Special from James C. Watson Midland, Texas

Tuesday, May 29.—The fast pace being set in Schleicher County for oil exploration failed to slow down this week.

Delta Gulf Drilling Company staked location for a 6,000-foot Strawn wildcat seven and three-quarters miles southeast of the Huldale-Strawn field and Standard Oil Company of Texas made location for two more tests in the Huldale area.

Delta Gulf's No. 1 F. B. Spence will be 600 feet from south and west lines of section 3, block M, GH&SA survey and in North-Central Schleicher.

It is to be dug on a spread of 1,120 acres secured from Al P. Grobl of San Angelo and others. The Atlantic Refining Company will have a half interest in the project.

The wildcat will be two and three-quarters miles north of the Page-Strawn field and one mile east of Morgan, Aikman & Company No. 1 Will Loveless, a 6,000-foot failure.

Standard will drill No. 1-2 McWhorter 467 feet from north and 2,167 feet from west lines of section 70, block TT, TC survey and three-eighths mile southwest of Delta Gulf No. 1-B Thomson Estate, most southerly producer in the field.

The same concern's No. 4-2 Thomson Estate will be 2,770 feet from north and 2,852 feet from east lines of section 82, block TT, TC survey.

It will be slightly more than one-half mile southeast of Delta Gulf No. 1-B Thomson Estate.

Sunray No. 1 T. C. Meador, 6 miles north of Eldorado, has surface hole completed and is waiting for rotary to move in.

T. L. Williams, trustee, and E. M. Wahlenmaier No. 1 George R. Long, wildcat in West-Central Schleicher County, has been plugged and abandoned at 7,520 feet in the Ellenburger.

That formation was topped by electric log survey at 7,238 feet, elevation 2,430 feet. On the last attempted drillstem test, there was a blow of air for 10 minutes and the packer failed. Recovery was lost.

C. L. Norsworthy, Jr., of Dallas No. 1 T. K. Jones, wildcat in Central Schleicher County, has been plugged and abandoned after failing to find commercial production in drilling to total depth of 7,191 feet in the Ellenburger.

In the Huldale-Strawn area of Central-North Schleicher County, The Ohio Oil Company No. 5 Thomson is drilling at 5363 feet in shale, lime.

Ohio No. 6 drilling at 1250 in lime.

Ohio No. 7 Thomson is drilling below 3145 feet in shale and lime.

American Republics Corporation No. 2 Thomson is coring below 5,354 feet in lime. A drillstem test from 5,274 to 5,354 developed only 1,000 feet of gas in drill pipe plus 32 feet of drilling mud.

Ohio No. 10 Thomson, another Huldale project, has reached a depth of 1991 and waiting on cement.

Pan American No. 2 Thomson has 13 3/8-inch surface pipe set at 612 feet. Operator is now waiting for cement to harden before drilling plug and deeping toward contract depth of 6,000 feet.

Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 2-1 Thomson is being dug below 2,625 feet in lime and shale.

In the Huldale, North-Lower Canyon field Sinclair Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Davis Estate is preparing to core below 5,603 feet in lime.

A drillstem test was made from 5,583 feet to 5,603 feet. Tool was open one hour. Recovery was 80 feet of drilling mud. Topped reef at 5578 feet Palo Pinto top was called at 5,024 feet.

Eldorado to be All Lit Up With New Bracket Lights

A lighting system whereby the main streets and other important parts of the city will be lighted with street lights is being installed in the city.

Workmen began surveying and digging holes for the posts Monday, and if all goes well promise to have the lights on by July 1 or before.

The project represents months of work on the part of the Eldorado Lions' Club, with Jerry Pennington committee chairman. The West Texas Utility Company is installing the system, and is offering a very special rate for service, the cost of electricity to be paid by city, county and school.

The contractor is C. C. Teague of Sherman, with Coyt Neill of San Angelo foreman in charge of a construction crew of five men from San Angelo. A West Texas Utility Company representative works with the contractor, checking materials and labor, which will be paid for by the Utility Company.

Two types of lights are used in lighting up the city. The larger, canopy type street lights, the very latest in style, will be erected in the City Hall block, on three sides of the courthouse, and will go south through the business district to Elder Station and from there smaller lights will go to the King's Crown-Davis Cosden corner.

The larger lights will also go to the Frozen Foods corner, and to the telephone office corner.

The smaller, or bracket-type of light, will start at the Earl Parker corner, and go down the San Angelo highway to the Rock Station. These will also light the blocks around the school house, and every church will have a light. The brackets will follow the Menard highway to Albert Bailey's corner, starting at the West Texas Utilities corner. Others may be added.

Workmen chose the courthouse as a starting point, and dirt is flying this week as the men get ready to put up the lights.

It is the general opinion in Eldorado that lighting of the main parts of the city will do more to improve the general appearance of Eldorado than anything that has happened in many years.

Mrs. Jackson Returns From PTA Convention Held In Florida

Mrs. Edwin Jackson, first Eldorado PTA worker to attend the national convention of PTA, returned Saturday from Miami Beach, Florida, where she attended sessions of the national convention from May 21 through May 23.

She reports hearing very interesting speakers, and is enthusiastic over the hospitality shown the visitors, and the very comfortable accommodations offered them.

