Mr. & Mrs. Haberer Injured In Motorcycle Accident

Gary Don Haberer and his wife, Lynda, were injured Saturday evening when the motorcycle they were riding ran into a cow on the highway in the Dodd area. The Haberers were enroute from Amarillo to Pleasant Valley to visit their parents and twilight had arrived before they reached their destination. The cow was not seen in time for them to stop.

Mrs. Haberer was thrown into the bar ditch landing in a patch of grass burrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Haberer were rushed to Littlefield Hospital where it was determined that Haberer had a badly bruised heel and Mrs. Haberer had a broken leg beneath her knee. Mrs. Haberer was transferred Monday to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock for surgery on her knee.

A Eulogy To Marshal E. Kelley

by David Hartman

Let me preface this eulogy by saying that I have only known Marshal a few weeks over a year. Most of you here this afternoon have known him much longer than I. In a way I feel like an outsider looking in on the life of a man I wish I could have had the privilege of working with. However, because of his failing health this was impossible.

If you had the honor of writing an eulogy for Marshal Kelley what would you say? How would you describe this man of character and distinction? Let me share with you some things that come to me.

Marshal Kelley was a man with a pioneering spirit. To possess a real pioneering spirit means many things will be done for the first time. Marshal was a man of firsts. For example, he was the first postmaster of this town. He was the first worshipful master of the Earth Masonic Lodge. He was the first worthy patron of the Earth Order of Eastern Star and played a very important part in helping the Rainbow Girls get started. He was a charter member of First Baptist Church, the Earth Lions Club, and the Lamb County Pioneers Association.

This pioneering spirit was even expressed when he began a home of his own. On June 27, 1926, Marshal was married to Miss Eula Maye Green in Sayre, Oklahoma. The very next day they made the journey from Sayre to Earth, Texas, where Marshal had already established residence. Earth, Texas, has been home ever since that time.

To further point out the pioneer spirit of this man we note that the cemetery where he will be laid to rest this afternoon was made possible by Marshal Kelley. An interesting side note here is that after Marshal made the land available for the cemetery his young daughter, Gwendene, was the first to be buried there. Little did he realize the irony of the gift at the time.

Another way I would describe Marshal Kelley is he was a man involved in life around him. He was not content to let life uneventfully pass him by. He wasn't content to become a part of history. He wanted to help write the history books of this part of West Texas. He loved life and lived it to its fullest.

This was done in a variety of ways. For instance, he involved himself in politics locally and on a higher level. He served as president of the local Chamber of Commerce. Other organizations served by him were:

Past president of the Earth Cemetery Association,
Past chairman of the Lamb County chapter of the American Red Cross, Past president of the Lamb County Pioneers Association.

Though he did not serve as president or chairman of the following organizations, he was a member of them:
The Texas Historical Survey Committee for Lamb County,
Kiva Temple Shrine,
Scottish Wright.

He intentionally involved his life in the lives of others. Only eternity shall reveal the ultimate good he has had on others.

A third way I would describe Marshal Kelley is he was a man of deep Christian faith. His love for and faith in God found expression through First Baptist Church, Earth.

In addition to being a charter member of First Baptist Church, he has served many years in capacity of deacon, church treasurer, Sunday School Superintendent, and Sunday School teacher.

It was very distressing to Marshal when his health failed to the point that he could no longer serve the church in a leadership role. However, failing health and the resulting inability to attend Bible class and worship services did not decrease his interest in, support of, and prayers for his dearly beloved church.

During his illness, Marshal's faith remained steadfast in God. Never once did I hear him complain to man or God about his condition. Yes, he grew weary but he never despaired to the point of giving up his faith in God. He is for us an example of faithfulness to the end.

Likely when Mrs. J. W. Kelley gave birth to Marshal, September 28, 1904, in Eldorado, Oklahoma, little did she realize the lives of so many people would be touched in so many different ways in these almost 66 years.

To those who survive:
To his wife, Eula Maye,
To his daughter, La Juana O'Hair,
To the three grandchildren, Kelley, Kenny, and Kirk,
To his mother, Mrs. J. W. Kelley,
To his sister, Mrs. Bula Danforth,
And to his brother, Ray, I would say in the words of Paul (I Corinthians 15:58) "... be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord."

