

Eldorado Clinic Hospital Receives Membership In Hospital Ass'n

The Eldorado Clinic Hospital has just received notice that it has been accepted as an active institutional member of the Texas Hospital Association, the activities and programs of which are directed specifically toward "better health for Texans."

The requirements for membership in the Association are that a hospital be registered by the American Medical Association and that the doctors practicing there be members of or eligible for membership in their county medical society.

Being a member of the Texas Hospital Association is beneficial to an institution because it indicates to a community that its hospitals are qualified and ethical, and are meeting the high standards of good hospitalization. This adds prestige to an institution and creates confidence.

Membership affords opportunities for improvement of member hospitals by frequent contacts with other hospitals in the Association concerning procedures and practices. It also offers a means of joining with other Texas hospitals in any advancement of their interests.

Legal counsel in Austin is provided for member hospitals to watch any legislation that would affect hospitals, and makes legal advice on matters of legislative nature available to members of the Association through its counsel.

The Association sponsors such organizations as Group Hospital Service, Inc., and Group Medical and Surgical Service to furnish hospitalization for employed people at cost. It places statistical information on Texas hospitals at the disposal of its members through extensive studies and surveys. The Association's official monthly publication, Texas Hospitals, keeps its members up to date on developments in the field through presentations of educational articles and news reports.

Membership means an opportunity to attend large conventions each year where hundreds of hospital personnel meet to keep abreast with developments and to plan programs for the improvement of all institutions.

The acceptance of Eldorado Clinic Hospital into the Texas Hospital Association is a step forward for Schleicher County.

Good Farm Records Are 'Must' For Farmer

College Station.—Many farmers wish now they had better records of their operations in 1953. Accurate farm records are a "must" for figuring income tax returns and should be the basis for changing farm practices and cropping systems. The present economic situation calls for management practices that lead to more efficient production. C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist says a good set of records will show the weak spots in your present operations. They reflect, for study, the year's business, he says. And, records show what farm enterprises should be expanded or curtailed.

Bates says many good farm record books are available but he especially likes the one prepared by staff members of the Texas A & M College system. The Texas Farm Record Book contains inventories for land, farm improvements, machinery and equipment, livestock, crops and feeds on hand, farm sales and expenses, farm products used in the home and a summary of the year's farming business.

An inventory, points out Bates, is a farmer's check-up of what he has at the start and finish of each year. It's easy enough to keep a complete and accurate set of records, he says and they'll pay big dividends when it's time to evaluate your operations at the end of this year.

County agricultural agents can furnish information on how to order the Texas Farm Record book or it may be purchased direct from the Exchange Store, College Station, Texas.

Mechanical Pickers For Texas Cotton Crop Are On Increase

College Station.—It costs $15 to $20 less to harvest a bale of cotton by machines than by hand and consequently more and more growers are swinging to mechanical pickers and strippers because of this substantial saving, says Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton work specialist.

Elliott, who estimates nearly one third of last year's crop was mechanically harvested, says machine harvesters have graduated from the experimental stage and today have been proved and accepted on the farm.

Most folks aren't concerned right now with cotton planting, but he points out now is the time to consider several important planting factors if a machine will be employed later to harvest the crop. Here are Elliott's recommendations for planting cotton to be stripper harvested:

Plant storm resistant varieties in 40-inch rows. This applies especially in West Texas. The desired planting rate, which should be thick enough to keep down plant size, varies from two to six plants per foot, depending upon soil fertility and moisture conditions.

Space plants as evenly as possible for machine harvesting. Do not hill drop. Uniform row width is extremely important in machine operations, he continues.

During late cultivations, tractor sweeps should be set so row middles will be lower than the ridges of dirt at the plant base.

Use tractor shields when needed to prevent damage to plants and bolls during insect control, defoliation and stripping.

Proper driving speed and correct machine adjustments result in more efficient harvesting, the specialist says.

First Baptist News

This week the Evangelistic conference met in Fort Worth, with some of the outstanding speakers of the Southern Convention bringing the messages. There will be more about this meeting in next week's column.

The young people's work is progressing wonderfully. The choir did a superb service in last Sunday's evening hour. Lavelle Meckel is now working with this choir and they are doing good work. They will continue to perform at the evening services. Those who have not heard this choir should come and listen to them at least once. They are a credit to our church.

The study in Psalms which will be held right away will be announced this Sunday as there are several things which conflict with having it all in one week. The books are here; if you need one come by the office and get one.

The regular meeting of the Brotherhood will be held Monday night January 18. All men are invited to attend this meeting whether you are a member of our church or not. You have a special invitation.

