

Ike Gets Manila Ovation

By JOHN SCALLI
MANILA (AP)—A joyful, singing, almost uncontrollable mass of Filipinos today nearly overwhelmed President Eisenhower with an ecstatic welcome.

This land which the United States set free only 14 years ago gave Eisenhower perhaps the greatest tribute he has ever received overseas. One and a half million or more roared, their acclaim along a flag-bedecked route showering Eisenhower with a near blizzard of pastel confetti.

Garcia—despite political pressures that sometimes make it expedient to strike an unfriendly pose toward America—was unstinting in his praise of Eisenhower and the United States as leaders of the free world in a quest for peace.

Garcia said the Philippines "is and will ever be the staunch friend and ally of the United States." He praised Eisenhower for his "patient, passionate and unrelenting quest for permanent and just world peace."

Eisenhower, referring to disputes between the United States and its former colony over war claims and trade relations, replied that "no petty difference can ever tear apart" the bonds of friendship between the two countries.

In a personal note, Eisenhower also conveyed good wishes from Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who led American forces back to the Philippines in World War II. Eisenhower served under MacArthur as staff aide in the Philippines before the war.

The two presidents, sitting side by side in a long convertible, headed into the city. The route wound through tree-lined residential areas and the bustling, modern heart of Manila rebuilt from the destruction of World War II. The crowds were packed in and 15 deep in some places. Humidity made it like a steam bath for many along the route. But this put no check on their high spirits.

People jammed onto roofs and balconies for a better look. Boys scrambled up trees.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty was asked to compare the Manila reception with the some two million Indians who hailed Eisenhower as "the prince of peace" when he visited New Delhi.

Hagerty said it was hard to make comparisons. But he added: "It is as big a one as I have ever seen and I certainly have never seen any as enthusiastic."

Spectators waved banners, pennants and "We Love Ike" placards. Some of the Filipinos hung from trees and lamp posts and stood jammed on balconies.

Filipino officials, who had encouraged a massive turnout, seemed overjoyed.

There were times when Eisenhower appeared tired and concerned. He perspired profusely in the humid 85-degree heat. But he still grinned.

Eisenhower flew to Manila to start his 10-day Asian tour after an overnight stop at Anchorage, Alaska, and a brief pause for refueling at Wake Island. His big orange-nosed jet landed at Clark Air Force Base north of the city and the President flew to Manila in the military transport plane, since the Manila Airport runways are not long enough for the biggest jets.

Blast Ignites Refinery Fire

FREEDOM, Pa. (AP)—An explosion in a large tank at the Valvoline Refinery Co. today set fire to thousands of gallons of oil.

Three hours after the blast, flames continued to spew and threatened eight other tanks. Firemen fought the blaze with chemicals.

In a precautionary move, firemen built dikes on the road parallel to the refinery to corral any flow of oil should the other tanks explode.

There were no immediate reports of any injuries.

"We think we will be able to keep the blaze from spreading," a refinery spokesman said, but added:

"In this type of fire there's always danger of other tanks exploding."

Several volunteer fire departments in the area were pressed into service along with the company's fire-fighting crew.

CONSTRUCTION CONFERENCE — Representatives of the Texas Highway Department, the Highway Patrol, and the Brannon Construction, Inc., of Victoria met Monday afternoon in the courthouse to coordinate plans for 7.9 miles of the two lane section of U. S. Highway 84 to parallel the existing highway from the Mitchell County line to a mile south of Hermleigh. The conference was instigated by the Highway Department in Austin to make construction easier and safer. Exchanging ideas above, seated from left, Sgt. Paul Allen of the Highway Patrol, resident engineer Homer Ray, W. D. (Dub) Turner of Brannon Construction, and standing from left, Snyder chief inspector for Highway Department, Milton Calloway, Highway Patrolman Will Cleveland, District 8 Construction engineer W. O. Crawford, and Joe M. Middleton who is maintenance foreman in the Snyder area.

Peddler's Law, Gas Rate Hike Approved

The city council granted a rate increase to Lone Star Gas Co. and approved final reading of a new peddler's ordinance last night.

Some 15 or 20 persons who sat in on the session commented on the peddler's ordinance, some urging revisions while others questioned that any ordinance is needed.

The ordinance was finally approved on a split vote, with Councilmen Rex Fields, Russell Vorse, Bill Eiland and Jim Mixon voting for passage, and Councilmen Stanley Noah and D. D. Sheldahl voting against it.

The peddler's ordinance provides for regulation of house-to-house selling in the city. House-to-house salesmen are required to apply at the city hall for licenses. The initial application requires a $5 investigation fee, while the license fee itself is $10 per year. This continuous license would cost $15 for a first year and $10 per year thereafter, provided it is renewed on schedule.

The chief of police is assigned responsibility of investigating applicants.

The gas company's rate increase was approved following several weeks of study by the council. Figures supplied by Lone Star and others obtained by the council from the Texas Railroad Commission were surveyed during the deliberation. The increase amounts to 5.4 cents per 1,000 cubic feet of gas.

C. L. Callaway, Lone Star's district manager, said the increase will amount to only slightly more than one cent per day for the average user in Snyder.

On Feb. 15 of this year, the Texas Railroad Commission authorized an increase in the city charge of 5.4 cents per 1,000 cubic feet. The rate revision here is the exact amount of the increase in city gate charges.

The approved increase will only offset the increased cost of gas to the distribution division at the city gate, Callaway said.