This eulogy was read at the Memorial Service for Marshal E. Kelley on Saturday, September 19, 1970, 2:30 p.m., First Baptist Church, Earth, Texas. A typed copy was presented to Mrs. Eula Kelley for her files.

A Man Of Conviction

A news release from Klamath Falls, Oregon, recounts how the sheriff of Klamath County has proven himself to be a man of conviction. When the state sent him new cars from a state purchasing agent, he refused them on the grounds that local automobile dealers should have the business. In a letter to the County Commissioners, he said, "I feel that local taxpaying merchants could have provided these vehicles!" The Commissioners had bought the cars through a state agency, because they were available at a lower price. Naturally, the price of a car purchased from a state purchasing agency would be lower than from a private dealer. Private car dealers pay taxes. STATE PURCHASING AGENCIES DO NOT. The same principle applies in everything from TAX-EXEMPT FEDERAL ELECTRIC POWER TO GOVERNMENT PRINTED ENVELOPES.

In noting the incident, a local Oregon editor asked, "Just how far are the citizens of this state going to go in allowing state agencies to compete with local taxpaying private businesses?" A lot of people in a lot of states could well ask themselves this same question.

Collins Home Destroyed By Fire Sunday

The Leon Collins home, located in the Dodd Community, was totally destroyed in a blaze of fire Sunday night.

Twice firemen were called to the home. Collins, who had been convalescing at his parents' home after a recent illness, had driven over to check his home when he spotted a fire and notified the fire department at approximately 9:30 p.m. He found a fire in the kitchen cabinets which is suspected to have been started by a box of matches left in the cabinet where a mouse is thought to have started it. The fire had been extinguished by garden hoses by the time the fire department arrived. At approximately 11:30 p.m. smoke was noticed by Carl Gregory, who was passing by their homes, and he placed a call to the fire department. This time, when the fire department arrived, the house was engulfed in flames. The house and its belongings were a total loss. Firemen stayed until 1:30 a.m. Monday to be sure of no other fire starting.

Mrs. Collins was in Muleshoe at the time and no one was injured.

Consumers will soon be able to buy canned fruit that is similar to fresh fruit in that it does not have as many calories as some canned fruit. The new non-cyclamate fruits have no artificial sweeteners and the flavor is near the natural and sugar level of fresh fruit. The new blue label Diet Delight cans will go into national distribution this month and will include from applesauce to purple plums. The calorie count is comparable to fresh fruit. The price is comparable to regular canned fruit. The new line is expected to sell on regular grocery shelves rather than diet sections.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Polly,
It was very nice to hear from you. Your letter arrived today and I am really looking forward to reading the papers when they arrive. The postal service being what it is, that could be any time.
Of course, I shall be most pleased to comment on your paper, which I am sure is a very good one. I am sending you my local paper and I hope we can correspond with one another and exchange letters and papers. This would give me much pleasure as Texas is the American state that I admire most. I fear Hollywood has not always been accurate in its portrayals of the American West. An exchange of news and views can be a very good idea as there is sometimes some misunderstanding between our two great nations. America's social problems are so magnified in our mainly lefty-dominated press that a grossly distorted picture is all we get. I love America's small town papers but they are impossible to get in England. They are the backbone of a free society and when they go you can say goodbye to democracy.

I sincerely hope you will write back as it was so nice of you to reply in the first place.
Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir,
The Tyler STAR in its issue of 10 September quotes part of one of your recent editorials as follows:
"Certainly everyone is entitled to their own ideas and this, generally is a healthy condition. However, when these ideas break into society to create the ruination of property, then it is time to put on the brakes."
I appreciate plain speaking and would like to see the original statement. I enclose 25¢ for the paper and postage.
Yours faithfully,

The new polyethylene paper is distributed by Nu-Vu Products Co., Webster Groves, Mo.

All interested parents and boys are invited to come and enjoy a night of fun and to become acquainted with the ADVENTURE OF SCOUTING.

