Senior Citizen Mini Bus To Be In Olton Jan. 23

Senior Citizens will get their first ride in the 12-passenger mini bus, which has been purchased for the use of senior citizens throughout Lamb County, at the local club's regularly scheduled meeting Thursday.

The Jan. 23 meeting is slated for 11 a.m. rather than an afternoon meeting as usual. All interested people of the community, over sixty, are invited to attend the meeting in Olton Women's Clubhouse.

Members are asked to bring a covered dish for the luncheon meeting which is sponsored this month by Olton Garden Club. Bill Powel of the Resource Development Committee of Community Action will be present Thursday to explain the benefits and possibilities for the local use of the bus.

Tentative plans for the bus calls for it to be available to senior citizens in each community one day each week for such purposes as grocery shopping, visits to the doctor, bank, or to Senior Citizens club meetings. A driver will be furnished.

Lamb, Cochran Disaster Areas

Congressman George Mahon notified The Enterprise this week that Lamb and Cochran counties have designated as disaster areas for the purpose of making available emergency loans for farmers whose crops were destroyed by natural disasters.

For further information, persons may contact Farmers Home Administration.

School, City Meetings Held Here This Week

The school and city governing bodies met in separate meetings in the earlier part of the week, each with very little business on the agenda.

At the board of trustees meeting Monday night, a resignation was accepted and contracts were granted teachers in the system. Resignation of the choir teacher, Mrs. Ricky Chapman, was accepted and Mrs. Dale Carey was named to fill that post.

Two year contracts were granted to all three principals and athletic director. Ray Kinnison, elementary principal; Carl Mc Clure, junior high principal; and Robert Sivley, high school principal; and Ed Miller, athletic director and head coach were the recipients of the contracts.

At the Tuesday night meeting of the city fathers, a junk dealer license was okayed and a new night watchman hired, following the resignation of Jim Baggett.

A junk dealer's license was approved for J.W. Goodman. Hired as night watchman was David Ray Dalton.

A discussion on paving was held, but no action taken, pending a survey now being conducted by CCA as to the interest in such an undertaking.

Revenue Sharing for the quarter ending in September was reported at $17,480 with sales taxes for the same quarter standing at $7,398.

Olton Speakers Win VFW Sponsored Contest

Students from OHS have continued a winning habit and have brought home the first place win in the Voice of Democracy contest for the fourth consecutive year. It is the second straight year that local students have swept the contest, earning second and third place honors also in the annual VFW sponsored contest.

John Rodriquez, son of Mrs. Jean Rodriquez, captured first place in county competition and learned this week that his speech was also the top winner in district judging. He was third place county winner last year.

Virginia Daugherty won second place in the county contest, the same finish she earned last year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Daugherty.

Third place winner in county competition was Carla Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark.

Rod iquez' speech will now be considered in judging at the state level.

Students competing in the Voice of Democracy contest must first write a speech on a theme, "My Responsibility As A Citizen" and then record it. Recordings must be from three to five minutes in length and tapes are then sent to the judges. Speeches are judged on basis of content, 45%; originality, 35% and delivery, 20%.

Salvation Army Fund Drive Falls Short Of Goal In Olton

Olton's goal of $1,000 in the annual Salvation Army fund drive was not met this year for the first time in quite a few years. A total of $709.24 was received according to Basil Sherman, Chairman for the Salvation Army Service Unit in Olton.

