Oil Allowable Unchanged For July

By JACK KEEVER

AUSTIN (AP)—The Railroad Commission held the July allowable today to 28.1 per cent of potential, the same as in June.

The production pattern sets allowable for next month at 2,885,657 barrels per day.

Only three of the 13 major purchasers of Texas crude at the proration hearing asked for higher production.

July 1964 production was held to 2,788,685 barrels daily under a 27 per cent order.

Barrels per day nominations, by percentage, made by major crude oil purchasers at the commission hearing:

30—Texaco, 141,000.

28—Gulf 210,000 and Humble 411,765.

27.5—Sun 102,224.

27—Cities Service 80,000; Continental 26,700; Pan American 243,630; Shell 169,700; Sinclair 99,700.

26—Mobil 229,800; Standard of Texas 35,500.

25 — Atlantic Refining 72,000 and Phillips 121,630.

L. W. Brooks Jr., Breckenridge producer and president of the West Central Texas Oil and Gas Association, said the commission must find a solution to the "depressed situation in our area."

"Can it be that West Central crude is produced by the wrong people?" asked Brooks, quoting Texas laws against selective buying.

"If lower allowables are not the answer, because their action is too indirect, we feel that we are entitled to some direct and effective action by this commission."

At Request Of S. Viet

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is stepping up its war effort in Viet-Nam another notch, with 16,000 to 21,000 more American troops headed for the war zone.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said Wednesday that nine more Army and Marine combat battalions, with supply and service units "will be in place in a few weeks."

The augmentation of American troop strength, long predicted, was taken at the request of the South Vietnamese government, the defense chief told a news conference. It will bring the total of U.S. troops in Viet Nam to between 70,000 and 75,000, he said.

Will still more go later?

McNamara parried that question this way:

"The secretary of state and I and the President have repeatedly said that we will do whatever is necessary to achieve our objective in South Viet Nam, and we won't do more than is necessary."

A week ago, the State Department and White House had versions about whether U.S. troops now could be committed to offensive action, rather than only defensive. The question came up again, in another form, in McNamara's news conference: What is the mission of U.S. ground combat personnel?

McNamara replied that the mission is to protect bases where there are heavy concentrations of aircraft, equipment and personnel, then added: "In addition, if the Vietnamese military commanders request the assistance of U.S. troops, U.S. combat troops, because the Vietnamese lack the necessary reserves to effectively counter Viet Cong attacks, Gen. (William C.) Westmoreland (top American commander) has authority to send our combat troops to the assistance and support of the Vietnamese. If he didn't have that authority, a situation could arise in which very heavy loss of life could occur and in which great advantage could be won by the Viet Cong forces."

The revised total of American military personnel in Viet Nam — Army, Marines, Air Force and Navy — does not include 27,000 aboard ships of the 7th Fleet standing off the mainland. About 21,000 of the new total will be combat ground personnel, McNamara said.

This compares with a present strength of about 54,000.

The difference is equivalent to something more than a full division, which averages about 17,000 men.

But McNamara has given no indication of intending to put one or more complete divisions into Viet Nam at this time.

The procedure so far is to utilize only elements — battalions or smaller — of Army and Marine divisions.

Out of McNamara's news conference arose the possibility that elements of an entirely new division, the formation of which he announced, might be sent to Viet Nam at some point.

He said that the Army has been authorized to organize a new airmobile division as part of its current 16-division structure. Taking the name of the old 1st Cavalry Division, the outfit will have a strength of 15,787 — and be transportable by a swarm of 434 aircraft, about four times more aircraft than a conventional division possesses.

McNamara said the division, shaping up at Ft Benning, Ga., could be ready for deployment in eight weeks if necessary.

He preferred not to answer a question of whether the division or portions of it would be sent to Viet Nam.

More Casualties In Dominican Incidents

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Three Brazilian soldiers were wounded Wednesday night as rebel forces exchanged fire for nearly an hour with Brazilian and Honduran soldiers attached to the inter-American peace force.

A sergeant and two other enlisted men manning positions near the presidential palace were wounded in fighting that lasted nearly an hour, a spokesman for the force announced.

Shooting incidents earlier this week claimed the lives of three U.S. paratroopers and increased the toll of American dead in the Dominican Republic to 23.

The rebel leader, Col. Francis Caamano Deno, claimed Wednesday that 67 Dominicans were killed and 265 wounded in the heavy firing between U.S. forces and rebel supporters on Tuesday.

The Inter-American Peace Force announced that a U.S. paratrooper was killed Wednesday morning and two other U.S. soldiers died of wounds suffered in the fighting Tuesday.

Another 33 U.S. soldiers were reported wounded in shooting Tuesday and Wednesday between the peace force and the rebels in downtown Santo Domingo. A Brazilian officer wounded Tuesday was taken off the critical list.

Firing was heavy for more than three hours Wednesday afternoon along the northern corridor of the international security zone. U.S. paratroopers fired 50-caliber machine guns, recoilless rifles and other automatic weapons at buildings in the crowded slum area where snipers were believed hiding.

Caamano gave his report of casualties in the rebel sector at a news conference and accused U.S. troops of committing "an act of genocide without precedent in our country." The previous unofficial count of Dominican casualties was 26 dead and more than 75 wounded.

U.S. sources said the rebels began the fighting and Americans did not return fire until a number of rounds had been directed at them.

The rebel leader charged that a Red Cross center in Ozama fortress was "grotesquely bombed" and women and children were killed in the fortress on the west bank of the Ozama River. It faces U.S. positions on the east bank.

Cargo Is Delayed By Walkout

NEW YORK (AP) — A strike-bound freighter laden with U.S. military cargo for Greece and Turkey lay at a Brooklyn anchorage today, unable to sail without engineers.

The ship, Attleboro Victory, was idled by a widening Atlantic and Gulf Coast strike of ships' officers.

She had been scheduled to depart Wednesday from the Brooklyn Army Terminal, but the owners said her five engineers refused to sign for the voyage. Tugs moved the freighter from pier to anchorage this morning.

In past labor disputes, maritime unions customarily exempted military shipments from strikes.

"They used to pride themselves on saying that," said a spokesman for the freighter's owners, when asked about this practice.

A union spokesman remarked:

"We haven't seen a piece of paper that says it's military cargo."

Damaging Flood Batters Denver

DENVER (AP) — The worst flood in more than 30 years pounded Denver and communities to the south Wednesday night and today, leaving hundreds homeless, ripping out bridges, and causing millions of dollars in damages.

Most of Denver was without power during the night and early morning as a result of flooding of the huge Public Service Co., power plant.

So far only one death has been reported. A 69-year-old Denver man drowned after returning to his home from which he and his wife were evacuated earlier.

Floodwater roaring out of mountain cloudbursts raced down the South Platte River late Wednesday. The floods struck after tornadoes ripped through Palmer Lake south of Denver and also pounced down in an area southeast of here.

At the Valley Country Club, three golfers on the course were injured as terrific winds smashed flimsy shelter houses in which they had sought refuge.

Hundreds of persons living close to the South Platte River had to leave their homes. They were given shelter in schools and other buildings.

Water flowed into motels, restaurants and other business houses at the south edge of Denver.

Water from the South Platte overflowed into the railroad yards at the lower end of 17th Street. Union Pacific tracks at the north end of the yard were washed out. Passengers were transferred to busses and driven to a hotel.

The crest of the South Platte flood struck shortly before midnight. Another crest, three hours later, flattened out before reaching the metropolitan area.

Sinatra's Daughter Files For Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Singer Frank Sinatra's 24-year-old daughter, Nancy, has filed suit for divorce from singer Tommy Sands.

In the Superior Court action Wednesday, Miss Sinatra charged that Sands, 28, had treated her with "extreme mental cruelty and has inflicted grievous mental suffering."

Miss Sinatra and Sands were married in Las Vegas, Nev., on Sept. 12, 1960. They have no children.

Tension Is Still High In Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—West Berliners, still indignant over this week's shooting of two boaters by East German guards, paid tribute today to the victims of the revolt against communism in East Germany 12 years ago.

Because of the nature of this holiday and the latest shooting, in which Hermann Doebler, 42, was killed and his woman companion seriously wounded, police were alerted for possible disturbances along the wall.

June 17 is a national holiday known as Unity Day.

Anger over the machine-gunning Tuesday of Doebler and his fiancee continued to dominate public opinion here. All West Berlin newspapers played up the unusually sharp protest letter of U.S. Ambassador George C. McGhee to Pyotr Abrassimov, the Soviet envoy in East Berlin.

