ELDORADO — SCHLEICHER COUNTY, TEXAS

THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1956

NUMBER 24

Excavating Starts On Swimming Pool Here

Excavating equipment for Schleicher county's new swimming pool was brought to the site in west Eldorado Tuesday of this week, and dirt moving operations are under way. Hayden Sales of Junction was awarded the contract recently for the pool, following previous voters' approval of a $35,000 bond issue.

The construction crew is expected to arrive in about a week or ten days, it was stated.

Location of the pool is on Lot 1 of Block 6 of the West addition, all of which block was purchased by the county for eventual park development.

County officials state that it is hoped to have the pool in operation by August.

Work is going ahead on water and sewer lines to the site.

Shugart Will Build Houses In Fort Stockton

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shugart and three children moved yesterday to Fort Stockton, where Mr. Shugart will continue to build residences, for which there is a heavy demand there.

Property which he owns here includes two new houses, which are on the market, an apartment house, and his own four-bedroom residence.

The family are moving part of their household goods to an apartment in Fort Stockton, and are closing their home in Eldorado.

The Shugarts moved here in 1942, to assume management of the Eldorado Success, which Shugart had bought, and which had been operated by an employee, who moved away. He later went into service, and after his return to Eldorado, farmed and ranched before starting in the building business. He has built a number of residences and other buildings in Eldorado.

The Shugarts have three children, Jackie, Janie and Jerry.

INJURES FOOT

Tommy Roach, who accompanied the Boy Scout troop to Camp Mayer this week, was brought back home Monday when he cut his foot while at the waterfront. He expected to be able to visit the camp again later this week.

Cattle Run Biggest Since Oct., '55

Fort Worth.—The number of cattle and calves at Fort Worth Monday was the largest at this market since October, 1955, and prices reflected strength despite the larger numbers. Both slaughter and stocker interests apparently needed numbers and prices were fully steady to strong, with spots 25 cents or more higher.

Comparative Prices: Slaughter steers and yearlings of good and choice grades cashed at $16.50 to $21; and common and medium sorts $10-16. Butcher and beef cows sold from $10.50 to $13.50, load lots of cows at $13 from the Pitchfork Land & Cattle Co., King County; a load at $13.50 from C. T. White Ranch, McCulloch county; and a load of choice young cows including some heiferish kinds at $13.50 to $14.50, those at the higher figure weighing 1,078 pounds from Halsell Ranch, Clay county. Cannons and cutters $7 to $10.50. Bulls $10-14.

Good and choice stocker steer calves cashed at $17-21.50 and lower grades sold from $13-16; stocker steer yearlings $13-18; replacement cows $8-12.50.

Lambs Weaken

The slaughter lambs trade was around 50 cents to $1 per hundred lower with the larger end of the dip on the medium to fairly good slaughter lambs at Fort Worth Monday. Stockers and feeders and older sheep sold steady to 50 cents lower.

Comparative prices included: Good and choice Spring lambs $13-24; cull to medium Springers $12-17; stocker and feeder Spring lambs $14-16.50; shorn old crop fat lambs $16.50-20, strictly choice lots quotable higher; cull to medium clippers $9-16. METHODIST OFFICIAL BOARD MEETS AND ADOPTS BUDGET

The official board of the Eldorado First Methodist Church held its first meeting of the new church year on Monday night, and elected officers and adopted a budget for the new year.

Edward Meador was elected chairman of the board for the coming year, and meetings generally will be held on the second Monday of each month. W. A. Brooks was named vice chairman, and Bill Lester was elected as secretary. Due to conflicting events taking place at Kerrville the July meeting will be held on the third Monday, instead of the second, it was decided.

A budget of over $20,000.00 for the coming year was read and approved—including a pastor's salary of $5,600.00.

A committee was appointed to investigate the feasibility of air-conditioning the main auditorium and it is expected that this will be accomplished within the next few days or week.

The board members and Rev. Russell Heaner, the new pastor, are looking forward to a busy year.

