

Hearing Discloses Highway To Go Down South Divide St.

A hearing held yesterday afternoon by the State Highway Department in the Memorial Building paved the way for the re-building of Highway 277 from the Sutton county line north to Eldorado, which will come into town on So. Divide street. Divide street parallels Main street, the present highway, one block to the west.

The hearing yesterday afternoon was required by law, and it was attended by a number of interested citizens. J. A. Snell, highway engineer from San Angelo, had general charge. Others connected with the highway department who were present were Hollis Keaton, L. K. Willis, and P. A. McCullough.

A recording of the session was made during a period of questions and answers. The majority of those who expressed themselves at the meeting were against the proposed new route, saying that it would hurt businesses that are on the present highway.

Minutes of the Commissioners Court show that at their January 14 meeting they agreed to furnish right-of-way from Eldorado to .1 miles north of the Sutton county line, a distance of approximately 1 1/2 miles. This action did not specify the route.

The project will be financed by the federal government to some extent, with the city furnishing right-of-way and cement curbing and gutters within the city. The new road will be 68 feet wide.

Mr. Snell estimated that work would probably begin in February or March of the coming year if the proposed route is approved by the Federal government and right-of-way is procured by that time.

Outside the city limits Clyde Keeney will sustain a loss of several acres of land for right-of-way. His place has already been sliced up considerably over a period of years by the routing and re-routing of highways on three sides of his property. Haley Trucking Co., owning one acre that is now used as a parking area for their trucks, will be cut in two, making the moving of their business to another location a necessity. The Hazelwood houses will have to be moved and Taylor Welding shop will be moved back four feet from the present location. A new drainage system will be installed near the Eldorado Motor Co., doing away with the sharp dip in the street there.

Lum Davis's residence is in dead center of the new route, and will have to be moved.

Although the Java Junction comes up to the edge of the new route, it is not thought at present that the building will have to be moved.

South of town, the sharp curve this way from the Eldorado station of Rancho Pipe Line, will be eliminated, the new route passing near the front of Mrs. Ruth Williams' residence. There will also be a new straighter road across the lake north of Mrs. Blodsoe's, about ten miles south of Eldorado.

South Divide street is a part of the original town of Eldorado and is location of several of the oldest homes in the town. It is assumed that more of the street will be developed commercially.

Iraan Road

In regard to the new road to be built to Iraan, Mr. Snell had a few interesting observations. He stated that much of the construction would be through hilly country, and expensive, costing up to $100,000 per mile in places. Also that a new bridge would have to be built over the Pecos river to accommodate the new route.

Crockett county agreed recently to furnish right-of-way for the 29-mile link which will connect the bend in Ranch Road 33, 50 miles west of Eldorado, with Iraan. Completion of this road is set for 1961.

Work Being Pushed On Compressor Station

This was how things looked at the Permian compressor location, last Thursday when the writer made a Thanksgiving Day trip to the site 1 1/2 miles north of the old Reynolds school. Contractors were taking advantage of the clear weather and they had a crew of about 80 workers swarming all over the place.

The three large canvas-covered "jobs" shown here are compressors which were being lowered into place on their foundations last week. When the heavy machinery has been set, a steel building will be erected over it.

There are many more installations all over the 40-acre location, and it is worth any one's time to pay it a visit.

Post Script

A number of local people have received letters from U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough, as follows: "One of the most enjoyable highlights of my recent 'fact-finding' tour of West Texas was the wonderful Coffee in Eldorado, November 21, 1957.

"Your warm and generous reception filled my heart with gratitude. I will long remember your hospitality and the privilege it gave me of learning 'first hand' from you how I may be better able to serve you in the Senate of the United States.

"In these days of crises when we are confronted with the prospect of a Russian man-in-the-moon, we must gird ourselves to do everything in our power to overtake and surpass this menace to freedom loving people everywhere. I pledge my every effort to this end, and feel that our native American ingenuity will rectify this situation in the end.

"With kindest regards, I am Sincerely, Ralph Yarborough."

—ps— A Sonora contractor has heavy duty dirt-moving equipment on the job, and is making a new road over the top of the hill to the Huldale oil field.

The county and a number of oil companies are sharing the expense. Traffic to the field and to the Sinclair gasoline plant is being routed around by Runge's.

George Ochsner of Midland spent last week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Ochsner. On Thursday they all had lunch with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scherz and family in Sonora.

