Thousands Of Grid Fans Jam City Today

MARTIN DIES VISITING IN CITY—Former Cong. Martin Dies, left, is welcomed by Edgar G. Lewis, chairman of the South Plains chapter of the Texas Manufacturers association, a few minutes after Dies arrived by plane from Lubbock last night to address a dinner meeting of the chapter, in Hilton hotel. Dies will remain in Lubbock to address the American Business club luncheon at noon today. (Staff Photo).

Dies Urges Fight For 'American Way'

By ROGER SOUTHALL
Avalanche Staff Writer

EX-CONGRESSMAN Martin Dies, speaking to members and guests of the South Plains chapter of the Texas Manufacturers association at the group's annual dinner last night at Hilton hotel, declared that "if you do not become advocates of America and the American way, someday there will be no freedom in America," and "more important than anything else you can do on this earth is to safeguard the American way."

Approximately 75 members and guests were present at the meeting, at which Edgar G. Lewis, chapter chairman, presided.

R. T. Brown introduced special guests, including J. Floyd Malcolm of Abilene, chapter chairman of the West Central chapter of the association and a director of TMA; Bill Hord of Lubbock, secretary of the local chapter and also a director of the TMA; Col. W. C. Saffarans, regional manager of the West Texas region of the TMA; and Mrs. Dies, wife of the principle speaker.

Capitalism Is Praised

State Sen. James E. Taylor, public relations director of TMA, who was introduced by Lewis, local chapter chairman.

Sen. Taylor pointed out that two basic principles prevail in this country, first, collectivism, and second, that principle of free enterprise under which the majority of the citizens try to operate.

This possibly is the only country in the world where freedom of enterprise still exists, he said, and free people throughout the world are dependent upon the United States and its system.

"The American system is worth working for," Sen. Taylor declared. "Capitalism is a going concern."

He said that every person in this country who owns corporation stock, or runs a business, owns life insurance, farms, or has a savings account in a savings bank is, in effect, a capitalist.

Introduces Dies

He pointed out that in 1948, Texas had about 24 per cent of the industrial production of the United States. He warned his listeners that if Texas is to keep that percentage, the state and its people must take a more active part in their government and nation.

Taylor introduced Dies, now a Lufkin attorney, who headed the well-known Dies committee of the United States Congress during the late 1930's and first few years of the 1940's.

Dies said that he had given the same basic speech many hundreds of times throughout the United States while and after serving as congressman.

He said that his speech was not a speech, but a "story of how a great nation with vast resources, intelligent citizens, became indifferent and how a sinister group undertook to infiltrate that nation's government, labor unions, and other institutions."

Began In 1935

It began in 1935, he declared, when Stalin summoned Communists from 52 countries to send delegates to Moscow for instructions in the new Communist strategy. Among the delegates were a number from the United States who then were little-known in this country, and who heard Stalin declare that "Communism cannot triumph until the American system is destroyed from within by infiltration in the government, in the labor unions," and other American institutions.

They came back to this country,

U. S. Troops Halt Riot In Germany

STUTTGART, Germany, Oct. 28 (AP) — U. S. Army constabulary forces used tanks and cavalry against Germans today to break up a riot that began when thousands demonstrated against the high cost of living in this American zone city.

It was the first time since the war that Germans had fought with U. S. troops. Two American military policemen were reported to have suffered minor stab wounds. Twelve demonstrators and at least two German policemen were injured.

No shots were fired, but German police arrested some 20 demonstrators.

Policemen Stoned

The riot followed a mass meeting of 40,000 workers in a two-hour protest strike. The meeting itself was quiet. But when it broke up, a crowd assembled in a business street where several newly-built shops displayed luxury goods. Store windows were smashed when some of the demonstrators hurled stones.

An estimated 100 German policemen tried to stop the outbreak and were met by a barrage of sticks and stones.

An American military police unit which was stationed outside the meeting area moved into action. It was too small, so it withdrew and called for reinforcements.

Even with reinforcements, the MP's were unable to disperse the crowd. They were under orders not to shoot except in self-defense and did not use their guns.

Sandies Will Invade City

By BILL HAMS
Avalanche Staff Writer

LUBBOCK was ready this morning to welcome the expected arrival of several thousand visitors for the annual Lubbock Amarillo football game this afternoon at Jones stadium, and the advance guard of many hundreds of Texas Tech exes and supporters for the Tech-Rice homecoming game Saturday afternoon.

The sudden influx of visitors is expected to tax hotel facilities here to the limit before nightfall as most of the major hotels and tourist camps have been booked up for the past several weeks.

The Amarillo-Lubbock conference game is expected to draw 12,000 fans and Texas Tech officials are expecting 16,000 for the Owl-Raider tilt. Favorable football weather is expected to boost attendance for both affairs.

Pep Rally Held

The football faithful had their grid appetites whetted last night by a pre-game pep rally at Senior High school at which Amarillo cheer leaders were guests, paying a return visit made by Lubbock cheer leaders to Amarillo Wednesday night, and the Cowhands-Yannigans game at Chapman field.

Today's pre-game highlight will be the arrival of hundreds of Amarillo Sandie followers by auto and special train. The "Sandie Special" is scheduled to arrive at the Santa Fe depot here at 12:30 p. m. with 500 to 600 jubilant Amarillo fans board, and at least 500 more are expected to arrive before game time by automobile.

The Amarilloans will stage their customary downtown parade prior to the 2:30 p. m. kickoff in the traditional encounter at Jones stadium. The parade will move westward down Main to Ave. G, one block south to Broadway and wastward again to Ave. K. There the parade will turn north to Main again, and return via that street to Sandie "headquarters" at the Hilton hotel.

"Courtesy cars" will be provided by Lubbock volunteers to carry Sandie rooters to the stadium. These cars, adorned with "Welcome Sandie" stickers will pick the Amarilloans up at the Hilton hotel, and after the game return them to headquarters.

Short classes are slated at Sen-

Homecoming Day Plans Completed

By COTTON FANNING
Avalanche Staff Writer

Plans were complete Thursday night for the annual homecoming day at Tech Technological college Saturday, and the various campus organizations will begin honoring the expected 7,000 ex-students today with breakfasts, dinners, smokers and many other functions preceding the Homecoming game at 2:30 Saturday afternoon when the Rice Owls invade Jones stadium.

Prominent on today's agenda is the pre-game pep rally and bonfire beginning at 7:30. The pep rally will be held in the gymnasium, followed by the bonfire which will burn the Rice Owls in effigy south of the gym.

Short Speeches Slated

Short speeches will be given at the pep rally by Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president; Dr. J. William Davis, chairman of the athletic council; Head Coach Dell Morgan; Marshall Gettys, president of the Double T association and first string tackle on the football team; and M. P. J. Minter, graduate of the college and 1935 yell leader, who will also lead the crowd in traditional college yells. A crowd of several thousand students and fans are expected to attend tonight's pep rally and bonfire.

Johnson Claims Coke Has Made Statewide Recount Impossible

(By The Associated Press)

LYNDON JOHNSON Thursday accused former Governor Coke Stevenson of making a full recount of votes in their Democratic senatorial runoff primary impossible because he would not contest the election in state court.

Johnson, who was nominated in the August 28 second primary, said in a radio speech that he won "fairly and squarely"; that a full recount would have added many votes to his margin over Stevenson.

The margin by which Johnson was certified was 87 votes.

His statements came at the end of a day in which there were these developments:

1—A demand by Senator Francis J. Myers, Pennsylvania Democrat, that the Senate's investigation of the primary be dropped. He said it was part of an effort to influence the election of a Republican senator from Texas.

2—The sending of three additional investigators into Jim Wells county by the Senate Elections subcommittee which is headed by Senator William E. Jenner, Indiana Republican. Two investigators already were working in the county.

Johnson said in his speech that

Commission Retains Expert At $50 A Day For 'Economy' Study

By H. I. KIEFER
Avalanche Staff Writer

DISCLOSURE that the City commission has employed J. C. Turner as a "business engineer" at $50 a day for an indefinite period to help reorganize various municipal departments was made at the semi-monthly meeting of the commission Thursday afternoon.

FOOTBALL SWEETHEART—Arbie Lee Freeman, above, junior in Lubbock High school, was announced as football sweetheart at Thursday night's pep rally. She was chosen by secret ballot by the Westerner football squad.

The commission also promoted Gerald E. Jarvis from assistant to the position of director of public health; named Dr. L. B. Woods city health officer succeeding the late Dr. J. W. Rollo, and adopted a streamlined traffic ordinance on first reading which purports to consolidate all existing regulations into a single instrument.

The disclosure of the deal with Turner came out during a discussion of the nature of his duties Confusion on that point was undenied. One impression was that he had been given a free hand during negotiations concluded Monday to go ahead with reorganization of city departments as he saw fit, disregarding department heads, the city manager and all others except the City commission.

Members of the commission, all of whom were present at Thursday's meeting, were agreed that they had no such intent. They were specific in emphasizing that they intend Turner's duties to take full cognizance of the opinions of officials in the various departments and that his recommendations are to be strictly advisory, subject to City commission approval, usually through City Manager Marlin R. Smith, jr.

Members of the commission are Mayor W. H. Rodgers and Commissioners W. B. Price, John Spikes, Clarence Whiteside and E. K. Huftstedler, jr.,

Had Met With Officials

Just what led to the creation of this temporary position at a rate of pay even higher than the city manager, who draws $12,000 a year, remained more than slightly vague.

The idea seems to be that Turner, as an "efficiency expert" can help eliminate deadwood from payrolls, simplify record keeping, eliminate duplications and recommend other improvements which will more than justify his pay. No attempt was made to explain why the same ends might be attained with the existing personnel, at a saving of $50 a day.

But, in any event, the commission huddled with Turner several days ago. He displayed some charts which purported to portray the ideal municipal government setup—with directors of finance, public works, health and various other functions, each with a large personnel. If it should be applied to Lubbock, the present municipal government would be torn apart

Dewey Offers Peace Policy

(By The Associated Press)

GOV. THOMAS E. DEWEY pledged Thursday night to deliver "a foreign policy that will strengthen the cause of freedom and bring peace to this world." President Truman lashed out at Dewey, meantime, as a "me, too" candidate with little to offer the voters.

The Republican presidential nominee made the peace pledge in a speech at Boston in which he also (1) blasted at Communism, (2) proposed broader and more liberal social security and (3) cited a need "for a higher minimum wage."

His Democratic opponent, launching an intensive two-day campaign visit in New York, said in a Madison Square Garden speech that Dewey has been following him all over the country, but won't follow him into the White House.

Communism Scored

Dewey, in speaking at Boston, was in fact following Mr. Truman into the historic old city. Both Mr. Truman on Wednesday night and Gov. Dewey last night made the occasion a special one to speak out against Communists.

On social security, Dewey said that "we must, and we will take positive action" to extend coverage to those not now protected.

"We must take action to bring about an increase of these benefits to our older people and dependents," he added.

"The same need exists for a higher minimum wage and for a stronger and expanded public health service."

The minimum wage is now 40 cents an hour. Mr. Truman urged an increase to 75 cents. Others that the President listed were broadening of social security and increasing its benefits "by 50 per cent," health insurance, federal aid to education, low-cost housing, repeal of the Taft-Hartley law, passage of a law to control high prices.

Blaze Damages Tire, Paint Stores Here

A paint and a tire store last night suffered considerable fire and water damage in a blaze that was reported about 10:30 p. m.

Lubbock firemen brought the blaze under control before it gained headway in paint and solvents stored in Newsom Paint and Supply Co., 1652 Broadway, however the interior of the store was badly damaged by fire in the ceiling, smoke and water. Woody Tire company, 1656 Broadway, also suffered some fire and water damage to a part of their stock stored in a warehouse room adjoining the back of the paint company store.

Heavy pumping equipment was sent to the fire as a precaution against the fire getting out of control in case the highly inflammable paints and solvents did burst into flame.

Soviet Leader Says West Has Broken Pacts

By EDDY GILMORE
Associated Press Staff Writer

MOSCOW, Oct. 28.—Prime Minister Stalin charged today the western powers have backed out of two agreements on Berlin because they are pursuing a policy of "unleashing a new war."

In six sharp answers to questions by a reporter of Pravda, Communist party newspaper, Stalin also charged that the six neutrals of the UN Security Council who have been seeking a Berlin solution were "lending their support to a policy of aggression."

But he declared any instigators of a new war are doomed to "ignominious failure" because "the horrors of the recent war are still too fresh in the memories of peoples, and the public forces favoring peace are too strong."

Agreements Claimed

The Russian leader's statements were distributed to foreign correspondents here by the foreign ministry's press department too late for today's edition of Pravda, but were broadcast on the Moscow radio and will be printed tomorrow.

Stalin said the two agreements on Berlin were reached in Moscow on Aug. 30, and in Paris during recent unofficial discussions with Argentine Foreign Minister Juan Bramuglia of the Security Council.

Both, he said, were disavowed and declared null and void by the governments of Britain and the United States.

(The Stalin attack coincided with a demand of the Soviet ambassador in Washington for information on what took place at a "secret military conference" held this month by Gen. Douglas MacArthur in Tokyo.)

Here, observers believed Stalin was trying to implant the impression that agreement on the Berlin question and East-West cooperation are possible. It was believed he would like to see new talks on Berlin initiated, although he did not say so.

"Aggressiveness" Rapped

Stalin said he regarded the Berlin case as a "display of the aggressiveness of the policy of Anglo-American and French ruling circles."

"Agreement is known to have been reached in Moscow on Aug. 30 last among the representatives

Thurmond Gains In 'Straw Vote'

Despite the loss of 45 ballots "thrown out" because they unmistakably were cast by the same person, the States' Rights Democratic team of Thurmond and Wright continued through Wednesday to furnish the surprise element in the Avalanche-Journal's presidential "Straw Vote."

The Truman-Barkley ticket, clinging grimly to the slight lead it has maintained since counting began Tuesday night, ran a little behind the Thurmond-Wright team in the number of votes cast throughout yesterday. The Dewey-Warren entry plugged doggedly along at the heels of both other tickets and the Wallace-Taylor entry, with few admirers hereabouts, picked up seven supporters throughout the day.

Standing of the "teams" through counting of 771 ballots completed last night was:

TRUMAN-BARKLEY	264
THURMOND-WRIGHT	255
DEWEY-WARREN	240
WALLACE-TAYLOR	11

Of "Straw Voters" identifying their normal political leanings, the vast majority of Republicans and States' Righters continued to forecast a victory at the polls next Tuesday of Thomas E. Dewey and Earl Warren. Only about half the Truman-Barkley supporters say they anticipate the President's election.

Here's the way the "Straw Voters" expressed themselves on a Dewey-Warren victory Tuesday, divided into the political categories in which they placed them-

COLD FRONT DUE

'Good' Weather Seen For Game

Lubbock football fans probably will have long faces when they arise this morning, the weatherman predicted last night, for the sun is expected to be obscured by fog and low hanging clouds.

It won't be so bad, the weatherman said, because the fog condition is likely to clear up by 11 a. m. today and the clouds become broken. By game time this afternoon, he said, the weather should be excellent for football with a maximum temperature of about 65 degrees and partly cloudy skies overhead.

Saturday, the day of the Rice-Texas Tech game, is another matter, the weather station north of town reported. A "pretty good" cold front whipped into Washington and Oregon late Thursday night and was moving at a rapid clip southeastward. The storm is not expected to reach the South Plains before Saturday night, however, unless it gains added momentum, the weatherman pointed out.

If the cold front holds off, he said, Tech's homecoming day should take place with good weather conditions, partly cloudy skies and mild temperatures. No rain is foreseen for Friday or Saturday despite the partly cloudy skies, he said.

Reds Rap UN Balkans Study

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Oct. 28.—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky opened a political counter-offensive on the Balkans issue today and outlined his own peace plan for Greece.

He said the United Nations special commission's report on border conditions was a "pile of garbage."

Vishinsky's speech, and Premier Joseph Stalin's interview in Moscow accusing the western powers of voiding two agreements on Berlin in order to follow a policy of unleashing a new war, hit UN circles with almost simultaneous impact.

Attacks Balkan Committee

Vishinsky's speech in the political committee of the UN assembly went on for two and a half hours and wound up in an ironic attack on "American imperialism" and John Fotser Dulles, U. S. delegate. Dulles lashed at Communism in a speech before the committee Tuesday.

The Soviet delegate called Dulles' charges that Communists were trying to encircle the world a lot of "bosh" and "fairy tales."

Vishinsky said he would do everything possible to defeat a proposal by the United States, France, Britain and China to extend the life of the United Nations special commission on the Balkans (UNSCOB) which investigates charges of aid to Greek guerrillas by Yugoslavia, Albania

U. S. Declares Reds Blocked Settlements

By J. L. PEARLMAN
INS Staff Correspondent

THE UNITED States officially denied Thursday night the existence of any Paris agreement for settling the Berlin deadlock and thus joined Britain, France and "neutral" members of the Security Council in virtually giving the lie to Premier Stalin.

The formal American denial was made in Paris by Dr. Philip Jessup, key delegate to the council, in commenting on Stalin's charges that the West had repudiated a Paris agreement on Berlin in pursuit of a war policy.

Jessup said "no such agreement existed"—either between the "little six" mediation powers in the council and Andrei Vishinsky of Russia, or between Vishinsky and the big three powers.

Familiar Reiteration

Consequently, Jessup added, "there was no violation" as charged by Stalin.

Jessup added:

"What Stalin said is a familiar reiteration of various arguments by the Soviet Union, which were fully answered in the record submitted to the Security Council and statements by all three occupying powers.

"It is unfortunate, to say the least, that Stalin disparaged very sincere efforts made by the six members of the council."

Stalin had accused the six "neutrals" of supporting the West's "policy of aggression" which he claimed is aimed at war with Russia.

Another authoritative source said that the Stalin blast is "the most offensive statement" he had ever heard the Russian chief make.

Russia Believed "Disturbed"

The spokesman said Russia apparently was extremely disturbed over the way the Soviets have set world opinion against themselves. He added "nothing in it (Stalin's statement) shows any confidence."

According to this official, Stalin deviated from his customary role of serving as a "wise and calm" element in the Soviet government.

The authority also chided Stalin for originally stating, in the text of his statement sent out by Mos-

Littlefield Woman Is Elected By OES

FORT WORTH, Oct. 28 (AP)—Mrs. Flora Bessl Boone of Littlefield wife of the retiring worthy grand patron of the Eastern Star, Pat H. Boone, today was elevated to the first rung of the ladder leading to the topmost office in the Grand chapter of Texas, OES.

To be elected associate grand conductress — stepping stone to worthy grand marton — Mrs. Boone had to defeat three other candidates in today's balloting here at the 66th annual session of the Grand chapter.

Three ballots were needed before Mrs. Boone was able to eliminate Mrs. Stella Owens, Dallas; Mrs. Berenice House, Yoakum and Mrs. Mildred Garlitz, Fort Worth.

In the only other election which was not an automatic promotion Dean Gauldin of Dallas, former Dallas county district attorney, was unanimously named associate grand patron. He will become worthy grand patron next year.

Back-To-Work Movement Is Reported In French Mines

PARIS, Oct. 28. (AP)—An interior ministry spokesman said today France's 24-day-old coal strike is falling apart with a back-to-work movement underway in the important northern fields.

Other observers agreed the situation looked better but were less optimistic. They pointed out that fewer than 10 per cent of the nation's 335,000 miners were on the job today.

About 30,000 troops and police, backed by light tanks and bren gun carriers, took control of nine northern pits during the day. There was no resistance from pickets, although Communist leaders had threatened that "blood will flow in the streets." Twenty-five of a total of 112 mines in northern France — where two-thirds of the coal is dug—now are in government hands.

Floydada School Is Burglarized

Sheriff Leland A. Hart's office at Floydada informed local police Thursday of the burglary of Floydada High school, in which 13 Royal typewriters were taken.

Entrance was gained by forcing the back door of the school sometime during Wednesday night or Thursday morning, it was reported, the typewriters being removed from the typing room of the school.

Local police were also continuing investigation of the theft of clothing valued at $63.25 for the Park hotel here. Two pair of trousers and a sport coat were listed as missing.

21 Persons Arrested

Seventeen women, arrested on charges of vagrancy by prostitution, were fined $25 each, police reports showed. Six porters at the establishments where the women were arrested, were charged with association with prostitutes.

Mrs. I. Duke of 206 North Madison informed the sheriff's department that two tricycles, total value $40, had been stoler there.

The following judgments were issued in county court, records of County Attorney John Steele showed: Harrel L. Benton, 19, $50 and costs for check law violation; J. C. Wood, jr., and W. L. Wise, $1 and costs each for check law violation; Grady Sherbert, 48, of Monroe, $50 and costs and driver's license revoked for six months for drunk driving; Clarence Tollison, $50 and costs on each of two charges of violation of state bedding laws; and S. P. Smith, jr., $1 and costs for check law violation.

Dies Urges Fight For American System

Dies continued, set up a number of Communist-controlled organizations, and induced "many muddle-headed liberals to serve as officers."

They began to infiltrate the government itself, he declared, and placed 5,000 Communist workers in strategic posts of this nation's government.

"When our committee was first begun, the administration was concerned chiefly with the exposure of Nazism and Fascism," Dies said. Neither the President nor department heads and legislative leaders relished the idea of exposing Communism also, and when the committee announced its intention to do so, its appropriation was cut sharply.

Investigators sent to the committee for its use from various government departments soon were discovered to be Communists. Newsmen sent to cover committee hearings were Communists, openly hostile to the committee, so that garbled and distorted accounts of the committee and its actions were given to the public through innuendos and insinuations.

"It became increasingly clear that Communists in high places in the government were exerting pressure," Dies charged.

Findings Revealed

President Roosevelt, after numerous attempts to sidetrack the Dies committee from the Communists, and who admitted that Communists were harmless and ineffectual, refused to take action on the matter, Dies stated.

He said that committee investigations revealed, among other things, the following facts:

1. That state and local governments in Michigan and the City of Detroit were fearful to raise a hand against Communism and the Communist-invoked strikes and mob-battles.

2. That administrative and legislative leaders intimated that if the committee would give up its Communist investigations, it could literally "write its own ticket" as to appropriations, and when it did not, it was allotted $25,000, after weeks of delay, to carry on its work.

3. That Communist propaganda media included newspapers, magazines, and picture shows.

4. That he was refused time on NBC and CBS when he requested it in order to speak to the American people on behalf of the committee and its work, and that Mutual granted him time after much deliberation. All the while he charged, the airlanes were open to those who opposed the investigations and termed them "witch hunts."

President Roosevelt himself was deceived by the Communists, but realized and admitted it only short hours before his death, Dies said.

"What does it all add up to?" Dies asked. "These clever propagandists were on the job 24 hours a day, while we Americans were playing golf or running our businesses.

"That's the picture, and a rather ugly one, but you should know the price of indifference. The Communists believe in something, and they are willing to work for it.

"Do we believe in something? Why, if we do, do 50 per cent of us not go to the polls, and how many of us who do vote vote for our own selfish interests and how many are guided by the best interests of our country?

"It is a great challenge to you and to me and to America. Let me urge you to become advocates of America and the American way. I say to you if you do not, there will be no freedom in America," he concluded.

"More important than anything you can do on this earth is to safeguard the American way."

Immediately following, officers for the local chapter were named for the forthcoming year. They are: T. A. Rogers, chapter chairman; Joe S. McIlhaney, secretary; Hop Halsey, chairman of the legislative committee; Ralph Keeton, chairman of the industrial relations committee; R. C. Johnson, chairman of the public relations committee; and Harold Himm of Plainview, M. V. Hall of Littlefield, O. L. Peterman of Brownfield, and Roy Mack of Slaton, vice chairmen. Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

LANDSLIDE VOTE INDICATED

Top National Political Writers Forecast Easy Dewey Triumph

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28. (INS)—Fifty top national political writers predicted today that GOP Presidential Candidate Dewey will defeat President Truman by a whopping majority.

The average, in a secret pre-election ballot conducted by Newsweek magazine, gave Dewey 366 electoral votes to the President's 126.

States' Rights Presidential Candidate J. Strom Thurmond was held likely to receive 39 electoral votes and progressive party presidential candidate Wallace none.

