Mao Delivers Ultimatum To Enemies

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP) — Mao Tse-tung has delivered an ultimatum to his enemies, called on the army to help crush them and obtained pledges of loyalty from military units throughout China, organs under his control reported today.

There was no indication Mao's opponents were buckling under the pressure .Peking Radio said that Mao has ordered complete reorganization of the "cultural revolutionary committee" of the armed forces, a possible indication of military opposition to Mao despite the claimed pledges of support.

The new turn in the Chinese Communist party chairman's seething struggle with the party faction headed by President Liu Shao-chi coincided with an admission that there has been fighting in Shanghai. Mao, 73, ordered the city quarantined and all travel in and out limited.

The appeal to the army — and the reported swift response — also suggested that the 2.5-million-man armed forces may be wavering in their loyalty to Mao and Defense Minister Lin Piao, his No. 1 ally and nominally in control of the army.

The army's declaration of loyalty followed an editorial in the Peking People's Daily and the theoretical journal Red Flag — both controlled by Mao — which warned Liu's faction "to make a final reconsideration immediately and surrender to the revolutionary people."

On the heels of this ultimatum — which used the word "final" for the first time — four important official bodies dominated by Mao issued a directive calling on the army, the party, the government and the people throughout the nation "to take concerted action and to beat back the new counterattack of the bourgeois reactionary line."

Until now, the army has been carrying out its own purge as part of the so-called "great proletarian cultural revolution." Its injection into the civilian purge was considered an apparent indication that Mao's position has been seriously weakened by the rash of strikes, walkouts, violent clashes and sabotage which have swept the country in the past three weeks.

The fact that he made a public appeal to the army rather than issuing a simple order hinted at the possibility that a number of army units are no longer under Lin's control. It had been taken for granted that Lin's sway over the armed forces was complete.

US Jets Pulverize Iron Triangle Area

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — American jet bombers pulverized the "iron triangle" with repeated strikes today while on the ground armor-led U.S. troops uncovered more Viet Cong base camps and large caches of enemy rice.

As the war's biggest ground sweep carried through its fifth day, U.S. headquarters reported the count of Communist dead rose to nearly 200 with 40 prisoners taken in the drive to clear the jungles 20 to 30 miles north of Saigon.

The U.S. air offensive over North Vietnam continued at a low pace because of persistent bad weather and ground action in South Vietnam also subsided into small and scattered clashes, except in the iron triangle.

Official weekly casualty reports released today showed drops in American and Vietnamese killed or wounded for the first week of the new year.

U.S. headquarters said 67 Americans were killed in combat in the week ending last Saturday compared with 128 the previous week. American wounded were listed at 479 last week as against 634 a week earlier. South Vietnamese headquarters said 120 government troops were killed in the week ending last Saturday compared with 146 the previous week.

The U.S. command also reported that American troop strength in South Vietnam climbed by 6,000 last week to reach a high of 395,000 as of last Saturday.

In the massive sweep of the iron triangle called Operation Cedar Falls, U.S. F100 Super Sabre jet pilots reported strafing runs against Viet Cong snipers concealed in trees.

Other Air Force jets mounted 59 bombing runs on the triangle during the day to raise the total air strikes in the operation to 488.

On the ground, a task force led by the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment pushed deeper into the jungle, U.S. spokesmen reported. These troops along with others in the surrounded triangle seized 508 tons of enemy rice Wednesday and today to bring the haul so far to 1,306 tons. Also seized were 217 weapons. Ground forces reported uncovering five more Viet Cong base camps and destroying 10 bunkers in the last 24 hours.

U.S. spokesmen reported that evacuation of the triangle's Vietnamese peasants and villagers was continuing with 3,250 civilians already moved to resettlement centers.

DISTRIBUTING BANQUET TICKETS — Bentley Baize, 1967 Chamber of Commerce President, was on hand this morning to take his share of tickets for the Chamber's annual banquet. Counting out the tickets is (seated) Mrs. Glenn Barron, former Chamber secretary who is working again temporarily assisting with banquet plans, and standing at left is Mrs. Ray Weber, secretary. The tickets, priced at $3 each, may be reserved at the Chamber office and members of the Producers Club are selling them throughout the city. Appropriately, Baize donned his Producers Club coat to check out his tickets this morning. The banquet is set for Jan. 20.

Congressmen Sidetrack President's Tax Request

By EDMOND LE BRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress is clearing the track for early consideration of President Johnson's proposals for Social Security benefit increases.

But his request for a 6 per cent Vietnam war income tax surcharge has been switched to a siding, to sit perhaps until April — or, as some members frankly hoped, indefinitely

The House Ways and Means Committee is expected to announce next week that hearings will begin in early February on the proposed 20 per cent average increase in Social Security benefits.

Committees and the House meanwhile will be acting on an increase in the $330-billion debt ceiling, against which the Treasury has been scraping, and on a special appropriation bill mostly for Vietnam expenses, totaling probably more than $10 billion.

Johnson's announcement last year that he would propose Social Security benefit increases got a warm bipartisan reception. But the size of the increase he suggested Tuesday night in his State of the Union message produced some head shaking.

The President proposed increasing minimum payments from $44 to $70 a month, an increase of at least 15 per cent for all 23 million persons receiving payments, and liberalization of the rule on the amount a retired person may earn without reducing his pension.

He also proposed extending medicare, now confined to those 65 or older, to all recipients of Social Security disability benefits.

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, senior Republican member of the Ways and Means committee, said such an increase would necessarily mean increasing the pay roll tax on employes and employers that finances Social Security.

"The pay roll tax already increased automatically this year, and another increase, plus possibly an income tax increase, adds up to quite a burden on the people paying for these benefits," Byrnes said.

Johnson did not mention financing of his proposal. Speculation was that it would require imposing a pay roll tax on the first $7,800 earned income, instead of the present $6,600.

Service Set Today For Mrs. Davis

Funeral for Mrs. Oscar (Cora) Davis, 83, a resident of the county for the past 73 years, were to be held at 3:30 p.m. today in the First Baptist Church with Dr. A. B. Lightfoot, pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. L. B. Edwards and Rev. Leslie Kelly. Burial will follow in Snyder Cemetery under the direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Mrs. Davis died at 11:45 a.m. Wednesday in Cogdell Memorial Hospital. She was the daughter of the late C. H. Kelly, an early-day Baptist minister who helped organize several churches in West Texas. She made her home at 2906 Avenue J.

Born Aug. 4, 1884, in Johnson Johnson County, she married Oscar Davis Dec. 23, 1906, in Snyder. She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. W. E. Griffith and Mrs. L. D. (Edd) Wade, both of Snyder, and Mrs. E. S. Donner of Garden Grove, Calif.; three sons, Roy E. Davis of Hobbs, N. M., J. R. Davis of Sweetwater, and C. B. Davis of Carlsbad, N. M.; two sisters, Mrs. J. E. Patrick of Snyder, and Mrs. W. T. Brooks of Modesto, Calif.; one brother, Henry Kelly of Snyder; and 20 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Voters Must Register By Jan. 31

January 31 is the deadline for signing a voter registration certificate, according to Don Adams, Scurry County tax assessor-collector, who said qualified voters must register in order to be able to vote.

He particularly emphasized the fact that voters of age 21 or who will become 21 during the year must register now in order to be able to vote during the year.

"Previously, first time voters could register any time during the year they became 21," he said, "but now the law requires such persons to register by Jan. 31."

The only people who do not have to register or apply for the registration certificate are persons of age 60 or over who live outside the city limits.

The tax assessor - collector also reminded area residents that the tax office will begin selling new license plates next month.

"You should bring your car title and license plate receipt with you when you purchase the new tags," he concluded.

