County Demos Follow State In Supporting Lyndon Johnson

The Schleicher County Democratic convention in session Tuesday of this week generally reaffirmed the stand taken in the county precinct conventions last week-end when support was given Senator Lyndon Johnson as the Democratic standard bearer. This was action of most of Schleicher county, as well as most of the rest of the state.

A five-fold resolution for Johnson was presented and approved at Tuesday's meeting. Buster Hale made the presentation as chairman of the resolutions committee. The resolution stated that all Democrats would get behind Johnson as standard bearer of the Democratic party in Texas; that Johnson would be the favorite son candidate for President of the United States; that Johnson would head the Democratic delegation to the national convention; that states rights would be preserved as set forth in the constitution; and that the convention would go on record for segregation. This was voted by the convention. With Hale on the resolutions committee were Oran Enochs and Don McCormick.

Named as delegates to the state convention with half a vote each, were John I. King and J. Forrest Runge, both pledged to Johnson.

Fred Watson was chairman of the county convention, and secretary was J. E. Sanders. Other committees who functioned were E.

W. Brooks, Joe Edens and S. E. Jones, Sr., on the nominating committee, and Forrest Runge, John I. King and Jack Halbert on the credentials committee.

Delegates represented the various voting boxes of the county, as follows:

1: Fred Watson, J. E. Sanders, E. W. Brooks, Don McCormick, Joe Edens, E. B. Jordan, O. L. Woodward, W. H. Hale, A. R. Parker, A. Halbert Jr., Sam Jones and Bill Word.

2: S. E. Jones.
3a: J. Forrest Runge.
3b: L. L. Watson.
4a: W. O. Enochs.
4b: Otis Deal.

The meeting was called to order by Edwin Jackson, as county Democratic chairman, with Mrs. B. L. Blakeway as temporary secretary. They were succeeded by Watson and Sanders by vote of the convention.

Rev. J. C. Hancock opened the meeting with an invocation.

H. W. Scott's Father Dies At Tuscola Friday; Funeral Held Saturday

H. W. Scott was called to Tuscola Friday morning because of the death of his father, L. C. Scott, who died of a heart attack at the age of 70.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Tuscola, and burial was made in the family lot at Newman, in Fisher County. He is survived by two children, Mrs. Marie Windham of Tuscola and H. W. Scott of Eldorado; his widow, five grand children and two great grandchildren.

He was a resident of Tuscola many years and had managed a gin there. He was well known here as he had visited often in Eldorado.

Attending the funeral from here were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Scott and Susie, Mrs. Sarah Yates, Doug Yates and Auta Mae Bradshaw.

County Politics Squared Away With Monday Deadline Passed

Some changes took place in the Schleicher county political picture with the passing of the Monday night deadline for candidates to file for offices, and have their names placed on the Democratic primary ballot. A race developed for county Democratic chairman, Orland Harris announced for commissioner of Precinct 1, and Pancho Bradley withdrew from the sheriff's race. W. A. Edmiston and Pete Ringle are running for committeeman of Precinct 2.

Edwin Jackson and A. R. Parker are again opposing each other for county Democratic chairman. The same two ran for the office in 1954, with Jackson winning.

Candidates for precinct committeemen are: No. 1, Dick Preston; No. 2, W. A. Edmiston and Pete Ringle; No. 3a, J. Forrest Runge; No. 3b, Jimmy Martin; No. 4a, Oran Enochs; and 4b, Mrs. Alma Sauer.

Orland Harris announced his candidacy for commissioner of Precinct 1, John Williams, the incumbent, and A. J. Halbert having previously announced. The Precinct 3 commissioner race has Robert Martin and Bob Anderson as candidates, both of whom announced some time ago. The incumbent, Carrol White, did not announce for re-election.

The contest for sheriff and tax assessor-collector, which had been a four-way race the past several weeks, became a three-way one with the announcement by Frank (Pancho) Bradley of his withdrawal. Bradley's action leaves Orval Edmiston and Wallace Joiner running against the incumbent, E. H. Sweatt.

In Schleicher county, as in most of Texas, winning of the Democratic nomination is tantamount to election. Monday's deadline was for candidates to file their names with the county Democratic chairman and have their names placed on the ballot for the July 28 primary. A run-off primary follows in August.

It will be remembered that under the new election set-up the county officials are now elected for terms of four years, with half the officials running every two years. Thus the county judge, county clerk, county treasurer, and commissioners of 2 and 4 are not up for election this year, but will run in 1958, when the sheriff, county attorney, and 1 and 3 commissioners will not have to run. This system was set up in 1954 under one of the constitutional amendments approved by Texas voters.

County Democratic Chairman Jackson reports others who announced for higher level offices as follows: Penrose Metcalf, state board of education, 21st district; Justin A. Keever and Aubrey Stokes for district attorney; Joe L. Mays, district judge; O. C. Fisher, Congressman, 21st district; Joe Burkett, state representative; and Raymond Gray, Court of Civil Appeals.