McGhee warned the Russians that the United States would take measures to protect the West Berliners. Officials declined to divulge what these measures might be.

Tuesday's shooting occurred on the Tetlow Canal when the boaters apparently strayed into East German waters by mistake.

Market Continues To Move Upward

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market plugged ahead early this afternoon but the pace of trading was considerably slower than on the previous two days of sharp rallying.

The general pattern was irregularly higher, with gains running from fractions to about a point among key stocks.

The slightly higher trend was evident on balance from the opening. After a period of hesitation, buying pressure distinctly overcame the tendency to sell.

Motors, which wobbled for most of the morning, posted a couple of thin gains. Steels moved ahead. The trend was generally higher among rubbers, aerospace issues, chemicals, electrical equipments, oils and office equipments.

Airlines and tobaccos worked a little lower.

Glowing statements by administration officials about prospects for the economy apparently overcame concern about stepped-up U.S. military commitments in South Viet Nam.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .8 at 322.5 with industrials up .9, rails up .1 and utilities unchanged.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 5.59 at 883.66.

Amid the generally firm atmosphere, however, an unusual number of sizable blocks were unloaded, most of them at lower prices. Korvette sank 3¼ to 33 on 57,000 shares. Control Data lost 2½ at 45¼ on blocks of 38,400 and 48,900 shares; Monggomery Ward was off ⅝ at 33½ on 33,400 shares. Union Pacific fell ¼ to 37¾ on 19,900 shares. Halliburton Co. was unchanged at 41⅛ on 11,500 shares.

Prices were mixed in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds were mostly unchanged in quiet dealings.

Astronauts Visit President To Accept More Honors

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Gemini 4 astronauts came to the White House today to accept medals from President Johnson and hear a presidential statement that their historic feats "closed the gap in manned space flight."

Johnson, in remarks prepared for the medal presentation ceremony, said the walk-in-space flight of astronauts James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White II clearly indicated the United States no longer trails the Soviet Union in manned flight.

And he said their achievement had done even more by raising hopes around the world for "close coooperation among all nations in exploring and using space for the common good and peaceful interests of mankind."

McDivitt and White flew in separate planes to nearby Andrews Air Force Base. Their families were with them. Helicopters picked them up and landed them on the White House grounds.

The President planned to pin on their chests the Exceptional Service medals of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Charles W. Mathews, manager of the Gemini program office of the Manned Space Center at Houston, Tex., was to receive the same award.

White's citation said that as "the first man to engage in self-propelled extra-vehicular activity" he expanded the knowledge of space environment.

McDivitt's: "His performance as command pilot significantly extended our knowledge of man's capabilities."

Mathews was honored for "his ability to resolve the most complex technological and managerial problems."

After the White House ceremony, the astronauts' crowded agenda for the day included: A motorcade to the Capitol; luncheon on the Senate side with Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey; a walk to the House side to be introduced to members of that chamber in the well of the House.

Tonight they are to be narrators of one of the most remarkable films ever made — a record of their four-day Gemini adventure. Watching and listening in the State Department auditorium will be diplomats of many nations. Then comes a reception at the State Department where the diplomats will greet the astronauts, Mathews and their families.

Wednesday, the astronauts' old home towns poured out tributes to them. The biggest crowd in the history of Jackson, Mich. — an estimated 125,000 — lined a parade route for McDivitt. A youngster's sign said "By Gemini, you did it."

Cheering throngs estimated at 150,000 greeted White at San Antonio, Tex., and referring to his birth there, he said: "It's wonderful to be back in San Antonio which gave me a good start when I was launched at Ft. Sam Houston and started me on my way."

Navy Jets Win Clash With Migs

By EDWIN Q. WHITE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Two U.S. Navy Phantom jets shot down two Communist MIG17 fighters in flames today in a dogfight 50 miles south of Hanoi, a U.S. military spokesman announced.

The clash occurred while the Phantoms were flying escort for other U.S. warplanes bombing targets about 20 miles north of Thanh Hoa.

The spokesman said four Communist jets appeared and turned toward the American planes as if they were going to attack. But apparently they were hit before they had a chance to open fire, he said.

One parachute was seen opening, but it was not known what happened to the Communist pilot. The other two MIGs escaped.

One plane was shot down by Cmdr. Louis C. Page of San Diego, Calif., who told newsmen in Saigon, "This was the first enemey aircraft I have shot down. Other than that, we were just doing a job."

The pilot of the second Phantom, Lt. (j.g.) E. D. Batson Jr. of Buffalo, N.Y., said: "I'm tickled to death."

The spokesman said the dogfight lasted only 29 seconds and that the Phantoms hit the enemy with air-to-air missiles.

It was presumed that the MIGs were North Vietnamese, although Navy planes have had one brush with Communist Chinese MIGs off Hainan Island, in the Gulf of Tonkin.

The Phantoms were flying at an altitude between 10,000 and 20,000 feet when they spotted the hostile aircraft.

Page was asked how they knew the MIGs were about to attack.

"If he's in your general area and headed toward you, you have to assume he's up to no good," the pilot replied.

The MIG17 is of Korean War vintage, armed with one 37mm cannon and two 23mm cannon. The Phantom, one of the fastest and most heavily armed fighters in the American arsenal, is equipped with heat-seeking Sidewinder missiles which home in on the exhaust trail of enemy jets.

The two pilots flew with their radio intercept officers to Saigon for a news conference. Page's officer was Lt. John C. Smith Jr. of Belleview, Ill., whose wife and children live in Powan, Calif. Batson's officer was Lt. Cmdr. Robert B. Doremus of Montclair, N.J., whose wife and children live in Wilmington, Del.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Six girls in our office go to coffee together twice a day. One girl (I'll call her Trudy) has been having trouble with her husband and for the past year every coffee break has been devoted to listening to Trudy run him down. She says he needs a psychiatrist, is involved with a married woman, etc. She asks us for advice, but never takes it. She continues to live with him and complains daily. At first we were all very sympathetic to Trudy, but our patience has run out and we would like to talk about something else for a change. How can we let her know without hurting her feelings that we are bored with her domestic affairs?

THE OTHER FIVE

DEAR FIVE: Get together and appoint the girl who is closest to Trudy as "Chairman Of The Bored." She should tell Trudy privately that the other girls deserve a break with their coffee, and she should lay off the subject. Trudy should also be advised to take her problem to her clergyman or a marriage counselor if she seriously wants to resolve them. Some people don't really want to DO anything about their problems. They just enjoy talking about them. Trudy could be one, so don't delay.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my father. He isn't mean to us kids or anything, but as soon as school is out for summer vacation, he takes all us boys down to the barbershop and has our heads shaved. I am 13 years old now and I would like to have some hair over the summer. How old do you think a boy should be for his father to stop doing this?

DEAR SHAVED: As soon as a boy is old enough to complain out of vanity, his father should discontinue the practice.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: This is for the man who complained about his wife being too fat. He said this was the reason for many marriage breakups. I want to set him straight. He's lucky he's never had to live with a woman who constantly lives and talks diets. And in order to keep herself thin she starves, and so does her poor husband. Women like her are always crabby and irritable. THEY cause more marriage break-ups than fat women. I know because I almost lost a good husband trying to diet myself into a size 12. I woke up just in time to save my marriage. Ten years ago I weighed 115. Now I'm —

DEAR ABBY: In answer to the writer who signed herself "Disgusted" because her daughter-in-law's baby still had a bottle at 13 months: She must be more concerned about appearances than what the child actually needs. It seems to be "in" to have your child more "gown up" than someone else's. Many children give up the bottle at 9 months or younger. But some need it when they're 18 months and older. Most will give it up of their own accord.

I am the mother of four and each was different. In other countries babies often nurse until they're two years old and suffer no ill effects. Children suck because they need to. Take the bottle away too soon and they'll find something else to suck — thumbs, toys, blankets. Tell "Disgusted" to let the baby be a baby. It'll grow up soon enough.

Boy's Staters Report To Kiwanians

Four Snyder youths who recently attended Boy's State in Austin gave an interesting and inspirational talk on their activities and program while at Boy's State to members of the Kiwanis Club at the club's weekly meeting Wednesday at Sallie's Cafeteria.

The boys were Bobby Beard, Fred Wiman, Doug Pitner and Bobby Birdwell. Mr. J. A. Wiman and Mr. Haskell Beard, fathers of two of the boys also attended the meeting as guests of the club.

