Open House Sunday for Newlin-Ray Houses

The first two houses completed in the new Newlin-Ray development will be shown to the public Sunday, all day, in a big Open House, which will be staged "on location." In general charge of the opening will be the partners, E. E. Newlin, Jr., of Eldorado, and B. E. Ray, formerly of Uvalde and now also an Eldorado citizen.

The men state that the purpose of the Open House is to show the completed residences to the general public. As they announce in their advertisement on page 8 of this issue of the Success, "lookers," as well as prospective buyers are cordially invited to inspect the houses!

The two houses which take the spotlight in Sunday's showing are alike in floor plan, differing only in exterior finish—one being white with green trim and the other cream with red trim. These houses have four rooms and bath, front porch, a rear entrance-way and cement walks. There are several closets, built-ins and the usual conveniences found in modern new post-war residences.

The third residence, which is nearly completed, is a little larger, and built according to a different floor plan.

All of these houses may be bought by anyone, veteran or non-veteran, cash or terms arranged as desired.

Excellent time has been made in erecting these modern residences. The carpenter work has been in charge of Way King, who was winding up work on the new Jack Shugart house, while ground was being broken and foundations laid for the first two Newlin-Ray houses. Actual construction has been under way about two months. The entire development is taking place on 15 lots which the men bought from the Townsite Company. Leveling of the lots also has been under way while the houses were being built.

Paving now passes the block at the south, a new sewer line serves the neighborhood, and there are the other city conveniences such as water, lights and gas.

Other houses will be started in this development as soon as the first have been sold, state Newlin and Ray, who point out that each house in the project is more valuable by virtue of its location—its neighbors in the block are all attractive residences also!

Sermon Delivered By Visiting Pastor

Dr. Charles Brinkley of Colorado City preached a "trial sermon" at the Presbyterian Church of Eldorado Sunday in response to a congregational request that he meet with the church members Sunday.

After the church services, which were attended by a large crowd, the members and families and guests were served a dinner in the church basement.

Next Sunday, after Sunday school, the Presbyterians will vote on whether to extend a call to Rev. Brinkley to serve as regular pastor here. The church has been without a pastor since Rev. J. A. Carricker left, many weeks ago. It is understood that the salary will be raised as an added inducement.

R. E. A. NEWS

Willard Cook of Megare, Young Co., Texas, has been employed as lineman for Southwest Texas Electric Co-Op. Mr. and Mrs. Cook and their five-year-old son have moved to Eldorado to live, and are at home on the James Williams farm.

Ray Alexander has been added to the list of members receiving REA service. His line was completed last week.

The stringing crew of Taylor Construction Co., arrived Sunday and began stringing wire Monday on the unfinished part of Section A. The Co-Op has 1,500 pounds of wire on hand or enough to finish lines to Ft. McKavett and members close to the line. They hope to have more by Dec. 1st.

WOMAN SUSTAINS INJURY

Mrs. C. C. Robason of Rising Star is confined to a Brownwood hospital where she is receiving treatment for a broken hip which she suffered in a recent fall. Her condition is as well as can be expected. Mrs. Robason is well known here, having resided in Eldorado for a number of years. Mrs. Raymond Dickens is a grand daughter.

RATLIFF BUYS EWES

Jack Ratliff received delivery Monday on 15 head of registered Suffolk ewes. These ewes were bought from Charles Howland of Cambridge, Idaho, one of the outstanding breeders in the United States.

Two More Houses Started By Martins

Roy and C. L. Martin started Tuesday on the foundations of two new houses, to be built on their lots adjoining the 4-room house which they recently completed and sold to Gus Love.

One of the houses will be on a corner lot, and the other will face toward the schoolhouse. The corner house will be built according to the floor plan of the Love house, and the other will be similar, but will have three rooms instead of four. Both houses will be frame, and material is on the ground. It is planned to sell the corner cottage, and reserve the other house for Roy Martin's own use.

Pete Bryant, who has been working in San Angelo, is working on the foundations, and the Martins expect to do the carpenter work themselves.

The Martins may build another house after these two are completed. The lots are located across the street from the new Newlin-Ray development, and the corner house will face the new paving.

