Graves Of 14 Fliers Found

Americans Executed Only Two Days Before Japs' Offer To Surrender

(By The United Press)

TOKYO, Nov. 9. — The graves of 14 American fliers, apparently executed only two days before Japan's first offer to surrender, have been found in a Japanese military cemetery at Osaka, the Sixth Army announced today.

The fate of the airmen, all of whom were captured after bailing out over Osaka last June, was pieced together from crudely marked wooden planks marking the graves and from evidence found in seven tiny, cement-walled cells, investigators said.

Internees in the same prison—unidentified by the Sixth Army — said the fliers had been tortured by the Japanese secret police daily for nearly two months before they left their cells blindfolded on Aug. 8 never to return.

Torture Is Repeated

The fliers were kept in cement-walled cells where they were forced to kneel for long periods with a bamboo pole back of their knees. They were marched daily to secret police headquarters several blocks away. On their return they showed evidence of mistreatment, fellow prisoners said.

The weed-covered graves were found after a Korean informer told headquarters of the shooting down of 18 B-29 crewmen, who were brought in to prison the next day.

It was the largest group of American airmen thus far disclosed to have been executed by the Japanese. Several such instances had previously come to light, including the execution of three airmen who participated in Lt. Gen. James Doolittle's first Tokyo raid early in 1942.

Tax Slash Bill Is Signed By Truman

Millions Will Be Exempt In 1946 From Taxation

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The White House today announced that President Truman had signed the bill giving individuals and business a slash of $5,920,000,000 in 1946 taxes.

Mr. Truman thus became the first president in 16 years to sign a general tax reduction measure. Not since Herbert Hoover put his signature on a "Christmas present" slash in 1929 has there been an overall reduction of pocketbook levies.

To Stimulate Business

Congressional sponsors of the legislation said it would stimulate business in the reconversion period and create jobs.

The White House announcement this morning said the bill was signed yesterday.

The legislation:

1. Removes 12,000,000 low income persons from the tax rolls and assures reductions of 10 per cent or more for individuals making up to $50,000 annually. Smaller cuts are provided for those with incomes over $50,000. Total reductions for individuals amount to $2,644,000,000.

Benefits For Veterans

2. Provides special tax treatment for veterans of World War II, forgiving all levies on service pay of enlisted men in wartime and giving officers three years in which to settle with the government.

3. Clips $3,136,000,000 off the burdens of business next year, principally through repeal of the corporation war-imposed 85.5 per cent excess profits tax.

4. Repeals the $5 use tax on automobiles and boats at a saving of $140,000,000.

5. Freezes the social security tax in 1946 at one per cent on employes' pay and employers' payrolls. Without the "freeze" this tax would have jumped January 1 to 2.5 per cent for each.

No Change On Luxuries

The bill makes no change in the excise levies on the so-called luxury items such as liquor, luggage,

Deadline Set For Reserved Seats At Tech-TCU Tilt

All reservations now being held on seats at the Tech-TCU football game must be picked up and paid for by 10 o'clock Saturday morning, or they will be sold to others, Morley Jennings, director of athletics at the college, warned again today.

"A great many people have made reservations by mail and otherwise," Jennings said, "and those reservations faithfully have been made. However, we can hold none longer than 10 a. m., tomorrow."

All reservations are listed at the gymnasium at Tech and must be paid for and picked up there, Jennings said.

Ultimatum Is Given Rebels

By RALPH MORTON
Associated Press Staff Writer

BATAVIA, Nov. 9. — British planes dropped leaflets on Indonesian forces at Soerabaja today calling for their unconditional surrender — a move which may signal a general uprising by well drilled, Japanese-trained Nationalists throughout the entire island of Java.

The ultimatum ordered the Nationalists to lay down their arms before 6 a.m. tomorrow. Issued in the name of Lt. Gen. Sir Philip Christison, Allied commander in the Netherlands East Indies, the leaflets said the order would be backed up by the use of all naval, army and air forces under his command.

Tension Grips Java

An explosive tension gripped all Java. A British Army official admitted the situation at Soerabaja was crtiical. He announced that more troops of the Fifth Indian division arrived there yesterday, and unofficially it was learned that 4,000 Dutch troops would land in Batavia tomorrow.

Christison pointed out carefully that the Soerabaja situation was different from that existing elsewhere on the island, and that the extremists at Soerabaja who were guilty of attacks on the British would be punished.

Reds Declare Yank Planes Will Be Used

Fighting Rages In North China; New Appeal Is Issued

(By The United Press)

CHUNGKING, Nov. 9 — Communist quarters charged today that the central government is preparing to use American P-40 fighter planes to attack the Chinese Communists and a new appeal was made to President Truman to halt American "armed intervention" in China civil war.

The New China Daily charged that two Chinese-manned P-40's already had been sighted over Yenan Nov. 5 and that preparations were being made to use the American planes in attacking the Communists.

The Yenan Communist radio called on Mr. Truman to withdraw all American forces from China.

The broadcast said the Americans should follow the example of the Red Army, which has begun the evacuation of Manchuria.

Investigation Ordered

The appeal came as Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, American commander in China, instructed Marine Maj. Gen. Keller C. Rockey to investigate Communist charges that Marines were fighting with the Nationalist Army against Communist troops in North China.

A Communist front dispatch from that area said Nationalists' Fifth division began a powerful attack on Shanhaikwan on the Communist-fortified Manchurian border last Sunday. Fighting still is raging, the dispatch said.

More than 2,000 U. S. Marines are stationed at Chinwangtao, North China port only nine miles south of Shanhaikwan. Shanhaikwan guards the main pass through the great wall of China into Manchuria.

Marines Are Wounded

Wedemeyer conceded at a press conference in Shanghai that three Marines had been wounded in armed clashes with Chinese elements, but contended that none of the clashes had been instigated by service men. A few American planes also have been fired on while patrolling over railway lines.

The Americans' only task in China, Wedemeyer said, is the repatriation of Japan's civilian and military men. Sixty per cent of Japan's 1,000,000 troops in China have been disarmed.

Wedemeyer said no one in Peiping during his recent visit had mentioned to him a Marine raid which Communists asserted was made on their headquarters there.

Will Protect His Men

"I'll use any means within my power to protect the health of the men of my command," he said.

The official Nationalist central news agency said representatives of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and the Communist government at Yenan have resumed peace talks after a six-day inter-

Priority On Homes Is Sought For Vets

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — Terming the housing shortage "really critical," Rep. Patman (D-Tex) said after a talk with President Truman today he will introduce a bill to give priority to veterans in:

1. Getting materials and supplies to build modest-priced houses.

2. Renting new homes during the transition just as war workers were given preference during the war.

Patman told reporters there should also be some control on prices of homes to prevent inflation.

He advocated putting a "czar" in control of the proposed program to cut red tape and get action.

Mercury Dives In Cold Wave

(By The United Press)

The season's first cold wave, accompanied by blustery winds, moved across the North Plain states and into the Great Lakes region today.

Freezing temperatures were reported as far south as the Texas Panhandle and the mercury tumbled to 13 below zero at Glasgow, Mont., coldest spot in the nation. Dickinson, N. D., shivered in a low of 13 below zero, and other sub-zero readings were recorded throughout North Dakota, Minnesota and northern Colorado.

SEVEN-DEGREE DROP

The thermometer plunged seven degrees in three hours — from an 11 a. m. high of 42 degrees to a 2 p. m. reading of 35 degrees, it was reported this afternoon from main line station of West Texas Gas company.

A drizzle fell from dispirited gray clouds at 1:15 p. m., and the weatherman pulled in his neck under upturned greatcoat and predicted continued cold, with temperatures dropping to 30 to 34 degrees tonight over the South Plains. Occasional rains and continued cold for Saturday's Tech-TCU football game also were predicted.

Now, as soon as construction materials are available, he plans to add 52 more feet to the building, the additional construction being so arranged so that it will give the appearance of one continuous structure.

The additional building, which will cost an estimated $35,000, will be of the same architectural design as the original building and of the same fireproof construction.

Work is expected to begin within the near future and completion is scheduled by next April 1.

Lubbock And Pampa Tangle Here Today

Parade Through Business Section Gives Color; Sweetheart Revealed At Rally

A parade at 1 p. m. today with the Pampa and Lubbock High school bands leading a line of "home team" enthusiasts set the stage for the Pampa Harvester-Lubbock Westerner game in Tech stadium at 2:30 this afternoon.

The parade moved down Texas avenue led by the visiting band and its drum major and high stepping, short-skirted majorettes to Broadway, where it turned west to head for Ave. Q, dispersal and the stadium.

Football Sweetheart Named

A pep rally Thursday night in the Lubbock High school auditorium launched pre-game activities before this last Westerner home encounter of the year. G. H. Nelson, local attorney, headed the list of speakers.

Miss Nancy Rogers was named Football Sweetheart of 1945 and presented by Westerner Captain Charles Presley. She is the daughter of Mrs. C. S. Rogers, 2015 Sixteenth.

Full House Predicted

A full house has been predicted for the District 1-AA classic that brings the Harvesters here undefeated and untied to battle a Lubbock team twice-beaten in conference play and rated little chance of stopping the vaunted T-formation from the Panhandle.

Randal Clay heads the Pampa attack with his slashing runs and outstanding play. He is boomed as one of the state's outstanding schoolboy backs of the season.

Coaches Dixie White and George Philbrick of the home team announce their charges to be in top shape for this crucial test. Well out of the running for district honors the Westerners rated little chance to win another game this year against tough conference foes.

Plans Drafted To Help Vets

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — Two broad projects to help war veterans resume peacetime pursuits attracted strong support in Congress today.

One proposal is to revise the "G.I. bill of rights" to simplify loan procedure and liberalize educational benefits. It passed the Senate unanimously yesterday. House leaders told a reporter they expected speedy concurrence.

To Help Get Jobs

The other plan is to have a federal agency formulate a coordinated national program to help veterans get jobs.

Under identical bills proposed yesterday by six legislators, the Wartime Retraining and Reemployment administration would be revitalized and put to work on the program.

The measure was introduced by Senator Magnuson (D-Wash) for himself and Senators Edwin C. Johnson (R-Colo) and Wayne Morse (R-Ore), and by Reps. Edith Nourse Rogers (R-Mass), Domengeaux (D-La) and Savage (D-Wash).

Purposes Explained

The legislation directs the agency to "formulate a veterans job and integrated national program" which shall:

1. Explore and foster trades and sciences to provide work.
2. Develop natural resources.
3. Perfect transportation development.
4. Provide for scientific research for new industries.
5. Provide training and education to equip veterans for new jobs.
5. Make plans to forestall unemployment.
7. Coordinate federal functions relating to veterans.
8. Assist and cooperate with local governments in a uniform pattern of help for veterans.
9. Develop service centers to give veterans advise, information and counsel.

Russia Blamed For Stripping Occupied Area

Soviet Reparations Collections Are Bleeding Nazis

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. — The House postwar economic policy committee intends to tell Congress 8,000,000 or 10,000,000 Germans will die of starvation and disease unless:

Russia quits stripping Germany of consumer goods industries not considered part of a war-making potential, or

The United States, as the only nation able to, feeds the Germans who otherwise would starve as a result of the Russian reparations collections.

Findings Are Revealed

A committee member, who asked not to be identified, told a reporter these are among findings in a report agreed to by the committee and soon to be released.

This member also said some of the criticisms of Russia made a month ago by Chairman Colmer (D-Miss) and six other members of a subcommittee after a two-month tour of Europe had been "softened" by the full committee. This was done, he said, by including in the report statements that some of the Russian practices recited are necessary under present conditions.

The report, he added, also emphasized at some length Russia's need for American loans.

He said too the report will urge rapid reconstruction of Germany to the point where she can feed herself and become a factor in American trade without representing a war threat to the rest of the world.