The boys were introduced by Frank D. Stephenson, representing the local American Legion Post who sponsored the boys trip to Austin.

The boys reported on the activities of Boy's State, which is designed for training the functional aspects of citizenship. Sponsored by the American Legion, the purpose of the statewide gathering is to teach the youth of today constructive attidues toward the American form of government.

Youths attending Boy's State are elected and appointed to state posts, and actually practice operating a model government, the youths reported.

Luncheon music was furnished by the club sweetheart, Nancy Meador.

Boy Has Second Appendix Removed

DETROIT (AP) — Seven-year-old Robert Lee Carroll [illegible] Wednesday after having his appendix removed — again.

The Detroit boy lost an appendix [illegible] operation here. But it turned out he had two, because he lost another one June 4 in another appendicitis operation.

His surgeon, Dr. James R. Lloyd, termed it "a comparatively rare case."

Lloyd said, "it is well known nevertheless, that duplication of various parts of the intestinal tract can occur."

Barry Disavows 3rd Party Plans

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Disavowing any third-party plans, Barry Goldwater announced today the formation of a new organization to guide "a crusade of political education" in the tenets of conservatism.

The 1964 Republican presidential nominee announced he will be honorary chairman of the Free Society Association being formed by some of his closest political associates.

At the same time, Goldwater said he remains "a foe of any third-party move."

"I said I would not participate in any such efforts and would resist with all my strength their formation," the former Arizona senator declared. "I repeat that position today with all the emphasis at my command."

Goldwater said the new group will provide a focal point for Americans who are determined to maintain and promote America's basic principles.

He said the research, writing and study which it will conduct "is beyond the scope, responsibility or purpose" of the Republican National Committee.

On the other hand, Goldwater said, the association will conduct "no political organization tasks and back no candidates.

"I am a Republican and I intend to remain one," he said, "and in that capacity to assist the party wherever that assistance is sought is consonance with my ability to do so."

Goldwater said the association will issue reports—including a series called "The New Federalist Papers," on the principles of the Constitution and the problems now facing the nation.

Later, he said, it will use every means of mass communication including books and periodicals, radio and television to promote "the cause of freedom."

A Goldwater associate said the society aims for 400,000 to 500,000 members and a $2-million to $2.5-million annual budget at the outset.

He said membership will cost $5 for individuals, $10 for families.

Republican officials have indicated that they fear the new organization will divert from the party funds which conservative Republicans might otherwise send to the GOP itself.

Solons Speculate On New Branch

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate is expected to pass within a month the administration bill aimed at turning a national spotlight on city problems by creating a Cabinet-level Department of Housing and Urban Development.

If it does, Senate sources wouldn't be too surprised if President Johnson names Robert C. Weaver, a Negro who heads the Housing and Home Finance Agency, the first secretary of the new department.

This was the educated guessing on Capitol Hill in the wake of House approval of the bill Wednesday by a 217-184 vote.

Johnson has never even hinted who he would name to head the new department, which would be the 11th of Cabinet rank and the first added since the Department of Health, Education and Welfare was established by executive order in April 1953.

President John F. Kennedy, who originally suggested an urban affairs department, had announced he would name Weaver.

This was considered instrumental in House defeat of the proposal in 1962.

The bill would combine the activities of the Federal Housing Administration and the Federal National Mortgage Administration, both within Weaver's HHFA. In fact, Republicans suggested during the two days of House debate that all the legislation would accomplish would be to upgrade the housing agency.

Democrats rejected this argument.

The Senate has completed hearings on the bill and its Government Operations Committee is expected to endorse the measure toward the end of next week. But there is no great rush to bring the bill to the floor.

Young Mother's Motto: Be Prepared

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

A MOTHER of a toddler needs to be prepared. That alluring young person has a distinct mind of his own.

The day will come when Baby will be determined to eat all by himself. Fine! If you are a modern young mother, you'll encourage him.

But don't be surprised if there's lots of change - and - turnabout. Some days that young one will want Mother to do practically all the spooning. At those times give all the help necessary. Sooner or later, Mr. of Miss Toddler will be interested in maniuplating his tableware once again.

Are you ready to have your small fry go on a food binge? Most youngsters do. Of course you must see that he has a balanced diet, but in your determination to feed him well, never make mealtime a battleground. There are lots of different ways to give him the nutritious foods he needs every day: milk and milk products; meat, fish and eggs; cereals and breads; fruit, juices and vegetables. But if he gets a jag on a certain vegetable, meat or cereal for a time, let him enjoy his own choice.

BABY ENJOYS one of the new baby foods — strained vegetables and ham with bacon. Mmmmmmm . . . good!

Be prepared for the fact that your youngster learns to chew through chewing. Give him gradually, but regularly, foods that require him to chew.

Be prepared, too, to have Baby eat in varying amounts. He's no robot. Some days he'll down food with gusto, some days he'll want to take it easy at mealtime, and some days he may even skip a snacktime. It's what he eats over a period of time, not at just one meal, that counts. Baby may enjoy a little cajoling, but he never needs forcing.

Be alert to the fact that your child has absolutely no regard for etiquette. Food tastes just as good from fingers as it does from a spoon.

Baby Food News

If you enjoy knowing what's going on in Babyworld, you'll want to note these new foods that have been designed fr youngsters:

Strained turkey (3½ ounce jar); strained cherry vanilla pudding and strained vegetables and ham with bacon (4½ ounce jars); and junior cherry vanilla pudding and junior strained vegetables and ham with bacon (7½ ounce jars).

Savory Mayonnaise

1 cup mayonnaise
2 tablespoons chili sauce
4 teaspoons prepared horseradish
2 teaspoons chives, fresh or freeze-dried
1 teaspoon paprika

Thoroughly mix together all the ingredients; refrigerate for 1 hour or longer to allow flavors to blend.

Mrs. McMillan Hostess To Plainview H-D

The Plainview Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday at the Northeast community center for a salad luncheon at 12:30, with Mrs. W. E. McMillan as hostess.

Following the meal a business session was held. A demonstration on new fabrics in clothing was given by clothing leaders Mrs. Clarence Moore and Mrs. Mozell Roggenstein. Mrs. Guy Stoker received the lucky lady gift and Mrs. Marion Dabbs won recreation.

A film was shown by Mrs. Stoker on her recent trip to Hawaii, which proved interesting and educational.

Those present were Mrs. Guy Stoker and Mrs. Marion Dabbs, guests, and members, Mmes. Wanda Eicke, John Floyd, Jessie Koonsman, W. E. McMillan, C. E. Moore, Mozell Roggenstein and Oran Sturdivant.

Hermleigh OES No. 974 Instalation

Mrs. Georgia Davidson was installed as Worthy Matron, Tuesday night at a closed installation in the Masonic Hall in Hermleigh. Mrs. Davidson is a member of the Inter-Chapter Goodwill Committee, Grand Chapter of Texas, O.E.S., and a past matron of Hermleigh chapter.

John W. Jordan was installed as Worthy Patron.

Dr. R. O. Fuqua, Past Grand Patron, Grand Chapter of Texas, O.E.S., was Installing Grand Officer. Mrs. Clara Fuqua, Grand Representative from New Hampshire to Texas, served as Installing Grand Marshal. Other installing officers were: Mildred Sparks, Snyder, Installing Grand Chaplain; Pat James, Hermleigh, Installing Grand Organist; Nora Jo Denson, Dunn, Installing Grand Secretary; and Billy Joe York, Hylton, Installing Grand Warder.

Special music was presented by Laura Arnold who sang "End of a Perfect Day" and Mary Lou Crawford sang "Moon River."

Georgia Davidson, Worthy Matron, presented gifts to her installing Grand Officers and to the Jr. Past Patron. A gift was presented to Georgia by Dr. and Mrs. R. O. Fuqua.

Chapters represented were: Snyder, Dunn, Sweetwater, Colorado City, Hylton and the state of Illinois.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Just For Fun

The durability of ceramic floor and wall tile has given rise to a variety of imaginative, serviceable decors. In areas where the most entertaining takes place, tile especially contributes to the fun. In the den or game room, a shuffleboard can actually be a part of the tile floor. For the den or patio, unglazed tile makes an ideal, slip - proof dance floor. The homemaker enjoys these tile surfaces because they stay sparkling with just warm water and regular household detergent.

Churchill Frank In New Book

TWENTY - ONE YEARS. By Randolph S. Churchill.