Air Taxi Service Is Discussed

A proposal to provide air taxi service connecting Snyder with Dallas daily was under discussion this morning at a called meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Aviation Committee

Representatives of Clark's Flying Service of Fort Worth, who have been working on the proposal, were here to discuss it with members of the committee. The proposal involves an air taxi service in a six - place plane involving Snyder, Sweetwater and Breckenridge. The firm estimates that each of the three towns would have to furnish a roundtrip passenger per day to sustain the service economically.

There also would be air freight service from Dallas to the three towns. Schedules would be arranged so that businessmen could reach Dallas in the morning in time to transact a normal day's business there and then return in the late afternoon or early evening.

Mel Zane Gilbert, who had made the first contacts concerning the proposal, presided at the meeting this morning. He reported that a mail survey conducted via the Chamber of Commerce had indicated that a substantial number of local citizens were interested in seeing some sort of air service connecting Snyder with Dallas. It has been known for some time that such service likely would be "third level" (air taxi type) service if it should be established.

Blaze Destroys Levelland Lumber Co.

LEVELLAND, Tex. (AP)—A pre-dawn fire, punctuated by exploding containers of paint, lacquer and turpentine, destroyed the Levelland Lumber Co. today. Owners placed the loss at $100,000.

Heat from the blaze melted a General Telephone Co. cable, knocking out phone service to a large section of the city.

Legislators Hear Revenue Estimate

AUSTIN (AP) — Comptroller Robert S. Calvert has given the legislature an official estimate that existing tax sources will produce $846,908,559 in general revenue in 1967-69.

That is the two-year period for which the legislature must appropriate funds to operate state government.

Gov. John Connally's budget calls for $911.5 million spending from general revenue. The Legislative Budget Board's recommendation falls within Calvert's estimate.

The estimate, required by the state Constitution, was placed on lawmakers' desks late Wednesday.

The comptroller estimated the general fund would have a balance of $91,626,566 when the fiscal period ends Aug. 31.

Calvert's estimate is more than $212 million larger than the amount initially forecast at the start of the 59th legislature two years ago.

Despite the large growth in revenue, the legislature is expected to pass a large tax bill. Connally's budget is about $65 million above expected taxes. It does not include a teacher pay raise.

The powerful Texas State Teachers Association wants salary increases that would cost the state about $138 million.

Sources on Calvert's staff said the office has received no requests yet for estimates on tax proposals. The comptroller has a policy of not giving estimates until a tax is drafted in bill form.

Connally's staff has requested some economic data for tax estimating, but has not requested an estimate, preferring to make its own.

Revenue from the sales tax, biggest source of general revenue, was estimated at $546 million over the coming two years.

Total general revenue was estimated at $1.15 billion, but the available revenue was reduced by $360.9 million which will go into the foundation school program and to help pay off water development fund bonds.

Operating Rules Occupy Solons

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas House members expected to complete the job today of drafting the ground rules under which they will operate during the 60th legislature.

Senators planned a brief session on mostly routine matters the quick adjournment for the first long weekend recess of the session.

Both houses are still clearing away preliminaries while they await appointment of committees by Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and Speaker Ben Barnes.

Serious lawmaking will not begin until the 181 senators and representatives hear Gov. John B. Connally's legislative demands at a joint session Jan. 18, the day after he is inaugurated for a third term.

Connally has already asked for general revenue spending that exceeds 1968-69 expected income by more than $65 million. He has said he will tell the joint session next Wednesday how the deficit can be erased with new taxes and-or other new revenue sources.

Wednesday afternoon a House committee quickly approved the set of proposed joint rules that were set for debate today. The Senate-House regulations apply mostly to the conference groups that attempt compromises when the Senate and House versions of a legislative issue are different.

The House version of the joint rules, endorsed strongly by the speaker, would limit conference committees to mere adjustment of Senate and House differences with no authority to rewrite the measure or insert new legislation as committees in the past have done.

The lieutenant governor, backed by several Senate leaders, has said he sees no need for revision of the present joint rules.

Female Victims Identify Attacker

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)— The state completed its case today in the assault trial of a 35-year-old mental patient who claims to be the Boston strangler.

Only five witnesses testified for the prosecution—four women who identified Albert DeSalvo as their attacker, and a police detective who described DeSalvo's arrest and questioning in November 1964.

Defense attorney F. Lee Bailey of Boston said he planned to call two psychiatrists to support the contention that DeSalvo was not responsible for his actions due to mental illness.

The trial in Middlesex County Superior Court entered its third day before an all-male jury.

Cambridge Police Det. Duncan S. McNeil quoted DeSalvo as asking to be hospitalized.

"I want help, I need help," the detective said DeSalvo told him.

"I want to talk to someone who can help me find out what's making me do these things," McNeil quoted the former housepainter and handyman from nearby Malden as saying.

In cross examination, McNeil said DeSalvo told him he had done "bad things" with women. "But I never killed anybody," the detective quoted DeSalvo as saying.

DeSalvo is on trial on charges of breaking and entering, armed robbery, assault and sex offenses.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband, Ralph, is the world's biggest tease but he doesn't know when enough is enough.

He sounds exactly like Buddy, our 19-year-old son, on the telephone. Even I can't tell the difference. When Buddy's friends call here for Buddy and Ralph answers it's done, he has the time of his life until the kids find out who they're talking to. Ralph thinks it's a big joke, but Buddy gets angry when he finds out his father has led some of his girl friends on until they tell him lots of stuff they shouldn't have.

Is there some way we can put a stop to my husband's childishness? It has gone beyond a joke.

IN THE MIDDLE

DEAR IN: Suggest that Buddy and his friends make up some password or identifying phrase that only they know. For instance when one of Buddy's friends telephones, he could say, "I've got the yo yo." And only Buddy would know to reply, "I've got the string."

• • •

DEAR ABBY: "B" and I have been going steady for two years and intend to marry as soon as my divorce becomes final. We are both in our thirties. The problem's "B" doesn't think he should give me a ring because I'm not divorced yet, only going thru the process.

I don't agree with his reasoning. His family knows all about us and so does mine. I think it would look a lot better if I had a ring—that way when my divorce becomes final I can say we had been engaged a few months before I married him. Thank you.

CONFUSED

DEAR CONFUSED: You ARE confused. It is highly improper to become officially engaged until one is entirely free from prior legal commitments. You don't have to "say" anything.

IF you and "B" have been "going steady" for two years, it's no secret. And under the circumstances, I doubt if anyone cares if you were engaged for a few months or a few minutes.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: You probably won't believe this, but I know a woman who is only 44 years old and she is already on her ninth husband! None of her husbands died. She divorced them all. She has never had any children, she's not rich, she's not a runaround and she's not much to look at, but no sooner is she divorced from one husband than another man wants to marry her.

She's not crazy, either. She has a good job in an insurance office. No one can figure her out. I would like your opinion of a woman who has been in and out of divorce courts eight times and professes to be a God-fearing law-abiding citizen.

NO NAME

DEAR NO NAME: I would be only jumping to conclusions — as you are. So no comment.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: In answering someone who wanted to know if "clothes" made the woman, you said (quoting your friend Edith Head), "All women look alike in the bath tub." To that I say, "O, boy, have I got news for you!"

Romanians To Pay More Income Taxes

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Communist Romania has introduced additional income taxes for childless couples and all those over 25 who are unmarried, the Yugoslav news agency Tanjug reported from Bucharest.

The agency said the decree of the state council went into force Jan. 1. It follows another in October which made divorces difficult to obtain and which banned abortions.

Families with more than three children have special allowances.

Premier Ky Has Narrow Escape

NUI DAT, South Vietnam (AP) — Premier Nguyen Cao Ky narrowly escaped injury today when an Australian mortar misfired, spurting flame near him.

Ky's bodyguards pulled the premier from the mortar pit and threw themselves on top of him. He was unscathed and the malfunctioning round caused no injuries.

Ky later joked with newsmen during the visit to Australian and New Zealand units 30 miles east of Saigon.

"I didn't realize what happened," Ky said. "Then I saw everybody on the ground. Then I acted like other people."

