

MEDITATIONS
By The Editor

What astonished this scribe more than we can find words to describe, was the excellent progress being made by the local band students this week.

Taking the liberty to listen in on Bandmaster Gray's older group Tuesday, we heard them getting right along with some complicated selections.

Something about a high school (and grade school) band makes us possess a feeling of pride for the Community.

Although there were not as many instruments in the group as there is evidence of being available, it appears to us that the students are progressing nicely and it is our guess that before long we will be having concerts at ball games, gatherings and possibly concerts that will prove that our repeated contentions in this column wherein we stated that instruments and youthful talents were lying idle and should be given an opportunity to do good, was precisely right.

The band, at football games, will be unable to make a showing of its full capability, since some of its members who play instruments of vital importance are members of the Eagle squad of first stringers, but they will be in there "blowing" at other affairs. George Finley plays the bass horn as well as Coach Sutherland and other squad men hope he will play football this year.

So far, no one will openly guess just what kind of a ball club Eldorado will have this year. The Iraan game this week, there and the game on the local soil the following week will solve some of the doubting.....how will they play?

Boys, we want a winning squad again this year..... lets go!

Lt. Wallis O. Cozzens

Mrs. Mattie Cozzens received a telegraphic communication Monday morning of this week from her son, Lt. Wallis O. Cozzens, stating that he was well and safe, and that he hoped to be home soon.

Lieutenant Cozzens, a bombardier on a Liberator, was reported by the War Department on June 13, as missing in action since May 28 over Belgium.

The Monday communication was the first word Mrs. Cozzens has received from her son since the notice from the War Department.

Lieutenant Cozzens, a graduate of the Eldorado High School, attended Texas Tech at Lubbock before entering the service in March 1942. He had been overseas since March of this year, and had completed 10 missions over enemy territory, prior to his being reported missing in action.

Band Making Good Progress

A great amount of interest is being shown in the school band according to Jack Gray, instructor.

To date, some 44 students including grade school and high school have enrolled for band with several more prospects, Mr. Gray stated.

By mid-term, with a number of weeks behind them, Mr. Gray expects the band to be making a good showing and he is very enthusiastic over the interest shown by both students and parents.

Much Interest At Scout Court Of Honor Here

The greatest interest shown by friends and patrons of scouting here in fifteen years was in evidence Monday evening when some 70 parents, scouts friends and officials attended the barbecue program at the Scout Court of Honor of the Eldorado Boy Scout Troop 18.

Following the barbecue which was served on the courthouse lawn, a very interesting and impressive program was presented in the courtroom with Jerry Pennington, Neighborhood commissioner, as presiding chairman.

The Rev. J. M. Hays gave the invocation followed by a very Flag ceremony with Bill Breedlove as leader, Bill Lewis Humphrey, flag bearer and Fred L. and Henry Speck, Jr., as guards.

W. M. Patterson, Scout chairman, introduced the visitors followed by Scout singing with Dee Jolly as song leader.

Bill Lewis Humphrey gave an interesting review of his experiences at Summer Camp, stressing the fact that more boys should attend these camps.

E. W. Brooks, chairman of the adv. committee, presented the only award made, which was a first class Scout badge to Bill Breedlove which was pinned on him by his mother, Mrs. W. Irl Breedlove.

Amos Shiver, new Scoutmaster gave a short talk followed by an address, "Scouting in Eldorado" by Joe Galbraith, Scout executive of Del Rio. Mr. Galbraith commended officials, the past Scoutmaster, and the new one, in their loyal and untiring efforts to better scouting in Eldorado, and make it a permanent and worthwhile project.

The closing ceremony which was both beautiful and impressive, was in charge of Howard Parker.

Most of the scouts were in full uniform and several Cubs were present.

Paper Drive Nets Near Six Tons; Drive Ends Soon

Late this week the collection of scrap paper brought in to the local salvage depot in the Weatherly Building was standing at near six tons, with a greater part of the weight being in magazines.

The drive is considered very successful, since many pounds of paper had previously been turned in at San Angelo. However, there remains quite a bit of paper in this vicinity that should be turned in within the next few days, since it is thought that shipment will be made from here by the middle of next week should present disposal plans materialize.

Remember, if you have paper to be called for within the city limits, call Amos Shiver or W. M. Patterson, Jr., and they will assist Boy Scouts bringing the paper to the salvage depot.