HST's Gains Admitted

All of the experts, although predicting a smashing Dewey victory, agreed that Mr. Truman has improved his position as compared with a previous Newsweek forecast on Oct. 11. At that time Dewey was expected to get 376 electoral votes and the president 116.

The correspondents agreed that a close race is developing for control of the Senate with the final outcome increasingly doubtful.

Average of the predictions gave the Republicans 49 seats and the Democrats 47 as compared with the Republican 50 and Democrats 46 in the previous survey.

This week 13 participants forecast a 48-to-48 tie in the Senate. On Oct. 11 only four predicted a tie.

A similar trend was indicated in the prediction for the House. The new poll gave the GOP 248 seats, Democrats 185, as compared with the previous estimate of 256 Republicans and 177 Democrats.

Popular Vote Lead Seen

Final estimates indicated a popular vote plurality for Dewey of 3,849,200.

Most of the newsmen thought that Dewey would receive a larger popular vote than the combined total of the three other candidates.

The writers listed a general desire for a change as the most frequently mentioned factor influencing voting sentiment.

Estimates of the probable number of votes to be polled by Wallace averaged 2,235,000. The highest 3,500,000 and the lowest 1,025,000.

Highest estimate of the number of the 531 electoral votes which would go to Dewey was 437.

Reasons given for Dewey's lead over Mr. Truman other than desire for a change included a feeling that the President is "inadequate" and that the crucial international situation demands a new administration.

Some correspondents said Mr. Truman was handicapped by a party split, that there was apathy and disappointment in both candidates and that Dewey's reputation for competence has impressed voters.

The newsmen were asked in the previous poll to name the candidate they thought would be best for the country.

Thirty-seven picked Dewey, seven Mr. Truman, one Thurmond and five had no choice.

HOMEY THIEVES

MUNCIE, Ind. (U.P.) — Thieves who invaded a furniture store here apparently planned to set up housekeeping. The loot included a four-piece living room suite, two sets of china lamps, a set of boudoir lamps, a washing machine, and a rocking chair.

Austin City Council Sets New Record As Woman Takes Seat

AUSTIN, Oct. 28. (INS)—Austin's first woman member of the City Council was seated recently. What happened? That day, the council had its longest continuous session in 109 years history.

The meeting lasted from 10:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., without even a pause for lunch.

But, believe it or not, the new lady Councilman, Mrs. Stuart Long, 36-year-old mother of two, scarcely opened her mouth.

World Understanding, Peace Studied By City Federation

Women's city federation met for luncheon and a combined business session and program Thursday at 1 p. m. in the Hilton hotel ballroom with Mrs. Ross Ayers, directing a study of "Promoting Peace and Understanding Throughout the World," and emphasizing that the women of the United States might achieve this goal by making friends with other women over the world through writing.

Making suggestions for corresponding with women in South America, Mrs. J. L. Quicksall, who has spent two years there, expressed her understanding of the difficulty most people have in writing letters. "Keep them free, easy and natural—as much like ordinary conversation as possible," she advised, adding that good humor and good breeding are keynotes in written or verbal conversation.

Urging women to put the "you" attitude in their letters rather than the "I", Mrs. Quicksall explained that in writing a letter, a woman should put herself in the place of her correspondent.

As a key to understanding the nature of a South American woman, Mrs. Quicksall said that the deeply religious South Americans are interested in aesthetic things and would like to hear about the beauties of American homes, flowers, gardens and children. The practical aspect of living would not interest them as it would an Australian woman, whose life is based on sobriety, business ability and common sense.

Ideas For Letters

Mrs. Charles Cobb, giving the views of both a native of Ireland and a naturalized citizen of the United States, made a plea for women writing letters to foreign countries to talk about common and down to earth things and not to describe all of the luxuries of life in America.

"Since a letter is one side of a conversation between you and another woman you may never know, but want to like," said Mrs. Cobb, "remember to be a good listener too." No matter how patriotic a woman may be, "love of country is not an excuse for lack of courtesy," she continued, admonishing, "when you speak of your achievements, do it modestly."

Mrs. Cobb continued, saying that an American woman who "talks trivialities" in her letters to other nations, is more likely to make friends. "Find out what common interests you have with your correspondent, and if you have nothing in common, stop writing because you will do more harm than good," advised Mrs. Cobb, who ended her discussion by saying: "Above all, don't take letter writing too seriously. When women take themselves too seriously, then it's time to stop. There are too many men doing that already!"

Mrs. Howard M. Phillips, accompanied by Mrs. A. W. Douglas pianist, sang "Let My Song Fill Your Heart" and "A Memory." Autumn table decorations of pyracantha berries and chrysanthemums were furnished by Bud to Blossom, Sunshine Child Study, Garden Study and Lubbock Woman's clubs.

Next meeting will not be on Thanksgiving day as scheduled but has been set for Nov. 18, when Mrs. Harry Sharp will lead a forum on public health.

APPRECIATED GIFT

MRS. T. W. Waddill, 3505 Thirty-third, says she was deeply touched by the recent generosity of an anonymous friend. The morning mail brought a gift certificate from a Lubbock department store, made out to Mrs. Waddill, but with the name of the donor omitted.

Thinking there had been a mistake, Mrs. Waddill took the certificate to the store where she was assured that it was intended for her, was perfectly legal and they had been asked not to reveal the name of the one who sent it.

WHAT MAKES NEWS

RECENTLY we have heard several accusations that newspapers print too many stories of crime and disaster. Well, newspapers are printed to be read by the millions and they give their readers what they want to read.

Suppose you were passing along the street and saw Mr. Jones park his car and cross to the porch. Mrs. Jones steps out of the house with a smile and perhaps a wifely embrace. Chances are you'll not even notice the incident and certainly you will not make a point of reporting it on your arrival home.

But let Mrs. Jones greet her husband with a blast from a shotgun and you'll rush home bursting with news and human-natural sense of importance for having been in on an unusual and exciting tragedy.

IN A PAPER that carries advertisements and vital information and stories about humanitarian activities—such as the Community chest — we'll wager that the story of Jones' rude welcome will be read first and talked about long after the paper has been thrown away.

We're sure that newspaper reporters would like to forget much of violence and tragedy but if those stories were not written, the reader would complain that the paper was dull, that it suppressed news.

You see, it really isn't a problem of newspapers after all. It's a problem of human nature.

ON COMIC BOOKS

A PHILOSOPHY professor from Rutgers university thinks that comic books are having more harmful effect on adults of the country than on children.

He says that the funny books tend to prepare a child for life, but it is the adults who receive "hypertension" from reading the books.

The only hypertension we have felt from reading the books to a youngster came from his request "Let's read it again" after we had struggled through the contents once.

Today's Town Talk

Miss Mattie Hodge has left for Dallas after visiting since Saturday with her sister, Mrs. P. T. Glazner, 2519 Twenty-fifth. The guest spent most of her time shopping for wardrobe items which she will need when she returns to Europe after a few more weeks in the United States.

The world traveler spent two years in China and India before the beginning of the war, when she returned to the States. After the fighting ceased, Miss Hodge went to Germany where she has been ever since as an Army club director. She was last stationed at Giessen field with the "Cup and Saucer club."

"I just can't get used to American clothes," said Miss Hodge, "They're so much longer" The clothes she has had designed and tailored in Paris are several inches shorter than the American fashion standard.

She has taken numerous U. S. Army conducted tours to various countries of Europe, and was allowed to attend the Olympic games, where she "met and mingled with royalty." Watching the contestants work out was more interesting to Miss Hodge than the games themselves.

The Texan likes Switzerland better than any other country she has toured, and describes the Swiss as "honest, genuine and sincere." As an example of their honesty, she explains the country's custom of not giving hotel guests keys to their rooms, because locking them is unnecessary. If a tourist insists on having a key, he is asked to leave it in the latch outside the door whenever it is locked.

From Switzerland, Miss Hodge brought back several hand-knitted garments for her sister's sons, Bill, two; Larry, six, and Bobby Glazner eight-and-a-half-years old. A pair of wooden shoes for each of the trio was brought from Holland, where the traveler also bought a collection of rare floral bulbs.

An experience which Miss Hodge will never forget was a visit and private interview with Pope Pius XII in Rome, which was the first time he had ever talked privately with a tourist. The Pope gave her a medallion with his image on it and blessed her rosary.

Miss Hodge plans to visit in Lubbock again before she leaves for Europe.

Misses Lois Hamilton and Lucille Clayton are in town from Dallas for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Mitchell, 2807 Twenty-fourth.

Maxlee C. Fann, son of Mrs. Virginia Fann, 1520 Seventeenth, has returned to the United States after completing a tour of duty as a Department of the Army civilian employee in the Philippines, it has been announced by the Public Information Office of Headquarters, Philippines Command in Manila.

Accompanying Mr. Fann on the return voyage were his wife Iva, and one-and-a-half-year-old daughter, Louise, aboard the Army transport, General Brewster.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Walker, 2421 Twenty-first, will have as their Tech homecoming guests three of their sons and their wives. They are Mr. and Mrs. Neill Walker of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. Clint Walker of Tahoka and Mr. and Mrs. Woody Walker of Andrews.

Mrs. Neill Walker is the former Claudia Sue Fort; Mrs. Clint Walker is the former Lottie Jo Townes and Mrs. Woody Walker is the former Ernestine Herring.

A preferential tea honoring pledges of Alpha Delta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will be given Sunday between 4 and 6 p.m. at the E. Waldo Trotter home, 3103 Twenty-first.

Tea Honors Miss Ryan, Bride-Elect

To compliment Miss Lynn Marie Ryan, bride-elect of William Harold Price, an afternoon tea was given in the home of Mrs. Elliott Taylor at 2821 Twenty-third Thursday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock. Approximately 150 persons called.

Hostesses with Mrs. Taylor were Mesdames J. W. Broome, G. P. Kuykendall, Cecil Cagle, Rem Thomson and Miss Bettye Thomson. They presented the honoree a silver pitcher.

Bouquets of red dahlias adorned receiving rooms and a silver bowl of tiny white chrysanthemums and red rosebuds centered the tea table which was laid with a white satin damask cloth. Mesdames R. V. Williams, Frank Bass and G. T. Nash presided at the silver service and assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Hal Langford and Misses Eugenia Luker and Brentie Sue Thompson.

Vocal and piano selections were provided during the afternoon by Mesdames W. A. Glover, D. E. Ing, Don Mitchell and Emil D'Acosta.

Others in the houseparty were Miss Della Beth Cooper, and Mesdames L. B. Cooper, Bill Roberts, O. P. Hankins, Minnie Rogers of California, George Ryan and P. V. Ryan of Lamesa, and H. Plate and Cecil Plate of Littlefield.

"You'll be the Star of the Party WHEN YOU SERVE THIS CHOC-O-LANTERN CAKE" SAYS AUNT JENNY

CHOC-O-LANTERN CAKE

2 cups sifted cake flour	½ cup Spry
1½ cups sugar	¾ cup milk
2½ teaspoons baking powder (tartrate powder, 4 teaspoons)	1½ teaspoons vanilla
1 teaspoon salt	2 eggs, unbeaten
	1 teaspoon grated orange rind
	1 ounce chocolate, melted

Sift flour, sugar, baking powder, and salt into mixing bowl. Drop in Spry. Add milk and vanilla and beat 200 strokes (2 minutes by hand or on mixer at low speed). Add eggs and beat 200 strokes. Divide batter in half. Add grated orange rind to one batter and melted chocolate to the other, blending well. Arrange batters, alternately by tablespoonfuls, in 12x8x2-inch Sprycoated pan. Run knife through batters several times both lengthwise and crosswise of pan for a mottled effect. Bake in moderately hot oven (375° F.) 35-45 minutes. Frost cake all over; decorate corners and center with "choc-o-lanterns" (orange sugar patties with "faces" made of melted chocolate). Serve with chocolate ice cream and orange sherbet.

Choc-O-Lantern Frosting

Combine ½ teaspoon grated orange rind and 3 tablespoons orange juice; let stand 10 minutes; strain. Measure 3 cups sifted confectioners' sugar. Blend 1 tablespoon each Spry and butter. Beat in ½ cup sugar gradually. Add 1½ ounces chocolate, melted. Add remaining sugar alternately with orange juice. Add 3½ tablespoons scalded evaporated milk or light cream and beat well.

RESULTS TO AFFECT SENATE SETUP

Demos Appear To Have Edge In Heated New Mexico Campaign

SANTA FE, N. M., Oct. 28. (INS)—The uncertainty of the United States' Senate political complexion has turned the spotlight on New Mexico for the first time since the second bid of Woodrow Wilson for the presidency.

The bone of contention is the U. S. Senate race between Clinton P. Anderson, former Democratic Secretary of Agriculture, and Pat Hurley, former Republican secretary of war and liberally decorated general in two wars.

Heavy Campaign Pushed

The state appears fairly certain to go for President Truman by a narrow margin. Only a Dewey landslide could upset this outlook.

Political big-wigs by the dozens have been poured into the state with the one purpose in mind of securing a senator.

The injection of political might has overwhelmed the New Mexicans and the senatorial race is now considered close by informed sources. A few weeks ago Anderson was regarded as a certain winner.

If the election is close, Rep. A. M. Fernandez (D) and State Land Commissioner John E. Miles (D) are fairly certain of going to Washington as the state's congressmen. They could slip in, even if Hurley wins. Herman Baca and Ben Mayer are the Republican entries for Congress.

Carried Some Demo Areas

Two years ago when Hurley first ran for the Senate, he carried some of the traditionally Democratic eastside counties. In the "nativo" counties he took a licking.

However, he was then running against U. S. Sen. Dennis Chavez, a "nativo." What happened in that election may be more or less reversed, making predictions on the outcome of the senatorial race a pure guess.

Other than the senatorial fight, the two parties have centered on the gubernatorial race. Gov. Thomas J. Mabry, seeking reelection, is opposed by Manuel Lujan (R), three times mayor of Santa Fe.

Lujan, being of Spanish-American ancestry, is expected to carry most of the northern and middle Rio Grande valley counties, these being predominately "nativo" in population.

There was no milk available for office workers' cups of tea in Wellington, New Zealand, when a long drought was followed by floods in the milk producing areas.

Honor Roll At Wilson School Is Announced

Honor roll for Wilson schools for the first six weeks' period has been announced by Supt. J. P. Hewlett.

Those on the roll are: Seniors, Jimmy Coleman, 93.75 per cent average; Alton Kelley, 91.25 per cent average, and Patricia Ann Smith, 94 per cent average; Juniors, Bessie Kindrick, 91 per cent average; sophomores, none; freshmen, Shirley Bartley, 90.25 per cent average, and the following grade school students with average of 90 per cent or above:

First grade, Sue Campbell and George Tamplen; second, Ronald White, Jeanette Schneider, Willie Pat Baxley, Wayne Harper, Audrey Klaus, Elizabeth Parker and Robert Christopher; third, Jane Williams, Martha Pair, Joyce Church, Waymon Tamplen and Sue Tubbs; fourth, Dixie Hewlett, Mary Lou Lichey, Eunice Buxkemper, Larry Maeker, Jimmie Paul Moore and Patsy Ann Spears; fifth, Deana Ward; sixth, Javan Schneider, Eileen Maeker, Don Evelyn Joines, Verlene Ehlers and Evelyn Ruth Gindorf; seventh, Don White, and eighth, Edwin Foster.

Rev. Alsie H. Carleton, pastor at Big Spring, officiated, assisted by Rev. H. H. Bratcher, local pastor.

Pallbearers were Stewart Bailey, W. J. Culp, E. Wheeler, H. M. Fields, Joe Murrell, Carl Morrow, W. C. Wooliver and Paul Payne.

Mr. Pope, widely known in West Texas business circles, died early Wednesday morning as a result of a heart attack at his 2012 Main street home earlier in the night. He had been actively associated with the department store here for 14 years, in cooperation with two brothers.

Stassen Turns Blast On Secretary Brannan

LAS ANIMAS, Colo., Oct. 28 (INS)—Harold E. Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania, declared today that an assertion by Agriculture Secretary Charles Brannan relative to the former Minnesota governor's view of farm issues "is not true."

Stassen denied Brannan's accusation while enroute to Las Animas today for a political talk.

Yesterday, Brannan was quoted as saying that Stassen "hasn't discussed the subject of farming since Dewey was forced to disclaim Stassen's attack on farm price supports, which was delivered from the steps of the governor's mansion in Albany."

Stassen declared today: "What I said in Albany was that prices would drop if the Democratic administration did not pull any shennanigans. And, you can see that prices have dropped."

Stassen said at the GOP meeting in Las Animas that "millions of Democrats have joined the ranks of the Republican party in the last few months." He explained:

"They feel that by coming over to the Republican party they can help by their votes to create an atmosphere of unity in Washington. Unity is paramount."

QUICK RESPONSE

TACOMA, Wash. (U.P.)—Prowl car officer C. B. Hanson jumped to attention recently when a report came over his radio, "Go to your own home," it said, "there's been a mishap." Hanson sped to his home to find his five-year-old son nursing a painfully mashed finger suffered when his coaster wagon upset. Father and son proceeded to the county hospital.

Take Off Ugly Fat With Grape Fruit Juice Recipe

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy — no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of Liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves: if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears — how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Westerners Host To Undefeated Golden Sandies Today In 1-AA Gridiron Classic

Lubbock Team Striving For First Victory Over Amarillo Since 1939

By EARL SCUDDAY
Avalanche Sports Writer

Leadership of the District 1-AA grid title race will be at stake at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in Jones Stadium when the Lubbock Westerners collide with Amarillo's Golden Sandies, who are undefeated and untied in six games this season.

The Sandies, rated as one of the two top Texas schoolboy grid teams, already have chalked up a conference win over Brownfield; and a victory over the Westerners would leave only one other major obstacle in the road to a fifth consecutive loop crown. The Westerners were defeated by Borger in their only district encounter, but an upset triumph over their traditional rivals from the Panhandle would put them back into the front of the title chase.

Seeking First Victory

Lubbock's schoolboy eleven also will be shooting for the first Hub city grid win over the Sandstorm since 1939 in the tussle this afternoon. The Westerners beat the Sandies 9-7 on Butler field that year, but since then the Amarillo-ans have chalked up eight straight triumphs over the South Plains' representatives. Last Year the Sandies drubbed the Westerners 27-0 on Butler field.

A wide-open scoring battle is predicted when the two teams clash for the first time in Texas Tech's new Jones Stadium, with Amarillo heavily favored to roll to a 25-point victory over the Lubbock team. The Sandies boast one of the finest offensive machines in the state, working from the famed "Michigan shift," and they have averaged 26 points per game against such foes as Odessa, Abilene, Woodrow Wilson of Dallas and Paschal of Fort Worth.

Lubbock's Westerners, coached this year by wily C. R. (Pat) Pattison, former Wichita Falls and Denison mentor, have exhibited a speedy ground offensive in every game this season and a dangerous —if erratic—aerial game. The Westerners have defeated North Side of Fort Worth and Childress, while deadlocking with Odessa and losing to San Angelo, Austin and Borger.

Schoolboy Stars Featured

Some of the top schoolboy grid stars of the state will be featured in the annual classic and will bid for all-star honors in the encounter. Amarillo's powerhouse is paced by Halfback Marvin McNeil, 158-pound triple-threater, and by End James Garner. Garner already has been nominated for an all-state wing post as a result of his sensational offensive and defensive performances.

Lubbock's modified single wing attack is headed by a trio of speedy backfield aces and several outstanding linemen. Slender Bobby Brown has gained wide recognition with his running and passing from the tailback slot, while team captain and Wingback Donald Decker has been described as one of the top running backs in the state. Stocky Teddy Vaught, senior end, and Guard Jack Hensley have sparked the Westerner forward wall.

Injuries and illness struck hard blows at both squads last week, but most of the regulars apparently will be ready by kickoff time. Amarillo's regular tackles, Bobby Moore and Bill Sparks, have been hampered by knee injuries and Garner missed the Brownfield tilt because of a bruised heel. Coach Howard Lynch's team has also reportedly been weakened by a foot injury to Guard Jack Davis.

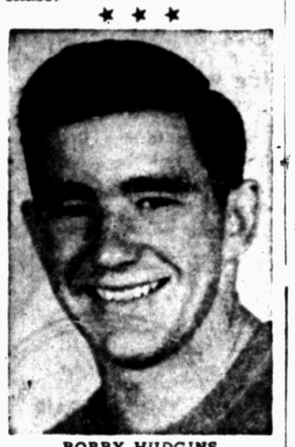

Injuries Hamper Teams

Coach Pattison has indicated that regular Tackle Billy Brazell, hampered by a knee injury, will be replaced in the starting Westerner lineup by 170-pound Lloyd Willis. Charley Williams, speedy letterman, will probably replace the injured Norman Bantz at the blocking back post.

A crowd of more than 12,000 persons is expected to see the annual "grudge" battle, although bad weather could drop that figure by several thousand. The attendance will be boosted by a special train from Amarillo, however, and several South Plains delegations are expected to see the game.

Tickets will be on sale this morning at the Senior High school athletic office, E. J. Lowrey has announced, then will be available at the stadium. There are plenty of good reserved seats on hand, as well as lower priced bleacher seats, Lowrey emphasized.

Important Games On Tap Today

(By The Associated Press)

Stand-out games are few but the schedule generally is the most important of the season in Texas schoolboy football this week-end.

More than 40 conference games dot the cards in the City Conference and Class AA with every district having its battles counting in the championship standings.

None of the state's 11 undefeated teams appear in danger of being upset except Henderson, which must face Marshall in a District 8 game. Marshall has been defeated, but still is something for any team to worry about.

Mighty Port Arthur, the state's No. 1 team, plays Orange, and Amarillo, the No. 2 outfit, takes on Lubbock.

The week-end schedule:

Friday—Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) vs Crozier Tech (Dallas), Paschal (Fort Worth) vs Arlington Heights (Fort Worth), Jeff Davis (Houston) vs Lamar (Houston), Sam Houston (Houston) at Kirwin (Galveston), Brackenridge (San Antonio) vs San Antonio Tech, Lanier (San Antonio) vs Edison (San Antonio), St. Anthony (Beaumont) at Alamo Heights (San Antonio), Amarillo at Lubbock, Borger at Plainview, Pampa at Brownfield, Vernon at Childress, Quanah at Wichita Falls, Electra at Graham, San Angelo at Midland, Sweetwater at Abilene, Austin (El Paso) at Big Spring, Bowie (El Paso) vs El Paso High, Greenville at Sherman, Paris at Bonham, Okmulgee, Okla., at Denison, Grand Prairie at Highland Park (Dallas), Denton at McKinney, Brownwood at Cisco, Weatherford at Breckenridge, Marshall at Henderson, Kilgore at Gladewater, Cleburne at Temple, Waco at Corsicana, Hillsboro at Ennis, Conroe at Nacogdoches, Palestine at Lufkin, Jacksonville at Bryan, Galveston at Texas City, Pasadena at Bayton, Freeport at Galena Park, Victoria at Laredo, Beaumont at Corpus Christi, McAllen at Edinburg, Corpus Christi College-Academy at Brownsville, Alice at Harlingen.

Plains Eleven Coasts To Easy 14-7 Win

PLAINS, Oct. 28. (Special) — The Plains Cowboys romped to a 14-7 victory over the Levelland B squad here tonight, holding the visitors scoreless until the final two minutes of the game.

Bob McCargo put the home town eleven out in front early in the first quarter when he circled end and scored from 35 yards out. Peter Wauson plunged through the line for the extra point.

Wauson climaxed a touchdown drive in the second quarter, when he plunged four yards for the score and Leland Ellison plunged for the extra point.

Late in the fourth quarter, with two minutes left, B. Taylor ended a drive down the field for Levelland by plunging from the one-foot line. D. Windsor plunged for the extra point.

Outstanding in the line for Plains was Guard Weldon Hill and Tackel Dean Light, while Tackle R. D. Jackson and End R. E. Bailey sparkled for Levelland.

Cowhands Tip Amarillo, 20-0

Lubbock High's battling Cowhands, paced by the brilliant running of Backs Mack Taylor, Donnie Rawls and Tommy Fisher and the superb line play of Tackle J. R. Bradford and Guard Deverle Henslee, crushed Amarillo High's Yannigans, 20-0, in their annual clash Thursday night at Chapman field.

