VOLUME XXXV

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 OCTOBER 1, 1971

NUMBER 45

The sheriff of Dallas County deserves commendation for his handling of inmates in last week's jail riot, especially on his refusal to let rabble rouser William Kunstler go in and visit them as a "citizen observer." Possibly he recalled that Kunstler's visit to the Attica prison did not improve the disposition of its rioters.

Actually Kunstler was only one of several characters at Attica who can be described in varying degrees from hard core revolutionaries to sympathetic left wing journalists. These are people who either encourage the prisoners to greater violence or portray them as heroic and downtrodden martyrs while officials are presented as heartless brutes.

The ruckus at Dallas, along with that at Attica, and a short time before in California, seem to fit together in a pattern substantiating Governor Ronald Reagan's opinion of the whole mess. He thinks the revolutionaries of this country are shifting their attack from the campus to the prison. The trend of the news also points that way. Here are three prison incidents in a short time but no college incidents in months. It's a gratifying development.

We are pleased by this indication that the nation's students have wised up to the radical loud mouths and refused to go along with their conspiracies for violence. Obviously most of them have thought through the situation and decided that the wild ideas do not really lead to a better America. Their change of attitude is a tribute to their good judgment and also a sign that common sense will prevail in the end.

However, it's a good idea to realize that up to now the problem certainly is not licked. Prison officials need to work on various angles of their problem. One is to see that citizen observers like Kunstler and the leftist idealists are barred from all prisoners. Let authorities do the negotiating when a problem comes up.

It would help some more if prison officials kept a close watch on the politics of prisoners. Revolutionary loud mouths ought to be isolated as quickly as possible so they will have less chance to do their dirty work.

And when trouble comes up, let Attica be a guide line. Let the rioters know that they risk their lives when they hold and threaten hostages.

Additional help can be given by courts and legislators, by re-instating laws on capital punishment. One wonders whether the Attica revolutionaries would have tried their rebellion if they had not been in the position of having nothing to lose.

In the case of the Dallas jail riot, it seems that a more rigid code of punishments might have been a preventive measure. Leniency toward criminals is one of the principal causes of the high prison population. It's reasonable to assume that jails would be less crowded if so many criminals were not operating under the opinion that they probably will not be caught and if so the punishment will not be severe.

So, it seems that we may now be in the third and last stage of violence in America. A few years ago revolutionaries found a sympathetic ear in the streets, resulting in a number of major big city riots. Then they went to the campuses, exploiting idealistic youngsters who wanted better conditions but still had to learn that the loud mouths did not have the answers.

When the prison problems are brought under control let's hope that our country will be ready for the final phase in the clean-up process. That is to crack down on all who are known to be revolutionaries, prosecuting the more vicious characters as traitors . . . and also eliminating from influence or authority all persons who do not take and live up to the loyalty oath.

There is no excuse for permitting spreaders of alien isms to infiltrate the schools, the media and the government. Let's rule out that sob sister stuff about a person's right to a job regardless of his convictions. Instead let's get back to common sense and insist that only loyal people will be in charge of education and government and national security.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoenig returned Saturday night after being in Baileyville, Kansas, at the funeral of a cousin, Odilo Koelzer, and afterward a visit in West Point, Neb., with relatives of the Fleitman family and with friends.

United Fund Drive Will Start Friday

Friday of this week is United Fund kickoff date in Cooke County and next Monday is the kickoff date in Muenster.

John Pagel, who is serving as this year's community chairman, said he is being helped by the Muenster Jaycees who expect to have their campaign kits ready for first contacts Monday.

Officers Elected By Band Parents

In a meeting Monday night Muenster Band Parents organized for a new year, elected officers and planned ways to boost the band fund. Eddie Fleitman, out going president, presided.

New officers are David Bright, president, and Mrs. James Mollenkopf, secretary-treasurer succeeding Mrs. Leonard Yosten. Mrs. Ray Swirczynski continues as vice president.

Members agreed to be in charge of the concession stand at Junior High football games and to continue selling Hornet cushions at home games. They hope to raise enough money to completely outfit band members who at this time are without various items of the uniform.

Hornets Edge Bearcats In 16-14 Defensive Tilt

By the slim margin of points after touchdown Muenster High's Hornets won their game at Whitesboro last Friday night. The score was 16-14 after a defensive battle on a rain-soaked field in which both teams had their troubles.

It started with the teams exchanging kicks through most of the first period after which the Bearcats suddenly put together three nice gains that netted the first score just as the first quarter ended.

Jerry Neighbors got the momentum going with a kick return of about 40 yards to the Hornet 32. Three nice runs ripped off 15 yards more. Then Hornet defense braced and allowed only 2 yards on three tries, but a fourth down pass was a beauty. Hawkins hit Brady across the line.

The kick attempt for extra point was blocked by Gerry Eckart.

Muenster rebounded with a couple series of steady gains that went 28 yards before ending with a fumble on the Bearcat 34.

Whitesboro got back to midfield and also fumbled. Then the Hornets made their best gain of the night. Ricky Swirczynski took a short pass from Jim Endres, side stepped a pair of defenders and got to the 10.

Two tries from there reached the 4. But then another fumble.

Whitesboro had to kick on its first series and the Hornets put on all their pressure. Ricky Swirczynski got there in time to deflect the ball upward. . . . Curtis Klement was there for an easy catch and a step across the goal.

The play that followed was the one that made the big difference at the end. Endres connected with Alan Miller

Pagel said that the community goal this year has been set at $1,200 in order to beat last year's contribution of $1,107.50. He also pointed out that $1200 is a fair estimate of the actual return received here annually from the UF. Besides the $600 allocated directly to the Muenster Youth Council, Muenster shares in the services and/or funds received by 4-H and FFA, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, Red Cross, and Council on Alcoholism.