Miami Petroleum Co. Inc. of Abilene No. 1 Roy E. Glass, 14 miles northeast of Eldorado, recovered oil on a drillstem test this week. On the one-hour test in the Tillery sand of the Pennsylvania between 4,905-20 feet recovery was 140 feet of free gravity oil and 30 feet of very heavily oil and gas-cut mud. Gas surfaced in 37 minutes, no gauges. Flowing pressure was 15 to 40 pounds, 15-minute shut-in pressure, 2,025 pounds.

The project topped the Adams Branch at 4,823 feet on derrick floor elevation of 2,399 feet. It was 162 feet structurally high to the same marker at Tucker Drilling Co. No. 1 Pinson, a failure 1 1/2 miles to the northwest.

Tucker and Henderson 1 Harris was 2635 feet in shale.

Pan-American No. 2 Wilson estate in the Neva West field was drilling at 5335 feet in the Canyon. Sharp 1 White, bottomed at 3,600 feet, remaining.

The Ft. McKavett station operated by Humble Oil and Refining Co. started operating again December 1st after being shut down nearly three weeks because of the shortage of oil allowable as set out by the Railroad Commission.

Murray No. 4 West Estate ran pipe to the total depth of 2,240 feet Monday. Plans are to deepen the test and if there is no indication of production to test the present depth.

In the basketball games with Mertzton Tuesday night both the boys' and girls' teams lost to Mertzton. The boys lost by a score of 43 to 26. The girls' scores were unreported.

Friday (tomorrow) night the teams will play Eden here. The girls' game will start at 7:00 p. m. After their game, the boys teams will compete. This will be last game played until the Eldorado boys team will journey to Lakeview January 7 to resume play.

GIN REPORT

The local gin operator reports that 248 bales of cotton were ginned during the past week. This brings the total for the year to 1462 bales. According to information received from the personnel at the gin, there is now a market here for low grade cotton if anyone is interested in selling.

The last ten days has been good weather for the cotton and most farmers are getting it out in record time. Some irrigated cotton is still opening and predictions are that the total crop will not be gathered before Christmas.

Juniors Will Present Play Thursday

The Junior Class under the direction of Bill Bowen will present "The Night Is My Enemy" on Thursday, December 12, at 7:30 o'clock in the high school auditorium. This is a first class royalty play, produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

Capacity audiences greeted the opening of this new mystery when it was premiered in summer stock at Dorset Vermont. From the opening line to the final curtain suspense and terror are interwoven with humor to provide a thrilling evening.

The play takes place in Dr. Ora Fontaine's house, a large home on the British coast. The story revolves around Roane Shepperly, a blind girl, and her change into a young woman by the events that occur. An accidental death is proved to be murder and it soon becomes obvious that the murderer is intent upon getting rid of all those who are imperfect, making Roane the next in line. An attempt on her life is made which reveals the murderer to the audience but not to Roane.

On an eerie night made more awesome by a raging storm outside, with the flash of lightning and the clash of thunder, slowly but surely all those in the house are taken care of until Roane faces the murderer alone—a blind girl versus a mentally unbalanced killer. Through the play is threaded a charming love story and many scenes of rich humor.

The following comprise the cast for this mystery:

Roane Shepperly, blind girl: Margo Mittel.

Tessie, cockney maid: Jeannie Mund.

Margaret Biller, housekeeper: Janis Sofge.

Tommy, hunch-back moron: Ernest Nimitz.

Hester Fontaine, doctor's wife: Myrta Topliffe.

Augusta Garvey, social snob: Nancy Jo Jackson.

Gerald Clayton, young English barrister: Robbye Waldron.

Dr. Ora Fontaine, London physician: Arnie Lee Westbrook.

Hubert Biller, caretaker: Alvin Atkinson.

Inspector Rodney Church, Scotland Yard: Phillip Walker.

Tickets will be sold by members of the Junior class in advance.

Price on advance tickets is 60c for adults and 40c for students. Door tickets will be sold at 75c and 50c.

The class and the director have worked hard to bring this play to the public, and it is the sincere belief that it will be an evening for your enjoyment.

BACK TO THE BIBLE

Read I Tim. 4:16; 2 Tim. 4:1-5

I have been asked the following questions: 1. Don't you think one can be a Christian, a child of God, and not a member of any church? My answer: What I "think" has nothing to do with the truth of the matter. Read Acts 2:36-47. Note "The Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." 2:47

The church is the house of God. Read I Tim. 3:14-15. Man is a new creature in Christ, 2 Cor. 5:17; In Christ we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins. Eph. 1:7.

