Christmas Window Unveiling Is Tonight

20 Teams Entered In Basketball Contests Here

Tahoka will be host to 225 young athletes composing 20 basketball squads participating in the annual Tahoka Tournament which will be held in the local school gymnasium Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of next week.

According to present indications, this will be by far the largest and best tournament ever staged in Tahoka, since many strong teams are entered. The tournament will be conducted by the local school authorities, on invitation, by Head Coach Leo Jackson, A. L. Pace, boys' basketball coach, and Hope Haynes, girls' basketball coach. Qualified referees have been secured.

Boys teams already registered are: Idalou, O'Donnell, Union, New Home, Post, Wilson, Seminole, Denver City, Draw, and Tahoka.

Girls' teams entered are: Ropesville, Wilson, Post, New Home, Union, O'Donnell, Idalou, Sundown, Draw, and Tahoka.

Play will open Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, and there will be four games during the afternoon. The opening game will be between Draw and Tahoka girls, followed by play between Draw and Tahoka boys, Ropes and Union girls, and O'Donnell and Union boys.

The second session will begin at 8 p. m. Thursday. On Friday there will be a three-game session beginning at 9 a. m., a five-game session beginning at 12 noon, a four-game session beginning at 6 p. m. Saturday, two games will be played beginning at 9 a. m. and two games beginning at 1 p. m. That night the four finals will be played to determine the championship.

In the girls' tournament, upper bracket, Ropes and Union and Wilson and Idalou are paired, while New Home drew a bye. In the lower bracket, Post and Sundown and Draw and Tahoka are paired, with O'Donnell drawing a bye.

In the boys' tournament, Idalou and Seminole and Denver City and New Home are paired, with Post drawing a bye, upper bracket. While in the lower, O'Donnell and Union and Draw and Tahoka are paired, with Wilson drawing a bye.

To defray expenses of the tournament, admission fees of 15 cents for each session except the final event Saturday night, when an admission fee of 25 cents will be charged.

Soil Conservation Checks Arriving

Lynn county is among the first if not the very first of the counties in this section of the state to receive a batch of soil conservation checks.

Up till Wednesday morning, checks for forty-nine farms in the county had been received for the aggregate sum of $13,425.81, according to Reble Thomas of the Lynn County A.A.A. office. Other checks are expected to be coming in at frequent intervals hereafter.

Parity checks in the sum of $11,062.36 were also received Wednesday morning, and a batch aggregating $13,108.72 had been received a few days before, making a total of $24,771.08 received since our report last week. This brings the total for the year up to $395,589.07, according to acting secretary Clinton Walker.

There can be only a few parity checks outstanding.

PLANNED "SOCK" SUPPER ABANDONED

On account of a conflict with the window unveiling planned by the business men of Tahoka, the Parent-Teacher Association announces that it has decided to "call off" the Sock Supper announced last week for Friday night.

Instead, all will attend the unveiling.

10,662 Bales Cotton Ginned In Tahoka

With 1,632 bales of cotton ginned in Tahoka since Wednesday of last week, the total number of bales ginned here this season had reached a total of 10,662 at an early hour Thursday afternoon, according to reports given to the News by the various gins.

That would indicate that at least 45,000 bales have been ginned in the county.

Misty weather which prevailed Friday and Saturday of last week put a stop to all gathering on those days. The total precipitation for the weekend, however, amounted to only .13 of an inch. Pickers were able to get back into the fields Monday and since that time gathering has proceeded without interruption. Thursday of this week brought the first hint of a sandstorm for many weeks.

Prices of cotton on the local market have ranged around 14 cents throughout the season, the loan valuation being a little lower than that.

Child Jumps From Bed, Breaks Leg

Tommye Sue, two-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Short, became the victim of a most deplorable accident last Friday night when she fell or jumped off a bed and broke one of the legs just above the knee.

The child was brought immediately to the Tahoka Clinic, where the broken bones were set and the leg placed in a plaster cast. The prospects are that it will be necessary for the child to remain in bed for several weeks.

Tommye Sue had had a defective foot, a "club" foot, since birth, and the parents had been taking her to the Scottish Rite Hospital in Dallas at frequent intervals ever since the child was two months old for treatment. The defect had been largely corrected, when the leg with the defective foot was broken.

Sundown Man Dies In Car-Truck Wreck

Fred Phillips of Sundown, 25, received fatal injuries about 6:30 o'clock last Sunday afternoon when the car which he was driving struck the rear end of a truck in the west edge of Brownfield, dying soon after being taken to a hospital.

Driving east on the Plains-Brownfield highway, his car struck a truck crossing the highway from north to south. The truck was being driven by N. A. Moore, 36, who was uninjured, but his wife suffered a break of the collarbone, a little daughter sustained a fracture of one arm, and two other children received cuts and bruises. Another man named L. D. Phillips riding with Fred Phillips but not related to him was also painfully but not seriously injured.

The car was demolished. The truck was damaged less seriously.

Brownfield Aviators Visit In Tahoka

A. B. McMillan of the Brownfield Airport and Cecil Meadows, commercial aviator, were here Monday looking for young men who might be interested in learning how to fly. They indicated that they expected to visit Tahoka often.

TWO ATTEND CONVENTION

Mrs. Rafe Richardson, district committeewoman, and Mrs. A. M. Cade, president of the local Auxiliary, attended the District Convention in Big Spring Saturday and Sunday.

They report an excellent meeting in spite of the fact that the crowd was a little smaller than usual.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Todd of Lamesa spent Thanksgiving day here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Server, and her sister Miss Hattie.

Tahoka Men Will Entertain Men At New Lynn Next Tuesday Night

Farmers of the New Lynn community will be guests of Tahoka business men at a banquet and program to be held at New Lynn school building Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. The meeting is being sponsored by the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, and about sixty Tahoka men expect to attend the affair.

The meal will be served by the Home Demonstration Club women of New Lynn and Tahoka men will pay for the meals.

This is the third of a series of meetings arranged by the Chamber of Commerce to foster better feeling and to show appreciation of this town's neighboring communities. Programs are fun provoking, and are arranged so as to promote better fellowship and friendship among the people of the county.

Frank George is in charge of the program Tuesday night, which will include men from the two communities.

Tahoka Basketball Teams Improving

In warm-up games preparatory to opening of the winter season, Tahoka basketball teams did not fare so well this past week. However, Coaches A. L. Pace and Hope Haynes have had their charges in training only a short time, and much improvement is being shown by both the boys' and the girls' teams.

Tuesday night of last week, Ropes girls defeated Tahoka 28 to 4, and Ropes boys won by a 35 to 11 score, but Tuesday night of this week the Tahoka girls won 9 to 8, while the boys held Ropes to a 17 to 15 score.

Wednesday night of last week the Union girls won over Tahoka 24 to 12, while the Tahoka boys defeated Union 30 to 15.

Tonight, the team goes to Meadow for two games.

NEW SIGN FOR COBB'S

A new sign recently has been erected across the front and around to the side of Cobb's Department Store. The large sign extends across the entire width of the large building.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Millman of Hurlwood, west of Lubbock, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Millman, here Sunday.

Gattis, Smith Buy Sinclair Station

As might have been noted from an advertisement in last week's issue of the News, the Sinclair Service Station is now under new management.

Osa Gattis and J. B. Smith, long-time residents of Tahoka, have bought the station from Gilbert Gollehon of Post. Mr. Gollehon operated the station for several months. For the last few weeks, it was under the charge of his brother, Milton Gollehon. Milton left to go back to Post the latter part of last week.

Messrs. Gattis and Smith are well known citizens of our town and have many friends here who wish them much success in their new business adventure.

The Gollehons are likewise splendid citizens that any town would be glad to have.

Many Students Have The Mumps

Many students are out of school with the mumps at the present time. They are: Lula B. Reid, Savannah Lou Tunnell, Travis Morgan, Elma Reba Dunagan, Joan Moore, Buddy George, Wiley Lee Curry, Glenn Darrell Wells, Delwyn Claude Kelley, Billie Jo Sherrod, Dennis Kay Walldrip, Dottie June Floyd, Billy Bob Walldrip, Donald Kent Cowan, Joetta Hill, Billie Faye Anderson, Betty Jean Reed, Lola Fern Kelley, Juannelle Jolly, and Billy Dale Moore. Many others are absent because of illness but it is not known whether or not they have the mumps.

A number of students have just recently returned to school after having recovered from mumps and several from whooping cough.

NEW CLERK AT BOULLIQUON'S

J. D. Brown, wife and small son, moved to Tahoka Monday from Lubbock, Mr. Brown having accepted a position as grocery clerk at Boulliquon's. He has had much experience in the business with one of Lubbock's leading stores.

Earl Adams, last year's graduate of Tahoka High, also recently accepted a position with Boulliquon's.

Santa Claus Will Be Present, Band Music, Contests, And Carol Singing On Program

Farmers Vote On Market Quotas

Farmers of Lynn County will vote on Marketing Quotas, Saturday, December 13 in a National Referendum, according to Vernon C. Willhoit, Chairman of the Lynn County A. C. A. Committee.

Marketing Quotas must be approved by at least two thirds of the voters before they will become effective, Willhoit states. The referendum has carried by a large majority in the past, but the voting has been comparatively light and every cotton producer is urged to vote.

The Community and County Committee met Thursday to formulate plans for holding this Referendum and announce that an effort will be made to contact every producer before the 13th.

Every producer should take advantage of their voting privilege whether for or against, Willhoit urges.

Senior Class Play Is Tuesday Night

"I'm In The Army Now" is the title of the three-act comedy that members of the senior class will present Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Tahoka High School auditorium. This is the first play of the year.

In case the title of the play may sound misleading, this comedy is not a war play. It is a modern comedy about an average family and it is packed with laughter.

Seniors appearing in the play and the character they represent are:

Wendell Coffee, easy-going and good natured Pa Robertson.

Dorothy Virginia Fulkerson, the worrisome wife, Ma Robertson.

Helen Pemberton, their only daughter, Deanna.

Jerry Noble, their oldest son, Bronson.

John Dale, another son, Toby.

Margie Shepherd, Granny Robertson.

Betty Ruth Wyatt, Dale Morrison.