Southern Geophysical Brings In New Crew

Beavers & Lodal have sent a crew of seven men to Eldorado, to work here until about January 1 for Southern Geophysical, on a contract job. Party chief is Scott Slaughter. The men have found rooms in private homes.

ATTEND MERTZON FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Burk attended funeral services at Mertzon Sunday for Bob Vinson, who was killed in a collision between the motorcycle he was riding and a car on the Mertzon highway last Friday. Mr. Vinson was a brother of Duwain Vinson, who with his wife resided here while he was stationed in Eldorado with the Goodfellow range squad.

William and Stokie Thorp, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thorp of Mertzon, were also injured in the collision.

George Stanley Finley, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Finley, has been transferred from New Orleans, La., to Pensacola, Fla.

1939 ORDINANCE STOPS SHOOTING OF FIRECRACKERS

The post-war appearance of fire crackers in the business district of Eldorado has caused such widespread complaint that the city is reprinting an old ordinance this week, calling attention to the fact that the shooting of fire crackers is illegal in many instances. The ordinance, passed in 1939, is still in effect, and offenders who violate its terms are subject to arrest.

The fire crackers, which were not on sale during the war because of scarcity of materials, made a big come-back recently, forcing the city to take drastic action.

All who wish to shoot fire crackers are urged to read the ordinance in this issue of the Success, and to comply with its terms if they do not want to run risk of being arrested.

Fireworks are prohibited:

1. Within the fire limits of the city.
2. Within the city limits between midnight and 6:00 a. m.
3. Within 300 yards of hospital, school, or any other public building.
4. Within 300 yards of any place where fireworks are sold.

According to the above law, any person wanting to shoot fireworks will probably have to choose a spot out in a pasture away from town, where he will be within the law.

CITY BOOKS AUDITED

Harold E. Wine of Edwick and Cherry, San Angelo, is here this week making the annual audit of books for the city, the city water works and the local school district. About a week is required for this job. Mrs. Wine is here with her husband.

HERE ON HUNTING TRIP

O. S. Nealy, of Dallas, state engineer working with the telephone system, has been here four days while he and Mgr. C. C. McLaughlin have been hunting in the east part of the county. Mr. Nealy got a buck.

TELEPHONE CREW HERE

A line crew composed of 6 men are here this week, working on telephone lines toward the Bailey Ranch community.

Progress Made By Eldorado On Planned Improvements

Post-war growth of the City of Eldorado—an assured fact in view of the certain agricultural development of Schleicher County, not to mention recent oil play—is receiving the attention of city officials.

The Mayor of Eldorado and the city council have had under consideration a series of proposed projects during the past year, some of which have been completed, with others now moving out of the paper stage into the realm of actuality. Included on their 1946 slate were several outstanding projects on which progress has been made, varying from opening negotiations to the winding-up process. Chief among these are paving, sewer and water extensions, and purchase of the Rio Gas system.

Out of the Mud
Schwope Brothers are engaged in winding up the paving project—and within the next week or two will be ready to move their equipment out to another location. This has been a long-felt need in the city, where many streets have been impassable for days in a rainy season.

In addition to the new paving, which covers 5½ miles of city streets, the city of Eldorado has recently arranged with the company to patch defective places in the old paving, which fronts Frozen Foods, the Presbyterian Church, and Foxworth Galbraith. Other old paving in the city, laid by the highway department, will probably be mended by the state.

Sewer Extensions
Taylor Construction Co., are still many weeks from completing the new sewer lines—and the entire project of extending water lines, putting in some larger mains, and installing fire hydrants, has not yet been started, due to lack of pipe. This project will undoubtedly go on into the spring.

Purchase of Gas System
The city has not received report as yet from Beavers and Lodal, on the recent appraisal of the Rio Gas system. The city employed the firm to make this appraisal with the view to buying the system and operating it as a city-owned utility, and two experts made this survey Monday and Tuesday.

The proposed purchase of this system has been under consideration for months, but the two groups could not arrive on a purchase price. The appraisal, when made, will give the city definite figures on the present value of the plant. The hitch to date has been the fact that the city would have to make improvements in the lines, to place them in first-class operating condition, and this has been the factor in failing to arrive at a price.

