VISITING SCHOOLS

Judge C. S. McKinney, accompanied by Mr. Murdock of the State Department of Education, began visiting the rural schools of this county last Wednesday.

Mr. Murdock is deputy state superintendent for this district, and is helping to get the school affairs of this county on a higher rating. The visits to the schools will be completed this week, it was stated.

YOU'RE INVITED

The Wm. Cameron & Co. of Eldorado is holding a paint and wall paper display on Friday and Saturday of this week.

The public is cordially invited to visit the local yard and see this display during one of these days.

HANDLED THE AX

Clyde Keeney was taking particular pains to fit a handle into an ax last Monday. Clyde let it be known that he wasn't going to use the ax after it was fixed, however, he threatened to take it away from his negro if the handle came up broken a few more times.

WILLIAMS LEASES TOM GREEN RANCH

Mr. J. L. Williams, who owns the City Grocery in Eldorado, has leased 4,000 acres of the Jake Johnston Estate land, eight miles down the river from San Angelo.

This is one of the best ranches in Tom Green county, which is stocked with 1,750 sheep and Hereford cattle. Mr. Williams is a great lover of stock and has been in this business most of his life.

A GOOD RECORD

Our 4-H Club boys got off to what they thought was a bad start in feeding their lambs. Being late in starting their feeding operations, their lambs were not quite up to what they thought they should be when time came to show them.

Hardly expecting to make a very big showing this year, the boys held their lamb show here and then went on to the Fort Worth Exposition and Fat Stock Show. Despite the keen competition at Fort Worth, Schleicher county's club boys returned home with twenty-six prizes and a total of $270 in prize money. Only three sheep of the entire group taken to Ft. Worth failed to place.

This good record speaks well for the club boys as well as for the breeders of this county. Schleicher county is breeding a type of sheep that just can't be beaten for top place when in the prime of condition. More club boys should be encouraged to feed out lambs next year. Let's place Schleicher county in her rightful place next year. Feed out a creditable number of lambs start feeding operations early, and Schleicher county sheep will make an enviable record at every show ring in the state.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Richey attended the fat stock show in Ft. Worth over the week-end.

Law Requires That Cars Be Registered In County Of Residence

Highway Department Pledges Cooperation To Protect Public Funds

Upon receipt of a letter from the State Highway Department this week, local county officials have pledged their support and efforts to see that all automobiles are registered in the county where their owners reside. The following letter points to the fact that it is illegal to register vehicles in any county other than the county of your residence:

To All County Judges and Tax Collectors:

Gentlemen: It has just been brought to the attention of this Department that officials of some counties in this State are accepting applications for registration from out-of-county motor vehicles owners. You understand, of course, that the registration of motor vehicles or trailers by you which are owned by residents (either individuals or companies) of other counties is in violation of the laws of Texas. Such practice is a clear evasion of the distribution of license fees as provided by our Legislature, and results in an illegal diversion of funds belonging to the State Highway Fund. Your attention is called to the fact that the counties now receive approximately two-thirds of all license fees and one hundred and eighty-two counties retain all license fees paid in such counties.

As your Public Officials, we pledge you our full and complete cooperation and strongly urge your cooperation in the proper registration of all motor vehicles as provided by our laws.

We feel it to be the plain duty (See No. 4 Last Page)

ALL SINGERS ARE URGED TO HELP IN EASTER SERVICE

Glenn Ratliff, who will have charge of the choir in the Pre-Easter Meeting next week, urges all singers of Eldorado to attend these services and help in the singing.

The meeting will be held at the Presbyterian church, beginning next Monday night and continuing through all of the week. Choirs from each church are especially invited, and all singers of the town have a cordial invitation to come and help with the song services.

HERE FROM SEYMOUR

Mrs. Alice Gains, a sister of Mrs. H. Z. Pennington, and daughter, Miss Martha Gains; also Mrs. Clara Mickey, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Pennington, all of Seymour, spent a week here visiting in the Pennington home. They returned home last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Baugh and Miss Mary Hefley were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Thompson and family Saturday.

Court Accepts Bid Of Lewis-Patten Co. On Road Machinery

In receiving bids for road machinery here last Saturday, the Commissioners' Court accepted the bid of Lewis-Patten Company of San Antonio.