Java Junction Cafe To Re-Open Saturday Free Coffee, Doughnuts

Mrs. Velma Donelson, an experienced restaurant woman, has moved to Eldorado and announces in this week's issue of Success that she has rented the Java Junction, and will be open for business Saturday.

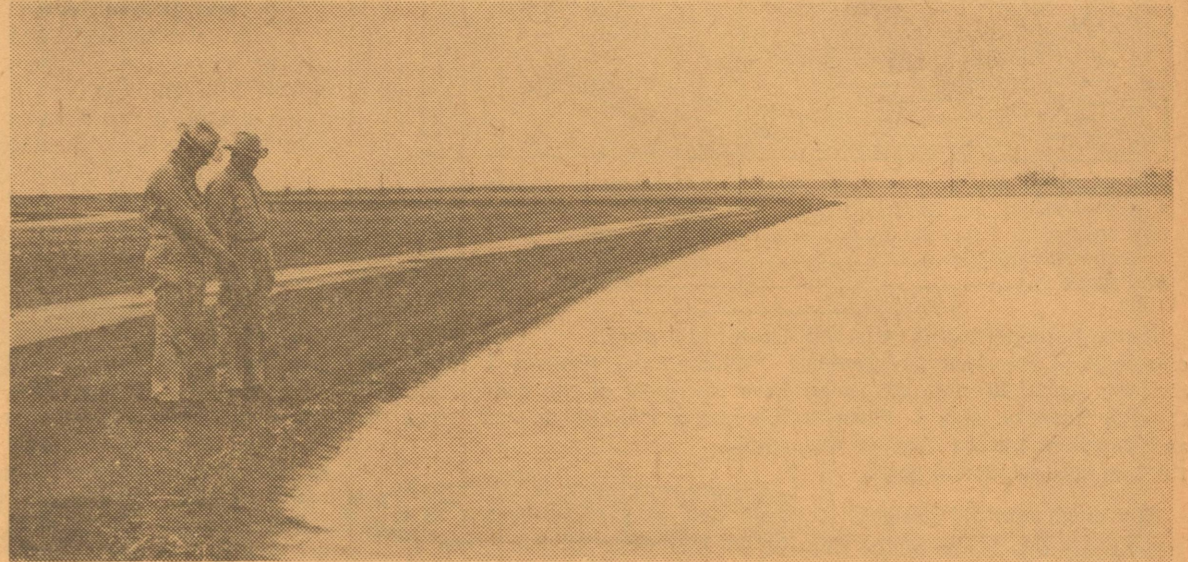

This week the building is being prepared for the opening day, and plans are being mapped out by Mrs. Donelson. She announces in her ad that she will serve free coffee and doughnuts all day Saturday, and she also lists her Sunday menu in the ad (this will be Mother's Day—time, she says, to take the family out to din^g).

Mrs. Donelson states that she will give complete restaurant service and that she will do her best to please Eldorado restaurant patrons. She realizes, she says, that the business has been closed for some time, and she hopes to build up the business again and to expand as the growing trade will demand.

Mrs. Donelson is the widow of Ellis Donelson, who died suddenly while he and Mrs. Donelson were visiting here about two months ago. She lived for many years in the Westbrook and Colorado City area, and has had extensive experience in the cafe business. She has two children here, Elton Donelson and Mrs. Roy Taylor and has another daughter living elsewhere.

Readers of Success are urged to turn to Mrs. Donelson's opening ad, and read her menu for Sunday.

A Lesson For Soil Conservation Week

We have been much interested, as have many other readers, in the Sheep and Goat Raiser, in the first installment of a story on Las Moras Ranch in Menard County, written by J. Forrest Runge of Schleicher County.

The story includes a number of pictures of early day ranch life, including the palatial Las Moras Ranch house built in 1877 of native rock, and many others.

We recommend it to all of Schleicher County as a well written and documented article. The first installment appears in the issue of May.

Mrs. Albert McGinnes had a few bad moments when she learned of the bank robbery recently at Sterling City. Her brother, Bill Brooks, an employee of the bank, was one who was locked in the vault, and eventually turned in the alarm!

The road from McKavett Humble Station was washed by the four-inch rain, but was soon repaired and ready again for use.

The Menard highway still shows signs of damage to shoulders and topping.

The eyes of the nation are focused this week on soil conservation offices and personnel who are helping to increase production on farms and ranches through teaching correct conservation practices.

In Eldorado, a number of the pastors observed the opening of Soil Conservation Week by preaching Sunday on the subject of soil and souls. Wednesday at Lions' Club Rev. James Spencer talked to the group on soil conservation. In various other ways attention was directed to soil conservation as the salvation of the rancher and farmer.