The Eldorado City Dads and Mayor Baker are of the opinion that the plant would be a money-maker for the city if the original outlay is not too high.

Property Improved
Individual property owners throughout Eldorado are making improvements on their places, with the coming of city paving past their property. About $18,000 has been spent by home owners for paving, from the center street paving to their own property lines. In addition many have calched their driveways and in other ways added to the attractiveness of their places.

EAGLES CRUSHED BY STOCKTON IN SATURDAY GAME

By Fred L. Speck
The Eldorado Eagles, playing their last game of the season, took a terrible beating at the hands of the Fort Stockton Panthers there last Saturday.

Borton, big, alert and speedy tailback of the Panthers ran and passed his team to victory. He broke loose time and again for long gains. He also was a constant threat with his "bullet" passes.

The Panthers, who kept the main string in the whole game, made the biggest portion of the score in the first half.

Eldorado's lone tally was made when Ochsner broke loose and sped 30 yards for the touchdown.

Congressman Fisher At Lions Meeting

Congressman O. C. Fisher was chief speaker Wednesday noon at the regular meeting of the Lions Club at the Eldo Hotel. He discussed the strike situation, communism, and other subjects in which Washington and the entire nation are interested.

Present also as guests were Ralph Logan, district attorney of San Angelo, REA accountant Walker and Guy Lavendar of San Angelo.

Jo Ed Hill was enrolled as a new member.

LAND DEAL MADE

Carl Stevens has bought a tract of land for $7000 in Orient Heights addition, surveying out about 45 to 46 acres, from Jack Ratliff. The land was bought by Ratliff from Ernest Sweatt last March.

STUDY FIRST AID

First Aid was the topic of discussion when the Boy Scouts met Monday night at the Scout Lodge with Scoutmaster B. F. Blaylock in charge. A period of recreation followed the discussion.

FILLED UP.

The City of Eldorado is chalking up another first—
For the first time in the history of the city, men are having to sleep on the floor in the local hotel lobby.

School Fire Extinguished With Only Slight Damage

Spontaneous combustion caused from oil soaked floors and paper stuffed in a hole, was believed to be the cause of a fire which broke out about 2:45 p. m. Wednesday in the High School building between the ceiling of the 8th grade room and the Junior home room located on the upper floor.

Arthur Mund first discovered smoke pouring from a hole in the upper room where a class in Algebra II was in progress, and the fire alarm was turned in by Fred L. Speck. Students vacated the building in approximately 45 seconds. The Eldorado Volunteer Fire Department answered the call and had the fire out in short order.

A small hole in the floor had evidently been used as a sort of "wastebasket" for many years with one paper taken from it bearing the name of Vance Morgan, and dated 1929. Exact amount of damage was not known Wednesday, but is believed to be light. Smoke caused some damage to desks and floors. All personal property such as books, coats and wraps, was removed from the cloak rooms.

OTHER SANDS TO BE TESTED IN NEW WELLS

Parker Drilling Co., has encountered salt water mixed with a little oil in Cooper Gas No. 2D Page lower zone—and the Tisdale well failed this week to respond to acidizing after casing was set at 2774 feet in the shallower of three Permian zones. Testing in other zones is on the slate for both wells.

If the zone tested at a depth of 5672-95 in Cooper Page 2D failed to give production, perforations are to be sealed and a higher zone—5,605-45 feet—will be tested. Of the three Koy wells which have made good producers, pay was found in the upper zone in the first two, but was not tested in 3A, a quarter mile north of 2D Page, as production resulted from a lower horizon test. The 2D Page is officially listed as Cooper No. 2D—Bert Page, C NW-NE 39 L GH& SA.

Testing of the Tisdale well (in C NW NW 16-A-HE&WT, 3½ miles west-northwest of Page field) has been under way since Sunday.

More Locations

Surface holes for two more wells in the Cooper-Koy-Page field have been dug with spudders. Cooper-Page 3D, located 1320 feet south of Page 2D, now being tested; and Cooper-Koy 4A, 1320 feet east of Cooper-Koy 2A, are both ready for the rotary to take over—Campbell Drilling Co., digging the surface hole for the first and the C & C Drilling Co., of Odessa, the second.