He pointed to two small bruises on his right temple caused by the bodyguards rushing to protect him and said, laughing, "I don't know who hit me here."

The mishap came early in Ky's morning-long visit to Australian and New Zealand units.

He quickly regained his composure and finished the tour in mud-stained clothes. A few minutes after the incident the premier was asking an Australian mess cook who was mixing butterscotch sauce whether he "provided good food for the men."

Ky flew to the Australian-New Zealand units in his personal helicopter. He met briefly with Brig. Stuart C. Graham, the Australian commander, and was driven in a Land Rover to a mortar platoon.

Newsmen accompanying the 36-year-old premier asked him to fire a mortar round.

Ky stepped into the mortar pit and, after instruction by its crew, dropped one shell into the mortar. He turned and quipped to photographers: "Don't show this picture in Australia or Mr. Calwell will call me a warmonger."

Arthur Calwell, the head of Australia's opposition Labor party, leads the Australian opposition to the Vietnam war and has said he would lead demonstrations against Ky during his visit to Australia next week.

The premier remained in the mortar pit as the crew joined four other nearby mortar crews in firing a barrage. The third round misfired. Flames spurted from the mortar and the faulty round landed in tents 492 feet away.

Snapshot Shows UFO Over Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—Another report of unidentified flying objects (UFO) over Michigan came Wednesday, this time at Detroit—and once again with photographs.

Mark Osterman, 31, a dealer for Cities Service Oil Co., said he saw the object Jan. 3 while photographing a service station on Detroit's West Side.

He produced a small, color photo showing two light yellow oblong objects in the sky above the station. The objects appear to be ringed by halos of light.

The Air Force still investigated a report by two brothers of a UFO over Lake St. Clair near Selfridge Air Force Base.

Dan, 17, and Grant Jaroslaw, 15, also had photographs which they said they took of the object Monday.

Osterman said the objects he saw were in view for about two minutes then departed at "unbelievable speed."

"I've never seen anything move so fast," he said.

Osberman said he was a flight engineer and gunner for the Air Force during the Korean War.

The objects had shiny surfaces reflecting the sun, he said, and left before he had time to take a second picture.

"They were in perfect formation," he said. "They made their stop at the same time—almost like they were joined."

The Federal Aviation Agency reported no unusual objects in the Detroit area on Jan. 5.

Californian Speaks To Valley Union

By GARY GARRISON

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP) — The farm labor movement in California uses funds from the war on poverty to promote union organizing, a California man told South Texas growers Wednesday.

Bruce Obbink, education director of the Council of California Growers, spoke Wednesday to the Valley Industrial Council and the Texas Shippers and Growers Association.

The Valley Industrial Council invited Obbink to the Lower Rio Grande Valley to speak to the organizations. Obbink said his trip was to "bring our experience" to the Texas growers.

A $250,000 grant from the war on poverty to the National Farm Workers Association to "elevate farm workers in their homes" was held up by legislators after the growers voiced objections.

He said a similar grant to the California Center for Community Development was to "organize the rural poor" and to "educate them."

Obbink said students at the center were being trained in labor organizing fundamentals.

"Never before have the professional organizers come by such a windfall as the war on poverty," he told the growers.

"We find ourselves being fought with our own money and in greater quantities than we can accumulate ourselves," he said.

Obbink spent five months in Delano, Calif., during the grape workers strike as a representative of the growers.

Lodge Predicts Fewer Casualties

EDITOR'S NOTE — Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge is about to return to his post in Saigon. In this exclusive interview, he gives his views on the outlook for 1967, the impact of the bombing of North Vietnamese targets, the results of the American military action in terms of world peace.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge predicted today a downturn in the percentage of American casualties in Vietnam this year.

"The war would be pretty nearly over," Lodge added, once success is achieved in wiping out the threat from hard-core terrorists to Vietnamese villagers. But he gave no date on when he thought this slower, pacification task might be completed.

Lodge spoke in an interview with The Associated Press prior to his departure for Saigon Saturday after a month in the United States on home leave and consultation.

He met Wednesday with President Johnson. Afterward, he told reporters U.S. forces may win military victory over organized Red troops this year but this would not automatically end the war.

As Lodge outlined it in his interview, there are actually four kinds of war being fought in South Vietnam — the conventional military operation against large units, weeding out terrorists, development of a constitutional political system which is under way, and the economic battle in which inflation has been successfully "staved off" at this point.

U.S. troops have been searching out Viet Cong and North Vietnamese army units. The American forces now total around 400,000 and they have been suffering about 100 killed a week.

"I believe the purely military part of the war — which is what the Americans are engaged in — will make tremendous progress in 1967 and that the percentage of American casualties will start declining," Lodge said.

"The weeding out of the terrorists, however, takes longer," he added. "It is almost wholly a job for the Vietnamese.

"Until this is done and until local political institutions are constructed under which a police program and an economic and social program can be conducted, Vietnam cannot stand by itself and will continue to require help."

Pleads Guilty To Charge Of Forgery

He was apprehended for forging a check at Irwin's Jewelry.

'Downtown' Was Right For Petula

By MARY CAMPBELL
AP Newsfeatures Writer

PETULA CLARK, veteran since childhood of British films and recordings, now in her early 30s, says that her record; "Downtown," had those magical "right" ingredients for her. "After years of trying different things you eventually come to the thing that is right."

"Downtown" also was the record which brought Petula Clark to prominent notice in the United States. And it launched its composer, Tony Hatch, into lots of writing, arranging and producing of Petula Clark records —"I know a Place," "My Love," "Sign of the Times," "Who Am I?" and a new one climbing the charts, "Color My World."

"Tony has an enormous rhythmic sense," Miss Clark says, "and very muscled arrangements. I find his writing makes me bend my voice and sing in a different way. I don't know why, maybe it's the only way I can keep with his orchestra. It's them or me."

But the first meeting between Miss Clark and Hatch was not auspicious. He had been hired by her record company and one of his first assignments was to direct her recording session in London.

"I had been used to working with somebody else whom I adored," Miss Clark recalls. "Tony was about 22 and probably scared and I found out later he had been a fan of mine for years. But he put on a very bumptuous sort of attitude and started ordering everybody around. I thought "Who does he think he is?" The first session we had together was pretty explosive, but we eventually sorted it out.

"He used to sit in the cabin during my recordings. One day he asked if he could do an arrangement for me. I'd never heard his work, but I said, "Why not?"

"He did an arrangement and it sort of picked me up and threw me across the room, it was so marvelous.

"Then, when he wrote 'Downtown,' he played the music over to me first because he was a bit doubtful about it. I told him if he could go away and write lyrics up to the standard of the music I thought it would be a great song — even if it wasn't a hit. We didn't realize we were recording a sort of a monster".

"Downtown" was certified as a million seller in the United States March 1, 1965. Over the world it has sold six million copies. Miss Clark recorded it in English, French, German and Italian.

Now, before a recording session, Hatch does the arrangement and rehearses the orchestra. Somebody else conducts during the take. "He goes in the cabin and does the sound balancing. He will mix it in the end, as well. There are no technical tricks in our records at all. If the chemical reaction doesn't come off in the studio, then we haven't got a record. We never overdub anything. We only sometimes add a tiny bit of echo; Tony doesn't like any kind of frills."

This fall, Miss Clark, her husband, Frenchman Claud Wolff, and their daughters, ages 4 and 3, came to the United States from France for several months. During her first engagement, at New York's Copacabana, Warner Brothers recorded four performances. "We may put out an album, 'Live at the Copa,' which might be interesting because I do lots of things which wouldn't normally record." One of them is a song which explains that the petite singer's name is pronounced PetYEWla, but most friends call her Pet.

Miss Clark is appearing on several TV shows this winter, singing in Washington, Las Vegas and Reno, and giving concerts in colleges from the latter part of March through April.

