Basketball Season Begins Nov. 17

Basketball season gets underway for Hart High School and Junior High teams Thursday, Nov. 17 with the Longhorns varsity boys hosting Nazareth.

Game time is 6:30 p.m.

Admission for basketball games will be $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for students for high school games. Junior high games' admission is $1 and 50 cents.

Junior high students will be charged admission for high school games; high school students will be charged for junior high games.

Absentee Voting Now Underway

Absentee voting for the school bond election began Wednesday and will continue through Friday, Nov. 25. Ballots may be cast in the business office at Hart High School.

The election will be held Tuesday, Nov. 29. The proposed building program would provide new kindergarten facilities, three additional junior high and high school classrooms, a new auditorium, new lighting and accoustical ceiling in the elementary building and the remodeling of the present kindergarten building into an industrial arts building.

Jaycees Schedule Breakfast Dec. 10

A Hunters' Breakfast will be held Saturday, Dec. 10 in the school cafeteria. Serving will begin at 5 a.m. Sponsors of the breakfast are Hart Jaycees.

Cost of the breakfast which will include bacon, sausage, eggs, biscuits and coffee is $4 per plate. Proceeds of the breakfast will go to the cost of paving at the American Legion property.

Harvest Festival Set Wednesday

The Annual Harvest Festival will be held at the Methodist Church Wednesday, Nov. 16 with the meal being served at 6:30 p.m. A program will follow at 8 p.m.

Guest speaker is Lyman Wood of Borger, former pastor of the church.

Football Contest Is Three-Way Tie

Three contestants will divide the week's winnings this week with each one collecting $3.33 since the trio was still deadlocked after the tie-breaker count in the Hart Beat football contest.

Six contestants missed five games each but Jimmie George of Dimmitt, Everette Heller and Weldon Jones were all tied after the tie-breaker was counted. Each missed the actual scoring of the Longhorns and Steers by 31 points with guesses of 27-7, 20-14 and 20-14, respectively.

Others who missed five games and their tie-breaker predictions were Bobby Adams of Dimmitt, 32 points, 22-13; Bill Sanders, 38, 27-14 and Lonnie Joe Howell, 46, 28-21.

Lanny Tucker's lead for the season narrowed and he now holds a one-point margin. He has 120 correct picks with two contests remaining to be counted. Right in back, with 119 points, is Marsha George.

Albert Hartman, Lonnie Howell and Ronnie Truelock have 118; Robert Mears, 116; Calvin Alexander, Ted Averitt, Ethel Averitt, Beverly Hill and Leslie Reed, 115; Weldon Jones, Carl Rambo and Mrs. Lanny Tucker, 114; Charley Hill, Everette Heller, Betty Heller and W.G. Rountree, 113; Don Elliott, Mary Lou Rountree and Bill Sanders, 112; Rita Hartman, 111 and Ruth Hackleman, 110.

Contestants should NOT GIVE UP. The competition is not over until the final contest is counted and standings are still subject to change. Remember, too, any contestant can be a winner for the week.

The contest has been the most competitive of all held by The Hart Beat and the merchants who made it possible. Don't forget to tell those merchants that you appreciate their making the contest possible.

Sponsors are Farmers State Bank, Hart Oil and Butane, Hart Aerial Sprayers, Grain Handling Corporation, Farmers Grain Company, Pay-n-Save Grocery; Hi Way Garage, B & B Farm Supply, Hi Plains Insurance, Smith Potato Company, Tide Products, King's Blacksmith, Ed Harris Lumber, Triple A Pump Company and The Hart Beat.

Immunization Date Changed

The immunization clinic previously scheduled for Nov. 16 has been changed to Wednesday, Nov. 23 from 9 to 11 a.m. The clinic will be held in the elementary school.

Children who need immunizations against diphtheria, polio, lock jaw, whooping cough, measles and rubella may receive these free of charge.

