First Baptist Church Pastor Announces Resignation Sunday

Rev. J. Clifton Hancock, pastor of the First Baptist church, Eldorado, for the past nearly four years, Sunday officially announced his resignation, effective May 10th, and reported that at that time he will leave for Houston to become pastor of the Garden Villas Baptist church.

The church governing body has accepted his resignation and has selected a committee whose duty it will be to secure a new pastor.

Rev. Hancock's period of service here will have been three years and 10 months. He became pastor of the local church July 15, 1953, coming here from Quannah where he had been pastor of the North Groesbeck Baptist church. His administration of the Eldorado church has been very successful—both from a membership standpoint as well as financial. The annual budget of the church was increased from $17,000 in 1953 to more than $26,000 in 1957—an average increase of approximately $3,000 each year. The total receipts of the church during this time was approximately $120,000. Of this amount more than $25,000 was given to Christian causes outside the local church.

From a membership standpoint the records show that 188 new members have been received—67 by baptism and 121 by letter.

The value of the church property has increased over $30,000 in the past four years, and is accounted for as follows:

$20,000 ----- Parsonage
$4,500 ----- Cabin at Lake Brown-wood
$3,000 ----- Parsonage for Mexican mission
$3,000 ----- Educational Building, Mexican Mission

Other major improvements to the church plant include the following:

The church auditorium was air conditioned with refrigerated air at a cost of more than $3,000. The old parsonage was utilized as a nursery building, greatly expanding the educational space of the church.

Even with the increased budget and extensive building program of

Final T-V Show To Be Given Tomorrow Night

The third and final talent show put on by Eldorado people will be given over the San Angelo TV station Friday, tomorrow, night at 6:30. Mrs. Gus Love is in general charge of arrangements.

Included on the program will be the Eldorado quartet composed of Mrs. Love, Nolan McDonald, Weldon Davis, and Jim Hancock. Also there will be Betty Jones, who will do a singing act in blackface; Happy Kerr with her musical saw, Arnie Lee Westbrook to twirl, the high school sextette, and a one-minute promotion of Luedecke Day, which be held here July 4.

Eldo Section Foreman Moved To Sonora

C. O. Meador, Santa Fe section foreman here two years, was notified Saturday that he would be moved to Sonora and that the Sonora foreman would be "bumped," eliminating one employee on the line. He and Mrs. Meador will move some time this month.

It is understood that he is to be placed in Sonora rather than remain in Eldorado because of the fact that much more stock is shipped from the Sonora yards by rail—and he checks out such shipments.

No announcement has been made concerning disposition of the foreman's residence here.

The Meadors are Methodists and Mrs. Meador has been teacher of the Wesley class.

DISTRICT COURT CASES CANCELED

Cases which were to have come up for trial in 51st District Court session this week were settled out of court over the weekend, before any of the veniremen listed in last week's Success were impaneled for jury duty.

SENIORS TO LEAVE AT MIDNIGHT FOR TRIP TO GALVESTON

EHS Seniors of '57 will leave tonight at 12:01 for their four-day trip to Galveston, which will last through the long holiday weekend coming up. The class expects to go directly to Galveston, arriving there at about 10:00 Friday morning, where they will stay at the Paccaneer hotel. Accompanying the group will be Mr. and Mrs. Guy Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burkart, and Supt. T. E. Holcomb.

Of the 28 members of the class, 26 expect to make the trip. The two exceptions are Bobby Jeffrey and Hubert Koy Hight, who have had mumps recently.

While in Galveston the class plans to attend church services Sunday morning, and sometime while there will have a fishing trip. They expect to start back Monday for Eldorado and to arrive here at about 9:00 p.m.

As always, the Senior trip culminates months, and even years, of planning and fund raising on the part of the class members and their sponsors.

Ruth and Fae Williams spent the weekend with Roy Williams in Austin. Roy, who attends the University, will be at home for the Easter holidays.

Post Script

Lum Davis is wearing a fine 21-jewel Lord Elgin wristwatch which was presented to him Tuesday night at a Firestone tire dealers' meeting. The meeting was held in the Cactus Hotel in the form of a luncheon. Davis was presented the watch in recognition of 20 years as a Firestone dealer.

Speakers at the meeting predicted that 1957 was going to be a record-breaking business year, but they also cautioned that dealers would find competition keen and profits smaller.