CARDS OF THANKS

The book of life of Marshal E. Kelley has been written. To the many friends and relatives who made these last chapters easier with memorials, prayers, flowers, cards, food, music and messages, we say a humble thank you. To those that helped take care of him and us, that sat, that visited, that understood when they came to visit and couldn't, your acts of kindness gave us the strength and courage to close the book--not to be put on a forgotten shelf, but to be re-read as the years go by with love in our hearts for him, for his friends and for his town, who were so much a part of his life.

Girl Scout Fund Drive Scheduled October 19-24

Plans for the Annual Girl Scout Fund drive got underway this week with the tentative dates of October 19 through 24. No drive was held in the 1969-70 school year, which means that the local neighborhood is behind on their contributions to the Caprock Council.

Mrs. Larry Price will head the local drive this year with help from the Girl Scout and Browne Mothers and other interested persons.

The quota for the Earth-Springlake area is $500, which is less than in years past. If everyone helps in the contribution area the quota should be met with ease.

Funds from this drive will be used for service training of local leaders, Caravan training which brings the training to the local neighborhoods, upkeep of the campsite at Crosbyton for Girl Scouts, and various other services to the Girl Scouts themselves.

The month of September has been set aside for Troop Organization throughout the council. Registration is to be completed by October 31.

Members brought other refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and cakes served with coffee and punch, made of pineapple juice and black cherry Kool-Aid.

Local Mothers Answer Plea For Brownie Leaders

Last week's newspaper made an earnest plea for help to any concerned mothers who were willing to give of their time to second and third grade girls interested in Brownies.

Mrs. Doug Parish and Mrs. Earl Jordan have answered the plea. It was doubtful about the prospects of a Brownie Troop in Earth and it was felt the mothers really let their daughters down. Now the girls can pull their Brownie Smiles out of their pockets and welcome their new leaders, Mrs. Parish and Mrs. Jordan. Definite plans will be made the latter part of the week in organizing a troop and further notification of a Brownie Troop will be published soon.

Faith...

My faith is small
And yet I know
That God will strengthen me
When I give Him my all.

The hours that turn into days
Bring times of sorrow and pain,
But I know deep down inside
That God deserves my praise.

The road that leads me to do wrong
Is hard to travel as the days go by.
I must have FAITH and depend on Him
To keep me safe and make me strong.

Town Of Love

by The Farmer's Mate

Love makes the world go round--
And you can see it right here in our town.
The kindness on all the glorious faces
Have come to show LOVE and you can see traces
Of Love all around in churches and school,
God gave us this gift and made it our tool
To touch someone's heart and show them we care
For them Their joys, sorrows and triumphs we share
As they were our own, God gave us this Love,
Use it we must, so we can live in His kingdom above.

Do you have a little Love left in your heart?
Smile at someone and see if it doesn't start
A chain reaction for all who live here to see
The Love in our town that God gave you and me.

REDEEMING TORN MONEY

Do you know the government rules for redeeming a mutilated or torn bill?

Any dollar bill or other denomination you may have can be redeemed only under certain circumstances.

If you have three-fifths or more of a genuine bill you can exchange it for a new, whole bill of equal value.

Your bank will give you half the value of a bill that is between two-fifths and three-fifths intact.

If you have pieces of a bill which do not comprise more than two-fifths of the whole bill you can still redeem them. You must be able to give satisfactory proof, however, that the missing portions were completely destroyed.

On rare occasions, the back of a bill will become separated from the front. Although interesting, it's worthless unless accompanied by the front.

Watch Next Week For Making Money

Be sure to attend the PTA sponsored Mexican Dinner at 6:00 p. m. prior to the clashing of the Springlake-Earth Wolverines and the Dimmitt Wildcats.

Biblical Record Of Creation Gaining Support

Scientists and clergymen will meet in Lubbock September 26 for a one-day seminar to acquaint area residents with evidence that the origin of the world is the same as that recorded in the Book of Genesis. Challenged in recent years by the theory of evolution, the Biblical record of creation is regaining support in scientific circles as an accurate description of the actual beginning of the world.

Dr. Bolton Davidheiser, eminent zoologist, lecturer, and author of the book "Evolution and Christian Faith" will be principal speaker at the seminar.