Sir Winston's son writes the beginning of his autobiography in this volume, covering the years to his majority.

This Churchill has suffered under the handicap of being the son of a great man, and great men's sons traditionally have two strikes against them. But one reflects that Sir Winston once was in the same position.

Credit the author with knowing his handicap. Late in this book he says he "wanted to strike out on my own and adopted possibly an arrogant attitude towards people and institutions at a time when I didn't really have the ammunition or the skill to hit the target."

That's an understatement. The unpleasant fact is that Randolph was an unmitigated snob. He had a high opinion of his prospects, and plainly says he expected to become a Parliamentary leader like his father and grandfather.

But later he had to be satisfied with becoming a journalist, and is even a snob about his occupation. He has a long-nosed contempt for the working press, and tells how he chooses where his Jovian interpretations will appear in print.

Much of his book is about Eton and Oxford, and he seems doggedly determined — in the midst of far too much name-dropping — to demonstrate how earnestly he cultivated the fashionable eccentricities of his schools.

Randolph Churchill is candid in this book, to the point where it becomes embarrassing. He offers the essence of one odd fact of a bygone era, and in that respect his account is sociologically interesting. But as a journalist, he seems to have missed his story - at least in this volume, which contains very little about his father.

Tigers Are Fourth In State Tournament

Mack Galyean, David Holt Star In Consolation Loss

AUSTIN — South San Antonio's Bobcats took advantage of a shaky first two innings by the Tigers to win the consolation championship of the Texas state schoolboy baseball tournament 6-2.

Four of the first five men up in the first inning scored for South San Antonio in an inning that virtually caught the Tiger's by surprise. Only two hits were given up in the first inning by losing pitcher Jerry Owen, but an error and a passed ball resulted in two Bobcat runs. The Bobcats scored two more runs in the second inning on a double by Casey Sanchez and another Tiger error.

From that point on, Owen completely dominated over the Bobcat batters, but the deficit was too great for the Tigers to overcome. Owen only gave up three more hits in the contest.

The Tiger hitters had a fine day at the plate collecting seven hits, but could only push across two runs in the fifth inning. Mack Galyean hit a booming triple that went all the way to the right field wall in the fifth inning and scored on a single by Drew Bullard for the first Bengal run in 17 consecutive innings. Bullard scored the other Tiger run on a passed ball by catcher John Lomas.

Third baseman David Holt and left fielder Mack Galyean had a field day off opposing pitcher Eddie Tello. They collected two hits apiece in three official trips to the plate. Holt hit two singles in the fourth and sixth innings while Gaylean got his triple and single in the fifth and sixth innings respectively.

Eddie Tello went the distance for the South San Antonio Bobcats making his record for the season 14-1. For the Bobcats, it was their 36th victory of the year against 3 stranded losses. One of the losses came Tuesday at the hands of Waxahachie in the semi-final round. Owen's record is now 10-6 for the Tigers as their record moved to 25-13 after two consecutive losses in the state tournament. The Tigers lost to Alvin in the semi-final round of the tournament 3-0 on a two hitter by Nolan Ryan.

The Tigers posed two major threats in the game in which they could not manage to score. In the fourth inning, Kennie Gay walked after the first two men in the inning had struck out. That was followed by a sharp single by Holt which left runners at first and second. Tello then struck out Cadena for the second straight time to end the Tiger threat.

The other Tiger opportunity came in the sixth inning where the big names again were Holt and Galyean. With one out Holt singled to left field. Cadena struck out and Galyean hit a Texas league single over the second baseman's head moving Holt to third on a close play. Ray Kizer then hit a screaming line drive that looked like a sure hit. Bobcat shortstop Frank Tondre made a leaping one hand stab on the ball to retire the side and ended what could have been the turning point of the game for the Tigers.

In the sixth innings, Bobcat Mike Coffey hit a ball that looked like trouble, but Cadena moving to his right made a great catch on the ball. Had that ball got by Cadena, San Antonio could have possibly had a runner on third with no one out, but instead the Tigers managed to put down the Bobcats in the sixth with very little trouble.

Entering the state tournament both of these teams were expected to battle it out for the state championship, but neither even managed to make it to the championship bracket since both dropped their games in the semi-final round of the tournament. The heavily favored San Antonio crew finished third in the state while the Tigers were awarded fourth place. It was the second time that the Tigers have finished fourth in the state. They pulled the trick back in 1957. The Tigers were runnerups in 1960.

Although it was a somewhat disappointing Austin trip for the team, they wore the Tiger Black and Gold well. Now summer jobs, vacations, and just plain summer fun await the team upon their arrival home, and also, a hearty "job well done" from all Tiger boosters that see them.

Bonham High School To Have TIL Hearing

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Interscholastic League executive committee will hold a June 30 hearing on whether the Bonham High School football team violated the league's awards rule by accepting copies of a religious book.

The rule states only awards in the value of $15 can be made during a school year.

Rhea Williams, athletic director of the league, said the boys received $15 jackets and in addition the books.

The presentation was made Dec. 17 at the Bonham High School football dinner and came from the Seventh and Main Baptist Church of Bonham.

The book is titled "Play Ball" and is listed at $2.95. It contains testimonials from 17 professional athletes and coaches.

Golf Team Will Be Honored With Dinner

The High School golfteam

The High School golf team will be honored with a dinner tonight at the Snyder Country Club at 7 p.m. It was originally scheduled for 6 p.m., but has been changed to the later time.

After the dinner, golf films of the Masters Tournament and other golf features will be shown. There will also be a discussion on how the Snyder golf course may be improved.

All golfers are invited to this event.

NCAA Track Meet Has No Favorite

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Nobody mentioned the word favorite much today as the National Collegiate Athletic Association's track and field championships opened at California's Edwards Field.

There were nearly 500 athletes on hand representing more than 125 colleges and no team nor individual could be considered an out-and-out choice to win.

This included the six defending champions from 1964 who are back this year.

Today's schedule was largely limited to qualifying trials with only one final — the six-mile run. On Friday there'll be finals in the hammer throw, broad jump, shot put, steeplechase, 100 and high hurdles with all other finals on the 20-event slate on Saturday.

Champions returning are Morgan Groth from Oregon State in the mile, hammer thrower Alex Schulten of Bowdoin, John Uelses of LaSalle in the pole vault, Larry Kennedy from New Mexico in the discus, Tom Farrell of St. John's in the 880 and the California mile relay team.

Pan American College In Tennis Tournament

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)— George Kon and Detlev Nitsche of Pan American College were in the third round of the Blue-Gray Tennis Tournament today. Kon is seventh seeded and Nitsche eighth.

Bitsy Harrison of West Point, N.Y., is the top-seeded player.

Dallas, Waxahachie Are 4A, 3A State Champs

AUSTIN (AP)—Dallas Samuell and Waxahachie came to the state schoolboy baseball tournament for the first time and they did mighty well for beginners Wednesday night.

Samuell not only won the Class AAAA championship but set some records, scoring the most runs in a final game for one. The Spartans thrashed Brownsville 14-0 in a game that had to be halted after six innings because of the Interscholastic League 10-run rule.

Waxahachie, which back in the twenties when there was no Interscholastic League baseball had the greatest winning streak in the game's history anywhere —65 straight — beat Alvin 6-3 for the Class AAA crown. It was the second high finish of the year for Waxahachie — the Indians were runnersup in Class AAA basketball.

Brownsville got only one hit off Robbie Ellis but the Spartans clubbed 1-1 with Glenn Hill, the Samuell second baseman, getting four for a record. It was the first time for a player to collect four hits in a single game in the tournament's 17-year history.

Samuell scored eight runs in the sixth inning to bring the game to a close an inning earlier than scheduled. The Spartans had gotten two runs in the first inning to win early. They jumped on unbeaten Tony Barbosa for six runs in 3 1-3 innings. Barbosa had 12 victories going into this game.

Waxahachie jumped on Alvin's 20-game winner, Nolan Ryan, for three runs before he could get a man out in the first inning and went on to its comparatively victory.

Randy Moseley pitched all the way for Waxahachie and gave up eight hits. But only one run was earned off him.

Harvey Huffstetler hit a triple and single to lead Waxahachie's attack, driving in two runs.

El Paso Austin beat Galena Park 4-3 for third place in Class AAAA, rallying for three runs in the last inning with Alton Stellye and Benito Perez hitting singles that brought in the vital tallies.

South San Antonio, the Class AAA favorite because it had won five state championships in the last six years, had to be content with third place. South San Antonio beat Snyder 6-2, getting all its runs in the first two innings.