The Parent-Teacher Association will launch its program for the coming year with a "get acquainted" meeting Tuesday evening September 19 at 8:30 P. M. in the school gymnasium. Open house will be held with members of the faculty as special guests.

Parents, teachers and friends are invited to attend this initial "get-together meeting, and social hour.

CIO National Threat

From The Canyon (Texas) News

If the CIO and other labor organizations stayed within their own boundaries and would work for the benefit of the men with whom they deal, they would serve a great purpose. No one can criticize trade unions when they are properly organized and conducted.

When labor racketeers take over, it is time for the people to become concerned.

Sidney Hillman is the most powerful political figure in the nation today. He plans to enlarge this political circle by taking in large groups, many of whom do not realize that they are paying tribute to unscrupulous labor racketeers.

John L. Lewis gave President Roosevelt a half million dollars of miners' money for his political campaign. Hillman proposes to give Roosevelt two or three millions of CIO money. Hillman makes Lewis look like a cheap piker.

Hillman is more feared than any other labor leader in the nation because he does not hesitate to use his political powers, and to spend money lavishly.

He has two national schemes that may bring millions of members into the CIO:

1. He is attempting to organize the farmers of the nation. Such an organization meeting was held in Amarillo last week. In order to make the scheme look respectable CIO brings in Protestant Ministers, Catholic Priests, Jewish Rabbis, college professors and leaders who are willing to fall under the spell of CIO. Farmers are said to be leaving the orthodox farm organizations, which are run by farmers, in order to join this crew, which is operated by CIO.

2 Hillman is working to secure control of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He is said to have signed up thousands of returning veterans of World War II. The News pointed out several months ago that in spite of the contempt that men under arms held for CIO strikers, that when they are discharged and needed jobs, the labor racketeers would rush to their aid and get them on the union dotted line before they realized what was going on. Hillman is branding the American Legion as the mouthpiece of big business, and urging the returning men to join the VFW.

Where does my bank account fit into the picture?

That question is frequently asked by people who are being pressed financially from all sides. We shall try to clear up several points below:

1 -WAR BONDS. They are an investment, a good one. You should put at least 10 percent of your income into them with the idea of letting the bonds grow to full maturity value in ten years.

2 -Taxes. You must pay them. They are the price of freedom and liberty. It is best to make advance provision.

3 -BANK ACCOUNT. Besides being a place to accumulate taxes and other special purpose funds your account is a reserve-- a fund of available cash for emergencies. Most authorities call this the first step in a sound financial plan.

WHY NOT START A BANK ACCOUNT RIGHT NOW?

Mental Disorders Represent Real Problems Today

Mental disorders today represent a real problem, declares Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, and it is estimated that more than 50 per cent of all hospital beds are filled by persons suffering from mental or nervous diseases.

It thus appears that modern civilization is exacting a terrific toll. High speed living, with its cruel exactions upon nature, is responsible for a large part of the trouble. But improper personal conduct must also shoulder much of the blame. The fact is that nearly 50 per cent of the patients entering hospitals for mental disorders are there because of organic or toxic causes.

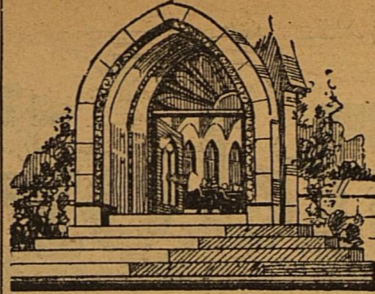

For example, general paralysis is the direct cause of one-fifth of the mental troubles in males entering hospitals and one-tenth of the disorders for all groups. This condition is an organic disease of the brain and in fact is one of the late stages of syphilis. It is a preventable disease. Early and effective treatment if acquired syphilis will block the end results of general paralysis in the insane.

Dr Cox said that excesses and syphilis combined are responsible for approximately one-fifth of the hospitalized insanities. Nevertheless improper living habits continue to impair many brains. Insufficient sleep, neglect of bodily care, and a consistent over forcing of nervous energy are the pitfalls to avoid in this connection.

Nature demands that her fundamental laws be at least reasonably observed. A constant outraging of the physiological economy takes its toll not only in bodies but in minds also. Insanities and lesser nervous disorders could be spectime when corrections can be made to the best advantage.

GOD IS MY CO-PILOT

By COL. ROBERT L. SCOTT
WNU Features.