Nimitz, Dwayne Sauer, Judge Whitten, and Farris Nixon are on the grass identification team which will enter the grass contests and take a short course in range management. James Williams Going Back Into Used Car Business In Eldorado

James Williams, salesman for the George Humphrey Ford company for the past year, this week reports that he is going back into business for himself as a used and new car dealer.

The business will be situated on his former location next to the Success office and he expects to be on the job next week.

But first—James says—there is a lot of fishing to catch up with, and this week is to be devoted to that.

Post Script

An interesting quilt on display in Shaw's window this week will be given as a prize for benefit of the homecoming fund. The quilt shows Schleicher county brands and was made in 1935 by the late Mrs. Bud Douglas when she was 71.

The quilt has been stored for 19 years by the P. F. Cases, who recently donated it to the homecoming committee. The Class of 1930 has charge of the homecoming this year, with Mrs. Elizabeth Ballew as chairman.

For the first time in several years a crop dusting airplane has been hovering over Schleicher County cotton fields, and poisoning the insects which have begun to be noticeable. Town folk have especially enjoyed watching the pilot at work at Perry Mittel's, just outside the city limits of Eldorado.

Crops in irrigated fields over the county are looking good, with cotton six or seven inches high in some fields.

Threshing of a 26-acre field of mixed grains—oats, barley, etc.—at Clyde Keeney's is over, and provides Irrigation Farmer Keeney with his first income from his fields, under irrigation.

The grain threshed out 75 to 80 bushels per acre, without fertilizer and Mr. Keeney thinks he can substantially increase the yield next year with addition of fertilizer.

Local showers fell in the county during the weekend. Jimmie Martin received a 1.3 inch rain—Eldorado about a half—and points in the northern part of the county two inches.

A flash flood in the west part of the county delayed traffic for a few hours and brought good rains to a few fortunate ranchers in that area.

Henry Speck Jr. received 2.2 inches and Ford Oglesby a good rain. Others reporting are Buck Davis, .90; Ed Davis, 2.00; and Milton Fought, 1.00.

Fred Case left this week for Ewing, Illinois, to deliver some cattle to Albert Webb at Ewing.

The irrigation well at M. H. Crabb's is being drilled to straighten the hole, and testing of the well is expected to take place this week.

Perry Mittel is getting his borders ready, then will fertilize his fields and irrigate again. He has sprayed twice for flea hoppers.

Mrs. Ebba Finley's small business building is being moved this week to the residence of Mrs. Finley's father S. E. Jones, in preparation for enlarging and remodeling of the Harkey Humble Station near by. Workmen started on the moving project Monday.

Boy Scouts Spending Week At Camp Mayer

Fourteen Boy Scouts from Eldorado's Troop 18 are spending this week at Camp Sol Mayer, near Fort McKavett, with Ed Hicks as counselor.

The troop left for camp Sunday morning at 9:00, immediately following a service conducted by Rev. Perry Cox, representing the Ministerial Alliance.

They spent the first day processing into camp, setting up tents, taking swimming classification tests, and getting medical rechecks. Activities during the week were to include swimming, archery, rifle range, and handicrafts.

Kenneth Haynes, Scoutmaster of Eden, is camp director of activities, and James (Ace) Amos, former Eden coach, now at Snyder, is director of the rifle range.

By patrols, those attending from the Eldorado troop are:

Jim Runge, Alton Mitchell, Joe Charles Christian, David Childers, Buren Whitten;

Kenneth Hicks, Donny Holden, Herman Walker Jr., Phillip Parker, Tommy Roach;

Joe Smith, Dale Haynes, Allen Smith, and Roy Lynn Sallee.

This evening, Thursday, is Parents Night at the camp and a special program has been prepared. A number from here plan to attend.

Approximately 100 Scouts from over the 23½ counties of Concho Valley Council are attending the session. Meals for the entire group and their leaders are served in the large dining hall.

Camp will close with the noon meal on Saturday, after which the group will start back.

The local troop last attended summer camp at Camp Mayer in 1952, four years ago. Three years ago the unit went to Camp Fawcett and 2 years ago several individuals accompanied the Barnhart unit to Camp Louis Farr.