This company's bid for a road maintainer, a grader and a scarifier was $6,660.00 which amount is to be paid in Schleicher County Road Machinery Warrants bearing interest at the rate of 4 1-2 percent.

Seven warrants are to be issued by the county, the first being for $600 and the remaining seven for $1,000 each. Warrant No. 1 will be payable on March 1, 1940, with the others maturing on March 1 of each successive year thereafter until 1946.

The Court passed an order setting aside a tax of 3 3-4 cents on each $100 valuation out of the present 15c tax levy on all taxable property in the county for the purpose of creating a sinking fund to take care of the interest and principal on this indebtedness.

A deal has also been made whereby the city's street maintainer is being used on the county roads. Every available piece of road machinery has been placed to work on the roads, and with a few weeks of pretty weather Schleicher county will see more results than has been shown here in a long, long time.

Eldorado Votes $120,000 Bonds For Water-Sewer System

EXTREMELY LIGHT VOTE INDICATES LITTLE INTEREST IN BOND ISSUE

In spite of the fact that there were several hundred qualified voters in Eldorado, election judges had very little to do last Monday when Eldorado voted on the $120,000 revenue bond issue.

This election was for the purpose of voting bonds for a water-sewer system for Eldorado. Fifty-three people went to the polls and cast their vote.

A majority of the persons voting favored the bonds. Returns of the election are: For the bonds, 45, Against the bonds, 8.

New Funeral Home Nearing Completion

Work on the new home for the Eldorado Funeral Service, which is being constructed here by J. L. Ratliff, is nearing completion. Mr. Ratliff moved his stock from the old building into the new last Monday.

There is yet some work to be done on the interior of the building, and Mr. Ratliff plans to have the lawn landscaped, put down sidewalks and have flowers, trees and shrubbery planted on the premises.

Mr. Ratliff stated that the formal opening of the new home will be held immediately after its completion, at which time the entire public will be invited to inspect the new building.

Shall We Observe Easter?

How shall we observe Easter? Shall we observe it with hard-boiled eggs and with white rabbits—with childish nests and little baskets? Shall we celebrate it with a great ball or a gay social function? Are these things timely and fitting? Do they satisfy and fill the desires of our hearts? Easter is the tragedy of all the ages. There clings to it the memory of a great miscarriage of justice—a foul murder, and a great victory.

Shall we forget that it was possible for a nation that stood without a peer to permit this travesty of justice—or forget that the Church of the Living God in its zeal crucified Him? If we do, then Holy Week will have been in vain.

Let us enter into the work with prayer. Let us put aside our usual affairs and stop and listen for the voice of God. When all the world is reminded of the Easter and is thinking about it, then it is a good time to be real serious about this matter.

Our churches will be decorated. Our choirs will sing their beautiful anthems. Shall we not do as much for our minds and hearts? Shall we not marvel and rejoice over His cry: "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?"

Therefore, let us not forget the co-operative services next week—and come on the square, to the church on the corner.

FORMER EMPLOYEE OF STATION A DIES PNEUMONIA VICTIM

Dolph Epley, 44, of Junction, died of pneumonia at a San Angelo hospital last Sunday evening. Funeral services were held at Mullin, Texas, at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Epley, who is a nephew of Mrs. T. J. Johnston of Eldorado, is a former employee of Station A, but at the time of his death was an employee of the Humble Pipe Line Station B, between Sonora and Junction. He has been ill a week.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. H. L. Jackson, of Palley, Texas.

TO AUDIT RECORDS FOR THIS COUNTY

The Commissioners Court passed an order last Saturday authorizing the county judge to employ the Western Audit Company to audit the records of Schleicher county.

A representative of this firm is expected to begin the audit within a short time.

DISTRICT AGENT HERE

Miss Kate Adele Hill, district home demonstration agent for this district, was in the county last Monday. Accompanied by Miss Bowen, Miss Hill visited the homes of Mrs. G. L. Ballew, Mrs. Otis Bujie and Mrs. Gordie Alexander.

The remainder of the day was spent in office conference, going over the work being done in this county.

$270.00 In Prizes Won By Local Boys At Exposition

TOTAL OF TWENTY-SIX PRIZES ARE WON IN COMPETITION

In spite of the fact it was believed the Schleicher county lambs were not in top condition, local 4-H Club boys won a total of twenty-six prizes at the Ft. Worth Exposition and Fat Stock Show. These prizes, which included from second to 20th place in the show, brought the club boys a total of $270 in prize money.

