W. E. D. STOKES SEOT BY ACTRESS

SHOOTING OF NEW YORK MILLIONAIRE CAUSES SENSATION.

MANY DIFFERENT STORIES

Are Told Concerning Tragedy—Letters In The Case.

Special to The Times.

New York, June 8.—Not since the killing of Stanford White by Harry Thaw has New York been stirred by such a sensational shooting as that of last night when W. E. D. Stokes, the millionaire real estate dealer and horseman was shot and dangerously wounded at the apartments of two young women. Stokes was in a serious condition this morning although his physicians believe he will recover.

Lillian Graham, the well known actress and Ethel Conrad, the illustrator, who were charged with the shooting at the police station are in a state of collapse. Three Japanese servants at the apartments of the young ladies on West Eightieth street are held at witnesses.

Conflicting stories are told concerning the shooting and the solution of the mystery is puzzling the public.

Stokes' attorney said his client went to the girls' apartments on receiving a message from Miss Conrad to get some letters which Stokes denies he wrote. The lawyer says that upon the arrival of Stokes the doors were immediately locked and that Miss Graham drew a revolver and pointing to a pad on a desk at one side of the room demanded "Give me $25,000 and sign this agreement."

The lawyer says that Stokes refused to do this whereupon Miss Graham fired two shots at him both of them taking effect but that the wounded man closed in upon the woman and wrenched the revolver from her grasp. Upon being disarmed Miss Conrad called upon Miss Graham to fire upon him which she did as Stokes backed into the hall way. Stokes had no sooner reached the hallway when he was set upon by three Japanese servants.

Miss Graham in a statement after the shooting says that Stokes came to her apartments demanding letters which he admitted having written and when she told him she did not have the letters that Stokes turned upon her in a flury and catching her by the throat started to choke her. She says she then fired upon him and that Stokes wrenched the pistol from her hand and shot at her. The shot failed to take effect.

Mr. Stokes is one of the best known horsemen in the country and owns a fine breeding farm at Lexington, Ky. Feb. 11, last he was married to Miss Helen Elwood of Denver, Colo.

Miss Graham has lately appeared in vaudeville, while Miss Conrad has been drawning pictures and writing articles for a well known fashion magazine.

Jacob H. Schiff, multi-millionaire New York banker and power in big corporations, who has been honored by the Kaiser during his stay in Berlin. Mr. Schiff was the recipient of a cordial invitation from the German Emperor to a private audience, which took place at the new Potsdam Palace.

EARNEST SPEECHES AT PROHI MEETING

GOV. COLQUITT CRITICISED

His Decliration Is Notice That He Is Not In Sympathy With Enforcement of Law, Declared Dr. Hamlin.

Recent statements by Governor Colquitt in which that official is reported to have said that statewide prohibition would be a failure because it could not be enforced were denounced as anarchistic by Rev. R. R. Hamlin in an address at the prohibition meeting at the courthouse Wednesday night.

Referring to Governor Colquitt's declaration Rev. Hamlin said:

"This is a remarkable and strange declaration coming from an official elected and sworn to see that the laws of the people are enforced. It is in effect a notice that the governor is not in sympathy with the enforcement of law and is in the nature of anarchy. And I am not so certain it does not border on treason. One definition of treason is to give aid and comfort to the enemy. Governor Colquitt's declaration certainly gives aid and comfort to the enemies of the home, the state and the church."

Rev. Hamlin expressed a belief that statewide prohibition coud be enforced as well as any of the other laws on the statute books pointing out instances where other laws were not enforced in spots. For instance he said the law against swearing was not enforced in Wichita Falls. "I have wondered why we have deaf officers," he said. "Out of the last twenty-six times I have been downtown I have heard men swear ninteteen of those times. The law against swearing is not enforced here. There would some places where the prohibition law would not be enforced. There are many places in Texas where men cannot openly swear upon the streets or in public places."

Dr. Hamlin said that the antis were trying to switch the prohis from the main issue. He cited court decisions showing that no one had an inherent right to sell liquor and that the liquor traffic could exist only as the people license it." Every last one of us are in the saloon business. We are all partners in it. I want to get out of it. That is the issue in this campaign. Don't let anybody divert the issue," he said.

"There's only one way to get out of it," he continued, "and that is to pro-

Ex-Congressman J. J. Adams, who is named by United States District Attorney Wise, following his dramatic charge during his summing up in the United Wireless case in New York, as the man who tried to influence the Government's attorney with money. The district attorney declares that he will request the Bar Association to take up the case and, if the allegations are proved, disbar the congressman. This done, he says, he will then consider what further punishment along more serious lines can be meted out to the attorney whom he accuses with having tried to interfere with justice.

FORCES ORGANIZED FOR THE BATTLE

FEDERALS AND INSURRECTOS WILL CLASH IN PRELIMINARY SKIRMISH MONDAY.

DAYES AND SMITHEDA

Are Leaders of Contending Forces And Picked Men Are Enlisted.

The Federals and the Insurrecto forces of the Y. M. C. A. organized to conduct one of the most active campaigns in the history of Wichita Falls, are lining up and the battle promises to rage fiercely beginning with next Monday.

In connection with the great skirmish there will be heard the roar of battle, not from the cannon's mouth, but it will be the voice of the persausive forces engaged in this struggle for leadership in the membership campaign. Again will be heard the bugle call, not of the army trumpeter, but from those who have enlisted in this worthy cause, calling the men of our city forth to battle for physical and spiritual liberty.

