's anticipated income and expenses before approving the loan.

"But while the spouse's income has always been considered," Coker explained, "local rules sometimes had the effect of discounting the spouse's income. Now, however, no such local rules are imposed, and the spouse's income is given full consideration."

VA guarantees 60 percent of GI home loans (maximum $12,500) private lenders make to servicemen, veterans and eligible spouses of World War II, Korean and post-Korean Conflicts and the Vietnam Era.

In a stew over the energy squeeze affecting home cooking? Today, many consumers turn to microwave ovens, one of the greatest energy-savers around," Lynn Bourland said.

The home management specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, pointed out that electronic ovens cook foods in about one-fourth the time of conventional methods.

"In addition, a homemaker needs fewer utensils to prepare and serve foods. As an added bonus, the kitchen doesn't overheat from cooking, and cleaning is cut to almost nothing."

However, like any other appliance, the microwave oven is only as efficient as the homemaker operating it. So, before buying a microwave oven, read its instructions carefully and make sure you can follow them, Miss Bourland advised.

Consider several factors when selecting a microwave oven. --First, determine how much space is available for the appliance.

"This dictates the outer measurement limits-- or the need for a model with a portable stand," the specialist added.

--Next, what electrical power is available?

"Portables use 110-120 volts while free-standing models require a separate 220-volt line," she said.

--Does the consumer want a browning tray or unit?

"Special browning trays double as serving trays that keep food warm. Usually, browning units are available in the home's regular range."

--Will the oven be used frequently for defrosting?

Automatic defrost cycles free the homemaker's time for other jobs by cutting "on" and "off" automatically, Miss Bourland said.

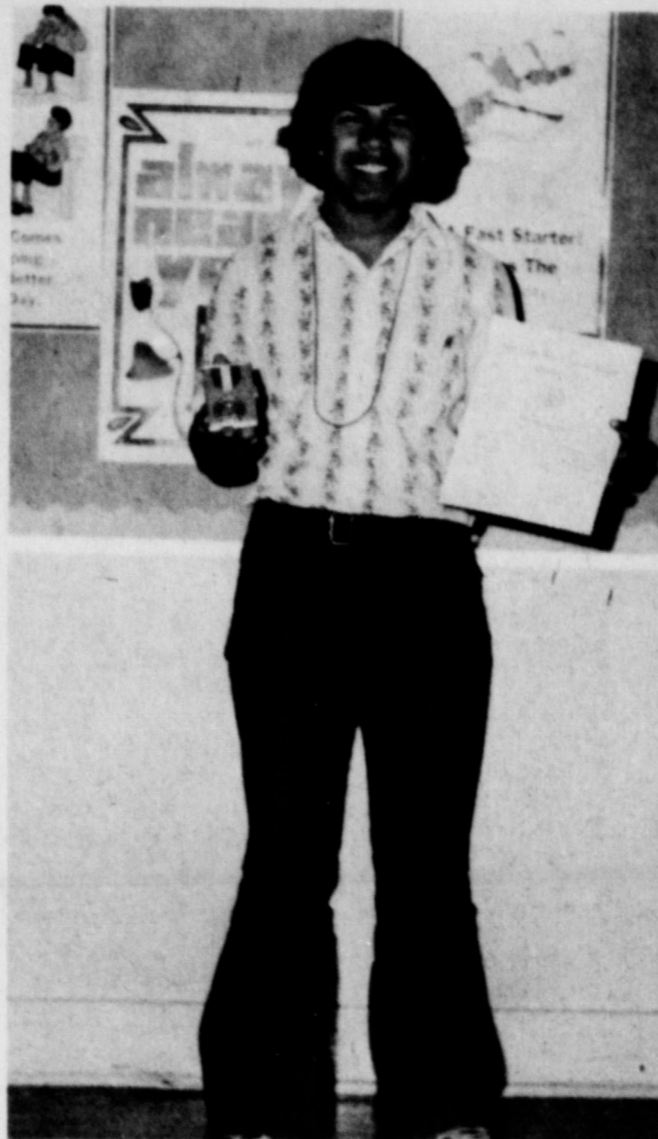

"For ovens without these defrost cycles, homemakers can set the timer for a few seconds, wait a while and then manually reset the timer for a few seconds more. These short-time cycles and waiting periods defrost-- rather than cook--foods."

