On The DIVIDE

A CHEAP SCENE

We're sorry that we were forced to become a party to a cheap street occurrence last Wednesday afternoon. It was an occurrence in which loud talk and cursing were very much in evidence.

A local peace officer stopped us on the street and made reference to an article which appeared in this paper some weeks ago which he said was a "lie." And in no uncertain terms he stated that he didn't appreciate articles appearing in this paper a bit. We hope no ladies heard the conversation, because language was used that was unbecoming.

This officer stated that he intended to get out circulars—and they wouldn't be printed here—telling folks of these "lies." When we requested that he send us one, he stated he would "bring you one." But that action isn't necessary. The columns of The Success are open to him, as they are to everyone else who have anything of public interest to run. And if he thinks this paper has published lies, we offer him just as much space free of any charge as he desires to convince us and the public that they were lies.

From what we've heard and from our observation, such scenes as that one Wednesday are becoming common ones, with the same ungentleman-like manner being manifested. Several scenes of like manner have taken place in recent months.

As a matter of fact, we still don't believe that Schleicher county officials have been showing the cooperation they should—and by that we don't mean any one person. We know, and you know, that many every day happenings in Eldorado would be eliminated if the proper cooperation was shown.

As long as we direct the editorial policies of The Success, this paper is going to stand for what we think is right. We're going to kick about those things which we believe to endanger the well-being, and even the lives, of people of our community.

WE WISH THEM WELL

Expressions of regret have been going the rounds since it was learned that Eldorado is to lose two very valuable citizens in the going away of Mr. and Mrs. J. Carlton Smith. These expressions, we know, are sincere and with them go every good wish for their future welfare and happiness in their new home.

These good people have meant much to Eldorado during their stay here. They've been leaders in school, church, civic and community activities. They could be counted on to do their part and their influences have been for the good and nobler ideals of life.

In all our limited experience, we believe we've never seen a more capable, more efficient school man than J. Carlton Smith. Each of his duties—and he had many—he did well. Yet, he found time for work and val-

Negro Residence Is Raided Friday

LIQUOR INSPECTORS LEAD RAID; WHISKEY MASH, BEER FOUND

Headed by two inspectors of the State Liquor Control Board, officers made a raid on Dick Fay, Eldorado negro, at his place in East Eldorado last Friday afternoon at five-thirty. The inspectors were through here at noon Friday, at which time it was stated they asked the cooperation of local officers.

The raid was made at five-thirty o'clock by H. B. Stanley and A. P. Mercer, liquor inspectors, Sheriff O. E. Conner and W. F. Edmiston, deputy.

The officers destroyed 50 gallons of whiskey mash, 83 bottles of "home brew" one 10-gallon beer crock, 20 bottles of beer, two pints of wine, coloring and other equipment.

Charges of possession of whiskey for purpose of sale were filed against the negro in county court Monday. He was released on $100 bond.

Commissioners In Meeting In Regard To School Land

A called meeting of the Commissioners Court was held last Saturday for the purpose of determining what should be done in regard to the Schleicher county school land in Gaines county. Because of oil activity in that section it was decided that something should be done in regard to the large amount of interest due the county on this land.

Two propositions were made the court at this meeting. One was to trade bonds for notes held against this land by the county. The other was to subordinate the county's lease so that the owners may lease for oil and let the oil lease apply on their payments. Both propositions were rejected until further information can be secured.

The commissioners secured the services of W. F. Meador, who will make a trip to Gaines county to determine the value of oil leases and the possibility of selling leases on this property. Because of the fact that Mr. Meador keeps in close touch with oil activities, it was thought that he would be the most likely person to get such information as this county desires regarding the situation in Gaines county.

31 Boys Out For Football Practice

Regular football practice was started last Monday, with 31 recruits reporting for this first practice. Regular workouts are being held each day, and Coach Bynum states that prospects for a winning team are very good.

There are several who have not yet reported, and it is expected that the Eagles will number at least 40 by the opening of school.

Coach Bynum stated that new playing equipment to be used in games only, which includes 22 new suits has arrived and the team is rapidly being whipped into shape for the initial game of the season which will be played here on Sept. 18.

School Registration Set For Sept. 6th

Students in all grades and all schools of the Eldorado Independent School District will register for their work for the ensuing school year on September 6 after the opening program.