If the plans materalize as have been outlined by the leaders in this cause the Y. M. C. A. will derive a great benefit and not only will the city be awakened to an appreciation of the value of this institution, but the membership will be largely increased as well.

As heretofore outlined in The Times, the purpose of this contest of military pattern is primarily to secure new members and to influence those whose membership expires this month to renew for another year in order that the organization may be perpetuated.

As heretofore stated the contending forces are being organized and indications point to an outbreak with buch enthusiasm. Manifestos will be issued by the Commanding Generals on Saturday after which activities will begin.

The forces as announced today are as follows:

Insurrectos.

General Commanding—Fredrico La-Happy Maderos-Dayes.

Tomez LaTolando—Vicera Stamplifo Francisco Jose Arkinsoa—Henri Orizaba Youngera.

Francisco Colliermo—Gullermo H. McDowelles.

aPtricka Henrera—Jamesco M. Blankenshipsco.

Lamar Diaz Faino.

Federals

General Commanding Don Jose—J. O. Smitheda.

T. C. Thatcherimo—W. E. Huffdedido.

W. J. Bullockada—J. W. Bradleyanna.

ROOT AMENDMENT WILL BE REPORTED

FINANCE COMMITTEE WILL REPORT CANADIAN RECIPROCITY WITH THE AMENDMENT.

NO RECCOMMENDATIONS

Bailey First Voted Against Reporting Measure And Then Changed Vote.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., June 8.—The Senate finance committee has agreed to report the Canadian reciprocity treaty with the Root amendment added.

The bill will be reported Tuesday without recommendation. The vote for the Root amendment was eight to six. Senator Bailey voted for it. An attempt to authorize an unfavorable report resulted in a tie vote, Bailey, Gallinger and Simmons after voting against the motion to report the bill without recommendation changed and allowed this motion to pass.

The Root amendment requires the admission of American wood pulp and paper into Canada duty free. Other amendments were voted down including one proposed by a proposition to reduce instead of removing the duties on live stock and farm products. The House free list bill was also defeated as an amendment. The latter provision was offered by Bailey and received only his vote and those of Simmons and Kern. Simmons amendment to include flour and meats in the free list was also defeated.

Cherries Free to all Comers.

San Leandro, Cal., June 8—Thousands of boxes of lucious cherries are ready for distribution to all visitors to the annual San Leandro Cherry Carnival, which is open tomorrow and continue over Saturday. In addition to giving away the fruit there will be numerous other features to attract visitors and it is expected that a record breaking crowd will be on hand during the two days' festivities. An illumination of the city and a grand ball will usher in the Carnival tomorrow night. The King and Queen of the Carnival will be crowned Saturday morning and the rest of day will be given over to floral parades and mardi gras revels.

DELIVERY WINDOW WILL OPEN ONLY 30 MINUTES

Postmaster Bacon announces that in the future the delivery window at the postoffice will be kept open on Sundays for only thirty minutes, from 9 to 9:30 and on holidays for one hour. In this connection Mr. Bacon requests that parties living in the city refrain from inquiring for mail on Sundays except in cases where important mail is expected in order that the public may get out of the habit of expecting mail on this day, which is intended for rest and should apply to the postoffice clerks as well as to those who work in other lines. The postmaster is given the power to decline to deliver mail at all on Sunday except in cases where written notice that important mail is expected has been given on Saturday. He does not wish to invoke this authority, but it may become necessary unless people accustom themselves to refrain from calling at the window. In this connection it is suggested that those who expect mail of importance should give written notice to this effect on Saturday.

MURDER TRIAL ATTRACTS ATTENTION

Temporary Insanity Will be Plea of Maryland Man Who Slew His Mother and Attacked Two Others.

Rockville, Md., June 8.—In the circuit court here next Monday Richard W. Allnutt will be placed on trial for the alleged murder of his sister, Mrs Valeria A. Veirs. He is also charged with having murdeously assaulted his eighty-year-old mother, Mrs. Margaret Allnutt, and Miss Jane Rawlings, at the same time. Much interest is evinced in the case in view of the extreme atrocity of the deeds of which the young man is accused and the prominence of the family to which he belongs.

The killing of Mrs. Veirs and the attacks on the other two women occurred on March 14 last at the home of Mrs. Margaret Allnutt near Dawsonville, this county. Several months before, Richard W. Allnutt had married and after his marriage he and his wife had boarded at the home of his brother, Lawrence Allnutt, at Dawsonville.

For some time prior to the tragedy differences had existed between Richard W. Allnutt and his mother and sister. The mother, her widowed daughter, Mrs. Veirs, fifty-nine years old, and Miss Rawlings, sixty years old, occupied the old home. Richard wished to bring his wife there and asked for one-half of the house. To this the women however, took a different view of the matter and brooded over his fancied wrongs.

Although the favorite brother in the eyes of Mrs. Veirs, much of Allnutt's animosity was directed against her, and when he went to the family home on the morning of the tragedy, and met her in the dining room, he was seized with a mania to slay.

The man is alleged to have grabbed the handle of a pitchfork and viciously attacked his sister, his aged mother, and the latter's old friend and companion, Miss Rawlings, who happened to be in the room. Mrs. Veirs' skull was crushed her face was battered, and one arm was broken. She died that night. Mrs. Allnutt and Miss Rawlings were also painfully cut and bruised about the head and face, and for a week or more their condition was critical, but they finally recovered.