The council passed a resolution supporting the Colorado River Municipal Water District's application for a permit to construct a lake in Mitchell County, and voted to sell four surplus desks at the city hall to E. L. Fikes Jr. on a bid of $132.50, which was the top bid received.

A proposed revision of speed zones on highways through the city was sketched except for one segment. The Highway Department had proposed a speed limit of 45 mph on Highway 350 (Big Spring Highway) between Thirtieth and Thirty-seventh Street. The council voted to reduce the speed limit there to 40 mph.

A board of equalization composed of Jack Colla, Lee Smythe and L. A. McLanahan was appointed.

City Manager Roy Dunlap was instructed to advertise for bids on a project to revamp Thirty-seventh Street between Avenue V and Austin Avenue. This street, which also is a county farm road, will involve joint action by the city and county.

Promise To Refute Proxmire Charges

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department promised today what it called "a detailed refutation" of charges by Sen. William Proxmire (D-Wis.) that it was guilty of serious irregularities in buying furniture.

Proxmire told the Senate Monday that a firm headed by the son of Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller had received nine contracts totaling $89,400 for furniture for embassies abroad.

"Not one of the contracts was awarded on the basis of competitive bids," Proxmire said.

He particularly criticized the purchase of more than $60,000 of furniture for the U.S. Embassy in Caracas, Venezuela, and the shipment of most of it there by plane at an added cost of $30,000.

He rejected as unsatisfactory the State Department's explanation that the decision to ship by plane was made because of a longshoremen's strike. He said the strike ended last Oct. 9 and the embassy wasn't ready for occupancy until Nov. 1.

The State Department said that the furniture had not arrived by Nov. 1, it would have had to retain its old quarters for another month at a rental cost of $11,000.

Proxmire recalled that in a Wisconsin speech last November, Secretary Mueller declared "we shall continue to expose and strike down every spendthrift class reaching for the taxpayer's pocket."

"I suggest," Proxmire said, "the State Department should live up to its promise."

Texas Republicans Join In Parade To Nixon Bandwagon

By JOE BENHAM
SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Texas Republicans joined in near-unanimous support of the Vice President Richard Nixon in his bid for the presidency today as the state GOP convention opened.

Backers of Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York threw their support to Nixon after a pre-convention caucus. This left Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater as the only other figure with Texas support for the nomination.

Goldwater has far more backing for vice president than present.

Phil Schultz of Houston, spokesman for the Rockefeller organization,

The turnout is the largest for the party in years, leading state chairman Thad Hutchison to predict "this is the time for us to take out after our Democratic opposition and do the job of an effective minority party in Texas."

The convention will select 54 delegates and 54 alternates to cast Texas' 54 votes.

The degree of endorsement for Nixon appeared to be the major issue.

Some delegates have spoken up for a Texas delegation pledged to support Nixon for president on the GOP ticket. Others favor an un-

LBJ Group Wins In Initial Major Test

By DAVE CHEAVENS
AUSTIN (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson won overwhelming control today of the state Democratic convention.

Johnson's forces rolled over dissident liberals 2,252 to 40 in the session's first test vote. It was a liberal proposal to tighten party loyalty rules.

An expected walkout by the badly-beaten minority didn't materialize. Johnson's opponents were mostly on the outside of the hall.

It was not immediately clear whether a ramp convention would be called.

Early in the "convention," it appeared that Johnson not only had won control, but also the harmony he wanted to back him up in his bid for the presidential nomination in the national convention.

The vote was on a motion to kill a proposal by anti-Johnson forces for an ironclad loyalty pledge as opposed to the Johnson camp's less rigid loyalty declaration.

Gov. Price Daniel, taking the gavel as temporary chairman said that anybody who had the nerve to challenge the overwhelming endorsement for Johnson at the national convention "must surely be out of his mind." Daniel drew a roaring cheer when he referred to Johnson as the man who could win the nomination and the presidency.

Rep. Jim Wright (D-Tex.) of Weatherford won loud handclaps and repeated cheers in his keynote speech which was 90 per cent in oration in praise of Johnson.

Johnson has all that is needed "to lead us to an overwhelming victory in November," Wright told the delegates.

Johnson had offered a double-barreled loyalty declaration similar to statements adopted by former state and national conventions. The liberals said it was not strong enough.

Also Dickie of Denton, vice chairman of the Democrats of Texas Clubs (DOTC) that have fought Johnson, moved to amend the report of the executive committee by requiring delegates to

Convention Fits Pattern

By GARTH JONES
AUSTIN (AP)—The 1960 state Democratic convention started like all other political conventions—late.

It was 20 minutes past the 10 a.m. starting time before the traditional convention organ burst forth with "The Eyes of Texas," followed by "Yellow Rose of Texas."

The current convention resembled others in another way also. Perspiring convention hall workers changed the arrangement of tables and chairs on the stage three times before party officials were satisfied.

Workers were busy all night clearing the mess left by one of the most elaborate political dinners ever given here.

An estimated 3,000 persons dined on strip steaks and heard praise of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, a part-

Powers Writes Wife That Soviets Treating Him Well

By ROSS HAGEN
MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga. (AP)—The wife of an American flyer imprisoned in the Soviet Union on spy charges said today he had written her that he is being treated well.

Barbara Gay Powers, 25, said she received the letter May 31 from Francis Gary Powers, 30, in regular mail. It was postmarked Moscow, 26, in Moscow.

"Dr. James H. Baugh," Mrs. Powers' physician, read her statement at a news conference at Milledgeville where she is staying at the home of her mother, Montee Brown.

Mrs. Powers was not present at the conference.

