

MEDITATIONS

By The Editor

It is a small world after all. Not too many years ago this scribe was confined to a Texas hospital bed, with verdicts from attending physicians relating we would never recover.

Early on a Sunday morning, while laying in a stupor, caused from agony and narcotic, a man entered our room, and quietly approached our bed with what we shall always remember to be one of the brightest countenances that had ever been our pleasure to see. When he was at the side of the bed he spoke, still smiling, his face radiant with good cheer, saying: "My name is Donath," whereupon we told him our name. "I am a Baptist Missionary to Africa, and am here for a short visit," the minister continued.

It was a cold, crisp December morning, the leaves had fallen from the trees and shrubs on the hospital yard, and outside everything seemed bleak, grey and cold. To be exact it was on the 12th day of December, 1938, and from the previous week until in the latter days of February, 1939, we can hardly recall another incident, and certainly none as vivid as was the visit of Missionary A. C. Donath.

Although having been rocked in a Methodist cradle in infancy and having always attended Methodist services, this man of Baptist faith made a lasting impression upon me. There is no doubt in my mind today but what I can relate, word for word, just what he said to me and the prayer he offered for my recovery. I carried that in my mind from that hospital to another and on for months until following an operation, I was able to again walk and carry on.

"Flowers to the living" should be deeds done by all, and "flowers to me" were words from Rev. A. C. Donath. Next week, he is coming to Eldorado to hold a revival in a local church. It is a far-flung distance from Africa, perhaps a Kalabi village of the Congo to Schleicher county. However, the man is now known as Dr. A. C. Donath, and is pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Angelo, and until just recently we did not know but what he and his family were still serving as missionaries to Africa.

It shall be our pleasure to hear Dr. Donath as often as possible and to welcome him to Eldorado.

Revival To Start At Rudd Sunday

The Reverend F. B. Faust, pastor of the Eldorado Methodist church is to begin a revival at the Rudd church Sunday morning, October 29, with services at 12 o'clock. Dinner will be served on the grounds and an afternoon service at 2:30 p. m.

Lone Star Theatre Building Purchased From T. K. Jones

The Lone Star Theatre Building was sold this week by T. K. Jones of Eldorado to H. F. Donaldson of Serling City.

The building has been under lease for some time to Hicks Hall, of Sonora, who has maintained a theatre under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hext of Eldorado.

It was officially reported here this week that Mr. Donaldson would have possession of the building around January first.

Unconfirmed reports were that the new owner would open another show in the building to replace the present equipment owned by Mr. and Mrs. Hall, who are planning to install another show in Eldorado.

Miss Annie Herbert visited with homefolk in Dublin the past week-end.

Committees Met to Discuss Schleicher County's War II. Memorial Program

Large Representation Present to Discuss Plans, Get Reports

Some thirty persons, representing nine organizations of the community were present at a meeting called by a Lion's club civic committee, to discuss ideas on a Schleicher county war memorial for service men of World War II.

The local American Legion Post was represented and gave their proposal for a memorial in the form of some kind of appropriate erection bearing names of men in services. Others present expressed a desire for a "living" memorial, while others mentioned a park with appropriate markers placed therein.

In fact, it was a splendid representation of the various organizations, and carried evidence that no small amount of enthusiasm is to be shown in the matter in days to come in order that men in the armed forces fighting for freedom and those who have paid the supreme price in our defense, may well be honored.

At the close of the session, enthusiasm in the meeting presided over by Mrs. E. C. Hill as acting chairman, had grown to such proportions that it was suggested and received approval of many that the group invite demonstration clubs of the county to join them in forming a "Schleicher County War Memorial Association," as the entire populace will want a part in the panning of one or more projects to be carried out in recognition of the valliant services our men have and are rendering for the freedom of the world.

