Cotton Ginnings Pass 3500 Mark

The Mikeska and Moore gins are still running around the clock, and Mikeska reports 1948 bales and Moor 1565 at 9:00 this morning, making a gin total of 3513 today. Although some growers still report a shortage of pickers, it is indicated that the crop will be gathered, in spite of the fact that a few itinerant families have gone north to whiter fields after completing the first picking in Schleicher fields.

Quarter Horse Study Scheduled Oct. 28-29

County Agent W. G. Godwin has received information this week which should be of interest to every quarter horse enthusiast in Schleicher county. A conference that should make quarter horse history will be held on the campus of Texas A&M on October 28 and 29, Godwin was informed. The meeting is sponsored by the American Quarter Horse Association and the animal husbandry department of A&M. The purpose of the conference is to get the breeders, judges and inspectors of quarter horses together to crystallize their ideas as to what constitutes a good quarter horse. At the present time, there is a great deal of variation in the thinking of this group as to what type the quarter horse should have. It is hoped that the conference will at least set in motion ideas or plans that may help breeders develop the best possible horse for its intended purpose. The first meeting will be held at 1 p. m. on Friday, October 28, with a discussion of what constitutes a good quarter horse. Speakers for the conference will include Dr. J. K. Northway, vice chancellor for agriculture of Texas A&M; Dr. D. B. Spott of Killen; Dr. J. C. Miller, head of the animal husbandry department of A&M; and Dr. A. A. Lenert, of the A&M school of veterinary medicine. The premier showing of the colored movie, "The American Quarter Horse" will feature the Friday night program. Saturday morning there will be a quarter horse judging contest for all those in attendance and a cutting and reining exhibition following.

Plans Shaping Up This Week For Big P. T. A. Carnival

October 29 is the date for the county-wide carnival which the Eldorado PTA will sponsor at the memorial building. Funds raised at this carnival will be used for PTA projects during the year. A turkey and hen shoot will start off the events in the afternoon, and in the evening there will be a race to catch a greased pig. At about dark a parade will start at the city limits and will officially open the evening's carnival by marching down the main street to the community center, the school band furnishing the music. Booths of all kinds will be set up for food sales, country store and bingo, and tables will be provided for 42, bridge, canasta and dominoes. Each grade and high school class has sponsorship of a booth. All classes except juniors and seniors will turn over their profits to the PTA. The patronage of the public is urged for this entertainment.

Check Fruit Trees For Peach Borers, Says County Agent

Peach tree borers have appeared in fruit trees in Schleicher county the last few weeks. Now is the time to bring them under control. Ethylene dichloride emulsion used now will give quick and effective control. Clear the trash away from the base of the tree about three inches from the trunk, and make a small trench. For one year old trees use 1-8 pint; for two year old trees use 1/4 pint, and for trees three years old or older use 1/2 pint per tree. The use of paradichlorobenzene crystals is an old method and has given good results, but wait until the weather cools off before using it. Apply the crystals in a trench about six inches from the trunk of the tree. Do not allow the crystals to come in contact with the body of the tree. Pull the soil over the ring of the chemical in the trench to form a cone about three inches deep and pack soil to hold gas around bark of tree. The soil cone should be removed about six weeks after date of treatment.

ON TO SONORA!

The traditional rivals, Eldorado and Sonora, will meet tomorrow night at the Sonora field for their annual hard-fought game. Schleicher county fans are warned to go early if they expect a seat, and are also reminded that the game time has been changed to 7:30.

Sonora has beat Eldorado for the last four years, and the local team hopes to turn the tables in the Friday night game.

Eldorado will be without the services of Sammie Whitten, who will be unable to play due to a recent injury. It is also doubtful if Bill Jones will be able to play.

Probable starting lineup for the Eagles is: Chester Biggs LE; Jimmy Woodward LT; Spencer LG; Waddell C; T. Biggs RG; John Phillips RT; Sofge RE; Alexander Q; Galbreath LH; Nixon FB; Clark RH.

Sonora has defeated Big Lake, 47-14 and was defeated by Junction 20-13. Eldorado tied Iraan 13-13 and was defeated by Menard, 7-6.