Allnutt fled from the scene of the crime to the home of his brother where he was arrested later in the day and brought to Rockville, where he has since been confined in jail.

The accused is forty-four years old and a son of the late Nathan W. Allnutt, one of the leading lawyers of this section, and is the brother of Henry C. Allnutt, for many years register of wills of the county. At the coming trial every effort will be made to prove that Richard was temporarily insane at the time he is alleged to have murdered his sister. During his confinement he has suffered from extreme nervousness and is said to be on the verge of a complete break down. Several times he has been examined by noted alienists.

Allnutt's bride of a few months has remaind steadfast in her loyalty to him. His brother and other members of his family are also standing by him in his troubles. His aged mother, who is still suffering from the shock of the murderous attack made upon her, displays the greatest compassion for her son and it is expected she will do all in her power to have him declared insane.

CARE OF THE NEW-BORN BABE.

The Prevention of Blindness—Don't Forget to Give It Water.

From Woman's World.

After the doctor had started home Miss Jones, the nurse, prepared to give the baby its first bath. First she washed its eyes carefully with the boracic acid solution. She explained that this was to prevent any possible blindness. Sometimes, during the birth of a baby, disease germs get into its eyes and, unless they are removed immediately, they could cause permanent blindness in a few days. So for this reason every new baby's eyes should be thoroughly cleansed. It is estimated that 70 per cent of the blindness in the world might have been prevented by this simple precaution.

After the eyes were attended to, Miss Jones washed the little mouth very carefully. She did this by wrapping a piece of gauze around her finger and using it as a swab whereby she could reach every portion of the wee mouth.

Then she took some warm olive oil and gently rubbed it over the baby's entire body. With a piece of soft cloth she carefully wiped off the oil. This left the body very nice and clean and really cleansed it better than could have been done with soap and water. She was very careful to cleanse every little fold of the skin.

She dressed the cord by applying alcohol to the severed portion, being careful that none of it reached the under skin, and then wrapping the cord in a piece of sterile gauze. The end was turned toward the left side of the body and held in place by a soft flannel band. This band consisted of a piece of soft, white flannel about eight inches wide and long enough to go once and a half around the waist. The sides and ends were not hemmed, but were notched so they would not ravel. The band was drawn snugly around the waist and pinned in front with four small safety pins. Some nurses prefer to sew the band on with a few stitches so as to avoid all danger of pin pricks. The few stitches can be removed each morning in about the same time that it takes to remove the pins.

The nurse then put on a soft flannel shirt, a diaper made of soft absorbent material, a flannel pinning blanket which was folded up over the little feet, and a dainty little kimono. Then she gave the baby a teaspoonful of water (without sugar) and after wrapping it in its blanket with only a small portion of the face exposed, she laid it upon its right side and it immediately went to the valves of the heart should close soon after birth, and if the baby is laid on its right side this assists in the closure. If it does not close, the blood cannot circulate as it should and we would have what is called a "blue baby," which seldom lives very long.

During the first month of their lives babies need to be fed every two hours during the day and once between 10 at night and 6 in the morning. Before each meal the nipple and baby's mouth should be cleansed with a solution of boracic acid. If a baby is awakened to be fed regularly the first few days of its life it soon acquires the habit of awakening at regular intervals. It is better for both the baby and its mother that there should be regular periods for feeding. It gives the mother a better chance to plan her work. A baby can be "spoiled" the first few days of its life, or it can form habits that will make its care much less irksome.

During the first few weeks of its life a baby should sleep the greater part of the time. If it is awakened to be fed at regular intervals the results are good. Babies tire of lying in one position as well as older people do. The change of position when being fed rests the little body. After the baby has finished its meal the clothes should be carefully adjusted so as to be more comfortable, and the baby put back to bed. A young baby should not be rocked nor held between meals. Quiet is necessary for the development of the nervovus system. The habit of jolting young babies on the knee is very injurious and often forms the foundation for an irritable

Babies require water between meals. They get thirsty the same as older people do. If very thirsty, milk does not satisfy the thirst, so frequently the baby requires water immediately after nursing. Often when the baby cries, all it needs is a drink of water. It is well to provide a bottle with a nipple and give the baby a drink several times a day. The water should be neither very cold nor hot. It should not contain sugar. The habit of giving the baby sugar frequently is the cause of colic.

The baby should be bathed every morning and an entire change of clothing provided. For the first week or two, the olive oil rub or a quick sponge with warm water is best. If any soap is used it should be some bland soap, as pure castile. After the navel has healed the baby may be given a tub bath every morning. It should not be left in the water more than two or three minutes at a time.

FIVE MEN CONTROL COUNTRY'S WEALTH

Startling Statement by Congressman Copley—Railroads, Telegraph, etc., Owned by Them.

Washington, D. C., June 8.—Absolute control of the railroad, telegraph telephone, iron and steel industries in the hands of five men, who are the principal owners of the United States Steel corporation, according to a statement by Representative Ira Copley of Illinois in the graduation address to Bliss Electrical school held last night at Carroll institute.

In addition to this, Representative Copley said, the same men control 70 per cent of the banking interests of New York, and practically all gas and electrical plants in the country are dominated by them.

Mr. Copley addressed his remarks principally to the young men and told them it was their duty to endeavor to remedy those evils. He declared the country was facing the same problems as in 1861, and that it would take all the strength of the greatest statesmen to bring the powerful trust under federal regulation.