The County Campaign is headed by Charles Draper of Southland Paint Company. He is trying for a goal of $52,643, which was set several weeks ago after the County U.F. determined its anticipated allocations for the year.

The twelve participating agencies and the money to be received by each are as follows: Boys' Club, $10,345; Boy Scouts, $5,500; Camp Fire Girls, $5,500; Camp Sweeney Diabetic Foundation, $7,000; Council on Alcoholism, $1,500; 4-H and FFA, $1,500; Muenster Youth Council, $600; Red Cross, $10,000; Salvation Army, $6,500; Texas Rehabilitation Center, $350; Tri-Hi-Y, $600; campaign expense and dues, $3,898. Services of those agencies are explained in the UF campaign brochures.

The Men In Service Civilian Again Terry Wimmer is back at home, a civilian again, after a hitch in the Army, the past 15 months in Vietnam. He was a specialist 4. After flying from Vietnam to Fort Lewis, Wash., where he was separated from the service, he flew to Dallas where his parents met him.

Moved To Army Hospital The Gene Hoedebecks received a wire Monday from the Army reporting that their son, Spec. 4 Paul Hoedebeck, has been moved from a German hospital to the U. S. Army General Hospital in Frankfurt. His wife, Dianne, who has been at his bedside since Sept. 8 — four days after his accident — wrote that she plans to return home this weekend. Since her husband is overseas she and the couple's infant son live with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wiese at Gainesville. Paul's new address is: Spec. 4 Paul Hoedebeck, 465-82-1094; U. S. Army General Hospital; Frankfurt, Germany; APO New York, N. Y. 09757. He will appreciate hearing from friends.

Fly To California Mrs. Mel Stephens and children Anita Marie, Michael and Jon returned Tuesday from a four-day flying trip to Los Angeles, Calif., where they spent time with Mr. Stephens. He is there for special pilot training on the 747 jet. He has completed five years as a pilot for Continental Air Lines. Together the family celebrated Anita Marie's 11th birthday by visiting Disneyland.

Paper Pickup Saturday Sacred Heart High seniors will conduct a scrap paper drive Saturday, Oct. 1, beginning at 9 a.m.

Area Is Thriving After 4.58 in. Rain

Muenster's moisture condition is fine, thanks to slow showers last week accounting for the month's total measure of 4.58 inches.

First recording was .25 inch on Sunday the 19th, and the total came to 3.07 on Thursday morning, as reported in the Enterprise. Since then the readings were .27 on Friday and 1.24 on Saturday.

This brings the year's moisture total to 25.44 inches.

As a result the immediate rural outlook is excellent. Pastures and hay fields are thriving with very good prospects for lush grazing and another bountiful hay cutting. And seed beds are ready for grain sowing. If favorable weather continues the grain fields as well as the pastures will provide abundant winter grazing.

Kralicke Horses Tops in Oklahoma Appaloosa Show

Appaloosa horses from the Kralicke herd were in the spotlight at the Oklahoma State Fair in Oklahoma City during the weekend when four entries gathered up eight awards including two championships.

"Top San," a yearling stallion was tops in his class and went on to win the Junior Grand Championship and the Oklahoma State Halter Futurity.

"Eagle Squaw C," a yearling filly was second in her class, second in Oklahoma State Futurity and the Reserve Grand Champion.

"May Bee Reddy," a yearling filly was fifth in the State Halter Futurity, and "My Spanish Hope," a two-year-old mare was second in her class.

Dr. and Mrs. Martin Kralicke, accompanied by their daughter Miss Margaret Kralicke of TCU, Fort Worth, attended the show Saturday afternoon. Bob Smith was showman. His family attended with him.

Fired up Knights Await Hornets Friday at Lindsay

According to pre-game data Muenster is favored to win Friday night, but Coach Glenn Richardson insists that nothing can be taken for granted. In fact, over confidence can easily lead to an upset, as he's reminding his Hornets this week.

Lindsay's record in the first two games deserves a lot of respect. The Knights opened the season with a close loss to Gainesville B, which has been mopping up on other B teams of the 3-A circuit. All of which indicates that the Knights are potent. And they showed their power again by trimming Collinsville in the second game.

Another factor is the fact that this game has been put at the top of the Knights' want list. Size and depth will be on the Hornets' side, but not by a decisive margin. Lindsay has four boys over 175 pounds whereas Muenster has 6, and Muenster's roster is longer by four. But Lindsay probably has the advantage in speed and quickness.

Physical condition of both teams can be rated as good. Lindsay came through its first two games without serious injury. Muenster is getting back another of the boys who had to sit out previous games. Allen Fleitman has recovered from a twisted knee and Alan Miller was back last week. Roy Klement probably will not be ready for another week. A new injury last week was Chuck Fisher. He'll sit out this one with a hip bruise.

The action will be at Lindsay starting at 8.

Fly to California Mrs. Mel Stephens and children Anita Marie, Michael and Jon returned Tuesday from a four-day flying trip to Los Angeles, Calif., where they spent time with Mr. Stephens. He is there for special pilot training on the 747 jet. He has completed five years as a pilot for Continental Air Lines. Together the family celebrated Anita Marie's 11th birthday by visiting Disneyland.

Paper Pickup Saturday Sacred Heart High seniors will conduct a scrap paper drive Saturday, Oct. 1, beginning at 9 a.m.

3 Scouts Admitted To Order of Arrow

Three members of the Muenster Boy Scout troop were admitted into the Order of the Arrow at the ordeal and reception ceremony at Camp Constantine, Possum Kingdom Lake, during the weekend of September 17-18.

They are Joe Bright, son of the David Brights, Ramon Luke, son of the Dan Lukes, and Ronnie Weinzapfel, son of the Henry Weinzapfels.

They toughed out their hunger and silence ordeal Friday night and most of Saturday and received their sashes and badges in an Indian type ceremony Saturday night.

