UNSELFISH WORK

Much credit is due those few men who have worked to diligently and untiringly toward the success of Schleicher County's lamb sale which will be held here on Wednesday, September 22. These men are busy people, each in his respective field of endeavor, but each one has given time toward working out a plan for the advancement of the sheep industry in this county.

All of this work has been done without thought of compensation. As outlined in the purposes of the Schleicher County Sheep Sales Service, no man expects to receive compensation for his work. The only fee charged during the auction is what will go to cover expense of advertising, etc. Some members of the organization have gone so far as to spend hundreds of dollars of their own money toward advertising this sale.

This money will, it is hoped, be paid back after the sale. Yet, had it not been for the willingness of these persons and their faith in the outcome of this auction sale, such an advertising program could not have been carried on.

Much of the success of this sale, as well as future sales in this county, depends largely upon the cooperation shown by individual ranchmen, business men and professional men of the county. Without this cooperation the efforts of those who have devoted so much of their time to this cause will have gone for naught.

Many people are expected to come to Eldorado for this first annual sale. Schleicher county sheep will be shown, and sold, in such a manner as to attract the attention of buyers, feeders and breeders as they have never done before.

More interest in the coming sale has been shown in recent weeks, and it is likely that this interest will be multiplied many times in the future, when results of this first sale are shown. And all of this is due, to a large extent to those in whose minds the idea of a Schleicher County Sheep Sales Service was conceived.

WE WISH YOU WOULD

Last Monday we mailed out quite a number of notices to subscribers whose subscriptions, according to our records, have expired. Quite a number have responded to these notices, and have had the expiration dates on their paper set up for another year. But a good many of them have not.

We would like for these subscriptions to come in without having to employ a solicitor to bother you this year. Will you cooperate with us toward that end? We wish you would.

Due to constantly advancing prices of paper, and increasing expenses, it is altogether likely that we will have to go back to our old rate of subscription $1.50 per year. However, no definite date has been set for this increase, and $1.00 will still keep the Success coming to you for one year.

Many Attend Opening Of Local School Monday

Many parents and school patrons were present for the formal opening of the 1937-38 term of the Eldorado Schools last Monday morning at nine o'clock. Hopes were expressed for a most successful school year, and Dave Williamson, superintendent, asked the cooperation of all patrons throughout the year.

The following program was rendered at the opening exercises:

With the audience standing a song "The Eyes of Texas," was sung, after which Rev. J. W. Leggitt, Methodist pastor, pronounced the invocation. A vocal solo was rendered by Mrs. Luzelle Hicks, instructor of music. A beautiful piano duet was rendered by Misses Billie B and Neva Jo Steward.

Rev. Leggitt delivered the principal address, which was interesting and well received. Supt. Williamson then introduced the new teachers in the Eldorado school. They are: Jake Swearingen, grade school principal; E. O. Nevills, instructor of Vocational Agriculture; Miss Juanita Deford, commercial teacher, and Mrs. Luzelle Hicks, instructor of music.

Dr. L. J. Moore Returns Here To Complete Work

WILL BE ASSISTED BY DR. E. H. RAMSEY

Dr. L. J. Moore came in from Dallas this week and will remain in Eldorado long enough to complete all dental work he has started here. Dr. Moore stated that he got so busy in Dallas that it was impossible for him to get here last Sunday, the date he had set to return to Eldorado.

Dr. E. H. Ramsey came in with Dr. Moore and will be associated with him during his stay in Eldorado. Dr. Moore says he's still in the same old location, and he invites those who have dental work to call at his office at their earliest convenience.

PROWLING AROUND!

"Big" Spurgers is Eldorado's new night prowler who goes around shaking doors to see that they are properly locked. He has taken the nightwatching job which Ben Isaacs had, Ben having moved to San Angelo.

LEAVE FOR VIRGINIA

Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Tisdale, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tisdale of Eden, left last Monday on a trip to Virginia to visit their old home. They expect to visit in Florida and Ohio before returning home, and will be gone about a month.

