Tunnell Appointed To Texas RR Commission

To Replace Thompson

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. John Connally appointed Texas House Speaker Byron Tunnell of Tyler today as Railroad Commissioner to replace Ernest O. Thompson, who resigned.

Tunnell, 39, was considered a virtual certainty to win re-election as Speaker when the legislature convenes Tuesday. He has served eight years as a legislator and is a firm conservative.

Connally said Tunnell's resignation as a legislator has been accepted and the governor will call a special election in Gregg and Smith counties, District 15F, so a successor can be elected soon.

Tunnel said he probably will take the oath of office for his new job Monday.

"For one reason I want to get in touch with some people," he said, a broad grin on his face. "My daughter, father and some other important people are not even aware of this at the moment."

Tunnell said he was first asked about the commission job Thursday morning.

"It was the biggest surprise I have ever had in my life," Tunnell said.

Tunnell's resignation from the legislature left the important and influential job of speaker open to possibly half a dozen aspirants. Tunnell said he would make no recommendations.

Connally said he received Thompson's resignation earlier this week but had delayed disclosing it in hopes that he could "arrange some plan or program that could adequately recognize" Thompson's service to the state.

He said he had not been able to develop such recognition and he was making the commission change today "because your (reporters') sleuthing Thursday forces me to make known the resignation."

Connally said Tunnell fulfills all the needs of a railroad commissioner—"he is young and has a lifetime of service ahead of him. I can think of no person more able to serve the people of Texas than Byron Tunnell."

Tunnell shook hands with Connally and grinned.

"When that bell rings Jan. 12 I am a little saddened I will not be coming out of the corner," Tunnell said. "At the same time I am overwhelmed and extremely honored to have a part in this extremely important job."

Tunnell is a graduate of Tyler High School. He was a Navy flier during World War II. He attended Tyler Junior College and Baylor University. He was assistant district attorney of Smith County for almost three years then went into private practice. He has been state representative during four legislatures and was speaker during the last session.

A REAL TWISTER—The first prototype of a new 1¼ ton cargo carrier for the U. S. Army is demonstrated at the Michigan Army Missile Plant near Detroit. The two aluminum units, a four-wheeled tractor and a two-wheeled carrier, can traverse difficult off-road terraine, is amphibious and light enough to be delivered by parachute and helicopter. The carrier is scheduled to begin tests at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Maryland, soon. (AP Wirephoto)

Soviets Swap Sides In Cyprus Dispute

By HAL MCCLURE

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — A visiting delegation from the Soviet Parliament, headed by one of the Kremlin's top men, reportedly has told the Turks they support Turkey's proposal for a federated Cyprus.

There has been no official announcement of this change in Soviet position, but Turkish lawmakers said their Russian counterparts assured them privately of support. They said the Russians told them it is obvious the Greek and Turkish Cypriot communities cannot live together any longer.

The Soviet Union has backed the Greek Cypriot government of President Makarios solidly since the Greek and Turkish Cypriots started fighting in December 1963. The Greek Cypriot majority demands enosis — union of the island with Greece.

Late last year, Turkey abandoned its position that the only Cyprus solution was partition of the island into Greek and Turkish areas. Instead Turkey suggested that the warring communities live apart under some kind of cantonal or federal system, bound by some sort of national government but retaining a large amount of autonomy.

The Cyprus issue is to come up for debate at the U.N. General Assembly this winter.

Nikolai V. Podgorny, a member of the Soviet Communist party's ruling Presidium, heads the visiting Russians. They are repaying a visit last year by Turkish parliamentarians to Moscow, which started the warming of relations between the two historical enemies.

Observers said it would be wrong for the West to assume that the thaw resulted from Turkish disappointment with the failure of the other North Atlantic Allies to support the Turkish policy on Cyprus.

The United States was caught in the middle of the Greek-Turkish dispute over Cyprus, trying to keep the two NATO countries from going to war over the island. Because of this, the United States came under attack in both the Turkish press and Parliament, and the first anti-American demonstrations since World War II broke out.

Premier Ismet Inonu's government has assured the West it does not intend to withdraw from NATO.

Mrs. Williams Dies; Rites Set Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. Catherine Ann Williams, 87, will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday.

Mrs. Williams, whose residence was on a farm between Ira and Dunn, died at 12:30 p.m. Thursday at Cogdell Hospital.

Born May 16, 1877 in Arkansas, she first came to Texas in about 1890, living first in Hill County. She later moved to Huckabee in Erath County where she was married to the late Mr. William L. Williams on Jan. 7 1897.

In 1900 the family moved to Rule, and in 1906 purchased a farm in Scurry County on which to settle and raise the family. Mr. Williams died later that year, but in 1908 Mrs. Williams completed the move from Rule to Scurry County, and lived on that farm until her death.

The funeral services will be held at the Thirty - seventh Street Church of Christ of which Mrs. Williams was a member. Maxie Boren, minister of the church, and Richard Williams, former minister of the Eastside Church of Christ, will officiate. Burial will be in the Dunn Cemetery under the direction of Bell - Seale Funeral Home.

Mrs. Williams is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Collie Mae Coons of Washington, D. C. and Mrs. Ozie Halbert of Sweetwater; one son, Sam Williams of Snyder; two sisters, Miss Forence Farrar of Gunter, Tex. and Mrs. Myrt Tate of Ft. Worth; two brothers, J. D. Farrar of Clovis, N. M. and G. L. Farrar of Lubbock; three grandchildren and three great - grandchildren.

More Testimony Due Against Billie Sol

PECOS (AP) — More witnesses for the plaintiffs were due to appear today in a $4 million damage suit brought by four Midland men against Billie Sol Estes and others.

Testimony so far has centered around mortgages on fertilizer tanks which later were found nonexistent.

The role of a Fort Wayne, Ind., mortgage brokerage agent, Robert Graham, was brought up Thursday.

Lawyers for the plaintiffs sought to link Graham, who is president of General Leasing, Inc., with Walter E. Heller Co. of Chicago, a defendant in the suit. Counsel for Heller maintained, however, that Graham never worked for the Chicago firm.

Sukarno's Walk-Out Stirs Talk Of War

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — President Sukarno's announcement that Indonesia has walked out of the United Nations stirred speculation today that it foreshadows an all-out military attack on Malaysia.

These suspicions at U.N. headquarters were heightened by a letter from Malaysia to the Security Council charging that Indonesia is building up its forces along the Borneo frontier between Malaysia and Indonesia.

The Malaysian government said it would seek U.N. aid at once if Indonesia launches attacks more intensive than the sporadic guerrilla raids it has been making across the Borneo border and the small parties of infiltrators it has been landing on the Malaysian Peninsula.

Sukarno claims Malaysia is a device to preserve British colonialism in Southeast Asia and has pledged his nation will crush the young federation before next year.

An Indonesian source at the United Nations said a stepup in armed attacks on Malaysia was possible as a result of Indonesia's withdrawal from the organization.

"We are strong enough to crush Malaysia, a stooge of neo-colonialism, due to arms aid from the Soviet Union," he said.

The Soviet Union has supplied Indonesia more than $1 billion in arms but deliveries declined in 1964. The Russians have advised the Indonesians not to quit the United Nations, but Indonesian sources in Moscow said the Soviet Foreign Ministry had informed their embassy the walkout would not affect the Kremlin's policy toward Indonesia.

U.N. officials waited for Sukarno to communicate his walkout announcement in writing. Members of the Indonesian mission said no official instructions had arrived from Jakarta. They indicated that there might not be any written notice.

One official was asked what Sukarno meant when he said in a speech Thursday that Indonesia had "walked out" of the United Nations.

"The Russians walked out once (in 1955), but they did not withdraw," he replied.

Sukarno also said that he would turn his back on U.N. agencies that have earmarked more than $50 million to help underdeveloped Indonesia.

"We can afford to operate without the United Nations specialized agencies," he said. "It is good for our nation to stand on our own feet. I have said: 'Go to hell with your aid.'"

Koch New Manager Of Gas Firm

The appointment of Harold Koch as manager of Lone Star Gas Company's Snyder office has been announced by J. J. Crim, regional manager of Lone Star's West Texas Region of Distribution. The appointment was effective Jan. 1.

Koch joined the company Oct. 1, 1945, as a skilled laborer and was named storekeeper at Gatesville on November 1, 1947. He was promoted to chief clerk at Gatesville on Jan. 1, [illegible]. He served as chief clerk at Corsicana from Jan. 1, 1955 until his recent appointment as manager at Snyder. He replaces C. L. Callaway, who has been named Lone Star manager at Gainesville.

A native of Gatesville, Koch attended Gatesville High School and later completed the office management course of the International Accounts Society. He is a board member of the First Methodist Church of Corsicana and past president of the Methodist Men. He is president of the Corsicana Dads Club, a Mason and former first vice president of the Corsicana Kiwanis Club.

Koch is married to the former Onie May Patteson of Ireland, Tex. They have three children, Rankin Harold, Kim and Theresea May, now Mrs. Gene Brown of Denton. They have one granddaughter, Terri Brown.

WITH PLANNED MISHAP

Scientists Seek To Soothe Fear

By RALPH DIGHTON

JACKASS FLATS, Nev. (AP) — Scientists hope to demonstrate today to an uneasy public that it can live with radioactive rockets overhead. They will deliberately cause an accident to a new kind of nuclear engine which one day may rocket men to the moon.

A fireball bright as the sun and up to 100 feet in diameter is expected to light the desert when they destroy a 12-foot-long engine that turns out almost as much power as Hoover Dam. For more than a year 500 technicians have spent much of their time planning the event.

The scientists want to know the worst that could happen — in hopes of quieting public fears they believe are holding up development of nuclear propulsion for spacecraft.