Much credit for progress made in this county along that line goes to the personnel of the Eldorado Divide Soil Conservation District.

Out at Leonard Lloyd's, two new irrigation wells have been drilled in the last month. Both are ready for testing, but had not been tested at the time this paper goes to press. The Hanusch drilling rig has been moved over to Nick Jurecek's, where another well will be put down.

M. H. Crabb has also completed a well on his place, which, though it looks like it will be a good one, has not been tested as yet. It will be remembered that a previous test on this place did not bring production.

Two or three telephone cable crews are back in Eldorado installing cables which will provide individual phone service for the city if it is desired—those on city party lines may have their own phones when this work is completed, if they wish.

The Java Junction is a busy place this week as Mrs. Velma Donelson puts last-minute touches on the business establishment in preparation for her opening Saturday. Swimming Pool Site Selected In Western Section of Eldorado Schleicher county commissioners and representatives of organizations of the town and county selected a site this week in western Eldorado for the new swimming pool, for which voters approved a $35,000 bond issue some time back. The entire Block 6 area in the West addition, which has six large lots and measures 466 2/3 feet square, is to be purchased from Ed Willoughby and others. The 4.9 acre tract is in the large vacant area between the D. C. Hill residence and the Fred Gunstead residence—near the airport.

Meeting in session Tuesday morning with County Judge W. R. Bearce and the commissioners court, representatives from various organizations helped to arrive at the decision of the pool site after considering about seven others over town. Representing the Parent-Teacher association was Mrs. Gus Love. Others were: The Woman's club, Mrs. Edwin Jackson; home demonstration clubs,

Orland Harris Enters Race For Commissioner, 1

Orland Harris this week authorized the Success to announce his candidacy for Commissioner of Precinct No. 1 subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July.

A resident of Schleicher county since 1925 Mr. Harris is well known throughout the county and has the following to say in regard to his announcement:

"No one has asked me to run for Commissioner, but I take it all upon myself. Having worked for the public for many years I place my confidence upon the voters.

"I have worked for the county several years, building roads, etc., and feel that with my general experience I am qualified to handle the job.

"Your vote and consideration will be deeply appreciated, and if you should elect me as your commissioner I pledge to give my best efforts to the duties of the job. I expect to see all voters in the precinct in the near future. I don't want all the votes—just yours. —Orland Harris."

Mrs. Walter McGregor, Jr. Woman's club, Mmes. J. Wagley, J. Mowrey; Lions club, C. O. Dewey; and the American Legion, Billy Frank Blaylock.

Various issues and problems likely to arise in connection with the pool were discussed. The pool will be a block from anyone's house, and the nearly 5 acres will allow future expansion for a park area.

Commissioners and other officials point out that the pool will be as nice and well equipped as any in this area. Plans call for bath houses, fencing, and a filtering system for the pool water, in addition to the pool itself. It will be modern in every respect and will be 50 feet wide at one end, tapering down an 82½-foot length, to a 30-foot width at the other end. Plans are now in the hands of contractors and bids will be opened May 14th. The pool complies with all specifications of the State Health department. When filled, the pool has the water circulated constantly, and when necessary to drain the pool county pumping equipment will be used.

A sewer line will be run about a block and a half east to tie in with city lines. Sanitary facilities in the bath houses and the gutter around the edge of the pool will be connected to the sewer. Waste extracted from the pool water by the filtering system will also go into the sewer.

With selection of the pool site it was stated that it is hoped that the pool can be completed and put in operation by August 1st, if all goes as planned.

Local Polo Team Wins San Angelo Tourney

A Palmetto polo tournament was held in San Angelo last Saturday and Sunday with eight teams competing. The teams were Eldorado, Barnhart, Miles, San Angelo, Hereford, Roby, Sterling City, and Lamesa.

Saturday night Eldorado played Roby with Eldorado being the winner 18-1. Sunday Eldorado played two games, the first with Barnhart, with the locals again the winner 8-6.

Then in the finals it was Eldorado and San Angelo, both teams playing very hard for this game. The score was tied at the finish of the game. It was decided that the San Angelo B team and the Eldorado B team would play the tie off in two five minute chucks. The score was still tied at the end of that time, so two more five-minute chucks were played, with Eldorado making two points. The score was Eldorado 13, San Angelo 11.

Two trophies were presented the captain of the Eldorado team. One trophy is to keep, and the other is a rotating trophy for being champion of the tournament of '56. If the locals can hold this rotating trophy three years they get to keep it also.

The next game will be with Ozona here at the local arena Friday night, May 11. —Reporter.

Bradley Pulls Out From Sheriff Race

The following notice which is self-explanatory was presented to the Success yesterday for publication:

To My Friends and all citizens of Schleicher County:

Due to the urgent press of private business and circumstances beyond my control, I will not be able to personally contact every voter in Schleicher County. This being the case, I regret to announce that I hereby withdraw my candidacy for Sheriff, Tax Assessor and Collector of Schleicher County.