SYNOPSIS

CHAPTER I: Scott's early experiences with gliders and airplanes. He goes to Ft. McPherson and enlists in the regular army as a private.

CHAPTER II: Scott wins the West Point competitive exam and gets a furlough before reporting. He is graduated as a second lieutenant of infantry and goes to Europe, which he tours on a motorcycle. He sells his motorcycle and arrives at Randolph Field, Texas.

CHAPTER III: Scott makes his first solo flight. Drives 1,300 miles to Georgia over every week-end to see his girl. Scott is now graduated from Kelly Field and has wings pinned on his chest. Ordered to report to Hawaii but wanting to get married he lays his plight before the General and is ordered to report at Mitchell Field, N. Y., instead.

CHAPTER IV: En route to New York Scott is stopped by police who mistake him for a bandit. He carries the mail for Uncle Sam in order to gain more flying time, and gets married.

CHAPTER V: The war edges closer and he is farther than ever from combat duty. He has been told he is too old for combat flying, and after December 7, 1941, he begins writing Generals

CHAPTER VI: Scott solos a Flying Fortress for the first time and makes twenty practice landings. He leaves for India from a Florida point.

CHAPTER VII: Easter Sunday in Africa. They fly along the Arabian coast and land at Karachi, India, covering 12,000 miles in eight days.

CHAPTER VIII: Col. Haynes orders the group to report at a base in Eastern Assam, on the India-Burma border.

CHAPTER IX: Burma is falling into the hands of the Japs. Flying over bombed and burned Chinese towns they land at Schwebo. Scott meets General Stilwell and his party.

CHAPTER X: Scott's group carries refugees out of Burma, heavily overloading the planes. He pays a visit to Gen. Chennault and tells him he is a fighter pilot and not a ferry pilot and is promised the next P-40 that arrives from Africa.

CHAPTER XI: Open season on Japs—the big adventure is near. Scott gets his first Jap—an army bomber on the ground. He burns up some Jap trucks and a fuel dump.

CHAPTER XII: Scott goes on some strafing missions with his "Old Exterminator," as he has now nicknamed his Kittyhawk, and cuts a Jap battalion to bits.

CHAPTER XIII: The AVG are told they are to be inducted into the U. S. army. Scott returns to India and continues his single ship raids on the Japs. He is now known back in the States as "the one man air force."

CHAPTER XIV: Col. Haynes is moved to China to head the bomber command under Gen. Chennault and Scott is left alone as commanding officer of the Ferry Command. Scott is ordered to report to Gen. Chennault in Kuming, China, as commanding officer of the 23rd Fighter Group.

CHAPTER XV: Col. Scott is ordered to proceed to the Kweilin area to take charge of fighter operations.

CHAPTER XVI: He intercepts a flight of Jap planes and downs a bomber. His tank is empty but he succeeds in landing it dry.

CHAPTER XVII: In which Scott tells about his friend, Major "Tex" Hill, to whom he owes his life. Maj. Allison is hit and tries to land his crippled bomber at night.

CHAPTER XVIII: Maj. Allison, who had crashed in the river and had been given up for lost, comes back in a sedan chair carried by admiring Chinese. Chinese coolies and rivermen by means of a method over three thousand years old raise and salvage the sunken P-40.

CHAPTER XIX: The lighter side of life in China. The fight put up by Lt. Dallas Clinger of Wyoming.

CHAPTER XX: Capt. Charlie Sawyer crash-lands and is unable to identify himself. Tribesmen get set to execute him but some new arrival saves him.

CHAPTER XXI: The "Old Exterminator" gets into another fight and one more Jap will never fly again. The Kittyhawk is so badly mauled it is condemned from further use. Col. Scott gets a new P-40E.

CHAPTER XXII: Another "probable" for Scott. Lt. Daniels is wounded and Maj. Bruce Holloway is shot down, but crash-lands in a rice paddy.

CHAPTER XXIII: Col. Scott leaves on his greatest mission to date, with Gen. Haynes in the lead bomber. "Tex" Hill gets a Zero.

CHAPTER XXIV: On the way back from Hongkong Scott sees below him Fort Stanley, British and American prison camp. A large group of prisoners wave at his ship as he goes over, and he experiences his saddest feeling of the war.