Today, if the weather holds good, they will know just what hazard, if any, would follow if a nuclear rocket fell back on land or sea during launch — or if an earthquake seriously jarred one of this country's 25 nuclear-fueled power plants.

Plans call for the engine, named Kiwi after the flightless New Zealand bird because it was never intended to leave the ground, to be overloaded so badly that it would blow up.

Dr. Percival King and Dr. Keith Boyer of the Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory, which is running the show on the atomic test site 90 miles northwest of Las Vegas, said nothing like this could ever happen in normal operation of a nuclear engine.

Only a rare accident, they said, could circumvent safety precautions and turn the engine into a runaway reactor.

In unimaginative scientific terms, such a runaway is called an excursion. What it really means is that something happens to release a sudden burst of energy greater than the engine can handle.

Result: blooey. The engine flies apart, scattering radioactive debris.

King and Boyer said it would be nothing like an atomic bomb, however. Most of the energy will be dissipated as heat — about 8,000 degrees Fahrenheit, close to the temperature of the surface of the sun.

The explosive effect, they said, would be equivalent only to 40 to 100 pounds of TNT, compared with bomb yields measured in thousands of tons.

It was even possible, King said, that not much would happen at all.

Dr. Thomas Shipman, safety director for the test, said: "I think we can prove you can live with reactors virtually in your own back yard or flying overhead."

Ways-Means Panel Believes Plan Ready For House Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most members of the House Ways and Means Committee favor sending the administration's health care plan to the House for a vote, an Associated Press survey showed today. Final House action may come in 60 days.

The 25-member committee for years was the graveyard of health care legislation. But now, the survey found, 15 of the members either definitely or probably favor action to send such a bill to the House for a vote.

The chairman, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., said he looks for action on a health plan tied to Social Security in time for a House vote in March.

President Johnson asked Congress Thursday to enact a multiple health program, with care for the aged at the top of the list.

The proposal also includes a new $1.2-billion system of 32 regional medical complexes to fight heart disease, cancer, stroke and other diseases, contribution to medical and dental school operating funds and scholarships for students in the healing arts.

Congressional reaction was most pronounced on the issue of health care for the aged.

The dramatic change in prospects for favorable committee action results from two developments. The Ways and Means Committee was reconstituted with two more Democrats and two fewer Republicans, reflecting the Democratic electoral sweep, so the division now is 17 to 8. Under the former division, 10 Republicans kept a solid front against the proposals.

The other big bonus the health proposal picked up was Mills' agreement in principle with administration plans for financing and administration of the program.

Long the most powerful congressional opponent of Social Security health programs, Mills said the formula ultimately worked out, for administration of the program by Social Security and financing by a payroll tax similar to but separate from the Social Security tax, met his specifications for avoiding danger to the whole Social Security structure.

Final Draft Due On Redistricting

AUSTIN (AP)—A special legislative council committee on congressional redistricting continued closed door meetings today to draft final details of a reapportionment plan.

The seven-member committee is winding up a nine-month study of the complexities involved in dividing Texas into congressional districts of approximately equal population.

Texas must accomplish the reapportionment by Aug. 1 under federal court order.

Gov. John Connally requested the study shortly after the U.S. Supreme Court issued its "one-man one-vote" doctrine for congressional districts last February.

Rep. Gus Mutscher of Brenham, a committee member, said Thursday the group expects to submit its recommendations to the full legislative council Monday afternoon.

While there are some disagreements to be worked out, he said it is probable the committee will recommend districts with a less than 5 per cent deviation from equal population.

The committee carried its investigation into several metropolitan areas, including Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth and San Antonio. It is giving considerable weight to local testimony on the shape new districts should take, Mutscher said.

Recommended districts will cut across county lines in some instances, he said, because some counties have more than enough population for one congressman but not enough for two.

One problem still worrying the committee concerns situations in which two incumbent congressmen may be thrown into the same district, Mutscher said.

Whatever the full council, recommends, as the research and bill drafting arm of the legislature, will be purely advisory in nature. Introduction of legislation is by individual members.

Texas congressional districts range in population from 216,371 in the late Speaker Sam Rayburn's Dist. 4 to the 951,527 in Dallas County, Dist. 5.

Suspect May Get Death Sentence On Spy Charges

By LARRY FRIEDMAN

NEW YORK (AP) — Robert Glenn Thompson, 29, a husky Air Force veteran, faces a possible death sentence on charges that he sold military secrets to the Soviet Union with the aid of three Russians.

One of the Russians, named as a co-conspirator in the three-count federal indictment Thursday, was ordered expelled from the country by the State Department. He is Boris V. Karpovich, a counselor in the Soviet Embassy in Washington.

Thompson pleaded innocent at his arraignment on charges that he furnished military data to Soviet agents from 1957-1963 and received payments totaling $1,700. U.S. Atty. Joseph E. Hoey commented that payments listed in the indictment were only samples and that there were many more.

Thompson was released on $15,000 bail by U.S. Dist. Judge Walter Bruchhausen in Brooklyn. No trial date was set.

His German-born wife, Eveline, 26, whom he married while serving with the Air Force Office of Special Investigation in Berlin, was at the arraignment. They have three children, Patricia, 9, Karen, 6, and Dean, 2.

"I don't believe any of these charges," Mrs. Thompson told newsmen. "My husband would never have done anything like this against his country. He will be cleared."

The indictment alleges that Thompson was involved in an espionage network, obtaining information for the Russians on U.S. military installations, missile sites, code books and intelligence and counterintelligence activities, including the identity of American agents. The government alleged 13 overt acts.

The spy operations were said to have occurred in East and West Berlin and later on Long Island where Thompson lives, and in New York, Detroit, Washington and Great Falls, Mont.

Thompson, a native of Detroit, operates a service station on Long Island, where he also runs an independent fuel oil business. He joined the Air Force in 1952, and served in West Berlin, Labrador and several bases in the United States before his discharge in 1958.

Thompson's arrest by four FBI agents at noon Thursday, came as hardly a surprise to him.

"Thompson knew he was under investigation, having been questioned as long as a year ago," his attorney, Sidney Siben, told the court.

Despite a court-martial, Thompson remained in a position of trust with the Air Force in Germany.

On Jan. 9, 1957, the FBI said, he was convicted of being unfit for duty because of drunkenness, leaving his post and stealing a revolver.

He was demoted from airman first class to airman second class, and forfeited $67 in pay.

Liz Balks At Wording Of Oath

PARIS (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor has attempted to renounce her American citizenship and sources here said today the action is pending.

The informants, who refused to be identified by name, said the London-born actress had planned to adopt British nationality. Her husband, actor Richard Burton, is a British citizen.

The sources said Miss Taylor attempted one formal renunciation during the filming of a new movie in Paris last October but balked at the phrases: "Abjure all allegiance and fidelity to the United States," a mandatory part of the oath of renunciation.

Miss Taylor later was advised that the renunciation was invalid since the phrase to which she objected was deleted.

According to the sources, she said she did not want the phrase included in her renunciation because, while she was renouncing her U.S. citizenship, she still felt the United States had been good to her and she did not want to imply by signing to such language that she bore the United States any ill will. The actress now is on vacation in Gstaad, Switzerland, and could not be reached for comment.

Liquor Law Cases Heard

Bond in the amount of $500 was posted today by Anderson Davis, Jr. after he entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of illegal transportation of alcohol in a dry area.

The charge was filed this morning in county court by the sheriff's department and the Texas Highway Patrol. Officers from those department had stopped Davis' car at 5:50 a.m. south of Ira and confiscated 252 quarts of beer, 104 half - pints of bourbon, 48 half - pints of vodka, and three cases of wine.

Also in county court this morning Leopold Bocanegra of Post entered a plea of not guilty on a DWI charge which had been filed by the Highway Patrol. Bond in that case was set at $750.

In county court Thursday afternoon Ralph Chester Hoyle of Snyder pleaded guilty to a DWI charge which had been filed by Snyder city police. He was fined $100 plus costs of $26.35 and was sentenced to three days in jail.

Also Thursday afternoon, Michael L. Jones of Snyder pleaded guilty to a charge of illegal transportation of alcohol. The charge had been filed by the sheriff's office and an agent of the Texas Liquor Control Board. He was fined $100 plus costs of $26.35.

Rotarians View 1965

The Snyder Rotary Club launched the new calendar year with a glance at 1964 activities and look at prospects for 1965 at its luncheon meeting Thursday.

Theme of the program was "Outlook for 1965." Rotry Chairman R. C. Patton discussed the foundation of Rotary membership, and Ben Brock, classification chairman, discussed the classification purposes of Rotary. Program Chairman Bob Hargrove reviewed the past year's programs and gave some hints on future programs, while local club president, Rayburn Burgess, summarized growth of the club in the past year.

District Gov. H. H. Allen was recognized, and he informed the club members that he was happy to be back with his home club.

Jurden Brunken was inducted as a new member, and Steve Crowell was presented as the student Rotarian for the month.

Guests present included Bob Logan, A. E. Brooks, Bernie Smith, Harold Coke, Marvine Rogers, Marvin Roark, Howell Watkins and Ernest McGaughey.

Steel Talks Are Delayed

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Basic steel contract talks were recessed today until Feb. 15 to give the United Steelworkers Union time to get its election out of the way. The election is Feb. 9.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief management negotiator, said the union rejected a proposal that the contracts be amended to restore the full 120-day negotiation period.

Cooper, a U.S. Steel Corp. vice president, said, "Naturally, the suspension of negotiations reduces the 120-day negotiating period provided in the current agreements.

"In fairness, this amount of time to negotiate should be available after the union election is settled. The union rejected that proposal of the companies, but we again urge that they accept it."

Jockey Mike Hole, 22, comes from Canterbury, England.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: There's a fatherless family in our neighborhood. The mother works and the children more or less shift for themselves.

