U. S. Secretary Accused Of Espionage By Soviets

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union today charged the U.S. Embassy's first secretary Kermit S. Midthun with spying and ordered him out of the country.

Midthun is the second U.S.. diplomat expelled within a week in apparent retaliation for the United States' expulsion on espionage charges last week of two Soviet diplomats at the United Nations.

U.S. Counsellor-Minister John M. McSweeney said Deputy Foreign Minister N. Smirnovsky ordered the American Embassy to send Midthun home at a meeting at the Foreign Ministry today.

In a statement read to Mc. Sweeney, the Russians charged that the 41-year-old diplomat "attempted to induce a Soviet citizen, an employe of the government institutions, to transmit to him information of a secret character."

It said this was inconsistent with Midthun's status as a diplomat and ordered his immediate departure from the Soviet Union.

McSweeney said Smirnovsky would not give further details of the alleged incident. He said Midthun denied the charge and could think of no basis for it.

The Soviets last Friday ordered Asst. U.S. Naval Attache Raymond D. Smith out of the country on charges that he spied on military installations during a trip to the Baltic seaport of Leningrad. Smith and his family left Moscow Monday.

McSweeney said he had not protested the Soviet action against Midthun as he had in Smith's case because the embassy knew nothing of the alleged attempt to obtain Soviet secrets.

The text of the note as published in the government newspaper Izvestia read:

"Competent Soviet organs informed the Ministry of Foreign Affairs that the first secretary of the U.S. Embassy in Moscow, Kermit S. Midthun, is using his stay in the Soviet Union for an activity incompatible with his status as an accredited diplomat.

"Being engaged in collecting intelligence data, Midthun undertook an attempt to induce a Soviet citizen, an employe of one of the state institution, to transmit him secret information.

"In view of the above mentioned, the ministry considers the further stay of Midthun in the Soviet Union undesirable, and requests the embassy to take measures for his immediate departure from the Soviet Union."

WINDOW TOSS SAVES CHILDREN IN FIRE—Three children were saved in Philadelphia when their mother tossed them to safety from a second-floor bedroom window into arms of neighbors, but firemen found their seven-year-old brother dead and a five-year-old sister critically burned in the burning house. Saved by their mother were 14-month-old William Blackburn, left, being comforted by his cousin, Leonardo Chiaro, 10; and John, 6, consoling his sister, Nicoletta, 3, at right. (AP Wirephoto)

Indian Army Ordered To Oust Red Chinese

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru said today that the Indian army has been ordered to drive Chinese Communist troops from Indian territory on the Northeast Frontier.

Nehru said his government had ordered the army "to free our territory in the Northeast Frontier."

Fighting erupted on the Himalayan frontier in the northeast on Wednesday.

In the fighting since Wednesday, Nehru estimated the Chinese Communists suffered nearly 100 casualties. This was nearly three times the figure reported by Peiping Thursday and indicated that the battle is continuing.

Red China lodged a "strongest and most serious protest" with the Indian Embassy in Peiping, accusing India of invading Chinese territory and spreading the flames of war.

Nehru spoke to newsmen before taking a plane for a three-day trip to Ceylon. He had consulted with Defense Minister V. K. Krshna Menon and Foreign Ministry officials on the border crisis Thursday.

Lt. Gen. B. M. Kaul, one of India's leading officers, was sent to head a newly organized army corps on the Northeast Frontier last week.

An Indian government spokesman said the fighting broke out Wednesday after a Chinese Communist soldier hurled a grenade at an Indian outpost.

The Indians reported their casualties at 17 killed or wounded. Peiping said 33 Chinese troops were killed or wounded.

Radio Peiping claimed the Indian troops "fled in confusion, leaving six corpses and arms and ammunition behind."

The radio said the Foreign Ministry in Peiping lodged a strong protest with the Indian Embassy.

There was no word whether the fighting was continuing. But each government accused the other of rushing up reinforcements.

The scene is the Himalayan border near Chihtung, north of the Kechilang River. This area bordering on Chinese-occupied Tibet long has been in dispute.

Shorts Issue Is Resolved

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The battle of the shorts ended unexpectedly today in a compromise.

Judy Rae Bushong, 16, arrived at Springfield Township High School and said she would wear oversized bloomer-type shorts in gym class

Judy, a modest daughter of a minister, made it clear that her outfit would cover her knees.

She had steadfastly maintained in the past that it was sinful to wear shorts publicly and refused to bare her knees in gym class. School officials have said it was simply a matter of how far they should go in bending the rules for those who don't like them.

Walker Is Waiting For Sanity Tests

DALLAS (AP) — Edwin A. Walker, the ex-general charged with insurrection in University of Mississippi integration riots, waited today for psychiatrists to say when he will undergo court-ordered sanity tests.

As directed by a federal judge, Walker reported Thursday night to Dr. R. L. Stubblefiel at the Southwestern Medical School.

They talked about 20 minutes. Then Walker and his lawyers left with instructions for him to return whenever Stubblefield directs.

Stubblefield, a defense choice, said he awaits formal notice that the government named a Washington, D. C., psychiatrist, Dr. Winfred Overholser, Thursday to help conduct the tests.

"We will decide what is a reasonable psychiatric examination and Walker then will be given 24 hours' notice to appear," Stubblefield said.

Walker watched intently but had nothing to say as photographers took pictures in a corridor just before he left the medical school.

Looking alert and fit, he smilingly talked with reporters several hours earlier at a news conference in his home, a rambling brick and stucco structure in a wealthier North Dallas district. Walker piloted a private plane back from a Lake Texoma resort where he rested for several days.

The mental tests are intended to determine whether Walker, the general who commanded troops enforcing integration of Little Rock's Central High School in 1957-58, is fit for trial on charges of insurrection and seditious conspiracy.

Federal authorities jailed him after racial strife at Oxford, Miss. After agreeing to undergo psychiatric examination, he was allowed to post $50,000 bond and leave the government prison and medical center at Springfield, Mo., last Saturday.

Newsmen observing Oct. 1 riots at the University of Mississippi said Walker led a charge on U.S. Marshals. He has denied any such action.

The former general answered questions without pause at his news conference but actually said little. Lawyers advised him not to discuss legal questions.

Asked if he felt his rights had been violated, Walker replied: "It is very unusual. We'll leave that up to the courts."

Someone inquired whether he held any feelings about James Meredith, the Negro student over whose enrollment the Mississippi strife flared.

"Oh, no!" said Walker. "The question is deeper than that."

He was an unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor in Texas last spring. Since the Kennedy administration ordered his arrest, a newsman asked if he would vote for the Democratic party.

"The question is: Do I still have a right to vote?" he answered.

L. O. White Rites Set

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday at the First Christian Church of Rowlett, Tex. for Lester O. (Moon) White.

Mr. White, distributor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal in Snyder, was found dead Thursday morning in a Dallas motel. It was reported that he had gone to Dallas to see a physician.

O'Neill Funeral Home of Dallas is in charge of the services. Burial will be in the Mells Cemetery at Rowlett. Mr. White was born and reared in Rowlett, a suburb of Dallas.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Blanche White; two brothers, Homer and Earnest, both of Dallas; and two sisters, Mrs. T. A. Jay of Dallas and Mrs. Lena Lassiter of Aledo, Tex.