Storage tanks have been placed on location recently near Page 3D. Several other locations have been made, and there are rumors of extensive "hoss trading" among interested parties in this area.

The John Irvin King test, just over the Schleicher County line in Sutton, is down to about 5075 feet in what is thought to be Ellenburger, after passing through a red formation. The Ellenburger will be tested it is understood. Location is SB Roberts, John I King No. 1, SW¼, Sec. 25, block K, GH&SA RR Sur., Sutton.

BRIDGEMANS MOVE HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bridgeman and their 10½ month old daughter, Janice, arrived in Eldorado Sunday from Pocatello, Idaho, and will make their home here. They were met in Amarillo Saturday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Bridgeman. Mrs. Bridgeman is the former Frances Tabor of Pocatello.

SCOUTS SELL CANDY

The second class troop of the Girl Scout organization will sell candy, cookies, pies and cake down town Saturday, Nov. 23 from 1:30 to 5:00 p. m. As there are only five girls in this troop, and their leader, Mrs. Bethel Jeffrey, they will appreciate any donations toward their sale.

Schleicher Over Top On 1946 USO Quota

Schleicher County went over the top on the U. S. O. drive this week with a total of $335.00 turned in by Mrs. E. H. Coulter, chairman, Tuesday. Quota for the county was $320.00.

Much of the credit for a successful drive can be given to Mrs. Coulter, who collected most of the donations herself and worked faithfully toward making it a success.

The USO work will continue through 1947 wherever our troops are stationed, creating for them "a home away from home."

FHA Loans Arranged Schleicher Farmers

Schleicher County farmers who are unable to obtain operating loans from local banks, cooperative lending agencies or other responsible sources in their communities may seek assistance from the Federal government through the recently created Farmers' Home Administration, according to Denny O. Sullivan, Schleicher County supervisor for FHA. The supervisor will be in the Schleicher County court house from 10 a. m. to 12 noon every Wednesday to interview applicants.

FHA combines in one agency the functions formerly carried on by the Farm Security Administration and the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Division of the Farm Credit Administration. Mr. Sullivan said. It assumed responsibility for their programs on November 1.

The new agency's facilities are available only to farmers who are unable to obtain financing at interest rates not exceeding five percent from banks and other lending agencies in their communities. Eligibility of applicants is passed upon by a local committee of Schleicher County farmers, who certify, among other things, that the applicant is not able to obtain credit elsewhere.

New Demonstration Agent May Be Found

A new Demonstration Agent for Schleicher County may be secured by the first of the year, according to Judge C. L. Meador, who states that there is a possibility of getting one by then, according to word received from College Station.

The county has been without an agent since Mrs. Fannie Pittman left almost a year ago, and although the Council has met regularly and club members have made an attempt to keep the clubs going, they have found it impossible to carry out a full-time program without the help of an agent.

Delay in assigning an agent to this county was occasioned by scarcity of qualified applicants for the job.

Tilling with a Hundred Teams of Steel

MORE power on the farm means more food . . . more jobs:

If a farmer had three teams of horses twenty-five years ago he was well equipped. Now, with over two million tractors and thousands of other power producers, most farmers command the equivalent of . . . a HUNDRED TEAMS.

Wise use of their power, which can be packed into a few tons of steel, is enabling U.S. farmers to keep abreast of unprecedented food requirements. It is one of the secrets of national progress.

Steel horsepower does more than produce bigger crops with less labor. It has released, for production of human food, millions of acres once needed to feed horses and mules, and has created thousands of new jobs for town and city people who process and sell the increased harvests:

The benefits of farming with steel are the result of teamwork between farmers and industry. The farmer knows what he needs; industry knows how to supply it at a price he can afford. This teamwork must continue if America is to remain a land of abundance.

Farmers need still more power. The country needs still more food. Uninterrupted industrial production will permit industry to catch up with the pent-up need for more farm power.

Why Bert Won First Prize

Folks weren't surprised when Bert Childers won first prize for his corn at the county fair.

