IOWA PARK, TEXAS

SPECTACULAR ACCIDENT - Iowa Parkan Jack Kerr, being attended to by Volunteer Fire Department EMTs on the left, suffered heavy loss of property about 5:10 p.m. Monday in an accident at the Highway 287 east-bound exit to Johnson Road. As he was entering the exit, he was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. Jesse Miller, 74, of Vernon. Kerr's pickup was virtually destroyed when it rolled about three times, spreading his construction equipment on the pavement, and catching afire. His injuries were apparently confined to scalp abrasions. According to investigating officer, Lt. Robert Dean, Mrs. Miller does not remember anything about the accident. She was apparently heading west and, after crossing the overpass, veered south, across the median, striking Kerr's pickup about the rear wheels. Her car continued south, across the access road and the street in front of the high school, and crashed into the northwest corner of the school building. She remained in Wichita General yesterday with broken ribs.

Aldermen devote time to sanitary landfill

While most of Monday night's city council meeting was devoted to planning for a new sanitary landfill, aldermen also approved change of zoning to permit construction of an apartment complex, heard a report on flood insurance, a request to abandon city property, and comments on the 1981 audit.

Aldermen approved a change in a lease agreement with Mabel Bailey Karstetter, which cut the period of the lease from 50 years with a 50-year option to 20 years with a 20-year option.

Work to prepare the required paperwork and study of the landfill site for state approval was discussed by engineer Kerry Maroney, who explained the overall cost of preparation work would be $18,000 for survey, soil sampling, proposed layout design for the pits and preparation of paperwork.

Aldermen agreed to permit Maroney go as far as the survey and soil sampling, but wanted him to meet with the council after that phase for his recommendations before expending the cost of the other work. They said they wanted him to say whether he felt they had a good chance of approval before taking the costs beyond that point.

The proposed landfill site is located southwest of the city, between the sewer treatment plant and Smith Road.

Mayor Johnny Crawford pointed out that the need to get the work done and application submitted to state as quickly as possible was paramount. He said the city's present landfill site would be filled in four months.

Acting on the recommendation of the Planning and Zoning Commission, aldermen approved zoning designation of a tract in Colonial Heights, fronting Johnson Road between Magnolia and the water tower, to permit construction of apartments.

Two representatives of the Corps of Engineers spoke to the council, explaining the study of flood zones in the city had been completed and action needed from the council to permit government-backed flood insurance for homeowners within the city.

Providing maps which can be used for issuance of building permits, no construction can be permitted in the designated areas if the structures are not above flood levels, council members were told.

After the city adopts the required ordinance and it is published, flood insurance rates will be lowered significantly, aldermen were told. The insurance is available to all homeowners, not just those in the flood zones.

The council was told, however, that should it not elect to pass the required ordinance, no government-backed flood insurance would be available, and in that case, such insurance would be extremely expensive.

Ed McDonald asked that the city abandon ~~a~~ right-of-way on East Jester ~~where a portion~~ a home of his deceased father is located. He explained two additional buildings had been built there, and they were in the right-of-way.

However, it was determined that the property, located near McClendon elevator, was not even on the tax rolls and no title existed.

McDonald was told the council wanted to visit and study the site more closely before taking any action.

The city's financial situation and operation was complimented by J.D. Baines, new auditor, saying it was "healthy" and the report hadn't "any bad figures in it."

Baines said the city had set good goals (budget), exceeded revenues and operated within the budget, which accounted for a carryover balance of $199,089.

It was pointed out that the change in auditors had cut that annual expense from some $14,000 last year to only $6,600 this year, which was one of the major reasons for changing auditors.

Cowley's contract extended

Supt. Harold Cowley's contract was extended another year following an hour-long executive session at the school board meeting Tuesday night.

Board chairman Roy Boutwell lauded Cowley, saying it was with "...sincere appreciation for a fine job through the past year."

Cowley's salary was set at $40,771.

In other business, trustees accepted the resignation of Jim Clapp, hired a teacher's aide, heard a report on settlement with the bonding company on the high school gym construction project, and also heard of higher interest rates to be assessed on delinquent taxes.

Clapp, head baseball coach and assistant football coach, turned in his letter of resignation in December, effective Jan. 15. He teaches two math classes and one class of physical education.

Christine Finch was hired as a teacher aide.

The school received a check for $22,699.67 from American Fidelity Fire Insurance Company, the bonding firm for general contractor on the gymnasium project.

When the board about a year ago declared the contractor in violation of his contract, the school assumed responsibility of completing the project and filed for losses with the bonding firm. The school also withheld $18,000 from the contractor's pay, which has been used in the completion work.

Materials are on site, Cowley told trustees, for another contractor to put a new roof on the building. The second roof was deemed necessary because the original roof was improperly installed and caused numerous leaks during bad weather.