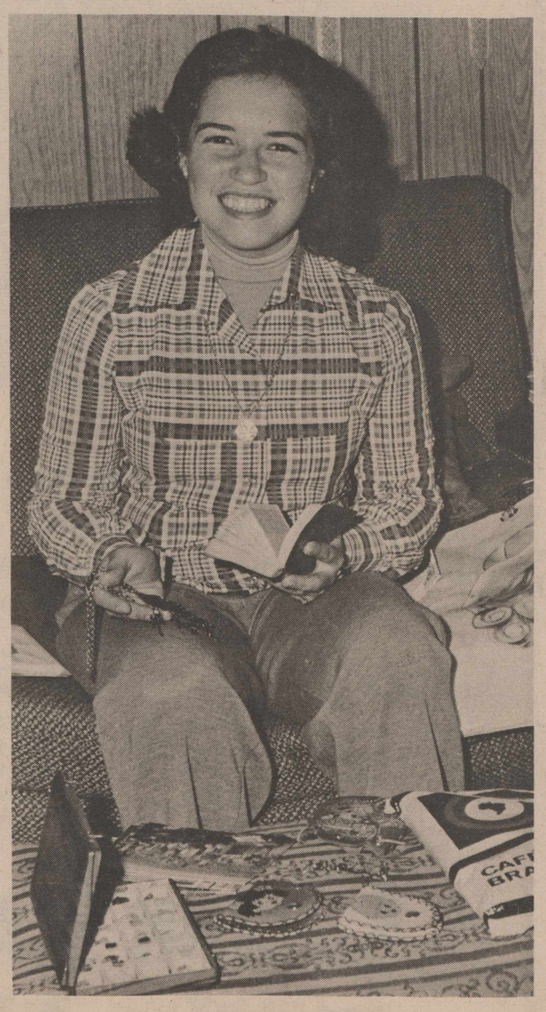

In the past, Oltonites have attained and surpassed the goals set for Salvation Army funds and many persons have received benefits of the funds which have been kept locally.

Sherman expressed appreciation this week to those who helped conduct the drive and to those who contributed to the fund this year and stated that if there are persons who did not have the opportunity to make donations to the fund, money will still be accepted. Contributions may be left with Alan Brown at Olton State Bank.

Persons are still faced with problems and have needs which might be met through the work of the Salvation Army, a spokesman said this week. "Olton has always been good to reach out and help others," they said.

Brazilians Win Love

Two young Brazilians, who share the same home city have already won the hearts of their host families as the second week of their seven-weeks-stay has hurriedly passed.

Maria Cristina de Mello Souza and Sergio Saden Regende are visitors in Olton through the Lions International Youth Exchange Program. They are two of 70 young Brazilians currently in the United States through the Lions YEP.

Arriving in Miami, Fla. New Year's Day, the group assigned as guests in Texas homes had a few hours lay-over there before flying on to destinations across Texas. Sixteen of the young people were assigned to host families in Lions District 2T2 and arrived in Lubbock Jan. 2 where they were greeted by their new families.

Staying in the home of Sandi and Elza Miller, Maria was one of the last to alight from the plane.

"But from the time she saw us holding the placard with her name, we knew our prayers had been answered," says Sandi.

"Maria ran to us, hugged us and kissed us on each cheek and then grabbed Stephanie to love her. Having two little sisters herself (one 14 and another nine), she just fits in our family just right. The Millers have two little daughters, seven-year-old Stephanie and four-year-old Nikki.

"We haven't been able to tell that Sergio has been homesick," says Junette Noack. When asked if he had been "homesick," the fifteen-year-old failed to comprehend the question. When shown the Portuguese translation, he quickly responded with a fervent, "Oh-h-h, yes!"

Young Regende is the seventh Lions foreign exchange student for the Leon Noacks and their four sons, Kevin, Kyle, Kory and Kerry.

The two young residents of Belo Horizonte, Brazil had never met before their US visit and, this week, had still not had the opportunity to get acquainted. Belo Horizonte, approximately 150 miles northwest of Rio de Janeiro, is quite large. Neither youth knows its correct population but a check with Americana encyclopedia shows some 642,912 residents.

Sergio learned just two days before their departure the identity of his new Texas family. Maria's family learned Dec. 27 that she would be visiting in Texas.

"They received a copy of our application," says Sandi, which solved her puzzlement at Maria's appropriate selection of gifts for her new family.

Maria brought Sandi a most beautiful necklace with matching earrings and each "little sister" pretty beaded purses. She also brought the family some "cafe Brazil," coffee ground to the consistency of confectioners sugar which brews into a strong but delicious drink.

Flying into Lubbock in late afternoon with the New Year's night snowfall still on the ground gave the Brazilian young people a new sight.

Although there are parts of Brazil where the weather gets cold, Belo Horizonte does not have the temperatures the two have encountered on their Texas visit. Wintertime, coming during June, July and August, finds their low temperatures about 60 degrees.

Classes are held just half-days and like American colleges, are scheduled on alternate days. Usually held from 7 a.m. until noon, they are sometimes held after-

Dear Editor

WINNER OF JAN 6

Dear Editor,

Why clean up and beautify? Who cares? New business and industries care.

Young couples looking for good schools and clean environments care. You have the good schools. Do you have the environment?

