First Baptist News

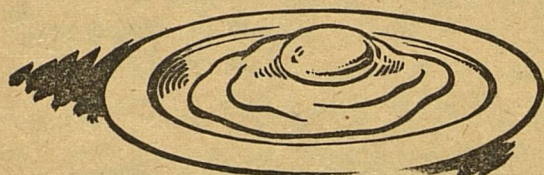

We had several visitors in our services Sunday. We always welcome our visitors. We were especially glad to have with us Roger Jones's mother and his brother. Rev. Jones is a student in Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth, Texas. If you are a stranger in Eldorado and have no church home come worship with us. If you are a Baptist looking for a church home you need not look any further. Pastor will preach Sunday morning on the subject, "A Divine Appointment." On Sunday night he will preach on "Grace For Godliness."

Brother Paul Miller of Humble Station A, who is a licensed minister, supplied the pulpit for Bro. Nelson while he and Mrs. Nelson were on a short vacation trip to the Panhandle of Texas. Bro. W. T. Whitten and Durward Rutland had the two prayer services in the absence of Bro. and Mrs. Nelson. Durward will enter Howard Payne this fall to study for the ministry.

Good attendance at Sunday School Sunday. We had 174. We are 17 below our goal of average attendance for July. We have one more Sunday. We could reach that goal if we desired to badly enough. Working for the Lord is about like any other endeavor, we can do anything we want to for Him.

Extra! Extra! This is the Sunday that someone will be awarded an efficiency banner. Which department will it be? Come to Sunday School and help your department.

LAYENA EGGS Really Taste Swell

Folks agree there's a difference in the taste of eggs. Purina Research shows that hens fed Purina Layena lay fine-flavored eggs. Layena Eggs have firm, yellow yolks and thick whites that stand up, don't run all over the pan.

And the flavor — Ummmmmm! Layena Eggs can't be beat for flavor. Some morning soon, please your husband with breakfast of Layena Eggs.

Look for Layena Eggs—the standard of egg quality the nation over!

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

What's So Funny?

Just finished reading a magazine article that "proves" you and I don't know what's funny.

A bunch of psychologists came to this sad conclusion after telling jokes to college students. Very often they would give out with what they considered a side-splitter—and not get even a chuckle in response. Other times the students would laugh their heads off at stories that weren't considered really funny.

Maybe I'm wrong, but what makes a psychologist such a better judge of humor than the rest of us? If a man gets a kick out of a joke that proves it was funny to him—doesn't it?

From where I sit, when psychologists try to set up a standard for a sense of humor they're getting too serious for me. Stands to reason that different people laugh at different things, just as they have different tastes for most everything. I'm partial to a glass of beer with meals myself—but I promise not to make any "wise-cracks" if you prefer tea.

ANTHRAX CAUSES POSTPONEMENT OF HILL FIELD DAY

Due to advice received from a representative of the State Livestock Sanitary Commission, officials of the Association of Hill Country Soil Conservation Districts have decided to postpone the proposed Range Conservation Field Day and Range Management contest that was planned for July 27th near Round Mountain.

This change was deemed advisable because there might be a possibility of spreading anthrax which has broken out in that part of the country.

The future date of the field day will be announced later. They plan to go ahead with the field day as soon as possible.

Dallas Man To Head Statewide USO Drive

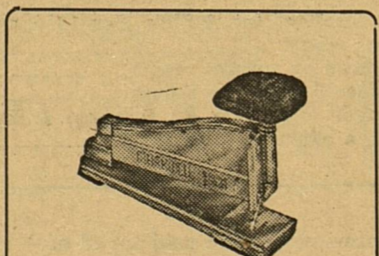

DALLAS—Ben Wooten, Dallas banker, was recently named campaign chairman of the forthcoming $700,000 fund appeal for the USO in Texas.

Selection of Wooten to head the state-wide campaign was announced by Attorney General Price Daniel, chairman of the Texas United Defense Fund Committee.

"Each county has a vital interest in maintaining home-ties with its young men and women in military service," Wooten said, "and each will be asked to assume its proportionate share of the USO budget to assure that morale in the Armed Forces is maintained on a high level."

Local campaigns throughout the state will coincide with the regular Community Chest campaigns during October and November.