Added to the amount offered as prizes in the Schleicher county show, this makes a total of $323.00 in prize money which the club boys have won this year. The boys are greatly encouraged over the winnings, and this is expected to also encourage the feeding of a larger number of sheep for next year.

Prizes won in the various classes of the Fort Worth show including the winnings of each individual club boy, are as follows:

COURT TRANSFERS $400 FROM GENERAL FUND INTO JURY FUND

Members of the Commissioners Court, in session last Saturday, vote to transfer $400 of the county's money from the general fund into the jury fund.

This action was necessary to take care of jury cases likely to come up in the spring term of district court which will open here on Monday, March 29. The commissioners court did away with the jury fund in a meeting last year, and it was necessary to transfer this money before district court jurors could be paid.

Extension Specialist Visits Club Women Of County Last Week

TELLS OF VARIOUS PHASES OF WOMEN'S WORK FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Mrs. Bernice Claytor, home improvement specialist of the Extension Service, was in the county several days last week, visiting the various improvement demonstrations being carried on in the county and encouraging the women in their work.

While here, Mrs. Claytor was a guest at the Lions Club luncheon on Wednesday, March 10, at which time she explained various phases of her work.

Mrs. Claytor told briefly of the kitchen improvement work which is being started by the women of this county. Another phase of the work was bedroom improvement, which has been completed in the county.

A new project is the "repair of house" demonstration, which is being taken up by Nolan county this year. This work, Mrs. Claytor said, includes repair of foundations, repairing screens, improving water supply and system, providing for waste disposal painting and other general improvements about the home to make it more livable. After the house improvement is completed, the demonstrators then begin on yard improvement.

Mrs. Claytor stated that living room improvement will be added to the home demonstration work now being offered. She gave reasons for the Extension Service dividing these improvements into rooms instead of taking them all as one project.

"By dividing into rooms," she said, "there is but little expense involved, whereas the work as a whole is looked upon as too expensive to be undertaken by most ladies. The hope is that after a woman has completed one room demonstration, she will list on paper all things that could be done to improve the home and start working on some other

USES ORANGE CRATES

Mrs. George Rodgers, the wardrobe demonstrator of Riverside Home Demonstration Club, has found a new use for empty orange crates. She is trying to build a clothes closet that will be convenient, yet will involve a minimum expenditure of money. In order to do this she has taken some orange crates and inserted shelves in the crates that will be used for storing folded articles of clothing. Wooden doors cover these crates which are arranged in the closet in order that the small children will be able to reach them.

Orange crates may also be used for book shelves arranged in a modernistic fashion by cutting off the boxes at various heights and arranging them stair-step fashion. Sand papering followed by varnish or paint will make these inexpensive book shelves attractive and useful.

BACKGROUND FOR KITCHENS

Mrs. Fred Mathews who was in charge of the program at the meeting of the Reynolds Home Demonstration Club which met at the home of Mrs. Otto Sauer, March 10, says that well finished floors and light walls are a good background.

The baseboards should be made to shed dirt and wooden strip or molding four or five feet from the floor cuts off the lower part of the wall which receives the most wear. This lower portion of the wall may be washed or refinished without making the rest of the wall look shabby.

Members present were, Mrs. Orville James, Mrs. Harvey Dannheim, Mrs. Elmer Bruton, Mrs. Fred Mathews, Mrs. Roy Glen Gardner, Mrs. Otto Sauer, Mrs. Archie Buie. Visitors present were, Miss Cora Sauer, Mrs. Jarvis Williams, and Mrs. John Faught.

Everyone reported a pleasant and profitable meeting.

ELDORADO CLUB TO HOLD PATTERN SCHOOL

The Eldorado Home Demonstration Club will hold a pattern school next Monday at the office of the home demonstration agent. The school will open at nine o'clock and will continue until all foundation patterns are completed.

All ladies of the county who want foundation patterns and do not have them, and those whose patterns need adjusting are invited to attend. The school will be in charge of Mrs. Palmer West, Mrs. Otis Buie, and others.

