DAWSON COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY ASSOCIATION PERFECTS ORGANIZATION

At a meeting held recently by the various clubs of Lamesa a Dawson County Public Library Association was organized. A centrally located site has already been selected by the Association. According to Dr. Roy G. Loveless, president of the Association the organization will depend entirely on donation of good books from private sources. Maintenance of the Library will be in the hands of local clubs. The Free Library is scheduled to open the early part of November. Miss Sue Goree of Austin, Texas, State Library Organizer will be in Lamesa to assist the Association in its campaign for books. This is a fine movement, and the clubs of Lamesa deserve commendation for the interest they have shown in this work. The following clubs and their presidents were represented at the meeting: Delphian Club by Mrs. R. E. Simpson; Study Club by Mrs. Jack Phinizy, and Mrs. R. R. Townsend; P. T. A. by Mrs. Victor Crawley; Lions Club by D. Hull; Luncheon Club by Dr. Roy G. Loveless; Chamber of Commerce by W. D. Arnett; Boy Scouts by J. D. Dyer; Pastors Association by Rev. Surface; Mr. W. T. ## Tornadoes Second Team Loses to Seminole 6 to 0

The second team under the coaching of Lester Greggs were defeated by the Seminole "Sandies" last Friday in a very loosely played game. Never did the Tornadoes work as a unit. On several occasions were first downs made by the Tornadoes but all were efforts of completed passes. The Tornadoes gained the most ground from scrimmage but on two long passes in the third quarter the "Sandies" put over a counter the Tornadoes were not able to overcome. The star players for the Tornadoes were McKenny on the offense and Harper on the defense. Harper playing practically all of one side of the line and breaking through and throwing them for lots of losses. Coach Greggs starting lineup was: Wilkes, L. E.; Hale, E. T.; Stuart, L. G.; Dugger, C.; Smith, R. G.; Harper, R. T.; Noonester, R. E.; Capt. Lowrie, Q.; Harper, L. H.; Wages, R. H.; McKenny, F. B. Substitutions were: Britt and Noonester, Duke for Hale, and Hale for Duke.

Dawson Pioneer Passes Away

The death of W. R. Stone came as a shock to his many friends, though he had been ill for the past two years. Mr. Stone moved to Dawson Co. in 1905 and was truly a pioneer. With his family of five, they bought a farm two miles East of Lamesa and immediately affiliated themselves with the interests of the little town that was that year incorporated. He supported the erection of the little frame school house; the County Court House, now replaced by a brick and the Methodist Church the community center for all denominational worship at that time. He saw a bright future for the little town whose yard fences were entirely covered with mounds of sand. After the virgin days of pioneering and some real constructive helpfulness Mr. Stone moved to Lockney and purchased a home. Here he and his wife have resided for several years. His two sons retained that inherent desire to continue in Lamesa and brought their father back for his last days. He passed away Saturday at 12:30 P. M. on his two sons farm six miles from the city limits. Funeral services were held at the Chapel of Higginbotham-Bartlett. The local pastor of the First Christian Church was assisted by the Rev. L. F. Sanders, a life long friend of the family. He spoke fitting words of the useful, unselfish, and unassuming life of him, a man who loved God and his fellow man. One who had the highest regard for law and order at all times, and who surely must have said at the last, "I have Fought A Good Fight, I have Finished My Course and Henceforth There is Laid Up For Me A Crown of Righteousness." Mr. Stone was seventy years old. He was laid to rest in the Lamesa Cemetery Sunday P. M.

OUR SCHOOLS—THAT WE MAY KNOW

There has been much talk about our schools closing. The school board has had several meetings to work out some plan to keep them open and it has been able to do so up to this time. We are informed that our school finances are in good condition and have been well handled by our school board. This board has acted on the assumption that the tax payers in the Lamesa Independent School District will do their utmost to pay their taxes in order that the schools will be kept open and the boys and girls of this community will be kept in school this year. If the people do not pay their taxes then the schools will have to close, but the board cannot think but that all who can possibly do so will be patriotic enough this year to make a special effort to pay taxes that this worthy institution will be kept open. It would be disastrous to the community if the schools closed. It would mean the loss of standardization, affiliation, and the fall-

COUNTY AND HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENTS RECEIVE SUPPORT AT MEETING WED.