Home room teachers in the Eldorado Grammar School will be Miss Thelma Ellington and Mrs. Arnan Drenon, first; Mrs. Bennie Watson, second; Mrs. Corinne R. Robinson, third; Miss Annie Herbert, fourth; Mrs. Luzelle Hicks, fifth; Miss Marshall Elmore, sixth; and Miss Oma Ford, seventh. Present plans are to have all grade school work in the new school building, as there is to be only one section of the seventh grade this year.

Teachers in the rural schools will be Mrs. Lola Sparks, Reynolds; Miss Pauline Griffiths, Alexander; Miss Brentice Smith and Miss Ena Ford, Mexican; and Miss A. M. Terral, Negro.

The only changes in the high school curriculum from last year are the addition of vocational agriculture and world history. Physics will not be offered this year unless there is sufficient demand for it.

Freshman required courses are English 1 and math. 1. Other courses from which Freshmen may select their other two subjects are home economics, agriculture, biology, and junior business training.

Sophomore required courses are English 2, math. 2, and world history. Sophomores may select their other course from home economics 1 and 2, typing, Spanish 1, agriculture, and biology. (Those who expect to take (See No. 5 Last Page)

SPECIAL SERVICE FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS

Sunday will be "Going-Away-To-College-Sunday" at the Presbyterian Church. Such an occasion is observed each year in the Presbyterian Church and a special invitation to attend the morning service is extended to all those who are soon to leave for college. The sermon subject will be chosen with the occasion in mind, and there will be special music. The morning service begins at eleven o'clock.

Schleicher Still Dry!

PRECINCT 4 VOTES 25 TO 4 AGAINST THE SALE OF LIQUOR

At the time this is written, Schleicher county is still dry, both with respect to rainfall and the dispersing of intoxicating beverages. Citizens of Precinct 4 went to the polls last Monday and stated in no uncertain terms that they were against the sale of liquor in their precinct.

The three boxes of precinct 4 voted in this election, and they turned in a vote of 25 against the sale of liquor and 4 votes for the sale of liquor. Returns of the boxes are as follows:

Alexander, 5 against, 1 for; Vermont, 14 against, 1 for; Reynolds, 6 against, 2 for.

Revival Meeting At Baptist Church A Great Success

The meeting which has been in progress at the First Baptist Church for the last ten days has been really a Revival. Many who have been here for a long while have stated, that it was the greatest revival in the history of the church, in this town. There have been sixty additions and conversions, two young men surrendered, many have rededicated their lives, and people from ten to seventy-four years of age have been saved and baptized. Many unusual things have been done. People have traveled many miles and spent long hours in the services during the Revival. It's a blessed thing to see the Lord work like he has the last few days in the hearts of people in Eldorado. Men and women have quit gambling to follow the Lord, and many have seen the folly of sin and have given themselves to the Lord.

The Church has caught a vision of the value of the souls of men, of the responsibility of the church, and of the possibilities of God. It has been definitely decided by the church to pay off all the indebtedness on the building. A committee has been appointed to raise this entire amount. The cooperation of the people has never been better in a big task than we have seen in the past few days. It is believed that the same spirit of cooperation will be (See No. 2 Last Page)

VOCATIONAL AND 4-H BOYS INVITED TO WATERMELON SLICING

W. G. Godwin, county agent, and E. O. Nevills, instructor of Vocational Agriculture in the high school, have issued invitations to all 4-H Club and Vocational Agriculture boys to attend a watermelon slicing next Wednesday. This event will be held at the high school, beginning at 7:30.

Plenty of watermelons will be on hand, and lots of amusement will be furnished those who attend. A short program will also be given.

These men urge boys to be present, as plans for 4-H Club and Vocational Agriculture work will be discussed briefly.

Citizens Asked To Stop Dumping Trash On Roads

Members of the Commissioners Court have issued a warning that all persons found guilty of dumping trash on the county roads will be prosecuted. This notice is being published this week, and all citizens are asked to refrain from dumping trash on any of the county roads.

This action was taken after trash had been dumped on the county road near the city dump grounds. Folks have been allowed to dump their trash in driveways leading into the dump grounds, and they have been filled up until it is almost impossible to get into the grounds.

Recently this trash has been dumped outside the dump grounds, and the county commissioners ask the cooperation of everyone in seeing that this practice is stopped.

