Editor's Journal

Life Among The Fishes

by Thomas Giovannitti

I don't know about you, but I am a little worried about all this humidity we have been having. For one thing it just ain't natural for this part of the State.

Houston is supposed to be humid, but not Eldorado. We live on the Edwards Plateau and should only have enough humidity to keep our dogs eyes from drying out.

What with this strange weather, the fall of communism and the thong bikini, those fellows who are always predicting the end of the world may finally be right.

Even the success of every Kevin Costner movie may be a sign of the end of the World. Here is a guy with nothing special about him either with looks or smarts and he has hit after hit. On top of that his hits are about baseball fields in Iowa and other relatively unimportant things.

I am just having trouble making sense out of all the things happening in the World. It does not appear to me that things are like they used to be. Living in the past may be one of the fist signs of old age but the present just seems to be much too confusing and unorganized to bode well for any of us, young or old.

Look folks, Vanna White is doing advertisements out of suitcases, Johnny Carson is retiring, and Albania is going to be a free country. If those are not sings of something coming apart, then I don't know what is!

Unofficial City Council Minutes

A Special Meeting of the Eldorado City Council was held Wednesday, June 19, 1991, at 7:30 P.M. at the City Hall. This meeting of the Council was called in order to finish business from the June 11, 1991 Regular Meeting. Meeting was called to order by Mayor Nikolauk. All Councilmembers were in attendance.

MATT BROWN (MEDINA PRODUCTS):

Matt Brown and a representative of Medina Products were scheduled to meet with the Council to discuss products for treatment of the wastewater plant; however, it was reported that they were unable to attend and would reschedule at a future date.

WTU FRANCHISE:

The proposed 40-year WTU Franchise Agreement was distributed to the Councilmembers. After discussion, motion was made by Randy Mankin and seconded by John Callison that further discussion be tabled until special questions could be answered prior to the next meeting of the Council.

RV'S & MOBILE HOME PERMITS:

The Secretary reviewed the problems that had been encountered in enforcing the Mobile Home Ordinance, reviewing the original reasons for its passage and the revenue brought in. After discussion, motion was made by Randy Mankin and seconded by Debbie Ballew that the Ordinance (#1-78) be voided to eliminate need for Mobile Home Parking Permit Fee effective 6/19/91. Motion carried.

Concerning multiple charges for mobile homes occupying parks, motion was made by Jeri Whitten that the Utility Ordinance #101-89 be amended to allow for billing for actual water and gas used without the multiple requirement. Mobile home parks will be billed at commercial rate for sewer and sanitation fees which will eliminate need for multiples. Motion was seconded by Debbie Ballew. Motion carried. Amendment will be drawn up for the next meeting.

Following discussion, hearing was set for July 9 for Amendment #5 to Ordinance #101-89 to make requirement that future RV/Mobile Home Park landlords billed from Master Meters put up $15.00 deposits for each sewer connection. In addition, should City personnel locate upcapped vacant lines, the landlord would be billed for $35.00 ($10.00 materials fee; $25.00 service fee) for each violation of the Ordinance. It was agreed that the deposit requirement would not be retroactive for present Mobile Home/RV Parks.

PERSONNEL POLICY:

The final draft of the proposed Personnel Policy was distributed to the Councilmembers. After brief discussion of changes from the last meeting, motion was made by Randy Mankin and seconded by Dora Bosmans that the Policy be approved. Motion carried. Copies will be distributed to the current employees.

CHRISTIAN WORKING AGREEMENT:

The Secretary distributed the City's latest draft of Working Agreement after receipt of Christian's latest draft and incorporating City requirements. After discussion of additions and changes, the Secretary was asked to rework it and distribute copies to the Christian family. Also, she was asked to invite the Christians and their attorney to the July 9 meeting. Copies will be given to each Councilmember prior to the meeting.