"Regardless of what happens in Korea, as long as Russia continues the cold war and millions of our youths are engaged in the defense of our freedom, there will be a need for the familiar home-away-from-home services of the USO," Wooten said.

REA OFFICIALS IN ATTENDANCE AT DALLAS MEET

In attendance at the annual meeting of the Texas Power Reserve meeting in Dallas from Thursday morning to Friday noon were Don McCormick, manager of the Southwest Texas Electric Co-op, Ford Oglesby, president of the Board of Directors and voting delegate; Joe Eden, director, and Mrs. Oglesby and Mrs. Edens.

The 77 co-ops in Texas are members of the organization, and of these, 70 sent representatives to the meeting.

The sessions were held on the Peacock Terrace of the Baker Hotel in Dallas. Main speakers were Claude Wickard, REA administrator, and Robert S. Allen, Washington correspondent. Most of the rest of the time was taken up with routine reports—figures for the past year's business and organization in the co-ops of Texas. The ladies joined the men at the banquet Thursday evening in the Crystal Dining Room of the hotel.

Intermediate Camp Opens At Kerrville; Shilling In Charge

The third intermediate Adventure Camp will convene Monday, July 30, at Methodist Camp Mt. Wesley, at Kerrville. A number of workers and young people from Eldorado will attend, joining representatives from the San Angelo and Corpus Christi districts.

A large corps of workers has been arranged for from the two districts. Rev. Roy Shilling of Eldorado is dean of the camp. Rev. Roy Neeley, pastor of the Big Lake church, will be dean of men, while Mrs. Roy Shilling will again serve as dean of women. Mrs. Lawrence Steen will serve as assistant dean of women and counselor.

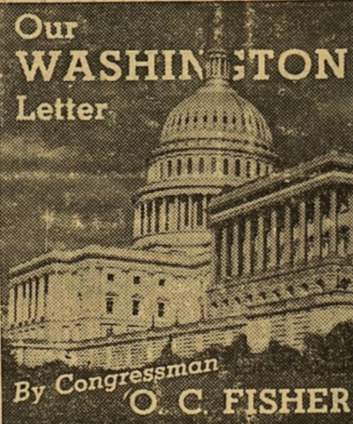

Other leaders will include Rev. Grady Peters of San Angelo, Rev. Ben Bohmfelk, San Angelo; Rev. J. H. Wellman of Menard, Rev. E. W. Jordan of Art, Rev. Leonard Garrett of Corpus Christi, Mrs. O. L. Ryan of Corpus Christi, Rev. Wesley Schultz of Palacios, Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wiemer of Sterling City; Rev. Collin Peterson of Rockport.

Miss Lilla Jean Ellington, Crystal City; Rev. and Mrs. Roy Stearns of Kerrville.

A complete list of workers at this time is not available. The camp is in session July 30 to August 4.

Dale West is in Sonora for a few days' visit with relatives.

The Lum Burks' daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim McWhirter and children Dana and Cathie, left for their home at Miami, Florida, after spending four weeks with home folks here.

BREAKING modern records for consecutive roll calls, the House last week passed a badly mixed-up Defense Production Act. The action came long past midnight on Friday after 12 consecutive votes on amendments. The 13th record vote was for final passage.

The House had been debating the measure for most of three weeks. It now goes to a conference committee where Senate and House differences are compromised and a final draft of the bill is written.

I joined with 8 other Texas members in voting against the bill on final passage after our efforts to send it back to committee for needed corrections and improvements was defeated. Actually, in the form in which it was finally passed the measure appeared to many of us as a piece of political hypocrisy. Sponsors of the legislation successfully fought off our attempt to freeze all prices and wages for a period of four months. This was designed to get away from political controls and test the effectiveness of real legislation, with Congress spelling it out, to curb inflationary forces that are driving up living costs.

During the debate on the control act, more than 100 amendments were offered. Here are a few of the actions taken:

1. The initial rollback on cattle, averaging 10%, was approved. The two additional 4 1/2% rollbacks projected for August 1 and October 1 were cancelled and prohibited. Actually, the 10% rollback amounts to 18% on most Texas cattle, since range cattle are generally graded as "commercial" and as to what grade the initial order applied a rollback of 18%. I voted against the additional rollbacks and for cancellation of the initial one.