As a visitor came into your town what would he see? Would he want to stay from what he saw? If he were passing by the golf course he would notice new tennis courts and a place for recreation. Then, unfortunately, he would see the shacks and equipment strewn all over a lot just before he came into town. He would then stop at the light and notice several things. He would notice that some businessmen care enough about their property to brighten up their signs and make them readable; others let theirs run down and give a ghost town appearance. On the right he would see a muddy lot which could easily be converted into a parking lot or a park-like area. As the light turns he would move along the street and see how a lot was turned into a convenient parking area next to the cafe. The bank is showing further interest by working on their land immediately behind their building. Other noticeable eyesores would be the old meat co. building on the right and an old two story house on the left. Put yourself in his place. Would you want to move here? Would you bring in your big new business and require your employees to settle here?

Sincerely,
Jan Sherman

Dear Sirs,

I have an idea that might beautify Olton. My idea is to pave more streets here in Olton because when it rains the roads get muddy and very ugly and also very lumpy.

Some of the people get stuck in the muddy roads. Some children cannot come to school. Some of the children come to school with muddy shoes. So I think this will help alot here in Olton.

People will be happier, if there were more paved streets here in Olton. So many people won't complain about muddy streets here in town.

Sincerely,
Helen Fuentes

To the Olton Merchants:

Our town and the community can be improved by working for a hospital and doctors, this will help all of us, and more especially the Senior Citizens. We need a good rest home with lots of T.L.C.

Our young people need a swimming pool. Others cities have them why can't Olton?

We need to improve our park, and a community house would be nice. I can just see a bunch of heads shaking. No! No. This can be done!

Olton has potential. Let us make them a reality. A friend of mine remarked that Olton was a church-going town.

We can make it a growing town too, if we will get involved.

Let us not wait on George, he is getting tired.

Sincerely,
Opal Huckabee

Dear Oltonites,

I don't want to make enemies or hurt anyone's feelings, but the challenge has been made to write a letter describing improvement and beautification that could be made in Olton.

Olton is a great little town and has much going for it. There are many good churches. We have an excellent school system, a good fire department, post office, city hall and newspaper. All have friendly personnel.

Our merchants are friendly and accommodating. Most of the shops are nice and neat inside and out. Some might use a little face-lifting.

But we all realize Olton is not perfect.

I hate the word "eyesore", but believe there must be one at the intersection of Highway 70 and Farm Road 168! The two old gins haven't operated in years. Yet this mess is there for us and the many people, who travel through Olton, to see each day.

Following the highways through Olton, this spot can not be missed. From time to time these lots have been changed some--but never cleared.

If this valuable land could be cleared, it would be an ideal location for new businesses. Trees and grass would be better than this debris.

Our town gives a poor first impression, entering it from any direction. Many businesses and other buildings, on the outskirts, could use some improvement on their outside decor.

The first outside view of Olton should be closer to the view one has when he becomes involved with life of our town.

Mary Wheeler

Dear Olton,

Olton isn't a bad place to live. It could be improved. One way it would be improved is by having some exciting things to do in Olton. If there was some kind of a center where games could be played, it would keep most of the kids off Main Street. If there were not any kids on Main Street there wouldn't be as much noise pollution that kids make when dragging Main Street.

Another way Olton could be improved is by everyone not polluting. If everyone would dispose of their trash properly our streets and air would be a nicer place to live.

The only other way I can think of to improve Olton is if everyone would take care of their own property and make it look nice and neat. Some people are unable to get around easily so everyone should lend a hand to make our community a better place to live.

Yours truly
Judy Quigley
Yours truly,

Dear Sir,

I believe we can make Olton a better place to live. We have some pretty dirty junk yards without a fence or something around it. There is a law about it. The people of Olton could put a white or blue fence around our junk yards. We could put some trees, bushes or anything. The office could be outside the fence. Maybe put a Mustang on the door.

There are some empty lots. They could be mowed, and flowers put on them. It would be a very pretty place. Some of the lots could have a house put on them.

The people of Olton could make Olton a better place to live in (if they really wanted to). When families move into Olton they could see a lot of improvements. I think most of the people in Olton really want to make Olton a better, prettier and enjoyable place to live.

Sincerely,
Paula Miller

Dear Olton,

Olton I think that if we pave all roads in the city limits some of the lots that have been on dirt roads would be sold and some businesses would move to Olton. This would also make Olton much prettier too, because when you have curbs, weeds don't grow through them.

Sincerely,
Jeff Nafzger

Dear Olton,

Our main problem is water. Our water tower is too small for our needs. One way to solve this problem is to save some money every year over a period of five years for a smaller tower. The smaller tower would be placed on the south end of Olton with some small storage tanks on the ground.