Gulf Filling Station Gets New Proprietor

Solon Booth, for several years a stock man at Parker Foods, this week entered business for himself when he bought out the Gulf service station business from Jeffrey Brothers.

The station is located on Main Street adjoining the Wm. Cameron lumber yard, and is equipped for washing and greasing as well as distributing of Gulf products.

Solon has been a resident of Eldorado over five years, and had filling station experience before coming here.

LIONS CLUB MEETS

Ed Meador discussed the proposed city bond election, at yesterday's Lions club meeting. He had a city map on display which showed proposed sewer and water extensions.

A film on deep sea fishing off Florida was shown, with Perry Cox as projectionist.

It was announced that installation of officers and Monarch night would be held the night of the 26th.

Directors discussed the promotion of a scholarship fund to send a Boy Scout to the next National Jamboree scheduled for 1957 at Valley Forge, Pa.

Legion Post 257 Elects Officers For New Year

The American Legion post elected officers at their meeting last Thursday night, who will be installed at the August meeting and serve for one year. They are: commander, Orland Harris; first vice commander, Bill Rountree; adjutant, Charles Love; chaplain, Rev. J. C. Hancock; historian, Bill Gunstead; service officer, Patton Enochs; and sergeant at arms, Benjie Harkey.

At the same meeting it was decided to wait until the July 5th meeting to make a decision on whether or not the post will have a float in the Homecoming parade.

Orland Harris reported that he already had 28 goats on hand for barbecuing. The Legion post will sell barbecue July 14, homecoming day, and again July 28, the day of the Democratic primary.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. James Spencer and Adjutant Bill Lester read the minutes of the previous meeting.

BRADY STOCK CAR RACES PROVING TO BE POPULAR

Stock car races in Brady every Sunday afternoon at the July Jubilee's big, cool all-steel grandstand are proving very popular with the fans.

The races started the middle of last month, and each Sunday the attendance has increased steadily. More than 600 persons last week saw eight races on the new quarter mile track, built especially for the autos. Brady is well represented now with the racing "jalopies" which compete with cars from Austin, Llano, Abilene, Mason and other surrounding points.

The Sunday afternoon races are sponsored by the July Jubilee Board of Directors and under the direction of Jack Wootan.

Guests of the Russell Donaldsons were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nall and children of Corpus Christi, Dean and Don Nall of San Angelo and the Howard Faulk family of Abilene.

Birth Certificate Copies Should Be Ordered Now, Says Health Official

Austin, June 14.—The State Department of Health today asked all parents of children who will enter public schools for the first time in September to make requests "now" for copies of the children's birth records.

Most school systems require a birth certificate to prove the child was six years old on September 1. "Making early requests for birth records will save parents and us time and trouble," said State Registrar W. D. Carroll.

Carroll, director of the health department's Division of Vital Statistics, says several hundred parents have already requested and received certified copies of birth records for their children.

But tens of thousands of requests from other parents will have to be processed between now and the beginning of new school term. If too many people delay until August—as they usually do—Carroll and his limited staff will again have to put in hours of night and week-end work without overtime pay.

"The overtime work isn't important," Carroll said. "But it is important when a youngster can't enter school for lack of a birth record."

Birth records keepers shudder when they think of the estimated 260,000 kids who will be eligible to enter the first grade this fall. Many of them have copies of birth records and will create no problem. Others live in areas where school officials do not require proof of age before admitting the child to the hallowed halls of learning.

But the majority do not have certified proof of age, despite the fact that they live in areas where school officials insist on such proof. This is the category that gives health department statisticians and clerks sleepless nights.

Last year the department processed more than 60,000 requests during the months of August, September, and October.

Bert Page has returned from a two weeks' visit in Galveston.

'Thought For The Week Ministerial Alliance

By PERRY COX

Next Sunday is Father's Day. Homes all over our nation are going to be honoring their fathers, in memory of their love, watch-care, and devotion throughout the past year, for their families. Certainly it is wonderful that families will honor their fathers, but how glorious it is to know that God also honors men who have been faithful as fathers.