On the effect of the cattle rollback on production and particularly on feeding (which accounts for one-third of the beef that goes into butcher shops) it is of interest to note that the Department of Agriculture has just announced that there are presently 9% fewer cattle on feed in Corn Belt feedlots than was true a year ago. This means consumers will face a shortage of corn-fed beef in the amount of 117 million pounds during the Fall marketing season. And that means more inflationary pressure, higher consumer prices, possible more black markets.

The Department points out that most of the drop in cattle numbers took place in the three months since March following the rollback order. Before that the number was increasing each month. It is obvious that many feeders reduced their operations and many quit because of the uncertainty of profits and the possibility of heavy losses, there being no rollbacks ordered on costs of production.

2. I voted for an amendment by Rep. Poage which would have prohibited increased manufacturing and other costs from being forced back on the original producer of agricultural products. The amendment was defeated.

3. An amendment was voted down which would have limited the Wage Stabilization Board to wage policy-making. At present that Board, in addition to policy-making, acts on thousands of requests for rounds of wage increases, and the public members of the Board are very much in the minority. This arrangement has the effect of by-passing the Taft-Hartley Act and its successful conciliation service. As presently operated, that Board has been admittedly inflationary in its actions and it is feared that the policy may lead to more and more inflation in the spiral of wages and living costs, with the unorganized workers and those with fixed incomes being hurt the worst. I voted for this attempt to limit the Board to the function intended by law—that is, as a policy-making medium on the subject of wage increases in the overall stabilization program.

4. The House adopted an amendment, sponsored by the House Committee on Agriculture, which prohibits slaughtering quotas for producers of meat. The OPS has limited butchers to as little as 85% of what they handled a year ago, and this has interfered with the normal supply and flow of meat for the benefit of consumers. I voted for this amendment.

5. An amendment was adopted, for which I voted, which restricts the authority of the President, without the consent of Congress, in the acquisition of real estate for defense production purposes. There has been an inclination in recent years for Congress to delegate too much of its authority and responsibility to the President and to bureaus and agencies.

6. The House also adopted an amendment to the bill prohibiting the licensing authority of businesses, designed to give a club to the head of OPS for use over the heads of business men. In voting against such authority, I felt that too much leeway would be granted to Mr. DiSalle to harass businessmen. We have courthouses to decide the rights of citizens in the pursuance of their business activities and I fear that too much control over them by a government agency in Washington would be dangerous. This proposal would give the OPS power of life and death over businessmen everywhere.

Pump Handle Pete Sez:

A Jensen makes you boss

There's nothin' like a weddin' To make a feller learn, At first he thinks she's his'n But later finds he's her'n.

That little verse reminds me of those fellows who put a creaky ole windmill on their water well. They think it's something fine—and free. But then one day comes the bad news—no wind, no water.

But with a Jensen Jack on that well, things are entirely different. You start it and stop when you want to. You're the boss, strictly! In other words, "she's your'n." And you never have to worry, 'cause there's always plenty of water.

Jensens are cheap, too. Check on 'em today. Come in or write a card or letter.

NEWPORTS DRIVE 4,000 MILES ON VACATION TRIP

Four thousand miles in three weeks is the report of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Newport, who returned Friday from a vacation tour of north-eastern and southern states. Accompanying them was Mrs. Newport's father, Ira Knight of Commerce.

One stop which they considered important was at Mansfield, Ohio, which they had visited under most unpleasant circumstances three years ago. They had been on a similar trip when a transport truck telescoped in their path, causing them to run into it, completely demolishing their new Buick, and badly injuring Mr. Knight, who was hospitalized with broken hip and many other injuries. On that trip they had stayed there five weeks before they could return home.

They made friends whom they wanted to see again — and Mr. Knight wanted to visit the hospital and see his old doctors. For that reason they returned to Mansfield this summer, and report that they thoroughly enjoyed this second visit.

They spent the Fourth at Cedar Point, on Lake Erie, and took an excursion boat out on the lake. They then went south through Kentucky and Tennessee, spending two days in the Smoky Mountains and on the Indian reservation.

They drove through Mississippi on their way home, swinging north into Oklahoma to spend the last week of the three weeks with Mr. Newport's mother, Mrs. Rose Newport, at Fletcher, Okla.