Baugh said the envelope had a return address which he declined to disclose other than to say, it was a Moscow street address. He said the letter showed no signs of having been censored. The letter itself was not made public and Baugh read Mrs. Powers' prepared statement on her impressions of it. The statement said:

"It has meant a great deal to me to know that my husband is safe and is being treated well. I am greatly appreciative of the Soviet government for allowing

A great deal of the letter was concerned with personal things.

Baugh, answering questions after reading the statement, said Powers had encouraged his wife to visit Moscow. He said the Soviet government has said his relatives can come and that he needs more time during and after the trial.

"I think I received this one personal excerpt from the letter. Our boat trip back will have to be postponed and the home we planned will have to be put off."

Powers was captured May 1 and charged with being a spy after his plane was downed deep in Soviet territory. The incident brought international tensions.

Several weeks later his wife was flown to the United States from Turkey where she was recovering from a leg broken in a skiing accident.

Powers said in his letter that it took him several days to compose himself before he could write.

Baugh described Powers as not particularly emotional and that the letter indicated he was well composed. The letter did not appear to have been dictated.

Japs Alert Troops As Ike Visit Nears

By GENE KRAMER

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese security officials are alerting troops of Japan's new army to back up police in case of violence flares during President Eisenhower's visit.

A Defense Board spokesman said a 2,000-man regiment had been alerted and a division might be rushed up if the situation warranted.

The spokesman stressed that responsibility for guarding Eisenhower rests with a 25,000-man police force to be mobilized against leftist demonstrations expected when Eisenhower arrives Sunday.

Violence accompanied police raids on union and student headquarters in search of leaders of Friday's Communist-sponsored attack against White House press secretary, James C. Hagerty's car.

In a series of pre-dawn raids, police rounded up five officials of a leftist labor union and seized evidence after searching a factory in Kawasaki, south of the capital.

Zengakuren students tried to repel the police with rocks and stones. Eleven policemen were reported injured, but no students were arrested.

Major non-Communist leftist organizations were reported considering abandoning plans for a large-scale demonstration at the airport, although it appeared likely they would demonstrate elsewhere during the President's visit.

There were reports of a possible truce between Kishi's government and the Communist bloc.

leagued government and its Socialist opposition to take the heat off Eisenhower's visit.

Kishi's Liberal Democratic party was reported considering recessing Parliament for three to five days if it remains in session, the security treaty is automatically ratified on Sunday, the day Eisenhower arrives.

The Socialist party, which has been demanding the dissolution of the treaty, so an election campaign can be fought with the treaty as the main issue.

A top security official said, "If the Socialists decide not to demonstrate against the president's arrival, the police will have no great problem in guarding him."

He said they then would have to contend only with "a maximum of 7,000 Communists and pro-Communists including 3,000 students."

The pro-Communist wing of Zengakuren, which played a key role in mobbing of Hagerty's car, avowed its intention to demonstrate when Eisenhower arrives.

But Socialist party leader Inejiro Asanuma urged "every precaution so that the June 10 Hagerty incident will not be repeated."

Left-wing unions claimed that more than five million workers will stop work for from one hour to all day Wednesday in another nationwide demand for Kishi to dissolve Parliament and put the U.S.-Japan pact to an election test.

Students and union members also planned new mass marches on Parliament and the U.S. Embassy.

Tomisaburo Hashimoto, head of the National Welcome Committee for Eisenhower, predicted a 1.1 million Japanese would turn out to cheer the president's arrival.

Hashimoto told the Cabinet the throng will include 35,000 citizens who will work actively with police to keep order and 30,000 students of Nihon University, which is awarding Eisenhower an honorary degree.

The Communist bloc kept up its propaganda campaign against the President's tour.

The Soviet Communist party paper Pravda said the President had gotten himself into a "most stupid situation" by his plan to visit Japan.

"Before the eyes of the whole world," Pravda said, "he will be compelled to force his way through the door of a house which has been closed by its owner, the Japanese people."

Suspect In Murder Waives Extradition

LOS ANGELES (AP)—John Junior James waived extradition today and will be returned to Texas to face murder and robbery charges.

Police say James had admitted the slaying of John Milton "Blackford" 46, a customer in a Waco supermarket, he held up Jan. 29.

Detectors quoted James 30 as saying, "If I don't get the death penalty, I'll be lucky." They say he has admitted 18 robberies in 7 states.

He was captured here Friday after trying to rob a Western Union office with a top pistol.

"He's ready to go," police said of James' return to Texas. Two Waco officers were en route and are expected to arrive Thursday to take custody of him.

Johnson Says Nothing Can Halt Party If It Unites

By LEE JONES

AUSTIN, AP—Sen. Lyndon Johnson says nothing can stop the Democrats in November provided they "keep their heads, don't go off the deep end, and remain united."

Disunity, the candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination told his audience Monday night at a $50-a-plate Johnson-for-president dinner, plays into the hands of both Nixon and Khrushchev.

Johnson spoke to some 3,000 Democrats gathered to pay homage not only to the senator, but also to Gov. Price Daniel, Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, and former Vice President John F. Kennedy.

"I don't think we should refuse to do Mr. Nixon's work for him," Johnson said. "I am confident that we can unite our party. Dissent solely for the purpose of dividing and disrupting the party serves no purpose but Mr. Nixon's."

Johnson said one of Khrushchev's motives in using the 1960 summit conference was to cause disunion and division in the United States.

"I don't think he accomplished this," he said. "We left him in no doubt. We told him, the Democratic Party would not do his work for him by dividing America in this perilous hour."