Mary Beth Roddy, Letty Ashbrook.

Kelly King, Prentice Roper.

Mary Jo Anderson, Corinna Duffin.

Billie Margaret Riddle, Audrey Nayland.

Carolyn Chandler, Mrs. Essie Knapp.

Pershing Alexander, Ramon Valdey.

Tickets for the play are on sale at the present time. They are 25c for adults and 15c for student.

Serg. Emanuel Of Panama Visits Here

Sergeant C. E. Emanuel of the Panama Canal Zone came in Monday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Emanuel of Garnolia, for a week or ten days.

Following his visit here, he will leave for Mobile, Alabama, out of which city as the base he will work with the Airplane Supply Division.

For some time he has held the important rank of Technical Sergeant.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anderson, Jannita Anderson and Jesse, Anderson came down from Amarillo Monday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Billy Hill. After a brief visit, they returned to Amarillo, but Mr. Anderson, who has been ill, remained for a longer visit here and in the Clyde Ashcraft home at New Home. Mrs. Ashcraft is a sister of Mrs. Anderson.

Mrs. George E. Turrentine had as her guests, from Saturday until Wednesday her sister, Mrs. Hattie Adams, of Seminole.

Event Sponsored By Business Men

The Christmas season will be opened officially in Tahoka tonight, Friday, at 8 p. m., when Old Santa will appear on the streets to distribute candy to the kiddies, merchants' Christmas windows will be unveiled, Tahoka High School Band plays a concert, and Christmas carols are sung by the crowd.

Also on the program for the evening are two contests. Many merchants will have in their decorated windows at least one item on display which that store does not sell. The person who goes from store window to store window and lists these items most accurately will receive a $5.00 prize. There will also be prizes for second and third best lists of $3.00 and $2.00, respectively. Also, a prize is being given for the most attractive or most appealing show window. These windows will be judged by a secret committee of judges from the rural communities.

The program starts at 7 o'clock, when the 50-piece band parades around the business section, followed by Old Santa Claus, himself, who will have a big sack of candy to give away to the children.

Following the parade, the band is to present a concert on the court house lawn, directed by John Hamblen. Then, Melvin Rathel will lead the crowd in singing many of the much-loved Christmas carols, and the public is especially urged to co-operate in this sing-song.

Merchants are asked to cover and keep their windows covered until 8 p. m., when all windows will be unveiled at the same time for inspection of the crowd.

Christmas lights have been strung this week and they are to be turned on promptly at 7 o'clock tonight. Many business houses expect to have their Christmas decoration completed, and present indications are that Tahoka will be more beautifully decorated this year than ever before.

The event is being instituted by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, and President Wynne Collier asks that the town co-operate in making this an interesting event. It is hoped that a similar event will be held annually.

The Saturday preceding Christmas Day, Tahoka Rotary Club will stage another Christmas celebration designed strictly for the children, an annual project of the club, but the program tonight is for old and young alike.

Edith Woman Is Robbed At Lubbock

While Mrs. Walter Kahl, who resides out in the Edith community east of Tahoka was shopping in a Lubbock department store Monday, a thief snatched from her grasp a purse containing about fourteen dollars in money and a quantity of cotton stamps.

He quickly disappeared in the crowd and Mrs. Kahl was unable to give a sufficient description of the culprit to officers. No arrest was made.

SHOPPING DAYS TILL Christmas

Dr. Gray To Give Illustrated Talks

Next Sunday morning the regular preaching services at The Presbyterian Church. The morning sermon at 11 o'clock subject: "Love and the Christmas Season."

The Beacon Bible Class at 9:45 A. M. Topic for study: "The Nature and Work of the Church." At the evening service at 7:30 the pastor Dr. Gray will begin a short series of Stereopticon Lectures on the Holy Land. This lecture will be: "The Tragic Land." These talks will be illustrated with slides made from pictures which Dr. Gray took when he was in the Holy Land. In view of the fact that world interest is focused on the lands of the Mediterranean during this terrible war he has been requested to give these illustrated lectures at this time. The public is cordially invited to hear and see these lectures.

Missionary Meet Held In Tahoka

With about fifteen churches in the Brownfield Association represented, two or three hundred Baptists gathered at the First Baptist Church here Sunday afternoon for the final rally of the Mission Revival conducted throughout the association during last week. Several of the missionaries and others who had been active in the campaign were present.

Miss Weeks, who has been a missionary in China for four years, and Rev. Frank Frazier, missionary among the Indians in southern Arizona, were the principal speakers Sunday afternoon. Following their addresses, Rev. A. A. Brian, dynamic pastor of the First Baptist Church of Levelland, delivered a brief discourse. All had interesting messages.

A partial digest of the reports made by the churches was read by Rev. W. H. Jackson of Wilson.

On Sunday morning, Rev. Frank Frazier substituted for Pastor Geo. A. Dale, and his wife Mrs. Frazier, spoke at the evening hour.

METHODIST CHURCH
Now that the cotton rush is over, Christmas shopping is in full swing. What about the claims of our religion?

The mystic influence of the Christ-child comes with increased power at the Christmas season, if it is manifest at all during the year. There is the necessity of learning to sing the Christmas carols and focusing our attention upon the real meaning of the Incarnation if we are to keep Christmas from degenerating into a "swap-fest" or orgy of gluttonous feasting and spending.

We are entering into the Christmas Cheer program of helping the underprivileged and children to enjoy the season, but Christmas is even more than this. We, too, need to have our hearts warmed and a sense of expectancy of the coming of great joy from above this earth to our faithless souls.

We will announce practice of Christmas hymns next Sunday and we want both young and old to assist in this.

Sunday morning sermon will be on the Christmas theme and Sunday evening we will meet with the Presbyterians for the illustrated lecture on the Holy land by Rev. W. B. Gray—Geo. E. Turrentine.

HOUSE PARTY PROGRAM AT SEAGRAVES PLANNED

Many Baptist young people from the various churches of Lynn county are planning to attend the House Party to be held in Seagraves on Friday and Saturday of next week, and some of them have places on the program.

The program will begin with a supper at 6:15 Friday evening, and each girl is requested to bring a sandwich supper.

Song services will begin at 7:15 followed by a welcome address, to which Miss Effie Loyd of Dixie will respond, and a devotional service conducted by Mrs. R. T. Barton. Tahoka will be represented on the program with special music by the Tahoka Trio. Mrs. Culpepper will deliver an address.

A morning Watch service will be conducted at 7:00 A. M. Saturday by Mrs. Lynn Lemon, wife of the pastor at Loop and former pastor at Central in this county.

Breakfast will be served by Seagraves at 8:00, and following a song service and a "stunt" to be put on by each group, Mrs. Garland Pennington of Tahoka will conduct the Devotional. Mrs. R. C. Guest will discuss "The Value of G. A. Work", and O'Donnell will render special music. Mrs. Culpepper again will speak.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Carroll Holtzclaw, the former Miss Gertrude Shepherd of Tahoka, will conduct the Devotional, and Mrs. Avery Rogers, wife of the Brownfield pastor, will speak on "The Value of Y. W. A. Work".

"Each girl will take her supper and bedding, and we need a sponsor for every ten girls", those in charge have announced. "All W. M. S. presidents are invited, each pastor and wife, and each Young People's leader. Each W. M. S. is asked for a dollar to help pay Mrs. Culpepper's expense."

Mrs. E. Prohl and two children and her sister, Miss Irma Davis, left Wednesday to visit relatives and friends in Fort Worth and Dallas, after which they will visit their parents at Leander in Williamson county.

Two Selectees Go To The Army

Two Lynn county youths were inducted into the army training service last Monday, and eleven others are to be inducted next Monday.

Price Ford Brookshire, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brookshire of Grassland, and Charlie Gale Clem, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Clem of the New Home community, left here Monday for Lubbock, from which place they were sent with numbers of others to Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Brookshire has been working at the Triple-A office here the past two or three years.

On next Monday, eleven Lynn county boys are to take the bus for Fort Bliss, though possibly not more than eight or nine of them will enjoin here.

The list as given at the local board office is as follows.

Norville Edward Denton, son of E. D. Denton, Gordon community, order No. 544; Homer Earl Cato, son of P. A. Cato, Morgan community, Order No. 709; Roy Marshall Blevins, son of Owen Blevins, Wilson, Rt. 1; Raymond Clyde Mann, son of Mrs. Etta E. Mann, now residing in Lubbock, Order No. 762; Clifton Ewell Hamilton, son of George Hamilton, formerly of New Home, now at Silvertown, Order No. 764; O. L. Harris, son of the late Dee Harris, of O'Donnell, now in Kimble county, Order No. 802; Elwood Claton Bogard, living with W. C. Carver and family south of Tahoka, Order No. S-829; Melvin Clifton Owens, son of Mrs. May Finley of Tahoka, now in Fort Bend county, Order No. 818; Robert Lavern Line, son of J. N. Line of O'Donnell, Order No. 838; Hilliard Ernest Currey, son of J. F.

Legion Auxiliary Meets Tuesday

The regular social meeting of the Legion Auxiliary will be held next Tuesday night at the Legion Hall, according to Mrs. A. M. Cade, president.

The Auxiliary now has a membership drive under way, which closes Dec. 11, between the North and the South, and Mrs. Cade states an effort is being made to sign up as many members as possible at this time.

At the present time, the local Auxiliary is below its quota. Last year it had 68 members, and has long been one of the leading chapters of this section and once achieving second place in the state. Naturally, Mrs. Cade is anxious that the past record be achieved again, and a prize is being offered the member bringing in the most signed-up memberships.

All members or those eligible to membership are urged to be present next Tuesday night.

Mrs. Fred McGinty attended a bridge party in the home of Mrs. Roy Adams at O'Donnell Tuesday.

Currey of Wilson, now a student in the Texas Tech. Order No. 865; Sam Michael Abraham of O'Donnell, Order No. 880.

There is a call for eighteen men to be inducted from Lynn county on January 26. All of those selected must report in Lubbock for preliminary medical examination on December 18. This group will be sent to Fort Sill.

There is a call for one colored soldier from Lynn county on January 27. Robert Harrison Sewell of Sundown, who registered in Lynn county, is scheduled to fill this call.