CHAPTER XXV: New P-40s begin to arrive steadily. They make a second attack on Hongkong. Jap bombers look for U. S. fields but fail. Scott leads 16 fighters to escort 12 bombers to Canton.

CHAPTER XXVI: The squadron bombs shipping in the East river at Canton and at Whangpoo docks, sinking two freighters loaded with Zeros. Twenty-nine Zeros out of 45 coming up over Canton are shot down.

CHAPTER XXVII: Scott and his fighters run across a Zero flying wild in the sky, its pilot dead. They follow it until it crashes in the hills.

CHAPTER XVIII: Col. Scott shoots 19 of the biggest geese he had ever seen—meat for Christmas dinner—and gets his 12th confirmed enemy ship. They frustrate the December 28th attempted bombing of Yeiching.

(CHAPTER XXIX is final installment)
NOTICE: Due to circumstances beyond our control Chapter 4 of the story failed to arrive and for that reason we will have to make publication of the chapter next week. Mail congestion is probably the cause of delay.

Any man who thinks he's farsighted is a poor judge of distance.

Good Range for Better Stock

Better management of grazing land means better forage for livestock and increased protection of soil on the range and on adjacent cropland, according to the War Food Administration. Under a war emergency these contribute to increased food production.

Range in the 17 Western States covers more than three-quarters of a billion acres, some 40 percent of the total land area of the United States. These uncultivated and unfertilized regions, on which grow native grasses and other forage plants, support about 73 percent of the sheep and goats raised in this country and 53 percent of the beef cattle, plus other livestock. If the range is to continue efficient livestock production, it cannot be grazed beyond the ability of the plants to survive.

Many factors are involved in proper utilization of range land—rotation grazing, natural reseeding through deferred grazing, artificial reseeding by drilling, broadcasting, or harrowing in suitable locations, development of properly spaced, adequate, and dependable water supplies, eradication of destructive plants, proper fencing to facilitate uniform distribution of stock, and water-spreading measures to divert run-off water and prevent erosive action.

Employment of these and other range practices is dependent upon the character of the land and its problems.

Some range-management plans may require only a few practices, while others will need many in order to return the range soil to its original fertility and stability. While natural reseeding is the most practical means of obtaining range recovery, in cases where sufficient remnants of desirable forage plants do not remain, artificial reseeding has been found highly successful. Late autumn is considered the best time for reseeding except on high mountains where summer rains make July or August the favored period. The best conditions for reseeding are ample soil moisture, level or gently sloping topography, deep, fertile soil, and a sparse vegetation cover.

A direct benefit of reseeding is the increased production of palatable forage, due partly to a heavier total yield and partly to the substitution of palatable grasses for weeds and other less valuable plants. Management of reseeded range should not differ greatly from that of native grass ranges, says WFA.

Assistance in carrying out a grazing-land management plan is available to ranchers under the conservation program administered by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency. As an example of results being obtained, 19,378,000 acres of range land were reseeded by deferred grazing in 1942, under this program, compared with only 36,847 acres in 1936 when it began, a fifty-two-fold increase.

New Ruling On 'A' Gasoline Book

More news about the "A" ration book to be issued soon was announced by J. E. Hill, chairman of the local War Price and Rationing Board, who said that the new "A" ration will be for just the same amount as the current basic ration of eight gallons, or approximately 120 miles per month.

Plans are, for the renewal of "A" rations to start on the 18.

Coupons in the new "A" books will be worth four gallons instead of three, the value of the present coupons. Six of these four-gallon coupons will be validated every three months, providing 24 gallons of gasoline in each validity period, instead of the present validation of eight, three-gallon coupons every three months.

All applications for renewal must be accompanied by the back cover of the current "A" book, Mr. Hill said. If an applicant for new "A" rations has thrown away or lost this current "A" book cover, he must prove to the board (1) that he has a car which entitled him to apply for an "A" book; (2) that the car is currently registered and in use; (3) that a new basic "A" ration has not been issued for it, and that no application for a renewal is pending at any board.

Vanishing Jobs

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

ONE DAY in the outskirts of Chicago I witnessed a traffic accident. A delivery car struck one of several children playing in the street and injured him painfully. Playmates scattered in excitement, seeking the boy's parents, a doctor, a policeman. Each child tried to do what he thought needed most to be done. The father, a hairy specimen, was first to arrive.