Johnson's fellow congressmen, and the whole passel of state officials joined the cheering, clapping throng that jammed Municipal Auditorium.

Rep. Homer Thornberry said 150 members of the House of Representatives were present.

Thornberry recognized a long list of state officials that included State Treasurer Jesse James, Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White, Secretary of State Zelle Sorkley, Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey, Speaker of the House Waggoner Carr, Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson, and Atty. Gen. Will Wilson.

As Thornberry recognized one dignitary after another, someone in the crowd shouted, "where's Ralph Yarborough?" Yarborough was absent.

Near sunset workmen removed curtains blocking off part of the auditorium, revealing in 6-foot high letters, "All The Way With LBJ."

While not announcing his candidacy, Johnson laid great emphasis on the need for strong presidential leadership. The same note with Johnson's name added, was sounded by Daniel, Rayburn, and Thornberry, who preceded him on the platform.

Daniel remarked that Johnson "puts his country, his fellow man, and the peace of the world above himself," and said Johnson "is the type of man we need in these perilous times."

"I can't see how any Democrat in Texas can fail to work for the nomination of Lyndon Johnson," Rayburn said. "I think I know what leadership means. Lyndon Johnson is the most effective leader I have ever seen."

Judge Orders Walkout Halt

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A U.S. District Court judge signed an injunction today ordering Eastern Air Lines pilots to halt their walkout. The judge earlier barred the Federal Aviation Agency from intervening in the case.

Also scheduled were hearings on contempt citations against some of the pilots who refused to honor court orders to fly Eastern's planes out of Miami.

The big carrier told U.S. Dist. Judge Joseph P. Lieb that the walkout, which is not union-sanctioned, is costing Eastern $1.5 million a day.

An EAL spokesman said only 21 per cent of its planes flew Monday. Eastern normally operates 400 flights daily on routes that extend from Houston, Texas, east to San Juan, Puerto Rico and then to New York.

The pilots struck Friday night at Miami in protest at allowing FAA inspectors to occupy cockpit seats on passenger flights. They claim that practice can distract the pilots.

The FAA was turned down on a request to intervene in the court case as an "interested party."

A spokesman for the Air Line Pilots Assn. said pilots of Trans World, American and Pan American air lines have adopted resolutions saying they will not fly planes in which toll crews are not available for duty.

History Of Philippines In Capsule

By The Associated Press

History—Colonized by the Spanish 400 years before the American flag was planted in Manila in 1898 following the Spanish-American war. Granted independence in 1946.

Geography—The 7,000 Philippine islands stretch a thousand miles from north to south. They cover 115,000 square miles, but only 402 of them are a square mile or more in area.

Population—Twenty-four million people, mostly of Malay stock, but with a heavy sprinkling of Chinese, Spanish and American blood. About 83 per cent are Roman Catholic.

Languages—The official language is Tagalog, a Malay dialect, but about half the population speaks English fluently.

Government—Governed under a constitution adopted in 1953. President and vice president are elected for four years. Congress has a Senate of 24 members and a House of Representatives of 102 members.

U.S.-Philippine relations—Filipinos are staunchly pro-American but some think the United States is overlooking them in hurrying to strengthen its former enemy Japan and in granting aid to such northern Asian nations as India. They want U.S. aid in their World War II fighting record at Bataan, Corregidor and in guerrilla campaigns. They want American missiles capable of carrying nuclear warheads stationed in the Philippines.

Airliner Reported Overdue On Flight

SEATTLE, AP—A Pacific Northern Airlines passenger plane with about 12 persons aboard is overdue on a flight from Cordova to Anchorage, Alaska, the airline reported today.

The four-engine Constellation left Cordova at 6:16 a.m. PST and was due in Anchorage about an hour later.

PNA headquarters here said it had no report of trouble from the pilot, and was merely listing the plane overdue.

Accountant Sentenced

GALESTON, AP—Samuel Kowalsky, Laredo accountant, was assessed a 3-year prison term and fined $2,000 by Federal Judge Ben C. Connally Monday for income tax evasion.

Hutchinson said he has heard talk among the delegates of several possible successors to Mrs. Black, but he decided to name them.

Federation Gets Message From Ike

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower sent word to the general federation of women's clubs that "the challenge of tomorrow must arouse all of our energy and determination today."

The President, who is in the Far East on a goodwill tour, left behind a message of greeting for the federation, which opens business sessions of its 60th annual convention today.

Miss Chloé Gifford of Lexington, Ky., outgoing president of the 600,000-member federation, announced the activities of her two-year term at an opening banquet Monday night.

As a convention prelude, the 1,000 delegates attended a "Salute to Women" banquet, honoring six outstanding women.

Heading the list was Eleanor

Roosevelt, honored for outstanding contributions in the field of human relations.

Mrs. Roosevelt said searching questions are being asked abroad about America, including how we treat minorities. "Those asking often are people of color who have just gained their freedom," she said.

The salute also honored Miss Bertha Adkins, undersecretary of Health, Education and Welfare, in the field of government. Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine) in the legislative field. Miss Sylvia Porter, pioneer financial columnist, and Dr. Anne Pansell, president of Sweet Briar College in Virginia.

Clare Booth Luce, former ambassador to Italy who also was on the list, was unable to attend.