Series Game Postponed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick today postponed the sixth game of the World Series between the San Francisco Giants and the New York Yankees until Saturday noon, PDT, because of rain and wet grounds.

Frick made his decision at 8:41 a.m., after a brief tour of the soggy turf of Candlestick Park, home field of the Giants.

It was raining when Frick made his inspection tour, and winds of 40 to 60 miles an hour were raging through the area, a point of land in San Francisco Bay.

The seventh game of the series, if it is necessary, will be played Sunday at noon.

The Yankees lead the series three games to two.

The fifth game in New York, scheduled for last Tuesday, was also postponed one day because of rain there.

Weary Congressmen Continuing Session

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 87th Congress—its ranks dwindling almost by the hour—sends its rear guard in a weary, all-out charge toward final adjournment today.

Only three bills of any importance were still to be cleared out of the way, and Senate and House leaders wer hopeful — but not burning with confidence — that they would be wrapped up by late afternoon or tonight.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana summed it up by saying adjournment should be possible today, but "I would not bet on it."

Both houses were skating on thin ice as far as a quorum was concerned. The House produced more than half of its membership Thursday, but the Senate has not risked a roll call this week. It always presumes a quorum to be present unless questioned.

The reason for the low attendance is that many members have hustled home to campaign for the Nov. 6 congressional elections.

There was a brief flicker of hope that shop would close up Thursday night after the prolonged and bitter row over the agriculture money bill was settled.

This hope was crushed by a stubborn controversy over the bill authorizing future rivers and harbors and flood control projects, the water-projects measure.

House and Senate conferees will try again to iron out their differences over the bill, after two previous fruitless sessions.

The Senate version of the measure authorizes more than $4 billion worth of projects, the House bill $2.2 billion.

Passage of this legislation is not essential, and there has been talk it might be put over until next year. But the more than 200 projects involved have so much political appeal in an election year that strenuous efforts are being made to compromise it.

The authorizations will have to be followed later by the cash to build the projects.

Six large projects in Montana, Oklahoma, North Carolina, Idaho, Kentucky and Georgia—all added to the bill by the Senate—were reported to be holding up agreement. The House conferees were understood to have promised Chairman Howard W. Smith, D-Va., of the Rules Committee that they would never accept them.

Also remaining were two appropriations measures needed to run the government in the current financial year.

One, a final clean-up supplemental, passed the Senate Thursday night carrying $550 million as compared with $406 million voted by the House. Conferees were to meet to reconcile the two versions.

The Senate put into the bill on the floor five Oregon public works projects that had been knocked out of the regular public works money bill.

Rep. Michael J. Kirwan, D-Ohio, said he had them eliminated because of the attack made by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., on a bill sponsored by Kirwan to build a $10-million aquarium in Washington.

The other money bill to be cleared is the $5-billion public works measure which was agreed to in conference several days ago but has been held up pending action on the supplemental.

The $5,487,029,500 Agriculture Department appropriations bill was sent to President Kennedy late Thursday after a row between Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., and the House was settled by a compromise.

Russell finally won out in his demand for funds for six research laboratory projects at Sidney, Mont., Mandan, N.D., Watkinsville, Ga., Tucson, Ariz., Byron, Ga., and Carbondale, Ill.

Heat Wave Grips State

By The Associated Press

Summerlike heat gripped most of Texas without promise of relief Friday.

Clouds overhung the San Angelo, Laredo, Austin, Waco, Tyler and Lufkin areas. Houston had early morning ground fog. It was clear to only partly cloudy elsewhere.

Although a cold front brought predictions of snow in the Rocky Mountains, there was no indication it would push southward into Texas. A new set of five-day forecasts for the state promised temperatures averaging up to 10 degrees above normal and little or no rain.

Presidio in the West Texas Big Bend with .10 inch was the only point with enough rain to measure Thursday. Afternoon temperatures ranged from 97 at Laredo down to 83 at Alpine.

Readings early Friday varied from 48 at Dalhart to 80 at Corpus Christi and Palacios.

Plane Carrying 13 Crashes In Spain

MADRID, Spain (AP)—Aviation authorities said a twin-engine transport which carried 13 passengers and a crew of five crashed and burned today near the village of Carmona.

The crash came shortly before the plane was due to land at Sevilla.

There was no immediate word as to casualties.

Paper Published In '98 Is Found

The Daily News has finally managed to turn back the century. In its quest for old-time newspapers in commemmoration of its 75th anniversary to be featured in the "Snyder on the GO!" issue, coming soon.

Mrs. Archie Martin has brought in a June 2, 1898 issue of the newspaper, "The Coming West," which ultimately was absorbed by the Snyder Signal.

There is a $25 prize awaiting the party who brings in the earliest issue of one of the old Snyder newspapers, and it might conceivably be an 1887 issue of the Snyder Signal—that was when the budding young town had Vol. 1 No. 1.

Mrs. Martin said the paper she brought in belongs to her brother, Frank Jourdan, and was given to him by James Nunn, and he has kept it through the years because it is a conversation piece and he is history conscious.

"He wouldn't bring it in," she chuckled, "because he didn't think it had a chance."

But at the moment it definitely does—it's the oldest so far. Can anybody beat it!

64-YEAR-OLD PAPER—Mrs. Archie Martin holds an issue of "The Coming West," dated June 2, 1898. The earlyday newspaper later was absorbed by the Snyder Signal. It is the oldest issue of a Snyder newspaper brought in so far in the search for issues published before the turn of the century.

Hermleigh Man Dies In Farm Mishap

Funeral services are pending at Bell Funeral Home for Ray Smith, 62, who lived one mile west of Hermleigh. Mr. Smith was killed in an accident at his farm this morning.

A Bolger Ambulance Service driver who answered the call stated that Mr. Smith had been operating a tractor and disc. The tractor seat had apparently given way, and Mr. Smith had fallen into the path of the implement.

Justice of the Peace W. C. Davidson, called to the scene, ruled the death accidental. Mr. Smith's body was discovered about 10:30 a.m. His watch had stopped at 7:30.

Mr. Smith is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mattie Smith who is in a nursing home in Roscoe; three daughters, Mrs. Coy Thompson of Snyder, Mrs. Walter Hayes of Monahans, and Mrs. Audie Farnsworth of Carlsbad, N. M.; three sons, Harvey Lee of Sweetwater, Bobby of Lubbock, and Jimmy of Odessa. His wife preceded Mr. Smith in death last February.

Longer Work Days Logged In September

WASHINGTON (AP)—September brought longer hours of work, record overtime, and near-record weekly earnings in the nation's factories, the Labor Department reported today.

But otherwise the September job picture was mediocre, the department said in giving details on the broad job statistics announced last week.

Those figures showed the unemployment rate still at 5.8 per cent despite a drop of 400,000 in the number of job-hunters.

Today's analysis showed a rise of two-tenths of an hour in the factory work week to 40.6 hours. The work week has been edging downward since April, and normally shows little if any change in September.

This improvement was matched by a gain in hours worked at overtime pay. Factory workers averaged three hours of overtime last month, equal to the best rate since 1956.