ARMY REQUESTS FOR FOOD ARE BOOSTED

TCU Ex-Students To Hold Rally Saturday

Texas Christian university ex-students will gather Saturday morning in the Hilton hotel, between 10:30 and 11:30 o'clock, for a short rally under the sponsorship and aid of the Texas Tech Alumni association.

J. A. Raley will head the TCU delegation and Mr. and Mrs. Hop Halsey will take part in the gathering representing the Tech exes. Other former Tech students will assist in the rally.

Leo "Dutch" Meyer, TCU head coach, will be present and give a short talk to the group. Raley said he and Meyer were students and teammates at the Fort Worth school. Meyer was a freshman during Raley's junior year.

Raley urged that all ex-TCU students be present, if possible. He said that about 35 were expected but that more could probably have been here if time and plans had allowed for invitations to be mailed.

The rally is being held in conjunction with a reception and rally beginning at 10 a. m. in the Tech gym for all ex-Tech students. Jason O. Gordon is heading the Tech rally and aided Raley in planning the TCU gathering.

Ceiling Price On Nylons Soon Will Be Cut About One Third

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (U.P.) — The ceiling price of nylon stockings soon will be cut about one third, it was learned today.

The Office of Price Administration expects to announce within a few days a new price schedule for nylons that will reduce their retail cost to approximately the 1941 level. Present ceiling prices are based on 1942 prices.

In Effect About Nov. 15

The new reduced prices are expected to go into effect about Nov. 15.

The most common type of stocking 45 gauge, now sells for $1.65. Under the new regulation it would be reduced to $1.30 for independent merchants and $1.10 for chain stores.

Top nylon price under the new regulation would be $1.90 for 60 gauge and up, all nylon, stockings. This is the independent store price; the chain store ceiling for the same pair of stockings would be $1.50. Present ceiling price is $2.50.

At the other end of the scale would be a chain store price of 95 cents for a pair of 38-gauge nylons with rayon or cotton heels and toes. The independent store price for these stockings would be $1.15. They now sell for $1.65.

Corpus Christi Naval Planes In Collision

Two Are Victims In New Mexico; Bodies Sought

(By The Associated Press)

CORPUS CHRISTI, Nov. 9.—Twenty-one officers and men were killed last night when two naval planes collided near Spoil island.

Two long range patrol seaplanes known as "Mariners," skimming about 200 feet above the surface of the bay, collided at 8:06 p. m.

Both Planes Sink

Naval officials announced today that one plane was taking off, the other landing at the time. One ship attempted to continue but the pilot lost control and crashed into the water. Both planes sank.

Crash boats and hospital boats were rushed to the scene and began rescue operations with the use of flares and searchlights visible on the mainland eight miles away.

Six survivors were picked up. One died today at the naval hospital. Of the others, four were reported in good condition, and the other serious but favorable.

Names Are Withheld

All names are being withheld until the next of kin have been notified.

Spoil island is a man-made island built of sands dredged from the bay. It is near Ward island, a radar station eight miles from Corpus Christi.

Naval boats today are attempting to recover the bodies, and to salvage the two huge planes.

The crash occurred after dark. The ships were on routine flights.

The pilot of one ship battled to regain control after the collision but failed and the Mariner struck the water with terrific force, sinking immediately.

Collide At 200 Feet

The collision occurred at 200 feet, and was readily heard by those on Spoil island, a minor naval base here.

Rescue boats were at the scene almost immediately. Flares and searchlights made the surface of the water almost as bright as day as survivors were sought. Six were found and hurried to naval hospitals for treatment.

The accident was one of the

Doolittle Asks Big Air Force

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP)—Lt. General James H. Doolittle told senators today that the Army Air force wants a postwar establishment of 400,000 regular officers and men and a reserve of 1,000,000.

The veteran flier said these figures have been approved by AAF leaders under General H. H. Arnold, AAF chief, but had not yet been accepted by the War department or joint chiefs of staff.

Favors Single Command

The former 8th Air force chief testified before the Senate military affairs committee in favor of a single national defense department with air raised to equal power with ground and sea forces.

He outlined the Air Force plans after senators observed that the Navy had detailed postwar plans while similar data was lacking on Air Forces.

In response to questioning Doolittle also offered these opinions:

1. The next war—if 20 years intervenes—will be conducted by "pilotless, gyro-stabilized, radar-controlled, and radio-directed projectiles utilizing atomic bombs or some more powerful force."

2. The battleship now is obsolete. Aircraft carriers now are at their peak development and soon will be obsolescent because they can be sunk.

3. The United States must maintain a line of far flung bases for national defense.

FORT WORTH, Nov. 9 (AP) — The conference to settle the four day-old southwestern Greyhound bus strike apparently hit a snag today.

R. E. Key, area rent director, said Thursday that reports of the ending of rent control in the Lubbock Defense Rental area were incorrect.

"As long as the Price Control Act authorizing rent control remains in effect and the shortage of housing facilities makes it necessary to protect tenants from unwarranted rent increases and evictions, OPA will not lift the safeguard," Key said.

Must Be Registered

Landlords were also reminded by Key that failure to comply with any of the following rent regulations subject them to penalties:

All rental housing accommodations, including rooms, apartments and houses, in the Lubbock rental

All changes of tenancy must be reported to OPA within five days after they occur.

When a change in tenancy occurs the new tenant must be shown the landlord's copy of the OPA registration statement and his signature must be obtained on the statement, as well as on the OPA change of tenancy form.

Regulations Explained

Owners of rental housing accommodations who bought the housing units after they were originally registered with the OPA must file a change of ownership report at the area rent office.

Landlords are permitted to collect no more than the maximum legal rent unless they have first obtained written permission from the area rent office.

Essential services may not be discontinued until written authority to do so is obtained rom the area rent office.

No attempt may be made to evict a tenant unless the landlord has a legal right to do so under the rent regulations.

Landlords who want to evict a tenant from a housing unit that the former bought on or after March 1, 1944; in order to occupy it themselves, must get from the rent office a certificate authorizing the eviction.

Landlords and tenants alike are urged by Key to call or write the area rent office, 1415 Ave. Q, for information and details concerning any phase of particulars about rents and rent control.

furs, jewelry and cosmetics.

Congress sent the tax bill to the president amid demands for cuts in government spending and for a balanced national budget. Sponsors voiced hope that the 1946 cut would stimulate business and boost national income to such an extent that the treasury would suffer no actual loss in revenge.

After the $5,920,000,000 cut is made, fiscal experts estimate, the treasury will collect next year approximately $26,500,000,000. They said the national debt will increase by about $12,000,000,000 in 1946. Revenues hit a peak of more than $45,000,000,000 in 1944. They were about $5,000,000,000 annually before the war.

Tomato Relish Is Clear, Crisp

THIS recipe for green tomato relish from Mrs. Joe Young's files was obtained by a friend who says the tomatoes are crisp, clear and delicious.

Take seven pounds of thickly sliced green tomatoes and soak overnight in solution of two gallons of water and three cups of lime. Next day soak in clear water for four hours, changing every hour. Heat three pints vinegar, four pounds sugar, one teaspoon each of cloves, cinnamon bark, celery seed, mustard seed and one tablespoon salt. Pour over tomatoes and let stand overnight. The next day cook for one hour, seal hot.

The relish takes a long time to prepare, it was pointed out, but is worth it.

Oven Veal Stew

2½ pounds shoulder veal
6 slices bacon
1 large onion, chopped
6 small white onions
6 tablespoons flour
1½ cups water
1 pound fresh tomatoes
⅛ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon paprika
1 teaspoon salt
6 small carrots
1 stalk celery

Remove veal from bones (using bones to make broth). Cut meat into two inch cubes, cut bacon into pieces and brown together in a frying pan. Remove to a baking dish. Brown chopped onion in remaining drippings in pan. Add water, tomatoes, salt, pepper and paprika. Cook three minutes, stirring constantly. Pour over meat. Add whole white onions, carrots and celery diced. Cover and bake at 300° about two hours. Serve over curried rice.

For the lunch-box, use enough waxed paper to cover sandwiches, fruit and cake completely so that the food does not dry out. Use paper cups with lids to keep raw vegetables and salads crisp and moist.

Have Thanksgiving Table Decorations And Eat 'Em Too!

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Eat the decorations from Thanksgiving dinner at supper time. That centerpiece of fruit—grapes, apples, pears, etc., that stood in old-fashioned beauty in the center of the Irish damask cloth brought out once again from the linen chest—bowls of nuts and raisins, mints, the extra jug of country cider—all these will taste good at supper time when old friends drop in and neighbors saunter over, no one very hungry.

For Thanksgiving supper party, eat the dinner decorations of fruit and nuts, and serve hot turkey soup in a big tureen.

Serve only a hot soup in Grandma's huge tureen, with buttered toast. Oyster stew is a wonderful suggestion.

Turkey Hash

Enough white meat left on the turkey carcass for Southern turkey hash? Might serve that.

Remove all skin and gristle from white meat. Cut into cubes about ½3 inch square. Make a stock of turkey bones and celery leaves. Strain.

Melt 2 tablespoons butter in a saucepan. Stir in 1 tablespoon flour and blend. Then slowly add 2 cups stock, ½ onion cut in thick slices, and a pinch of mace, salt and pepper. Simmer 10 minutes. Remove onion. Add turkey cubes and simmer 3 more minutes, then add ½ cup heavy cream. Mix and heat through. Serve with tosated corn muffins or cornmeal griddle cakes and tart jelly.

Here's an old-fishioned table decoration hint:

Use an heirloom epergne or else contrive one this way—use a large shallow bowl or platter for the base, a pedestal fruit bowl for the second tier and a slender vase for the top. When one is set within the other, it makes as attractive a piece as ever came out of an antique shop. Fill with autumn fruits.

Pumpkin Pie Recipes For Thanksgiving

No self-respecting turkey likes to be seen on Thanksgiving day without a pumpkin pie to keep him company. However, there are pies and pies—some old fashioned and rich, others airy and fluffy to please those who prefer light desserts.

Pumpkin Pie

Two cups pumpkin pulp, ½ cup molasses, 2 tablespoons melted butter, ½ teaspoon cinnamon powder, a little nutmeg, clove, ginger, salt and allspice powder, 3 eggs, 1½ cups milk.

Bake 1 large pastry shell in hot oven (425 degrees F.) about 10 minutes. Mix together above ingredients in the order given, adding the milk gradually to keep mixture smooth. Pour into partially baked pastry shell. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for one hour and a half, or until silver knife inserted in center comes out clean. Serve warm and topped with whipped cream.

Chiffon Pumpkin Pie

One envelope granulated gelatin, 1½ cups milk, 1 1-4 cups cooked mashed pumpkin, 2 slightly beaten egg yolks, ½ cup sugar, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 to 2 tablespoons molasses, 1-4 teaspoon ginger, ½ teaspoon nutmeg, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, 2 egg whites, 1 baked 9-inch pie shell.

Place gelatin in bowl; add 1-4 cup milk and mix well. Combine pumpkin, remaining milk, egg yolk; 1-4 cup sugar, salt, molasses, and spices in top of double boiler. Cook over boiling water 10 minutes. Remove from boiling water. Add gelatin and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Chill until slightly thickened. Beat egg whites until foamy; add remaining sugar gradually, and continue beating until stiff. Fold into gelatin mixture. Turn into cold pie shell Chill until firm.

Bread dumplings with just the suggestion of nutmeg and cinnamon are delicious with fricassee of veal.

APPLE BETTY

1¼ cups bread crumbs
6 cups apples, pared and sliced
¼ cup old-fashioned unsulphured molasses
1-3 cup sugar
¼ teaspoon each, salt and nutmeg
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 tablespoon lemon juice
¼ cup hot water
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Cover bottom of greased baking dish with apples. Mix sugar, lemon rind, salt and nutmeg. Sprinkle over apples. Dot with butter. Cover with bread crumbs. Repeat until all ingredients are used. Combine molasses, lemon juice and water. Pour over apples. Cover. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 35 minutes. Uncover. Bake 15 minutes. Yield: 6 servings.