It is my sincere hope that this action on my part causes no inconvenience or embarrassment to any citizen.

Sincerely,
Frank Bradley

Plats For Sunset Acres Addition Filed In County Clerk's Office

Plats were filed this week in the county clerk's office for Sunset Acres, a restricted residential development in Northwest Eldorado, on the new Mertzon road. Paul Page and Howard Derrick are promoters of the project.

Restrictions on all streets in the addition call for houses to be set back 40 feet from the property line, and specify no domestic animals or business establishments to be allowed. Two streets, Live Oak and Redwood, restrict houses to masonry construction, and specify that they be at least 1400 square feet in area. Houses on Maple street are to be 1200 square feet in size and have 10 per cent masonry frontage, and those on North County road are to have 1,000 square feet.

Lots are not yet being sold in the addition, it was stated. Some details in regard to utilities have to be worked out.

Construction was to start yesterday, Wednesday, on a new house for Derrick, which will be the first to be built in the new addition.

Heavy, smile-producing rains fell over most of the county, beginning Sunday, April 29 and continued through Tuesday, May 1. Farmers and ranchers agreed that it was the best rain in several years.

How much rain did you get?

Naturally this is one of the first questions a farmer or rancher asks his neighbor and friends. Then as soon as the fields are dry enough farmers usually check to see how deep the moisture is in their fields. How deep it went in the beds and middles in the fields then becomes one of the topics of discussion.

"Checking cropland and pastureland for depth of moisture penetration can be surprising, educational and often disappointing," says Lloyd B. Johnson of the Soil Conservation Service.

To find out how deep the rains penetrated, checks were made last week with cooperators of the Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation District.

Most farmers and ranchers know almost as soon as it stops raining how much rain they received. Ross McAngus' rain gauge showed 3.5 inches after the rain Sunday. "The rain came hard and fast and there was water everywhere," Ross said. Water was almost to the top of the new terraces west of his house. Several acres were covered with water backed up by terraces. Ross had recently completed construction of the terraces with his farm tractor and plow. "Without the terraces I would have lost most of the water from this rain as I did in the past," Ross stated.

Checks were made in McAngus' field four days following the rain to see how deep the 3.5 inches of rain penetrated. Contour rows not benefitted by water backed up by terraces were wet 15 inches in the middles and only four inches to completely dry dirt on the beds. For approximately 175 feet above one terrace it was still too muddy to make any kind of check. Water was still standing over a good sized area above all the terraces.

Pastureland which lacked a cover of grass lost most of its water to runoff. A small pasture next to Ross's field had very little moisture at a depth of three inches. The soil was not moist enough to make a mud ball.

W. T. "Pete" Parker received 3.2 inches on his place in the Bailey Ranch community. Good moisture was found 28 inches deep in good grass cover and old litter four days after the rain.

In the same area only 12 feet away on practically bare ground the moisture penetrated only three inches. In the same locality a poor cover of grass with no old litter on the ground held only nine inches of moisture. Mud balls could be made at this depth. While making the checks Pete stated "It's hard to realize there could be so much difference."

W. H. Joiner received 3.9 inches on his place a mile southeast of Eldorado. In Joiner's broken field moisture was found four inches deep. In last year's old beds it was 5 inches deep in the bed and 8 inches in the middle. "I lost enough water from this field to make a crop," Joiner said. His field with level terraces held most all of his rain and looked like a lake.

C. O. Bruton was in the area receiving light rains. Bruton received .20 of an inch Saturday night and 1.20 Sunday afternoon. "About half of the 1.20 fell fast and it looked like most of it was running off my bare pasture land," Bruton said. Two days after the rain his cropland was wet to a depth of 5 inches in the middles and two inches in the beds. Beds with centers open were wet 5 inches deep. There was very little water above the terraces Bruton had just completed with his farm tractor and plow. Pastureland with good turf, short grass and no old litter was wet 12 inches deep. In the same area on bare ground moisture had penetrated to only two inches. Bare ground with no old roots the moisture was 1/2 inch deep. "From observation and experience I know I will have to manage my pastures so I will have a good grass cover to make the best of any rainfall I receive," Bruton stated.

Farmers and ranchers can profit by these checks that have been made by applying good soil and water conservation practices in order to hold that next good rain that falls.

"It's not the rain you receive; it's the rain you keep that counts."

COOPER GAS H. D. CLUB

Mrs. Arch Edmiston was hostess to the Cooper Gas Home Demonstration Club in her home May 3.

Mrs. Wyatt and Mrs. Clark gave a discussion of the things you should know about jury service.

Refreshments were served to 5 members and 4 guests. The next meeting will be May 16 at the home of Mrs. Sam Henderson.