The eldest is a 17-year-old girl who has no supervision whatsoever. She smokes and drinks and my college-age son told me not to let my 10-year-old son play with her 10-year-old brother because you wouldn't believe what goes on over there.

I hate to have to tell our boy that I have nothing against Johnny (not his real name) but because his home atmosphere is so bad I don't want him to associate with Johnny any more. I realize that it's not Johnny's fault that his environment is poor, but I'm afraid he will be a bad influence on our boy. How can I forbid my son to play with Johnny without appearing snobbish? It's practically impossible to keep them apart. They are in the same grade at school and live in the same block. Other mothers in the neighborhood share my problem and we need an answer.

UNSOLVED PROBLEM

DEAR PROBLEM: Tell your son that if he wants to play with Johnny, Johnny will have to come to HIS home. But under no circumstances is he to go to Johnny's. Perhaps your son could be a good influence on Johnny. And if you cultivate Johnny's friendship and win his confidence, you might be a tremendously positive factor in building his character. It's not enough simply to refrain from doing evil. Seize every opportunity to do good and make the most of it.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: What is your opinion of people who offer to take you on a "tour" of their homes when you visit them? In my opinion it is showing off. I have had this happen with people who have modest homes, and also with people who have better homes. Either way I feel it is wrong. If a person has a simple home, why show off the ordinary things that everybody else has? On the other hand, if they have a better home, isn't it bragging and in poor taste to show off what they have to people who have less? I would like your opinion.

DEAR AGAINST: Most people offer their friends a "tour" of the house because they assume their friends are interested in seeing it. (And they usually are!) I do not consider it "showing off" but if YOU do, don't offer a "tour" of your home. But don't condemn those who do.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: You be the judge. My wife and I recently were married and we have opposing views on affection. We are both in our early 30's and have been married before. My wife claims that I don't show her enough affection, and by her standards, I don't. I was brought up in a series of orphanages and foster homes, and affection was not a part of my life. I never kissed people hello, goodbye and goodnight. My wife and her family are constantly kissing each other. I suppose I should try to be more affectionate, but it doesn't come easily to me. Maybe this should be addressed to your husband, as you girls seem to have a thing about hugs and kisses.

THE DEFENDANT

DEAR DEFENDANT: No one is born affectionate. It is acquired and can be taught. Make a practice of always kissing your wife hello, goodbye and goodnight, and after a while it will come easily to you, too. Affection begets affection.

Health Program Seen As Tribute To Modern Medicine

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
AP Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — President Johnson's call for a broad health program is in part a tribute to the past triumphs and sparkling new skills of modern medicine.

He proposes bold steps to solve 1965 problems of health and medical care.

But those problems exist, or are more urgent, partly because of rapid advances in medical science, especially since 1945. The President is saying, in effect, that our economic-medical-social machinery is out of date in adjusting to the new potentials for everyone's health. There are some basic reasons.

Infectious diseases once were our prime killer. But no longer, thanks to antibiotics and other drugs that save children and adults.

More Americans are living into middle age and beyond, thereby inviting newer enemies. Now the main killers — taking seven out of 10 American lives — are heart disease, strokes and cancer. Chronic and costly diseases are far more common.

Medical and clinical research is reacting vigorously against these threats.

At its best, American medicine is the best in the world. Surgery, radiation and rehabilitation techniques are performing seeming miracles.

But the distribution of this best and newest knowledge is becoming an ever more serious matter. How can it be made available so most people can benefit? The knowledge is coming mainly from laboratories, from medical schools, hospitals and clinics. Part of it derives from the fact that specialists — in medical, mental or dental disease — can determine from many patients what are the best methods of diagnosis, treatment or cure, with the last hazard. But there is a time-lag before promising techniques are adopted by doctors elsewhere.

Along with everything else, costs of hospitalization are rising. Nurses, hospital personnel and doctors want to share in advancing income scales.

Older people, on reduced income or on pensions, fall victim to chronic or lingering illness.

A growing population requires more doctors, and more medical schools. Education in a medical school, or in any college, costs more now. Alumni give money to try to take up the slack between costs and fees paid by medical students.

President Johnson's message outlines some steps toward solving such problems.

Johnson's specific proposals may be adopted, rejected, or amended by Congress.

The certainty is that the modern problems, born of medical advances and human wants, are here, and must be resolved in some manner.

Housing Department Seen As Inevitable

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Establishment of an urban housing department with Cabinet rank "is inevitable now that we have a Congress that should be more receptive to it," Federal Housing Administrator Robert C. Weaver said Thursday.

There were reports in 1961 that if Congress approved the plan, Weaver was likely to receive such a post. Southern senators asserted Weaver, a Negro, was trying to send segregation in federally aided housing projects and the proposal died.

Weaver spoke of the possibility at a Southern Methodist University seminar for about 200 municipal planners. To newsmen who asked if he now would be considered, he replied:

"One cannot talk about such a job until there is a department."

Norway's King Olav Delayed By Storm

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — King Olav of Norway arrived in Tehran today, 24 hours late for his two-week state visit to Iran.

The king's plane was diverted to Beirut Thursday because of a snowstorm.

Judge's Book To Discuss Texas Law

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — His publishers say Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown, in a book about the Jack Ruby trial due out next July, will discuss "the peculiarities of the Texas laws that played a part in the much disputed final verdict."

The jurist said Thursday, however, that "it's nowhere near finished."

Brown heard the trial in which Ruby drew the death sentence for killing presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald. The verdict is being appealed.

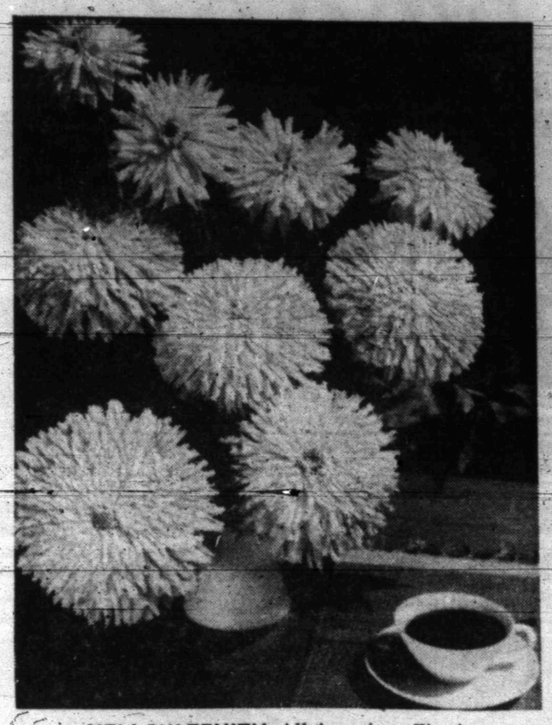

A catalog issued by Rinehart, Holt & Winston, the publishers, said Brown's book will be titled "Ruby, Dallas and the Law."

YELLOW ZENITH, All-American Zinnia

Asters Headline Parade Of New Annual Flowers

The recent trend toward lower, bush - type annual flowers is given increased impetus for 1965 by introduction of the new Early Bird Asters as the headliner among the 17 new annuals in the 1965 catalog, which reaches millions of the nation's gardeners in January.

Early Bird Asters are featured on the cover of a 1965 Seed Catalog in patriotic red, white and blue. They have a spreading, bushlike habit that becomes literally a mound of flowers. True to its name, Early Bird blooms a full two weeks ahead of most other aster varieties.

A new Burpee All - America Winner for '65 is the beautiful clear yellow zinnia called Yellow Zenith, newest member of the famous Zenith F1 hybrids which have won three All - America medals. A delightful new bellflower - type snapdragon named Tinkerbell, with graceful open - throated florets, makes a novel and interesting addition to any garden.

Among the other new flowers to be presented for the first time this year are a new mid-blue sweet pea of the Bijou bush type, called Sapphire; an almost - white marigold called Hopeful, the latest result of Burpee's worldwide search for a pure white marigold; Cameo and Burpee Cerise, two new midseason asters; two new zinnias — Burpee's Gigantea, with flowers up to 6 inches across, and Burpeeana Art Shades, large - flowered but of delicate, pastel colors; a giant F1 hybrid tetraploid snapdragon called White Ruffles; the first and only double verbena, a pink called Miss Susie; a giant golden yellow marigold named Big Smile; a bush - like sunflower, Teddy Bear, that grows only three feet high; and a compact-growing, mound - like petunia named Rosabel.

These new flowers are the result of continuing plant research program, carried out by geneticists and horticultural scientists at the test farms — Fordhook, at Doylestown, Pa., and Floradale, at Lompoc and Santa Paula, Calif.

Details on the 17 new flowers follow: Early Bird Asters— The low, spreading habit, the earliness and the profusion of blooms make a featured introduction for 1965 a most satisfactory garden annual. Offered in separate colors of red, white and blue, and also in a mixture of these colors, Early Bird bursts into flower a full two weeks before most other asters. It is such a prolific bloomer that the compact, bush - like plants are literally covered with delightful flowers from top to bottom.

The flowers measure about four inches across and are made up of symmetrically arranged, incurved petals. While the plants grow only about 20 inches high, the stems are long and make excellent cut flowers. As well as being extra early, Early Bird is also wilt - resistant.

Yellow Zenith Zinnia. — All America Winner for 1965 is the third Zenith Zinnia to win All-America honors in the past three years. This lovely, glowing yellow addition to the F1 hybrid group has huge, cactus-flowered blooms. Gardeners who have grown other Zeniths recognize that this strain is one of the most delightful garden flowers. The plants are sturdy and the foliage rich green in color. The flowers are the largest of the informal zinnias — about 5½ to 6 inches across. More flowers are borne over a longer period of time, and the plants flower profusely from very early in the season. Yellow Zenith grows about two feet tall and is resistant to mildew.