It is scheduled to be held from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. in the First National-Pioneer Building. Lecture and question-answer sessions, with breaks for meals and relaxation, will be provided during the day-long event.

Area science teachers, students, parents and pastors have been invited to attend the sessions, which are expected to attract 500 persons. An admission charge of $1.00 has been set.

Dr. Davidheiser, who received his Ph. D. in genetics from Johns Hopkins, will show throughout the program the consequences of evolutionary teaching on the nation as a whole, with emphasis on the way in which Darwin's theory affects the political and religious life of a nation.

Davidheiser's book, which exposes doubts about the Darwinian theory of evolution, has prompted renewed thinking regarding the world's origin, and has turned some scholars to a re-examination of the creation of the world by The Supreme Being.

"In the last ten years there has been a limited but significant return by scientists to a serious consideration of the historic Christian position with regard to 'origins' and the Genesis record," according to Charles A. Clough, a Bible scholar of Lubbock, whose scientific grounding includes extensive studies in meteorology and mathematics at MIT. Clough, 4717 43rd Street, one of the sponsors of the seminar, believes Christian young people "need no longer either submit to the undermining of their faith by supposed 'facts' of science, or retreat to the shameful position of pretending the record set down in Genesis is not historical."

3601 27th Street (Physics); John Caraway, 1913 Avenue M (Public Relations); Gene Dorneman, Route 5 (Industrial Engineering); Jim L. Halsey, 3403 48th Street, (English Literature); and Shedd McWilliams, 1001 University (Psychology).

Dr. Davidheiser, says Clough, is one of the growing number of scientists across the world who are creationists, disbelieving the modern acceptance of science as "neutral."

"Much of evolutionary theory they see as starting in presuppositions that are pseudo-religious and ending in implications that profoundly affect our moral behaviour," Clough says.

Examples of the latest creationist literature will be available at the seminar for examination by those attending.

The event, open to the public, will be held in the Flame Room of the First National-Pioneer Building.

Barbecue Honoring All Statewide Officials Set

A barbecue honoring all statewide officials is slated for September 26 in Lubbock. Those officials who will attend are Governor Preston Smith, Lt. Governor Ben Barnes, Speaker of the House, Gus Mutschler, Attorney General Crawford Martin, Candidate for Land Commissioner, Bob Armstrong, and Candidate for the United States Senate Lloyd Bentsen. Congressman George Mahon of the 19th District has expressed hopes that he will be able to attend if his schedule will permit. Also, a special invitation has been issued to President Lyndon Baines Johnson.

The barbecue will be held in Lubbock Municipal Coliseum, across from Jones Stadium, at 4:30 p. m., prior to the Texas Tech-University of Texas football game which will begin at 7:30 p. m. Parking spaces will be reserved in the Coliseum parking lot for those who will attend the barbecue. The Chuck Wagon Gang of Odessa will cater the affair with special entertainment provided by the Blue Ridge Special of Lubbock. Also, there are hopes of obtaining top name entertainment for the affair. Tickets for the barbecue may be purchased at the door at a price of $5.00.

There will be no formal speeches as the barbecue has been planned so that those attending the Texas Tech-University of Texas football game may meet our state officials and enjoy a good meal and top entertainment prior to attending the game.

How About That Gals?

WASHINGTON, D. C. -- Long suffering housewives have known it for some time. The American husband contributes, on the average, only about 1.6 hours a day in helping around the house.

According to statistics given before the National Agricultural Outlook Conference in Washington, D. C. based on 1967-68 tests and reported in the August FINANCE FACTS newsletter, husbands generally maintain that 1.6 hours a day average whether their wives are working at outside jobs or full-time as homemakers.

Husbands total work time, which includes time spent in paid employment, household work and volunteer work, averaged 65 hours per week for those with wives not employed or employed outside less than 15 hours. Oddly enough, husbands' total work time dropped to 63 hours if their wives were employed outside 15 hours or more.

Wives' total work time was consistently heavier if employed. If she was employed 15 hours or more a week outside, her total work time was about 70 hours on the average. Wives who were not employed or employed less than 15 hours a week averaged a total work week of 40 to 50 hours if they had no children, to 55 hours if the youngest was a teenager and 60 to 70 hours if they had younger children the report concluded.

