Eldorado Will Meet Junction on Saturday In Crucial Contest

The Eldorado and Junction Eagles will meet at Junction Saturday, October 26th in a game that may decide who is to be winner of District 34-B.

According to Coach Weldon Bynum of the Eldorado Eagles, the game will be a hard scrap, with Junction possessing the advantages of heavier men, more experience, and playing on their home field.

If reports are reliable, the Junction lineup will average about 175 pounds to the man, while the Eldorado squad will average only about 156 pounds. Junction possesses a number of lettermen from last year, while Eldorado has only five.

Coach Bynum is holding secret practice sessions this week, and the Eldorado squad is expected to be in top shape with some possible surprises for their sister Eagles at Junction.

The most dangerous men for Junction are Hubbell and Pepper. The most serious threats on the Eldorado eleven are Marshall and Paul Davis, and a triple threat man, Captain Milton Spurgers. In the line, Felix Susen has been leading the Eldorado squad with his powerful offensive and defensive work. His brother, Harold, is always dependable at offensive center and defensive half. Others who are expected to show up well as the season progresses are Alton Page at tackle, and Louis Kerr and Jack Hext at ends. Robert Anderson and John Luedecke have been functioning well at the guard positions, but due to their inexperience are expected to improve rapidly with the progress of the season.

What We Think

A meeting was held at the court house Monday night for the purpose of discussing gas facilities for Eldorado. The gas to be furnished from the Page well which has produced gas for the past year and a half at the rate of an estimated twelve million feet.

Without a question Eldorado needs the gas and it is the wish of everyone that we have gas. However we believe that before we discard all of our electrical equipment such as water heaters, electric stoves, wood stoves, oil stoves and other like equipment, we should know something about what to expect in the future in the way of rates, service, and if the gas supply will be permanent.

Whatever the rate there is one advantage. All the money will be spent in the county for improvements. We will all agree that such a set up will be more beneficial to the community if it is home owned and revenue is spent for the development of more oil wells and other improvements which will necessarily be made.

Before a franchise is granted it would be well for the city officials to make a thorough investigation of rates and the control of utilities of this kind.

FINE WEATHER FOR THE LITTLE DUCKS

Open season on ducks, Nov. 20 to Dec. 19. No shooting over baited water or land. No live decoys of any kind. Shooting 7 a. m. to 4 p. m. Bag limit 10 per day.

Cotton Certificates Must Be Transferred According to Law

According to C. Snell, County Dem. Agent, cotton certificates cannot be sold at a price below that set by the government.

It seems that some people have made transfers of cotton certificates apparently in good faith, payment being made in the presence of the county agent, but later refunding a part of the money.

For your protection we are giving below a portion of the law (See No. 1 Last Page)

F. H. Ellengton Buys Williams' Man's Shop

F. H. Ellengton of San Angelo has purchased the William's Man Shop and will take charge of the business on October 29.

Ellengton is a nephew of Carl McWhorter and has been in business at Girvin and at Baker Field. He will add to the fixtures at the Man's Shop and will carry a more complete line of clothing.

Joe A. Williams was in business here for fourteen years, having bought out L. J. Brannan in 1922. In May 1923 Williams burned out with a loss of about $900. Again in 1926 he was robbed. The loss was $1400.

Williams will leave in a few days for Phoenix, Ariz., where he will join Mrs. Williams who is now there for her health. He will not enter business for about six months, during which he will take a much needed rest.

Cool Sloppy Weather Interfering With Harvesting of Cotton

Cool sloppy weather throughout Schleicher county and West Texas caused the cotton pickers to seek shelter and gather in wood.

The wet norther brought low temperatures here of 46 degrees with a drizzling rain of 2.4 inches. The barometer showed 27.85 which probably means clear weather after Friday.

High School to Hold Bon-fire Pep Rally Here Friday Night

There is to be a bonfire pep rally on the school ground Friday night, October 25th at 7:00 o'clock sharp. The plans are for the largest bonfire ever held in Eldorado, and the hopes are for an equally large crowd of players fans, and pep squad members.

