

All About Nothin'

No More Bargain Days

In the past the Review has staged a series of bargain days in which we offered subscriptions at a special reduced rate to attract new readers. This is to announce there will be no more of these bargain days until prices of newsprint stock, ink, etc. return to a lower level.

Similar to other businesses, everything we use has increased in price, thereby making it impossible for us to sell Review subscriptions at a rate lower than $1.50 per year. Back in the depression years we reduced our rate to $1.00, and in April of 1937 we went back to our regular rate of $1.50.

If you will read the Review advertisements and trade with the advertisers, we believe you will get more than double your money's worth out of your Review subscription every week in the savings in QUALITY merchandise you buy at Abernathy stores.

As for news coverage, we believe you will admit you get full value for your subscription payment. Every week we print all the news we can find, and if news about you, your club, your church is not printed it is because you did not report it. We urge you to tell us your news EVERY WEEK.

Farmers, use your Cotton Stamps to buy cotton material from Abernathy Variety Store and Struve Merc.—The Texas Southwestern Gas Co. is sending home town newspapers to boys in Uncle Sam's service, according to James L. Dow, editor of the Wink Bulletin.

"A recent survey of training camps showed that one of the greatest desires of the boys was to receive their home newspaper," Dow stated.

Reading Ed Bishop's Ed-Aches column in the Dalhart Texan last week, I ran across a paragraph rarely found in a West Texas newspaper. It was one which showed a bit of kindness toward Senator O'Daniel! Those of you who read the anti-O'Daniel editorials in the Lubbock papers, and sundry other newspapers might like to read Bishop's pfg. just as a change.

Here it is: "The anti-O'Danielites are having a field day. Together with the Washington columnists they are laughing at the flour salesman over what they term his mistakes. He should have kept silent, they say. He should not have openly opposed the President and he should have just been seen and not heard. If the biscuit-passer keeps up his present pace, let's the world know that he intends to have a mind of his own, speaks his piece when he wants to, and re-

NFLA Stockholders To Meet Tuesday Night

Stockholders of the Abernathy National Farm Loan Association are to attend the annual meeting which is to be held at Rita theatre here Tuesday night starting at 8 o'clock. W. A. Richter, secretary-treasurer, said Lloyd Croslin, Lubbock attorney, would be the principal speaker, and talks might be made by R. E. Wilson, farm organization official, and Miss Lucille Schultz, Hale county home demonstration agent, both of Plainview. Added entertainment probably will include pictures of farm scenes, Richter stated.

Terms of Directors H. Schulz and N. A. Davis expire this year, and election of two directors, along with the annual report from Richter, will be included in the business meet. Other members of the directorate are Chris Benn, G. G. Gilliland and E. G. Thompson.

According to the officials of the organization there are more stockholders taking interest in the meeting than at any previous time.

Many have expressed themselves as being anxious to attend this meeting, and stated that they hoped it would be as interesting as the one held last year.

The Association has made a good showing the past year, and the Secretary-Treasurer is anxious for all members to hear the annual report.

ENTERS TRAINING TO BECOME NAVAL AIRMAN

The Review received word from Dallas late last week that Ralph Havenhill had enlisted for aviation training in the United States Navy. A son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Havenhill of this city, Ralph finished high school here, received his degree from NTSTC, Denton, and taught last year at Hallsville.

He will be sent to the Naval Air Base at Dallas, Texas, for his first months training and from there to either Pensacola or Corpus Christi for the rest of his training. After finishing the full aviation course of training which takes about eight months he will be commissioned as an officer in the Naval Reserve and sent to active duty with the aviation squadrons of the U. S. Navy.

Only value of the rains received late last week and this week is the moisture being stored up in the soil for fall wheat sowing which will start this month. Farmers are urged to have seed wheat treated against smut. (Saa local elevator ads in this Review). First cold snap of fall came Tuesday morning on wings of a norther which brought out coats and fired up heaters. Rains which are retarding feed harvest and cotton growth progress, are increasing danger of worm damage to cotton. There's widespread worm poisoning activity in this territory. Hundreds of acres of cotton have been dusted, some by plane. Wheatmen are busy plowing up heavy volunteer wheat growth.

"Those Other Sheep" will be the title of a missionary sermon to be preached at the Church of the Nazarene, Sunday morning, Sept. 14, by Rev. J. Melton Thomas, pastor. "A-midst all the activities of life here," Rev. Thomas states, "we sometimes forget our responsibility to other and less fortunate than we. But as well as to those here, we also have a duty to those in regions beyond." In the Sunday evening service the sermon topic will be "Heaven's Open Door." The public is sincerely invited to hear these messages.

S. C. Simon, who worked the past several years as office manager for W. O. Fortenberry, and J. L. Smallwood, Levelland gin operator, recently bought the former Monroe Farmers Co-op gin from J. S. Edwards of Slaton. Edwards purchased the plant from the co-op group a few months ago.