Mrs. Jackson states that she enjoyed two seminars, conducted by Mrs. Marguerite M. Scheid, director of field service, and Mrs. Anne Crampton, field consultant. The music, she states, was outstanding, with Mrs. Betty Lee Taylor convention organist and George Campbell of Cincinnati song leader. Among Texas speakers was Warren T. White, supt. of schools of Dallas. The delegation from Texas numbered about 65.

Next year's convention goes to Indianapolis, and Houston has extended an invitation for 1953.

Mrs. Jackson is the first Eldorado PTA worker to attend a national convention.

MANY ARE EXAMINED AT SUMMER ROUND-UP

A large number of parents and children took part in the PTA summer Round-up of pre-schoolers who expect to start school this fall. The local doctors, Dr. Robert Maginot and Dr. M. G. Holcomb, examined the children, registered them and made record of their medical history. If shots are to be given, the children are to be brought to the doctors' offices some time within a week. The Round-up is under supervision of the Parent-Teacher Association, and is held to prepare children physically for their first year of school.

Ovid Wade, Jr., Finds Old Cannonball Near McKavett

A. T. Wright, former Success publisher, and now a grocer in Eldorado, retains his old rearing instincts, and can ferret out a story with the best of them. More over he can see possibilities for community betterment, as he mentions in the news item appearing below:

Back in the early days, with the beginning of the settlement of this broad domain, marauding bands of Indians frequently crossed the Schleicher County Divide to the happy hunting grounds beyond, especially the Kickapoo tribe.

It became necessary for the government to establish forts throughout West Texas. This tribe made its last raids through this county during the 1870's, the last one being in 1879. The old Ft. McKavett was established and soldiers stationed there for the protection of the Area Setup Is Proposed For Increasing Rainfall

An area-wide method of increasing rainfall was brought before Schleicher county ranchmen Saturday when a number of ranchers gathered in the bank building to hear a discussion of the silver iodide "artificial dust" method of rain increasing. Ford Hubbard of the Water Resources Development Corporation in Denver spoke on the operations of his company, emphasizing that it involved "rain increasing" instead of "rain making."

Mr. Hubbard discussed how the Edwards Plateau Improvement Corporation had been set up in Crockett and Sutton counties to be liaison between the rain increasers and the ranchers. He pointed out that so far only the two neighboring counties were in.

Hubbard said that his company would handle the rain proposition for one year in a three- or four-county area of approximately five million acres for $50,000, or an average of one cent an acre. Soliciting of funds for this project would be done entirely by the local corporation set up for the purpose, it was stated.

The term "rainmaker" is not entirely accurate in the description of the meteorologist engaged in cloud seeding or artificial nucleation, Hubbard said. No one can make it rain when it isn't going to rain anyway. What the meteorological scientist can do is to help nature along by increasing the volume of rainfall available from any favorable cloud formation. The scientist cannot, however, make rainfall occur unless conditions are such that some rain would have fallen without his help. The scientist can increase the volume of rain that will fall during a given storm in ratios ranging from 50%.

Cloud seeding of this area would be done from seven strategically located ground generators, which could take advantage of clouds coming from any direction, Hubbard said.

Elementary teachers who will probably return are: Mrs. L. V. Newport, first; Mrs. Luke Thompson, Jr., first; Mrs. D. C. Royster, 2nd. Miss Mae Ellington, 3rd, Mrs. T. P. Robinson, 4th, Miss Ina Mae Lightsey and Mrs. Price, 5th, and Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Martin, 6th. Other teachers will be employed to replace Miss Popple, Mrs. Reynolds, Miss Hyatt, Mrs. Tisdale, and possibly others. (Above is a tentative list).

"We are closing out the best year we have ever had," says Grade Principal Wyndell Hall today. "We are making great plans for making next year even better."

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wagley part of last week were Mrs. John Hammonds and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Anthony of Happy and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Sprawls of Tullia. Mrs. Anthony and Mrs. Sprawls are Mr. Wagley's sisters.

Mrs. E. R. Bryant is visiting her son Earl and his family at Lubbock.

Primary Department Bumper Enrollment Coming Up Next Fall

Schleicher County is far from lagging in population increase if next fall's first grade enrollment is any indication. Sixty children showed up for the PTA Roundup, held at the school elementary wing, last Friday.

These sixty, with about twenty Latin Americans who (as is customary) repeat the first grade because of their language handicap, will make a goodly total for the primary grades. Then too, as compared with 60 in the second grade this year, promotions will bring the number up to over 70 for the second grade next year.

With a large primary department to be planned for, the school officials will give careful thought to room and teacher assignments this summer.

Eight rooms in the elementary school are occupied by two divisions each of third, fourth, fifth, and sixth, and these will probably be handled in the same way next year.

Elementary teachers who will probably return are: Mrs. L. V. Newport, first; Mrs. Luke Thompson, Jr., first; Mrs. D. C. Royster, 2nd. Miss Mae Ellington, 3rd, Mrs. T. P. Robinson, 4th, Miss Ina Mae Lightsey and Mrs. Price, 5th, and Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Martin, 6th. Other teachers will be employed to replace Miss Popple, Mrs. Reynolds, Miss Hyatt, Mrs. Tisdale, and possibly others. (Above is a tentative list).