The Bible tells us in Ps. 22:4, "Our Fathers trusted in thee; they trusted, and thou didst deliver them." Certainly a challenge to any father is to be found in this verse of scripture. God promises to bestow his grace and good favor upon a "man of God." Fortunate indeed are the homes which are led by Christian fathers. I thank the Lord for my Christian home, influenced greatly by the love of a Christian, God-fearing man. May each father this week-end resolve in his heart to seek the Lord's favor, as their families honor them on June 17—Dad's "day of days."

Herman and Joe Phillips spent Saturday night and Sunday with their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Barbee at Brady, and brought home their sister Mollie who had spent two weeks there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hale and sons returned Sunday night from California where they spent Mr. Hale's ten-day vacation. They report that a high point of their trip was a visit to Disneyland. On Monday morning, Billy Sam Hale left for Iraan to work for Ohio there this summer.

The Paul Page family returned Saturday from a visit with relatives in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Alexander and son of Vincent spent the weekend with relatives in the county.

Mrs. Mabel Parker spent the weekend in Robert Lee with her parents.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Tiny Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

The USDA has given a "crash program" to the preparation of materials and educational aids for use in the Soil Bank program. Distribution of these materials will be through the local ASC office.

Information materials will be prepared at both the state and local levels.

The critical time element, especially in Texas, may be causing anxiety over the soil bank program for 1956. It is a tremendous task for the department of agriculture to get ready for such an undertaking, in activating the soil bank. As the material is prepared it will be passed on to farmers in the form of pamphlets, news releases, and visual aids.

All commercial lamb feeders in the county will take heart in this ration. This was devised as a self feeder ration for lambs and most remarkable results have been obtained:

- 30% ----- maize
- 15% ----- cottonseed meal
- 10% ----- molasses
- 10% ----- dehydrated alf. meal
- 35% ----- cottonseed hulls

To this add 5 1/2 pounds of aeromycin per ton of feed. 700-800 pounds of feed gives 100 pounds gain.

This ration is excellent in many respects for creep feeding calves by the addition of oats or part oats to take the place of maize. Perhaps you may want a ration to take the place of meal and salt for range cattle. Raise the percentage of hull up to 45-50%; cut the maize accordingly or substitute oats entirely for the maize. In case of range cattle leave the aeromycin out of the mixture.

Requests have been made by many ranchmen for an effective control of scum in drinking troughs and water storage.

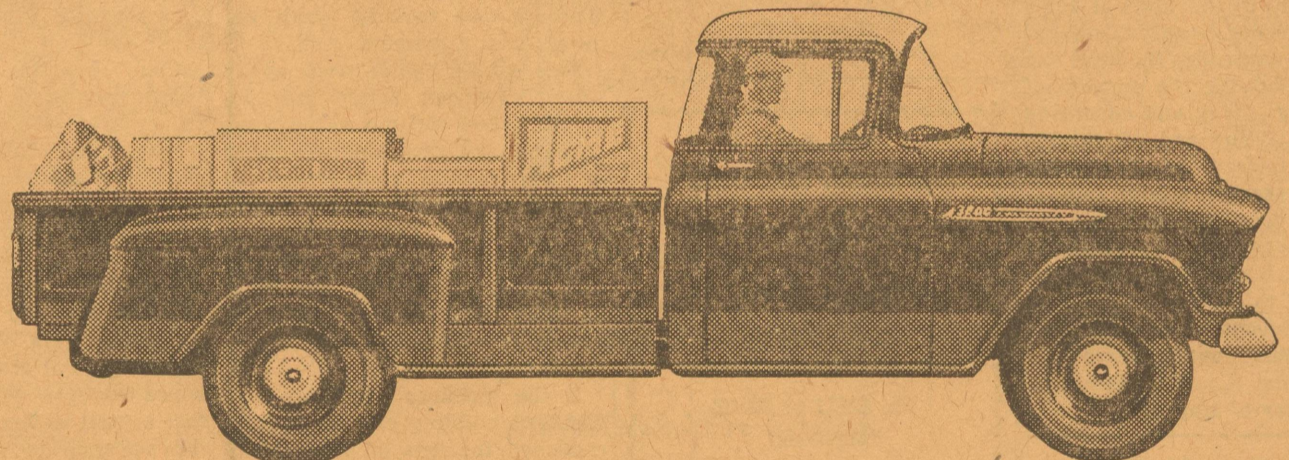

One ounce of bluestone for every 8,000 gallons of water will control scum; or one level teaspoonful per 1500 gallons of water. These proportions should be carefully followed. Too much bluestone is injurious to stock, humans and fish. Care should be taken to add only the proper amount.

