Jim Curtsinger surged into a "comfortable" lead in the season standings in the Enterprise football contest with just one contest remaining to be counted. He leads his nearest opponent by eight points wtih 118 correct predictions for the year.

CLEVE WALKUP

Sessions will be held at 7 p.m. in the Vocational Agriculture building at OHS. The four-session course will be instructed by Cleve Walkup, Farm Electrification Specialist with the Vocational Agriculture Division of the Texas Education Agency and Department of Agricultural Engineering at Texas A&M University. He is headquartered at Texas A&M.

During the dates the short course is in progress, Walkup will be available to assist farmers with individual problems and to provide on-the-farm instruction according to Vo Ag instructors, Tommy Hancock and Steve Fraze.

Farmers interested in attending the short course should contact the school or the Vo Ag instructors. A fee of $8 will be charged. Farm Electric Wiring Short Course certificates will be presented to each farmer who attends all the training sessions.

Demonstrations will be given and class enrollees will have the opportunity to perform the skills demonstrated.

Congressman George Mahon Meets With President-Elect

George Mahon, U.S. Representative of the 19th District, and other Committee Chairmen of the House of Representatives have accepted the invitation of President-elect Jimmy Carter to meet with him in Washington on Tuesday, November 23, to discuss major national policies. This marked the second time in a week that Mahon, Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, has been asked to meet with the President-elect. He was among members of the House and Senate leadership invited by Carter to attend a meeting in Georgia on Wednesday, November 17.

In commenting on the November 17 meeting, Mahon said, "Neither I nor anyone else at this time knows how well Mr. Carter will handle the responsibilities of the Presidency. He will, no doubt, make mistakes as has been the case with all of his predecessors; but I was impressed with his interest in having Congressional input, and I hope this bodes well for the future. I was encouraged when Mr. Carter spoke of his interest in balancing the budget and eliminating waste in government."

Mahon urged Carter's continued interest in a reorganization of federal government agencies with a view toward saving the taxpayers money and increasing the efficiency and responsiveness of government. The Congressman also emphasized the efficiency and responsiveness of government. The Congressman also emphasized to the President-elect the need to restore the confidence of the business community and the people generally in the government. "This," Mahon pointed out, "would encourage expansion by private industry, thus creating jobs and helping to establish a stable base for economic growth."

Mahon emphasized to the President-elect the need to do something as soon as possible about sagging grain prices, recommending that support levels be increased with a view toward encouraging more orderly marketing and greater stability. The Congressman also stressed the importance of having a top-flight person to handle the nation's escalating energy problems. There was common agreement between the Congressional leaders and the President-elect that the selection of a strong Cabinet was of the utmost importance.

Plans Christmas Opera

For the first time in several years, Wayland Baptist College's departments of speech and theatre and music are cooperating on the production of an opera. Theatre director Roland Myers describes it as a "delightful Christmas opera that is guaranteed to please both young and young-at-heart."

Amahl and the Night Visitors tells the enchanting story of a small crippled boy and his mother on the night of Christ's birth. Their small shepherds' hut provides shelter for the three kings on their way to Bethlehem. The abundant wealth of the wise men dazzle the mother, and she yields to the temptation of stealing some of the gold in order to feed her child. She is caught in the act, and when Amahl offers to give his crutch to the Christ child, a glorious miracle occurs.

Amahl, the small shepherd boy, is the focal figure of the opera. All the action, and even the characterizations of the adult figures, is dictated by his point of view. The seeming severity of the mother, the occasional colloquial conduct of the three kings, the visit of the shepherds, the theft of gold and the miracle - all these are interpreted simply and directly in terms of a child's imagination.

Performance dates for the opera are Dec. 9, 10 and 11, at 8:15 p.m., with the performance on Saturday being a matinee at 2:30 p.m. Tickets are priced at $3.00 for adults and $1.75 for students. Wayland students, faculty, staff and senior citizens will be admitted upon presentation of I.D.

MRS. MELVIN RAPE

Cook Of The Week

Cooking specialties this week resolve themselves in the use and preservation of a gay and brightly colored fruit of the land . . . . the lowly pumpkin.

Mrs. Melvin Rape was recipient, recently, of a huge, deep-yellow pumpkin, estimated to weigh some fifty pounds. She began to pare and cook the gourd-like fruit and found herself hard pressed to find uses for all of it. But, realistic and practical as Lillian is, she hated to see any of it wasted.