Plans For Sheep Sale Progressing Nicely

Long known as the home of good lambs, Schleicher County is now looking ahead to improve marketing conditions for the benefit of both buyer and seller. Instead of a series of individual transactions, an auction sale will be held this year on Wednesday, Sept. 22, at Eldorado.

At this sale, sponsored by a group of leading business men and ranchmen as well as County Agent W. G. Godwin and 4-H Clubs, it is expected that between 5,000 and 10,000 head of lambs will be assembled and graded for the benefit of buyers.

Advance indications point to a large attendance of buyers at the sale. From Hale County comes an inquiry for some 500 head for 4-H purposes while numerous other counties are likewise showing interest. Nearly 1,500 head will go for this purpose alone from the auction ring.

While an approximate ten percent of the county's lamb crop of around 60,000 head will, it is thought, be consigned to the sale, the sales committee will have listings available for buyers who want more of a certain type than may be available at the sale. Growers may consign as many of their lambs as they wish.

Officials of the Sheep Sales Service include: J. Forrest Runge, Christoval, president; John Rae, vice-president; Ed Hill, vice-president and treasurer and W. G. Godwin, secretary. The two first named are ranchmen. Mr. Hill is president of the Eldorado Wool Co., and vice-president of the First National Bank of Eldorado while Mr. Godwin is county agent.

P. F. CASE BUILDING NEW RANCH HOME

P. F. Case of Evanston, Ill., came in last week and has started construction on a 7-room stucco home on the Case land of Eldorado.

Construction is going forward nicely, and this new home will be completed as rapidly as possible. Mr. Case stated that he and his family will make their home here when the residence is completed.

Dave Williamson Named Superintendent Of Local School

Dave W. Williamson was named superintendent of the Eldorado Public Schools at a called meeting of the Board of Education last Tuesday evening. Mr. Williamson will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of J. Carlton Smith.

Supt. Smith tendered his resignation the latter part of last week to accept a position as head of the department of business administration in Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will leave within a short while for Abilene to make their home there.

Mr. Williamson is well known in Eldorado, having previously served the school as coach of athletics for six years. He has held the position of coach and high school principal in the Menard Public Schools for the past two years. The Eldorado school system is expected to continue its rapid progress under his supervision.

Other Teachers Named

Mrs. Luzelle Hicks of Abilene was selected as public school music teacher. Mrs. Hicks has her B. A. degree with a major in public school music and comes highly recommended in both voice and piano.

Miss Pauline Griffiths of Valera was appointed as teacher in the Alexander school. Miss Griffiths holds her B. S. degree from the Texas State College for Women and comes highly recommended by those who are familiar with her past work.

Miss Ena Ford of Eldorado was selected as assistant in the Mexican school. Miss Ford holds a B. A. degree from C. I. A., and has previously served in the Eldorado schools.

The Board voted to proceed immediately with construction on a new school building for the Alexander community, work to begin as soon as possible in an effort to have the building ready by September 6.

Members present were B. E. Moore, president, Jess Koy, W. R. Nicks, H. B. Rees, John Williams, T. H. Wilton, and Leslie L. Baker, secretary.

EMPLOYMENT OF WOMEN

It may be surprising to some to be told that for nearly 100 years after the Declaration of Independence no women were employed by the government, but such is the fact, according to a statement by the president of the Civil Service Commission.

The first law permitting the employment of women as clerks in Federal government offices was passed in 1870. Today more than 25,000 women are employed in such offices in Washington alone, while nearly 60,000 or more are employed outside of the capital city.

Women are being appointed to such government positions as bacteriologist, biologist, botanist, chemist, economist, educationist, patent examiner, pharmacologist, and technologists of various kinds, and many women hold postmasterships. A woman is Secretary of Labor and several are court judges.

The employment of women in private business has shown a steady increase also, the number of women wage-earners being nearly ten million.

Whether this increasing activity of women in industry, business and the professions is an indication of an improved civilization depends upon one's viewpoint. However that may be, women have shown their ability to engage successfully in nearly every vocation under the sun, and that they will continue to do so can not be doubted.

HABIT CHANGES

An encouraging sign of progress of late is the appearance of an ability on the part of many to recognize habits which are harmful to their progress and well-being and change them for better.

