Volunteer Fire Dept. Favors Bond Issue

At the regular business meeting of the Memphis Volunteer Fire Department held Monday evening, the members voted to endorse the passage of the bond issue for the construction of a new City Hall, Fire Station, Police Station and Community Center, it was announced Tuesday.

This decision was reached after the issue had been discussed and explained to the membership, W. E. Leslie, spokesmen for the department, said. The item of primary concern to the Fire Department is more adequate space and

Chamber Of Commerce Issues Statement

The project of a new City Hall and Community Building was on the past year's program of work of the Chamber of Commerce, Jack Norman, president of the organization, said this week.

At the regular February meeting of the board of directors, Feb. 12, 1962, a program of work covering various activities of the organization was adopted. This was divided into several branches of endeavor, like agriculture, civic affairs, etc. Under civic affairs, the number one project was a "new City Hall and Community Building," and H. E. Craig was chairman of that committee, appointed by Bill Baten, last year's president, Norman said.

The 1962 program of work was published in The Memphis Democrat, issue of Feb. 15, 1962, he pointed out.

On Jan. 8 of this year, the City Council called an election for Feb. 2 to vote on a bond issue to build a new City Hall and Community Center.

At their last regular meeting, Jan. 14, the Chamber of Commerce directors voted to have Fact Sheets, giving information about the election, delivered to homes in Memphis in an effort to get out correct information on the project, Norman said.

It has been the aim of the Chamber of Commerce to make Memphis a better place in which to live and do business, as well as to work for the growth and progress of the community. It has, also, been a policy of the organization not to try to tell anyone HOW to vote, but to urge that they vote their honest convictions on every issue, he explained.

"It is my personal view that Memphis will be set back 10 years if this project is turned down," Norman said.

Memphis Voters Saturday Decide Fate Of Proposed Public Building

Memphis Captures Top Spot In District 2-A

The Memphis Cyclone Tuesday night, before one of the largest crowds of supporters to ever assemble in Cyclone Gymnasium, edged past the scrapping Lefors Pirates team, 33-32, when the final buzzer sounded during a scramble for a jumped ball. In the scramble, Dwight Gailey was fouled, and while the teams left the floor, Gailey hit two straight baskets to make the final score 35-32.

The Memphis team moved into undisputed first place and have an unspoiled record at the close of the first half of district play.

Second-half playoffs start Friday night for the Cyclone when they travel to Wellington. Then next Tuesday, the Cyclone plays host to the Canadian team here. B games all begin at 6:30.

Memphis fans saw their favorites jump off to a 6 to 2 lead in the first minutes of the game. At the end of the first period the score was 11 to 8. At halftime, the Memphis team maintained their 3-point lead with an 18-15 score.

In the third period of play, however, the basket became very elusive for the Memphis lads and the Lefors squad forged ahead 26-24. Beginning the fourth period the Lefors team, nursing a two-point lead, went into a stall. This continued for three minutes, but a determined Memphis team forged back into the lead. The local team increased the lead, making several free throws, until they had a comfortable 5-point edge with only a minute left in the game. However, the fast Pirates were able to come up with two quick baskets to get within one point of the local team. However, Memphis maintained their lead, thus coming out of the hard-fought contest victorious.

Anthony McCool of Lefors was the game's high scorer with 13 points while Jacky Bridges scored 11 points. Other scorers for Memphis included: Dwight Gailey and Wayne Sweatt 4.

Memphis-Clarendon

Last Friday night at Clarendon, the Memphis squad lost one of their starters near the first of the game, when Dwight Gailey twisted an ankle. James Waites replaced Gailey in the lineup for Memphis. The local squad had to overcome a first quarter deficit to win the game 44 to 35.

John Corley was Clarendon's high point man with 11 points while Jacky Bridges racked up 19 points to be the high point man for Memphis. Dale Sexton scored 13 points, Bill Pounds 8, and Wayne Sweatt 4.

Coach Bob Martin said that, even though James Waites did not score during the game, he was pleased with his defensive and offensive play, and that he did an outstanding job of rebounding.

In commenting on the Memphis-Lefors game, Coach Martin said, "it was the coldest night of shooting we have had since we played Silverton. We hit 26 per cent of our shots while Lefors, in the first half, hit better than 50 per cent, 6 of 11 shots."

"After I went home from the game," the coach said, "it was the first time this season I felt we can win this district. We just have to win three of the next five to get a tie or possibly win."

Memphis is leading with a 5 win, 0 loss record. Lefors and McLean have a 2 loss, 3 win record, while Wellington and Canadian have a 2 win, 3 loss record. Clarendon lost all 5 of their games.

Coach Martin said that, after the tension built up for the Memphis-Lefors game, the job the local will face this week is preparing for the Memphis-Wellington contest Friday night. "We just can't afford a let-down at this point," he said.

The Memphis team has a season record of 15 wins, 5 losses. The season scoring averages for the top five boys include: Jacky Bridges 14.8, Dwight Gailey 10.5, Bill Pounds 8.1, Dale Sexton 8, and Wayne Sweatt 4.36. Since Gailey did not play more than two minutes in the Clarendon game due to an ankle injury, his average was figured on 19 games. Dale Sexton, since district play, has been scoring well above his pre-district record, and his season average has been climbing steadily.

Atalantean Club Endorses Plans For Community Building

Members of the Atalantean Club went on record this week as endorsing the bond election to build a new City Hall, Fire Station and Community Building for the City of Memphis, Mrs. David Aronofsky, president, stated Tuesday.

The bond election will be held Saturday, Feb. 2.

"Members of the club feel this is a worthwhile project and one that is needed for the growth and development of the city. It is a project for which the club has long felt the need existed," Mrs. Aronofsky stated.

Voting To Take Place In City Hall With Polls Opening At 8 A. M., Closing 7 P. M.