Lewis Runge of Galveston is spending several weeks here with his brother Forrest Runge. Other visitors in the Runge home were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Paterson of Fontana, Calif.

W. T. Parker Gets Conservation Award

W. T. (Pete) Parker, who operates two places near Eldorado, has been chosen the outstanding conservationist in the Fort Worth Press "Save the soil and save Texas" contest in the Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation District.

Pete was honored at the May 9 meeting of the Eldorado Lions Club when a plaque was presented to him.

The Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation District is composed of all of Schleicher County and the southwest quarter of Tom Green county. The district has more than a million and quarter acres of farm and ranch lands. The district has about 250 co-operators.

It was in 1947 that Pete decided conservation practices could be applied to his place. He sought technical assistance made available through the local soil conservation district. In 1951 Mr. Parker also worked out a conservation plan on the Parker Estate, which he leases.

Since becoming a cooperator with the local district, Pete has carried out the following conservation practices:

- Contour farmed all cultivated land, 196 acres.
- Stubble mulching, 196 acres.
- Proper use of rangeland, 887 a.
- Deferred grazing, 887 acres.
- Rotation hay and pasture, 8 a.
- Terrace construction, 5.7 miles.
- Field diversion, .4 mile.

In addition to this Pete has made trial plantings of different crops to check on their adaptability to the district. Pete was one of the first operators in the district to establish a cultivated field to Blue Panis grass.

Pete has tried to catch and hold his moisture when it falls, as near where it hits the ground as he possibly can. He is doing this by contouring and terracing his cultivated land, and managing his rangeland to where he keeps a good cover of grass at all times.

Why Soil Conservation Is Important To Everyone

By CAROLYN HALL

(Ed. Note: Miss Hall wrote this essay on soil conservation recently for entry in a state contest. She was awarded a $25 savings bond for it by the Eldorado Divide Soil Conservation district.)

Of all the gifts of nature, none is more indispensable to man than the soil. People in every walk of life depend upon the soil for the necessities of life. Although some may fail to realize it, all food comes directly or indirectly from the soil. Not only does man eat the plants from the soil but he also eats the flesh of animals produced by their having eaten the plants. The shoes, socks, and even the hats men wear come from the soil. The pencils with which he writes are made from the wood of trees which were grown in the soil. Even the houses in which people live are made from products taken from the land.

The conservation of the soil affects everyone—farmers, school teachers, students, businessmen, oil field workers, and ministers. Each person must realize his duty as an individual to help conserve the soil. Since the economy of a nation depends upon its natural resources and inasmuch as soil is a natural resource, then the future of the nation rests upon the care of the soil. The United States has enough good land to feed its people if the farmer follows soil-building and soil-conserving programs. On the other hand, if the soil is allowed to become depleted, starvation may face future generations. The youth of America have come to the realization that soil conservation is the most important problem facing American agriculture today. It is a problem that the older folks cannot solve alone.

A good rule for us to follow has been written as an "Eleventh Commandment"—"Thou shalt inherit the Holy Earth as a faithful steward, conserving its resources and productivity from generation to generation." We must remember that soil conservation begins at home. The good earth is our richest heritage.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN
by Tiny Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

The grass judging team won District 7 4-H judging contest held in San Angelo, Saturday, May 5, earning the privilege of representing Schleicher County in the state contest June 12-14. Members of the team were Ernest K. Nimitz, Farris Nixon, Judge Whitten, and Dwain Sauer.

Nimitz named and correctly classified 49 out of 50 grasses for a score of 245 points out of a possible 250.

Farris Nixon made the same score for second place misspelling one grass. The score: 245 points out of a possible 250.

Judge Whitten made a score of 211 points out of a possible 250. Alternate members was Dwain Sauer.

The team scored 701 points out of a possible 750 to take first over Scurry County, who were second with 685 points.

This is a great accomplishment. Did you ever take time to ponder why so much time is put on boys learning grasses? Here are some of the reasons:

Grass is our basic heritage. It is Schleicher County's and the great state of Texas' most neglected resource. All grasses are not the same; some are heavy forage producers, others light; some grow in winter, others in summer; some are shallow rooted, some are deep rooted; some are liked by livestock, some are not. Knowing grasses, like knowing livestock, is fundamental in the business. Certain grasses on a pasture are indicators and are like signs on a highway. They show whether you are going up hill or down, or if the way ahead will be crooked or straight—or whether your vocation of ranching is pleasant or a drudgery. Yes, it's true: all grass is flesh; without grass the population of the earth would be doomed in a few days.

The key to successful range management—Know your grasses.