Tax collector Bill Steger told board members of changes made by the state legislature on delinquent taxes. He said the penalty for delinquent taxes was increased considerably above the maximum set by law previously.

For instance, when taxes become delinquent Feb. 1, the penalty is seven percent, increased from 1.5 percent. And the penalty increases each month, reaching 28.5 percent.

Steger said his office filed on 138 pieces of taxable property Dec. 28, for delinquent taxes from 1980 or earlier.

Currently, 60 percent of the taxes have been paid, and that will increase to approximately 96 percent before the end of this month, Steger said.

In other department reports, Steger said the school's new bus had been delivered and was already on a route, and the lunchrooms are attracting an average of 81 percent of enrollment. Meals may have to be increased again next year, due to cost increases, he said.

SKATING ON GORDON LAKE near the dam seemed to be just the thing to do Tuesday according to these two boys. But seconds later Iowa Park policeman Billy Hamilton informed them otherwise. Water at the lake is deepest near the dam, and Hamilton told the youths of the hazards involved if they were to break through the ice.

Chamber banquet speaker will be familiar voice

Eventhough the Dallas Cowboys won't be in the Super Bowl next week, they'll be the topic of the Jan. 30 Chamber of Commerce banquet speaker.

Ray Stone produces an eight-state network radio program on the Cowboys, and he has become a favorite speaker for chambers over the state.

Featuring 10 percent message and 90 percent humor, Stone's talk lasts about 40 minutes, during which he covers the lean years, building years and winning years of "America's Team." He has stories about Don Meredith, Bob Lilly, Roger Staubach, Cliff Harris, Charley Waters, Danny White, Tony Dorsett, Randy White and more.

He spoke last year at the Holliday all-sports banquet. More currently, he spoke Jan. 7 to the Fort Stockton chamber banquet, and two nights before the Iowa Park banquet, he will speak before a similar gathering at Friona.

Born at Edna, he attended school in San Antonio. After a two-year hitch in the military, he attended Texas Tech College in Lubbock. Following that, he played professional baseball for Montgomery, Ala. in the Southeastern League.

In 1962 Stone became active in radio and television, producing a variety of programs for central and south Texas. In 1969, Ray Stone and Associates was organized, moving to the center stage of radio/television sports coverage.

Now in his sixth year of producing Cowboys Football Report, he is heard daily over 191 radio stations in eight states.

Tickets for the banquet are $7.50, and can be purchased from any member of the chamber, or at the chamber office.

Besides hearing the speaker, who will give away a football signed by all the Cowboy players as a door prize, several individuals will be recognized for their contributions to the community during the past year, and a steak dinner prepared by the MuleSkinners will be served.

Tools are stolen

He said the carpenter and hand tools were in a box mounted on his pickup, and someone apparently picked the lock to get them.

Trash pickup days changed

The dates for trash collection at residences where small containers are used have been changed, according to Charlie Helms.

Collection days will be each Tuesday and Friday for Park Plaza and Shiloh Addition, Helms said.

Donors are responding

Local residents have responded warmly to Iowa Park's volunteer fire department recently, with approximately $1,100 in donations received by the department to replace a truck lost while responding to a false alarm call.

"We want to thank all of the people who have contributed so far, the response has been just great," said Kevin Ketchersid, fireman.

Firemen responded to a call recently west of Iowa Park which turned out to be a controlled fire. But while they were returning to town, an electrical short in the dash caused a fire. Firemen were without a hand-held extinguisher, and the pump was rendered useless when the electric starter burned out, and the cab was soon gutted with fire.

Cook of the Week

Mrs. Dale Walling

Waffles - a favorite food with a history. The first waffle is said to have been made in the 13th century England. A crusader wearing his armor accidently sat on some freshly baked oat cakes. The cake was flattened and bore deep imprints of the steel links. However, he spread the butter on them. His wife, delighted with the way butter stayed in the imprints from the armor made him put it on once a week and sit on fresh oat cakes. They were called "waffres", meaning flat honeycomb-like cakes.

Dutch colonists brought their cherished "waffre" irons to America. They were long handled and very heavy to hold over an open fire. Today the waffle batter is baked on a cooking utensil with two hinged metal parts that shut upon each other and impress surface projections on waffles as they are being cooked. The iron waffle irons that our grandmothers used have been replaced by the electric ones for the most part and have become collector's items.

Today there are so many different recipes for waffles that even the most fastidious eater can find one to suit his taste. Chances are that Mrs. Dale Walling's Sourdough Waffles would suit most everyone's taste.

Mrs. Walling, the former Carol Stiff of Arlington, is among Iowa Park's newest newcomers. In fact, she and her husband, who is the new minister of First Christian Church, have been here hardly two weeks, but they have already fallen in love with the town, the people they have met, and especially the people of their church.