Golden Wedding Observed By Eldorado Couple On Sunday

A host of friends and relatives called Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whiteley, to offer their congratulations to the couple, who were celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

In recognition of the importance of the occasion, relatives and friends presented them with a number of nice gifts, the largest of which were two plastic-covered rockers.

Mrs. Tom Carroll greeted guests at the door, and presented them to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Whiteley. Visitors were then directed to the dining room, where tea, coffee and cake was served. Mrs. Ollie Whiteley ladled the punch, Mrs. Laymon Hazelwood poured coffee, Mrs. Vernon Hazelwood served cake, and Mrs. Vernon Carroll presided at the guest register.

A miniature bride and groom centered the cake, which was decorated in yellow, and bore the inscription "Congratulations." Spring flowers decorated the rooms, and Mrs. Whiteley wore a corsage of sweet peas in variegated colors.

Mrs. Ray Gill and Mrs. Bill Davis, nieces of the Whiteleys, sang and furnished guitar music during the afternoon. Guests called throughout the afternoon until nearly dusk—a total of 75 greeting the honorees in person, and many others sending gifts.

Among those calling from out of town, in addition to the relatives were Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Saunders of Odessa, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sauer of Colorado City, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Edsall, Mrs. Fred Rich, Mrs. Exton Talley, and nephew of San Angelo and Mrs. Ella Wyatt of Harriett.

He Farms, Blacksmiths
On May 26, Ida Clevenger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clevenger, was married to J. C. Whiteley, at Fredonia, in Mason County, a Methodist pastor officiating. The groom had been batching, and after the marriage, the couple took up their residence in the house he had been occupying. For the ceremony the bride wore white organza with lace trim and the groom wore a brown suit.

For the first five years, they farmed in that neighborhood, then 45 years ago he started blacksmithing, working at the trade steadily since that time.

Eleven years ago, on May 28, the family moved to Eldorado, where they have been making their home continuously since that time, purchasing a small place near the airport, and taking a great deal of interest in gardening.

The couple have five children, four of whom live here: Lou, Mrs. Laymon Hazelwood; Corda, Mrs. Vernon Hazelwood; Jack, of Voca; Bertha, Mrs. Vernon Carroll; and Lois, Mrs. Tom Carroll. Two of the girls married Carroll brothers and two married Hazelwood brothers, and these four families all live in Eldorado.

The couple also have six grandchildren, Herman, Jimmie, Vicki and Shirley Carroll, Libburn Hazelwood, of Eldorado, and Edward Whiteley of Voca. All of the family were here for the Open House except Edward, who was enrolling at San Marcus. The Whiteleys also have one great grandchild, Lonnie Joe Hazelwood, of Eldorado.

Mr. Whiteley is 73 years old, and goes regularly to his blacksmith shop in the business district. Mrs. Whiteley is 67. The couple have lived all of their life in Texas except for nine years spent in Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Local Student Gets Digest Award

Iretta Faye Mace, valedictorian of the graduating class at Schleicher Co. High School, has been given the Annual Award of The Reader's Digest Association for students who by their successful school work give promise of attaining leadership in the community, it was announced this week by Mr. Jack Black, principal.

Miss Mace will receive an honorary subscription to The Readers Digest for one year and an engraved certificate from the editors "in recognition of past accomplishment and in anticipation of unusual achievement to come."

The Reader's Digest Association has presented these awards yearly in senior high schools throughout the United States and Canada to the highest honor student of the graduating class. The awards are part of the educational program sponsored by the Association and were a logical outgrowth of the wide use of The Readers Digest in school work. With the collaboration of leading educators supplements to the magazine, containing guides for reading improvement and aids to effective speech and composition, are made available to schools and colleges.

The award to Miss Mace who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mace, was made possible thru the cooperation of Mr. Black and his teaching staff. They selected Miss Mace to receive the award, designed to stimulate scholarship, citizenship, and continued contact with good reading after graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Long have had as guests their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Waldby and daughter of Old Ocean, and an aunt, Miss Ora Lee Wilson of Quanah. Miss Wilson is here for a longer visit.

ENGINEERING IS STRESSED AS AID TO FARMING

COLLEGE STATION—The integration of engineering and agriculture is a basic factor in the progress, maintenance and economy of farming and ranching in Texas. To carry it on more effectively the work of the agricultural engineering division of the A. & M. College Extension Service was divided into two phases in 1950. W. L. Ulich concentrated on farm machinery and equipment, soil and water conservation, and rural electrification, with a helping hand to a farm safety program. W. S. Allen prior to his recall by the armed forces and later E. C. Brown worked wholly with farm housing and related construction, and farm electrification.

The progressive trend toward more complete farm mechanization within the past decade has added to the teaching responsibility of the engineer-specialist with mechanical equipment. Illustrating the extent of the transition, about 250,000 tractors with allied equipment were in service on Texas farms at the end of 1950. This array of mechanical resources meant that 85 percent of the land was plowed and 88 percent of the small grains were harvested by power equipment. But possession and operation of this machinery posed a problem in economical maintenance which Ulich sought to solve by demonstrations in welding technique, farm machinery field days and training of personnel to make repairs at home.