In treating tanks, bluestone may be put in a sack and dragged through the water until it is dissolved, insuring good distribution.

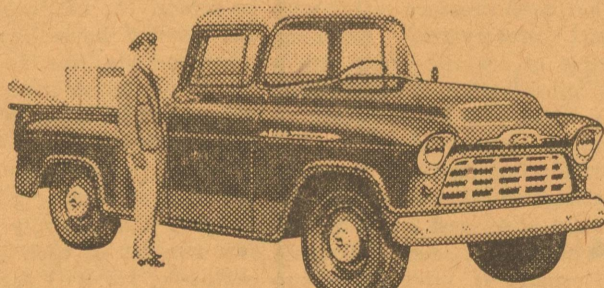

Control of thrips and flea hoppers resulted in gains of 310-602 pounds of seed cotton an acre in the plains area of Texas, or an average of $50.44 an acre on irrigation cotton.

Two or three applications of toxophene, dieldrin and heptachlor controlled thrips and flea hoppers effectively.

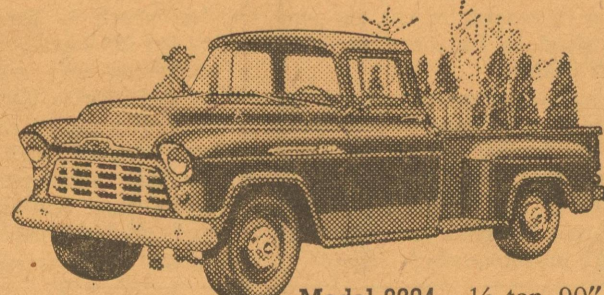

Treated cotton sets fruit earlier and showed less growth than plants on untreated areas.

A program was rendered by the entire group, at which the pastor, Rev. Russell Heaner, addressed the children and adults who attended. Following the service, there was display of the children's handwork in the educational building and refreshments were served. Mrs. Jimmie Martin was superintendent of the school.

Plans are being made for the annual men's fishing trip, to be held June 22 and 23.

The MYF will meet with the PY F at the Presbyterian Church Sunday night, the Methodist pastor bringing the message.

Those attending the district set-up meeting Thursday in San Angelo were Rev. and Mrs. Russell Heaner and their guest Mrs. B. T. Heaner, Mrs. Palmer West, Mrs. Ed Hill, Mrs. W. F. Meador, and Lawrence Steen.

BIBLE SCHOOL COMPLETED

The 10-day Presbyterian Bible School closed Wednesday with open house and display of handwork, also a program, in the various departments Wednesday morning. Certificates were awarded to those who attended, with gold stars for those with perfect attendance.

Attending were an average of 28 pupils and 10 helpers every day. Mrs. Edwin Jackson headed the school.

Arriving here Tuesday for a visit with the Edwin Jacksons for several days were Mrs. J. C. McKinley and son Jimmie and Mrs. Ethel Mae Beal of Austin, and June Johnson of San Antonio. They are relatives of Mrs. Jackson.

Memorials

A TRIBUTE TO MY FATHER
MR. L. T. WILSON
who will not be with us this Father's Day.

Out of a harbor a great ship sailed
We waved to our loved ones, good-bye.
Then watched the boat 'til it disappeared
In the blending of ocean and sky.
But beyond our vision the ship sailed on,
Its course all charted and planned,
And surely and safely made its way,
To a port in a foreign land
From the Harbor of Life another ship—
Bearing a loved one dear—
Has sailed beyond our vision and call,
But truly we need not fear,
For by faith we know on the other side,
There's a beautiful golden shore
Where our ship will anchor and those we love
Will live and rejoice evermore.