She was graduated from Arlington High School, attended Baylor University at Waco two years, and received a bilingual elementary education degree from Texas Christian University at Fort Worth last spring. She and her husband met at Six Flags Over Texas where they were employed while still in high school. They were married in 1979.

When the couple worked with the First Christian Church in Irving, Carol taught a Sunday school class and worked with the children's choir. She enjoys quilting, crocheting, cooking, playing tennis and has a love for animals.

Club members hold workshop

The Iowa Park Garden Club held a workshop meeting Friday morning in the Texas Electric Reddy Room. Mrs. Margaret Archer and Mrs. China B. Smith were hostesses.

Mrs. W.A. George presided for a short business meeting. Mrs. Charlie Lee read Glenn Shelton's New Year's column for the thought for the day.

Suggestions were made for programs from January through May due to a recent change made for the club year to run from January to January instead of from May to May. Mrs. Thurman Reitz was appointed chairman of the annual Flower Show which will be held April 23.

Mrs. Myrl Cabe and Mrs. F.M. Wilson, chairmen of the Chamber of Commerce banquet decorations, were in charge of the workshop which will lend themselves to "The Yellow Rose of Texas" theme. During the morning, arrangements of yellow silk roses were made to be used with cowboy and cowgirl silhouettes. The floral arrangements will be for sale after the banquet.

Mrs. George requested all club members to meet at 10 a.m. Jan. 30 at the high school cafeteria to decorate for the banquet.

Watts, Meux nuptial vows exchanged in Sheppard chapel

Two well-known young people of the area, Miss Linda Ann Watts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Watts of Burkburnett, and John Whitten Meux, son of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Meux of Wichita Falls and Iowa Park, were united in impressive double-ring marriage rites Saturday evening. The couple exchanged their vows in Chapel 2 at Sheppard Air Force Base, and the officiating minister for the service was Rev. Charles Miller of Eden Hills Baptist Church.

The decorative setting at the altar featured a large sunburst arrangement of white silk chrysanthemums, pink and burgundy silk roses mingled with wedding greenery. Illumination was provided by pink tapers aflame in spiral candelabra on either side of the flowers and at altar extremities. The altar rail was entwined with the greenery.

Interest in the setting was enhanced through the three-branched candlestick that was centered with the meaningful unity candle which was lighted by the bride and groom after they had been pronounced husband and wife. The outer candles were lighted by the bride's mother and the groom's family as they entered the chapel.

Pews were marked with greenery tied with pink and burgundy bows.

For prenuptial music, Mrs. Charles Schraeder, organist, played a medley of wedding favorites. She accompanied Miss Becky Tate for her vocal renditions of "My Own True Love," "Wedding Song," and "Wither Thou Goest," and included the traditional marches in her offerings.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar and presented her in marriage for both parents. For the memorable day in her life, she chose a lovely formal gown of white Chantilly lace enriched with reembroidered lace dotted with pearls. The natural waist bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline edged in the reeembroidered lace and pearls, full sheer bishop sleeves cuffed in the lace. The delicate openwork ornamentation was repeated on the full skirt and flowing chapel train.

The bride's fingertip veil of bridal illusion drifted from a cap of lace and pearls. She carried a traditional nosegay of white silk roses and greenery accented with long trailing white, pink and burgundy silk ribbons.

In keeping bridal traditions, she wore pearls that were worn 20 years ago by Mrs. J.W. Rogers in her wedding for "something old and borrowed;" "something blue" was her garter; and "something new" was her exquisite gown. The sixpence in her shoe was authentic and a special gift from her maternal grandfather who lives in Coventry, England.

A trio of attractively-gowned attendants preceded the bride to the altar. Miss Becky Tate of Midland took part as maid of honor, Mrs. Larry Martin of Burkburnett was matron of honor, and Miss Lari Meux of Denton, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore identical formal burgundy Qiana gowns fashioned with natural waistlines, spaghetti strap tops and slightly flared skirts. They complemented their gowns with chiffon jackets made with stylish peplums and satin ribbon belts, high necklines and cap sleeves trimmed with reembroidered lace and pearls. In their hair, they wore burgundy silk flowers attached to combs trimmed with lace and pearls. They carried long stemmed white and pink roses with matching streamers.

MRS. JOHN WHITTEN MEUX

When the groom met his bride at the altar he was wearing a gray tuxedo, white tuck-front shirt and a burgundy rose boutonniere. All other male members of the wedding party wore black tuxedos, white tuck-front shirts and pink rose boutonnieres.

Jeff Paine of Seattle, Wash. was best man. Steve Sorey of Austin and Michael Watts of Burkburnett, brother of the bride, were groomsmen. Guests were ushered to their seats by Jack Mitchell and Mike Hall, both of Dallas.