PTA DISCUSSES VALUE OF READING

The Eldorado Parent-Teacher Association met in regular session in the clothing laboratory at school on Tuesday, March 10, 1937 at 3:15 P. M. with thirty-three members present. After the reading of the minutes and the report of the treasurer, Mrs. Luke Thompson, president, appointed a nominating committee composed of Mrs. Bert Page, chairman; Mrs. Will Stewart, and Mrs. L. M. Hoover; and requested this committee submit a report at the next meeting of the organization.

The theme of the program for the afternoon was "The Value of Reading in Education." The first speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Mabel Parker who spoke on "Good Books and Magazines in the Home." Her talk was followed by an interesting report given by Mrs. Mary D. Adrian on "The Organization and Function of the School Library in Educating Pupils." In her talk, Ms. Adrian stressed the reading of good literature and stated that it was a vital force in the education of pupils. She also gave an interesting account of the organization of the Eldorado High School Library.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

SPECIAL MEETING OF COUNTY COUNCIL CALLED

The women's county council will hold a parliamentary drill next Saturday afternoon at two-thirty, which will be followed by a special call meeting of the council. These meetings will be held in the home demonstrators' office.

The meetings are open to all who wish to attend, but club presidents, council delegates, reporters and parliamentarians are especially invited.

ECONOMIC HIGHLIGHTS

The Federal government—like all other units of government of great size—is wasteful and inefficient. There is duplication of effort. There is overlapping of departments—in some cases, ten to twenty bureaus exist for a job which could be done by one or two. There is too much division of authority.

These are facts recognized by practically everyone. In the course of its history, the government has, like Topsy, "just grown." Often it has grown without rhyme or reason. And every Administration since the Civil War has added to the bureaucratic confusion.

As a result, it is widely felt that there is a strong need for Federal reorganization. The highly conservative Senator Byrd has made a study of the subject and offered recommendations. The President appointed a "Committee on Administrative Management" to investigate and advise on possible changes.

This Committee has now made its report. As diagrammed by the constitutional "checks and balances" plan. The three separate major branches of government—the Executive, the Legislative and the Judicial—would, of course, be maintained. Principal act would be the overhaul of more than 100 independent agencies, boards, authorities, etc. and their consolidation within 12 major executive departments.

There are now ten major executive departments, State, Treasury, Justice, Post Office, Navy, War, Commerce, Agriculture, Labor and Interior. Two new departments, whose heads would be Cabinet members, would be created—social welfare and public works. The name of the Department of the Interior would be changed to the Department of Conservation. Independent bureaus of importance which would be absorbed into departments include: Resettlement Administration, Tennessee Valley Authority Social Security Board, Federal Housing Administration, Works Progress Administration, Civil Service Commission, National Labor Relations Board, Veterans' Administration, Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

There are two main reasons why government reorganization is desirable—efficiency and economy. Unhappily, these ends are not always compatible when politics is involved. Consequently, there is considerable dissension as to the details of reorganization.

It is probable that a White House sponsored plan, similar to that recommended by the President's Committee, will be introduced in this session of Congress. It will meet with little opposition, doubtless pass with a minimum of debate. However, it will be some time before the Solons get around to it—other legislation, notably the judicial reorganization bill, will hold the headlines for many weeks to come. All hopes for an early adjournment of Congress have been abandoned.

"Symptoms of the boom phase of recovery are multiplying," said Business Week. "Strikes, higher wages, higher prices, increasing productive activity, reports of record earnings, government efforts to curb security speculation, optimism punctured here and there with misgivings, are making regular appearance on the business bill of fare."

Principal industrial headlines are being made by strikes and wage boosts. Union leaders are finding executives malleable and conciliatory—for example, New England shoe plants recently acceded without question to a demand for a 15 per cent wage raise. The steel industry has likewise made friendly gestures to the CIO. Reason, according to the experts, is that practically all industry looks forward to booming business (steel and similar industries are anticipating large government contracts as part of our pending military building up program) and would rather zoom wages than take a chance on plant shut downs when orders are multiplying.

Business briefs of interest follow:

OIL: Gasoline stocks are very high, but the industry is not worried because demand is substantially higher than last year—which was a good year.

MOTORS: Temporary elimination of strikes from this industry has boosted production to near-record peaks. The public's appetite for new cars in the low medium price groups seems insatiable.

AGRICULTURE: January farm cash income was 14 per cent above January, 1936. Outlook is good, with price increases imminent. This naturally cheers the big farm machinery makers.