Other games in district 6-B Friday night are Big Lake in Menard, Sanderson in Iraan, and Bronte in Ozona.

The Eldorado band and pep squad will go to the game and will perform at the half.

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. Winslow In Menard Monday

Funeral services were held Monday morning at the Menard Episcopal Church for Mrs. Robert S. Winslow, 71, member of a pioneer West Texas family. Rev. William Sherwood, rector of the church, and Rev. Stanley Hauser of Sonora conducted the services which were followed by interment in the Menard cemetery. Mrs. Winslow died early Sunday morning at a San Angelo hospital as the result of burns suffered in an explosion Friday night at her home. The explosion occurred when she attempted to light a butane gas heater, and is believed to have resulted from a leak in the hose. Pallbearers were Ned Armstrong, W. D. Sorrell, Ed Speck, Harry Harper, Melvin Wilhelm, and Jody Patterson, all of Menard, and Louis Lane and Winston Sheen, both of Fort McKavett.

The daughter of the late Col. and Mrs. William L. Black, the deceased was born Edith Black, Nov. 13, 1877, in St. Louis, Mo. When she was seven years old the family moved to Menard county, where her father established a large ranch. On Oct. 14, 1896, she married Robert S. Winslow, and the couple made their home in Menard county since that time, with the exception of a few years while their children were in high school and college. Mr. Winslow died May 17, 1935.

Mrs. Winslow was a member of the Episcopal church and was very active in the Menard and Fort McKavett Episcopal churches and in the Episcopal organization, Daughters of the King. She was an active member of the Federated Women's Club and was especially interested in the work of the Texas A&M College Extension Service.

Winslow of Menard; two sisters, Mrs. Florence Hall of Eden and Mrs. Camilla Raggio of Fort McKavett; and two brothers, George B. Black of Comanche and Alex Black of Indiana. Also surviving are twenty-one grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Another brother, Charles S. Black of Ozona, died last week. Kerosene, Coal, Wood Cooks Can Use Pressure Saucepans

Many farm and ranch women have put off buying a pressure saucepan because they cook on kerosene, coal or wood stoves and they doubt that the heat is fast enough to do the job.

If this is your problem, Mrs. Bernice Claytor, extension home management specialist of Texas A&M, says that you can test your stove and prove to yourself whether it can do the job.

It depends on how slow the stove is. Pressure saucepans can be used if the stove gives off heat fast enough to boil away two measuring cups of water in 30 minutes, Mrs. Claytor says.

Measure four cups of boiling water into a three-quart saucepan, put on the cover and boil on the fastest heat for 30 minutes. Then measure the amount of water that is left. If there is less than two cups of water, the stove is fast enough for a pressure saucepan.

Pressure saucepans have made their place in the list of kitchen utensils that homemakers would like to have. They are economical to use, save food value, time, work and fuel.

Homemakers have found that it pays to shop around before buying. The pressure saucepan is expensive in comparison to other pots and pans, and you want to be satisfied when you buy. Lift the pan, to be sure it is comfortable to handle, that it will not be too heavy when filled with food, and that the handle can be gripped firmly without danger of tipping.

Check the method of protection against high pressure. Is the gauge or pressure indicator durable? Are parts, such as gaskets and handles, replaceable? Is the sealing device cover simple to operate? Are the parts of it easy to keep clean?

County Hospital at Sterling
The $90,000 hospital bond issue election here last Saturday passed overwhelmingly 228 to 6.

The court plans to go with two different architects (David Castle and John Becker) to look at some small hospitals later this month. They will make the trips at separate times with the different men.

The county is planning to build a $120,000 hospital, using $90,000 of county money and $30,000 of federal money, available under grants for such hospitals. Location has not been set, but talk has the most likely spot picked at the present location of the county barns, south of the highway. The road is paved all the way down to that spot and the county owns the block already. Also, it is far enough from the noise of town and out of the dust area.

Suggested by the engineer from the state department of health was about a 12-bed hospital for such a population as here. Such hospital would cost, equipped, around the total of $120,000, he pointed out. —Sterling City News-Record.