Waxahachie beat South San Antonio 2-0 in the opening round of the tournament.

Grelle Runs Fastest Mile; Snell Runs Worst Race

VANCOUVER (AP) — Lanky Jim Grelle of Portland, Ore., became North America's fastest miler Tuesday night in a race that saw Peter Snell of New Zealand turn in the worst race of his startling career.

Grelle made good his boast to lick Snell in the magic mile at the Vancouver International track meet. And he did, in a time of 3:55.4, the fastest mile ever run by an American.

The fastest previous mile by an American citizen was 3:55.5 by Jim Beatty in 1963.

But for a jubilant Grelle, the edge was taken off the victory by the dead-last finish of Snell — a victim of a stomach ailment in the morning.

As the race progressed and it became obvious that Snell was not going to make his move, the excited crowd of 13,891 turned its attention to the front runners.

The crowd went wild as Grelle headed for and finally broke the string. Tony Harris of London crossed the line in 4:02.5, some 15 yards behind Grelle, with Cary Weisiger of Raleigh, N.C., breathing down his neck with a 4:02.8 clocking.

The spectators fell silent as Snell trudged to the finish. A few booed him.

PETER SNELL

Snell collapsed over an iron fence at the side of the track — tears welling in his eyes. He was unable to talk.

The New Zealander, the one the spectators had hoped to see regain his world record lost last week to Frenchman Michel Mazy with a time of 3:53.6, walked to the public address system and was handed the microphone.

"It will take me a long time to get over the shame of running last," he said in a quavering voice.

"Please believe me, I was doing my best."

He explained to the crowd of an upset stomach he suffered in the morning.

The spectators apparently accepted the New Zealander's explanation. They stood and cheered him.

Grelle's performance was enough to earn him the title of outstanding male athlete of the meet.

Wills And Dodgers Still Running Ahead Of Field

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Maury Wills and Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers put themselves into position to knock two guys out of the record book—Maury Wills and Sandy Koufax.

Wills singled twice, stole second twice and rode home on singles by Jim Gilliam twice while Koufax limited San Francisco to six hits and struck out eight as the National League leaders edged the Giants 2-1 Wednesday night.

The performances left Wills well ahead of the pace he set when he stole a record 104 bases in 1962, and kept Koufax out front of the pace he set when he established a strikeout record for left-handers by fanning 306 in 1963.

Wills now has stolen a major league-leading 41 bases in 62 games and is 16 games ahead of his own pace. In 1962, he did not pilfer his 41st base until the Dodgers' 78th game.

Koufax, meanwhile, brought his strikeout total to a major league-leading 135 for his first 15 appearances. In 1963, Koufax did not chalk up his 135th strikeout victim until his 18th time out.

The Dodgers' victory boosted their first-place edge over Milwaukee to 3½ games as Philadelphia knocked off the Braves 6-2 behind the hitting of rookie catcher Pat Corrales.

Elsewhere, Pittsburgh outlasted St. Louis 10-9, Cincinnati belted the New York Mets 8-4 and Houston ended an eight-game losing streak by edging the Chicago Cubs 3-2 in 13 innings.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox defeated Minnesota 3-1, Detroit downed Boston 9-4, Cleveland blanked Washington 5-0, Baltimore beat the New York Yankees 5-1 and the Los Angeles Angels swept a doubleheader from Kansas City 7-1 and 5-4.

Wills legged out an infield hit in the fifth inning, stole second and scored on Gilliam's single, then the duo did a repeat for the winning run in the seventh inning off Bob Shaw after the Giants had tied the score.

Koufax, 10-3, was touched for a run in the top of the seventh when Willie Mays tripled and Jim Hart singled, but held on to whip the Giants for the first time since 1963.

Corrales, called up from Arkansas of the Pacific Coast League last Sunday, stroked three hits, including a two-run homer in the third inning that triggered a decisive five-run outburst for the Phillies. Corrales now has five hits in seven trips to the plate.

Jim Bunning brought his record to 6-5, keeping nine Milwaukee hits well scattered while striking out 10.

The Pirates used 23 players — all but pitchers Bob Veale and Don Cardwell — before, finally subduing the Cardinals on Willie Stargell's three-run homer in the ninth.

It was Stargell's 14th of the season and followed a dropped third strike by Tim McCarver that enabled Bill Virdon to reach base and an error by Jerry Buchek on Manny Mota's grounder.

Leo Cardenas hit two homers in a single game for the first time in his six-year major league career and Jim O'Toole, a 17-game winner last season, won his first game in six decisions as the Reds downed the Mets.

The Astros broke a runless streak of 33 innings in the third inning, tied the Cubs 2-2 on Walt Bond's run-producing single in the sixth and won it the 13th on a double by Joe Morgan, a walk to Bond and a single by Bob Aspromonte.

BALL'S EYE VIEW—Here's how a golf ball would see Masters' golf champion Jack Nicklaus as he tees off in a practice round at Bellerive Country Club, St. Louis, Mo., June 15. U. S. Open starts June 17 at Bellerive (AP Wirephoto)

Palmer More Worried About Small Caddy Than Nicklaus

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Arnold Palmer appeared to be more concerned about his caddy's welfare than he was about Jack Nicklaus today when he set out in quest of the U.S. Open Golf Championship.

The Open is one of the four major tourneys that support Palmer's throne as this country's premier golfer, a position that is shaky and insecure in the face of the challenge by the bull-strong 25-year-old from Columbus, Ohio.

Palmer, however, mentioned Nicklaus not at all and his caddy several times after his final preparations over the vast, rolling acres of the Bellerive Country Club course, at 7,191 yards the longest ever for an Open.

"I hope he makes it," Palmer grinned. "He's a kind of skinny kid." The caddy is Jack Wallace, a lanky, 15-year-old who is greatly impressed with his good fortune.

Palmer's first act after sizing up his caddy was to strip his bag. He discarded a No. 4 wood and at least three irons then had the boy heft it.

"How's that?" he asked. "Too heavy? Lemme see what else I've got in there."

But underlying his casual banter is the certain — though unspoken — knowledge that he desperately needs to win this 65th Open: that he needs not only to finish higher than tourney favorite Nicklaus but win the whole shooting match.

The last year and a half has been a continuing frustration for the powerful, Ligonier, Pa., master — he has won only once in a year — but he mentions it only obliguely.

"My game is not as good as it has been," he said, "but it's better than it has been recently. It still needs a lot of work.

"But," almost defensively, "it's not that bad, hasn't been for about a year. I'm just finishing second instead of first, that's all. Second four times in a row."

One of the seconds was a tie with Gary Player, nine strokes back of Nicklaus' record-shattering 271 victory in the Masters, a triumph so overwhelming that many feel it vaulted the bulky blond to the No. 1 position held by Palmer for many years.

The victory also triggered his drive toward a professional grand slam — winning the Masters, Open, British Open and PGA in a single year. It's never been accomplished.

US Pins Peace Hopes On Battle Course Of War

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the judgment of U.S. policy-makers the prospects for peace in Viet Nam are more likely to be decided by the course of combat over the next several months than by diplomatic maneuvers in this and other world capitals.

Officials say President Johnson is determined to press his peace offensive at every opportunity, even while expanding military operations.

At the moment officials here are looking to a conference of British Commonwealth leaders in London for some possible new move for the negotiations. The Johnson administration will undoubtedly welcome one, if it comes.

Several other peace conference possibilities, arising from proposals made in the past by Britain, India and the United States among others, are still open. The possibility that Johnson might order another pause in the bombing of North Viet Nam is not ruled out, officials say.

But the conviction in high quarters here today is that the Communist North Vietnamese, the Red Chinese and the Red Viet Cong leaders in South Viet Nam still believe they can win the war. They are therefore not interested in negotiations at this time on any terms acceptable to the United States and South Viet Nam.

This conclusion is drawn in a still secret, 13-point paper, summarizing peace moves on Southeast Asia over more than four years. The paper was recently prepared by the State Department for Johnson and lists 13 major types of peace probes and proposals, all of which have faltered or failed.

The basic assessment in Washington of the current Vietnamese situation is that with the recent onset of the monsoon season the Communists decided on major offensive operations in the belief that bad weather would seriously hamper U.S. air actions. The Communists thus would hope to win extensive victories on the ground in South Viet Nam.