PTA TO HONOR TEACHERS-FRIDAY

Members of the Eldorado Parent Teachers Association will give an entertainment at the Presbyterian Church this Friday night, Mrs. Luke Thompson, president, has announced. The entertainment will be in the church basement, beginning at eight o'clock, and will honor Eldorado teachers. All school patrons are urged to be present for this event.

Rural Schools Of County Are Beginning 1937-38 Sessions

Practically all rural schools of Schleicher county started their 1937-38 school terms this week, according to C. S. McKinney, county superintendent. Terms opened at most of the schools last Monday.

Mayer No. 2 will begin its fall term on next Monday, it was stated, and although Bailey Ranch opened this week, the opening Monday was delayed because of a funeral.

Judge McKinney listed teachers of the rural schools as follows:

Lions To Give Entertainment For Local Teachers

Members of the Eldorado Lions Club present at the regular luncheon hour last Wednesday voted unanimously to hold their annual entertainment for teachers in the Eldorado schools. Some discussion was held about repeating the same form given last year—that of a dove supper at the roadside park.

Plans for this entertainment will be worked out within the near future, and it is expected to hold this annual affair as early as possible since it has always been an act of welcoming the teachers to Eldorado for the ensuing school year.

The committee appointed to work out plans is composed of Aaron Edgar, chairman; N. P. Wilkinson and C. C. McLaughlin.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Leggitt went to Christoval last Tuesday, where Mrs. Leggitt stayed for the remainder of this week for treatment.

Jury commissioners who were chosen during the Spring Term of court have selected jurors to serve during the term opening on September 20th. Jury commissioners were Seth A. Ramsey, Hugh McAngus and J. T. Faught. The jury list is as follows:

City Of Eldorado Purchases Water Site

BUYS RATLIFF PROPERTY AFTER HE RESIGNS FROM BOARD

At a special called meeting of the City Council last Friday night, members of the council voted to purchase a site for Eldorado's municipally owned water system.

Several sites came up for consideration, but councilmen decided that the one offered by J. L. Ratliff was the most likely for this purpose. This land is located just north of the Eldorado Funeral Home.

After having accepted the resignation of Mr. Ratliff as a member of the City Council, the remaining members voted to purchase this site. Engineers are expected here this week to begin active plans for construction of Eldorado's new water and sewer system.

High School Enrollment Exceeds That Of Last Year

Enrollment in the Eldorado High School by far exceeds that of any other previous year, according to an announcement made by Supt. Dave Williamson last Wednesday. The enrollment for 1937-38 is some fifteen above that of last year, and last year's enrollment was the largest in the history of Eldorado High School.

Mr. Williamson stated that the grade school enrollment had not been definitely determined Wednesday morning, but it is expected to fall slightly under that of last year.

High school enrollment by classes is as follows: Seniors, 28; Juniors, 29; Sophomores, 22; Freshmen, 54; total, 153.

48 Boys Enroll For Vocational Agriculture Work

Forty-eight boys have enrolled in the Vocational Agriculture classes of Eldorado High School, according to an announcement made by E. O. Nevills, instructor. One class is composed of 23 freshmen, and the other class of 25 is composed of sophomores, juniors and seniors.

Mr. Nevills stated that all feeding projects, including lambs and calves, will be started within the next few weeks.

The vocational department has been fully equipped during the past few weeks, and this is expected to be one of the most successful courses offered in the local school this year.

Former Eldorado Pastor Is Injured In Car Accident

Rev. Guy Davis, president of Daniel Baker College at Brownwood and former pastor of the Eldorado Presbyterian Church was severely injured in an automobile accident last Friday night while returning to Brownwood from Austin.

Indications are that Rev. Davis went to sleep at the wheel, it was stated, and his car ran into a culvert. One leg was broken, a foot was crushed, and several ribs were broken, it was reported.

Latest reports received in Eldorado are that hospital attendants do not believe Rev. Davis' life to be endangered, although he will be "laid up" for about three months. His many friends in Eldorado regret to learn of this unfortunate accident.