The trio had been tapped out at Texoma Camp during the summer.

PP&K Contest Booked Saturday At Muenster High

Boys aged 8 through 13 of Muenster and surrounding area will gather on the Muenster High football field Saturday morning at 10 o'clock for this year's Punt, Pass and Kick competition.

The event is sponsored nationally by the National Football League and Ford Dealers of America. In Muenster it is co-sponsored by Endres Motor Company and the Muenster Jaycees.

All boys of ages 8 through 13 are eligible to enter, and entries will be accepted up to the time of the contest. However those who haven't already signed are urged to come to Endres and register on Friday in order to avoid delay in starting on Saturday. Boys are also reminded that they must be accompanied by a parent to sign up.

The PP&K program consists of six separate contests, one for each age group. Each boy competes with others of his own age. Also there is no body contact and no special equipment is required.

Scoring is based on accuracy and range. The boy receives a point for every foot of distance in his punt, pass or kick minus a point for every foot away from a center line.

Eighteen trophies will be awarded in Saturday's contest — for first, second and third high scores in each of the six ages. In addition winners will advance to the next stage of competition, which eventually ends in a national contest at half time of the Super Bowl game at New Orleans on January 16, 1972.

Tigers Tripped 12-8 by Sadler-Southmayd Rams

Sacred Heart's Tigers almost broke into the win column here Friday night but the final count again went the other way. They led the Sadler-Southmayd Rams 8-6 into the last quarter and then, with eight minutes remaining on the clock, saw their hopes blasted.

It was a tough break in which the Tigers stood their ground for the series but a double penalty on the fourth play nullified it and gave the Rams another chance. That was the play that did it.

On their second possession the Rams put on a drive that ground out 87 yards in six first downs. The scoring play was a 21 yard scoot around right end by Simpson, and the run for extra points fell short. The score was 6-0 near the end of the first quarter.

As the drive was going it looked like another long night for Sacred Heart, but the Tigers served notice in a hurry that they were still in the game. After kickoff return to their 31, the Tigers snapped back with a nice drive that went 56 yards before ending suddenly in a fumble on the 13.

The Rams gained 18 in two plays and had to kick on the next series.

Three plays later Gary Endres heaved a dandy pass to Kenny Hess who took the ball in the open and raced all the way. The play was good for 59 yards.

Tiger fans got a huge thrill on the next play as Dickie Moster went over for two big go-ahead points. That happened about half through the quarter and the

Time Has Arrived For Tax Statements

The day of reckoning for Muenster taxpayers is here again. Come Friday morning they will receive the annual pink statements in window envelopes telling them it's time to remit to the city, the school district and the county.

A few of the statements apparently will not be there on the first. Mrs. L. B. Bruns, tax assessor collector of the school district, said that valuations on oil property were received late and preparation of the statements were delayed accordingly. However statements for real estate taxes will be on time.

The total tax bill will not be available until those statements are finished. The expected amount is $170,000 to $175,000 based on the rate of $1.65 per $100 of assessed valuation, which is 15 cents higher than last year. Valuations are set at one third of actual value.

At the Muenster city hall 596 tax statements are in envelopes waiting to be mailed. Mrs. Theresa Krebs, secretary, said that the total tax bill comes

Tigers Will Meet Era High Hornets Here Friday at 8

For the second time in as many weeks the Sacred Heart Tigers are getting ready to meet boys of their own caliber, and optimism is running high.

Coach Tom Joy said this week that Era's Hornets are the Tigers' equals in size, experience and reserve strength, which points to a well matched contest.

He's highly pleased with the game his boys played last week against the S&S Rams, both offensively and defensively. However they made mistakes, which hopefully will be a lot less frequent this week.

From the standpoint of team records until now, Era should be favored. It has a pair of wins and only one loss whereas Sacred Heart has three straight losses.

Physically the Tigers have a temporary casualty in Chris Felderhoff, who had his hand broken when kicked by a bull. Otherwise they are in good condition and ready to go.

The game will be played on Sacred Heart field starting at 8 o'clock.

to $29,482.23, which is based on total valuation of $1,965,482 at a tax rate of $1.50 per $100 of valuation. City valuations are 25 per cent of actual value.

Along with those two statements local people will receive their quota of county tax statements. Mrs. Jo Hillis, tax assessor-collector, said that the county bill will be $495,800 on valuations of about $52 million at a rate of 99 cents per $100. Valuation is based on 20 per cent of actual value.

But that isn't all on the county's tax bill. That office is the collection agency for the state, for Cooke County Junior College and the Muenster Hospital District. So, the statements to local people will include a 32 cent rate for the state, a 30 cent rate for CCJC and a 65 cent rate for Muenster Hospital.

Total tax bill for a resident of Muenster comes to $5.41 on $100 of valuation. That's $1.65 for the school, $1.50 for the city, 65 cents for the hospital, 30 cents for the college, 32 cents for the state and 99 cents for the county.

However, the blow is softened somewhat by the fact that the tax bases are comparatively low. City valuations are set at one fourth of actual value and school district valuations at one third of actual value. Other local taxes are figured on the county valuation of one fifth of actual value. By comparison, the city and school district of Gainesville have tax valuations of one half of actual value.

Tuesday, Oct. 5 Is Election Day for Zone 3 District

Tuesday, October 5, is election day for a soil and water conservation district director for Zone 3. Elections are being held throughout Texas for new directors for Zone 3.

The special meeting of the Board of Directors for this annual election will be held in the Community Room of the Texas Power and Light Company, Muenster at 7:30 p.m.

J. H. Bayer of Muenster has been serving as the director for this zone for the past five years. He can be re-elected or someone else elected to take his place depending on the wishes of those attending the election meeting.

Cooke County Agricultural Agent, Neil Tibbets, will be in charge of the meeting. A program of special interest will be presented prior to the election.