At a meeting of representatives of all civic organizations in the county in the District Court Room Wednesday afternoon a Central Committee was set up for the purpose of laying plans to make a drive for funds in the county to continue the financial support of the work of the County and Home Agents. After it was found that the Commissioners Court could not, by reason of not having the funds, give further financial aid at this time, the committees from the various organizations decided to make a drive in the county for the funds. According to the plans the entire county will be covered in the drive and workers will be selected in every school district. Every person will be given an opportunity to contribute to this work. Organizations represented at the meeting Wednesday are: Women's Study Club, Mrs. W. K. Crawley and Mrs. Jack Phinizy; Home Demonstration Clubs, Mrs. H. E. Easterwood and Mrs. C. F. Gowan; Parent-Teachers, Mrs. Jud Watson and Mrs. Victor Crawley; Delphian Club, Mrs. J. W. McDonald and Mrs. McCauley; Lions Club, Dee Hull and Guy Travis; American Legion, Louis B. Reed and J. D. Dyer; Luncheon Club, W. B. Collins and Mon D. Thaxton; Chamber of Commerce, W. K. Crawley; Representative Farmers for Agricultural Work, R. E. Echols and Joe Hancock. The Central Committee in charge of the drive will constitute members from above named organizations and it is planned to continue this committee during the life of the funds raised to cooperate with the Court and the Agents. Dr. R. F. Nix was unanimously chosen as general chairman of the Central Committee and will actively have charge of the organization and work of the drive. He is giving his time to getting the drive organized for the raising of funds. He is calling on all loyal supporters of the work in the county to rally to the support of the work with as liberal contributions as possible. In commenting on this work Dr. Nix said, "now as in normal times and even more so, we need and must have this work. If it is impractical to support it by taxes we must support it by popular subscription. I believe the people will rally in a magnificent and big way to this cause. They will give what they can." Other officers are Mrs. Joe Adkins, Vice Chairman, and Mrs. Claud F. Gowan, Secretary and Treasurer. Dr. Nix is calling his committee and workers in session for final plans at 4 P. M. Friday afternoon of this week in the District Court Room.

Red Cross Seed Prove Profitable to Fairview Women

A garden planted with one pack age of Red Cross seed has furnished Mrs. J. F. Sutton and her family of the Fairview Community with fresh vegetables for table use all summer and fall and 292 containers of canned food valued at $75.00 in her pantry which she has been filling as a 4-H pantry cooperator. "My Red Cross garden was a great help to us," said Mrs. Sutton, "it more than cut our grocery bill in half this summer. The garden has three rows each of Kentucky Wonder, Pencil Green Pod and Golden Wax Beans. Almost every day from May until the middle of September, I prepared a ten pound pail for table use and in addition I have canned 23 quarts for use this winter. There were also one row each of turnips, spinach, seed onions, carrots, beets, lettuce and mustard. Two rows of tomatoes are furnishing plenty of tomatoes for family use and there will be green ones later for pickles and radishes. I intend to add to my 4-H pantry. Five rows of sweet corn furnished corn for two weeks. In addition to the canned food I have stored 250 pounds of dried beans, 30 bushels and I have 10 gallons of home made syrup. Later we will have a beef to can and two hogs to cure and can. I do not have a cooker and sealer yet, but I have exchanged help with neighbors and borrowed their cookers to can food to enable my family to have a well balanced diet this winter. We aim to spend our first cotton money for a canner and sealer because I am convinced this is the best investment I can make to reduce our living expenses and to improve the health of my family declared Mrs. Sutton.

Sheep Men Confer With County Agent

A number of sheep men from San Angelo, Sterling City and Menard have been in Lamesa in conference with County Agent, W. W. Evans, about moving lambs to Dawson County to feed out. These men have the lambs and are seeking out local farmers who have feed to put into spring lambs to go on the market about January or February. These men who have been here have from 1200 head to 4000 head each. Dawson county borders the largest sheep breeding range in the U. S. and with the surplus feed crop here offers an outlet for feed that should interest many.