Cuba Edges Into Red Bloc

By RICHARD VALERIANI
Havana, AP.—Ernesto Guevara, president of the National Bank of Cuba, today discussed a trade treaty with a Czechoslovakian mission. The minister of armed forces, Raul Castro, entertained a party of Bulgarians. A team of Soviet geologists completed a mining survey. That night, Prime Minister Fidel Castro and Guevara headed the list of government officials who have underscored the process of turning Cuba into a Communist state. The move was announced today among Western diplomats' diplomatic aid privately. Broadway Celebrates Strike End

NEW YORK, AP.—Broadway celebrated the end of its first year-long black-out in 41 years Monday night in a festive celebration. The night was a welcome change from the gloom of the past year, with the sounds of music, drama, and song. Curtains went up for the first time in 12 days as 19 productions returned to the boards. It was a happy end to the contract fight between actors and producers. Actors, producers and show-starved theatergoers made the most of it. The nearly 800 actors who returned to the stage gave the kind of pep that inspired performers associated with first nights. They were back on stage with wage increases plus the first actors' pensions in theater history. Producers, overjoyed to see the end of a shutdown that cost them a million dollars in box office receipts, exchanged warm congratulations as throngs milled outside busy ticket windows. With the theaters working again, Manhattan's unique night-life tempo returned to normal. Crowds jammed the restaurants, bars and clubs of the theater district. Streams of theatergoers and fleets of taxis jammed the streets. Actor Lee Tracy, a star of "The Best Man," summed it up in a word as he arrived at the Morosini Theater: "Happy, happy, happy," he beamed.

Farmers Are Urged To Redeem Cotton

WASHINGTON, AP.—Farmers having 1960-crop cotton under government price support loans are being urged to pay off the loans and redeem the cotton before July 31. The Agriculture Department has announced that on that date any cotton still under loan will be taken over by it and placed in government stocks. Loans would be canceled. But the grower would get nothing from the government to reflect the market value in excess of the loan. To get his extra value, the grower must redeem the cotton and sell it himself. About 330,000 bales of cotton were stored under loans June 3.

Minister Is Paid After 35 Years

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—A retired Methodist minister has been paid—35 years late—for a wedding he performed. At Monday's closing session of the Holston Methodist Conference, the Rev. Carl L. Atcham of Soddy, Tenn., was presented a $35 check by Bishop Roy Short. The check, from D. D. Daugherty of Ridgeville, Tenn., read: "For wedding ceremony Jan. 4, 1925." Daugherty said he forgot to pay the preacher.

national friends and markets in the U.S. here. Friendship with Communist China is blossoming under the cultivation of a Chinese Cuban Friendship Committee. The Castro regime has sent a steady flow of government and labor leaders behind the Iron and Bamboo Curtains on various missions of trade and good will. This island only 90 miles from the United States has become a favorite stopping ground for anti-Western political leaders. The well-traveled premier of the Soviet Union, Nikita Khrushchev, has accepted a government invitation to visit Cuba. Anti-Americanism falls short of being official government policy. Khrushchev's attacks on the United States are accompanied by words of praise and friendship for things Soviet and Socialist. Guevara is no record as saying the Soviet Union is Cuba's best friend. Max Faure Chaumon, who will be Castro's first ambassador in Moscow, has urged closer ties between Cuba and the Soviet bloc. Cuban newspaper readers, with only one neutral independent daily to read, are subtly fed the Soviet point of view in their daily news through Tass and a host of other Communist news agencies whose stories are distributed in Spanish in the name of a Cuban news service. Gov. Rockefeller Has Earned Gratitude Of Entire Nation

By INEZ ROBB

Dr. Samuel Johnson, a man of wide postulation, once said that "Gratitude is a fruit of great cultivation — you do not find it among gross people."

Just to put myself on the side of cultivation, I am, as a newspaper reporter, deeply grateful to Gov. Nelson Rockefeller for throwing down the gauntlet to Vice President Nixon. If my enthusiasm for the Governor's challenge is not shared by Mr. Nixon and his cohorts, that is understandable.

However, I do think the G.O.P. as well as newsmen should be grateful to Mr. Rockefeller for setting a little life in what looked in advance, like a moribund convention in Chicago, come July 25. With no visible opposition to Mr. Nixon on the horizon, I feared that the whole convention would simply be a Republican convention merely going through the motions of a convention, much less newsworthy, for five whole days.

Before Mr. Rockefeller picked up his javelin-sized needle and let fly, indignantly it would require to keep the Republican convention merely going, much less newsworthy, for five whole days.

No doubt about it, the Republicans just have got to pump oxygen into their convention for five days. When a city such as Chicago or Los Angeles or San Francisco or Philadelphia, lays a large sum on the line to lure a national convention to its precincts, its impulse is never purely altruistic.

It anticipates the money in every expectation that convention delegates and hangers-on, such as Presidential and Vice Presidential aspirants, will spend at least tenfold as much money in the city as the community laid out as bait in the first place.

One of the time-honored perquisites of a convention city is to demand — and get — a guarantee that hotel reservations for the convention will be made for a five-day period, no less. So the Democrats and the Republicans must plan a five-day spectacle to get their money's worth at a convention, and they do.

However, I attended more than one convention where the actual business of nominating a candidate and writing a platform, plus other chores, could have been briskly accomplished in two days. But such conventions were, nonetheless, dragged out to the full five-day period to make the convention city happy, the delegates numb and the newsmen paralyzed.

There was no hope that the Republican convention in Chicago could or would be otherwise until Mr. Rockefeller got into the act with his challenge to Mr. Nixon and the Administration. It is quite possible that Mr. Nixon will still get the plum on the first ballot. But it is also quite possible that Mr. Rockefeller, as head of the big New York delegation, can fight a rip-roaring, finger-in-the-dike delaying action that will pump life into the convention and give us something about which to write.

