100 Are Killed While Carrier Burns At Sea

QUONSET, R.I. (AP)—The Navy suffered one of its worst peacetime ship disasters in history today when at least 100 men were killed and 220 injured in a fire at sea aboard the aircraft carrier Bennington.

As the Essex class craft, which had an illustrious record in World Wah II, came into this Naval air base helicopters conducted a shuttle service carrying injured to a Naval hospital in nearby Newport.

First reports said high octane gas was involved in the fire.

Greatest previous peacetime ship loss of life suffered by the Navy was 48 aboard the battleship Mississippi off California in 1924.

Last October 37 died and 39 were injured in an explosion and fire aboard the carrier Leyte while she was tied up at Boston for repairs.

The Bennington, with a crew of 2,800, was engaged in what the Navy called routine training when the fire occurred.

The Bennington was on a routine cruise along the eastern seaboard.

During World War II action, the Bennington escaped serious damage but her flight deck was buckled in a typhoon in 1945.

The carrier was placed in mothballs in 1946 and returned to active duty in 1952. Since then, the vessel has been assigned to the Atlantic fleet.

The Navy's last fire disaster also occurred in a carrier, the Leyte, when 32 Navy men and 5 civilians lost their lives in an explosion and fire while the ship was undergoing overhaul at the Boston Naval shipyard on Oct. 16, 1953.

A Navy court of inquiry into that disaster concluded that it was caused by an accidental fire in the ship's hydraulic system.

Two helicopters sped from the fire-damaged carrier to Newport and the first patient was carried—swathed in sheets—to a hospital-bound ambulance.

First reports, not immediately confirmed by the Navy, said the fire involved high octane gas. The carrier normally carries a crew of 2,800.

The Bennington said the fire was under control but there were no other details. The carrier was due at Quonset shortly after noon.

A helicopter from the naval air station flew out medical supplies to the stricken craft and the destroyer Potter stood by at the air station ready to evacuate the more seriously injured.

Additional medical personnel was assembled here and ambulances were made ready in other Navy centers in case they were needed.

The Bennington is 27,100 tons of the Essex class, the 11th of her class built since Pearl Harbor. In April 1953, while on a shakedown cruise in Cuban waters 11 men were killed in a boiler explosion.

The carrier participated in sinking an entire Japanese convoy off Okinawa and shared credit in the sinking of the battleship Yamato.

The Bennington was off Brenton Reef near Newport at 11 a.m. The Newport Naval Hospital was alerted and ambulances were rushed from there to Quonset.

Haymes, Wife 'Overwhelmed' About Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)—A charge by Dick Haymes' lawyer that immigration officials sought to "entrap" the Argentine-born singer has led to suspension of a government deportation order against him.

The Board of Immigration Appeals late yesterday set aside the order for the time being and instructed the Immigration and Naturalization Service to reopen Haymes' case.

Haymes said in New York he and his wife, screen actress Rita Hayworth, are "overwhelmed with joy."

Haymes was ordered deported last March 23 on grounds that he re-entered the continental United States illegally after a trip last June to Hawaii to visit Miss Hayworth before their marriage.

When the case was heard by the board earlier this month, Haymes' lawyer, Welburn Mayock, produced an affidavit in which Richard R. Cody, a former immigration service worker at Los Angeles, swore he had been instructed not to caution Haymes that the singer might be ineligible to resume his residence in the United States, if he left the mainland.

This, Mayock contended, amounted to "entrapment" by immigration officials.

Immigration officials argued that the 35-year-old crooner became ineligible for U.S. citizenship during World War II when he claimed exemption from the draft because he was an alien.

BARE-HANDED CATCH

Few persons have caught the fearsome hand-saw fish, a member of the vicious lancet family. Tom Baker, 20, left, an airman from Columbus, Ohio, did it bare-handed on the Oregon coast near Portland. Baker saw the fish swim between his legs, impulsively reached down and began tugging it shoreward by its tail, dodging snapping teeth. His partner, Ed Warner, right, an airman from Kansas City, Mo., admires the catch.

Joe Says Symington Is Defending Communists

Stalks Out During Testimony Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pvt. G. David Schine's company commander testified today Schine took New Year's leave from Ft. Dix, N.J., in violation of instructions but was allowed to remain at home after Roy Cohn telephoned the fort.

Capt. Joseph J. M. Miller said he reported Schine as "absent without leave" but that no disciplinary action was taken against Schine, and Schine's service record does not show he was AWOL.

During his testimony Miller also said he never gave any "preferential treatment" to Schine, and that neither Sen. McCarthy nor any of McCarthy's aides ever asked him to do so.

Miller's story of the New Year's incident capped earlier testimony that Schine once apparently tried to offer him a trip to Florida, and also told him he was in the service "to remake the American military establishment along modern lines."

Miller said he had scheduled Schine for guard duty Dec. 31 and had specifically instructed him he was not to leave the post without Miller's authority. Miller said he also had advised Schine that because Schine had a Christmas pass, he would not be entitled to a pass for New Year's Day.

He said he considered that Schine was absent from the company area, without permission, and ordered a search for him which disclosed Schine had signed out of the fort on a pass to New York as of 11:30 a.m., but that actually he had left prior to 10:45 a.m. when the search was begun.

Miller said the arrangement was that all passes for Schine were to clear through Miller and Schine was not to leave on any other authority.

Miller said Roy Cohn, chief counsel to the McCarthy subcommittee, called at 3 o'clock that afternoon to say Schine would be working on subcommittee business "throughout the weekend."