PETULA CLARK

The girls can travel easily this year, the singer says, but next year may not be so easy, with one of them starting school. An international school in Geneva, with branches in New York and Los Angeles, sounds like a good solution — "at least in theory."

Miss Clark says one of the daughters is understanding and sensitive and the other is explosive and a born character. "It would be a pity to knock it all out of her, but we have to watch her.

"But actually they're not beastly children at all. They have good hearts and would never dream of hurting anybody. I would hate them to be spoiled."

Asked about plans for New Year's Eve, Miss Clark said they would be in Reno. "Last year we found ourselves at midnight at a petrol station in Belgium — which wasn't exactly the ideal. I was doing two shows that night and we were driving between shows. The year before I was working in France — on stage at midnight.

"We have to adapt ourselves. I've forgotton what our traditions are."

Three Killed In Muslim Violence

By JERRY CURRY

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Three persons have been killed in violence apparently stemming from an internal dispute in the Black Muslim sect.

Police said Andrew Hoffman, 33, and his wife, Christine, 28, were shot Wednesday by two unidentified pistol-carrying young men as they returned to their home after buying groceries.

The body of Roy Tyson, 27, was found earlier Wednesday in an abandoned canal near the Mississippi River in the Illinois section of the metropolitan area. He had been beaten to death with a brick, police said.

The two men who died were expelled Muslims.

On Monday, police said, the home of Clyde X, St. Louis and Kansas City, Mo., Black Muslim leader, was set on fire by flaming gasoline-filled bottles. Police were seeking the Muslim leader for questioning in connection with the slayings.

Police said they found spent 38-caliber and 25-caliber slugs on the pavement around the bodies of the Hoffman couple.

Hoffman was charged with murder and assault with intent to kill last October after an attack on three Muslims. One, John Moore was killed in the shooting. Hoffman's brother, Timothy, and Clyde X were wounded.

Hoffman had been free on bond pending trial on the murder and assault charges.

Police said they had been searching for Tyson for questioning in connection with the Monday fire-bomb attack on Clyde X's home.

Clyde X, who was born Clyde Jones at Canton, Miss., said Tuesday there was "a slight disagreement over handling of financial matters" among the Muslims in St. Louis. He made the statement after the attack on his home and said he didn't believe that incident had anything to do with the dispute.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has entered the case in connection with the death of Tyson, who was reported kidnaped Tuesday.

Some Food Prices May Show Drop

NEW YORK (AP)—Wholesale food prices have been dropping ever since Thanksgiving, and consumers may reap some of the harvest in the supermarkets this month.

Beef and pork are more plentiful than a year ago and egg prices have dropped 1 to 6 cents a dozen this week. And have you taken a look at oranges and grapefruit?

The lower prices aren't universal, however. And the higher prices paid for fresh meat at the wholesale centers this week may be passed on to consumers this weekend.

Lamb prices generally are higher this week, although they usually are lowest from January through April.

Whatever your family wants for dinner you may find it on special at some store in your area. It will pay to watch store specials.

Egg prices are down nearly everywhere.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture forecast the 1966-1967 orange crop at a record 181,300,000 boxes, up 28 per cent from last year.

There also are bountiful crops of grapefruits, tangerines, tangelos, tangerines and limes, leading to lower prices.

Many stores are offering specials on frozen orange juice concentrate.

Carrots and mixed greens are beginning to move out of Texas, and carrots may offer a good buy in many areas.

A dense cloud blanket protected the Rio Grande Valley's rich citrus fruit crop from a snow storm this week. But a snow in Mexico raised fears that the valuable coffee crop might be destroyed.

Richmond Surgeon Predicts Heart Transplants Coming

By AL EDMONDS

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Some time in the not too distant future, possibly "within five years," a human will receive a heart transplant, according to a surgeon at the Medical College of Virginia.

That is a reluctant prediction of Dr. Richard J. Cleveland, one of two surgeons who have transplanted hearts from dead dogs to live ones. Some of the dogs lived more than 48 hours without additional treatment.

Dr. Cleveland's hesitance stems from the awareness that premature conjecture might lead to false hopes by persons with chronic or terminal heart disease.

The prediction was made after disclosure that Dr. Cleveland and Dr. Richard R. Lower have successfully transplanted dog cadaver hearts.

The experiments were outlined in a paper prepared by the surgeons for a transplantation conference in Santa Barbara, Calif.

Explaining the paper in an interview Wednesday, Dr. Cleveland said that of the first 10 dogs receiving cadaver hearts, eight lived more than 48 hours without treatment to combat the natural rejection reaction that occurs in humans and animals.

Other canines who received transplants from living donors have lived more than a year, he said.

The natural reaction of a body receiving a transplanted organ is to reject it, Dr. Cleveland said. The rejection rate among kidney transplants has been high. Death often results from potent antirejection drugs.

It's possible the heart may not be as incompatible as the kidney, Dr. Cleveland said. "This is just an impression. I wouldn't want to say this is based on scientific fact."

Consequently, efforts are centered on development of new drugs to combat rejection, and experiments to preserve cadaver hearts "for what we consider to be a prolonged period of time."

Dr. Cleveland said dogs used in the experiments were "completely unmatched animals," having only the same size in common.

Police Chief To Seminar

Police Chief Chester Simons has received an invitation to attend a University of Texas workshop on supervision and management.

It will be held Jan. 15 through Jan. 20 at the Lakeway Inn in Austin. It is sponsored by the Texas Police Chiefs Association and participation is by invitation only.

Most of the participants will be police chiefs from the larger cities of the state. However, Chief Simons was invited because he will be an instructor at a similar seminar for police chiefs from smaller towns in April.

Bengals Invade Cub Stronghold Friday

The Snyder Tigers travel to Brownfield Friday for an 8:15 p.m. clash with the Cubs in an important District 3-AAA basketball game. Tipoff will follow a battle between the "B" teams of both schools at 6:15 p.m.

With everyone in good health and a one-sided win over Littlefield fresh under their belts, the Bengals are taking over the "dark horse" role in the district race. However, Brownfield always is tough at home and probably will be ready for a maximum effort after a humiliating loss at Sweetwater Tuesday.

The Cubs have a 1-2 district mark. Their other loss was a close tilt with Levelland. Snyder is 2-2 in district play. Other Friday tussles find Lamesa at Littlefield and Lake View at Levelland while Sweetwater enjoys an open date.

Coach Ned Underwood's crew is lacking in height but appears to be reasonably strong in all phases of the game. Probable starters include Mickey Almond, Tommy Bullard, Eldon Woodward, Bobby Clardy and Langston Powell or Frankie Grimmett. Grimmett, a 6-1 junior, has shown marked improvement of late.

Brownfield was hard hit by graduation, losing six lettermen. However, five numeral winners return. They are Jerry Timmons, (5-10), Reggie Martin (5-11), Eddie Roberson (6-4), Larry Sansom (6-3) and Mike Webster (6-0). All are probable starters for Coach Kirby Pugh.

The homefield advantage and the fact that the Cubs are always tough on their home court should make the game about even before the tipoff.

Board Fires Bain, Former Coach Prexy

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP)—Giving no reason for its action, the Longview Independent School District board of trustees refused Wednesday night to renew the contract of head football coach Ty Bain for 1967.

Bain, a former president of the Texas Coaches Association, had a 17-21-2 record at Longview the past four years. He was 5-3-2 last season.

Bain, a former assistant coach at Southern Methodist and Texas A&M, was former head coach at Kilgore and Mexia.

Little Salukis Slap Louisville, 53 To 50

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern Illinois is not considered a major college basketball power. Convince Texas Western and Louisville.

The Salukis from Carbondale, Ill., 59-54 conquerors of Texas Western, the defending major college champion, upended previously unbeaten Louisville 53-50 Wednesday night.

Southern Illinois has a higher national ranking than either Texas Western or Louisville, but there is a difference — the Salukis top The Associated Press small college rankings while Louisville is No. 2 and Texas Western sixth among the major schools.