Voters who reside in the city limits of Memphis, have property rendered on the city tax roll, have a poll tax or are exempted from paying a poll tax due to age, have resided in Memphis six months and the State of Texas one year, will go to the polls and vote Saturday on the proposed $135,000 bond issue for the building of a new City Hall, Fire Station, Police Station, offices and Community Building. Votes will be cast in the City Hall.

J. W. Coppedge will be the presiding judge, and clerks will be Mrs. Robert Moss and Mrs. Margaret Phillips. Mrs. Jack Boone will be the judge. The polls will open at 8 a. m. and will close at 7 p. m.

Twelve persons voted absentee in the election. Absentee voting closed at midnight Jan. 29, City Secretary A. L. Gailey announced.

If the bond issue carries, the building will be constructed on presently owned city property located across the street east of the First Presbyterian Church, on the corner of 8th and Robertson Streets.

If the voters approve the bond issue, it will then be up to the Memphis City Council to determine what size of structure, and what proportions of space will be allocated in the building. It is being discussed that the Council will appoint a building committee which will work with an architect and the Council in determining the plans and specifications for the structure.

Tentative plans, however, call for a building with 112,836 square feet, with parking areas around it.

The municipal bonds, if voted, would mature serially over a period of 25 years. It is stated by the financial adviser to the City Council that a tax increase of 7.15 per cent would be necessary to retire the bonds.

The increase would be effected by changing the basis of assessment of property from the present 35 per cent of actual value to 37½ per cent of actual value. The present tax rate of $1.40 per $100 assessed valuation will not be changed, it was announced.

The city's present assessed valuation is $4,777,677 for 1962 based on 35 per cent of actual value. The estimated assessed valuation of the city after the basis of assessment change (to 37½ per cent) would be $5,143,125.

A simple way of determining what the increase would be is to take what was paid last year and multiply that figure by .0715. (If a present property owner is paying $49.00 a year city taxes, multiply this times .0715 and it will show an answer of $3.50. This is how much the bond issue would cost this property owner).

The financial adviser gave this example: The actual value of a house is $10,000. At present the house is assessed at a value of $3,500 (35 per cent of actual) and the property owner is paying $49.00 per year in taxes (the tax rate is $1.40 per $100 of assessed value). If the bonds carry and are issued and the assessment basis is raised to 37½ per cent, the house will be assessed at a value of $3,750 and the property owner will pay $52.50 per year in taxes; the tax rate remaining the same. This is an increase of $3.50 in taxes yearly, or a percentage increase of 7.15 per cent.

If the issue carries, plans and specifications will have to be drawn up, the contract let, and construction completed before the building is ready for occupancy.

A list of the rental charges of the Wellington Community Building was released this week to give city residents an idea of what other communities are charging individuals and groups for using the Community Building facilities. If the issue carries, it will be up to the Memphis City Council to set the charges for use of the Memphis Community Building. The rental on the Wellington Community Building is as fol-

'63 Feed Grain Sign-Up Begins

The sign-up for the 1963 Feed Grain program will begin Friday, Feb. 1, 1963 and will continue through Friday, March 22, 1963, it was announced this week by Lynn McKown, ASCS office manager.

The 1963 Feed Grain Program will be a voluntary program as in 1962. Farmers who participate will receive a total payment of $15.00 per acre on a county average for the acreage diverted plus $1.71 per cwt. for all grain sorghum produced on the remaining base acreage, he said.

There will be no change permitted in intended diverted acreage after the close of the sign-up period. If a producer signs up to reduce his base acreage 40 percent, he will not be permitted to change his intentions to 20 percent and receive payments and price support.

All farms in which a cooperator has an interest must be planted within their base acreage, he explained.

Producers with feed grain bases who plan not to plant feed grain for 1963 can participate and receive $13.20 per acre (county average) on the smaller of 25 acres or their base acreage.

All acreage diverted from Grain Sorghum and Wheat for 1963 can be grazed through May 1, 1963 and will be released for fall grazing on November 1, 1963. The acreage diverted must have a summer cover of peas, sudan grass or sweet sorghum. Also, with prior approval of the county committee, clean tillage may be approved as a conservation use for diverted acres. If approved peas are used for cover, there will be an additional ACP payment made of approximately $3.00 per acre. This will require an additional request by the producer, he said.

During the 1962 Feed Grain Program completed in December, 1962, 420 producers were paid $244,574 for participating in the program.

BRIDGES DRIVES—Above is shown the Cyclone's leading scorer Jacky Bridges shooting a lay-up in the Memphis-Clarendon game last Friday night at Clarendon. Bridges scored 19 points in the game. No. 23 is James Waites, who replaced Dwight Gailey in the line-up when Gailey turned an ankle. Clarendon boys shown are No. 30 Dwight McAnear and No. 34 Elmore.

Sleep, Walking Very Healthful!

The winter months in the Panhandle of Texas are always unfavorable months for outside activities, however, residents in this area on those days when the temperatures does rise above the chilly mark should spend some of their time out-of-doors. Many of the health agencies are encouraging citizens to take care of themselves by practicing health building principals.

The Texas State Department of Health this week stated that the supersonic speed which many of us go through life is costing us one of the most vital ingredients of good health—sleep.

Twenty years ago people got plenty of sleep and were better off for it, because citizens don't feel they have got their money's worth out of their TV sets unless they watch the midnight movie. So at 12:15 or 12:30 each night they stagger to bed. The alarm clock wakes them up at 7 or 7:30 the next morning, allowing them about 6 hours of sleep (counting the times during the night they were disturbed by cat fights, dog barkings, wrong number telephone calls, and those restless tumbles caused by that thrilling late movie.)

Doctors say that if you stay up 18 to 20 hours each day and follow this routine for a week or so at a time, the first thing you'll notice is your hands jumping from nervousness. A dull ache will begin gnawing at the base of your skull. You'll be picky and indifferent toward food. You'll be quarrelsome—projecting casual remarks out of proportion. It will sound like an insult when someone says hello. You might think a good night's sleep will fix you up. Maybe it will—on the surface. The nervousness might leave you and the headache might disappear. It could be that a single night of sleep will give you the sweet disposition that was formerly sour grapes.