HEUSSNER UPDATE:

The Secretary reported that she had contacted 4 of the referenced purchasers of the Heussner product and that all had been favorable. The types of plants had varied, mostly due to use of aerators, but that the shock treatment of the plants and the continued use of product had improved the wastewater plants test results, odor, and sludge problems. She also had mentioned the BEF product to the City's engineer, David Todd, and he was familiar with the product and felt that the City should pursue the use of BEF or a similar product to bring the plant into compliance. No action was taken by the Council. Mr. Dean stated that he still needed to check with the TWC.

With no further business, meeting adjourned at 10:15 P.M.

Carolyn Mayo,
City Secretary

Irrigation Pipe: A Deadly Diversion

Irrigation pipes spread the flow of needed water through croplands, but they may also divert a deadlier current—electricity! The mishandling of irrigation pipe is a major cause of accidental contact with overhead electric lines in farming areas.

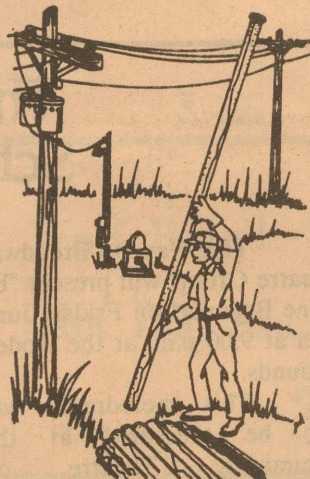

Several factors may set the stage for a tragedy:

- When not in use, pipe is often stored at the edge of the field—the most likely location for overhead lines.
- An irrigation pump motor may be electrically powered, requiring an overhead service line from the distribution line.
- Most power lines are easily within contact range of the 30' sections of pipe.
- Irrigation pipe is made of aluminum, which is one of the best conductors of electricity. Most new distribution lines are made of aluminum.
- The pipe is often used by small animals as a refuge or a nesting place. Hunters or children may turn the section on end to dislodge game.
- Workers may upend sections to relocate them or clear them of debris.

Any contact with an overhead line may prove fatal, whether that line is an insulated service conductor at 480 volts or an open-wire distribution conductor at 7,200 volts. Always remember to look before you lift.

Laugh

About the time we learn to make the most of life, the most of it is gone!

--Someone who is now dead

Quite often, I include a quote at the top of my little articles. Sometimes, I will quote a dead person. Sometimes, I will quote a person who is temporarily alive. These are really the only two choices that I have, because everyone is either dead or dying.

Ilse Williams is a friend. Ilse helps out in the Success office by proofreading and creating some ads. Occasionally she appears to still be alive. Last week, I used something that Ilse said as a quote at the top of my article. Underneath the quote, I put-- Ilse Williams. Some people thought that Ilse wrote the whole column and told her that they thought it was great. Well, it was great but Ilse didn't write it-- I DID. I could have used the kind words.

You see, most of the time, when anyone goes to the trouble of commenting about a local newspaper to it's publisher, those comments are usually negative. If there are misspelled words, people will let you know. If there is left out people will let you know. If your grammar ain't good... you got it. People will let you know.

Recently, two different people let me know that they thought that the cost of the newspaper was too much. I agree. I think that it's too much for a small town paper. But, there's not much that I can do about it.

You see, the actual cost of producing and circulating a paper of this size is about $.75 per copy. The only way that we can afford to sell it to you for less is because of our advertisers. Businesses underwrite part of the costs through advertising.

Some papers that are much bigger than ours costs much less. This is due largely to advertising. IBM, MasterCard and Sears advertise in some of the larger publications. Our advertisers include Gliddens, The Eldorado Pharmacy and Jerry's T.V. and others. These are all nice people, but they don't have million dollar advertising budgets.

A local paper is very important to any community, and especially ours. You may buy more paper for less money, but there is no other news source that is dedicated to you-- the people of Schleicher County.

I have constantly stated, that this is a COMMUNITY newspaper. Most anything you want to have published will be published in this paper. That is something that even the largest papers in the world can't and won't give you.