It must be time for hubby to help the little woman mow the lawn again.

Consumer Buying And Home Improvement Census

Questions on consumer buying and home improvement expectations will be asked by representatives of the Bureau of the Census in this area during October, according to Walter A. Freeman, Jr., Director of the Bureau's regional office in Denver.

The questions are asked four times yearly as part of a nationwide effort to collect information as a guide to Federal agencies and other groups in developing programs based on consumer spending patterns. A sample of residents in this area will be asked if they expect to buy a house, car, or major appliance during the next year and if they have made recent purchases of these items. Homeowners will be asked about home improvements and repairs during the last three months and any planned for the future.

In the second quarter of 1970, the survey indicated that consumer plans to buy new houses rose after a two-year decline while the percentage of families expecting income increases within 12 months had declined.

Information supplied by individuals participating in the survey is kept confidential by law and will be published only in the form of statistical totals.

Bentsen Names Glen Batson As County Campaign Manager

Lloyd Bentsen, Democratic nominee for the U. S. Senate, has named additional leaders for his campaign team in Carson and Lamb Counties.

Marshall Sherwood, a Panhandle attorney, has accepted appointment as Carson County Publicity Chairman. Lamb County Democratic Chairman Glenn Batson will coordinate Bentsen's campaign activities in Lamb County.

"Sherwood and Batson are both distinguished citizens and community leaders," Bentsen said in naming them to the Bentsen Team. "I am proud to have men of their caliber in the campaign."

Bentsen Coordinator and County Democratic Chairman Batson is active in the First Baptist Church and the Lamb County Red Raider Club. He served on the State Democratic Executive Committee from 1962 through 1966 and has been a delegate to the State Democratic Convention several times.

herst, have three children-- Mrs. Brenda Farmer; Glenn, 17; and Thomas, 13. The Batsons reside at 118 East 12th Street in Littlefield.

Autos Are Primary Source Of Air Pollution

The quality of our environment has become a major issue in the state of Texas, and the automobile as a primary source of air pollution has drawn increasing fire. The Texas State Department of Health's Air Pollution Control Program is very much involved in keeping tabs on the automobile pollution problem in this state.

Automobile exhaust gases are the major source of hydrocarbons, oxides of nitrogen, and carbon monoxide emissions in the atmosphere of our metropolitan areas. Controls have been developed to reduce hydrocarbon and carbon monoxide emissions. But the uncontrolled internal combustion engine in automobiles contributes significantly to particulate pollution problems.

With each one-thousand gallons of gasoline burned at an average route speed of 25 miles per hour in urban areas, the automobile emits four pounds of aldehydes, 2,300 pounds of carbon monoxide, 200 pounds of hydrocarbons, 113 pounds of oxides of nitrogen, nine pounds of oxides of sulfur, four pounds of organic acids, and 12 pounds of particulates. That amount of emission comes from each automobile. Emissions from automobiles are highly variable, depending upon geographical location and local driving patterns.

Automobiles and industry each contribute roughly half of all hydrocarbons emitted into the atmosphere. But the automobile can be blamed for almost 60 per cent of all carbon monoxide emission.

Research has turned up few practical alternatives to the internal combustion engine. The water-steam engine and the electrical powered unit have both been experimented with, but have not received general acceptance as practical alternatives.

Recently, a freon gas-steam engine was developed by a Florida inventor, and one Japanese motor company has decided to utilize the new concept in its 1972 cars. Kerosene or liquid petroleum gas would be used as fuel to produce enough heat to vaporize the freon gas, which would power a turbine or reciprocating type engine. The gas would then be condensed back to a liquid and re-introduced into the system.

Charles R. Barden, director of the State Health Department's Air Pollution Program and executive secretary of the Texas Air Control Board, says that kerosene is a product with high efficiency of combustion, with relatively little pollution, and at the same time gives more miles per pound of fuel used.

Lamb Produces 2,314 Barrels Of Oil Daily

DALLAS---Texas oil fields have produced more than 32 million barrels of oil during the past 80 years of recorded production, according to the latest compilation of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association.