Zone 3 of the Upper Elm-Red S&WCD is located in Precincts 3 and 4 in Cooke County. It includes all the West side of Cooke County.

To be eligible to vote in the Soil and Water Conservation District Director's Election, a person must own agricultural land within the subdivision where the election is being held. He or she must live in a county, all or any part of which, is in the Soil and Water Conservation District. The voter must have attained the age of 21 years. No voter registration is required. Under the community property laws of Texas the wife of a landowner also owns land and is entitled to vote and hold office.

Soil and Water Conservation District Directors serve a term of five years. The term of office begins the day after he or she is elected provided he or she is qualified.

Directors do not receive a salary nor do they receive pay for their services. They receive a token payment of $10.00 for each meeting not to exceed 20 meetings annually. They also receive a small travel expense to and from official meetings.

Relatives here received word of the death, Sept. 22, of Mrs. Ed Wiedemann, 77, of Tours. Funeral services were held there Thursday, Sept. 23, in the Catholic Church and burial was in the parish cemetery. Mrs. Wiedemann was a sister-in-law and cousin of Mrs. Frank Yosten, an aunt of Mrs. Steve Moster and a cousin of the Hofbauers, the Dulocks and Leo Schmitz. Survivors are her husband, two daughters and three sons. The Wiedemann family had visited Muenster relatives regularly.

Urban Ore

"American industry is on the verge of developing one of the nation's richest mineral resources — 'urban ore,'" notes the Public Service Company of Colorado. "Urban ore is the variety of minerals in the 400 million tons of rubbish discarded annually. 'This is richer than some of the ores we're mining,' says Charles Kenahan of the U. S. Bureau of Mines.

He told the Western Resources Conference at Golden, Colorado, that markets are developing rapidly for the estimated 11 million tons of iron, 1.75 million tons of aluminum, tin, copper, lead, zinc and other metals, 15 million tons of glass, and other solid wastes thrown away each year. The basic steel industry already is using more than 50 percent recycled steel in new steel production. Nonferrous metal industries recycle 40 percent of their metals, and 20 percent of paper is produced with recycled material. Research has shown that some plastics can be salvaged, rubber tires can be converted into oil and gas, and mine tailings can be pressed into bricks and wall tiles."

Let's Keep the Panama Canal

The United States is negotiating with Panama a treaty that would yield to that country the sovereign rights, power and authority of the United States over the Canal Zone. This sovereignty is now held in perpetuity by the United States under a treaty signed in 1903.

The ostensible aim of the new treaty is to give to the United States the right to build a sea-level canal through Panamanian territory at a cost of $2,880,000,000 (estimated in 1970) in addition to right of way and indemnity charges. Thus the United States would be deprived of its rights in a vital connecting link between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, in return for the dubious privilege of constructing at another enormous outlay of money another canal that is opposed by eminent scientists because of dangers to marine life.

The total net investment of the United States in the Panama Canal, including defense, is more than $5 billion. At a time when the country is tightening its belt in order to overcome imbalances in its domestic budget and its international commerce, the construction of a duplicate canal would be folly. Even worse would be the cession of territory that has been eved by the dupes of Communist powers for years. The surrender of that critically important piece of land could be as dangerous to Panama as it would be to the United States. Let the Congress reject it.

Time for a New Labor Law

The Administration's wage-price freeze dramatically illustrated the need for a reform of the nation's labor relations law, which is an inflationary force because of the preponderance of power it gives to labor unions.

Whether almost commonplace twenty and thirty percent wage settlement packages have been the symptom or the course of a sick economy can be debated, but it cannot be denied that they happened. Business seemed helpless to do anything but accept the big wages and raise prices. Meanwhile, foreign countries, without strict pollution controls and relatively lower living standards for their workers, were taking over the American markets in product after product.

Hopefully, free economic competition conducted with a rulebook that is fair to all will come soon. Meanwhile, Congress should initiate legislation to provide a more equitable balance in the collective bargaining process.

New Law Requires Impact Resistant Eyeglass Lenses

One of man's most priceless possessions is his eyes, and help in conserving this treasure is on its way, reports the Texas State Department of Health.

This help is in the form of a federally-imposed requirement for impact-resistant lenses on eyeglasses. Thousands of Texans already wear them.

Effective December 31, all glasses and sunglasses sold in the United States must have lenses of laminated glass, heat-tempered glass or plastic. This seems like a simple solution to some of the injury problems. But it took years of effort by accident prevention experts to attain this ruling by the Food and Drug Administration.

Last year, reports the National Safety Council, there were 110,000 eye injuries in this country. It's obvious that only a fraction of this number came from broken lenses. Almost 11 percent of the injuries resulted in a permanent partial-blindness, which means that one or both eyes were damaged permanently. More than seven out of 10 persons suffering eye injury went through a period of blindness — even if only temporary.

While the impact-resistant lenses won't provide total protection from breaking, they will be a big step in the right direction. The FDA regulation will provide greater protection in tougher lenses. But they cannot be considered as providing an unbreakable shield against eye injury. The new regulation covers prescription glasses. If there is some reason why these impact-resistant lenses won't fulfill the visual requirements of a particular patient, regular lenses can be obtained.

The performance standard for impact-resistant lenses is based on American National Standards Institute specifications. Essentially, the standard requires that a given lens be capable of withstanding an impact test in which a 5/8-inch steel ball weighing approximately .56 of an ounce is dropped from a height of 50 inches.

Industry has long used the "shatterproof" goggles or glasses. It realized that tragedies resulting from lenses which have shattered into blinding slivers upon impact were needless and preventable.

One of the largest beneficiaries of the new regulation will be the average wearer of glasses — the athletic youngster, the outdoorsman, the handyman and do-it-yourselfer, the housewife and office worker. They run into situations every day which test the safety of their glasses and sunglasses. The new lenses will provide a better barrier against injuries to the eyes, says the Health Department.