But it's all on the surface. During the stretch of sleeplessness your heart may have been strained, your blood pressure increased, your digestion upset. Sleep gives the human body a chance to recover from the fatigue of one trying day before the assault of the next. And it has to be natural to be beneficial. That's why sleeping potions are undesirable as a steady diet.

Most people have no trouble getting to sleep if they forget their problems and relax a little before bed time.

Then, another healthful habit for those who sit down all the time is the simple practice of taking a walk. A recent study of Americans, and their daily exercise, was revealing in that it showed that we were literally riding ourselves to the hospital and to poor physical condition.

Why is it that Europeans, with a lesser standard of living and fewer luxuries, and fewer automobiles, are in better physical condition than we are? Why is it that in a test of sixteen and eighteen year olds, a couple of years ago, the youths of Europe were found to be in better condition than our youngsters?

The big reason, according to many experts, is that Americans ride everywhere and get very little exercise regularly. The European gets it—even in a hardier climate. He walks to work, or uses a bicycle. The children walk to school in a much sterner climate than most of us experience.

Try walking to work instead of driving—and refuse the rides offered you. Tell friends you're out for the exercise, and let your children walk some every day, regardless of what other children do.

Your reward will be inevitable, in the form of better health and a better looking and functioning body.

Red China And Wars

The Red Chinese continue to argue that wars are necessary and that wars are the necessities that will bring capitalism crashing down upon its ears. But even the Russians refuse to accept this line any longer.

The Russians realize war with nuclear weapons is genocide and that such a war would leave no one victorious. The Chinese, because they have 700,000,000 people, which is too many, feel they can win even though sacrificing several hundred millions.

The fallacy of their reasoning, of course, is that conditions would be such that even the three or four hundred million remaining Chinese would have nothing to gain in their "survival accomplishment." The world as we know it would be wrecked and it would take far longer than a generation to rebuild it back to where it had been upon the outbreak of nuclear war.

Unfortunately the Lenin-Marx doctrine did not contemplate nor take into consideration nuclear bombs and Red Chinese Marxists cling to the outdated concepts of the founders of Communism in an age where the consequences of war have greatly changed. Today there can obviously be no real winners in a nuclear war.

Indeed, a good case can be made for the assertion that most wars accomplish nothing. Some save freedom but most of them, all fought in the name of democracy or freedom, or religion, do not save anything.

Old Time Newspapers!

B. M. NELSON in the Castro County News (Dimmitt): We liked the following excerpt from Don's column, "There I've Said It," in the Arizona Record at Globe, so we lifted it so you can read it too. Here it is:

In the printing trade, "journeyman" is the master of his craft. He's qualified to travel. He can walk into any printing shop in the country, hang up his slug and turn in a good day's work for a day's pay, with little or no briefing necessary. To many old-timers in the trade, an International Typographical Union card is still a "traveler's" card.

It was the "traveler," or master printer, who brought newspapers to the West. With an apronful of type, a typecase or two, an all-purpose masthead and a hand press, the traveler would find himself a good frontier town and start a newspaper.

He'd usually print a single copy and post it on the bulletin board out front. The next edition would come out when there was enough news to fill it. Meanwhile, the editor would make a living by printing auction handbills, government posters and sale notices.

If the editor was lucky, the town and newspaper would keep growing and there'd be advertising and, eventually, a subscription list. There were no bookkeeping machines, no billing forms. In matters financial, it was catch-as-catch-can.

On the front page, one of the first editors of the Brewery Gulch Gazette in Bisbee billed his delinquent subscribers thusly:

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

We would like to have it understood that an editor has to eat and drink and wear clothes, etc., just like a miner or a gambler or any other useful member of society.

The reason we mention this is because some of our subscribers are behind in their subscriptions and we do not only need the money but want it NOW.

In the last three months four men have passed on, cashed in, and three of those four owed us money for delinquent subscriptions.

Life is short and we know not when we may be called to a better world. So let us pay up our subscriptions, so that we may face death with a smiling face and a clear conscience.

Good Advice

An ambitious yet discouraged young man called on a sucessful businessman one morning to ask him the secret of his success.

"It is no secret," replied the businessman, "whatever you do, do well; and continually do it better and better."

"But," said the young man, "there isn't anything at all that I can do."

"A wise thinker," said the businessman, "once gave us something like this: Every man born into the world has work born with him. Now, you too, have some activity. What is it?"

Hesitatingly the young man answered, "I make soap."

"Well, you can make a success at that as well as anything else. Go home, young man, and make better soap today than you have ever made before—and tomorrow improve on that."

The young man followed the advice. He made different bars and added a scent to the soap, which was an innovation. He gradually improved on this new product, and the soap he thought unsalable

His measure as a man depends on your measure as a parent!

How can you add to your measure? Going to worship is the simple act of faith that makes man and boy just a little taller.

In our complex and often trying world, faith offers its own answers to the problems that weigh on you. Next time you say to yourself, "But what can I do?" about the "unsolvable" difficulties of today, remember that peace in the world starts with peace in you.

Go to worship, take your family to church with you, this week. Your faith reaffirms the sacredness of Man and Life. And a better world starts with this very idea!

FIND THE STRENGTH FOR YOUR LIFE...

Worship together this week!

Dale Sexton Receives Dee Henry Award Sun.

Dale Sexton, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Ziegler and a senior in MHS, was presented the Dee Henry Memorial Award by Sam Sammuels at the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame Annual Presentation Ceremony at the YMCA Building in Amarillo Sunday.

He was presented a certificate and a small trophy and his name was placed on a standing plaque which is kept on display. In accepting the award, Dale expressed his thanks to those who make the award possible and to the Memphis Coaches, Don Lambert and Bob Martin for the encouragement and help they had given him.

The Dee Henry Award is presented each year to the most courageous athlete in the Panhandle. The award was given to Sexton for his courage in continuing to play football and basketball after losing four of his fingers in an accident last August. Dale was the second recipient of the award. Dee Henry's father and brother were present at the time the award was presented.