The size of the score did not indicate the real superiority of the Cowhand eleven. The Lubbock schoolboys used straight power plays in notching the triumph, and did not even throw a pass until late in the game. Amarillo never made a serious scoring threat and never got inside the Lubbock 30-yard line.

Amarillo took the opening kickoff of the game deep in their own territory, then moved up to their own 40-yard line on a series of end sweeps by Tailback Ronald Johnson. They were unable to cross the midfield stripe and, after an exchange of punts, the Cowhands took over on the Lubbock 35.

Fisher Blasts Over

Taylor, Rawls and Fisher alternated in carrying to the Amarillo one-foot marker, then Fisher blasted over left guard for the touchdown. Bradford's extra point kick was blocked, but Lubbock led by a 6-0 count.

The Cowhands started another drive mid-way in the second period from their own 45-yard line. Backs Charles McCowan and Taylor moved the ball down to the Amarillo 38, then Rawls swept around end to the Yannigan 23. After picking up a first down on the Amarillo 12, Taylor carried over for the touchdown in two tries. Bradford's kick was good and Lubbock held a 13-0 halftime margin.

Lubbock's gridders tallied their third touchdown on the first play of the second half. The Cowhands ran the kickoff back to their own 48-yard marker, and on the initial play from the surprise T-formation Fisher broke through center and sprinted 52 yards to paydirt. Bradford converted to give Lubbock a 20-0 lead.

Stopped On Goal

The Cowhands nearly tallied again minutes later, when Rawls, Fisher and Billy Tooke sparked a drive that was stopped on the Amarillo one-foot line. After that reserves took over and, although they moved into Yannigan territory several times, were unable to muster a scoring punch.

The victory was the second consecutive triumph for the Cowhands over the Yannigans and gave the Lubbock team an undefeated, untied record in four games this season.

Hale Center Owls Squeeze Out Tight 20-19 Win Over Springlake

SPRINGLAKE, Oct. 28 (Special) —Hale Center's powerful Owls came from behind twice tonight to chalk up a narrow 20-19 District 3-B triumph over the Springlake eleven.

The Springlake crew tallied in the first four minutes of the game, but the Owls tied up the count late in the initial period when Halfback Eldon Davis romped 50 yards to the double stripe.

Davis put the Hale Center team in the lead in the second quarter, when he climaxed a long drive with a two-yard plunge to paydirt. The conversion attempt was good, giving the Owls a 13-6 halftime margin.

Springlake surged back in the third stanza to tally two quick touchdowns and take a 19-13 edge, but the brilliant Davis clinched the win for the Owls with a four-yard touchdown smash late in the final quarter. Back Jerry Johnson passed to End Jimmy Stokes for the game-winning extra point.

BLUE FLAME CAGERS WIN

IDALOU, Oct. 28 (Special) — The Blue Flame Gas company's basketball team tonight beat the Hoyt Furniture company team of Lubbock 38-26 in the gym here. Bob Steeley, with 10 points, led Idalou and Bob Galey, with 13 points, led the visitors.

Owls Arrive By Plane Today

Tech On Short End Of Odds For Rice

Instead of going into the game against Rice as the favorites, the Red Raiders of Texas Tech yesterday were placed on the short end of the odds by several Southwest writers, as well as the betting cards.

The general concensus was that Rice would win by seven points and Tech is being given that margin on the cards. But there's a feeling in the Raider camp that the players win or lose games and that this is one game Tech is going to win.

Practice yesterday wasn't grim and tense, but plenty of hard work was going into preparation for the Homecoming game. The Raider coaches, Dell Morgan, G. B. Morris, Tipp Mooney and Polk Robison, weren't in playful moods and the players went through a long drill.

Contact work was barred, with dummy drill taking its place. Emphasis again was on developing a scoring offensive, one that could get Tech points—and a lot of them. The favorite weapon of the Techsans yesterday, as it has been a good part of the week, was the forward pass. Deviations on the usual pass plays the Raiders have used this year were clicking superbly against the freshmen and varsity reserves.

Rice Plays Click

At the other end of the practice field, Tech freshmen were running Rice plays and with altogether too much success. Line work nearly was forgotten as the yearlings filled the air with passes. And the Tech defenses didn't look too sharp against the type of pass Tobin Rote will chuck Saturday.

Rice, meanwhile, tapered off with an intensive drill against Tech's expected passing game, as well as work on the Raider line plunges. The Owls realize that they have speed to stop and they don't want to give Walter Maloney, Cal Stoveson, Charley Reynolds, J. W. Thompson and the other fleet backs a chance to break into the clear.

Owls Arrive Today

The Owls will board two DC-3s this morning and fly to Lubbock, where they will be met by various representatives of the Raider institution. It will be the first visit of Coach Jess Neely and his Owls to the Hub City and local custom will extend its usual warm greeting.

A light workout this afternoon at the Tech gridiron will conclude the Owls' preparation for the game and Texas Tech also will have a light session.

Saturday a crowd of 19,000 Homecoming fans is expected to pack Jones Stadium to see the battle of two good teams. Rice, despite four setbacks in succession, still is a SWC member and will fight to protect the name of the conference.

Abernathy Licks Ralls In District 3-A Tilt

ABERNATHY, Oct. 28. (Special) —Jim Miller, a dazzling 140-pound sophomore back, led the Abernathy Antelopes to a 14-0 victory over the Ralls Jackrabbits in a District 3-A conference game here tonight.

Miller put on an offensive show for 1,300 fans, going 15 yards off his own right tackle in the first quarter to score the first touchdown, with Robert Smith making good the first of his two successful placements for the extra point.

In the third quarter, Miller again hit paydirt, this time cutting 35 yards off his own left tackle and going over the goal untouched. Smith again converted.

Ralls fought back and made one scoring threat, reaching the Antelope eight yard line. But the home team held and took over on downs.

It was a good game on a slightly muddy field, with the Antelopes holding the upper hand throughout.

REFINERS TAKE TILT

Levelland Refiners won an independent basketball game from the Littrell Gulf Service company here last night, 53-44, coming from under a 26-20 halftime deficit to win. Morris McLendon and Brassier led the Refiners, each with 12 points; Virgil Johnson and Verdell Turner were high for Gulf with 18 and 17 points respectively.

Hub Juniors Get Victories

SEMINOLE, Oct. 28. (Special) —Two second quarter touchdowns gave the sluggish Carroll Thompson Junior High school football team a 13-0 victory over the Seminole Juniors here tonight in a league game.

Don Jones ran 40 yards around his team's right end for the first score and Charles Hodges went 30 yards to score the second touchdown. A pass, Jones to Tom Yelvington, set up the score and Yelvington added the extra point from placement.

J. T. Hutchinson Rangers Nose Out Lamesa Juniors, 7-0

LAMESA, Oct. 28. (Special)—The J. T. Hutchinson Junior High school Rangers of Lubbock turned in a narrow 7-0 victory over the Lamesa Juniors here tonight in a South Plains loop match.

Ronald Stephenson scored the only touchdown of the game after Robert Johnson intercepted a Lamesa pass on the 30 and returned it to the 18-yard line. A few minutes later Stephenson went over on a plunge to chalk up the second quarter score. The rest of the game was played in midfield.

Levelland Juniors Score Late To Turn Back Plainview, 12-0

LEVELLAND, Oct. 28. (Special) —Levelland's powerful junior high gridders tallied twice in the last four minutes of the fourth quarter to defeat a scrappy Plainview eleven, 12-0, in a South Plains loop grid tussle here tonight.

Back Dub Bradshaw tossed a 30-yard pass to Lankford Sneed for the first six-pointer, then Bradshaw scored again on a 20-yard touchdown gallop.

Three Way Upsets Southland In Six-Man Conference Football

SOUTHLAND, Oct. 28. (Special) —The Three Way Eagles upset the Southland High school six-man football team 25-21 here tonight in a District 6-B conference game.

Southland, defeated only by the first place Pettit eleven, romped to a 14-6 margin at the half and appeared on its way to another victory. But Three Way roared back in a wild third quarter to take the lead and keep it.

Stanley Stafford and J. Bassinger, Three Way and Southland backs, led the scoring with two touchdowns each, while Tankersley of Southland and Charles Smith and Bryant of Three Way each had a touchdown. Extra points were kicked by Anderson and Halliburton for Southland and by Bobby Newman for Three Way.

Bassinger was the outstanding player for Southland, while Stafford, Smith and Newman, who threw three touchdown passes, were outstanding for the Eagles.

Crippled Tech Freshman Eleven Meets WTSTC In Canyon Tonight

Injuries have hit the Texas Tech freshmen team a hard blow and it will be a crippled eleven that takes the field tomorrow night at Canyon against the strong West Texas State Teachers college first year men.

Fullback Ralph May of Sudan and Halfback Judson Brawner of Atmore, Ala., two of the freshmen counted on the most, both had torn knee cartlages in the game against the Hardin-Simmons freshmen. As a result, they are out of action, probably for the season.

Other players have minor injuries and this has made imperative several changes in the startling lineup. But several of the Red Raider freshmen have demonstrated this week that they can't be kept out of the starting lineup, easing Coaches Polk Robison and Maxey McKnight's job.

Ross Brown, 145-pound fullback from Paschal High school in Ft. Worth, has taken over the starting fullback position and Don Anthony of Amarillo has installed himself at a guard spot. John Moughan of Weatherford has gained a starting quarterback position and G. B. Lindsey of Lubbock will be at left half.

The two opponents tonight have met once before this season, in Lubbock, when an intercepted lateral handed the Buff juniors a 6-0 victory. The Raider first year men put up a good defensive fight, but lacked an offensive, even thought they were able to march down the field consistently.

The Tech freshmen also have shown secondary weakness in their two games so far and considerable time was spent on that phase this week in practice. If the freshmen have developed a secondary defense, as well as an offensive, they should be able to take the Buff initial year men.

Mustangs Race Wild To Lick Eagles, 37-6

DENVER CITY, Oct. 28 (Special)—Denver City's Mustangs ran wild tonight at the expense of the Seagrave Eagles, trouncing the visitors 37-6 in a non-conference tilt.

The Mustangs scored first when Bobby Ray Ward ran six yards for the initial touchdown, but the Eagles countered with their lone tally on Bill Hearne's three-yard plunge. After that the deluge was on.

Denver City scored twice in the second period, twice in the third and once in the fourth.

Fullback Jack Pritchard went over the double stripe on runs of 50 yards, following a lateral pass, 16 yards and five yards. He also kicked the only extra point in the game.

Tom Dunnagan scored once after taking a pass from Pritchard and Wayne Baker, reserve back, went 41 yards to score on the best piece of running.

SMU-Texas Game May Decide Title In Southwest Conference

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Showdown week is here. The Southwest Conference championship may well be determined in two games scheduled Saturday.

Southern Methodist's Mustangs and the University of Texas Longhorns clash at Austin in the test that's been pointed to all season as the decisive battle of the season.

Baylor's ambitious Bears, who have managed to remain undefeated—the only club in the conference to do so—face the very tough Texas Christian Horned Frogs at Fort Worth Saturday night. The critics are calling this game even and there are plenty who think the Bears will take a tumble.

Southern Methodist and Texas both are unbeaten in conference play, but the winner will be considered the No. 1 team in the title race regardless of how Baylor fares.

It's do-or-die for Texas Christian. If the Horned Frogs lose this one they will be out of the race. They already have dropped one game. Two lickings in this conference means curtains.

While SMU and Texas are swapping touchdowns at Austin—with the Methodists top favorites—and Baylor is trying to stay on the unbeaten track against TCU, two of the three teams already eliminated in the title chase will be getting together at College Station.

Arkansas and Texas A. and M. are in that clash, with A. and M. still seeking a win. The Aggies have lost six straight. Arkansas has a 3-2 season record, but the two defeats were conference affairs. The Razorbacks will be favored to win but this appears a fine chance for an upset. A. and M. is improving with every down.

Rice, disappointed and disillusioned over four straight defeats, journeys to Lubbock to play Texas Tech of the Border Conference. The Owls, for a change will be the favorites. But the only way to compare the two teams is through the Southern Methodist game. Tech lost to SMU 41-6, Rice lost to Southern Methodist 33-7. That's not very conclusive. Tech played Southern Methodist at Dallas; the Raiders will be meeting Rice at home.

CHAMPION MAY BE SLIPPING

Pep-Saddler Fight Tonight Has Many Interesting Angles In It

NEW YORK, Oct. 28. (INS) — There are some interesting angles to the Willie Pep-Sandy Saddler featherweight title fight in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night.

One of the interesting slants is that Pep, the champion, is getting 50 percent of the gate, while the challenger was forced to settle for a mere 10 per cent.

This is probably the biggest cut a champion ever received. Not even Joe Louis had nerve enough to demand so much.

It is a point which leads the cynical burglars in the fight racket to hint that maybe Pep is selling his title. We doubt this because the 2 to 1 betting odds on the champion do not reflect any great influx of Saddler money.

Moreover, Pep always has given the best he has, as one loss in 136 professional fights clearly indicates. In fact, his followers in Hartford have made plenty of money by simply betting on Pep every time he starts. And they're still betting on him.

Victories Came Easily

It is said that many of Pep's victories were scored at the expense of soft touches. This is true of all leading fighters. The same may be said of the challenger, who has a record of 63 knockouts in 93 fights.

Although Pep is only 26 he has been fighting as a pro for 10 years. That makes him an old man in the ring. Saddler is only 22.

Some of the ring-wise gentry figure Pep is ready to be taken, despite the fact that he has shown no signs of slowing down.

Favorites Picked To Win Saturday

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Getting in our Hallowe'en pranks a few days early, we present this week's pigskin predictions in the hope of adding a few points to an average that now stands at .759 on 302 correct guesses and 96 which came out wrong:

Southern Methodist vs. Texas—Although the Longhorns' losses to North Carolina and Oklahoma, plus SMU's upset by Missouri, have taken the glamor off this one nationally, it's a hot article in the Southwest. Texas has depth but the Mustangs have Doak Walker. SOUTHERN METHODIST.

Baylor vs. Texas Christian—By winning this one, once-tied Baylor can wrestle the winner of the SMU-Texas clash for the Southwest Conference title. TCU can't kick extra points. BAYLOR.

Elsewhere in the Southwest: Arkansas over Texas A. and M., TEXAS TECH over Rice and Texas Mines over Hardin-Simmons.

North Carolina vs. Tennessee—If the Tar Heels get past this one, they can breeze right on through an all-victorious season into somebody's big bowl. Tennessee has won three in a row, but still isn't ready to handle Charley Justice and Hosea Rogers. NORTH CAROLINA.

Illinois vs. Michigan—It was just two years ago that the Wolverines last tasted defeat. And their conqueror was Illinois. The Illini have improved, but if Northwestern and Minnesota couldn't stop that powerful Michigan aerial attack, neither can they. The usual carefree ballot for MICHIGAN.

California vs. Southern California—The Trojans have scored only three touchdowns in their last four games, although they won two of them and lost another by only one point. That many in one day wouldn't be enough to keep the Bears from winning No. 7. CALIFORNIA.

Notre Dame vs. Navy—The Middies scared the pants off Pennsylvania last week and may beat somebody yet. But don't count on it this week.

It's No. 6 for NOTRE DAME.

Georgia Tech vs. Duke—Twice-tied Duke has yet to lose, while Tech hasn't even been tied, and isn't likely to be in this one. GEORGIA TECH.

Ohio State vs. Northwestern—With Indiana meeting Minnesota, this is the game that may settle second place in the Big Nine and reward the winner with a trip to the Rose Bowl. NORTHWESTERN.

Virginia Tech vs. Army—In a breeze, Army.

Michigan State vs. Oregon State—Michigan State.

Indiana vs. Minnesota—Minnesota.

Missouri vs. Kansas State—Missouri.

Cornell vs. Columbia—The pick here is Columbia.

Running rapidly over the rest of the week-end's better games:

SOUTH

Tulane over Mississippi State, Mississippi over Louisiana State, Florida over Furman, North Carolina State over Wake Forest, South Carolina over West Virginia.

MIDWEST

Iowa over Wisconsin, Purdue over Marquette, Nebraska over UCLA, Oklahoma over Iowa State, Kentucky over Cincinnati, Kansas over Oklahoma A. and M., Tulsa over Wichita, Pittsburgh over Western Reserve, Ohio over Duquesne.

EAST

Dartmouth over Yale, Penn State over Colgate, Princeton over Virginia, Harvard over Holy Cross, Rutgers over Brown, Boston University over Syracuse, Lafayette over George Washington, Lehigh over NYU, Washington and Jefferson over Carnegie Tech.

FAR WEST

Washington State over Idaho, Oregon over St. Mary's, Utah over Colorado, Utah State over Wyoming, Nevada over Oklahoma City, New Mexico over Fresno State, Montana State over Idaho State, and, on Sunday, Santa Clara over San Francisco.

Sports Study

By Earl Scudday

This is the day that many Lubbock football fans have been looking forward to for 12 full months and, despite the large number of top-flight area grid clashes, we can't resist the opportunity to make a few comments on the tilt. For some local fans, who have moved here during the last few years, may not realize the importance of the Westerner-Amarillo clash to most of the "die-hard" Hub city fans.

The Amarillo-Lubbock grid rivalry has been battled out for more than three decades, but it was not until the early 1930s that the game attracted downstate attention. Then the Sandies started chalking up state football championships with amazing regularity under the direction of able Blair Cherry, and beating the Westerners each year in the bargain. Lubbock had many good teams during that period, but they could just not break the "Sandie jinx."

In 1938, however, a battling Westerner team headed by one Walter (Jumbo) Webster outscored the Sandies on the old Tech gridiron and went all the way to the state finals before losing to Corpus Christi. Many of the regulars of the '38 team graduated, and the 1939 edition lost several games before finding a spark. Their well-liked coach, Weldon Chapman, died in mid-season and the aroused Lubbock gridders started a win streak that was climaxed by a state championship. The Westerners, called the "Cinderella team" of Texas schoolboy football, won a 9-7 struggle with the Sandies on Butler field in moving to the district title.

The Sandies surged back the following year to beat the Westerners, 14-0, however, then went on to win their fourth state crown. In 1941, the Amarilloans beat one of Lubbock's greatest teams, 3-0, on Butler field, and turned in a 27-0 triumph in 1942. The Westerners received their most humiliating drubbing of the series at Butler field in 1943, when the Sandies rolled to a 47-0 triumph over a crippled and battered Lubbock eleven. Amarillo continued their win skein with four touchdown victories in 1944 and 1945, gained a 20-7 decision in 1946 and notched a 27-0 triumph last year.

Many of the Lubbock teams since 1939 have had outstanding players. Leete Jackson and Roland (Tuffy) Nabors led the 1940 eleven; Nabors, Billy Wright and a host of others sparked the powerful '41 team; and the 1942 eleven had the services of Backs Bob Brewer and Joe L. Thompson and two fine linemen in Hubert Bechtol and Tom Pirtle. But they just couldn't beat Amarillo. In recent years the Westerners have had some excellent gridders, but they too, have failed to halt the Sandies' march.

• • •

So when the two teams trot out on the field this afternoon, there's more at stake than two schoolboy teams meeting in a district game. There's the spirit of those past teams and their players. There's enough tradition and rivalry behind the encounter to write a book on. But we'll have to be content in just saying, "Take it to 'em, Westerners!"

Steers Plan Defenses Against SMU Offense

AUSTIN, Oct. 28. (AP)—Coach Blair Cherry sent the Texas Longhorns through an unusually long drill today, continuing to emphasize defensive strategy against the Southern Methodist Mustangs.

Remembering the long kickoff return by the Ponies' Paul Page that put Texas in the hole early in last year's game, the Longhorns studied ways of preventing a repeat performance.

The weatherman forecast Friday showers, but was not ready to predict for Saturday.

Football fever continued to mount on the Texas campus. Students answered telephones at their living quarters with, "Beat SMU . . . Hello." Nightly pep rallies are being held, and tomorrow night's hullabaloo session will be the climax to pre-game activities.

Moanin' Matty Is Afraid Of Texas

DALLAS, Oct. 28 (AP) — Matty Bell was in character today: He was moaning like the wind that blows across the Texas prairie on an autumn night.

"If we can hold them down a little bit we might make it a good ball game," he sighed when asked for comment on the impending Southwest Conference battle of the year between his Southern Methodist Mustangs and the Texas Longhorns at Austin. This is regarded as the Southwest Conference championship struggle.

He snorted at news that the Methodists were rated 6 to 18 points better than Texas. "Texas showed what kind of football team it had against Rice," he said. "Rice had 'em down seven points and Texas came back and made three touchdowns. And Rice has a good football team."

Bell was reminded that Southern Methodist beat Rice 33-7. "We got the breaks," he answered.

He also was reminded that Southern Methodist beat Santa Clara 33-0 and Santa Clara beat Oklahoma 20-17—and Oklahoma beat Texas 20-14.

"You can't compare teams on scores," he roared.

Won't Predict Game

Bell then was asked for a direct prediction on the outcome of Saturday's game.

"The only thing I'll say," he said grudgingly, "is that we'll show up at 2 o'clock. We're traveling by train to Austin tomorrow night and it's pretty safe to say we'll get there."

Bell lamented that two of his linemen would be out of the game — Brownie Lewis, guard, and Carl Wallace, end. However, Lewis didn't play against Rice or Santa Clara.

Allies Deny Red Blast On Berlin

cow, that Chile was a member of the Security Council. He said this showed the Soviet leader was badly informed.

The source added that Stalin expressed his complete renunciation of ideas about the United Nations when he accused the "little six" of pursuing an aggressive policy.

Reactions Vigorous

Meanwhile, the source warned, in casually replying to a question, that any overt Soviet act of interference with the western air lift to Berlin would be considered an act of war.

Reaction to the Stalin blast was vigorous in London, Paris and Washington and the view was taken that Stalin had served only to freeze attempts to end the Berlin blockade.

These were other interpretations placed on the Stalin attack:

1. He tried to pin all blame for failure to settle the Berlin crisis on the West in the eyes of the rest of the world.

2. He intended to impress the Soviet people with the serious nature of the East-West rift.

3. He hoped to influence the presidential elections in the United States in favor of Henry A. Wallace.

Churchill Boosts A-Bomb

Argentine Foreign Minister Juan A. Bramuglia, who led the efforts to mediate the Berlin problem, said that it is still possible to bring East and West together on the gravest issue of the cold war. He declined, "in the interest of conciliation," to make any other comment.

Winston Churchill, a chief target of the Stalin blast, told the House of Commons that the atom bomb is the sole means of warding off an aggressive war against the West and would prevent "rebarbarization and enslavement of Europe." He urged U. S. military assistance to western Europe.

British Foreign Secretary Bevin said he does not believe war is inevitable.

Dewey, HST Study Charges

President Truman and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey declined to comment immediately on the Stalin attack but indicated they will have something to say after the premier's statement has been studied.

In Washington, State department officials charged Stalin was not telling the truth about the Berlin negotiations.

A British foreign office spokesman in London commented:

"It's the usual totalitarian trick of accusing other people of what in fact they are doing themselves."

In Paris, where even the Russian UN teams apparently were taken by surprise when the Stalin blast was made public, a U. S. delegation spokesman specifically denied there had been any agreement for the lifting of the Berlin blockade in easy stages.

One high-ranking member of the U. S. delegation said the Stalin attack on the West looked like "an attempt to shake off Russia's responsibility for the Berlin deadlock."

He added much of the Stalin statement "appears to be the usual propaganda."

A spokesman for the French foreign office agreed that his government had no knowledge of a draft accord arranged by Bramuglia and Soviet delegate Andrei Vishinsky.

British sources in Paris also refuted the Stalin claim.

Arbie Lee Freeman, Junior in Lubbock High school, last night was introduced as football sweetheart at the pep rally. Students and Westerner supporters packed the high school auditorium to give the Westerners an enthusiastic "sendoff" to their major game of the year.

Charles Galey, president of the student body, introduced E. J. Lowrey, business manager, who spoke. Coach C. R. Pattison introduced team members. Others on the rally program were Pat Rhea, Blair Hankins, J. C. Chambers, vice president of the student body, Pat Farris, former Lubbock High school student, and George W. Dupree, Lubbock lawyer.