Burpeana Art Shades Zinnias.— Those who like soft, muted colors will be delighted with this new blend of delicate pastel shades of the popular zinnias. Flowers are large and have prettily frilled and ruffled petals. Plants are bushy, branching, and have a compact habit, growing only 24 inches tall. Art Shades begin to bloom when only 15 inches tall. A profusion of bloom follows on side branches all summer long. It is excellent for beds, borders, and foundation plantings.

Rosabel Petunia — A new compact - growing petunia, with lovely rose - pink flowers. It's the growth habit that makes this new introduction outstanding. Rosabel is a multiflora - type dwarf, bedding petunia that grows only 16 inches tall but spreads to about 28 inches in a mound - like plant that is simply covered with flowers. Rosabel makes a delightful bedding or edging annual.

Big Smile Marigold — This newest of famous "Friendship Flowers" is distinctive because of the unusual open arrangement of the lush, dahlia - like petals. Its different but attractive texture makes it a standout in gardens and in cut-flower arrangements. The flowers are dahlia - type, up to 4 inches across; color, a glowing, golden yellow. The plants are semi-dwarf, compact and bushy in habit. Big Smile grows about two feet tall.

Ideal Asters. — This new type can best be described as huge, natural bouquets. As many as twenty-five 4 inch blooms top this prolific aster at one time, making the plant so beautiful a bridesmaid could step into the garden, cut off the entire plant as a bouquet, and start right off for the church. Ideal Asters come in two beautiful colors — Cameo, a delicate salmon - pink, and Burpee Cerise, a bright scarlet-cerise. The plants are vigorous, wilt - resistant, erect and bushy, and grow about 20 inches high.

Tinkerbell Snapdragon— While Tinkerbell is a member of the snapdragon family, the individual florets have acquired a new look — like that of bellflowers. The perfectly - formed soft pink bell - like flowers grow in profuse snapdragon style on long, tapering spikes. The flowers are slightly ruffled, with wide - open petals and graceful throats, and are up to two inches across. The healthy, rich green plants yield a mass of medium - long spikes, and grow 2½ feet tall.

Sapphire Sweet Pea — Sapphire is a clear mid-blue addition to the family of award-winning bush - type Bijou Sweet Peas. This new series, introduced in separate colors for the first time in 1964, has captivated gardeners everywhere because the plants require no staking and are perfect specimens for beds, borders and window boxes, as well as long stemmed cut flowers. Plants are only 12 inches high, with each stem producing 4 or 5 prettily ruffled flowers. Bijous bloom so profusely the foliage is almost hidden by the flowers.

Miss Susie Verbena — The new verbena is unique in that it has extra ruffled petals in the center of each floret, thus enlarging the flowers which are clusters of many florets so that each one becomes a compact ball of delicate salmon - pink. The plants are vigorous and multibranching, growing to a height of about 10 inches and spreading to about 15 inches. Miss Susie adds a truly different look to your garden. It's quick to flower and lasts a long time.

Teddy Bear Sunflower —Teddy Bear is a new, bright yellow dwarf sunflower. These bushy plants grow only three feet tall and produce a wealth of double chrysanthemum-like flowers. Individual blooms are five inches across. Teddy Bear is a fine choice for low backgrounds and borders. It adds the charm of sunflowers without the distraction of unnecessary height. Teddy Bear is a delight for the children.

WHITE RUFFLES Snapdragon, New F1 Hybrid Tetraploid for 1965.

Hopeful Marigold — Hopeful is the latest step forward in search for a pure white marigold. It is hoped that a mutation or sport out of Hopeful will produce a pure white marigold in the very near future. Hopeful's creamy white, fully double, carnation - flowered blooms are borne on erect, bushy plants with waxy green foliage. Some of the flowers are almost white at maturity. Hopeful is not uniform; it contains some natural hybrids, thus the flowers vary in size. Some are small; others up to three inches across. Plants are 22 inches tall, with a two - foot spread.

White Ruffles Snapdragon — Both its tetraploid and F1 hybrid origin contribute to make this an outstanding white. Extra husky, 3 ft. plants are a mass of well - tapered spikes closely filled with huge, ruffled florets of clear glistening ivory-white. The mammoth florets and nice ruffling make it especially appealing as a white accent plant or for use in a border to contrast with other colors.

Club Hears Of Visit To Petra

Mrs. James Tidwell presented the program for the Twentieth Century Club Tuesday afternoon at Martha Ann Woman's Club. She showed slides and told of her visit to Petra, an ancient Nabataean city of the land of Edom in Northern Arabia. It is south of Jerusalem, about half - way between the Dead Sea and the Gulf of Aqaba. This city was an important trading place in the caravan routs between Syria and Arabia to the 4th century A. D. It was covered by sand for many centuries. Archeologists have discovered a civilization here that was influenced by Egypt, Greece, Rome, China, and India.

The ruined city lies in a narrow valley about one mile long and half a mile wide. It is surrounded by mountains and the approach to it is through a deep rocky gorge, sometimes no more than four feet wide.

The first thing to be seen on entering the valley is a great structure with huge columns. It was not built but actually carved from one of the stone cliffs. The city is reached by ascending steep steps. One of the striking characteristics of the place is the ornate carving on the fronts of many cave -like rooms, possibly burial places.

Other remains include an old Roman road, the old business area, and the temple area. The Romans took this city from the Nabataeans in the first century B. C. and later it became a capitol of the Roman province, Arabia Petraea. It was christian bishopric during its last years.

Veal And Noodle Casserole

2 pounds boneless veal shoulder
3 tablespoons flour
2 teaspoons monosodium glutamate
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
6 tablespoons butter
2 medium onions, sliced thin
1 can (3 or 4 ounces) sliced mushrooms
1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup
2 tablespoons catchup
½ cup sour cream
8 ounces medium noodles, cooked

Cut veal into strips that are about 2-inches long and ¾-inch wide. Stir together the four, monosodium glutamate, salt and pepper; add to veal and toss until meat is coated. In a large skillet, melt 2 tablespoons of the butter; add onions and cook until wilted but not brown; remove from skillet and reserve. Melt remaining 4 tablespoons butter in the skillet; add half the veal and brown quickly; remove and repeat with remaining veal. Drain liquid from mushrooms into skillet, stirring to dissolve brown particles. Add soup, catchup and sour cream; stir to blend. Add to noodles with mushrooms and two-thirds of the onion; mix well. Turn into a 3-quart rectangular baking dish (about 13 by 9 by 2 inches) pushing up mixture against the sides. Spoon veal into center; top with remaining onions. Cover with foil. Bake in a moderate (357 degrees) oven for 35 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Note: Casserole may be prepared ahead and refrigerated. Bake, covered, in a moderate (375 degrees) oven for 1 hour.

The French way of preparing Floating Island, that lovely dessert, is to poach meringues in milk and then use the milk for making the custard sauce.

For a pleasant dessert after a main course of Chinese-style food, serve chilled canned pineapple enlivened with slivers of preserved ginger.

WOMEN'S CALENDAR

SUNDAY

Buffet luncheon at Martha Ann Woman's Club for members and their guests. Reservations by 9 a.m. Sunday.

Clean Kitchen

Kitchen countertops should be as sanitary as possible. Materials that scratch are not sanitary because food and other particles may lodge in the small grooves. Scratchproof materials such as ceramic tile, are ideal sanitary surfacings for kitchen countertops. And recently developed epoxy materials for filling the joints between tiles are practically as scratchproof, stainproof and sanitary as the tile themselves, making even better countertops.

Some good cooks like to baste ham, while it's baking, with sherry or ginger ale.

New Year Starts Off With Vital Question Unanswered

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — In one of the most vital areas of all — foreign affairs — the new year starts off with question marks dangling over the United States and the Soviet Union.

There's no doubt about where President Johnson stands on domestic affairs. He has talked about them a thousand times and laid down a huge program in his State of the Union message to Congress.

But still unknown, after his more than 13 months in office, is how he will perform and what he will propose in the foreign field.

This is also true of Nikita Khrushchev's successors, the new Soviet leaders, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and Leonid I. Brezhnev, the Soviet Communist party chief. In his message, Johnson invited them over here.

Johnson consistently has spoken so mildly, and so little, about foreign problems that his restraint had to be deliberate, although this is in keeping with his technique of creating no unneeded conflicts or antagonisms.

The net result is the picture of a man who didn't want to get involved or commit himself in dilemmas overseas until he had straightened out things at home. This paid off well, as the election showed.

Ever since they bounced Khrushchev out of his job as premier last fall and out of the Russian picture altogether, the new Kremlin leaders have played about as mum as Johnson.

They haven't shown any more fresh initiative or imagination in foreign policy than Johnson. At this point the West can hardly pretend to say what direction they will take or even how they are to get along with.

They sounded more than ungracious — they sounded dull, hackneyed, unsure and negative — in their reaction to Johnson's invitation and the mild tone of his message on communism in general.

They didn't say anything directly, but they did indirectly, through their government-controlled press and radio which practically accused Johnson of double-talk when he talked of peace and talked of staying in Viet Nam.

Various reasons could be conjured up to explain this criticism — for example, an attempt to chill any desire on the part of their European satellites for friendlier relations with this country. All might have some validity.

But underneath lay this one consistency on their part: their almost totally speechless performance since Khrushchev's departure.

What the West can't even tell yet is whether the present two-man leadership is just a temporary arrangement until a single leader can be agreed on.

In short, the Soviet leadership up till now gives the impression of being unsure of itself.

Johnson's gestures toward the Soviet Union cannot be taken as a policy unique with him. He inherited it from Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy who worked to build it up.

Johnson would have caused a sensation if he had acted any other way. But his up-till-now tactics of subordinating foreign policy positions to domestic ones can't go on much longer, if only one spot, Viet Nam, is taken as an example.