They missed the Rungees by a couple of days, but drove through part of the same country the Rungees covered in the Lookout Mountain and Chattanooga district.

They report no car trouble of any kind and a most pleasant trip, with cool weather much of the way, especially in the mountainous regions.

Mr. Newport is pumper on the Baugh well and Mrs. Newport is an elementary teacher in the local school system.

Clarence Jessup of Sanderson visited Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. Ovid Wade and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boyer, and during the weekend took his wife home from a San Angelo hospital.

Bernard Carr of Eldorado and Aris Carr of San Angelo drove to Evant and brought their mother, Mrs. J. C. Carr to San Angelo for a visit.

Mrs. Burl White of Baytown visited recently with her sister, Mrs. W. J. Humphrey.

Mimi McAngus, Montgomery Ward employee, and Peggy McAngus, who works at Shannon Hospital, San Angelo, spent the day Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross McAngus.

IN GOLF TOURNAMENT

Horace Linthicum and H. T. Finley joined Lefty Reynolds in Brady during the weekend, and all played golf in the tournament there. Mrs. Linthicum and Mrs. Finley also went to Brady with them.

Here to stay with the Linthicum girls at the ranch during their parents' absence was Mrs. Linthicum's mother, Mrs. G. E. Barry of Cisco; she received a phone call Sunday from friends, and left later to join the three Dallas friends on a trip to Nassau.

Glenn Parkers Back From Trip Northwest

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Parker covered over 2,000 miles on a vacation trip through Colorado last week. Driving through via Amarillo, they stopped first at Denver to see the sights in that locality.

They saw Pike's Peak, the Garden of the Gods, Seven Falls; the Indian Village at Taos; the colorful country around Santa Fe, returning home with a stop at Carlsbad Caverns.

At Colorado Springs they were especially interested in visiting the Will Rogers Shrine, built by a friend of the late comedian—it is all of granite, with cast iron doors—the whole made more effective by use of chimes and other musical effects suitable to the locality.

They also visited the state capitol, constructed of marble from mines of the state; there they went through the various rooms with a guide who gave them interesting information about everything they saw. They found Eastern Colorado to be much less progressive in appearance, with telephones very scarce, and houses far apart in this desolate part of the state.

At least once they thought of Eldorado—when they called back to see how their young son David, who remained here with his grandmother, Mrs. W. T. Huber, was getting along. They report, as vacationers often do, that they were glad they took the trip and were very glad to get back home.

Munds and Ratliffs Hosts At Fish Fry

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Mund and Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Ratliff were hosts at a fish fry in the Ratliff yard Monday night.

Present, in addition to the Munds and Ratliffs, were Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Holcomb, Rev. and Mrs. Clifford Nelson, Rev. and Mrs. Charles G. Bruce, and son Robert, and guest, Mr. and Mrs. John Stigler and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Will Whitten, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Mittel and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Page and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Muller Christian and son, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Deal, Fay McAlpine, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Baker, and Buddy, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mace and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Steen, Mrs. C. C. McLaughlin, and Mary Lillian Ellington of Crystal City.

MRS. HENRY MUND PARTY HONOREE ON HER BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Henry Mund was honoree at a surprise birthday party at her home Saturday evening. All of her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren were present for the occasion.

Children and families attending were: C. M. Mund of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mund, Fredericksburg, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Mund, Mrs. Frances Mund; grandchildren and families: Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Mund, and Jeanie, Marsha and Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Yates and Gwen and Ronnie, Mrs. Orval Edmiston and Bryan, Phil, Joe and Chris, Jane, Jack and Becky Mund and Charles Mund.

Others there were Carline Peoples, Royce Regeon and Blanche Taylor of Sonora and Mrs. C. C. West.

Surprise Birthday Party For Mrs. Huber

Mrs. W. T. Huber was honoree at a surprise birthday party at her home Thursday night, the guests bringing a decorated birthday cake, and ice cream for refreshments, and several pieces of her crystal for a birthday gift.

Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Haley, Mrs. Ruth Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer West, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Parker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis McCormick and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes.