Work of paving the loop around the Sinclair gas products plant at Huldale started Tuesday. This is a company project, approved several months ago.

In renewing her subscription recently to the Success, Mrs. Carl M. Farrar of 609 W. Tate, Senobia, Mississippi, wrote, "I enjoy getting the paper. I have been taking it for close to 20 years and love to read about all of our friends. I see where you have been getting some rain. We have gotten 22 inches since Jan. 1st. Everything here is beautiful."

We are always glad to hear from out-of-town people who are interested in Eldorado, especially when they are good Success readers like the Farrars.

Hanusch Brothers started drilling Monday on Leonard Lloyd's, hoping to strike water for irrigation. This test is just northeast of the first well, a producer, near the tank.

The Fort McKavett Humble Station and Stations A and B have been notified that they will continue to pump full capacity until May 1, then there will be further orders.

Schleicher wild flowers do not seem to need a great deal of moisture to put on quite a show, as they are doing this spring.

Wild verbenas are blooming profusely, especially along the highway north of Eldorado, along roadsides and in ravines. Bob Anderson's rain gage records 4.72 inches of rain this spring in that locality.

Another showy bloomer is the red-flowered cactus which is unusually pretty this month. Other flowers, in white, salmon pink, yellow and lavender, are at their best right now.

Bluebonnets are getting a good start along highways too, where highway employees plant them, getting the seed from the Mason locality. Bluebonnets are also doing unusually well in Eldorado, in such spots as courthouse lawn, C. W. McWhorter place, E. H. Coulter's, Palmer West's, and others.

Claude King is new owner of the Gulf station formerly owned by Solon Boothe, and has re-named it King Gulf Service. J. Heffernan is station manager, and Mr. King will continue to be in charge of the Wax Plant which he bought last year. Both men are well known in Eldorado.

In his opening ad on page two of this issue, announcement is made of a special price on washing and greasing and checking. Service will be stressed, states the proprietor in his ad.

HOOVER IS HONORED FOR 45 YEARS WORK AS CHURCH TREAS.

The entire morning program was devoted to the career of L. M. Hoover Sunday at First Baptist church, in recognition of Mr. Hoover's 45 years of service as church treasurer.

In a speech of appreciation, the pastor, Rev. J. C. Hancock, expressed the gratitude of the congregation, and presented Mr. Hoover with a certificate.

The treasurer's reports of 1912 and 1913, and of the past year, were on display. There were also cut flowers which had been sent to Mr. Hoover.

Later Rev. Hancock presented his resignation as pastor, effective May 10, and the deacons later elected a pulpit committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Mittel, T. P. Robinson Jr., Henry Moore, Will Whitten and Bill Rountree. Mittel is committee chairman.

County Tax Valuations Drop Below 15 Million Dollar Mark

PRE-ENROLLMENT IS ANNOUNCED FOR SCHOOL 1st GRADERS

The spring pre-enrollment of all Schleicher county children who will enter the first grade of the public schools in September, will be held next week at the school, with Mrs. Joe Andrews as general chairman.

The Anglo-American children will come on Tuesday, April 23rd, and the Latin-American children will come on the 24th.

Parents are asked to bring their children to school at 11:00 a.m. Children will be guests in the first grade rooms. They will eat lunch in the cafeteria, as guests, and will enter into the school activities until 2:00 p.m.

At 2:00, parents will come for refreshments, after which the children will be enrolled for the coming year. Parents are to bring the child's birth certificate and inoculation records, school officials emphasized. Children being enrolled will need to have had a smallpox vaccination within the last four years and a DPT shot within the last year.

The pre-school clinic will be held on the 25th of April, at which time the inoculation requirements may be satisfied. It will start at 1:30.

Each child will receive a physical examination and have a smallpox vaccination free. The DPT shot will cost 75c and the TB patch test will cost 25c.

The school sent out information last week on the pre-enrollment to parents known to have children now coming of school age, but any newcomers to the county or any parents overlooked were urged to also be sure to register their children on the days specified.

FEED PROGRAM EXTENDED

The following telegram dated April 15th was received by D. Wilson Smith, ASC County office manager:

"Emergency Feed Grain Program extended in your county. Applications may be filed in county FHA office through April 29th for a supply of feed grain to carry eligible livestock through May 15, 1957. Roughage program not extended."

Jo Lawrence, high school daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Van Dusen, is out of school this week with flu.