FHA Loaned over $155 Million in Texas Last Year

J. Lynn Futch, Texas State Director of the Farmers Home Administration, announced today that the agency extended credit to rural Texans in the amount of $155,456,817 during the 1971 fiscal year ending June 30, 1971. This credit was furnished farmers and rural residents through the many loan programs administered by the agency with rural housing leading the way with $72,302,453. Loans for community services facilities such as rural water systems and sewer systems totaled $24,205,192. Credit extended to individuals, farmers and ranchers for operating expenses, capital purchases and land purchases totaled $58,949,172. This was the largest yearly volume of loans in the history of the organization, which has as its overall mission the development of rural areas.

Futch said that he was also pleased that there was a sizeable decrease in the percentage of loan delinquencies as compared to previous years. Due to the severe drought in the spring and early summer of this year, it is expected that the demand for emergency credit to farmers and ranchers this fall and winter will substantially increase the volume of farm loans in fiscal 1972, with all other programs also expected to be expanded.

The program is administered in Texas through 144 county offices and the state office in Temple. The local Farmers Home Administration office is located in the Federal Building in Gainesville, Texas. The Cooke, Montague County units played a big roll in this record as a large number of loans were made this year.

By the time he is 70, the average American will have used 26 million tons of water, 10,000 pounds of meat, 14 tons of milk and cream, and 9,000 pounds of wheat.

A Matter Of Attitude

Your attitude toward many events which affect your life determines the extent of both success and happiness. A failure to one person may be a success to another — it is all a matter of attitude. The answers to the following questions tell why.

Are you Lucky? Luck is what happens when effort and opportunity meet.

Are you Courageous? Courage is not freedom from fear; it is being afraid and going on.

Are you Doubtful? When there is doubt, supplant it with action.

Are you Happy? Some act as though comfort and luxury were the chief requirements of life. All we need to make us really happy is something to be enthusiastic about.

Are you Lazy? Some folks never travel far enough to reach a destination because they plan their course by lassitude and loungetude!

Are you Optimistic? The same rain that saves the optimist's lawn makes the pessimist's weeds grow faster.

Are you Positive? Positive anything is better than negative nothing.

Are you Miraculous? Miracles sometimes occur, but one has to work terribly hard for them. — Selected

Busing, A Price Of Politics

Seventy-six percent of the people are opposed to forced busing of school children to achieve racial balances — so say the polls. Do you ever wonder why we have forced school busing when most people are opposed to it, when it is not the law of the land, when ever the way-out Supreme Court has not ordered it? Do you ever wonder why President Richard M. Nixon can't do something about forced busing when he says he is opposed to it? The reason is that the lives of school children, their future and their welfare are all being sacrificed on the altar of politics. Mr. Nixon might lose some votes if he just stood up and ordered the pinko HEW to stop the busing thing. Members of Congress are scared to death of the racial minorities (some might get offended if we say black or colored) and they don't dare stand up and raise their voices for that which is just and right. The whole busing issue is stupid and ridiculous. There is no justice nor reason to it. Blacks and whites alike hate it and resent it. So do the Chinese we notice in the paper. Your only recourse is your representatives in the national Congress.

Why Kids Go Wrong, and Right

Why some children grow up to be responsible and well-adjusted adults and others become inert parasites on the growing branches of society is a question that baffles psychiatrists and sociologists. But on one point there is little disagreement: children tend to follow the example set for them by their parents. With this in mind, these truths are self-evident:

If a child lives with hostility, he learns to fight.

If he lives with criticism, he learns to condemn.

If he lives with fear, he learns to be apprehensive.

If he lives with jealousy, he learns suspicion.

If he lives with self-pity, he learns self-pity.

On the other hand:

If he lives with encouragement, he learns to trust.

If he lives with acceptance, he learns to like himself.

If he lives with fairness, he learns justice.

Glenda Pagel and Bryan Russell Are Married at Mass

Miss Glenda Pagel and Bryan Russell pledged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony at Nuptial Mass Sunday afternoon at four o'clock with Msgr. Thomas Weinzapfel of Dallas, cousin of the bride, officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Pagel of Muenster and Mrs. Dorothy Russell of Gainesville and Herbert Russell of Sherman.

Pink asters adorned the altar and candelabra entwined with smilax and pink forget-me-nots and holding votive crystals held vantage spots in the sanctuary.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza and Venise lace. The high-rise waist had baby doll sleeves, a scoop neckline, and a band of eyelet lace with ribbon accenting the Empire bodice. The skirt was demi-belled and was covered by the full-length man-tilla-type veil banded with ribboned lace. Her flowers were a colonial cluster of white frenched carnations, gypsophila and stephanotis. For something old and borrowed she carried a handkerchief that was carried by her mother and her grandmother Mrs. Tony Gremminger at their weddings.

Miss Joni Wilde was maid of honor and Misses Joyce Sicking and Gretchen Koessler, both of Sherman were bridesmaids. Miss Wilde was in printed pink voile with blue trim and the bridesmaids were in printed pink voile with pink trim. The floor-length gowns had long sleeves and satin banding at the Empire waists. They carried feathered light pink and blue carnations and sweetheart roses and each wore a rose in her hair. Jeanne Pagel and Dolle Pagel, cousins of the bride, were flower girls in printed blue voile dresses and carried white baskets of blossoms.

Herbie Fisher was best man, Doug Mitchell of Gainesville and Herbert Fette Jr. were groomsmen and David and Johnny Russell of Gainesville, brothers of the groom, were ushers. Joe Pagel, bride's cousin, was ring bearer.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Mary Lou Kralicke, organist, and Dr. Martin Kralicke and Mrs. David Walterscheid, vocalists. They sang "Because" before Mass, "How Great Thou Art," at the offertory and "A Time for Us" at the communion. After the service Mrs. Walterscheid sang "Sante Maria" when the couple went to the Blessed Virgin's shrine where the bride placed a sweetheart rose on the altar.