On the program there will be a number of short pep talks by town fans, team members, and others. In addition, there will be a number of humorous and interesting features, in addition to the friendly glow of the huge bonfire. The main purpose, of course, is to give a number of yellis and get in the proper spirit for the all-important Junction game.

Everyone is invited to come and enjoy the varied and interesting program, and to enter into the spirit necessary if we are to defeat Junction in the most important game of the season.

The 1936 Corn-Hog Program Referendum Set For October 26th

A referendum on the question of whether there will be a corn and hog adjustment program in 1936 will be conducted among all corn and hog producers on Saturday October 26th at the Court House.

An investigation made by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration has shown economic justification for another program. The referendum will be by secret ballot and will be conducted by county and community corn-hog committees. All operators and owners of farms which produce corn or hogs in 1935, whether or not they signed corn-hog contracts, are eligible to vote. If a substantial majority of those voting indicate that they favor a program a new plan for 1936 will be worked out according to information from the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. Regardless of the way they vote producers may sign new contracts or not as they choose.

RESIDENTS OF ELDORADO MAY GET GAS SOON IF PROPOSITION OFFERED MEETS APPROVAL OF ALL PROPERTY OWNERS

Gas Supply to Be Sufficient For Several Towns The Size of Eldorado; Residence Rate $3 to $5 Commercial Rate Will Be Somewhat Higher

The possibility of gas piped here from the Page well was discussed in a mass meeting Monday night, when Cooper put his proposition before the citizens of Eldorado.

Mayor A. T. Wright took charge of the meeting after a motion was made to let the city dads conduct the meetings and investigate price rates this week.

Cooper and his associated say they can lay the pipe line and sell the gas at the city limits or they will pipe the city distributing the gas themselves. They propose to make a flat rate of $3 to $5 per month for residence use and a commercial rate somewhat higher, according to the gas required.

The city commissioners will look into the gas rate and decide whether a franchise will be issued to the Cooper interests.

Another meeting will be held next Monday night and it is likely some definite action will be taken at that time. A committee will be appointed to make a survey of the town to determine the sentiment of the entire citizenship.

TUBING RUN IN THE BERT PAGE WILDCAT

Three-inch tubing was being run in Cooper No. 1 Bert Page well this week. Earlier in the week the wind hindered the workers due to gas being blown over the engine shed making it dangerous to start the machinery.

The tubing with the bottom joint perforated, was scheduled to be set at the plugged back depth of 5,550 feet and braden-headed in order to force the fluid through the smaller pipe.

Results of any further test were not available this week.

Members of the Y.W.A. met with Mrs. Quinn this week. The title of the program was "Lifting the Glorious Banner." The leader was Miss Evelyn Anderson, and the topic was discussed by Mrs. Carl Kerr. Other members present were Mrs. A. J. Quinn, Miss Leola Boyer, Miss Florence Page.

The next meeting will be the Monthly social. The time of meeting will be announced later. All members are asked to invite one guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore Honored With Shower

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hearn Moore were honored with a miscellaneous shower. It was given at the Baptist church by members of the Y.W.A.

The church looked spooky, upon entering the basement you were greeted with skeletons, witches, bats, and black cats. The bride's chair was decorated with black and orange crepe paper.

Mrs. Walter Ramsey sang "I Love You Truly," and was accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Hill at the piano.

Miss Lois Carr read a humorous and very appropriate selection "The Man Who Wouldn't Go Away".

Mrs. Carlton Smith favored the guests with special music and accompanied Miss Maxine Wilton and Miss Johnnie Fern Isaacs when they sang "I'm in the Mood for Love," and "School-day Sweethearts."