Sincerely,
Todd Roper

Dear Olton,

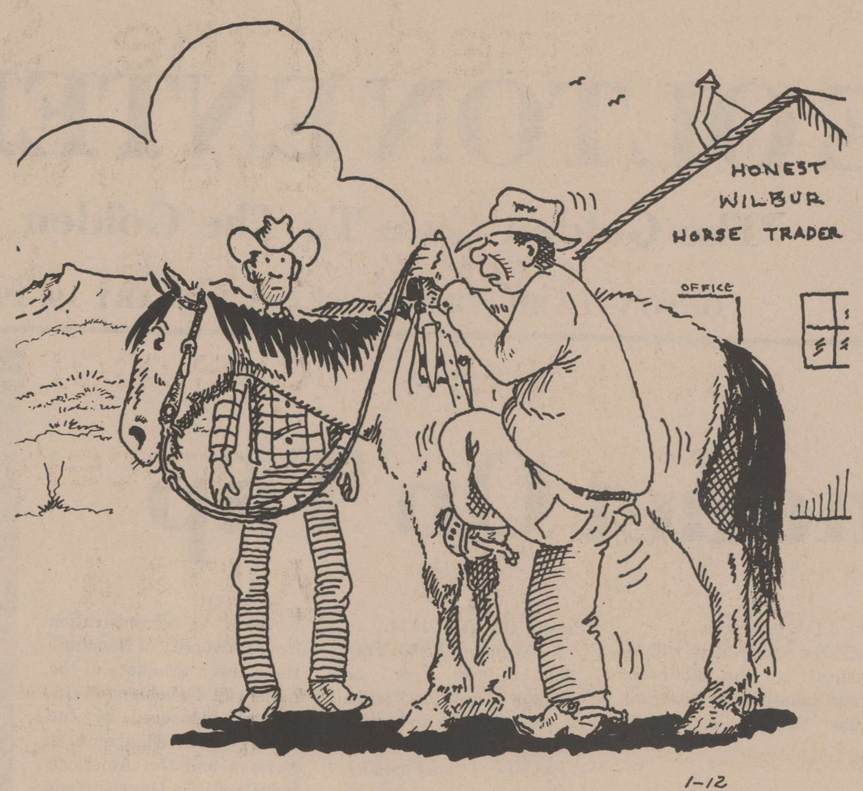

I've thought and thought and I really can't find many ways to improve you. You see, I've lived in other towns and I've come to appreciate you so much.

You have such a good school system. It employs people who care about the welfare of every child. You are full of people who believe in God and care about their fellow man.

I am concerned about the possibility of drugs becoming a problem here as it seems to be elsewhere. I believe a possible determent to this might be a fund set up and donated by the people of Olton to pay to People who help our law enforcement officials by giving information or help that leads to the arrest and conviction of such persons as dope peddlers and others connected to unlawful use of drugs.

oons. Brazilian schools ve no lunch rooms and eals are never served in hool.

Maria studies 11 subjects: rtuguese, history, math, ography, biology, physics, emistry, physical educa- n, art, O.S.P.B. ("more or s government or civics," says) and English. Ex- ining she had studied glish five years, Maria ilingly confesses, "But I ak little."

Sergio, a grade back of ria, has just nine classes. studies Portuguese, glish, math ("matama- a"), geography, "historia," physics, O.S.P.B., religion and "sports."

Sports, Sergio says, includes football, basketball, volley ball, swimming, snooker and ping pong. Brazilian football, he says, is very different from the American game.

Describing the difference charade-like with a semi-reluctant host father, Sergio explained that hands are not used and "is not as rough." Although the Brazilian game seems more like soccer, Sergio answeres it "is not soccer."

Chess, gin, solitaire and "21" are games familiar to Sergio and he explains he learned them at school in "recreation class."

American television programs, translated in Portuguese, are popular in the visitors' home city. Maria cites a number including "Mannix," "Cannon," "McCloud," "M*A*S*H," and, an oldie, "Gomer Pyle."

Sergio mentions "Mannix" "Bonanza," and "Sesame Street." Both commented having already seen the Frank Sinatra Special viewed here last week.

Neither young person has noted much difference in foods from their homeland. Gravy and dill pickles are the only new items for Sergio. Junette explained she had to insist that Sergio taste biscuits and gravy and that the taste let to a double helping of the "good" food. Refusing to eat dill pickles until she explained she had made them, Sergio also discovered he liked that new taste.