Wedding reception and dinner were in the Parish Hall. Guests were registered by Misses Marlene and Sharlene Pagel, twin sisters of the bride.

After their honeymoon the newlyweds will be at home in Gainesville where he is employed. She will continue clerking at Pagel's Store here.

For traveling the bride wore a city pantsuit in persimmon and beige paisley brushed suede with beige accessories.

Kreditor Speaks To Students about Living in Russia

Louis Kreditor of Dallas, owner of Muenster's Jr. Elite dress factory and 11 other dress factories in Texas, gave separate lectures Tuesday to students of Sacred Heart Grade and High School.

He spoke about his childhood in the Ukraine, Russia, where he attended a Jewish school in the small town where he was born. His father had left Russia for America with the intention of acquiring enough money to arrange for his entire family to join him in the United States.

Mr. Kreditor held his audiences spellbound when he told about a day in 1921, when he was only 13 years old, the Red Army came and took away by force 39 young boys from the school. The youths were to act as tenders of cattle the Reds had repossessed.

Young Louis was taken away over 2000 miles and kept for six months. There was no word to or from his family who by then believed him dead.

One day while near the wide river that separated Russia from Rumania, Louis determined, at 5 a.m. on a foggy morning, to escape his captors. He started across the ice on the frozen river . . . was detected and was fired upon by soldiers. The Rumanians on hearing the explosions, fired back — and he was caught between both fires. Lying on the ice, he gradually wormed his way into Rumania, and even there had to run to escape inquisitive soldiers.

His father, on learning that he was in Rumania, visited him there and gave him $2000 in American bills. These he hid in the lining of his jacket for one year. After bribery, etc., he managed to "pay" for the release of his mother and several others from Russia at a price of $800 cash. He, too, came to America.

Mr. Kreditor returned to Russia a short time ago and tried to locate the town and the house where he was born. It was in vain — so much red tape and tangle. He did get to visit with some nieces and others.

After telling these and other experiences, he admonished the children to be grateful for their liberty and peace here in America. "What blindness of those who fight against the very system which provides them this precious freedom," he said. He attributes his escape, health and success to the providence of God.

A similar resume of life in Russia and since he came to America was given Monday night when he was interviewed on Father Bede's TV Channel 2 program.

Students Explain Re-cycling Glass Aluminum Drives

Sacred Heart High's Catholic Mission Crusade group, with Sister Theresina moderator, is eager to collect all glass for re-cycling.

To help donors, the following information has been released:

Clear glass and colored glass must be kept separate, whether whole or crushed when turned in at the school. Jars, etc., will be accepted as is if donor cannot break them up. Labels need not be removed. Only clean glass is acceptable. This refers especially to the inside of containers, because of danger of roaches, ants, etc., during storage.

There is no special container provided on the west side of school . . . donors are asked to simply leave their boxes of glass there. Students will remove them. Pottery is not acceptable . . . only glass.

In aluminum re-cycling also conducted by SHH students, only all-aluminum cans are acceptable. Best way to detect an aluminum can, the students point out, is to check the can for a seam. Seamless cans are all-aluminum. These include Coor and Budweiser cans and some Coke and malt cans.

Glass will have to be trucked to Corsicana. It sells for a penny a pound. Very little, students contend, but glass is heavy. When a truckload is accumulated they will be happy to hear from friends with trucks who are going that way.

Boy Scouts were incorporated on February 8, 1910

Angela Laake Is Surprised Honoree On 89th Birthday

Miss Angela Laake who observed her 89th birthday Tuesday, Sept. 28, started getting happy surprises well in advance of the day and surprises continued through the date at Golden Acres Nursing Home where she is a patient.

First it was a party by a group from Muenster. Visiting her on Sept. 23 were Mrs. Mel Stephens and her 13 young knitting class girls along with Mrs. Arnold Rohmer and daughters Christi and Julia.

The knitters presented a handsome laprobe they made, gay colored squares with their initials, put together into a soft, warm cover, and Mrs. Rohmer took a beautiful decorated cake with candles.

The group sang songs in Miss Laake's room and before leaving delighted also other residents of the home with singing in the sitting room.

The birthday cake was shared by other patients and nurses and by the honoree's niece Rosa Driever and Mrs. Victor Hartman who were there. Mrs. Hartman presented a gift of homemade cookies.

The knitting class presented a card with their signatures: Mary Margaret Rohmer, Mary Kay Caplinger, Dina Rohmer, Lorie Knabe, Monica Gehrig, Mary Grewing, Brenda Voth, Sandy Schneider, Anita Marie Stephens, Carolyn Luke, Donna Grewing, Cheryl Luke, and Donna Swirczynski.

Surprises continued Sunday, Monday and Tuesday as friends from Muenster and Gainesville visited and presented home made goodies, flowers and other gifts, and the mail brought a shower of cards including spiritual bouquets.

Tiger Cubs Nudge Era Juniors 6-0

Sacred Heart's Tiger Cubs, after getting close twice, broke into the win column Tuesday night. They took a hot one 6-0 at Era. Before that they had tied Alvord and Trinity Valley.

They had to keep plugging until the final period to get their lone, all important touchdown. Until then, says Coach Tom Joy, they moved the ball frequently but just could not keep going. Their troubles were mostly fumbles or penalties for offside and holding.

Meanwhile they did fine defensively, holding Era's kids to occasional short yardage and keeping them out of scoring distance all the way.

The Cubs' scoring offensive was started by Leon Bayer's blocked punt at the end of the third quarter. That was followed by a nice drive which Era stopped a foot short of the goal.

Three plays later Era quickly kicked and the Cubs started again from 15 yards out. That effort succeeded as Mark Hess went over from the 1.