In spite of a number of new wells added to the county's assessed valuation, as well as the new Sinclair gas products plant, Schleicher county officials were advised recently by Prichard & Abbott, oil valuation engineers of Odessa, that this county's tax valuation would be down about $250,000.00 during the coming year from the peak valuation of $15,150,000.00 reached during the past year.

The news came as a surprise—as much so to county officials as anyone else. Main reason given for the decline was the depletion of the Huldale wells in the northern part of the county.

The county was required to hire a county auditor when its valuation passed the $15 million mark this past year.

New discoveries and new installations such as pipelines may bring the total back to $15 millions before too many months elapse.

Mrs. Godwin Returns

Mrs. W. G. Godwin and daughter Martha returned home Sunday from Granbury where they have been staying with Mr. Godwin two weeks.

They report that Mr. Godwin is still unable to turn over but that he is improving and may be brought to the Sonora hospital this weekend for convalescence.

Three Eldorado men, Patton Enochs, D. C. Royster, and Charlie Trigg, drove up to visit him Sunday and Enochs drove the Godwin car home with Mrs. Godwin and Martha.

The Godwins' daughter had been ill when the accident but stood the trip well.

Mrs. Godwin states that danger of infection seems to be past and that it is only a question of time before the rib and leg breaks can heal.

The accident occurred when Godwin started his pick-up at a green light, and another car collided with it at a street intersection. He was on his way to Fort Worth, accompanied by the Tom Green county agent.

Junction Group To Give Easter Pageant Saturday

Junction, April 14.—Two hours before midnight, Saturday, April 20, on the eve of Easter Sunday, three-score laymen in costume, all Kimble county folks—will re-enact the story of Jesus' last week on earth in the picturesque setting of a natural amphitheatre one mile southeast of Junction.

This will be the 7th annual presentation of Junction's Easter pageant. In 1951 a few inspired men of Junction's Men's Bible Class, a non-sectarian organization, staged the first production upon a small, crude stage erected at the base of the cliffs below the Everburning Cross on Lovers Leap mountain. Year by year the production has been enlarged and improved. The presentation is in pantomime, supported by music and the voices of readers from broadcast booth below.

Mrs. Joe West has been hospitalized in Sonora.

the all-district team members, superintendents, principals, and coaches, of the other schools of the district.

While the district football banquet has been held each year for some time in Ozona, this was the first one for basketball, and plans call for making the banquet an annual affair.

Joe R. Andrews, principal of Eldorado High, presented certificates to members of the all-district team, including one to Herman Phillips of Eldorado.

Others so honored were: George Johnson and Shannon Ratliff, Sonora; Duane Lovelace and Temple Yates, Menard; Jerry Jacobs, Jake Young, and Bobby Sutton, Ozona; and Maurice Brown and Charles Loeffler of Junction.

The large beautiful sportsmanship trophy was awarded this year to the Menard team, and will rotate to the winning team each year unless a given team wins it three years in succession, in which case they keep it. The trophy was received on behalf of the Menard team by Coach Bill Humphrey, who is a graduate of Eldorado High, and the most recent (1949) Eagle Scout in the Eldorado Boy Scout troop. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Humphrey, now of Robert Lee.

Charlie Trigg introduced the speaker, Doc Hayes of SMU. In a brief address, Hayes described how interest in basketball had grown, and that it had value as a competitive sport although it would never compete in interest with football. Other facts brought out by the speaker were that colleges now put more emphasis on good grades of their athletes, and that a town or school is judged by the conduct of its team.

To conclude the program, Hayes showed a color film on basketball.

Coloring eggs is traditional at Easter time. Of all the people who participate in this home craft culture the people of the Ukraine probably do the most beautiful job of decorating eggs.

The eggs may be blown or sucked out, or hard cooked. The design is created by using beeswax or paraffin as a resist to the different colors of dye. A lettering or broad-point pen can be used successfully. The pen point is warmed in an open flame and dipped in melted wax. The design on the egg usually geometric, is applied in wax. The egg is then dipped in the lightest color dye to be used. The entire egg will be colored except the part covered by the wax. When the dye is dry the design can be carried further and dipped in a darker shade of dye. This can continue to give as many colors as desired, but because the designs are usually of fine lines, three or four colors will be enough. Remember this: the part of the egg covered with the wax will be the color of the last dye dipped into, and not the next color.