Tornadoes Overwhelm Hobbs Wildcats 38 to 0

In what is said to have been the hardest fought and roughest game ever played on Tornado field the Tornadoes were victorious. Their victims were the Hobbs Wildcats and they well up held their name.

The game was not a runaway as the score indicates, but at times it was very close. Much of the playing being done in mid-field. However scoring was very frequent, the spectators say that is the only game they have seen where three touchdowns were made that did not count. Two of these should have been Tornado points and the other the Wildcats.

A very interesting story arises over the "wouldbe" Hobbs touchdown. A complete pass was made and the receiver getting behind every Tornado raced across the ten yard line. So sure was he of his success that he turned around to look at his pursuers and despoiled the ball upon the ground. To his great amazement in comes dashing quarterback Marr, of the Tornadoes, and tackled him as well as receiving the ball. The referee then found no other way of calling it than a fumble so it became the Tornadoes ball on the seven yard line.

The Tornadoes touchdowns that did not count were made by Treadaway and Hamilton. Treadaway returning a punt to the one yard line however and Hamilton intercepting a pass and stepping out on the fifteen yard line.

The Tornadoes offense was lead by Captain Treadaway, he making three touchdowns. The smart work of our quarterback says "When you can't mae it through center, go around end" and that's what they did.

"I know my Baby's Food is Free from Harmful Bacteria"

Most mothers know that fresh, pure milk is one of the essentials in preventing the illness of babies during summer months. They are aware that on many occasions, illness at this time of the year can be traced directly to their food. The first precaution they take is to buy milk that is fresh and pure; and the second precaution is to see that the milk is kept wholesome after it is in the home.

Proper refrigeration is the only means of keeping baby's milk free from harmful bacteria, and the modern mother knows that her electric refrigerator with its automatically controlled temperature—always below 50 degrees—will keep baby's milk and other foods for the family at safe temperatures.

Drop by our office and see the new models of electric refrigerators, a size for every family. Refrigerators may be purchased for a small cash payment and convenient monthly payments.

Do You Overhaul.. These Machines Too?

The kitchen range, heaters and other Natural Gas burners are machines—machines that cook our food and keep us warm. Like the automobile, they will give us 100 per cent service only when kept in repair and overhauled at least once a year.

The range may be spotless on the surface, but inside the burners dust particles have collected and perhaps rust has set in. All this retards the flow of gas and results in larger gas bills.

Summer time when gas is used less, is the best time to examine and repair gas burners in your home. If you wish, a trained service man will come to your home to inspect and adjust your appliances.

Young As You Feel

Will Rogers To Be Seen As Star Of Film At The Palace

A long awaited film attraction will be offered Lamesa moviegoers at the Palace Theatre starting Sunday.

In "Young as You Feel" Rogers discards the personal habits of a lifetime on stage or screen as a well groomed, Bond Street tailored gentleman. The picture starts a three day run at the Palace Theatre Sunday.

From George Abe Play

Rogers plays the part of Lemuel Morehouse, dyspeptic, grouchy old fogey who is compelled to turn ultra modern as an example for his sons. Taken from George Abe, play, the story deals with a widowed father of two modern boys, a man who has devoted his life to their interest and who wants them to settle down to business. They have other ideas, however, one is a social lion and the other a sportsman. With the aid of a professional entertainer, played by Fifi Dorsey, the father changes over night into a gay blade. His lack of attention is appalling to his manager and a shock to his sons, but he continues his rounds of night clubs and race tracks. Rumors start to fly and finally bring the boys to their senses and business.

Lowery Loveless who is attending school at Lubbock spent the week end at home.

IF YOU CAN'T BOOST ITS TIME TO MOVE ELSEWHERE

A town that is good enough to live in, good enough to provide our livelihood, provide our children with schools and playgrounds; a town whose citizens are broadminded enough to put up with your peculiarities, is a town good enough for you to boost. If you can't boost do the community at least one favor and move out.