RETAILING: Stores of all kinds are flooded with business. The magazine "Retailing" says that stores are planning big-scale modernization programs, are putting their money into new equipment instead of advertising.

FLY CONTROL STUDIED BY COUNTRY WOMEN'S CLUB WEDNESDAY

Various ways of controlling flies were given by Miss Frances Bowen, Schleicher county Home Demonstration agent, to the Country Women's Home Demonstration club in the home of Mrs. Claude Alexander on Wednesday March 17.

Receipts for poisoning were given by Miss Bowen and each member answered the roll call with some method of fly control.

Mrs. Claude Alexander gave the council report. Each member also gave their report on the last months work to the council delegate.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Fred Gillaspay, Mrs. Tom Alexander, Mrs. Grace Sherrod, Mrs. L. Kent, Mrs. W. C. Parks, Jr., Mrs. R. J. Alexander, Mrs. Truett Stanford, Miss Frances Bowen, Mrs. Jack Wade, Mrs. Marion Wade, Mrs. Claude Alexander, Mrs. Bill McSwane, Mrs. Gordie Alexander, Mrs. Ovid Wade, Mrs. Ward Parks and Mrs. Ray Alexander.

TEXAS CITIES ENROLLED IN MEAT ESSAY CONTEST

Texas high school students are out to win their share of university scholarships to be awarded in two educational events, in which two national champions are winners in every state will be selected.

Following the announcement a few days ago of the 1937 meat essay and meat poster contests, teachers in twenty-nine Texas cities have already enrolled their students in these events, according to the National Live Stock and Meat Board, contest sponsor.

Additional entries are expected, since the closing date is not until April 15.

Texas cities participating thus far are: Austwell, Edinburg, Eddy, El Paso, Gilmer, Hempstead, Hico, Lewisville, Mt. Pleasant, Olton, Palestine, Pilot Point, Port Arthur, San Saba, Smiley, Throckmorton, Val Alstyne, Victoria, Ft. Worth, Tyler, Amarillo, Baird, Bonham, Claude, Dallas, Junction, McAllen, San Antonio and Tahoka.

This is the fourteenth annual meat essay contest to be conducted. Participation is limited to students taking home economics. Contestants have a choice of several subjects, all of which give them the opportunity to present in essay form the knowledge they have gained in their classes about the selection, preparation, and food properties of meat. Miss Alice Fannin of El Paso was the Texas state champion last year. California furnished the national champion.

The meat poster contest, which was conducted last year for the first time, is open to all high school students. The young artists are telling the story of the place of meat in the diet in their poster compositions. Miss Louise Chastain of Brownwood won highest honors in Texas last year. The national champion in the field of home economics came from Kansas.

Nationally known authorities and prominent artists will select the winners in the two contests, it is announced.

L. M. Hoover, who has been ill at his home here, is greatly improved. He expects to be back on duty at the drug store in a few days.

LESS HORSEPOWER—LESS SPEED—LESS KILLING

Unless there is a definite change in our attitude toward violators of traffic laws, the accident problem will never be solved with modern automobiles on highways. The annual death toll which last year passed the 38,000 mark, will grow larger, not smaller.

There is no excuse for the man who drives his car 70 or 80 miles an hour on a public road. When we pamper him by letting him off with a small fine or perhaps just a warning, we are, in effect, encouraging him to go out and commit the offense again. And next time he may take an innocent life.

A high percentage of automobile accidents, and especially those of the more disastrous type are wholly or partially the result of "alcohol at the wheel." In many states drunken drivers have a better than even chance of escaping scot-free. They are punished but mildly, if at all. "Repeaters" are numbered in the thousands. There is but one solution to that phase of the problem—and that is the permanent revocation of the license of any and all drivers apprehended operating a car while under the influence of liquor. The public interest demands that the utmost and severest legal authority be exerted.

Experience has proven that a substantial percentage of drivers cannot be educated into safe practices. Nor can they be frightened into them. They can and must, in that case, be forced into them, or be deprived of the driving privilege.

Our dilatory attitude in the matter of accident prevention has its ghastly reflection in the statistics. Old ideas of traffic control and driving requirements must be superseded by restrictions adapted to faster cars, better highways, and the constantly increasing traffic congestion, or less horse-power and speed of cars must be limited by law at the factory, if traffic killings are to be reduced.