Longhorns, Steers Battle To 3-0 Score

Seniors Glen Black, Kent Hill, Clay Hanes, Larry Marble, Kelly King, Rodolfo Gonzales and Johnny Newsom played their last high school game before the home crowd Friday night as Hart lost to Farwell 3-0. Missing from the game due to rib injury was senior standout Eliazar Castillo. Starting in place of Castillo was Ricky Rowland.

Farwell took the opening kickoff and returned it to their own 32. From there, the Steers moved to 2 first downs before a Russ Jones pitch went astray and Kent Hill covered it on the Horns' 44. However, Hart could not get the ball going. Following an exchange of punts, Hart moved to what was to be its only first down of the first half before being forced to punt again.

Farwell, starting at its own 11, established a drive that went to the Hart 26 before a Jones pass was thrown incomplete and Hart took over. Again unable to move on its fourth possession, Hart punted to the Steers' 23. Farwell then started a drive that included 12 and 14 yard runs by halfback Vick Christian and a 23 yard burst by halfback Kevin Kelley. Christian got to the Hart 1 before a 15 yard penalty set the Steers back. Finally, on a fourth and 10, Robin Roberts kicked a field goal from the 17 for the only score of the evening. With 3:54 left in half, Hart was still stymied in the ball moving business.

Following the Horns' punt, Hart got the ball back when Johnny Newsom picked off a Jones pass in the end zone. However, there was time for only one play before the clock ran out.

After the halftime show, Hart received the kickoff. The offense was unsuccessful at moving the ball. After an exchange of punts, Hart on its second possession of the half, moved to two first downs on Farwell penalties, one a face mask call and the other a defensive holding call. Moving to the Farwell 21, downs ran out when Rowland's pass fell incomplete on a fourth and 9.

Both teams failed to mount a threatening drive the rest of the ball game. There were 3 Hart punts and 2 Farwell punts, one a quick kick from the Farwell 15. One of Hart's punts was fielded by a Steer that could not find the handle and Johnny Newsom scooped it in on the Farwell 40 but the Horns were unable to capitalize. With just second left, Farwell was successful at running out the clock in what had been a lackluster ball game.

Farwell had both Kelly and Christian with over 100 yard yards rushing. About the only Hart highlights were another good night for Johnny Newsom with around 15 tackles, a fumble recovery and a probable touchdown saving interception; Glen Black with numerous tackles; and the kicking game of Clay Hanes who was kicking in place of an injured Castillo. Hanes' kicks had a lot to do with the Steers being unable to score as he averaged 43.4 yards on 8 punts.

Friday night, Hart meets Bovina there in the season's final game.

The heat pump

"THE ELECTRIC SAVINGS MACHINE"

BUYING, BUILDING, REMODELING?

It's time to consider the heat pump. Southwestern Public Service Company can suggest the system that will give you the most for your energy dollar, and come up with some accurate information on installation and operating costs.

The heat pump is the electric savings machine. And usually a machine of such sensitive operation calls for a lot of space and some pretty technical installation procedures. NOT SO WITH THE HEAT PUMP! "Split systems" — most adaptable to homes — consist of an outdoor and indoor section, easily tucked away in a closet, garage, basement or attic. The single package unit looks very similar to a central air-conditioning unit that's placed outdoors. Both systems can be installed in most every home or office that has central air ducts. If you're buying, building or remodeling, it's time you said . . .

"Yes, the heat pump!"

MRS. MARK BENNETT

Cook of the Week

The "old home place" of the Bennett family is home for the newest family - Mark and Vivian Bennett and three months old, Travis. Youngest son of the Ed Bennetts, Mark and his little family live in the farm house where his grandparents began farming in Castro County.

Mark farms with his dad and brothers. Vivian's days are filled with the tasks of a farmer's wife but also the joy that comes from caring for little Travis.

Vivian likes to do embroidery and has taken up latch hook. She has completed a pretty Santa Claus rug, made especially for her little son.