The bride was then told that Mr. Hallowe'en Spook had a secret to tell. Before she read the message, the guests were asked to form a caravan of happiness. They formed in line according to the number of years that they had been married. All those who wanted to get married were asked to form at the foot of the line. Incidentally we had more trouble getting the first group formed. Mrs. Moor was then instructed by the spook to follow hands and arrows until she came to "Home". In this room was a black wash pot full and overflowing with gifts. The bride, with help, carried the pot back to the first room. The guests followed with presents. The bride and her mother-in-law opened the packages that she had received.

Hallowe'en colors were carried out in the refreshments. Orange piamienta and cheese, sandwiches, chocolate cookies, and orange ade was served to fifty-five guests.

J. F. KINSER GROWS FINE SWEET POTATOES

The three sweet potatoes on display in the Success window came from the 1-33 acre potato patch of J. F. Kinser who lives in the Bailey Ranch community.

Mr. Kinser harvested 14 bushels of potatoes from his garden this year. The three potatoes in our window weigh 4 1-2 pounds and they are the average of the entire crop. The yield is about 450 bushels per acre.

Henry Freund was in town Monday.

Does Civic Pride Pay Dividends?

Yes, it certainly does.
 Most communities grow like Topsy. The narrow winding winding cowpaths become lanes, and the lanes, still winding, become streets. Buildings crowd onto them as close to each other as possible. And the heritage has continued in thousands of places—with no estimate of the economic loss from following blind precedent. Continued growth is haphazard. However, an adequate plan could be made in the development of necessary public improvements.

What can Eldorado do toward making a plan? What group, or individual will start promoting a plan?

Why not an educational campaign, by civic leaders, giving their ideas about the subject.

We suggest one idea here: It is the question of zoning. One of the sorriest sights to see in many small communities is a row of gas filling stations and hot dog stands in an otherwise residential section. Proper zoning would prevent such encroachments and conserve an individual investment in his home. At the same time it would keep the gas stations and hot dog stands in their proper place in the business section.

And after the zoning is effective, here comes a building ordinance for the density and construction requirements of buildings, and lastly sanitary regulations it mean something.

Some will say that Eldorado is small for these regulations. We think that it will bring financial reward, as well as make Eldorado an ideal place in which to work and live.

It is easier to make these regulations now than later.

When meeting a big truck on the highway the question that always comes up in our mind is how far out does the thing stick into the road past the headlights. We make a guess in each instance and always know when we get safely past that we guessed correctly.

The Blue Book says that it isn't good form to apologize to the guests when the meat is tough. The Blue Book is silent on this point but this goes for the guests too. Comments we presume should be reserved for the butcher.

The English have collected something like $10,000,000 in toll charges on the Suez canal from Italian war ships that have been going through since the war talk started. The rest of the story is that all the Italian soldiers will have to be brought back home sooner or later and there is another ten million. Or maybe Italy wont have to bring them back. Just bury them in Africa.

The dries in Kansas are complaining bitterly because the repealists who promised protection against the sale of intoxicants in dry territory have issued 1763 dealers permits to sell liquor in Kansas. On the other hand the presumably dry legislature in Kansas when it had an opportunity to define intoxicating liquor refused to pass the defining legislation, in the absence of which conviction is next to impossible.

It gripes us to hear of those countries who have all but repudiated their war debt to us, after it was scaled down a half dozen times, to talk about balancing their budgets.

Malcolm Campbell drove his automobile 301 miles an hour on the sand flats of Utah and there is a young sheik in this town with a rattle trap wreck of a car who seems to think he has been called upon to break Campbell's record on our city streets.

A California man sued his wife for divorce because she had been intolerable domineering for thirty years. Its rushing precipitately into divorce this way without taking time to think it over that got folks seperated these days before they have hardly lived together long enough to know they have been married.

A tractor on the farm may be a help or a detriment according as it is wisely used, the same as the family car may be a means of pleasure and enjoyment to the family or a drain on the family budget.

League of Nation representatives of 57 governments are trying to find a peaceful settlement of the Italian-Ethiopian quarrel. Can it be that all of these 57 nations are wrong and Italy alone is right?