"We are face to face, he said, with the greatest problem of our existence. In 1860 the question was, Shall the union be supreme? In 1862 it was, Shall 4,000,000 black men remain in bondage? And now, Shall five men who dominate the United States Steel corporation rule the country by an oligarchy of wealth, or shall the people govern for the benefit of all the people, and give every man a square deal?

"The five men who control the United States Steel Corporation also control 70 per cent of all the railroads of the country. Indirectly they control nearly all the rest. They dominate all the telegraph and telephone business through ownership of the American Telegraph and Telephone company. This company in turn owns 51 per cent of all the Bell patents in this country. Less than a year ago this company bought the Western Union Telegraph company. These men also dominate the General Electric Company and the Westinghouse Electric company.

I can see but one solution—public regulation and control by competent and disinterested experts of public and interstate corporations; a tariff commission to provide for fair and scientific schedules and some board similar to that to regulate patents, copyrights ownership, and all other special privileges, a graduated income tax to prevent the accumulation of enormously swollen fortunes and a graduated inheritance tax to prevent the transmission of the same.

SAYS POOL PLAYING IS ANTI-CHRISTIAN

Arizona Man Declines to Pay Subscription to Young Men's Christian Association.

Pheonix, Ariz., June 8.—A hard problem has just been set before District Judge Kent, involving determination upon his part of a question whether the playing of pool and billiards is consistent with the practice of Christianity. The cause of the trouble lies in a subscription of $100 made by S. S. Scull, a local fruit dealer, to the building fund of the Y. M. C. A. In order to avoid the outlawing of the accounts suit has been commenced by the directors of the Y. M C. A. against about fifty delinquent subscribers.

One of these is Scull, who happens to be one of the leading members of a local evangelical sect. The defendant has answered the complaint himself, without recourse to a lawyer. He acknowledges the subscription, but states that he made it with the understanding that the association was wholly a Christian Institution, designed solely for the physical and moral health, and elevation of the young men, in harmony with the pure teachings of the religion of Jesus Christ.

He sustains his refusal to pay the sum charged against him by argument that the aims of the Y. M. C. A. have been perverted by the placing of pool and billiard tables. He alleges that these games are vicious, that they excite a passion for gambling, that they work moral injury to the young that they are commonly found in places of doubtful and vile resort, that they produce moral and spiritual dullness, of perception, and that, with their use, the discriminating sense of right and wrong is lost. The answer further alleges that "because he, himself, has been a victim of the vices which nearly destroyed his young manhood, he cannot without great violence to his conscience, a violation of his oligation to Almighty God and the principles of pure religion in the use of his money, pay the said subscription.

A DEAD STOMACH

Of What Use Is It to Anyone?

Thousands! yes hundreds of thousands of people throughout America are murdering their own stomach, the best friend they have, and in their sublime ignorance they think they are putting aside the laws of nature.

This is no sensational statement; it is a startling fact, the truth of which any honorable physician will not deny.

These thousands of people are swallowing daily huge quantities of pepsin and other strong digesters, made especially to digest the food in the stomach without any aid at all from the digestive membrane of the stomach.

In other words they are taking from the stomach the work that nature intended it should do, and are also refusing it the only chance for exercise it has. MI-O-NA stomach tablets relieve distressed stomach in five minutes. Taken regularly for a few weeks they build up the stomach and make it strong enough to digest its own food. Then indigestion, belching, sour stomach, headache and stomach misery go.

MI-O-NA stomach tablets are sold by O. F. Marchman and leading druggists everywhere at 50 cents a large box, and are guaranteed to cure all stomach distress or money back.

Wichita Falls cannot afford to stop now. We must forge ahead or fall back. Let's build good roads; do more paving and find the people who will help us build the cotton factory while the new Federal building is going up.

Here is the prettiest sermon ever preached: "Our ingress into life is naked and bare, our progress through life is filled with trouble and care; our egress out of it we know not where, but doing well here we can do well there."

It is now proposed by some one that a trust be formed for the publication of a magazine in the interest of the people, with a capital of $4,000,000. The project might work all right in the magazine business, but it won't work for newspapers. The Times knows whereof it speaks, and it is tolerably well versed on the anti-trust laws.

Some men are very poor managers, and to prove this an exchange cites us to the case of a Cleveland, Ohio, man, who claimed that he was forced to secure a divorce from his wife, alleging as his reasons that he had to buy gowns for her costing $125 each; hats from $25 to $75; a muff at $120; a diamond ring at $250; her maid's salary at $40 per month, with an equal amount per month as rent for the flat, and that after deducting these items from his annual salary he had but little left with which to pay the grocer and the butcher.

Under the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court "a good and reasonable" robber might steal your horse, and if caught, given six months within which to return the property or give assurances that he will not commit theft again. The trusts and combinations have persistently robbed and stolen illegal profits from the people of the United States for years, but they will not be required to even make restitution of their ill-gotten gains in whole or part. All that is asked of them is that they dissolve within six months and cease to extract money by means of extortion from the people.

The residents of Dallas have been notified to use water sparingly and only for certain purposes. This reminds us that in Wichita Falls no such orders have been given. There is plenty of water in Lake Wichita to run the city for at least another year or so, without regard as to whether it rains during that time or not. Ten or twelve years ago the people of this city solved the water problem when they spbscribed a sufficient amount of money to dam Holliday Creek, thereby creating a lake of water covering about 2,300 acres at an average depth of 17 feet when filled to the overflowing point. As a result of this far-sighted and good work, Wichta Falls is now wasting more water than is required to supply the actual demand of most cities of her size.