Maria, Sandi says, has been easy to please at meal time. "She told me not to fix anything different, she'd eat whatever we did and from the beginning she's helped in the kitchen and seems to enjoy it."

Referring to her choice of foods, Maria smilingly says, "I like Mexican, Italian, French, Chinese, American--all."

Neither young person had ever visited outside South America. Sergio had never left Brazil but Maria has visited in Argentina and Paraguay. She has already decided she wants to come back to the States and says that her fourteen-year-old sister is looking forward to making a similar Lions Exchange visit.

Maria's family lives in a multi-storied apartment building but this is not her first visit to a farm. An uncle, she says, has a small farm where he grows fruit. He raises "carambola," a yellow fruit similar to an orange yet different in that it does not have the peel of the citrus fruit. Brazil does grow oranges, tangerines and lemons, she says.

Sergio attended services at First United Methodist Church with the Noacks his first Sunday in Olton and last Sunday was a guest of a local family at the Catholic Church in Plainview.

Maria is enjoying church attendance at Hopewell Baptist Church. The Millers have ordered her a Portuguese translation of the Bible but until it arrives Maria has been finding no difficulty reading a Spanish translation.

Ironically, both young people express a desire to study engineering after they finish high school. Maria's father is an engineer. Sergio's father is in the transportation business and has a fleet of trucks.

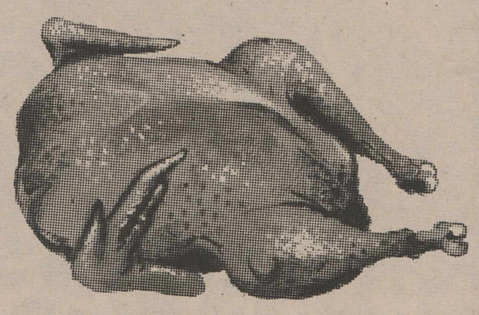

"We've found out things day by day," Sandi says of the charming guest who calls the young Millers "Mother" and "Father."

"It's like opening a puzzle, a bit at a time. Maria is so eager and friendly. I've never met a young person with more respect for older persons and she speaks so softly and respectfully of her parents and grandparents.

"She fits in so well. I told Elza that night after we got her, 'I can just see us seven weeks from now, telling her good-bye at the airport and crying because she's leaving'."

MRS. BOB HALL

Cook Of The Week

A very tasty chicken casserole and an unusual yeast bread are among the recipes shared this week by Mrs. Bob Hall.

Born and reared in Olton, the former Dianne Snider and Bob Hall were married during the Christmas season a year ago. Both attended and graduated from Olton schools.

Dianne studied and received her license as a beautician but changed careers last summer when she became a receptionist for Dr. James Kirkpatrick at Olton Medical Center.

Her favorite pastimes are water skiing and riding horses and she never finds enough time for either.

Dianne is a member of First United Methodist Church.

QUICK BREAD

Pour flour and yeast into milk mixture. Beat thoroughly with mixer. Add 2 eggs and beat. Add 1 t. salt, ¼ c. sugar (or less) and beat again with rest of flour (1½ c. flour).

Divide batter into 2-1 lb. coffee cans equally. Coffee cans should be well greased with shortening. Put lids on coffee can. Let rise to within ½ inch of top of can.

Take lids off and bake at 350 degrees for 30 to 40 minutes. Remove bread from cans immediately after baking.

Guests were the honoree's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. K.Y. Givens, their daughter Kay, and his uncle, Eddie Nelson, a resident of Lubbock.

The white birthday cake had blue icing and one blue candle.

MRS. LONNIE KEITH WILSON

Wilson-Jones Vows Read At Sunnyside

Wedding vows were pledged at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in Sunnyside Baptist Church for Miss Renee Jones and Lonnie Keith Wilson.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Wilson, all of the Sunnyside Community. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jones.

The Rev. M.D. Durham of Lubbock, former pastor, officiated the double ring ceremony before an archway entwined with blue flowers and greenery. Spiral candelabras and baskets of white mums and blue carnations completed the nuptial decor.