Mrs. Albert McGinnes received word Sunday that her sister, Mrs. Joe Poynter of Detroit, was critically ill with polio in a Detroit hospital. Mrs. Poynter, who is 21 years old, will be remembered here as the former Iris Brooks, who stayed with the McGinneses, and worked for awhile as cashier at the Red and White in Eldorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Koshak and Mr. and Mrs. Herin Ramsey of San Angelo were visitors in the Ramsey homes in Eldorado recently.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Parker have had as a guest since yesterday the former's sister, Effie Parker, of San Antonio, New Mexico.

RECIPE OF WEEK

Spaghetti De Luxe
2 cups spaghetti
1 tablespoon butter
1 onion, finely cut

Sandra Holcomb was met in Dallas today by her father, Dr. M. G. Holcomb, and the two made the trip back by plane. Sandy had been visiting in Vian, Okla., with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sanders and Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Holcomb, then went to Tulsa to visit an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson, and from there she went by plane to Dallas alone.

Returning home Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lindholm of George West, who had been visiting since Saturday with Mrs. Lindholm's sister, Mrs. Claude Doyle and her family on the Edwin Jackson Ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Faught girls joined them Sunday, and invited them all to their home for an ice cream supper Sunday evening.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Gay Copeland have as guests their cousins, Barbara and Ronnie Hines of Amarillo, who are here for the week.

A. W. Keys spent from Thursday to Saturday at Fredericksburg, where he showed three rams in the sheep show. Another from here taking in that show was Ira Locklear.

Mrs. George S. Robinson and children of Ballinger returned home Monday after visiting her mother, Mrs. Ruby Damron. Will Doyle accompanied the Robinsons and Mrs. Damron to Lampasas Saturday, and Mrs. Doyle, who with her brother H. Hutcheon, had been visiting there the preceding week, accompanied them home. Mr. Hutcheon went on to Snyder, from where he will go to Houston to meet his family, and all will return to their home in California in mid-August.

Mrs. D. E. DeLong and granddaughter, Myrta Bob Harper Harper, have returned from a two-weeks' visit in Falfurrias with Mr. and Mrs. (Emily Ann Harper) Homer Wolfe. Mrs. DeLong went on over to Freer to spend a weekend with a cousin, H. M. Smith. She and Myrta Bob met Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer West and Dale and others at Buchanan Dam, where they spent the weekend, all returning home Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker and children and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Post, new Eldorado residents, spent the weekend at Menard with relatives.

Mary Hoover, airline hostess, spent from Wednesday to Saturday morning of last week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Menzies of Menard, who lease the C B Ranch near Ft. McKavett, brought all of their family out Sunday for a picnic at the spring. Normal flow of the spring has been resumed after workmen had cleaned it out recently.

Lift Up Your Heart

Home Life
Home life! Is there a danger of this becoming a misnomer? It isn't very encouraging sometimes as we see the absolute lack of home life in our houses today. When have all your family had a night at home last? Does that question startle you? When is last time you had a family picnic? Is there really any home life in the buildings in which we live today?

There have been various things tried to alleviate this condition, but we failed in not working at the task of keeping this condition from developing. Somewhere along the line we quit growing together as a family. The idea grew that, in some circumstances, each daughter must have a room, a radio, and privacy all her own. Each son must have the same seclusion. Then if we have no right into their privacy of home, we have no right into the privacy of their lives.

The church has made, on several occasions, a feeble attempt to overcome this condition of lack of home life. We would not be fair in saying they failed, but we must be honest in saying they have been far from successful. There are legions of excuses of why we do and cannot have home life. The automobile, the theater, complex social life, clubs, fraternities, church affairs, but aren't we hiding behind a smoke screen? We have no scruples in sacrificing our attendance to any of the above if we want to do something more. Lodge, church, social obligations can certainly wait if we have other desires. So it really is a question of whether we think home life is worth planning, working, and sacrificing for. Will we get values in return that far exceed the effort put forth? To those who think yes they are reclaiming the home life of their family. To those who think no, the home life is dying. It is your home. What is it worth to you?

To Continue Drive On Farm Child Labor During School Hours

When the school bell rings this fall, Federal officials are going to be making extra efforts to see that employment does not interfere with education.

Employment of children under 16 years of age in agriculture during school hours is unlawful under the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act. William J. Rogers, Regional Director of the Wage-Hour and Public Contracts Divisions of the U. S. Department of Labor in Dallas, says his staff plans to enforce the law this fall as it did last year. His region includes Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, and New Mexico.