The specialist served as instructor at four county welding schools designed to train farmers to make repairs at home and thereby economize on expense and time. He also assisted county agricultural agents to obtain instructors, equipment and visual aids for 43 similar schools attended by 1,562 adults.

A parallel activity was 15 two-day district tractor maintenance clinics for training of an adult and junior 4-H Club leader and the county agricultural agent from each of 170 counties. Upon completion of the course those attending put on similar clinics for 4-H Club boys and adult farmers in 174 counties. An important consequence of the schools was the training of 4,822 4-H Club boys in tractor maintenance along with 1,755 adult farmers. Meanwhile, trained 4-H teams demonstrated before county groups, civic organizations and others upon the proper methods of caring for tractors. Twenty-five of these teams competed in a state contest.

During the year 25,513 blueprints were distributed and 210 county agricultural agents reported 23,480 pieces of equipment, such as self feeders and machinery, were built on farms from plans furnished by the Extension Service.

In collateral activities, Ulich attended and gave assistance at 12 farm machinery field days and assisted at eight terracing demonstrations in as many counties. More than 227,000 acres of Texas farm land were terraced during the year under the immediate supervision of county agricultural agents.

Since more than 80 per cent of the occupied farms in Texas now have central station electric service, the specialist concentrated his work in rural electrification during 1950 mainly upon electric water systems, lighting and heating, particularly the selection of equipment. He assisted in eight county 4-H meetings concerned with farm electrification with more than 2,000 club members enrolled in the program.

The Housing Act of 1949 gave farm housing increased emphasis in 1950. New dwellings were built on 232 Texas farms and 99 families made major repairs on dwellings under the program. The contribution of the Extension agricultural engineer for buildings comprised training schools for county Extension personnel, schools for farm families and leaders, and visits, advice and working plans for demonstrators. One hundred and twenty training meetings on housing were held in 53 counties. Meanwhile, a cooperative plan commenced in 1949 for furthering better farm housing was worked out with the State Health Department and Farmers Home Administration in Texas. A Memorandum of Understanding was signed by heads of these agencies for rendering cooperative assistance to farm and ranch families.

In addition to new or reconstructed dwellings, county agents report 1,651 grain storage buildings erected in 162 counties and 1,028 dairy barns built in 164 counties during 1950. In both cases plans or information were provided by Extension Service agricultural engineers. Furthermore, dairy husbandmen of the Extension Service were assisted in developing plans for a calf barn, and cooperating with the poultry and poultry marketing specialists on equipment, the engineer for buildings developed a turkey laying nest as well as a poultry feeding pen.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton McGinnes visited Mr. and Mrs. Claude Dittmore Sunday at Tennyson, and their daughter Linda remained for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Daniels of Houston are moving to Schleicher County where they will be located on a ranch.

Arriving here today are Mrs. Carl Ellington, and daughters, Lilla Jean, who has been attending Junior college at Uvalde, and Mary Lillian, who has been teaching this year and who will spend summer school at the University of Houston. Residents of Crystal City, the family formerly lived in Eldorado. News From Our Neighbors

Practically all of the Big Bend-Davis mountains area has received moisture the past few days in rains that ranged from light showers to torrential downpours, according to reports received here.

Last Sunday's rain covered a wide area, although spotted, extending 100 miles or more east and west of Alpine and an equal distance north and south. The fall in Alpine totaled .78 by the gauge at Sul Ross college with gauges in North Alpine recording over 1-25 inches.—Alpine Avalanche.

Dry There, Too

Last week's 1.33 inch rain brought the year's total to 2.83 inches, Double U officials report.

According to a casual survey of the rainfall recorded by the Double U during the past 40 years, this is the lowest amount of rainfall the first five months of the year. It is by far the lowest during the past five years.—Post (Texas) Dispatch

REA Open House

More than 350 visitors were shown the new headquarters of the Kimble Electric Cooperative, Inc., on Pecan Street Saturday afternoon by the directors and employees of the organization at open house from two to six o'clock.—Junction Eagle.

Ozona Rains

Pay-off rains come to wide sector of the West Texas ranching country last night.

After spotted falls for the past several days had brought drouth relief to the favored areas, the days of scattered showers topped off with a slow-falling rain which registered approximately an inch in Ozona and is believed to have covered practically the entire county and wide section of country which was suffering from a prolonged winter and spring drouth.

The general fall is expected to start the range country on the road to recovery from drouth conditions which have prevailed since last fall.—Ozona Stockman.

Round House Move Talked

Excitement over the possibility of the terminal move from Sanderson has just about taken the attention of Terrell County citizens away from the political issues. Sanderson and Terrell County have been built up around a home terminal of the T&NO. The local payroll and taxes of the company have played an integral part in the development of this community. Now it is a well-founded rumor that a move is being contemplated which will abandon Sanderson and Valentine as terminal points.—Sanderson Times.

Santa Anna Rain

The heaviest rainfall in the memories of the old-timers of Santa Anna fell here Monday afternoon when 5.55 inches fell in the period of less than an hour. The water fell in sheets, dropping visibility to less than the distance across main street, and a large amount of small hail accompanied the rain, with the wind blowing at a high rate of speed.—Santa Anna News.