MIDWAY H. D. CLUB PLANS GIFTS TO COMMUNITY STORE

The Midway Home Demonstration Club met November 26 at 2:30 P. M. with Mrs. Harold Everson.

The 1942 officers were elected. They are: Mrs. W. T. Watley, chairman; Mrs. T. M. Lockaby, vice-chairman; Mrs. Rufus Slover, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. R. L. Littlepage, council delegate; Mrs. Sam H. Floyd, reporter.

The Christmas party will be with Mrs. T. M. Lockaby on December 18 at 2:30 P. M. There will be no exchange of gifts, but toys will be brought to go to the community store house at Tahoka, to be distributed as Christmas gifts.—Reporter.

LOCAL PEOPLE ATTENDED TEXAS U.-TEXAS A. & M. GAME

Charles Townes, J. L. Brooks, Frank George, and John W. Minor attended the Thanksgiving football game between Texas University and A. & M. College at College Station last Thursday. Mr. Minor's son, Max, who is on the Texas U. team but was not able to play in Thursday's game accompanied them home and spent the weekend here with his parents and friends.

WE THANK YOU

The Hardy family wish to thank the Missionary Society of New Home for the bountiful supply of canned fruits, vegetables, pickles, and relishes sent to them at Thanksgiving time.

They very much appreciate the thoughtful consideration of these good people and wish for them a very, very happy Christmas and good New Year.—The Hardys.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonnis Brower of Richmond, California, came in Tuesday afternoon to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Connolly, and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Brower, until after the holidays.

Mmes. G. M. Stewart and Gladys M. Stokes left Thursday on a business trip to Dallas. They expect to return Sunday.

THANK YOU

We wish to thank our friends for the beautiful flowers and complimentary remarks occasioned by the opening of the Tahoka Clinic building. We appreciate your kindness.—Dr. E. Prohl.

DUCK EATER?

"Last summer," writes Ranger A. E. Wensel of Oklahoma, "I noticed a big gray duck with her young ones swimming on Grand Lake. A big bass struck at them. Couldn't see if the fish got a young duck or not, but when the brood returned to shore, there was one less than when they went out."

THE SOIL AND CONSERVATION

Conservation of the soil is largely a matter of using the land in accordance with the dictates of nature.

Congratulations--

To Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Evans upon the birth of a Thanksgiving Day daughter, weighing 7 1-2 pounds. Thursday night about 11 o'clock.

To Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kelley upon the birth of a daughter, weighing eight pounds, at 6:30 o'clock Thanksgiving morning. The little lady has been named Judith Anne. The parents live in south Tahoka.

To Mr. and Mrs. Howard Draper upon the birth of a daughter on November 23, in the Dupre Hospital in Levelland. The little Miss weighed seven pounds and has been named Margaret. Mother and babe are now at home.

To Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shadden upon the birth of a son at 5:45 o'clock Wednesday morning in a Lubbock hospital. The little fellow weighed 7 pounds and 8 ounces. The father is a farmer living near New Home.

To Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Keith of the Joe Stokes community upon the birth of a son weighing 7 pounds and 12 ounces in a Lubbock sanitarium at 11:45 o'clock Wednesday morning. The father is a farmer.

The first baby born at the new Tahoka Clinic is little Mister Allan Don Rogers, weight 7 1/2 pounds, and he arrived at 8:30 a. m. Thursday.

The young fellow is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Rogers of 1709 Ave. O, Lubbock. Mrs. Rogers is the former Miss Melba Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Evans of this city, and a 1940 graduate of Tahoka high school.

Prizes Are Offered For School Essays On Americanism

Every student in the Tahoka High School and in the fifth, sixth and seventh grades will participate in the Essay Writing Contest being sponsored by the Rotary Club, according to Harley Henderson, chairman of the committee having the matter in charge.

The grades will contest separately, and a prize will be awarded to the winner in each grade, which will probably be $5.00 in Defense Stamps and a Certificate to be presented to each winner.

"Americanism" will be the general theme of the essays, the high students and the grade students discussing different phases of it.

This contest has the hearty cooperation of the teachers and it is earnestly desired that the parents of the children give it their active support and cooperation also.

The teachers will grade the papers respecting grammar, spelling, punctuation, etc., but a committee of Rotarians will judge them from the standpoint of the content of the essays, Mr. Henderson says, and the judges will render their decision without having any knowledge as to the identity of the students writing the various essays.

T. A. Harris of O'Donnell came in Thursday, as he does regularly every year, to order the News and a daily paper sent to his address. Mr. Harris came to this county in 1907 and settled in the south part of the county. There was no O'Donnell there then. He saw the town start and has seen it grow from the first little shack to the thriving town that it is today. And, by the way, there wasn't much at Tahoka when he landed here. It's a different world out here now from that of 1907, and Mr. Harris could tell you about most of the changes as they have come.

CHILD GUIDANCE CLUB

The Child Guidance Club met in the home of Mrs. Douglas Finley, Tuesday, December 3. Along with business plans were made for the Club to assist with the Christmas Community Store.

The program consisted of: Roll Call answered with a Scripture a child understands. Reading "I Love You Mother" by Marjorie Clinton. Very inspirational talks were given by Mrs. Coy Fielder on "The Spiritual Side of Child Training", and by Mrs. K. R. Durham on "A Child's Religious Life".

Refreshments were served to the following members: Mmes. James Clinton, Durham, E. R. Edwards, Fielder, R. H. Gibson, John Hamblen, Fred B. Hegl, Calloway Huffaker, Deen Nowlin, Emil Prohl and Jack Welch.

Everett Savage of Brownfield spent Saturday here in the home of his sister, Mrs. Clyde McDonald and family. Everett is among the new draftees that have reached 21 within the year. With other young men subject to call he expects to leave Saturday for Fort Bliss to be inducted into some branch of service and sent to training camp.

Mrs. Jim Banister, who had been under treatment for three weeks in a sanitarium in Lubbock, was brought back to her home northeast of Tahoka Sunday much improved. Mrs. Banister had been suffering from heart trouble.

Friends here are glad to learn that Raymond Edwards of Lubbock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wright Edwards of Wofforth, who resided in this county for many years, is recovering satisfactorily from a major operation in a Lubbock hospital which he underwent two or three weeks ago. Raymond was driver of the Tahoka-Three Lakes school bus before removing from the county.

APPLEWHITES SEE TEXAS U. LICK A. & M. COLLEGE

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Applewhite and Dorothy and Mrs. Applewhite's sister-in-law, Mrs. Sparks Skaggs of Oklahoma City, who was visiting her, went down to College Station last week and saw the big football thriller in which the Texas U. administered a licking to the Texas A. & M. team.

On the return trip, Mrs. Skaggs was met by her husband in Dallas and accompanied him home. The Applewhites were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Applewhite's mother, Mrs. S. R. Kemp of Garnolia, and they were also accompanied home by their daughter, Miss Greta, who is a student in the University. She returned to Austin Monday.

Mrs. Otho Tidwell of El Segundo, California, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Carver.

THE MARAUDING JAPANESE

It will be regrettable if we are compelled to go to war with the Japanese. Intellectually, they are keen; morally and socially, they have many good points. Many of them have accepted Christianity. Most of them might do so in the course of time if friendly relations could be maintained between them and Christian nations.

But the Militarists are in power in Japan and they are riding high. They are imbued with the Hitler spirit. Crowded, as they are, upon their own little islands, it is natural that they should desire to expand.

But they seem determined to expand through the power of bombs and gun powder, and to dominate and rule all their neighboring nations by the same means. Just in recent years they brought Manchukuo on the continent under their domination, a territory several times as large as their own native islands. Then they made an unprovoked war on China, seeking to subjugate that entire nation so that they may exploit it.

Now they are demanding that they have a "free hand", without interference from the great democracies, to do as they please in their part of the world—to attack, bomb, burn, kill, and destroy until they are able to subjugate all of their unoffending neighbors. If let alone, that doubtless will include the Dutch East Indies, the Philippines, and finally all of the islands of the Pacific that amount to anything commercially.

Because Uncle Sam will not stand aside and let the robbery go on unrestrained and unmolested, it seems that we are about to be compelled to go to war with them.

Japan has a confederate in this criminal course. That confederate, is Hitlerized Germany. Italy is also in on the conspiracy. So, if we go to war with Japan, we will be compelled to fight a band of robbers. It is all very regrettable, but America must stand for righteousness among the nations, for democracy, for freedom of the seas, against robbery and piracy and autocracy and aggression on the part of unscrupulous nations. Unless we do, we are not worthy to survive as a nation ourselves.

We do not think that anybody in this country will seriously attempt to curb the freedom of the press—not even Mr. Ickes or "Miss" Perkins. While the "yellow" journals and sensation-mongers among newspaper and magazine writers are often very irritating and provoking and may cause the President and other officials to feel at times that there should be some way of brid-

READY FOR ACTION

HERE is one of the new 25 pounder guns that Canada is now producing in large numbers. Prior to the war Canada was not equipped to manufacture guns of any kind. Now the Dominion's industry is producing one type of field gun; one kind of light gun; two types of mortars; two types of anti-aircraft guns; an anti-tank gun and naval gun mountings. Soon fourteen types of land and naval guns and ten types of carriage and mountings will be made in Canada.

ling them, yet the doctrine of the Freedom of the Press, like Freedom of Speech, Freedom of Assembly, Freedom of Petition, and Freedom of Religious Worship, is so indelibly written into our Constitution and so thoroughly ingrained in the hearts of the people, that we do not believe that any political leader, however much he might feel offended, would dare to suggest any serious curtailment of this right. Above all men, the lawyers of this country would not stand for it for a minute. They know its fundamental importance better than do other classes of our people; and as much as the lawyers are "cussed", and some of them need to be "cussed" frequently, they are yet a power in the politics of this country. It is natural that they should be, for politics has to do with the making of laws, and it is the business of the lawyers to interpret and apply the law. And the lawyers, whatever may be their faults in the practice of the profession, are strong, as a general proposition, for the Bill of Rights as written into our Constitution. The lawyers would be on the neck of any man who might attempt to destroy any of these rights.