The new owners said the plant would be completely overhauled and put in A-1 condition for the coming season. The old office building was razed and a new frame building, 18-X 34 feet, is to be erected east of the gin with new 34-foot, 15-ton capacity scales.

Simon said he probably would build a home at Monroe and move here from Lubbock later. Smallwood will continue operation of his gin at Levelland.

An Eagle scout award was presented Jerry Smyth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jot Smyth of Lubbock. Grady West presented the pin, which was pinned on Jerry by his mother.

Hallmark and Delvis Hallmark. Visitors were welcomed by Mayor F. W. Struve. Sam A. Henry presided in absence of J. C. Reynolds, district court of honor chairman.

service station. They went to town while Jackson serviced their car, and on returning they boarded the car, and "zoomed" away so fast that only the first number, 7, could be read on their license plate. On driving up to the station, the men observed several there playing dominoes. Jackson believes they might have planned to rob him, but abandoned the idea on seeing the other men. He was robbed by a lone bandit on March 29 who got ten gallons of gas, about $20 in cash—and five years in the pen.

Question Box Will Be Feature In Cooking School

Your home newspaper has made a constant effort through the years to bring to our city the best available public service features.

October 2, 3 and 4 will witness an outstanding event along these lines. At considerable expense we are bringing to the men and women of this region the Happy Kitchen Cooking School on these dates. The foremost lecturer of modern cookery, Mrs. Cora Wilson will conduct the sessions, which will feature actual demonstrations from the completely equipped stage of the school, at the local theatre.

We can think of no better manner in which to bring to the women of our community a public service. Long after the cooking school is passed we will reap the benefits offered by Mrs. Wilson. There will be new and appetizing dishes going on your tables from the recipes offered from this testing kitchen. There will be dozens of helpful hints on shopping and marketing our foods. There will be new tricks to save steps and time in the preparation of your meals. And yet, we have only scratched the surface of the entertaining features to be presented.

One very interesting feature of the Happy Kitchen Cooking School will be the "Question Box". A box for your use, in asking the questions on the subject or phases of home management you most desire to know about. During the session each day, these questions will be answered. There will be a wealth of entertainment as well as instructions on how to make your home a more enjoyable place to live.

So plan now to attend this public service event offered by the Review for the betterment of our And the dates are Oct. 2, 3, and 4.

Creating Our Own Happy Ending

Up until 15 years ago we exported the fertility of our cotton producing areas in the form of cottonseed meal to enrich those areas of the world which made their living principally by livestock production.

Today, we see within our reach—indeed, it has already come true in many areas—the development of a Cotton Belt livestock industry which, nurtured on cottonseed feeds, is the perfect and natural complement to our cotton industry. Today we are using the wealth of our cottonseed meal at home.

Is it too much to hope that the story of cotton lint can have the same happy ending? Fifteen years ago we shipped out 86% of our cotton crop to a world which knew its worth better than mance as wearing apparel in our climate was not as good as the we. Then we bought at high prices other fibers whose performance as wearing apparel in our climate was not as good as the cotton we were shipping away.

The limit in the volume of cotton products which Cotton Belt people need, and should have, is not yet in sight.

Healthful Foods To Be Stressed In Cooking School

It takes a hard driving pace to keep up with this swiftly moving world. And this fast tempo of our American life makes the importance of keeping the family healthy a very vital factor.

For this reason we are bringing the noted food expert, Mrs. Cora Wilson to the families of our area, so that we may learn first hand the important new discoveries on the subject of keeping the family healthy.

Mrs. Wilson will stress the health giving properties of various foods during the course of the lectures and actual cooking demonstrations of the Happy Kitchen Cooking School to be held in Rita theatre Oct. 2, 3 and 4.

In addition to this feature, there will be present for the first time, new and varied recipes to tempt the appetites of the family. There will be new wrinkles in serving, new tricks in the preparation of dishes, new ideas on marketing and budgeting, and many other helpful suggestions to make the Happy Kitchen Cooking School an event you will long remember and profit by.

According to Mrs. Cora Wilson "Little as one may think, the health of a family or a nation begins in the kitchen of the home. For that reason I will present in my lectures certain factors that will aid the women of this area in keeping themselves and their family physically fit."

The lectures and demonstrations are free to all housewives of this area, so avail yourselves of this splendid opportunity to attend a real homemakers event. The dates are Oct. 2, 3 and 4.

WOULD YOU EAT 10 LOAVS OF WHITE BREAD IN ONE DAY?

They say that bread is the staff of life, but if you had to eat the ten 1-pound loaves each day necessary to get the proper amount of calcium needed by your system, you'd soon tire of bread, even as covers for delicious sandwiches.

HERE'S A TIP—Just one quart of Kenny Rankin Dairy milk contains as much calcium as does ten 1-pound loaves of white bread.