Frank Kimbrough was selected as the fifth member of the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame, along with Cal Farley, Bob Seeds, Blair Cherry and Joe Fortenberry. Jerry Hale, basketball coach at Dumas High School, was named outstanding coach of the year and Jerry Logan of West Texas State was named the outstanding athlete of the year.

Attending the ceremonies from Memphis were Mrs. S. M. Ziegler, Ann Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Sexton of Amarillo, Hubert Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Pounds, Coaches Don Lambert and Bob Martin, and Bill Combs.

Friday night the upset victory of the Wellington Skyrockets over the Lefors Pirates, 55-54, and the Memphis victory over Clarendon, gave the local team the first place in district standings. Then, Tuesday night a packed crowd of fans watched Memphis lads slip past the Pirates 35-32 to go two games up. At this time, Memphis is in the drivers seat in the district, however, five games are yet to be played and the local team needs to win either three or four of them to win.

Memphis fans who missed the Lefors game Tuesday night missed one of the outstanding basketball games of this decade. Coming together was one team which had speed and good shooters pitted against another who had good height, good shooting, and average speed. The game was so close and the tension was so keen that when the game was over, in the Memphis dressing room, the local lads were stunned into silence, while in the other, the Lefors team's leading scorer, Anthony McCool, was so frustrated that he slammed his fist into a mirrow in the dressing room which resulted in many cuts to his hand and fingers. Both teams wanted the win. But in every contest, there is a winner and a loser.

In other district contests this week, Memphis beat Clarendon, McLean beat Canadian, Canadian defeated Clarendon and McLean downed Wellington.

In District 9-B play this week, the Lakeview girls were defeated by the Matador girls, which knocked Lakeview out of the running for first-half district championship. Quitaque defeated Turkey to stay on top in the boys division of the district. Estelline defeated Elmont. The boys championship may be decided Friday night at Estelline when Coach Jimmy Don Adams' team plays Quitaque at Estelline. If Estelline wins, they will be tied with Quitaque for top place.

The schedule of games calls for Estelline to host Quitaque Friday, and to go to Turkey next Tuesday. Lakeview is scheduled to host Flomot boys Friday night, and will travel to Quitaque Tuesday night. Memphis goes to Wellington Friday night and will host the Canadian team next Tuesday night. Fans are reminded that the District Boys Tournament of 9-B will be held at Lakeview Feb. 15-15-16 and the Girls Tournament will be held at Lakeview Feb. 21-22-23. There is still a lot of basketball to be played yet.

4-H, FFA Boys Win Places In Amarillo Show

Hall County 4-H and FFA members made a good showing in the Amarillo Show last week, it was announced.

Sam Houston, a Memphis 4-H Club boy, placed second and fourth with his Senior Angus heifer calves.

Dana Gibson, a Lakeview FFA member placed second and fourth in the Spotted Poland China barrow class. Mike Nabers placed 8th in the same class while John D. Millins placed 14th in the Berkshire class.

In the Heavy Weight Hereford steer class, Donnita Byars of Lakeview placed 13th, and Kim Hutchins of Estelline 4-H placed 19th.

In the Medium Hereford Steer class, Kelley Hutchins, a 4-H Club boy from Estelline placed 26th and 32nd, and Donnita Byars placed 31st.

County Agent W. B. Hooser announced that Johnny Fuston, a Turkey 4-H Club boy, will show his Angus medium weight steer in the El Paso Show. He will also show his light weight Hereford steer in the El Paso Show. His Angus steer placed Grand Champion in the Hall County Show this month and was bred by Bradley 3 Ranch of Memphis. The Hereford steer was bred by Jake Hess.

Sam Houston will show his Grand Champion Angus heifer in the El Paso Show. The animal won Grand Champion of the Annual Hall County 4-H and FFA Livestock Show. "This is the first time in 26 years an Angus female ever won Grand Champion in the Hall County Show," Agent Hooser said.

Information Is Given On Dist. 10-B Tournament

Announcement was made this week by school officials of Lakeview Ind. School District that the District 10-B boys and girls basketball tournament will be held at Lakeview this season. The boys tournament will be held Feb. 14-15-16 while the girls tournament will be Feb. 21-22-23.

It was also announced that the District 10-B basketball committee voted to charge 50 cents for student admission and $1.00 for adult admission to the district tournaments. The gate receipts is divided equally between all the schools in the district, it was announced.

An explanation was also given about the organization of the tournaments. Friday, Feb. 8, the round-robin play-off portion of the district will be completed. The winning team in the round-robin will win half of the district crown. If another team wins the tournament, they win half of the crown. A one game play-off would be held on a neutral court. If the same team wins both the round-robin and the tournament, then naturally, there would be no play-off.

Hall Countians Purchase $11,656 In Savings Bonds

December Savings Bonds sales in Hall County were $11,656 according to Mr. O. L. Helm, Chairman of the Hall County Savings Bonds Committee. During 1962 the citizens of this county purchased $117,303, which represents 61.7 percent of the 1962 sales goal of $190,000.

Sales in Texas during 1962 totaled 3143,146,965 which is 86.7 percent of the state goal of $165,100,000.

U. S. Treasury records disclose that the number of individual bonds issued during 1962 set a five-year record with over 73 million individual bonds issued during the year. The number of $50 bonds purchased was the highest amount since the war years, and the sale of $25 bonds was at a five-year record.

"The increase sales of the smaller demonation bonds are a direct result of the Freedom Bond Drive, when over one million American workers enrolled in the Payroll Savings Plan for bond buying. This was a 15 percent increase over 1961," Chairman Helm reported.

Delphian Club Enjoys Program On 'Health'

The Delphian Club met in the home of Mrs. R. H. Wherry Jan. 22, at 4 p. m.

Mrs. Clyde Smith, president, called the meeting to order by asking for a few moments of silent prayer. This was followed by the pledge to the flag. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The subject for the afternoon was "Health" and was introduced by the program chairman, Mrs. Henry Hays.

