Committee To Investigate Plans For Memorial

A committee was designated by E. W. Brooks, president of the Lions Club to make an investigation on the matter of a War Memorial for Schleicher County Service Men of World War II.

The American Legion is planning to make an investigation into one for that organization. Now the general public has an oppportunity to express themselves on the building of a park for children or some other project, that will be something alive and worthwhile for generations to come, and not be a cold, grey monument to reflect unpleasant memories of a cause that was intended to make our children's children free and

For the third time in the last few days the poem printed below has been brought to our attention. However, it was previously printed in this paper when it arrived in the mails from a national move started some weeks ago.

This time it comes from a pamphlet issued by Sul Ross College, Alpine.

"LIVING MEMORIALS FOR ALL OUR BOYS"

In memory of me, you wouldn't

A dreary stone that would reflect, No thought of joy or living things, Or hope, for which the whole world jellies.

I ask that you go plant a tree To cast a shadow cool, for me. A tree to bless the weary earth, Or any monument of vital worth!

Inhaun ting memory, on marble cold,

I want no story of my valor told. Forlorn and desolate, they stand for years,

Despair they bring, and lonely tears.

Instead, I beg you plon a place, A playground - where children race.

A little lake—a bathing beach, A happy place-in easy reach.

For all the Boys-on sea or land, For all the Flyers-who victory planned. From the Spirit World-We unite our pleas-

For playgrounds -pools - and glorious trees!

No futile piles of stone to mar, The landscape view-both near and far!

Dead monuments are but idle toys-Give living things for our noble boys!"

CLUB WOMEN HELD EXHIBIT OF INTEREST

That club women in Schleicher county have not been idle during the past year, was proven when the Schleicher County Home Demonstration Club held its annual exhibit here Saturday of last week. Hats copied from expensive models and made from felt scraps with veils, pins or bows, chilcren's and adult's garments made from feed sacks, bath sets, chocheted and knitted sweaters, purses, hot dish mats, pillow cases, a blouse made of parachute silk and tied rugs made from scraps were among the many articles displayed by the five county clubs.

The resourcefulness of Victory Gardens was proven by the many attractive and nutrious containers of canned food, including potatoes, beans, and peas of all kinds, greens, squash, pumpkins bacon, ham, chicken, preserves, jams and

In the woodcraft section was included attractive what-nots made from empty spools were displayed. A tailored coat made from black sheep wool manufactured at the local West Texas Woolen Mills, was exhibited by Mrs. L. D. Christian, who although employed at the same mill, finds time to attend the demonstration club and put into practical use the many arts learned as a member of the club, as well as look after her home and family.

Proving what a little dye can do for a faded and stained garment, a dress which had been scorched by fire was washed in soap and water four times, but was still stained. It was later dyed, covering the stains entirely and making it into a wearable garment again.

An interesting feature of the exhibit was a case filled with relics of this war which have been sent home by soldiers from overseas and loaned by citizens of the community. The display included relics from all parts of the world, leather goods and a hassock from North Africa, French, German and Jap money, a German helmet, Australian soldier's hat, shoes from Africa, a pair of wooden Portugese shoes from the Azores Islands, ash trays from Haiti, white coral from the South Sea Islands, shells, beads, bracelets, a crucifex which was worn by a German soldier at St. Lo, silk handkerchiefs, luncheon cloths, knives, swords and a Port Luantay. Many of the articles including purses, bracelets and necklaces were made by the boys themselves.

Included in the exhibit, and attracing much attention and interest was the Purple Heart awarded recently to Pvt. John .S Williams and sent here to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams.

Ladies in charge of the concession at the exhibit report approximately $60.00 was derived from the sale of sandwiches, cake and

Eagle Center Suffers Broken Ankle Monday

Bobby Oglesby, star center for the Eldorado Eagles, suffered a broken ankle bone during football practice Monday afternoon in a tackle pile-up. Oglesby was carried to a San Angelo clinic where the injured ankle was placed in a cast to remain for six weeks.

Proceeds from the occasion will go toward replenishing the library with books.

An invitation is extended to enjoy the funfest.

Sonora Eleven Bow To Eagle Onslaught

What was anticipated to have been one of the best games in many seasons between Sonora and Eldorado last week proved to be a decided one-sided affair Friday afternoon when the Eagles started off with powerhouse plays from the beginning and ran a touchdown over on the Broncs in the third play of the afternoon.

Early in the second half the visitors started a rally and for a time bordered on threatening plays when they began a folly of short passes and perfect intercepting. The threat did not last long, however, and Coach Sutherland ran in everything he had but 'the pep squad to continue running up points and yardage on the Broncs.

Thriller of the afternoon was a 73-yard run by a second-stringer 110-pound John Ochsner, who intercepted a Sonora pass and sprinted out around left end for the run that took the visitors by surprise and they never hauled him down until he was within 4 yards of the goal line. Final score:

Telephone Releases To Be Slower Than Many Anticipate

"All that glitters is not gold" is a familiar proverb which officials of the San Angelo Telephone company are quoting to those who are insisting upon quick delivery of new telephone equipment. The line began to form when people read of an item that several hundred thousand telephones were to be released for civilian use.

"It is true that some telephones are being reelased for civilian use," said C. C. McLaughlin, local manager. "However, it is but a trickle compared to the stream of applications throughout the country. People don't realize that not only were telephone sets for civilian use discontinued, but that both war plants and the armed phone equipment that is stagger-

It's true-most of the help he used to have and some of the products he used to sell have gone off with Bud to help the fight. But, Pop's doing his best. He knows that no matter how old the cars or how worn the tires, doctors, war workers and lots of other essential drivers have to keep going. He figures it's his job to see that they do.

Tetra-ethyl lead, when added to gasoline, raises the octane number of the gasoline and reduces or eliminates motor "ping." But tetraethyl lead has recently become a critical war material . . . so critical that the Petroleum Administration for War has directed all refiners of premium grade fuels to limit their production of such gasoline to one-half the amount produced during the six months prior to June 1944. This reduces drastically the amount of premium gasoline available to civilians.

Also in the interest of conserving war-vital tetra-ethyl lead, P. A. W. has directed that less of it be used in the manufacture of all Regular gasoline. Consequently the octane number of this product has been reduced from 72 to 70.

So, if your Humble Station is temporarily out of Esso Extra, or if Humble Regular does not perform in your car like it did in the past, please remember that tetra-ethyl lead is really at war...just another of those small sacrifices all of us at home are asked to make in the interest of an earlier Victory