Miss Freeman had as her attendants Jan Dorn and Francyne Cox.

Homecoming Plans

Alumni and Ex-students association will hold two meetings today to consider several proposed changes to its charter and by-laws and other business.

The board will meet for luncheon at 1 p. m. in the Hilton hotel and attend a business meeting afterward in the Aztec room. It will convene again at 4:45 p. m. in the Aggie Memorial auditorium on the campus to dispense with the greater part of business before a breakfast meeting of the council of the association at 8 o'clock Saturday morning in the Navajo room at the Hilton.

College Board To Meet

Registration of alumni and ex-students will begin at 8 a. m. Saturday and continue until noon in the Lubbock and Hilton hotels downtown, and in major buildings on the campus.

The college board of directors, which will meet today in Amarillo for an inspection tour of recently acquired property at the Pantex plant northeast of there, will meet again at 9 a. m. here in the president's office on the campus, where they will discuss routine business.

The big events scheduled for Saturday will lead off with the largest Homecoming parade in the history of the college at 10:30 a. m., beginning at Main and Ave. M, from where the colorful line of floats will proceed east to Texas Ave., south to Broadway, and then turn west up Broadway to the college.

One plaque each will be given to the most beautiful, most descriptive, and most humorous float in the parade, based on the decision of five judges to be stationed on the southeast corner of the Lubbock hotel balcony.

The plaques will be presented to the winners at halftime during the game, and are obtained through the courtesy of Lucian Thomas, Tech graduate and Lubbock jeweler. Judges are Dale Buckner, Mickey Henly, Culver Hill, A. B. Watkins, and Preston Smith.

Luncheon Set Saturday

At 12 o'clock noon Saturday exes and their wives or husbands will attend a buffet luncheon in the Tech gymnasium. Hosts for the luncheon for the fourth consecutive year are the Lubbock Bus company and the Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma Coaches, Inc.

Alumni and Ex-Students' Association officers will be introduced to the exes at 1 p. m. as the last of the activities before the game at 2:30.

Halftime during the game will feature the performance of the Tech band, presentation of plaques to clubs entering winning floats in the parade, and the traditional shoe race.

From the end of the game until 9 p. m., many of the social organizations are holding open houses and other social events. At 9 o'clock the Homecoming dance in the decorated gymnasium will begin. Music for the dance will be furnished by Burl Hubbards dance orchestra through the courtesy of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal and radio Station KFYO. Decoration of the gymnasium has been under the direction of Alpha Phi Omega, men's service club on the campus.

Johnson Raps Coke

"not one word" of fraud talk had been presented to grand juries in counties where it was alleged to have existed, but that his opponents had been "intent on presenting a one-sided, lop-sided, three-county complaint to the U. S. Senate."

Johnson Renews Offer

"Anything less than a full recount will be absolutely worthless," Johnson said.

He said that as long as he was leading "we had no cause of action and could not contest—and my opponent wouldn't."

"I say to the people of Texas that if any lawful recount of all the ballot boxes is made by any court or other forum having jurisdiction to determine an election contest, shows that I did not receive a majority of the lawful ballots of my fellow Democrats, I will at once resign from the Senate of the United States and immediately submit my candidacy to the people of Texas," Johnson said.

"I think this assurance should be all that even the most biased critics should want."

Stevenson, who asked the senatorial probe, has charged that there were enough irregularities in Jim Wells county alone to change the result of the election. Stevenson is actively supporting Jack Porter, the Republican senatorial candidate.

Probes Claimed For GOP

Myers, in Washington, made his demand in a telegram to Jenner, who is campaigning for reelection in Indiana. Asserting that the investigators sent to Texas "consider their primary responsibility as being to the Republican party," he asked that they be called back.

The investigators, Myers said, "have lent themselves and their committees status to an organized effort to use this investigation for the purpose of influencing the outcome of the forthcoming Texas election in favor of the Republican nominee for the Senate, or when that fails, to lay the ground work for stealing the election and negating the will of the people of Texas."

Myers insisted that "all ballot boxes in Texas should be impounded and not merely those suggested by the defeated candidate."

Johnson made a similar demand early in the week in a letter to Senator C. Wayland Brooks of Illionis, chairman of the Senate Rules and Administration committee, of which Jenner's group is a subcommittee.

As a result, county and Democratic party officials of eight counties specifically named by Johnson were ordered Wednesday by Jenner to preserve their ballots and election records for further orders.

Many persons casting the "Straw Votes" did not list either their party affiliations, or make a guess as to the outcome of the real election. Most of the "Straw Votes" cast are by those who list themselves as normally Democratic, although there are about 70 normally Republican votes and about an equal number of independents represented. This means that the bulk of the Dewey-Warren and Thurmond-Wright support here comes from normally Democratic voters dissatisfied with the party as it now is controled.

Some Trends Reflected

Although no "Straw Vote" may ever be relied upon as reflecting a definite trend in thinking in an entire city, or section, such ballots sometimes do forecast certain attitudes of numbers of people. While few people expect this "Straw Vote" to be borne out at the polls Tuesday, most will agree that it does indicate to some degree that (1) people are getting over their reluctance to leave the Democratic party when either its policies, its standard-bearer, or both, displease them; and (2) that in this section normally rock-ribbed Democratic by a ratio of 10-to-1, or greater, most people expect a Republican victory next Tuesday.

"Straw Ballots" have been sent in thus far from every community between Muleshoe and Spur, Matador and Seminole, Plainview and Lamesa. A few have come in from Eastern New Mexico.

Only ballots counted are those clipped from the paper, which means numerous letters and postcards have been "thrown out." Also, each ballot received has been counted as one vote, in spite of notations like "This is for three of us," or "This is four votes—all in the same family."

The ballot will appear for the last time in the Journal of Friday afternoon and the final result will be announced in Sunday's paper.

bock, entered a plea of innocent on a drunk driving charge and posted $400 bond, court officials said.

A 40-year-old Lubbock man, arrested early Thursday night by Texas highway patrolmen about 7 miles out of Lubbock on the Idalou road, will face drunk driving charges, it was indicated.

The Sheriff's department said a 22-year-old Lubbock man had been arrested by that department and Texas rangers for Hobbs, N. M., authorities, who came here and accepted custody after the defendant had waived extradition. Exact nature of the charge or charges against the man were not known here.

Newsmen were informed here Thursday of the burglary of Slaton's City drugstore on Sunday night or Monday morning.

Taken, according to the list of missing property on reports of the sheriff's department here, were five watches, 14 cigarette lighters, two knives, four mouth harps, two pen and pencil sets, two billfolds, three boxes of candy and men's socks.

of the USSR, the U. S. A., Great Britain, and France regarding the simultaneous implementation of measures for lifting of transport restrictions (the Berlin blockade) on the one hand, and for the introduction of the German mark of the Soviet zone in Berlin as the sole currency on the other hand," Stalin asserted.

He said that agreement did "not hurt anyone's prestige" but the governments of Britain and the United States "disavowed their representatives in Moscow" and further violated it by referring the question to the Security Council where they have a "guaranteed majority."

Agreement Voided

Asked if it was true that agreement again was reached in Paris, Stalin said Bramuglia "did have in his hands an agreed draft decision on the question of the situation in Berlin. But the representatives of the U. S. A., and Great Britain once again declared that agreement to be null and void."

"What is the matter then?" the Pravda reporter asked.

"The thing is that those who inspire an aggressive policy in the United States and Great Britain do not consider themselves to be interested in agreement and in cooperation with the USSR," Stalin replied.

"What they want is not agreement and cooperation, but talk about agreement and cooperation so as to put the blame on the USSR . . .

"All this is done to 'show' that cooperation with the USSR is impossible, to 'show' the necessity for a new war and thus to prepare the ground for the unleashing of war.

To End In Failure

"The policy of the present leaders of the U. S. A. and Great Britain is a policy of aggression, a policy of unleashing a new war."

After stating that the representatives of the six neutrals on the Security Council — Argentina, China, Canada, Belgium, Colombia and Syria—were "obviously lending their support to a policy of aggression, to a policy of unleashing a new war," Stalin was asked:

"What can all this end in?"

He answered: "It can only end in an ignominious failure on the part of the instigators of a new war. Churchill, the main instigator of a new war, has already managed to deprive himself of the trust of his own nation and of democratic forces through the world. The same fate lies in store for all other instigators of war."

Memory of the last war was still too fresh, he said, for "Churchill's pupils" to set the course for a new war.

The constabulary responded with three platoons including 12 armed tanks and a cavalry outfit. Their weapons included machine guns and teargas. They succeeded in scattering the demonstrators from the streets without using the weapons.

Last Class Of Retail Credit Procedures Is Set Tonight

The Retail Credit Procedures class being held this week in Lubbock will hold its last class meeting tonight at 6:30 o'clock at Lubbock hotel, Mrs. Gladys Workman secretary of the Retail Merchants association, said last night.

Sterling S. Speake, retail credit specialist with the University of Texas extension division, is conducting the classes which began Monday night.

Certificates will be given at tonight's meeting to the 162 store owners, managers, credit department employees and others who have been enrolled in the course, Mrs. Workman said. The course is sponsored jointly by the Retail Merchants association, the Credit Managers club and the Credit Women's club.

Mrs. Workman called attention to the change in time for tonight's meeting. Clases Monday through Thursday met at 7:30 p. m. rather than 6:30 p. m.

Commission Retains Expert; Traffic Ordinance Change Set

and then put back together again.

The upshot of the huddle was the deal for Turner's services at $50 a day for a very tentativelv estimated 16 "man weeks"—a total cost of about $4,800.

Turner reported Thursday that the first few days of his efforts have eliminated two jobs and other operating changes in the electric and water dedpartments which will save an estimated $10,000 a year. The job vacancies resulted from voluntary resignations which will not be filled.

However, the re-action to his employment among a good many city employes in a good many departments has not been favorable. The panicky feeling was acknowledged by some that his retention might be the prelude to a general housecleaning. The possibilities of resentment also brewed from the supposition that Turner might be empowered to re-shuffle personnels and procedures without considering the opinions and wishes of the department heads and others concerned.

Mayor Rodgers gave assurance that such uneasiness is without foundation. No city hall shakeup is contemplated. Turner will recommend and the commission and/or the city manager will act.

But it was the mayor's expressed conviction that economies can be effected which will save many thousands of dollars through a study such as Turner is conducting. Probably no jobs will be abolished immediately. But the expectation is that as many vacancies occur, replacements will be unnecessary because duties can be consolidated by eliminating duplications.

Mayor Rodgers has expressed the opinion on numerous occasions that, with increased efficiency, the city payroll—which now includes about 450 persons—could be cut by as much, or more, than 10 per cent. But his idea as to the cutting is not by wholesale discharges. It would be achieved through the gradual process of not filling many vacancies when employes quit voluntarily.

Turner has been a resident of Lubbock about a year. He has handled numerous assignments in this city and area and, according to the city commission, was recommended highly. He formerly was an industrial engineer with Western Electric co.

Jarvis' promotion to the new position of director of public health was accompanied by expressions of high praise for his services in subordinate posts in that department. He has been a city employe more than seven years. The promotion does not carry with it an immediate increase in his salary of $275 a month, plus the monthly cost of living bonus now amounting to about $86. But members of the commission said that efficient discharge of his increased duties will bring an increase when the city budget for the fiscal year beginning next April 1 is prepared.

Dr. Woods, the new city health officer, has practiced in Lubbock more than 10 years. He is familiar with the duties, having substituted during the several illnesses in recent years of Dr. Rollo.

Dr. Woods is to devote about two hours daily to his duties in the health department. He will receive $250 a month.

The new traffic ordinance approved on first reading contains little that is drastically new. Primarily, it represents a consolidation after several months of research by City Attorney Vaughn Wilson of the traffic regulations which have accumulated during the years.

The most important new provision would require the removal and impounding by police of cars which are left in meter spaces more than 24 hours, which are "abandoned" on city streets, or which block passage-ways.

The recommendation by Commissioner Huffstedler that police be required to study and be prepared to pass an examination on provisions of the ordinance met with approval.

Another ordinance passed on first reading forbids the use of loudspeakers, radios and other noise-makers on sidewalks except by permit. These provisions are included in one of the traffic ordinances which will be supplanted by the new one.

An ordinance which provides for parallel parking on Avenue H between Nineteenth and Twenty-sixth street was passed on final reading.

The request of Pioneer Air Lines for a change in landing fee requirements at Municipal airport was taken under advisement. The landing fee for eight planes daily now averages about $34 per plane per month. The line asked the city to accept either 2 per cent of gross receipts originating in Lubbock of $15 per plane per month, whichever is larger.

The City commission agreed to reimburse the owners of urban Heights subdivision, in extreme south Lubbock near College avenue, for the cost of laying sanitary sewage lines. The owners can get the work done quicker than the city. Reimbursement will be at the cost of the work if done by the city.

Four Displaced Persons To Seek New Lives In Texas

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28. (AP)—Four of the 813 displaced persons arriving from Europe this week will seek new lives in Texas.

The group is the first to be admitted to this country under an act of the last Congress.

Those destined for Texas, as listed by the International Refugee organization:

Antoni Galas, 27, a skilled laborer; his wife, Anna, 27, and their two-year-old son, all natives of Poland; destination, 1931 Harrison St., Amarillo; sponsored by A. E. Herrman of that address.

Frieda Ellberg, 38, Lithuanian, a teacher; destination, 3115 5th St., Port Arthur; sponsored by Louis Mandel of that address.

France is increasing its production of streptomycin and is expected to have output sufficient to meet all medical requirements of the country by next year.

"A good operator, but a trifle nearsighted."

Test Is Planned On Possible New Discovery In Scurry Area

A possible new discovery for production from a lime section in the Pennsylvanian in south-central Scurry county, three and one-half miles southwest of Snyder, has been reported at Magnolia Petroleum company's No. 1 Winston.

This exploration washed the interval at 7,429-42 feet, with 250 gallons of mud acid, through casing perforations.

After most of the acid residue had been swabbed out, the well kicked off and flowed 27 barrels of oil in eight hours through a one-quarter inch tubing choke.

Test Is Planned

The shakeout was 3.8 per cent sediment and two-tenths of one per cent acid water. Operator was continuing to flow to clean out aid test. If the production holds up, an effort will be made to try to finish the venture as the opener of a new producing area.

It is 330 feet from north and west lines of tract 72, Kirkland & Fields survey No. 37. This prospector had water in the Ellenburger between 7,842-7,905 feet.

Skelly Oil company is to drill a wildcat to test the Devonian in central-southwest Andrews county, about 20 miles southwest of the town of Andrdews.

In Undeveloped Area

The project will be Skelly No 1-G Texas University, located 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 34, block 12, University survey. That makes it in the undeveloped region between the Block 12 field, and the west Parker-Devonian pool.

The Skelly project was originally started under a permit to dig to 3,200 feet to try to develop gas production from the Yates sandy lime. It had drilled to 2,975 feet in anhydrite and gyp, at the time this report was prepared, and was to continue to the new destination of 8,700 feet, to explore the Devonian.

Standard Oil company of Texas No. 1 Brown, nine miles northwest of Snyder, in northwest Scurry county, and 1,880 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 440, block 97 H&TC survey, had progressed under 6,147 feet in sand and shale, and was continuing.

No Oil Shows

This exploration drilled through about five feet of oil-bearing sand between 6,132-39 feet. A core at 6,139-47 feet recovered five feet of shale and two and one-half feet of sandy shale. There were no shows of oil or gas in any of the material.

Southern Minerals corporation and Honolulu Oil corporation No 1 Newsome, southeast Terry county wildcat to test the San Andres Permian, about five miles southeast of Brownfield, and 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 47, block T, D&W survey, had reached 5,560 feet in dry lime, and was drilling aheadd.

Up to now it has not logged any shows of petroleum.

Smyer Well Slated

Woodley Petroleum company No. 1 H. A. Watson is to be a 6,100-foot exploration in the undeveloped area in the Smyer region of east-central Hockley county.

It will be 660 feet from north and west lines of section 9, block A, R. M. Thompson survey, and is theree miles northeast of the town of Smyer. That puts it between the original Smyer field, and the recently opened west Smyer field. Drilling will start by November 1, using rotary equipment.

Howell Becomes President Of John Tarleton Aggie College

STEPHENVILLE, Oct. 28. (AP)—Eugene Jody Howell, dean of John Tarleton Agricultural college for three years, yesterday became the school's first president.

He was inaugurated at the college's 50th anniversary celebration. Howell, who has been connected with John Tarleton and Texas A&M college for a quarter century, became president under the recent reorganization of the A&M college system. Previously the dean was the school's head.

Legislation Seen On Juvenile Problems

AUSTIN, Oct. 28. (BS)—The big problem of juvenile delinquency is going to overshadow a lot of political talk in the 51st Legislature.

A meeting of district judges, probation officers, lawyers, social workers and members of the Texas League of Women Voters started bills on the subject rolling toward the next session.

One provides that in all counties having two or more district courts, one such court shall be set up as strictly a juvenile court. The judge will have primary duties in matters involving the welfare of children—including cases of annulment, divorce, dependency, neglect, delinquent, support, custody and adoption.

Where district courts are already overloaded, this will open the way for counties to request establishment of an additional district court, officials of the group explained.

The second bill would be for an appropriation to the Attorney General for recodification of laws dealing with juveniles.

Representatives were present from Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, Corpus Christi, Waco, Amarillo, and Austin.

MOST SOLONS BACK PROGRAM

Additional Funds To Be Asked To Continue Foreign Aid Plan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28. (AP)—Foreign aid officials said today they expect to ask Congress for an extra $1,200,000,000 to carry the Marshall plan through April, May and June of next year.

The $5,055,000,000 appropriation for European recovery will have been exhausted by the end of March—12 months after the program's start—a spokesman for the Economic Co-operation administration reported privately.

Congress voted the recovery money for 15 months, or until the end of the federal fiscal year next June 30, but gave President Truman the power to let ECA use it up in 12 months if necessary.

Majority Back ECA Plan

At ECA it was said the President's formal approval of the 12-month schedule may be asked within the next two weeks.

As early as last August, Mr. Truman said a supplemental appropriation of $1,500,000,000 might be needed for the last three months of the program's first phase.

The ECA spokesman said the new estimate of $1,200,000,000 is as close as the need can be gauged at this minute.

In any event, the prospect of further foreign aid outlays has focused new attention on the attitude of Congress toward next year's Marshall plan appropriation. ECA Administrator Paul G. Hoffman has said that, because of Europe's marked progress thus far, less money may be needed in the second year of what has been projected as a four-year undertaking.

A private weekly report for businessmen, the Marshall plan letter, reported today that 94 per cent of the senators and representatives who answered a news letter poll have adopted a "favorable" position toward the Marshall plan in the election campaign. Replies were reported from 33 states.

Huge Sums Needed

Sixty-one percent said they think next year's regular appropriation should be $4,000,000,000 or more, the news letter said. Of these, eleven per cent answered "whatever needed," 15 per cent said $6,000,000,000, eleven per cent $5,000,000,000 and 24 per cent $4,000,000,000. The replies ranged on down to nothing at all.

The publication noted, however, that the replies to its questionnaires (A) Represent less than a majority of the House and Senate memberships and (B) Indicate that most legislators "will be sharply critical of the effect ERP is having on high prices in this country if they are re-elected."

Fifty-six per cent said they believe the program is contributing to inflation "to a large extent."

These other points were recorded: 62 per cent regard the program as working "fairly well," 24 per cent "very well" and 14 per cent "poorly." Sixty-seven per cent think their constituents approve of ERP, but only nine per cent consider it a major campaign issue.

ECA already has used up more than half of its $4,055,000,000 for direct grants, or gifts. Its lending is behind schedule but officials expect to reach the entire target of $1,000,000,000 in loans before ECA's first year ends next April 1.

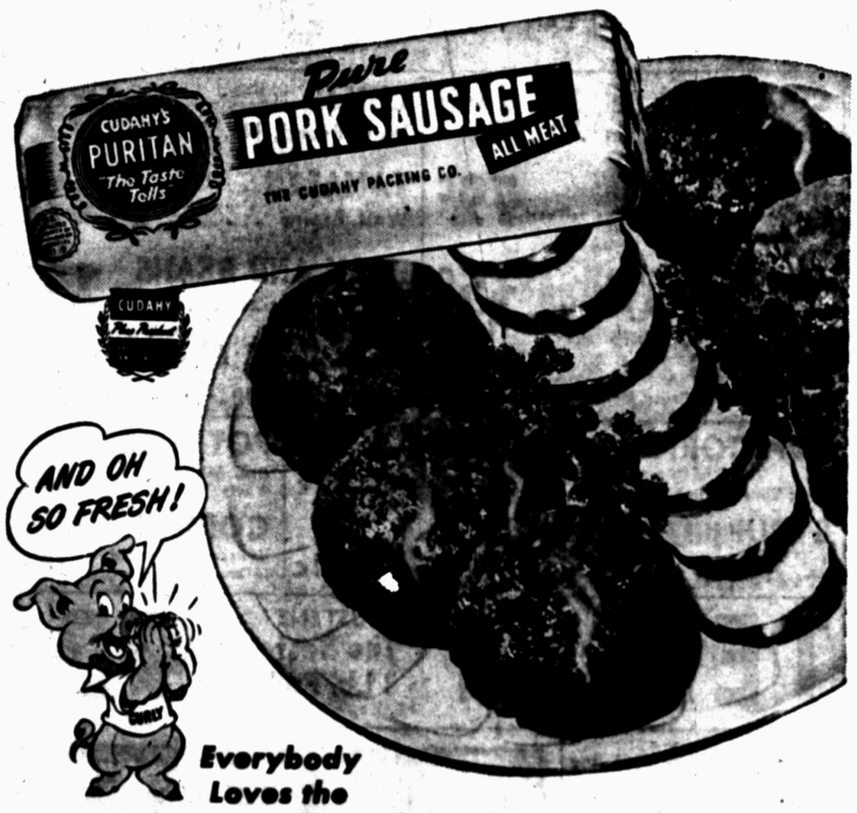

Production at the Fushan coal mine in Mukden, China, is reported declining primarily because of malnutrition of the workers.

Rep. Milton H. West Claimed By Death; Services Set Today

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28. (AP)—Rep. Milton H. West, who had served Texas in Congress since April 1933, died today.

The 60-year-old representative from Texas' 15th district had been suffering for several months from lymphoma, a disease of the lymph glands.

He went to Congress as a successor to John Nance Garner, after Garner was elected 32nd vice President of the United States. West beat six opponents for the place in a special election. He was a Democrat.

Not Seeking Re-election

Because of his health he did not offer for re-election this year. Lloyd M. Bentsen, Jr., of McAllen was nominated by the Democrats to succeed him.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Saturday in the Methodist church at Brownsville, Tex., West's home town.

His body will be taken to Texas in an Army four-engined transport plane. The funeral party, including Mrs. West and Reps. Pickett and Wilson of Texas, will leave here at 7 a. m. (CST) tomorrow, and is expected to arrive in Brownsville about six hours later.

In his younger days West rode the border as a Texas Ranger. He became an attorney, a Texas district attorney, and a state legislator, before running to succeed Garner.

He was a member of the House Ways and Means committee. He won over opposition for re-election in 1934 and 1936. From that year until 1946 he was unopposed.

Backed U. S.-Mexico Pact

The 15th Texas district lies along the Rio Grande, which marks the border between the United States and Mexico. West was a strong supporter of the U. S.-Mexico water treaty which was ratified in November, 1945.

His home was at Brownsville, in the lower Rio Grande valley. He owned a ranch near Mission, also in the valley.

He had one son, Milton H. West, Jr., now a Houston attorney. His wife is the former Temple Worley, daughter of pioneer Matagorda County settlers.

West was born June 30, 1888, in Gonzales county, Tex., son of Milton Crocket West and Pauline Cocke West. He was the great grandson of Claiborne West, a signer of the Texas Declaration of Independence and prominent in the revolution of 1835.

Plans For Boys Club Meet In City Made

Approval of plans to pave that part of Twenty-third street which adjoins Boys' Club property, and of plans for the Texas Area Council of Boys' Clubs of America meeting on Nov. 8 in Lubbock was made at a meeting of the Boys' Club directors Thursday afternoon, John W. Wilson, executive director of the club, announced Thursday night.