As for rankings, Coach Jack Hartman of Southern Illinois said after the latest victory, "They don't put anything on the scoreboard."

Well, they do put the score on it, and because Walt Frazier made five foul shots in the last 66 seconds, Wednesday night it was the right kind of score for the eighth time in 10 games this season for the Salukis. Their only losses have been to Southern Methodist 66-64 and to Louisville 70-66 in overtime.

The only other member of the major college Top Ten to see action Wednesday night was North Carolina, and the Tar Heels came from eight points behind in the second half to nip North Carolina State 79-78 for their 12th victory in 13 games.

Bob Lewis led North Carolina with 25 points, and Rusty Clark and Larry Miller chipped in with 20 and 16, respectively. Dick Brauchers 24 led State.

A brief fight broke out just after the final buzzer at Chapel Hill when a fan exchanged blows with State's Robert McLean. Order was restored quickly.

In the game at Carbondale, Southern Illinois built up a 27-16 lead in the first half only to see Louisville cut the margin to 29-26 at intermission. With 4:35 left in the game, Southern Illinois led 46-44, then after the two teams exchanged baskets, Frazier wrapped it up with his free throws.

Sophomore Dick Garrett scored 18 points and Frazier 16 for Southern Illinois. Westley Unseld led Louisville, now 13-1, with 23, and Butch Beard added 17.

Super Bowl No Sellout

LOS ANGELES (AP)— Kansas City and Green Bay will both show up for Sunday's Super Bowl game, but the anticipated sellout crowd probably will not.

"I thought we would have a sellout and we might still have it," said Commissioner Pete Rozelle Wednesday. "But it would be hard to get a sellout at this point."

Rozelle said that some 55,000 to 60,000 seats have been sold for the game, leaving more than 30,000 seats to go in order to fill the 93,000-seat Los Angeles Coliseum.

Rozelle pointed to the blackout backlash — the game will not be televised in the Los Angeles area and a suit was brought to force the lifting of the blackout—and the price scale of $6, $10 and $12 as two of the factors cutting into the sale of tickets.

Rozelle also revealed that the Super Bowl winner would meet the College All-Stars in Chicago in August and announced record attendance figures for both the NFL and AFL.

NFL attendance rose to 5,337,138 compared to 4,624,621 in 1965 while AFL attendance climbed from 1,782,384 to 2,160,369.

Perry Gets Raise

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Right-hander Gaylord Perry, a 21-8 performer with the San Francisco Giants in 1966 with his best season, has signed a 1967 contract at an estimated $40,000.

Perry, the first pitcher to win 20 games last season, earned a raise of about $10,000. The Giants boosted his pay last season when he posted his 20th victory Aug. 20.

Only three major league hurlers won more games in 1966 than Gaylord, lanky 28-year-old North Carolinian who winters at Williamston. They were Sandy Koufax with 27, and the Giants' Juan Marichal and the Minnesota Twins' Jim Kaat with 25 each.

Big Mustang Hurt

DALLAS (AP) — Southern Methodist may have to play Rice Saturday in a Southwest Conference basketball game without its ace pivotman, Bob Begert, who sustained a severe ankle sprain in practice yesterday.

Begert was a doubtful participant in the game. It was at first feared he had cracked the ankle, but X-rays were negative.

SAYS CLAY

It's The Champ Vs. Pretender

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay says his title bout with Ernie Terrell in the Astrodome Feb. 6 is the "battle of the champ and the so-called champ."

"Terrell is a one-handed fighter,' Clay said. "Everybody knows that. All he's got is a left jab. Since he stole half of my title, I call him 'the one-armed bandit.'"

Clay began training for the fight Wednesday by going two rounds each at the Astrodome with sparring partners Mel Turnbow and Jimmy Ellis.

Terrell, recognized as heavyweight champion by the World Boxing Association, arrives in Houston next Monday.

The fight will be Clay's second in the Astrodome. He successfully defended his title by stopping Cleveland Williams last Nov. 14 in the domed structure's first boxing match.

Angelo Dundee, Clay's trainer, called Terrell the champion's most dangerous opponent.

"What we have to do is stop him (Terrell) from grabbing and clutching and the best way to do that is hit him in the belly until his hands come down...and then nail him," Dundee said.

"What we're doing right now is working on strength because this fellow (Terrell) is a strong heavyweight for seven rounds.

"We've got to nullify his jab. We've got to beat him to it, surround him and get around it, get inside and outside of the jab and let shots go from either direction."

Clay listed potential future opponents if he gets by Terrell as Zora Folley, Thad Spencer and "that young fellow Joe Frazier."

"This is not the real me up here," Clay told an estimated 450 fans. "Pay no attention to how I look in the gym. I'm just getting into shape. On the night of Feb. 6 all hell's going to break loose."

Cage Clash Could Decide Standings

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Super Bowl football game is the big event coming up on the nation's sports schedule to almost everyone except possibly the basketball-minded folks of Owensboro, Ky., and Carbondale, Ill.

That's because next Monday night in Owensboro, Southern Illinois of Carbondale and Kentucky Wesleyan, the No. 1 and No. 2 teams in The Associated Press' small-college basketball poll, meet for the first time this season.

Southern Illinois took over first place from the Panthers in the latest poll. The Salukis, though, lead by only two points.

In the balloting by a national panel of 19 sports writers and broadcasters, Southern Illinois collected 171 points and Kentucky Wesleyan 169 on a basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second, etc. The Salukis were named the top team on nine ballots and the Panthers on seven.

Southern Illinois beat Indiana State in its only game last week for a 6-2 mark while Kentucky Wesleyan, unbeaten in eight games, downed Evansville and Tennessee State.

There were no changes in the next three positions with Cheyney State occupying third place followed by Akron and Grambling.

Pan American, which won of its games last week, advanced three places to sixth. Indiana State, San Diego State, Tennessee State and Lincoln of Jefferson City, Mo., complete the Top Ten in that order.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses and total points:

1.	Southern Ill. (9)	171
2.	Ky. Wesleyan (7)	169
3.	Cheyney State (2)	125
4.	Akron	104
5.	Grambling	93
6.	Pan American	48
7.	Indiana State	45
8.	San Diego State	45
9.	Tenn. State	42
10.	Lincoln (1)	19

Schmidt To Put Heart In Lions!

By WHITEY SAWYER
Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT (AP) — Joe Schmidt, the new coach of the Detroit Lions, says he'll try to start the club back to National Football League power with a number of trades and a massive injection of pride.

"I definitely feel we have to make some trades," he said after signing Wednesday. "I have a free hand. I can do anything in the line of trades. Naturally," he added, "I won't go off half cocked. I'll confer with General Manager Russ Thomas and owner William Clay Ford before I do anything.

"At one time," Schmidt said, "this team had a lot of pride. I intend to reinstill that pride in this team."

Schmidt said that a team with a lot of pride plays better and pulls together better.

Schmidt, 34, was a linebacker for 13 years for the Lions. He joined them as a seventh draft choice from the University of Pittsburgh in 1953. He was named to the Pro Bowl squad 10 times during his 13 seasons, captained the Lions nine straight years, was voted to the NFL All-Pro team on eight occasions and was named the Lions' most valuable player four times.

He retired after the 1965 season and served last season as an assistant coach, working with the linebackers.

Schmidt replaces Harry Gilmer, fired last week after two losing seasons, the latest a 4-9-1 mark.

Schmidt signed a five-year contract Wednesday, reportedly for something in the neighborhood of $50,000 a year.

He said he will take his time about picking assistants and will seek the best possible. He said some of Gilmer's staff would be considered.

TOUGH ASSIGNMENT

Dawson Looks For Packer Weak Spot

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Kansas City quarterback Len Dawson took apart the Green Bay defense today without throwing a pass—and found that in Sunday's Super Bowl game he'll be firing against the equivalent of Boston's front four, Buffalo's linebackers and Oakland's secondary.