Quite naturally she made pumpkin pies for the Thanksgiving holiday. To this she added "Uleta's" Pumpkin roll and Spicy Pumpkin cake. She looked through her files and found "Martha Reeves" Pumpkin Bread. She placed several containers of cooked and blended pumpkin in her freezer . . . and yet there was more.

With her ingenious spirit, Lillian chopped and thinly sliced a gallon of pumpkin and proceeded to make her original recipe for Yellow Pumpkin Preserves. Pleased with the outcome, she took a jar to school Monday and fellow teachers were so impressed with the 'new' delicacy they insisted that she offer it for publication during the height of pumpkin-cooking-season. The Olton Enterprise Cook's column is pleased to carry the unusual sweet treat, and testify to its goodness.

A craftsman with an eye to beauty, our cook has some other original ideas. She stated the seeds in the pumpkin were so large (she supposed because of the variety) and so pretty, she has washed them and when they are thoroughly dry she plans to drill holes in them and lace them into 'something pretty.'

Mrs. Rape, wife of Melvin Rape manager of Southwestern Public Service Company, teaches in Honda Special Education program, fourth and fifth grade levels.

PUMPKIN BREAD
3 c sugar
1 c salad oil or Crisco
4 eggs
1 can pumpkin
Mix and add:
3½ c flour
1 t baking powder
2 t soda
2 t salt
½ t cloves
1 t allspice
1 t nutmeg
1 t cinnamon

Add ⅔ cup water. Bake at 350° for one hour, longer in large pan, about one hour and 15 min.

SPICY PUMPKIN CAKE
1 pkg honey-spice cake mix
½ t baking soda
½ c chopped walnuts
1 c cooked or canned pumpkin
½ c finely-cut, pitted dates

Combine cake mix and baking soda, then proceed according to package directions, substituting the pumpkin for the last addition of liquid. Fold in nuts and dates. Pour batter into two greased and floured 9-inch layer cake pans; bake as directed on package. Fill and frost with Honey Whipped cream. Garnish top with mixed diced candied fruits and peels.
Honey Whipped Cream:

Whip 1 c heavy cream until fluffy; whip in three tablespoons honey and ¼ t. cinnamon.

White or yellow cake mix may be used with spices added as suggested on package, adding baking soda at the same time. Add 2 cup pumpkin instead of last addition of liquid. You can use either the type of cake mix which calls for fresh eggs or the type which calls for the addition of liquid only.

YELLOW PUMPKIN PRESERVES
1 gal thinly sliced pumpkin
½ gal sugar
½ c water
¼ t cinnamon
¼ t cloves
2 lemons, sliced thinly

Bring to boil and cook over low heat until it cooks down to desired consistency. (This made three pint jars of preserves . . . two are already gone).

PUMPKIN PIE
1½ c cooked or canned pumpkin
¾ c sugar
½ t salt
½ - 1 t ginger
1 - 1¼ t cinnamon
¼ - ½ t nutmeg
¼ - ½ t cloves
3 slightly beaten eggs
1¼ c milk
1 - 6 oz can evaporated milk
Uncooked pastry pie shell

Thoroughly combine pumpkin, sugar, salt and spices. Add eggs, milk and evaporated milk and blend. Pour into 9" pastry lined pie pan.

Bake in very hot oven, 450° for 10 minutes. Lower heat to 325 and cook about 45 minutes or until mixture doesn't adhere to knife.

For a golden, mildly spiced pie use first measure of spices. For a richly spiced one add more. Optional: sprinkle with nuts before baking.

PUMPKIN ROLL

Beat 3 eggs on high speed for five min. Gradually add one cup sugar. Stir in by hand ⅔ cup pumpkin, 1 teaspoon lemon juice.

Sift together:
¾ c flour
1 t baking powder
2 t cinnamon
1 t ginger
½ t nutmeg
½ t salt

Fold into pumpkin mixture. Spread onto a greased and floured jelly roll pan - 10 by 18. Sprinkle finely chopped walnuts over dough. Bake 375° for 15

We Can Help!

LET'S BE CANDID:

At the risk of turning you off, let's be candid. You've heard the old cliche about learning to save at an early age. Perhaps you've discarded the message without consideration. But take a moment now to think about it.