Eating Joints Closed

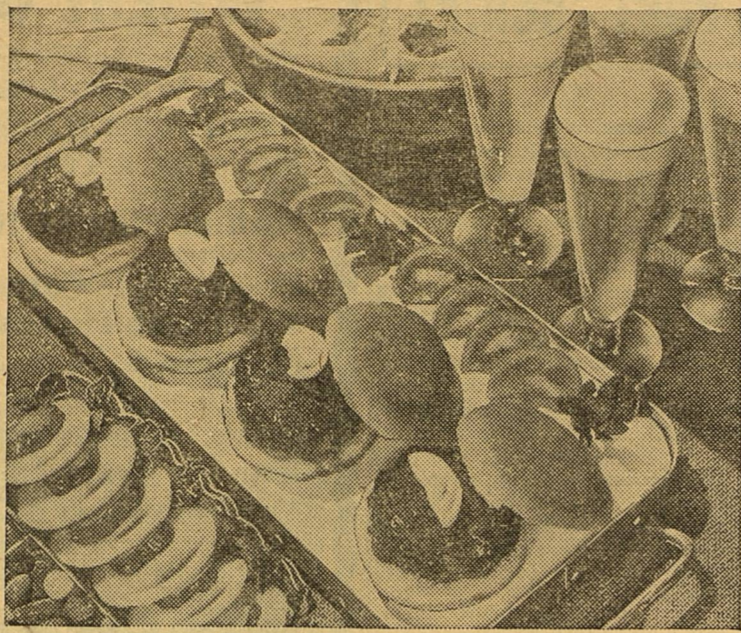

Robert Lee was without a downtown eating place the first three days of the week. The Club Cafe has been closed several weeks, and Hazel's Cafe did not open Sunday because the owner became ill and had to be hospitalized. It reopened Wednesday morning, but Mrs. Chiles remains in the hospital where her condition is reported as improving.—Robert Lee Observer.

McCamey Rains

McCamey and the surrounding area received from 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 inches of rain Wednesday afternoon and Wednesday night.

The pastureland drank up the much needed moisture, as the down pour filled tanks that were virtually dry. It was the first rain of

SMART TOUCHES DRESS UP PLAIN MEAL

The homemaker with a knack for serving everyday foods with a flair can turn a plain meal into a gay, informal supper whether for family or guests. The successful hostess knows the special touch lent by smart accessories, a special beverage and perhaps a few spring flowers.

The ever-popular hamburger-on-a-bun can be glamorized into a light supper, for example, by serving creamy beer to the grown-ups in tall, handsome pilsener glasses. Add the zesty accompaniment of new onions, tomatoes, crisp pickles and green salad together with tossed green salad for a family-pleasing repast. You can add an extra dividend of flavor to the meat by trying this fine recipe for Deviled Hamburgers.

Deviled Hamburgers

1 1/2 lbs. ground beef	2 teaspoons prepared mustard
2 teaspoons minced onion	2 teaspoons prepared horseradish
1 1/2 teaspoons salt	2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
1/2 cup chili sauce

Combine beef, onion, salt, chili sauce, mustard, horseradish and Worcestershire lightly but thoroughly. Then shape gently into 4 to 6 patties. Broil 4 to 5 minutes on each side, or to the desired rareness—or pan fry in skillet without added fat. Serves 4 to 6 persons.

Things that cannot be seen but which will endure forever, are the only hope for restoring peace to the world, Dr. Walter H. Adams pointed out to the 1951 Senior Class at their Commencement exercises last Thursday night.

As the first of these intangibles, Dr. Adams cited Love of Country and Appreciation for the Democratic Way of Life. Love of Fellow Man was cited next, followed closely by Love for the Right. Finally, Dr. Adams said that Love of God was one of the unseen things of utmost importance which could save the world.

Dr. Adams was introduced by Supt. C. A. Reynolds. The occasion was well attended by parents and friends of the 21 Seniors, who received their diplomas on the stage of the new auditorium.

"We are proud to be the first class to graduate from this lovely new building," Laura Clarke said, as part of her Salutatory speech. Miss Clarke went on to welcome the parents and visitors, and gave greetings from the class.

Valedictory was given by Iretta Faye Mace, who emphasized importance of being concerned not only with our own lives, but with those of others.

Ruth Dee Harris played Mendelssohn's Priests' March from Athalia as the class marched in. Other special music included "Clouds" by the high school sextette, and a piano duet, Schubert's "Military March," by Betty Doyle and Jane Belk.

Presentation of Awards
A number of special awards were presented by Supt. C. A. Reynolds. These included perfect attendance, high scholarship, and D. A. R. Good Citizenship.

Perfect Attendance awards were presented to the following from the top six classes: Wanda McAngus, Ann Williams, Myrl Sudduth, Jack Steward, Cecil Jeffrey, Bernell Doyle, Donna Beth McCormick, Charlene Atkinson, Ellen Kay Taylor, Linda Posey, Clyde Baugness; David Jeffrey, Billy Joe Jeffrey, Jo Ann Trentham, Nancy Posey, Alma Pearl Evelt, Glowanda Jeffrey, Marianne Craig.