--Make sure the magnetron tube--the most expensive replaceable part--has a guarantee.

"Usually it's guaranteed for two years and should last about 10 years. Ownership becomes very expensive if this tube is replaced within the first few years," the specialist emphasized.

--Is the dealer competent to service microwave equipment?

"A reliable dealer will make competent repair service available either through trained repairmen or by paying the cost to return the oven to the manufacturer," she concluded.

New FTC Guides for Furniture Industry in Effect

COLLEGE STATION----The Federal Trade Commission's (FTC) new guides for the furniture industry are now in effect, one authority noted this week.

She's Patricia A. Bradshaw, housing and home furnishings specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Essentially a revision of 1963 trade practice rules, the FTC felt that earlier standards didn't adequately cover changes in technology and materials."

"These new regulations, effective March 21, 1974, also will eliminate some misleading advertising and other deceptive practices."

"For example, manufacturers must inform consumers if an item uses plastic, vinyl, marble, slate, etc."

"Furniture with veneered construction or simulated finishes must have attached tags or labels that gave information about an item's construction and composition, Miss Bradshaw continued."

"The new guides aim to stop this--and also set down specific rules concerning labeling."

"First, manufacturers can't use names of countries to indicate style, because some consumers confuse this with where the item was made."

For example, a piece of furniture manufactured in the U. S.

can't be labeled just "Danish." Instead, it must state "Danish Design" or "Danish Style," the specialist explained.

"However, they can use 'Chinese Chippendale,' 'French Provincial,' 'Italian Provincial' and 'Mediterranean' because the public realizes these terms describe style rather than origin."

"In addition, when a manufacturer claims a product has been tested, he must provide clear, conspicuous results--in laymen's language."

"And he can't make a claim unless tests were conducted by qualified personnel--under conditions that adequately evaluate the furniture product."

Flortam Grass Solves Problems

Texas homeowners have a new weapon with which to battle chinchbugs and St. Augustine Decline (SAD) in their St. Augustinegrass lawns.

Flortam, a new variety of St. Augustinegrass that is resistant to these maladies, is now available at most local nurseries, notes Dr. Walter Walls, plant pathologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The new grass was developed jointly by the Florida and Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations. It was released to commercial sod producers in 1972.

"Besides being resistant to SAD and chinchbugs, Flortam is also tolerant to downy mildew and gray leaf spot. However, brown patch and rust still pose problems, and the new grass is less hardy than Common St. Augustinegrass," points out the Texas A&M University System specialist.

The new grass is moderately coarse-textured, is fast-growing and has a dark-green color. It also has a larger root system than common St. Augustine--grass. Flortam can be used in establishing a new lawn or for interplanting in established lawns that are affected by SAD. However, late fall planting is not recommended.

"When interplanting, plant the sprigs on 18-inch centers," suggests Walls.

"Keep unplanted sprigs out of heat and drying conditions. After planting, water the grass thoroughly and keep it watered. Apply a complete fertilizer when the new runners begin to grow."

"A list of certified Flortam producers is available from your local county Extension office."

A GOOD COTTON TO TRY
So far, those who have planted Gregg 35W on the worst wilt ground, find its tolerance and performance highly satisfactory. We have received not ONE complaint about its wilt resistance, which is very pleasing to us.
In the year 1973, 35W has been impressive in staple lengths, when staples were generally shorter.

Kelley Among 15 Tech Students to Receive Scholarship

Fifteen science students from Texas Tech University and Lubbock Christian College received $500 scholarships today (April 22) in recognition of their academic accomplishments by the Lubbock Chapter of the Achievement Rewards for College Scientists Foundation (ARCS). Among the students receiving scholarships was Johnny S. Kelley, an Agricultural engineering major, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy F. Kelley of Earth.

The scholarships were presented during a luncheon in the Lubbock Women's Club by ARCS Scholarship Committee chairman, Mrs. David M. Vigness. "Each of you is the kind of person the future depends upon," Mrs. Vigness told the students. "We have picked you as winners' and will look forward to hearing from you in the future and wish you great success in your chosen careers."