Mrs. Jean Craft, organist, presented nuptial selections and accompanied Wanda Collins as she sang "The Wedding Song." Mrs. Craft also accompanied Donna Bird who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white chiffon over satin fashioned with an Empire bodice featuring a sheer, deep V-yoke outlined in wide lace with a wedding ring collar of matching lace. Her long full sleeves were caught at the wrists with cuffs of matching lace and a sheer deep ruffle encircled the hemline and made an inverted V in front. Her cathedral length train was accented with matching lace and deep ruffle.

Held by a satin bow headpiece, her tiered veil of sheer illusion was edged with lace handmade by her grandmother, Mrs. Jones. She "borrowed" a handkerchief, also handmade by her Grandmother Jones.

Bridal attendants were Tisa Whitfield of Silverton, Connie Cooley of Levelland and Debbie Wilson of Sunnyside. They wore formal princess styled gowns of baby blue.

Tracy Wilson was flower girl; Kyle Bradley, ring bearer. Candles were lighted by Darla Hicks of Dimmitt and Denean Wilson.

Attending the groom were Randy Ferguson, Danny Cornelius and Brad Freeman. Guests were seated by Rodney Wilson, Rory Jones, Doug Freeman and Lee Brown.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Danny Cornelius.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jones. Guests were registered by Jeffrey Jones. Assisting with the houseparty were Sharon Sadler, Judy Loudder, LaWonda Wilson, Nomi Brown, Ruth Spencer and Frances Watson.

The couple honeymooned in Ruidoso, N.M. and are at home in Levelland where both are students in South Plains College. The bride and groom are graduates of Springlake-Earth High School.

In The Ring

By Dick Watson

Sorry folks, too busy to write much this week. Five Olton Boxers journeyed to Muleshoe Friday and Saturday night to compete in the AAU trophy tournament featuring other fighters from Levelland, Lubbock, Plainview and Tulia. Once again Olton was represented in grand style as the boys captured two first place trophys and two runner-up trophys.

"Dynamite Dwayne" Eby was the only Olton boxer that didn't participate in the finals, but he gave a good account of himself Friday night as he knocked Israel Reyna of Mueshoe completely through the ropes. If I hadn't caught Reyna just before he hit the floor, I doubt that he could have continued the fight. AAU rules are scored by points instead of how hard the boys hit and Reyna out-pointed Eby to win the hard fought match, then continued to take first place trophy in the 65 lb. Junior Division. Eby fought his best fight of the season and the coaches are extremely proud of him.

"Accomodating Alfie" Fuentez (so named because if someone wants to fight, Alfie will accomodate them) was paired with his Olton teammate "Jolting Joey" Fernandez (so named because of the jolting blows he delivers in such rapid succession) in the Finals. The more experienced and older Alfie won with a T.K.O. over the agressive Joey in the closing seconds of the last round to take the first place trophy in the 65 lb. Senior Division. Joey took runner-up trophy.

"Leaping Lance" Phares (so named because he leaps at his opponents and also for his ability in the high jump) won the runner-up trophy for Olton as he was out-pointed by the seasoned James Sherman of Lubbock in the 90 lb. Junior Division.

"Dangerous Danny" Garcia, fighting over his weight and fighting older boys, overcame all adversaries to seize the coveted first place trophy in the 90 lb. Senior Class. He walloped Jeff Irvin of Lubbock in the Semi-finals with a flurry of left jabs and right crosses then triumphed over Reynaldo Rojas of Muleshoe with a heart-thumping display of superb boxing to capture first place.

Olton boxers are now enjoying the new ring provided through the generosity of Derwood Lynch and Olton residents. It is great to live in a community where the people support their youth. Plans are being made at present to host a boxing tournament in Olton if facilities can be obtained. The best AAU boxers in the West Texas Area will be invited.

Practice is continuing at the former Olton Pump building at the South edge of Olton on Tuesday and Thursday nights at 7:30. New boys are invited to participate and any adult wishing to help with the training of these youths is welcomed and needed. We are proud of the new ring and invite the public to come see it.

BRYAN ALLCORN AND FREDDY STOCKDALE

From high atop the rising Olton skyline, inside the 434½ story skyscraper, "The House of Allcorn", at desk No. 14, comes this weeks version of ---? You guessed it, welcome to "Everything But The Kitchen Sink!" Naw, serially folks, this just the small but honest little column you hopefully read every week. (Sorry about that Mozelle.)

...We interrupt this mess to bring you a special "WITG" new flash. "Dashing and debonair DarrellDeBerry was dumbly, not deftly, driving donuts daringly on a dark and dismal day. When all of a sudden Darrell turned his car to the right. The trouble was, his car went the other ay. We'll have a complete report later, so join us 6:30 p.m. for the noon e report."