The average weekly earnings rose by $1.28 from August to $97.03, only 24 cents below the all-time high of last June. Weekly pay averaged about 4.5 per cent higher than a year ago.

Both Sides Claim Wins In Yemen

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

CAIRO (AP)—Forces of Yemen's rebel regime today were reported battling tribes loyal to the toppled monarchy on the northern, southern and eastern frontiers. Both sides claimed victories.

Informed, non-Egyptian sources in Cairo reported President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic had sent enough planes, troops and tanks into Yemen to insure the victory of the revolution.

Rebel Premier Abdullah Sallal claimed monarchist forces attempting to invade from Saudi Arabia in the north were driven back with heavy losses when Yemeni planes went into action, bombing and strafing. Informants said U.A.R. pilots and planes are now based at all main Yemen air fields and are guarded by U.A.R. troops and tanks. They estimated the U.A.R. has 1,500 men in armored troops and airport security forces in Yemen.

Risks Are Cited For Krush

WASHINGTON (AP)—Kennedy administration officials are carrying on a calculated campaign to try to persuade Soviet Premier Khrushchev that he is risking grave danger of nuclear war if he forces the Berlin crisis to the brink of military action.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has taken the lead in issuing nuclear war warnings in recent public statements.

Further opportunity for cautionary statements will be offered the administration next week when West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder holds policy talks here with President Kennedy, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and McNamara.

The reasoning behind the drive, high officials said, covers these points:

1. The best informed authorities in Washington believe that Khrushchev is planning a new Berlin crisis beginning about a month from now.

2. The gravest danger in such a crisis, if it develops, is that the Soviet leader may not believe even after the repeated statements of Western determination to stand firm in Brlin, that the Western powers actually will fight when the chips are down. He may therefore overplay his hand.

3. The probability is that final decisions on Soviet actions with respect to Berlin are still to be made. Khrushchev has recently been away from Moscow. Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko has been in New York but is expected to return to the Soviet capital next week.

In these circumstances, U.S. policy makers believe that now is the time to try to avoid an overassessment by Khrushchev of how far he can go in seeking to force a Berlin settlement on his terms.

According to reports known to the White House and State Department, Khrushchev has told a number of Western visitors in recent weeks that he intends to have a Berlin settlement along the lines of a Soviet-East German peace treaty. In his view this would end the occupation rights of the United States, Britain and France in West Berlin.

He has also been reported to have said on various occasions that he did not think the United States would go to war over West Berlin. He has remarked that perhaps the problem is one which President Kennedy and he should discuss personally.

The judgment in official Washington is that the Soviet leader may very well seek such a personal talk with Kennedy by coming to the United States late next month to attend sessions of the U.N. General Assembly. In that case Kennedy would almost certainly have at least one meeting with him.

He could use the occasion either for denunciations and threats or for building a case for his side of the Berlin dispute.

The Western powers see Khrushchev's arguments as designed simply to justify a slow motion Communist takeover of West Berlin beginning with the removal of protective presence of U.S., British and French troops.

What the Kennedy administration is once more trying to get across is that Western powers have no intention of removing their troops nor will they admit Soviet troops or U.N. forces as partners or replacements in West Berlin.

Observers Have Council Comment

By MARY CAMPBELL

NEW YORK (AP)—Three of the eight American Protestant delegate-observers to the 2nd Vatican Council have commented on council prospects in response to an invitation from a weekly Catholic newspaper.

Protestant delegates attend the council, which opened Thursday, at the invitation of the Vatican, to observe the deliberations and report to their own religious communions.

The Catholic Reporter, which had listed issues expected to come before the council and asked all eight delegate-observers for comment, published the three statements in full.

Concern with "a total disregard for moral standards everywhere" was expressed by Dr. Frederick C. Grant, one of three observers from the Anglican Communion. Dr. Grant added, "I believe the council will be—surely may be—one of the great turning points in world history."

Optimism also was expressed by Dr. J. H. Jackson, president of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., the largest all-Negro religious body in the world: "As a result of this conference I look forward to a greater fellowship and understanding between Protestants and Catholics the world over."

Dr. Jackson is the only Baptist delegate-observer at the council.

Dr. Albert C. Outler, professor at Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University, discussed the council's possible effects on the ecumenical movement and said, "No matter what does happen, the ecumenical situation is bound to be altered significantly thereafter—for better or for worse.

Dr. Outler went on, "Most Protestants understand by now, at least, that formally speaking, this council is a family affair within the Roman Catholic Church. We realize that its effect upon the relations between Rome and the rest of the Christian community is largely indirect.

"But no one rightly doubts that those effects will be deep and far-reaching. They might, quite possibly, be epoch-making."

Dr. Grant, a professor at Union Theological Seminary, termed Pope John XXIII "a holy man of God raised up and sent to this tortured generation."

"What the world cries out for is a spiritual and moral awakening," Dr. Grant said. "And I for one rejoice that the great Roman Catholic Church, the largest communion in Christendom, is probably about to take the lead in such a movement."

In Dr. Jackson's view, the council "offers a unique opportunity for world Christian thought. Christian fellowship and Christian understanding across the denominational, racial and national lines. And with the leadership of Pope John XXIII this conference will do much to destroy the basis of religious persecution throughout the world and will bring a new emphasis and a new realization in the field of religious liberty."

World's Leaders Warned By Pope

By EUGENE LEVIN

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII warned the world's leaders today that they "will one day have to account for their actions to God." He appealed to them to "give ear to the anguished cry of 'peace, peace' which rises up to heaven from every part of the world."

"May this thought of the reckoning that they are to face spur them to omit no effort to achieve this blessing, which for the human family is a blessing greater than any other," the pontiff said.

The 80-year-old ruler of the Roman Catholic Church spoke at a special audience for the envoys sent to the Vatican by 85 governments for the opening of the Roman Catholic Church's 21st Ecumenical Council.

With Michelangelo's awesome "Last Judgment" as a backdrop, the pontiff told the envoys assembled in the Sistine Chapel that war today would "mean the destruction of humanity." He called attention to the vast fresco, "the seriousness of which gives one much food for thought" and warned, "We must indeed render an account to God."

Let the leaders of the world, the pontiff said, "continue to meet each other in discussions and reach just and generous agreements that they faithfully observe."

"Let them be ready to make sacrifices that are necessary to save the world's peace," he said. "The nations will then be able to work in an atmosphere of serenity. All the discoveries of science will assist progress and help to make life on this earth, which is already marked by so many other inevitable sufferings, ever more delightful."

The Pope's audience was the main activity in the Vatican today. No council session was scheduled, and the 2,700 prelates here for the conclave turned their attention to lining up candidates for the 10 commissions, of 24 members each, that will debate the issues before this greatest church meeting in modern times.

Panty Raids Are Dispersed At UT

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Flying squads of pantie raiders, ranging from several hundred to 1,000 male students, swarmed across the University of Texas area early today.

The raids were broken up by university policemen, who took up student identification cards and made group pictures with flash cameras.

From a women's dormitory, the raids branched out to sorority row and boarding houses. At each the raiders chanted "we want panties, we want panties" until they gave up or a bit of lingerie floated down from an upper window.