OLD-TIME SETTLER FUNERAL RITES TO BE HELD TODAY

Long-time residents of this county were saddened Thursday morning, when word was received here of the death of Christopher Columbus Doty, 87, who passed away at Ozona. He had been making his home with a daughter, Mrs. Stephen Perner of that city.

Among the first settlers in this section, Mr. Doty had had a very colorful life, having at one time been active in county affairs and was a former tax assessor in this county, where he had ranch holdings.

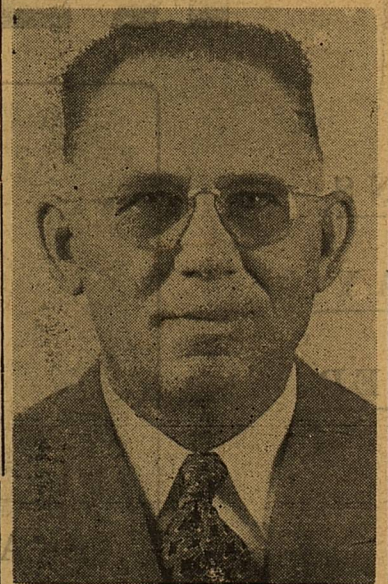

His wife and a daughter preceded him in death.

Funeral services are to be held from the First Baptist church, Friday afternoon (today) at 2:00 o'clock, conducted by a Methodist minister from Ozona.

Interment will follow in the Christoval Cemetery.

Active and honorary pallbearers named Thursday were: E. W. Brooks, W. T. Whitten, C. L. Meador, Jr., E. C. Hill, E. H. Sweatt, S. M. Oglesby, J. T. Bailey, H. T. Finley, John Williams.

MacArthur will be present to deliver a sermon. He arrived here Wednesday and is preaching at the church daily and will continue to do so through Tuesday night, Oct. 31.

The public is cordially invited by the minister and the congregation to attend the services at the church.

Fifth Registrant From County Is War Casualty

PFC. CLARK M. REYNOLDS

Flags were flying at half-mast Tuesday of this week when word was spread that the War Department had notified Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Reynolds of the death of their son, Pfc. Clark M. Reynolds, killed in action in France, October 9.

Private First Class Clark M. Reynolds had been in service since July, 1942, and was serving in the Field Artillery of the United States Army.

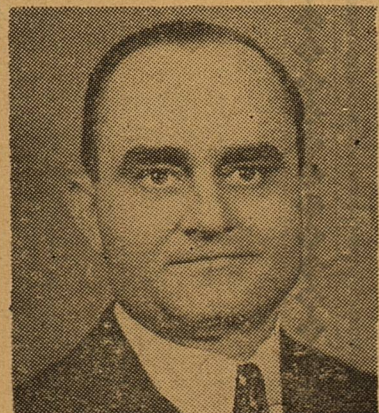

Survivors are his parents, of the Reynolds community, two brothers, Bob of Eldorado, and Billy Jack, Apprentice Seaman, now stationed in California.

Casualties of registrants from this county definitely released to date total five men.

It was recently learned here that Second Lieutenant Orville Kennard Puryer, a registrant from this county and later transferred to the Navasota Selective Service Board had died in service. Details are lacking in the matter. Lieutenant Puryer, before entering the service was employed here by a petroleum company.

Recently memorial services were held here for Sergeant Arthur H. Ashmore, who was not registered in this county, but recognized by many as a local man. His demise brings the total to six casualties from Schleicher county in World War II.

TO HOLD REVIVAL

Shown above is Dr. A. C. Donath, pastor of First Baptist Church, San Angelo, who is to be in Eldorado in a revival at the local Baptist church which begins Sunday, October 29th and continues through Sunday, November 5th.

The local pastor, the Reverend J. M. Hays, has this week been working in the interest of the revival, distributing advertising materials and making personal contacts. An advertisement concerning the revival is to be found elsewhere in this issue of the paper.