Mrs. Watts, mother of the bride, chose a corsage of silk roses in mauve tones to complement her midnight blue chiffon gown worn over taffeta. The portrait neckline was draped in blue and mauve chiffon and the colors were repeated in wrist ruffles on the long sleeves. Mrs. Meux mother of the groom, wore a formal turquoise chiffon gown over taffeta designed with a natural waist and high neckline. Ruffles at the neckline and wrists of the long sleeves and a corsage of white silk roses added extra charm to the dress.

The bride was graduated from Burkburnett High School and from Midwestern State University with magna cum laude honors. She is a member of Cap and Gown, Alpha Lambda Delta, and was selected for membership in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. She will be employed by the Professional Development Institute of North Texas State University.

The groom, a magna cum laude graduate of Midwestern State University, was graduated from Iowa Park High School. He attended the University of Texas Law School at Austin, and is presently a graduate student at NTSU where he is a teaching assistant in the Department of Computer Science. He is a member of Alpha Chi, Phi Eta Sigma, Gamma Sigma Epsilon. He was selected as a Robert A. Welch Scholar and for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The bride's parents honored the couple at a postnuptial reception held in the Officers Club at Sheppard Air Force Base. All tables in the setting were draped with white cloths accented with pink and burgundy bows and streamers.

The wedding book at the chapel and reception was presided over by Miss Carie Rogers at a table holding the plume pen and a single rose in a crystal vase.

The cake table possessed special attraction in the reception room. The four-tiered white confection was deftly trimmed with cascades of pink and burgundy icing roses trailing along the sides from a top bouquet of icing roses in the same shades. The bridal attendants' flowers were placed on the table to add interest to the decor.

The buffet table held a centerpiece formed of chrysanthemums, roses and greenery flanked by candles, crystal punch and silver coffee services.

Numerous small tables arranged in the room for guests to eat refreshments and visit were appointed with pink candles in crystal and silver holders.

Members of the houseparty were Miss Becky Tate, Mrs. Larry Martin, Miss Lari Meux, Miss Carie Rogers and Mrs. J.W. Rogers.

The Officers Club was also the scene of the rehearsal dinner given on the eve of the wedding by Dr. and Mrs. John W. Meux.

The tables were covered with white cloths headed with pink and white ribbon and appointed with pink candles in silver holders. Places were marked with pink napkins in burgundy rings. Toasts were offered by fathers of the engaged couple. During the evening, the betrothed pair exchanged gifts and presented their attendants with remembrances of the occasion.

When the newlyweds departed for a wedding trip to Lazy Hills Guest Ranch at Ingram, the bride was wearing an olive green wool suit with tan accessories and a white silk orchid corsage. They will live at Denton.

Out-of-town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Pounds and Miss Tracie Pounds of Hot Springs, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Miller and Clay Miller of Manhattan, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Jim Honeycutt of Dallas and numerous relatives and friends from the North Texas area.

4-H News

Some 225 4-H'ers from all over Texas attended a Teen Leader Retreat at the Texas 4-H Center in Brownwood on January 8, 9 and 10. Among the 4-H members present were Wichita County 4-H'ers Levada Davis of the 4-H Horse Club, Ted Lewis of the City View 4-H Club, Terry Taylor of the Iowa Park 4-H Club, and Terry May of the Friberg-Cooper 4-H Club.

The weekend was devoted to small group discussions on what teenagers think are major problems facing them today and ways to deal with these problems. The list of problems they came up with in the order they were ranked from highest to lowest were: family relationships, drugs, sex, alcohol, schools, careers, religion, friends and counseling (finding help).

Terry, Levada, Ted and Terry all rated the retreat as one of the best 4-H activities they have attended. They agree it was because the program dealt with problems that face them as well as all teenagers.

LATE INSTALLATION - This week's cold weather caught Cryovac before it was ready. The plant's new auxiliary heating oil tank was ready to be installed, but wasn't completed when cold weather forced Lone Star Gas to curtail service to industries. The auxiliary supply is used in such circumstances. They set the 10,000 gallon container up for temporary use inside the building, and will bury it sometime this spring. Workers were able to function in the bag-making department Monday and extrusion work began Tuesday, using the fuel oil.

Cannon seeks voter support

Vernon Cannon has announced his candidacy for the post of Wichita County Clerk. Cannon has served as county clerk since last January, when he was appointed to the post due to the death of Jerry Padgett.

Prior to the appointment, Cannon had served four years as deputy county clerk.

Cannon said there would probably be no real issues in the county clerk's race other than experience. "I will use the knowledge and experience I have gained in the office to continue the quality of service the citizens of Wichita County have come to expect."

"My predecessors did an excellent job of building one of the most efficient and service-oriented county clerk's office in the state. I have pledged all my efforts to continue that tradition," he said.