The Cubs will play Callisburg here on October 12 after which they will have five games in a row with TISC foes for the conference title.

Our country existed almost 200 years before the Federal budget totaled $100 billion. It took only nine more years to reach $200 billion.

Former Teacher Of MHS Retires

Toney Burger of Austin, well remembered here as superintendent, teacher and coach at Muenster High from 1933 to '37, is retiring from the teaching profession this fall, according to an article in the September issue of the Inter-scholastic Leaguer, a publication for Texas schools.

Toney was outstanding in football, basketball and baseball at Jasper Academy, Jasper, Ind., then came to St. Edward's at Austin and participated in the three major sports.

Following that he spent three years in professional baseball before coming to Muenster as a teacher. At that time MHS had a few dozen students including those who had finished their second year at Sacred Heart, so the enrollment consisted principally of juniors and seniors.

Other county schools also were small. None had enough players for football, so basketball, on outside courts, made up the principal athletic program for boys of the county's rural schools. MHS usually had about a dozen boys participating. Burger taught the game's fundamentals the first year and won county championships the next three years.

During the last year he arranged with a friend at Austin High to take his boys there for a game and a weekend holiday. The contest was an eye opener as Toney's kids gave Austin's first stringers a hot game and lost by just a few points. The next year he was on the Austin High coaching staff as assistant in football and head coach in basketball and baseball.

Burger quit football coaching in 1947 and continued with baseball and basketball until he became the school's athletic director in 1953. As a coach he won a number of district championships in baseball and basketball and several state championships in basketball. He also coached an American Legion team in Austin which won regional and national honors.

Regarding his chosen field he said "after spending 38 years in public school education, I feel that the athletic program is the school's greatest aid in teaching citizenship." Toney Burger and his wife, Mary Catherine, have two children, Danny and Helen, both of whom are married and have children.

Muenster Juniors Lose at Callisburg

A big play early in the game won the junior high game for Callisburg Tuesday, but a lot more football was played in Muenster's effort to overcome that lead. The home team got in front on its first possession with a nice pass play that went for 30 yards.

Otherwise the game was mostly Muenster's. Coach Glenn Richardson liked his boys' performance, a hundred per cent improvement over their opening game at Valley View. He said they moved the ball well, outgaining the home kids, but failed to keep moving. Callisburg's gains were few and scattered.

Next one on the schedule for the Little Monsters will be Lindsay here next week Tuesday. Thereafter they will have games with four junior teams of the 12-A district — Lake Dallas, Frisco, Sanger and Nona.

At Conference Of Electrologists

Miss Bonnie Levine of Muenster and Dallas attended the recent Southern Electrologists Association Annual Conference in Houston for three days.

Miss Levine was joined by Mrs. Kenneth Otto of Tulsa, Okla., formerly of Muenster. Mrs. Otto is a practicing electrologist in Tulsa and was attending the meet as a representative of Oklahoma. She was accompanied by her husband.

Miss Levine has been serving the Dallas vicinity for 15 years and has been in Muenster for three years.

Electrolysis, the permanent removal of hair, is recognized as one of the health sciences.

Deep and heartfelt thanks to all who showed concern for me while I was a surgical patient at Muenster Hospital. Thanks for the prayers, visits, flowers and cards. Purcell Backs Bill to Remove Farm Trucks Tax

Tax relief for purchasers of farm trucks has been won by U. S. Representative Graham Purcell (D-Tex) it was announced today.

The House Ways and Means Committee, chaired by Congressman Wilbur Mills, is presently drafting a new tax bill. At Congressman Purcell's request, the Committee has written into its proposed measure a provision to exempt all vehicles of a gross weight up to 7500 pounds from the 10% federal excise tax now affecting all trucks. The bill will also follow the Administration recommendation to remove the 7% excise tax from passenger cars.

"This is the culmination of a long fight to see that farmers and other purchasers of light trucks are not burdened with this tax," the veteran member of the House Agriculture Committee reported.

"The Administration was unfavorable to removal of the excise tax from any motor vehicle other than passenger cars. However," Purcell continued, "working closely with Chairman Mills, I have succeeded in getting the Ways and Means Committee to include light trucks in the exemption."

CCJC Board Asked To Enlarge Auto Mechanics Course

Expansion of the auto mechanic program at Cooke County Junior College was considered by the college regents at their meeting last week.

Dr. A. E. Shasteen pointed out that enrollment was outgrowing facilities and the Texas Education Agency had been asked to provide matching funds for construction of a new vocational technical building, but it will be a while before approval is received and construction begun.

In the meantime he asked the board to consider a temporary pre-fab type building serving the dual purpose of classroom and college maintenance department. The building, if approved, is to be paid for from tuition and fees. A committee was appointed to study the proposal.

Dr. Shasteen reported to the regents that the school's enrollment has reached an all time high of 1,789 college students and 200 high school students for a total of 1,989. Extension classes are offered at Lewisville, Denton, Bridgeport, Decatur and Pilot Point.

In other business the board accepted an alternate bid for construction of tennis courts by The B. J. Company Contractors at a cost of $27,281. It also approved plans for establishing a bull test station and for setting up a driving range on campus.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Conservation work. A good many cooperators have recently built farm ponds. They include Dangelmayr Brothers on the Hopp ranch and on the Zimmerman place; David Seibold; Gus Lutkenhaus; Wilfred Walterscheid; Johnny Reiter on his mother's place; Ray Haverkamp; Mrs. Estelle Brown; and Bill Jones.

Glen Lynch of Forestburg has completed four grade stabilization structures under his Great Plains Conservation Program. One structure was completed on Art Bayer under the Bulcher Special REAP program.

Gully shaping under the Bulcher Special REAP program is progressing nicely. Landowners who have shaped gullies this year are J. M. Weinzapfel, Earle Otto, Clarence Nelson, Dick Harris, Dangelmayr Brothers, Mrs. Joe Wilcox, Roy Tate, B. A. Talley, and Talley-Weinzapfel pooling agreement. Many others are ready to start shaping when dozers are available.