(Recipes Serve Four)
Cream of Celery Soup

2 cups white stock
3 cups celery, cut in pieces
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 slice onion
2 cups boiling water
3 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
1 cup cream

Pepper

Parboil celery in water 10 minutes. Drain, add stock, cook until celery is soft and rub through sieve. Scald onion in milk, remove onion, add milk to stock. Thicken with paste made of flour and butter or margarine well bleanded. Add cream and season with salt and pepper.

Garnish salads liberally with paprika for eye and taste appeal. Paprika has a mild fivor and can be used without stint.

Youths To Get Chicago Trip

A son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thomas of route 1 Shallowater, Berry James Thomas, has been named as one of 23 4-H club boys to get a trip to Chicago and the national 4-H club congress, at expense of the Santa Fe railroad company.

Thomas was awarded the prize, given by the railway company to 19 of 452 actual contestants, for his achievements as a 4-H club member during the past nine years. W. B. Griffin, Lubbock county 4-H club agent, said that these 19 Texas boys were selected from a group of 1,791 that were enrolled as possible winners. Contest time narrowed the list to 452 entries.

Set In December

The congress will be held the first week of December. Thomas will leave Lubbock on Nov. 30 to report to Dallas where he and the remainder of the group will leave for the convention. Four of the boys are state winners and will make the trip at the expense of various business firms.

Including Thomas there were seven district two, or South Plains, boys named to the Santa Fe trip, giving the area a heavy concentration of top-place boys in the 19 winners. Those named included H. R. Tankersley of Tahoka, Billy Cox of Plains, Charles Farmer of Morton, Garland Rose of Littlefield, Floyd Terrell of Plainview and Doyle Davis of Hart.

Thomas' achievements over the nine-year period included winning of a Sears gilt in 1941 by an essay written for the Sears Cow-Hog-Hen program. This gilt placed second in the Lubbock county show the fall of that year.

He was among 37 "fighter feeders" who toured South Plains Army Air Field in 1943 for food production. He has purchased $250 in war bonds, assisted in scrap metal and paper salvage drives and been a "community leader in war-time activities." He has attended three 4-H club district encampments and was vice-president of his club during the school year, 1943-44.

Thomas was awarded the 1944 Anderson-Clayton company contest prize for his cotton production. He received a scholarship to some state college.

A few of his financial accomplishments as a club boy include: A seven-year cotton project that netted $3,649; a four-year swine program netting $732.75; a one-year Martin maize project netting $800; and a one-year sweet sorphum program netting $921.60. This is a total of $6,103.35 in earnings.

Simpson Rites Are Held Here Today

Last rites were to be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Central Baptist church for D. W. Simpson, about 64, of Albuquerque and formerly of Lubbock. Rev. Jack Welch, co-pastor, was to officiate.

Simpson was employed by Lubbock Memorial hospital before he left here about seven years ago. He died early Thursday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Glen Elliott of Clovis, N. M. Although he had been in ill health several years, death came unexpectedly.

Survivors include the widow, a daughter, Mrs. Elliott, and a son, Dwight Wayne Simpson of Albuquerque.

Burial was to be in Lubbock Memorial cemetery under direction of Rix Funeral home.

The first telephone in the White House was installed in 1880, when Rutherford B. Hayes was President.

Tech May Get New Building

HOUSTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — Dr. Glenn Flinn, director of the Methodist student movement, told the Texas Methodist conference here today that student centers, to cost $300,000, will be located at a number of Texas colleges.

The schools include Texas Tech, Lubbock; Texas State Teachers college and Texas State Women's college, Denton; the University of Texas and A. & M. college. The Texas conference assumed $88,000 of the cost of the centers. Each center will receive $75,000.

Dr. Dawson C. Bryan of Houston, jurisdictional evangelism chairman of the Methodist "Crusade for Christ", said evangelism in Texas should include the contacting of 32,000 "inactive" Methodists in the state.

Federal Wage Hike Studied

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — The campaign to boost federal workers' pay, centered today on salaries of government scientists.

Chairman Downey (D-Calif) of the Senate Civil Service commission—taking the view that this is of first-rank importance now that the atomic age has arrived—sought expert testimony from Dr. Vannevar Bush.

Bush is head of the office of scientific research and development, which mobilized thousands of scientists to bring about sensational wartime developments.

Top Pay Is $9,800

The present top pay under civil service is $9,800. Legislation before Downey's committee provides for a 20 per cent increase in government pay generally. Also, the committee has been informed by Arthur S. Flemming of the Civil Service commission that President Truman would approve a boost to $15,000 in the service's top.

Flemming suggested to the group that leading government scientists be paid $12,000 to $15,000 a year.

City Requests Airport Return

The commission also heard recommendations of te City Recreation council that the City swimming pool in McKenzie State park be improved with a chlorination and filtration circulating system and the bathhouse remodeled before next year season. Chas. Whitacre and Mr. Durwood H. Bradley members of the council, and A. C Hamilto, director, made the recommendations. Estimated cost would be approximately $15,000. Action was deferred in view of the fact that approximately $75,000 for swimming pools and improvements is planned in the proposed bond issue.

Business pr Green Acres

Four ordinances were passed for second and final reading. They were: ordinance No. 728, zoning certain property recently brought into the city limits in the Phillips addition and property lying between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-eighth streets and Ave. B and East Ave. C; ordinance No. 729 establishing building lines on Ave. A from Sixth to 28th and on Fourth from Ave. H to Ave. Q; ordinance No. 730 amending ordinance No. 661, changing lots 12 and 12, Carr sub-division from a 'C' district to an 'H' district; and ordinances No. 731 and 732, revising sections XVI and XIV, ordinance No. 661, establishing side-yard and front yard requirements in all zoning districts.

A general contractor's bond for T. J. Davis, jr., sub-contractors' bonds for F. W. Wallis and James Orman Ley and a sign board bond for M. E. Sullivan were approved.

Lease Agreement

Also approved was a lease agreement between the City Airport board and L. Lucketti, David Wood and Bob Robinson for space in the brick hangar at Municipal airport, for a Luscombe sales and service agency at $40 a month.

Bid on seven coats and 45 pairs of trousers for the fire department submitted by Fecheimer Bros., Cincinnati for a total of $625.70 was approved.

Tech Beauties Are Selected

A 12-man judging committee last Sunday watched 113 Texas Tech women file by and chose 17 top-ranking beauties to be candidates for La Ventana (yearbook). The 17 will in turn be trimmed to eight by an all-college election slated Tuesday. Announcement of the beauties was made last night.

Earlyne Reid, junior arts and sciences student, was the only contestant who received 12 number one votes. Named a La Ventana beauty last year by Hollywood producer David O. Selznick, she is a versatile and prominent Tech student.

Described by other students as being "all-around good looking", Miss Reid is a petite blonde. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reid of Coahoma and a member of Las Chaparritas, oldest social club for women on the campus.

Jeanne Stovall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L Stovall of 3119 Twenty-second, Lubbock, was a close runner-up with 11 of the 12 number one votes. A junior arts and sciences student and member of DFD social club and Book Reviewers.

Other winners included Nell Anthony, freshman commerce student, daugter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Anthony of 2312 Twenty-first;

Joe Ann Bailey, freshman commerce student daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Bailey of 2014 Seventeenth;

Betty Belew, a freshman arts and sciences student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tandy Belew of Vernon;

Beverly Besancon, freshman arts and sciences student, daughter of Mrs. Lois B. Bexancon of Seminole;

Frances Cloinger, freshman commerce student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Cloninger of Vernon;

Joyce Evelyn Dungan, freshman arts and sciences student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Dungan of Brownfield;

Lometa Hodge, junior arts and sciences student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hodge of Paducah;

Wanda Jennings, sophomore home economics student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jennings of Wylie;

June Leftwich, junior arts and sciences student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Leftwich of 2213 Broadway;

Yvonne Scott, freshman commerce student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Scott of Amarillo;

Pat Robison, freshman commerce student, daughter of Mrs. C. C. Robison of Dallas;

Johnnie Mae Smith, sophomore commerce student, daughter of Mrs. Mae Smith of Colorado City;

Pat Smith, senior arts and sciences student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Smith of Amarillo;

Norma Lee Thornton, junior commerce student, C. E. Edmiston of Hamilton is her guardian;

Mary Mae Johnson, freshman home economics student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson of Levelland.

Nominations for La Ventana beauties numbered 195 but seven of the girls were declared ineligible because they hold other honors. Seventy-five girls nominated for La Ventana beauties did not appear before judges who were P. E. Smith, representative and manager of the Tech theater; Winston Reeves, studios; Jason O. Gordon, county agent and president of the Tech Alumni association; Charles A Guy, editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal; Glenn Woody, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce; Mike Barrett, editor of the Brownfield News; L. H. Vestal of Levelland; and five Tech men students, Edgar Boaz, Anson; Troy Davidson, Lubbock; Jim Humphreys, Kansas City, Mo.; Bill Nugent, Amarillo; and Troy Caldwell, Seymour.

Eight of the 17 girls selected by judges will be eliminated from the contest in Tuesday's election to be held on the campus. From this eight to be chosen by the student body, four girls will be judged at some future date, top beauties by a celebrity.

Each of the four girls chosen by the celebrity will have a full-page picture in La Ventana. The remaining four will have half-page pictures in the yearbook.

Although Bolivia is primarily agricultural, its economy is almost entirely dependent on the production of minerals.

Eisenhower To Return Home

FRANKFURT, Germany, Nov. 9. (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower will leave for the United States within "a few hours" to testify before congressional committees, his headquarters said today.

The announcement did not state the nature of Eisenhower's testimony, but it is expected that he will support the stand of the U. S. Army chief of staff, Gen. George C. Marshall, for consolidation of the Army, Navy and Air Forces into one defense department.

To Return To Europe

While the announcement said Eisenhower would return to Europe by Nov. 23, authoritative sources predicted his stay then would be short and in the nature of a farewell to his command in Europe before assuming duties as army chief of staff, succeeding Gen. Marshall.

Gen. Marshall reached the retirement age of 64 last Dec. 31 and is known to have expressed desires to retire around his 65th birthday. Rumors have been current since September that Eisenhower would succeed him.

Authoritative sources express belief that Eisenhower will be succeeded in Germany by Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, former American commander in the Mediterranean theater.

A vanguard of general officers who have been close to Gen. Eisenhower in Europe already is moving back to the United States to take over positions in the War department.

This shifting of key staff officers nearly always precedes shifts by the commander in chief in one theater of operations to another.

Eisenhower's impending trip to the United States is concerned primarily with problems other than the chief of staff position.

He has been asked by Mr. Truman to present personally his view of the military government here.

News Briefs

Tom Majors has returned to the Lubbock station of the state highway patrol after almost four years of service with the SeaBees, approximately three years of which was in the Pacific theater. He formerly was stationed here with the patrol, then transferred to Plainview. He, his wife and three children are looking for a residence or apartment.

Jimmy Stiff, KFYO radio announcer, and Earl Burnett, member of the American Business club, presented a 15-minute mock news broadcast giving the "lowdown" on ABC members when the club met for regular luncheon today noon in Hilton hotel. Jimmie Wilson, president, announced that W. D. McCarty and Gradie Bownds had been commended by the national organization for their work in helping organize an AB club at Lamesa. Wilson, who plans to be in Chicago Monday to confer with national representatives about club organization plans, urged all ABC members to attend the 17th district conference to be held in Amarillo next Saturday. Luncheon guests were C. P. Hinsey of Amarillo, Marlin R. Smith and Curtis Boyd. Ross Ayers, former member recently discharged from five years service with the Armed Forces, was present. Frank Baker was introduced as a new member.

people not to lay down their arms but to fight, a Dutch monitor in Soerabaja said.