J. L. Ratliff and Vernon Ratliff were business visitors in San Antonio last Wednesday.

RECORDS SHOW 702 SCHOLASTIC IN SCHLEICHER COUNTY

The scholastic population of this county is 702, according to the approved scholastic list on record in the office of C. S. McKinney. This list includes children of free scholastic age, 6 to 17 inclusive, it was stated.

The records show that two scholastics were transferred out county. Eleven were transferred from the common school districts into the independent district.

15 Cars Lambs Are Consigned For Sale On Sept. 22

INTEREST GROWING AS DATE FOR ANNUAL AUCTION SALE NEARS

Members of the Schleicher County Sheep Sales Service report that over 15 carloads of lambs are already consigned for Schleicher county's first annual auction sale, to be held on Sept. 22. Interest in this sale is steadily increasing, and indications are that this will be a most successful beginning of this annual affair.

The first lot of lambs will be offered from the auction block by Nelson Johnson promptly at ten o'clock on the morning of Sept. 22.

Included among the carloads already signed up are: Baugh Brothers, Baugh Estate, Forrest Runge, J. A. Whitten, Ed Willoughby, Ray Willoughby, Marion Wade, Thompson Bros. & Lawhon and Jess Koy, one each, and John Rae, two.

Among others who have tentatively arranged to consign lambs to the sale are Sam Oglesby, Jr., Blaine Sammons, Otho Drake, G. Alexander, Henry Speck, Sol Mayer and Otto Sauer.

Several hundred feeders in the Panhandle-Plains area as well as in the Middle West are being advised of the sale in addition to county agents and 4-H Clubs over a wide area, so that a large attendance is expected.

Bynum's Eagles To Open Schedule Here Saturday

Season Tickets On Sale For Five Home Games On Grid Schedule

Coach Weldon Bynum's high school Eagles will officially open the 1937 football season here next Saturday afternoon. The opening game will be with Bronte.

Although this is not a conference game, it will be an important one, it was stated. It will serve to whip the boys into shape for the coming conference games. This opening game will begin at three o'clock.

Season Tickets

Season tickets, which entitles the holders to attend all five home games for the season, went on sale Tuesday morning. These tickets are selling for $1.50, and it was pointed out that this means a saving of 50 cents if you attend all home games. Regular gate admission will be 40 cents for adults.

Student tickets are also on sale at 50 cents for the five home games, which means a substantial saving.

GODWIN ATTENDING AGENT'S MEETING

County Agent W. G. Godwin left last Sunday for College Station, where he is attending a short course held for county agents.

This short course is continuing through most of this week, and Mr. Godwin is expected to return to his duties here the latter part of this week.

"LEND A HAND"

This year Fire Prevention week will be observed from October 3 to 9. The slogan for the week, featured in posters and news releases issued by the National Board of Fire Underwriters, is "Lend a Hand."

This slogan is particularly apt. For if fire is to be prevented and controlled—and the hundreds of millions of dollars and thousands of lives fire destroys each year, are to be saved—all of us must lend a hand. Fire is largely an individual problem—each one of us, with the exercise of a little effort and care, can easily eliminate the common hazards on our property.

Fire Prevention Week is about a month away—but no one need wait for it. It is a simple matter to put on an individual fire prevention period of your own, starting today. How long has it been since you cleaned out basement and attic—old newspapers, furniture, clothing and other odds and ends that are prolific sources of fire? In a few months maximum demands will be made upon your heating plant—before then, have it inspected by an expert, and if necessary, repair and replace parts. Remember that amateur electrical repairs may be the cause of turning your home into a heap of ash and wreckage, unless properly installed and inspected.

Yes, it's always time to "Lend a Hand" when fire is involved.

"SAFE" DRIVERS CAUSE ACCIDENTS

Ninety per cent of traffic accidents are caused by experienced, supposedly safe drivers, not by the inexperienced motorist, said Ralph Lee, safety expert, at the recent Western Safety Conference. He cited a California survey which showed that 75 per cent of traffic fatalities in that state were chargeable to drivers with an average of eight years experience, who had never had a previous accident.