Paul writing to children of God said, "Ye are the body of Christ and members in particular." I Cor. 12:27: The body of Christ is the Church of Christ. See Eph. 1:22-23.

Read Ro. 6:3-4 and Gal. 3:27 and let the Lord tell us who are in Christ and how we get into him.

Neighbor, come to the Church of Christ one block west of court house and hear the gospel preached like it reads in your bible. You are always welcome.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

By MRS. VIDA KREKLOW

About the only thing we are thinking about in Home Demonstration clubs this week is the big Christmas party on Friday night. The time did slip up on us all right, but then Christmas always does, I guess. But that's right—Friday night, Dec. 6 at 7:30. Every club member and her husband, or other guests, is invited.

And club members, if you were not at the last meeting of your club and are not sure of the details of arrangements, call your president. The council decided to vary the nature of the party this year and instead of having a dinner, there will be a dessert buffet later in the evening.

One night as we were going into the school building for our adult classes, Grace White told me of a suggestion on decorating the Memorial Building that someone had made to her. It was a good one and the Home Demonstration council was all for it.

To put it simply, it ran like this. Since so many groups will be using the auditorium for Christmas activities, why not everybody go together and pool the work and cost and leave the decorations up for the whole season?

The H. D. clubs are the first to use it and are taking the lead in getting things ready. But as happens so many times, one woman may be working to help two or three organizations. For instance, last Monday night these dependable ones came and worked like beavers: Elizabeth Ballew, Lois Etheredge, Modelle Tisdale, Mary Lee Tisdale, Tissie Enochs, Bee McCormick, Mrs. John Luedecke, Jewel Hodges, Sweet Keeney, Ola Mae McDonald, Ona Burk, Jo Woodward, Faye Mace, Anita Runge, Bonnie Bridgeman, and Lula Mae Alexander. Some came after church group meetings, and some after an executive board meeting for Girl Scouts. But they came and worked. That's all it takes—a little help from everybody makes it easy for all.

On Saturday night, Dec. 7, the high school band entertains the football boys with a banquet and party.

The high school has their Christmas party on the 19th, and the Jr. High will have theirs on the 20th. On the 26th a group of ex-students will use the auditorium for a get-together.

In fact, the auditorium is booked for 12 social events for December already and possibly there are others who will sign later. If you would like to contribute, call 24281.

The Reynolds H. D. club did a good neighborly deed on their last meeting date. Every club member made a pie, brownie, candy or some holiday treat for Boy's Ranch. Mrs. J. Tom Williams, Mrs. Lawrence Moore, and Mrs. Cecil Williams were the special delivermen. I think they enjoyed seeing the location and plant of the ranch and I'm sure that the boys enjoyed what they brought even more. Mrs. J. Tom Williams made a three-tiered caramel cake and decorated it in a Thanksgiving motif with a little turkey on top. Mrs. Williams has become quite an expert at making cakes for special occasions. I know of at least a half dozen wedding cakes which she has done and they were beautiful.

Guests for dinner on Thanksgiving in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Topliffe were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Milligan and Mrs. Sid Boothe. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Topliffe and Mvrta Ann were accompanied by Miss Katherine Hill to San Angelo where they visited with Mrs. J. A. Whitten who is a patient in Memorial hospital.

Meet the year's smartest station wagon set—Chevrolet's five new wagons for '58.

They're more than nine inches longer, dramatically lower. The liftgate is hinged into the roof and raises completely out of the way for easier loading. Safety plate glass in all windows gives you crystal-clear visibility.

No station wagon built ever carried loads with more ease or passengers with more comfort! Chevrolet's new standard Full Coil suspension cradles you on deep coil springs at every wheel. And you can have a real air ride as an extra-cost option.

You can choose from two- or four-door, six- or nine-passenger models with livelier V8 or 6 engines. Stop by your Chevrolet dealer's and look over the year's smartest wagons.