Ticking off attributes and personality of Green Bay's defensive forces, Dawson drew a comparison with the units of three American Football League teams.

"The Packers front four are extremely quick, like Boston's," Dawson said, "and like Boston they're a veteran group which plays extremely well together."

The comparison aligned Green Bay's front four of 245 - pound Willie Davis, 260 - pound Ron Kostelnik, 250 - pound Henry Jordan and 245 - pound Lionel Aldridge with Boston's up front line of 250-pound Larry Eisenhauer, 270-pound Houston Antwine, 245 - pound Jim Hunt and 240-pound Bob Dee.

"The Green Bay linebackers are like Buffalo's," Dawson went on, "big, strong, fast, and they tackle very well. The ball carrier doesn't fake them out. The're tough, they hit.

That comparison set Green Bay's linebackers—245 - pound Dave Robinson, 240-pound Ray Nitschke and 250-pound Lee Roy Caffey against the Bills' trio of 240-pound Mike Stratton, 225-pound Harry Jacobs and 225 - pound John Tracey.

"The Green Bay defensive backs are most like Oakland's," Dawson said as he completed his breakdown. "They're real solid at the corners and they all react very well."

Green Bay's cornerbacks are Herb Adderley and Bob Jeter, Oakland's Kent McCloughan and Dave Grayson. The Packer safeties are Willie Wood and Tom Brown, the Raiders' Rodger Bird and Warren Powers.

Having completed his breaking down of the Green Bay defense into the three components, Dawson then put it back together again and said:

"There's no doubt they're going to present a problem. They pressure you extremely well, and like Boston they have a lot of second effort. If you knock them down, you've got to lay on them—or they'll get back into the play.

"But," Dawson added, "that doesn't mean they present a problem we can't overcome.

"We have the tools. The reason why we have been successful is that we haven't had to rely on one guy. If they double on Otis Taylor, we'll go somewhere else. If they stop Mike Garrett, we'll go to Curt McClinton, or Chris Burford or Fred Arbanas.

"If they go somewhere to stop something—they've got to be vulnerable somewhere else.

"That's my job — finding where."

NBA Adds San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The National Basketball Association has added San Diego to its roster, raising to 12 its entries for the 1967-68 season.

NBA Commissioner J. Walter Kennedy announced Wednesday that San Diego was granted a franchise, joining Seattle as a new team for next season.

Kennedy said the team is owned by San Diego Sports Enterprises, which operates the new San Diego International Sports Arena and owns the San Diego Gulls of the Western Hockey League.

Robert Breitbard, president of Sports Enterprises, will also head the new NBA club, which will play in the International Sports Arena.

The corporation payed $1,750,000 for the new franchise, approved Tuesday in San Francisco, Kennedy said.

The team will obtain its players in a draft from the present NBA rosters. Each of the 10 existing teams will give up three players, with San Diego and Seattle filling 15-man squads.

Big O Paces Royal Win

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

When the Cincinnati Royals add one in the victory column, it's usually because of the Big O.

It was that way again Thursday night in the National Basketball Association, when the Royals eked out a 106-102 triumph over the Bulls at Chicago as Robertson scored 36 points and contributed 21 assists.

The Big O, held to just one field goal in the first quarter, hit on seven of nine attempts in the second to lift the Royals to a 48-49 halftime lead. Then after Chicago fought back from a 16-point deficit to trail by just two points at 100-98, Robertson's shooting and ball handling enabled the Royals to hold on.

In the only other game, the Lakers turned back San Francisco 141-126 at Los Angeles. It was the Lakers' first victory over the Warriors in six outings this season.

Jerry West and Elgin Baylor triggerd the triumph with 44 and 29 points, respectively. Rick Barry the league's leading scorer kept San Francisco in contention with 32 points.

Los Angeles erupted in the first period after Tom Hawkins was banished for throwing a punch at Barry. Los Angeles opened a 38-28 lead and built it to 74-56 at halftime while shooting at a 57 per cent clip in the first half.

Sweetwater Vs. Travis

Two exciting Junior High School basketball games were on tap today with Sweetwater's 8th and 9th grade teams scheduled to meet Travis in the Blue Devil gym. Tipoffs were set for 5 p.m. in the 8th grade clash and 6:30 p.m. in the 9th grade tussle.

Lamar originally was scheduled to tangle with Colorado City today, but the tilts were cancelled.

The two highest series turned in by bowlers over 70 during the 1965-66 season were 711s by Pete Cusmano of Miami, Fla., and Joe Bono of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Signs Of Easier Credit Are Noted

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Money remains tight in many parts of the nation but signs of easier credit are mounting.

The first chink in the 6 per cent prime interest rate that banks charge their favored customers for loans came Wednesday when a relatively small Minnesota institution reduced its rate from 6 per cent to 5.75 per cent.

Isolated action by the National City Bank of Minneapolis surprised many bankers but it was hailed by the Treasury Department.

"The Treasury is heartened and pleased at this early movement in the direction of lower interest rates that the President advocated in the State of the Union message," the department said in response to an inquiry.

President Johnson, in proposing a 6 per cent surcharge on income and corporation taxes Tuesday night in his message to Congress, said it was partly designed to keep the economy growing without new inflationary strain and to move toward easier credit and lower interest rates.

The Minneapolis bank's action, although unique, was not the only sign of an easing Wednesday.

First National City Bank, New York's largest, announced a cut in the interest rate it will pay on some long-term certificates of deposit.

The rate since last spring has been 5.5 per cent on certificates maturing in 30 days or more. First National City cut the rate on maturities of nine months and longer to 5¾ per cent.

Banks raised their interest rates on deposits last year in an attempt to attract new savings

In an unrelated action, the Provident Savings Bank in Baltimore announced a 10 per cent cut in the down payment required on a new home in order to obtain a mortgage, and a 5 per cent cut on the down payment for an older home.

Provident also said it is encouraging home buyers to apply for loans. Lack of money last year forced many institutions to reject loan applications.

Action by Provident followed within hours an announcement by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board that it is making $1 billion available to mutual savings banks, and savings and loan associations for residential mortgages.

The board said the money became available because of the currently better financial position of the thrift institutions.

The prime rate is a charge for loans to a bank's most creditworthy customers, usually large corporations, but other interest rates are scaled upward from it. The prime rate was increased three times last year, finally to 6 per cent in August.

Walter W. Heller, former chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, who suggested last month a surtax similar to the one proposed by President Johnson, is a director of the Minneapolis bank and recommended the lower rates in a yearend report.

There was little indication elsewhere in the nation, however, that the Minneapolis lead would be followed.

Justifiable Homicide Ruled

DEWEYVILLE, Tex. (AP)— A justice of the peace has ruled justifiable homicide in the slaying of a 17-year-old youth by a Newton County deputy sheriff.

Donald Wayne Meek, 17, of Houston and Mauriceville, was shot to death Wednesday when authorities said he pulled a pistol on two deputies and ordered the release from jail of a companion.

Russell Lee MacDonald, 19, Meek's companion, also of Houston, was being held on a charge of illegal possession of liquor.

Newton County Sheriff Curtis Humphreys said Meek was shot by Deputy Sheriff Larry Hryhorchuk.

Humphries said Hryhorchuk found two youths in a car outside a cafe and arrested them for possession of liquor by a minor. He took them to the jail substation here and called Orange Deputy Max Boatman.

The sheriff said Hryhorchuk and Boatman placed McDonald in a cell and began searching Meek. He said Meek then pulled a .45 caliber automatic pistol from under his coat and ordered McDonald's release.

Hryhorchuk said he managed to slip out the door and the youth marched Boatman out the front door and again ordered him to release McDonald.

Boatman managed to escape by running around the corner of the jail, Hryhorchuk said.