Cannon joined the county clerk's office in 1977 following 22 years as an instructor and supervisor in the Air Force. He is an elder in the Presbyterian Church, a member of the Southwest Rotary Club and the Wichita County Young Farmers.

Cannon is also actively involved with the Wichita County Heritage Society. He is married and has two children.

As I See It.... By BOB HAMILTON

It's still 13 more weeks until the income tax deadline, so it would doubtfully be safe to assume that one single topic is on everyone's mind this week. . . . the weather.

It's been cold, down as low as three degrees early Monday morning. And it apparently will stay in the freezing readings for a while longer, looking at the weather maps.

Actually, the temperatures haven't been extremely bad, unless one had to work outside for extended periods of time. But after having such an unusually mild fall and early winter, the sharp change has been hard to adjust to.

There's no question we've been lucky. That is, unless you are a wheat farmer and need moisture for your crop. Missing that precipitation earlier in the week was a blessing.

It's funny, in the summer time it seems like the rains hit north of here, when a front approaches from the west. But that bad weather this week passed to the south. Anyway, I could enjoy watching on television those poor souls down at Dallas skidding all over the icy roads, knowing our's were still safe and dry.

Remember a couple of months back, I said we were in for a long, hard winter? Well, other parts of the nation have been getting it, in record-setting dimensions. We've escaped it so far, thanks to the jet streams.

But it's still a long way from the season being over. And I still think it's going to be a rough winter, right here.

Kinda hope I'm wrong, however.

After writing that prediction, I had two cords of firewood stacked in the back yard. And eventhough the winter has been mild, we've burned over half our supply and still have most of the winter ahead of us.

One of the Democrat candidates for state attorney general will be Max Sherman, who has already announced.

I'm not sure how anxious I am to see him get elected. He likes to quit in the middle of the road.

Sherman was elected to the state senate while a resident of Amarillo. He resigned that post to accept the position as president of West Texas State Univ. at Canyon. Now, he's quit that job to run for the attorney general's seat.

I would have thought a lot more of Sherman had he finished his term as senator before accepting the WTSU job, and either not starting this school year or waiting until it was over to run for the state position.

Sherman may be a real fine and intelligent fellow, but I wouldn't hire him on my staff with a record of quitting like he has built.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Mr. Hamilton:

We would like to request that you publish the following as a means of saying thank you to some sensitive, caring young citizens of this community:

Dear Friends of Ronda Richter:

We know when you've been there because you leave signs of your thoughtfulness -- a flower, a note, a memento, or the latest -- a 1981 graduation charm and lovely note. We don't take these things home with us because they belong where you've left them -- at our memorial to our flower whom the angels took. The words of the notes fade, the dye in the flowers run, but the love, like Ronda's memory, remains.

That you still care and remember doesn't stop the tears, but they are less abrasive as they fall. The ache in our hearts never goes away, but there is comfort when we see you've visited and left part of yourselves. Your kindness does help; it is healing, and we are eternally grateful for your devotion. We love you for loving her.

MEMBER TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Your electricity will cost more in 1982 mainly because the fuel to make it will cost more.

In 1982, we'll have to pay more for the fuels used to produce your electricity. Partly this is because another contract for low-cost natural gas fuel has expired. But mainly it's because the price of all fuel continues to rise.

We spent about $200 million in 1980 for fuel to make your electricity. In 1981, the fuel bill was about $400 million. And in 1982, we estimate we'll have to spend $640 million for fuel.

Approximate Cost of Fuel

Year	Fuel cost paid by Texas Electric	Your average annual fuel cost per kilowatt hour
1980	$200 million	1 cent
1981	$400 million	2 cents
1982*	$640 million	3 cents

*Estimated

We buy all our fuels at the lowest price available. We charge our customers exactly what we have to pay for fuel. And each month, we show on the bill the "fuel" part of the total cost of electricity.

At Texas Electric, we're trying to hold down fuel costs by making as much electricity as possible in plants built to use lignite coal — a cheaper fuel. And we're building a plant to use uranium, the lowest priced fuel available to us.

You can help hold down your electric bill by conserving at home. To learn how, please call us.

Study Club meeting has multiple highlights

The high points of interest in the 23 Study Club's first meeting of 1982 held Thursday afternoon were an address by Mrs. Earl F. Watson, a review and display of Windberg art by Mrs. Marvin Klinkerman, a devotion by Mrs. Earle Denny and the election of officers for 1982-84.

The meeting, held in Texas Electric Reddy Room, was hosted by Mrs. Rollins Woodall and Mrs. Homer Blalock.

The program theme embraced Americanism and Federation, two divisions of General Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Joe Singer was leader and her highly competent introduction of participants and their assignments was a harbinger of the educational and cultural values the program had to offer.

Mrs. Denny used beautiful and selected excerpts from "This Is God's World" by Dean Walley for the devotion.