Mr. Reynolds then presented the Lions Club scholarship awards. These went to Herman Phillips and Jimmy Whitten of the Sixth grade who tied with a grade average of 96, and to Betty Mae Doyle, high ranking high school girl, with 95.5. The high ranking boy and girl of each class were recognized, on the basis of the year's work:

- 7th, Ila Jean Boyer, 94.25; Bill Gaynor, 91.50.
- 8th, Cynthia Reynolds, 95.13; Jerry Lynn Pennington, 92.88.
- 9th, Trudy Gaynor and Ann Williams, both 93.25; Myrl Sudduth, 93.63.
- 10th, Betty Doyle, 95.50; Wilson Humphrey, 93.75.
- 11th, Mary Richburg, 87.40; Jimmy Morgan, 90.13.
- 12th, Iretta Faye Mace, 93.37; George Ochsner, 90.63. Miss Mace also received the DAR Good Citizen Award and the Reader's Digest award.

21 Graduate
In presenting the Senior Class, Jack Black, principal, said that all had duly met the requirements for graduation, and could receive their diplomas. These were presented by S. D. Harper, Jr., chairman of the school board.

Invocation for the program was given by Rev. Clifford Nelson. Minister Marshall Davis gave the benediction.

The school census is being checked and will be sent to Austin for official approval. An unofficial total today is 712.

No honor roll will be released for the last six weeks of school, report Grade Principal Wynnell Hall and High School Principal Jack Black.

Seeding of the school grounds with bermuda is under way this week, and the school janitors hope to get a good sod growing by school-opening time. The building project ended with the grading of the grounds, but with school in session all year it has been impossible to grow and water grass for sod. The school practice grounds are in fair condition and will be well sodded by fall.

A few minor improvements in the school plant may be made this summer, most of them in the older part of the school.

New books for the grades, such as first grade readers, third and sixth arithmetics, and probably others, are to be put into use this fall.

Junior McLaughlin is spending the last in San Angelo with relatives and friends.

The L. L. Peel family, who had been occupying the Joiner rent house, have moved to Salt Gap.

Rev. W. E. Krueger and his family have moved to Ballinger where Rev. Krueger will preach.

It is understood that the H. R. Richburg family will move about June 1 to Alpine.

POST - SCRIPT

Several matched ropings are scheduled for Sunday afternoon at the Eldorado arena, state members of the roping club, who are making a good start on their current season's performances. Crowds have been good, and many from elsewhere have been attending in addition to local roping fans. Everyone is urged to attend next Sunday's roping, and see a good show, say the boys. "We rope a little better and the calves kick a little higher when there are lots of spectators," says one.

Two houses are being completed this week. The Robert Sproul house was completed Wednesday and the O. L. Woodward residence will be ready for occupancy this weekend.

It amuses us whenever a speaker at an open meeting, that anyone can attend, tries to tell us that certain of his remarks are "off the record" or "not for publication." Actually, anything said at such a meeting is available for publication, and we are the ones to say whether it goes into the paper or not. Of course we try to use restraint and good judgment in all our reporting, but a weekly paper has the same rights and duties of a daily one where news coverage is concerned. That's just for the record.

In a deal closed out last weekend, Jess Thompson bought out C. N. Shaw and has taken over management of the Gulf Station, renaming it Thompson's Gulf. He is now living in the home place at Eldorado, after a year on a ranch near McCamey. He states that he is pleased with his new business, and that he is very glad to be back in Eldorado.

C. N. Shaw, who, according to grapevine, will be back in the business district soon, was out of a job and pan-handling Monday morning. Wearing his false nose and equipped with cane and tin cup, he was doing good business—but soon quit, when he found out some of the boys in Automobile Row were planning to take up a collection and buy him a ticket out of town. Shaw likes Eldorado.

Mrs. J. Forrest Rung announces the Cub Scout pack meeting this Friday at 4 at her home. Activities will include kite flying. Cubs and their parents are asked to bring picnic lunches. Time of this meeting was changed from Saturday to Friday.

Ten Boy Scouts have applied for the week's camp at Camp Kawcett starting June 10, it was announced this week by Bill Gunstead, Scoutmaster. Reservations were closed Tuesday of this week.

The Flaming Arrow patrol went on a hike and swimming party at the Perry Mittel ranch Tuesday morning. The group took their lunch. Attending were Gail Mittel, patrol leader; Kenneth Pennington, Rony Kerr, and Wilson Humphrey. Mr. Mittel and Ralph Taylor came out later in the day. Excitement came when they caught two coachwhips. They returned home tired after a full day of fun.—Reporter.

Jeanette Sikes, home making teacher in the Eldorado schools is conducting summer classes. She is on 10-months duty with the local schools. Most of the other out-of-town teachers have left the city.

The Junior Woman's Club will hold the closing meeting of the club year tonight, Thursday.

★ AL-TRUISMS

—By Al G.

When Mrs. T. J. Bailey of Ozona started on a two-weeks' trip Saturday with her family, she knew exactly where she was going, and when. She left with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Roach, a complete itinerary of their trip, including dates and hotels, —then in case she was needed here she could be contacted. Not that she expected to be called, but both of the Roachs have been on the sick list, and just MIGHT get sick again in that two weeks' period. It seems like a good idea, but must have taken some planning to work it out that way.