Last year's production of 1,151,775,000 barrels produced an income of $3.6 billion for Texas which was distributed widely as 198 of the state's 254 counties produce oil.

Lamb County, which has had recorded production since 1945, has had a total crude oil output of 11,332,453 barrels up to the beginning of 1970. Lamb County production in 1969 was 844,418 barrels at the rate of 2,314 barrels a day.

Thirty-four counties in the state produced more than 25,000 barrels of oil. Top producers were Andrews with 203,859 barrels daily, Ector with 184,601 barrels daily and Scurry with 133,035 barrels daily.

Gregg County, the only county to produce more than two billion barrels of oil, remained the all-time champ with a cumulative production of 2,195,668,052 followed by Ector with 1,585,815,280, and Rusk with 1,437,128,523.

MORE MOBILE HOMES

Boise Cascade Building Co. of Palatine, Ill., developer of mobile home communities in the western states over the past 20 years, is expanding its park development activities into the Midwest and East.

The firm plans to build six large mobile home communities in 1970.

State Republicans and Democrats Draft Platforms

AUSTIN---State Republican and Democratic parties have put their appeals to Texas voters in writing--via the platforms drafted at their separate conventions last week.

Democrats, party veterans said repeatedly, "wrote the most progressive planks ever." Republicans put the emphasis on attacking crime, campus disorders and drug use.

Highlights of the Democratic statement of party goals include:

- A far-reaching vocational-technical education program, repeal of annual voter registration requirements and substitution of "registration by voting" every four years, opposition to a tax on groceries, a minimum foundation program for policemen with state standards of qualification and pay, state civil service, expansion of unemployment insurance benefits.
- Increase in workmen's compensation benefits, creation of a public utilities regulatory commission, establishment of an office of consumer protection, elimination of the $80 million a year welfare outlay ceiling, an increase in minimum wage, sweeping insurance reforms and creation of a state management research commission to promote governmental efficiency.
- Republican platform highlights are:
- Legislation to end discrimination in state governmental employment and to insure equal pay for equal work, creation of single-member legislative districts, realistic technical and vocational courses commencing at junior high school level and offered in nearly all high schools, condemnation of forced busing of students to achieve racial balance.
- Opposition to a tax on groceries, later voter registration deadlines, inclusion of all insurance company income in calculating auto insurance rates, admission of oral confessions in trials, and life sentence without parole for murdering a policeman.

Texas AFL-CIO leaders "urged" support by labor of all statewide candidates of the Democratic party in the general election.

Decision, AFL-CIO President H. S. (Hank) Brown explained, left union members free to do as they pleased, since there was no formal "endorsement" carrying monetary support or mandatory vote.

Big labor's hang-up was in the U. S. Senate race. Some union spokesmen were reluctant to back Democrat Lloyd Bentsen but were likewise unenthusiastic about Republican candidate George Bush.

FTA Organizes For New Year

The local Springlake-Earth Future Teachers of America met recently and organized for the new year with 20 members present. Officers named were president, Kathy Bibby; vice president, Susie Temple; secretary, Johnny McNamara; historians, Martha Kolte and Mary Arrendondo; program chairman, Camille Haberer and Karen Armstrong; parliamentarian, Laura Dudley; and project chairman, Jan Cleavinger.

In addition to these officers elected last year, Susie Temple will be social chairman, Jerry Barden is chairman of the points committee, Johnny McNamara will be the dues collector, with Hoyt Glasscock as the Student Council representative.

Dues for the year were set at $1.00. Penalties in the amount of 5¢ will be collected for each person found talking during the meeting. After the third charge to a person, the fee will be raised to 10¢.

There will be a regular meeting the second Monday of each month at 6:30 p.m. October 12 will be the next meeting.

MILK PRODUCTION in the United States in 1969 totaled 116.2 billion pounds, about 1% less than in 1968.

Rehabilitation In A Christian Context

The Methodist Mission Home in San Antonio, came into existence 75 years ago because of Methodism's right interpretation of the Gospel message of Christ's love, acceptance, forgiveness. This basis for existence is as real and obvious today as the HOME as in the beginning. The entire program of rehabilitation is carried on within an understanding of and appreciation for Christ's love of the individual.