In describing how Windberg, a young contemporary artist, had dreamed of creating techniques in art to paint magical moods and delicate feelings as well as images so as to make brush strokes mysteriously vanish and finally disappear from the canvas. Mrs. Klinkerman began with his early childhood characterized by a passion for drawing. She included his first art lessons and time spent in the service and Europe where he was inspired by the works of De Vinci and Rembrandt.

She further told how in 1970 after spending 15 years of curious trials, frustrating experimentation with paints, glazes and mediums, he found an acrylic-based molding paste and application that was the turning point in achieving the well known smooth finish that has led to his being one of the outstanding young artists of contemporary times.

Mrs. Klinkerman had on display several of Windberg's paintings which spoke for themselves of his talents and success as an artist.

The title of Mrs. Watson's address was "The American Woman of 1982."

"Today's scales are topping in favor of women," she began an address that evidenced careful research and thorough preparation, using scales to balance the pros and cons of progress of women within the last 60 years.

She reminded clubwomen of the status of women in Old Testament times when they were treated like property and divorced for the slightest reason, and how they were later recognized as special creatures by Jesus.

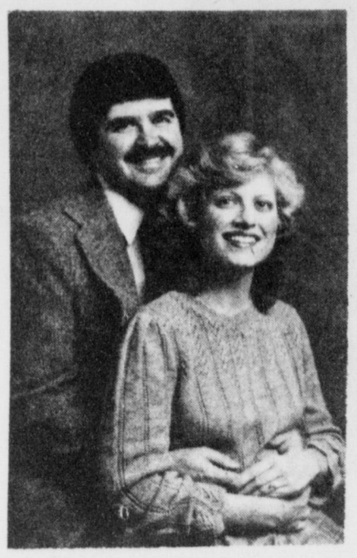

Some of the specific issues in women's progress that were weighed pro and con were: career opportunities, working women, marriage, divorce, homemaker, deference, identity, role reversal, sexual activity and birth control.

"What is the balance? With the rapid evolution of women's rights, will they let it go to their head demanding all sorts of innane things, or will they make their freedom count, championing causes that will be beneficial and uplifting to humanity?" she asked.

Mrs. Watson closed by observing that women living in the U.S. today have many rights and listed nine responsibilities that each has to be a good Christian woman.

During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. China B. Smith, officers were elected for 1982-84. The slate included Mmes. D.O. James, president; Sam Hunter, vice president; Keith Aulds, secretary; Sam Hill, corresponding secretary; Marvin Klinkerman, treasurer; China B. Smith, parliamentarian; Bill Bates, Charlie Lee, executive committee.

Refreshments were served from a table laid with a white cutwork embroidered cloth and appointed with a bouquet of yellow silk roses, silver and crystal services.

Varsities open district play here tomorrow

Unless weather conditions prevent it, Iowa Park will open Dist. 3-AAAA play here tomorrow evening against Vernon.

Both teams will be carrying very respectable records into conference play, too. The defending conference champion Hawks are 14-4 on the season and the Hawkettes are 10-4.

WICHITA FALLS TOURNEY

But the Hawks had their problems, winning only one of their three games.

The girls, playing their first two games in the Hirschi gymnasium, defeated Rider 46-39 and Wichita Falls High 52-51. Saturday, in the Rider gym, they were edged 46-43 by Hirschi.

For the Hawks, Rider's gymnasium seems to present problems. They've now lost three out of four games there, and they've only lost four games out of 18 on the season.

After trailing the entire first half, the Hawkettes came alive to defeat Rider in the first game. They trailed 21-16 at the half, but scored 12 points in the third period and 18 in the fourth to win 46-39. Tammie Richardson led scoring with 16, and Susan Gullatt had 10.

The game had been close throughout, with Iowa Park leading 9-7 at the first rest stop, but trailing 19-24 at the half and 34-38 after three periods.

Wichita took the lead, 51-50, on a free shot with eight seconds remaining. Iowa Park called time out. Yeakley took the ball on the in-bound pass, dribbled the entire length of the court, stopped to the right of the free shot circle and the ball left her hand just as the buzzer sounded.

The ball never touched the rim and the Lady Coyotes, coached by former Iowa Park mentor Grady Graves, stood in disbelief that they had lost the game. Yeakley finished with 15 points and Richardson had 19.

In Saturday's championship game, the Hawkettes blew a seven-point lead (33-26) they held midway in the third quarter, but still led 35-34 going into the final period.

Hirschi zoomed to a 44-39 lead with 2:18 remaining in the game, but the Hawkettes pulled to within 44-43 with 1:41 showing on the scoreboard clock. A free shot put Hirschi up 46-43 with 11 seconds remaining, and the eventual champions effectively stalled the ball until the scoreboard clock ran out.

Richardson finished with 19 points while Yeakley and Neely each canned 10 points.

Both Richardson and Yeakley were named to the all-tournament team.