There is no way to guess what a day may bring forth. As this is written, the German armies are reported to have suffered their greatest defeat since the beginning of the war in southern Russia and to be still reeling backward under the terrific blows of the Russians. This was entirely unexpected. At the same time the German divisions in northern Africa are fighting to save what remnants they can from merciless assaults of the British. It looks like a turning point in the war may have come. Just a few days ago the Germans were still having the best of it everywhere. As long as they were winning, the Japanese were threatening and pugnacious. Already the Japs are softening. If they see that Germany is losing, they will become as meek as lambs. If the Germans should again turn the tables and begin winning, then the Japs will become haughty and menacing again. We will have no war with Japan until Japan is convinced that Hitler is going to win.

We guess France can not be blamed much for whatever she does under present circumstances in "collaboration" with Germany, as she is lying flat on her back with Hitler's heel on her neck, but certainly her leaders are not playing a heroic part. Old Marshal Petain, in his dotage, we guess, is to be pitied. But his sun would shine much brighter down through the pages of history if he had staged a heroic setting, as he could do, instead of permitting it to go down behind a cloud of ignominious "collaboration". Poor old France, that the disgrace of cowardice must now be added to the humiliation of defeat!

ELDER DRENNON'S NOTES

I think the last issue of the News was the best yet, especially from an advertising standpoint.

I want to congratulate Dr. E. Prohl and Dr. K. R. Durham on their splendid achievement. We don't know much about Dr. Prohl but we do about Dr. Durham, and we want to say that we think that he is a fine dentist and a regular guy. He has always treated us in a fine way, giving us his service free in many instances, and I hope for him much success in his new location.

I think the window unveiling for next Friday night a fine thing; wish I were there to join in with the happy throng. Our little city is not as active along that line as they should; the result is that most of the people go to Clovis to trade.

I attended a father-son banquet given by the local chapter of the F. F. A. last Saturday. We had a fine dinner with barbecued venison for the main dish. Some fine speeches were made, especially the one made by the principal of the Portales High School. He stressed the spiritual development of the boys as well as the mental and physical. I think that is as it should be.

I am not feeling too hot this morning, as my wife has left; we are now separated seven hundred miles, as she is visiting our son Robert in Corpus Christi. If she does not get home by Christmas, I am afraid Santa Claus will not come to see her. It seems every year when Santa Claus is to come I am broke. I wonder if my readers are that way too.

Yours for more people who are as ready to forget as well as to forgive.—R. P. Drennon.

NOTE: Your many friends here appreciate the fact, Brother Drennon, that you always have a good word to say for Tahoka and her people. Come down and see us whenever you get too lonesome. Hope the folks make it possible for you to play Santa Claus in a big way.)

Clint Walker Signs As Aviation Cadet

Clinton McAdoo Walker, acting secretary of the Lynn County A. A. A. committee, yielded Monday to the call of his country—or, possibly, it was to the persuasive appeal made by his younger brother, Neal Walker, yeoman in the Naval recruiting office in Lubbock, who was here soliciting recruits—and signed up for aviation training in the U. S. Navy. He was accepted and enlisted in Dallas Tuesday as a U. S. Naval Aviation cadet, according to a communication received by the News Wednesday from the Lieutenant Commander U. S. N. R., Cadet Selection Board, Dallas.

"He will be sent to the Naval Air Base at Dallas for his first training, and from there to either Pensacola or Jacksonville, Florida or Corpus Christi, Texas, for the rest of his training. After finishing the full aviation course of training, which takes about eight months, he will be commissioned as an officer in the Naval Reserve and sent to active duty with the aviation squadrons of the U. S. Navy," the official communication states.

Clinton is subject to call at any time now but may not be called before January 1, 1942, he explained when seen here Wednesday afternoon. In the meantime he will continue his service with the AAA here.

Clinton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Walker, residents of Tahoka for more than thirty years, now living in Lubbock, and was born and reared here. After graduating from the Tahoka High School, he completed three years in the Texas

KNIT FOR DEFENSE

THE National Defense Program isn't all tanks, airplanes and battle-ships. Women play their part, too, in providing comforts for the men in the service. Warm, hand-knit sweaters will be urgently needed, this winter, by men in our armed forces, and here's one which you can knit yourself, very quickly. The V-neck, sleeveless pullover is always first choice among most men, and this one is patterned after regulation specifications. The American Red Cross needs 100,000 sweaters for the men in America's defense army. They will accept this one as your gift to a soldier, if you would like to knit it and take it to your nearest Red Cross chapter. Size 38 requires six two-ounce skeins of knitting worsted, and those knit for Red Cross distribution through the Army must be in olive-drab. Directions for knitting this sweater may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the War Relocation Authority, Department of this paper, specifying design #S-104.

Tech and then accepted a position with the AAA office here under C. A. Lawrence. When Mr. Lawrence resigned a few weeks ago, Clinton was made acting administrative secretary. He has been invaluable in the office. He has also been an active and highly-valued member of the Tahoka Rotary Club, and many people will regret his leaving, although they feel that he will become a highly proficient member of the aviation corps.

Mrs. D. V. Smith, Mrs. C. T. Oliver, and Miss Mary Seroyer had as their guests on Thanksgiving day a cousin, James Grigg of Montgomery, Alabama, and his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Pugh and Miss Marilyn Bagley, all of that city. They left here for a visit to the Carlsbad Cavern.

Francis Gill Gets Railroad Position

After serving for about nine years as a grocery clerk, most of that time with E. H. Boullion, Francis Gill resigned his position with the Boullion store on last Saturday night to accept a position with the Santa Fe Railway. Reporting at the offices of that company in Slaton Sunday morning, he made his initial student run as brakeman out of that city on the same day.

After completing his training as a student, which will require about two weeks, he will be assigned to a regular run on some division of the Santa Fe.

While every railroad man must begin at the bottom and work up, it is believed that Francis will win rapid promotion. His father and two of his uncles have been in the Santa Fe railway service for many years, and he was almost born a railroader.

Mrs. Gill and the children will remain here until Francis is assigned to regular duty, and then they will join him.

UNITED STATES CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION

The United States Civil Service Commission announces open competitive examination for the position of Substitute Post Office Clerk, for employment with the Post Office Service, Tahoka, Texas, at a salary of 65c per hour. The age limits for this examination are 18 to 48 years. These age limits do not apply to persons granted military preference except that such applicants must not have reached the retirement age for the examination.

Applications must be filed with the Manager, Tenth U. S. Civil Service District, Customhouse, New Orleans, Louisiana before the close of business on December 15, 1941.

Applicants will be notified when and where to report for the written examination.

Further information and application forms may be obtained at Post Office, Tahoka, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Shawn had a number of their relatives as guests over the weekend. They included her father and step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Pugh of Dallas; two of her sisters with their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Taylor and family of Borger, and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Walker of Meadow; a brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pugh of Waynoka, Oklahoma; and two nephews, Raymond Dodson of Bowie, Texas, and Corporal Rayford Dodson of Camp Bowie.

Mrs. Gladys Stokes and Mrs. G. M. Stewart are leaving this morning for Dallas. At Roscoe they will be joined by Mrs. Dr. J. W. Young, a cousin of Mrs. Stewart, who will accompany them to Dallas. Mrs. Stokes goes on business with the Southwestern Life Insurance Co., which she represents here.

High Percentage Of Selectees Defective

The high percentage of selectees turned down on account of physical defects, to say the least, amazed the most of us. It was appalling news to a nation which has more of the natural wealth of the world than any other nation. What was the underlying cause of these physical defects?

Tests have been made by nutrition experts, medical associations and federal welfare agencies. The predominant cause has been found to be —lack of proper diet. The great majority of these young men who are rejected at the army induction centers were deficient in red blood, if you please.

Tests under the supervision of the Farm Security Administration in one Alabama county showed a shortage of this important "defense material" in 40 per cent of all the young men in the county of draft age. Commenting on this, a speaker at an Alabama Nutrition Conference said:

"If 40 per cent of the Flying Fortresses came off the assembly lines defective there would be a national uproar that would register on every seismograph within 100,000 miles."

He thought that a manpower that was 40 per cent defective was also an important defense problem.

Through its general and widespread program of diet education, increased production of fruits and vegetables, better housing, sanitation and medical facilities and rehabilitation of the farm family in general, the FSA believes it is doing a constructive work among rural people to help banish this serious shortage of an essential product vital to general welfare and national defense. It is appealing to people everywhere, however, to join in the campaign. It is a campaign in which everyone can help. First he can help himself, through proper nutrition.

"Hoss" West Named All-District End

Horace "Hoss" West, hard-charging end on the Tahoka Bulldogs football team, was selected for a place on the all-district team by coaches of 14 schools in District 5-A, the balloting having taken place recently.

He was named as the best end in the district by every one of the coaches in the south half of the district. One coach described West as "the best boy I ever saw in Class A competition."

Harvick, Tahoka center, received honorable mention at that position, as did Cecil Curry at fullback. Several Tahoka fans expressed surprise that Quarterback Sonny Roberts did not receive mention, at least.

In spite of the fact that Tahoka is the only team in the district that gave Brownfield a battle to win, Roberts scoring three touchdowns against the district powerhouse, the Bulldogs received only one play on the all-district team. However, the local boys were more noted by team play than for outstanding stars.

MONTGOMERYS HAVE HOLIDAY VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Will Montgomery had a glorious Thanksgiving and weekend following. All of their three daughters were at home, Miss Marietta, who teaches Business Administration in the Brownfield High School, Miss Grace who teaches the same subjects at Bronte, and Miss Lois, who teaches Home Economics in the Tuscola school.

They also had as their guests during that time Mr. and Mrs. Fred Higbee of Lubbock, Mrs. Higbee being Mrs. Montgomery's sister, and Misses Ouida and Lola Bellah of Throckmorton, Mrs. Montgomery's nieces.

Mr. Montgomery says that Miss Marietta and two other Brownfield teachers attended the convention of the State Teachers Association in Houston the preceding week.

LETTER FROM "THE NAVY"

"Life here is sure easy, so easy I can hardly believe it's the navy," stated D. H. Lindly in a letter to his parents November 28.

