Economic Picture To Be Drastically Changed As World Statesmen Arrive

British Leader Will Land Today; He's First To Arrive

NEW YORK, April 20.—A world economic picture drastically changed overnight by a single presidential decree and by other current developments in Washington will face Prime Minister MacDonald of Great Britain when he lands on American soil tomorrow the first to talk with President Roosevelt in his international conferences.

Ramsay MacDonald

Aboard the Berengaria, as the liner neared New York, the prime minister refused to comment, but it was reported the British mission felt the conference situation had altered, making it more imperative than ever that all governments get together to settle on a future standard of exchange.

Rainey said that there had been a concerted drive by European nations against the American dollar and that they had been attempting to "take all of our gold away from us to leave us stranded and reduce us to a fourth or fifth class power."

Bi-Metallism Move

In declaring the president's move was toward bi-metallism, he said it would place the chief executive in a position to meet the nations that depend upon the pound sterling on "their own ground."

"Unless those nations come with us to some international stabilization of money, they are lost," he added.

The whole situation has posed a new problem for the statesmen heading for Washington.

Effect Every Subject

The Roosevelt order against export of gold and subsequent developments are likely to affect every subject due for consideration at the conference — trade agreements or trade wars, gold and silver, tariffs and debts, war and threats of war, world politics and world economics.

Prime Minister MacDonald is scheduled to go directly to Washington upon embarking tomorrow morning. Former Premier Herriot of France is almost on his heels, due to arrive Sunday. Premier Bennett of Canada will follow him closely. Before the end of May, representatives

Lubbock Can't Be Bothered By Worrying Over Gold Standard

Gold Or Silver, It's Just The Same To The Fellows Here; Listen To These

GOLD standard or silver, Lubbock went about its business as usual yesterday. Many discussed the bold move of President Roosevelt, wondered what effect it would have on their dollar's purchasing power, and felt pleasant tingles when they realized the cotton market was rising.

Different residents admitted they had not been on the gold standard for years, and opined that it probably wouldn't make any difference. Briefly, the situation is:

Situation In Brief

Going off the gold standard means that the national currency, for the time being, is not redeemable in gold. Gold payments had been severely restricted since the banking holiday last month, but starting Wednesday the government announced definitely that it would cease licensing gold exports to support the dollar in relation to other currencies, which definitely took the country off the gold standard.

The gold standard is of practical importance chiefly in international trade, since gold is the only international standard of value. Cut free from gold, the dollar is left to find its own level in relation to other currencies on a demand and supply basis. Excited selling of the dollar has reduced its level in relation to gold currencies, and theoretically reduced its purchasing power, bringing a sharp rise in prices of sensitive commodities in terms of dollars.

No Gold Is Seen

W. E. Twitty, fire chief: "Who the devil has seen any gold, whether it was standard or not?"

J. C. Royalty, city commissioner: "I think it (gold) would be all right if I had plenty of it. I'd still take it." He rattled a gold piece on a desk top.

May Coleman, lawyer: "I don't know—I never did see any (gold)."

Robert H. Bean, lawyer: "In this instance, it (leaving of gold standard) means an embargo has been placed on shipment of

Heavy Damage Seen In Storm

Red Cross Relief Is Rushed For Nearly 200 Persons In Oklahoma Areas; Death Toll Placed At Two

(By The Associated Press)

CHICKASHA, Okla., April 20.—Red Cross relief for nearly 200 persons left homeless by last night's tornado southeast of here was pushed today as the storm toll was placed at two dead, a score injured, three seriously, and property damage of about $250,000.

A survey showed more than two score homes destroyed by the storm which swept a path 15 miles long and one mile wide. Fifty-five other homes were damaged.

Storm Hits Thursday

Four persons were injured in a windstorm which struck about 11 miles east of Frederick today and minor damage was reported near Elk City.

Truckloads of food and clothing were rushed to the devastated area under the direction of W. G. Methvin, Grady county Red Cross chairman. Relief funds were raised locally and local firms furnished four trucks to haul 50 army tents and 200 cots from Fort Sill.

Herriot Is Bewildered By Shock Of America's Action

S. S. ILE DE FRANCE, EN ROUTE TO NEW YORK, April 20. (AP)—Former Premier Edouard Herriot, frankly bewildered by the shock of America's abandonment of the gold standard, was understood tonight to feel that all the plans for his Washington discussions with President Roosevelt had been exploded. Furthermore, it was pointed out, he felt some adjustment must be made to meet the new situation.

Members of the group of French experts accompanying him expressed consternation at the report of the American action, one of them exclaiming, "we might as well turn around and go back home."

Youth Is Being Held Here For Officers At Muskogee

Jimmie Arnold Shaw, about 22, was charged with transportation of a stolen automobile from Pocatello, Idaho, to Marlow, Okla., in a complaint filed in federal court.

Victor H. Lindsey, United States commissioner, set Shaw's bond at $2,000 yesterday. Shaw, arrested by city officers and transferred to custody of federal agents, was placed in county jail Thursday afternoon. He will be transferred to Muskogee, Okla.

Every Possible Outlet Is Guarded In Search For Trio

PALESTINE, April 20. (AP)—Confident that three men who escaped from the Anderson county jail here were still in hiding in a thickly wooded section, officers tonight were guarding every possible outlet by which the fugitives might escape during the night.

Armed with a pistol apparently smuggled into the jail, the three men, Roland Haley, Jack Smith and Leroy Hughes, overpowered officers and escaped yesterday in an automobile belonging to Deputy Sheriff F. M. Smith.

Credit Expansion Program Of Three Million Dollars Will Be First Goal; Other Aims Also Are Listed

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The administration opened its controlled inflation program two notches farther today in a spirited drive to increase domestic commodity prices and credit.

As a bill giving President Roosevelt authority to issue new currency and reduce the gold content of the dollar was submitted to the senate, the federal reserve banks were prodded to action by Secretary Woodin to put fresh currency into circulation.

Operations Imminent

Open market operations by the federal reserve system, authorized by the new legislation whereby government bonds would be purchased from the banks and ready cash made available for commercial transactions appeared imminent tonight, even before congressional approval is given.

Meanwhile, President Roosevelt, urged by many of his advisers to institute immediate changes in the reserve board's personnel, was watching its operations closely.

It is the determination of the administration to pump the $3,000,000,000 in new currency which today's emergency bill would authorize into the channels of commercial credit through the open market operations of the reserve system.

Bankers Must Respond

By this process the government's long term bonds which the banks have been snapping up and putting away for sure interest rates would be purchased from the banks with ready cash. The bankers then would be forced to respond to the demands for capital by commerce and industry in order to put their reserves on an interest bearing basis.

Hoping for quick approval of the emergency legislation, Secretary Woodin today urged the meeting of

Band Of Five Men Flee Across Rio Grande After Exchanging Shots With Residents; None Hit In Firing

(By The Associated Press)

MARFA, April 20. — A band of about five men who tried to break into the Hernandez ranch house at Loma Paloma, 10 miles east of Presidio, fled across the Rio Grande after exchanging shots with residents of the vicinity.

Only an elderly couple and a young girl were at the ranch house last night when the men tried to enter it through windows. One of the women fired a shot and attracted the attention of persons attending a dance a half mile away. They came to the ranch and drove the men away.

So far as could be learned no one was hit in the exchange of shots and nothing was reported taken from the ranchhouse.

Recently the ranch was robbed of supplies by a band of men who were trailed to the river.

Texas Solons Are Branded As Rabid In Questions Of Educational Needs

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, April 20.—One way to teach each new generation the good and bad points of investments would be to include in college curricula courses for both boys and girls on homemaking, Dr. William John Cooper, United States commissioner of education, said here today.

For the boy, he suggested first a course in nutrition and second, a course in investments, to teach him when to own a home, what price home should be bought in proportion to salary and an explanation of various methods of investment.

The most serious danger in cutting college appropriations, he said will be the too-drastic revenue measures which will place salaries below the cost of living. He referred to the 41 per cent cut for some colleges proposed in the Texas legislature and referred to the Texas lawmaking body as being "a rather rabid one as far as educational questions are concerned, judging from comments heard over the state.

"Texas is so large, it seems that a large number of colleges should be necessary," he said, commenting on recent proposed consolidations.

Rising Prices Are Quoted On Foods In City

Flour Feels A Stiff Punch As Wheat Rockets; Dealers In Lubbock Are Expecting To See Further Hikes

Not waiting for arbitrary boosts by the government, food prices here began advancing several weeks ago. Flour, however, felt a punch from a rising wheat market and jumped 40 cents a barrel Wednesday and yesterday, a local wholesaler said:

"We'll see some sharp advances in food prices," the dealer forecast. "Going off the gold standard will have quite a bit of effect on prices."

Sugar Advances

Sugar advanced 10 cents per 100 pounds soon after the government permitted the dollar to find its level.

All corn products are due for increases; some already have shown advances, it was said. In the past two weeks, meal has advanced 10 cents per 20-pound sack. A company which has been giving one carton of starch free with two cartons purchased has announced it would give a free case with ten cases bought.

Other Products Up

Canned corn, corn syrup, and other similar products are said to be advancing. Dried fruits "are up considerably." Canned tomatoes have increased in price, and canned milk has followed the general trend of rising costs.

The flour advance began during the banking moratorium. In 1924, flour cost $9 a barrel; at its lowest point this year it was $3.65 a barrel. Yesterday quotations were $4.60, and all millers were said to be making price lists "subject to change without notice."

Provisional Government Is Formed As Protective Means

SHANGHAI, April 21. (Friday) (AP)—Chinese press dispatches today claimed that Japanese and Manchukuoan officials met at Peitaiho yesterday and formed a "Luantung provisional government" allegedly to preserve peace and order between the great wall and the Lwan river.