Mrs. C. D. Keith's subject was "The Food and Drug Administration." She stated that this administration has tightened its controls over the clinical investigations of new drugs. The new rules require that the Food and Drug Administration be given notice and full details about the distribution of drugs intended for investigational use. These were brought into being by a result of the use of thalidomide.

Mrs. Sim Reed, in discussing "Wonder Drugs and Wonder Bugs" said, "Less than 20 years ago a fabulous 'new era' of medicine—or so it was supposed to be—was ushered in by the 'wonder drugs,' the germ killers extraordinary." She discussed sulfanilimide, penicillin, aureomycin, terramycin and others. She continued, "But a dark picture has come forth. As drugs slaughter some microbes, others relieved of competition, grow to fill the vacancy. However, antibiotics have saved millions of lives since 1945. Even now, as the bugs fight back, they continue to save lives. More than 20 different biotics are being employed today."

Hall County Soil Conservation District News

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman said today the U. S. Department of Agriculture was "ready to go ahead" with public recreational development in watershed projects as authorized by the Food and Agriculture Act of 1962.

USDA was authorized to help create, enlarge, or improve bodies of water within watershed projects to provide for a full range of water-based sports, and to assist in developing recreational areas bordering the water.

"These developments will help meet the growing demand for new outdoor recreational facilities, and at the same time broaden the scope and local benefits of watershed projects," Secretary Freeman said.

The recreational facilities would lure outsiders to the area, and would provide the type recreation that industrialists seek for their employees in searching for new plant sites, Soil Conservation Service Officials explained. On nearby land, private landowners could develop supporting recreational facilities, such as cottages, hunting preserves.

The development would bring town and country interest closer together and thereby promote soil and water conservation activities, which protect and improve farm and ranch land, according to the SCS. This in turn would contribute to an improved agricultural economy.

The Department is ready to help local watershed sponsors develop these recreational areas. Funds are available under USDA's regular $60.6 million watershed appropiation for fiscal year 1963. Construction could begin on the first of these projects in early 1963.

USDA was authorized to bear up to 50% of the cost of land, easements and right-of-way, construction, and minimum basic facilities needed for public access to and use of the recreational area. The cost sharing and technical help would be provided through the Soil Conservation Service.

Land bordering the water could be developed for picnicking, camping, hunting or other outdoor uses. SCS would provide local sponsors with funds to cover up to half of the land costs and also help local sponsors pay for the land inundated for recreational purposes.

Minimum basic facilities which could be cost shared include boat docks, beach development, picnic tables and fireplaces, parking lots, public water supply, sanitary facilities, roads and trails and other similar or related facilities needed for public health, safety, access to, and use of the recreational area.

Local sponsors could charge admission fee to meet their annual operating and maintenance costs. Watershed residents would also derive other benefits from the development.

"There has been a dramatic increase in the Nations need for additional recreation areas during the past decade," Secretary Freeman said.

"At present some [illegible] acres of privately owned [illegible] being used for recreation [illegible] mates are that by 19[illegible] need 85 million acres for [illegible] pose. Watershed projects [illegible] a long way in fulfilling [illegible]

Vote For The Bond Issue Feb. 2, 1963

To Build a New

City Hall and Community Building

Our City has been showing progress and improvement for the past several years, and another step in this forward movement will be the construction of a new Public Building to be located across the street east of the First Presbyterian Church.

This proposed building will become a reality if the majority of the voters of Memphis go to the polling place Saturday, February 2nd, 1963, and vote FOR the issuance of bonds to pay costs of construction of the structure. The Public Building Bonds will amount to $135,000.

As the date of the election nears, more interest is being shown in the proposed new Public Building. Many questions are being asked by citizens who are interested in getting the facts, and in order to help clarify these, the following is submited for your information:

1. The issuance of the bonds will necessitate an increase in city taxes only of slightly more that 7% to pay them off in 25 years, according to information brought before the City Council. The tax increase on a $10,000 home would be $3.50 a year, and all other property would be assessed accordingly.

2. The need for a new City Hall with expanded and modern facilities for all departments is recognized by everyone. The present structure is very old, and has served its purpose. From now on it is inadequate from all standpoints.

3. The need for an auditorium to serve as a Community Center becomes greater each year. Much has been said since the end of World War II about this, and just about every organization has endorsed the proposal from time to time during the past years.

4. Memphis is growing and new industries are being established here. These, along with those which have been here for many years have a need for better facilities from time to time. And the future and expanded needs of our city are not in sight.

5. A long-standing need has been a larger and more modern Fire Station, with sufficient space to take care of this department and its equipment. Members of the Volunteer Fire Dept. are numbered among the most active boosters for the new public building.

To summarize: The need exists TODAY for this new building, which is, in fact, just another progressive step for our community.

CONSIDER THE PROPOSAL CAREFULLY . . . AND GO TO THE CITY HALL SATURDAY, FEB. 2nd, 1963, AND VOTE FOR THE PUBLIC BUILDING BONDS

Gladys Dickson Becomes Bride Of Raymond Dale Bizzell In Arkansas

On Saturday evening Dec. 1 at 7:30 P. M. in a candlelight service in Grace Baptist Church, DeQueen, Ark. Miss Gladys Dickson became the bride of Raymond Dale Bizzell. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd T. Dickson and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bizzell of Lockesburg, Ark.

A white wrought-iron arch entwined with emerald foliage interspearsed with white stock was the central altar decoration. A large white satin bow held a cluster of white rosebuds and two silver wedding bells atop the arch. The arch was flanked by tall white tapers in seven branched candlelabra. Two tall floor baskets of white gladioli and 'mums with foliage were used in the foreground to complete the decorations.

The bride's uncle, the Rev. J. B. Estes, pastor of the Philadelphian Freewill Baptist Church of Weatherford, Tex., officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony.