William Hale Thompson, Chicago's most cursed and discussed mayor, says—"Throw away your hammer and buy a horn." That's one thing Mr. Thompson says which all the thinking people in his domain are in accord. It is good advice, however, to suggest that when tooting your horn to be sure you are in the right key.

The man who always knocks and runs down the place where he lives is not only a pest but a public liability. Towns should have a place to pen such people up—put them all together in one place and let them contaminate only each other. The disease they have is worse than smallpox and is just as malicious and contagious.

The knocker creed—"Whatever is—'is punk." The easiest thing in the world to do is to knock. It doesn't take any brains and it is the easiest way to attract attention.

Knocking is cheap—a cheap trick used only by cheap people but expensive to them in the long run.

Even a knocker hates a knocker and sooner or later everybody shuns him because they are afraid of him. Usually the fellow who knocks his town, knocks his competitor and his neighbor and like a bee kills himself stinging others.

Nobody every got anywhere running others down. The old saying that every knock is a boost is true only when the knocker is knocked out.

If any merchant needs to lose the patronage of his fellow citizen it's the fellow who is forever knocking—who decries and belittles every attempt to do anything for, or make something of the town—who says that every fellow or organization, that tries to do things has an axe to grind.

On the other hand, the man who stops blaming conditions government prohibition and competition—the man who quits laying the blame of his associates, friends and relatives own shortcomings on to his and takes unto himself the blame for things not being as he would like to have them—that man will take advantage of every opportunity to make his town a better place in which to live, work, play and make money.

Every town has its faults, but every town has its good points. If a town has little to talk about, that much more reason to correct the faults, or at least keep still about them if a man hasn't enough gumption to do things that will help correct them.

THE GUARDIAN ANGEL

The poor ignorant, guileless public are constantly the victim of some city slicker under the guise of soliciting advertising. The poor merchant does not have sense enough to tend to his own business and is being chided continually by the Guardian Angel for his gullibility. It seems to the Courier that when a business man reaches the stage where he is unable to run his own business without being subjected to criticism from some organization he has about reached the point where he doesn't need a business to run. It will be remembered that it hasn't been long since the business man has had opportunity to subscribe to schemes of a local nature, that were not of a widely different aspect. These schemes were promoted by the same organization that howls so loudly when some outsider happens in and grabs off some of the dough. Were you ever approached with a scheme under the guise of religion? A go to Church Movement. The business man pays the bill and the newspaper profits. The Courier does not and has never been guilty of this kind of soliciting. If we can't sell you legitimate advertising we will quit the business.

COTTON COOPERATIVE MEMBERS HELD SESSION MONDAY

Following is a statement delivered to cotton growers present at the membership conference of the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association, held in Lamesa Monday afternoon, from R. J. (Bob) Murray formerly of Lubbock and now general manager of the association.

It is my desire that every member of the Association know exactly the position the cotton they have entrusted to the association is in, and how their cotton for this season shall be handled. Members' cotton that was shipped to the Seasonal Pool last year and upon which an advance of 90 per cent of the market value at the time of shipment was made, has been financed for a period of 3 years, or until July 1, 1933.

This cotton will not be sold until it can be sold at price levels which the sales organization deems satisfactory. In this connection we have the following definite assurance from the Farm Board.

"Equities of members delivering cotton during the current season will not be held by the Federal Farm Board for any liabilities of the Association as result of possible loss occurring from 1930-31 season's operations, which is definitely financed for a period of three years, if necessary, expiring July 1, 1933.

For the first time in history, growers of agricultural products are able to carry their products through periods of severe depression without being forced to sell. The Federal Government cooperates in their organizations by loaning funds upon these products and allowing the members to get all the benefits of improved later prices.

Much has been said in the public press about the losses of the Federal Farm Board. The members of the Board do not consider money invested in low price agricultural products lost. Farmers everywhere have gotten this money, have used it to pay their obligations, and buy things they needed. They still own the products. True, it may be a bad loan at the present time in the Federal Farm Board's note case, but what bank in America hasn't some bad loans? The Anti-Farm Board propagandists of the country would have you believe that public funds are being squandered by the Farm Board. This is entirely untrue as these funds are being invested in the most worthy purpose that could possibly be conceived. No loss, if any, in these operations can be determined until the products are finally sold.