The occasion of their visit at this time was in dinner held by General Telephone Co., officials in San Angelo honoring Mr. Hunt on his retirement. He started with the telephone company when he was 15 years old and has completed 50 years of service.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hendrix of Crane and Mrs. Sarah Bess of Seattle, Wash., spent the week end with Mrs. Hendrix's mother, Mrs. A. H. Green and sister Ethelene.

The Harvey Dannheim family of San Angelo, including also their married daughter Clarice, Mrs. Bob Hirst of Amarillo, visited Sunday in the Otto Sauer home and were dinner guests of the Sauer's. In addition, several girls from the neighborhood and other friends & relatives joined the group during the afternoon. Mrs. Hirst returned Monday to Amarillo where her husband is stationed.

Last Thursday President Eisenhower delivered his second State of the Union message to a joint session of the House and Senate.

The Constitution requires this, at the beginning of each session. Since the time of Jefferson, it was always done by written messages, read by the clerks of the respective Houses, until Woodrow Wilson broke that precedent by appearing personally before the joint sessions. By and large, the message was typical of other similar messages by prior presidents of recent years, covering in general terms a variety of subjects with details to be submitted later in special written messages.

One of the first orders of business, where time is vital, is cotton acreage legislation. Last spring the House passed a bill which set the 1954 acreage at around 22 million acres. But the Senate did not act on it before the recess, and the Secretary of Agriculture had to make allocations under the old law—the limit being a little more than 17 million acres. That was done after the cotton farmers voted overwhelmingly in favor of controls.

On the second day of the session the Senate Agriculture committee did what it should have done last session—it took up the House bill, amended it in some respects, and reported it to the Senate. After the Senate acts the measure will have to be compromised by a conference committee. This should be completed within another week.

Under the House version, several important provisions should prove very helpful to our cotton growers in Texas. In cases where a farmer is allotted a certain number of acres but does not desire to plant a less amount or none at all, he may surrender it let the county committee reallocate it to others in that county who desire to plant more than they were allotted. Yet, the farmer who surrenders the acreage will, in computing acreage in future years, be given credit for the acreage even though he did not plant it.

Another important provision in the House bill will permit acreage in a county to be determined by individual history of cotton planted in the past, rather than by the so-called county factor as at present. That should help individual farmers in many instances.

The House bill also permits more flexibility in giving credit in drought areas for the cotton a farmer would have planted had it not been for the dry weather. That should also help in our area.

The Senate committee cut the acreage to 21.3 million acres, whereas the House had set it at nearly 22 million. It will probably be set somewhere between the two figures.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton McGinness and children spent the week end in Tennyson with relatives and Wayne remained for a longer visit.

The C. C. McLaughlins spent the week end in San Angelo with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Meador of Victoria and their daughter have returned home after a visit with the J. D. Meador family.

Guests in the E. G. Donaldson home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Long and daughter Ann who spent the day here from San Angelo.

The E. N. Edmiston have as a guest this week Mrs. Dollie Edmiston of Imperial.

Several from Eldorado have been called to San Angelo this week to give blood for transfusions for Otto Wilson, who has been seriously ill. He and his son Leonard operate the drilling rig which has been on location during the past several years on Schleicher county surface holes. Mr. Wilson, who is in his fifties, has been in poor health since before the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. King are planning an addition to their residence in the northwest part of Eldorado.

Jean Kuykendall visited recently in Big Lake with Jane Miller, who formerly attended school here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Hazelwood visited their son Lilburn and his wife and children Sunday at Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Whitley and son Mike of Harlingen have moved back to West Texas and are temporarily staying in Eldorado.

BOTTOMS UP!

A Last Drink — A Last Drive

The party's over—Bottoms Up! Let's get going!

For thousands of men and women—children and pedestrians, too—that has been the beginning of the end. On the highway at night, where the road curved and the hazy driver drove straight ahead, there was another "Bottoms Up!" and the end of the last drive.

It's hard to convince a person who has had a few drinks that he shouldn't drive. Alcoholic stimulation engenders a false confidence in his ability. In reality, his reactions have slowed down, his perception and judgment lowered—driving alertness gone. In a later stage the road blurs, lights blind as he fights drowsiness, loses control.

Seldom is he endangering his life alone. He is also endangering the lives of those traveling with him and others on the streets and highways. In 35 states 166,179 drivers lost their licenses in 1952 for drinking and driving. Thirty-five per cent of all revocations are brought against drinking drivers.

If you have been drinking, either let someone else drive, leave your car and call a taxi, or stay where you are until your senses clear. Stay off the road!

Don't kid yourself into a "Bottoms Up" drive—it can be fatal!