The section between the great wall, the Lwan river and the seacoast is the scene of the latest conflict between Chinese troops and the Japanese and Manchukuoan allies.

Anglo-Russian Crisis Is Further Strained Thursday

LONDON, April 20. (AP) — The crisis in Anglo-Russian relations was further complicated today by the recall to Moscow of the chiefs of the Soviet trade delegation here.

This action was interpreted in London as a counter-move to the recall from Moscow of the British ambassador, Sir Esmond Ovey, who was ordered home after the Soviet government refused to free six British engineers accused of espionage and sabotage.

ORDER IS AMENDED

New Proposal For Slash In Costs Offered

Extraordinary New Powers For Slashing Expenditures Are Asked By Roosevelt In His Budget Message

Vets Receive Cut

Request For New Authority Is Made In Budget Plan Written By Director Douglas; Heavy Reductions Loom

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Extraordinary new powers for slashing government costs were asked of congress today by President Roosevelt in a budget message nearly halving current veteran administration appropriations.

He recommended appropriating $506,838,000 for the veterans administration in the 1934 fiscal year, as compared with this year's allowance of $948,799,000. For all independent executive agencies the president asked $615,159,000 as against the present allotment of $1,105,356,000.

Asks New Legislation

Then Mr. Roosevelt sought new legislation that would empower him:

To modify or cancel existing government contracts:

To increase for a two-year period payments charged by the government for any services rendered or articles sold:

To furlough any army officers on half pay;

To suspend or reduce the extra flying pay in the military services.

Eliminate Requirement

In addition, the president asked congress to eliminate from existing law the requirement for one year's sea pay to naval academy graduates not commissioned, to provide for the automatic discharge of civil service employes who have served at least 30 years and to transfer the botanic gardens to the agriculture department.

The request for the sweeping new authority was made in the budget message written by Director Lewis Douglas. The president's letter said simply he was transmitting the estimates "with whose comments I concur."

Deadlock Between Sponsors Of Two Bills Is Shattered

AUSTIN, April 20. (AP)—The deadlock that has existed for weeks between sponsors of a proposal to levy a graduated tax on oil and another bill to establish a natural resource commission and give it control now held by the Texas railroad commission over oil and gas production was broken today by agreement between leaders for both proposals.

A vote on a bill by Representative A. K. Daniel of Crockett, seeking to levy a tax of from one cent to twenty cents per barrel on crude petroleum production, probably will be taken in the house tomorrow after the house and senate had adopted a resolution granting the house permission to sidetrack the educational appropriation bill to take up the tax measure.

Woman Charged With Murder In Finding Of Body Of Man

SCHULENBERG, Tex., April 20. (AP)—Mrs. Mary Dach, 36, widow, accused of slaying Henry Stoever, 58, farm hand, and burning his body in a fire pit, was charged with murder tonight before Justice E. Voght.

Sheriff Will Lossin who solved the disappearance of Stoever when he dug beneath the Dach chicken house and found his burned body, said two men held in jail at La Grange with Mrs. Dach will be released tomorrow.

Deadline For Car License Payments Set For April 1

AUSTIN, April 20. (AP)—The senate tonight passed a bill by Senator John W. Hornsby of Austin which make the deadline for automobile license purchases April 1, instead of February 1. The bill now goes to the house.

The period for payment of license fees was extended to April 1 this year as an emergency measure. Hornsby said he believed April 1 as a deadline would be a good permanent policy.

Share Values Carried To New High For '33 When Buying Becomes Frenzied

Advances Of Four To Five Cents Are Seen In Wheat; Stocks Soar $1 To $9 A Share

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER
Associated Press Financial Writer.

NEW YORK, April 20.—Tumultuous buying swept through the financial markets today, carrying the general level of share values to new highs for 1933, in the most frenzied trading experienced in the stock exchange in nearly three years.

Commodities also swept forward along a broad front, and although headlong advance in both shares and staples was interrupted by heavy profit taking sales, billions were added to quoted values.

The dollar again dropped precipitantly in foreign exchange dealings for a time, reaching levels well under the equivalent of 90 cents in gold, as measured by its relation to the French franc, the only major currency still on a gold basis.

The indicated decrease in the value of the dollar spurred a wholesale outpouring of funds into shares and commodities, in a frenzied effort to profit from the increasing prices in terms of dollars.

Funds even came from abroad, as speculators recalled that stocks in London went up relatively more sharply when England suspended gold payments in 1931, than the pound went down. Buying of dollars by foreign speculators to make purchases in American markets finally began to support the American currency, and it recovered substantially from its lowest levels of the

Experts Declare Ruth Judd Is "Scared To Death Almost" But Sane In Legal Sense Of Word

Los Angeles Man Says Blonde Slayer Is Neurotic And Depressed But Is Acting The Aspects Of Insanity

(By The Associated Press)

FLORENCE, Ariz., April 20. —The state of Arizona today climaxed its contest of Winnie Ruth Judd's effort to escape the gallows in the sanctuary of the asylum, with testimony before a lunacy jury of psychiatrists who declared her not insane in the legal sense.

Dr. Paul Bowers, Los Angeles, declared the blonde young woman, under sentence to be hanged a week from tomorrow for the murder of Agnes Anne Leroi is neurotic, depressed, "scared to death almost," but is "malingering — feigning the aspects of insanity."

Regret Is Expressed

Dr. Joseph Catton, San Francisco, tempered his opinion that she legally is sane with an expression of regret that the legal definition of insanity as propounded by court bound him to "the factual statements which have found their way into the record" rather than allowing him to express "what might be my personal wish in regards to a statement of Mrs. Judd's condition."

He testified the 28-year-old condemned woman is suffering from "neurosis of the condemned," consisting in part of "consciously simulated symptoms" and in part of "mechanics beyond the control of Mrs. Judd" which "relatively promptly would be ameliorated" should the death penalty be commuted.

Both Bowers and Catton said she is not suffering from dementia praecox, the insanity type ascribed to her by defense alienists.

William Bullitt Is Named Assistant State Secretary

WASHINGTON, April 20. (AP) — William C. Bullitt, whose activities abroad a few months ago made him an international mystery man, tonight was attached officially to the Roosevelt administration as a special assistant to the secretary of state.

Mrs. Ferguson Sends Up Bill

Rehabilitation Commission Of Seven Members Is Proposed For Texas; Personnel Would Be Hand-Picked

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 20.—A state rehabilitation commission of seven members, to cooperate with the federal government, in distribution of relief work in Texas was recommended to the legislature by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today.

She addressed a special message to the law makers and attached a bill that would create the commission, recommending its consideration.

Would Pick Members

Under terms of the bill the commission personnel would be picked by the governor, Lieut. Governor and the speaker of the house of representatives.

The commission's life would be for only two years and it was suggested that an appropriation of $10,000 be voted to pay administrative expenses of the group. The commission would replace the existing Texas relief commission headed by Lawrence Westbrook of Waco, which is now directing federal aid distributions in 247 counties.

Battle-Scarred Flag Of San Jacinto Is To Be Formally Presented Today

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 20.—The Texas legislature was prepared tonight to give unusual recognition to the 97th anniversary of the Lone Star flag state's battle of freedom, the engagement at San Jacinto when Santa Anna's Mexican army was routed by General Sam Houston and his forces.

Arrangements had been completed for formal presentation to the state of the only battle flag borne by the victorious Texas army in that conflict.

The flag came into possession of the state officially thirty-seven years ago, but only recently through appropriation of the legislature and efforts of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, had it been rehabilitated and restored to a semblance of its original state.

It had been placed in a glass case and hung in a hall of the house of representatives immediately behind the speaker's desk. It was first placed there on the day Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson took the oath of office as governor of Texas last January.

Plans had been completed for Clarence Kendall of Houston, grandson of General Sidney

Two Suspects Being Held In Muleshoe Jail

Ex-Convict Is Arrested Here Wednesday Night; Second Is Apprehended Thursday; No Charges Are Filed

Money Is Flashed

Prisoner In Lubbock Jail Is Believed To Have Known Of Plans; Gunmen Obtained A Total Of $1,642.27

TWO Lubbock men were in Muleshoe jail last night, suspects in the robbery a week ago of Muleshoe State bank. One has been identified, it was said here.

Both men, one an ex-convict, were arrested in Lubbock by county officers. They theorized a prisoner in Lubbock county jail knew of the hijacking plans.

Money Is Displayed

The arrests came after the men displayed large sums of money in Littlefield. The former convict had talked to Sheriff Tom Abel about the robbery, named a man whom he said was implicated, and offered to uncover identity of the second. Officers said they were false leads.

No charges had been filed, Sheriff Jim Cook of Muleshoe said. He would not comment on whether any of the money had been recovered, or whether any other persons were involved.

Identified By Woman

The former convict, it was understood, has been identified by two women who were in the bank when two masked gunmen obtained $1,642.27 Thursday, April 13.

As recently as noon Wednesday, the former convict visited a prisoner held here. In previous conversations with the jail inmate, in the presence of an officer, it was said they had discussed "the deal."

The ex-convict was arrested Wednesday night by Sheriff Abel, Deputy Cap Moore, and Sheriff Cook. The other man was taken into custody last night by the sheriff's department at a residence east of the Santa eF railway tracks. It was not known here whether he has a police record.

Purpose Of Trip Not Known

Sheriff Cook did not displose purpose of a trip which he made to Clovis, N. M., yesterday.