Dr. A. W. Young, president, was in charge of the meeting. Other board members in attendance were Harry Morris, Harold Chapman, Don Reeder, Homer Hensley, Dewey Flanagan, Charles Nelson, Kyle Ratisseau, Dr. Marshall Harvey, and John Halsey. Members of the operational board of directors who were present are O. B. Ratliff, Grady Knight, Earl Ince, sr., and Bill Mead.

IN CAPSULE FORM
News Briefs

Regular Sabbath Eve services will be conducted at 8 o'clock tonight at Congregation Shaareth Israel, Twenty-third and Ave. Q, Rabbi Julius Kerman announced. The sermon subject will be "The Story of Creation," based on the first part of the Book of Genesis.

Funeral services for Clyde C. Beene, 52, who died early Thursday morning of a heart attack at his home at 711 Twenty-ninth, will be conducted today at 3:30 p. m. in Rix Funeral chapel. Pallbearers will be Ralph Roberts, Herman Gallyon, Claude Day, Blackie Kimbell, B. F. Fowler and Otis Spear. Burial will be at 3 p. m. Sunday in May Pearl, Tex., cemetery.

Miss Mayme Twyford, associate professor of foods and nutrition at Texas Technological college, received word Thursday morning of the death of her sister, Mrs. John Scott Lantz, of Hagerstown, Md. Miss Twyford will not attend the funeral.

90th Division Association To Meet In Dallas Nov. 12-14

Saint Mihiel, Hindenburg Line, Meuse-Argonne. What do these names mean to you? Falaise Gap, Crossing of the Moselle River, Siegfried Line, Battle of the Bulge, Mainz, Hof. What do they call to mind? These are some of the major battles fought by the famous 90th division in World Wars I and II.

These battles, and others like the Battle of Paris, will be fought again on November 12, 13, and 14, when the 90th Division association will hold its 30th annual reunion at Dallas, with headquarters at the Adolphus hotel.

The 90th division, with more than 75,000 members, is one of the most active of Divisional organizations. Organized immediately after World War I, it has held an annual reunion every year at the Armistice season, and every reunion, even during the recent war years, has been well attended. The Association has published and marketed two histories, one history of the 90th Division activities in World I, and another history of the Division's accomplishments in World War II. It also publishes a newspaper, "The Tough Ombre," a quarterly, at Arlington, Texas.

Power Plant Superintendent To Speak At Tech Meeting

R. T. Nelson, superintendent of the Leon power plant at Eastland, and R. H. Beale, divisional engineer of the Western division of Texas Electric company, will speak to a joint meeting of the Tech chapters of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the American Institute of Electrical Engineers at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the engineering auditorium at Texas Tech.

Nelson will speak on the subject of "Modern Power Plants Compared to Old," and Beale will address the group on "The Young Engineer In the Public Utility Field." Both speakers were acquired through the courtesy of Texas Electric company.

Justice Department Opinion Is Sought
Agreement Reported Reached To End Music Recording Ban

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 — The New York Times said today that record manufacturers have reached agreement with James C. Petrillo's musicians union on major terms of a contract for lifting the music recording ban.

There was no comment from union or company spokesmen.

The ban, imposed by the AFL American Federation of Musicians, has been in effect since Dec. 31 when the old contract between the companies and the union expired.

The Times said the new agreement will be submitted "in the next few days to the Department of Justice for an opinion as to its legality under the Taft-Hartley law."

The law prohibited an arrangement, provided under previous contracts, by which royalties were paid directly to the union's welfare fund on each record sold.

Negotiations for ending the ban broke down last Oct. 12, after a week of talks, but were resumed yesterday.

The Times said the agreement represented a compromise under which the union waived earlier demands that the companies pay royalties on all records sold since the ban has been in effect.

In exchange, the companies agreed to "what was called 'slight increase' in the fees to be paid on records selling at retail of more than $1," the paper said.

ATOM WEAPON WOULD BE USED

U. S.-Soviet War Danger May Depend On Red A-Bomb Views

By KINGSBURY SMITH
European General Manager, INS

PARIS, Oct. 28—Some leading western statesmen are now of the opinion that the danger of war with Russia during the next 12 months depends to a very considerable extent on two factors. These are:

1. Whether the Kremlin rulers realize that if Russia precipitates war, the United States will immediately use the atom bomb to wipe out Soviet industrial centers;

2. Whether the Soviet Politburo understands that the atom bombs which America possesses today are incomparably more destructive than those that were dropped on Japan.

Statesmen Worried

If Premier Joseph Stalin and the other members of the Politburo in Moscow fully comprehend that the answers to these two vital questions are in the affirmative, the western statesmen believe there will be no war.

If, on the other hand, the Soviet leadership underestimates either one of these factors, the danger of war during the coming 12 months may, it is believed, be grave.

What worries the western statesmen is whether the Soviet policy-makers are basing their plans on misleading information concerning the official American attitude in respect to use of the bomb.

Some Soviet diplomats, including the ambassador in Paris, are believed to have been of the opinion some time ago that the American people would be unlikely to support the immediate use of the atom bomb to wipe out Russian cities if war came suddenly.

Would Use A-Bomb

Likewise, it is considered conceivable that the Soviet leaders might think that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, if elected president, would be reluctant to authorize use of the bomb during the initial phase of war with Russia.

If the Kremlin thought the United States would hesitate to use the atom bombs, it is feared the Soviets might be less cautious about risking war in the hope they could conquer Europe and consolidate their conquest before American military might became effective.

This would be a disastrous miscalculation in the opinion of some leading western statesmen with whom the writer has talked.

These statesmen believe the United States military leaders would have no alternative but to use the atom bomb immediately if America became involved in war.

It is taken for granted by these statesmen that the American defense chiefs would recommend such action to whoever was president.

Immediate use of the bomb against Russia would not necessarily save western Europe from being overrun by the Soviet armies.

Would Cripple Industry

Even if Moscow, Leningrad and other Russian industrial centers were wiped out during the first few days of the conflict, western military experts estimate it would take at least two months before the full effect of this crippling of the Soviet war industry would be felt on the fighting fronts.

Nevertheless, the view prevails among western statesmen and military strategists that immediate use of the atom bombs would be the only really effective measure that could be brought to bear against Russia at the beginning of the war.

Hope that the Kremlin rulers do understand that the bomb would be used—and that they appreciate how effective it would prove—has been encouraged by the Soviet attitude at the current meeting of the United Nations General Assembly in Paris.

The almost frantic efforts made by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky to convince the United States of the wisdom of destroying its atom bomb stockpile—and the vehemence of his attacks against the American government for wishing to retain the bomb—is seen as indicative of the Soviet government's anxiety concerning possible use of this weapon against Russia in the event of war.

Vishinsky's hints that Russia also has the bomb have not been taken seriously by the majority of the UN delegates. Most of them doubt that the Soviets would show such concern over American possession of it if Russia also had it.

Texas Farmers, Ranchers Are Prosperous Despite Drouth

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 28. (AP) — Despite one of the most destructive drouths in many years, Texas farmers and ranchers are enjoying unprecedented prosperity, V. N. Johnson, vice-president of the Houston Federal Land bank, declared today.

Johnson and 16 district bank presidents, accompanied by J. R. Isleib, Washington, U. S. land bank commissioner, are holding regional conferences in Texas.

Indication of the prosperity of farmers and ranchers is reflected in the no-foreclosure record of the Texas banks for the last year and a half, Johnson said.

He reported that $230,000,000 Texas loans in 1935 have dwindled to $100,000,000.

Grand Jury Claims Houston Horse Meat Racket Still Exists

HOUSTON, Oct. 28. (UP)—Houston's horse meat racket still exists, the August term of the Harris county grand jury charged in a report made public today.

The body adjourned yesterday, a full day ahead of schedule, after releasing the report to criminal district Judge Langston G. King.

Vote Law Change Urged

The jury also underscored the need for revamping Texas election laws, and claimed certain ficers were "woefully lacking" in Harris county law enforcement of-knowledge pertaining to their jobs.

Of the city's horse meat and sulfite-doctored meat cases, which have already brought numerous indictments to Houston packers and distributors, the jury observed, they only "brought to light the depths to which some humans can sink to make a dollar."

The report specifically recommended legislation assessing heavier penalties for such violations.

Favor Voting Machines

To combat irregularties in balloting, voting machines were suggested. The jury had investigated complaints of J. B. Adoue, precinct judge who claimed absentee voting in his precinct was "irregular" in the last election.

"A dire need for clarification and uniform interpretation of election laws" in Texas is needed, the report read, referring particularly to exemptions, absentee balloting and secrecy of the ballot.

More schooling for police officers "woefully lacking" in knowledge of their jobs was advocated by the grand jury.

Harlingen Nurse Dies From Ambulance Mishap Injuries

ALICE, Oct. 28. (AP)—Mrs. Herman Lynch, a nurse in an ambulance which crashed with a truck in downtown Alice yesterday, died from injuries here last night.

Mrs. Lynch fell out the rear door of the ambulance when it had to make a sudden stop 29 miles north of Alice. She was put back into the ambulance, which sped on toward a hospital here. The second accident occurred at an intersection here. Witnesses reported the ambulance collided head-on with a truck.

Mrs. Lynch, whose home was in Harlingen, had gone to San Antonio with Truitt Shipley, jr., 19, ambulance driver of Mercedes, to get Shipley's mother, who was recovering in a hospital there from an operation. She intended to return her to her home in McAllen.

Shipley and his sister, Patricia Shipley of McAllen, who had gone with him on the ambulance trip, were injured in the second accident.

Two men, Marion I. Keeler of Salina, Kans., and Pete Fuentes of Alice, who had gotten in the ambulance to help after the first accident, also were injured in the crash in Alice.

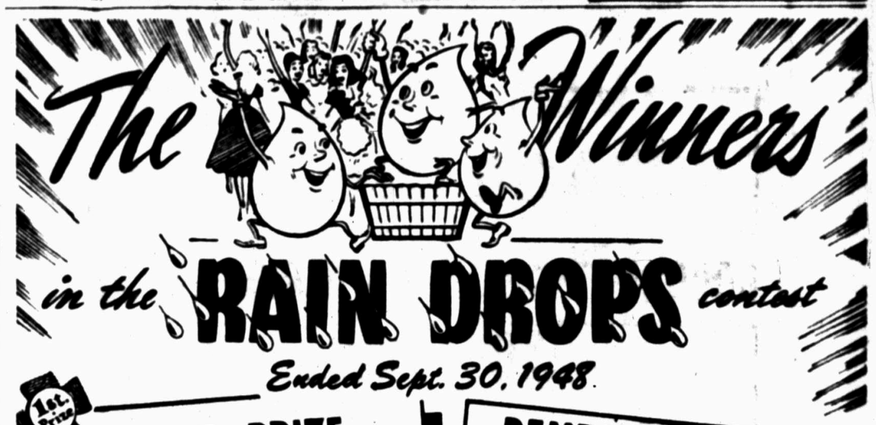

Breeding and rearing reindeer is to be started in Scotland.

American Supreme Commander Favored For North Atlantic Setup

PARIS, Oct. 28 (NS)—The five-power European Western union was reliably reported tonight favoring an American Supreme Commander for the projected North Atlantic military alliance.

The proposed alliance, which would link the U. S., Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, is currently being studied by leaders of the seven powers.

Pending its approval by the next session of the U. S. congress, the European members of the proposed pact are said to concur on the importance of having an American military leader assume the overall command.

Montgomery In Charge

The Supreme commander of the five-power western union is British Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery. It is no secret in European circles that the French were opposed to Montgomery's appointment.

Even at that early stage of the developments, the French wanted an American chief of staff. However, Secretary of State Marshall deterred them, warning that such a move would be premature.

At the moment however, such a French military leader as Gen. Jean Delattre Tassigny feels that it is imperative that a U. S. general assume the overall command.

In the event that such an appointment is made, the British are anxious that a royal Navy admiral receive the command of the combined sea forces.

The French hope to retain command of the European armies, possibly under the leadership of Gen. Alphonse - Pierre Juin, who presently commands French troops in Nort Africa.

There is little doubt that a U. S. Air Force general would assume command of the Air Forces.

In some British quarters the view is held that Secretary of State Marshall might assume the role of Supreme Commander. However, American spokesmen doubt this, in view of Marshall's sincere desire to retire from public life.

In connection with the possible appointment of an American commander, military circles believe the next step would be a standardization of the equipment of all member nations along U. S. lines.

Geological Society To Open Meet Today

MIDLAND, Oct. 28 (Special)—Preliminary reports indicate there will be a registration of around 400 persons for the West Texas Geological Society's 1948 Fall Conference to be held October 29-31, inclusive.

Three trips in the Big Bend area of Texas will be conducted for the group. Green Valley and Paradise Valley will be visited on October 29, Solitario on October 30, and the Davis and Barilla Mountains on October 31.

Final registration was set tonight at the Paisano Hotel in Marfa.

Planning for this conference has been under the general chairmanship of Ronald K. DeFord, formerly of Midland and now on the faculty of the department of geology of the University of Texas at Austin.

Leaders of the tours will be Professor S. S. Goldrich, of the University of Minnesota; Clay Seward, formerly of the Texas Bureau of Economic Geology; Dr. John T. Lonsdale, director of the Texas Bureau of Economic Geology; and Professors G. K. Eifler, jr., and Ronald DeFord, of the department of geology of the University of Texas.

Because of the dire shortage of European trained nurses, native nurses are assisting in European wards of Umtata Hospital, South Africa, as an experiment.

To make a sauce for barbecued spare ribs combine a quarter cup of cider vinegar, a half cup of savory bottled thick brown sauce (the kind usually used as an accompaniment for cold meat or steak), one and a half teaspoons salt and two teaspoons prepared mustard. Pour the liquid mixture over about three pounds of fresh pork ribs and bake in a moderate oven for about an hour and a half. Baste frequently with the sauce, adding a little water at the end of the roasting time if necessary.

Woman Refuses To Discuss Mysterious Fall From Train

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Oct. 28 (NS)—Mrs. Ruth Cooney of Chicago wouldn't say another word today about her fall from a train near Hopkinsvile.

The 32-year-old telephone operator said she was tired of telling the story and declined to answer questions of Christian County Sheriff Lanice Futrell.

Futrell, who called on Mrs. Cooney in Jennie Stuart hospital said the woman told him she had related the story "40 times already" and wasn't going to discuss it again with "anybody."

While she is recovering from cuts and bruises and a fractured left arm, her three-year-old son with whom she had started to journey from Chicago to Atlanta, is safe in Georgia with relatives.

Mrs. Cooney was quoted by physicians as saying she "blacked out" after one drink with a Marine recruit and a Navy man aboard the train and remembered nothing more until she awakened beside the tracks.

The two servicemen, questioned by rail authorities, said she had two drinks and took a walk.

A&M Accounting Department Head To Speak Here Monday

Thomas W. Leland, certified public accountant and head of the department of accounting and business at Texas A. & M., will speak to business students at Texas Technological college and Lubbock accountants at 8 p. m. Monday in the Aggie auditorium. He and his wife will be honored with a dinner preceding the speech, given by the Lubbock chapter of Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Leland is also president of the American Accounting association, editor of the student section of the Journal of Accounting, secretary-treasurer of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants, and a past director of the American Institution of Accountants.

Secretary Forrestal May Ask More Control Over All Armed Forces

By ELTON C. FAY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Secretary of Defense Forrestal may suggest that Congress give his office firmer control over the three armed services in the unified but sometimes quarrelsome military establishment.

This possibility stood out today in the light of two public statements by members of Forrestal's official family—Secretary of the Army Royall and Army Chief of Staff Omar Bradley. Both expressed their views in Navy day speeches.

Royall said at Baltimore "we have found out where unification is not working" and where changes are needed. Then he asserted:

"There is need of unequivocal and authoritative direction and command at the top, and this must be given by statute."

Bradley was more blunt. He said at Des Moines last night:

"If the armed services are to retain the trust and confidence of the American people then they must put an end to their dog-eat-dog contests for a part of the taxpayer's dollar.

"The United States cannot stake its national defense requirements on a popularity contest where glitter, glamor and shrewd public appeal become more important than military judgment. You cannot risk your security to a bout for public favor and congressional indulgence."

Army Not Involved

While Bradley did not single out any individual services, the arguments over missions and sharing in material have been going on since early World War II days, chiefly between the Navy and Air Force. The Army has maintained a neutral, often a peace-making role.

There was no immediate formal comment from Forrestal's office on the Royall or Bradley expressions. However, it was learned that the cabinet officer and his legal advisers have been quietly exploring the question of whether the defense secretary needs somthing more than just authority to "co-ordinate" the activities of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Forrestal tried at two meetings of the top military commanders earlier this year to settle the long wrangle over how much strategic bombing the Navy should be allowed. But his efforts were less than completely successful.

Navy Opposes Plan

Royall's comment on the need for "unequivocal" direction was interpreted in some quarters to mean that he is plugging anew for an idea first advanced by the Army when the unification bill was being drafted in 1945 and 1946.

That idea calls for the appointment of a top chief of the joint chiefs of staff with full authority to rule on arguments in that body. The joint chiefs of staff consist of the commanders of the Army, Navy, Air Force and the chief of staff to the President.

The Navy took a dim view of the suggestion all along. Nor does Forrestal look with favor on it even now, it is understood. Just how he may propose dealing with the situation is not clear at the moment.

The position of chief of staff to the President was created at the direction of the late President Roosevelt.

Congress stepped carefully around the question of whether it should be continued. The national security (unification) act defines the joint chiefs of staff as the military heads of the three services and the chief of staff to the commander-in-chief "if there be one."

There has been only one so far, Admiral William D. Leahy. And Leahy said at Indianapolis yesterday he expects to give up that job this winter, no matter who is elected President.

Thus it will be up to whoever is in the White House to decide whether he wants to pick a successor.

The unofficial story is that Secretary of State George C. Marshall, then Army chief of staff, urged Roosevelt to create the position. Marshall was said to have hoped that the influence of a presidentially-selected, "elder military statesman" would resolve the disputes which even then were delaying or immobilizing vital decisions by the joint chiefs.

Leahy left active naval duty in 1939. In the years between then and July, 1942, when he was appointed to the job, he had served as governor of Puerto Rico and ambassador to France.

PLANT OUTLAY UP

CHICAGO. (U.P.)—Industrial developments in Chicago during September soared to $25,406,000, the greatest monthly total since April, 1947, according to the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry. An association spokesman said plant outlays by steel companies and other large industrial concerns were responsible for the high figure.

Connally Speaks For Democrats

WACO, Oct. 28 (AP) — Senator Tom Connally today appealed to Texans to stand by the Democratic party and its nominees.

"As for myself I shall support the Democratic nominees from President down to the humblest office in Texas," Connally said in a radio speech today. "I believe in party integrity and party solidarity. It is only through our party organization that the masses of the people can make known the policies they advocate."

Connally's only reference to the senatorial race was in his statement:

"In Texas the honorable Beauford Jester is the Democratic nominee for governor and the honorable Lyndon Johnson is the nominee of the Democratic party for U. S. Senator and the Democratic party has made nominations for state and county officers."

To Vote Straight Ticket

He then said he would support the straight Democratic ticket.

Connally said that he was making his speech at the request of the Democratic national committee and the Democratic state executive committee of Texas.

"The Democratic party is standing on its unrivaled record of high public service since 1933," he declared.

"Can you ever forget the gloom and dark bitter days of the Hoover administration?" he asked. "Who was it that dispelled that gloom? Who was it that restored prosperity. Who gave new hope to agriculture, commerce and industry?

"The truth cannot be concealed. You know and I know that it was through Democratic policies and Democratic philosophy.

"Today the nation's income is more than two hundred billion annually. In 1932 it was 38 billion. Farmers, compare your prices; businessmen, look at your books."

Connally said that the Democrats had accomplished great reforms which challenge the Republican party and its candidates He said that Thomas E. Dewey spoke in glittering generalities.

He said also that Dewey claimed credit for the nation's non-partisan foreign policy but that in truth the non-partisan policy was established in the Senate committee on foreign relations "long before Dewey was an unsuccessful candidate for president."

Hotel Space Needed

TWO EVENTS of highly unfavorable implications to Lubbock have occurred recently. A proposed attempt to secure the 1949 convention of the Texas' Manufacturers' association was rejected. The revived semi-annual Western Wholesale Clothing Market, although highly successful, was much smaller than it could have been. Inadequate hotel accommodations were the reason in each case.

The manufacturers' convention would have included among its several hundred visitors men who might be interested in establishing plants in this area if they could see for themselves what it has to offer. The number of visitors to the clothing market from the trading area, which is the cornerstone of Lubbock prosperity, unquestionably was reduced by the inability to secure hotel reservations.

Prior to 1940, Lubbock was one of the busiest convention cities in Texas. During several years, we entertained more convention visitors per capita than any city in the state. They represented thousands of dollars of business. Of more importance, they symbolized opportunities. Many flourishing businesses in Lubbock have resulted from convention visits by men who previously had not appreciated the potentialities here.

The provision of more adequate hotel accommodations undoubtedly would cost a great deal. But the two recent events, illustrative of many, emphasize that the lack of such facilities also is expensive. They suggest that this city may be guilty of a penny-wise-pound-foolish lethargy in not making more insistent efforts to provide more and better hotel accommodations.

Two-Edged Sword

A NORTH Atlantic defense alliance, including Canada and the United States, is sure to encounter vigorous American opposition if urged under terms endorsed by the five-nation Western European union this week.

Immediately apparent objections to the scheme as now proposed are twofold. First, the United States and Canada would "underwrite" the cost of arming all member nations — which means Uncle Sam would pay practically the whole thing. And second, it would commit the United States to joining in resistance to an attack not only by Russia, but probably also would require our entry into any other conflicts in which the European union might become involved. These might include wars to preserve the huge colonial empires of four of the European members—Britain, France, Belgium and Holland. Luxemburg is the fifth member of the European union.

However, an alliance of the nations suggested has much to commend it, provided the limitations are specific as to the obligations assumed by the United States. Something acceptable and beneficial to all concerned, with specific reference to increased security from Russia, probably can and should be worked out when the nations involved go into their huddle.

Down Memory Lane

(From the files of The Lubbock Morning Avalanche of Oct. 29, 1928.)

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murfee was the scene of a Hallowe'en party for members of the Girl Reserves at the high school, with Miss Mae Murfee, organization sponsor, as hostess. Those present were Ruby Dean, Margarette Bruckner, Dena Perkins, Melba Mae Tatom, Lena Perkins, Priscilla Watson, Elaine Henry, Vera King, Zelma Cates, Lorane Caldwell, Audrey Peveto, Marie Price, Emma Lee Whittington, Sybil Cope, Marie James, Mrs. R. T. Groves, Annie Lorea Butler, Florence Ednice Barrett, Lennie Bounds, Opal McClellan, Ona McClellan, Jewell Halbert, Ella Chapman, Waltrude Rogers, Willie B. Cloninger, Martha Alice Penny, Ada Ruth May, Margaret Green, Eulala Henderson, Ethel Vera Murfee, Ethel Lawson, Mary Beth Sheely, and Inez Hensley.

(THE STORY: Dying in the Indian desert, British secret agent Hilary Shenstone feels a desperate need to get back to England and to Nuns Farthing, his family home. He doesn't know the house has been let and that dreamy, 17-year-old Sabrina, whom he has never met, has adopted his old room and eagerly awaits his return. Hilary does return to England and to Nuns Farthing—after death. When he sees Sabrina, he realizes she is the girl he would have loved if he had lived. Hilary's room is locked after George, his brother, brings word of his death. Sabrina broods until Mrs. Pilton, the housekeeper, unlocks the room again for her. Sabrina knows then that Hilary has come home.)

GRADUALLY it dawned on Aunt Effie that Sabrina was using the room again, and that it must be with Mrs. Pilton's consent.

For a few days she hoped she was wrong, pretended not to notice, put off bringing the matter up. One night, quite late, when Sabrina supposedly had gone to bed, she remembered that she had left her gardening shears and basket out in the dew at the edge of the border and ran out to fetch them in. As she returned to the house she saw a line of light between the curtains of the room at the top of the house, and she made up her mind to take a firm stand. If Sabrina was up there at this hour, reading . . .