"The boy had gotten to the car by that time but he still had the .45 leveled on me. That's when I shot him," Hryhorchuk said.

Viet Conflict Like A Fog Over LBJ's Political Future

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The war in Vietnam, now one of the greatest guessing games in the 20th century, hangs like a fog over Lyndon B. Johnson's presidency and his future.

No one knows it better than Johnson. This seems clear from both the tone and the nature of the State of the Union message he delivered to Congress this week.

He took over the presidency like a fireball, setting Congress ablaze with his program and his gusto in his first two full White House years, 1964 and 1965.

In the beginning Vietnam still seemed a little remote. While the United States was helping the South fight off the Communist attacks from the North, its role there was less than all-out.

But always Vietnam was a kind of open wound. It began to fester as the resistance of the South weakened and the chances of a Communist takeover increased. Gradually Johnson put the United States fully into the war.

He has talked much about it often with explanations which sounded noble and unselfish, like preserving the right of a people, such as the South Vietnamese, to preserve their independence and choose their own way of government.

But along with these fine phrases he has consistently given another explanation which was not unselfish: that the United States fears, if the Communists can swallow South Vietnam, in time they will swallow all Southeast Asia.

And that, the Johnson administration feels, as did the Eisenhower and Kennedy administrations before it, is something this country can't sit idly by and permit since, in the long run, American interests would be endangered.

As Johnson put this country deeper into the fighting, criticism of him at home increased, along with the expense of fighting the war.

If the war continues indefinitely, his future may be dim, his chances of re-election ruined and his place in history spoiled. An acute awareness of all this appeared to dominate his State of the Union message.

Although full of vitality, it was subdued, as if Johnson wished to avoid new antagonisms. For instance, there was nothing inflammatory about what he said on civil rights. And what he did say was vague.

It was the war which dominated the speech, although he crowded mention of it into the tail-end of what he said. His call for a tax boost, to help pay for the war, affects most Americans and brought him some new criticism.

And, for a man who wishes as strongly as Johnson for presidential success, it must have been a bitter acknowledgement when he informed Congress and the country he didn't know how long the war would last.

Nevertheless, he said this country would see it through.

Yet, a talk made that same day by U Thant, secretary-general of the United Nations, showed how far apart the two basic views of the war are and how, as a result, the arguments for and against the war are a giant guessing game.

Thant disagreed with the Johnson position that South Vietnam's freedom from communism is vital to American interests. In short, both sides are guessing, since neither can positively predict the future.

Johnson is basing his belief, and therefore the American position, on the past performance of communism. This is a grim view, but realistic. Those who share Thant's view are the optimists of the world, hoping for the best.

Junior Editors Quiz on TEXAS

QUESTION: How did Texas get its name?

* * *

ANSWER: Texas is a huge state; you would have to put Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan together to equal it. Actually, at one time Texas was an independent nation, with a national flag of its own showing one star. After Texas joined the union in 1845, it kept this as its state flag, which is why it is called The Lone Star State. There is an interesting relation between the Texans and the name of the state. Tejas was a word of the Caddo Indian tribe living in northeast Texas when the Spaniards arrived. This word meant friends. The Spanish pronounced this so that it sounded like Texas and so the area got its name. Texans are truly friendly people as strangers who travel through their area find out. Our artist has tried to catch an impression of a big friendly rawboned rancher in this picture. The Texas prairies are among the best areas in the United States for raising cattle but Texas also produces an immense amount of oil—more than any other state. It also holds first rank among the states in mining.

FOR YOU TO DO: You all have heard of Davy Crockett. Find out how his story relates to that of the state of Texas.

Memory Is Life's Salvation

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the worst things that can happen in life is the retreat of memory.

What a salvation, a glory and a citadel memory is to mankind! How meaningful it makes the march of existence. In the midst of present wonders, it reminds us of the wonders before.

But, of course, memory isn't just the prisoner of the elderly. The first fierceness of a child's groping is to find something worth remembering and coming back to.

And you probably have the flavor of many dear memories in your own heart if you can look back and remember when—

Houses were built so that everybody kissed each other good night on the ground floor and then they went to bed upstairs.

No one could pretend they were older or younger than they were because their birth date was written down in the family Bible, the big book with the dust on it.

The only people who came into the house through the front door were encyclopedia salesmen or insurance collectors. At that time, for 10 cents a week, you could buy enough insurance to bury a child but not to educate him.

Irish people from Philadelphia visiting Irish relatives in Kansas City, Mo., expected that on arrival they would have to grope their way through dangerous Indians.

In any big town in America you could give a nickel to the street car conductor and get anywhere that was worth going to.

The height of sophistication was to see a vaudeville comedian a year after the first time you saw him, so that you could chuckle at the start of his familiar joke.

Old men, after the labor of their manhood was done, would sometimes turn their restless fingers to the intricate making of quilts—anything to do that kept them busy and prideful.

Most arguments in America were about the interpretation of the Bible and what the weather would be next.

You could always be a local intellectual if you spread the rumor around that you were taking a correspondence course in any subject. If you got a lot of mail, even the mailman had a higher opinion of you.

One of the ways a homely girl got attention was to tell fortunes through hand-reading. So often her heart was embalmed in her judgment of the outstretched male palm.

In every block in America there was a mentally unbalanced persons, by birth or later circumstance, but everybody else in the block knew he was, and that was part of life, and it was better to keep him at home where he was known than to send him away to where he wasn't known. He belonged to the neighborhood.

The greatest family fun was to sit thoughtful before the fireplace and hear mother play the piano while sister sang a lovely old song, such as "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming."

The Los Angeles Dodgers beat all but two National League teams in their season series. They divided 18 games with both the Giants and Pirates.

Grain-Sharing Plan Progresses

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — The United States and the European Common Market are moving toward a wide agreement on the sharing of man's basic food — grain.

Some progress may be made today at a meeting of cabinet ministers from the six Common Market countries: France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg. The main battle will be fought in Geneva.

If an accord is reached, it will cover the whole non-Communist world and form an essential part of the Kennedy Round agreements on trade. It will cover not only the grains that humans eat, such as wheat and rye, but the feed grains needed for raising poultry, beef, pigs and other meat animals. The deadline for the Kennedy Round is June 30.

The idea of the agreement is to stabilize prices, production and markets. The United States also would like to make it a system for supplying aid to underdeveloped countries, especially India.

India's needs have absorbed a large proportion of the U.S. grain surplus, which has about disappeared. The United States wants other affluent countries to share the burden.

The Common Market opposes putting aid arrangements in the grain agreement. The agreement, it says, should be about trade — not aid. It wants aid to be considered a different matter and handled elsewhere.

American farmers have also been worried about losing their excellent market for grain, especially feed grain, in Western Europe. The United States now sells the Common Market more than 10 million tons of feed grain a year, a large and increasingly important item in the effort to balance U.S. international payments and stop the outflow of gold.

The United States also sells wheat to Europe, but with rising prosperity West Europeans no longer eat as much bread and they have an increasing appetite for beef — much of its fed on American corn.

The American fear is that high prices guaranteed to farmers in the Common Market will encourage France to produce more. At the same time, high duties levied by the Common Market would keep American sales down.

A system has been devised to overcome this fear. Each area in the agreement would accept a "self-sufficiency rate."

The Common Market would be treated as a single area. The rate would be roughly equal to the percentage of its own requirements that the area has been producing in recent years, the rest being imported.

If an area should exceed its self-sufficiency rate, thus cutting down its imports, it would have to take remedial action.

Wheeler Defends US Policy

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Gen. Earle C. Wheeler, the chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, said today that U.S. strategy in Vietnam for 1967 is a dynamic one of "keeping the pressure on the enemy and maintaining the initiative we seized a year ago."

"We've taken the initiative away from the enemy," Wheeler said. "He's taken some heavy blows and he is going to get more. Any hope that the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese had of achieving a military victory is gone."