Cashier J. M. Osborn, Miss Opal Morris, and Mrs. Inez Bobo were in the bank when two bandits entered with drawn guns between 3:05 and 3:20 p. m. Thursday a week ago. While the bank employes were forced to lie on the floor, one of the men scooped up the loot. They escaped in what was described as a 1930 Chevrolet coach. Gilbert Wollard, a rural mail carrier, and Curtis Taylor, a farmer, pursued the bandit car on rural roads to within about 10 miles of Plainview.

Mortgage Bill In Texas Is Adopted

AUSTIN, April 20. (AP)—The Texas legislature today passed on to Governor Miriam A. Ferguson a bill intended to relieve property owners of excessive deficiency judgments in foreclosure procedures during the existing stringent financial times.

Both houses accepted a free conference committee report adjusting differences that arose over a bill sponsored by Representative J. J. Greathouse of Fort Worth, framed to protect debtors against unfair foreclosures.

The bill would permit defendants in deficiency judgment suits to plead that the property on which the lien was foreclosed was sold for less than its true value. A jury then would be empowered to fix the true value and the debtor would not be liable for the difference between the sales price and the real value.

Mrs. H. F. Norwood Of Abilene Is Complimented At Several Affairs

The Woman's Angle

BY BLANCHE BEAN WILSON
Avalanche Woman's Editor

SINCE most of the advice that is given in this world is worthless, anyway, we should all appreciate the attitude of Clarence Darrow, who has no advice to offer to the younger generation. "The trouble," he believes, "in this world is that the old fellows try to force their ideas on the young" and "it can't be done."

Of course, looking back on a long and useful life and giving the second generation recipes on how to live happily is a wonderful outlet for oratory and raises people in their own estimation, but we doubt if much ever came of the practice.

There may be a few serious minded souls have heard good advice, given it due consideration and patterned their lives accordingly, but such people have never risen to any heights of distinction.

As a matter of fact, it usually works the other way. A man discovers that he is famous when some newspaper reporter rushes up and asks how he happened to arrive. Then, looking back over his life and knowing that he must find a reason he hits on the idea of attributing it all to some fictitious uncle and to his more fancied advice. But we have yet to see the person who has actually followed the advice of any one else. It just isn't done.

OUR RELIC

SOME of these days when the historical society wants a relic of interest, the Avalanche-Journal editorial staff can contribute its bulletin board.

Several years ago the chief, Charlie Guy, had the happy idea of a board on which notices of interest to the members were to be pasted. And, in its day, that board has carried long assignment sheets for stories, notices about staff meetings and the other things that are supposed to be made public to a staff consisting of men and women who work both day and night.

Gradually, however, the board became a sort of catch-all—a medium for wisecracks made at staff members by staff members and occasionally, a place for posting communications. By degrees, also, it became customary to leave a thing there until it became obliterated by the ravages of time. One wouldn't, without breaking the unwritten law of the office, remove a thing once it has hung there.

The board hangs near this desk and it is the privilege of the society department to see it every day.

For months now, a caricature of John N. Garner has been scowling from behind a calendar that was carelessly hung too low. Beneath the other corner of the calendar there peeps a letter, typewritten, and the only legible part from this distance is the signature, Speed Bennett. Below this is a notice from the school of journalism of the University of Missouri announcing the twenty-fourth annual journalism week. This message, recently pasted there, glares in its cleanliness against the yellowed and ragged notices that have weathered for the last twelve months.

Fleeting winds reveal other things that have been attached to corners of letters or that hang beneath the messages already mentioned.

A card mailed to the staff from Galveston a year ago is still hanging by one corner to a letter mailed from Garnet Reeves to the Misses Wayne Atcheson, Margaret Turner and Bean back in February, 1932. Another postal, bearing the inscription, "Gee, I crave companionship" also hangs at a drunken angle.

A place card from the Business and Professional Women's annual banquet in 1932 peeps from between the Missouri University letter and a note from Fred Dye, manager of an Associated Press bureau, thanking the reporters here for covering a shooting in some town in this territory. Above this the signature on a letter from Newsdom is revealed.

There are also a couple of news story busts—one in which the names are mixed up and another in which an insignificant fact is repeated five times in one paragraph. These two have notes designed to draw the attention of reporters and the general public, to the mistakes they have made.

Underneath, there is a large clipping about characteristics of women who are hunting husbands with a number of paragraphs heavily underlined and bearing such notations as "99 per cent of 'em." Caricatures of Al Smith and Franklin D. Roosevelt are also visible — this group having been pasted there prior to the Democratic nomination in Chicago.

PICKING WOOL

MOSCOW—Soviet sheep ranchers have a new system of gathering wool. Sheep are not sheared under this system. The animals are given a small dose of a preparation of heavy mineral salts. This is said to act on the synthetic nerve system and to cause the wool to become so loose that it can be picked off easily by hand.

Clovis Business Women Have Speaker At Meeting; Will Rogers Is Visitor

CLOVIS, N. M., April 20. (AP)—Women attending the anniversary banquet of the Clovis Business and Professional Women's club had an unexpected speaker last night when Will Rogers, the humorist, walked in unannounced.

Rogers, returning to California by train after having left an airplane at Amarillo because of bad weather, stopped off at the railroad dining room where the business women were holding their banquet.

He explained he was rushing back to California "because Sister Aimee is away and there is no one to look after things. You know, Sister Aimee is on her way to the holy land by way of Paris."

Referring to yesterday's wind and sand storm which forced his plane to return to Amarillo, he said "these storms are not a bad idea because they will blow all the farms over to Alfalfa Bill Murray in Oklahoma, then this country will go back to the cow man where it

"HAD CONSTIPATION SINCE BIRTH OF MY FIRST CHILD"

Then Mrs. King Discovered ALL-BRAN

We quote from her voluntary letter:

"I have suffered from terrible constipation since the birth of my first child — 9 years ago! I have tried everything and nothing had any lasting results. Very reluctantly I tried your 'ALL-BRAN' with no faith in it at all. Much to my surprise, I have not had to take any medicine since starting to use ALL-BRAN, 4 months ago."—Mrs. Doris Eyre King, 16 Abbey Road, Oxford, England.

Laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN contains two things which overcome constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

Certainly this is more natural than taking patent medicines—often harmful. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood. At all grocers. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Hallowed Texas Traditions Recalled Today; Anniversary Of Famous Fight

San Jacinto Day Is Dear To Hearts Of Every True Texan

APRIL 21, 1836! A date of hallowed traditions — associated with deeds of flaming patriotism and sacred memories! A date to be commemorated reverently in a great Texas Centennial celebration in 1936!

It not only marks the anniversary of the Battle of San Jacinto in the war between Texas and Mexico, but it is one of the greatest days of American history, because the Battle of San Jacinto brought to a successful conclusion the desperate struggle of Texas for independence from Mexican domination; and as a result a new nation was born—the Republic of Texas.

Memorial Park

The Battle of San Jacinto was enacted on a plot of ground that has been set aside by the State as a memorial park—an enduring shrine to Texas heroism. It is situated a short distance from Houston with an extensive waterfront on the Houston Ship Channel—or Buffalo River as it was known in the days of Sam Houston. This spot on the waterway is a place of great natural beauty. The land has a gentle roll, the vegetation is exceptionally brilliant and the wild flowers here grow in unusual profusion and fairly radiate their brightness. Huge "bearded" live oaks dot the lovely landscape.

Every year, on April 21, the battleground is a patriotic mecca that attracts thousands. Exercises are held in commemoration of the great event of the day, and each year sees no recession of the fervor of enthusiasm with which the programs have been received.

Much Is Written

Much has been written of the interesting human achievement of the Battle of San Jacinto when General Sam Houston and his small band of Texas pioneers wrested victory from the dictator Santa Anna and his trained army of Mexican soldiers, but probably few persons realize the vitally important results of this battle—not merely to Texas but to the entire continent of North America.

Judge Clarence R. Wharton, Houston historian, has impressively written of this angle of the conflict in his book, "The Republic of Texas." In his description of the Battle of San Jacinto he states in part: "As they fronted each other this day they were in a struggle for the boundary line of distinct civilizations. Upon the discovery of the Americas the Spaniard by his explorations and bloody conquests had fastened his domination, his language, his laws on all South America. Even after the Spanish cession of Louisiana to France and the relinquishment of Florida to the United States, Spain yet held Mexico and it included Texas and the vast country to the northwest to the 42nd parallel upon the Pacific. In North America England had become the dominant power and here, on this April day, there came the clash of Latin with Saxon sovereignty.

Oppose Santa Anna

"Sam Houston, Sidney Sherman, Tom Rusk, Edward Burleson, John Wharton, and hundreds bearing English names and of English ancestry, were opposed to Antonio Lopez de Santa Ana, Castrillion, Juan Nepomuceno Almonte, Pedro Delagado and others bearing highsounding Spanish names. The ancestors of these combattants had fought each other when the Spanish Armada sailed into the northern seas to work the destruction of England. And now they were to come to grips in the contest for a land larger than the continental empire of Charles V, with the British Isles thrown in. One million square miles of river and forest, mountain and plain were lost to his imperial highness at sundown that day."

The beginning of the city of Houston and of Texas development are firmly implanted in this colorful event of early Texas history. In the same year of the Battle of San Jacinto the city was founded and the illustrious name of the hero of Texas' struggle for independence was given to the little settlement on the banks of Buffalo River.

Houston Selected

Further honors were conferred on the town when the congress of the Republic of Texas, on November 30, 1836, selected Houston as the first permanent seat of government of the new nation; the authorization setting forth that this designation would be effective until the year 1840 when it was planned to move the capitol to a more central location within the confines of the state.