D. H. is the son of F. H. (Preacher) Lindly of T-Bar. He was a senior in Tahoka High School when he left in September to join the navy. D. H. was first sent to San Diego for his basic training but is now in Chicago.

His letter continues: "We are stationed at the Navy Pier almost in downtown Chicago. Are we having fun, O'boy!"

"Our school starts Monday and I'm going to be a Diesel Engineer. There are just twenty of us in this. I was over looking at some of the big motors today. They sure are big ones! Tell Daddy they will pull that little red thing (Farmall Tractor) of his half in-two."

"This is sure a big town. I wish you could see it! Daddy never saw anything in France that would beat this! The people treat you very nice too."

"There are only a thousand men here; we have all the leisure of a Salty Seaman. Lake Michigan is some sight too!"

"I was sure lucky to get in this school, every one on the station tell me that they sure wish they could get in it some way. Most every one here is an aviation mechanic or metalsmith. We get all the liberties we want."

"One thing San Diego has on this place is sunshine. It gets cold here!" "Our instructor told us today he was going to make experts out of every one of us before he turned us loose."

"My address is: Dee Howell Lindly, Naval Training Station, Navy Pier, Chicago, Ill. Co. 17, Section D."

J. C. Key of Wilson, among a number of others, dropped into the News office Thursday to make himself safe for good reading matter for another year and reported that farmers in that part of the county are getting their cotton gathered in a hurry. He estimated the average yield at about a half bale, much cotton having been damaged by excessive rains and the worms.

MISS MAURYCE GILES WEDS LEVELLAND MAN

Thursday at 12:30, November 27, Miss Mauryce Giles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Giles and Mr. Roy Pharies of Levelland were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Bruce Giles, brother of the bride, reading a double-ring ceremony.

For something old, the bride wore her mother's wedding band; for something borrowed, she carried a linen handkerchief belonging to Miss Maxine Holt, a room-mate. Her costume was soldier blue, with black accessories.

A few intimate friends and relatives attended. They are at home in Levelland after a brief trip to Wichita Falls. Mrs. Pharies is a teacher at Levelland. Mr. Pharies is a farmer, at present employed at Cobb's Department Store in Levelland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Harris had as guests for Thursday and the weekend his niece, Mrs. Burns and her children from Sweetwater.

Mrs. F. M. Sherrod, who had been confined to her bed for a long time, is now able to be up.

Farm Equipment Joint Ownership Possible Under FSA

With farm machinery becoming more difficult to purchase because of the defense program and in view of increased costs, farmers in Lynn County are being encouraged to consider the plan of joint purchase and ownership of equipment that has aided many small operators in this area, according to Wyman J. Welch, rural rehabilitation supervisor for the Farm Security Administration.

This plan, it was said, is in line with a suggestion made recently by Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard encouraging both the practice of custom work and the joint ownership of farm machinery to insure maximum use and efficiency of operation.

Under the Farm Security Administration's program of assisting farm families, community and cooperative service groups have been estimated and are operating successfully. Joint purchase and ownership of expensive machinery makes it possible for small operators to have the use of the labor-saving devices at a cost within the ability of the small farm unit to pay.

Mr. Welch said it has been estimated that farmers next year would buy, if it were available, 40 percent more machinery than they purchased in 1940 but that it was probable only 90 percent of the 1940 amount would be available because of the shortage of metals.

"This means farmers will have to get along with 50 percent less machinery than they figure they'll need to carry out their operations in the Food for Freedom program," Mr. Welch said. "And that means we'll have to buy together and work together to get the maximum use out of what we have," he continued. "By buying and using heavy equipment in groups, the supply should be sufficient to go around and enable us to meet the increased production goals."

Although farmers in Lynn County may not need new machinery until Spring, the FSA Supervisor said now is the time to plan to purchase.

"We don't know what the future holds for us, but we have every reason to doubt that machinery will be less costly or as plentiful as it is at the present time," he said.

To help small farmers, who cannot get adequate credit elsewhere, the Farm Security Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture, makes loans for necessary farm equipment and supplies. These loans are made only when farm and home plans show the equipment is needed and that the farm income will be sufficient to repay its cost over a period of from one to five years at five percent interest. Where farm machinery needs are purchased and financed jointly by two or more farmers, the rate of interest is three percent per annum. Frequently farms unable to carry the whole cost of a needed piece of equipment can support a share of the cost.

"In these cases, even when machinery is plentiful, it is more practical for two or more farmers to buy the equipment together, use the equipment jointly and spread the cost over all the farms," Mr. Welch said.

The supervisor mentioned several of these groups now operating in Lynn County.

Two of the different cooperative groups in our county are the Joe Bailey Feed Grinder Service and Milliken Cooperative Bull Service.

To assist the small operators who will need additional equipment for the next season, Mr. Welch will be glad to discuss the FSA's plan for financing these purchases on a group basis. He suggested that interested farmers contact him soon at his office in the Court House Building in Tahoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Holind visited at De Leon Saturday and then drove over to Coleman, where they spent Saturday night and Sunday with his sister and husband. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Doggett.

Around OUR PLACE
by Fred Gipson

Last Monday I attended the local livestock auction sale. Not that I intended to buy anything, but sometimes a man who's grown up with livestock just naturally likes to hang round hogs and cows and horses and breathe the smell of them again.

It was a raw day, with gusty showers and bone-chilling winds, a mighty good day for hog-killing, bundling or pneumonia.

To Pecos Turner and I, pneumonia looked like the safest bet. Pecos came by to help me sweat the sale, but he was not sweating. His wife was off from home, visiting one of the girls, and had forgotten to tell Pecos to bundle himself up good when he went out.

Summer and winter, Pecos goes around in ducking pants, a shirt and vest. The weather may change often, but Pecos never does—unless Grandma Turner sees to it. She also has to see that he wears a heavier coat when freezing weather comes along.

Pecos spit tobacco juice all over the sides of my car on the way to the sale, and commented: "There's one good thing about Texas weather: if you don't like her, by gum, you can just wait around a couple or three hours and some'll come along that'll suit you! She was plumb clear and warm when I piled up in the shucks for a little sleep last night."

When we arrived at the stockyards, we found all the livestock owners and dealers and sweaters hunkering down on their spurred heels around a couple of fires inside Hipshot Cherry's coffee and hamburger stand.

Hipshot built fires, he told me. He said he'd built up one to keep himself warm while he worked, but that the customers had flocked in and taken possession. Then he built another. But more customers had come and crowded him away from it, too. We found him shivering around outside his stand, while all his customers squatted inside, scorching their shins while their hindquarters froze, then turning around to warm their hindquarters and freeze their shins.

Apparently, Hipshot operates his stand on the theory that the customer is always bigger and more numerous.

But Jess Maker is different. He operates on the theory that an extra pair of brand new pants, pulled on before a bunch of shivering men like us, who cannot afford two pairs of pants, will incite no little envy.

He backed up his theory with proof, and made himself a bunch of enemies.

"There's gents what just naturally can't keep from givin a pore devil a dig when they get a chance," was Pecos' observation.

One good citizen gazed longly upon Maker's extra pants and hatched an idea.

"Nobody'd have to smash my toes with a hammer to get a good stiff drink down me," he said hopefully.

Another shook his head. "Not me," he said. "I haven't forgot how a pint caused me to see $50 worth of taller on a bunch of cattle last week, when it wasn't there."

Some of the other duck-waddlers around the smoky fire weren't so cautious. Every little bit, one would sneak out and run for his automobile, where he'd strike a couple of quick blows for liberty.

This general fight against the dread pneumonia kept up till after the sale got started. Then as the "medicine" bottles lowered, the price of cattle soared. If they both hadn't played out soon, the price of livestock would have reached an all-time high. Bidding was loud and brisk, to say the least.

Some of the boys had a little trouble finding their stock, though, after they couldn't remember what they'd bought.

The average American will consume 2,000 pounds of meat during a reasonable life expectancy. Assuming that appetites also are average, this poundage will include six steers, five sheep, three calves and 39 hogs.

Funeral Rites Held For Charley Clemons In San Angelo

Funeral services for Charley Clemons, 59, formerly of this city, but who was living in San Angelo at the time of his passing, were held Sunday in that city at 3 o'clock p. m. Burial was made in a cemetery six miles west of San Angelo.

The services were attended by B. L. Davis and D. J. Bolch of this city.

Survivors include the widow; three sons, Bill, Jack and Jim; two sisters and two brothers.

Clemons, who came to O'Donnell in the early days of the town, had lived a varied and adventurous life before coming here. He had served with the British forces in Africa during the Boer War, and also served hitches in the U. S. Army. He left here about a year ago to work in San Angelo to work at his trade of carpenter.

Friends here were grieved to learn of his passing.-O'Donnell Press.

WHAT'S DOING AROUND GRASSLAND

The sun is shining, and every one has lots of work to do before Christmas. The cotton rush seems to have let up some.

The P. T. A. met last week in the School Gym. A program was put on by the teachers and pupils.

The Stamps-Baxter Quartet will sing in the Gym Tuesday night here. A large crowd is expected.

It is said that the tent theatre here is going to stay all fall. They have ordered a new tent and screen.

Mrs. M. R. Scott and daughter, Myrtle, drove over from Jayton Wednesday afternoon and spent the night with Mrs. C. P. Bullock. They were on their way to Brownfield to take Thanksgiving with Mrs. Scott's daughter, Mrs. J. E. Young. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Norman and Mrs. C. P. Bullock went with them from here. They reported a nice time.

Mrs. A. P. Aten has visitors from San Antonio last week, her sister, Mrs. McGee, her daughter, and a friend, Mrs. Lyrie.

Rev. Brown, pastor of the Nazarene Church, has gone to another field as pastor. It has not been learned who the new pastor here will be yet.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stone have a new baby girl.

Mr. L. Walker visited relatives in Lamesa last weekend.

Charles Stewart is sick with the measles this week.-Reporter.

MR. DONKEY-HUNTER

There is something new under the sun! It's a burro that trails deer.

John R. Wood, a state game warden, brought in the story of "Old Whitey," a long-eared donkey attached to the Comanche Trail Council Boy Scout camp in San Saba County, 12 miles west of Richland Springs, Texas. The donkey's hunting ability was discovered accidentally.