Shearing time will be in full force with the peak coming about May 25. Like everything else there are top crews and average crews in the business. For years it was the opinion of many that instruction was needed for the crews; this is true to a large extent. Telling the capitan what you want before he starts is all important—not only telling him but actually showing him the correct way to roll a fleece, tie, and pack a flat bag in order to have an attractive bag of wool. In five minutes a fleece of wool can lose 2-5 cents a pound in preparing it for market. Correct preparation helps your warehouseman sell your wool.

Your presence and instructions and demonstration at the shearing pen means about $50 to $200 per day—a good day's pay—by properly preparing a product that most of the time already has the quality.

The bagworm season is here. The time to control these pests is when they are small. Use a 10% chlordane or toxaphene dust for control. Chlordane and toxaphene may be used as a spray, too.

Fire Damages Store
No decision has been reached on the amount of damage and origin of an early Sunday morning fire in the Western Auto Store here, Fire Chief LaRue Newby said Wednesday.

R. B. Hannah, owner, is taking an inventory and the insurance adjuster is making a survey with him. —The Junction Eagle.

Traffic Stalled
Traffic was halted in all four directions coming into Big Lake last Sunday night when the draws in this area were swollen by the heavy rains that fell earlier in the evening. —Big Lake Wildcat.

Poison For Foxes
According to reports received Wednesday morning from Ed Whitesides, county agent, efforts are being made to help stamp out further spread of rabies in this county. T. J. Sparks, with the USDA, Lubbock, has arrived in the county and will be here until possibly Tuesday of next week putting out poisoned bait for foxes and other wildlife in the control of rabies. —Eden Echo.

SCOUT COURT POSTPONED

The Boy Scout Court of Honor scheduled for next Monday night, May 14, has been postponed until a later time, Scoutmaster Billy Frank Blaylock announced this week.

Letters From THE PEOPLE

I want to go on record that I oppose the size of a swimming pool the Schleicher County Commissioners Court are figuring on building. 80 feet long, 30 feet wide at one end and 50 feet wide at other end. Takes 100,000 gallons of water to fill and will cost approximately $25,000 to build. Whereas they could make a smaller one that would answer all purposes. How will it sound to you that Eldorado has a $25,000 swimming pool, when it has neither orphan's or old age home?—Dr. H. Z. Pennington.

T. P. ROBINSON, JR., BUILDS

T. P. Robinson, Jr., is having a new residence built on his 320-acre place south of Eldorado. The contractor is N. H. Hilyard, of the firm of Hilyard, Cole and Cole of San Angelo.

The house, which will be just south of W. A. Blaylock's, faces on the old Sonora road. It will be of frame, with three bedrooms, two baths, and double garage. It is understood that it will be completed about September 1. The family have been living in Eldorado but will move to their new residence when it is completed.

WINTERS WOMAN DIES

Mrs. J. S. Clark and other relatives here have received word of the death of a sister Mrs. Sol Nichols, at Winters, after several years' illness. She was about 60 years of age. She is survived by her husband, five children, and many other relatives.

Among those attending the funeral Tuesday at a Winters Baptist church were Mrs. N. G. Hodges, A. G. Clark, Jerome Mitchell and family, Mrs. Ammer Carter and Mrs. Clark.

GODWINS REMODEL HOUSE

W. G. Godwin is remodeling his residence in the west part of Eldorado. Plans call for enclosing the back porch, adding small bedroom, breezeway, bath and carport, changing the living room by taking out an old flue, adding asbestos siding to the exterior, painting the house, and making a storeroom out of the old garage.

The post elected Billy Frank Blaylock to represent them on the swimming pool committee, with Orval Edmiston as alternate.

It was decided to urge everyone to display flags on Memorial Day, May 30th. The post will put a wreath on the plaque at the Memorial Building that day.

Soil Conservation Pays

We are glad to salute Schleicher County farmers and ranchers during Soil Conservation Week.

Especially do we take our hats off to those men engaged in agriculture who have taken their land through years of drouth and rain—lean years and good years—always practicing soil conservation; those men will make good if anyone can.