—al—

Mrs. Arthur Judkins of Midland spent a week on Figure 3 Ranch with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Adams, and accompanied them to San Antonio, to attend the wedding of Jean Judkins, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Judkins, and Lewis Hornsby. The wedding for these San Antonio young people was held in the Episcopal Church, and a reception followed at the country club. The couple are honeymooning at Colorado Springs, where they are staying at the Broadmoor. The Adamses returned home Sunday.

—al—

Curiosity got the best of us—we just had to find out what that peculiar screaming call was that had been heard from around Mrs. C. C. West's place for many weeks—so we phoned and found out. It's her male peacock, one of a pair given her by Lavel Meckel; the female has a call too but it's softer and guess we haven't heard that one.

"They say they're hard to raise, but I think I can raise them," says Mrs. West. "They said I couldn't raise parrots either but one young one has been hatched—wish it were more, as five people want this one."

—al—

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Newlin had the pleasure of having all of their daughters together at the home place Sunday. Present were Mrs. Fred Logan and children and Mrs. Ernest Sweatt of Eldorado, Mrs. O. C. James and son Newlin of Big Spring, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cooper of San Angelo, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wells of Porte a la Hache, La. The five Newlin girls were all reared here and all graduated from Eldorado High School. All had dinner together at the Newlin place and spent the afternoon visiting.

—al—

Picnics, planned and otherwise: Latest group to be hit by the picnic bug is Eldorado's fire department. The men and their families gathered at Sam Calhoun's, near Christoval, during the afternoon on Sunday, had barbecued goat late in the afternoon—and swam most of the rest of the time until about 9:00. Around 25 or 30 were there for the occasion. Folks who attended report a lazy and most enjoyable outing.

—al—

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hipp of Calhoun, La., brother-in-

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jackson had prepared a large amount of food to serve to cowboys who were to help with the shearing—but the cowboys didn't show up when expected, and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson served the food to a group of friends at a picnic Sunday afternoon. Present for the supper were Orland Harris and sons, who prepared the barbecue, the Jacksons, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mund and Arthur Jr., Mrs. F. B. Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Luedecke and Mickey and Sherry, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Singleton, and her mother, Mrs. Reeves, Sammy Whitten, Suzy Linthicum, Gail Childers, and Teena McMullen.

Another tale on Edwin Jackson: He was desperately in need of help with his sheep shearing. He had lost his old hand, Arthur Mund, Jr., to Uncle Sam, so he went down to Camp Bullis, made his way around among the bigwigs there, and managed to get Arthur Jr. out on a five-day pass to help him!

How's Business?

By Roger W. Babson

Honesty In Business
Every column that I write on "How's Business?", no matter what the subtitle may be, has to do specifically with what affects business and financial conditions. Honesty in business, or the lack of it, can make or break our economic system and the American Democracy. The very foundation of business and finance is honesty. Those who have read their histories are familiar with the rise and fall of great nations and causes thereof. The question that confronts us right now, more than ever before, it, "Will the United States of America go the way of other nations that have risen to great power and fallen therefrom?"

Corruption and dishonesty, as disclosed by recent investigations, can undermine the very foundation of our American way of life. Here we stand as the most powerful nation on the face of the globe and we are letting gamblers and racketeers bribe those who are supposed to enforce our laws. The investigations have disclosed the terrible situation beyond any question of doubt; but we must not stop with investigating and do nothing about it. Many have confessed their crimes and are still at large. It is said that some gangsters are buying into legitimate business to gain some respectability; but may this not be to carry on the same dishonest practices?

The evidence is on the docket—what are we going to do about it? We must not sit idly by and see our nation go down to ruin as other great nations have done. There are laws enough on the books to take care of the situation if they were only enforced. In the last analysis, the power is in the hands of us people. We surely should speak at the next election if nothing constructive is done before that time. America awake! Get honesty back into business and into every walk of life. If every man, woman, and child were honest, we would need very few laws and would enjoy good government and prosperity.

Make Strawberry Chiffon Dessert Before Fresh Berries Bow Out

The strawberry season is much too short for everyone who likes luscious desserts so you can't serve them too often during their limited engagement at the market. Put your next pint of the beautiful berries, via gel-cookery, in a Strawberry Chiffon Dessert like the one in the picture. It's made with unflavored gelatine and whipped evaporated milk so it stakes an honest claim for thrifty dessert honors. Only one pint of berries, but it serves 8!

Like all dishes made with unflavored gelatine, Strawberry Chiffon Dessert can be made hours in advance of serving time. If you'd like to serve Strawberry Chiffon Pie, turn the mixture into a baked 10-inch pie shell instead of a mold.