Modern athletics are offering constant reminders of this ability. The consistent winners in sports events not only show adaptability in this way, but much of their success in actual competition hinges of their faculty for change in methods of performing. The same demand for flexibility exists in other walks of life, even if it is less obvious and peremptory.

George Bernard Shaw, the world famous British playwright and author, reveals the force of this reasoning in an account of his own habit changes. "I noticed in my youth," said he, "that my father ate indiscriminately, consuming large quantities of meat; that he smoked all day, drank alcohol and took no form of exercise. I saw that most men have the same habits as my father and most men are failures."

From that day, Shaw ate no meat. He foreswore not only alcohol, but also tea and coffee, which he regards as only slightly less harmful. He constructed a revolving cabin in which he could follow the beneficent beams of the sun through all the daylight hours. He also saw to it that he had plenty of exercise.

Shaw is regarded by many as an extremist, but his record of accomplishment and his physical well-being at the age of 80 are convincing arguments.

RULES FOR A HUSBAND

Domestic infelicity threatened to dash the matrimonial bark of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Walsh of New York upon the rocks. In fact, matters had reached such a crisis that Mrs. Walsh was suing for a divorce. Peter pleaded for one more chance to hold his job a husband.

Mrs. Walsh heeded his plea and agreed to withdraw her suit if Peter would promise to abide by eight simple, easily understood rules which she would lay down for his future guidance. Peter promised. Here are the rules:

- You shall not drink.
- You shall respect your wife at all times.
- Do not teach your children insubordination by interfering when I am correcting them.
- Do not bring your pals home when you are all drunk.
- Give me your salary each week, because I can save out of it what you spend on booze.

THE WORLD WAR BEGAN JUST 23 YEARS AGO

Twenty-three years ago this month began the greatest war in all world history. Austria-Hungary, at the instigation of Germany and her powermad kaiser, declared war upon Serbia. Quickly the nations fell into line and war declarations followed as swiftly as autumn leaves dropping from wind-swept trees. It was three years later when America, goaded by German outrages and irresponsible nose-thumbing, entered the conflict which American arms were to conclude victoriously.

Twenty-three years—little more than two decades. That was the war to end wars, to make the world safe for democracy. Democracy today is threatened to the east and to the west by dictatorships and bloodthirsty military establishments. In Spain brother murders brother while a score of European nations look on hungrily and eye each other suspiciously. In the Orient, bellicose Japan puts the sword and torch to impotent China.

Twenty-three years. We have not come far, have we?

"The Child in the Corner ..."
NEEDS GOOD LIGHT, TOO!

IT IS unfortunate that so many West Texas school rooms were built without consideration for "the child in the corner". Too often he or she is surrounded by blackboards that give off no light. Crowded conditions make it impossible to seat every child where ample light is obtained from outside.

It is safe to predict that school rooms of the future will be constructed so as to assure students the maximum light provided by nature. But, meanwhile, it is impractical to re-build the present facilities. Hence, it is highly important that artificial light be used to give EVERY child an opportunity to develop under normal circumstances.

Nor can the most scientifically constructed school room, depending upon nature alone, provide sufficient light on gloomy days during the winter school months. Children are required to read on cloudy days when light is reduced to less than 10 foot-candles.

This company has developed a school lighting system that is economical. It is designed primarily for "the child in the corner". At the same time, it throws no major burden on school trustees—responsible for school finances. Inquire at our local office for free estimate.

Home lighting problems have been solved by the student lamp. Installed today, the I. E. S. student lamp is a guarantee of ample light conducive to sight conservation when your boy or girl begins the forthcoming school term.

"THE REST OF THE RECORD"

BY JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

This week demonstrated again the wisdom of taking the unrestrained power of pardon out of the hands of the Governor and placing it in the hands of a non-political board.

Upon my return from Mexico I found four men condemned to die in the electric chair. Under the old system the Governor, with all his other cares and responsibilities would have had to pass on these cases. It simply wasn't fair to compel him to submit to the tearful appeals of wives, mothers, relatives and friends. Although he might have sickness in his home or several other trying ordeals, he was placed in the position of weighing the life of a man and almost standing outside the death chamber watching the condemned man pace back and forth waiting for the deadly hour of twelve o'clock and the last walk to the little green chamber. I don't think I ever slept a wink on the night any man was compelled to pay the penalty.