Grain Harvest Begins
The grain harvest is now getting under way in Garza County. It is estimated that 25,000 acres planted in feed in the county will yield an average of 1,000 pounds to the acre. While some acreage will have a greater yield, quite a bit of the land will yield less because of having been badly burned during a few weeks of summer drought. As grain yields go in this part of the state, Garza county's prospects are considered good. —Post Dispatch.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

The conviction of the 11 Communists in New York last week was hailed on Capitol Hill as a body blow to the Communist conspiracy in America. The historic trial condemned the top-notch Communist leaders for engaging in a conspiracy "knowingly and willfully to advocate and teach the duty and necessity of overthrowing and destroying the Government of the United States by force and violence."

The significance of the trial and conviction has far-reaching implications. Above everything, it demonstrates that the Kremlin adherents, who yet pretend loyalty to the U. S., have been put in their place and are not bigger than the law of the land. It will deflate the arrogance of the American Communists and their fellow travelers. And it will help to pin the label of disloyalty on those who hereafter join or associate themselves with the Communist party. It was a great demonstration of the courage and patience of the jurors who heard it all.

Evidence at the trial provided the proof that this is not an American party; that it is a foreign party, inspired by and devoted to the interests of a foreign power hostile to American democracy.

It was the longest trial in American history, taking more than nine months. Former Attorney General Clark estimated the cost to the Government at $1,000,000. Five million words of testimony, covering 21,000 pages, make up the official record of the trial. The Commies claim they spent $250,000 in presenting the defense.

The case will, of course, be appealed to the highest courts. Associate Justice Tom Clark will be disqualified to act as a Judge, the prosecution having been started while he was Attorney General. Perhaps two or three years will elapse before the final verdict is written.

Heretofore the Communist members have claimed they were good Americans, and they and their fellow travelers and apologists ridiculed the idea that they are not loyal citizens. But one of the first lessons taught a young Communist is to lie about being one and to pretend loyalty.

Attorney General Clark last year said there are 75,000 card-carrying Members in the U. S., and J. Edgar Hoover has warned that for every card carrier there are ten who do the Party bidding and follow the Party line. The latter group, he has pointed out, are often even more dangerous than the former. They belittle the danger of Communism and either wittingly or unwittingly do what they can to lull the people into a state of apathy toward the real existence and danger of this foreign political party devoted, as the New York trial showed, to the overthrow of our form of Government.

Now that the real brand has been judicially applied to what the Comies really are and what they are up to in this country, even the fellow travelers will be likely to be less willing to play down the menace of the evil to our democracy.

Mrs. H. T. Finley has been on the sick list.

Red Cross Hospital Workers Help Speed Patient Recovery

The job of rebuilding sick bodies and minds of servicemen in military hospitals and restoring them to useful life is carried forward by a team—doctors, nurses, and Red Cross workers. The Red Cross worker may be a medical or psychiatric social worker, a recreation specialist, or a combination of them assisted by a Gray Lady.

Military physicians and nurses find that restoring the health of a sick man requires much more than medicine and food. The will to live and the will to do things must be revived before medical treatment can get in its beneficial work. That's where the Red Cross enters the picture.

A young soldier, only 23, was injured in an accident at a munitions proving ground. Half of his face and neck were blown away. Painracked and frightened, he had little taste for ordinary hospital recreation. He loved music, though, so the recreation worker brought to his bedside a radio phonograph and then, by mere chance, found she could satisfy a greater longing. The boy revealed that he wanted to write to his young wife those tender, personal things that he hesitated to dictate.

Under federal statute and regulations of the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, the American Red Cross furnishes volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of the armed forces and acts in matter of voluntary relief and as a medium of communication between the people of the United States and their armed forces.

Red Cross hospital workers assist medical officers with welfare and recreation programs for military patients.

A recording machine was brought to his bedside, and he found the words to tell his longings to his distant wife. It wasn't easy because his injury had damaged his vocal chords and articulation was difficult. But after patient practice with the hospital worker, he finally poured out his heart to the record and sent it off to his wife.