Eliminate Dampness In Repairing Wood Decay

College Station.—In repairing a wooden building damaged by decay, it is of primary importance first to determine the source of moisture that brought about the decay, and if possible remove it. This advice comes from W. S. Allen, extension agricultural engineer. Wood will not decay when it is kept dry, says Allen. To decay it must contain moisture in an amount greater than 20 percent of its dry weight. The decay is actually caused by fungi—tiny, thread-like plants which grow and carry on their destructive life processes only when sufficient moisture is present.

If the moisture condition in a damaged building cannot be fully remedied, the decayed parts should be replaced with a naturally durable type of wood or with wood that has been pressure treated with a wood preservative. Brushing, spraying, or soaking wood with a wood preservative is worthwhile if the wood will be subjected to occasional wetting only.

In replacing damaged wood, it is advisable to remove material for a distance of at least 2 feet beyond any evidence of decay, because wood usually is infected beyond the point where rot is apparent. If the source of moisture can be definitely eliminated, however, it is then necessary to cut out only such wood as has been rendered unserviceable.

To prevent decay in new wooden buildings, it is important to build with dry lumber and use building designs that will keep the wood dry, or if that is impossible use wood that has been pressure treated with preservatives.

EASTSIDE SCHOOL CLOSURES

The Eastside Vacation Bible School closed with Commencement services last night. Mrs. Vernon Carroll is in charge of the program which included the usual professional, programs by the various departments and display of handwork.

Poultry Needs Protection From Summer Heat

College Station.—As summer temperatures climb above 85 degrees, many poultry flocks will drop in egg production. Feed consumption will decrease and water consumption increase, Texas poultrymen should begin now to plan for adequate protection of their flocks during periods of high temperature, says Ben Wormeli, extension poultry husbandman.

Increased water space, more effective ventilation systems, water sprays and shade are all being employed in an effort to thwart old man sun.

Normal body heat of a chicken is about 107 degrees. Chickens have no sweat glands and therefore cannot depend upon evaporation for body cooling. This makes it necessary to take precautions during the summer to provide the birds with shade and ventilation.

About 85 percent of the sun's heat enters a poultry house as radiated heat through the roof, says Wormeli. It is important, therefore, that roofing material be a light colored material that will reflect a large amount of sun rays, reducing the amount of heat absorbed by the roof. The roof should be 8 feet high at the walls and 12 to 15 feet high at the gable. This provides space for roof heat to dissipate in the ceiling area without reaching the chickens. Proper ventilation will carry heated air from the house before it reaches floor level. Roof overhang should be sufficient to keep sunlight off the floor and prevent radiated heat from that source.

It is wise to keep outside areas of the house free of tall grass, allowing free air movement for ventilation, says Wormeli. Keeping outside ground around the poultry house covered with short grass that is well watered helps prevent the warming of air moving into the poultry house.

Tall slot fences are being used to protect the northwest corner of the poultry house from the late afternoon sun. Heating of this corner of the house is reported to be a major cause of death loss during extreme heat.

Some poultrymen are using sprinkler systems or a garden hose to spray and carefully wet birds a few minutes of each hour during periods of hundred degree temperature. Good air movement is a must when the birds are wet. Otherwise stifling humidity can develop which is harder on the birds than dry heat.

Poultrymen who are now providing facilities to give maximum protection against extremes of summer heat, will maintain a good rate of feed consumption and performance that will provide the summer profits needed for good year round earnings, says Wormeli.

Highway Accidents Up With Summer Travel

College Station.—Take safety with you and enjoy your vacation. Toss caution to the winds and there may never be another vacation trip, warns the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council. For they point out as motor travel booms, traffic accidents, especially in rural areas, also zoom upward.

The Council offers a few suggestions for cutting the summer accident toll. Give the car a thorough check-up before starting on the trip and watch for signs of trouble along the way. Don't block vision by improperly loading the car for good vision is a must for safe driving.

Be prepared for emergencies. A first aid kit, maps, permits if needed, identification, a flashlight, a tool kit and maybe a few spare parts should be carried along.