With the repeated defeats of the American-backed forces there and the steady disintegration of the government, Johnson will have to make new decisions, his own, to find a solution.

Junior Editors Quiz on DINOSAURS

QUESTION: Is it true that the dinosaurs had two actual brains, one in their head, one in their hips?

• • •

ANSWER: If, by "actual brains," you mean brains as we generally use the word, this is not true. All animals with backbones have some kind of a brain. But most of these are very simple, especially compared to our own, which are so marvelously complex, able to memorize and imagine things, to receive impressions and make decisions. The dinosaurs' brains were tiny in proportion to their size. Stegosaurus, the beast in the picture with the huge backplates, had a body larger than that of an elephant; yet his brain was about the size of a walnut. But although dinosaurs did not have true brains in their hips, some of them, such as the Stegosaurus, did have nerve centers located in this region which worked the hind legs and tail, as proved by the structure of skeletons which have been preserved. With his tiny head, Stegosaurus must have been extremely stupid. However, when a flesh-eating dinosaur, such as we show in front, pounced on him, the nerve center in his hips set his tail thrashing violently, and this, with its long spikes, often knocked the flesh-eater away. This is not true brain work but what is called reflex action. It is as if your finger touched a candle flame; reflex action would jerk your hand away before you had time to think about it.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: This is an interesting picture to color. Use greens and browns for the battling dinosaurs. 1-8

Woman Eyes Mysteries Of Market

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK AP) — I am about ready to plunge into the stock market.

Well, maybe not exactly plunge —but I am considering at least dabbling my toes in Wall Street. The trouble is, those toes are attached to the coldest feet this side of Alaska.

For years I've been reading educational articles dealing with the ins and outs of investing. But I'm afraid that when I'm in I'll wish I were out.

Still, I do think I'll crack open my nest egg just enough to purchase one share of stock. Then, on all those questionnaires, instead of admitting my occupation is "housewife," I can grandly write "financier."

If I ever get rich I'll owe my wealth to the wealth of knowledge I accumulate by reading the business pages of the newspapers every day.

My favorite literature is the advice service, which I find even more fascinating than the advice to the lovelorn columns.

The information dispensers, with a disdain for softening the blows equalled only by drama critics, never hesitate to give a forthright opinion on any stock asked about.

In horrified tones they urge an inquiring reader to get rid of his shares of Amalgamated Canine Catering Co., because it rapidly is going to the dogs.

On the other hand, they can make a questioner bask in the warmth of their approval if they like his choices.

I am still waiting for the soothsayers to come forth with the name of the stock I am looking for: one that sells for $20 a share, pays yearly dividends of $5 a month, and is guaranteed to double in value every other year.

Since this information has not yet appeared in print, my next best bet is to buy a share of American Telephone & Telegraph. Its future is secure as long as my daughter's voice holds out.

Texan Pleads Innocent

GUNNISON, Colo. (AP) — A Texas man pleaded innocent Thursday to killing another Texan last Nov. 15.

Edward O'Neil, 28, of San Antonio entered pleas of innocent and innocent by reason of insanity at the time Ronald Westerman, rancher and oilman from Lorenzo, Tex., was slain.

Dist. Judge George Kempf ordered O'Neil to the state psychopathic hospital at Denver for an examination.

Dist. Atty. Marsh Seraphine said Bexar County authorities told him O'Neil was wanted in Texas on murder and forgery charges.

Westerman's body, stripped to underclothing, was found beside a road 8 miles east of Gunnison. He had been on his way to Ouray, Colo., where he was a partner in a motel.

O'Neal was arrested in Hawthorne, Nev., after a deputy sheriff spotted a car fitting a description of Westerman's.

New Mexico Cagers Hot

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ira Harge has graduated. So have Claude Williams and Mike Lucero. Nevertheless the New Mexico Lobos again are in the forefront of college basketball teams.

Coach Bob King's boys from Albuquerque won their 10th straight and upped their record to 11-1 by whipping Arizona State 69-48 Thursday night. At this rate the Lobos may better their 23-6 record of last season when they tied for the Western Athletic Conference championship and finished runner-up to Bradley in the NIT.

Dick Ellis, a junior from Indianapolis, led the Lobos to their home-court victory with 16 points.

Davidson, No. 10 in The Associated Press poll, also made it 10 in a row and 11-1 over-all by downing NYU 82-73 in the feature of a doubleheader at New York's Madison Square Garden.

And fourth-ranked St. Joseph's of Philadelphia similarly made its record 11-1 by crushing Lehigh 85-55 at Bethlehem, Pa. The Hawks and Davidson were the only teams in The AP Top Ten to see action.

Davidson had to come from behind in the second half to beat NYU. The Wildcats, down by 53-47, were rallied by big Fred Hetzel. Held to two points in the first half, Hetzel led an 11-point spurt that put Davidson on top. He finished with 12 points.

Iona upset Duquesne 63-61 in the Garden first game on Warren Isaac's 40-foot long shot with just two seconds left to play.

Bradley, Utah State and Arizona all came through on the road. Bradley came from 10 points back to edge Tulsa 71-69 helped by Chuck Buescher's 10 points in the clutch.

Albert Johnson's dunk basket with two seconds left gave Arizona a 62-60 overtime triumph over Wyoming. Roy Walker's 20-foot jumper with 17 seconds left gave Utah State an 86-84 victory over Utah.

Rick Barry, the nation's leading scorer, tossed in 45 points against Jacksonville as the Miami, Fla., Hurricanes overcame a 15-point halftime deficit for an 86-82 victory at Jacksonville.

Trojans Win One Of Three

COLORADO CITY — Lincoln High School of Snyder won one of three basketball games here Thursday night, with the Lincoln girls taking the decision, a 45-23, affair over Colorado City. The Colorado City boys B team won, 64-54, and the C-City boys A team took a 75-52 triumph.

For Lincoln girls Mary Goosby had 15 points, Pearlie Scott 13, Emma Garrett 7, Johnnie Goosby 4, Roann Cobb and Evelyn Braziel 2 each and Yvonne Sanders and Veronica Davis 1 each. Johnnie Goosby and Evelyn Brazile had 8 rebounds each. Joyce Lewey was high scorer for C-City girls with 15 points.

In the boys A game M. C. Powell scored 26 points for Lincoln, Brady Cobb and Billy Cobb 8 each, L. J. Brooks 7 and Billy McClain 2. Billy Cobb had 10 rebounds. Henderson topped C-City scorers with 15 points.

Sylvester McKnight scored 20 points to pace Lincoln boys B team. Billy McClain had 18, Daniel Crayton 8, Herman Malone 5 and Vernon James 4. Vernon James had 12 rebounds. Ira Brown was top scorer for C-City B with 16 points.

Lincoln hosts Olton on Saturday night in their second district games of the season.

Two Gridders Signed By Dallas Cowboys

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys have signed Doug McDougal of Oregon State and Paul Cercel of Pittsburgh.

McDougal, the Cowboys' 16th round pick in the National Football League draft, is a 6-4, 230 pound tight end who scored Oregon State's only touchdown against Michigan in the Rose Bowl.

Cercel, drafted a year ago as a future on the 16th round, is 6-2 and 230 pounds. He played center and linebacker in college.

The Dallas club has now signed 18 rookies, including 12 selections from the recent National Football League draft, three futures chosen a year ago and three free agents.

Boxing Matches Are Slated For 7 P. M.

The Scurry County Boys' Club's weekly boxing program will be staged again this evening, with the starting time moved up to 7 p.m.

Normally, the bouts start at 7:30, but the starting time has been advanced half an hour for tonight's show. A full card of boxing matches has been lined up for this evening's program.

Busy Day For Local Cage Teams

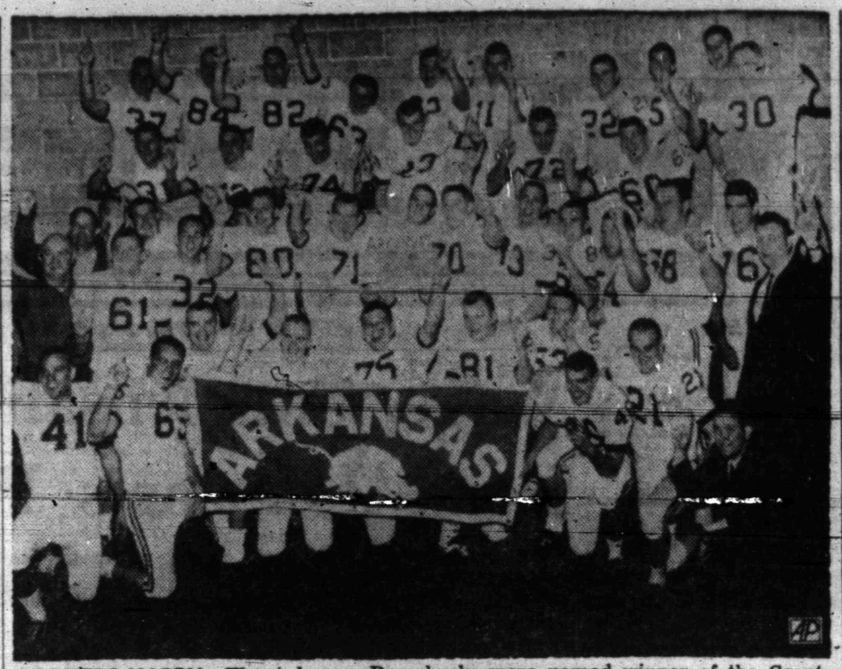

Snyder basketball teams were involved in action on three fronts today, with the headliner in Levelland where the Tigers were poised to take on the Levelland Lobos in a crucial District 3-AAA tilt tonight.

Both the Tigers and Lobos have 2-0 won-lost records in district play, and tonight's encounter will produce a clear-cut district leader.