Observers here said the struggle between the Dutch and Indonesians now had become so bitter that it seemed only intervention by the United Nations—or possibly by the United States—would bring about a peace formula. President Soekarno of the unrecognized Indonesian republic already has appealed to President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee to intercede to prevent savage warfare on the island. He also has appealed to the United Nations security council for the removal of all Dutch forces in Indonesia pending completion of the Allied mission.

British Welcome Aid

I was told on the highest authority that the British would welcome United States arbitration, although the Dutch are known to consider this matter a family affair.

The leadership of the Indonesian Army posed a mystery. It was said here that some military mastermind must be directing the military effectiveness of the Indonesians, normally a soft and gentle people. Also a mystery was the present disposition of the 20,000 Japanese troops who were at Soerabaja, who seemed to have disappeared suddenly from the scene.

The pamphlets ordered all leaders of the Indonesians to come to Batairaweg (in Soerabaja) not later than 6 a.m. tomorrow, marching one by one and prepared to surrender all types of arms by placing them on the ground a certain distance from the scene where the Nationalists would be required to sign the surrender.

The appeal to Attlee charged that the Dutch were abusing Red Cross aniforms and had killed Indonesian women and children.

Forster Pays Visit To Recruiters Here

Brig. Gen. George Forster, commanding general of Fort Bliss at El Paso, visited the West Texas Army recruiting headquarters here Thursday after he had presented posthumously the Congressional Medal of Honor to Pfc. Herman C. Wallace of Lubbock. The Medal was received by Wallace's parents.

Forster, in regards to recruiting of peace-time soldiers, said, "the regular Army has never before offered such distinct advantages to enlistees as are now being offered under the Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment act of 1945 and the G.I. Bill of Rights. Discharged veterans and other eligible men between the ages of 17 and 34 will be wise to investigate the educational and financial benefits offered men who enlist or reenlist in the regular Army."

The general cautioned that the war was won, but "we must also be certain to win the peace."

Gen. Forster conferred with Major Robert G. Gibbons, commander of the recruiting headquarters, during his brief stay here. He left this morning by plane for Fort Bliss.

from starving" until the next harvests are in.

Estimates Are Hiked

Estimates previously made must be hiked because refugee Germans are pouring into the American occupation zone.

Meat, eggs, coffee and evaporated milk will be eliminated from requests, but dried milkfats, beans, peas, sugar, and bread grains chiefly, will be sought.

Brig. Gen. Hugh B. Hester of the American food and agriculture section, told the Germans flatly that right now they couldn't rely on American supplies, hence they must buckle down and collect every pound of available food.

Many To Be Hungry

He reminded them that the fate of 18 million Germans in the U.S. zone — perhaps many more if they keep coming in from the Sudeten areas — depends on food and that "even with the most equitable distribution plan, there will still be hungry Germans this winter."

The general surprised listeners by admitting that quotas for collecting foodstuffs from German farms had been set almost "impossibly high." He fears that farmers will hide away too much for seed and other purposes.

The U. S. official urged use of the press and radio and every propaganda means to spur the Germans to the patriotic task of gathering every last pound of food.

Germans are told that the military government will help you in every way possible to increase production of food in Germany but actual responsibility for harvesting and distributing is on your own shoulders."

The Army's program for food production in 1946 and 1947 will be the largest ever undertaken in Germany.

and alert attendants. Of course, all this goes for a price.

The new business is the A. & H. Equipment company, recently organized by O. J. Aycock and Truman Hutson. Headquarters are at Sixteenth and Avenue H but the partners plan a new building with showrooms and warehouse as soon as a suitable location is obtained and construction materials become available.

The new company is a service business for service stations. It deals in service station equipment sales and service and installations of any equipment, even to construction of the building.

Service on electric gasoline pumps and air compressors is one of the company's featured services. Repair of meters and computing units is also a featured skilled service.

The company also handles a complete line of lubricating equipment, hydraulic lifts, air compressors, gasoline pumps and anything you can think of that is used around a filling station. Supplies from valve caps to several ton hydraulic lifts will be carried for distribution.

The company will endeavor to service an area of approximately 100 miles from Lubbock, Hutson said.

TREE "MILK"

Trees native to Venezuela yield a sweet fluid like milk when the bark is pierced. Tests show that it is even richer than cow's milk in phosphates and sugar.

ruption.

The New China Daily printed a circular telegram approved by a mass meeting at Yenan held on the anniversary of the Soviet revolution.

The telegram demanded that the central government dismiss and courtmartial Gen. Ho Ying-Chin, Chinese commander in chief, and dismiss the governors of Shansi, Suiyuan and Shantung.

It also asked that Communist forces be authorized to accept surrendering Japanese, cessation of the use of Japanese puppet troops to attack the Communists and full autonomy in the liberated zones.

Tech-TCU Homecoming Tilt May Attract 11,000 Fans

Raider Squad Is Crippled; Frogs In Top Shape

Football at Tech stadium is expected to return to pre-war boom days as latest estimates on the attendance for the homecoming battle at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon between the pass-minded Texas Christian Horned Frogs and the Schlinkman-paced Texas Tech Red Raiders soared to guesses as high as 11,000 fans.

This figure was arrived at by Morley Jennings, athletic director at Texas Tech, following the construction of temporary bleachers across the south endzone of the field. These seats will hold between 500 and 600 fans.

Reserve seats have been gone for several days, and earlier in the week, Jennings announced that 1,200 standing room tickets for the north endzone would go on sale at the north gate just before game time. The normal seating of the stadium is 9,000.

Raiders Work Late

While the scramble for tickets went on, Coach Dell Morgan put the finishing touch to the rough work for the week, and drilled the Red Raiders Thursday until long after dark. Not until it was too dark to see the ball did Morgan call it quits.

The major portion of the workout Thursday was centered on the defense, designed to stop the single, double and triple wing offenses used by the Froggies.

Defenses against passing against the tricky reverses and spinners employed by Dutch Meyer, crafty coach of the Christians, were worked overtime Thursday, and at the close of the drill, Morgan said that the final touch of polish would be put on this afternoon.

Not only will the pass minded Frogs roar into Lubbock at full strength, but with additional strength.

Tech Is Crippled

This will offer a very contrasting picture to the conditions in the Red Raider camp. Coach Morgan's squad is riddled with injuries and illness, and one substitute back, picked for a starting berth Saturday afternoon, was out Thursday with an attack of flu. This was A. W. Montague, a small but fast, back who was slated to take over for Arthur Snahan, letterman back from Graham, who is out with an injured shoulder, likely for the rest of the season.

Pat Farris, former Lubbock Westerner, was also out with illness, but may be able to see some service Saturday afternoon. Four others on the club are nursing injuries, but all are likely to see action Saturday, and plenty of it. Three are named as likely starters.

Gene Hardey, Cecil Norris, Walt Schlinkman and Jack "Spider" Dillon are all listed among the casualties.

The Red Raiders will enter the game as a decided underdog against the potent Frogs, but indications are the ball game will be a real battle.

Take 'Em Or Leave 'Em—Here They Are—

Army, Michigan, Penn, Texas, USC, Indiana, LSU, Oklahoma Aggies Top Choices Of Week

BY HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 9 — Army, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Southern California and Louisiana State will triumph in Saturday's major football games in the opinion of this corner, which has sputtered through the season so far at an .805 gait.

Last week's predictions, in which 32 of 41 were correct, not only was one of the poorest efforts of the past four years but definitely the most embarrassing, having failed to foresee the St. Mary's victory over Southern California, Michigan's blanking of Minnesota or Columbia's verdict over Cornell.

With that warning, here comes this weekend's prognostications:

Army By Three

Notre Dame-Army: For an entire year now Notre Dame students have made a by-word of the 59-0 humiliation the Irish team suffered in this game but the Ramblers will have to wait until Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis are second lieutenants. Army by three touchdowns.

Michigan - Navy: In 1944 Bob Hoernschemeyer, as a member of the Indiana university team, defeated Michigan with his passes. He is a Navy plebe now and his jinx is broken. Michigan.

Columbia-Pennsylvania: Penn's line is reported twice as good as that of Columbia's with the backfields about on a par. That should make it easy for the Quakers — but it won't be. Still, Pennsylvania.

Mississippi State - Louisiana State: Tulane showed LSU that Mississippi State could be beaten. Louisiana State.

Get Enough Inspiration

California-Southern California: Although two major parts of the Trojan machine have been removed by naval transfers the club will get enough inspiration from the home crowd. Southern California.

Indiana-Minnesota: The Gophers, early Big Ten title choices, have taken a fearful beating the past two weeks. Indiana.

Tulsa-Oklahoma A. & M.: Bob Fenimore, the human adding machine when it comes to yards gained will swing the decision to the Aggies. Each team took a two week rest in preparation for the struggle. Oklahoma A. & M.

Georgia Tech-Tulane: Watson, the mirror please. It shows Georgia Tech.

Baylor-Texas The Longhorns have had tight squeezes the past two Saturdays and will win this one quickly. Texas.

Lions Are Stronger

Temple-Penn State. Two of the best November teams in the east but the Lions have the stronger. Penn State.

Northwestern - Wisconsin: The Wildcats have convinced themselves they are pretty good. Northwestern.

Oregon State - Washington: The Huskies aren't going to lose out on the Rose bowl cash at this stage of the season. Washington.

Finishing the rest in a hurry:

East: Cornell over Colgate, Kings Point over Harvard, Yale over Brown, Lehigh over NYU, Dartmouth over Princeton, Villanova over Boston college, Atlantic City Navy over CCNY, Holy Cross over Coast Guard (Sunday).

Southwest: Rice over Arkansas, Texas A. & M. over Southern Methodist, Texas Christian over Texas Tech.

South: Georgia over Florida, Auburn over Southwest Louisiana Institute, Tennessee over Mississippi, Chattanooga over Vanderbilt Kentucky over West Virginia, Maryland over VMI, North Carolina over William & Mary, Virginia over Richmond, Miami over South Carolina (Friday).

Midwest: Illinois over Iowa, Ohio State over Pittsburgh, Michigan State over Great Lakes, Marquette over Kansas, Oklahoma over Iowa State, Drake over Iowa Teachers, Kansas State over Nebraska, Purdue over Miami of Ohio.

Far West: Washington State over Oregon, Denver over Colorado A. & M., St. Mary's over Fresno State (Sunday).

Janiro-Greco Bout On KFYO Tonight

In the feature event at New York tonight, Tony Janiro (above), the picture puncher from Youngstown, Ohio, meets Johnny Greco, the Montreal macer, in a welterweight bout scheduled to go eight rounds.

This is the rubber match between the Buckeye biffer and the Canadian clouter. In their first meeting last July, Greco won the decision. Next time up, in August, Janiro was the winner.

Tony Janiro, the boxer, and Johnny Greco, the slugger, are two of the best welters in the business. Their clash tonight promises to be one of the fastest and most bitterly fought matches of the current season.

Enjoy the excitement, blow by blow, on Gillette's Cavalcade of Sports over American Broadcasting Co. and KFYO (1340 on your Dial) at 9 p. m.

Cowhands Gold Are Brownfield Victims

BROWNFIELD, Nov. 9 (Special) —The Brownfield Cub B team reaped some revenge for their "big brothers" here yesterday afternoon, and pushed over a 20-0 win over the Lubbock Cowhands Gold eleven.

Gaining almost at will, but held surprisingly well by the Cubs couldn't hit pay dirt until a pass scored in the last half. The club scored twice in the third period and once in the fourth, using hard running power for the other two scores.

Little Max Zachary, 100 pound Cowhand, hit the field in the final quarter, and proved to be one of the outstanding players on the field, defensively, for the rest of the game.

Tablespoons originally were made from wood, ivory, flint, or slate.