Actress Is Found Dead

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Joan Morgan McKay, 43, was found dead Thursday in her Manhattan apartment.

Medical examiner Joseph Dubinsky termed the death "apparent suicide from a possible overdose of an unknown drug, possibly sleeping pills."

Mrs. McKay's pajama-clad body was found on a bed in her apartment by a longtime friend, James Lee, another tenant in the building.

Mrs. McKay, from Memphis, Tenn., played Billie Dawn in "Born Yesterday," a Broadway play which Judy Holliday used to reach stardom.

Man Is Injured In Road Mishap

Morris S. Boykin, magazine salesman from Rising Star, received what were believed to be minor injuries about 9 o'clock last night one mile northeast of Dermott.

Boykin apparently lost control of his 1951 Ford and the car overturned. He was taken to Cogdell Hospital by Bell Ambulance Service.

The accident was investigated by the Texas Highway Patrol.

TOP TV TONIGHT

By BUD EVANS

7:30 CBS "Route 66", George Maharis, as Buz Murdoch, challenges the surfboard king of southern California at his own game after what he considers the needless death of a young surfer. Jeremy Slate, who co-starred in "The Aquanauts," is guest star as surfing champ Hob Harrell, who agrees to "shoot" the pilings of the pier at Huntington Beach, the move that results in a fatal accident.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

6:30 ABC "The Gallant Men." War correspondent Conley Wright penetrates the wall of seclusion around a war-weary private and in him uncovers the means to dispel the anti-American fellings in the town of Nieto. Peter Breck has the role of Private Draper in "Retreat to Concord."

6:30 NBC "International Showtime" presents the "Circus From Hamburg," the circus that won the "best circus entertainment." In one of the highlights, two girls perform on a horizontal ladder attached to the roof of the tent.

6:30 CBS "Rawhide." Kenan Wynn, one of the busiest of the television actors, makes a guest appearance as Simon Royce, an ex-convict looking for the man he believes was responsible for his wife's death. Royce suspects that the man he is seeking is one of Gil Favor's drovers.

7:30 NBC "Mitch Miller," the Sing-Along Gang and soloist Leslie Uggams pay homage to some of America's great vaudeville acts, tribute to the blues, American Indian songs and songs by composer Fred Fisher. COLOR

8:30 NBC "Don't Call Me Charlie." Scheming to get a date with secretary Pat Perry, Colonel Barker assigns McKay to night duty and a building on the post burns while McKay is in charge. McKay takes full responsibility after Barker had been reprimanded for assigning an inexperienced officer to this duty.

8:30 CBS "Fair Exchange." Patty gets a rave review for her performance in a school play in London and joins a repertory troupe. Heather, excited over her first job as a model, moves to a women's hotel in New York in the belief it will increase her chances for other work.

Guilty Plea Heard

A plea of guilty was entered in county Court this morning by Willie Mae Bradford of Idalou. She had been charged with giving a worthless check.

She was fined $15 plus court costs of 26.35.

Green plants in bathrooms can add immeasurably to the decor. The softness of plant life injects a feeling of decoration which otherwise is difficult to achieve in such utilitarian rooms which abound with tile, glass and plastic surfaces. The steam from the shower and sunlight from a bathroom window insure healthy growth of plants.

3 Lives Claimed By Pacific Storm

GOLD BEACH, Ore. (AP)—A fierce gale battered more than 1,000 miles of the Pacific coast Thursday taking three lives. The same stretch of coast braced for an equally strong storm today.

The fringe of the storm was expected to wash out the scheduled World Series game at San Francisco, where Weather Bureau forecasters said there was a 90 per cent chance of rain.

Forecasters said the storm front probably would reach Coos Bay, Ore. in late afternoon.

Wind gusts up to 90 miles an hour were recorded on the Oregon coast Thursday in the storm that stretched from Northern California to British Columbia.

The storm toppled a tree that killed a man near Snoqualmie, Wash. in Northern California. An automobile ran off the road in blinding rains, crashed into a tree and killed a man and his wife.

Winds virtually destroyed a school near Gold Beach on the southern Oregon coast. Windows were broken and roofs ripped off a number of homes.

The storm so severely battered a radar station on 3,100-foot Mt. Hebo on the northern Oregon coast that the Air Force had to pull out its 50 men.

Fifty fishing boats were caught at sea off Northern California. Fierce winds whipped waves higher than 30 feet and sank one boat. The crew was rescued. The other limped into port, some with Coast Guard assistance.

More than a foot of snow fell in the inland mountains. There was extensive damage to fruit orchards from high winds. Telephone and electrical power lines were knocked down in scores of communities. Many schools closed. Heavy rains delayed potato to harvests. Garberville in Northern California recorded 6.28 inches of rain in a two-day period.

No stormy weather was reported in other sections of the nation but showers were indicated this afternoon and tonight in scattered sections. Thunderstorms broke out Thursday ahead of a warm front through southern New York and northeastern Pennsylvania. More than two inches of rain fell in Binghamton, N.Y.

Mid-summer temperatures were reported across wide areas from the central plains eastward to the southern Great Lakes region into the middle Atlantic states. Readings were mostly in the 80s and low 90s.

SOUVENIRS OF SNYDER in the form of miniature bales of cotton were presented to Hawaiian visitors to our city by Claude McCormick, standing. Seated are Earl Lee, brother of George Lee of Snyder, Henrietta Chee, Joanne DePontes, Earlene Lee, and Mrs. Lee, all from the Kona coast of Hawaii, George Lee, Marvin Key, and Ab Williamson. McCormick, Lee, Key,. Williamson, along with Frank Arnett were guests of Earl Lee when they visited Hawaii last year. Arnett was unable to attend the coffee session yesterday as the group renewed their acquaintance. Miss Chee, a schoolteacher in the Kailua schools, said that people in Snyder seemed to have hearts just as big as our wide open spaces.

Dr. O'Banion Speaks At P-TA Meet

East Elementary P-TA met in the arts and crafts room of the school Monday with Mrs. Lonnie Crosby, president presiding.

Following a short business meeting the program was presented by Dr. John O'Banion, who talked on "Motor Scooters—The Accidents Resulting From Them."

He said in part: "The greatest single hazard to our youth is accidents. Five hundred children between the ages of 10 to 20 were killed on bicycles alone annually. The leading cause of death is not polio, congential diseases or heart disease, but accidents. The leading cause of accidents in Snyder is the motor scooter. The number of cases handled presents an imposing list. During the past summer within a period of three weeks, two children were brought to the hospital, one dead, the other dying. We have drives to combat polio and TB, but no action against scooters. In most instances youngsters are not even of a legal age to drive scooters. One driver was 13 and the legal age is 15. Also he had his 3½ year-old brother on the handle bars.

"The doctors of this city met and asked the city council, school personal and other interested parties to be present to discuss this problem. It was found that little could be done because of public apathy. Many parents get in an uproar over children's rights. It was felt if the community was more strict this might be a help."

Dr. O'Banion reported that 30 to 40 youngsters were injuried in the past three years, sufficiently to require hospitalization. Many are still in the hospital and will be for some time.