Home action will feature 8th and 9th grade teams of Lamar and Travis Junior High Schools. The Texans and Blue Devils will clash at 7 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

Previously, the 8th grade teams of the two schools had been scheduled to play each other also tonight, but the Lamar 8th graders had a conflict in tournament play at Colorado City.

The 7th and 8th grade teams of both Travis and Lamar are participating in the C-City tournament, which closes Saturday.

PORKERS HAPPY—The Arkansas Razorbacks were named winner of the Grantland Rice Award and it made a lot of Arkansans very happy. The award is given by the Football Writers Association of America to the team it thinks is the national champion after the bowl games. Arkansas was the only major team to survive the bowl games with an unbeaten, untied record (11-0). The Razorbacks were rated number 2 in the season-ending Associated Press poll, but No. 1 ranked Alabama fell to Texas in the Orange Bowl. Arkansas beat Nebraska in the Cotton Bowl. (AP Wirephoto)

South Favored In Hula Bowl Match

HONOLULU (AP) — The South All-Stars, led by Craig Morton, Gale Sayer and Larry Elkins, rate as slight favorites over the North in the annual Hula Bowl game Friday night.

And, the South gained more of an edge Thursday when Len Cassanova, co-coach of the North, pulled out of the game and flew back to the mainland.

Despite weather forecasts for showers, an all-out passing duel is expected, with California's Morton facing two formidable opponents in Jerry Rhome of Tulsa and Bob Berry of Oregon.

For the first time in its 19-year history, the Hula Bowl will be nationally televised. The game will be video-taped here with the tape flown immediately to Los Angeles for editing and showing Saturday afternoon on the mainland.

Heavy rains Thursday morning turned the Honolulu stadium field into a quagmire and forced both teams to cancel their scheduled practice sessions.

The teams limbered up along Waikiki Beach and later held skull sessions at their hotel.

The South gets the edge mainly on the strength of its explosive backfield which includes Elkins of Baylor at flanker back, Sayers of Kansas at halfback and Jim Grisham of Oklahoma at fullback.

Grisham and Oklahoma tackle Ralph Neely, both originally barred from playing here for signing pro contracts prior to Gator Bowl, are now scheduled to see action for the South according to promoter Mackay Yanagisawa.

Casanova had shared the North coaching chores with Wayne Hardin, recently resigned as head coach at Navy and Frank Broyles of Arkansas is coaching the South.

Hardin said Casanova was unavoidably called back to a meeting of the American Coaches Association in Chicago.

Early reports said Casanova quit because officials were allowing Grisham and Neely of Oklahoma to play in the Hula Bowl. The two recently were banned from the Sooners' Gator Bowl team for signing pro contracts.

Casanova could not be reached for comment, but Hardin said "to my knowledge" the eligibility of the two players had nothing to do with Casanova's leaving.

Broyles said Thursday that Ernie Koy of Texas will handle the punting for his team with Larry Zeno of UCLA doing the place kicking.

Meek Quits Post With Denver Team

DENVER (AP) — Bill Meek, former Southern Methodist University coach, has resigned as director of player personnel for the Denver Broncos of the American Football League.

Meek gave no reason for his resignation Thursday but he has indicated he would like to return to active coaching.

He was coach at the University of Houston in 1955-56 and was head coach at Southern Methodist University for the next five years. After leaving SMU, he was in private business in Dallas for two years before replacing Ray Malavasi in the Bronco personnel post.

Fluvanna JH Teams Split

WESTBROOK — Fluvanna and Westbrook Junior High basketball teams divided a doubleheader here Thursday night, with Fluvanna girls winning, 32-23, and Westbrook boys taking a 64-14 decision.

For Fluvanna girls, June Stansell scored 20 points, Nannette Bruner 6, Charlotte Toombs 4 and Paula Turner 2. For Westbrook girls, Read and Bell had 9 each and Richardson 5.

Johnny Stansell's 9 points was high for Fluvanna boys, while Larry Patterson had 4 and Louis Contreras 1. Chambers scored 32 points to pace Westbrook boys.

Last night's action put the junior high district girls race in a three-way tie between Westbrook, Hobbs and Fluvanna, all with 4-1 records.

Fluvanna's varsity teams launch district play tonight at Fluvanna when they host Loraine.

Bears Hope To Extend Win Streak

By The Associated Press

The Baylor Bears, the high riding team in the recently launched 1965 Southwest Conference basketball race, are expected to still be riding high after they meet the Rice Owls in Waco Saturday night.

Conquerers of defending champion Texas A&M in Tuesday night's opening conference play, the Bears have a 7-2 season record, the best in the league. The Owls, on the other hand, have suffered 10 defeats in 10 outings this season.

The Aggies, whose 7-3 season record is the best in the loop, meet Southern Methodist University in Dallas Saturday night while Texas Tech will be host to Arkansas at Lubbock. Texas meets Texas Christian in the only Saturday afternoon game.

Baylor, Southern Methodist, Arkansas and Texas Tech now possess identical 1-0 conference records. But the Bears have the best record for offense, averaging 89.3 points per game, and are leading in rebounds with an average of 50.2 per game.

Arkansas has the best defense record, allowing their foes only an average of 66.1 points per game.

Texas Tech leads in field goal accuracy with a .475 percentage while Rice has the best performance at the free throw line with a .749 percentage.

Curtis Pondering Post At Odessa

DALLAS (AP)—Chuck Curtis, who has guided his teams to three straight Texas schoolboy grid championships, says he is considering going to Odessa and will make a decision by Thursday.

One of the state's top coaches, Curtis won the state title while at Jacksboro in 1962 and then guided the Garland Owls to the Class AAAA championships in 1963 and 1964.

He said that he is considering an offer to become head football coach at either Odessa High or Odessa Permian. He said that he had studied the programs of both schools while in Odessa earlier this week and liked what he saw.

Lamar Teams Advance In Tournament

COLORADO CITY — The 7th and 8th grade teams from Snyder's junior high schools will swap opponents for second round play in the Colorado City Junior High Tournament following opening - day action Thursday.

Lamar's 8th grade team decisioned Big Spring Runnels, 29-24, and Lamar 7th won over Runnels 7th, 26-19.

Meanwhile, Big Spring Goliad 8th defeated Travis 8th, 32-28, and Goliad 7th downed Travis 7th, 32-27.

The Lamar teams faced Goliad teams in second round games of the championship bracket today, with the 7th grade game set for 1 p.m. and the 8th grade game for 2:15 p.m.

Travis 7th plays Runnels at 10 a.m. Saturday and Travis 8th meets Runnels 8th at 11:30 a.m. Saturday in the consolation bracket.

Mitch Rambin was top scorer for Lamar 8th with 12 points in Thursday's game. Doyle Gallman had 7, Steve Holder 6 and Richie Thompson 1. Brent Brooks and Tony Perez had 7 and 6, respectively for Runnels. Lamar led at the half 15-14, but the score was tied at 21-21 at the end of the third period.

Ken Sehested scored 16 points to pace Travis 8th, while George Kay had 8 and Bennie Ward 4. Russell paced Runnels 8th with 12 points.

Lamar 7th was ice-cold at the outset of its game with Runnels, ending the first quarter without lighting up the scoreboard as Runnels took an 8-0 lead. Runnels hiked its lead to 10-0 early in the second, but Lamar pulled up to 9-10 by half-time and went on to win in the second half. Lee McNair paced Lamar 7th with 12 points. Billy Bowden had 7, Ronald Gladson 3, Rickey Arnold and Brad Morgan 2 each. Rodriguez topped Runnels scorers with 8 points.

The Travis 7th graders were paced by Don Light who scored 12 points. Wesley Bishop had 7, Rickey Glasscock and Merce Hernandez 4 each. Randy Erickson had 8 points to top Goliad 7th scorers.

Fred Benners holds 10 of 15 SMU passing records.

Arnie Favored In Los Angeles Open

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Open up them golden gates, men, here come the professional golfers in the first of 1965's long and rich schedule of tournaments, the $70,000 Los Angeles Open.

It is the 39th edition of the event which traditionally launches the winter circuit, and carries the largest purse in its history.

Guess who is the favorite. You are thinking maybe J. C. Goosey? Possibly James Black? Roger Ginsberg?

No. Fellow name of Arnold Palmer.

Along with Palmer are such luminaries of the game as the U.S. Open champion, Ken Venturi, who won this one in 1959; Champagne Tony Lema, the British Open champion; PGA champion Bobby Nichols, and virtually all the other top money winners of 1964.

The Rancho Municipal Golf Club course, par 36-35—71, whose 6,800 yards have been well drenched by recent rains, is the tournament site.

Whether the other pros like it or not—and missing are Jack Nicklaus, whose only major win last year was the most money, and Gary Player of South Africa—Palmer is the general pick to pocket the $12,000 winner's purse next Monday.

Paul Harney was a surprise winner here last year, with a 72-hole total of 280.

Palmer thinks it will take 275 to do it this year.

"I know that seems a little low," he said, "especially since Harney won with 280, but you ask what I would take and I say 275."

Later he admitted with a smile that he had a practice round of 66, five under par, at the Los Angeles Country Club's north course, one of the toughest in the nation.

"That was pretty good, I guess," he conceded.

Incidentally, J. C. Goosey, Jim Black and Roger Ginsberg are not fictional golfers by any means. J. C. cut a pleasant figure out here a few years back but unfortunately—for golf writers in particular—J. C. has faded into obscurity and his native hills of Tennessee.

And Mssrs. Black and Ginsberg created a sensation, at least for the first day a year ago, when they led the field with 67s.

Parseghian Pact Hiked

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Ara Parseghian, who rose to national fame as Notre Dame football coach in 1964, has received the inevitable fruits of glory from the university.