Plainview Tilt Is Tops

Amarillo Favored Over Plainview

Plainview High school's grid stadium is expected to bulge Saturday afternoon when the Bulldogs clash with the vaunted Amarillo Golden Sandies in the top game of the week in District 1-AA. Kickoff is set for 2:30 o'clock.

In spite of the fact that the Plainview clubs is undefeated, untied and leads the state in defensive power, they are going into the game as the underdog to the famed Sandie attack, and a team only once beaten this season, this by non-conference Odessa.

Other AA Games

The only other conference team in action this week will be the Borger Bulldogs, who journey to Childress to play the District 2-AA Bobcats in a non-conference game.

Another Class AA game in the area that will attract a lot of attention is the battle at Lamesa between the Golden Tornadoes and the Abilene Eagles, but not a ball game that is going to cause even a ripple in the league title chance in District 3-AA.

Mustangs At Post

Perhaps the top Class A game of the week will be unreeled at Post, where Coach Wilson Head's Denver City Mustangs will try to make the next to last hurdle between themselves and a repeat performance in the bi-district playoff. The Mustangs, undefeated and only once scored on, will be favored to beat Lefty Sollis' scrappy band of Antelopes.

A traditional battle that looms as a good one, but means nothing in the title race, will be the Tahoka Bulldog invasion of O'Donnell to play the Eagles tonight. This game is rich in traditional lore, and usually a bang up scrap.

The O'Donnell pep squad plans big things for the between halves show, during which time Miss Julia Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Andy Edwards, will be crowned football queen.

Sundown Draws Test

Seminole will invade Sundown, where the Roughnecks will be trying to keep alive their spark of hope, but will face a rough test in the fast improving, veteran Seminole Tribe.

Andrews will play in Seagraves in a remaining game on the 6-A schedule for this week.

The only game in District 5-A will send Levelland to Morton for a conference battle.

There are three conference games in District 4-A, with Crosbyton's unbeaten club going to Ralls, Floydada's unbeaten club playing at Matador, and Spur playing at Paducah, with the three visitors favored to win in all three games.

Idalou will invade Abernathy this afternoon for a Class B battle that should offer plenty of fireworks.

Hale Center will tune up its ball club at Petersburg tonight, and get ready for next week's bi-district clash with Meadow at Tech Stadium. Petersburg beat Meadow last week, but lost to Hale Center earlier in the year, but hopes to even the score tonight with a much improved, and strengthened club.

McWhorter Mustangs Nosed Out By Hunt

The Hunt Pioneers were hard pressed to nose out the McWhorter Mustangs Thursday afternoon in a grade school touch football game at Dupre field, winning in the fading minutes by a 6-0 margin.

J. R. Bradford flipped a short pass to Bob Newell for the one touchdown, just a few minutes before the game ended.

Cowhands Black Cop Over Lamesa, 13-0

LAMESA, Nov. 9 (Special) — Jackie Davis passed and ran the Lubbock Cowhands Black to a 13 to 0 victory over the Lamesa B team here last night.

All the scoring was done in the last two quarters, with Davis throwing two passes to Bill Henry and one to Parker Stewart to reach the Lamesa nine. Davis then passed to Henry in the end zone for the touchdown. Jackie Davis then passed to Sam Davis in the end zone for the extra point.

Late in the fourth quarter, Jackie Davis took a Lamesa punt on his own five yard line, and streaked untouched for 95 yards and the second tally.

Davis completed nine out of 14 passes for 159 yards.

Lubbock offered one other threat in the second quarter, but was hurled back by the Lamesa youngsters. One pass to Henry and several runs moved the ball down to the Lamesa one-foot line, but bogged down.

The PLAINSMAN Says:

Feminine Viewpoint

BY RUTH MILLETT
(Copyright, 1945, For The Journal)

ONE of New York's more elegant department stores has mailed order blanks to its charge account customers for nylon stockings—so that the first arrival of the long-awaited nylons can be mailed out to prevent riots in the store.

MILLETT

Sissies!

So they're afraid of a bunch of women with a nylon gleam in their eyes.

They are afraid to put the stockings out on the counters and let the women pull off each other's mink coats fighting for a pair of the flattering sheers.

Can't New York City—that can handle a crowd waiting for a glimpse of a national hero—handle a bunch of women ready to do or die for a pair of nylons?

The sporting thing to do, of course, would be to say "Here they are; come and get them" and let the best women win.

If Nellie the waitress can outshove and out-push Mrs. Plushbottom from Park Avenue—then Nellie is the girl whose legs deserve to be encased in the first nylons.

IT'S A FREE COUNTRY

AFTER all, this is a democracy, isn't it? We have had gold rushes, and rushes to new territory to stake out homesteading claims.

Surely, we can face a rush for nylons.

So why not give women in equal chance at those precious stockings? And let the women with the sharpest pair of elbows win. Why not make it a purely sporting proposition? And maybe even sell bleecher seats for masculine spectators? It would be better than a wrestling match—no doubt about it.

That Girl on Broadway says if she is to pass on to some other world, she hopes it'll be through making history by the time she arrives.

Until the human race acquires enough intelligence to do away with war for good, the Dove of Peace will have to continue to make its nest in the mouth of a cannon.

THE Plainsman has heard for years about the comeraderie of the beauty shoppe; about how patronesses bare their souls to operators and vice versa, and about how the regular clientele of any oomph parlor and the staff are just one big, happy family with no secrets, one from the other.

Since we do not hang around beauty shoppes to any great extent, we wouldn't know exactly how factual all these reports are. But we have come to the conclusion that if the comeraderie of the female barber shop is any greater than that between one city bus driver and regular patrons on at least his route, it's going some.

We crawled on a bus the other day.

"Good morning," sang out the driver—and as if he meant it.

"Mornin', sir," we said, and dropped a nickel in the slot.

"Thank you," said the driver.

There were four white citizens on the bus beside The Plainsman—two mail carriers and two girls headed for classes at Tech. We noticed the four chatting among themselves with the driver throwing in a comment every-once-in-awhile. All of 'em were chummy, as regular bus riders on any line seem to be.

AS people got on and off the bus, the driver always hailed each with a cheery greeting or goodbye; always thanked 'em for their nickels; inquired about their kinfolks, etc. Finally, one young woman in her twenties got on.

"Still mad?" asked the driver.

"No," said the young woman as she took her place several seats back. "I'm not mad any more. I'm getting worried."

Then she and the driver engaged in a conversation and although we'd never seen either before it was plain that the young woman had a husband in the service overseas; that she hadn't heard from him for some time; that she'd been telling her troubles to the bus driver almost daily and that he had been both advising her and sympathizing with her.

The bus stopped in front of the Tech administration building and 10 young girls piled on. In response to the bus driver's whooping greeting, most of them joined in impromptu singing of "Good Morning to You." The bus driver opined they must be glad to finish their 8 o'clock class and they chorused that they sure were. (Later we deduced they were student nurses, because they all piled off, amidst shouted goodbyes to the driver, at Broadway and Avenue M and made for the Lubbock Memorial hospital.

AN elderly gentleman carrying a can and apparently in bad health had boarded the bus earlier—up at about Broadway and Avenue T. After saying good morning and thanking the passenger for his deposited nickel, the bus driver observed:

"What happened to you yesterday? I didn't see you all day. Thought maybe you were sick."

The elderly man said he'd been a little under the weather.

"Well, the whole business—20 minutes or so of unadulterated, pure friendliness upon the part of a score of people—made quite an impression on The Plainsman.

We got to thinking that there are a lot of friendly, interesting and genuine people in the world and that nearly all of us like to take our hair down and chat with each other if we're sure we can do so without being snubbed.

We got to thinking, too, that this bus driver must be a guy who gets a lot of living out of each day's work and who enjoys being a part and parcel of this thing we call the universe.

It probably has never entered his head, but the truth is, that bus driver must bring a lot of cheer and good feeling into a lot of hearts and minds—as he makes friends for the bus company, as well.

WHEN we got to the office we called Ray Farmer on the telephone and asked him (he's the manager of the bus line) who the driver was on the Nineteenth-College-Tech-Broadway run that morning.

We found that his name is Carl Gillispie; that he has been driving for the Lubbock lines for almost two and a half years; that he's around 50 years old.

So to Mr. Gillispie, who doesn't know us from a large load of hay and who doubtless is surprised to see this item, a rousing cheer and a friendly slap on the back.

Any person who makes life more pleasant for other people in this hectic day and time deserves credit for being of the right kind.

A quick way for a person to get in jail would be for him to try to exercise all the rights to which he is entitled under the Constitution of the United States.

Marion Avenue Q says all ... a number of things in the School of Experience, but the trouble is that in so many instances the knowledge comes to us too late.

A neutral position is difficult to maintain. If you sit on the fence, both sides will take pot-shots at you.

CEDRIC ADAMS writes a daily column in the Minneapolis, Minn., Star-Journal. He is the most widely read scribe in the Central Northwest because he knows how to find stories, and then how to present them when he finds them—in simple, unadorned language.

Mr. Adams unfolded an unusual story the other day, and we reproduce it here for the reason that too many people think because the "war is over" for them, it is over for everyone else.

Mr. Adams speaking:

"This is a true story, about a boy who up to the time he entered the service had never ridden on a street car, train, bus or an elevator. A train whistle and its roar down the tracks had always frightened him. Its swiftness puzzled him. Its destination had never bothered his mind. He was contented to remain on the tiny clearing deep among the pine forests of northern Minnesota which was his home. The largest town he'd ever been in was 100 miles distant—where he and his father would haul logs via horse team for the Paul Bunyan 'doings.' The paved streets, sidewalks, shop windows and three story buildings bewildered this timid lad. He was husky, strapping, healthy. A six footer—19 years old when he was classified 1-A. He became panic stricken at the thought of leaving his home and loved ones. He had never mingled with strangers. He was afraid . . . Not so much of joining the Army or of war — but of people. He'd attained his meager education at the rural school. His parents could neither read nor write. He had no bad habits. His daily chores were the wholesome type about the farm and wild timber woods. He cried and clung—unashamed—to his dear ones when he bid them goodbye. That was nearly four years ago. We have read about him occasionally. His achievements have made world news. Now he's being shipped back to the States, covered with medals and the purple heart . . . But without legs."

Just one added thought: The money you invest in the Victory War bond drive will help make life a little easier for thousands of young men like the one in Cedric Adams' story.

"Try And Stop Me"
By Bennett Cerf

ON July 8, 1914, the Boston Braves wallowed in last place in the National League standings. Then, while the big guns of the Boches were wiping Belgian fortresses off the map, and while Charles Chaplin and Mabel Normand were beginning to be noticed by movie fans, this Boston team began to click.

Under the inspiring leadership of "Miracle Man" George Stallings, three pitchers spearheaded the drive. They were Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler. Among them they won forty-nine games while losing ten; they galloped through the league like wildfire, ending no fewer than ten and one-half games ahead of the second place Giants!

To complete the miracle, this one-year wonder team tore through the heavily favored Athletics in the World Series for four straight victories. Fans remember Catcher Hank Gowdy and Second Baseman Rabbit Maranville from that team. Ever since 1914, managers have tried to rouse lagging aggregations by pointing to the exploits of the Boston Braves. The players know, however, that in baseball miracles like that happen once in a hundred years.

Tech-TCU Homecoming Tilt May Attract 11,000 Fans

Raider Squad Is Crippled; Frogs In Top Shape

Football at Tech stadium is expected to return to pre-war boom days as latest estimates on the attendance for the homecoming battle at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon between the pass-minded Texas Christian Horned Frogs and the Schlinkman-paced Texas Tech Red Raiders soared to guesses as high as 11,000 fans.

This figure was arrived at by Morley Jennings, athletic director at Texas Tech, following the construction of temporary bleachers across the south endzone of the field. These seats will hold between 500 and 600 fans.