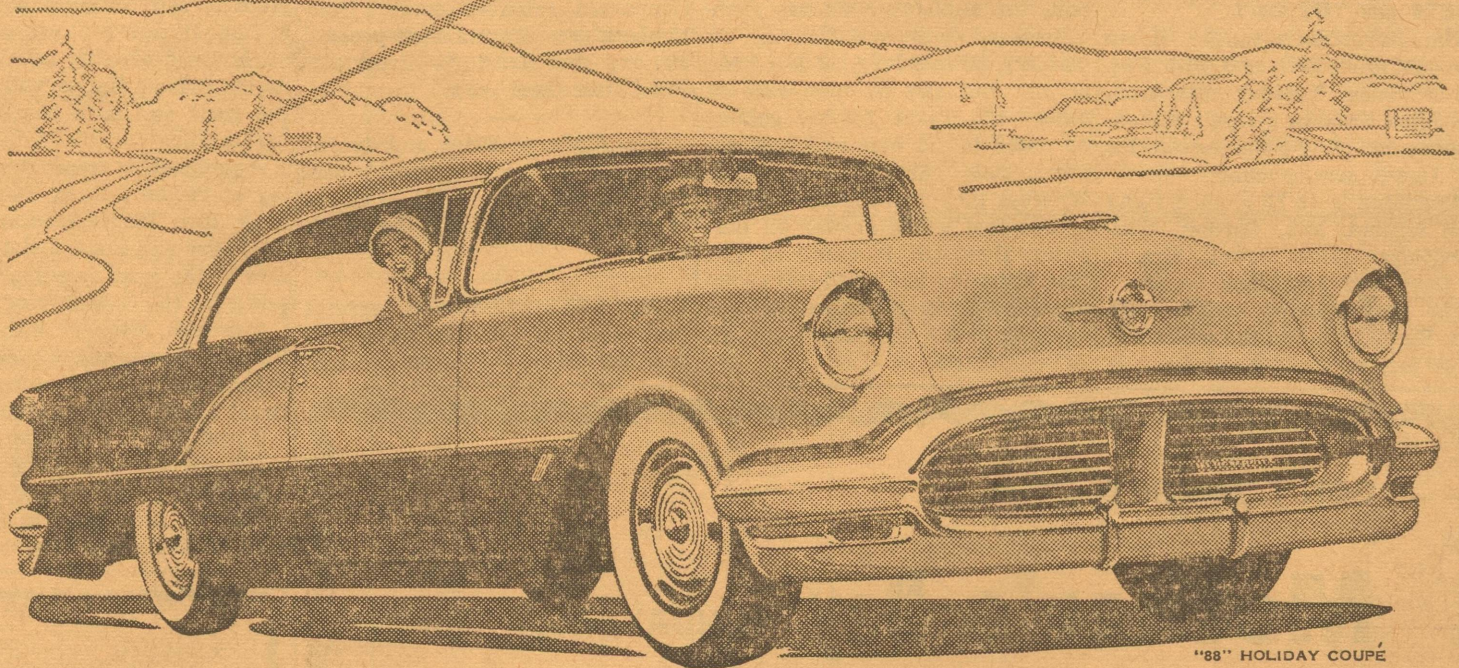

As a banking institution we commend the Soil Conservation District for the progress made in this county—their work is paying off, as evidenced by the results of last week's rains.

THREE CLASSES HAVE PICNICS IN SAN ANGELO

Three classes of school children and their class sponsors and room mothers of the school went to San Angelo Saturday to spend the day picnicking and taking in places of amusement. While the three classes did not go together, their paths crossed several times during the day.

Sponsors for the seventh grade were Mrs. Irene Teele and John Brown, and room mothers attending were Mrs. J. F. Mayo, chairman, Mrs. Orval Edmiston, Mrs. Andy Nixon, and Mrs. Richard Jones. Other mothers attending and taking their cars were Mrs. Walter McGregor and Mrs. Ray Bruton.

The group were served barbecued chicken by a San Angelo caterer, after two hours of swimming in the morning. They then skated, bowled and went to a show. Hamburgers were served for supper, the group reaching home by dark.

8th Grade

The eighth grade also took the trip to San Angelo in private cars. Teachers attending were Wesley Hayhurst and Katherine Hill, while the room mothers accompanying the children were Mrs. W. C. Parks, Mrs. Gene McCalla, Mrs. Ernest Thompson, Mrs. Bud Hall, Mrs. Jess Walston, and Mrs. Delwood Blair.

A picnic dinner was served at noon. The group spent their day swimming, skating and taking in other amusements in San Angelo.

Freshman Picnic

A teacher accompanying the Freshmen was Weldon Snodgrass, room mothers were Mrs. Archie Mittel, Mrs. Westbrook, Mrs. Marvin McAngus and Mrs. Edgar, and others were Mrs. Herman Walker, Mrs. C. C. Townsend, and Mrs. J. Griffin. Mrs. Ernest Nimitz met the group in San Angelo, where she teaches.

The group skated, bowled, swam and were served barbecued chicken by a caterer. The group left Eldorado at 8:30 a.m. and returned home about 7:00.

All of the classes, whose activities for the day were similar, report a good time.

First Baptist News

Mon. May 7. Several men from the church went to the Hillcrest Baptist Church Monday evening for the Associational Brotherhood meeting. The Texas State Brotherhood president, Fred Hughes, from San Antonio was guest speaker for the evening. A barbecued chicken supper was also enjoyed by the men.

Sat. May 12. The Intermediates and Young People will enjoy a holiday hayride Saturday evening. We will meet at the church at 7:00 p. m. and take a hayride out to the home of Joe Ray Stanford, for a hot dog supper. Fun and fellowship is planned for all the young people.