Notre Dame has spiked his four-year contract and given him a five-year pact. Terms were not disclosed by Athletic Director Ed Krause, who made the announcement Thursday. It was not indicated if any other benefits were included. The original pact reportedly called for around $18,000 a year.

The extension came after the 41-year-old Parseghian guided the Irish to a 9-1 football record last year. It was an unexpected and surprising accomplishment that placed Notre Dame back on the top rung after several years of floundering.

The Fighting Irish, who lost their last game of the season to Southern California 20-17, won the Football Hall of Fame's MacArthur Bowl as the season's outstanding team. Parseghian, who had coached eight years at Northwestern before his Notre Dame job, was named College Coach of the Year by the Football Writers Association of America.

NCAA Parley Expected To Center On AAU Squabble

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association opens it 59th annual convention today, a convention that is expected to center around the bitter war with the Amateur Athletic Union over control of amateur athletics in this country.

Another major item on the agenda is NCAA concern over premature signing of collegiate athletes by professional football leagues.

The convention proper opens Monday but the vanguard of some 3,000 delegates was on hand for today's opening session, involving registration and meeting of college track and baseball coaches.

Main issues when the 500-plus voting delegates — mostly athletic directors and faculty representatives — get down to business, involve what to do about the eager-beaver pros, the NCAA-AAU feud, and an academic standard for NCAA-sponsored competiton.

The way will be cleared for action on the premature pro signing of football collegians at a Sunday session of the Committee on College-Professional Relations.

Walter Byers, NCAA executive director, said the NCAA's program against pros' jumping the gun in signing collegians probably will be aimed at a "reasonable course" of action.

Byers said the solution obviously was to convince the pro leagues that player drafts should be conducted after bowl games.

A furore was created before the Gator Bowl game when it was disclosed four Oklahoma players were signed by the pros prior to the Sooners' game with Florida State.

The Committee on Pro-College Relations, headed by Jim Corbett of Louisiana State, will meet with pro representatives as well as the NCAA's Legislative Committee and the American Football Coaches counterpart committee before drafting any recommendation.

Byers expects strong support of the proposal to put teeth into the NCAA's policy backing the U.S. Track and Field Federation in its four-year-old squabble with the AAU.

The amendment would invoke the same penalties for failure to boycott AAU competition as prevails for NCAA recruiting violations. These include probation and bans from bowl games and national tournaments.

Wage, Compensation Laws Head Johnson's Projects

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson plans to put minimum wage and unemployment compensation legislation ahead of organized labor's pet project — repeal of the "right-to-work" section of federal law.

But, a high administration source says, repeal of section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act is still of "very real political and economic concern" to Johnson, even though he may not get around to proposing it until next spring.

Section 14B permits states to enact so-called "right-to-work laws that prohibit labor contracts from requiring compulsory union membership.

Its repeal is organized labor's No. 1 goal in the new Congress.

In his State of the Union message Monday night Johnson promised to ask Congress to repeal 14B. The next day some reports circulated on Capitol Hill that Johnson would not push hard for repeal in the next few months.

This caused some consternation in union circles.

It also has been learned on high authority that Johnson at the same time will seek another change in the Taft-Hartley Act desired by organized labor — especially in the construction trades.

This is the present ban on "situs" picketing which makes unions subject to secondary-boycott penalties when calling a strike at a construction site involving more than one employer.

Although he will not present a separate labor message to Congress, Johnson is considering a number of other changes in labor laws. But high sources indicated there is no change in the administration's opposition to cutting the federal standard work week from 40 to 35 hours — another prime aim of organized labor.

The administration believes it has the votes in Congress to change the two sections of Taft-Hartley without opening up the whole law to extensive revision under pressure of business interests.

Repeal of section 14B would wipe from the books "right-to-work laws in 20 states.

Johnson is assigning top priority to bringing another estimated 2 million workers under the Fair Labor Standards Act, and improving the unemployment compensation program.

The first measure would bring hotel, restaurant, laundry and agricultural processing workers under the $1.25 minimum wage and other provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

There is also some consideration in high administration circles of requesting an increase in the $1.25 minimum wage, although probably not to the $2 figure advocated by the AFL-CIO.

'Rolling Arsenal' To Stay In Jail

FORT WORTH (AP)—Prosecutors promised further steps today to keep the ex-husband of Dist. Atty. Doug Crouch's woman assistant behind bars. The man was jailed after a guard was shot at the Crouch home Thursday.

Crouch, disclosing his family had left home here for an undisclosed hideaway, asserted Thursday night: "It's not safe for anyone if that man is on the street."

Robert Maclin, 40, a Fort Worth lawyer, was charged with assault to murder after a guard at Crouch's home was wounded in a pre-dawn gun battle. He is the divorced husband of Mrs. Shirley Maclin, a willowy redhead who is a prosecutor on Crouch's county courthouse staff.

Crouch accused Maclin of threatening his life. The district attorney said earlier that shots were fired at his house previously this week, he had received threats by telephone and vandals had damaged his car.

The district attorney mentioned also that a Dec. 16 fire destroyed his farm home near Granbury, in Hood County.

After his arrest Maclin denied exchanging shots about 4 a.m. with Earl Sanford, 38, a special investigator guarding the Crouch home. Sanford, wounded in the stomach, was reported in fair condition at a hospital.

Maclin, jailed overnight in lieu of $15,000 bond, was not available for comment on Crouch's subsequent remarks.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Fred Fick said that before Maclin could post bond as expected today, he would file further complaints accusing the prisoner of possessing a bomb and carrying a pistol. Fick said he would ask $50,000 bond on the bomb charge.

In Hood County, Sheriff J. L. Williams invoked an old statute and charged Maclin with "cutting and destroying a fence." The sheriff said this complaint was based on the fact that four fences were found cut the night Crouch's farm home burned.

Fort Worth officers arrested Maclin near the outskirts of the city soon after the gunfire outside the Crouch home here.

Crouch told newsmen that the Cadillac in which officers arrested Maclin was "a rolling arsenal—I've never seen anything to compare with it."

Investigators said they found in the car a pellet gun, a 9-mm. automatic, Army .45 pistol, .300 Savage automatic rifle, .357 magnum pistol, .30 caliber pistol, .38 caliber snub nose revolver, a .22 revolver, a Mauser 7.65 rifle, a bayonet, an antique battle ax, five Molotov cocktails in soft drink bottles, a meat cleaver, a hunting knife, a Samurai sword, a throwing knife, a Japanese sword, an Argentine sword, two wire cutters, lighter fluid and towels, binoculars and a book on the art of torture.

A young Wichita Falls man arrested with Maclin was released after questioning.

Crouch said two men drove to his home and alighted from a car. Sanford stepped from behind a tree, ordered them to halt and was wounded in a burst of gunfire. The men leaped back into the car and sped away.

An examining trial for Maclin was continued until Monday by Justice of the Peace W. W. Matthews. The state said it wanted time to present medical testimony concerning Maclin's condition.

The Maclins were divorced last March and Mrs. Maclin joined Crouch's staff in July. She served previously as an aide of former Dist. Atty. Howard Fender.

Ceremony To Scare Spirit Misfires

YAKIMA, Wash. (AP) — You could almost hear the evil apple spirits jump for joy when the British consul general's shotgun went click instead of boom.

"It was very embarrassing," Ronald Wilby said Thursday.

Wilby had come to this American apple center to help growers participate in the wassail rite celebrated each Twelfth Night. A similar ceremony is held in Carhampton, Somerset, England.

Following a custom established in 1400, Wilby opened the festivities by dipping a piece of toast in hot cider and placing it in a special apple tree to placate the birds.

Then he recited these words:

Here's to the old apple tree.
Whence thou mayest bud.
Whence thou mayest bow
Whence thou mayest send me apples enow.

Hatfuls, capfuls, three-score bushelfuls
And my pocketsfull too.

Then, Wilby solemnly aimed a specially painted shotgun into the branches to scare away the evil spirits.

Click went the fowling piece.

"'Is this cocked?' I asked them," Wilby said.

Twice more he tried. Each time there was only a click.

"Finally, I just said 'bang' and we were held to have done a proper job."

The celebrants moved on to more festive parts of the ancient Saxon ceremony, including drinking hard cider from a silver wassail bowl. The bowl will be shipped to Eric Tarr, proprietor of the Butcher's Arms Inn in Carhampton, where the ceremony originated.

The rite was imported to America after Maurice Helland, a Yakima newspaperman, attended the Carhampton version in 1957.

Despite the misfire, Wilby, assigned to Seattle, said he had been assured next year's crop would be a good one.

Yakima growers hope he is right. They already have had their share of bad luck this season, including a near-record cold that damaged some orchards.

Ronnie Waldo, Rice's sophomore quarterback, led the Owl baseball team in batting last spring.

Government Supports Big Part Of Cotton

WASHINGTON (AP)— About 31 per cent of the 1964 cotton crop has wound up under the government's price support loan program.

The Agriculture Department reports that as of Jan. 1, the amount of cotton stored by growers under loans totaled 4,826,709 bales. The crop was 15,356,000 bales.

Most of the cotton had been placed under loans by smaller growers. The loans averaged about 1.7 bales each.

Texas led with 980,249 bales under loan, followed by Mississippi with 942,102 and Georgia with 341,505.

Oil Issues Once Again Face Solons

By CHARLES HASLET

WASHINGTON (AP) — The old familiar issues of regulation of natural gas producers, fuel oil imports and tax depletion allowances are again before Congress.

Bills dealing with these questions were introduced this week. There is some disposition to regard introduction of the natural gas bill as mainly an effort to keep the subject before Congress.

Chairman Oren Harris, D-Ark, of the House Commerce Committee reoffered the same complicatd gas bill he submitted two years ago without result.

The bill provides a plan for regulating gas producers' contracts, rather than producers individually, and calls for elimination of utility - type federal regulation of producers.