L. R. Tesson, scoutmaster at Mullin, was riding the burro one day when the animal reared its head into the air, sniffed tentatively, and changed his course.

Whitey picked his way cautiously over rock and through brush, testing his footing with each step lest he snap a twig or click a stone. In 15 minutes he took Tesson to a sleeping doe and a fawn.

Tesson put that down to coincidence and decided to test Whitey the next day. He took along a camera. A half mile from camp Whitey tossed his nose into the air and took off through the brush, again avoiding contact with anything liable to make noise. Within 200 yards he came upon a doe and a buck. Tesson photographed them.

Again Whitey was on wind. This time he led Tesson to within 30 feet of a buck sleeping under a cedar tree. By night Whitey had "flushed" 13 deer.

Whitey is a fixture at the camp but sorry, hunters, he's not for sale or rent. Mullen plans several demonstrations during the summer.

Frank McGlaun Gains Promotion In Army

Sergeant Frank McGlaun came in Sunday night from the Air Corps Gunnery School at Las Vegas, Nevada, on a fifteen-day furlough, to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGlaun Sr.

Sgt. McGlaun has been at Las Vegas since July, having been transferred to that place from Brooks Field, San Antonio.

Frank has made an enviable record since enlisting in the service, being one of the very few who have been promoted from a "buck private" to the rank of Staff Sergeant in so short a period of time. He is now Staff Sergeant in the 546th School Squadron Supply.

Frank likes the army and says that promotions are easy to earn if a fellow really wants to be a soldier and conducts himself as a soldier. He also declares that Texans get more promotions in the army than boys from other parts of the country. Get right in there and do the job, work, and act the gentleman, and the promotion will come, he says.

His half brother, Grady Herrin, is also at Las Vegas and is also making a good record, being a Sergeant.

WINGS OF YOUTH

HERE in a Canadian factory, final touches are being given to wings which will be part of the planes in which the youth of the British Empire are learning to fly. Greatest of all flying schools in the world, the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan now has 124 schools and establishments operating and is producing pilots, observers and ground forces at a rate far exceeding the original schedule. About 600 American pilots are serving as instructors and about 5% of the pupils come from the U. S. A. The cost of the plan in the first three years of its operation will approximate $824,000,000, of which Canada will supply $531,000,000.

Two Tahoka Boys In Service On Same Island Haven't Met

Two boys reared on the same street and almost on the same block in Tahoka, we learn, are doing service for Uncle Sam at the same naval base, one in the Marines and the other in the Navy, on North Island, San Diego, California, and yet they have not met since being sent to that station. They are J. W. Fortenberry and Joe Bob Billman.

For years, these two boys lived as close neighbors in Tahoka and were chums. After graduating in the Tahoka High School J. W. took a business course and was employed for a season or two by a gin here; then he accepted a position with the Double-U Company in Post, where he has been since until he joined the Marines a few months ago.

Joe Bob, after graduating in the Tahoka High School, also attended a business college and was employed for some time in business establishments here. Then he procured a position in Dallas, and a few months ago he joined the Navy.

In the course of time both boys were sent to the Naval Base on North Island, San Diego; and there the Navy feeds the Marines, it is said, but J. W. and Joe Bob have never met. Neither knows how long he will be on North Island, however, but J. W. writes his mother here that he is expecting to be sent to New Jersey in February; but he may be sent in the other direction—who knows.

J. W. sent to his mother, Mrs. Alice Fortenberry, a card the other day on one side of which is printed the Marines' Hymn.

Just because it is nifty and expresses the spirit of the boys, we are reproducing it below.

THE MARINES' HYMN

From the Halls of Montezuma
To the Shores of Tripoli,
We fight our country's battles
On land and on the sea,
First to fight for right and freedom
And to keep our honor clean;
We are proud to claim the title of
UNITED STATES MARINE.

Our flag's unfurled to every breeze

From Dawn to setting sun;
We have fought in every clime and place

Where we could take a gun;
In the snow of far-off northern lands

And in sunny tropic scenes,
You will find us always on the job—
UNITED STATES MARINES.

Here's health to you and to our corps,
Which we are proud to serve;
In many a strife we've fought for life

And never lost our nerve;
If the Army and the Navy
Ever look on Heaven's scenes,
They will find the streets are guarded by
UNITED STATES MARINES.

Tall Texans Turn Toward Basketball

CANYON, Dec. 4—While some colleges are thinking of football bowls, the tall basketball team of West Texas State College is being sent many invitations for court games during the winter.

Every week brings more invitations from every section of the nation. In one mail came propositions from Memphis, Tenn., and St. Paul, Minn. Both large and small institutions wish to play the "Tallest Basketball Team in the World."

The reason usually is frankly stated: the Buffs have tremendous crowd-pulling power. Their fame is widespread. Their height is amazing, averaging 6 feet, 6 1-4 inches. Their cowboy attire appears more picturesque in proportion to the distance they travel from the Southwest.

Coach Al Baggett, fortified with 18 games in the Border Conference, can accept few of these invitations. His schedule was largely completed last spring. But in addition to Border Conference cities, the Buffs will include the following on their itinerary: Oklahoma City, Evansville, Ind., Chicago, New York City, and Philadelphia.

Their New York City engagement is a tussle with powerful Long Island University in Madison Square Garden on January 28. They also will play St. Joseph's College in Convention Hall, Philadelphia, on January 31.

The Buffs won their season's opener November 27 by defeating Chihuahua Teachers, champions of Old Mexico, at Chihuahua by a score of 60 to 46. All-American Price Brookfield was high point man with 16 points and 6 foot 10 inches Charles Halbert was second high with 10 points.

Carna Reese, a member of the regular army, stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, was here over the weekend visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reese, on leave of absence.

ELECTS OFFICERS

"Trees are not to be planted in straight rows unless they are to be used as windbreaks", said Miss McNatt at the 4-H club meeting held at New Home High School Monday, November 24.

The house was called to order by the president and the following officers for the coming year were elected: Betty Jean Mitchell, President; Eudania McCormick, Secretary; Betty Gene Parr, Vice-president; Betty Mary Fillingim, Assistant Secretary; Dorothy Helen Holcomb, Song Leader; Marjorie Ann Busby, Reporter; Miss Renfro, Sponsor.

A very interesting discussion and demonstration was given by Miss McNatt on the placement of shrubs in yards and the grouping of trees so that the house would be the center of attraction.

The following members attended the meeting Monday: Eudania McCormick, Betty Gene Parr, Betty Mary Fillingim, Betty Jean Mitchell, La Verne Knight, Dorthoy Helen Holcomb, Marjorie Ann Busby, Peggy

Ruth Willis, Juniece Ensor, Memtha Rush Postom, Marlene Timplen, Jimmie Lou James, Loveta Woodson, Ruth Parham, Viola Halford, Fernova Balch, Lois June McClellan, Ruby Louise Taylor, Mary Sue Weyrick, Norma Sue Burkhalter, Patsey Clem, Geraldine Jones, Jo Dean Jones.

The next regular club meeting will be Tuesday, December 2, at the usual time.—Marjorie Ann Busby, Reporter.

ODDS & ENDS

by E. E. Eyer,
the Elder

We certainly had a crazy mix-up in this column last week.

This is what happened. We wrote a paragraph in which we expressed the hope that President Roosevelt would decide to abandon his effort to change the date of Thanksgiving and go back to the old regular time.

After this paragraph had been put into type we were told that the President had already made announcement to that effect. That was news to us. The item had escaped us. But, upon learning of this announcement, we marked out that paragraph and wrote a substitute saying that we were glad that the President had made such a decision. But the printers failed to take out the discarded paragraph and ran it and the substitute both, the substitute coming first, and the whole mess likewise got by the proof-reader, and hence the crazy result.

So, that's at least one mistake we have made in a life time. We believe President Roosevelt himself has made more mistakes than that. We think he has made at least two or three as President—but please don't let the Mayor of Draw know that we said that.

Right now, we can't think of but one man in politics that never made a mistake. Our good friend Brother Drennon can tell you who that man is. There is one thing that even Brother Drennon does, however, that we have gotten tired of. (Note the preposition, Mr. Guy, with which we closed that sentence) But we have gotten sick and tired, Brother Drennon, of your writing that name O'Daniel's. His name is just O'Daniel—there is not, but one of him. Of course there are Mrs. O'Daniel and the two boys, but there is just one of the Senator, just one Wilbert Lee O'Daniel, two-time governor of Texas and now a United States Senator. He is not plural; he is very singular, even though we suppose that Brother Drennon does think that he is worth as much as a big plurality of all the other Senators in Washington. So, in your next communication to the News, Brother Drennon, write it "Brother O'Daniel", for we hate to have to correct your copy.

We guess that the reason "Brother O'Daniel" has never made a mistake is that he is not a professional politician. He is utterly guileless. We can't understand how he has kept so spotless and so guileless through all these years, seeing that he has been thrown in continual contact with professional politicians both in Austin and in Washington. But in spite of his associations he has not made even a bobble.

Some of us thought at first that he had violated the proprieties when he arose gravely from his seat the second day he was in the Senate and voluntarily gave the members of that body the benefit of his ponderous opinions concerning matters of state. But we have since decided some of them needed his advice. The only trouble is that they didn't know it at the time and don't seem to have found it out yet.

Some of us, too, thought that it was a rather far-fetched "joke" that he was about to pull in that radio broadcast soon after going to Washington in which he was going to say that President Roosevelt seemed to have become frightened and had left town soon after his arrival, or words to that effect. Friends frantically intervened, you remember, and got him to cut out the giddy gag; all of which made fine grist for the newspaper reporters. Then the "friends" came to the rescue and explained that O'Daniel had meant his jibe only as a joke. And he got a lot of publicity that time that he probably didn't want—if there ever was a time that "Brother" O'Daniel didn't want publicity.

But, we have decided that maybe O'Daniel was right that time too. Maybe the President—timorous soul!—did dread to come in contact with the mighty one from Texas, whom he and Lyndon Johnson and all the department heads in Washington had not been able to defeat—maybe he had gotten shaky and decided it was best to hot-foot it out of town.