Yet the judges admit it wasn't just because Bert had the finest ears of corn. He knew how to display them: neatly arranged, with the husks cleanly trimmed, and the booth white and spotless.

"Trimnings" sure make a difference no matter what you're offering—as Andy Botkin, keeper of the Garden Tavern, well knows. Andy doesn't just sell good beer. He sells it in a place that's clean and attractive... in nice surroundings that belong with the enjoyment of a wholesome beverage of moderation.

And Andy, of course, is a whole-hearted supporter of "Self Regulation." That's the system by which the Brewers and tavern keepers themselves make sure that taverns selling beer are clean and orderly.

From where I sit, people like Andy also rate a "First prize." Not just for the quality of the product—but for the "trimnings" too.

Need of More REA Service Is Stressed

More electric energy is needed urgently by Texas farmers and other rural consumers receiving service under the Federal rural electrification program, according to reports from managers of the REA-financed rural electric systems of the state.

The economic structure of Texas and the entire southwest is undergoing a complete change and, the co-op managers report; the rural residents of this state are anxious to keep pace with what promises to be a vast new industrial development in this area.

This need for more power has been prompted by two outstanding facts. In the first place, the number of electrified Texas farms has increased from approximately 11,400 to more than 168,000 in the 11 years since the Rural Electrification Administration was established. An even greater factor is the tremendously increased use of electrical farm production equipment on the average electrified farm. REA statistics show that in the last five years the amount of power distributed by the REA-financed co-ops to Texas consumers has increased 4½ times—from 30 million to 135 million kilowatt hours a year—although the number of consumers served by the co-ops only a little more than doubled during that period.

The increase occurred during the war years, when electrical equipment was scarce, and the co-op managers are certain that as more equipment becomes available and new farm production devices are perfected, the consumption of electricity per rural consumer will increase at great speed.

Substantial increase in the state's over-all power supply will be required when the needs of thousands of additional consumers soon to be served by the Texas co-ops are added to the power demands of present rural consumers.

With these potent facts firmly established co-op officials and rural consumers look to the Interior Department's Southwestern Power Administration for relief from what easily could be an acute power shortage within the next few years. The SPA is bending every effort to speed its proposed program which when completed will assure an abundance of low cost power for rural consumers in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, SW Missouri and SE Kansas.

Since early last summer field survey work has been progressing on the project wherein the SPA is to coordinate the power generated at the hydroelectric plants at the Norfolk and Denison dams by means of heavy transmission lines. The power program also includes other multiple-purpose reservoir projects scheduled for construction in the future. Once all the government built dams and their hydroelectric plants have been completed and tied into the proposed power grid system, which probably will connect with the transmission facilities of private utility companies, the Southwestern Power Administration will be in a position to serve adequately any future power demands the co-ops might originate.

Texas coops now have available sufficient REA loan funds to construct facilities that will serve more than 42,000 new rural consumers. Approval of loan fund applications now pending in REA headquarters or in preparation in co-op offices will make possible service to 38,000 more Texas consumers. Eventually the co-ops expect to see service extended on an area coverage basis to virtually all of the 222,400 Texas farms that still lack electricity and to perhaps as many more non-farm rural residents still unserved.

In large part, this program will be carried out by the 74 REA-financed systems already operating in Texas, but new cooperative systems now under construction will make substantial contributions. More than 1,721 Texas farmers will be served by lines now being constructed by 3 new cooperatives: The Robertson Electric Cooperative, Franklin; Rio Grande Electric Cooperative, Brackettsville; and Rita Blanca Electric Cooperative, Dalhart.

The Texas co-ops made a substantial start on their area coverage program by adding more than 24,000 new consumers to their lines during the 1946 fiscal year. Much speedier progress is foreseen as the supply of materials for line construction and farmstead wiring improves.

LET'S HAVE A Heart-to-Heart TALK ABOUT THIS

You believe in life insurance. That's why you are a policyowner. And you believe in your family, too. You want that little girl to grow up in the neighborhood where you've built your home. You want your wife to have that home as long as she wishes to keep it. And if anything should happen to you, you want her to be able to bring your little girl up under the teaching and guidance that only a mother could give her. You don't want your wife to have to leave your child in some day nursery all day long while she works—or looks for work.