After defeating Wichita Falls High 52-45 two nights earlier, the Hawks fell 38-46 to the Coyotes in the first period, but a disastrous second quarter, when the Coyotes outscored the Hawks 16-8, was more than the Hawks could overcome.

The Hawks got their first look at a Dist. 3-AAAA team Friday when they took on Burkburnett and won, 48-41. Playing in offensive spurts, they built a 17-8 lead in the second quarter, but the Bulldogs quickly cut that to 17-15. Again in the fourth quarter they had led 41-31, but Burk cut that to 41-35 to make a tight game of it.

Saturday's loss to Graham required an overtime period. Smith put the Hawks ahead, 54-52, with 1:03 remaining in the game. Graham tied the score with 39 seconds remaining and Smith had an opportunity to take the lead once more, but missed his free shot with 27 seconds showing on the clock.

Graham scored six unanswered points in the final 56 seconds of overtime play to earn its win.

The Steers stayed in the game thanks to numerous turnovers by the Hawks, especially with a full-court press that caused 10 turnovers in the initial 24 minutes of the game.

Smith finished with 24 points and Bobby Bates had 10. Page was held to only eight points, his second-lowest point production game of the season.

Blaze damage held to minimum

Iowa Park firemen responded to a fire shortly before noon Wednesday inside a barn adjacent to Country Collections near Bell Rd. and Expressway 287.

The fire apparently started when a plastic bucket near a large heater inside the barn melted and caught fire, according to firemen at the scene. Workers from Gilmore Inc., next to Country Collections, extinguished the blaze with a small extinguisher before firemen arrived.

Damage to the building was confined to a small area around the heater, and a small amount of smoke damage. The barn is used to store equipment and supplies from Country Collections.

Firemen said the fire was one of 25 to which Iowa Park firemen have responded in two days, and half of them have apparently been weather related.

Two fires were caused by downed power lines, and several were caused by electrical shorts.

ALL-STATE CHOIR - Buddy Mercer and Terry Escue qualified Saturday in Lubbock at the area tryouts for the all-state choir. They will travel to San Antonio Feb. 11, rehearse the following two days and the honor group will give a concert the evening of Feb. 13.

Excise tax drops on telephone bill

The federal excise tax on telephone service dropped from two percent to one percent Jan. 1.

The tax will stay at that level until it finally expires on Dec. 31, 1984, according to Mac McGee, district manager for Southwestern Bell.

McGee said that for almost 20 years prior to 1972, the excise tax was 10 percent for most local and long distance telephone services. Starting in 1973, the rate was reduced one percent each year as part of a plan to phase it out entirely.

In that plan, McGee said, the tax originally was scheduled to expire at the end of 1982. However, federal legislation prolonged the life of the tax through 1984.

Municipal Court Records

Bart Douglas Beavers, disobeyed stop sign, $31;

PROGRAMMABLE SCAN REMOTE CONTROL
PROGRAMMABLE SCAN REMOTE CONTROL
Chairside convenience with the handheld control puts you in command with the touch of a button. You can turn the set on/off, raise or lower the volume . . . and the scan "memory" programmed at the set lets you scan through your local channels to pick the program you want to watch . . . all from the comfort of your easy chair.
- COLOR MONITOR
The GE Color Monitor system automatically adjusts the picture before you see it . . . with a sophisticated system of electronic circuits that gives you lifelike fleshtones and brilliant colors.
- QUARTZ ELECTRONIC TUNING—91 CHANNELS
There is no fine tuning ever . . . and no moving parts to wear out in the electronic tuner itself. Quartz electronic tuning automatically tunes unscrambled, compatible channels quickly and quietly with the accuracy of quartz crystal.
- MIDBAND CHANNEL TUNING
Cable TV subscribers can tune in up to 21 unscrambled, compatible cable TV channels without the need for a separate converter box. (Check your cable company—certain cable transmissions may be scrambled or transmitted on non-compatible frequencies.)
- BLACK MATRIX PICTURE TUBE
Colors virtually "pop-out" with brilliant picture performance, as a result of the jet black background that accents the color phosphors on the inside of the picture tube.

Coe submits resignation effective June, 1983

Trustees wrestle with policies

"Senate Bill 341 is a blessing for teachers, but an administrative headache for principals and superintendents," was the observation of one person present during Monday night's regular meeting of the Holliday school board.

Trustees poured over a multi-color package of current board policies to be affected by the new legislation, which gives due process to teachers concerning evaluation procedures and firing.

A tentative committee consisting of board president Tommy Mankins, Jack Ayres and Durhl Caussey was formed to work on updating board policies, and no date was given for them to report back to the board.

Concerning the length of contracts, superintendent Ray Coe said, "Your administrators have to be given some amount of leverage," explaining further that an administrator with only a one-year contract would be more likely to make a decision based on what would be his best chances of receiving an extension.