Sun., May 13. Sunday evening, following the close of the service, a family film will be shown entitled "A Chance to Grow." The film runs for 30 minutes, and points out that there is a growing appreciation for each other in the Christian family. We trust that many will take advantage of the showing of this picture Sunday evening.

Thought For The Week
Ministerial Alliance

This is Soil Conservation week so let us think just for a moment on these facts: God owns all the soil there is but man thinks he can take it away from God. At least it would seem that way. Only as we accept God's appointment as Stewards of the land can we recognize our rightful relationship to the Land. God has said thru the Psalmist (50:10) "Every beast of the forest is mine and the cattle on a thousand hills." To Moses of old he said, (Ex. 19:5) "If you will obey my voice and keep my covenant you shall be my possession among all peoples; For All the Earth is Mine." Just as he charged the first man, Adam, to care for his land just so the obligation rests upon us. It is not ours to exploit as has been done in the past but ours only to preserve and to keep as best we can that God's people may be fed down thru the ages. Wherever the earth is used greedily so that the soil is leached and erodes, men soon become impoverished. When man cares for the soil it will bring its yield of 100 fold. Yes, Man is bound to the soil and to God. —James L. Spencer.

THIS IS HOW TERRACING PAYS OFF WHEN IT RAINS

Your Soil Is Our Future

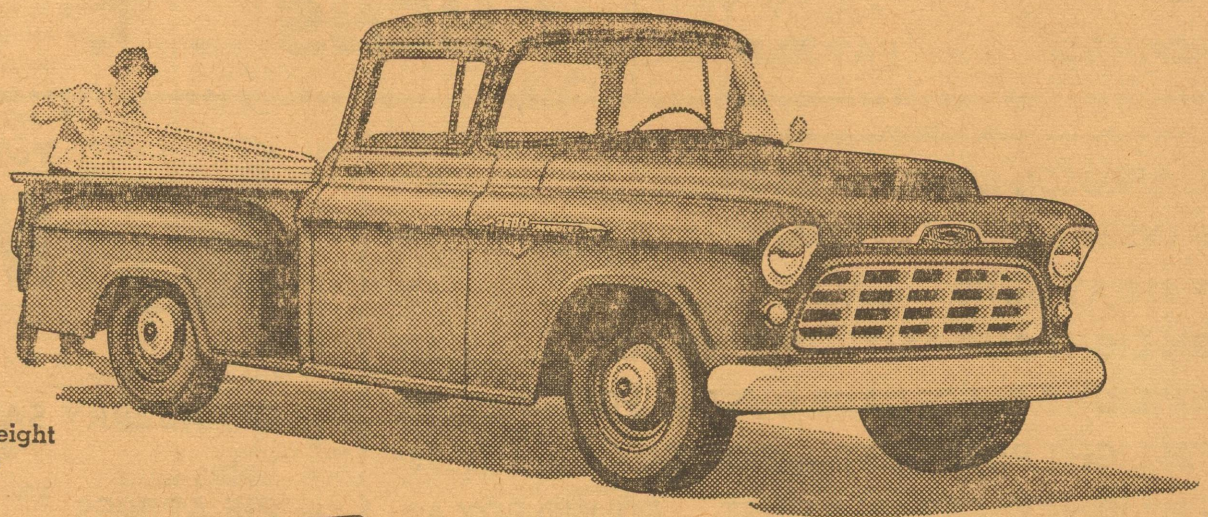

The future of the county rests on Schleicher County ranchers and farmers—who in turn improve their places in direct proportion to the extent of their conservation practices.

Your soil conservation district aims at

- SOUND LAND USE
- BUILDING SOIL PRODUCTIVITY
- USING THE RIGHT MEASURES ON EACH ACRE
- PROVIDING ECONOMICALLY SOUND PRACTICES

We are interested in a thriving agriculture because we serve a huge rural area—and anything that helps agriculture helps us! During Soil Conservation Week we gladly salute those who observe soil conservation practices and thus prepare the way for a thriving economy when the drouth is completely broken.

MENU PLAN FOR "DAD":

What to Buy

SLICED HAM—buy ready-to-eat canned ham. You'll need about 1/2 pound per person—but order a large enough ham so there'll be some left over for sandwiches.

How to Prepare: Chill in refrigerator (especially if can instructions say to "keep cool").
Remove from can just before dinner—and slice.

PEAS AND CARROTS—buy the frozen packaged kind. For a family of 4, you'll need 1 package. Read the directions on the package for cooking—and don't overcook!

TOSSED GREEN SALAD—Combine several kinds of salad greens—lettuce, romaine, endive—and mix with chopped green onions. Toss gently with a prepared French dressing and season well. Leave this until the last minute to keep the greens crisp and fresh.

ICE CREAM WITH STRAW-BERRIES—Vanilla ice cream would be best—and use frozen strawberries. All you do is let them thaw—they have already been sweetened!