That's why you bought your life insurance, isn't it—to take care of them.
Well, let's look at your life insurance. Will it do the things you want it to do? If you have $2,500 of life insurance, it will provide your beneficiary with $50 a month for about four and a half years. Is that enough? Will that assure them of that home—give them food and clothing, and the necessities of life you'd want them to have if you were not here to provide them? Is that enough to give that little girl the start in life you want your daughter to have?

Let's have a heart-to-heart talk about your life insurance today. Helping you to outline a plan of protection to do the real job you want life insurance to do for you is a part of our service, and a request for detailed information will not obligate you.

Band Elects Twirlers

A meeting was called to order by President John Jones to elect new twirlers and a drum majorette. Speeches were made on who would be drum majorette. This started an argument so Mr. Jones decided there would be no more speeches. The band room was in silence except for a few whispers (vote for Tinsy, vote for Joann, vote for Pat) and the scratching of pens and pencils. President Jones and Director Jones counted the votes as everyone waited in suspense, but alas the winners weren't announced and won't be until the banquet Friday night. So we're still in suspense—who, who, will it be?

Mrs. Coleman Teacher of the Week

Mrs. Coleman, the former Miss Lucille Rumsey, hails from near Miles, Texas. She went to school in a small rural school until she was ready to go to high school, and then she went to Miles High. When she graduated from high school, she entered San Angelo Junior College and from there went to North Texas State Teachers College where she graduated. She received a B. S. degree, and her major was Homemaking. In college she belonged to the Ellen H. Richards Club, a club for girls graduating with a Homemaking major. In high school she belonged to the Home Ec club and to the pep squad. "As you can see," Mrs. Coleman states, "I have been interested in Home Economics for quite some time."

Mrs. Coleman first taught in Eola High School, but after one year there, she came here to teach. This is her third year of teaching and she says she likes it very much.

Doubtless everyone knows that Mrs. Coleman was Miss Lucille Rumsey before her marriage on October 18 of this year. Her hobby is collecting cook books, and she says she is interested in sports such as volleyball, baseball and tennis. "And like most everyone else in high school, I am a football fan," Mrs. Coleman laughingly agreed.

Mrs. Coleman has made a very active organization out of the future Homemakers of America, and we hope to continue to have her on the E. H. S. faculty.

District Standing

The Eagles have a 666% rating for their Conference 8-B standing for the football season of 1946. The final results over the district are not yet registered, making it impossible to determine their final place in the conference as yet. The Eagles lost to Big Lake and Ozona on the field; they won over Menard, Rock Springs, Sonora (a forfeit because of ineligible players by that school) and astounded the district by soundly walloping Jun-tion as a sort of grand finale.

Their season standing rests on an even 500%.

The District 21-B Home and Home Round Robin schedule opens officially January 4, with the Eagles journeying to Sonora for their first game.

Plans are under way for the Eagles to attend two other tournaments other than the Eagles' own invitational tournament mentioned elsewhere.

The team to fill the last slot in Eldorado's third annual basketball tournament is Sanderson. Coach Ethridge of that school notified Eldorado school authorities here last Friday.

The teams to compete are as follows: Del Rio, Lake View, Ozona, Sonora, Menard, Junction, and Sanderson, with Eldorado as the host team.

The Case of the Missing Shoes

If last week Jane Mund or Grace Butler suddenly rushed up, inspected your shoes, tried them on, and tried to swipe them, don't let it upset you. You see, one of each of their shoes mysteriously disappeared Monday the 11th, two weeks ago, and they have suspected every one in school of hiding, swiping, or doing away with them in some way. Patsy and Jerry were the most suspected pair, as they are usually guilty of such pranks. They proved their innocence by helping the woe-befallen twosome to retrieve the lost articles. There was no spot in the gymnasium, cubby hole, or dressing rooms that they left untouched. Grace said, "After about two hours of searching, I don't really think that they are guilty." But Jane still thinks that they may be responsible.