The Times does not believe, with some others, that if the people of Texas vote for state-wide prohibition the law cannot be enforced just as well as the present local option law, or other laws, and furthermore, The Times has not much confidence in any official, state or county, who will admit or confess before such laws have been tried that they cannot be enforced. In doing that, such officials are placed in the attitude of giving encourabement to law-breakers, and shows only too plain that the people made a great mistake hen they elected them to office. Any law that in the judgment of the majority of the people is reasonable, and we enacted by their consent and approval can be enforced, and those officials who are of a different opinion should at least have sufficient self-respect to resign and give the people an opportunity to place men who have enough courage to at least exhaust every resource at their disposal for law enforcement before making such admissions. In pandering to the law-breakers, they only being contempt upon themselves. If state-wide prohibition is not a good law, the people of Texas will not adopt it on July 22nd. If it is a good law they will adopt it, and then if it is not enforced the fault will be with the officials whom the people have chosen to enforce the laws.

QUICK SAND CLOGS THE SEWER PIPE

The city is having quite a little trouble with the sewer line extending from the railroad to Scott avenue, a distance of about three blocks, as the result of an accumulation of quick sand in the pipe. The trouble has been experienced for several days past and notwithstanding considerable work has been done, the end is not yet and a force of men is engaged in an attempt to bail the quick sand out with a bucket made especially for the business. If successful in the effort it will require some time to complete the job and it may develop that a new line will have to be built for the distance effected. The line along this route is located immediately under the street car track; making it impracticable to attempt to take the line up and if the city should decide to put down new piping it will be laid to one side of the car line, and a larger main than that now in use will be installed.

The sewer referred to is not entirely stopped up, but so nearly so that the water is backing up in the man holes and the condition is such that it will have to be remedied before further use can be permitted. So bad was the sand that the mill was forced to shut down for two or three days on account of the water backing into the gas pipes, but this can be remedied to such an extent that the mill was able to resume operations Tuesday morning.

The problem is a difficult one and is causing the city officials considerable worry in an attempt to figure out the best solution of the matter. It seems that the sand accumulated in the pipe from a well that was dug on the premises of the Wichita Ice Company, the water being used in connection with the drilling being emptied into the sewer, carrying with it a large quantity of the sand. If the present trouble can be remedied there is no fear of a securrance from this source as the practice was discontinued as soon as the fact became known and the company has agreed to install a sand trap as a protection against further trouble of this kind.

I. H. Robertessa—J. T. Gibsones.
C. C. Huffdedido—T. B. Noblez.
G. A. Smootabelez.

The contest will be waged for just three days, including Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and it is likely that the winning team will be given a reception after the result is announced. All members of the Association are urged to co-operate in the campaign to increase the membership and any names that may be secured will be accredited to the team suggested. The contest will be decided on the point system and the following credits will be allowed:

One point for each renewal or new member.

One point for each $2 collected in cash during the contest.

One point for each $5 contribution from citizens other than members of the Association, this offer being made in view of the fact that there are a number of contributors in the city who do not care to enroll as members.

In connection with the campaign it is announced by Secretary Webster that as a special inducement to those who renew and pay a full year they will be credited with fourteen months, and that new members paying in full will be given a discount of ten per cent in cash.

The Scavenger Tangle.

City Attorney Householder is trying to straighten out the tangle as to who's who in the matter of the scavenger work of the city.

At the suggestion of the city council Mr. Householder drafted an ordinance that was passed by that body and which requires all persons engaged in scavenger work to take out a license, the cost of which is $100. Shortly after this action by the council J. W. Mooney paid the required fee and took out a license but Mr. Householder says that there are some citizens who are still giving such work to other parties and he wishes to warn them that Mr. Mooney is the only man now who can lawfully do any work of that kind except to remove dry trash from premises.

test against it by your vote on July 22."

Probably owing to the fact that there had been such short notice given the attendance at the meeting was small. Hon. A. H. Carrigan, president of the Wichita Falls Statewide Prohibition Club presided. Dr. Hamlin delivered the principal address. Judge P. A. Martin was another speaker.

Judge Martin in his talk referred to the enforcement of the local option laws in Clay, Archer and Young counties in the Thirtieth Judicial district. He said that in the local option campaign in Clay county in which he participated he had been told repeatedly that no twelve men could be found in Clay county who would send a man to the penitentiary for boot-legging a pint of whiskey. "Since local option went into effect in Clay county three men have been brought to trial for violations of the local option laws and all three of them have been sentenced to the penitentiary," he said.

"It's awful drouthy in Clay now," he continued. "It is like the sheriff of Archer county said recently. He told me that he did not doubt but that a man could bootleg whiskey in Archer county, but that he couldn't make a living at it. One man has been indicted in Clay county for boot-legging whiskey. It is reported he has gone crazy. Another was indicted in Archer county. He went crazy and has already been adjudged insane and has been sent to the asylum."

Commenting on the presence of forty or fifty women in the audience, he said they ought to be there. "Liquor hurts the women first and it hurts them last," he said and then proceeded showing that it was the women who are always hurt the most by liquor.

Judge Martin and Hon. A. H. Carrigan both made offers of $100 to any person who could disprove their statements that the records of the courts of Wichita Falls and Wichita county would not show more criminal cases than the courts of all the other counties in the Thirtieth Judicial district combined.

The addresses of both Judge Martin and Rev. Hamlin were heard with deep interest and attention and what the meeting lacked in attendance was made up with the interest manifested.