Much of the responsibility for a safe trip rests with the driver. Fatigue greatly reduces his efficiency. Plan the trip, urges the Council, to allow for rest stops during the day and a good night's sleep each night. Don't, they caution, try to drive and take in the sights at the same time.

Know the laws of the states in which you expect to travel for ignorance of the law is only an excuse. Use traffic signs as a guide for safe driving. They are for your protection.

Traffic will be a problem during the vacation season in all parts of the country. Don't get in a hurry nor drive faster than conditions justify, warn the experts. Be adaptable and fit your driving to the peculiarities and conditions that exist in the areas where you drive. Respect the rights of others and remember, if safety rides with you, you and your family can look forward to next year's vacation.

Going down the home stretch... The House last week tackled the annual foreign bill, insisted on a $1 billion cut, and postponed final action until early this week. The target date for adjournment has been set at July 10 by the leadership, but if history repeats it will probably go another week or two.

The big conventions coming up in August account for this interest in early adjournment this year. There's a lot of top-level maneuvering by the party chiefs. The Democrats, for example, say they'll take a full week for pre-convention work on the civil rights plank, alone. You can bet the Republicans will spend plenty of time on that issue, too. Both sides this year are trying to out-do the other in attempts to snare the Negro vote.

With some straws indicating some of the colored clan scampering over to the Republican camp, the Republicans are really getting excited about it. Just like old times. And that makes the Democrats very unhappy because they have had that minority block pretty well sewed up since FDR and Eleanor pulled them over. Democrat big-wigs count heavily on Eleanor to do it again.

In the meantime, here in Congress the battle goes on—the battle, that is, over who can out-promise the other. The GOP jumped ahead a few paces with a civil rights bill never before equalled, while the Democratic counterparts complain the Republicans have jumped on something the Democrats were thinking about all the time!

A pre-view of that major battle for colored votes took place in the presidential primaries. With both Stevenson and Kefauver trying to outdo the other in promises, excuses, and re-assurances, it became luridous in California where two-thirds of all their talk centered on that subject. But then came the Nation's two best Negro vote-getters, namely, Eleanor and Helen Gahagan Douglas, both rallying to Stevenson's side in a major flare for the favor of the million colored people in California. And that turned the trick.

The Eldorado - Divide Soil Conservation District is making plans to hold its annual grass and soil judging contest in the near future. This will be the second year the district supervisors have sponsored this event.

The contest will be divided into different age groups and will cover grass identification, land judging and related conservation problems. The 4-H club and High School Future Farmers of America will participate. All persons qualified to enter the different age groups are invited. The district will award prizes to all group winners.

The personnel of the Soil Conservation Service, the F. F. A. instructor and county agent will have charge of the contest.

A person can now see what good range management will do. How a pasture was treated in the past can now be observed in terms of production of forage. The differences can be seen in the areas of this district receiving good rains last month.

Pastures which had a good cover of old grass and litter on the ground are the ones having the heaviest stands of grass today. This grass is green and still growing. The pastures with little or no cover before the rains are badly in need of rain now.

Taking care of your range grasses provides the difference. Those with good cover absorbed nearly all the rain that fell; the other pastures lost better than half their moisture to runoff and evaporation.

Some pastures are still green and growing; others are turning brown and in need of moisture. The big difference between the two will be in amount of forage produced. Deferment and light stocking during years of less than average rainfall pays off in greater future returns. You're making the best use of all the rain that falls, and your crop of grass increases with each year of improvement.

It takes rain to grow grass, but you need proper treatment of pastures to go with it. Leave a cover of old grass, weeds and leaves on the ground. It'll insure the growth of more grass the following years.

DEN 4 TO MEET

Mrs. Gordon McDonald's Den 4 will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Each Cub is asked to bring a small potato, also books to be checked. A two-hour meeting is planned.

Austin.—Regardless of who is elected this summer, most Texans probably won't find their daily lives greatly changed. But to one segment of the population, the 22,000 state employees and their families, it matters a lot. It affects their livelihood.

As much as a 20% turnover in state employees can be expected after the new officials take over in January.