Although it may be difficult, imagine that you're about ready to retire . . . ready to begin living on a fixed income after years of hard work. You plan to rely on Social Security because you have no savings. Suddenly you realize that government assistance won't even cover the costs of rent and fuel to heat the place, let alone food to keep you alive. And if you think this example is far-fetched, just look around you.

It's a sombering thought in a very real and often cruel world. But that's where we come in. We're here to help you learn to save regularly. We want you to enjoy the comforts of life you deserve. So visit us soon and let us help!

Words are inadequate to express the appreciation in our hearts for all of the many kindnesses shown us in past weeks.

For every effort and visit made during our hospitalization we are grateful. Every gesture of love and concern evidenced in gifts of flowers, memorials, food, cards and letters will be remembered, and we want to thank you especially for your prayers.

'New Cancer Weapon' Now Available In County

A new "weapon" against cancer is now available in Lamb County to provide the public with current, factual information on cancer, its prevention and early detection.

Called the Cancer Information Service, the new program utilizes a toll-free phone line (1-800-392-2040) to answer public inquiries on cancer. The service will be extended to all residents of Texas by late this year.

The CIS is part of a public educational effort sponsored by The University of Texas M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute with assistance from the American Red Cross, American Cancer Society and many other health agencies in Texas which provide services to cancer patients and their families.

Funded by the National Cancer Institute, the CIS functions as part of a nation-wide network.

Open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays, the phone lines are operated by trained American Red Cross volunteers. All background material used to answer questions is reviewed by physicians to insure accuracy.

The program is designed to help create a positive sense of awareness about cancer that will encourage the public to seek physician evaluation for early detection and prompt treatment of suspected cancers.

"Important diagnostic, treatment, rehabilitation and research developments are occuring more frequently now. If people could overcome their fear of cancer many more people would seek medical help at an earlier stage -- when the rate of successful treatment is much greater," said Dr. R. Lee Clark, president of M.D. Anderson.

In addition to answering questions on the telephone, the CIS staff mail many pamphlets published by health organizations, professional societies and government agencies involved in health education.

Information not readily available from existing files can be obtained by the staff from an advisory panel of over 75 clinicians and other qualified sources outside Houston.

"Because the CIS is based at M.D. Anderson and is part of a national communications network, we have easy access to information on important work being done at many other cancer centers," explained Dr. Clark.

Other public services of the program include a monthly news column "Cancer Answerline." Jointly sponsored with the American Cancer Society, the column is run in many Texas newspapers to provide readers with current information on cancer.

VISIT PARENTS

Mrs. D.W. Stockham Jr. of Tequesta, Fla. came the afternoon of Thanksgiving day to stay a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L.G. Elkins.

you can BANK on it!

By Kenneth Burgess
Olton State Bank

Budgeting problems face all of us . . . in business as well as personally, but perhaps the problem is most awesome for the young couple just getting started. It's an easy time for emotions, rather than sound financial considerations, to play a dominant role in budget decisions.

One of the budget items most often getting out of hand is the allowance for housing. There are a lot of different estimates around, but most experts agree families should allocate about 25 percent of their budget for housing. Families earning $1,000 per month for instance, should pay no more than $250 for rent or mortgage payments. This amount should include all utility bills.

Another question often arising concers how much really needs to be in a savings account. Specific answers, of course, depend on individual situations, but because of the possibility of being out of work, most authorities agree that everyone who can should maintain a savings account equal to at least three months living costs.

"The more you know about our business, the more we can help you!"

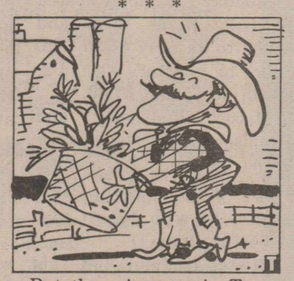

FACTS & FIGURES

Texas has more cows than people, as Texas writer Bill Porterfield points out in a special issue of Context, the Du Pont Company's current affairs magazine, devoted to Texas.

Texas is still the leading cattle-producing state, he says, and 80 percent of Texas beef is raised by small operators who never have more than 20 head at a time. "Mathematically, this means that the more than 12 million head of cattle are tended by at least 480,000 dudes," he says.