Meanwhile, things are ing pretty hairy on the efront. (Or, you might the Headfront.) Not y hairy, hairy. It's just too many fellows are ng their hair exceed the code a little. It has been le hard to enforce it, so the school needs is a cooperation. You , cooperation, or you t say, CO-OPeration. a little meeting with of the students, the was brought that there lly no good reason for to break the code and oblem of haircuts was nding the time to get Your two friendly ors have a little stion we might throw st get your hair cut in arbershop, say, once six weeks and have thin it out some. Then, your hair starts to exceed the code, you can trim the excess with some rber scissors without sing your masculinity. We nrew this in for all of you nderclassmen because this ode is being threatened by few people who have to reak the rules. You can do our part. The Seniors don't ave much to lose because hey'll only be here four nore months. You underlassmen don't have anyning to lose except a alf-inch. It's up to you.

And now, a little poetry nes your way...

INFLATION
Getting poked is not a joke,
It's really starting to hurt,
Pie and ice cream is not a dream,
And neither is buying a kirt.

You've heard all the sayings like "Let's don't be fuelish," and "together we can work it out."
"Turn off that light, you hypocrite;
You're no American, you're a Krout."

Look at the prices nowadays!
Everything goes up and up and up!
Pretty soon we'll all be on the streets,
With a cane, and an old tin cup.

As the prices climb to the sky
And we wonder what is next;
The wily oilmen smile and sigh,
And show off their muscles that they flex.

Our money's going someplace,
We wish we knew just where;
For all we know, our coins will go,
To good ole Sugar Bear.

And yes, indeed, it makes us bleed,
When bills come through the mail.
And if these bills, you cannot pay,
You find your bod in jail.

"Hey!" You say, "That's not too bad a deal.
A free bed, free meal, and something to drink.
And no one's here to bug me,
I'm better off in the clink."

There once were people in this world,
Who believed it was best to share.
But too late, they realized their mistake,
And that's how we got Welfare.

Some people laugh, and just turned their heads.

DAUGHTER VISITS

Recent houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gray were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ted James, Dana and Jeff of Burkburnett.

CHILDREN VISIT

Visiting recently with Mr. and Mrs. D.C. Eby were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ausbrooks of Lubbock and the Eby's other children and families, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eby, Duane, D'Ann and Barry and Mrs. Leah Muller, Gary, Mike and Joy.

And their theme is "Live and Let Die."
But what do you tell children
When they look at you and say, "Why?"

If I was called "the answer man",
And could cure the pain and woe;
I'd find the men responsible
And tell them where to go.

OH, MY ACHING BACCALAUREATE
The month of June approaches,
And soon across the land.
The graduation speakers
Will tell us where we stand.

We stand upon the threshold
Of careers all brightly lit.
In the midst of all this standing,
We sit and sit and sit.

Then there was Bolumnist Bill Gold who claims that when Caesar first saw Cleopatra, he exclaimed: "Wow! A perfect XXXVI!"

Pat, after only six dates, has bought a little black book for telephone numbers. On the cover he has confidently written "Vol. I."

Small boy to small girl: "Are you the opposite sex, or am I?"

Freshman of the Week--Stacy Meador
Sophomore of the Week--Brynea Allcorn
Junior of the Week--Karen McGill
Senior of the Week--Pat Britton
Teacher of the Week--Geneva Smith
Question of the Week--Did Eve find Adam?
Club of the Week--The R.I.L.'s
Poke of the Week--Nitscke and two all beef patties, special sauce, lettuce, cheese, pickles, onions, on a sesame-seed bun.

In closing we would like to dedicate our "thought of the week" to all of you "parking-peekers." Robert W. Chambers once said, "All the world may not love a lover, but all the world watches him." So until next week, stay Alive and "Write In The Groove."

Letter To The Editor

Dear Olton:

We need to find some ways to make Olton more beautiful.

First we need to raise some money to improve Olton. For instance have everyone in Olton pay about ten dollars to the city to help pay for all the things needed to be done. The city needs to haul off old junk cars and tear down old buildings that are not in use anymore.

We could plant pots of flowers and little trees on the medians and on the sidewalks of Main Street.

The alleys and vacant lots should be kept clean of trash and tumble weeds. The trash cans should be chained to posts so dogs will not turn them over and spill out the trash on the ground.