WANT-ADS

FOR SALE—I have for sale a small amount of both, Abura rye and Redhardt wheat. They are especially good grazing varieties. I secured both these varieties from North Carolina, certified last year. Price per bushel $1.50 for each. The wheat seems to be two weeks earlier in maturing than any I have ever raised, and grows off faster for pasture. Try a few bushels, it may be just what we want in this country. HERMAN SCHULZ (If I'm not in the office, call at Brown's 66 Station).

Forty years ago an oil gusher roared in on a low hill south of Beaumont to open a new industrial era for Texas.

That discovery at Spindletop started our modern Texas petroleum industry and made Texas the nation's leading oil state.

In the forty years since Spindletop blew in, nearly 200,000 wells have been drilled throughout Texas. Over 500 separate fields are now producing in all parts of the State. Today Texas supplies over one-third of the Nation's oil and has over half of its petroleum reserves.

Our industry, by refining almost all of this oil in Texas, has created our largest manufacturing enterprise. By furnishing cheap fuel it has laid the foundation for many other Texas industries.

From a handful of Texans forty years ago, this industry has grown until now, directly or indirectly, it supports almost one million of our people. Its expenditures reach into every section of the State and benefit every Texan.

The discovery of America's first gusher oil field at Spindletop has turned out to be one of the most important events in the history of our state.

Today all of Texas salutes Spindletop!

On October 9, 10 and 11, during its annual convention at Beaumont, the Texas-Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association will dedicate a monument to Spindletop.

Inscribed in ageless Texas granite will be the story of oil.

This is more than a monument to petroleum. It is a tribute to Texas enterprise and initiative which in forty years have built a great industry in our State—an industry in which you and every other Texan share.

Household Handy Hints

By Mrs. Cora Wilson
Conducting the Happy Kitchen Cooking School Here Soon.

Clip These Household Hints. Put Them Where You Can Find Them. They Are Worthwhile.

Try baking nut, bran or raisin bread in pound KC Baking Powder cans instead of loaf pans. These smaller sized molds can easily be cut into dainty sandwiches. Grease the can well so the bread will slip out easily. It usually takes 3 cans to handle as much dough as one loaf pan.

Open a little starch in final rinsing water will restore the original stiffness to lacy frills. Place them on a towel to dry. Pull them gently into shape and press with an iron.

When you cream vegetables, cool the vegetable broth a little before adding the flour and water thickening. Thus will you avoid the unpleasant "lumping" that so often results in these dishes.

A small piece of butter added to water prevents vegetables, macaroni or rice from boiling over.

When buying a fish, select one that has bright eyes and gills and firm flesh, as these testify to freshness of fish.

A tiny pinch of salt added to whites of eggs will make them beat quicker.

fuses to be a "Yes" or a "No" congressman, he will have the same critics on his bandwagon trying to ride into the White House with him. America hasn't lost its appreciation of the man who still wears pants."

Civilian Supply Automobiles
OPM and the Office of Price Administration ordered auto production for the 1942 model year cut to 817,000 cars during the four months beginning August 1, compared with 1,560,000 during the four months ended July 31. General Motors, Chrysler and Ford were asked to make a 27.6 percent cut from last year's levels; Studebaker, Hudson, Nash, Packard, Willys and Crosley, 20.2.

OPM Associate Director Hillman said unemployment in the industry would be headed off by transfer of workers to defense plants and other defense industries and the conversion of auto production machinery to defense work along the same lines similar moves in the silk industry.

Ragland has pledged his cooperation to the merchants who care to sell the stamps—Suggestion has been made that local Boy Scouts place boxes at several places here for the collection of tin-foil. Elton Renfro experienced the thrill of his life last week in Albuquerque when he obtained his favorite screen star's autograph and talked with him. Bob Hope was a passenger on the Stratoliner which was grounded there about two hours with engine trouble, and after the crowd of autograph hunters cleared away, Elton chatted with the star several minutes. The Renfroes returned recently from a vacation in Colorado and New Mexico—You should have seen the size of the peaches R. T. Price brought me from his five-tree orchard at Taco. They were unbelievable large; I had no idea this country could produce fruit that big. Some which grew on one of the trees measured 12 inches in circumference, and they were delicious. One tree bears two crops each year. The first, and larger peaches ripen in mid-August and the latter, and smaller, crop is ready about Sept. 15.—Someone found and brought to the Review office a good pocket knife Monday. The owner may have it by giving a description and buying me a frosted coke.

The grand-daddy of this year's floods, which broke the winter and early spring drought, was head-lined as a "Million-Dollar Rain" in the Review. Now, when rains come, Wayne Riley reminds me of that May 9th headline. Only kind of weather which would be worth a million now would be the clear, dry and warm variety with a December 1st frost—Add wedding anniversaries: Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Crow are celebrating their fifth this week.