Even the most ardent Nixon Republicans should cultivate gratitude toward Mr. Rockefeller, for there is nothing so boring as a out-and-dried political convention. This is, unfortunately, a Republican occupational hazard. The Democrats can always be relied upon for bloody and extensive internecine warfare that makes the massacre at the Little Big Horn seem no more than a routine traffic accident.

The first three days of any Democratic convention are usually devoted to giving first aid to the wounded and the dying. Just a day-by-day roundup of the casualties is news.

The Republicans lack this flair. But Gov. Rockefeller has rushed to the rescue. Even if he is carried out on his shield, it ought to inject a little action into the script and bounce into the convention.

Rocky, Adlai Are Making Great Play

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's the greatest play on words since somebody invented abracadabra. Adlai E. Stevenson and New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller deny they're looking for a job but they don't deny they'd run for the phone if the employment agency called.

For a pair being shy, they manage amazingly well to keep their names in the headlines.

Rockefeller withdrew from the race for the Republican presidential nomination without ever having admitted he was in it. Now he is back in it by saying he would accept a draft while firmly denying he's a candidate.

Stevenson on't even agree he'd accept a draft by the Democrats to be their presidential choice. But he doesn't say he would. The last few days his hat seemed to be in the ring. Then he grabbed it back.

Both men continue to stride across the national political scene, making political speeches and noises like candidates. Neither has denied he would just love to be picked.

Stevenson makes speeches explaining his own five-point "grand strategy for peace" and issues statements criticizing the Republicans and President Eisenhower.

He termed the administration's handling of the spy plane a blunder, at the same time speaking out against partisan fault-finding at this time.

Rockefeller criticizes the Eisenhower administration in a number of fields, but says "I think the administration has done a wonderful job."

He shocked the Republicans last week by calling Vice President Richard M. Nixon to come out of the political bushes and say where he stands.

Why Do All Women Want To Marry?

By HAL ROYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Why do women want to marry?

This is something the philosophic male often ponders. For in his unprejudiced eye, it often seems that most of the woes that befall women can be traced, directly or indirectly, to marriage.

Marriage appears to cause many of them to go to rack and ruin. Or if it doesn't, then what does? What else is there to blame?

A single girl of 22, in many ways, represents femininity at its peak. She is neat, strong, healthy and attractive. She has a job and is financially independent. She likes sports and is well-informed on world affairs. She reads the latest books. She keeps up with everything.

She doesn't know it, but she is in the prime of life.

What happens? Well, she listens to some wedge-headed youth who tells her, "What's a pretty dame like you doing wasting yourself behind a typewriter? Why don't you let me take you away from all this empty nonsense?"

She does. She marries the goof. And then what happens? Why she goes straight downhill. She falls apart like a wet paper bag in a hurricane. The years peel her like she was an artichoke.

Before marriage she could play 28 holes of golf and then demand, "Anybody for tennis?" After marriage she can't walk half a block without looking around for a taxi.

Before marriage she could carry a 25-pound pack on an all-day hike without help. After marriage she can't struggle into a girly without help.

Before marriage she liked nothing better than inviting a boy friend to her apartment and dishing him up a nice meal. After marriage she suddenly can't stand her own cooking anymore. She wants to eat out at least three nights a week.

Before marriage a nice cloth coat suited her fine. After marriage something happens to her metabolism. It just can't take these cold winters the way I used to," she says. "I have to have a fur coat or I'll freeze to death."

Between You And Me

By Jerry Jackson

Wal, dawg mah cats if there hasn't been a grave miscarriage of justice, credit wasn't given where credit was richly due. Those of you who saw the Yank-Phillie Contention at the League contest Friday night, and then read the somewhat conflicting report on same in one daily News are doubtless wondering just what happened in the game. The Yanks won handily, 12-1, this report being that "Batsmen were peppered with horsehide pellets on nine occasions in a game which saw exactly nine hits being registered on the part of their team."

Wouldst Thou Be Pulling My Leg?
STRIKE THAT from the record as it is grossly irrelevant, misleading and, worst of all, untrue. Was there a hit? A curve by the scorer in that one, who marked "HP" for each hit instead of "B, 2b, 3b, or HR." So there were nine hits and NO hit batsmen rather than nine hit batsmen and no hits. Get it?

One a double by Miller and the other a single off the bat of Ben Franklin.
Also, instead of being hit by pitched ball twice, as was erroneously relayed, Tommy Minton and Philie were credited with a pair of hits each, one of the Minton safeties being a two-bagger. Franklin reported the discrepancy, walling in understandable fashion that "Any time I get a hit off of Norman Gladson I sort of like it made known."

Tigers' Loss Is Steers' Gain
RESPECT admiration and good wishes will follow Don Robbins to Big Spring at such time as he leaves here to begin his new assignment on the high school coaching staff there.

It is anything is an understatement. A stickler for work, conscientious effort, and "hard-nosed" — but clean—football, he should eventually scale the heights of the coaching profession.
Steers has profited from his services the past year, however, even though it is regrettable that he was wooed away in such short order. He'll make a fine addition to the Steer staff.

Fight For Loop Lead Hot In AL

By Ed Wilks
Associated Press Sports Writer
Baltimore and Cleveland got going on a four-game argument over the American League lead tonight, but the New York Yankees, frolicking along at Kansas City, could have the last word.

By winning five in a row, then slipped to second by losing the first two games of a scheduled four-game set in New York last weekend. The Indians climbed back on top Sunday when rain postponed their doubleheader with the Yankees and the Orioles lost two to Kansas City.