Judge Wharton states: "The Allens (the founders of Houston) had undertaken to provide a capitol building, and on April 16, 1837, they began its construction so as to have it ready for the session of congress which was to and did convene on May 5th following."

From this humble but auspicious beginning Houston has grown to become a commanding city of Texas and of the South. Through the transformation of the bed of Buffalo River to a deepwater channel it has achieved a port rank of international importance.

The historic spot where Houston's army changed the map of North America.

By their votes the people of Texas have authorized plans for a Texas Centennial celebration in 1936 commemorating the historic events of 1836, of which the Battle of San Jacinto was most notable and in which the picturesque San Jacinto Battlefield and State Park will play a prominent part.

Conflicting Taxation Will Be Discussed In Conference

AUSTIN, April 20 (AP)—Senator Ben G. Oneal of Wichita Falls was en route to Washington today to discuss the question of conflicting taxation with members of the United States senate.

Senator Oneal and other members of the interstate commission on conflicting taxation planned to confer tomorrow and Saturday with Chairman Pat Harrison of the United States senate finance committee and members of that committee.

One of the subjects to be considered will be the gasoline tax. Oneal feels that the federal government invaded the taxing field of the states when it placed a levy on gasoline. He will request congress to remove the federal gasoline tax as soon as practical.

Absence Of Pet Mars Homecoming Of American Who Escaped Death

Meers Returns And Is Joyful At His Escape

Smiles Happily As He Embraces Wife After Absence Of Three Years; Friends Keep Phone At Home Busy

EL PASO, April 20. (AP)—The absence of his pet dog was the one thing today that marred the happy home-coming of William Jefferson Meers, 27, slayer of a Juarez waiter, who was exchanged today for Jose Carrasco, Mexican, in a trade of prisoners between Texas and the state of Chihuahua, Mexico.

Rain, Meers' pet dog that spent six months with him in the Chihuahua penitentiary, died a short time after Mrs. Meers took it to El Paso. Hesitant to tell her husband, Mrs. Meers kept the dog's death a secret until Meers came home.

Smiles Happily

Meers smiled happily as he embraced his wife, after an absence of three years. Although he had been awake all night, on the journey from Chihuahua City to El Paso, he did not go to bed today.

"I'm too happy and excited," he said. "I couldn't sleep. I'm still trying to realize that I'm really at home.

"It's wonderful. Friends have been calling on me all day. The telephone rings every few minutes, with someone telling me he's glad I'm back."

Attended a Movie

Mrs. Meers attended a motion picture last night while her husband was en route to the border.

"I had to do something to get my mind off of things," she explained. "I waited three years, but I couldn't wait the last few hours I was afraid something would happen at the last minute."

Meers said he was well-treated in the Mexican penitentiary and was never handcuffed.

"Handcuffs are almost unknown in Mexico," he explained. "When they take you from one place to another, you walk between two officers. They never manacle a prisoner. I'm glad I was not brought to the bridge handcuffed."

Carrasco Handcuffed

Carrasco, a life-term prisoner traded by Texas for Meers, was handcuffed to an El Paso deputy sheriff until Mexican officers took charge of him at the international bridge.

"I've smoked those Mexican cigarets so long these don't taste good," he laughed. "American cigarets cost 75 cents a package in Chihuahua."

The frantic barking of "Chiquito," a puppy Meers gave his wife as a present when she visited him in prison, greeted him when he opened the door to his home.

Meers and Carrasco shook hands as they met at the international bridge early today, then returned to their respective countries. Carrasco had been in the El Paso jail since last July. He was brought here by two Texas rangers. His pardon was signed by Ross S. Sterling, former Texas governor.

Demonstration On Gardening Given

About 20 persons attended a demonstration on the making and laying of home-made tile for garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wilson, near Slaton, Tuesday. The demonstration was conducted by O. G. Tumlinson, county agent and Miss Isla Mae Chitwood, home demonstration agent.

Three rows in the garden, each 0 feet long, were laid, a total of 0 feet. Mr. Wilson plans to lay at ast 1,000 feet of tile in his garen.

"This garden tile is a fine thing nd I expect this garden to be a eal demonstration of benefit to y neighbors," Mr. Wilson said.

Miss Chitwood gave a demonstraon on seed selection and care and ultivation of the garden to memers of the Slaton Women's Home emonstration club. Mrs. Wilson is he club's farm food supply demnstrator.

Lubbock Bankers Planning To Attend South Plains Meet At Lamesa; Mitchell Is To Lead Discussion

Lubbock bankers today will attend the annual meeting of the South Plains Bankers association in Lamesa, a check of the banks Thursday afternoon indicated. All three banks will have representatives at the sessions.

John D. Mitchell, cashier of the Lubbock National bank will take the place of C. E. Maedgen, president, who was to lead a round table discussion on "Cost of Bank Insurance." Mr. Maedgen will not be able to attend, because of other business.

Paul Hardwick, cashier of the Citizens National bank and secretary of the association, will attend and make his report as secretary.

Besides these, Roy Riddel, cashier of the First National bank and one or two others from that bank, plan to attend. R. H. Hester and possibly L. C. Ellis of the Lubbock National and John Denman of the First National bank, also plan to attend. A. B. Brown also is planning to make the trip.

Citizens Are Being Asked To Stay Off Federal Grass

A plea to citizens who park their cars in front of the new postoffice building not to walk on the grass plots, was made yesterday by John L. Vaughan, postmaster, in announcing extensive landscape work around the federal building.

"We have put up wire fences around the grass plot on Broadway, but they have been torn down," Mr. Vaughan said. "The plots needed reseeding and we are hopeful that the grass will grow and make a very beautiful place. We need the cooperation of the public if this is done."

Trees on the government's plot west of the building were taken out this spring and new trees planted. At the same time the lawn was reseeded with Bermuda grass and an attempt is to be made to grow a nice plot of sod.

All of the grass plots around the building were given a new crop. Shrubs were planted and the government's policy is to make as beautiful a place as possible of its property.

Matadors And Buffs Meet Tonight In Dual Track And Field Contests

Events Start At 7:45; It's Free To Fans

Coach Lowrey Announces Team To Oppose Buffs Tonight In First Night Meet Held Here; Starts Early

Track and field teams of Texas Tech and West Texas State Teachers college will match speed and ability tonight in a dual meet at the Texas Tech field.

The meet starts promptly at 7:45 o'clock and is free to the public.

In presenting the Matador track team, Texas Tech is making its first definite bid in three years to revive the sport as a standard department of athletics. It has been three years since the school was represented on the cinder path, jumping pits and weight rings.

Fortenberry Here Again

West Texas' Buffs are reported to be fairly strong in practically all events. Several members of the Buffalo football and basketball squads, familiar to Lubbock and South Plains fans, are connected with the track and field teams. Joe "College" Fortenberry, towering football end and basketball center, is one of the most important men on the field team. He handles the weights like he handles a basketball. Colvin, another athlete recruited from the basketball team, is a prominent athlete on the Buff track team.

Tech has inlisted the services of E. J. Lowery of Lubbock high school as track and field coach this spring. Coach Lowrey has developed a team that is said to be able of representing the college in an appreciable style.

880 a Feature

One of the feature events of tonight's meet, the first nocturnal track and field meet ever held in Lubbock or on the South Plains, is expected to be the 880-yard run, in which Colvin of the Buffs is an attraction. Coach Lowrey has two or three men in whom he is placing his hopes for victory in the half mile. Fleming and James Austin, Chicago, Basil Hill and J. T. Epperson are the lads who have been showing up well in the mid-distance race.

High School Teams Run

As an added attraction tonight, Coach Weldon Chapman of Lubbock High school is entertaining his Westerner mile relay team in a race against the Plainview High school relay team. Plainview won the district championship in that event here last Saturday and will enter the state interscholastic meet at Austin. Lubbock, who took second place in the district relay, also will enter the Austin meet.

Robert Stone, James Hunt, Charles Young and Rufus Ryan, Lubbock's relay quartet, will run against Isbell, Madison, Sherly and Wester, who have won every race they've entered this season. Plainview has concentrated on the relay event at the cost of other track events, and has high hopes for statewide recognition after the Austin meet.

Officials Are Announced

Officials of tonight's meet were announced yesterday by the Tech athletic department. They are as follows:

Lee Jones, official starter; Ben Condray, W. A. Jackson.

Official starter—Lee Jones; timers—Ben Condray, W. A. Jackson and H. C. Pender; judges — W. L. Stangel, Ernest Nelson and Ray Mowery; clerk of course—J. O. Morgan; clerk of events—Bo Williams; announcers—Cy Lamaster, Adrian Clark, Will Gilmore and Leonard Curfman; messengers—Lee Gaylor and Johnny Walker; marshalls—P. W. Cawthon, in charge, Woodrow Wilson, Sam Jones, Malcolm Martin, Bennie McWilliams, Gaines Davis, Aubrey Butts, Demp Cannon, L. J. Sollis, Whacker Barton and J. V. Beauchamp.

Weldon Chapman, Burl Huffman, Ross Ayers, Toby Greer, Ben Barlow, Elva Baker, Lacey Turner and Braxton Gilmore will have charge of field events.

Lowrey Names Lineup

Coach Lowrey announced the following lineup to take part in tonight's meet:

100-yard dash — Price, Hall and McElroy; 220-yard dash—Hitchcock, McElroy and Hall or Wilson; 880-yard run — Hill, Epperson and L. Austin; 440-yard dash — McAdams, F. Austin and L. J. Brown or Wimberley; 1-mile run — Cantrell, C. Brown and Priddy; 2-mile run — Cantrell, Seal and Priddy; mile relay—Team No. 1, McAdams, Fisher, C. Brown and McElroy; team No. 2, Austin, Epperson, F. Steve Banas and Norm Rescher have been recruited from the football spring training squad to add strength to Notre Dame's baseball pitching staff.