But there is more in Texas than cows. Porterfield says the state ranks first in goats and sheep, second in turkeys, and eighth in chickens. And certainly first in buzzards, armadillos, horned toads, rattlesnakes, coyotes and deer.

"In spite of droughts and the sprawl of urban outposts," continues Porterfield, "in spite of the spread of superhighways and the passing of farm-to-rural county seat life, in spite of the decline in the number of farms, Texas still ranks third behind California and Iowa in crop receipts. Farms are fewer, larger, specialized, more expensive to operate, but far more efficient and productive.

"As a result, Texas is the leading producer of cotton, grain sorghum, rice, watermelons, cabbage, spinach, onions and carrots. When you combine livestock with crops and timber and call it agribusiness, you have the state's leading industry, a $20 billion a year production which even outsells oil," he declares.

There's more to Asgrow hybrids than just high yields.

Asgrow resistant hybrids meet head smut head-on.

Corn growers in this area have learned that head smut means sizable losses in yield and profit.

That's why next planting season you need more than hybrids with just claims for high yields. You need the complete performance of Asgrow hybrids...with head smut resistance...with harvestable high yield potential.

Now's the time to make plans to protect corn yield and profit next time you plant. See your Asgrow dealer and reserve head smut resistant hybrids while supplies last. Because Asgrow resistant hybrids meet head smut head-on.

These Asgrow hybrids are resistant to head smut.

Basketball Results

OHS Fillies lost their season opener against Tulia, 61-72 in a game played last week. Elaine Rodriguez led the scoring with 30 points; Dusty Kinnison scored 23.

"The girls had a good, tough game," said Coach Larry Ledbetter, "but we made too many mistakes in the first half." Score at halftime was 24-42.

Janet Huguley was leading rebounder with eight; Jennie Davis had four. Sherri Hutson had three steals and three rebounds.

Tulia's JV girls stopped OHS 57-39 last week. Nancy Britton led the scoring with 26. Leading rebounder was Janice Burgess with five and two steals. Marilyn Durham had three.

Meeting Lockney Friday night, the Fillies played a lot better game, Ledbetter said, although they still came up in the losing column.

"We played better than we did against Tulia but we just couldn't put any points on the board, especially in the second quarter. Against Tulia, we hit 54 percent of our shots; against Lockney, we could only hit 33 percent which was the difference in the ballgame.

Ledbetter said he expects the Fillies to be contenders as they improve with the season.

Miss Rodriguez scored 16 points in the 31-36 loss. Miss Kinnison, 8; Lorenda Couch, 5 and Jan Spain, 2.

Miss Huguley got two steals and three rebounds. Miss Kinnison got six offensive rebounds and three steals while Miss Rodriguez captured one steal and four offensive rebounds.

Monday the Fillies hosted Amarillo River Road and sailed to an easy 61-30 win. Score by quarters was 14-2; 20-10; 40-17 and 61-30.

Misses Rodriguez and Kinnison paced the victory with 22 and 21 points, respectively. Miss Spain scored 14 with Miss Couch collecting four.

Misses Huguley and Toni Brown grabbed six rebounds each.

Tuesday night the Fillies traveled to Idalou and came home with a 42-32 win.

"The girls played an extremely fine game," said Coach Ledbetter. "Idalou had a good team with a 3-0 record going into the game. I was real proud of the way our girls hustled."

Once again Elaine Rodriguez led the scoring, collecting her high game thus far with 31 points. Miss Kinnison scored nine with Miss Spain, two.

Miss Brown led the rebounding with seven. Miss Huguley, Sherri Hutson and Kim Kinnison got three each.

JV Girls

Lockney's JV girls came to town Friday and departed with a 37-30 victory. At the end of the first quarter, Lockney led 8 to 2 but the home team had pulled within one point at the end of the third quarter with the score at 24-25.

Sharla Nicholas scored 13; Nancy Britton, 11; Jimmie Kay Sanders and Sharissa Hamby, two each.

Leading the rebounding was Janice Burgess with four while Marilyn Durham and Miss Nicholas had two each. Miss Nicholas had seven steals; Misses Burgess and Durham, five each.

Monday night the JV's sent Amarillo River Road on their homeward journey with a 32-22 loss. Knotted at 8-8 at the end of the first period, the Olton fems led 22-12 at halftime with a narrower margin of 24-18 at the end of the third quarter.