That according to a certain plat shown of record in the records of Schleicher County, Texas, certain streets and alleys are laid off on said plat in the above described property; that these streets and alleys, as shown on the plat, were laid off in the expectation that this property would some day become a part of the city of Eldorado.

D. 1937, at which time and place, said application will be considered by said Commissioners' Court, to protest, if they so desire, against the action prayed for in said application.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

Austin.—A pronounced swing toward the conservative side by the heretofore radical pension liberalization bloc in the house of representatives featured the week's session of the legislature. Administration forces have been hacking away consistently at the strength ever since the session began. Lobbyists who oppose the tax increases recommended by Gov. Allred in his opening message and who have been in the depths of depression ever since that message was delivered—were enthusiastic over the improved outlook for fewer tax increases. They figure that if no costly pension liberalization plagues go through, there will be little demonstrable need for large amounts of new revenue. And they also figure that if the pension bloc cannot get more money for the aged voters, its members will be extremely reluctant to raise much additional revenue for any other purpose, since there is no political advantage in offending both the pensioner and the people who pay the taxes.

The significant break came when the house voted, 68 to 66 to postpone until April 6 the state affairs committee's pension inflation bill, doubling the present cost of pensions. The most ardent pension inflationists conceded this action left little chance to enact the measure, which Gov. Allred has threatened to veto, anyway.

Tax Remission Bill Passes

True enough, the house followed up this action by passing Fed Mauritz' bill to remit the general revenue portion of state ad valorem taxes to the counties for a period of five years. This would land the general fund a sock amounting to $8,500,000 a year, or $42,500,000 total. Its passage was due partly to the pressure of county political machines, who lobbied ardently for it; and partly to the fact that many house members who voted for it under this pressure believe and hope the senate will kill the measure.

The only important revenue measure the house has passed—the six-cent oil tax—is being held up in the senate by strategists who went to see what else the house is going to do about revenue raising. Hearing before the senate committee is set for March 18. General opinion of observers here is that the senate finally will reduce substantially the rate in this bill before finally passing it.

Interest centers around the Herman Jones franchise tax bill, imposing a franchise and a net income levy on all corporations. To the tune of $12,000,000 a year. The house has twice refused to suspend the rules and all it up.

Race Forces Win Reprieve

The week's most important action in the senate was the postponement by the senate of action on the race track repeal. Warned by Speaker Bob Calvert that he would kill on a point of order the amendment to the jockey licensing bill that would eliminate parimutuel betting, which the senate tacked on last week, the race repealists decided to concentrate on the house bill repealing racing, by Bradbury. This bill went back to the committee on criminal jurisprudence. Repealists are prepared to force thru a resolution directing the committee to bring it to the floor, should the race betting forces seek to stifle it in committee, and they evidently have the strength to do so, barring parliamentary mishaps. In fact, such a resolution is now pending, and action on it was only temporary averted by the race tracks leader, Frank Rawlings of Fort Worth, when he forced thru an interpretation of the rules which brought up first an unfinished minor public utility regulation bill. This utility bill brought Sen. Claude Westfelt of Dallas to the floor with an extended and impassioned speech which consumed enough time to prevent Woodruff's resolution reaching a vote. That was what Rawlings had hoped for.

Observers here believed this parliamentary by-play, however, merely postponed the end for the race track faction. The 20 to 8 record vote of the senate on repeal indicated that eventually race track betting will be definitely killed in Texas at this session.

Highway Friends Active

Answering the many bills designed to take away from the highway department funds for other purposes, highway friends this week issued a logical statement asking no action on any of these measures until completion of the elaborate statewide survey of all Texas roads now underway by the highway department in co-operation with the federal bureau of public roads, financed with federal funds. The study has been under way a year, at a cost of about $1,000,000 and will soon be completed. The highway department's friends claim it will give the first dependable information that will enable adequate and sensible planning of a co-ordinated road development program, including cardinal and local roads. They plead for the legislature not to disrupt the department's financial structure until such a plan is available, and allocation of road funds can be made on a scientific basis. The legislature has repeatedly refused to raid the highway funds, but that doesn't discourage political-minded members from thinking up new schemes to raid the treasury of this unique state department, which has never operated on a deficit basis because its directors have enough business sense not to spend money the department hasn't got.