War Chest Fund Quota In County Far From Being Raised; Response Is Urged

EAGLES LOST TO MASON ELEVEN LAST WEEK

Despite the fact that the Eldorado Eagles lost to the Mason Punchers Friday night of last week the Eagles turned in a good game of ball against the much heavier and powerful Mason team.

Breaks failed to come for the Eagles throughout the entire four quarters of the tilt, but the locals managed to hold the host team scoreless in the first quarter.

Eldorado was light at center with her regular center, Bobby Oglesby, out with a broken ankle, sustained in practice a few days before the game.

Final score was 19 to 7 in favor of the Punchers, but they had to fight every inch of the way to keep the Eagles from scoring for they were a constant threat, but failed to get the breaks.

The locals journey to Ozona on Saturday afternoon this week for a tussel with the Ozona eleven.

Details Of Cotton Purchase Program Available Soon

Full parity price to farmers for their 1944 crop of upland cotton is assured under the new Commodity Credit Corporation purchase program regardless of whether or not it is under a government loan, Joe B. Edens, Chairman of the Schleicher County AAA Committee, said this week.

The CCC will purchase all upland cotton for which a loan rate schedule has been announced, offered to it up to June 30, 1945. The cotton will be purchased at the following prices: (1944 crop Middling 15/16 inch, basis gross weight flat cotton at Memphis, Tenn.) October, 21.90 cents per pound; November, 21.95; December, 22.00; January, 22.05; February, 22.10; March, 22.15; April, 22.20; May, 22.25, and June, 22.25.

The five-point increase per month has been added to the price as allowance to the farmer for storage and carrying charges.

Other highlights of the purchase program are:

1. Premiums and discounts are the same as those of 1944 loan program.

2. Purchasing agents mostly local banks and warehousemen, will be approved by CCC.

3. Purchasing agents will buy at CCC prices if warehouse receipts and sales agreements are turned over to them within 10 days after issuance. Agent's fee of 50 cents per bale will be paid by CCC.

4. Purchases will be made only from farmers who produced cotton in 1944. Cotton must be stored in CCC-approved warehouses.

5. Farmers with cotton in loan may sell it to CCC by repaying their loan.

The CCC is making these purchases to carry out provisions of legislation enacted by Congress directing the president to take "all lawful action" to assure producers parity prices for their cotton.

Part of Fund Goes To Entertain Men In Armed Forces.

According to W. M. Patterson, chairman of the War Chest Fund, the county is far from reaching its quota of $1,800 for this county, and with only a few more days remaining before the drive closes, he and the committees are asking that local citizens contribute freely and generously to this cause.

It has been previously pointed out, and doubtless there is not a person in Schleicher county who fails to recognize the importance of this fund. If for no other reason the support to entertainment for our servicemen from the fund is well worth the contributions we on the home front might make. The funds, of course, are divided up and go to carry on work of many different kinds. Last week in Eldorado, a man gave an example of how good comes from the fund by illustrating with an incident happening recently in China.

A small lad was found in a gutter almost starved, and suffering from exposure and with sores. He was fed, clothed and given medical attention, and apparently was as happy as a child in his position after having lost his parents could have been. However, he was missed and was not accounted for for several days, causing anxiety and concern to his rescuers, when he again appeared in company with a number of other children suffering as he had previously suffered. Realizing his relief he had gone out and sought other children needing assistance to survive.

Your contribution today might save a war victim's life—it might save a wounded American's life.

Final Rites Held For Father Mrs. J. E. Hill

Funeral services for J. F. Murchison, 73, were held at Odessa, Monday, Oct. 22. Mr. Murchison passed away at the family residence, Saturday, Oct. 21, after an illness of several months.

The deceased was born in Bexar County, Texas, coming to West Texas at an early age. He was married to Miss Lona Wyatt of Sonora, Sept. 25, 1895. The family resided in Schleicher county until 1916 when they moved to Fort Stockton. In 1919, Mr. Murchison and his family moved to Ector county where he had charge of ranch interests.