The U.S. counter strategy for this period is to convince the Reds that they cannot win in this manner and that the United States will throw into the fight whatever is required to prevent their taking over South Viet Nam. The U.S. hope is that after several months the Communists will be compelled to reassess their position and prospects, perhaps taking a different view of peace negotiations.

Against this background, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced Wednesday that 16,000 to 21,000 more American troops are going into South Viet Nam in the immediate future. They will raise total American strength there to nearly 75,000 men of whom 21,000 will be ground combat personnel. Last week it was disclosed that U.S. troops will fight side by side with South Vietnamese troops when necessary.

The State Department's 13 points on peace negotiations range from direct talks with the Soviet Union and Red China to Johnson's offer last April of "unconditional discussions" to a Canadian approach to North Viet Nam last month. In the last few days the paper has been circulated to U.S. embassies abroad, evidently to arm diplomats with information to counter critics of American policy in Southeast Asia.

Most Cuban Women Farm Without Pay

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Havana Radio says that out of 57,833 Cuban women working on farms in Oriente Province, only 12,270 are paid. The rest are volunteers, the broadcast said.

The figures were released during a meeting of the government-controlled Cuban Womens Federation in Santiago de Cuba and were monitored in Miami Wednesday.

New Boost Due Shortly For American Pocketbooks

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Two weeks from today the government is set to give many of you a lift where it counts — in your pocketbook. Washington hopes this will go a long way toward offsetting or even blocking the general economic slowdown that stock traders and others have been fearing.

For some the increased income will come as a boost in Social Security benefits, with a lump sum due shortly to make the larger old age payments effective from the first of this year. The total will be around $1.5 billion this year.

For many others the lift will come in a cut in federal excise taxes on a wide list of goods and services. The windfall totals around $5 billion a year for consumers and manufacturers.

For the military there is a pay boost in the making.

And this year you are getting the benefit of the second stage of the cut in personal income tax rates. The money withheld from your paycheck isn't affected because this was cut the entire amount last year. But in figuring what's due the Internal Revenue Service, you'll be using lower tax rates for the same income bracket. Your personal income this year should be affected by one or more of these measures —whether it will be larger payments by the government or smaller tax collections.

But the government expects that people will respond to the increased money in their pocketbooks, or the lower prices on goods and services freed of excise taxes, by spending more.

In turn, this spending can ripple out through the economy. Example: If lower prices on cars because of reduced taxes leads more persons to buy them, then the car makers will be producing more, buying more from their suppliers, hiring more workmen.

And all those benefiting from this will also be getting more money — and will be expected to spend more.

This is counted on to give the second half of 1965 a lift that Wall Street apparently thinks it will be needing.

But also in the weeks and months ahead the government will step up its spending in many other lines — aerospace and defense contracts, or federal aid to schools, highway construction, and new and old forms of social welfare.

Some will benefit directly. Others will gain because communities will get contracts or increased federal funds, and local business is stimulated.

Business firms, large and small, have stepped up their plans for spending on new plants and equipment. This, too, can ripple out through the economy. For many it can mean jobs, or longer work weeks, or increased sales on goods produced or new contracts and subcontracts.

Visitors to the New York World's Fair from Snyder who have ridden the AMF Monorail include Leslie Hudman, Glendon Bynum, Betty Bynum, Debra DeBusk, Cora Payne, Pearl [illegible] and Mildred Richardson.

The AMF Monorail consists of seven two-car air conditioned trains operating over a closed loop track nearly a mile long around the Fair's Lake Area. Suspended 40 feet in the air, Monorail gives riders a panoramic view of the Fair, and provides a good vantage point from which to take pictures.

First Graders Reveal Asounding Facts!

GARDNER, Mass. (AP) — "A honeymoon," explained the first grader, "is a place you go after you get engaged. If you have a good time there, you get married."

"Gravity," intoned another, "is an awful big hole in your tooth."

Margaret R. Bunjnicki teaches these tots and other first graders. They are, she says, "a delightfully responsive and imaginative primary class."

To prove it, she prepared a pamphlet of some of the things the children had been saying and sent it to their parents.

Other examples:

"Engaged means talking silly to each other and the girl gets a ring so she won't marry anybody else."

"If you believe in integration you like everything well cooked" and "I play with a colored boy, and he doesn't seem to mind that I'm not colored."

"The brake makes the car stop immediately. That means pretty soon."

Yep. A future woman driver of America said that.

"The reaction among the parents was fabulous," said Mrs. Bunjnicki. "Most of the parents said we must have some real characters in the class, and we sure do."

She said the quotes came from a year-long series of afternoon discussions covering most anything of interest to the children.

Texas Teachers' Pay Raise Signed Into Law

By PEGGY SIMPSON

AUSTIN (AP)—The $101 million teacher pay raise bill and the $3.6 billion general appropriations bill for 1966-67 became law Wednesday.

Gov. John Connally signed them after vetoing $2.6 million from the money bill, including $1,158,941 for an administration and general services building at Angelo State College in San Angelo. In 1963, Connally struck $12 million from the spending bill.

Representatives of the Texas State Teachers Association and the Texas Classroom Teachers Association mingled with sponsors of the compromise teacher pay bill in the governor's reception room.

There were no speeches, but in informal conversations all sides congratulated themselves on the compromise, which channels more money into public education than either the original TSTA or Connally bills would have provided.

Teachers get an average increase of $553 a year, with the biggest raises rewarding experience and graduate degrees.

Connally said the record spending bill goes a long way toward grappling with crucial problems in the fields of mental [illegible], tourism, public and higher education and vocational-technical training.

In his veto message, Connally said the Angelo College building he disapproved would have housed a theater, dressing rooms and band instrument storage space in addition to administrative offices.

He said that although Angelo's need was critical, the building was not justified when compared with needs of other state colleges. He approved a million-dollar library building and a $1.3 million science building.

Other vetoed items:

$200,000 for Dam B State Park, which a Senate resolution proposes to rename "Martin Dies State Park" in honor of the state senator. Connally said the state will spend $511,050 on the park this biennium—more than the amount authorized for all other state parks. He said the original request for $6,000 for repairs and maintenance at the park was raised to $200,000 in the Senate appropriations bill.

$300,000 of a total appropriation of $800,000 for a museum at Washington State Park, sponsored by Rep. Gus Mutscher of Brenham, chairman of the House Redistricting Committee. Connally said a lack of planning and project analysis was evident. He directed the State Building Commission staff to study the proposal.

$275,000 for a boll weevil program, part of a $550,000 appropriation. Connally said the remaining money is more than he originally recommended.

$149,000 for Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation jobs; $138,000 for water system improvements at Rusk State Hospital; $30,000 for a museum at Texas A&I in Kingsville; $39,200 for doctoral level instruction at East Texas State University; $[illegible] for forestry research at Stephen F. Austin State College.

Connally said he would act in the next two days on bills to create new four-year colleges at Texarkana and Odessa and on a bill raising to 17 per cent the interest allowed on bank installment loans. He also faces decisions on about 300 other bills.

He vetoed seven bills Wednesday, including a measure to put the lieutenant governor on the building commission and to prohibit cities from requiring employes to live within city limits.

Connally said he questioned "the wisdom of placing the presiding officer of the Senate as a member of an executive department or commission," since the lieutenant governor has historically been more closely aligned to the legislative branch.

He said enactment of the city residence bill would be "analogous to the federal government passing legislation which says that the State of Texas cannot require a person to be a citizen of this state as a condition of employment by the state."

City's Air Pollution To Smell Like Roses

DETROIT (AP) — If you can't get rid of air pollution, at least make it smell nice, reasons Lucas S. Miel, general manager of Detroit's municipal bus system.

His department is [illegible] experiment with an odor-control chemical which makes motor-bus exhaust fumes smell like flowers, Miel said Wednesday.

He said Santa Monica, Calif., uses the chemical in its municipal buses and that authorities there are pleased with the fragrant change.

US May Put Foreign Aid In Bright, Revealing Light

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some senators and representatives will now knock their heads together over foreign aid. Out of this may come something more imaginative and practical than this country has seen in years.

Except for its part in World War I, and some spurts afterwards, this country stuck to its ancient isolationism until, for sheer survival, early in 1941 it began helping the foes of fascism with lend-lease.

This truly got it involved in World War II and before the year was out the United States was all the way in.

President Harry S. Truman ended lend-lease right after the war but this was a mistake. It deprived Europe and Asia of much-needed help when nations there were flat on their backs.

The United States extended various kinds of help but in 1948 set forth on a worldwide program of help. Altogether since the war this country has handed out over $100 billion in foreign economic and military aid.