This estimate comes from Pirtle Watts, executive secretary of the Texas Public Employees Association. About one-third of the membership is concentrated in the Capitol; the rest is scattered over the state.

TPEA members on the whole are quite discreet in their politics, Watts thinks. Their association by-laws expressly prohibit any group endorsement. But individuals, especially certain key personnel, are courted by candidates. Many office seekers, especially in Travis county, regularly promise "more adequate pay."

And those employees whose jobs hinge on the boss' being reelected naturally pull for him. State law, while not as strict as the federal Hatch Act, puts some restrictions on this.

Formerly a rider on the appropriations bill forbade any political activity by state employees. Now the ban is only against use of state cars, or campaigning on state time.

Insurance Companies. Re-Align. "Merger" will be a much-discussed word in the Texas insurance industry during coming weeks.

Wind-up of the State Insurance Commission's stringent solvency survey left 94 companies—or 7%—without licenses. New permits were granted to 1,219 firms.

Results confirmed Chairman Byron Saunders' prediction that the industry would prove 90 to 95% sound. He said so last January when the commission began its drive to "weed out the bad apples." Many already have negotiations under way, or completed, to merge with stronger companies. More realignments are expected, especially among life companies where many large firms actively seek reinsurance business.

Radar Traps Attacked. Are the Texas Highway Patrol's radar speed nets illegal? Amarillo Attorney Horace E. Wilson says he will fight to the Supreme Court, if necessary, to prove they are. Wilson was arrested recently and fined $5 plus costs. A radar set near Seguin had clocked him at 71 miles per hour.

He declares Section 803A of the State Penal Code provides for automatic dismissal of a speeding charge if the arresting officer lies in wait or hides.

In Austin Patrol Chief W. J. Elliott said "nothing in state law prohibits hiding the radar unit, but the highway patrol does not make this a practice. We can do more good by putting ourselves out in the open."

Davy Ready for Tourists. Texans, who tour their Capitol by the thousands each year, will see a fresh-faced Davy Crockett this summer. Crockett's huge portrait was rehung in the Capitol foyer last week after an extensive re-touching job. Legislators last session authorized $12,000 for conservation work on five valuable paintings.

Taxpayers have invested $95,409 in the fabulous art collection scattered over the Capitol. Resale value is estimated as high as half a million dollars. Tourist favorites are "Dawn at the Alamo" and "The Battle of San Jacinto." They are located in the Senate chamber. Each cost $12,500.

Mrs. John Davis became ill while visiting in the county and on Saturday entered Shannon hospital in San Angelo as a patient.

RUDD CLUB MEETS

Mrs. A. B. Thomerson was hostess to the Rudd Home Demonstration Club at the last meeting.

After a short business meeting, Mrs. Kreklow gave a demonstration on living room and flower arrangements.

Refreshments were served to six members and two guests. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Cecil Townsend June 25th.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. TANKERSLEY

The home of Mrs. Lake Tankersley was the meeting place for the Reynolds-Alexander Home Demonstration Club June 12.

Mrs. Vida Kreklow, home demonstration agent, gave a demonstration on preparing and serving of frozen foods. The menu included veal bird, broccoli, crisp green salad, French bread with garlic butter and chocolate mint mold.

Guests for the day were Mrs. L. Moore, Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. Arthur Smith and Mrs. Oscar Teague.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Billy Jack Reynolds on June 26.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Just the Facts, Ma'am!

Having a red-hot crime wave in town. Specs McGuire and Buck Hanson were caught taking money out of parking meters—again. I was at Police Headquarters when a nice old lady rushed in to report them.

"It was dark but I saw their faces in the flashlight beam," she said breathlessly. "You can't trust anybody these days!"

She got flustered when Chief Benson explained that Specs and Buck are authorized collectors—working nights after their regular jobs. "Have to get 'em uniforms," said Benson. "Third time they've been turned in!"

From where I sit, we ought to guard against accusing anyone of being "wrong" just because that's the way it looks to us. For instance, I've heard people talk against a neighbor because they didn't approve of his choice of beverage! (They liked tea, or something, while he preferred a glass of beer.) Be sure you have a case before you lay down the law.