She went into the house and climbed the stairs, Bella pattering at her heels. Sabrina's room was lighted behind a closed door, but Aunt Effie passed it by and came to the second flight. There Bella balked.

"Come, Bella," Aunt Effie insisted, but Bella made odd small noises in her throat and stayed where she was.

Aunt Effie felt a little queer. The lights were certainly on, and so the door must have been unlocked. Gathering herself together, she went on up the stairs, laid her hand on the knob and opened the door.

"Sabrina?" she said uncertainly.

The brightly lighted room was empty.

Hilary had had time to lay down his book and retreat to the farthest corner by the chest of drawers when he heard her coming.

Aunt Effie gazed about her unhappily for a moment, and then found the master switch near the door and pressed it. She closed the door hastily and hastily descended the stairs to the passage, where Bella welcomed her as though she had returned from the North Pole.

FOR once oblivious of the little dog, Aunt Effie went to Sabrina's door, knocked, and put her head in. Sabrina was reading in bed, and turned a smiling, innocent face towards her visitor.

"Hello, Auntie," she said. "Going to bed now?"

Aunt Effie glanced behind her into the passage and then spoke in a lowered voice.

"Sabrina—when were you in that room last?"

With only an instant's hesitation, Sabrina told the truth.

"This afternoon."

"Before dark?"

"Yes, Auntie."

"But I have just found all the lights on up there."

With only an instant's hesitation, Sabrina tried to lie.

"Oh, yes—I did run up for just a minute on my way to bed—to make sure I'd put my book back, I mean. I must have left them on then."

It was very tiresome of Hilary to have given himself away like that.

Aunt Effie was not wholly satisfied—there was the matter of Bella—but she went on down to the living room and found her needlework in its embroidered bag with wooden handles. Then she rang the bell, and settled herself in an armchair under a lamp.

It was Jennie who answered the bell.

"Please tell Mrs. Pilton I want to speak to her," said Aunt Effie.

IN a few minutes the housekeeper stood before her in the lamplight, composed and inscrutable as always.

'Did you give my niece the key to that room upstairs?" Aunt Effie began, rather obliquely.

"Yes, I did. I knew it was the only way to stop her fretting."

"But you knew it was against my wishes."

"I hoped you might, overlook that if you saw a change for the better in her."

"I'm afraid I can't afford to overlook it. The day Mr. Shenstone was here and I learned—learned of his brother's death," pursued Aunt Effie with difficulty, "I decided that it would be better for the child — healthier — if she was not allowed to enter the room again. I don't feel it's natural!" Aunt Effie was uncomfortably aware of a brief flicker in the woman's eyes. "Do you?" she insisted.

"That's hard to say," Mrs. Pilton said cautiously. "It might be."

"Mrs. Pilton—have you ever felt there's something — well, something strange about this house lately?"

"Most houses have something strange about them, one way or another," was all Mrs. Pilton would say to that.

"Then you admit there is something! Do you know what it is?"

"It's nothing to be afraid of, I'm sure," said Mrs. Pilton, and it was almost as though she had smiled.

Aunt Effie stared at her anxiously, her needlework forgotten.

"But how do you know that? What is It?"

"It might be someone who once lived in the house—and has come home again," the woman replied simply, but Aunt Effie rose from her chair with a little cry of comprehension and horror.

"The one who was killed in India! But this is awful!" cried Aunt Effie. "I must take her away at once!"

Looking At Life - - By Erich Brandeis

IT CERTAINLY is quite a dilemma when you can't make up your mind whether to write a column about love or wallpaper.

What has one got to do with the other?

Nothing.

But it's writing time, so I have to decide what to write about. Then I go to my memoranda and look—and I write about whatever subjects fits my particular mood, hoping that it will fit yours, too, when you read it.

It is a very bleak day and when I woke up this morning, the wallpaper in my bedroom annoyed me.

As a matter of fact, it had annoyed my wife, too, so she went out and got herself three of those enormous sample books that the wallpaper people put out.

But before I get back to wallpaper, let me tell you about that clipping on love, which I had intended to write about but shall not, as least not on this bleak day.

It tells about a psychiatrist with the intriguing name of Dr. O. Spurgeon English, who told the 100th anniversary meeting of the Pennsylvania Medical Society that one of the chief troubles with the world is that it "regards love as nearly a luxury if not a sin" and that "nearly everybody is starved for love."

So you see, it is LOVE that is the matter with the world and not, as we all thought, RUSSIA. That is, of course, if dear old Spurgeon English is correct.

So now that we have solved the main trouble-problem of the world, let us get back to wallpaper.

As I told you, we are tired of our bedroom wallpaper, just as thousands of others are probably tired of looking at the same old design year after year.

So we decided to have the room repapered.

We have now looked at several hundred samples and we have not yet been able to agree on any one of them.

But we are agreed on one point: It is about time that the wallpaper manufacturers got busy on some more interesting designs than those same old flowers and scrolls and stripes they have been putting out for more than a century.

THERE is a new idea, of course. And that really brought on this column.

It is a group of "abstract" papers, designed by some San Francisco artists and now on display in New York.

These new papers, in my opinion, are guaranteed to drive anybody crazy. I have not seen them yet, but here is a little description:

"Vertebrate Mass. A pattern of primitive life forms in stark black on white."

"Doodles made during a long confusing conference. A linear pattern called Minutes of the Last Meeting."

"Counterpoint. Thin and heavy brush stokes over a striped background."

Now comes the most important part of the description:

"These papers will retail from $7 to $12 a roll."

Tomorrow we are going to a wallpaper store in Bridgeport.

They are advertising "the newest in wallpapers, $25c a roll."

REDS TO BUY MOVIES

Films May Be Wedge

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Hollywood's roving ambassador, Eric A. Johnston, may have driven a wider breach in the "iron curtain" than the Foreign Ministers of the Allied powers — Marshall, Bevin and Schuman — have been able to make in their clashes and conferences with Stalin and Molotov since the end of World War II.

"The "Picture of America," as unrolled on the screen and told on the sound track, may exert a more disillusioning effect upon Moscow's subject peoples in Europe and the Balkans and at home than the State Department's "Voice of America."

TUCKER

As head of the Motion Picture Association of America, Inc., Mr. Johnston has just negotiated agreements under which our films will be exhibited in Russia and Yugoslavia, the only "iron curtain" countries where they have not been shown since before the recent conflict. High officials here believe that there could be no stronger or more factual argument for the superiority of the capitalistic over the communistic way of life.

LURE: The Russians are not trying to do us a favor in permitting the exhibition of movies which will portray our high standards of living—automobiles, telephones, bathtubs, electric lights, electrified or mechanical kitchens, good clothing and plenty of food, albeit high-priced, even in the garages and homes of workingmen.

They have broken down the bars only because they need our films to drag their people into theaters which will also show ideological and pro-Soviet pictures. In the past not even free tickets and free transportation could lure comrades to see these dull and ponderous screen tracts on the invisible blessings of the Sovietized state.

REACTIONS: Mr. Johnston believes that he has fixed safeguards against the possibility that Russia's and Yugoslavia's movie czars will select only pictures which will show the unpleasant aspect of American society, industry and politics.

But even if his Muscovite counterparts attempt to distort the films, his inquiries convince him that they cannot succeed. Here are a few examples of "iron curtain" audiences' reactions:

One of the last American films shown inside Russia was "Grapes of Wrath," and it was distributed in an attempt to depict the U. S. as a decadent nation on the brink of economic collapse.

But the startled theater-goers were impressed chiefly by the fact that the "oakies" and "Arkies" travelled around the country freely and "in their own automobiles." The unimaginative Commissars never anticipated such a response.

SHOES: One of the last news reels exhibited had shots of Detroit police breaking up strike riots during the administration of Justice Frank Murphy, then Governor. They were supposed to convince Soviet audiences of the brutality of American capitalists. But the comrades' comments were:

"Look! In America they don't shoot the workers; they just knock them down! And look at the fine shoes and clothing even the strikers are wearing!"

The showing of "How Green Is My Valley," which told the story of a strike in Wales, had a curious reaction. Stalin's subjugated folk were astonished that workers could strike in such a capitalistic country as England, and even more astounded that such a subject could be made into a movie for general distribution there and here.

DELETION: Under the Johnston-Molotov-Tito pacts, the Johnston organization will submit 100 films to the two governments, and they may select twenty for exhibition. If they cannot agree upon twenty from the first batch, another 100 will be forwarded for their perusal.

Their censors may delete but not add anything to the American product. But every foreign nation has the right of deletion so that certain shots will not offend native sensibilities. In the Scandinavian countries, for instance, no picture showing even the remotest form of cruelty to animals may be exhibited, and they use the scissors with respect to the mere suggestion of mistreatment, although it be depicted for condemnatory purposes.

Presumably, no gangster pictures or even "westerns" will be shipped overseas lest they be used so as to paint the U. S. as murderous or barbarous. On the other hand there must be caution in selection of "high society" films for fear they give the impression that a few industrial, social or political Commissars over here are living on the fat of the land, while the "proletariat" perishes.

TRADE: It will admittedly be difficult to police the Russians' treatment of selected films. But our diplomatic and consular personnel at Moscow, Odessa and Vladivostok will probably keep an eye on the pictures as screened, and warn Hollywood. The current contracts are for one year, but they can be cancelled forthwith if there is any violation of their provisions.

The Soviet's selections will also give Washinton and Hollywood some sign as to the Politburo's thoughts and fears and plans. It may be instructive for us to learn what aspect of the "decadent democracy" they are anxious or willing to permit their people to see.

It has frequently been said that "Trade now follows the film instead of the flag, Gary Cooper instead of Harry Truman." So, there is an outside chance that these pictures may stimulate a demand for the American gadgets and goods which they advertise.

We don't see what made the early American Indians so savage. They didn't have any taxes to pay.

Another way to make a middleage man mad is for a strange youth to stop him and ask, "say, dad, you got a match?"

People like to put off the unpleasant things of life, says a writer. Yes, like taking the family on a picnic.

A woman doesn't believe in the futility of argument. She has won too many of them from her husband.

If you are able to accumulate enough dirt to make it go around 300 pages, the chances are you have a best seller.

An old-timer is not really one until he begins to take pride when someone refers to him as an old-timer.

A man doesn't grow soft in the school of hard knocks.

FUTURE POLICIES TO DECIDE

GOP Has Opportunity In South

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Does the Republican party have a future in the South? Is the South finally ripe for a real two-party system as a result of the split among southern Democrats this year?

Those questions, this reporter found on a recent pre-election tour in the South, are being discussed earnestly, seriously, and hopefully by Southerners generally, both Democrats and Republicans.

STOKES

There are plenty of Republicans by political belief in the South who have voted Democratic regularly in the past because it is the tradition of the community and they conformed for social and business reasons. Many of this type are breaking away this year. They will stay away and align themselves openly with the Republican party if that party becomes a respectable, responsible party in the South in the hands of responsible leaders.

Has Great Chance

Everywhere this reporter went in the South he asked questions about Republican prospects in the South. Invariably the answer came back that, in the first instance, it is up to Governor Thomas E. Dewey. He has a great opportunity and southern leaders hope he will capitalize upon it as Herbert Hoover was unable to do on the previous occasion in 1928 when Republicans broke into the Solid South in a presidential election.

Mr. Dewey's avenue would lie through his appointive power as President. His success will depend on how far he can go, or will go, to give the Republican party in the South the leadership of able and respected men and women, instead of the hacks who hitherto, in some cases though by no means in all, were content to eke out a political livelihood at the patronage counter and in swapping small favors and were ready to bargain off delegates every four years at national conventions.

Federal jobs are plentiful in these days of big government, far more numerous than at the disposal of any previous Republican regime. The problem may be to find enough Republicans in the South of the quality desired to fill them. Governor Dewey will be urged, where such a shortage exists, to appoint capable and respected Democrats. That, it is argued, also would mean good-will in those communities, though this sort of practice always goes against the grain of practical politicians.

Already there are signs of a Dewey new deal in the South springing from the New Yorker's triumph at the convention over Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio who formerly was powerful in southern politics through an Old Guard Republican kind of organization. Substitution of new leaders with more modern viewpoint in Tennessee and Georgia, as related previously in these dispatches about the South, indicates a transformation of type, technique and philosophy.

New Policy Seen

Southern Republicans with whom the Republican problem in the South was discussed envisage the new southern Republican party as espousing a more progressive social and economy policy akin to that of Governor Dewey.

On civil rights there will be moderation to adjust more nearly to southern traditions. Emphasis will be on education for the negro, improvement of his economic status, and complete freedom to vote and participate in political organization. Other more controversial phases of the civil rights program will be soft-pedaled or dropped.

Some Republican leaders in the south, as well as democratic, see a natural sphere of action for the party in the "good government" issue. One prominent Democratic leader in Louisiana, who is himself engaged in a fight against the Earl Long faction there, expressed the view that Republicans could very well join in the anti-Long movement. In Tennessee Republicans have been active against the Boss Ed Crump machine in Memphis that took a beating in the primary this year. In Georgia there is Talmadgeism which offers a target not only on the anti-machine issue but also on the civil rights issue because of the announced objective of the Talmadge forces to re-institute the "white primary" in some form.

If Republicans act boldly and with initiative and imagination they can find many such issues. This is especially true in a section which is ready for civic reform because of the enervating one-party system with its factions, appeals to prejudice and frequent corruption.

Of course what happens to the States' Righters also will have a bearing on what happens to the Republicans and this will be discussed here subsequently.

Hugh Miller, schoolboy on vacation on the Isle of Mull, off Scotland, fought off a huge shark for an hour with a boathook, while the farmer who had taken him out fishing rowed frantically for shore, after the fish had attacked the 15-foot boat.

Korean Revolt Blamed On Reds, Laxity Of Occupation Forces

SEOUL, Oct. 28. (U.P.) — The South Korean rebellion — which caused an estimated 2,000 deaths — was blamed by Premier Lee Bum Suk today on north Korean Communists an dthe laxity of the American occupation forces.

The premier of the infant American-sponsored republic said the revolt was "deliberately synchronized with an application for United Nations recognition by the Russian puppet government of North Korea."

The Korean premier made his statement in Seoul after a two-day inspection of the fighting fronts in southwestern Korea where the "terroristic activity of Communists and the laxity of the

The revolt was said by Korean officials to have started in Yosu with a mutiny in a constabulary battalion.

Lee Bum Suk said the American occupation, which administered the recruiting of the constabulary, had "ignored" government warnings that many north Korean "refugees" were enlisting.

The premier insisted that the revolt, which spread from Yosu to several neighboring cities, was directed and controlled from the Soviet-controlled north Korea regime.

As the insurrection sputtered out in scattered resistance in the Chiri mountains northeast of Yosu, President Syngman Rhee called upon his subjects for unity.

Call For Peace Made

He urged his people to drop their daggers and guns and work for the rehabilitation of the country. Rhee said:

"I have experienced fighting for recovery of a lost nation both home and abroad under Japanese domination for 40 years but I have never seen bloodshed among my own people.

"But bygones are bygones. We must realize that we are . . . a peace loving and war-despising people."

Dallas Woman Rescues Husband In Fight With Lone Robber

DALLAS, Oct. 28 (INS) — When Dallas cafe operator Nick Strattin was held up by a masked gunman in the front yard of his home. Mrs. Strattin came to the rescue.

He had reached home one night recently, when the would-be robber stepped from the bushes and said "this is a stickup." Strattin grappled with the bandit and yelled for his wife. Mrs. Strattin came running with a shotgun and hit the gunman over the head until she broke the stock.

The dazed bandit fell to the ground, and pointing his pistol at Mrs. Strattin threatened: "I'll shoot you."

Ostrich Doesn't Stick His Head In Sand, Professor Says

AUSTIN, Oct. 28 (INS) — Don't be telling Junior that ostrichs stick their heads in sand. It isn't so.

That's what Dr. O. P. Breland, University of Texas zoology professor says. The professor has written a book for laymen called "Animal Facts and Fallacies."

Stupid as the ostrich is, he does not stick his head in the sand, when in danger. He actts just like any other animal, Dr. Breland says.

New Gaines County Oil Field Discovered

A new oil field from the Devonian structure apparently has been discovered in south-central Gaines county at No. 1 Hawkins of Shell Oil company, Inc., 15 miles south of Seminole.

That prospector had a recovery of 4,700 feet, or 59 barrels of clean oil during a one-hour drillstem test at 10,272-10,328 feet. That zone is understood to have covered all of the Devanian lime and chert which had been penetrated up to the time the test was run.

Operator was preparing to drill ahead. There was no water or other fluid recovered with the oil.

This discovery is about 15 miles east of the nearest Devonian production, which is at a well in southwest Gaines county completed several months ago by the Texas company, Humble Oil and Refining company and Ralph Lowe at their No. 1 Jenkins.

The Shell development is 1,983 feet from north and 665 feet from east lines of section 8, block A-23, psl survey. It is two and one-half miles southwest of the Robertson field, which gets its oil from the Permian lime above 7,000 feet.

This venture originally was started to test to around 12,500 feet to try to find and explore the Ellenburger.

Operator representatives have not revealed whether that objective will be continued, or if the project will attempt to complete from the section which has already shown for commercial production.

Dallas Operator Is Fined For Selling Chemical-Treated Meat

DALLAS, Oct. 28 (U.P.) — M. L. Howell, an independent Dallas meat operator, pleaded guilty to a charge to selling sulfite-treated meat and was fined $100 and costs today.

Assistant District Attorney Paul New filed the charge against Howell early this morning, and the defendant appeared in Judge Joe Brown's county criminal court a few minutes later with his plea.

Two other Dallas meat wholesalers have pleaded guilty to similar charges during the past two weeks and have received the same fines.

Assistant District Attorney Grundy Williams said he and state health inspectors were preparing "several" more cases against Dallas dealers for filing.

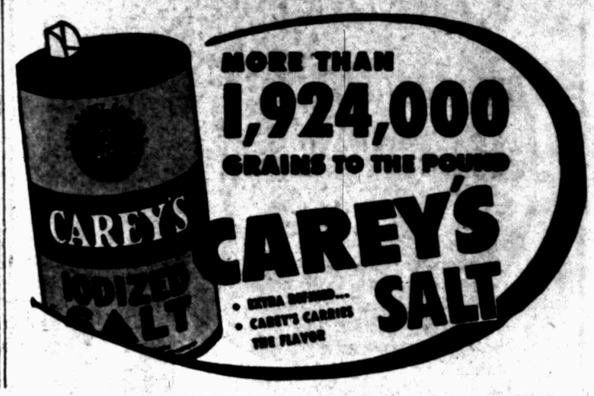

Health inspectors and District Attorney Will Wilson have filed a total of 20 cases in the current drive against sulfite-treated meat.

Two Oak Cliff meat wholesalers, Roy Richardson and W. E. McKissack, have pleaded guilty to charges.

The other 17 cases were expected to be heard in court.

The United States Army is buying about 1,218,000 pounds of dressed turkeys from Argentina this year, and nearly 905,000 pounds will go to Germany and the rest to the Philippines.

Explanation Of Constitutional Amendments Given

Amendment No. 2, Redistricting Measure, Would Aid West Texas

By H. L. KIEFER
Avalanche Staff Writer

Those in doubt as to the explanations of the proposals in the eight constitutional amendments upon which Texans are to vote next Tuesday have no cause for embarrassment. A search for explanations and opinions among so-called experts —lawyers, tax officials and others—revealed that they, on the whole, are about as poorly informed as the average John Q. Citizen.

This will attempt a thumb-nail explanation of the propositions. Five are of unquestionable merit. Four of these seem sure of approval. The others are in more controversial categories. One of these gives the deceptive impression of being a tax reduction measure. It isn't. It more likely would add to the total tax burden, if approved. This is the proposal to abolish the state ad valorem tax—the seventh among those listed on the ballot.

Redistricting Plan Backed

By far the most important, and most deserving, of the amendments is the second in listing. This would guarantee the regular redistricting of the state so as to insure equal representation in the Legislature. The Constitution commands the Legislature to do this job after each federal census. The Legislature has ignored this duty for nearly 20 years. Legislative representation now is based on the Texas population as shown by the 1920 census. If this amendment is approved, the Legislature will have the first chance to redistrict. If it fails to do so, a commission will do the job.

The amendment has the declared support of every newspaper of importance in the State, of practically all organization which has resolved on the subject, and of most important officials and citizens who have expressed an opinion.

Heavy Vote Needed

This would indicate a certainty of approval of the redistricting amendment. But do not be deceived. The quiet opposition is considerable. The areas which benefit from the present arrangement are sure to pile up a big vote against the amendment.

The best way to insure its approval is to get out and vote for it. It is not sure of passage—not by a long shot.

Now let's look at the amendments which have stirred little debate.

The first on the ballot would make county employes eligible for workmen's compensation. They aren't eligible for this protection now, and an amendment is necessary to correct this condition. It would protect the workmen. It would protect the counties against such possibilities as heavy losses in damage suits. The cost would be negligible—less than $100 a year in most counties.

The third amendment would place the stamp of constitutional legality on the practice now followed of allowing husbands and wives to file separate income tax reports on community income. This means a saving of many millions of dollars a year to Texans. If it is not approved, the possibility of those savings may be wiped out.

Succession Plan Included

The fourth sets up the line of succession if a governor-elect should die or become disqualified before taking office. Nothing of this kind ever has happened in Texas. It may happen at any time, and is sure to happen sooner or later. This is a precaution against the confusion and controversy which might occur, if and when it should happen.

The sixth amendment provides for the payment of sheriffs and other county law enforcement officers on a salary rather than a fee basis. In many Texas counties of smaller population, these officers now rely for all or a large part of their incomes on the number of persons who are arrested and fined. This amendment would correc that condition for all time.

Now let's look at the amendments of more debatable merit.

The fifth on the ballot would exempt homesteads from state taxation up to an assessed valuation of $3,000. This is linked closely with the seventh amendment, which would abolish the state ad valorem taxes for general fund purposes, which now is 30 cents on the $100 of assessed valuation.

In addition to this 30 cents, the state does and will continue to levy taxes for other purposes. This year those additional taxes are 42 cents on the $100 of assessed valuation. If Amendment No. 5, is approved, homesteads up to $3,000 will continue to receive exemption on that 42-cent tax. If the amendment is defeated—and opinions are divided on this interpretation—the consensus is that the $3,000 exemption will be abolished.

Seventh Amendment Hit

The most questionable as to merit of the amendments is the Executive Board To Hold Business Sessions In City

Tech Alumni Group Meets Today

Several proposed changes to the chapter and by-laws of the Alumni and Ex-Students association of Texas Technological college and other business will be considered by the executive board of the organization at two meetings today.

The board will meet for luncheon at 1 p. m. in Hilton hotel and will attend a business meeting afterward in the Aztec room. It will convene again at 4:45 p. m. in the Aggie Memorial auditorium on the campus, following the Westerners-Sandies football game.

The two meetings will be held so the board can dispense with the big amount of business scheduled for consideration before a breakfast meeting of the council of the association at 8 o'clock Saturday morning in the Navajo room at Hilton hotel.

One proposed change ipvolves change in name of the association, which will be considered by the board as result of comments to several board members that the name might be shorter.

Would Involve Amendment

Preliminary indications have not been given of the opinion of the majority. If such a change should be approved by the board, it would be presented to the council, governing body of the association which will meet Saturday morning. Such a change would involve amendment to the charter and could be made by the executive board without vote by the council, but assurance was given from the Alumni and Ex-Students association office that "If they want a change, it will be presented to the council."

No single name has been proposed to replace that of Alumni and Ex-Students association. The Texas A. & M. college alumni and ex-students organization is named Former Students association. Former students of some colleges are organized under the name Association of Alumni.

To Discuss Objectives

Primary objects of the next year which will be discussed by the board include the setting up of mechanics whereby more persons would contribute to the Texas Tech Loyalty fund, which has been set up within the last year to maintain the association and benefit the college, said D. M. McElroy, executive secretary of the association.

Another leading objective will be the establishment of more local chapters. A goal of 30 chapters by May, 1949 has been set.