Undoubtedly this blood transfusion, plus American military might, stopped the march of communism to which chaos and poverty are a "come on in" sign. But as the years passed there was growing American discontent about this aid.

It wasn't always successful, as Viet Nam shows.

Starting there more than 15 years ago, when the French were fighting the Vietnamese Communists, this country has put about $5 billion in economic and military aid into the country. And the result isn't pretty.

The guerrillas and Communists there are stronger than ever.

Out of all this foreign aid, unmatched in the history of the world, the United States threw off its isolation and at once became the leader of the non-Communist part of the earth.

But — the United States is a newcomer on the international scene with perhaps no more than 25 years of experience in deep involvement with countries everywhere.

In short, it still has a lot to learn when compared with the British and French who were up to their international necks for centuries.

So, because it is just a beginner with no more than a quarter of a century in distributing aid, it would seem time for a good, stiff look on how it has been doing and where it is going in this field.

The Senate thinks so. When it passed the foreign aid authorization bill this week it proposed ending the program in its present form in two years, with a 16-member special commission created to investigate the program and make recommendations on future aid.

This is a combination of self-examination and inventory. But the House, which passed its own version of the foreign aid bill earlier, didn't go for the soul-searching the Senate suggests.

Before that can happen the House will have to agree to the Senate idea. It may not. The two houses have some other differences which they must compromise before the foreign aid bill gets final approval.

One thing which seems necessary, even if the commission proposal is abandoned, is more certainty that U.S. aid will be spread among the people of backward countries to improve their lives and give them a reason for being non-Communist rather than the other way around.

If the United States had taken a lot tougher policy with its aid to Viet Nam — insisting long ago upon broad programs of help to the masses of Vietnamese villagers whose life expectancies are only half that of Americans — the Communists would have made less progress in Viet Nam they did.

Even Liberty Unenjoyable In Viet Nam

By HAL BOYLE

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — It was his first day of liberty in more than a month.

He had planned to spend it in town seeing the sights.

But it was 11 a.m. when Sgt. Daniel F. Hall, 22, of Pottstown, Pa., returned from a six-day patrol to the tent area of Able Company, 3rd Regiment, U.S. Marines.

By the time he had showered, shaved, put on his summer khakis, and hitched a ride, it was after 2 p.m. Since he had to start back by 7 o'clock, his day of liberty had dwindled to only five hours.

That was more than enough for the tall, hazel-eyed young sergeant, who is third in command of his rifle platoon.

"I thought it would do me good to get into town and have a change of scenery," said Hall, whose cheekbones have been burned cherry red by the dozen or more patrols he has been on since he came here March 10.

Sipping a cup of coffee at the USO building here, Hall told of his big day off from the war:

"I've spent most of it trying to find some milk or ice cream. No luck. When I get home the first thing I'm going to do is to go to a supermarket and buy a gallon of milk. That's what I miss.

"I walked around the streets looking for something to buy. I bought a tin trunk for $3. I wanted to get something nice as souvenirs for my wife, Suzanne, and my children—Daniel F. Jr. —he's 4—and my daughter, Lisa Marie—she's 2½. But I couldn't find anything worth sending. Just a lot of junk.

"I walked along the waterfront and saw the old ladies selling bread and straw mats and quarreling over fish the sampans had just brought in, and a bunch of kids followed me hollering 'Hello, Kay.'"

"I was feeling kind of weird. I just wanted to get away from everybody, and maybe listen to a few records. I wasn't exactly homesick. Everybody wants to go home.

"Then I passed a hotel where another Marine and I had lunch together the last time I had liberty. That made me feel blue, because it wasn't long after that he was killed, one of only two guys our company has lost. He was a nice guy. I remember we talked about home.

"You know, this is the first war I've been in, and it is kind of hard to classify. One of the enemy's village recruits can take a few potshots at you, then hide his gun, and you can't tell him from a rice farmer. We have to be awful careful about firing."

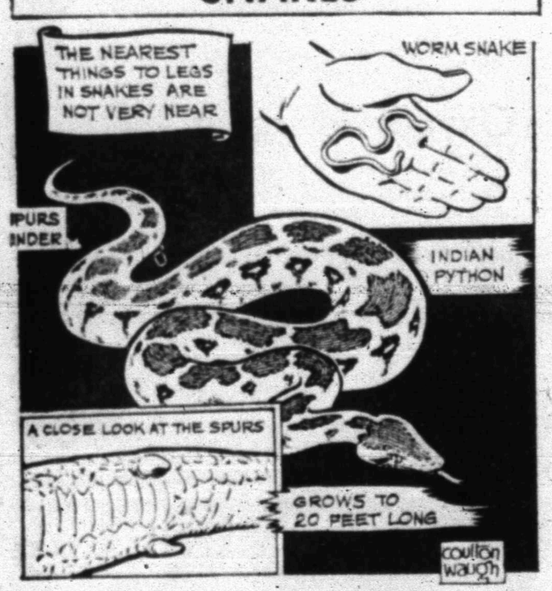
The sergeant looked at his watch. He still had an hour and a half liberty.

I asked the sergeant if he minded returning to the hills after so short a leave.

"Well, I'm not crazy about batting around those hot hills and being shot at," he replied slowly, "but that is the job we were sent over here to do.

"I think about life quite a lot when I'm sleeping out there on the ground under the stars. And it seems to me the trick in life is do do well whatever you set out to do. If you do, you're fat."

Junior Editors Quiz on SNAKES



QUESTION: Are there any snakes with legs?

• • •

ANSWER: Scientists tell us that snakes descended from the lizards, most of which have well-developed legs with which they move. The snakes, however, have their own special way of getting around. They can move in a straight line by advancing their large plates underneath and then pulling back. Or they can move by undulating, throwing coils of their bodies first one way and then the other, getting a grip on the ground so the rest of the body can advance. Because they no longer need legs, say the experts, their legs have disappeared. There are a few snakes, however, in which traces of legs are still found. It seems strange that the two kinds of snake in which such traces are most definite are so different in size. One is the tiny worm snake, so small that it can be held inside a man's palm. The other is the group of snakes called boas and pythons, growing up to 30 feet long. Hind legs, in the worm snake, are clearly formed but do not extend outside the body. In the boas and pythons, however, the internal hind legs protrude through the skin in the form of a pair of stout spurs, which can be moved, even if not used by these snakes, as a way of getting around.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: While some snakes have at least the rudiments of legs, there are some lizards that do not have any legs. See what you can find out about this. 6-17

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON SEPTEMBER 7, 1965.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 44 proposing an Amendment to Sections 2 and 25 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas so as to provide for an increase in the membership of the State Senate from 31 to 39 members; to fix the membership in the House of Representatives at 150 members; to require apportionment of the Senate according to population; and to delete the limitation that no single county is entitled to more than one Senator.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Sections 2 and 25 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to read respectively as follows:

"Section 2. The Senate shall consist of 39 members. The House of Representatives shall consist of 150 members.

"Section 25. The state shall be divided into Senatorial Districts of contiguous territory according to population, as nearly as possible.

"Should the Legislature enact any enabling legislation in anticipation of this Amendment, no such law shall be void by reason of its anticipatory nature.

"This Amendment shall become, effective upon its adoption."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the 7th day of September, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment increasing the membership of the State Senate from 31 to 39 members, retaining the present membership of the House of Representatives, requiring apportionment of the Senate according to population, and deleting the limitation that no single county is entitled to more than one Senator."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment increasing the membership of the State Senate from 31 to 39 members, retaining the present membership of the House of Representatives, requiring apportionment of the Senate according to population, and deleting the limitation that no single county is entitled to more than one Senator."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

BUSINESS AS USUAL—Just because it was his 85th birthday yesterday, Mr. Charles Chapman of Ft. Worth, who is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Virgil Mott in Snyder, did not take time off from his favorite hobby of whittling. A retired carpenter, Mr. Chapman stays busy making forks, spoons, and other useful items, mostly from walnut wood. Popular with little girls are his tiny rocking chairs, complete with "cane" bottoms made from string. Mr. Chapman, who has never had a sick day in his life, said that he is too busy making things to take time out to sell them—it's faster to give them away!

How Texas Solons Voted

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nine Texas Democrats sided with the majority and 11 voted no Wednesday as the House passed 217-184 a bill to create a Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Votes for the measure were cast by Reps. Beckworth, Brooks, Gonzalez, Patman, Pickle, Purcell, Thompson, White and Young.