Eldorado Included On Route To Be Used By Bombers

Low-level flying training by B-47 aircraft of the 96th Bombardment Wing at Dyess Air Force Base, Texas, will take place over an area from northwest Texas to the North Platte River in Nebraska from December 3 through 13, Col. Charles F. McKenna, wing commander, announced this week. The bombers will operate at 500 feet as part of the Strategic Air Command's expanded program to exercise its crews in problems of low-level navigation. The low-level project, he said, is already being carried out in other areas of the country as part of SAC's continuing effort to maintain a capability to perform its long-range nuclear striking mission under all conditions of weather and altitude. Although the six-jet B-47 is one of the world's fastest medium bombers, it is not a supersonic aircraft, Col. McKenna explained, adding that no sonic booms will be heard as a result of the flights. The exercise will be flown over two routes, both approved by the Civil Aeronautics Authority and planned to avoid heavily populated areas and flight obstructions. All flying will be done in daylight under clear weather conditions. Routes will be checked by slower propeller-driven aircraft before the B-47s fly the courses. One of the routes will be confined entirely to West Texas. It begins at Salt Flat, east of El Paso, and passes close to Pecos, Pyote, Fort Stockton, Ozona, Sonora, Eldorado, Menard, Brady, Ballinger, Coleman, Abilene, Albany, Baird, Lueders, Stamford, Throckmorton, Munday, Seymour and Comidress, terminating southwest of Memphis. The other course covers parts of New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, and Nebraska, some of it paralleling the Kansas-Colorado state lines. Mr. and Mrs. James Page and family spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilton and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilton in Ft. Sumner, New Mexico. COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN
by Tiny Godwin
Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

Cotton growers will make an important decision on Tuesday, December 10. On that day, growers will vote in a referendum to decide whether marketing quotas will be in effect for their 1958 upland cotton crop. All farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1957 will be eligible to vote in the referendum.

If at least two-thirds of the growers voting approve the quotas, marketing quotas will be in effect on all farms growing upland cotton in 1958, penalties will apply on excess cotton, and price support to those growers who comply with their cotton acreage allotments will be available at the full level of effective supports. This support will be between 75 and 90 per cent of parity, the minimum level within this range depending upon the supply situation at the time the determination is made.

If more than one-third of the growers disapprove quotas, there will be no marketing quotas or penalties, and price supports to those who comply with their allotments will be 50% of parity.

In either case, acreage allotments will continue in effect for 1958 cotton crop as a means of determining eligibility for price support.

Moore, Lemley and Allen will offer 150 Angus bulls at their annual sale to be held at the San Angelo livestock auction sale barn December 11, 1957, beginning at 1:00 p.m.

All bulls will be top quality. Buyers will have the opportunity to see the bulls as all will be at the San Angelo livestock pen December 4th until the time of sale.

All bulls going through the ring will have been tested for sterility prior to selling. This will give the individual buyer the assurance that the bull will be serviceable when needed.

Dr. Berry of the A&M College animal husbandry department will make the sterility tests.

The time is approaching for instillations of the winter grain mite to appear on small grains. It is very difficult to detect the mites, but their presence is first indicated by a silvery appearance of the leaves and later the tips of the leaves turn brown.

The mites are very small, 1/32 to 1/10 inch long, the adults have reddish orange legs and their bodies are dark brown with a bluish cast. They feed during the night, but may be found around the base of the plants and under clods during the day.

Mites are capable of reducing or destroying the grain, and control measures may be needed when additional grazing is desired or the stand of grain is threatened.

Use one pint of emulsifiable concentrate malathion in the amount of water that the sprayer delivers per acre. This insecticide will be more effective when applied at 50 degrees temperature at above.

As chairman of the county agricultural committee for savings bonds I wish to congratulate you, the citizens, for reaching and surpassing the county goal in Series E bonds for 1957. There have been only 27 counties in Texas that have surpassed their goals.

Yes, Mr. Savings Bonds, "the crop that never fails" is now better than ever.

Grasses differ from trees in the growth of new leaves and stems. When a grass plant is grazed off, it will grow another top from the remaining part of the stem or leaf, but when a tree top is cut off it does not grow another top from the same stem. The growing point of a grass leaf is at the base while the growing point of a tree is at the tip.

The grass plant is an automatic powered food manufacturer. When grazed, part of the machine is stopped temporarily since there is not enough green leaf surface to use the fuel properly. If continuously overgrazed, the grass dies and fades out of the picture, because its fuel for power of growth comes from water, air, soil, mine-erals and sunlight.

The leaving of 50% of a grass will never cease to pay dividends over the years. Yes, more money can be made for a year or two, by over grazing, but what about the next year's grass crop? Does it depend upon rainfall? Yes, to some extent, but the big difference is stocking properly on the vegetation present rather than upon expected rainfall—which means leaving 50% of a grass by weight.

Degree of utilization is a big factor in grass management which means the amount of forage removed from a plant or pasture by grazing animals. This may range from unused, light use, proper use, severe use, to destructive use.

You have a tremendous advantage over the person who slanders you or does you a willful injustice: you have in your power to forgive that person.