Other revisions in the board policy includes evaluation procedures, time tables for evaluations, employee length of contracts, and types of employee contracts.

Evaluation procedures are also broken down into detail, including the superintendent's evaluation of principals, athletic directors, and band directors, and principal's evaluation of all professional employees.

COE TO RESIGN

In other business, trustees named three board members to the baseball committee, accepted the resignation of Coe effective on or before June 30, 1983, and opened bids on the old school clock.

Elementary principal Dan Owen brought trustees to the attention of the upcoming baseball season, and the need to ready the playing field before the season begins.

Trustee Gene Harmon was named chairman of the baseball committee, which also includes trustees Larry Finnell and Caussey

Coe's resignation, effective after the next school year, was a formality which expressed his intentions of not seeking an extension on his contract. Now in his 12th year as Holliday superintendent, Coe has been with the school since 1959.

The old school clock, which stopped working last month, was sold to Mary Ann White for $201.77, the highest of seven bids submitted. The lowest bid was for $22.50.

Eagles face big games

"These next three games are the biggies," remarked Eagle basketball coach Bill Higgins Wednesday afternoon, as his 11-5 Eagles prepared in an unheated gym for Friday's matchup with Archer City.

The Eagles are now 4-0 in District 13-AA action, and the next three games will make all the difference in the world. After hosting the Wildcats Friday night, the Eagles will travel to Nocona Tuesday to play the undefeated and state-ranked Indians. The following Friday, Petrolia will be in Holliday for the final game of the first round for both teams.

Holliday extended their unbeaten string in district with wins over Chico and Windthorst. Last Friday, the Dragons were humiliated in their own gym 75-38, with Higgins playing everybody but himself and the managers. Shannon Owen, Kevin Lilley and Mike A. Parker each had 10 points, while Gil Gilbert, Harold Parsons and Todd Stevens each had eight.

Tuesday night, the Trojans were humbled 66-38 in their home gym by the Eagles, with Owen finishing with 18 points and Parker 17. Morris Davis added 11 in the winning cause. According to Higgins, Lilley had a touch of strep throat, and saw very limited action, finishing with four.

Archer City had a string of 72 district wins broken earlier this season by Petrolia, but the team's leading scorer, Daryn Shearmire, has kept the Wildcats in the thick of things, with but one district loss. Nocona is the only unbeaten team in the district other than Holliday, and an Eagle win Friday will set up a first round showdown between the two teams.

"My top six players can be the leading scorer on any given night," Higgins said. "And we could easily have a better record than 11-5."

Meanwhile, the Lady Eagles went .500 over the week, with a 54-38 win over Chico last Friday, and a 21-31 loss to Windthorst Tuesday. Jamie Smyers was high point for the Lady Eagles in both games, finishing with 15 against Chico and eight against the Lady Trojans. Suzan Dillard had nine and seven points respectively.

Miss Wichita County pageant set Feb. 6

The Iowa Park Optimist Club will sponsor the Miss Wichita County Scholarship Pageant Feb. 6, in the Iowa Park High School auditorium.

Winner of the county pageant will enter the Miss Texas Pageant, who will compete for the crown of Miss America in the national competition at Atlantic City, N.J., in September.

The event this year will be the fourth annual Miss Wichita County Pageant sponsored by the Iowa Park Optimist Club. "We are again serving as sponsors of the pageant this year because we believe it provides a valuable contribution to the community and to the young ladies who will enter the competition," Danny Parkerson, executive director, said.

"We believe it serves the community well because it focuses attention on the high calibre of young ladies who are residents of our area and we believe it serves youth well because it provides the opportunity for the young ladies who compete to gain added poise through public appearances and to gain added maturity through participation in a community program such as the Miss Wichita County Scholarship Pageant," he added.

Most important, it will provide the opportunity for the girl who is the winner to continue to seek scholarship awards at the Miss Texas Pageant, which will aid her in obtaining an education at the school of her choice.

Special guests this year will include Thom McGhee and friends from Six Flags Over Texas; Miss Texas, Sherri Ryman; Mrs. Texas, Jill Crook; and other dignitaries and officials farom around the state.

Lolly Hatcher, Miss Wichita County 1981, will also be a special guest star at the Pageant. Miss Hatcher was selected as one of the ten finalists from among seventy contestants in the Miss Texas Pageant last July. She resides in Burkburnett with her family and is very excited about this years pageant.

"This is a community endeavor and we are thrilled all the community is participating to insure its success," she stated.

Tickets are on sale now and can be purchased from any contestant, member of the Optimist Club of Iowa Park, Summerhouse Studios, Houston School of Dance, Pansy's, Lad's Theatrical and Dance Supply, and all Chamber of Commerce offices.

Young Farmers head to Corpus