The Orioles are a half-game behind the Indians as they open the three-day series at Cleveland. But the three-place Yankees are just one game shy of the top after winning their sixth in a row with an 8-4 decision over the A's Monday night in the only AL game scheduled.

The Yankees made it seven straight over Kansas City, five this season, behind right-hander Bob Turley and slugger Moose Skowron Monday night.

West Holds Firm Stand

GENEVA—AP—The Western powers again told the Soviet Union today they will never accept a disarmament agreement without a control system providing guarantees for their security.

Turley had a perfect game until Whitey Herzog singled with one out in the fifth. Harry Chitt then hit into a doubleplay. A double-play also followed Bob Johnson's leadoff walk in the sixth. Then came the eighth. Norm Siebern opened with a double and Chitt, Johnson and Ken Hamline followed with one-out singles. A walk forced in one run and Bill Tuttle singled for the other two. Turley finished with a six-hitter, striking out seven and walking just two for his second straight complete game.

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Cubs today recalled pitcher Joe Schaffert from his Houston Astros club and sent Ben Johnson to the same team on a 24-hour recall. Schaffert has an 8-2 record with Houston.

FL Kingpins Mark Up Pair Of Victories Sox Slam Phillies; Dodgers Take Win

Charlie Gladson of the Continental Red Sox successfully throttled the Phillie batting attack with a four-hit effort last night, winning by 7-4 to boost his team into an early league lead with a 2-0 record.

Snottston Jerry Walker of the Phils represented the chief thorn in the side of Gladson, going two for two, including a double, and driving in two of the four runs as marked up by the losers.

In the meantime, the Sox blasted away at Freddie Miller with an 8-10 thrashing, three singles, of which were lined out by Mike Moffett.

Gladson struck out a total of nine over the route, while Miller sent six down swinging. Gladson walked four to Miller's two, also.

The other game of the night involving the Dodgers and Sports was a 1-0 win for the Dodgers.

Randy Owens, Roy Lee and Ralph Cadden tolled on the hill for the Athletics.

The Yankees remained hot on the trail of the league-leading Sox—just a half-game off the pace—by bonning the Indians by 11-3. Mike Todd and Wade McCarty teamed up to post the victory in that one, giving up four hits to the losers, which were split between Waylon Wood and Joe Coplen.

Sam Elledge doubled to lead the four-hit Yank attack on Ronnie Brewer and Benny Garrett.

The slim, 22-year-old University of California graduate suffered a torn achilles tendon in the 800-meter run in the Armed Forces Track Championships here Friday.

He underwent an operation Monday to repair the injured tendon and physicians pronounced it a success.

LaMotta On Carpet Expected To Lower Scores

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators called Jake LaMotta, former middleweight boxing champion, for quizzing today about his stormy up-and-down career.

Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), chairman of the Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee, mentioned an earlier New York state investigation of "possible bribe offers to LaMotta."

Kefauver filled the statement with the subcommittee as part of the official record. He said the group would explore allegations that underworld figures are conspiring with some big shots in the boxing promotion field to wield monopoly rule over professional boxing.

Police protection on reportedly has been arranged for LaMotta and several other witnesses.

Kefauver said assorted hoodlums and boxing figures, some of them hostile witnesses, will testify in various stages of the investigation.

He said the hearing will center on two of LaMotta's Madison Square Garden bouts in 1947 and 1949, both in which LaMotta beat Marcel Cerdan by a technical knockout in Detroit to win the middleweight title.

The subcommittee said it is looking into the June 6, 1947, middleweight match in which LaMotta won a decision over Tony Janiro, and a bout on Nov. 14 the same year in which Billy Fox scored a surprising 10-round technical knockout victory over LaMotta in a light heavyweight bout.

"New York authorities conducted investigations concerning possible bribe offers to LaMotta in the two 1947 matches," Kefauver's statement said.

The 1949 match was the first championship bout promoted under the sole or partial auspices of the international boxing club and marked the beginning of "exclusive contract" control of major boxers by the IBC.

Before the championship fight, Saratoga, opened to the echo of Civil War gunfire, features the two oldest stakes in the nation—the Travers, first run in 1864, and the Saratoga Cup, first run in 1865.

Freddie Benitez and Robert Hobbs pitched for the winners, with a parade of hurlers sharing short stints for the Indians.

The Indians were able to manage only three safeties off the Athletic offerings, one of which was a fourth-inning homer as registered by Johnny Powell.

Frankie Grimmer and Rudy Benitez each powdered two-baggers for the Athletics.

The line scores:
Indians 000 2-2
Athletics 110 13-14

Cardinals 320 100-6
Braves 000 0-0 City.

'Cold Bath' Helps Cure Snake Bite

GALVESTON (AP)—The recovery of Robert Carter, 17, bitten by a deadly Asian cobra, is credited by a Galveston doctor to a "cold bath" treatment never before used for a cobra bite.

The treatment was directed by Dr. Fred Mullins, head of the Dermatology Department at John Sealy Hospital. He said he believed it was the first time the cold bath has been used for a cobra bite.

Carter was taken to the hospital five minutes after being bitten on a finger of the left hand while exhibiting the snake at a show here. He is from La Marque, Tex. Doctors began the cold bath treatment after the usual first aid was administered. Eight and a half hours later cobra anti-venom serum arrived from the McClung Farm, La. Place, La.

Since a cobra bite is often fatal within two or three hours unless anti-venom is administered, Mullins said the cold bath treatment helped save Carter.