Mrs. H. B. Carruth, organist, played a program of nuptial music and the traditional wedding marches were used. She accompanied Mr. Robert Lightner of Dallas, who sang "Because" and "Lord Bless This House."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor length wedding gown. The Chantilly lace bodice dipped to a V at front and back waist. The demure scolloped sabrina neckline was enriched with miniature seed pearls and irridescent sequins. The long sleeves ended in petal points over the hands. The graceful wing skirt of acetate Peau de Soie had appliques of matching lace at the sides. The softly draped butterfly skirt-back was accented with self bows. Her triple waist-length veil of French illusion was attached to a standing crown tiara, traced with seed pearls and glitter sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of feathered carnations centered with an orchid, showered with French maline and satin streamers tied in love knots. For something borrowed the namesake Aunt of the bride, Mrs. Joe H. Baten, pinned her ice blue crystal brooch at the brides waistline.

Mrs. Joe Ferrell, of Covington, Ky. attended her siser as matron of honor. Miss Ruth Bizzell, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Toza Estes, cousin of the bride were the brides-maids. The attendants wore street - length dresses of aqua silk organza over acetate satin. The bodice was designed with scooped neck-lines and brief sleeves. The butterfly skirt was topped by a softly draped midriff and caught at the center front by a self material rose. Their head pieces were aqua bonnet-brimmed half hats with two-tier veil circlets. They carried nosegays of pink and white feathered carnations and mums interspeased with lillies of the valley.

Melissa Estes, cousin of the bride and Karole Kaye Dickson, niece of the bride, were flower girls. They wore pale green polished cotton dresses fashioned with round necklines, cap sleeves and a full gathered skirt complimented by a cumberbund. Their head pieces were white net shoulder length veils caught to a bandeau by a pale green velvet bow and puffs of French maline. They carried white flower baskets and dropped pink carnation petals.

Kenneth Bizzell served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Carol and James Dickson, brothers of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dickson chose a navy blue crepe dress with an alencon lace yoke and front pannel, with winter white and bone accessories. Mrs. Bizzell, the mother of the bridegroom chose a shadow plaid Faille dress of pale blue, pink and gold, fashioned with round neckline and bracelet length sleeves. Her accessories were black. Their corsages were white feathered carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. Joe H. Baten, assisted by Mrs. J. B. Estes and Mrs. Bailey Estes, all aunts of the bride, was hostess at a reception in the church parlor. The bride's table, laid with an echru lace cloth over green, was centered with the four-tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Miss Lynda Brown, cousin of the bridegroom, registered the guests. Mrs. Carol Dickson served the cake and Mrs. James Dickson, the punch.

For travel the bride wore a bright red embossed Faille dress with black accessories and pinned an orchid corsage at her shoulder.

After a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Bizzell are at home in DeQueen.

Rehearsal Luncheon

Miss Gladys Edna Dickson and Raymond Dale Bizzell and the members of their bridal party were entertained at a rehearsal luncheon at Stafford's preceding their wedding. A tall arrangement of white gladioli and pink mums with emerald foliage centered the long table.

Covers were laid for the bride elect and her fiance and for Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bizzell, Mr. Kenneth Bizzell and Miss Ruth Bizzell of Lockesburg, Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Estes of Weatherford, Roy Dee Estes of Dallas, Mrs. Joe Ferrell of Covington, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Carol Boyd Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Dickson and Karole Kaye Dickson, DeQueen; Mrs. Bailey Estes and Misses Toza and Melissa Estes, and Mrs. Joe Baten of Clarendon and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd T. Dickson.

Mrs. Aronofsky invited the members into the den, where they found their names on place cards at a table shaped in the form of a horseshoe laid with a white cloth, china and silverware, with yellow lighted candles in white holders placed at intervals along the table.

Mrs. H. B. Estes gave the invocation. The menu consisted of scrambled eggs, small link sausages, sliced pineapple with coconut frosted banana halves, peach preserves, tiny tea biscuits and coffee.

Mrs. L. E. Barrett, chairman of the social committee, began the program, "A Time of Memory," by recognizing each member's birthday by reading an appropriate verse for each month of the year beginning with January. Mrs. Barrett introduced Mrs. N. A. Hightower who cleverly gave a mock radio program. As Mrs. Hightower tuned in the "radio" on an Atalantean Club program, the narrator, Mrs. K. B. Chick, recalled some memories of the club over the past 35 years. Mrs. Chick concluded her talk with these words, "Women have come and gone in this club, but their history remains with us and has helped to make our club what it is today. There is a heritage that this club possesses that will remain with it always."

The meeting was closed with the group singing one verse of the song, "Auld Lang Syne," out of reverence for the past "ere we face the future again."

Methodist WSCS Concludes Study At Monday Meet

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday, Jan. 28, at 3 p. m. in the Methodist Church annex to conclude the study, "Today's Children for Tomorrow's World."

Mrs. J. B. Thompson opened the program with an uplifting meditation based on Chapter four of the study book, "Responsible Adults for Tomorrow's World" by James Ault. She read verses from the Book of Mark saying that the "Kingdom of God comes before family. Also that the church is a community of the called, giving its members spiritual food." Mrs. Thompson led in prayer.

Mrs. J. J. McDaniel, as leader of the study, introduced the program.

Mrs. Lee Brown gave a comprehensive review of "The Church's Responsibility for the Aging." She stated that the church made up of God's people exists for the world on God's behalf. "We cannot love God and not love the aging," she said.

In her splendid talk on race relations, Mrs. W. F. McElreath attempted to answer the question: "What are we teaching our children about race by our words, actions and attitudes?" She stated that all races are precious in God's sight and, furthermore, there are no virtues, vices, or skills that belong to one race any more than to another.

Mrs. J. M. Baker read three goals from the Charter of Racial Policies of the Woman's Division.

Mrs. W. I. Glosson enlarged upon the question, "What do we teach our children about money? Do we set the right example with our spending and emphasize Christian use of money?"