Finally, he said, before accidents can be prevented, the popular belief that the great bulk of them are caused by a relatively few congenitally reckless or incompetent persons, must be corrected. It is no longer true.

Over-estimating safety factors has turned many a driver who used to be careful, into a dangerous menace on the highways. Where the cars of a few years ago gave you a thrill at 40, the cars of today do 60 and 70 with ease. That makes for comfortable motoring when all goes well—but lack of vibration, and motor smoothness doesn't help when you careen head on into another car at a mile-a-minute clip. And the fact that today's highways are safe, from an engineering standpoint, when compared to the roads of yesterday, doesn't help when you experience a blow-out while you're hitting it up—or speed around a curve to find the road blocked and insufficient room to stop.

It is the average, experienced, "safe" driver who is causing today's accidents. This is the driver who must be reached by law enforcement agencies, and who must be appealed to by safety campaigns that are to get results.

SOYBEANS TAKE LEAD

Production of soybean oil meal in 1936 exceeded the production of linseed oil meal for the first time in history, according to R. C. Ashby, associate chief in livestock marketing, University of Illinois. In his significant findings, he says:

"Production of soybean oil meal in the United States last year was listed as 688,000 tons as compared with 460,082 of linseed oil meal. The amazing increase in soybean oil meal is indicated when last year's production is compared with the previous year of only 218,203 tons. On the other hand linseed oil meal produced in 1935 totaled 401,867 tons."

This university authority also speaks of the remarkable adaptability of soybean oil meal as a livestock feed. "It is used satisfactorily," he says, "with all classes of livestock, including poultry," which explains the increasing demand for this product. Ninety per cent of the soybeans processed now go into livestock feed, whose high merit has been proved repeatedly by experimental station tests.

Mills at key points today have crushing capacities double that so far required. In many instances farmers exchange beans for meal at the processing plants, knowing the dangers of feeding the whole bean.

Few commodities in history are credited with so quickly attaining scientific handling. In the laboratory new products have been able to develop new markets for such products.

GOING RIGHT AHEAD

In spite of severe handicaps caused by increased operating costs and threats of further adverse legislation, the railroads of the United States are going forward courageously in a determination to meet the country's transportation needs.

Last week an announcement which illustrates this fact was made concerning new equipment installed and ordered during the first seven months of this year, representing the largest investment for equipment that has been made during any similar period since 1930.

Included in the additions by class one railroads for the seven months are 41,630 new freight cars installed and 38,089 ordered for future delivery; 198 new steam locomotives and 25 new electric and Diesel locomotives installed, and 283 steam and 29 electric and Diesels ordered.

For the corresponding seven months of 1935 only 2,272 new freight cars and 27 new steam locomotives were placed in service, although that year saw the addition of 99 electric locomotives.

It is encouraging to note that the nation's railroads, as well as and other leaders in our industrial and business life are going right ahead with the installation of increased facilities, even in the face of higher labor costs, increased taxation, and harassment by a multiplicity of governmental regulatory agencies.

Timely Topics

In an article on American weights and measures, Wickes Wamboldt declared several of our prevailing units, including the exact length of an inch, have never been officially established by Congress. Perhaps that accounts for the amazing flexibility of the TVA "yardstick."

An army sergeant instructing recruits at target practice during the recent training camp period gave them this pertinent word of caution: "These bullets will penetrate two inches of wood; so keep your heads down."

After 23 years of scientific breeding, J. W. Wilson of the South Dakota experiment station has succeeded in developing a breed of sheep without tails. His success is due, no doubt, to keeping a definite end in view.

Among the names of persons registered with the Unemployment Compensation Commission of Mississippi are the following odd ones: Pop Eye, Weary Willie, Cat Fish, Spare Rib, Hogs Head, Fan Belt, Night Boy, New Boy, Little Boy and Big Boy.

What is undoubtedly the world's longest row of cotton grows on the farm of M. T. Daniel of Wofforth, Tex. It is planted in a spiral around a small lake in a big field, and is estimated to be 413 miles long.