If this was a continued story I would let you guess what happened to them. But, as it isn't, I will be forced to tell you. The janitor's son picked them up with some more trash and burned them in the incinerator.

This little story ends very happily because both the girls have new shoes.

Personality of the Week

Marselaine Patterson was chosen Junior personality of the week.

Before coming to Eldorado in 1939, she lived in Brownwood. When she entered Eldo High she participated in volleyball and was chosen a player on the B team; also she was on the main team in baseball in freshman year. In her sophomore year she was class treasurer and class favorite. She was on all-tournament team in volleyball. She and Emily Harper also won Junior girls doubles in tennis. Now, in her Junior year she is treasurer and assistant business manager of the Eagle Scratches.

In 1945 she received an extra curricular award of her class. In her freshman and sophomore years she received scholarships for receiving the highest marks of the girls of her class.

Amateur Hour

Thursday, November 14 the Seniors gave an amateur hour and box supper.

The winners of the amateur hour were: Myrna Loy-Roe (grade school) who gave a negro poem, won first place; Howard and Henry Mittle (Huldale High School band) who played and sang Spanish two-step; they also played an encore, won second place. The Bursleson twins, who won third place, played a piano duet.

Various other high school students who participated were: Katherine Hall who played "Wings of Song" on the violin. Ray Long and Henry Mittle were Amie and Mamie the "two sisters from Boston" with Patsy and Vera Fae for sound effects. Jody Whitten, Charles Jackson, Joe Prince and Billy Whitley were Gerald's old car tires.

The great "Dr. Jones" sang the great opera "The Martins and the Kays" and "It's too late to Say you're Sorry." Also, Miss Koen gave the philosophy of a colored woman whose husband had lost his job. Miss Maxfield and Fred L. Speck enacted "School Days."

Friday, Nov. 15: The big two (we don't know what happened to the other two) Emily Harper and Hodges family spent the week end in New Braunfels on a hunting trip. Incidentally they didn't kill anything.

The Burk family spent Friday and Saturday at Sellman Ranch in Sonora. Mr. Burk killed a 6 point buck.

Miss Maxfield, Jerry Blaylock, Patsy Ballew, and Frankie Thompson spent the week end in Brownwood. We are wondering what really happened to Frankie's sore foot.

Sunday, Nov. 17: Dates to the show were Patsy Wade and Imo Jene Rumpy and Glen McDonald and Lilburn Hazelwood.

Thanksgiving

Years ago, the Pilgrims came to America to seek freedom to worship in their own way. The king of their country insisted they join his church and follow religion as he did. Deciding there must be a better way, they left England on the Mayflower and set forth to the new country.

After many hardships in America the Indians taught them how to plant. When their harvest turned out a success, they rejoiced and had a day of Thanksgiving, in which they thanked God for the harvest.

And now Thanksgiving is a day set apart annually and appointed by the president and by the governors of the various states for giving thanks to God for the favors and mercies of the past year.

In the Revolutionary War, congress frequently recommended days of Thanksgiving and prayers. After the war closed, many of the states adopted the customs of an annual day of Thanksgiving. Since 1864 the last Thursday in November has been proclaimed annually by the president as the day of national Thanksgiving. — Patricia Humphrey.

Maple Tree

Fifteen gallons of sap is a good average production per maple tree. Forty gallons of sap, or the yield from about three trees, is necessary to produce one gallon of syrup. Maple sugar is obtained by further boiling the syrup; one gallon of syrup yields eight pounds of sugar. Sugar maple sap yields twice as much as soft maple.

Thin Fillets

Thin fillets are delicious when rolled in egg and crumbs and then cooked in deep fat. Use the same method as for frying oysters and shrimp. For a special taste treat, try serving a combination of fried oysters and fried shrimp with plenty of good chili sauce.

Smoked Turkey

Smoked turkey and poultry meats have been known for centuries but have only recently been publicized as a delicacy; this is partly because recipes for smoking have either been handed down in certain families, or developed by individuals and held as trade secrets.

Clear Drain Pipe

A strong solution of soda and water poured down the drain pipe of an ice refrigerator together with the use of a long-handled brush is excellent for removing accumulations of dirt and slime.