Among those voting against it were Reps. Burleson, Cabell, Casey, de la Garza, Dowdy, Mahon, Poage, Pool, Rogers, Teague and Wright.

While not actually voting, Rep. Thomas was recorded for and Rep. Fisher against the bill.

Negroes Gain In Georgia Election

By MIKE BARRON

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Republicans and Negroes have gained their largest representation this century in the Georgia House of Representatives as state voters completed the final stage in House reapportionment.

Although they were soundly beaten in populous Fulton County (Atlanta) in Wednesday's general election, the Republicans won 17 of 47 contested races and now hold 22 of the 205 House seats. They gained 13 over the 1964 House seating, plus two unopposed seats.

Negroes won eight seats, gaining representation in the House for the first time since 1907.

Ninety-four races were settled in primary elections and reapportionment last March under federal court order allowed 64 representatives to retain their seats without running.

After the court ruled the House had to be reapportioned on a population basis, the legislature took away the lopsided rural weight and gave urban areas a greater voice.

The biggest surprise in the election was the victory of a Negro Democrat, attorney Albert W. Thompson, over a white Republican, Dr. I. A. Maxwell Jr., in Muscogee County (Columbus). The county went heavily for Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater in the 1964 election.

The county also is in the district of the lone Georgia Republican in the U.S. House, Rep. Howard Callway. He won a heavy majority there in 1964.

In the only other race where a Negro was facing a white opponent, the Rev. William Holmes Borders, a Negro Republican active in civil rights, was defeated by Democrat Goodwyn Cates in Fulton County.

Solons Set Fight Schedule For Passing Excise Cuts

By EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress set up a tight schedule today to bring price cuts through excise tax reductions to U.S. consumers at the earliest possible date — perhaps Saturday.

Conferees from the House and Senate agreed Wednesday night on a compromise excise tax bill ultimately trimming $4.6 billion a year from the levies on a wide variety of goods, from automobiles to matches.

House leaders plan, barring unforeseen setbacks, to take up the compromise bill as the first order of business today. Since the conference version closely resembles the bill the House has already passed, quick approval was expected.

Sen. Russell Long, D-La., one of the principal Senate conferees, said that chamber will act as soon as possible after the House votes.

Such a legislative schedule could send the measure to President Johnson in time for him to sign it Friday, bringing most tax cuts into effect Saturday.

Actually, the initial 3 per cent reduction in the automobile excise — $70 on an average car — and the repeal of the 10 per cent levy on the manufacturer's price on air conditioners are retroactive to May 15. Anyone who purchased such an article on that date or later would be eligible for a refund.

Tax cuts going into effect the day after the President signs the bill include repeal of the 10 per cent retail excise taxes on jewelry, furs, toilet preparations and luggage, and of the manufacturer's excise taxes on a variety of goods including appliances, radio and television sets, cameras, business machines, musical instruments and most sporting goods.

Most of the remaining excises, including taxes on theater tickets, cabaret checks and club dues, as well as the stamp taxes on real estate purchases, would go out either next Dec. 31 or Jan. 1.

The conference agreed on a schedule for automobile excise reductions slightly different from either the House or Senate versions, but did not change the provisions for the first 3 per cent cut on which the two chambers had agreed.

Under the compromise bill, the 10 per cent tax would be reduced to 7 per cent retroactive to May 15; 6 per cent effective next Jan. 1; 4 per cent Jan. 1, 1967; 2 per cent Jan. 1, 1968, and 1 per cent Jan. 1, 1969, and thereafter.

Another tax which, under the bill, would be phased out gradually, is the present 10 per cent levy on telephone service. It would be reduced to 3 per cent Jan. 1, then cut by stages to zero by Jan. 1, 1969.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

SAN JUAN TEOTHIHUACAN Mexico — Buzzed out to the diggings of Mr. Frank Lowenstein, the Atlanta Gentleman who is revolutionizing jewelry history in the midst of the historical setting of ancient pyramids.

Mr. Lowenstein used to be a soda pop engineer in Georgia but he decided gemstones down here were prettier than strawberry, lemon and other flavors.

Down he came and began training some local gentlemen in the art of lapidary achievements.

"For many a year," drawled Mr. Lowenstein, "I literally walked the streets with my products. The jewelry people here wouldn't be convinced of modern designs."

After a while he won a battle and the war was over. Actually, all Mr. Lowenstein has is talent and genius.

The average jewelry person looks at a piece of rough material and mumbles to himself, "I can get two ovals and a square cut from this."

Frank looks at the same item and visualizes a startling cut. His gentlemen turn out the stone and he designs a chunk of gold to set it in.

Being a baptized rock idiot myself, I can only say his merchandise is so original there are no two pieces alike.

So there we sat in his comfortable little inn, which he converted from a 17th Century mule stop, discussing his enterprises. Aside from the hostelry and elegant jewelry business, Mr. Lowenstein's Georgia blood roars like a hurricane. He wears cowpoke boots, owns a goat ranch and raises prime pigs for the local market.

Tourists drop in for an excellent meal; buy a unique ring or brooch and drift over to view the wonders of the 2,000-year-old pyramids. Mr. Lowenstein also collects odds and ends of other items. He has an assortment of parrots, hairless dogs and a strange black bird in a cage.

I walked by one of the cages and the black bird said, "hello."

So I stopped and began a conversation with one of the parrots. The parrot was not interested but the black bird spoke again.

And I asked Mr. Lowenstein, "For Heaven's sake, what kind of a bird is that?"

Clear as a bell, "That's a mynah bird."

And I asked Mr. Lowenstein, "A what?"

"He told you," said Mr. Lowenstein. "He's a mynah bird."

You could have knocked me over with a bag of sapphires. And I said, "I never heard of mynah birds talking."

So the bird said, "That's a high mynah bird from India." (I swear I am not making this up.)

Mr. Lowenstein confirmed it. He got the bird from India where they are known as "high mynahs" since they speak fluently. Caste.

However, this presents a problem at times. The mynah has picked up several uncouth expressions in Spanish, which he can handle well.

"He speaks three languages," said Frank. "We get along fine in English and Spanish but when he takes off in Hindu I'm lost."

Despite Mr. Lowenstein's hospitality and gorgeous getaway place, I am offended. It is bad enough to stand in the shadow of Mr. Lowenstein's genius. But a bird that is smarter than me is too much.

Robin Just Can't Take The Outdoors

MELROSE PARK, Ill. (AP) — A fastidious free-loading robin which prefers comfort indoors to the great outdoors is right at home with the Raymond MacDonald family.

The bird was found by MacDonald last week after it was blown to the ground during a windstorm. It wasn't injured.

MacDonald brought the bird, now named Robbie, into the house and it has remained.

"He won't take to nature for some reason," said MacDonald. "Every time we put him outside he comes right back."

Robbie won't eat worms unless they are washed, said MacDonald, 54, a machinery mover and rigger. And it won't go outside to find them either.

After the bird is finished with the worms, it wipes its beak clean on Mrs. MacDonald's shoulder. But that's at dinnertime.

For breakfast, Robbie has baby food with a sprinkling of parakeet seed and milk added.

It bathes in the sink, splashing water all over the kitchen.

Despite all the trouble, MacDonald said, "My wife just loves him."

"He sits on her shoulder while she plays the organ and chirps along happily," he said.

Uses Barrel To Stave Off Nudity

GRAND FORKS, N.D. (AP) — A store offered $50 in clothing to the first person to enter wearing only a barrel — but had to award duplicate prizes.

Keith Anderson and Paul B. ... bas raced for the narrow entrance at the same time. Crunch went Anderson's barrel in a collision witnessed by 150 people recently.

The barrel went to pieces and Anderson tried vainly to stave off nudity until he could be hustled inside — and into more conventional attire.

Serve it with lively, satisfying Tab ... and watch your guests come back for more!

Herbed Fillet of Beef

4 half-pound slices of fillet of beef
½ pound (2 sticks) butter
½ teaspoon thyme
salt and pepper
½ teaspoon powdered mustard
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon tarragon vinegar
2 tablespoons water

Combine mustard, Worcestershire, vinegar and water; mix thoroughly. Heat ½ the butter in heavy skillet; add beef fillets sprinkled with thyme. Brown quickly over high heat; two minutes each side. Season to taste with salt and pepper; add remainder of butter and the sauce and continue to cook 2 to 4 minutes longer. Turn meat once during cooking; serve with the sauce.