Some form of income taxes now exist in twenty-nine of the forty-eight states. The highest rate, 3 percent of all sales being in Illinois, California, New Jersey and North Carolina.

The nation is just beginning to understand that if we are to enjoy a stable prosperity that the agricultural sections are going to have to prosper along with the industrial sections. Any system of economics that permits one section to prosper and the other to go down is not sound and sooner or later will result in disaster for all.

Finland is the only nation involved in the World War which has met the payments of its war debt to the United States. How most of us feel about Finland is set forth in the story of a man who during his life time met with severe financial reverses. By hard work he kept out of bankruptcy and finally paid every creditor in full. When he died his family erected a simple stone over his grave. At his request the stone bore this epitaph, "He Paid In Full." We believe that a bronze tablet should be set up in the Hall of Fame at Washington to little Finland with the notation cast in bronze "She Paid In Full."

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

"Newspaper advertising today offers golden opportunity to those who promote it carefully and correctly.

"Today even children turn eagerly from the comic pages to certain advertisements. Why? . . . Simply because the kids find romance, drama, colorful news or humor in the good ads.

"Never in the history of newspaper advertising has romance, glamour, colorful news or humor so dominated the selling message. Never has so much of it been packed into the column inch by alert copy-writers.

"As long as newspaper advertisers continue to offer real news, romance and thrills in their copy, advertising will continue to be as important to the readers as the day's news. By that I don't mean sensational advertising copy. The circus can come to town once a year, while good drama and romance will live forever.

"No longer do you hear readers remark, 'Don't pay any attention to that; it's only an ad.' Rather, 'Let's buy one of those; the ad states they're reasonable and we certainly need one.' The ad proved it!

"Promote your newspaper advertising campaigns as you would a show. Give them atmosphere, colorful appeal. The good advertiser is a good showman. He gives the public what it wants, without bunk, and yet with plenty of entertaining features—and the public loves it and responds enthusiastically to the announcements.

"You newspaper advertisers who are not injecting romance, thrills and humor into your copy are missing a great bet. You are missing greater profits and, what is equally important, an unlimited amount of good will among the readers."

Buffet Supper For Entertaining in Fall

The hostess for whom entertaining was out of the question during the hot summer months eagerly awaits the cooler fall weather as a chance to invite friends for an evening of enjoyment without herself becoming exhausted in the preparation. For fall entertaining, especially if there is a large number of guests invited, a buffet lunch or supper is nice for both guest and hostess, since each guest helps himself, thus eliminating all need for service.

Inez S. Wilson, home economist, points out that the buffet supper is frequently served on the dining room table rather than from the buffet as was the original of its kind. The food and necessary silver are arranged so that each guest as he walks around the table may help himself. If the beverage is served at the table, it is the last item to be passed. Very often, however, small tables are set in the living room, and after the guests are seated the beverage is served to them. This is a compromise in types of service for the convenience of guests.

The food for a buffet supper must of necessity be easily served and, of course, it must look attractive. Miss Willson suggests a ham loaf for this occasion. This is a meat dish which is always well liked and is good either hot or cold, an advantage which every hostess recognizes.

Upside Down Ham Loaf

R. C. CAMPAIGNS TO PREVENT ACCIDENTS

Program Inaugurated in Local Chapters to Cut Down Farm and Home Accidents

The American Red Cross has launched a nation-wide campaign to eliminate hazards in the home and on the farm that now take an annual toll of nearly 35,000 lives, according to a recent statement by James L. Fieser, vice chairman in charge of domestic operations.

"Every Red Cross chapter is being asked to play a part in this campaign," Mr. Fieser said. "Hazards in the various communities will be pointed out. The children in our schools throughout the country will be given a list of the home hazards and asked to enroll parents or relatives in the fight against them."