Reserve seats have been gone for several days, and earlier in the week, Jennings announced that 1,200 standing room tickets for the north endzone would go on sale at the north gate just before game time. The normal seating of the stadium is 9,000.

Raiders Work Late

While the scramble for tickets went on, Coach Dell Morgan put the finishing touch to the rough work for the week, and drilled the Red Raiders Thursday until long after dark. Not until it was too dark to see the ball did Morgan call it quits.

The major portion of the workout Thursday was centered on the defense, designed to stop the single, double and triple wing offenses used by the Froggies.

Defenses against passing against the tricky reverses and spinners employed by Dutch Meyer, crafty coach of the Christians, were worked overtime Thursday, and at the close of the drill, Morgan said that the final touch of polish would be put on this afternoon.

Not only will the pass minded Frogs roar into Lubbock at full strength, but with additional strength.

Tech Is Crippled

This will offer a very contrasting picture to the conditions in the Red Raider camp. Coach Morgan's squad is riddled with injuries and illness, and one substitute back, picked for a starting berth Saturday afternoon, was out Thursday with an attack of flu. This was A. W. Montague, a small but fast, back who was slated to take over for Arthur Snahan, letterman back from Graham, who is out with an injured shoulder, likely for the rest of the season.

Pat Farris, former Lubbock Westerner, was also out with illness, but may be able to see some service Saturday afternoon. Four others on the club are nursing injuries, but all are likely to see action Saturday, and plenty of it. Three are named as likely starters.

Gene Hardey, Cecil Norris, Walt Schlinkman and Jack "Spider" Dillon are all listed among the casualties.

The Red Raiders will enter the game as a decided underdog against the potent Frogs, but indications are the ball game will be a real battle.

Take 'Em Or Leave 'Em—Here They Are—

Army, Michigan, Penn, Texas, USC, Indiana, LSU, Oklahoma Aggies Top Choices Of Week

BY HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 9 — Army, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Southern California and Louisiana State will triumph in Saturday's major football games in the opinion of this corner, which has sputtered through the season so far at an .805 gait.

Last week's predictions, in which 32 of 41 were correct, not only was one of the poorest efforts of the past four years but definitely the most embarrassing, having failed to foresee the St. Mary's victory over Southern California, Michigan's blanking of Minnesota or Columbia's verdict over Cornell.

With that warning, here comes this weekend's prognostications:

Army By Three

Notre Dame-Army: For an entire year now Notre Dame students have made a by-word of the 59-0 humiliation the Irish team suffered in this game but the Ramblers will have to wait until Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis are second lieutenants. Army by three touchdowns.

Michigan - Navy: In 1944 Bob Hoernschemeyer, as a member of the Indiana university team, defeated Michigan with his passes. He is a Navy plebe now and his jinx is broken. Michigan.

Columbia-Pennsylvania: Penn's line is reported twice as good as that of Columbia's with the backfields about on a par. That should make it easy for the Quakers — but it won't be. Still, Pennsylvania.

Mississippi State - Louisiana State: Tulane showed LSU that Mississippi State could be beaten. Louisiana State.

Get Enough Inspiration

California-Southern California: Although two major parts of the Trojan machine have been removed by naval transfers the club will get enough inspiration from the home crowd. Southern California.

Indiana-Minnesota: The Gophers, early Big Ten title choices, have taken a fearful beating the past two weeks. Indiana.

Tulsa-Oklahoma A. & M.: Bob Fenimore, the human adding machine when it comes to yards gained will swing the decision to the Aggies. Each team took a two week rest in preparation for the struggle. Oklahoma A. & M.

Georgia Tech-Tulane: Watson, the mirror please. It shows Georgia Tech.

Baylor-Texas The Longhorns have had tight squeezes the past two Saturdays and will win this one quickly. Texas.

Lions Are Stronger

Temple-Penn State. Two of the best November teams in the east but the Lions have the stronger. Penn State.

Northwestern - Wisconsin: The Wildcats have convinced themselves they are pretty good. Northwestern.

Oregon State - Washington: The Huskies aren't going to lose out on the Rose bowl cash at this stage of the season. Washington.

Finishing the rest in a hurry:

East: Cornell over Colgate, Kings Point over Harvard, Yale over Brown, Lehigh over NYU, Dartmouth over Princeton, Villanova over Boston college, Atlantic City Navy over CCNY, Holy Cross over Coast Guard (Sunday).

Southwest: Rice over Arkansas, Texas A. & M. over Southern Methodist, Texas Christian over Texas Tech.

South: Georgia over Florida, Auburn over Southwest Louisiana Institute, Tennessee over Mississippi, Chattanooga over Vanderbilt Kentucky over West Virginia, Maryland over VMI, North Carolina over William & Mary, Virginia over Richmond, Miami over South Carolina (Friday).

Midwest: Illinois over Iowa, Ohio State over Pittsburgh, Michigan State over Great Lakes, Marquette over Kansas, Oklahoma over Iowa State, Drake over Iowa Teachers, Kansas State over Nebraska, Purdue over Miami of Ohio.

Far West: Washington State over Oregon, Denver over Colorado A. & M., St. Mary's over Fresno State (Sunday).

Cowhands Gold Are Brownfield Victims

BROWNFIELD, Nov. 9 (Special) —The Brownfield Cub B team reaped some revenge for their "big brothers" here yesterday afternoon, and pushed over a 20-0 win over the Lubbock Cowhands Gold eleven.

Gaining almost at will, but held surprisingly well by the Cubs couldn't hit pay dirt until a pass scored in the last half. The club scored twice in the third period and once in the fourth, using hard running power for the other two scores.

Little Max Zachary, 100 pound Cowhand, hit the field in the final quarter, and proved to be one of the outstanding players on the field, defensively, for the rest of the game.

Tablespoons originally were made from wood, ivory, flint, or slate.

Janiro-Greco Bout On KFYO Tonight

In the feature event at New York tonight, Tony Janiro (above), the picture puncher from Youngstown, Ohio, meets Johnny Greco, the Montreal macer, in a welterweight bout scheduled to go eight rounds.

This is the rubber match between the Buckeye biffer and the Canadian clouter. In their first meeting last July, Greco won the decision. Next time up, in August, Janiro was the winner.

Tony Janiro, the boxer, and Johnny Greco, the slugger, are two of the best welters in the business. Their clash tonight promises to be one of the fastest and most bitterly fought matches of the current season.

Enjoy the excitement, blow by blow, on Gillette's Cavalcade of Sports over American Broadcasting Co. and KFYO (1340 on your Dial) at 9 p. m.

And remember, men . . . LOOK sharp! FEEL sharp! BE sharp! Use Gillette Blue Blades with the sharpest edges ever honed. Copr. 1945 Gillette Safety Razor Co.

Plainview Tilt Is Tops

Amarillo Favored Over Plainview

Plainview High school's grid stadium is expected to bulge Saturday afternoon when the Bulldogs clash with the vaunted Amarillo Golden Sandies in the top game of the week in District 1-AA. Kickoff is set for 2:30 o'clock.

In spite ot the fact that the Plainview clubs is undefeated, untied and leads the state in defensive power, they are going into the game as the underdog to the famed Sandie attack, and a team only once beaten this season, this by non-conference Odessa.

Other AA Games

The only other conference team in action this week will be the Borger Bulldogs, who journey to Childress to play the District 2-AA Bobcats in a non-conference game.

Another Class AA game in the area that will attract a lot of attention is the battle at Lamesa between the Golden Tornadoes and the Abilene Eagles, but not a ball game that is going to cause even a ripple in the league title chance in District 3-AA.

Mustangs At Post

Perhaps the top Class A game of the week will be unreeled at Post, where Coach Wilson Head's Denver City Mustangs will try to make the next to last hurdle between themselves and a repeat performance in the bi-district playoff. The Mustangs, undefeated and only once scored on, will be favored to beat Lefty Sollis' scrappy band of Antelopes.

A traditional battle that looms as a good one, but means nothing in the title race, will be the Tahoka Bulldog invasion of O'Donnell to play the Eagles tonight. This game is rich in traditional lore, and usually a bang up scrap.

The O'Donnell pep squad plans big things for the between halves show, during which time Miss Julia Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Andy Edwards, will be crowned football queen.

Sundown Draws Test

Seminole will invade Sundown, where the Roughnecks will be trying to keep alive their spark of hope, but will face a rough test in the fast improving, veteran Seminole Tribe.

Andrews will play in Seagraves in a remaining game on the 6-A schedule for this week.

The only game in District 5-A will send Levelland to Morton for a conference battle.

There are three conference games in District 4-A, with Crosbyton's unbeaten club going to Ralls, Floydada's unbeaten club playing at Matador, and Spur playing at Paducah, with the three visitors favored to win in all three games.

Idalou will invade Abernathy this afternoon for a Class B battle that should offer plenty of fireworks.

Hale Center will tune up its ball club at Petersburg tonight, and get ready for next week's bi-district clash with Meadow at Tech Stadium. Petersburg beat Meadow last week, but lost to Hale Center earlier in the year, but hopes to even the score tonight with a much improved, and strengthened club.

McWhorter Mustangs Nosed Out By Hunt

The Hunt Pioneers were hard pressed to nose out the McWhorter Mustangs Thursday afternoon in a grade school touch football game at Dupre field, winning in the fading minutes by a 6-0 margin.

J. R. Bradford flipped a short pass to Bob Newell for the one touchdown, just a few minutes before the game ended.

Cowhands Black Cop Over Lamesa, 13-0

LAMESA, Nov. 9 (Special) — Jackie Davis passed and ran the Lubbock Cowhands Black to a 13 to 0 victory over the Lamesa B team here last night.

All the scoring was done in the last two quarters, with Davis throwing two passes to Bill Henry and one to Parker Stewart to reach the Lamesa nine. Davis then passed to Henry in the end zone for the touchdown. Jackie Davis then passed to Sam Davis in the end zone for the extra point.

Late in the fourth quarter, Jackie Davis took a Lamesa punt on his own five yard line, and streaked untouched for 95 yards and the second tally.

Davis completed nine out of 14 passes for 159 yards.

Lubbock offered one other threat in the second quarter, but was hurled back by the Lamesa youngsters. One pass to Henry and several runs moved the ball down to the Lamesa one-foot line, but bogged down.

PIMPLES
Disappeared Overnight
Blackheads, Too, Went Fast

Yes, it is true, there is a safe, harmless, medicated liquid called KEERREX that dries up pimples overnight as it acts to loosen and remove ugly blackheads. Until the human race acquires enough intelligence to do away with war for good, the Dove of Peace will have to continue to make its nest in the mouth of a cannon.

THE Plainsman has heard for years about the comeraderie of the beauty shoppe; about how patronesses bare their souls to operators and vice versa, and about how the regular clientele of any oomph parlor and the staff are just one big, happy family with no secrets, one from the other.

Since we do not hang around beauty shoppes to any great extent, we wouldn't know exactly how factual all these reports are. But we have come to the conclusion that if the comeraderie of the female barber shop is any greater than that between one city bus driver and regular patrons on at least his route, it's going some.

We crawled on a bus the other day.

"Good morning," sang out the driver—and as if he meant it.

"Mornin', sir," we said, and dropped a nickel in the slot.

"Thank you," said the driver.

There were four white citizens on the bus beside The Plainsman—two mail carriers and two girls headed for classes at Tech. We noticed the four chatting among themselves with the driver throwing in a comment every-once-in-awhile. All of 'em were chummy, as regular bus riders on any line seem to be.

AS people got on and off the bus, the driver always hailed each with a cheery greeting or goodbye; always thanked 'em for their nickels; inquired about their kinfolks, etc. Finally, one young woman in her twenties got on.

"Still mad?" asked the driver.

"No," said the young woman as she took her place several seats back. "I'm not mad any more. I'm getting worried."

Then she and the driver engaged in a conversation and although we'd never seen either before it was plain that the young woman had a husband in the service overseas; that she hadn't heard from him for some time; that she'd been telling her troubles to the bus driver almost daily and that he had been both advising her and sympathizing with her.