To the arthritic, the tubercular, the rheumatic heart sufferer, doomed to long periods of bed care, the recreational services provided by Red Cross ease their burden of restlessness and discouragement. Nearby chapters in cooperation with other local agencies bring into the hospitals young people from the nearby communities, women who serve as hostesses for parties, young people who dance and play games, all reminding the sick soldier that he is not forgotten by those he served.

What Fundamental Baptists Believe

- (1) We believe the whole Bible from Genesis 1:1 to Revelation 22:21, as the verbally inspired and infallible Word of God.
- (2) We believe Jesus Christ was born of Mary the Virgin, and is the Son of God and God the Son.
- (3) We believe that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, the Just for the unjust that He might bring us to God.
- (4) We believe that He rose from the Grave the third day according to the Scriptures.
- (5) We believe that He, only, is the great High Priest, and we need not the intercession of any man, but that Christ ever liveth to make intercession for us.
- (6) We believe that Christ will come again in Person, bodily, visibly, to establish His Kingdom on the earth.
- (7) We believe that in order to be saved, the soul must be born again—"Ye Must Be Born Again."
- (8) We believe that every truly born again soul should declare his faith by the act of baptism (immersion in water) setting forth the Lord's death, burial and resurrection.
- (9) We believe that the church is a body of baptized believers whose only mission is, not to "reform the world," but to preach and teach the Gospel of salvation to the individual soul.

Summing it all up, a Fundamental Baptist is one who believes in a supernatural Bible, which tells of a supernatural Christ, Who had a supernatural birth, Who spoke supernatural words, Who performed supernatural miracles, Who lived a supernatural life, Who died a supernatural death, Who rose in supernatural power, Who ascended in supernatural splendor, Who intercedes as a supernatural priest and Who will one day return in supernatural glory to establish a supernatural kingdom on the earth.

LOOPHOLES in the Law

By WILL WILSON
Past President, Texas District
and County Attorneys Association

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of short case histories, all taken from court records, showing how legal loopholes often enable criminals to escape punishment in Texas. Will Wilson is chairman of a special steering committee of the State Bar, which is working for revision of the antiquated criminal code and code of criminal procedure in order to eliminate these loopholes.)

Fred, accompanied by a friend, was driving an automobile on a public highway. He had a collision with another car in which John and a companion were riding. John's car turned over and John was injured. Fred and his friend did not stop to offer help. Instead, they hurriedly drove away.

Fred was charged with failing to stop and render aid, an offense for which he could be sent to the penitentiary for as much as five years. The indictment against Fred alleged, in legal language, "that the said Fred, on or about the 18th day of April, 1931, was then and there the driver and the person in control of a motor vehicle, to-wit, an automobile upon a public highway, and that the said motor vehicle did then and there strike and cause injury to a person, to-wit John—"

Fred was convicted. But the decision was reversed on appeal. The higher court ruled that, although trial testimony showed Fred's automobile collided with John's automobile, there was no proof that Fred's car actually struck the person of John. Therefore, said the higher court, the charge in the indictment was not proved.

So long as legal loopholes exist, criminals will take advantage of them. That is why the State Bar is working to bring about revision of Texas' criminal statutes. Every time a criminal goes free of punishment, liberty dies a little.

A Sound to Remember

When dialing, be sure you hear a humming sound before making your call. This "hum-m-m" is your signal that the equipment is ready to take your call. If you dial before hearing this signal, you are apt to get a wrong number or no number at all. You'll get better use from your dial telephone if you remember to listen for the dial tone.

48 lb. HEAVIER CALVES TO SELL...than on cake

The big difference was proved by Purina in a ranch feeding test. 50 cows winter-fed on Purina Range Breeder Checkers weaned 48-lb. heavier calves than 50 cows fed on cake. Both groups were fed exactly the same amount. The 48 lbs. difference in weight per calf meant about $9.60 extra income per head.

Here's why Purina Checkers do the job — correct protein percent (not too high) . . . more carbohydrates . . . more calcium and other minerals . . . more vitamin A. See us now for your winter feeding needs.