Mrs. Thompson divided the members into two groups: one, the voice of the handicapped people, and the other the voice of the church for an impressive responsive reading. She concluded with this poem:

"I saw tomorrow look at me
Through little children's eyes,
And thought how carefully
we'd teach
If only we were wise."

Those present, other than the above mentioned, were: Mmes. M. G. Tarver, N. A. Hightower, Myrtis Phelan, L. G. DeBerry and F. W. Foxhall.

GTC Teaching Economics Course To Personnel

General Telephone Company of the Southwest is now offering management personnel in its five-state area an economics course.

The course, one of two planned, is "Freedom vs Communism: The Economics of Survival."

"Two few Americans have understood the many aspects of the total Communist challenge—ideological, political, and economic. Particularly, most Americans do not understand the economic challenge and all its implications," said Northern Division Manager Mills Roberts.

Basically, the course does not attempt to examine in detail the contrasting ideologies of the United States and Communist countries. The course is not designed to develop experts in either system. "It is just an opportunity to gain greater economic understanding while comparing two major economic systems," Roberts said.

The course specifically is designed to let participants gain a knowledge of how the United States' private competitive economic system operates as contrasted with the Communist economic system.

"This allows participants to develop an understanding of the role of consumers, employees, businessmen, and investors in our economic system and to compare the roles of their counterparts in a Communist economic system. And this in turn shows the roles played by government in the two systems," Roberts explained.

Memphis PCA Predicts New Credit Demands

An active credit year during 1962 and forecasts for new credit peaks in 1963 were recorded by the Memphis Production Credit Association in a year-end report released this week by the agricultural financial institution.

Loan volume of the home-owned and operated Memphis PCA hit a near-record mark of $3,709,072 in 1962, an increase of more than $468,000 over the 1961 volume of $3,240,909, General Manager James Van Pelt reported.

"Our volume is higher than normal at this time due to late crops and late repayments," Van Pelt said. "It looks like another new loan peak coming up this year."

A bright outlook for agriculture in the association's nine-county area of Northwest Texas in 1963 is foreseen. "The present outlook for small grains is good, and moisture conditions are also good for this time of year," Van Pelt said.

The Memphis Production Credit Association, owned and operated in its entirety by 587 farmers and rancher stockholders, provides short and intermediate-term agricultural credit in Donley, Collingsworth, Hall, Childress, Motley, Cottle, Hardeman, Foard and Eastern Briscoe counties.

The association's assets total $1,963,106, and net worth is $433,676. A total of $54,221,004 in agricultural credit has been extended by the association since its organization in January 1934.

Loan funds are obtained through sale of bonds on the nation's commercial money market by the Intermeriate Credit Bank of Houston, discount and supervisory agency for all 37 PCA groups in Texas.

"We have but one reason for our existence," Van Pelt explained, "and that is to provide a dependable source of agricultural credit in our areas at the lowest possible cost."

The board of directors and loan committee of the association are composed of working farmers and ranchers, each intimately acquainted with agricultural conditions and problems of the area. Professional credit counselling is offered to help each borrower realize greater profits through sound credit practices, Van Pelt pointed out.

Serving on the board of directors are President J. C. Emmert of Wellington, Vice President John E. Glover of Childress, L. M. Bartlett of Childress, W. W. George of Turkey and W. C. McClendon of Paducah.

Association offices are operated in Memphis, Wellington, Matador, Paducah and Quanah. Office personnel includes General Manager Van Pelt, Assistant Manager Billy R. Jones, Treasurer Sue Hutcherson and Clerk-Stenographers Pauline Wynn and Sharon Rogers, all of the Memphis central office;

Also, Field Representative Herbert Bearden and Clerk-Stenographer Clovis Rainey of Wellington, Field Representative Ward Rattan and Clerk-Stenographer Helen Meyer of Matador and Field Representative Chester Havins and Clerk-Stenographer Mary Davis of Paducah.

Since their organization in 1933 and 1934, the 37 home-owned and operated Production Credit Association in Texas have provided more than $3 billion in agricultural credit to farmers and ranchers throughout the state's 254 counties.

introduced a resolution esolution 68) in this new ion of the Congress ask- a nine-member House be appointed to inves- government's real pro- dings and to prepare a inventory. The purpose to formulate recommen- to which property we'd which we'd sell. The also would establish management policies af- ining what policies are fect. Sales would follow.

We have built up in this nation a stockpile of land and buildings every bit as extravagant as that exposed in last year's Senate investigation into the stockpiling of strategic materials. We've accumulated heaps of unwanted chromite, tungsten, lead, nickel, feathers and other substances, all in the name of preparedness. President Kennedy is expected to ask soon for authority to sell surplus stockpile items. I believe we should carry this approach a step farther by investigating and arranging to dispose of part of our real estate stockpile.

This is the eight-year history of our mounting accumulation of real and personal property: 1955, $227.9 billion; 1956, $235.4 billion; 1957, $249.1 billion; 1958, $262 billion; 1959, $264.5 billion; 1960, $275.9 billion; 1961, $282-.9 billion; 1962, $213.3 billion.

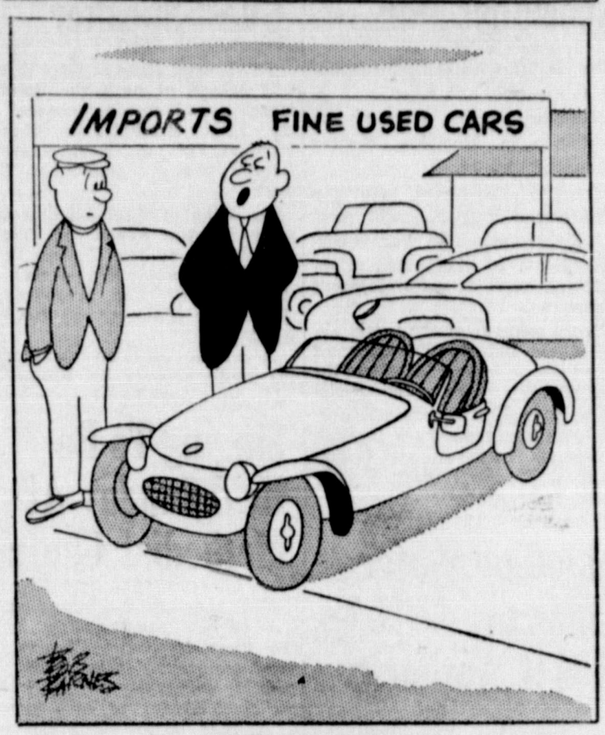

The House Committee on Government Operations has released its annual inventory report of government holdings, real and personal. It is an excellent report, but it does not constitute the item-by-item listing I'd like to see. Some agencies have provided better information than others; a committee staff member told me, "This year we have information from the Defense Department that never was available before." According to the committee, the Treasury Department was fully cooperative. I think, however, that because the job is so immense a special committee should be assigned to it. That my resolution seeks to accomplish.