Here's Joe Again . . . Does Everything

Here's the Pride of Happy and West Texas Teachers college, Joe Fortenberry, who's athletic activities are not restricted to playing center for Sam Burton's Buffalo basketball team. He's to appear here tonight with the Buff track team in their dual engagement with Texas Tech's Matadors.

HAGEN RETIREMENT TALK BRINGS LOOK INTO FILES

RECENT rumors that the "Haig" is about to retire from competition in this his 40th year caused me to look at his memorable record. It is a record in golfing achievements equalled not even by the great Jones.

Walter Hagen

He won his first major championship when 21. That was in 1914, the National Open. From that time on he never was without a major title excepting for a short period from June, 1930, until he won the Canadian Open in 1931.

During the intervening years between 1914 and 1932 he won five P.G.A. championships — four consecutively — American Open twice; British Open, four times; French Open, once; Belgian Open, once; Western Open, five times; Metropolitan Open, three times; Eastern Open, once; North and South, three times; Florida East Coast, three times, and numerous state championships. During the period between 1914 and 1929 Hagen won not less than 34 major titles.

ONLY once did he quit a tournament. Walter made that mistake in the Los Angeles Open played in 1930 during a torrential downpour. He was not among the leaders and deserted the playing field for dryer surroundings. He failed to realize the significance of his picking up and quitting for the first time.

His world tour and failure to crash through to a major title that year caused many stories to be printed that gave the impression that the "Haig" was through. However playing professionals knew such reports were erroneous and selected him captain of the Ryder Cup team, which he successfully led to victory.

Walter is the present Western Open champion and has been selected to pilot the Ryder Cup team for the third consecutive time.

At Pinehurst during the North and South Open, Hagen's manager, Bob Harlow, informed me that Sir Walter has no intention of retiring. He has just contracted for an extensive barnstorming tour with Joe Kirkwood, the trick shooter.

Applications From Two More Towns Received Yesterday; All Managers To Meet Monday Night At Hotel Here

Two baseball clubs not represented at last Monday night's meeting have applied for membership in the South Plains Independent Baseball league.

If the applications are accepted at next Monday night's meeting here, the league will start its [illegible] schedule Sunday, April 30, perhaps with eight clubs.

Abernathy and Levelland are the teams applying for the two open places. It is likely that they will be accepted as members Monday night to round out the proposed eight-club circuit or to replace two clubs who have previously sought membership. Cash forfeits may be asked at Monday night's meeting by President Skip Taylor, and only those clubs ready to post the forfeits may be accepted.

Lubbock Not Certain

The status of Lubbock in the newly formed league is not altogether clear. A manager has not been definitely appointed, although there is a possibility that J. O. Morgan will head the Hubber club. It was decided at last Monday night's meeting to allow Lubbock but one team in the league, although two prospective clubs were represented.

The committee to draw up rules and regulations and schedule for the first half is to meet this week and report its findings and deliberations at Monday night's meeting.

To Meet Monday

All club managers are requested to be present Monday night. If managers cannot be present, they are asked to name delegates who shall be vested with the power to vote.

Those appointed on the rules committee are: J. O. Morgan, chairman; President Skip Taylor, Frank Larkin, John D. Smith and Ed Hambright.

Abernathy's request for membership in the league was made yesterday by B. W. Dansfield, manager of the club. Mr. Dansfield said that Abernathy was striving to build up a strong team, that the town was behind baseball and that a new ball park was being built.

France Likely To Quit Gold

Bulwark Of Gold In Europe Is Grave In Face Of Fear That Entire World Will Follow Lead Of U. S.

PARIS, April 20. (AP)—France, the bulwark of gold in Europe, was grim today in the face of financiers' fears that the whole world will follow the United States off the gold standard.

The ministry of finance was almost indignant in declaring that there was not the faintest thought of placing an embargo on gold, but the present cabinet—like preceding governments—recently declared it was inevitable that France would desert gold if America did.

Others Weakening

Three other gold countries, Belgium, Holland and Switzerland, were weakening today regarding their adherence to gold as a monetary standard, and their gold supplies were said to be drifting to Paris.

A bank of France statement today showed that the huge gold reserve had been increased within a week by two-thirds of a billion francs (about $26,500,000.)

One-third of its loss in the last four months to the Bank of England has been regained by the bank, which is pursuing a cautious, "wait and see" policy.

Impossible To Remain

A high banking authority recently said that Belgium, Holland and Switzerland would precede France off the gold standard if the United States left it and that it would be impossible for France to remain alone on that standard.

Germany was said in financial circles here to have a practical embargo on gold already in force.

The dollar, meanwhile, improved to 22.75 francs in late trading, after the official close at 22.46 francs.

The Bank of France gold reserve on April 14 was set at 81,000,000,000 francs ($3,240,000,000), which is almost 96 per cent coverage for circulation and 77.57 per cent coverage of the total sight obligations.

Nationwide Moral Force Is Needed To Back Roosevelt

BRADY, April 20 (AP)—Dick O. Terrell, San Antonio lawyer, stressed the need for creation of a nationwide moral force to uphold President Roosevelt's sweeping reconstruction program at the annual banquet of the Brady Chamber of Commerce last night.

"Conditions March 4 were the most distressing since the battle of Yorktown," he said.

Henry Hodges, president, in his report outlined progress the last year in road construction and industrial development here.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, April 20. (AP)—In the second successive day of feverishly active trading, cotton swung into new high ground for the movement today although extreme gains of 46 to 47 points were sharply reduced by extensive profit-taking by recent buyers. After fluctuating wildly in the afternoon, prices closed 18 to 25 points higher. Inflation continued to be the dominating influence.

The opening was strong, with Liverpool cables about as due and sterling considerably higher. First trades here showed gains of 38 to 44 points and prices continued to improve after the start on generally active buying helped by a sharp advance in stocks until July traded as high as 7.73 and October at 7.95, up 46 to 47 points compared with yesterday's close. December advanced to 8.10.

Later in the morning prices reacted 29 points on a wave of profit taking and some selling by ring traders but the market improved again in the early afternoon until July traded at 6.65 and October at 6.88 or 39 points above the close of yesterday. After fluctuating wildly on heavy profit taking prices rallied 9 to 10 points in the final trading and July closed at 7.45 up 19 points net, and October closed at 7.69 up 20 points.

Liverpool is due on New Orleans tomorrow 11 to 12 penny points down.

Port receipts, 5,921, for week, 48,373, for season, 7,706,067, last season, 9,458,169. Exports, 17,651, for week, 84,431, for season, 6,352,337, last season, 7,180,106. Port stock, 418,504, last year, 4,200,245. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 84,956, last year 106,963. Spot sales at southern markets 29,596, last year 3,768.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 20. (AP)—Following its sweeping advance yesterday cotton soared $2.50 a bale in the early trading today but subsequently relinquished a part of the gain.

July contracts after selling up to 7.77 on the early demand, eased off to 7.35 during the afternoon and closed at 7.47 with the general market closing easy, in tone, although final prices showed net advances of 18 to 23 points.

The opening was 41 to 53 points higher on an active and excited demand. The overnight advices from Washington and the advance in sterling evidently strengthened inflationary sentiment.

Early strength in grain and other commodities and securities was a stimulating influence, and a broadening of commission house interest combined with foreign, Wall street and western buying sent the price of May contracts to 7.60 and October to 8.00 in the first hour.

Heavy realizing followed and the market sagged during the later trading, May receded to 7.20 and October to 7.60 or some 40 to 44 points from the best.

This reaction brought in additional buying or covering, and last prices were some 9 to 12 points up from the lowest on most positions.

KANSAS CITY REPORT

KANSAS CITY, April 20. (AP)—Under receipts of 21,100 cattle at eleven markets, trade on fed steers and yearlings developed into a moderately active affair at generally steady to strong prices with some sales 15 or more higher. Demand for dressed beef at eastern centers, however, was rather slow at prices ranging unevenly steady to 50 lower. Good to choice light steers and yearlings bulked largely in a spread of 5.50@6.25. Chicago secured 5.90 for strictly choice around 1375 lb. beeves while the majority of steers with weight were eligible within a spread of 4.00@5.25. In some cases, better grade yearling heifers were listed as much as 25 lower but a generally steady trend prevailed. Bulk of light yearling butcher cattle cleared around 4.00@5.00 with few up to 5.35. Stockers and feeders were relatively scarce but quotable steady.

In spite of steady to 50 lower levels on dressed pork, the live trade displayed an active demand at mostly steady to 10 higher rates with some sales on late rounds as much as 20 up. Chicago reported a late top of 3.95.

Mostly steady levels prevailed on lambs although in some cases selling prices for spring lambs were unevenly lower. A large percentage of fed, shorn and wooled offerings brought 4.75@5.50 with a few deals on springers completed at 6.00@7.00.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, April 20. (AP)—Hogs 1,500; top 3.20; packing sows mostly 2.25@2.50.

Cattle 1,800; calves 4.00; slaughter yearlings 15 to 25 lower; slaughter steers and butcher cows weak to lower; slaughter calves 25 to 50 lower. Better grades fed yearlings 4.25@4.75; butcher yearlings 3.25; slaughter steers 3.65@4.35; butcher cows 2.00; good stock steer yearlings 4.30; good heavy fat calves around 4.50; plain weight averages 3.50 down; few good vealers 5.50.