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE CONSOLIDATION

Kell, Perkins & Cravens Have Taken Over Moore, Bullock & Ferguson Agencies.

H. O. Cravens, recently from Mexia, Texas, has associated himself with the firm of Kell, Perkins & Co., in the real estate and insurance business and the new firm has acquired by purchase the insurance business of J. H. Self recently conducted in connection with Moore & Bullock in the Kemp & Kell building. The two insurance lines have been consolidated and the business will be conducted under the firm name of Kell, Perkins & Cravens, who will occupy room 208 and 209 in the Kemp & Kell building, the former location of Moore & Bullock. Messrs Moore and Bullock will continue to make their headquarters with the new firm and will devote their attention to personal matters, while it is understood Mr. Self will remove to his farm.

The consolidation of the two lines referred to above creates one of the largest insurance agencies in the city. Mr. Cravens, who was for sometime manager of the light plant at Mexia, is a business man of unusual ability and comes highly recommended. He expects to devote his entire time to the business in which he has had previous experience.

Mr. Cravens, in discussing his investment in this city with a Times reporter, stated that he was very much pleased with Wichita Falls and had selected this city in preference to about twenty other available locations.

C. C. Allen of Allendale is in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Gwinn.

HIS NOMINATION WOULD BE CALAMITY

So Roosevelt Is Reported to Have Told Former Rough Rider.

By Associated Press.

White River Jct., Vermont, June 8.—"I shall not be a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination in 1912. I should regard it as calamity if I were nominated. I demand it of my friends that they do everything in their power to prevent movements for my nomination." This is the sense of a statement made by Roosevelt yesterday to Wallace Bachelder, a former Rough Rider as quoted by Bachelder.

Fire at 2 o'clock this afternoon did damage to the extent of about $25 at the home of R. V. Havener, corner Thirteenth and Bluff, the flames being extinguished before the department arrived on the scene. The fire is understood to have originated from a gas stove that ignited a nearby window curtain, burning the wall paper and damaging the room as indicated above.

Fights Scheduled For Tonight.

Joe Thomas versus Leo Houck, 12 rounds, at Lancaster, Pa.

Larry McLean, the sensational but erratic backstop of the Cincinnati Reds, who is working hard for Clark Griffiths. McLwan is going through the National League journey this year strapped tightly to the water wagon, which accounts for the improved article of ball he has been delivering. The long, lean, lanky Larry is there with the occasional timely bingle nowadays, and his throwing arm has practically recovered from the mess it was in earlier in the season. McLean is considered by Griffiths to be the superior of Johnny Kling. It is to laugh, you might say, but, in that event, you would have to stand up and fight Monsieur Griffiths. He is a great admirer of his star receiver in spite of the latter's inconsistency.

LADS BAT OUT ANOTHER VICTORY

HIET, THE NEW RECRUIT, HANDLES THE HICKORY TO GOOD ADVANTAGES.

GAME WENT TEN INNINGS

Green Pitched Splendid Game And Was Given Excellent Support.

Cleburne, Tex., June 8.—A batting rally in the seventh, coupled with errors by the Railroaders, won the game for the Lads here yesterday afternoon in one of the hardest fought contests of the season. T. Hiett, the former Cleburne first sacker, who has joined the Lads, was handy with the stick again today, rapping out two hits and scoring the first run for Wichita Falls. Although the Cleburne men touched Green for six hits he pitched a splendid game, keeping the hits scattered and striking out ten men. The game went ten innings. The score:

Breakfast Syrup

We never yet have seen the person who preferred any other cane syrup once they tasted Velva. It is delicious—nothing short of that. The taste lingers. There is not one single regret in as many cans as you will ever buy. There is not any half wished desire that it might be a little more sweet or a little less sweet or a little more or less of anything. It's the simon pure juice of ripe sugar cane, clarified and put up in taint tight, fermentation proof cans. The only sure, pure way for the makers to pack syrup or for you to buy it. Get the best syrup. Get Velva! Your grocer has it.

GIDEONS AND BIBLES

Placing Bibles in hotel rooms where transient guests may read them is a work mainly accomplished by a society known as "The Gideons." This is the "Christian Commercial Travelers' Association of America" and had its origin in 1899 in Boscobel, Wis., where two chance visitors in the same hotel agreed "that their profession was in need of an organization for Christian fellowship." There are 600,000 commercial travelers in the United States, and of this number only 50,000 are active Christians, says the Congregationalist and Christian World. The "live wires" in this class number 8,000 and they are called Gideons. "If a Gideon isn't a live wire he isn't a Gideon." The Bible propaganda of the Gideons arose in this way:

"The morals of the Knight of the Road in the past, taken as a class, have not been all that could be desired, but in the twelve years in which the Gideons have been working a remarkable change for better, says Secretary W. E. Henderson, has taken place.

"Two years ago Mr. N. W. Dennett, one of the trustees of the Gideons, learned when in England that the commercial travelers of Great Britain were placing Bibles in hotel rooms. The idea seemed a splendid one, so the Gideons decided to put a Bible in each guest room of every hotel in America.

"Today they have placed over 65,000 Bibles in over 600 hotels and are rapidly increasing this number. The American Bible Society, which supplies the books at one-third less than cost, on account of the Gideons' demands and those of the others are six months behind their orders.