Strawberry Chiffon Dessert

- | | |
|--------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1 pint strawberries | 3 tablespoons lemon juice |
| 1 envelope unflavored gelatine | 1 teaspoon lemon rind |
| 1/2 cup water | 1 tall can icy cold evaporated milk |
| 2/3 cup sugar | |
| 1 teaspoon salt | |

Crush strawberries with a fork reserving 3 for garnishing. Soften gelatin in water; place over boiling water and stir until gelatine is dissolved. Remove from heat; add sugar and salt and stir until dissolved. Mix in strawberries, lemon juice and rind; chill until the mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Whip chilled evaporated milk until stiff; beat in gelatine mixture. Turn into 1 1/2 quart mold. Chill until firm. To serve, unmold and garnish with whipped cream and sliced strawberries.

YIELD: 8 servings.

A Good Breakfast? You Bet!

Put a good breakfast in front of any teen-ager and you can bet he'll take the time to enjoy it! Then, too, you'll know that he will have a better day because of this "better breakfast", that he will be better at his work and play because he starts out with a nourishing, well-balanced meal under his belt.

Seasonal fruit with a ready-to-eat cereal is an ever-popular choice—specially when the cereal is candy-coated puffed wheat—a top favorite with the younger set. Following this, bacon and eggs, milk to drink, and tempting hot muffins like those suggested below, will serve to complete the menu. Add marmalade and butter for extra energy; the teen-ager needs plenty of this for the big day ahead of him:

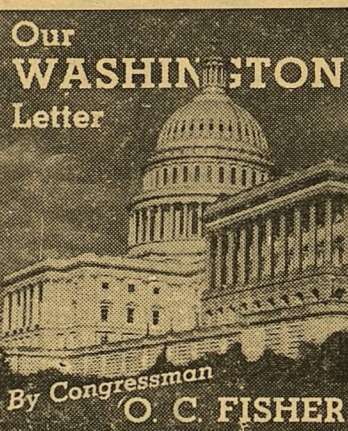

Best-ever Bran Muffins

- 1 cup sifted flour
- 3 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1 egg, well beaten
- 3/4 cup milk
- 1 1/4 cups 40% bran flakes or raisin bran

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, sugar, and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Combine egg and milk and add all at once to flour mixture. To mix, draw spoon from side of bowl toward center (15 times), turning bowl gradually. Chop spoon through batter (10 times). Add flakes and mix (about 5 strokes). Turn into greased muffin pans, filling each about 2/3 full. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) 20 minutes, or until done. Makes 8 to 10 muffins.

For Date Bran Muffins: Add 1/2 cup finely cut dates to flour-shortening mixture. Proceed as directed.

For Bran Molasses Muffins: Use recipe for Best-ever Bran Muffins. Add 1/4 teaspoon soda with dry ingredients and 1/4 cup molasses with the milk and eggs.

back, the packers and distributors are, in some instances, reaping some benefits at the expense of the grower. There will be much less incentive for feeders to buy and fatten cattle, and the consumers will in all likelihood find less meat on the counters, and will pay very little if any less for it in the future.

Except for live cattle and hides there has been no roll-backs. There have been no roll-backs on feed, transportation, wages, etc. On the other hand, there have been several rounds of wage increases over the nation. Shortly after announcing the roll-back on live cattle, the Government granted a 10% increase in wages for slaughter house workers.

The prices of cattle and of meat are admittedly high. But so is everything else. Actually, according to the Department of Agriculture, factory workers can now buy one and one-half pounds of round steak with one hour's work, whereas before World War I they could buy only 9/10 pound of round steak for the one hour of work.

Thus, the roll-back, amounting to 18% by next October, is proving unfair, unsound, discriminatory and unworkable. There would have been little objection to a price freeze, but by picking out one industry in our entire economy and subjecting it to an 18% roll-back without the costs of production also being rolled back, the OPS has invited amendments to the present law to prevent such actions in the future. The present law expires at the end of June unless continued by Congress; Congressional committees are now engaged in hearings on the subject. The new law, if one is passed, should protect against arbitrary and unworkable orders such as the live cattle roll-back.

Similar examples have been multiplied hundreds of times. Last January Eric Johnson told the nation that roll-backs on meat would not work and would mean less meat for the consumer. The producers were thus led to believe they could buy and contract without fear of such a roll-back. Then suddenly the roll-back order was issued, and it caught large numbers of people with heavy investments and faced with unavoidable financial losses.

Actually, the order is not helping the consumer. The shopper is still paying as much as before the rollback, the packers and distributors are, in some instances, reaping some benefits at the expense of the grower. There will be much less incentive for feeders to buy and fatten cattle, and the consumers will in all likelihood find less meat on the counters, and will pay very little if any less for it in the future.

Just "Can't Get Over"
Easy's Fence

Few years ago, Easy Roberts took a lot of kidding when he planted that hedge of Multiflora roses — along his property line. Folks said he was getting pretty high-falutin'.

But today plenty of people who laughed at the idea slow down when they drive by Easy's place — just to look at those roses. Most beautiful sight you ever saw.

Practical, too! The hedge is a good four foot high now, and at least five foot thick—even a shoot couldn't get through that prickly mass of shrubbery. Best of all, it cost less than ordinary fencing. (Might be well worth your while looking into.)

From where I sit, there's no sense in looking down on something just because it's different from what we like. For instance, some people think ice-cold lemonade's the best "cooler-offer" on a hot day. Some of us would rather have a glass of beer. The important thing is not to "hedge ourselves in" against other people's ideas and preferences.