But, we guess "Brother O'Daniel" finally got sorry for the Old Boy, for of late he has been declaring that he is "all out" for Roosevelt. Except on this labor-strike business.

The labor unions poll a mighty vote in this nation. If and when they stick together, they can swing most any election to the Democrats or to the Republicans as they see fit. And in the North and East they can defeat almost any Senator that they set their heads to defeat—or almost any Congressman.

Furthermore, their good-will and cooperation is almost indispensable to any program that the President or a majority of Congress really desires to put over.

Therefore, as a rule, Presidents and Senators tremble in their boots when John L. Lewis thunders out a threat.

But in this country, dictators can easily carry things too far. The people began to get impatient with the do-nothing policy of the President respecting strikes in defense industries. They began to demand of their Senators and Representatives in Congress that they do something about it. They became restless, especially here in the South.

Now, Brother O'Daniel is not a "professional politician", but he sensed this situation a long time ago. He is not a professional politician, but he knows a good political stroke when he sees it. He drew up an anti-strike bill and recommended that the legislature pass it.

His bill was pigeon-holed as unconstitutional rubbish but another bill was introduced by Senator Smith, we believe, which was passed in a jiffy, and O'Daniel claimed and got the credit for it.

No, we wouldn't insinuate that he is any kind of politician, but he stuck that bill in his pocket and took it with him to Washington. He tacked it on to some other bill as a rider. The Senators voted it down almost to a man, for they didn't want to mess up the other bill with it. Possibly O'Daniel didn't care whether it passed or not. He probably knew that it had no chance to be passed in that way—but it surely was good political medicine for us people down here in Texas, for all of us were furious at John L. Lewis and disgusted with the labor-appeasement policy of the Administration.

And that little old anti-strike amendment that W. Lee O'Daniel tacked onto that Lease-Lend bill in Congress will probably be worth 50,000 to 100,000 votes to him in the primary election in Texas next summer.

No, he is not a professional politician.

There are a lot of fine fellows in Texas who would like to go to the United States Senate. Most any of them would be head and shoulders above W. Lee O'Daniel as a statesman but some of them wouldn't be knee-high to him as a poll—we mean as a vote-getter.

Many folks think Pat Neff is one of the best qualified men in Texas for the place. But Pat was governor a long time ago, and is now up in his sixties. Besides, he is doing a great work as President of a great educational institution and might Dan Moody is somewhat younger, and some think that he would be a great Senator. Undoubtedly he is a man of fine character and ability. Thousands of people in Texas would support him enthusiastically.

There has been some talk of Judge James V. Allred getting into the fray. He is a fighter, and he is a politician. He is a great vote-getter. His friends might "persuade" him to resign from the bench and enter the arena.

Thousands and thousands of admirers of Gerald C. Mann would rally to his standard if he should decide to run again. He is a fine young man. Some think he is really too young. But it doesn't take any young man long to get older, and the younger a man is, if he has character and ability, the longer he is likely to serve.

And then Lyndon Johnson might decide to try it again, though it is not believed that he would have the same backing this time that he had before.

Yes, and there are a score of others no doubt—big, little, old, and young—who are hoping that the lightning may strike them. There may be a dozen candidates for this position in the first primary next year—who knows.

Better pay your poll tax, folks.

Man about to become an owner of the electric company

WAIT a minute—this man is taking a medical examination, isn't he? That's right—and what's more he is passing it. But what in the world does that have to do with owning an electric company?

It's this way: The man is applying for life insurance. And when he becomes a policy owner he will automatically become part owner of some electric company. The same thing would be true if he were depositing money in a bank. For everyone who has a bank account or a life insurance policy is part owner of some electric company.

How is that?

Because the money you put in the bank, or buy a life insurance policy with, is invested in various businesses, including electric companies.

This makes you one of the millions of people who have a personal stake in the electric companies—an extra "plus" benefit to you from a business operation which has not only steadily improved your electric service, but has also succeeded in reducing your electric rate about 50% in the past 10 to 15 years. And it is the aim of the people who have accomplished these things—the employees of your electric company—to keep on bringing you more and more of the benefits of electricity at less and less cost.

Projects Discussed At Rotary Club

In the absence of a set program, the Rotary Club devoted the time Thursday to the discussion of various matters which the Club is sponsoring just at this time. Reports of most of these activities are found elsewhere in this paper.

One of the items had to do with the free picture show and other entertainment features to be given here on the last Saturday preceding Christmas, to which every child in the county is invited. The committee reported that plans were being perfected for this big day.

Among visiting Rotarians were Hervey Gardenhire, Mack Noble, and B. J. Boyd of O'Donnell. Other visitors included R. R. Adams of Wells, and Messrs Lyons of Dallas and Hall of Lubbock, guests of Happy Smith and Conway Clingan respectively.

SIXTH GRADE HOMEMAKING CLASS ORGANIZED

The Sixth Grade Homemaking Club was organized on Monday, Dec. 1. The following officers were elected: President, Imogene Hargett; Vice-president, Eucelle Godwin; Secretary, Nancy Ray Weathers; and Reporter, Lloydine Edwards. They took their place after the elections were made.

The president appointed Eddie Lois Hamilton and Billie Lou Drager for the program committee. The next meeting will be on December 9, in Room 1, in the Grade School building with our sponsor, Mrs. Louise Wyatt. Our regular meeting day is Tuesday.—Reporter.

GIANT TURNIPS EXHIBITED

J. B. Nance presented the News editor with a couple of giant turnips which he raised, almost by accident, down on a farm belonging to his son about eight miles south of Tahoka. He says he merely scattered the seed on top of the ground one day and Nature did the rest. And Nature certainly did a good job of it.

But Deen Nowlin recently brought in a turnip and a story that beat that. He had just been down to the farm of Frank Lamb over in the edge of Borden county and found a turnip patch that would do to write home about. The turnips were so large and so numerous that they amazed him. He gathered three of them and brought them home. One of them weighed 5 1-2 pounds, another 6 3-4 pounds, and the third 7 1-2 pounds. It was the jumbo of the bunch that he exhibited in the News office and other places down town.

Texas Merchants Enlist For National Defense

Sixty thousand Texas merchants have been asked to sell defense savings stamps to six million Texans—and they have responded with a campaign designed to put defense stamps on sale at retail counters in every store in the state. Representatives of retail associations in all branches of the industry met in Austin to chart the program, which will be directed by the Texas Retailers for Defense committee. In the picture, left to right, are: Charles T. Lux, Austin, secretary of the Retail Merchants Association of Texas; H. E. Dill, Dallas, secretary of the Retail Furniture Association of Texas; Frank Scofield, Austin, State Administrator of National Defense in Texas; Albert L. Walters, Dallas, secretary of the Texas Chain Stores Association, committee chairman; Dr. W. J. Danforth, Fort Worth, secretary of the Texas Pharmaceutical Association; and Roger Q. Flournoy, Dallas, secretary of the Texas Retail Grocers Association. Other members of the committee are P. D. Moreland, Austin, secretary of the State Restaurant Association of Texas, and J. H. Calvert, San Antonio, representing the Texas Retail Dry Goods Association.

QUARANTINE NOTICE

NOTICE OF THE PUBLIC AND PARTICULARLY RESIDENTS OF LYNN COUNTY, STATE OF TEXAS:

You are hereby notified that the Livestock Sanitary Commission has ascertained that Hog Cholera is epidemic within the following described district:

Lynn County.

and this epidemic is the direct result of the movement of sick hogs from various states and counties within the State and through public sales yards.

THEREFORE, under authority of law a quarantine is hereby declared upon all premises within the above described district prohibiting the movement of any hog or hogs into said district from any other state or county within the State, excepting hogs consigned to recognized slaughtering establishments having Municipal or Federal inspection for immediate slaughter, and excepting hogs entering said area in compliance with Texas Interstate Regulations to wit:

Hogs for purposes other than immediate slaughter must be accompanied by a health certificate issued by a Veterinarian approved by the Bureau of Animal Industry showing them to have been properly immunized with either the simultaneous or the Dorset-McBride-Niles serum method and to have been dipped or sprayed in or with a disinfectant approved by the Bureau of Animal Industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture under the supervision of the Veterinarian issuing the certificate.

(a) Hogs are forbidden to enter Texas within 30 days after vaccination with the simultaneous method and must reach their destination before the expiration of the 30 days from the date of treatment if the Dorset-McBride-Niles serum method is used. Excepting that hogs receiving serum only may not enter said area.

(b) Health certificates shall show the approximate weight and the amount of serum injected into each.

(c) Hogs shipped for purposes other than immediate slaughter must be transported in clean and disinfected cars, and not handled through public stockyards and chutes at point of origin, enroute or at destination;

And prohibiting movement of hogs through public sales, prohibiting the movement of hogs within the said area excepting hogs moved to recognized public stockyards, and hogs for immediate slaughter to recognized slaughtering establishments within the area, unless accompanied by a written permit from the Livestock Sanitary Commission, and prohibiting movement of hogs out of said area, excepting hogs consigned to public stockyards under Federal supervision, hogs consigned to slaughtering establishments under Federal supervision, and apparently healthy hogs consigned to another state in compliance with state of destinations regulation, and prohibiting the movement of any hogs out of a herd of hogs in which any hog is visibly ill, within the said area.

This quarantine to be in force and effect on and after the 15th day of November, A. D. 1941, and until released by the Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas.

WITNESS our hands at Fort Worth, Texas, this 14th day of November, A. D. 1941.

LADIES GUESTS OF COMPRESS

The home car of the Union Compress Officials was the scene of a lively dinner party at noon on Thursday when fourteen ladies enjoyed a turkey dinner in the dining car.

Representing the Compress officials, Mrs. E. R. Edwards and Miss Bernice Edwards were hostesses for this delicious meal with the following guests in attendance, Mmes. Heck of New Home, C. C. Coffee of T-Bar, V. A. Botkin of Edith, James S. Hutchison of Shreveport, K. R. Durham, S. H. Holland, Vernon Davis, Troy Warren, Jack Fenton, E. H. Boullion, Harley Henderson and E. I. Hill, all of Tahoka.