"Since the community has been made aware of the problem, no scooter accidents have occured. The youngsters are not driving them. The school board has been very cooperative and scooters are no longer allowed on the school grounds. There has been excellent support from the news media, medical staff and community have cooperated to eliminate this problem," he said.

Dr. O'Banion presented some interesting facts concerning some of the worst accidents as to the extinct of injuries, and ages of youth injured. He commended the community and P-TA for the cooperation they had given to combat the scooter problem.

Refreshments were served to approximately 50 members.

Junior Aux. Sets Rules At Meeting

The Candy Stripers of Cogdell Memorial Hospital held their regular monthly meeting Monday in the home of Mrs. Johnny Pitner, sponsor. An executive meeting followed the next day, again in the sponsor's home.

It was decided by the officers and sponsor that, in order for present members to remain in the junior auxiliary they must maintain an overall "C" average. It was also stated that dues of 50 cents must be paid by the next meeting, or those girls not complying will be asked to withdraw from the club. The same request will be made of those who miss three or more meetings.

The monthly meetings will be at 5 o'clock each second Tuesday, with the executive meetings at the same time every third Tuesday.

Bathroom Storage

It may be that more storage space in the bathroom can be yours. If space permits, you can build a divider with sliding drawers. A likely place is the space between lavatory and toilet. To complete the job, the top of the divider should be surfaced with a waterproof material such as ceramic tile. Real tile is easy to clean and won't stain or scratch.

Coffees Held By B&PW

The Business and Professional Women's Club held its regular business meeting at the Martha Ann Woman's Club Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Boren Hostess To Church Group

The women of St. John's Episcopal Church met for their monthly meeting, Wednesday October 10, in the home of Mrs. Hugh Boren Jr.

After refreshments were served, the meeting was opened with a prayer, offered by Mrs. Bart Belknap.

Mrs. Mark McLaughlin gave a program on Communism in which she stated: "The character of the Communist challenge consists, the first in a conception of matter, man, society, history, government, and the supreme being radically different from and opposite to anything you and I and our ancestors have known for the last four thousand years; second, in the existance of a superbly organized political party with an absolutely dedicated membership all over the world...actively working to bring every people on earth under the bondage of this philosophy.

"In China the Communists have molded Christian teachings into a pattern as nearly as possible like Communist teachings. They have allowed Christians to teach the existence of God, but He must be a God who looks with approval upon the Communist program.

"Today, Christians everywhere are confronted with Communism, one of the most powerful mass movements of the Christian era, a movement that rules over one third of the world's population and has adherents and agents around the globe.

"Communism is a religion without God, a religion of men and machines. Marx believed that matter is the only final reality and that both ideals and ideas are just products of matter in motion.

"Study and action are marks of the program of modern Christians. In Europe and Asia intellectuals and laborers are forming discussion and action groups, seeking with Church groups answers to difficult questions. This renewed Christian vigor is seen as the action of God in history. The Holy Spirit is at work, and the urgency rests upon every believer to bear witness."

20th Century Sets Record For Tampering With Bible

By INEZ ROBB

For centuries church scholars have translated and retranslated the Bible a little nearer to their respective hearts' desire.

But no century has produced more tampering with the good book than ours. There is a continous itch in the 20th Century not so much to retranslate the Bible, as to rewrite it in the vernacular; that is, to water it down for the benefit, apparently, of Johnnies who can't read.

For more than four centuries men, women and children have managed to read, enjoy and understand the ringing periods and the poetic beauty of the King James and Douay versions. But in this enlightened age, with universal education more widespread than ever before, the old Bible is deemed too arduous for modern man.

So the "archaic" language of the old versions has been continuously updated and new and modern editions appear regularly, although our less-privileged ancestors managed, somehow, to read and assimilate the King James and the Douay with more regularity and fervor than their descendants.

On the other side of the Atlantic a team of British and Irish scholars are busy rewriting the Old Testament into the modern idiom. ("We can't change camels into motor cars" is the unhappy conclusion of one of the scholars. But most adults and children have seen a camel in either a circus or a zoo, and will be asked to take on faith the preposterous fact that they — camels — were once the Fords of the desert.)

On this side of the Atlantic a much more ambitious project is about to bear fruit in the book stalls. Three new versions of the Bible, one for children, one for teen-agers and one for adults, will be ready for the Christmas trade.

I have not yet seen the "Children's Version of the Holy Bible." But I can well imagine a first-grade version that reads:

"See the woman.
"Her name is Eve.
"Eve is in a garden.
"See the tree in the garden.
"Eve sees the tree.
"It is an apple tree.
"See the apple on the tree.
"See the snake.
"The snake is in the tree.'
"Eve wants the apple on the Tree."

The language of the King James version is "foreign," according to the publisher of the three new American versions of the Bible, and the vocabulary "difficult." Hence, for persons of all ages, it needs translation into a "language" that can be understood, although the King James version is the one English work that for nobility and beauty of language is classed with Shakespeare.

Why, in the 20th Century, has it suddenly become so difficult even for adults to read the old versions of the Bible, on which their far less well educated forebears cut their religious and intellectual teeth? Many a great writer and orator, including Winston Churchill, has owed the elegance of his style and the grace of language to the King James version. It has been, in the past, a university for countless men.

Bible stories for little children are one thing, but it seems to this old curmudgeon that a teen-ager, if he has been taught to read at all, ought to be able to read something beside a watered-down version of the Scriptures. As for adults, it passeth understanding that they, too, must have a simplified text.

Must everything in our age be predigested? Does the Bible have to be reduced to pablum? I refuse to believe that modern man, who split the atom and is exploring space, is unable to cope with the grandeur and the glory of the King James version.

Year in and year out the Bilbe continues to be the world's best-seller. And, to the credit of man and his intelligence, the old versions lead the way.

Pictures Of Family Call For Tact

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—One of life's little ordeals is what to do or say when someone shows you a picture of his family.

Just as children like to roll up their sleeves and show their vaccination marks, grownup men like to whip out their wallets and show off photographs of their loved ones at home.

It pays never to leap to premature conclusions when someone suddenly confronts you with a photo and asks you proudly:

"Well, what do you think of that?"

The art of the camera hasn't really progressed very far. At first glance it is hard to tell an old barn from a mother-in-law, or an apple tree in bloom from a high school girl in her graduation dress.

The best thing to do is to peer at the proffered photo uncertainly, then exclaim heartily:

"My, even without my glasses, I can tell that one is a real corker."

This will please him mightily, and by artful questioning you can elicit from him whether it is a picture of his last family reunion, or only a color photo of an Easter egg basket.

If it is a clear day and you have 20-20 eyesight and you are reasonably certain the photo he hands you is that of a human female under the age of 70, you might say:

"Gee, doesn't your wife object to you carrying around a picture of a movie star in your pocket?"

"What do you mean a movie star?" he'll answer. "That's my wife."

And by a single remark of intuitive genius you will have made two lifelong buddies—him and her. You can always be sure of a free meal at their house any time. His wife will probably even be glad to do your laundry for you.

Utmost tact is required when faced unexpectedly by a photo of a squirming infant. The truth is, as every honest person knows, that most snapshots of babies look like an incomplete job in taxidermy.