When the design and dipping are finished the eggs are warmed and the wax rubbed off. Easter egg dyes are good to use. Crepe paper, soaked to remove color, makes a satisfactory dye. A little vinegar added to the water in which the paper was soaked, helps to set the color.

Something good and maybe a little different. Instead of butter on a baked potato, use a spoonful of sour cream and sprinkle with chopped chives, or if no chives, used tiny bits finely chopped green onion tops, the tender part. Top with coarsely ground black pepper.

Make this chicken-licken casserole during the Easter holiday. It may be made ahead of time and kept a day or two or even frozen:

- Chicken-Licken Casserole
4 ounces medium noodles
1/4 cup butter or margarine
3/4 cup sliced celery
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
1/4 cup enriched flour
1 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
1/8 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1 cup milk
1 cup chicken broth (or use 1 chicken bouillon cube dissolved in 1 cup boiling water)
1/4 cups chopped cooked chicken
6 slices crisp bacon, chopped.
Add 2 teaspoons salt and noodles to 3 cups boiling water. Boil rapidly, stirring constantly, for 2 minutes. Cover, remove from heat and let stand 10 minutes. Meanwhile, melt butter or margarine. Add celery and onion and cook 3

By now, nearly all of us are convinced that a tornado can be predicted, at least in a general area. When San Angelo was hit a few years ago the warnings were not taken as seriously as they are today, because the warning system was new and people simply doubted whether one could be detected or not.

The Weather Bureau of the United States Department of Commerce sets forth these safety rules. Read them carefully; if the time comes when you need to know them you aren't going to have time to look this paper up.

1. There is no universal protection against tornadoes except caves, underground excavations, or tornado cellars.
2. If you are in open country:
 - (a) Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.
 - (b) If there is no time to escape lie flat in any depression or ditch.
3. If in a city or town:
 - (a) Seek inside shelter, preferably in a steel reinforced building. Stay away from windows.
 - (b) In homes: the southwest corner of the lowest floor or in the basement offers greatest safety. People living in brick or stone houses should seek other shelter, preferably in a cellar or basement of a frame house. If there is time, shut off gas and electricity. Windows on the north and east sides of the house may also be opened to help reduce damage to the building.
 - (c) Standing against the inside wall on a lower floor of an office building offers some protection.
4. If in schools:
 - (a) In city areas, especially if school building is of good steel reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows. Remain near an inside wall or on a lower floor. Never go to auditoriums or gymnasiums.

The popular caladium is a tropical plant from South America. These are some dependable varieties:

- Canadidium—Snow white leaf with green netted veins, border narrow and green.
- Spangled Banner—Red glowing leaves, ribs darker red, numerous pink spots.
- Red Ensign—Metallic red, narrow green border, very bright colorations, medium height.
- Lord Derby—Pink or rose red leaf, almost transparent edge and deep green ribs.

For house plants prepare a soil mixture of 1 part sand, 1 part peat moss and 1 part soil.

TWO LITTLE CEMETERIES NORTH OF TOWN ARE FORGOTTEN AND NEGLECTED TODAY AS NEWER BURYING GROUNDS ARE USED

There are two little cemeteries north of town, the existence of which may not be known to some of the newer residents of the county.

One of these can be seen from the Angelo highway. Located just north of the little roadside park near Anderson's, this 2-acre plot formerly was the location of the old Red Top Filling Station; the land is a strip along the highway cut from the old Doty (Tom Wilton) place. The county bought the land in about 1935 for a Latin Mexican cemetery, but after six or eight people had been buried there it was abandoned, as rock and caliche made digging of graves difficult—then a corner of the city cemetery was set aside for use of the Latin Americans. Now scant remains of a fence can be seen partly enclosing the few gravel-topped graves, only one of which is now marked.

Just east of this little cemetery is the old Vermont burying ground located in a corner of the A. K. Bailey and Dot Kerr ranches, and established in the early 80's for use of families in the old town of Verrand and community near there. When the town was moved to its present site and re-named Eldorado, the original cemetery was abandoned, and the less than a dozen graves are now neglected and part of them are unmarked. All buried there were white people except one. A man drowned in Bailey draw is one of those whose bones rest there.

Dominating the scene is a grave enclosed with iron fence and marked with a stone, identifying the deceased as Henry Mahlman, 1847-1893. On the other side of the stone is the inscription "Herman, son of Henry & Anna Mahlmann, born Nov. 19, 1889, died Jan. 25, 1893"—so evidently father and young son were buried the same year. The other graves are unmarked and have been trampled down by cattle.