In order to simplify accounting the method of making the advances on the Seasonal Pool this year has been changed. Instead of advancing 90 per cent, the classed value of the cotton at interior points will be determined by Federally licensed classifiers in the employ of the association and a flat one cent per pound deducted from this value.

The difference will be paid the member as an advance upon cotton shipped to the Seasonal Pool just as last season. The expense of operation and the one per cent reserve will be adjusted in the final sale price of the cotton. The amount actually advanced to the growers is within two or three dollars a bale of the net outright sale value at interior points.

I want to point out and I want it to be clearly understood by all of the members that during the coming season our policy respecting the distribution of our receipts contemplates a return to orderly marketing and provides for the sale and fixation of all cotton and remitting the net proceeds to the member not later than the summer of 1932. Whether cotton is shipped to the Seasonal Pool or the Optional Pool will make no difference in our orderly marketing program. The cotton of all pools will be sold through out the year in an orderly merchandising program designed to move this crop during the season. We feel it unwise to add to the surplus already taken off the market and held by cooperatives.

The Association offers three privileges to each member in handling his cotton. In the Seasonal Pool the member has no individual control over the sale of his cotton. He is given a substantial advance which is not subject to margin calls and the Association will sell this cotton in an orderly manner throughout the season and settle with him at the close of the season on the basis of the average price obtained for his kind of cotton less the cost of operating the Association.

In the Price Fixation Pool the member has the right to determine the day upon which the Association shall fix the price for settlement with him. He has the choice of fixing the price immediately upon delivery to the Association and receiving settlement immediately, or he may deliver to the Price Fixation Pool take an advance of approximately 60 per cent of the value and retain the right to fix the price at any later date.

If he chooses the latter course he of course must keep the Association margined against declines in the market so as to protect the other members. Otherwise the Association reserves the right to close him out whenever the equity he has in his cotton is absorbed by a market decline. In making a settlement on Price Fixation Pool cotton, expense will be estimated. At the close of the season when the exact amount of the margination will adjust with the member any difference between the estimated expense and the actual expense.

Our branch classing offices are established throughout the State in charge of Federally licensed classifiers and there will be more of these then agents to serve the members that we had last year. Our aim is to extend the services of the Association into the most remote cotton shipping points in Texas in order to provide the growers of cotton in Texas with a dependable market for every kind of cotton every day in the year. The service the Association performs enables the grower now to dispose of his cotton in an intelligent way for the highest price the market will afford on any given day. The competition we have placed in country markets has a tendency of keeping a greater amount of money in the hands of the producers to be spent in building up our country towns.

I want to urge all growers in their own self defense and as good business, to support their Association in order that this service may be maintained. I want to urge all business men and bankers in Texas to study the cooperative plan and make careful comparisons with any other service offered and I am convinced that a fair and honest conclusion will be that the success of the Association will mean much improvement in our agricultural situation.

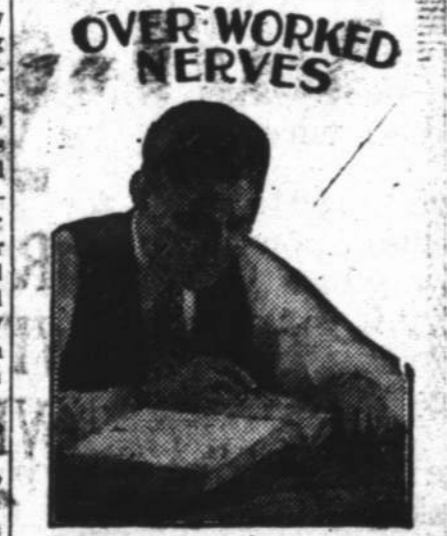

Much propaganda has been spread against the Association. It is of antagonistic character, designed to destroy confidence in the idea. All of it can be traced to selfish interest or uninformed sources. I pledge you as manager that I will honestly and conscientiously administer the affairs of our members and the responsibilities imposed upon me in such a manner as will bear no just criticism.