Executive Board Members

Members of the executive board are Guy Carter, Dallas, president; Hurley Carpenter, Lubbock, first vice president; Miss Harriette Williford, Dallas, second vice president, and Fred Rollins of El Paso, Vestal Askew of Sonora, Robert J. (Red) Huff of San Antonio and D. M. McElroy of Lubbock, directors.

The council is made up of 63 members, including past presidents of the Alumni and Ex-Students association; representatives from

KINGS AND QUEENS TO BE NAMED

Hallowe'en Carnivals Will Be Staged In City Schools Tonight

Carnivals will be conducted in eight elementary schools of the city tonight in observance of Hallowe'en and programs will include a wide vaviety of events ranging from boxing matches to pitching rings around the necks of live ducks.

In most of the schools conducting carnivals, a queen or a king and queen will be crowned.

The money that the children, their parents and friends spend for hot dogs, or to take part in games of skill, to see movies which will be shown in several schools or to witness or take part in other carnival features will return to them in varied forms.

Parent-Teacher associations will sponsor the carnivals and will use the money to help with various projects in the schools. The proceeds will buy library books in some schools, will pay for "black-out" curtains to promote visual aids instruction in one school and will be used for other needs.

A queen will be selected from six candidates at George R. Bean carnival and her coronation at 9 p. m. will highlight the entertainment. She will select her escort. Candidates, the losing five to serve as princesses, are Sandra Harris, first grade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Harris of Lubbock route 4; Shannon Hancock, second grade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Hancock, 1519 Twenty-sixth; Jimmie Sue Belcher, third grade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Belcher of 3001 Ave. L; Patsy Baker, fourth grade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Baker of route 6; Denevee Turner, fifth grade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ceil Turner of 1510 Thirty-first, and Darlene Rhoten, sixth grade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Rhoten of 1305 Twenty-ninth.

Attendants of the princesses will be Donnie Richards, first grade; Jerry Holt, second grade; Ronnie Brown, third grade; Dale Hood, fourth grade; Bob Hancock, fifth grade, and Bobby Finley, sixth grade. Herald will be T. A. Poole, jr., and crown bearer will be Georgene Oatman.

Homemade cakes and candy, hot dogs and drinks will be sold in the school cafeteria, beginning at 6:30 p. m. During the evening, each room is to sponsor amusements, including various games of skill, a house of horrors and a fortune telling booth.

At the newly named P. F. Brown school, formerly Thirty-sixth street school, the carnival will open with selling of food at 6 p. m. At 8 p. m., Bill Henderson, who has been flyweight champion of the Texas Golden Gloves tournament the last two years, will appear in a boxing match with an opponent from Foster's gymnasium, which also will send a team of weight lifters and a team of tumblers. Several little boys' matches will be conducted, with O. J. Sexton as referee.

New Hearing Is Asked For Duty

A new trial motion was filed Thursday afternoon by counsel for Hildred Milton Duty, 28, who two days earlier had been sentenced to serve seven years in the penitentiary for murder.

The motion, filed by Robert Porter and Grady West, charged, among other objections, that Judge Dan Blair of the 72nd district court erred in:

Objections Made

Allowing the jury panel in a capital case to be summoned by post card; and

Allowing District Attorney Lloyd Croslin to give evidence into the record of what purported to be a "dying declaration" of the late James W. Hickman, 55, of 2701 Thirtieth, who was fatally shot by Duty the night of July 19 in 1000-block Ave. J.

The defense objected that proper predicated was not laid by the state to establish Hickman's apprehension of death at the time he gave the district attorney from a hospital bed his version of the shooting and of incidents that allegedly led up to it.

Porter said he probably would ask leave of the court later to amend the new trial motion.

He said he had discussed with Judge Blair the possibilities of Duty's entering into recognizance with the court.

Denton Clergyman To Speak At Tech

Rev. Joseph J. Copeland, pastor of the Oak and Bolivar street Presbyterian church at Denton, is to be visiting speaker during religious emphasis week at Texas Tech college, starting next Monday, it was announced yesterday.

The week, sponsored by the Student Religious council at the college, is to have as its theme "Jesus' Way Our Way," and will include four night addresses by the visiting minister.

Monday night's topic is to be "Jesus' Way Our Way in the World," and others on the same theme were announced as "Tuesday night, "Jesus' Way Our Way in My Vocation"; Wednesday night, "Jesus' Way Our Way In My Relationship With My Fellowmen"; and Thursday night, "Jesus' Way Our Way in My Personal Living."

Meetings will be held at 7:30 o'clock each night in the Recreation hall on the campus, and although the week is planned primarily for college students, an invitation was extended to the public to attend any or all of the services.

A joint morning watch, with all churches and faiths participating, is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock each morning of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Widely known in church circles, the visiting minister has addressed similar meetings at Trinity university, Oklahoma State College for Women, and the University of Texas.

JUDGING GETS UNDERWAY

More Than 4,500 Attend First Day Opening Of Gaines Fair

SEMINOLE, Oct. 28 (Special)—More than 4,500 visitors attended the opening of the first annual Gaines county fair here today despite a threat of rain. The event will run two more days, closing Saturday night.

The gates opened at 10:30 a. m. and the exhibits and midway were crowded until closing time tonight. Special interest was shown in commercial exhibits sponsored by local merchants and in livestock and swine.

Judging Is Started

Fair officials reported that the opening day crowd was far above expectations, and that they were highly pleased with the fine quality of the exhibits. The fair is being held in the new county buildings.

Judging in textile, agriculture, needlework, art and culinary exhibits started today. Winners probably will be announced Friday.

Livestock and swine judging will be held Friday, with dairy cattle and kid pony judging Saturday. Livestock and swine exhibits were reported far above average.

Highlight of the fair Saturday will be a free barbecue sponsored by the fair association. Saturday afternoon a permanent fair organization will be formed with the naming of officers. L. G. Daugherty, Seminole banker, now heads the organization.

Absentee Voting For Nov. 2 Ends Today

County Clerk Louie F. Moore announced Thursday that absentee voting in the Nov. 2 general election will close at 5 p. m. today, when the office ends its working day.

Since absentee voting started Oct. 13, and up to 4:45 p.m. Thursday, 210 ballots had been mailed and 148 voted in person, a clerk in Moore's office reported.

Unusual Field Notes Disclose Humor Of Old Time Surveyors

AUSTIN, Oct. 28. (NS)—Surveying in Texas in the rough and rugged days of the past must have been an interesting profession, carried on by men with no shortage of humor.

This was indicated clearly recently in Austin before the annual short course and conference of Texas licensed land surveyors.

Ray Wisdom of the engineering staff of the General Land Office of Texas presented a number of unusual field notes which have been brought to light in the old files of the land office.

Many Old Markers Used

For example, there is a file which outlines a survey which gave the course and distance to a "buffalo head set in the ground, a sardine can containing some small rocks buried in the ground with a whiskey jug marked in one corner."

In McMullen County, there is a survey which says that a stick set in a petrified rock marks one corner.

The field notes on another interesting survey of an eight league grant calls for the grant to be bounded by grants of "Don Jose Foleres and on the west by 3 leagues and on the east by nothing."

In surveying the Reynosa town tract in 1667 under the crown of Spain, all hills, creeks, and lakes were named and dedicated to some living person or saint. Early Mexican surveyors engaged to make the survey of other adjacent tracts in Texas used a simplified form of surveying, which was designed to accomplish this task with more ease and convenience than possible accuracy.

Burro Rule Used

In fact, it had an appeal to a lazy man in a broiling South Texas sun. The method was simply for the surveyor to back his pony up to a beginning point and head in the general direction of north, jabbing his spurs in the sides of his caballo, thereby inducing a steady trot. Each time the pony's right front foot hit the ground, the surveyor called it a "vara" and for every such hundred events, the surveyor tied a knot in the raw hide string he carried. Without too much effort he had made a survey that a lot of surveyors today would fuss around over for some time.

There are a number of instances in which such surveys have been resurveyed in later years with mechanical instruments at a degree of accuracy which was astounding.

Trinity Unpredictable

There has been a lot of work done in flood control in Dallas county. The following notes made in 1850 by a pioneer Texas surveyor show that the Trinity river has always been an unpredictable stream.

For example, the memorandum notes show that on "June 9th, it rained. June 10th, rained harder, June 11th, it was still raining. June 12th the surveying party was water bound. June 13th, still water bound. June 14th, still water bound and water rising so rapidly that it was necessary to abandon camp and make an escape through a thicket with night as black as pitch."

Notes concluded with this, "that on June 15th, we killed a bear and found a bee tree."

Jewelry shipped from France to the United States in the first six months of this year was valued at $2,664,313.

Cong. Mahon Warns Nation Must Remain Alert To Foreign Threat

Fear of the type which keeps us awake to the need of remaining strong during critical times was termed a healthful fear by Cong. George H. Mahon in an address on American foreign policy at the Kiwanis club luncheon in Hotel Lubbock Thursday.

Mahon called this a time to be alert to dangers, because another war depends on the success or failure of broad principles underlying the Truman Doctrine and the Marshall plan, which he called the instruments by which the Anglicized world is seeking to fight back the rapid tide of Communism.

Parties Agree On Policy

Asserting that all major political parties are in full agreement on the broad principles of American foreign policy, the congressman said these questions and the answers to them far outweigh the outcome of elections or party policies.

Mahon described U. S. foreign policy as complicated and confusing in detail of operation and execution, but said the broad outline is simple. This he said was a plan to help other freedom-loving nations get on their feet, so they can be in position to help us defeat the rising tide of Russian theories.

He cited the billions of dollars being spent by this nation in all phases of the fight, but believes that the government's 40 billion dollars in annual outlay of money is insignificant when compared to the cost in human lives and in dollars in event of another war.

Truman Doctrine Significant

Mahon said the Truman Doctrine, enunciated last year, is becoming more important than the Monroe Doctrine. He said the essence of this doctrine is that the U. S. be of assistance to those nations seeking to thwart outside aggression. He then discussed the Marshall plan, and said that although much money is being spent thereby, the U. S. is spending $2 at home for every $1 spent abroad in order to maintain strenth sufficient to be in position to talk to Russia in terms of force, the only language they understand.

The congressman sees considerable progress in the recovery of western Europe. He described Germany as the industrial heart of that part of the world, and said that western Germany, which is under American and British control, is the industrial heart of Germany. He added, therefore, that we cannot afford to let Russia take over control in western Germany, key to almost the whole of Europe.

Mahon was introduced by James H. Goodman, program chairman. New members formally inducted were Rev. Hubert H Bratcher, Wm. L. Ducker, and Dr. Henry A. Spivey. Club President L. E. Davis was in the chair, with invocation by Dr. H. I. Robinson, a visitor.

Several Persons Are Injured In Auto Accidents In, Near City

Mrs. Retta Sharp, 66, suffered a fractured right arm and chipped hip bone when struck by a half-ton Ford truck while crossing the Idalou highway near her home in Flake addition about 8:30 a. m. Thursday.

An investigating highway patrolman said the truck, driven by Chester Loyd Gilbreath, 26, an Idalou farmer, was traveling at about 40 miles per hour when Mrs. Sharp started across the highway ahead. Gilbreath braked the truck, but as it slid at an angle the right rear section struck the woman.

Charges Not Expected

Mrs. Sharp was taken by Ed Moore, Idalou road service station operator, to West Texas hospital, where an attending physician later reported her condition as satisfactory.

The patrolman investigating the accident said charges probably would not be filed.

Another traffic accident, involving four vehicles, also occurred on the Lubbock-Idalou road Thursday morning, but no one was seriously injured. It happened at 7:45 a. m., on the east side of the hill on East Broadway, highway patrolmen reported.

Accident Described

A 1939 Dodge coupe, driven by Buford Franklin Clemmer, 32, of Lubbock, attempted to pass a heavy International truck driven by Robert Franklin Fisher, 25, of Lubbock route 1, as both vehicles drove west. When the truck was braked, it jack-knifed, forcing Clemmer to steer his coupe to the left, where it collided with a jeep driven by William Zachary Butler, 3520 Ave. Q. At the same time, the rear section of the skidding truck hit the left rear fender of a 1941 Ford convertible driven by Clayton J. Sawyers, 22, of Lubbock.

Butler, the driver of the jeep, was taken by Rix Funeral home ambulance to West Texas hospital, where he was treated for minor cuts and bruises.

Two Slightly Injured

Two youths were reported injured slightly in Thursday morning mishaps within the city.

Joe Messler, 15, of 318 Temple suffered a foot injury when a motor scooter on which he was a passenger slid into a car Charles R. Taylor, 25, of 2305 Sixth had stopped in a traffic line at Ninth and Ave. T. The car driver was not blamed, police indicated. The scooter was driven by Dale Tucker, 16, also of 318 Temple. W. H. Verner, radio patrolman of police, said.

Young Messler was taken by Bryan McDonald and Sons ambulance to Lubbock Memorial for examination.

Police said Raymond Mackey, 17, of 2413 Thirty-eighth, suffered only a skinned knuckle when his engine-powered bike was in collision at Tenth and Ave. H with a car driven by Ed Stevenson of 3305 Ave. N.

An International Aeronautical Show will be held in Paris next spring.

Amendments

seventh. It arouses the suspicion that it contains a hidden "gimmick" of some kind. A casual reading would suggest that it is a tax reduction amendment. Definitely, it isn't. More probably, it would boost the tax burden.

This amendment merely would transfer from the state to the counties the authorization to levy additional taxes amounting to 30 cents on the $100. The counties would be restricted largely, if not entirely, to the use of such additional money for rural roads.

There are two basic reasons for the suspicion that the proposition would raise, rather than lower, tax costs.

The first is that the state rarely levies this full 30-cent tax. It won't be levied as long as the state treasury retains a healthy surplus — now amounting to more than $80,000,000. In brief, the state isn't likely to levy all, if any, of this tax, even if authorized to do so. The individual counties might, if given the chance. Some undoubtedly would.

The second reason is proved by experience. If the Legislature ever should need the revenues, now amounting to about $15,000,000 a year, lost because of this amendment, it would raise or create new taxes to make up the difference. In effect, this amendment would raise the maximum taxing authority by 30 cents. Sooner or later, the maximum would be levied.

The eighth and last amendment would provide for the "retirement and compensation"—meaning pensions—of judges and commissioners of the apellate courts and of judges of district and criminal district courts.

One argument for this amendment is that the affected judges now are ineligible for social security or other old age protection. A related argument is that the amendment might raise the quality of the judiciary by giving the jobs the added attraction of old age security.

Among arguments against it are these: (1) It would add to the tax burden; (2), continuing efforts to extend social security protection to public officials and employes, including judges, eventually will succeed; (3), the descrimination of singling out a relatively few judges for this protection without equal provision for the hundreds, or thousands, of public "servants" who also are ineligible for social security; and (4), the precedent which would be represented by propping the door open a little wider for pensions for ex-public employes. This thing could grow into proportions which would add enormously to the tax burden.

Spain's campaign to halt inflation by eliminating speculation and curbing the black market is reported to have been successful.

Mistrial Is Declared In Civil Action Here

A 99th district petit jury reported about 4:30 p. m. Thursday that it had been unable to answer the single special issue referred to it in the civil action of Citizens State Bank, of Slaton, against Raymond L. Fletcher.

Judge G. V. Pardue declared a mistrial.

The jury was asked to find whether the bank on April 22, in cashing a war savings bond, series E, had paid Fletcher $702 more than the cash surrender value of the bond as of that date.

The jury was made up of James Burrough, J. H. McCagren, Denman Morgan, Jimmie Wilson, Winston Reeves, H. C. Morris, A. A. O'Briant, J. E. Reid, Dan E. Moore, C. O. Bain, H. Y. Rhodes, and Ed Allen, jr.

Nat D. Heaton represented the bank, the firm of Bradley, Key and Kimmel the defendant.

New Fifth Army Chief Believes Soviets Anxious To Avoid War

CHICAGO, Oct. 28. (INS)—Lt. Gen. Stephen J. Chamberlin, new Fifth Army commander, expressed belief today that the Russians are just as anxious to prevent war as the United States.

But he warned that danger of war in western Europe lies in the possibility of an "incident" between Soviet and American forces.

U.S. C-C FIGHTS RED MENACE

America Is Urged To Convince Russia Of Internal Strength

By ALLAN J. FUNCH
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The U. S. Chamber of Commerce asserted today the way to world peace is to convince Russia the U. S. is neither "going Communist" nor can successfully be infiltrated by Communists.

In its continuing series of reports on the Red menace to the United States, the chamber laid down a "program for community anti-Communist action" at the local level.

The chamber thus joined the U. S. Office of Education in a nationwide campaign to uncover cities, towns and rural areas which are potential "breeding grounds for Communism."

Teacher Shortage Blamed

The education office sounded a warning that the present teacher shortage has increased the threat of Communism both in and out of the nation's schools. One official pointed out:

"The extent to which schools have had to rely on poorly trained teachers has contributed to a poorer educational performance.

"Students not well grounded in the principles of Democracy are more likely to be influenced by Communism, as well as all the other evils.

The chamber of commerce said that "American Communists, having found new resistance at top levels—in government, unions, the press and other means of communication — have received instructions to work more directly on the masses of the people at the local level."

The chamber asserted:

"Communism threatens all of us—our homes, our jobs, our security—and will only be met if Americans in every community make this their personal job."

The chamber points out that Communism "is not a progressive movement or an advanced economic system or an ideal," and continues:

"Once the Communists come to understand that America is neither 'going Communist' nor that it can be successfully infiltrated by agents of a foreign power, we believe that the prospect of improved international relations will increase and the Soviet leaders will abandon their plans for economic and political penetration throughout the world."

The chamber suggested the "minute men of today" should fight the Communist menace in four directions:

1. Learn why Communism is a menace and tell others.
2. Get together with neighbors and friends to "do something" about Communism in your community.
3. Form committees and start community action.
4. Set up state and national anti-Communist programs.

Permian Basin Group To Meet In Odessa Nov. 20

MIDLAND, Oct. 28. (Special)—The annual meeting of the Permian Basin chapter of the American Petroleum Institute will be held November 20 at the Ector County auditorium in Odessa.

Election of officers to head the organization for 1949 will be the only business to be transacted at the meeting.

$1,000 Reward Is Posted In Murder Of Beaumont Woman

SILSBEE, Oct. 28. (U.P.)—The reward for information about the murderers of attractive Mrs. Eloise Twitchell jumped to $1,000 today, as Texas Rangers and police announced they had made little progress in the case.

Hardin county Sheriff A. D. Lindsey and the county commissioners court added $500 to the $500 reward posted yesterday by Gov. Beauford H. Jester for any light that might be shed on one of South-east Texas' most brutal murders.

The body of the 32-year-old Beaumont housewife was found Oct. 4 in a thicket near Kountze, a week after she disappeared while driving from Beaumont to her mother's home in Colmsneil. The car was found near Houston.

DDT Discoverer Gets Nobel Prize

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 28. (AP) — The discoverer of DDT won the 1948 Nobel prize for medicine tonight.

The Carolina Institute, the university of medicine in Stockholm, chose Dr. Paul Mueller of Basel, Switzerland, as the winner of an award set aside for services to humanity. He will receive 159,772 crowns (about $44,000).

One of the members of the award panel described Dr. Mueller's discovery of the insecticide DDT as one of "inestimable value for the benefit of humanity," thus reflecting the principles in the will of the late Alfred Nobel, which provided for Nobel prizes.

Used During War

Millions of Allied soldiers were helped in the last war by the insect-killing dichloro-difenyl-trichloroethane. It was used by British and American armies to prevent the spread of insect-borne diseases.

Dr. Mueller, 48, made the discovery during a series of experiments in the Basel laboratories in the Geigy drug industries.

The Nobel prizes in literature, chemistry and physics will be awarded Nov. 4 in Stockholm.

Actually, after Mueller had completed his experiments it was found a German student had synthesized DDT in 1874, but did not put it to any practical use. It remained for Dr. Mueller to discover the insect-killing qualities of the compound. Thus, he is sometimes referred to as the "rediscoverer" of DDT.

Anthropologists To Study Love Making In Scotland

CAMBRIDGE, England, Oct. 28. (AP)—Four Cambridge university anthropologists are going to spend a year in Buckhaven, Scotland, to find out how the Scots make love.

Their survey of Buckhaven's social psychology, undertaken for the medical research council, will include a study of courtship habits. Their interest, it was said, will be strictly academic.

A new telephone appartus installed in an automobile from which long-distance calls can be made while the car is in motion was shown recently in Lausanne, Switzerland.

Beaumont Woman Is Claimed By Death

BEAUMONT, Oct. 28. (AP)—Mrs. Kathryn Mapes, 66, who had been president of The Enterprise company and publisher of the Beaumont Journal and Enterprise since her husband's death 12 years ago, died at her home here this morning.

Mrs. Mapes had been in ill health for several years, but death came unexpectedly. The attending physician said she suffered acute heart failure. She was talking with members of her family when she was stricken.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 3 p. m. at the Beaumont First Methodist church. Burial will be in Magnolia cemetery in Beaumont.

Mrs. Mapes came with her husband, the late J. L. Mapes, to Beaumont in 1903. They both took positions on the newspaper, he in the circulation department.

Together, they acquired the newspaper in 1924, 12 years before Mr. Mapes' death.

She is survived by three nieces, Mrs. Clyde Randall, who came here from Phoenix City, Ala., several months ago to be with her; Mrs. E. B. McDonald and Mrs. W. B. Miller, also of Phoenix City.

The Enterprise company also operates radio Station KRIC here.

10,000 AFL Union Packing House Workers Get Pay Hike

CHICAGO, Oct. 28. (INS)—A four-cent wage increase was announced in Chicago today for nearly 10,000 AFL union members employed by six independent meat packers.

Signing of the agreement was announced by the AFL Amalgamated Meat Packers and Butcher Workmen's union and followed a similar wage increase granted last week by two of the "big four" meat packers, Swift & Co., and Wilson & Co.

Today's agreement covers 1,880 butchers employed at nine plants of the Chicago Packers association; 1,000 employes at the Hunter Packing Co., East St. Louis, Ill.; 1,800 employes at the Dubuque (Ia.) Packing Co., 2,300 workers at the J. Morrell & Co., Sioux Falls, S. D., and 2,400 employes of Kingham Co., plants in Storm Lake, Ia., Orangeburg, S. C., Richmond, Va., and Bartow, Fla.

Texas GI's Estate Awarded $82,000 Feb Subway Mishap

NEW YORK, Oct. 28. (AP)—The estate of a 23-year-old Texas GI accidentally killed in a subway tunnel four years ago was awarded $82,000 in a verdict disclosed today.

The soldier, Leonard Ray Phillips of Sherman, Texas, was found lying on the subway tracks Oct. 20, 1944.

Counsel for his estate at the state supreme court trial said Phillips apparently fell from a station platform, struck his head and "wandered in a daze into the tunnel where he was run down by a train." The estate sued New York City for $100,000.

Phillips was married and the father of a six-year-old son. Tattoed on his left arm, when his body was found, was the inscription: "Born to lose."

"CANNONBALL" OVERCOME

BREMEN, Ind. (AP)—The cannon at the Breme fair boomed and the crowd watched expectantly for the "human cannonball" inside to shoot through the air into a net 185 feet away. Minutes later, attendants found Hugo Zacchini unconscious inside the cannon. They said he was overcome by powder fumes. The charge wasn't powerful enough to lift him into the air.

BID FOR TEXAS' ELECTORAL VOTES STEPPED UP

Gov. Thurmond Makes Blistering Attack On HST, Dewey As States' Rights Group Pushes Campaign

FORT WORTH, Oct. 28 (AP) — Presidential Candidate J. Strom Thurmond said tonight that every vote cast for the States' Rights Democrats "will be a testimonial that America does not want the mis-named civil rights program of Truman, Dewey and Wallace."

"Those who want to resist this program may do so only by voting the States' Rights Democratic ticket," the South Carolina governor said in a speech prepared for delivery here.

The States' Rights candidate is making a three day swing into Texas in his party's bid for the state's 23 electoral votes. He entered the state at Texarkana last night and campaigned in a motor procession today through Clarksville, Paris, and the Denton-Gainesville-Bonham area before coming to Fort Worth.