The old fences are long since decayed, and few people ever visit the place. The Kerr children used to play there in their childhood and often tried to clean up the lots and straighten markers and fences. One tombstone still stands.

Old timers are of the opinion that this cemetery is the first one in the county.

Park Housing Work To Start

The Lawler Construction Co. of Abilene, low bidder for the construction of employee residences and related utilities for Big Bend National Park, is expected to start work in the very near future, Supt. George W. Miller announced this week.—Alpine Avalanche.

Fees Raised

At a meeting recently of the board of directors of the McCamey Country club, a number of new rules and regulations were voted on which will become effective May 15. Among the rules to become effective at that time will be the raising of the initiation fee from $10 to $50.—McCamey News.

T-V Option

Lloyd Williamson and W. A. Henley were granted 60 days franchise option to present to the City County concrete data on the construction and operation of a community television system for Junction at the regular meeting of the City Council Monday night.—The Junction Eagle.

Construction Boom

Construction activity in Fort Stockton reached an all-time high during the first three months of 1957 as the city issued a total of $342,948 in building permits. Included were expansion programs at two churches, a large grocery store, an office building and several groups of homes. The city issued $87,548 in permits during January as the year got off to a fast start despite generally tight money policies on construction loans.—Fort Stockton Pioneer.

Fox Bounties Stopped

Members of the Sutton County Commissioners Court voted at their last meeting to discontinue payment of $1.00 bounty on foxes killed within the county limits. The move will become effective by April 20. The Commissioners decided to discontinue this method of attempting to curb the spread of rabies in favor of a program of poisoning.—The Devils River News.

More Teeth Added To Hot Check Law

Austin—An amendment to the Texas "hot check" law that makes employers liable for paying their employees with checks that "bounce" has been signed into law by Gov. Price Daniel.

Charles T. Lux, executive vice president of the Retail Merchants Association of Texas, said the new amendment closes a loophole in the "hot check" law. "Until this amendment was signed, a retail business or any other place of business that accepted worthless checks presented in good faith by workers had practically no legal recourse to recover its loss," Lux said.

"Now under the new amendment employers who give checks that prove to be 'hot' are subject to criminal prosecution and may be fined up to $2,000 and sent to jail for 30 days if the amount involved is less than $50. If the amount of the worthless check is more than $50, then the penalty is from two to ten years in prison and a fine up to $10,000."

Lux said there were several hundred cases in Texas last year where employers paid off their workers with worthless checks causing the places that cashed these checks to lose many thousands of dollars.

Prosecution of these cases under the Texas "hot check" law was difficult because provisions did not cover checks given as wages or salaries for services.

LARGE CROWD SEES RELIGIOUS FILM

Between nine hundred and one thousand persons saw the motion picture, "I Beheld His Glory," yesterday (Wednesday) at the high school auditorium. This includes the showing to the school children of all grades yesterday morning at 9:30. The motion picture was sponsored by the Eldorado Ministerial Alliance.

Four churches contributed to the fund to make possible the showing of the film: First Presbyterian church, St. Mary's Episcopal, First Baptist and First Methodist. The Ministerial Alliance wishes to express its appreciation to these churches for their financial support. Also, the Alliance publicly desires to thank T. E. Holcomb for his cooperation not only in arranging for the use of the school auditorium but also in the working out of all the details connected with the showing. We want to thank Don McCormick and the Southwest Texas Electric Co-Op for the use of their new movie projector and Jack Logan for being the projectionist for both showings.

New Lake Proposed

Bronte will be at the back door of a huge lake if plans being made by Runnels County citizens go through.

Tentative plans are for the dam site to be located 14 miles west of Ballinger on the Colorado River. The proposed dam would create the largest lake in West Texas, up to 800,000 acre feet.

The project is being sponsored by the Runnels County Improvement district, which was created by the Texas Legislature.—Bronte Enterprise.

Horse Thieves

Sheriff Lee Billings said Monday that two saddle horses and saddles and bridles were taken from the Ross Foster ranch near Pumpville last week end. He stated that the horses were common saddle stock.

The horses were trailed to the Rio Grande, Billings stated, and officers felt sure that the animals were in Mexico and would be turned loose in that country.—Sanderson Times.