The success of agriculture depends upon group action and I plead with you to forsake individual and independent action and work with your neighbors for common good and ultimate economic equality of agriculture with other industries.

FLYING FOLDS

There are some creatures known as the phalangers—the flying phalangers they are usually called.

They are something like squirrels, and they have loose folds of skin that they use for flying.

In fact these folds of skin are used by the phalangers just as though they had private airships of their very own.

And they can always be ready for a flying trip, too!

Now two little phalangers had cycled up in the corner of a tree far away from here.

They had some straw beds which they thought were especially fine and they were talking.

Their names were Betty Phalanger and Freddy Phalanger.

"Do you know," said Freddy Phalanger, "that people have always thought airships were very wonderful?"

"They still like to look up at them. They often get stiff necks looking at them, and they think they are marvelous sights."

"Who told you all this?" asked Betty.

"Never mind," said Freddy, "I know what I am saying."

"Do the people jump into the airships and fly?" asked a little baby phalanger.

"No," chuckled Freddy, "they don't get a chance. People can only watch as they climb in properly, and there are other people who don't like to leave the ground."

"Are there, really?" asked Betty in great surprise.

"You don't mean to say so?" asked one of the neighbors who had come to join in the conversation.

"Oh," said Freddy, "they have to get into airships but they can't get airships right out of themselves as we can."

"Our airships are attached to us. Yes, we're like the flying squirrels. We do not go too high with our airships—we do not like to fly high."

"But still we can fly, and we carry our airships with us wherever we go—our folds which we can use for flying."

The phalanger families talked for a long time of people and their airships and of birds who were clever indeed, for they could fly very high, and they always carried their airships with them.

Yes, the phalangers did not think so much of people as they did of birds.

The birds didn't have to step into planes in order to fly.

They merely had to spread their own wings and they were off, up in the air.

And they could catch insects when flying and do their marketing in that way.

But the phalangers thought they were quite bright, too, with their folds which helped them to fly little, low distances.

And don't you think so, too?

Comfort for Cows
Little Betty, taking her first ride in the country, was very much impressed by everything she saw. Turning to her mother, she cried, "Oh, Mother, they must be very rich in the country!"

"Mother—Why, Betty, what makes you think so?"
Betty (pointing to the windmills)—"See, they even have big electric fans for the cows!"

Date Set For Fireman Play

The local firemen are sponsoring a play "Here Comes Patricia" under the direction of Mrs. Pratt Friday evening October 23 in the High School Auditorium.

Plant More Trees

Only three years ago the people of West Texas, Dawson county in particular, had made no advancement towards beautification by lawns, shrubs and trees. All of a sudden the people were made to realize that what was needed was just a little energy and time put forth in this direction.

Have you ever heard tourists make the remark that the lawn surrounding our court house was the prettiest one they had seen in West Texas? If you have never stood off and taken a good look at it do so!

It certainly is remarkable how beautiful it has been made by the effort of workmen who appreciate the value and beauty of grass and trees.

When showing strangers over our city don't tell them there is nothing to show much. Don't fail to take them by the following homes which have been made attractive by the realization that trees will grow here: F. T. McCollom, Buck Bennett, W. B. Collins, Lee Hanson, Ray Barrett, W. A. Stephens, J. E. Barron, W. K. White, J. H. Harp, Carl Rountree, W. A. Wilson, Ramsey Westmorland. The Westland Hotel and the Lamesa Sanitarium have added greatly to their appearances by pretty lawns and trees.

It has been found that the Arizona Cypress and the Red Cedar thrive better in this country. December this year, has been selected as the tree planting month for the roots of trees grow in the winter time.

The beautification of the back yard is going to be added to the yard beautification contest this next year and much enthusiasm has already been manifested. Let "Plant More Trees" be our slogan.