The bus stopped in front of the Tech administration building and 10 young girls piled on. In response to the bus driver's whooping greeting, most of them joined in impromptu singing of "Good Morning to You." The bus driver opined they must be glad to finish their 8 o'clock class and they chorused that they sure were. (Later we deduced they were student nurses, because they all piled off, amidst shouted goodbyes to the driver, at Broadway and Avenue M and made for the Lubbock Memorial hospital.

AN elderly gentleman carrying a can and apparently in bad health had boarded the bus earlier—up at about Broadway and Avenue T. After saying good morning and thanking the passenger for his deposited nickel, the bus driver observed:

"What happened to you yesterday? I didn't see you all day. Thought maybe you were sick."

The elderly man said he'd been a little under the weather.

"Well, the whole business—20 minutes or so of unadulterated, pure friendliness upon the part of a score of people—made quite an impression on The Plainsman.

We got to thinking that there are a lot of friendly, interesting and genuine people in the world and that nearly all of us like to take our hair down and chat with each other if we're sure we can do so without being snubbed.

We got to thinking, too, that this bus driver must be a guy who gets a lot of living out of each day's work and who enjoys being a part and parcel of this thing we call the universe.

It probably has never entered his head, but the truth is that bus driver must bring a lot of cheer and good feeling into a lot of hearts and minds—as he makes friends for the bus company, as well.

WHEN we got to the office we called Ray Farmer on the telephone and asked him (he's the manager of the bus line) who the driver was on the Nineteenth-College-Tech-Broadway run that morning.

We found that his name is Carl Gillispie; that he has been driving for the Lubbock lines for almost two and a half years; that he's around 50 years old.

So to Mr. Gillispie, who doesn't know us from a large load of hay and who doubtless is surprised to see this item, a rousing cheer and a friendly slap on the back.

CEDRIC ADAMS writes a daily column in the Minneapolis, Minn., Star-Journal. He is the most widely read scribe in the Central Northwest because he knows how to find stories, and then how to present them when he finds them—in simple, unadorned language.

Mr. Adams unfolded an unusual story the other day, and we reproduce it here for the reason that too many people think because the "war is over" for them, it is over for everyone else.

Mr. Adams speaking:

"This is a true story, about a boy who up to the time he entered the service had never ridden on a street car, train, bus or an elevator. A train whistle and its roar down the tracks had always frightened him. Its swiftness puzzled him. Its destination had never bothered his mind. He was contented to remain on the tiny clearing deep among the pine forests of northern Minnesota which was his home. The largest town he'd ever been in was 100 miles distant—where he and his father would haul logs via horse team for the Paul Bunyan 'doings.' The paved streets, sidewalks, shop windows and three story buildings bewildered this timid lad. He was husky, strapping, healthy. A six footer—19 years old when he was classified 1-A. He became panic stricken at the thought of leaving his home and loved ones. He had never mingled with strangers. He was afraid . . . Not so much of joining the Army or of war — but of people. He'd attained his meager education at the rural school. His parents could neither read nor write. He had no bad habits. His daily chores were the wholesome type about the farm and wild timber woods. He cried and clung—unashamed—to his dear ones when he bid them goodbye. That was nearly four years ago. We have read about him occasionally. His achievements have made world news. Now he's being shipped back to the States, covered with medals and the purple heart . . . But without legs."

Just one added thought: The money you invest in the Victory War bond drive will help make life a little easier for thousands of young men like the one in Cedric Adams' story.

ONE of New York's more elegant department stores has mailed order blanks to its charge account customers for nylon stockings—so that the first arrival of the long-awaited nylons can be mailed out to prevent riots in the store.

Sissies!

So they're afraid of a bunch of women with a nylon gleam in their eyes.

They are afraid to put the stockings out on the counters and let the women pull off each other's mink coats fighting for a pair of the flattering sheers.

Can't New York City—that can handle a crowd waiting for a glimpse of a national hero—handle a bunch of women ready to do or die for a pair of nylons?

The sporting thing to do, of course, would be to say "Here they are; come and get them" and let the best women win.

If Nellie the waitress can outshove and out-push Mrs. Plushbottom from Park Avenue—then Nellie is the girl whose legs deserve to be encased in the first nylons.

IT'S A FREE COUNTRY

AFTER all, this is a democracy, isn't it? We have had gold rushes, and rushes to new territory to stake out homesteading claims.

Surely, we can face a rush for nylons.

So why not give women in equal chance at those precious stockings? And let the women with the sharpest pair of elbows win. Why not make it a purely sporting proposition? And maybe even sell bleecher seats for masculine spectators? It would be better than a wrestling match—no doubt about it.

"Try And Stop Me"
By Bennett Cerf

ON July 8, 1914, the Boston Braves wallowed in last place in the National League standings. Then, while the big guns of the Boches were wiping Belgian fortresses off the map, and while Charles Chaplin and Mabel Normand were beginning to be noticed by movie fans, this Boston team began to click.

Under the inspiring leadership of "Miracle Man" George Stallings, three pitchers spearheaded the drive. They were Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler. Among them they won forty-nine games while losing ten; they galloped through the league like wildfire, ending no fewer than ten and one-half games ahead of the second place Giants!

To complete the miracle, this one-year wonder team tore through the heavily favored Athletics in the World Series for four straight victories. Fans remember Catcher Hank Gowdy and Second Baseman Rabbit Maranville from that team. Ever since 1914, managers have tried to rouse lagging aggregations by pointing to the exploits of the Boston Braves. The players know, however, that in baseball miracles like that happen once in a hundred years.

EQUAL PAY FOR JOHN AND JANE

The women are having their little wage warfare, too. They want, specifically, just as much pay as the men for the same work, according to the Morse-Pepper bill now being considered by a Senate Labor sub-committee. Congressmen as a whole are not very much concerned about the proposal, if at all.

Many women favor such legislation because of the principle involved. It's not that they are set to go out and fill gasoline tanks, shoot oil wells, or lay bricks. Apparently, they are mainly interested in gaining a point.

Miss Frieda Miller, head of the U. S. Women's bureau (we never knew it existed before, either, until we read about it somewhere), says that male workers should be for the legislation, too, for the reason that it would prevent women from undercutting men's wage scales in the forthcoming period of adequate labor supply. And no one can deny that she has a pretty good argument there.

Some women are against equal pay laws for fear that many jobs will be closed to women, and given to men, if the pay must be the same in either case. (That's logical, too.)

Equal pay for equal work was a part of governmental policy in the Wage-Hour act of 1938, but it has been more ignored than observed. The War Labor board declined to insist on it in the case of jobs traditionally performed by women.

The bill is not likely to get anywhere in this or any other early session of Congress. The women, bless 'em, have not yet convinced the males that their place is not necessarily only in the home.

Stalin Suffered A Heart Attack

Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON
Special Correspondent

PEARSON

WASHINGTON—A high Army officer just returned from Europe reports that Stalin suffered a severe heart attack and will have to take things easy from now on. The same general reports there is dissension in the Red Army over Stalin's successor . . . George Allen, so-called "Mississippi carpet-bagger" and one of the men closest to Harry Truman, is retiring from the White House. Although drawing no salary and still vice president of the Home Insurance company, as well as having his finger in many other pies, Allen held down a desk at the White House . . . War department appeasers are causing trouble for Secretary Byrnes' plan to democratize Japan. Last week the Army didn't even want to send to General MacArthur Byrnes' order to remove all Jap businessmen guilty of supplying munitions to the war lords . . . The Army also hankers to prosecute Jap war criminals itself. President Truman, however, insists that one of the most outstanding criminal prosecutors in the country, Joseph B. Keenan, handle the job . . . Meanwhile, war crimes prosecution in Japan moves at a snail's pace. Eisenhower has arrested 70,000 Nazis, MacArthur only a couple of hundred Japs.

IDLE SHIPS

CONGRATULATIONS to Secretary of the Navy Forrestal for finally getting around to ascertaining how many troops can be returned on battleships. He waited a long time (until after Navy day), but now several battleships are being measured to see how many troops they can carry . . . By scaling battleships' crews from about 2,500 to 700, they can carry about 3,000 returning G.I.'s . . . Use of battleships ought not to be necessary, however, if the nation's tremendous surplus of shipping were utilized. This now approaches scandal . . . While seabees, sailors, marines, soldiers wait on island hell-holes or in European ports, 55 Victory ships have been removed from military service and switched to commercial trade. These were the fastest ships built during the war, all at government expense. However, peacetime commerce now comes before peacetime repatriation of men who fought for their country . . . Tragic waste of shipping today approaches a Pearl Harbor scandal. While enlisted men eat their hearts out in Europe and the Pacific, waiting to come home, 93 vessels have been laid up in Suisun bay, Calif., since the end of the war . . . In addition, a total of 226 ships are now in the port of San Francisco. According to a careful survey by the maritime unions, 75 docked prior to Sept. 30 and 55 docked the first two weeks of October . . . They are not moving. All are in good condition.

SMOTHERS SMALL BUSINESS

IT looks like small business, which both Roosevelt and Truman talked so much about protecting, is going to get the small end of the deal. . . . During the war, big business got most of the prime contracts. More than 50 per cent of all war orders went to just six companies. . . . Now, by a sleight-of-hand operation, smaller war plants, chief protector of little business, is being gutted. . . . Funny part of it is that the gutting of smaller war plants is probably unconstitutional, since what is created by Congress can't be transferred without a new act of Congress. Despite this, the main functions of smaller war plants are being transferred to the RFC—namely loans to small business—while the left-over dregs are going to Henry Wallace's commerce department. This is taking place just after Congress got through voting smaller war plants the money to hire 800 extra men to sell surplus war goods to veterans. . . . Senator Taft has said he was against passing Truman's reorganization bill because smaller war plants might be transferred; but he is going to wake up and find it transferred even before the reorganization bill is passed. . . . Maury Maverick, fighting head of smaller war plants, has given up in disgust and is leaving for China — the Siberia of exiled American statesmen. (Donald Nelson went there before being ousted from WPB; Wallace also went there before being eased out of the vice-presidency.) . . . Prediction: Treasury Watchdog Lindsay Warren will not okay expenditure of funds for the gutted smaller war plants. He will rule that when Congress appropriates money for one thing, it has to be spent as Congress decrees, not some other way.

PENNSYLVANIA LAWYERS

AFTER beating about the bush for some time, President Truman has finally decided that senators are not to appoint all his new judges. Senator Joe Guffey of Pennsylvania, a stalwart Democrat, long has objected to the appointment of another Democratic stalwart, Jim McGranery of Philadelphia, to be new U.S. circuit court of appeals judge. Guffey admits he had nothing against McGranery, but wanted another man to fill the job. However, Truman has decided to appoint McGranery anyway. . . . A former congressman, McGranery is one of the outstanding men in the Justice department, will make an A-1 judge. . . . Taking McGranery's place as No. 2 man in the Justice department will be Congressman Mike Monroney of Oklahoma, an able citizen. Some Republicans are balking at Monroney's going to the Justice department, because he isn't a lawyer. But the job of assistant to the attorney general is administrative, not legal, and Monroney will do a fine job.

JEEPS FOR VETS

ORCHIDS to Congressman Eddie Herbert of Louisiana for pounding home on surplus war property officials the importance of selling war goods to discharged veterans. The veterans are having a tough job buying government surpluses, despite the fact that millions of dollars in jeeps, trucks, tires, etc., are lying idle in government warehouses. . . . A west coast auto dealer recently bought 100 cars from the government at a flat price of $250 each, is now selling them for around $1,000 each. Meanwhile, veterans can't buy surplus government automobiles. . . . Best congressional plugger for the capital of the United Nations to be in the United States is Congressman Karl Mundt of South Dakota. He claims — and rightly — that if you put the world capital in the old world, it will mean the dead hand of old-world politics clutching the United Nations. . . . Mundt charges that the British, Dutch, and French delegates are trying to upset the earlier vote of the United Nations committee to establish the United Nations capital in the U.S.A.