Now it's different. Before the Governor can commute a death penalty, or grant any other kind of clemency, it has to be recommended by the Board of Pardons. The Governor can refuse to follow the Board if it recommends clemency, but cannot grant any whatever unless the Board recommends it.

There are three members of the Board. One only is appointed by the Governor, and the others by the Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals. The members of the Board have several investigators and, of course, no other responsibilities than looking into clemency cases. In this manner both the convict and the public get a better deal than under the old system where the Governor was charged with all the responsibility in addition to his other duties.

I am proud of this great reform. We are not having any complaints about wholesale abuses of the pardon power. It is all based now on merit, and unquestionably everyone is much better satisfied.

Naturally I have been quite busy catching up with my correspondence after a two weeks vacation. However, on Friday of last week I flew down to Palacios on the Gulf Coast to review the 36th Division of the Texas National Guard in camp there. Texans generally probably do not realize what a wonderful organization of fine young men this is. Unquestionably we have one of the best National Guard units in the nation. Nearly 8,000 men train intensively at Palacios each summer for two weeks. This is in addition to their regular drills and parades back home. They are well equipped, well officered, and as fine soldiers as any I saw during the World War.

The total cost for military defense in Texas which is borne by the Federal government approximates more than a million dollars annually. The National Guard has in its possession more than four and a half million dollars of Federal property, guns, uniforms and equipments. Its payroll, including both men and officers from the highest to the lowest military grade while large in the aggregate, averages only $83.50 per capita per year. Their time is given free as a patriotic duty.

In addition to the 36th Division, we have what is known as the 56th Cavalry Brigade, about 1100 in number who train for two weeks each year at Mineral Wells. As Commander-in-Chief of the Texas militia I always visit these two camps. It was a great joy to me upon my recent visit to Mineral Wells to hear one of the Federal army officers praise the cavalry brigade. He said that we had as good, if not the best, in the nation.

Of course, we don't want war, and I pray God we may always be spared what it going on in Europe. It has been the policy of the State, however, to maintain a regular militia from the beginning. The wisdom of this was demonstrated in the World War when our National Guard was the first nucleus around which our defense was built.

It is heartening to know that if a war emergency should arise, our guard is manned, officered, equipped, trained and ready for immediate service.

Of course, as most everyone knows, soldiers don't have much use for a sailor. I was in the Navy during the World War and I had quite a bit of fun out of some of the National Guard officers by reminding them that their Commander-in-Chief was once a sailor!

Bagley's Shower
Turns Out To Be Aly's "Pounding"

Hundreds of people attended what Rev. J. E. Bagley termed "my party" at the Baptist church last Monday night, which marked the close of the Baptist revival. And as they came, they brought many gifts which were all placed in a large box on the platform.

Rev. Bagley stood guardian over the box. And as the gifts came pouring in, he would clap his hands and exclaim: "Thought I didn't have any friends, didn't you!"

As he began opening the gifts among the first was a very beautiful watch which was a present from the men to Rev. C. T. Aly, pastor. Bagley then opened another, which was a pair of cowboy boots for Carroll T. Jr., and another was a very beautiful radio which the ladies had gotten for Mrs. Aly.

This was the first knowledge the pastor had of this "party" being for Rev. Aly and his family and each of them was overcome with happiness upon realizing that their Eldorado friends had so completely and so wonderfully surprised them. All of the many gifts in the box were presented the pastor and his family.

Rev. Bagley, who was "ramrod of the party," was also presented with a number of gifts, one of which was a "love offering" from the Booster Band which he directed during the revival.

After each preacher had "taken turn about"—about three or four times each—in expressing their deepest appreciation for the splendid cooperation given them, as well as for these expressions of love, ice cold soda pop was served to those present. Then as Mrs. Dave Gregory played "God Be With You 'Til We Meet Again," the crowd said goodbye to Rev. Bagley, telling him how much they appreciated his work here during the revival.

"We want to use this means of telling the members of this church, as well as the Friends in the town and communities round about, how much we appreciate this wonderful service and the gifts which are so dear to us presented at this Beautiful Surprise Party", Rev. Aly said.

"Blessings to all and each of you."

Purpose Of Sheep Sales Service Listed By Pres.