Mullins said that in the treatment Carter's hand was immersed in ice water which prevented the spread of the poison from the bite area.

Anti-venom is always used in conjunction with the bath.

The extremity is kept in the cold water from 18 to 24 hours, the doctor said, and then removed to see if it can be kept out of the water.

Pain from the bite is deadened by the ice water and the limb becomes numb while immersed.

Under conventional methods of treatment, Mullins said, the bitten part is often amputated.

Late Monday the temperature of the bath water was allowed to rise slowly, a process that was to continue for 10 hours.

Vegetable Yield Up

AUSTIN (AP)—The U.S. Department of Agriculture estimates production of spring and early summer vegetables and melons in Texas this year is five per cent above 1959.

Increased watermelons and early summer onion prospects made up for decreased prospects for spring cantaloupes, sweet corn, honeydew melons, late spring onions and late spring tomatoes.

The USDA estimated early summer watermelon production at nine per cent above 1959. Harvesting started in the Lower Valley in late May.

Early summer onion production in the trans-Pecos and Panhandle is 24 per cent above 1959. The late spring crop in North Texas is expected to dip 26 per cent below last year's.

Late spring tomato harvest in South Central Texas started near the end of May. Sweet corn and cantaloupes were harvested in South Texas.

Ambulance Drivers Argue Over Body

HOLSTON (AP)—It was "the sorriest and saddest situation I've ever seen."

That's the way Henry Ismode described two ambulance drivers violently arguing Monday over which one would take the body of a 2-year-old boy killed by a car to a hospital.

Ismode, an investigator for the Harris County Medical Examiner's office, said Jose Trinidad Sapien was killed by a car driven by a teenager.

He said the men, whose names were not known, argued while the body of the child lay in the street.

Mullins believes Carter will show no ill effects from the bite when his hand is removed from the water today.

Another snakebite victim, Earl Tanner, 18, was taken off the critical list Monday at another Galveston hospital after undergoing the same treatment for a bite from a copperhead received at the McClung farm.

Mullins said the bath treatment was devised by Dr. Herbert L. Stahnke, professor of zoology at Arizona State University and has been used three times on persons bitten by rattlers.

Mullins said Stahnke told him Monday that he feels the treatment should be used on all snakebite victims.

Census Shows Big Increase For Texas

DALLAS (AP)—Texas increased its population by almost 2 million persons in the past 10 years according to a preliminary census figure announced Monday.

Regional census Director James Stroud said he was advised by Rep. Bruce Alger of Dallas that the preliminary 1960 census figure for the state is 9,450,895, up 1,782,701 from 1950, for a gain of 23.1 per cent.

The increase is slightly below estimates made last year by the Census Bureau which had forecast a 1960 figure of 9,513,000.

Texas is still running well ahead of the national average in population growth, however. Figures compiled so far show the nation's population has increased 17 to 18 per cent in the last 10 years.

The Texas figure apparently is based on a 946,324 total for Dallas County, a figure that is being rechecked. No official announcement on Dallas' population has been made.

In 1950 the city had 614,790 persons.

Dallas County and Harris County, which includes Houston, have been given more time to complete their census. Most other cities in Texas completed their census more than two weeks ago.

Harris County's figure is expected to be about 1,228,000.

The tentative Texas figure indicated that Texas will rank sixth in the nation behind New York, California, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Injured Walker Anxious To Resume Cross-Country Hike

By PETER VON STEIN

BRAZIL, Ind. (AP)—State police and Dr. Barbara Moore differed slightly today on how it happened, but the 36-year-old British vegetarian was more interested in hitting the road than in discussing her mishap.

The Russian-born physician said the "fox American car" bumped her "just at the wrong moment," interrupting her cross-country hike Monday as she strode toward Indianapolis from the Illinois-Indiana border.

Dr. Moore said she was hit without warning while walking next to the grass divider strip on U.S. 40. State police said she stepped off the grass and into the path of the car driven by Elizabeth M. Kline, 67, of St. Louis.

The car, a 1958 Ford, was traveling slowly moving back and forth on the grass divider strip, and a scooter left after the accident.

Although she has no chance of breaking the cross-country walking record, Dr. Moore spoke anxiously of resuming her California to New York trek as soon as possible if, for no other reason, than to hurry down under for her cross-Australia march.

"And Canada after that," she said, sitting up in her Clay County hospital bed.

"I'm about run-ins with American cars and motorcycles," she said. "I'm about run-ins with American cars and motorcycles."

Another car was the fall that ripped her last pair of treading

Dr. Moore planned to be on her way "sooner than you think." She said her vegetarian diet of more than 40 years had quickened her recuperative powers, and that she might walk "day and night" over the last 700 plus miles of the trip which started 62 days ago in San Francisco.

She passed off an expired accident insurance policy as a twist of fate. When she paid $6 for the policy while crossing through Kansas May 27, she "expected to be in New York before the two-week expiration date."

She seemed more concerned about the worry she had caused her husband, a British sculptor, Max Moore, who had been in the hospital since the accident.

"I'm about run-ins with American cars and motorcycles," she said. "I'm about run-ins with American cars and motorcycles."

pants. "If I start tomorrow, I shall have nothing to wear."

Dr. Moore put away a healthy ration of salad, crushed pecans, crushed carrots, strawberries and tomato juice. She told reporters, "you Americans are always tired. Too much meat and too much coffee."

She ordered an early breakfast of honey with crushed bananas. "I want to be ready to resume my grassroots trip through your beautiful country."