Sheep—4,000; all classes steady; good shorn fed lambs 4.10@4.25; medium grade shorn lambs 3.50@4.00; spring lambs 5.00 down to 5.00; yearlings and 2-year-old weathers 3.00; good shorn aged fat wethers 2.25.

Stocks

WALL STREET REPORT

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, April 20. (AP)—Financial markets appeared to be of one mind today in their belief that suspension of the gold standard by Uncle Sam plans for controlled inflation meant a cheaper dollar—in other words, higher prices.

Stocks swept upward under impetus of the heaviest trading since May 5, 1930, while wheat and other grains, as well as cotton, silver, rubber, sugar, copper, lead, cocoa and zinc advanced actively. Extreme gains were not fully held on the whole and a few commodities closed lower, but the day's prevailing mood was decidedly against a halting of the advance and heavy profit-taking generally met ready absorption.

Net advances for common stocks ranged from 1 to nearly a dozen points. Boisterous until early afternoon, the market then quoted down for a brief period, only to gather fresh strength when utilities roused from a nap. The latter group was strongest when utilities roused from a nap. The latter group was strongest at the close. metals were strong all day, especially coppers, but rails were less prominent.

Not in a long time had Wall street seen so frenzied an opening. Transactions involving 10,000 shares were fairly numerous while International Nickel distinguished itself with a 40,000 share block. Ticker facilities fell more than half an hour in arrears and it was around 1:30 o'clock before the tape could be cleared; subsequently it fell slightly behind transactions again.

Sales reached the large total of 7,198,964 shares.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, April 20. (AP)—Highest prices in more than 18 months were paid on the Fort Worth cash grain market today for wheat, that market following the full advance in contract values. Demand was good for all offerings. Estimated receipts included:

Wheat 9 cars; corn 10; sorghums 10, and cane seed 3.

Prices ranged as follows, basis car loads on track at Fort Worth, freight paid, delivered Texas Gulf ports, export rate, or Texas common points: Wheat No. 1 hard 77 1-2@78 1-2; barley No. 2 nominally 43 @45; No. 3 nominally 41@43. Sorghums, No. 2 milo per 100 pounds 84@87; No. 3 milo 77@84. No. 2 kaffir 74@76; No. 3 kaffir 73@75.

Delivered Texas common points or group three Corn, No. 2 mixed 53 1-2@54 1-2; No. 2 white 56@57; No. 2 yellow 54@55.

Delivered Texas common points: Oats, No. 2 red 32 1-2@33 1-2; No. 3 red 31 1-2 @32 1-2.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, April 20. (AP)—Excited by reported broadening of inflation plans and by United States abandonment of the gold standard, all grains rose wildly today, and then fell back.

Wheat soared to 10 1-8 cents a bushel higher than Tuesday, up 5 3-4 from yesterday's finish, but lost more than half of the new gain, largely as a result of belief which trade leaders expressed that existing conditions were unprecedented, and that rapid fluctuations were likely to be the rule hereafter rather than the exception. On the crest of today's huge buying, before selling assumed even greater proportions, all grains surpassed any prices heretofore reached this season, and in some cases outdid records since 1931.

Wheat closed nervous, 1 7-8 to 2 1-2 cents above yesterday's finish, with corn 1 1-2 to 1 7-8 up, oats 7-8 to 1 3-8 advanced, and provisions at a rise of 35 to 47 cents.

County Officers Investigate Triple Shooting; Lives Of Estranged Husband And Of Child Claimed

OREGON, Ill., April 20 (AP)—A mother of seven children was near death from wounds today as Ogle county officials investigated a triple shooting that claimed the lives of her estranged husband and their three-year-old son.

Frank Gunder, 42, shot and killed his son, Frank, last night and then fired four bullets into the body of his wife, Frances, 40. Later he barricaded himself in his own home and turned the automatic rifle on himself as sheriff's deputies were using tear gas in an attempt to rout him.

The shooting of Mrs. Gunder and the child occurred in the house to which she had moved following her separation from her husband.

Insurance Agents Meet On Thursday

Agents of the local district of the Amicable Life Insurance company held a series of meetings yesterday in the Hilton hotel and at noon were guests of the company at a luncheon. A. R. Wilson, president, was one of the speakers.

Charles Whitacre, local supervisor, acted as toastmaster at the luncheon. George W. Dupree, attorney, was the principal speaker not connected with the company. Mr. Dupree discussed some of the problems facing insurance men and urged them to be "loyal" to their employers.

Before President Wilson spoke, Mr. Whitacre handed him applications for $46,000 in insurance, secured by the local office in the past few days. Mr. Wilson explained the state moratorium on cash values on insurance policies, which is effective until December 31. He also discussed the Robinson insurance law, now before the state legislature for proposed repeal. The company has made large loans on South Plains farms, approximately $3,000,000 being loaned.

H. D. Woods, former mayor, spoke briefly, as did J. A. Raley, jr., and Dr. Carl Loveless, medical director of the company at Waco.

Rules And Regulations For Pipelines Will Be Talked

AUSTIN, April 20 (AP)—The Texas railroad commission today called a hearing for Austin on May 15 to consider rules and regulations governing operations of pipe lines transporting oil in Texas. Rates of charges fixed for the carriers also will be discussed.

At the same time the commission set aside its order of February 1, which would have directed adherence to a new set of rules, including a schedule of rates charged for transporting oil, ordered effective on May 1.

Rules and regulations in force prior to issuance of the February 1 order were directed reinstated and "continued in full force and effect pending further orders of the commission."

SENTENCE COMMUTED

ATLANTA, Ga., April 20 (AP)—Governor Talmadge today commuted to life imprisonment the death sentence of Sam F. Aiken, convicted of slaying his wife. Aiken, who escaped while confined in the county jail awaiting execution, was arrested in Houston, Texas.

Man Is Pushing On

HARDSHIPS of the depression are making bearable the hardships of the last frontiers. Jobless and dissatisfied men and women are pushing on into the wilds of Northern Ontario in search of economic independence or to make for themselves homes to replace those lost by foreclosure.

It is the same old story. When civilization can no longer support all mankind as it would like to be supported the discontented pull up stakes and turn to the wilderness for opportunity. Economic pressure was responsible for the settlement and development of virtually all of the United States and Canada and had a part in all of it.

Pioneers are not just adventurers with a bad case of the wanderlust. They are colonists and builders imbued with the age-old idea that the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow is just beyond the horizon. And many of them have found it there.

When this part of the west was in the making the older communities in the East were constantly complaining that towns and even states were being drained of their population by the westward migration. These communities could not see that their departing citizens would contribute more to their growth and prosperity by their absence than by their presence. The golden age of the industrial East drew its life blood from gold rushes, land grants and migrations.

More frontiers to conquer would be a boon to America in this hour of overpopulation, overproduction and unemployment. They constitute one of the real needs of the day.

NO YOUTH PROBLEM

Not long ago when a British headmaster said the modern schoolboy is "cowardly" untruthful, vain and dishonest," Dr. James E. West, chief scout executive of the Boy Scouts of America, refuted that unfair indictment. Now Dr. John Grier Hibben, former president of Princeton University, asserts that the product of the modern college is superior to the fathers of that product.

It is not unusual to find coming to the defense of youth the men and women who best know and understand youth, while the critics of youth are seldom in a position to know their subject. It is easy for the superficial observer to jump at conclusions and indulge in false generalities.

Modern youth frequently finds delight in shocking the elders. It likes to be irresponsible, irritating and confusing. That is the traditional attitude of youth. Still, somehow, it manages to keep those who know it best among its most loyal defenders.

Youth never changes, basically. Neither does maturity. And there lies the rub. Older generations need only to realize that modern youth is merely doing what they did in their youth only in a different way to be tolerant, if not laudatory. But somehow old age must expect all posterity to be patterned after its example, though in its more reminiscent and candid moods it finds little in that example to brag about.

WELL DRESSED

Perhaps the man in the audience has misjudged the "best-dressed man on the screen." He may have felt that the actors for whom publicity agents made such claims were more or less foppish or dudish, but in the light of seven rules of good dressing laid down by one of them that opinion will have to be revised.

Neatness and proper care are more important than newness. Runover heels are taboo. So are dirty and misshapen hats. Creases on coat sleeves, knickers and golf clothes are deprecated. Suspenders are essential to properly draped trousers. Dirty fingernails are forgiven only on men engaged in manual labor. Only in his bedroom may a man appear unshaven.

And what price good dressing? This movie star says he can prove that a man making $40 a week can dress as well as a millionaire, maintaining that good taste and good dress are not necessarily the accompaniment of riches.

Clothes make the man, but do not accurately proclaim his credit rating. Many a millionaire has gone shabby and many a pauper is immaculate. Good dressing is a matter more of time and attention than money, and yet men upon whose hands time weighs heavy are most guilty of neglect of their personal appearance.

If color illumination is substituted for wallpaper, paperhangers will turn "crepe-hangers."

We are interested in that new Vitamin C if it pays the bills and keeps the tank full of gas.

Findings May Be Vital

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

White House

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The interstate commerce commission's railroad rate inquiry, beginning April 24, may lead to results of capital consequence to the entire country.

Inequalities in the national process of deflation, it is agreed by economists, have been the principal cause of the depression.

That is to say, no particular interest would have suffered from a reduction in its income of prices of everything that it had to buy (and, of course, its already-outstanding obligations also) had been correspondingly reduced. In other words, an exactly horizontal slash all around, would have made no essential difference to anyone.

The trouble has been that some charges have stayed up, while others have slumped violently.

Still Peak Figures

One charge which has remained at peak figures is the railroad charge.