No sooner had his dark eyes taken in the situation than he began to scold the injured boy. He didn't actually cuff his son but he said some really harsh things for the patient to bear along with his injury. (It turned out to be a broken arm). The unhappy deliveryman took some oral abuse also. The father contributed nothing else. He vented his anger freely with profanity in thick dialect.

Genuine MAYBE some learned Mystery expert on human behavior could have explained that father's actions. A suffering child wept; unknown injuries waited treatment while duly constituted authority did a loud job of attaching blame without investigation. Understanding this might help explain why people, openly committed to the interests of labor, work so effectively making jobs scarce.

Destroying jobs does not help labor. Workers are never so well off as when there are plenty of jobs. An employee's right to quit his job and take a better one makes pay good, also working conditions. Employers who are liberal and considerate of their employees get the best men and head the best organizations. This is as much a part of America's Free Enterprise system as owning property.

Competitive NOT MANY years ago competent workmen often quit their jobs with big corporations to go in business for themselves. They did it, not because they were sure to earn more. In fact they knew they might earn less. They did it for liberty to use their own ideas. They had faith in their own plans to prosper. The element of chance made it genuine fun to operate businesses of their own.

Running your own business is no fun now; more like a headache, and this sad fact is closing the doors of many one-time thriving little enterprises. Three-fourths of all American workers are engaged in small business. If, in the post-war period, small employers are hopeless; if they find no reason to stay in business, see no chance to excel, get no fun out of competition, jobs will be really scarce.

There is no certainty of enough jobs after the war for service men and former war workers in pursuits of peace. There is no assurance in the words of the politician getting tough with crippled industry saying, "Big Business must employ them or support them on WPA." It is like the voice of the benighted father cursing his maimed child. But the right steps will assure plenty of jobs. Next week we will start to outline those steps.

Eldorado Divide Soil Conservation District News

REPORTED BY DISTRICT SUPERVISORS

Local Soil Conservation District Cooperators are to plant clovers with fall sown oats. It is being recognized that we are taking more out of our cultivated fields than is being returned each year for soil and fertility upkeep, states B. E. Moore, member of the local board of Supervisors.

The legumes recommended for trial plantings in this area are Hubam Clover, a white flowering annual, and yellow flowering annual clover. Both of these varieties have been grown successfully during the past few years in this area of Texas.

These clovers may be planted with oats at oat planting time. After the oats have been drilled in as usually done, the drill box is cleaned out and closed to a small opening for the clover seed. The clover is then drilled very shallow not more than 1 or 1 1/2 inches deep over a part of the field where oats have already been drilled in.

Most of the questions arising about how these clovers behave under conditions such as drought, time of planting, freeze resistance, etc. can be answered by comparing it to oats. The requirements for moisture and other factors for successfully growing the clovers are much the same as for oats.

B. E. Moore has agreed to take the checks or money from all farmers who desire this seed and will mail the order Wednesday, September 20. The Hubam clover seed are selling at $20.00 per 100 lbs. delivered to Eldorado plus $1.00 for inoculant material. The yellow Annual Clover is $6.50 per 100 lbs. delivered plus $1.00 for the seed inoculate material. All farmers wanting these seed should see Mr. Moore immediately and place your requests for seed to be ordered Wednesday, September, 20.

Any help towards this sale will be appreciated by the local organization, and the money derived from it will be used to benefit the needs of the public schools.

H. D. Council Met Saturday

Twelve members, one visitor and Miss Virginia Ryan, agent, were present at the meeting of the Schleicher County Home Demonstration Council Saturday afternoon in the office of Miss Ryan.

Miss Ryan gave several helpful hints on the reports of the clubs to be filled out, and urged that these reports be filled out thoroughly at the September meeting. A report from the packages sent to the McCloskey hospital at Temple, was given, and a project from the Field Director of a San Angelo hospital is to be considered.

The exhibit for all the clubs will be held in October and each club will have one thing on display. The Exhibit Committee will meet Saturday, Sept. 16 at 2:30 p. m. at the courthouse.

Herds of War

"Out where the West begins" is where important food for war begins too.

The thundering herds of our western ranges stand for a basic food men eat to fight on, men eat to work on.

When the war cry went out for meat and still more meat, western ranchers, stockmen and farmers responded by raising the greatest number of beef cattle, hogs and sheep in the history of our country.

Put her there, partner! You're doing a great job in that fighting Home on the Range!