Clifford Hudspeth has installed a 2090 foot diversion terrace on his farm near Forestburg. It was installed under the Great Plains Conservation Program. Robert McElreath is constructing a grade stabilization structure on his farm under the Special REAP program. Several other land owners have had structures surveyed and designed under this program. Construction should start soon.

A growing practice in this area is the overseeding of bermuda grass pastures with a mixture of small grain and legumes. The time to do this is nearly here so make plans soon. Equipment companies continue to improve their equipment to make this job easier, faster, and better. Don't forget to put out some fertilizer when you plant.

FALL FERTILIZATION
If you haven't been practicing fall fertilization of your grasses you have been missing out on a lot of good production. There are several advantages to fall fertilization of pastures and lawns.

a.) Increased production — It takes about 30 days for bermuda grass to complete a growth cycle so there is plenty of time left as we generally don't get a killing frost until after Nov. 1. If you plan to cut your grass for hay it should be done no later than Oct. 1. This will leave time enough for the plant to grow back before the first killing frost.

b.) Improved ground cover — Bermudas spread and cover the ground real good during the fall growing period. You can help by fertilizing and letting it rest until after frost.

c.) Improves condition — Grasses which are well fertilized and properly rested will be much healthier and stronger the following year. This is especially important on lawns, sprig producing areas, critical areas, and waterways.

Do yourself, your grass, and your livestock a favor this fall, fertilize.

The Elks Magazine observes "The 'Conscience Fund' at the U. S. Treasury not long ago received an anonymous gift of $293.03 in a brown paper bag. Many citizens send contributions to ease guilty consciences for dishonesty in the past. Since it was established in 1811, it has received almost $3 million, according to U. S. Treasurer Dorothy Andrews Elston."

The license will be issued by the Federal Communications Commission to those who successfully complete the course. Classes are open to the general public and one need not be a CCJC student to participate, according to Dr. Frank Stewart, activities manager for the club and instructor for the classes.

Salvation Army
Needs Repairable
Household Items

The Salvation Army's Men Social Service Center, which operates entirely on donations, has issued an appeal for discarded furniture and repairable household appliances.

These discards are needed by the Center to sustain its workshop program, which is designed to help the handicapped and homeless learn a useful trade.

The Center, headquartered in Fort Worth, serves most of North Texas, and receives no state or federal funds for its operations, explains Capt. William Swyers, commanding officer.

"While these men are being rehabilitated it is important that they be able to perform useful work," says Swyers.

"This program is the backbone of our rehabilitation project."

After the discards are repaired, they are placed in the five Fort Worth thrift stores for sale, providing the Center with its main source of income.

Discarded clothing, including suits, shoes, and coats, and blankets, quilts and mattresses are also needed by the Center, according to Swyers.

Donations in Muenster will be picked up during October by the Salvation Army truck on October 21. Residents who have items to donate should call 759-4311 the day before the truck is scheduled to make its rounds.

Lindsay Plans for Big Homecoming On Friday, Oct. 8

Homecoming plans for Lindsay School are almost complete with committees working on events for the big night Friday, Oct. 8.

Highlights of homecoming include football — Lindsay Knights vs Sacred Heart High Tigers — pre-game ceremonies with crowning of a homecoming queen and a post-game barbecue supper and social get-together. Honored graduates this year will be those of classes 1938 and 1962.

The Athletic Association is mailing out invitations to members of the honored classes who will be special guests for the coronation, the game and the party afterward.

Festivities will start at 7 p.m. with a pre-game show by members of the Pep Club. Theme is "It's a Big, Wide World." Formations will be made to music.

Announcement of the queen will follow. Her identity is being kept secret until the ceremonies. Four girls have been nominated for the honor. They are Patsy Arendt, Brenda Beyer, Paula Owen and Carol Felderhoff.

Janie Zimmerer, homecoming queen 1970, will be in the ceremonies to relinquish her crown.

Athletic Association will sponsor the after-game barbecue plate supper. Coffee and cold drinks will be served also by members.

It is stressed that while invitations are mailed to the honored classes, all ex-students and Lindsay Knights fans, are all invited, even urged to attend the full program. It is further stressed that the after-game get-together is a family affair and children are welcome.

Mrs. Jake Kuhn, accompanied by her young grandson Robert Kuhn of Gainesville, spent Monday in Muenster with her daughter and family, the Urban Rohmers.

Hornets - - -

Muenster had a fat opportunity 13 yards away. Five power plays got there, the pay off being Henry Knabe's plunge from the 2. Endres kept the ball on an option play and went over for bonus points.

However a short time later it was Whitesboro's turn to get a big break. On Muenster's intended kick the pass from center sailed over Endres' head, after which Whitesboro was in business 31 yards away.

The next play was a pass reaching the 9. That was followed by two incomplete passes, then another heave which was tipped by a Hornet and floated down easily to Don Teague across the line.

Another pass made the count 16-14.

Statistics	M	W
First downs	7	8
Yards rushing	70	109
Yards passing	76	65
Passes completed	5-11	4-14
Intercepted by	1	0
Fumbles lost by	3	2
Penalties	1-5	4-17

NOTES FROM THE LIBRARY

By Bettie Luke

We want to mention some biblical novels we have on the shelf. These books are always good reading.

Three by Sholem Asch: "Moses," "The Nazarene," and "The Apostle." Another author is Louis De Wohl who wrote "David of Jerusalem," and "The Quiet Light." Also "The Glorious Folly," "Dear and Glorious Physician" by Taylor Caldwell is the story of St. Luke. Also Elsie Mack's "A Woman of Jerusalem."

We invite adults to come to the library and check out some of our good novels. Come and read with us.