"Driving instinct forces your foot down on the brake pedal when a car truck, traffic light or other obstacle looms ahead, and this automatic action on your part usually takes place before your brain has had time to analyze the situation. This instinctive impulse puts on your brakes the burden of saving your life by acting more quickly than your deliberate thought could direct your hands and legs to act. If your brakes are out of adjustment or worn they can not possibly give you the protection they are designed to give. The intelligent motorist, therefore, 'gives his brakes a break' by keeping them in perfect adjustment and having them relined when dangerously worn." Few persons would risk their lives in an airplane which they knew beforehand was defective in any of its essential working parts, yet thousands venture into traffic with defective automobiles. That so many meet disaster is the direct result of such stupidity.

COOLED HOMES COMING

The American Gas Association predicts that within five years the better class of American homes will be cooled in summer, as they are now heated in winter.

Negotiations are now underway to arrange for the manufacture on a large scale of gas operated summer air conditioning equipment. Four residences, in localities of varying climate, were cooled with gas this summer as part of the Association's research program.

This is real domestic progress. Fifty years ago, had anyone suggested that gas would soon be used as a cooling and refrigerating agency, he would have been regarded as mentally deficient. Today it is a proven fact.

CZECH ACCEPTED AS MODERN LANGUAGE

Following the action of the State Department of Education in accepting Czech as a modern language, a number of high schools over the state have placed this subject in their curricula, according to Dr. Eduard Micek, associate professor of Slavonic languages at the University of Texas. This year for the first time Czech is being taught in the high schools in Austin, Temple, Hallettsville, Houston and Needville, and in St. Ludmila's Academy at Shiner. With but a single exception, the subject is being taught by teachers who received their training in Czech at the University.

A total of 61 students have registered in the Slavonic language department at the University this year, Dr. Micek said, and additions are being made to the classes from time to time.

THAT'S THE SPIRIT

Several women were being sent from the Home for the Aged to Yosemite for a vacation treat. One who had no godmother to pay her way sent the following note to her undertaker:

"Dear Sir: Sometime ago I deposited with you, a sum of money for the cremation of my body when I die. Please return it to me so I can go to Yosemite valley this summer. I believe it will do me more good." Pathfinder Magazine.

Willard Cook of Big Spring visited friends in Lamesa Sunday.

ESSAY ON HABIT

A story is told of an English schoolmaster who offered a prize to the boy who should write the best composition, in five minutes, on "How to Overcome Habit." At the expiration of five minutes the compositions were read: The prize went to a lad of nine years. Following is his essay: "Well, sir, habit is hard to overcome. If you take off the first letter, it does not change 'abit.' If you take off another, it you will still have a 'bit' left. If you take off still another, the whole of 'it' remains. If you take off another, it is not wholly used up; all of which goes to show that if you want to get rid of a habit you must throw it off altogether."

HOW GOLDSTEIN IMPROVED BUSINESS

A young fellow named Goldstein got a job as conductor on the Spring street trolley line, which averages $9 to $10 a day in fares.

After two trips Goldstein turned in to the superintendent $19.85. The superintendent looked at Goldstein: "How in the world did you do it?"

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Strain of Big Spring spent Sunday in Lamesa visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hansen.

WHEN DANGER LOOMS

It is a sad commentary on present day intelligence that we are killing human beings at the rate of 35,000 a year and wounding 900,000 more in automobile accidents in the United States. Most of these deaths and injuries could be prevented by the exercise of reasonable caution by drivers on our streets and highways.

While many accidents are due to sheer recklessness, a large percentage are caused by defective car equipment. This is especially true with respect to brakes. Even the most careful driver is helpless if his brakes fail to function in an emergency.

Some pertinent observations on this subject are made by W. T. Palmer, an official of the company making Busco brake linings, who has been making a nationwide survey of the automobile accident situation. He says:

Miss Lua James spent the week end in Big Spring last week.

Mrs. Frank Shields and little son Jerry of Midland visited Mrs. Shields's niece, Miss Hazel McCormmas, last week.

A. C. Woodward and Peeler Williams of Waco were business visitors to Brownfield, Abilene, Floydada and other points last week.

Miss Ina Haney who underwent an operation in a local hospital several weeks ago is improving steadily.

Charnell Ridgway of the U. S. Navy left Thursday after a few days visit with relatives and friends here.