J. Forrest Runge, ranchman and president of the Schleicher County Sheep Sales Service, has outlined the purposes of the county's first annual lamb auction sale, which will be held here on September 22. These purposes are as follows:

1. To offer county sheep raisers an opportunity to dispose of their lambs to better advantage.
2. By pooling and classifying small consignments, netting more dividends to small operators.
3. Demonstrate to growers the advantages of presenting better samples to buyers by sorting and classifying into uniform carlots, thereby stimulating a greater interest in producing a better quality product.
4. Giving the youth of the county experience in handling stock commercially and acquainting them with feeder buyer requirements.
5. Enabling the boys to help earn money for their annual lamb show—in that matter assuring a steady source and doing away with the unsatisfactory solicitation of funds for that purpose.

6. Providing a means whereby buyers can more readily procure their wants with less wasted effort.

Consignments. Expect to have from 5,000 to 10,000 lambs in the pen to attract buyers and enough lambs to show buyers the type of lambs available in the county. The general idea is to show lambs in carlots of 300 to 320, weighing approximately 20,000 pounds. For the larger operators it will be displaying a sample of his offering, whereas, for the smaller farm operators it will require a pooling and sorting of several growers to get uniform carloads.

Plan to encourage a varied assortment in order to feel the wishes of the buyers and to more forcibly impress the sellers that the better samples will bring better returns. For this first sale each load will be shaped as the normal commercial loads are handled today, then as the sales idea takes hold, strive toward stricter classifications.

Do a first class business—build up a respectable reputation that will eventually lead to absolute confidence and good faith between seller and buyer. Insisting on everyone being a satisfied customer.

Operation: Will use the Panhandle and Santa Fe stock pens at Eldorado in which to assemble, weigh, sort and hold sale. All entries to be in pens the evening before date of sale—then in morning before sale the consignments will be sorted and numbered in lots.

Sale: All sheep presented in numbered lots of one carload capacity (20,000 lbs. consisting of from 300 to 320 head). Sheep to be sold by weight, delivered on railroad cars at Eldorado. Immediately following sale of a lot it will be turned over to one of several weighing crews whose duty it shall be to weigh and then dispatch for shipment as the buyer desires. Arrangements will have been completed beforehand to insure ample facilities for railroad or truck transportation. The railroad company will cooperate in the movement and the selling, weighing and loading will go on simultaneously. At the completion of the sale the cars will move out in time to make the regular connections through San Angelo north.

Selling charge: In order to defray the expenses of conducting such sale, each consigner will be charged a commission fee of ten cents per sheep. This charge is made to cover cost of advertising, pay for weighing, auctioneer's fee and whatever other expenses there may be to conduct such a sale.

The promotion of this first sale is carried on by a number of public-spirited citizens who are donating their services to this cause. They realize that the time has come to get away from haphazard ways of the past, and the organization of an orderly marketing medium will be beneficial to both seller and buyer. County Agricultural Agent W. G. Godwin and his able office assistant have entered wholeheartedly into the promotion and are getting things done. Most notable among these is the response from county agents of several Panhandle counties, signifying their intention of attending this sale to purchase 1,500 lambs for 4-H boys' projects alone.

The local club boys have demonstrated by their show winnings that this county has the sheep and by this sales service the county breeders have arranged a systematic method of offering feeder lambs to those in the market for such sheep, whether for dry lot, grain fields or stocker purposes.

While this initial venture will be a one-day sale, it stands to reason that the lambs presented on that day will only be a small representative sample of the number of lambs available in the county. Some 60,000 are raised in Schleicher county annually, besides those from adjacent counties that are shipped through Eldorado. Therefore, the sales committee, who will have listings of several thousand more lambs, will be able to show buyers the type of lambs that they desire to buy according to the samples exhibited at the sale on Wednesday Sept. 22, 1937, at 10:00 a. m.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS
BY JULIAN CAPERS, JR.

Austin.—Two highly controversial special sessions of the 45th Texas legislature, which will have important effects not only upon the state's financial situation, but also upon the 1938 political campaigns, were seen by observers here as the Sept. 20 date set by Gov. Allred for the first session nears. The governor has indicated that he will submit taxation first, and public utility regulation second, and other matters "if there is time for them." There probably won't be any time for these "other matters," because both taxation and utility regulation are expected, as they always have in the past, to stir plenty of time-consuming controversy.