Speaking at a news conference near the end of a five-day visit to Vietnam, Wheeler also:

—Predicted an increase in U.S. operations in the Mekong Delta but refused to go into details.

—Opposed calling off U.S. air raids against North Vietnam.

—Said it is impossible to say whether the present internal turmoil in Red China will affect China's support of the North Vietnamese.

—Praised American airmen for a "magnificent job" and described the U.S. soldier in Vietnam as the best he has seen in three wars.

Wheeler also said he felt allied forces could cope with the infiltration of North Vietnamese troops, currently estimated at 8,000 a month.

"I am confident," Wheeler said, "that we have the forces to take care of any military effort the enemy cares to mount."

Tax Hike Battle Just Beginning

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — President Johnson has given in the past year a performance in the fiscal matters of dollars, taxes and budgets that belies the common feeling that there is little drama in such things.

The controversy of to tax or not to tax has raged for many months now. Because of the President's recommendation Tuesday for a 6 per cent income tax surcharge, the controversy will continue for many more months.

Nearly one year after pressure developed for a general tax increase, the President made his move. Pressure came first from critics, later from some economists of his own persuasion and then, presumably, from his inner circle.

At first, Johnson did not act with any grand sweep. He promised to cut spending. And he suspended the 6 per cent investment tax credit on the premise that capital expansion was becoming inflationary. He also speeded tax payments.

He made no move, however, toward a general tax increase aimed at cooling an inflated economy. He retained his flexibility of action. He refused to be committed to rigid new tax laws that could not be applied sensitively.

The present economy, though still strong in some areas, has slowed considerably. One economic indicator after another shows this.

Johnson's emphasis in his State of the Union message, then, was not on cooling an overheated economy but in raising money to pay the bills for Vietnam and his domestic programs.

The tax controversy now is very unlike that of a year ago. An increase now, the critics say, might worsen an economy that has lost much of its vitality. In fact, no matter how good our times are, they say, some parts of the civilian economy are almost in the midst of a recession.

How did this slowdown occur? Partly because of natural economic forces: inflation, inbalances, inability to meet demands, a drop in confidence. To a great extent, however, it followed the application of monetary policy which, with fiscal policy, is the steering, accelerating and braking mechanism of the economy.

Early in 1966 members of the Federal Reserve were among those critics who felt the administration should use fiscal policy — pending cuts, taxes — to bring about a slowdown.

The administration did act, but it made no broad move.

In actions that are still controversial — as statements by the President show — the Federal Reserve exercised its right to control the flow of money into the economy. It slowed the flow to member banks. It raised interest rates.

All this revolves around the same core question: Who was right, who was wrong in economic policy in 1966? Many businessmen and, presumably Fed officials, feel Johnson was wrong. Johnson, and some economists of various persuasions, feel the Fed clamped down too tightly.

The answer now belongs to the historians. Johnson has made his move.

The surcharge is to last two years or "for so long as the unusual expenditures associated with our efforts in Vietnam continue'." It also might never be passed. The arguments are just beginning.

A&M Technician To Join Cruise

RICH LOBSTER WATERS

Fishermen Held In Shooting

By JAMES MOORHEAD

MARATHON, Fla. (AP) — Federal agents held three lobster fishermen for questioning today after a gun battle on the high seas over rich lobster territory off Cuba.

A crewman was killed and a captain was injured in the battle in the Atlantic Wednesday.

The three men were whisked away by federal agents after a Coast Guard cutter brought them ashore.

They were identified as Raymond C. Vanyo of Key West, skipper of the Trojan, and two crewman on the Trojan, Nevin Robert Kitz and George Broome. No charges were placed against them.

The incident, which occurred in the area of Dog Rocks near Cay Sal off the Cuba coast, was the latest outbreak among Floridas lobstermen who guard their traps carefully.

The dead crewman was identified by friends as Vernon Austin, of Marathon, the father of six.

Wounded was William A. Branthoover, 33, skipper of the 39-foot Bahama Mama. Branthoover was reported in fair condition in a Miami hospital. He said the shooting among the fisherman lasted about an hour.

Austin was on board the Billy J., sister boat of the Bahama Mama. Also aboard the Billy J. was John Miller, Branthoover's father-in-law.

Feuds among lobster fishermen are not uncommon in Florida — mainly because the traps are easy prey to passing boats.

Even weekend sailors can lift the traps and collect dozens of lobster in a few hours.

A good fisherman can make $15,000 to $20,000 a year in Florida's $12-million lobster business.

Big operators have been complaining to authorities that their traps are being attacked by what they call "cheapies" who secure license for a small legitimate operation but later clean out other traps.

New Method Needed To Scare Antelope

FARMINGTON, N.M. (AP) — A herd of 30 antelope has been causing damage to wheat fields and orchards in the Farmington area.

The New Mexico Department of Game and Fish decided last week to use a helicopter to frighten the antelope into pens so they could be transported further east.

The fleet-footed antelope largely ignored the helicopter and still are on the range. The reason: their present range is close to the Farmington airport and they are used to low-flying aircraft, game officials explained.

Lawmen Applaud Pledge Of Aid

By HAL COOPER

NEW YORK (AP) President Johnson's promise of big-scale federal aid for states and cities in the fight against crime won plaudits from coast to coast today.

Many municipal officials said transfusions from the Treasury are the only answer to the rising cost of law enforcement.

Others declared that crime is a national problem and that Congress has an obligation to provide funds to help keep it in check.

A typical comment came from Police Commissioner Ray Girardin of Detroit, who said: "We have reached the point where the cities cannot adequately finance all police services that cities should have. I hope Congress will implement the program by making funds available.

"It's an uphill fight without it, but with this help I feel Detroit and other cities can get on top of the crime situation."

O.W. Wilson, superintendent of Chicago police, said the President's program deserves "the support of all citizens."

The President, in his State of the Union message to Congress Tuesday night, proposed a "safe streets and crime control act" which would provide federal assistance in three categories:

1. 90 percent of the cost of developing state and local anti-crime plans.

2. 60 percent of the cost of training police tactical units and introducing up-to-date equipment and techniques.

3. 50 percent of the cost of crime laboratories and police academies.

Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York described the President's proposal as "timely."

He added: "New York City is already developing fast-moving tactical units, an instant communications system and a modern police academy. We are very hopeful that the President's message presages significantly broader federal support for our vital law enforcement programs."

TV Hookup Completed

GREENVILLE, Tex. (AP) — The first phase toward activation of a closed circuit educa-up Northeast Texas colleges and universities with industrial plan was completed Wednesday.

The first link-up was between LTV Electrosystems, Inc., just north of Greenville, with Southern Methodist University at Dallas, about 40 airline miles to the southwest.

In Dallas, a spokesman for the coordinating agency—the Association for Graduate Education and Research in North Texas (TAGER)—said seven other institutions and industrial plants would be joining the system within five to seven months.

He named the following:

General Dynamics, Fort Worth; LTV Electrosystems, Inc., Grand Prairie; Texas Instruments, Inc., Dallas; Southwest Center for Advanced Studies, Dallas, Austin College, Sherman; and Texas Christian University, Fort Worth.

SMU and LTV officials said the operation is designed to boost graduate engineering study for company employes by bringing the classroom into the plants.

Lani Bird's Orbit Good

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Communications Satellite Corp. said today its newest spacecraft, Lani Bird 2, appears to be in a satisfactory transfer orbit.

This means that the craft's looping course once around the earth every 11 hours may place it in the proper position to be propelled into a synchronous orbit 22,300 miles above the earth at the equator.

At the proper time late Friday or Saturday the small apogee motor aboard the spacecraft will be fired to kick Lani into a velocity matching the rotational speed of the earth.

If this and other maneuvers succeed, Lani Bird will provide a communications link between North America and the Far East.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration launched drum-shaped, 192-pound satellite, known officially as Intelsat II, from Cape Kennedy, Fla., early Wednesday.