Notes

With at least two candidate taking definite stands for and against President Roosevelt's judicial reform program, the race for a successor to Cong. James Buchanan, to be decided in a special election April 12, may offer the first actual test of public sentiment in the nation on this highly controversial question. Lyndon Johnson, recently NYA director, has unreservedly pledged support to the president; Polk Shelton, Austin lawyer, oppose it strongly. Eight other candidates have taken varying views. Wallace Reilly, of Dallas, who the senate refused to confirm a place on the unemployment compensation commission, is expected to be re-appointed to his former place as executive secretary of the state labor federation. Fred Nichols, state labor commissioner, from Waxahatchee is reported Gov. Allred's most likely new nominee to the UCC place, and the senate doubtless would confirm him promptly.

Oil is Texas' major source of wealth. Unheard of 50 years ago, the Texas oil business today contributes directly or indirectly to the success of every other business activity in the state. The Humble Company is in the oil business; it produces oil, refines it into motor fuels, motor oils and other products, and markets these through Humble service stations and Humble dealers. It knows what this oil business means to Texas, but more than that—it realizes what Texas means to this oil business. The appreciation of this fact stands behind Humble's policy of continuous improvement, behind the unexcelled service the Texas motorist finds in Humble service stations.

AUTHENTIC MUSIC FOR CALVCADE OF THE AMERICAS

Dallas, March, 17.—One of the greatest tasks in the production of "Calvacade of the Americas," huge spectacle of the Greater Texas and Pan American Exposition, opening here June 12, for a run of 142 days, was the arrangement of authentic music for the big show. Music forms an harmonious background, accentuates the drama of the new world in its struggle for liberation, and expresses the romance of the Latin American countries. From the moment the performance opens, with the sacrifice of a beautiful maiden to the sun god, to the exciting closing act, in which the Inter-American Peace Conference hears the stirring message of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the music is both authentic and fitting.

"Full credit for this splendid job goes to our musical director, Lloyd Kerr," said Jan Isbell Fortune, author of the play which will be presented by some 300 actors on the world's largest stage. "It was more of a question of what music to use in 'Calvacade of the Americas' than in the 1936 show," said Mr. Kerr. "The new Calvacade covers a period of five centuries, and opens in the land of the Aztec, who knew little more than nothing about music. To be true, their only music was a dirth, or a rhythmic beat with little theme or harmony."

Religious music carries out the general theme of several scenes. When Columbus sets foot on soil of the new world in one of the early scenes, he proclaims the land Spanish territory, and the entire group sings "Te Deum", an ancient hymn.

Walter Damrosch, music council for the National Broadcasting Company, aided in the adaptation of period music for the show, as did Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, authority on period music, and more generally known as the "Tune Detector". The Pan American Union furnished material on period music of the Latin American peoples, and the New England Conservatory of Music cooperated in making selections associated with the early history of the United States.

"Calvacade of the Americas" presents one of the most varied assortments of music ever assembled or a production of its kind," said Mr. Kerr. "Each tune typifies the period and locale of the scene.

"South American music, as we know it, began to develop with Spanish colonization. The tango, which is not to be confused with the rumba, the latter being of Cuban origin, is typical of Latin American musical development," Kerr said.

From those scenes of the Spanish Conquests begins the "art" music of "Calvacade."

In scenes depicting our own "gay nineties" we hear such tunes as "Sidewalks of New York," "Bird in a Gilded Cage," "A Bicycle Built for Two," and "Sweet Marie", all of which were popular at the turn of the century.

"Cowboy" tunes provide the musical background for the dramatization of episodes from the early days of Texas and the West.

The music keeps pace with the dramatic development of "Calvacade of the Americas," which climaxes with President Roosevelt's history making visit to Buenos Aires, and the Inter-American Peace Conference.

"Stars and Stripes Forever," the music selected for the actual Conference at the insistence of the people of the Pan American countries, will be played for the "Calvacade" scene.

Report On Work Of State-Wide Tax Survey Sent To Governor

Schleicher County Benefitted By Survey In Addition To Tax Assessments

A report of work accomplished by the State-Wide Tax Survey, one of the largest projects under the WPA, was sent to Governor Allred this week by Albert K. Daniels, state tax commissioner. The importance of this survey is revealed in the fact that it represents the largest appropriation of any W. P. A. project other than a construction project. Federal funds amounting to $2,562,852 were authorized for this work.