"It takes a considerable sum to pay for 65,000 Bibles. In many of cities the churches have volunteered to supply the hotels. In some places prominent and wealthy men have paid for the Bibles in the hotels. In Kansas City a big manufacturer employing many salesmen, being convinced of the value of the work, supplied an entire hotel. Then too the lonely traveling man who has been cheered up by the Holy Book in the room has sent in his mite.

"The Gideons have been exploited in the papers principally as distributors of Bibles. But they do much other work. The members, active business men, carry the gospel to their fellow travelers as man to man. They hold meetings in hotels and have camps in most of the big cities. Every noon from 12 to 12:45 throughout the United States in hotel rooms and offices, wherever they may be, the Gideons hold a service of prayer.

"The Bibles placed in the hotels are very seldom carried off. But there are instances to the contrary. A bell boy in Denver took one from a room and was caught with it. 'Honest, Boss,' he said, 'It's the best book I ever read. Why, I am nearly through it by this time.'"

The note in the ranks of the Gideons, the New York Bible Society, under its general secretary, Rev. George W. Carter, has placed 10,000 Bibles in the hotels of New York within the past six months. The character of the 600,000 daily guests in New York hotels, as compared with many other cities, says a writer in The New York Examiner, "renders the task of supplying Bibles more delicate in some particulars." We read:

"New York hotels are not filled with traveling salesmen to an excessive degree, says Dr. Carter, 'but with tourists from other cities and countries, visitors for a season and widely varying classes of the traveling public. For that reason our Bibles plain, yet elegant in appearance, have no note or religious comment printed on them, and therefore can not be objectionable to any possible reader.'

"With remarkable unanimity responses of most cordial nature have been received from hotel managers and proprietors. Invariably the writers express appreciation, gratitude, approbation, and a desire for co-operation. 'The idea is a splendid one, and we apreciate your offer,' says one. Another writes: 'Thanking you for your courtesy in this matter, and hoping that much good will come to this cause through you.'

"Some hotels of notably smart class have requested three or four hundred Bibles. A few of the smaller hotels have asked for twenty-five or fifty, but generally the requests run into the hundreds. The most fashionable hotels of the city have proved equally willing to add Bibles to their house furnishings. One hundred leather-bound volumes went to the Hotel Savoy, 700 copies to the Plaza, and 800 to the Hotel Astor.

"'When we consider,' says Dr. Carter, 'that the majority of suicides in this city are said to occur in hotels, when we are reminded of the numbers of strangers who for one reason or another are sheltered from time to time under their roofs, we must recognize the value of the opportunity to reach those who, far from home, may find themselves in distress of mind. That the Word of God, found unexpectedly on the table of a hotel room, has more than once saved its reader from despair, is vouched for by notes to that effect left in the books.'

"Another interesting detail has come to notice recently. One of the largest, newest, and most elegant hotels of the city reports through its manager that 'not a week passes without a request being made at the office for a French 'Bible.' Accordingly when 600 Bibles were sent to this hotel some were in the French tongue. Another of the most fashionable hostelries desired 600 cards for distribution throughout the house stating that Bibles coud be procured from the hotel clerk.

"Not only to those in great hotels is the Bible thus carried, but to the hundreds of men and boys in the cheap lodging houses of the East Side. In addition to the mile and more of Bibles donated to hotels, several hundred have been placed in the reading-rooms of the lodging houses; metal racks are fastened to the wall, in which the Bibles are kept when not in use. 'It is gratifying to know,' says Dr. Carter, 'that the Bibles are read. Those persons who by their gifts to our Society have paid for such Bibles may be responsible for changing the character and destiny of many lives.'"

"SEE AMERICA FIRST" PLAN.

A Movement to Acquaint Persons With Their Own Country Is Started.

From the Baltimore Sun.

The movement for the "See America First" Exposition in Baltimore next January, is beginning to assume large proportions. From Canada to the South American countries preparations are in progress for representations in the convention and exhibit in the states beyond the Rocy Mountains the idea has been seized by the commercial associations and the touring associations, and in the Pacific Northwest one of the greatest and most comprehensive campaigns has been started that has ever been undertaken in this country.

Lecturers are to be sent to the National Education Association when it meets in San Francisco. The association proposes to get in touch with ministers and have them preach a sermon on "Seeing America First."

A central bureau is to be established whence tourists will be supplied with literature of the Pacific Northwest to induce them to route their tickets via the northern routes.

A part of the comprehensive plan is to have a "Seeing America First" Day in the Pacific Northwest, on which a series of postal cards, each with a return card addressed to the association, will be sold by the public bodies to the citizens, who will be asked to send them to Eastern and Middle Western friends, the return cards asking further information and literature.

PARIS GETS A POCKGET HOLD

From the Chicago Tribune.

Those among American visitors who are not millionaires and who come to Paris intending to shun London until after the coronation festivities, in order to avoid the extra prices charged there for the occasion, are finding out that Paris, at the height of the season, can be as expensive as any other big city in the world.

Coronation or no coronation, in spite of the much advertised London season, or perhaps because of it, Paris is enjoying one of the best Junes of recent years.

The great demand for accommodations at the better class hotels has sent up prices in an unusual way, and rooms which in the winter coud be had for $2 a day are now easily let at $5. It is almost impossible to buy seats for the theater at the usual booking offices. Speculators have obtained all the best seats for several weeks in advance and are reaping good profits. The restaurants and even taxicabs demand much more than usual, the taxicab drivers often asking extravagant prices during the afternoon shopping hours.