For the first time in recent history, this year's report shows the total value of government holdings to exceed the national debt total. Had we sold everything as of last July 1 for the listed value, the United States could have liquidated its real and personal holdings for a total of $499 .4 billion. On that date the debt was $298.2 billion. We'd have been in the clear by $1.2 billion but we'd miss those B-52'2 and the Capitol.

The dollar values listed in the report are deceptively low. Much of the property was entered at acquisition cost. The 18 acres of land surrounding the White House are officially valued at only $1,-000. The government's total real estate holdings of 72 million acres —an area four and a half times the size of Texas—are valued at only $86 billion. Although Amarillo Air Force Base is not specifically mentioned in the report, its land and buildings are valued by the Air Force at $74,851,048, a figure that might represent not more than half of the actual replacement cost.

The government buys and buys, and rarely sells. We have vast areas of land and military bases and warehouses and factories and waterfront property that private business could put to work. We don't know how much our government owns or how much it's worth. We should find out. We should begin to take steps to sell some of it.

Funeral Services Held Wednesday For J. H. Vandiver

Joe Hardy Vandiver, 77, long-time Memphis resident, died at 11 p. m. Monday in a local hospital. Mr. Vandiver had lived in Hall County since 1916.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the First Methodist Church with the Rev. J. B. Thompson, pastor, officiating.

Interment was in Fairview Cemetery with services under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home. Graveside rites were conducted by the IOOF Lodge.

Mr. Vandiver was born Nov. 10, 1885, in Cooke County. He married Miss Hettie M. Kemp on Dec. 25, 1906, in Grayson County.

The couple moved to Memphis in 1916. Mr. Vandiver was in the grocery business here for about 30 years. For the past eight years he had been a real estate agent.

He was a member of the Methodist Church and the Memphis IOOF Lodge No. 444.

Survivors include his wife of Memphis; three sons, Ralph J. of Hialeah, Fla., Douglas O. of Dallas and Harold O. of Amarillo; a daughter, Mrs. Helen Pauline Pittman of Dallas; nine grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Pall bearers were W. D. Young, Olin Nabers, C. J. Wynn, Jr., W. H. Reed, Jr., Odis Stilwell and Bob Abram.

to light after 40 days without a newspaper. Leading car dealers reported sales off 75 per cent. To quote one of the dealers, 'If you can't tell people what you have, you can't sell it.' Business in downtown stores has slipped from 4 to 20 per cent with the largest department stores the hardest hit, those who can afford radio and tv advertising. Florists are hurt by the lack of obituary columns, since people cannot read of the demise of friends. The strikers are not the only ones losing, there is a growing uneasiness among New Yorkers who are out of touch with the world and their own city. They are faced with a situation which threatens not only morale but the city government and public safety. The lack of newspapers is proving they are indispensible to order and progress—as well as enlightenment."

The cost of an education keeps climbing. Latest figures show that "Ole Miss" has a student, Meredith by name, getting part of his education there during the first semester. Such education has cost the U. S. Government 4½ million dollars. Quite a cry from some people I know who chambermaided for a horse or cow and waited on table in order to get a little bit of college learning.

The Informer finally moved last weekend to the former Assembly of God Church building about two blocks west of the former location. J. Claude Wells, now one of the publishers of The Memphis Democrat, established the Informer in 1910, and it had not been moved since that time until last weekend. We trust it will be at least 50 years more before it moves again.

—The Hedley Informer

Tomorrow must be the first of February. It has to be because today is the last of the coldest January I can recall. More than half of the winter season has passed, yet February can also be a cold one—but in a shorter period of time.

Sometimes February brings birth to sandstorms, which continue through March and into April. Farmers are anxious to get their farmlands listed to prevent losing good soil. Most have already done that chore. Some have not due to lack of moisture, and the weather people seem to be lax in sending that very necessary product. Another thing about it staying dry, wheat crops need moisture badly, if pasturage and yield is to be helped. The year 1963 will go down in agricultural history as one of the most varied, unexplained, unexpected, unpredicted, yet in the end turned out to be unprecedented as to expected yield.

facilities for the department. Space and facilities in the present building are not adequate for the most efficient and effective operation of the department, it was explained.

It was announced by the department that the recent extreme cold weather has pointed up one of the weaknesses of the Fire Department, namely, the fact that two of the four pieces of equipment cannot be housed in the present fire station. This has resulted in considerable delay in getting the vehicles into service when they are needed. It was explained that one night the department's grass fire fighting truck's water storage tank was found to be frozen. Two of the trucks are housed in the Finch & DeWees Building.

"The members of the department are fully aware that delay is one of the things that keeps a Fire Department from doing its best work," Leslie said. "Many, many times the difference of one or two minutes can mean the difference between saving and losing a building from fire or could even mean the difference between saving and losing a life."

Estelline Water Company Sells To Red R. Authority

A transaction was completed recently selling the Estelline Water Company to the Red River Authority of Texas, it was announced this week by Paul Buchanan, owner of the Estelline water facility.

Mr. Buchanan owned the water system for the past 12 years, purchasing it from Roy Dick, Jr., in July, 1951.