Singing has always been a special pleasure for Vivian. She is presently practicing with the choir of First Baptist Church for their Christmas cantata. A member of that church before her marriage, Vivian is now a member of First United Methodist Church.

She says she doesn't play the guitar much anymore but used to accompany herself. She also loves to read.

MR. & MRS. TERRY MYERS

Myers-Pevehouse Vows Read In Recent Ceremony

A single ring ceremony in the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Everette Cole, Miss Cheryl Ann Pevehouse of Dimmitt became the bride of Terry Dalton Myers of this city.

Officiating the Oct. 22, ceremony was the Rev. Joe Cariker. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Pevehouse of Dimmitt and Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Myers.

Before an improvised altar created by an archway of greenery and yellow daisies wedding vows were exchanged. Mrs. Louise Myers, soloist, sang "Let Me Be There." Guests were registered by Karen Myers, sister of the groom.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown designed along Elizabethian lines. The gown of candlelight featured a high fitted collar, and an outline of daisies tracing the vertical frontal lines and the hemline, just atop a deep ruffle flounce.

With her bridal bouquet she carried a white Bible belonging to Mrs. Carolyn Harman. For 'something borrowed' she wore a Mother of Pearl cross of Bethlehem, property of her aunt, Mrs. Gary Cole of Dimmitt. In her shoe she carried pennies minted in the years of each of their births.

Miss Ronda Pevehouse served as her sister's maid of honor. Bridal attendants were Sharon Cockram, of this city, and Luella Power of Hereford. Little miss Rene Harman, cousin of the bride was flower girl and Shawn Dalton, cousin of the groom, was ring bearer.

Feminine attendants wore formal length gowns of yellow and carried nosegays of yellow and white daisies.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pevehouse chose a formal length gown of pink. The mother of the groom was gowned in yellow and both added corsages of white daisies.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home. The party table was laid with white and featured the brides chosen yellow and white daisies. The five-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and touched with yellow confection daisies. The cake and reception punch were served by Linda Baker and Carolyn Harmon.

For a wedding trip to Amarillo, the bride selected a gray pantsuit. The couple is now at home in Dimmitt.

The bride attended ten years of school in Dimmitt and is graduated from Lubbock Christian High School. Myers attended Hart High School and is presently employed in building construction.

Out of town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Baker of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Morton Powers, Roger and Glen also of Hereford.

HERO Chapter Elects Officers

Members of the HERO chapter of Future Homemakers of America met Wednesday morning in the gym to elect officers for the year.

Ernestina Montemayor was elected president. Other officers are Rosa Chapa, vice president; Cathy Scott, secretary; Yolanda Gutierrez, treasurer; Minerva Castaneda, historian; Stella Robleda, reporter; Bertha Alvarado, parliamentarian and Diana Ledesma, song leader. Miss Pam Bales is sponsor.

Others attending the meeting were Rosa Portillo, Dolores Gutierrez, Nelda Castaneda, Angie Balmares, Delia Castillo, Brenda Finch, Gloria Godino, Ester Medellin, Becky Cole, Tiwana Ellis, Mary Ramirez, Guadalupe Corrales, Betty Cole, Linda Ledesma, Sarah Finch, Elida Lara and Josephina Reyes.

Special guests were Mmes. J.G. Estes and J.M. Key, both of Olton, grandmothers-to-be. Mrs. Ronnie Key of Olton, sister-in-law of the honoree, also attended.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Jo Bass.

The party table was laid with an orange colored cutwork cloth, centered with three stuffed animals. Daisies and baby's breath complemented the table decor.

Cake shaped as baby booties, banana punch and coffee were served by Mmes. Freddie Upshaw and Doug Martin.

The honoree was presented with a corsage designed of baby booties, rattle and baby's breath and a high chair and car seat.

Assisting with hostess duties were Mmes. Upshaw, Martin, Bass, Weldon Jones, Everett Heller, Joe Ed Carson, Bill Sanders, Ricky Mitchell, Ronnie Truelock, Carl Rambo, Max Marble and Bill Brantley.