Sincerely,
Gregg Davis

Dear Sir:

I think we should do something about those empty houses. Some of them are just awful. People throw trash around them and all kinds of junk. Last year when the Junior High cleaned up Olton some of us had the old houses around here and it was so awful we just gave up and went to the next place. Some little kids go and climb around those old houses and could get hurt by falling on glass and cutting themselves on tin cans, poking rusty nails on their feet and everything like that! To get the houses fixed up you could call the owners to have the house torn down. Also you could get the junk around it hauled off. At least get them to look halfway decent. If not that, get the owner to sell it cheap and the whole town could fix it up. To make it look better you could paint it or put flowers, trees, things like that around it. Maybe one of them could be fixed up for a youth center.

Melinda Ables

Dear Olton:

Olton's airstrip isn't much of an airstrip. Olton needs a better one. An airstrip that should be graded and graveled. It should have tie downs and gasoline tanks. A small office should be built to keep records. A windsock should be placed in visible sight and, if possible, hangar facilities provided for one or two planes.

Sincerely,
Roy Craig

Dear Olton Citizens,

Our town is becoming smaller as the world grows and all the rest have to help. We just can't say something and will be done. We have to make ourselves do these and to make Olton a nicer and a better place to live.

The streets could be marked in case there is a wreck. The places that there are not names and numbers of street ought to be put up. I say this because you can't find a house and a certain street you couldn't find. The street over by the Post Office and White's there is going to be a wreck because there needs to be a yellow line down the intersection going east and west.

There is something of greater importance and that is the drug problem. The only way to stop this is to get rid of half the kids, but we don't want to do that. We can bring dogs and men that look like citizens of Olton. The men could search the school and if they find evidence they can lead to a case.

Sincerlely yours,
Vance Stroebel

Dear Sir,

Olton has a big problem and that is the car wash, Olton needs a bigger one because the one we have is to little and muddy. We need a bigger one so trucks and farm machinery can wash.

Olton needs some more vacuum cleaners at the car wash so people can clean their cars.

Olton has another problem and that is the trash. People just let their trash fly everywhere and it gets all over your yard and you have to clean it up.

Sincerely,
Gregg Griffin

Dear Sir,

I'm writing to you to tell you how we can make Olton look better. All that trash that flies around the streets makes Olton look messy. Everybody just throws trash around all over the place and it looks awful. The men that work in the city only pick up trash that's in the trash cans. They never pick up the trash around the trash cans. So maybe if we put litter barrels all over town it will be cleaner. They don't need to be new barrels. They can be old and they can be painted or decorated. If you don't have any men to do it, there's lots of students in O.J.H. that would like to do it. We'll decorate the cans. We can have clean up day once a month or so.

Yours truly,
Josie Velasquez

Dear Sir:

I think Olton needs more fun buildings. For example some people come to Olton but cannot find a place to have fun. One thing we could put in would be a skating rink. Why? So most people that come in to Olton or people that live in Olton can have some fun to be doing. There are lots more things like swimming pools bowling alleys and a whole bunch of other things.

Sincerely yours,
Elena Casares

Dear Sirs:

I think we could make Olton a better place to live in by using old vacant buildings, they could be used for stores that we don't have.

The alleys, streets and corners should be kept clean all through the year.

The sewer lake could be deodorized because of the way it smells when the wind blows.

Yours truly,
Charles Brown

Dear Editor:

I think maybe if some of the lots were mowed, Olton could be more attractive. The city could mow it and charge it to the person who owns the lot.

Also I have seen lots of houses with cobwebs on them. It doesn't help the looks of the house any.

Maybe we could each clean up our own house, and lot so that Olton could look more attractive.

Sincerely yours,
Cathy Cook

Dear Olton,

We need to fix the old buildings like fixing the windows and like painting the buildings again. We need to get the city to come and fix the old buildings like putting flowers around them so it will look pretty and we need to do what we can to help the city to make Olton a nicer town so people will come and stay and live in Olton so they can help and make Olton better.

Sincerely,
Larry Perez

Dear Sir,

I think we can make Olton a better place by building a better City Hall. We can make it better by making the City Hall bigger and by making it in another place where there is more room. I think there is too little parking space. I think the City Hall is too close to the other buildings. It should be apart form the other buildings. The City Hall is unattractive. We would like the City Hall to be a perfect place and we want it to look excellent.

Sincerely,
Vivian Garcia