Nearly five million men, women, and children were temporarily disabled in the homes of America last year by accidents, officials of the National Safety Council have revealed. Most of the accidents in which persons were killed and injured could have been prevented, according to this safety agency, this fact alone largely motivating the Red Cross drive for accident elimination.

Active cooperation of social, civic, educational, veterans', and other groups has been secured. Red Cross inspection forms or home check lists will be distributed to homes where there are no children with the help of these organizations.

Due to inaccessibility and lack of compensation coverage, little or no pioneering has been done in the field of farm safety, the Red Cross states. However, more people were accidentally killed in agricultural pursuits last year than in any other occupation, making the need for safety education and farm home inspection apparent.

Other agencies now active in the accident-prevention field point to the fact that, because of its nearly 13,000 chapters and branches, the Red Cross has a unique opportunity to successfully promote a project of this nature.

Home accidents injure many more than do automobile accidents; they kill nearly as many, claiming an average of about 80 lives daily. In terms of dollars and cents, for the practical minded, home accidents cost more than $1,000 per minute.

Accidents of all types are Public Enemy No. 4. Only three diseases cause as many deaths each year, heart disease, cancer, and cerebral hemorrhage.

"The home is not the place of safety it is commonly supposed to be," said Mr. Fieser in commenting on the new Red Cross service to the community. "The Red Cross, as a part of its chartered obligation to prevent death and alleviate suffering, is conducting this humanitarian program to cut down the mounting toll of avoidable personal injury and death in the homes of the country."

The annual Red Cross roll call, running from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day, is one of the means of backing such a campaign. All citizens of the United States are offered the opportunity to join and assist in the work of the organization.

Because of good roads, a large percent of our population broadens their vision by touring into other sections of the country.

Texas Democrats Are Against The Negroes Being In Conventions

The Election Managers Association of Texas has been granted a charter by the Secretary of State. The aims and purposes of the organization of the county and precinct chairmen of the Democratic Party are to keep the Democratic Party white, simplify the Texas election laws and make it possible to hold elections upon the highest plane of efficiency. Incorporators of the new political and educational organization include Allen S. Shepherd of Houston, militant member of the Harris County Democratic Executive Committee, who has played an important part in legally preventing negroes from participating in Democratic elections and conventions in Texas. Murrell Buckner of Dallas, Hugh Small of Fort Worth and J. B. Lubbock of Houston, all chairmen of the regular Democratic organization in their respective counties, joined Shepherd in applying for the State Charter. Other charter members of the Election Managers Association include Dr. L. L. Butler of Dallas, Edward C. Schuille of San Antonio and H. D. Mahaffey of Austin. The Association's membership is made up of Democratic county and precinct chairmen, election judges, clerks and other election officials throughout the 257 counties of the State.

After obtaining a State Charter the first official act of Mr. Shepherd, originator of the organization idea, was to appear before committees of the Senate and House of the Texas Legislature to enlist the support of that body in carrying out the aims and purposes of the election officials organization. The Legislature responded by unanimously adopting a concurrent resolution embodying the following principles:

Only white Democrats to participate in Democratic conventions and primary elections.

Promulgation of rules and regulations by national democratic convention that no negroes shall be seated in the national democratic convention of 1936.

If negroes are to be seated in the national convention that said convention be not held in any Southern state.

State headquarters of the Texas Election Managers Association have been established in Houston under the direction of Mr. Shepherd, 516 Kirby Building.

Automobile touring is one of the most healthful and most economical forms of recreation.

No civilization ever advanced beyond its transportation facilities.

LEAD GASOLINE PERFORMANCE KNOCKED

Leaded or "q'd" gasoline was roundly knocked recently in a report of the Bureau of Aeronautics of the Department of Commerce, summing up some engine tests at the Bureau of Standards.

While trade names were not divulged by the bureau, it reported that the leaded gasoline was far less satisfactory in engine performance than the straight run gasolines.

Four gasolines were used in the test by the Bureau of Standards, covering some 300 running hours of a six-cycle automobile engine on the testing block.