Rep. John Williams, D-Miss., again submitted a bill to provide that provisions of the Natural Gas Act shall not apply to sales of natural gas by an independent producer not engaged in interstate transmission of gas.

The last annual convention of the Independent Petroleum Association of America called for the committee to consider these suggestions:

—A requirement that the market value of gas be the price determining factor in gas conmatters.

—Outlawing of utility type federal regulations of producers.

—Keeping the federal government out of gas conservation mattrs.

Twice Congress has passed bills to remove independent gas producers from federal regulations. One was vetoed by President Eisenhower in 1956 and one by President Truman in 1950.

Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, reintroduced this week a bill to reduce the 27½ per cent tax depletion allowance for oil and gas operators to 15 per cent.

Similar measures never have gotten before the House for action in the past. In the Senate several proposals to reduce the allowance have been voted down.

Need Seen For Texas Water Plan

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Research League recommended today reorganization of state water administration. The report said state prestige is staked on the success of its water planning.

The league proposed direct state financing of some water development projects and a shift in planning functions from the state water commission to the water development board.

"The prestige of the state, its governor, its state water agencies and its water leaders has not been placed irrevocably behind the effort to make an effective state water plan and to assume the responsibilities for leadership in Texas water development. In a very real sense, state government is on trial. And the odds against success are very long," the report said.

Gov. John Connally asked the water commission in August to begin work on a comprehensive state water plan. He asked the legislature to vote $740,544 for the study.

The league report said "a formidable array of obstacles" stands in the way of successful state water leadership.

"The obstacles include the massive involvement of the federal agencies, the historic strength and independence of regional water authorities, the confusion in water rights administration and the lateness of the state's efforts," the league said.

Lake Texoma Blaze Does Heavy Damage

POTTSBORO, Tex. (AP) — Fire whipped by high wind destroyed a boat repair shop and seven cruisers Thursday night at Lowe's High Point Resort, near Pottsboro on the Texas side of Lake Texoma. Owner C. D. Lowe estimated the loss at $300,000.

St. John's Episcopal

The Eucharistic liturgy for the First Sunday after Epiphany combines two leading ideas: the Holy Gospel (St. Luke 2:41-52) speaks of the childhood of our Lord and of the worship which God asks for us. The Epistle (Romans 12:1-5) begins a series of readings of the Epistle to the Roman. In today's Epistle the Christian is reminded that he must not allow himself to be moulded to the fashion of this world, accepting the standards of non - Christian life. He must be transformed in his inmost being, so as to have a right judgment as to what God wills. With all the authority that the grace of apostleship gives him, St. Paul urges in particular the need for humility and good sense. We do not live as separate individuals; although we are many, we are all still one body in Christ, and therefore share a common life as members one of another.

The celebration of the Holy Eucharist will be the order of worship at the 8 a.m. service. The Rev. Truman E. Bennett, vicar will be the celebrant.

Mattins - Holy Eucharist will be the order of worship for the 10:30 a.m. service. John Mark McLaughlin, Lay Reader, will officiate at Mattins, and Father Bennett will be the celebrant at the Holy Eucharist.

Alan Phillips will serve as acolyte, Dennis Holden will serve as Crucifer, and Tracy Lammert and Byron McKnight, Jr., will serve as Torchbearers. Sherrea Belt will be organist, and Louis Alexander will serve as usher.

The annual parish meeting will be held Sunday, Jan. 10, 7:30 p.m. at the Church.

Junior choir practice will be Wednesday at 4 p.m.

The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 7 a.m. on Thursday, Jan. 14.

Sunday school will begin at 9:45 a.m. Everyone is urged to be present as plans are being laid for our "Victory Campaign" that begins Jan. 17.

The campaign will run for seven weeks.

The third Sunday, Jan. 31, will be T. Gerald Cates Day as it is the fifteenth anniversary of the Calvary Baptist Church. Bro. Cates was the founder and long-time pastor of the church.

He will be here to speak at all services that day. There will be a special afternoon service at 2:30 with a reception with birthday cake and coffee to follow the service. The public is invited to all the services, and friends of Bro. Cates are urged to come on that special day, Jan. 31.

The pastor's message this Sunday at the 10:45 a.m. service will be "Victory In Jesus." Training services and adult prayer meetings will begin at 6:15 p.m. with Ambassador Choir practice at 5:30 p.m. The evening preaching service is at 7 p.m.

SAYING GOODBYE to three small visitors to Snyder is Mrs. E. G. Weyel, a member of the Cogdell Hospital Auxiliary, who had been keeping the children since their mother's injury in an auto mishap west of Snyder Tuesday morning. The children, Stanley, 6, Debbie, 3, and Lisa, 7, are the children of Mrs. Wilma Kowalsky who was en route to her parents home in Scottsdale, Ariz., from Akron, O., when the mishap occurred. Mrs. Weyel, who was on duty at the hospital at the time, kept the children and their bird at her home until Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Kowalsky's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgie H. Carney, arrived to take them home. Mrs. Kowalsky is reported to be in satisfactory condition at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock where she is being treated for crushed spinal discs, a broken collar bone, and other injuries.

School-Merger Opposition Growing In Dallas Area

DALLAS AP) — Opposition to all-out merger of Arlington State College into the Texas A&M system apparently was growing in the Dallas - Fort Fort Worth area today.

State Sen. Don Kennard of Fort Worth revealed Thursday that a group of ASC supporters opposed to the proposed merger and asked Gov. John Connally for a conference.

He said the group wanted to discuss "how our proposals for ASC dovetail with Gov. Connally's plans for improving higher education in Texas."

Businessmen of the area and Arlington State students make up the group seeking the Connally conference, Kennard said.

Meanwhile, Gifford Johnson of Dallas said another meeting of the education committees of the chambers of commerce of Fort Worth and Dallas was planned, Johnson is chairman of the Dallas group.

ASC alumni spokesmen and leaders of the school's Save Our School Committee also plan a meeting with Tarrant County legislators. No date has been set.

Rep. Jack McLaughlin said the alumni - legislator meeting probably would be held this weekend and would concern itself with legislative action to separate ASC from the A&M system.

While opponents mapped further steps, Arlington State President J. R. Woolf said he opposes separation of the college from the A&M system.

"We have a commitment of A&M officials and board members that they will assist us in solving building money problems," Dr. Woolf said Thursday. He added in a formal statement:

"It is my belief as chief executive officer of ASC that these problems can most easily be solved and the future potential of this institution as a university can best be realized by staying in the A&M University system.

"The friends of the college, the members of the A&M board and the staff and members of the Texas Commission on Higher Education are all seeking to expand the role of this institution into that of a university.

"While there is much agreement upon these objectives, and I feel that the faculty and students and friends of the college are in hearty agreement with these objectives, these are still some problems which are not recognized by all parties concerned."

Dr. Woolf said he feels the college is at a crossroads in mapping long range plans.

"I have been assured that the chief executive officer of this campus will continue to exercise sufficient authority to operate the institution effectively and that the faculty of this campus will have the same degree of autonomy in academic affairs it now has," he said.

"The problems of which I spoke earlier are primarily building money problems. These are problems which we will have regardless of whether we are in the A&M system, or as some are proposing, out of it."

Northside Baptist

Northside Baptist Church is beginning 1965 with an ambitious program which it hopes will result in the biggest year in the church's history in attendance, soul - winning and mission work.

In the Sunday School this week the study will be from Corinthians I, chapters 3 and 4, "Labors with God."

Sunday evening at the 6:30 Training Course hour, a special program will be presented on mission work at Bowie, Md., where the Jack Deans are now working. Miss Jackie Dean will show pictures and speak of the work there.

The public is invited to attend all services at Northside Baptist Church. The Rev. John Duke is pastor.

Green Hill Baptist

Virgil Barnes will speak at both the 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. worship services Sunday at Green Hill Baptist Church.

Sunday School will begin at 9:45 a.m., the youth choir will meet at 6 p.m. and Training Union will begin at 6:30 p.m.

On Monday, the Pauline Jackson Girls Auxiliary and the Junior Girls Auxiliary will meet after school at the church.

The WMS will meet by circles at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Regular Wednesday meetings will include YWAs, RAs and Primary Sunbeams at 7 p.m. with prayer service and adult choir rehearsal following.

Witnesses In Assembly

Most of the members of the Snyder Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses are leaving this afternoon for Midland for their semi - annual training program which begins this evening at 6:45 p.m. For this reason the regular meetings of the local congregaion for this weekend will be cancelled.

Over 600 delegates from 16 congregations in West Texas and Southeast New Mexico are expected to attend the three - day meet in the Guadelupe Community Center in Midland.

H. A. Fetzik, Watchtower Representative from Brooklyn, New York, will be chairman for the meetings and as such will deliver the theme talk, "Speak The Word of God With Boldness" at 7 p.m. today. Mr. Fetzik will also deliver the featured talk, which is the highlight of the meet, Sunday at 3 p.m. entitled "Our Divided World - Is It Here To Stay?"

Houston Rail Strike Begins 24th Day

HOUSTON (AP) — A strike that has halted rail traffic in and out of the port of Houston entered its 24th day today. Little progress was reported in talks Thursday between the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Houston Port Terminal Railroad Association.

SOURCE of VALUES

We can get them from The Old Book— values a-plenty to make the New Year really new. Of course the months, the weeks, the hours are much like the old ones. We should carry all the good things of yesteryears over into the New Year, and then add more.

Just how will your New Year be New? We and others, like ourselves, will make the difference. Be more kind and patient in the home circle — then it will be a new house this year. Exhibit a better spirit as you do the old task — and the office, or shop, or kitchen will be a new place for the New Year. Worship God more sincerely and work more in His program of service — then you will have a new church for the New Year. Only a new Person will make it a New Year.