Many complimentary expressions were spoken by the guests, who appreciated Mr. Arch Underwood's thoughtfulness and liberality in arranging this enjoyable affair.

Dear Santa: Please bring me an air rifle and a tool set. My sister wants a baby doll and a piano, and both of us want a doctor and nurse set together. Don't forget our little baby brother. Thank you.—Dan and Frances Martin

GRASSLAND H. D. CLUB STUDIES GROOMING

"Incorrect brushing of the teeth may cause receding gums, as well as permit tooth decay," declared Miss Maurine McNatt in her demonstration on grooming given this week in the home of Mrs. Tom Brown.

Strokes of the brush should be rotary in movement beginning well over the gums and moving toward the points of the teeth, both above and below, inside and out. This encourages the growth of the gums down around the teeth instead of pushing them back away from the teeth, and at the same time the bristles follow the grooves for more thorough cleansing.

Refreshments were served to the following members; Mmes. A. L. Shepperd, Claude Thomas, R. A. Ferguson, G. C. Watson, R. B. McCord and R. E. Appling.

The next meeting will be a Christmas party in the home of Mrs. Fred Mathews, December eighth.

MRS. TUNNELL TO REVIEW BOOK

Faith Baldwin's "Saratoga Trunk", for which she received $100,000 for movie rights, will be reviewed in the high school auditorium here December 16 by Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell, county superintendent.

The review, which will be sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club, was originally planned for a November date, but a heavy calendar of events at the end of the month made it advisable to move up the date to this month.

English students of Tahoka high school and possibly other schools in the county will be given credit on their extra-curricular reading if they attend the review.

EASTERN STAR OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

Plans for observing the seventeenth anniversary of the local Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, are being perfected by Mrs. W. T. Hanes, Worthy Matron, and her Committee, and the celebration will meet in the Chapter room at six for a buffet dinner.

Following the dinner the Chapter will open in regular session, with Mrs. Mary Lawson of Post, District Deputy Grand Matron, paying her official visit. At the conclusion of the business meeting a Christmas program will be enjoyed.

L. O. Mitchell is up again after suffering an attack of the flu last week. Mrs. Mitchell says this is the first time he has missed a day's work on account of sickness since 1928.

"MOTHER" WEATHERS IS HOSTESS

Mrs. E. N. "Mother" Weathers, who has been confined to her room for several months past, seemed to be the happiest person present on Monday afternoon when Sallee Circle of the First Baptist Church met in her room for their monthly Bible Study.

Mrs. A. J. Edwards, Bible Readers' Leader for the Circle, had charge of the program.

Refreshments of apple pie and coffee were enjoyed by Mmes. Weathers, Edwards, D. V. Smith, C. T. Oliver, Reed, W. M. Harris, V. A. Botkin, W. O. Robertson, Lida Kelso, S. H. Holland, and Garland Pennington.

Mrs. Henry L. Dixon and two little sons, Robert Henry and William Caveness, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Caveness, have gone to Winters for a visit with Mr. Dixon's parents. Mrs. Dixon is the former Jeanette Caveness. She and her husband have resided at Akron, Ohio, where he has held a position with the Goodrich Rubber Company for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Norman left Wednesday afternoon for Denison, where he is employed, after a visit of several days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Aycox.

Family Celebrates Three Days In One

Celebrating Thanksgiving a few days late, a wedding anniversary, and the birthdays of six members of the party, about thirty-five of the relatives and friends of Mrs. Ella Davis and daughter, Mrs. Beulah Adkins, gathered at their home in southwest Tahoka Sunday for a great feast at the noon hour and for a visit with one another.

The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Davis and family of Floydada, Tom Christman and family of Wellman; Harry Miller and family, E. D. Duncan and family, Miss Edna Newcomer, Ovid Halman, Dock Kelley, and Tommy Davis, all of Brownfield; Oscar Moon of Tishomingo, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wagley and family of Draw; E. B. Gaither and family, O. M. Davidson, and Miss Carolyn Davis, all of Tahoka, together with the hostesses, Mrs. Ella Davis and Mrs. Beulah Adkins.

Boyce Evans, who is a student in Texas Tech, spent Thanksgiving Day and the weekend here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Evans. Boyce is taking Petroleum Engineering and is a member of the R. O. T. C. at the Tech.

Mrs. Roddy Makes Red Cross Report

Our sewing for this quota will be finished on time if the women of Lynn county will continue to operate for two more weeks as they have done in the past.

To the few who have said "Let her do it as she is getting a good salary", I wish to inform them that I have not received a cent from any one for serving as Chairman, War Production of Lynn County American Red Cross, nor have I expected it. I have gladly given my time and work these six months and have enjoyed working with each of you.

Our layettes are nearly finished and we are now working on men's pajamas and girls skirts. If you have finished articles, will you please bring them in so we may pack them for shipment.

Our time limit on our knitting has been extended, so please come in and get some yarn to knit during those cold days we will have after the holidays.

I have kept the work room open every day, but beginning next week we will be open all day on Tuesdays. (Bring your covered dish), and Thursdays and Saturdays from 1 p. m. till 5 p. m. At other times you may call me at 46-J.

Those who have finished articles since our last report are:

REPORT OF NEW HOME F. F. A. CHAPTER

On Saturday, November 22, 1941, Charles Hammons of this chapter showed his registered Berkshire gilt at Tahoka and won first place.

On Friday, November 28, Charles competed with four other boys at Lubbock. These boys were Alvin Penner of Ropesville in Hockley County, Wayne Johnson of Plainview in Hale County, Buster McDuff of Crosbyton in Crosby County, Doyle Curry won first place in this group.

Charles Hammons showed a registered Berkshire gilt, Buster McDuff showed a registered Duroc, while each of the others showed registered Poland-Chinas.

Doyle Curry's prize was a registered dairy-type heifer. Each of the other competitors received a registered barrow of any breed they wished.—Reporter.

Mary Lee Taylor's Christmas Cookies
Broadcast Dec. 4

Chocolate Oatmeal Cookies
1 cup all-purpose flour
1/2 cup cocoa
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup rolled oats
1/2 cup butter or other shortening
1 cup sugar
2 well-beaten eggs
1/4 cup Fat Milk

Turn on oven and set at moderately slow (350° F.). Sift flour before measuring. Beat with spoon, baking powder, cinnamon, nutmeg and salt. Fold rolled oats into flour mixture. Put soft butter in bowl. Add sugar gradually, mixing until light and fluffy after each addition. Beat in eggs vigorously. Add flour mixture alternately with milk. Begin and end with flour mixture, beating until smooth after each addition. Drop from teaspoon onto greased baking sheet, leaving 2-inch space between cookies to allow for spreading. Bake on oven shelf slightly above center for 12 minutes, or until cookies are brown. Makes about 3 dozen.

*To Substitute Unsweetened Chocolate for Cocoa: Melt 2 squares unsweetened chocolate over boiling water. Add to shortening and sugar mixture after egg has been beaten in, then proceed as directed for cocoa.

Civic Clubs Plan Store House Work For Christmas

Representatives of most of the clubs participating in the community store project for the collection and distribution of toys and other gifts to needy children and families during the Christmas season were present at a second meeting held in the county court room on Tuesday night to hear reports of the progress being made and to further proceed with the plans made.

With Mrs. D. G. Ridge presiding, reports were heard indicating that considerable progress had been made. Among other things the Boy Scouts had made a drive for toys last Saturday and quite an assortment of toys had been collected but it was deemed that the number turned in so far was inadequate. Accordingly, the Girl Scouts were detailed to make a drive Wednesday afternoon, which they did; but it might be stated that there is no danger of too many toys being collected, and every person who has old toys that could be touched up and made usable is requested to report to Mrs. Ridge or some member of the committee.

Steps were taken to have a lot of details attended to, such as washing the windows, painting signs, cleaning out the store building, providing tables and shelving, etc.

The task of furnishing socks, providing fruits and nuts, procuring the names and residences of the mothers of children who should be remembered with Christmas gifts, and the character of gifts desired, etc., were assigned to various organizations.

The call was also made for the names of women who would be willing to devote a half-day each to the task of having charge of the store, in turn, from its opening on December 15 until all the gifts have been distributed.

While it is desired that every needy or underprivileged child in Lynn county shall be remembered with a gift, yet it was made plain that steps would be taken to guard against the committee being imposed upon and to keep any one person or family from obtaining a lion's share of the gifts. A fair and justly-planned distribution of the gifts, as far as possible, is to be made.

A list of the organizations together with their representatives participating in the project has been furnished to the News and is as follows: Parent-Teacher Ass'n., Mrs. D. G. Ridge; Chamber of Commerce, Ray Weathers; Rotary Club, Walter Mathis; Methodist Church, Rev. Geo. E. Turrentine; Baptist Church, Mrs. E. I. Hill; Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Ray Weathers; Nazarene Church, Mrs. J. E. Ketner; Phebe K. Warner Club, Mrs. E. Prohl; Child Guidance Club, Mrs. Fred B. Hegi; Girl Scouts, Mrs. Lloyd Edwards; Boy Scouts, A. R. Milliken; Methodist Women's Missionary Society, Mrs. C. G. Franks; Stitch and Chatter Club, Mrs. Lee King; All-Sew Club, Mrs. Lloyd Edwards; Business & Professional Women's Club, Mrs. Helen Eubank; Order of Eastern Star, Mrs.

E. I. Hill; Jolly Dozen Sewing Club, Mrs. W. H. Kenley; '38 Bridge Club, Mrs. Harley Henderson; Four-Table Bridge Club, Mrs. Oscar Roberts; W. P. A. Supervisor, Mrs. Wade Holland.

Another meeting of the committee is to be held next Tuesday night, and any organization not yet represented in this movement and which desires to be represented should have a representative present at such meeting.

Mrs. J. H. Collenback came in from Fort Worth last Friday and visited friends here for several days. She and her daughter, Mrs. Dovie Anderson and husband, have a cozy and beautiful little place on a rural route out of Fort Worth, she says, and they are well pleased. Mrs. Collenback and daughter were residents of Tahoka for many years, and Miss Dovie was a teacher in the public school here for several years.