Thurmond said here that Republican presidential candidate Tom Dewey "hand-picked the man who wrote the FEPC bill now pending in the Senate."

"Senator Ives of New York wrote that bill, and whether he knew it or not, it is patterned after a law forced upon Soviet Russia by Stalin in 1920," he added.

Thurmond said "the same Governor Dewey who is sponsoring the FEPC is the man who bitterly fought the efforts of southern governors to set aside the practice of charging as much as 39 percent more to move freight out of the South than out of the North. He was our worst opponent in our struggle to get fair freight rates so that more industry would come south.

Anti-Segregation Hit

"At the time, Dewey said it was to the best interests of northern industry to maintain unfair freight rates. Of course it was. You cannot get new industry to move to Texas, if they are going to have to pay 39 per cent more to move goods, as Dewey insists they must."

"We shall tell them with our votes," Thurmond said, "that we will not yield our state control of elections and voting qualifications to an anti-poll tax bill, which would open the way to federal control of the manner in which we choose our own representatives in Congress.

"We will not yield our control of state courts and state laws to an anti-lynching bill which uses the horrors of an almost non-existent crime as a pretext to turn state laws into federal laws.

Meadow Youth Completes Basic Marine Instruction

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Oct. 28 (Special)—Pfc. Rayford A. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Williams of Meadow, Texas, recently completed his basic Marine instruction at the Marine Corps Recruit depot, San Diego, California.

The Meadow Leatherneck finished ten weeks of intensive training under the supervision of veteran Marine non-commissioned officers especially trained for this work.

After graduation Williams was promoted to the rank of private first class. He is now to be transferred to a new duty station, as yet unnamed.

Youthful American Ambassador Impressed By Denmark As Member Of Good Will Group

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—American diplomats are not always dignified gentlemen in stiff collars and top hats.

Some of our ambassadors, like pert-faced Barbara Hall of Ithaca, N. Y., never saw the inside of an embassy and know protocol only as a three-syllable word used by the State Department.

Barbara, a 26-year-old radio script writer, has just returned from a summer in Copenhagen, Denmark, as one of 255 young people who made up "operation good will," sponsored by the Experiment for International Living.

The Experiment was started shortly after World War I by a veteran of that war, Donald B. Watt of Putney, Vt., who believed international understanding could get a boost on the ground level, the family. His idea was to send people from America to live in the homes of foreign families, and in turn to bring some of their youth to this country.

New Yorkers Go

This year six up-state New York communities got on on the Experiment for the first time and sent representatives. Barbara went abroad on funds raised by Ithaca's Community Service Council, a young people's organization.

It took $700 to cover plane and ship passage, cost of food, and her share of recreation costs after she arrived at the Danish home selected by the Experiment. Miss Hall furnished her own wardrobe.

Barbara spent three months with a fairly well-to-do family in Copenhagen. The family included a 23-year-old actress who's playing in a fairly recent Broadway hit, "Dear Ruth."

Barbara said that at first she was hesitant about having an actress in her adopted family.

"I expected to find temperament, a lavish wardrobe, and the other luxuries we usually associate with stage and screen stars," Barbara said. Instead, the actress helped with the family marketing, and did her own clothes shopping, getting along with what one can purchase on the ration coupons still in use.

Gives Up Clothes

Barbara said that as a result she came back to America with a sorely-depleted wardrobe. She gave her "adopted" sister many of her clothes including a favorite suit.

"So," said Barbara, "I go see Beirgit one night in 'Dear Ruth' . . . and there goes my suit walking across the stage."

Barbara said the Danes she met have a bad case of war jitters. Recently she said a flight of unidentified bombers soared over Copenhagen and scared the city out of its wits. People rushed into the streets expecting, not bombs, but leaflets saying the Russians were occupying the city. That was the technique used by Hitler in 1940, she said.

Barbara said her overseas junket helped her to understand the problems of at least one group of people and that she's all for international relations on a family level. But she wishes America could send "community emissaries" to Russia.

WAA Expects Lively Bidding For Eight Frame Cottages

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 28 (INS)—War Assets administration regional officials, a bit bored from selling everything imaginable in the way of surplus war property, are viewing with renewed interest a sale to be conducted in San Antonio.

The property involved is a group of eight frame cottages located on the site of the Kelly field hospital, which is being offered on a sealed bid basis this week. Taking the housing shortage and the fact that this is the first time the southwest WAA will market residence homes into consideration, officials are anticipating some hot bidding.

Federal, state and local governments have until Oct. 26 to make priority claims, while former owners, veterans, and non-profit institutions have until Jan. 19 to exercise their rights, in the order named.

For sale are four room houses with bath, two five room houses and two with six rooms. The only drawback is that the new owners will have to disconnect the utilities from Kelly field outlets and re-connect with commercial service.

Official records of the proceedings of meetings were originally called minutes because they were recorded in minute or small writing, and later transcribed in a larger hand.

Twelve Month School Term Under Study For Texas

AUSTIN, Oct. 28 (INS) — The State Department of Education may find itself picketed by Texas school kids any day now.

Words out that the department is talking of making every day a school day by eliminating the summer vacation. In a department bulletin, a proponent of the idea says the need for a 12-month school is evident.

Noted Doctor Dies Of Rheumatic Fever

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 28. (U.P.)—Dr. Horace G. Smithy, 35, died today of rheumatic fever and other complications before the "miracle" heart operation he perfected for sufferers of the malady could be used on him.

Smithy contracted rheumatic fever in childhood. It left him with a weakened heart but his condition became critical only a few weeks ago when the brilliant young surgeon was put to bed with pneumonia.

Doctors worked day and night to strengthen Smithy enough so he could withstand the shock of the delicate heart operation he discovered. But pneumonia and a cardiac asthma condition that developed during his sickness continued to pull down his ebbing strength.

Before he became ill, Smithy was making plans to have another surgeon perform the heart operation on him.

Henry Ford's Personal Estate Is Valued At $5,159,104

DETROIT, Oct. 28. (U.P.)—The personal estate of the late Henry Ford, one of the world's richest men, was valued today at $5,159,104.07, exclusive of stocks in the Ford Motor company.

Mrs. Clara B. Ford, widow of the automobile magnate, set the value in her first inventory report filed since she was named as executrix in her husband's will.

In the last inventory, announced April 7, 1947, the Ford estate was valued at $28,398,143.57, exclusive of A and B stocks in the Ford company and of real and personal property outside of Michigan.

However, Ford's personal estate includes 286,099 shares of class A stock and 95,321 shares of class B stock.

No exact valuation has been set on the stock, but taxes have been paid at an arbitrarily fixed evaluation of $100 per share. If $100 were the true valuation of the stock, Ford's estate would be worth $43,301,104.

Ford, upon his death April 7, 1947, willed most of his personal belongings to his widow. He left control of the vast Ford Motor company to his family, headed by Henry Ford II, a grandson.

To prevent sale of long-warehoused merchandise, Mexican canners now must stamp the date of manufacture on all canned goods.

Famous 'Lady Or The Tiger' To Be Made Into Movie; Crawford May Get New Story

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
INS Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 28.—Frank Stockton's famous "Lady Or The Tiger," written 40 years ago and read by almost every school boy and girl in America, is headed for the movies. Of course the story is in public domain, but this will be a modern version.

Don't think for a minute that Roy Del Ruth, who will produce the Stockton classic, got it free for nothing. He paid Anthony Coldewey $25,000 for his adaptation.

Roy says he will spend $1,750,000 to do right by the Stockton tale, and he would love to have Jack Carson for one of the fliers. You see how modern it is with fliers and all. The lady in the case is the same Indian princess named Alya.

Another Top Thriller

Joan Crawford is spending her vacation in New York and while she's there she will see Phoebe and Henry Ephron who are writing an original story with a New York background for her. Jerry Wald had the idea and suggested it to the Ephrons for Joan.

"Flamingo Road" was shot in seven weeks and according to someone who saw the movie, it is another "Mildred Pierce," with all the vigor and excitement.

Mike Curtiz surprised everybody on the Warner lot by making "Flamingo Road" in the shortest time he's ever filmed a movie. Both he and Joan think David Brian, the new boy, did a great job.

Well, what do you know! cartoonist George McManus, my old friend and colleague, is going to be starred in a movie story of his own life.

George, of course, is the beloved creator of "Bringing Up Father," and lately he had been playing a small role in "Jiggs And Maggie In Court" for Monogram. He turned out to be such a swell actor that producer Barney Gerard is now writing an original screenplay for George to be called "Bringing Up McManus."

Eagle Pass Butcher Awarded Coast Guard Life Saving Medal

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28. (AP)—His rescue of two youths from Rio Grande flood waters has won the Coast Guard's silver life saving medal for Joe Moncada, 52-year-old butcher at Eagle Pass, Texas.

Announcement of the award was made today through the office of Rep. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex). Formal presentation of the medal will be made later, the exact time and place yet to be determined.

Moncada swam through a raging current last June 24 to save two youths stranded on a sand bar which was rapidly being covered by rising waters.

In the past 30 years, he has been credited with saving numerous persons as a result of his remarkable swimming prowess. His feats were brought to the government's attention by Johnson and two Texas lawyers here in the Justice department, David Hume of Eagle Pass and James Kilday of San Antonio. The Coast Guard issued the award because of its jurisdiction over border waters.

SURPLUS SALE SET

HOUSTON, Oct. 28. (U.P.)—Some $150,000 worth of war surplus goods will be disposed of in a final sale by the Houston War Assets administration office, it was announced today. The sale will start Nov. 3, and will mark the closing of the Houston WAA warehouse.

Grain

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 28 (AP)—Grains recovered partly from a mid-day sinking spell on the board of trade today. Most contracts did not get back to the previous close, however, and the market's tone remained easy and nervous through to the close.

Rains in the Texas Panhandle and predictions of light showers in other sections of the western plains depressed wheat, particularly 1949 crop deliveries. Corn sagged on arrival of 542 cars of the grain here and a drop of around 2 to 6 cents in cash prices.

Wheat closed 1 cent lower to ⅝ higher. December $2.29 ½-⅝, corn was ½-⅞ lower. December $1.39 ⅛-1.39, oats were unchanged to ⅛ lower, December 78 ⅛.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Oct. 28 (AP) — Wheat No. 1 hard, 2.42-45.
Oats No. 2 white 96 ½-97 ½.
Corn No. 2 white 1.78-.98.
Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo, per 100 lbs 2.63-68.

30 of the 31 state senatorial districts, all except district 15; a representative from the 13 local chapters of the association; officers of the senior class, and the president of the junior class. Officers, will be elected by the council.

Most of the business coming before the executive board at prehomecoming meetings goes before the council. Several amendments to the by-laws, although not changes in the charter, must be approved by the council before adoption.

Amendments Considered

Amendments to by-laws to be considered are:

Change in manner of selecting representatives to the council from chapters, providing that the president of the chapter would be the representative or, if he were unable to attend council meeting, that he would appoint a representative. (Such a provision would replace the arrangement for election of representatives and has been proposed because some chapters meet only twice a year and sometimes do not elect a representative at a meeting which occurs several months before homecoming.)

Increase in the executive board membership from seven to nine members, so the immediate past president and the representative to the athletic council might become board members. (In event of approval of that change, another amendment would be necessary to change the quorum from four to five members.)

Change in by-laws to provide for one athletic representative to the athletic council, since only one is allowed although the by-laws specify two shall be selected.

Deadline Changes Up

Changes in manner of specifying deadlines related to election of council members, the proposed changes providing that nominations be made 120 days prior to the annual meeting, that ballots be published 90 days prior to the annual meeting, and that ballots be submitted to the teller committee 60 days before the annual meeting. By-laws now specify months, providing, for instance, that nominations be made in January or February. Those months were specified on basis of an annual meeting at time of commencement and the annual meeting is held at homecoming.)

Official designation of the Texas Tech Loyalty fund as the agency for solicitation of funds to maintain the association and benefit the college.

Amendments to the charter to be considered, in addition to proposed change of name, would provide for election of directors by the council, as already provided in by-laws; and would change the charter's reference to graduates as active members and ex-students as associate members, making ex-students full members whether or not they are graduates.

The board is to hear a report on a plan whereby ex-students would help encourage outstanding high school students, including athletes, to attend Texas Tech.

Past presidents and the year they served are Ned Camp, 1927; E. M. Barnett, 1928; C. W. Ratliff, 1929; Ethridge Eagan, 1930; J. W. Jackson, 1931; W. E. Street, 1932; John E. Speer, 1933; Mart Pederson, 1934; J. Doyle Settle, 1935; Holmes Webb, 1936; Jason Gordon, 1937; Fred Fairley, 1938; Marshall Formby, 1939; Raymond Lee John, 1940; Lloyd Croslin, 1941; Royal Ferguson, 1942-44; and Elmer Tarbox, 1946.

Representatives elected in August to the council from senatorial districts, the district, and the town they are from are: Lawrence Coyne, district 1, Linden; Charles Pugitt, 2, Longview; David Powell, 3, Lufkin, Mrs. Leary B. Kinser, 4, Beaumont; Dr. Joseph R. Griggs, 5, Huntsville; Mrs. L. S. Keen, 6, Corsicana; Ed Irons, 7, Tyler; Bill Holcomb, 8, Sulpher Springs; Lester Tribble, 9, Sherman; Jack Horton, 10, Greenville; O. R. Chick McElya, 11, Dallas; Lawrence Shipman, 12, Joshua; Scott Poage, 13, Waco; W. F. Burney, 14, Smithfield; Floyd Wooldridge, 16, Houston; Miss Beatrice Elliott, 17, Angleton; Roy Armstrong, 18, Yorktown; John Hallmark, 19, New Braunfels; Ernest Gloyna, 20, Austin; Connally Neal, 21, Temble; Ross Watson, 22, Mineral Wells; Dr. John Mast, 23, Wichita Falls; Hart Shoemaker, 24, Abilene; Raymond Pfleuger, 25, Eden; O. T. Lodal, 26, San Antonio; Duane Orr, 27, Corpus Christi; Wayne Sellers, 28, Fort Worth; E. A. McCullough, 29, Midland; Dr. Joe Webb, 30, Plainview, and Ralph Blodgett, 31, of Sherman.

Representatives from local chapters are W. A. Bratton, Ft. Worth; Bob Clements, El Paso; Mrs. Geraldine Simmons, Midland; Lawrence Shipman, Cleburne; Thomas Hickey, Hillsboro; Aimar Atkinson, Houston; Paul White, Dallas; Ernest Gloyna, Austin; Woody Holt, San Angelo; Ben Cowling, Lubbock; O. T. Lodal, San Antonio; and A. C. Bishop, of Sweetwater.

Hallowe'en Carnivals

carnival will open with selling of food at 6 p. m. Carnival events including spook room, movie, fortune telling, country store, boxing and fish pond will open about 7 p. m. At 9 p. m., the queen will be crowned. The one receiving the most votes from the following candidates will be crowned; Ann Barkley, Peggy Carpenter, Shirley Cross, Linda Alls, June Rowan, Nancy Hobbs, Priscilla Trim, Norma Jo Gaydon, Barbara Hawkins, Gayle Fine, Gretchen Arant and Elaine Stephenson.

At Central Ward school, family groups have been encouraged to attend and eat at the school. Selling of food will open at 6 p.m. At 7 and 8:30 p. m. in the school auditorium, a puppet show, "The Spook of Paducah," will be presented by Mrs. A. L. Strout. At 7:30 and 9 p. m., a dance show will be presented by dancers from Larrimore studio. At 8, the crowning of the queen and king will take place, with the winner being announced at that time from about 12 sets of king and queen candidates. Standing of candidates will not be announced in advance. In addition to those events, the carnival will include entertainment in the various rooms, including grab bag, fortune telling, movies, and spook house. Cakes, cookies and candy will be sold.

In Cottage school, the food room will open at 6:30 p. m. for persons wanting to eat at the school. Food will be sold throughout the carnival. Coronation of the king and queen at 9:30 p. m. will highlight the program. Candidates are Pat Koontz and Judy Price, and John Reichle and Gayle Howard, from two first grade rooms; R. D. Rowland and Carolyn Judd, and Tommy Sessums and Glorianne Goad, from two second grade rooms; Jerry Dale Arnold and Jerrienne Mooney, third grade; Bob Crowder and Maxine Gard, fourth grade, and Billy Teston and Mary Harrington, fifth grade.

A movie will be shown. Fish pond, amateur program and other events are scheduled. Prizes which had been collected for bingo and cake walk will be auctioned, sold or disposed of in other manner.

At Sanders school, the carnival will open at 7 p. m. Hot dogs, and other food and drinks will be served. Program features will include appearance of Hank the Cowhand, cake hop, country store, wonder house, fish pond, pitching rings around live ducks, darts guessing games and coronation of the king and queen about 9:15 p. m.

Candidates for king and queen are: First grade, Patsy Wright, Donald Dewbee, Bonny Baird, Tommy Neal, Linda Darlene Carter, and Larry Castleberry; second grade, Mary Nell Shepard, Dorsey Drury, Lyvonne Mitchell, Stanley Dickey, Dalia Smith, Don Hopson, Verna Jones, Clyde Toehl, Sue Jane McDaniel and Richard Hopson; fourth grade, Bobbie Hutson, Meredith Stephens, Patricia Whited, Terry Garrett, LaWanda Hazel and Elton Mayfield; fifth grade, Joyce Green, Eugene Phillips, Martha Nell Parkins, Thomas Mandrell, Irene Hamilton and Doyle Kee; sixth grade, Hazel Stueart and Lester Garrison, Barbara Sue Merrick, Tommy Weir.

The K. Carter school cafeteria will open at 7 p. m. and hot dogs and pies, other food and drinks will be served. Carnival events will include house of horrors, country store, dart board, cake hop, grab bag, movie, art exhibit of children's work and others.

Each room is to plan an entertainment for the East Broadway school carnival which will be held from 7 until 9:30 o'clock.

Hot dogs, pies and cakes and drinks will be sold.

Other schools have been observing Hallowe'en in other ways.

The School for Exceptional Children will conduct parties at 11 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. today, under auspices of the Parent-Teacher association. Songs, dances, stories, games and serving of refreshments are planned.

Room parties were conducted at Dupre school Thursday. Some of the children wore costumes. Programs were presented and refreshments were served.

NORTH IS STILL KEY OUTPOST

Importance Of Alaskan Defense To U. S. Emphasized By Veteran

By BOB CONSIDINE
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—"See where you've been wondering in print whatever became of me," writes Ex-Col. "Fish" Hassell, our untapped gold mine of knowledge on how to maintain an Air Force in the Arctic.

"Well, after I left Goose Bay ("Fish" commanded our huge Labrador airbase and satellite fields during the war) and returned to the states for a tour of duty in civilian life I made an interesting discovery.

"I discovered that most of my old associates, who, when I left, were waving flags and dedicating industry and all their efforts to the boys in the service, now seemed at a loss to see where a fellow who had been away for five years could fit in their post-war plans.

"So I started a little business of my own in St. Louis and can prove this is true by the large stack of letter-heads I have left over. I gave it up when C. R. Smith of American Airlines asked me to hop over to Iceland and see what I could about rebuilding and operating our old airport there—you remember, Keflavik, or Meeks, or whatever else it was called.

"It was a great thrill, believe me, to get back to the north and carry on with a job that first began to interest me when I tried to fly a Stinson from Rockford, Ill., to Stockholm in 1928. Iceland is a tremendously strategic spot in today's world and I was glad to be working again with the delightful Vikings. But the job ran out—we were underbid or something—and now I'm back in Rockford.

"I'm glad that the people are now thinking more about Alaska, but let's not overlook Iceland, Greenland and Arctic America. The north was spared in the last war only because operations moved, at first, through Africa.

"But the next time, if any, the barren wastes up there will play a major role in keeping the enemy out of our industrial middle west and our northern sea-coast towns on both coasts. I just wish I were up there now, on any kind of assignment with the service. If you become secretary of defense, keep me in mind. Sincerely. Fish."

Since the mail is certainly more interesting than anything the writer can generate on his own today, let us continue with a letter from Everett W. Harding, executive secretary of the Bergen county (N. J.) committee of the Young Men's Christian associations:

"I was very much interested in your recent article concerning Joe Gordon of the Cleveland Indians and the part he has played in befriending Larry Doby, Cleveland's colored outfielder.

"I have had the privilege of knowing Joe since he was a boy tumbler and gymnast in the Portland, (Ore.) YMCA. Joe grew up with and often competed against an outstanding negro boy named George Cannady, spent several summers at Camp Meehan, at the base of beautiful Mt. St. Helen's with him and others.

"At this YMCA camp great emphasis was placed on the idea of world friendship — a fellowship with the boys of all nations, races and creeds. At the end of each period the boys had a 'fire of friendship' ceremony deep in the big timber of the Cascade forest range. Torches carried by each of the campers grew into a bright leaping fire and the boys would dedicate their lives to a service of friendship to all.

"During the time Joe attended this camp I'm sure that Chinese, Japanese and others from foreign lands, as well as boys of various hues, visited and lived at the camp. To one who has served on the Camp Meehan staff it was very easy to see how Joe would go to bat for the colored athlete who broke in with the Indians.

"Reading between your lines brought back many fine memories and recalled again to my mind the fact that if all of us individually and collectively work at all times to improve the lives of others, regardless of the color of their skin or the way they worship their God, this would most certainly become a better world."

Transit Workers End New York Walkout

NEW YORK, Oct. 28. (AP)—Bus and trolley service returned to normal today for 3,500,000 New Yorkers with the end of the biggest surface transportation strike in the city's history.

Members of the CIO Transport Workers union employed by the Third Avenue Transit system and Avenue B-East Broadway Transit Co. voted yesterday to return to work. They acted after left-wing faction leaders joined with right-wing leadership of the union in urging a back-to-work move.

Earlier, union employes of the five privately-operated lines involved had agreed to resume work.

Oklahoma Banker Wants 15 To 1 Odds In Bet On Truman

SHAWNEE, Okla., Oct. 28. (AP) — Democratic national committeeman Elmer Harber said today he didn't think he'd get any takers on his offer to cover a $20,000 bet with 15-to-1 odds against President Truman's election.

Harber said he started trying to find some New Yorkers who were reportedly offering such odds after Walter Winchell mentioned them in a Sunday night broadcast.

So far, he said, he has had no luck. He also failed in a try in St. Louis.

The Shawnee bank president was asked if he'd made any other bets on the outcome of Tuesday's election.

Laughing, he said, "I'm not a gambling man." He said he was representing "interests" in trying to place $20,000 on Truman. Asked if he'd go over $20,000 if he could find someone to take his bet, Harber said that depended on "circumstances."

The Shawnee man was one of the founders of the $1,000 club organized in Chicago several years ago to boost the Democratic campaign fund.

Farmers Urged To Harvest Grass Seed

Seeking to encourage farmers to harvest this year what is described as a crop of especially high quality seed, offers of purchase agreements on the 1948 crop of range grass seeds have been announced by the Production and Marketing administration (PMA), a division of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

A similar program was in effect in 1946. The grasses are grown principally in Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas. The seed are sought for use in conservation and range building programs.

Base prices, per pound, for high quality seed with minimum specifications for purity and germination are: Little and big bluestem 20 cents; sand bluestem 25 cents; blue grama 15 cents; sideoats grama 20 cents; switchgrass 20 cents; sand lovegrass and weeping lovegrass 50 cents; yellow Indian grass 25 cents; buffalo grass 35 cents.

Purchase agreements will be available to producers through next Feb. 28. Interested farmers are asked to get in touch with their county ACA committee or administrator.

Sao Paulo, Brazil, has sent a mission comprising 95 engineers, industrialists and businessmen to study industry in the United States.

Dowell, Wiggins, White Are On Army Advisory Committee

Addition of a new member and replacements for two others on the South Plains Army Advisory committee was announced Thursday by James H. Goodman, chairman.

G. C. Dowell, automobile sales manager, Navy reserve officer and member of the Lubbock Independent school district board, has been added to represent the Navy and the school district on the committee.

Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of Texas Technological college, has been named as a replacement for former Pres. W. M. Whyburn and Rev. Travis A. White, pastor of the First Christian church, has been appointed to represent the Lubbock Ministerial association, replacing Dr. Hallie Gantz, former local pastor.