When Hardin Balthrope of Chicago was ordered to pay his wife $18 a week as alimony, he offered to compromise by giving her his printing shop. He suggested that she could possibly make the business earn that much but admitted he couldn't.

All good things begin with an idea. Improved motor fuels, better motor oils are no exception to that rule. So Humble's continuous improvement policy puts a premium on ideas. First, a technician gets an idea; he and his fellows elaborate it, theorize about it, satisfy themselves it's sound. Then they test it in the laboratory, that graveyard of many ideas which look good on paper. If the idea passes the laboratory test, the supreme test of all awaits it—the open road. The new product, the improved product, goes through a gruelling grind no ordinary driving would ever give it. Then—if it stands up—it's offered to you.

When, therefore, we invite you to test our Humble products in your car, we're confident you'll like them. We have tested them ourselves and we know they're good!

"THE REST OF THE RECORD"
BY JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

Quite a few of the newspapers have carried statements lately to the effect that we didn't need any new taxes. It's hard for me to understand this contention. When the Legislature met in regular session this year I told them that the general fund deficit would be approximately fifteen million dollars on August 31st. It has turned out to be just about that.

The trouble is, as I pointed out in my message to the regular session of the Legislature, that expenditures at that time (last January) exceeded income about two and a half million dollars per year. I specifically stated that I could not recommend increases in appropriations other than a little over a million dollars for the insane asylums and other eleemosynary institutions. In the face of these recommendations the Legislature increased appropriations approximately four million dollars per year and not a single penny of additional revenue was finally provided to take care of either the deficit or the increased appropriations.

In addition to the money necessary to wipe out the deficit and to take care of these increases in appropriations, I recommended that additional moneys be raised for old age assistance. This, too, was not done. I still think we need more money in the old age assistance fund to take care of many worthy cases. In my opinion, the trouble isn't so much with the law. We just need more money in the fund.

Besides we owe $1,627,000.00 on old age assistance warrants issued before the tax laws went into effect. Claude Teer,

Chairman of the Commission, says we need more money for old age assistance. Unless new money is raised before the first of January, we are going to get into a tight and more people will have to be cut off.

Besides all this, the people recently adopted several constitutional amendments. I am sorry they didn't adopt the amendment to authorize the Legislature to pay public officers out of fees or salaries. This would have saved at least half a million dollars a year, but the people have spoken and I'm always willing to abide by the will of the majority.

Two amendments adopted authorized the State to completely cooperate with the Federal Government in its social security program. One authorized aid to the needy blind, and the other to dependent neglected children. As yet I have no exact figures on how much aid to needy blind will cost, but aid to needy children is limited to one and a half million dollars a year for the State's part. In addition to this the people adopted the teachers' retirement amendment last year, and this is estimated to cost over two million dollars a year for the State's part.

Now all this adds up into millions. I'm the last person in the world to want to tax somebody, but when the people speak I think it's the duty of the Legislature and the Governor to carry out their wishes. The only way to raise this money is by taxation. It is painful, but necessary.

The argument is being made that improving business conditions will eliminate the necessity for new taxes. I hope business will continue to improve. Of course, Roger Babson is predicting another depression, but, in event, business will not improve to such an extent that present taxes will take care of an existing deficit of fifteen million dollars, increased appropriations of four or five million dollars per year over one and a half million dollars which the old age assistance fund owes on outstanding warrants, at least two million dollars new money to go in the old age assistance fund, one and a half million dollars for aid to dependent children, and several millions for aid to the blind and the teachers retirement fund.

The Legislature meets on September 27th, at which time I will make my recommendations as to how this money should be raised, and it will be in their hands. I am going to work on this job as hard as I did for repeal of the race track law, and hope you will help me with your moral support.

In view of the fact that all the big interests have unquestionably unloosed most of the recent propaganda against new taxes, and are having messages to that effect sent to members of the Legislature, I think the people had better get busy and let the senators and representatives know their views.

I don't want to call the Legislature in special session and accomplish nothing. I delayed the call until these people could vote on these amendments. Now it would be a great help to the cause of the people as a whole if you would see, or write your representatives and senators and give them your views on the necessity of providing this revenue.