He pointed out today the law applies directly to farmers whose crops or products, either directly or indirectly, go into interstate or foreign commerce. He illustrated the matter with the case of a farmer who sends his product outside the state or delivers his product to a gin, processor, canner, or dealer who will send it outside the state—either in its original form or as part of another product.

The law does not apply to a farmer's own children working on their parents' farm, he said. But if farmers hire other under-age children during school hours, the farmers themselves are responsible, he declared.

head space, seal and sharp freeze immediately.

For the syrup pack, make a syrup of three cups sugar and four cups water. Add one-half teaspoon powdered ascorbic acid to each quart of syrup. Place peach halves or slices in container, add syrup to over. Use a piece of wadded wax paper to keep the fruit under the syrup, leave three-fourths inch head space, seal and sharp freeze immediately.

The specialist says peaches have better quality when packed in syrup or with sugar.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Hight and children have had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Pool and children of London, who were returning home after a vacation trip to Big Bend Park.

A Pecos uncle, Jim Estes, is entertaining Rutha Dee and Elton Harris, children of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Harris. The Estes will bring the children half way home Sunday, and the Harrises will meet them at some designated place.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. T. F. Green recently were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Coleman and children of Junction and Glenn, Odell and Tommy Green.

Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Doty and son and daughter spent Sunday at Juno with Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Sutton who live on a ranch there.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phelps and children visited Sunday in Menard with friends, Mr. and Mrs. George Macklemore. The young women have been friends since before their marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sauer spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sauer and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gunstead. William is now county supervisor of the Farm Homes Administration at Big Spring, and he and Mrs. Sauer moved Saturday from Colorado City to an apartment at 2005 Runnels, in Big Spring.

Mrs. Billy Whitley, and infant son William Michael, born July 16, returned home from San Angelo Thursday, and the latter is shaking hands with friends at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wyndell Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Graves spent the weekend in Midland with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bradley.

Mrs. J. H. Mace and daughter Iretta Faye, accompanied by Betty Sue Williams, went to Lubbock Friday, to make arrangements for Iretta Fae to enter college as a Freshman there this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Griffin of Midland and Mr. and Mrs. James Bracken and children of San Antonio were weekend guests of their parents, the Skeet Griffins. Mrs.

Bracken called back from San Antonio Monday to tell her parents that they will move back here. Mr. Bracken has been doing painting since February at Kelly Field, San Antonio.

Mrs. C. F. Griffith returned Sunday night from Balmorra, where she visited a sister whose husband has been ill. This couple, Mr. and Mrs. A. George, brought her to Eldorado, left their eight-year-old son Gail Richard to stay for a while, and went on to Temple where Mr. George will have a medical check-up.

Ralph Fowler, who has had major surgery in San Angelo, is back home after a 17-day stay in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hoelscher and baby of Norton spent the weekend with Mrs. Hoelscher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gaussemeier. Marvin has as a guest this week a friend, Billy Droll, of Eola.

Back home after a three weeks' vacation are Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Dewey, who spent a week in Seminole with Mrs. Dewey's parents, another week in Kerrville with her sister and family and a third week with friends near Ozona.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Davis left Sunday afternoon for Junction, to spend a week's vacation with relatives.

Save Ripe Peaches In Your Freezer

COLLEGE STATION—Use your home freezer to save some of the luscious red-ripe peaches that are plentiful this season. It's the wise thing to do, advises Louise Mason, Foods and Nutrition Specialist for the Extension Service of Texas A & M College.

You can use either the dry sugar method of packing the halved or sliced peaches, or freeze them with a sugar syrup. If you need to preserve them for the diet of a diabetic, you may just use water without sugar.

But first, select firm ripe peaches which are at the stage for good eating. Any green color on the peaches will indicate they are not ripe enough for freezing.

Then, peel the peaches. The specialist advises this rather than dipping in boiling water as this tends to soften the outer layer of the peaches.

For a dry sugar pack, add two-thirds cup of sugar to each quart of prepared fruit and mix well. Keep the fruit from turning dark by sprinkling ascorbic acid dissolved in water over them before you add sugar. One-fourth teaspoon of ascorbic acid in one-fourth cup of cold water will be sufficient for each quart of fruit. Pack into containers, leave three-fourths inch