THE island of Okinawa is rapidly getting the reputation of being the hell-hole of the armed forces. Men are living in mouldy tents. Fresh meat and vegetables are few and far between. A supply of dynamite recently went off right in the middle of a tent area, killing six men. Meanwhile, ships have been standing off Okinawa waiting for orders from Washington. . . . Elder Statesman Josephus Daniels, who built up the Navy to what it was in the last war, has come out editorially against President Truman and peacetime conscription. Daniels says in brief: Remove the caste system from the Army and promote the men who deserve promotion; then you will get a big enough Army without conscription. . . . President Truman has decided that the office of strategic services ("oh-so-secret") belongs in the War department during peace, rather than in the State department.

VESSELS REFLOATED

PEARL HARBOR, Nov. 9 (AP) — Ninety of the 226 vessels beached or sunk at Okinawa by a typhoon early last month have been refloated during the past two weeks, fleet headquarters said today. The 90 range from small landing craft to 10,000-ton ships.

The Navy expects to refloat nearly 70 per cent of the 226.

Marshall Warns That Nation Is Undergoing Demoralization

Far-Flung Power Of U. S. Said Crumbling

BY MARQUIS CHILDS
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—In his memorable speech in New York a week ago, General George C. Marshall warned the nation that what we are undergoing now is not demobilization but demoralization. The far-flung power that we assembled during the years of the war is crumbling away so fast that it seems almost as though it had never existed.

CHILDS

It is hard to realize what this means. Take the air forces, for example.

This country built up the biggest and the most powerful air force in the world. At the peak it included nearly 2,500,000 officers and men who fought and flew and serviced more than a hundred thousand planes.

Today there is not a combat unit that could perform a single tactical mission. Not a single fighting unit is left intact.

The reason for this is obvious. The best pilots and the best gunners — the men around whom the units are built — are the high point men. They got out first.

Have Less Than 200,000

By March 1 of next year the air forces will have less than 200,000 officers and men, of whom less than 10 per cent will be skilled mechanics on the ground. This means, according to those who know best, that planes for which there are still pilots may be grounded, and the accident rate will certainly go up. Thus far, the air forces have turned over to the RFC for disposal 32,000 planes. Eventually, up to 90,000 Army and Navy planes will be junked.

The men responsible for our air forces are not thinking in terms of a huge post-war air armada. But they are thinking of keeping a minimum air strength that will enable this country to live up to its world responsibilities.

TO implement the security provisions of the San Francisco charter, as our airmen see it, we should have 1,000 long - range bombers. An adequate accompanying fighter force would include 1500 fighter planes.

The air forces is trying to keep up to minimum strength through enlistments. But this is difficult to do for various reasons. The volunteer, having a choice of an 18-months enlistment or a three-year enlistment, naturally takes the shorter term since he can reconsider his status at the end of a year.

It takes a year to train highly skilled air forces personnel. Those already in the service who sign up for an additional year get a three-months furlough, which means that they are available for only nine months. Putting a complicated technical service together on this basis is almost an impossibility.

Kind Of Log Jam

Unhappily, the political situation in Congress is calculated to prolong the disintegration. There is a kind of log jam which can be broken only by action from the very top.

President Truman has declared himself on universal military training. All three services—Army, Navy and Air—are agreed on that, although there are important individuals who have doubts. It would not, for example, supply the needs of the air forces where longer training is essential.

But the president has not taken a stand on unification of the services under a single civilian head. The Navy, with its powerful lobby both in and out of uniform, is opposed to unification. Although informal surveys indicate a sufficient majority in both houses for unifying the services, the Navy manages to keep the question stirred up.

ALL major decisions on our future military strength are thus held in a state of suspension. Priceless time is being lost. Irretrievable combinations of strength are being broken up.

Congress is reluctant to face up to the universal training issue. It is being pushed into the background. Next year is an election year. What is worrying responsible military men is that the present period of delay and uncertainty will be projected into 1946 under the shadow of the universal training dilemma.

The rest of the world is watching closely. They see Uncle Samson an involuntary victim of a heedless barber. He is being shorn of his strength while almost no one pauses to notice.

Bomb Secrets May Be Aired

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 9 — British diplomatic circles speculated today that President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee probably will decide at their conference next week to give full secrets of the atomic bomb to the United Nations organization.

These sources believed that another big three meeting — with Premier Stalin joining Mr. Truman and Attlee — will be held very soon, to be followed by a five-power conference including France and China.

To Leave Tonight

Attlee will take off for Washington tonight following his address at the lord mayor's luncheon in London today. He will be a house guest at the White House Saturday and Sunday, then make his headquarters at the British embassy during his formal discussions with Mr. Truman.

Besides atomic energy, Mr. Truman and Attlee are expected to discuss financial aid for Britain, the Palestine question and means of bettering relations between the western Allies and Russia.

Guy Eden, diplomatic correspondent of the Daily Express, said that in the event Mr. Truman and Attlee do decide to turn over atomic bomb secrets to the UNO, the security council would take custody of all scientific data and all actual bombs placed at the disposal of the organization.

In Committee Hands

"The actual use of the bombs against an aggressor would be in the hands of the military staffs committee, representing the armed forces of the big five," Eden wrote.

"It therefore is argued that for a time at any rate, only the five great powers need share the secrets. A conference of representatives of these governments would be able to make all necessary plans."

Eden said, however, that both Mr. Truman and Attlee believe the UNO must be more than a "paper" body before atomic bomb secrets can be entrusted to it.

Cold Wave

er North Dakota and Montana towns reported snow two to eight inches deep. Sixteen inches were piled up in the mountain passes of Montana and Idaho.

The federal forecaster at Chicago promised little immediate relief, warning that the cold snap would last until Sunday, when temperatures would recover slightly, then dip again. Winter was here to stay, he said.

Mercury Dives At Chicago

Chicago residents basked in a springlike 70.2 temperature yesterday until the temperature plunged 15 degrees in 50 minutes and fell to 37 degrees by midnight. The mercury was expected to drop to 15 degrees by nightfall in the windy city. Similar sharp temperature changes were predicted for Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri.

To the south, freezing temperatures reached into Oklahoma and the Texas Panhandle, endangering fall crops.

Only the southern Atlantic and southwestern states escaped the frigid blasts. Miami temperatures hovered in the low eighties, and Laredo, Tex., boasted a high of 89 degrees.

Atomic Bomb Test Gave Grey Hair To Man's Cattle

EL PASO, Nov. 9. (U.P.)—The atomic bomb test in New Mexico last summer gave grey hair to cattle 60 miles away.

C. M. Harvey, El Paso banker and ranch owner, returned from his ranch 60 miles from the testing spot to report that "the atomic test explosion caused the hair on the backs of some of my cattle to turn grey."

The phenomenon was revealed when Harvey saw cattle with smoky grey hair in a strip a foot wide running the length of their backs. Otherwise the cattle, on a high section of the ranch at the time of the explosion, were not affected.

Man Sought As A Draft Evader Is A Hero Of War

DENVER, Nov. 9 (AP) —"Tommy Ryan," sought since 1940 as a draft evader, today turned out to be Archie J. Spenser, wearer of the Purple Heart and three battle stars in his European theater ribbons, so the charges against him were dismissed in U. S. district court.

District Attorney Thomas J. Morrissey said Spencer registered with a Nevada draft board in 1940 as "Tommy Ryan" before he was of the age to be called. He gave his home address as Littleton, Colo., and the FBI has been looking for him ever since. He registered again in October, 1942, was called to service and later given a medical discharge for wounds received in Europe.

Lewis Drafts Wage Policy

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. — John L. Lewis may try to draft a wage bargaining policy on which labor's divided forces might unite at President Truman's labor-management conference.

Lewis last night roundly denounced a resolution offered by CIO President Philip Murray, declaring it would limit labor's wage gains to the price advances of "a bottle of milk, a pair of shoes or a straw hat."

Program Outlined

With support from AFL President William Green, Lewis outlined to the conference's executive committee — and later to reporters — a wage program which would free labor to seek whatever it could "reasonably" get.

"We believe in the right of investors to get a return on their investment, of industry to make a profit, of labor to negotiate freely," the mine workers' chief told correspondents after a clash with Murray in the closed committee meeting.

Free competition without industry as peacetime production rises, Lewis said, will serve as a "limitation on prics and a brake on profits, while increased efficiency and competition will lower the cost of articles to the consumer."

Asked whether he might try to frame some other declaration of wage bargaining policy on which all of labor's 36 delegates to the conference might agree, the brush-browed UMW president paused, then said:

"We might come to that."

Resolution Is Denounced

Murray's much-disputed resolution, held in the executive committee since Monday, would put the labor-management meeting on record as favoring full and prompt collective bargaining under the wage policy broadcast last week by President Truman — that wage rises are "imperative."

Lewis denounced Murray's entire resolution as "innocuous, feeble and namby-pamby."

He used those phrases also in yesterday's closed session of the executive committee, which must decide whether the resolution gets to the conference floor. His criticism touched off a stormy scene, persons attending said, in which the CIO and UMW leaders argued angrily.

Fred C. Smith, the conference press officer, said that AFL Chief Green expressed himself "in full accord with everything Lewis said" on the wage question.

Management delegates were merely spectators to the feud in labor's ranks.

TWO MEN KILLED IN NEW MEXICO CRASH

GRANTS, N. M., Nov. 9. (U.P.)—The crash of a National Skyway Freight Co. cargo plane from Long Beach, Calif., late last night near Grants has claimed the lives of two fliers, and injured another.

Assistant State Police Chief A. B. Martinez identified the two victims as Pilot Richard Sawyer and Co-Pilot Lawrence Febster, both of Long Beach. The third occupant of the plane, Flight Engineer Ronald E. Lewis, was hospitalized in Grants. Martinez said that while Lewis was badly shaken, his only apparent injury was a broken nose.

It was believed that the accident occurred shortly before last midnight, about two hours after taking off from Albuquerque, where the plane had been refueled.

Lewis said the plane had been unable to gain altitude because of a storm, and crashed into San Rafael mountain 20 miles southwest of here, according to Martinez.

Pessimists Think That We're Headed Fast For Another War

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The pessimistic commuter was aboard my train again this morning and gloom poured from the corner of his stubborn mouth as he reaffirmed his belief that the world is hell-bent for another war.

Your columnist didn't try to combat this argument, for after all there are grave dangers and it's well that we recognize them. It is only by recognition that we can meet these emergencies.

Hasn't Reached Crisis

If we are to see the position clearly we must start from the basic fact that the world hasn't yet reached the crisis — the turning point — of the epochal sickness which has been brought about by the war. Only when we have passed the peak of the illness can we foresee the exact end.

Meantime let none doubt that things are going to be a mighty sight worse before they get better. But the fact that a sick man hasn't yet passed his crisis doesn't mean that he is going to die.

Only part of the trouble is political. We are faced with another terrible problem in both Europe and Asia, and that is due to the breakdown of the structure upon which many peoples have depended for the necessities of life. One aspect of this is rather grimly dealt with in a current commentary by Professor Vincent Harlow, the distinguished British historian who acted as official military commentator during the war.

Danger Of Collapse

"Europe is in imminent danger of collapse . . . what confronts us now is the rapid dissolution of the greater part of a civilized continent into a formless mass of humanity, drifting toward destruction by starvation and disease. Nothing like it has been seen before . . ."

Harsh, isn't it? But it's true. We are going to see terrible things in many countries before the winter is through. There will be not only suffering and wholesale death, but hunger breeds anarchy. The saving grace here is that the United Nations are shipping necessities to the afflicted areas. The needs can't be met, but the suffering can be alleviated.