The money can be raised without substantial injury to anyone.

Texas is in a fortunate position as compared with most of the other states. Due to the wisdom of our forefathers in writing certain provisions of the Constitution, we have no great outstanding bonded indebtedness. We do not have an income tax. We do not have a sales tax, a transaction tax, or anything of the sort so common in every state around us. I hope we never have to have these burdensome, or nuisance taxes, but the fact remains that we owe it to ourselves to balance the budget, to adequately provide for old age assistance and to raise money for placing the other constitutional amendments into effect at an early date. Do you agree with me?

MOVE TO ANGELO

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Isaacs moved to San Angelo last week to make their home. Mr. Isaacs is now in charge of the Valley View Service Station, located at the intersection of the Eldorado and Brady highways.

Plans to balance the national budget are getting nowhere fast. The deficit for July amounted to just under 250 million dollars, or more than half as much as the 400 million the President asked the various departments to try to save out of a whole year's appropriations.

To Seek Office

Bob Calvert of Hillsboro, speaker of the house of representatives, said definitely this week that he will announce for the office of attorney general of the state of Texas.

"I regard the office of attorney general as the key position of the state government," Calvert said. "It should be filled by a man, free from entangling alliances, who can serve the interests of the great majority of the people of Texas faithfully and conscientiously."

The man who occupies the office, Calvert said, should not be "a stooge for the major oil companies" or other special interests, dominated by his connections or retailers.

Such a man, Calvert asserted, would be unable to represent the people of the state of Texas honestly when called upon to bring suits against his former clients.

"My experience in a country law office and in the legislature have fitted me for the office of attorney general," Calvert declared. "I know that I can fill the office capably and fairly."

The young speaker graduated from high school at the state orphan's home at Corsicana, then worked his way through the University of Texas law school.

He is serving his third term in the legislature from the 60th district, Hill and Navarro counties.

Calvert said his formal announcement for the office of attorney general will be made at a later date.

It has been rumored that Postmaster General Farley has been offered a big job with an automobile company. If he can sell cars as effectively as he sold the New Deal last year he ought to command a princely salary.

Call Is Issued For Boys To Enroll In CCC Camps

"A call for approximately 11,000 white and 1,200 colored boys to be enrolled into the Civilian Conservation Corps during October has been issued by Adam R. Johnson, Director of the Texas Relief Commission, to the various County Welfare Boards.

"This number far exceeds any former enrollment and will give almost all boys in the State an opportunity to enroll if they are unemployed, 17 to 23 years of age, in need, and whose parents or themselves, due to financial limitations, are not in a position to secure or provide comparable training. Full strength of the Texas quota is 16,000 white and 1,700 colored, and due to discharge of enrollees reaching the age of 24 and / or completion of the maximum enrollment of two years, replacements will be necessary.

"Heretofore, rules did not allow boys other than the groups receiving or eligible to receive public assistance be accepted, but these have now been modified.

Such boys who have no dependents may allow two thirds of their pay to remain on deposit and upon discharge, or completion of their enrollment, receive the full accrued amount. Where there are dependents, an allotment will be made each month direct.

"Over $500,000.00 each month is brought to Texas through these allotment checks to dependents, which materially relieves the burden that would otherwise be carried by the communities."

A Great Revival At Mineral Wells

The pastor has just returned from one of the greatest revivals of his life. We had a wonderful church revival, and had 43 additions to the church. A man 75 years old and his wife, who is 65 years old, were saved, and joined the church.

One of the features of this meeting was the large Booster Band of boys and girls. We had 140 boys and girls in this band, and they went over the city in a big truck and sang and announced the meeting.

Another outstanding feature of the meeting was the large number that found themselves, before each service, in the basement of the church, praying. More than 200 people at a time were present in this prayer revival. It was indeed a prayer revival.

We are back among our own people now, and will preach at both services at the Eldorado church next Sunday. We urge all to come.