Inasmuch as transportation is an important item in connection with almost every exchange of commodities in modern life, this maladjustment of its rates to changed general conditions has been responsible for an infinity of dislocations of the gravest character.

Illustratively, Chairman Marvin Jones of the house of representatives' agriculture committee speaks of exorbitant freight rates (proportionately exorbitant) as one of the basic cause of farm distress.

The hard times, which high rates have had so much to do with bringing upon the American people, have reached upon the roads themselves, running their business down to such an extent that they have been compelled to abridge their staffs by fully half, enormously swelling unemployment's ranks.

There are competent authorities who maintain that much lower rates would so re-stimulate traffic as to enable transportation at least to meet current expenses.

"With the vast majority of folk deflated to or below the pre-war level," says Congressman George Huddleston of Alabama, expressing this philosophy, "the companies simply are demanding the impossible in sticking to war-time tariffs. The public needs the service and is crippled, to the point of the present depression, by the lack of it—but between today's incomes and today's rates the spread is hopeless."

Admit They're High

Railroad managers know that their charges are high. Their spokesmen admit it, at American Railway association headquarters in Washington. What they cannot see is how they are to reduce them, with their existing set-up.

Interstate commerce commission statistics tell the story.

The lines not only are overbuilt, not only are their higher executives grossly oversalaried, not only have they lost much patronage to new-style transportation, not only are they endeavoring to carry a crushing load of indebtedness—they are struggling to yield dividends on a capitalization of approximately 12 billions actually invested, plus an additional 12 billion dollars' worth of water.

The job of I. C. C. investigators is to hit on a plan by which they can cut rates anyway.

GOVERNMENT'S POWER EXPERIMENT

Ultra-individualists in congress are bitter against President Roosevelt's Tennessee valley project, as a gigantic experiment in governmentalization.

It would be foolish not to recognize that, up to a certain point, this is just what it is.

The government will not start or run any of the industries which it proposes to render newly possible. It will leave that to private enterprise. However, the government will provide the motive power for the industries' operation. It will do so at a margin of profit from which the element of greed will be eliminated. At least it is reasonable to assume that it will be, for the profit will be the government's, and the government, whatever other faults it may have, is too impersonal to be greedy.

If the venture makes money, while selling power for less than private power-producers have been charging, it simply will prove exactly how greedy they have been. If it is demonstrated that the government can sell power for no less than private producers have been selling it, the experiment will not have hurt them. It is difficult to see what objection they can have to the test, unless they are uneasily conscious that they have been pretty greedy.

Queen Of Cotton Will Be Named And Reign Over Carnival At Texas Tech

A cotton carnival at Texas Technological college, sponsored by members of the local chapter of Phi Psi, national honorary textile fraternity, will be conducted May 14-20, M. E. Heard, textile instructor, has announced. The carnival will be climaxed with a style show of cotton dresses in the gymnasium. A queen of Cotton will be named.

Pretty girls representing campus, civic and other organizations will compete in the style show. A judging committee will select the girl wearing the most attractive cotton dress as the queen. A second place girl will also be selected.

Dresses may be of any type, the only requirement being that they be of cotton fabric.

Mr. Heard announced committees for the carnival would be named this week and preparations for the event started at once. Plans are being considered for the operation of the college textile plant during the carnival so that people may see how cloth is made.

Entry blanks for the style show contest may be secured from Mr. Heard or members of the entry committee to be announced later. A large number of organizations are planning to enter girls in the contest.

The carnival is to be an annual affair, Mr. Heard said.

Geese Forecast An Early Spring

PLAINVIEW, April 20 (AP)—There'll be an early spring in West Texas Edwin Ramey of Dimmitt, predicts. He said that nesting of wild geese on his Castro county farm forecasts it.

"Last year," he said, "the geese started nesting during the middle of April. This year they nested late in March."

"You can't beat nature when you are seeking natural facts," he said. "I used to have a wild goose which laid always about a quarter of a mile away from the house. You could tell about the spring season by the way she made her nest. If she built her nest on top of the lister bed, you could bank on it being a wet spring season. If she laid down in the furrow, you could just bet it wouldn't rain much until she hatched her eggs."

HOMES DESTROYED

RANGER, April 20 (AP)—The home of Buster Jennings was destroyed early today by an explosion believed to have resulted from accumulated gas. Three walls of the house were blown 45 feet, striking the home of George Dryden which was destroyed by fire.

Property loss was estimated at several thousand dollars.

Both Factions Claim Victory

Pros And Antis See Victory In Recent Duel On Beer In Legislature; Brew Is Seen As A Certainty

BY CHARLES E. SIMONS

AUSTIN, April 20. (AP)—Prohibitionists and anti-prohibitionists in the house of the Texas legislature are claiming victory in the recent duel on the beer question.

The anti's contend their victory lies in the assurance that 3.2 per cent beer will be a certainty in Texas if a constitutional amendment to permit the manufacture and sale of brew of this alcoholic content is adopted.

Stave Off Liquor

Prohibition leaders claim that submission of the 3.2 per cent beer amendment will stave off efforts to bring about a return of liquors of all forms. A majority of the house dry leaders believe the 3.2 per cent amendment will be adopted, and that by adopting it the electorate will deal a severe blow to the movement for outright repeal of the prohibition section of the state constitution.

Advocates of legal beer said the opposition made an error in proposing a constitutional amendment ahead of the bill for legalization of the brew.

Rep. P. L. Anderson of San Antonio and other sponsors of the beer bill said submission of the amendment would more surely guarantee return of beer. There were grave doubts about the constitutionality of any act passed by the legislature to bring this about in view of the stringent provisions of the prohibition section which bans the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquor.

Pushed By Pro Bloc

The resolution was pushed by the prohibition bloc when it became certain that a vote was about to be forced on the beer bill. It was supported by many members who did not wish to vote on a straight legalization bill because of the unsettled conditions in their home districts. They figured they could vote for the constitutional amendment and then consistently vote for the beer bill since it would merely be the enabling act for the proposed amendment in event of its adoption.

As passed by the house, the beer bill would become effective "if, as and when" the constitutional amendment is approved. Under this procedure the machinery already will have been provided for manufacture and sale of the beer when, and if, the amendment is approved, and will make unnecessary a special session to pass an enabling act to put the amendment into effect.

The more ardent of the anti-prohibitionists are predicting that Texas will vote five to one for 3.2 beer. The conservative element believes the margin of victory will be about three to one although some of the prohibitionists are of the opinion that the vote will be fairly close.

Thelma Ford Is Given First Place On Panama Canal Essay

For her writing on the Panama canal, Thelma Ford was awarded first prize in the essay contest sponsored by the Nancy Anderson chapter of Daughters of American Revolution. Helen Wagner was given a copy of "Readings of Texas History" for her essay on "Some Unpublished Local History."

About 25 students entered the contest, essays being written on some phase of American history. E. M. Barnett and E. J. Lowrey, instructors in American history, had charge of the contest. Judges were: Mrs. Clyde F. Elkins, Miss Elizabeth West and C. C. Cox.

The gold will be smelted and funds used to carry on church work.

Inflation Program Faces Threat; Demos Confident

the federal reserve bank governors in special session to begin preliminary open market operations.

Republicans Opposed

On Capitol Hill, Republicans rallied to slow the progress of the currency measure introduced by Senator Thomas (D. Okla.). Senator Reed (R. Pa.,) said the tactics of his party would be to discuss the measure thoroughly in an effort to arouse public opinion against it by detailing what he considers its dangers.

Senator Byrnes (D. SC.,) who helped to draft the legislation, was prepared tonight to move for a report of the bill from the banking committee to the senate tomorrow.

Demos Confident

In spite of the Republican threat, Democratic leaders were calmly confident of passage, and that soon. Speaking for the Republican regulars, Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, said his party colleagues would discuss the measure thoroughly in an effort to arouse public sentiment against it. Republican tactics, he said, would be to "debate it and let the country understand it, and to show what has happened in other countries that have taken this course."

As tendered by Thomas after consultation with administration leaders, the amendment would give the president broad discretionary powers, first to arrange with the federal reserve system to purchase up to $3,000,000,000 of government obligations in the open market.

Adopt Other Plans

Should such an agreeemnt not be possible, or if this did not meet the requirements of the situation, the president could adopt any of three other methods to expand the currency, as follows

Issue treasury notes up to $3,000,000,000 to meet maturing federal obligations and for purchase of United States bonds, with provision for retirement of four per cent of the notes annually by federal appropriations;

Reduce the gold content of the dollar either independently or in concert with foreign governments to achieve an international standard unit of value, such reduction not to exceed 50 per cent of the present content; and

Accept Silver Payments

Accept up to $100,000,000 on war debt payments in silver at 50 cents an ounce, with authority to issue silver certificates.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, in a formal statement, said the "President is in accord with the purposes of the amendment."

Later, an official explanation of the legislation said the purpose of the measure is to restore commodity prices, hold them up and then create expansion, not of currency, but of credit.

The upsurge in the stock exchange was more violent than yesterday's and the upswing for the two days, as indicated by price averages, has added some $3,500,000,000 to aggregate quoted values. Prices surged up about $1 to $9, and while not all of the advance was held, most popular issues were up $1 to more than $5 at the close, and the general level was the best since early October. The turnover of approimately 7,200,000 shares in the stock exchange was the largest since May 5, 1930.

The advance in commodities attracted considerable profit taking, and final prices were well under the day's top prices. Advances of 4 to 5 cents in wheat were cut in half, and cotton was up only about a dollar net, after extreme advances of more than $2. The advance embraced a wider assortment of staples than yesterday, however, with nonferrous metals particularly strong. Bar silver jumped 3 1-8 cents, on top of 3 1-2 yesterday, and copper, lead and zinc were higher. A few staples reacted rather sharply under profit taking, however, and crude rubber actually closed with small losses.