Plan Of Operation
In the beginning of this work, the State of Texas was divided into twenty districts by the W. P. A. In each district there is a supervisor in charge of the technical operation of the work, who is responsible administratively to each district director of the W. P. A. In each county within each district a non-relief person is placed in charge of other workers. In an average county the force consists of three types.

The first group is composed of those with greater experience, such as former tax officials, abstractors, or engineers, whose duties consist of collecting data from legal records such as deeds, abstracts, or other court records relative to ownership of any given tract of land. Another group is given the task of investigating the tax rolls covering a ten year period to ascertain whether or not such tract of land has been assessed for taxation during that period of time. The third group consists largely of typists who transcribe the information obtained upon permanent records, a copy of which form a part of the records in each county.

Perhaps the most important feature of the survey is that of correcting the assessor's abstract books of each county. By this is meant that the original abstract records are being constantly revised by reason of abstracts being forfeited, resurveyed, or showing that an abstract which originally was recorded in one county now appears to be divided so that part of it is actually in an adjoining county, etc.

The State-Wide Tax Survey report was handed us last Saturday by W. E. DeLong, district supervisor for this district, No. 19 of Texas. The following excerpts from the survey shows some of the work which it is accomplishing:

According to the reports from the State Comptroller of Public Accounts there are in Texas approximately nineteen million acres of land with a total valuation of One Hundred Seventy-Five Million Dollars that are rendered as unknown ownerships. Naturally, the taxes of these unknown acres are not collectible, and it is the purpose of this survey to reduce this staggering figure to a minimum if not entirely eliminate all unknown ownerships.

The survey also revealed that 699,654 acres of land valued at $7,690,755 has heretofore been untaxed.

It corrected 29,700 unknown ownerships and eliminated 4,752 double renditions.

It found 67,875 tracts with improvements, valued at $54,711,875, which had not been rendered for taxes.

In District 19, which includes Pecos, Schleicher, Tom Green, and Sterling counties, workers in this survey discovered 21,605 untaxed acres, valued at $62,258; corrected 3 unknown ownerships; eliminated 32 double renditions; and property valued at $42,589 were added to the tax rolls of this district.

There are many other ways in which the survey will increase the property valuations on the tax rolls and eventually serve to cut down the present tax rate. This report includes testimonials from county officials of every county in which it is carried on, endorsing this work and expressing the desire to see it carried on to completion. At present, the survey is 60 % completed in 198 counties of Texas where the survey has been in operation.

New York World's Fair Site From 9,000 Feet Up

NEW YORK, (Special).—Photography and ingenuity combine to show about how the New York Fair will appear in 1939 to visitors arriving from the west in planes flying at an altitude of one and three-quarters miles. Cameraman made this "shot" from a plane over the New Jersey meadows. Shown in the foreground is the shipping along the Hudson—Manhattan with its towers grouped about the Empire State building (center) which houses present headquarters of the Fair—and in the middle distance the 1,216 1/2 acre site of the 1939 international exposition. To the right lies Brooklyn and, beyond, the hinterland of Long Island. At the extreme left, spanning the East river, is the new Triborough bridge over which many of the 50,000,000 visitors expected at the Fair will motor to the convenient parking lots. A photograph of the table model of the Fair has been superimposed on the negative of the air view to show the grid of the central exhibit zone, the boat basin being constructed on Flushing Bay and the lagoons that will feature the exposition's amusement zone.

of the Highway Department and of all other State Departments, Public Officials and good citizens, to take definite action immediately to see that the law is complied with in regard to the proper registration of motor vehicles, and that these public funds are distributed as provided by law.

You know, of course, that owners, who have obtained their license plates by purchasing them in counties other than the county of their residence, are operating with illegal license plates, and are subject to arrest and fine for operation of such motor vehicles improperly registered; and, furthermore, that they are subject, upon apprehension, to re-registration in the county of their residence.

It is the simple duty and will be the definite purpose of this Department to lawfully protect the State Highway Fund as far as we may be able to do so, and it is our hope and expectation that we may have the complete cooperation of the county officials and all other officials with whom we deal in the ordinary conduct of the State's highway business to see that the law is obeyed and properly administered in respect to registration of all motor vehicles.