Americans are so numerous in Paris at present that at about midday the neighborhood of the Place de l'Opera is more suggestive of the center of some great Yankee city than the heart of the French capital.

Allendale Notes.

Miss Hattie Gwinn is visiting friends and relatives in the city this week.

Mrs. J. P. Scott and children of Terrell, Okla., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gwinn of this community.

Mr. C. C. Allen returned last week from El Reno, Okla., at which place he had been to attend the bedside of his son, who underwent a serious operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Billingsley visited friends and relatives in Wichita Sunday.

MENTAL ACCURACY

Greatly Improved by Leaving Off Coffee.

The manager of an extensive creamery in Wisconsin states that while a regular coffee drinker, he found it injurious to his health and a hindrance to the performance of his business duties.

"It impaired my digestion, gave me a distressing sense of fullness in the region of the stomach, causing a most painful and disquieting palpitation of the heart and what is worse, it muddled mmy mental faculties so as to seriously injure my business efficiency.

"I finally concluded that something would have to be done. I quit the use of coffee, short off, and began to drink Postum. The cook didn't make it right at first—she didn't boil it long enough, and I did not find it palatable and quit using it and went back to coffee and to the stomach trouble again.

"Then my wife took the matter in hand, and by following the directions on the box, faithfully, she had me drinking Postum for several days before I knew it.

"When I happened to remark that I was feeling much better than I had for a long time, she told me that I had been drinking Postum, and that accounted for it. Now we have no coffee on our table.

"My digestion has been restored, and with this improvement has come relief from the oppressive sense of fullness and palpitation of the heart that used to bother me so. I note such a gain in mental strength and acuteness that I can attend to my office work with ease and pleasure and without making the mistakes that were so annoying to me while I was using coffee.

"Postum is the greatest table drink of the times, in my humble estimation." Name given by Postum co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

STANDARD OIL ON THE FARM

It Is Used for Just About Everything Except Food.

From the Wall Street Journal.

"What is petrolem to me?" an Iowa farmer asks. With this question still troubling his mind, he proceeds to oil his motor car with a "Standard Oil" lubricant and to fill the tank with "Standard Oil" gasoline.

He walks to the barn and tells the hired man to rub "Standard Oil" hoof oil on the bay pony, to soften the new horse collar with "Standard Oil" harness and to put "Standard Oil" on axles of the wagons.

Then he returns to the house, where he finds his wife cleaning a dress with Standard Oil benzine and Standard Oil parowax. After washing his hands with Standard Oil naptha soap and rubbing a little Standard Oil vaseline upon his sore thumb, he lights a Standard Oil Rayo lamp, filled with Standard Oil kerosene, and goes to the cellar for a pot of jam, which is sealed with Standard Oil paraffin.

His wife boils some water on a Standard Oil cookstove and opens a box of biscuits that have been kept fresh in Standard Oil waxed paper. After lunch they ride to town over a road that is dressed with Standard Oil road oil, to order a 5-gallon can of Standard Oil farm oil for the concrete milkhouse that he is planning to start next week.

DON'T THAT LOOK GOOD?

Of course it looks good and it is good; and that is the kind we sell all the time; so it is no wonder that we have pleased customers all the time.

No, this is not the only good thing we have for you; in fact, we don't offer you anything but what is good.

By the way we have a good supply of tea, the kind you liked so well last summer for iced tea.

Mrs. May Wright Sewell, who, according to testimony given at the hearing of the sensational case over Ole Bull's will at Alfred Maine was a member of the Yogicult of the famous violinist's wife. "She looked at a picture with such force that the eyes moved," said one Yogi devotee of Mrs. Sewell in his testimony. An to her accomplishment of Mrs. Sewell, according to the witness, was hypnotizing a pencil, so that the next person who touched it would be hypnotized by transmission.

A movement has been started, which has for its object, additional paving, following the completion of the contract now on hand, it being the desire of a number of the business men to prosecute the work to include the extension of Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth streets to the alley between Scott and Lamar, or one block further than now provided. According to the plans outlined it is also proposed to pave Scott avenue from Sixth to Tenth, as well as to pave Tenth street with petrolithic or some similar cheaper paving. In order to do this work, however, it will be necessary to cancel a surplus of four and a half per cent bonds now on hand and unsold and vovte a new bond issue sufficient to pay for the proposed additional improvement. The matter has not as yet progressed far enough to be considered as one of the certainties of the early future, but the question will likely be discussed at the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Comemrce on next Tuesday when some action may be taken and later it may be possible that the city council will cancel the bonds voted heretofore and call an election for an issue for the purpose indicated herein.

The commissioners' room at the court house has been packed and jammed today by Wichita County property owners who await their turn to protest against the raising of their assessment. In several instances the commissioners made reductions from the figures to which they had raised assessment. It now seems improbable that the court will finish its hearing before tomorrow night.

A DRY WEATHER TALK!

In 1889 we opened our Store where we are now located, now known as 608-610 Ohio Avenue, then known only as Bean's Store—it was on a narrow, crooked path through the sunflowers that grew on either side of the road. We've been there ever since; good years, bad years, dry years, wet years, fat years, lean years and will be there for years to come. We've got lots of customers that commenced with us and its a matter of satisfaction to us that counts for more than the money we've made. We've always had the reputation of having a complete stock of the very best goods, no matter how hard the times. We assure you we are not going to loose that reputation. We believe we have always sold them as cheap as is consistent with sound business principles, good service and square treatment—that's a reputation we want to build to