A drive by members of the legislature, led by a senate investigating committee which has been studying the problem, to balance the budget by lopping off unnecessary expense of state government by eliminating duplicating departments and unnecessary employes, has gained considerable pre-session support among members. Gov. Allred has indicated he will stick to his original tax recommendations—higher natural resources taxes—but the governor's taxation record makes it extremely hazardous to predict in advance just what he may recommend. Best early indications are that the resources folks will oppose bitterly any new taxes, on the ground that they are unnecessary and that a large state deficit acts as a "barke" upon public expenditures; but they will centralize their efforts toward keeping new increases in taxes on oil, gas and sulphur as low as possible, with the reasonable expectation that they will get some increases. Some reduction in unwieldy bureaus, centering in old age assistance, and the liquor control board, may be achieved, and some of the extremely liberal appropriations voted by the regular session may be trimmed downward, in an effort to balance the budget.

Politics Opens Up

The special sessions, of course will mark the jumpoff of the 1938 political season, with the usual scrambling for advantage which may affect legislation as much as any other factor. Gov. Allred has not elaborated upon his third term ambition. Jim

RIGHT IN BABY'S LAP

Ferguson has been trying desperately to work up sufficient enthusiasm to nominate his wife for a third term, on a sales tax and pensions for everybody platform. The McCraw candidacy which reached its peak ahead of the primaries, appears to have eased off considerably during the past 30 days, while that of Col. Ernest O. Thompson is slowly gaining headway as his friends have begun active work.

In the attorney general's race the apparently wide field has narrowed down considerably, with Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul, District Judge Yarborough of Austin, and Gerald C. Mann of Dallas all extremely active, and Woodul obviously holding a wide advantage at this early date.

Law And Order In Dallas

Twenty-five department of public safety men, ordered into Dallas by the governor after a disgraceful series of beatings and kidnappings of rival labor faction leaders and a Socialist lecturer, restored peace there this week, and were busy on the job of clearing up some of the lawlessness which Dallas police officials and Smoot Schmid, the Dallas county Sheriff, raised no hand to halt or prosecute. Allred declared the state coppers would remain on duty as "long as necessary", despite a dozen or more inspired telegrams of protest sent by the rival labor faction to him.

School Row Over

An ending as happy as a movie fade-out climaxed the long-drawn out battle over the $22 school apportionment, which the board of education met, rescinded its former action in fixing a $22 per capita apportionment, then rest the apportionment at exactly the same figure—$22—on the basis of a revised estimate by Comptroller George Shepard declaring there would be sufficient money available to pay the $22. All the pending lawsuits have been dropped, the automatic tax board scored a moral victory, the school kids get the money, and everybody is happy over the outcome.

Treasurer's Race

Interest in the race for State Treasurer Charley Lockhart's job heightened following Lockhart's positive announcement that he will run again next year, after a story was published to the effect that Rep. Jesse James, of Cameron, who resigned from the legislature to become Lockhart's chief clerk, would run and Lockhart wouldn't. Lockhart declared his health which has been so poor as to make his candidacy doubtful, is much improved, and added James had promised him not to run. Lockhart will have other opponents, however, at least two having announced already. Special elections have been called for Sept. 18, to name successors to James and Rep. Oscar McCracken of San Antonio, who also resigned. Rep. Byron England of McKinney is scheduled to resign after the special sessions, to accept an accounting job with one of the state departments.

Cotton Loan Passes

Best news of the week for Texas farmers was the action of congress, in the closing hours, in making available a $65,000,000 fund to take up the slack between the market price of cotton and the 12-cent loan figure demanded by the "cotton bloc." Washington dispatches indicate the loans will be available for this year's crop, now moving which will mean the best prosperity since the depression for Texas farmers, and should boom business thruout the state before Christmas.

Notes

Prosperity will hit Austin Sept. 20, with the opening of the University fall session, with an estimated 10,000 enrollment, and two special sessions beginning. Cafes, hotels, liquor shops, and merchants in the capital city reap a daily harvest estimated at $10,000 during a session. . . . State officials with political ambitions were visiting the Texas American Legion convention in San Angelo this week. Speakers included Gov. Allred, Rail Commissioner Ernest Thompson and Bill McCraw, attorney general. . . . The governor was to proceed to Denver to attend a wedding, making Walter Woodul governor for the 12th time in the past three years. . . . State health officials reported the infantile paralysis situation which reached mild epidemic proportions in some sections this summer, improving steadily with the advent of cooler weather. So delay in reopening schools next month is anticipated because of the disease.