COTTON CLASSING ACT WILL AID TEXAS FARMERS IN 1938

College Station.—The drive for improvement in the quality of Texas cotton will be aided in 1938 by the terms of the cotton classing act, E. A. Miller, agronomist of the Texas Extension Service, believes. The act was passed by the present Congress and signed by the President on April 13 of this year.

Designed to correct the "hog round" system of cotton buying, the act requires that the Department of Agriculture, upon request from any group of producers organized to promote the improvement of cotton, determine and make promptly available to the producers the classification of any cotton they produce.

The act, as explained by Miller, also provides that the Department of Agriculture shall collect and publish timely information on the market prices of the various classes of cotton. Information on the current prices of grades and staple lengths of cotton will be posted at gins and other public places in cotton growing communities.

When the services provided by the new act are started, samples will be sent to central offices for classing, and Miller indicated that growers should receive their classing turnout within four days after ginning.

There are now 51 organized one variety communities, involving approximately 3,000 farmers, in the State, according to Miller. He also estimated that some 2,000 Texas 4-H club boys have organized into groups for the production of quality cotton. On the basis of the interpretation of the act, these farmers and club boys will be in a position to take advantage of the services outlined in the cotton classing act.

What's in a Name?

Strange sources furnished some of the names of Texas towns. Amarillo, which is the Spanish word for "yellow," is said to be named for the coloring of the walls of Palo Duro canyon. Three men put names into a hat and drew out the official title of "Aubrey," which was the name of one of their girl friends. The town of Blessing was given that name by John E. Pierce in appreciation of its founding. He wanted to call it "Thank God" but the railroad objected. Sacul and Tesnus are "Lucas" and "Sunset" spelled in reverse, but no one knows who had the backwards idea or why the towns were so named.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS
BY JULIAN CAPERS, JR.

Austin.—Confronted with a growing possibility that the legislature, if called into special session, may stage another "do nothing session, so far as imposition of new and increased taxes are concerned, Gov. Allred this week threw out a hint that he might not call the session in September. He later indicated plainly that it will be called, so that observers here interpreted his statement as an open bid to house members, many of whom want the $10 a day pay, to support his tax program. The governor's appeal to the folks who want more taxes to communicate their wishes to the legislators was not expected to draw any great response. Outside of a few special groups, such as those who want pensions and haven't got them, there are probably few citizens who want any more state taxes on anything—certainly not badly enough to write letters to their legislators to demand more taxes.

wouldn't submit the matter of reducing the biennial appropriations, which the legislature upped $22,000,000 over those of the last biennium, despite the testimony amassed by the senate investigating committee in favor of such a reduction. The committee continued its work thru the week, and its chairman, Tom Holbrook of Galveston, urged Allred to submit the matter of a reduction. Another confusing factor was the apparent plan of the sales tax advocates, in the senate, strengthened by the recruiting of Sen. John Redditt of Lufkin, to drive for a sales tax as the answer to the state's financial prayers. The house has been overwhelmingly against a sales tax, and Allred has declared again he would veto it, but if the senate became entangled in a fight over a sales tax, it might help prevent enactment of any tax legislation at all.

Calvert To Run

Political significance was added to the session's outlook, with the definite announcement of Speaker of the House Bob Calvert of Hillsboro that he will be a candidate for attorney general. This makes the presiding officer in each house an active candidate for the same post, as Lt. Gov. Walter Woodul has been campaigning for months. Calvert was the Allred candidate for speaker, but there are so many Allred adherents running or rumored as candidates for attorney general, that observers here are saying Allred can do nothing but keep "hands off" this race, with so many of his favorites seeking votes.

Governor's Race

Many weeks ago, this column predicted that the governor's race would narrow down to a contest between Railroad Commissioner Ernest Thompson and Atty. Gen. Bill McCraw. That prediction apparently has been fully borne out during the past few weeks, since both men indicated publicly from the same platform at the Brenham barbecue that they will run. Bringing the race out into the open has resulted already in a substantial strengthening already thruout the state of Thompson support, while the McCraw candidacy, which was going at break-neck speed without any visible opposition, is reported here to have slowed visibly with some competition in sight.