If you are uncertain of the sex of the child, you give a long sigh of admiration and murmur:

"Adorable...so cute...man, that's really worth coming home to at night, isn't it?"

If you are certain the infant is a boy and his brow doesn't slant back too abruptly, it's always safe to observe:

"My, what a forehead! That kid's gonna be a real brain. And those shoulders! Just look at those shoulders!"

On the other hand, if you are absolutely sure the infant is a girl, you'll do best if you chuckle and say fondly:

"Oh, she'll break a lot of men's hearts when she grows up. I feel sorry for her boy friends already."

And, of course, when both parents hand you a photo of their little darling and simultaneously demand, "Who you think our baby really looks like?", there is only one satisfactory answer:

"Both of you. There's no doubt whose baby this is!"

Three Pilots Die

MANILA, Philippines (AP)—A Philippine Air Lines turbo-prop Fokker crashed at Manila's International Airport today, killing the three pilots who were aboard. They were practicing takeoffs and landings.

Boys Are Ordered To Attend Church

ATLANTA (AP)—Three teenage white boys have been ordered to attend church services every Sunday for six months for throwing rocks at two Negro men.

Judge Robert Jones of Municipal Court placed the boys on probation for six months and ordered them to honor a curfew to be set by their parents.

Junior Editors Quiz on Little Old New York

QUESTION: How did the nickname "Gotham" originate for New York City?

• • •

ANSWER: This nickname was bestowed on New York by the first world famous American author, Washington Irving. Irving loved the city and the Hudson River and wrote many stories about this area which are half fact and half legend, but which are so gay and witty that we still read them today. In "History of New York" he told the story of early days as if written by an old Dutchman, Diedrich Knickerbocker. "Father Knickerbocker" soon became famous to New Yorkers as a symbol of their city. "Gotham" was another such symbol. Irving took the name from a legend about the ancient English village of Gotham. An English king planned to build a hunting lodge there. But the villagers did not want royalty nearby, so they agreed among themselves to act as if they were all fools or half wits. The King built his lodge somewhere else. After this, people used the word "Gotham" as if it really meant a place where fools lived. When Irving wanted to poke fun at New York because it had so many people who were more foolish than wise, he called it "Gotham" and the name stuck.

FOR YOU TO DO: There are two stories by Washington Irving you will greatly enjoy: "Rip Van Winkle" and "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow." If you've read these, try some other stories by this author.

Tigers Meet Rugged Stamford Tonight

Kickoff Set For 8 P. M.

A series that has been allowed to lie dormant over the past decade will be renewed tonight at 8 o'clock when the high-flying Stamford Bulldogs bring their well-oiled scoring machine and stingy defense to Tiger Stadium for a non-district battle with the Snyder Tigers.

The contest will mark the final non-district action of the season for the 3-AAA Tigers and 6-AA Bulldogs, who will be fighting to enhance their third-place ranking within the state.

Local fans will be afforded a look at a team that has made mincemeat out of its four opponents when the Stamford eleven comes to town. With a wide-open offense and a rock-ribbed defense, the Bulldogs have romped to a total of 161 points in those four outings while allowing their foes nary a point.

Included among those conquests were victories over Quanah (34-0), Cisco (44-0), Seymour (40-0), and Colorado City (43-0).

The Tigers, on the other hand, are batting .500 for the year following triumphs of 7-0 and 14-8 over Andrews and Big Spring coupled with 6-14 and 0-12 losses handed them by Levelland and Kermit.

Handy Andy Scoring Leader

Pacing the high-geared Bulldog offensive attack has been 149-pound tailback Andy Miller, who has personally accounted for 50 of his team's total points. Not too far behind him is fullback Paul Rider, a 175-pounder, with 35 to his credit.

Injuries over the past week have cropped up to pockmark the Tiger lineup appreciably.

Starting quarterback Jimmy Wilson suffered a thigh injury Monday and hasn't been able to work out since that time. It is doubtful that he will see any action at all, with senior Dalton Walton scheduled to assume the man-under reins in his absence.

Halfback Eddie Kirby is on crutches with an injured knee and will probably see no more action over the entire season. Guard Ronnie Fisk has been plagued by sickness and will be used sparingly if at all. And fullback Bob Pena—though still listed as a starter—is limping following a knee injury sustained during Wednesday's workout.

Should Pena not be in shape to start, his fullback slot will be occupied by junior Danny Aycock, a 165-pounder.

One brand new offensive face will be seen in the Tiger starting backfield fold—compact 145-pound Darrell Aldridge. He has started the year-long on defense as a linebacker, but has yet to run his first offensive down.

Snyder's defensive structure has remained intact, with the same eleven boys pegged for starting chores as took the field last week against Kermit.

Included in that alignment will be Larry Lee at the middle guard; Riley Boothe and William Robinson at the tackles; Tim Hardin and Billy Stewart at the ends; Pena, Pete Greene and Aldridge backing the line; and Jimmy Taylor, Leslie Brown and Gail Potter in the secondary.

Named as tri-captains for the contest are Boothe, Paul Daniel and Kenny Wellborn.

Stamford Huskier

The Bulldogs will enter the game with a decided weight advantage, a look at the offensive units revealing that the Tigers will be "giving away" over six pounds to the man in the backfield and approximately 7½ pounds per performer in the forward wall.

The Stamford line averages 168.3 pounds to Snyder's 160.7, while its backs tip the scales at some 159 pounds to the Tigers' 152.8.

Whichever team comes out on top tonight will take the edge in the series between the two schools, a rivalry that began in 1928.

Both Snyder and Stamford may boast of five victories. There has been one tie. The Bulldogs picked up the majority of their victories in the period between 1946-1951, while most of Snyder's were realized from 1928-1934.

A glance at the results emerging from the entire series follows:

1951—Stamford 20, Snyder 0
1950—Stamford 12, Snyder 7
1949—Snyder 13, Stamford 6
1948—Stamford 20, Snyder 0
1947—Stamford 19, Snyder 7
1946—Snyder 6, Stamford 6 (tie)
1934—Snyder 1, Stamford 0 (forfeit)
1933—Snyder 28, Stamford 0
1932—Snyder 20, Stamford 7
1931—Snyder 52, Stamford 6
1928—Stamford 7, Snyder 6

Hogs Should Snare Lead

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Arkansas goes after an undisputed lead in Southwest Conference football Saturday in a battle with Baylor at Fayetteville, and the highriding Razorbacks are expected to make it.

It would be Arkansas' second straight conference triumph and would mean the Razorbacks were the only two-game winners.

Texas and Texas A&M, which have won their only conference engagements, hit the intersectional trail. Texas takes on deep rival Oklahoma at Dallas while the Aggies are in Gainesville, Fla., to meet Florida.

Texas Christian, loser of one conference game, and Texas Tech, loser of two, clash at Fort Worth. Tech is virtually eliminated from the race. TCU would join the Red Raiders in obscurity if Tech should win.

Rice tackles Oregon at Houston in another intersectional game.

Crowds totaling 200,000 will see the five games with a sellout of 75,504 at Dallas and a sellout-plus of 33,000 at Fayetteville.

Intersectionally, the conference has won five games lost seven and tied one this season. It needs victories in all three games this week to go back ahead. Texas and Rice are expected to win but the Aggies are underdogs.