Spiritual resources are available for each girl through worship and study experiences in the Mission Home community. The goal for each girl is to be able to develop a mature faith in Jesus Christ, achieving a personal understanding of forgiveness, acceptance and reconciliation.

Though the reader cannot be present at the HOME to perform the many tasks necessary in this ministry, it is possible to provide the necessary funds to see that it continues by generously responding to the offering in the local church for the Methodist Mission Home of Texas.

Booklet Available To Swine Producers And Investors

A new booklet, "The Feasibility of Commercial Hog Marketing in Texas," is available to producers and investors considering expanding or entering a feeder-pig and finished-hog marketing program on a commercial scale.

John C. White, commissioner of the Texas Department of Agriculture, said that the information was developed to assist in an orderly expansion of the state's swine industry which pumps about $50 million annually into the Texas economy.

White indicated that strong hog prices the past two years, the fact that Texas is a "hog-deficit" state, and increased interest in agribusiness investment are prime factors in current demand for swine marketing feasibility information.

The study was completed for the Texas Department of Agriculture by Bill Nelson, consulting agricultural economist of Amarillo, and Dr. Charles M. Smallwood, dean of the School of Agriculture at West Texas State University, Canyon.

The study points out that opportunity exists for hog marketing operations to be established (1) on a part-time basis by individuals in farming, business or industry with year-round spare time, (2) one-man operator basis on farms with year-round excess labor, or (3) as a commercial enterprise organized for profit to specific inputs of capital, labor and professional management.

It is this last category toward which this booklet is directed. Ben Baldson, director of Marketing for the Texas Department of Agriculture, said that copies of the multi-colored, 12 page booklet are available on request to the department in Austin.

George Bush To Speak In Plainview

In order that George Bush, candidate for the United States Senate, may visit with the public to discuss issues important to West Texas, a nine county area will honor him with a hamburger supper in Plainview on October 3 from 6:00 p. m. until 9:00 p. m. at the 7th Street Park. Tickets are $1.00 per person and may be purchased at the supper.

A press conference with Mr. Bush will be held at the City National Bank in Plainview from 5:15 until 6:00 on the 3rd. Counties included as hosts are: Hale, Briscoe, Swisher, Castro, Floyd, Bailey, Lamb and Dickens.

Texas Historical Marker For Comanchero Trail To Be Erected

An official Texas Historical Marker for the Comanchero Trail will be dedicated on Sunday, September 27, at 2:30 p. m. This marker, awarded through a special legislative appropriation, and erected by the State Highway Department, recognizes the outstanding work of the Lamb County Historical Survey Committee, R. E. Scott, Sudan, Chairman. The marker is located about eight miles west of the city of Littlefield on the Bula Highway (Route 54) where the Comancheros made one of their trails during their wanderings.

The master of ceremonies for the dedication will be County Judge G. T. Sides. Rev. Clem Sorley of Littlefield will give the invocation and Guy Walden of Sudan will give the dedication address. The marker will be unveiled by Grady Trotter of the Highway Department and Rev. Leonard Tittle of Amherst will give the benediction.

The marking of historic sites and landmarks is part of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee's program of preservation activities. The name of the marker and its location will appear in the next edition of the Guide to Official Texas Historical Markers in order to stimulate tourist travel in this area, to arouse interest on historical tours and to acquaint the people of this locality with their unique heritage.

The inscription on the marker reads as follows:

COMANCHERO TRAIL

One of several routes used by traders dealing with Indians, primarily Comanches (hence name). Weapons, whiskey and trade goods were swapped for stolen Texas cattle, horses and captives.

Pursuit apparently began in the 1760's when Mexican hunters ventured out on "staked plains" (Indian domain) to hunt buffalo for New Mexico meat markets.

Early explorers Zebulon Pike (1807), Josiah Gregg (1830) and Capt. R. B. Marcy (1848) told of finding Comanchero campsites and wagon trails on the plains. The Comancheros ceased to operate in the mid-1870s.

Mrs. Ted Herring and children of Hereford visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Messer Tuesday.