Miss Witten scored 20 to pace the home team. Misses Britton and Nicholas scored six each.

Doniece Quigley had four steals and four rebounds; Miss Burgess, four rebounds.

Leading at the end of the first and second quarters, the JV's lost a squeaker Tuesday night with Idalou.

Miss Witten had 16 points to lead the scoring. Miss Britton, 12 and Miss Nicholas, eight.

Rebounding were Miss Burgess with six; Miss Hamby, five and Miss Durham, four.

The Speaker Reports

by Bill Clayton

AUSTIN--In compliance with House Bill 1126 of the last legislative session, the Governor's Office of Educational Resources has compiled and released market value figures for all property in Texas, as well as legislative recommendations. The Governor's Office undertook this project over a year ago and has produced a product that will receive considerable attention for some time.

Included in the recommendation is proposed legislation. The bill which has been released contains two major elements: provisions for changes in the public school finance system and provisions for the establishment of uniform property assessment practices. These sections deserve careful thought by legislators and citizens alike so that the best possible plan can be developed.

A look at the proposed bill from the Governor's Office, which has a price tag of approximately $850 million, reflects a desire to reduce local property taxes while adding more State money to public education. The local fund assignment would be reduced, and at the same time, the value of property assessments would increase.

This increase would offset any dramatic decreases in property taxes. However, the tax rate would drop to about 9 cents per $100 from the 35 cents per $100 rate set by House Bill 1126. As a result, the local share of education funding would be reduced, and the State would contribute a greater share of the funds. An additional $640 million would be funneled into the foundation school program, and this change would create a State share of about 90 percent of the foundation program. In addition $50 million is budgeted for maintenance and operation expenses of the schools.

A more liberal equalization aid formula has also been proposed. The package would cost a total of about $100 million for the biennium. The philosophy behind this approach is to bring the less wealthy districts up to a more acceptable level without placing much spending constraint on wealthier districts.

Although tax limits have been proposed for both maintenance and operation and capital improvements, the caps do not seem to be stringent enough to really prohibit school districts from increasing their property taxes in view of their increased revenue-producing ability due to the rise in property values.

Other education issues are addressed in the proposed bill. An accountability and renewal system at a cost of $10 million has been included. This system would provide for a management information system, an improved accreditation process, and other such procedures. Transportation funding is revised and would cost $25 million. The "hold harmless" formula for districts under 1,000 students in average daily attendance would cost about $15 million.

The other major part of the proposal concerning assessment practices provides for several significant changes and new developments. This section would set up a School Tax Assessment Board with six members appointed by the Governor with the approval of the Senate.

Minimum standards for operating the school tax offices are included as well as sanctions for noncompliance. There are many specifics on contracting, reporting, confidentiality and other items included.

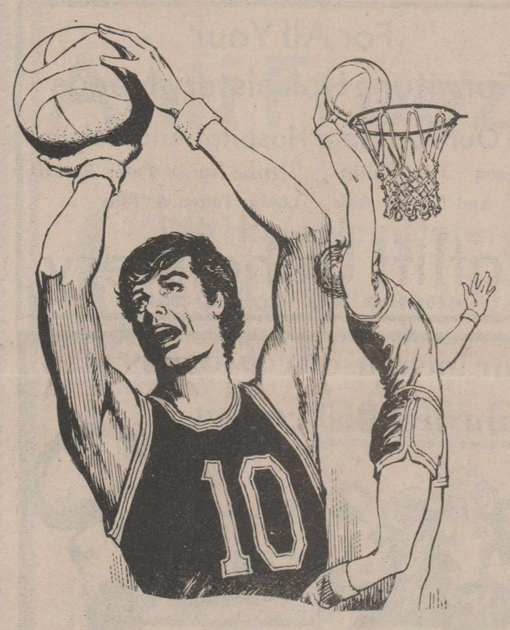

Certainly, it can be seen that there is a concern for reform in our property tax assessment system and a belief that uniform practices would result in fair and equitable tax administration.

The basic design of this bill corresponds with my priorities of reducing property taxes and providing more State funds for public education. However, I do not believe the Governor's bill goes far enough in truly creating tax relief for property owners, or in producing equity between school districts. With more State funding and stricter caps on local spending, more fairness could be achieved in financing public education.