Southern Methodist will be an interested onlooker, probably watching Texas on television. The Mustangs, who have lost three out of three, rest this week. They open the conference race Oct. 20 against Rice at Dallas.

Major interests rests on the Texas Longhorns' bid for a fifth straight victory over Oklahma. Texas is rated No. 2 in the nation and gunning for the No. 1 spot. A solid victory over Oklahoma might give it to the Longhorns.

Arkansas, with its terrific offense featuring versatile Billy Moore, is a heavy favorite to down Baylor's winless Bears. Baylor, however, has had two weeks to get ready. The Bears should play their best football of the year.

Got four out of five last week to make the season record 12-6-1. Here's how they look Saturday:

Texas-Oklahoma — A better game than last year but still a Texas victory.

Baylor-Arkansas—Gambling on upsets ruins the average; Arkansas by two touchdowns.

Texas A&M-Florida—Florida is favored but doesn't seem to have any better team than A&M, which was boosted greatly by its victory over Texas Tech; the Aggies in a squeaker.

Texas Tech-TCU—Tech will lose its third conference game.

Rice-Oregon — Rice has done just the opposite of predictions thus far, but here's a vote for the Owls to tumble Oregon.

'Special Role' Set For QBC Members

Jack Hoffman, Quarterback Club president, is requesting that all club members congregate at the south end of the stadium tonight about 15 minutes prior to game time in order to form a "tunnel" for the Snyder players when they come onto the field.

The Bengals are to face Stamford in their final non-district game of the season in Tiger Stadium tonight, with the kickoff slated for 8 o'clock.

Colts Slip Past Bears

The Boys' Club League Colts, with only a single tie marring their otherwise spotless record, won another one here Thursday by nudging the Bears, 14-8.

Jodi Williamson meshed the Colt scoring gears in the first quarter, going over from the eight, to give them a 6-0 halftime lead.

They picked up their insurance tally in the third when Raymond Rios cut loose on a 13-yard scorin scamper. Rios also ran the conversion.

Terry Clemmer tallied the Bear TD in the fourth period on a 17-yard play and Mitch Rambin accounted for the conversion points.

The winners were out-gained by the Bears in rushing by 120-109. The Bears also held a 6-4 first down edge. Rios was the leading ground gainer for the Colts with 54, followed closely by Williamson and his 45. Clemmer paced the Bears with 53 yards to his credit.

A total of 27 yards in penalties was stepped off against the Colts to none for the Bears. Colt Jay Haigwood punted once for 25 yards.

Surprising 'Skins Remain Unbeaten

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — What, oh, what has happened to the Washington Redskins of the National Football League? They still are unbeaten, having won three games and tied one.

Gone are the days of having one sure winning pick by figuring the 'Skins to lose. Balance may be great for a football league, but it plays havoc on the selectors.

Washington over St. Louis — If you can't lick 'em, join 'em. 'Skins are for real. Norm Snead has poise at quarterback and team has balanced running, passing and now defense.

Green Bay over Minnesota — Vikings own one of two TDs Packers have allowed in four victories, and Green Bay wants that back.

New York over Pittsburgh—Giants' home openers last two years have been fiascos, but everyone is healthy, especially quarterback Y. A. Tittle.

Cleveland over Baltimore — Despite so-so pass defense that must face sharp-shooting Colts' Johnny Unitas, Browns too tough against declining Baltimore defense that must stop both Jimmy Brown and passing of Jim Ninowski.

Detroit over Los Angeles—Lions are ready to be taken after tough game with Green Bay, but Rams still not stable enough to do the job, despite expected return of halfback Jon Arnett from injury list.

Philadelphia over Dallas — This will be a real swinger, but the edge goes to Sonny Jurgensen's passing against the Cowboys' young secondary.

San Francisco over Chicago — 49ers beginning to move and should turn tables on Bears.

Boston over Dallas—This one is tonight and the combination of Boston's concrete defense and the experience of quarterback Babe Parilli gives Patriots edge.

San Diego over Buffalo—Rookie John Hadl in the driver's seat now for resurging Chargers, while winless Bills still waiting for his predecessor, Jack Kemp, to get his hand in shape to play.

Houston over New York — George Blanda has more to work with than Lee Grosscup of Titans, who must cope with injured knee that drastically limits mobility.

Denver over Oakland — The Broncos go rolling along at the top of the Western Division behind Frank Tripucka, who is rapidly closing in on first mile gained passing this year.

Snyder 'B' Hosts Tors Tomorrow

The Snyder Tiger B team, fresh from a 26-14 victory over archrival Sweetwater, plays host to Lamesa in Tiger Stadium tomorrow night in a 7:30 grid battle.

The meeting will be the first of the year involving the two teams.

Announced Tiger B starters include Phil Moore, left end; Phillip floyd, left tackle; Bobby Mooty, left guard; John Finke, center; David McKinney, right guard; Jerry Owen, right tackle; Kenneth Dower, right end; Richard Waters, quarterback; Gary Bergeron, fullback; Bobby Kay, right halfback; and Jay Williamson, left halfback.

Coaching the Snyder eleven are Bill Hartsfield and Roy Carter.

Grid Fans Invited To Sup At HS

Anyone for food?

If so, a suggestion. All you football fans who would prefer not to wrestle with supper at home this evening are invited to take advantage of the chicken - spaghetti supper being served up in the high school cafeteria from 5:30 til 7:30.

The feed is under the sponsorship of the Stanfield Elementary Parent-Teachers Association, and tickets may be obtained at the door.

Ford-Pierce Duel On Series Horizon

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Neither rain, nor hail nor wind, all of which were predicted for today's scheduled sixth World Series game between New York and San Francisco, could prevent Manager Ralph Houk from forecasting a world championship for his Yankees in six games.

Undaunted by Manager Alvin Dark's choice of Billy Pierce as the Giant pitcher and cognizant of the veteran left-hander's 12-0 record at Candlestick Park, Houk confidently expected the Yankees to wrap it up today—weather permitting—behind the left-handed slants of Whitey Ford. The Yankees lead the series, three games to two.

"I expect Ford to beat Pierce," Houk said Thursday picking Whitey over Bill Stafford, although it was the young right-hander's turn in the pitching rotation.

"I'm going with my best and let the chips fall where they may," added Houk. "I'm not underestimating Pierce. It will be a tough battle but Whitey should win. He's fit and ready. I know Pierce hasn't lost here yet. But neither has Whitey. Remember he beat the Giants in his only appearance here."

Houk was referring to the opening game in which Ford scattered 10 hits and won 6-2 with left-hander Billy O'Dell the loser.

The odds-makers supported Houk's victory claim. They have established the Yankee a 13-to-10 choice to win today and a 7-to-2 favorite to win the series.

The odds were even greater against the game being played today. According to the Weather Bureau, there was a 90 per cent chance of rain. Warnings of 30 to 45 miles an hour wind have been posted.

It was felt in some quarters that a postponement would prove beneficial to the Giants. A day's delay would give Ford four full day's rest and it has been Houk's contention that Ford is at his sharpest with only three days.