Menard Vandals Known

Sheriff Cecil Walston told Menard School board Monday night that he has taken oral statements from two high school boys admitting they broke into the high school the night of March 22.

the river that flows on wheels

More petroleum moves over Santa Fe than over any other railroad in the country

The 2,384,000,000 gallons of petroleum that Santa Fe moves every year is the river that flows on wheels.

It's so large that it makes Santa Fe the No. 1 petroleum railroad in the country.

This flood tide of oil gives heat and power to farms, factories, military installations and homes all over the nation.

The tremendous demand for petroleum, in all its forms, poses special problems for Santa Fe. For it requires speed and service to keep that river flowing full force. Here are a few of the ways we get the job done:

We move empty tankers just as fast as full ones, so no vehicle will stand idle.

As new oil fields are opened up, we stand ready to serve them. And when new developments take place within the industry, we adapt ourselves to take care of them.

As an example, take liquefied petroleum gas. The demand for it has skyrocketed in the last 10 years, because with this "bottled gas" rural families can cook and heat with gas just like city people. And the railroads have made it possible for them to get it.

Santa Fe runs special LPG trains when the demand for this product requires it. In a year, these trains carry enough LPG to heat over 500,000 homes from November through April.

This is just a part of the story of the dependable transportation service Santa Fe is providing to essential industries that contribute so much to the welfare of our country.

FIRE IN VAN HORN

A fire Sunday afternoon in the center of the business district of Van Horn did thousands of dollars worth of damage and put three business houses temporarily out of business.

Suffering the heaviest losses were the T. M. Naron & Son Grocery and the E. M. Lovelady 5c to $1.00 Store. Both were gutted and considered a total loss. Mrs. Ruby Mansfield's Western Drug Store's stock was practically a complete loss although the building, owned by Mrs. Z. Monroe, was not destroyed but was badly damaged.—Van Horn Advocate.

A new age of automobiles begins with this car

Touch a button—in less than a minute the steel top disappears magically into the trunk—and you're in a supremely elegant convertible. It's two cars in one!

Here Today! The FORD SKYLINER—world's only Hide-Away hardtop

Once in a long, long while a car comes along that people remember and talk about for years after its introduction.

The first model "A" Ford was such a car...
The first Ford V-8 was such a car...
The first Ford Thunderbird was such a car.

Today Ford Division is proud to announce still another car that many say is destined to become the most famous Ford of all: The Skyliner—world's only hide-away hardtop.

If you plan to buy a new Ford, or already own one, the fact that Ford created this car is important to you. For all the exhaustive research, planning and testing that went into the Skyliner is evidence of the engineering skill you get in every Ford model.

The Ford SKYLINER, the only all-steel hide-away hardtop, is a car for history. This is an old dream of Detroit, a dream of two generations of motorists.

And today Ford has made that dream come true—in steel.

But the story behind this dream is a story of men who refused to accept "no" for an answer. In the Ford tradition they kept striving toward the goal long after others had given up the chase.

To understand this Ford spirit you must go back to 1908. That was the year when many Detroiters smiled smugly as Henry Ford announced, "We will build a motor-car for the great multitude... so low in price that no man making a good salary will be unable to own one."

And they did. Today, nearly a half century later, Ford continues to cause the "experts" to change their tune. When you see this all-steel hardtop that retracts into a convertible, you'll be seeing a car that many said would never be mass-produced.

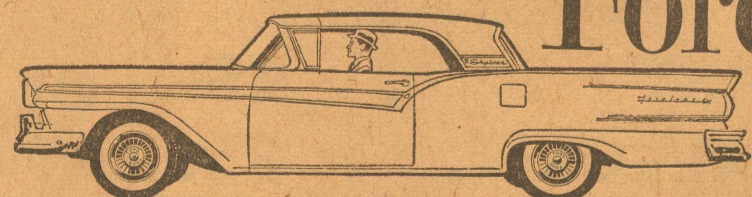

But Ford did it.

It was December 1956—after eight years of research, planning, experimenting and testing—when Ford unveiled this masterpiece... unveiled it amid all the pomp and splendor of the New York Automobile Show.

And now this history-making car, this prototype of a whole future generation of cars, is ready for your own personal inspection in the showrooms of many Ford Dealers.

Plan to see it soon. And ask your Dealer to show you the exciting advances in all models of the new Ford line for '57.

It's the newest new kind of Ford

1. It's an all-steel hardtop with sleek Victoria styling... 2. Touch a button and presto! It's a sun-loving convertible!