Honestly, it didn't bother me that some folks thought that Ilse wrote my column. In fact, I am sort of flattered, because Ilse really knows how to write. It's pretty much the same as with other things in life. Who gets the credit is not nearly as important as getting things done. One thing that I do hope you will help me do is keep the Success a strong voice for Schleicher County. You can do this by supporting all of our advertisers and occasionally, just occasionally, giving me a good quote.

Till The Next Time...

MAY GOD BLESS!

SCNH Hat Contest

The Schleicher County Nursing Home Residents held a Hat Contest last Thursday at 2:30 p.m.

Four prizes were given away. They were: Dick Bearce, "The Card Shark" took a place for Most Original. He wore a hat with cards attached all over it. Most Colorful was won by Ruth Finnigan, "Bubble Head." This contraption consisted of a straw flower basket with balloons blown up and attached to it. Funniest was awarded to Bill Baze, "Bird Brain." His straw hat was camouflaged with branches and had a bird nest with 2 birds on top. The Most Outrageous hat was Ronnie Neff, with the assistance of Rhonda Corbeil. They were "Paper Heads." This surely couldn't have been a last minute throw together, could it?

Others who participated were Elizabeth Ballew in her new Red, White and Blue dress and her patriotic hat with a flag on the top. Hettie Bryan in her large dainty lavender hat with flowers, Jewel Hodges in her very own creation with bows on top and ribbon to tie it on. Blanche West wore an oriental style hat with its very own earrings attached. Ada Wynn wore a straw hat with flowers and had a veil attached over her face. Marjorie Nartz, Ellen Ray, and Ruby Fowler wore their version of Cowboy hats. Gracie Bradshaw wore the authentic bonnet.

The party was enjoyed by all. Ice cream floats were enjoyed afterwards, with Lydia Barajas and Danny Ferguson serving.

Judges for the contest were Beverly Minor, Liz Valero, and Lewis Whitten. The job was tough, but someone had to do it.

Health News

by Dr. Rico J. Forlano

Youngsters who keep their feet trapped inside occlusive footwear such as tennis shoes can develop an unpleasant skin condition called sweaty sock syndrome.

This syndrome typically affects young children and looks a great deal like the fungal infection athlete's foot, which is rare in children. The skin on the foot becomes scaly and appears dry. Then it gets red, tender, crusty, and then oozing blisters develop. The warm humid environment breaks down the skin and it looks like dry skin but the skin is really retaining too much moisture.

Untreated sweaty sock syndrome can develop into a bacterial infection. This syndrome can be helped by using clean white cotton socks rather than synthetic ones. It could also be helped by using over the counter petroleum based moisturizers on the affected skin. If the measures are ineffective the child should be seen by a Medical Physician.

Senior Ambassadors

The First Baptist Church Senior Ambassadors met for their regular meeting, on Monday night. There were 28 in attendance, including three visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fuller of Atlanta, Tx. and Mildred Stanford, of Woodville, Tx. All formerly lived in Eldorado, and were just coming home.

The meeting was called to order by President Harry Mercer, and minutes were read by secretary Dana Owens. A report was given of the Canyon trip, to see "Texas." It was reported as "perfect," except for one van break-down. Virginia Griffin, historian, brought the history book of the Senior Ambassadors, so everyone could see. The Senior Ambassadors were first organized in December of 1985.

The 90th Church

Anniversary was discussed. It is to be held on September 14 and 15, with a picnic on Saturday night, and "dinner on the ground" Sunday. Many former pastors will be in attendance, and several volunteered their homes for them to stay in. The Senior ambassadors voted to have several books and pictures of their travels on display for the Anniversary. Corinne Hext will be in charge of these. All were asked to bring any old pictures of any church organization or activity they might have.

Chips, dips, and cookies and drinks were served by Burnell O'Conner and Peggy McGrath. After Mabel told a couple of Aggie jokes, she and Billy Frank led the fun activities by leading the group in playing "Family Feud". Everyone had a relaxing evening.