Range Conservation

The building of earthen tanks and reservoirs is the practice of most interest to West Texas farmers participating in the Range Conservation Program, reports of county agricultural agents in that section indicate, but other practices such as eradication of mesquite, eradication of cedar, and deferred grazing are receiving much attention.

To date, 31 dam sites have been located in Brown county. Elevations on these dams have been taken and stakes for the base of the dams have been set. Applications for the building of 101 more tanks are on file in the office of the county agricultural agent, and these tanks will be measured and completed as rapidly as possible. The water area impounded by these tanks runs from one-eighth of an acre to 40 acres.

The lines run on one spreader dam on the Means Ranch in Jeff Davis county when completed will turn a vast volume of water from an arroyo onto about 20 sections of grazing land where it will be irrigated in one body. This dam when completed will be 1800 feet long and from 8 to 9 feet high.

W. W. Sherrill cleared a 70 acre trap of prickly pear in 10 days with three men and a truck. Using labor at $1.75 per day per man this work cost him 75 cents an acre. The pear on the Sherrill ranch was classed as medium by the range inspector and Sherrill will draw 75 cents an acre from the government for compliance.

Ranchmen in Menard county have made application to build 56 earthen tanks and reservoirs which will total 87,435 cubic yards of dirt to be used in the dam sites.

SCABIES ERADICATION REPORT

There was employed in San Angelo District for the month of July, three State men, and three county men who spent their entire time in an effort to eradicate scabies infection, and a total of approximately $463.00, was expended by this Department in its regular Eradication Program.

68 herds, and a total of 60,900 sheep or cattle were inspected or dipped. 5 head of sheep were classed as exposed on account of being imported into Texas and dipped to comply with Texas Scabies Law.

All exposed or infected live stock were systematically treated.

The Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas will continue the work in the San Angelo District in an effort to protect the live stock in that District from imported infection, and affording the necessary scabies certificates demanded by other states on live stock moving from Texas.

The above work was conducted under the supervision of H. H. Coper Supervisor of Scabies Eradication Work, San Angelo, Texas.

There were employed in San Angelo District three county paid men which are not included in the above expenditure.

 utable service outside his school duties.

We've never known a school man who cooperated more wholeheartedly with the community newspaper. Smith always found time to see that Eldorado people were informed of all worthwhile activities through the columns of the paper. But Smith went further than that—he always had something to say in behalf of our efforts to publish the type paper Schleicher county is entitled to have. Knowing that the public in general is inclined to "pass up" these little things, we always appreciated the words of commendation and the encouragement which always came with this constructive criticism of the newspaper.

In entering into college work, Smith is realizing one of his ambitions, and he and his wife carry with them the best wishes of hundreds of Eldorado people. We are losing personal friends, the newspaper is losing two good friends, and our best wishes go with them into their new field of work.

AN IRREPAIRABLE LOSS

A veil of sorrow was cast over all of West Texas when news of the death of Sam Ashburn was learned last Friday. And West Texans lost a valuable friend in this person who conducted the "Top of the Windmill" column in the San Angelo Morning Times.

A typical West Texan, Sam Ashburn knew the language of the ranchman, the cowboy, the farmer and the business man. He was their friend—he knew how to mix and mingle with them.

West Texans learned to turn to the "Top of the Windmill" for authentic news of this ranching section, and from this column they learned of ranch activities over a wide area. In it they saw the personality, the individual touch of Sam Ashburn which caused it to hold increasing interest among West Texans.

Yes, Sam Ashburn's death is an irreparable loss to thousands of West Texans who loved him. No doubt this valuable column which was made popular by Sam Ashburn will continue in the San Angelo publication, but it will lack that personality and individuality of Sam Ashburn. No one can "handle" the "Top of the Windmill" quite like Sam Ashburn did.

THANKS, EDDIE

A member of the Success received a card Tuesday from "Eddie Pop" Reynolds, who with his parents is visiting the Grand Canyon. The card was a picture of this canyon, and Eddie says: "If I had old Edgar up here I'd push him off."

Thanks, Eddie. Glad you thought of us anyway!