Thompson scored a political bulls-eye with his declaration in favor of no new or increased taxes at this time, in which he pointed out his belief that encouragement of industry, whose consequent prosperity would bring greater revenue to the state thru existing levies, if given a chance. That sentiment has apparently won wide approval, both from the business interests who are the objects of taxation, and from a good many ordinary citizens who realize the painful truth—that the consumer pays all taxes in the long run.

Talk of a third term for Allred has completely died out here and the possibility of the governor running again is no longer being given serious consideration by most of the best-informed political dopesters.

Penalty Of Diversion

Good roads advocates who have battled for years in Texas to prevent diversion of the revenues of the state highway department to other purposes than the building of roads, have pointed persistently to the possibility of losing federal roads appropriations, if gasoline tax money were diverted to other purposes. This week the federal bureau of public roads "cracked down" on the state of New Jersey, with holding $250,000 of the state's $1,676,718 federal roads appropriation, because New Jersey legislators diverted gas tax money to other uses. The action was taken under the provisions of the Hayden-Cartwright act, which authorizes such action, and New Jersey is the second state to be penalized, Maryland having suffered a similar cut earlier. The Texas federal roads income totals around $8,000,000 annually, as long as Texas doesn't misuse the funds paid in by motor car owners for road purposes.

Names and News

Chairman R. L. Bobbitt of the highway commission, his wife and son, were reported recovering in a San Antonio hospital from painful injuries suffered when their car overturned after a tire blowout near Laredo. . . . All the politicians seem to believe in early announcements this year, but State Labor Commissioner Nichols of Waxahachie takes the prize for forehandedness, with revelation to his friends that he will run for railroad commissioner, the post held by Lon Smith, in 1940. . . . Politics makes strange bedfellows. For instance: Despite newspaper rumors that he would oppose congressman Lyndon Johnson next July, County Judge Sam Stone of Williamson-co, thinks young Johnson has made a splendid record, and will support him, he told this writer. Judge Stone was one of the group of unsuccessful rivals of Johnson in the special election this year, after the death of Congressman Buchanan. . . . Friends of Joseph Weldon Bailey Jr., opponent of Sen. Tom Connally in 1934, report that Bailey expects to support Connally next time—in 1940—having been completely won over by Connally's opposition to President Roosevelt's supreme court reform plan.

What Texas Grows Will Be Featured On Foods Day, Sept. 19

Growers, Grocers, Bakers, Milkmen, Soft Drink Bottlers, All To Meet For Foodfest At Dallas

The prize products of field and garden, for the first time during Texas' two world fairs at Dallas will be featured on Food Industries Day, Sunday September 19.

On that Sunday the butcher, the baker and all the other makers and marketers of our daily food and drink will hold a national Foodfest, with the Pan American Exposition at Dallas the focal point. Agricultural Agents also are arranging special exhibits.

Three nights before the event, which is expected to draw more than 100,000 visitors to Dallas, rallies will be held by merchants in more than fifty key cities and towns over Texas and the Southwest, to arrange special trains, chartered busses and autocades for the visit to Dallas on Food Industries Day. Bargain rates are in effect.

The bands and entertainment features from the radio programs of some thirty concerns will be presented throughout the day at various exhibits, and will be merged at night in a headliner show in the 46,000-seat Cotton Bowl.

J. L. Kraft will be keynoter of the day, and Henry W. Stanley of the Southwest Chamber of Commerce Trade Extension Department will speak.

Texas restaurant men, who are meeting the same day, will serve a unique dinner to honor guests, with flying waiters coming by airplane with various courses from the Rio Grande valley, the Gulf coast and the far-distant panhandle.

Less Monthly Discomfort

Many women, who formerly suffered from a weak, run-down condition as a result of poor assimilation of food, say they benefited by taking CARDUI, a special medicine for women. They found it helped to increase the appetite and improve digestion, thereby bringing them more strength from their food.

Naturally there is less discomfort at monthly periods when the system has been strengthened and the various functions restored and regulated.

Cardui, praised by thousands of women, is well worth trying. Of course, if not benefited, consult a physician.