Survivors include the widow, one son, Major A. R. Murchison of Ballinger, and four daughters, Mrs. Dick Bagley of Corona, N. M.; Mrs. W. A. Brown and Miss Raye Murchison of Odessa, and Mrs. J. E. Hill of this place. Eleven grandchildren also survive.

Those attending the funeral from here included Meses. C. C. West, Mae Dabney, J. L. Neill, Miss Cleone Dabney, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Meador, J. E. Hill and daughters, Misses Sarah and Margaret.

Income On Divide Farms Can Be Increased $200,000

"The income from approximately 46,000 acres of cropland within the Eldorado Divide Soil Conservation District can be increased by as much as $200,000 a year. This can be accomplished by putting into operation a complete program of soil and water conservation." This statement was recently made by J. Forrest Runge, chairman of the Eldorado Divide Soil Conservation District.

Each acre of land must be made to produce the maximum amount of food and fiber needed now for war purposes and that will be needed in the peace that follows. Conservation practices that will make this possible are terracing, contouring, returning a reasonable amount of crop residue to the soil, and turning under a green manure crop occasionally.

Terraces can be constructed by the use of an ordinary farm tractor and one-way plow. It takes from five to seven days, depending upon the size of equipment used, to construct one mile of standard terrace. The yearly increase in crop production of approximately 20 percent would mean an increase in income of $100 or more for each mile of terrace built.

Approximately 165 miles of terraces have been built on 7,000 acres in the last few years on farms co-operating with the Eldorado Divide Soil Conservation District. Some of these are not completed and still others need work on the ends to completely block them in order to hold as much water as possible.

"We receive an average of only 21 inches of rain each year," says Runge, "so let's not waste a drop of it that is humanly possible to hold on the land."

Victor Sauer completed fills on the ends of his terraces last week. A rotary fresno was used for the work.

A terrace system is not complete until the end closures have been properly constructed. Terraces should be built up to the proper size before this work is done as there is danger of topping and breaking.

One hundred pounds of hubam clover were planted last week on the Joe Edens' farm. Several clover plantings are to be made this fall by farmers interested in finding a legume that is suitable to this district.

Despite Help Shortage Youthful Ranch Woman Finishes And Takes Cattle To Show

When a horse fell and injured the knee of her brother, Fred Case, last spring, Miss Henrietta Case, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Case of near Mertzon but in this county determined that she would step into her brother's boots, and continue the finishing of his entry of polled Herefords to the National Hereford Show in Atlanta, Ga., which was held there last week. The Case entry consisted of two bulls and a heifer, Woodrow Mischief 10th, Woodrow Mischief 11th and Miss Woodrow Mischief, respectively. All are sired by Woodrow Mischief 8th, from the Mans Hoggett herd of Mertzon. Miss Case, in a letter to her parents last week, was elated over the way the entry was showing in the Atlanta show, which must have been good because such herds as those owned by Hoggett, Robert Halbert, of Sonora, Jim Gill of Whon, Jamie Brooks of Brady were there to compete with. In a showing of singles class of some 43 animals, Woodrow Mischief 10th placed 14th and Woodrow Mischief 11th placed 11th, yes, that is right the latter is known as the 11th and placed eleventh.

Just how the entry placed in the pair class in which there were 40 pairs showing, was not learned here at press time, but according to the letter from Miss Case, they were showing well and were outstanding in size, color and build.

Again Schleicher county livestock has made an excellent showing, and again it has been proven that just because our men are in the war there is no reason to give up and not carry on. Miss Case may not win the highest awards, this time, but as sure as anything there will be other shows and other opportunities.

She was accompanied to the show by her brother.

In Schleicher county now is a program being carried on by the county agent to have a 4-H Club Stock Show. It seems that if arrangements could be made to have a breeder's display along with this show, much might be learned of the type stock in the county, and how it is produced. And, of course, agricultural products and canned goods should be shown on that