Moody's price index of 15 principal commodities showed an aggregate appreciation for the day of nearly 5 per cent, and reached the highest level since last Sept. 12.

British Leader

of the other great nations will have arrived in Washington.

France shortly must face the decision of yielding its allegiance to the gold standard, despite the enormous store of the yellow metal in its coffers, or of retaining it in the face of advice from its own financial experts.

May Mean Trade War

For Great Britain, President Roosevelt's action may mean a bitter trade war with the United States.

An American currency finding its own level abroad, might force a new battle for markets that England, with its already depreciated currency, has enjoyed without great hinderance.

Aside from the pressure problem of gold as a medium of international exchange and its concommitant silver basis—war debts, if Mr. Roosevelt is willing to listen to them, will play their important part in the conversations.

Positions Are Clear

Great Britain, France and Germany long ago made clear their position that without a reduction or cancellation of the debts, world recovery was impossible.

Mr. Roosevelt has hinted that tariff adjustment should precede debt talks.

Statesmen of Europe and the far east will bring political problems as well as those economic. Tales of ticklish situations that have arisen or may arise; pleas for moral and political cooperation, may reach the ears of the American president.

Gold Standard

all gold except ear-marked gold, and that bills of exchange and other evidences of debt from the United States and people in the United States to other countries and people in other countries in international trade can not be paid in gold."

"Is There Any?"

L. A. Howard, lawyer, of the gold standard: "Is there any?"

Mrs. Frank McPherson, secretary: "I never thought when they called for gold about sending in my class ring. I guess I'm a piker."

Vaughn E. Wilson, county attorney: "What difference does it make? Most of us have been on the dirt-standard for a long time."

Margaret Turner, news woman: "I thought it was inflation—prices would go up and values would go down."

Miss Zena Patterson, nurse at Lubbock sanitarium: "I don't know what it will do for us."

He's Silver Man

George T. Woulard, courthouse custodian: "We may have more of the other (silver) now. It's hard to choose between the two, but I guess I am a silver man."

Dr. O. W. English: "I've been off the gold standard two or three years; they're a little behind me. Frankly, I believe it will help things."

Ben F. Condray, Texas Tech instructor: "Leaving the gold standard will bring a cheaper money, which means the general price level will rise. Whether it will stimulate business, as it is hoped it will do, or whether so much paper money will be issued that it will make the dollar practically worthless cannot be determined now. Reduction of the value of money will depend on how much is issued. Prosperity goes in cycles, and some times it takes a stimulus to return it."

How Far Is It?

One Lubbock woman, when asked what she thought of "going off the gold standard" asked "sure enough? How far is it?"

Owen McWhorter, attorney, admitted he didn't know anything about "going off the gold standard" and declared he was for anything that would make things better and he was sure Roosevelt was trying to do that.

Garnet Reeves, secretary of the Lubbock Retail Merchants association: "I remember when we had something about the gold standard when I was in school but haven't thought much about it after that."

Judge Clark M. Mullican of 99th district court: "I've been off it for a long time. I know all about being off the gold standard. It's being on it that I'm kinda rusty on."

A Skeleton At The "Joystick"

Spectators at Roosevelt Field, New York, received an unexpected thrill recently when they saw a plane roll up to the line apparently controlled by the bony hand of the skeleton shown above. However, it transpired that the gruesome pilot was merely a passenger in the ship. It was presented to Pilot Jimmie Collins who couldn't resist the temptation to play a joke. He crouched down in the cockpit to give the illusion of the skeleton flying solo.

Is your car suffering from SPRING FEVER?

Phillips 66

Is the motor of your car sluggish and lazy? Is it slow in responding to the accelerator? Does it knock on hills or heavy pulls? Are you getting fewer miles per gallon of gas?

If the answer to any of these questions is "Yes," it will pay you to try a tankful of Phillips 66 . . . the greater gasoline.

It is the "wake-up" fuel for sleepy engines . . . packed with extra power and energy . . . modern . . . money-saving. The gas that has earned its sensational rise in sales, by delivering improved performance at lower cost to more than 7,000,000 car owners!

And here is a statement of fact that deserves capital letters: PHILLIPS 66 IS HIGHER TEST AND HIGHER ANTI-KNOCK WITHOUT HIGHER PRICE. It is THE sensational gasoline value in a year crowded with good values. It does not cost 3¢ extra per gallon. But it does deliver 100% on every promise we make for it . . . added pep and power . . . faster pick-up and get-away . . . greater smoothness and flexibility . . . more miles to every gallon!

It does all this, because right now Phillips 66 gravity ranges from 62° to 68°. We can give motorists this honest and amazing higher test, without a penny of higher price, because Phillips is the world's largest producer of natural high gravity gasoline.

Until you try a tankful you will never know how outstanding, how different this motor fuel is! Make the test. See how Phillips 66 helps you balance your gasoline budget. How it brings out the best in your motor, old or new.

For record-breaking economy and improved operation, just Phill-up with Phillips at any Orange and Black 66 shield. And while you're there, why not drain and refill with Phillips 66 Motor Oil! A wonderful lubricant with marvelous lasting qualities. Refined and recommended by the friendly Phillips organization.

Phillips Pioneered
CONTROLLED VOLATILITY

No matter where you live or where you drive . . . no matter how high or low the thermometer is, or how sudden its changes . . . Phillips 66 gasoline always delivers the peak of performance. We insure that by CONTROLLING the VOLATILITY. Every gallon you buy, in every locality, is scientifically presuited to the weather when you buy it! Another big plus-value given by Phillips 66 gasoline. That's why you notice the difference the very first time you Phill-up with Phillips.

Necessary To Gain Release

Records In Clerk's Office In County Are Not Cleared Unless Mortgage Releases Are Obtained

Although you have paid off a chattel mortgage and have formal evidence to show the debt has been discharged, you are not cleared in records of the county clerk's office until you have obtained a mortgage release, it was explained Thursday afternoon.

Ed Allen, county clerk, suggested that immediately upon paying a mortgage on personal property, the person thus relieved come to the clerks office and obtain a mortgage release. Otherwise the only documents on file still list him as mortgagor, and his credit standing may be affected. A fee of 25 cents is charged for issuance of a mortgage release.

Several to a dozen mortgage releases often are obtained simultaneously by a person who months earlier had dissolved the debts but had not been officially recorded as having done so, attaches of the county clerk's office said. A farmer recently obtained 28 mortgage releases at one time here.

Mortgagees may obtain the releases but ordinarily authorize the clerk to issue them, upon payment of fees, to the persons whose property was held as security.

Bill Thomas, promising pitcher on the staff of the Indianapolis Indians, conditioned himself for the season by shoveling dirt at $1.50 a day at the Tribe's stadium.

It's O. K., Girls!

Although many beach towns of southern California have stringent bathing suit ordinances, that does not seem to be the case at Hermosa Beach. At any rate, this outfit is o. k. at Hermosa. The girl? LaWanna Capton, 17.

Motion To Revoke Probation Granted; Man Is Sentenced

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20. (AP)—James Doull, alias Doll, was sentenced to five years in prison today by Federal Judge A. F. St. Sure after a motion to revoke probation granted him a year ago on a charge of driving a stolen motor car from Corpus Christi, Tex., to San Francisco was granted.

Probation Officer Charles Upton said Doull left here shortly after being freed on probation, that he failed to report, and was later arrested at La Salle, Ill., on an assault charge. He was returned here from La Salle.

Schooner is believed to be derived from "scoon", an old Scotch and dialectical word meaning to skip or skim over the surface of the water.

Three Minute Relief From Periodical Pain

It is so unnecessary to suffer month after month from inorganic pains, because "B. C." will bring soothing relief in three minutes. "B. C." is prepared by a registered pharmacist, compounded on a different principle from most relief-giving agencies in that it contains several ingredients, used by many physicians, so blended and proportioned as to accomplish in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in short a time. "B. C." should be used for the relief of colds, headaches and neuralgia muscular aches and pains, reducing fever and for quieting a stressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. Get "B. C." in 25c and 50c packages, wherever drugs are sold.—(adv.)

Federal Deficit Continues Heavy

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—With economies and governmental changes in progress designed to even the nation's outgo and income columns the deficit for the present fiscal year has crept above the billion and a half mark.

The treasury statement for April 18 showed today that on that date the government had spent $1,503,846,688 more since last July 1 than it had collected. Its income from all sources amounted to $1,598,325,881 and its expenses totaled $3,102,172,570. On April 17, the deficit was $1,494,031,360.

The statement showed a continued decline in income tax receipts with a total for the fiscal year of $576,803,798 as compared with $863,841,850 in the same period a year ago. Miscellaneous internal revenue showed an increase, however, totaling $637,365,778 as compared with $406,199,390 in the same period of the 1932 fiscal year.

Customs receipts returned only $200,249,109 as compared with $283,597,605 a year ago.

Few of the economies have yet gone into effect or will have any opportunity to make themselves felt during the present fiscal year.

Play To The Galleries Is Charged To FDR By Bishop

COLUMBUS, O., April 20. (AP)—Delivery of beer to the White House soon after the 3.2 per cent brew was legalized was described today in a publicly-expressed opinion by Bishop H. Lester Smith of the Methodist-Episcopal church, as a "play to the galleries" on the part of President Roosevelt.

The churchman said he was in Washington when the first beer truck went to the White House and said the incident was as "cheap a thing as you would expect from a ward politician." Bishop Smith is one of the leaders of Ohio prohibition forces.