Lesson for October 18

PAUL IN THESSALONICA AND BEREIA

GOLDEN TEXT—Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.
LESSON TEXT—Acts 17:1-18; 1 Thess. 2:1-12.
PRIMARY TOPIC—How We Ought to Hear.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Two Kinds of Hearers.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Two Kinds of Hearers.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Winning Through Love.

I. Paul Preaching in Thessalonica (17:1-10).
1. His method (vv. 1, 2). He observed the divine order, to the Jew first, and was exceedingly anxious for his kinsmen in the flesh, but when they proved themselves unworthy, he turned to the Gentiles.
2. His message (v. 3). It was that Jesus is the Christ. In order to prove that Jesus is the Christ, he expounded unto them the Scriptures. Concerning Christ he set forth three propositions:
a. That Christ must needs have suffered (v. 3). The suffering Christ was not welcomed by the Jews. They had explained away such positive assertions as are set forth in Isaiah 53. They were looking for a Messiah of a different type. This is common today in our churches and Sunday schools. The cross is an offense.
b. "Risen again from the dead" (v. 3). This he also proved by the Scriptures.
c. "That this Jesus whom I preach unto you is Christ" (v. 3). He declared that the historic Jesus whom he had proclaimed had suffered and risen from the dead. Therefore, he is the predicted Messiah.

3. The attitude of the Jews toward his preaching (vv. 4-10). While some Jews believed and many Greeks, the envy of certain Jews was so aroused at Paul's success that they gathered together the worthless fellows of the town and set on foot a riot. They said, "These have turned the world upside down." It is true that the gospel is revolutionary, but not treason to right government. They turned the preaching of Paul into a specious lie. He preached the kingship of Jesus (v. 7). Jesus is most assuredly coming to reign on this earth.
11. The Character of Paul's Ministry at Thessalonica (1 Thess. 2:1-12). In this section we have exhibited the temper of the apostolic ministry. It becomes an ideal for such as would follow in his wake.

1. It was courageous (vv. 1, 2). In spite of shameful persecution, Paul persisted in his ministry, demonstrating his devotion to the Lord.
2. Honest and guileless (vv. 3, 4). He had no ulterior motive. As one sent of God, he faithfully ministered unto them.

3. Without flattering words (v. 5). Regardless of the difficulty of his positions, the preeminence of the persons faced, he never resorted to flattery.
4. Without a cloak of covetousness (v. 5). The impelling force of his life was devotion to God and interest in lost men. Opportunity for personal gain be waived aside.
5. He did not seek glory from man (v. 6), his supreme aim being to honor God.

6. He was gentle and affectionate (vv. 7, 8). So vitally did he enter into the lives of the people that he displayed gentleness, even as a nursing mother with her children.
7. Unselfish (v. 9). In order that his motive be not questioned he labored night and day for his support.
8. Irreproachable and blameless (v. 10). He did not claim to be faultless, but he boldly challenged them as to his blamelessness.

9. His lofty aim (vv. 11, 12). It was that they would walk worthy of God in keeping with their high calling.
111. Paul Preaching in Berea (Acts 17:10-15).
1. His method (v. 10). He entered the Jewish synagogue and preached Christ unto them.
2. The reception of the gospel by the Bereans (vv. 11, 12). It was with gladness of heart. The message was just as new to these Jews and just as counter to their way of thinking as it was to the Thessalonian Jews, but they had a more noble disposition. Two things are said of them:
a. They received the message gladly.
b. They searched the Scriptures daily for the truthfulness of the message which they had heard.

3. The wicked action of the Jews (vv. 13-15). Wicked Jews from Thessalonica followed the missionaries and stirred up the people against them, making it necessary for them again to flee.

Sin
Sin sprang into life, and I saw myself a dead man. It is remarkable that Christianity is the only religion that produces this effect. There is no word in any non-Christian language for sin as moral evil.—D. M. Pantou.

Sticking to the Finish
Character is developed by fighting a plan through to success and triumphing over obstacles. Anyone can start, but only a person with character will stick to the finish.—Watchword.