By the same token, a rainout would enable the Giants to come back with Jack Sanford, their right-handed ace, with sufficient rest for the seventh game, if one is needed.

Houk planned to start the same line-up he has used in every game but the second when injuries forced the benching of first baseman Bill Skowron and catcher Elston Howard. Skowron underwent treatment for a shoulder and hand injury Thursday but Houk said he would be in the lineup.

Dark, who has been shuffling his line-up from game to game, made another change. Because of the left-handed opposition, he restored the right-handed Harvey Kuenn in left field in place of Matty Alou, with Felipe Alou switching to right field, and returned Orlando Cepeda to first base, replacing Willie McCovey.

Like Houk, the Giant pilot appeared confident of victory in the sixth game, so much so that he discussed his possible pitching choice for the seventh game.

Travis Adds Three Scalps

The Travis Blue Devils had one of the most successful nights of the campaign Thursday, victimizing Sweetwater in taking three top-heavy grid wins.

A recap shows that Travis 8th and 7th continue along the unbeaten trail, while the Blue Devil 9th added victory number three to its string after a sole loss.

Here's a peek at how it all came about:

Travis 9th 22, Sweetwater 0

Travis 9th, behind the running of Jerry Kincheloe, exploded for three touchdowns in a spine-tingling second half here Thursday to break open a scoreless deadlock and take a 22-0 win over Sweetwater.

Neither team was able to muster a serious scoring threat during the first half until—with a minute remaining prior to intermission—the Blue Devils smashed their way to the 12. The vistors stalled the drive by intercepting a Powers Boothe aerial, however, in the vicinity of the goal line.

Travis received the second half kickoff and proceeded to march all the way to the four before losing the pighide. A Colt fumble on the first play run from there was recovered by Travis, though, and Kincheloe blasted over from the three, carrying a pair of Colt tacklers over with him. His conversion run around end was thwarted.

Jackie Rice was the man of the hour midway through the fourth period, picking off a Colt toss and hottooting it down the sideline for a 56-yard return before being hauled down on the five. It was no more than a short putt from there, and Kincheloe bulled over right tackle the final two yards with 6:11 left in the game.

Following receipt of the kickoff Sweetwater fumbled on the initial play from scrimmage, Travis recovering on their 29. From there they drove all the way home, with Kincheloe circling right end for 11 yards and the touchdown with 4:01 left in the game.

Newman skirted left end for the final two points.

The triumph was the third of the season for the Blue Devils. They have dropped one.

Travis 8th 24, Sweetwater 0

SWEETWATER — Snyder's Travis 8th Blue Devils struck quickly with a pair of first quarter touchdowns, then coasted home to a 24-0 win over the Sweetwater Colts here Thursday.

The victory was the second blanking administered the Colts by the Blue Devils this season and preserved their unbeaten status, although they have been tied once.

David Cadena pulled in the opening kickoff and scampered 75 yards to paydirt to set the Colts back on their heels intitally, then followed up by running over the conversion points.

Later in the first stanza Juan Hernandez tallied from five yards out and Delbert Bruns ran the points to boost Travis into a 14-0 halftime advantage.

Bruns scored the final Blue Devil TD from six yards out in the last quarter. Hernandez added the final two points via the ground route.

Sweetwater threw together one scoring threat during the game, driving to the Travis 10 in the third period. The Blue Devil defense, which sparkled throughout, repulsed them, however, throwing the Colts all the way back to the 25 after four plays.

Travis 7th 40, Sweetwater 18

SWEETWATER — Travis 7th of Snyder notched its third triumph in as many outings here Thursday by routing the Sweetwater Colts, 40-18.

Travis took a commanding 32-8 halftime lead that was never threatened in marking up the win.

Ken Pollard ran the game's opening kickoff back 65 yards to put Travis into a quick lead, then later in the same period swept left end on a 45-yard scoring jaunt.

Quarterback Jimmy Ramage sneaked over from the one for another Blue Devil TD in the first period, after which Ramon Valdez carried the mail for the conversion points and a 20-0 bulge.

Sweetwater fought back later in the riotous first quarter by scoring on a 60-yard off-tackle run and made their two-point conversion good.

Valdez skipped over from three yards away and Mario Tavarez from five yards out to highlight second quarter activities.

It was Tavarez once again in the third canto, this time on a 55-yard romp. Valdez converted for the final two points of the evening for the Blue Devils.

The Colts came back with a pair of touchdowns late in the game, but the door had long since been closed to them.

Anchoring the Blue Devil defensive structure were end Jerry Rains, middle guard Tommy McDonald, and tackle James Merritt.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Texas Tech's Picadors, unable to hold a first half lead, bowed to the Arkansas Shoats 14-6 Thursday night in a Southwest Conference freshman football game.

Elite Group In For A Trimming

By The Associated Press

The select group of undefeated and untied Texas schoolboy football teams will become even more select Friday night.

Of the 74 teams with perfect records in classes playing to state championships, 61 risk their stature this weekend. Fifteen of the 19 squads that are tied but undefeated also see action.

Three of the games in Class AAAA match unbeaten and untied teams. Dallas Samuell and Dallas Bryan Adams meet in a clash that could determine the champion of Dist. 6. Spring Branch will be at Victoria and San Antonio MacArthur plays San Antonio Harlandale in other featured games.

The defending Class AAAA champion, Wichita Falls, takes on Lawton, Okla.

Two squads with perfect records in Class AAA, Brownwood and Weatherford, clash this weekend. Brownwood is favored to take this year's AAA crown.

New London, rated the top Class A team in the state, gets a conference test against Judson. Unbeaten and untied Denver City, top ranked in Class AA, is idle this weekend.

Conference play is gradually being stepped up. About one-third of the games this week count in the standings.

Polo Battle To Be Waged Here Sunday

The Snyder Polo Team is to take on Lubbock here Sunday afternoon, with the clash scheduled to take place in the rodeo arena west of the city.

The public is invited to turn out and witness the contest, which has a starting time of 4 o'clock.

Slated to start for the Snyder team are Gail Pettitt, Robbie Robinson, Rudy Minor, A. P. Smith and Duaine Davis. Others composing the local team are George Ramage, L. J. Mueller, Willis Cumbie, Zeno Lankford, O. E. Jackson, George Maule, Don Sealy, Benny Minor, Bill Daves, and Harve Tatom.

Referees for the duel will be Benny Minor, Park Hamilton and "Goat" Hataway.

All One Gives to God COMES BACK TO THE GIVER

Plain Talk

Here is Life's romance . . . a father and son in plain talk. We hear the father admonish his son — "You are building a life, a career. You need all the wisdom I have acquired through experience. Son, you should take along the Bible's blueprint for better living. Don't make the mistake some of your friends do . . . you need the church. You need the fellowship of church people to gain inspiration for conquering difficulties you must face. You must be cautious, honest and sincere. Your ambition must be worthy, your aim high, your heart pure. Quoting the Golden Rule is not enough, son — it must be lived. Finally, my boy, I hope you will regularly read Jeremiah 42:3 and keep faith with all of this plain talk."

So They May See — Psalm 91 — So They May Hear

HE THAT DWELLETH in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

3. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

4. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

7. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

8. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

BECAUSE THOU hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

10. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

12. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

16. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