Under questioning by Sen. Symington (D-Mo), Miller said he considered Schine's absence was "absence without leave" and so reported to his regimental commander, who in turn reported to Maj. Gen. Cornelius Ryan, the fort commander.

Sen. McCarthy protested that much of Miller's testimony was irrelevant to the issue of whether he and his aides pressured for preferential treatment of Schine.

At one point, McCarthy arose, announced he was leaving until the "drivel" was over, and stalked from the room. He came back in about 20 minutes while Miller was still testifying.

McCarthy and Symington (D-Mo) got into a brief hassle when McCarthy referred to James A. Wechsler, editor of the New York Post, as a one-time "top official of the Communist party."

Symington said there was "no justification for the statement."

Symington said it was his understanding Wechsler has testified that when he was "around 17, 18 or 19 he was a member of the Young Communist League, that he left that organization, and that since then he has been more and more active against Communism."

The McCarthy-Symington row blew up when McCarthy questioned Miller about a series of articles in the New York Post on Schine's life at Ft. Dix.

McCarthy called the Post "a Communist sheet."

McCarthy declared the only time Symington "raises his voice" is to defend communism.

He told Symington he had a former Communist sitting right behind him—Miss Elizabeth Bentley.

Miss Bentley, who says she was once a courier for a Communist spy ring, has been a frequent witness in recent years at congressional hearings.

ONE COUNTY CANDIDATE FAILED TO FILE EXPENSES

Since noon yesterday, three candidates for public office filed sworn statements of campaign expenses, bringing the total number of statements filed so far to 19.

This leaves at least one announced candidate who had not filed a statement by noon today. Last midnight was the deadline for filing of such. Consequence for failure to file sworn statements as required has long been a matter of controversy. No statement was on file by noon today for T. B. Knight, candidate for county commissioner of precinct 1.

Another candidate for this office, John E. Bryant, filed a sworn statement this morning. It was dated yesterday.

The three persons filing statements since noon yesterday were Bryant, Leona Weathers, and Don Robinson. Expenses of the three, according to the statements, totaled $286.35, bringing the total expended by all 19 candidates so far to $1,303.80.

Only precinct and county officials are required to file with the county clerk. Others, such as judicial district canditiate and legislative district candidates, file with state officials.

The largest total of campaign expense stated was by Mrs. Weathers, $159.35. The smallest total was that of Pat Johnston, $25.

Bryant's statement showed a total of $59.30, and Robinson's was $67.70.

Candidates remaining in races until the general election in November will have 12 such sworn statements to make by Nov. 13.

State law requires that statements be filed by all candidates for nomination in the first primary election at intervals of 20 days, beginning 60 days prior to the date of election. That places the first statement deadline for this year yesterday. The law also requires a sworn statement to be made not more than five nor less than two days before the election.

In addition to statements before the first primary election, all candidates, whether successful or not, must file supplemental statements with the county judge not later than 10 days after the election.

This post-election statement is the final one for unsuccessful candidates. For others, statements continue for the second primary, being filed not more than 20 nor less than 15 days before the election and again not more than five nor less than two days prior to the election.

Again, all candidates of the second primary, whether successful or defeated, must file supplemental statements with the county judges of the counties of their residences within 10 days after the election.

Successful candidates continue statements through the general election which is also followed by statements from all its candidates.

Election dates are first primary on July 24, second primary on Aug. 28, and general on Nov. 2.

Dates or deadline dates for filing of sworn statements are May 25, June 14, July 4, July 14, Aug. 3, Aug. 8, Aug. 23, Sept. 3, Sept. 22, Oct. 12, and Nov. 13.

Dismissal Of Jury Commission In Duval Is Upheld By Court

AUSTIN (AP)—The Court of Criminal Appeals, with one dissent, refused today to interfere with 79th District Judge A. S. Broadfoot's discharge of a grand jury commission in South Texas political boss George Parr's Duval County domain.

Broadfoot contended the commission had not used due care and diligence in selecting fair and impartial grand and petit jurors.

The suit was brought by the jury commissioners seeking to have the appeal court set aside the judge's order dismissing them.

The court's opinion said it was without jurisdiction.

Judge W. A. Morrison dissented, criticizing a closed door session between Judge Broadfoot and Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd preceding the dismissal order.

"In my opinion such an act smacks of the police state and is not in keeping with the policy of the law," he said. "I know of no stronger language with which to condemn such conduct."

The appeal court said that it deemed no motion for rehearing advisable in the case in order that the immediate impanelling of a grand jury might be accomplished. The court had previously directed that no grand jury be impanelled pending final decision in the suit.

Presiding Judge Harry Graves wrote the majority opinion.

Broadfoot succeeded to the bench of the 79th District by appointment of Supreme Court Chief Justice James Hickman after the Supreme Court removed Judge Woodrow Laughlin of Alice.

Laughlin had appointed the jury commissioners Broadfoot dismissed March 31.

The commissioners appealed from the dismissal on grounds that the dismissal order was void.

"The validity of the order of Judge Laughlin (appointing the commissioners) or the competence, suitability, availability or qualification of the jury commissioners or the members of the grand jury panel selected by them is not controlling," the majority opinion said.

"The sole question is the jurisdiction of the court while presided over by Judge Broadfoot on March 31, 1954, to enter the order which he did."

The court cited a previous ruling from which it quoted: "A court has full control over its orders or judgment during the term at which they are made, and may, upon sufficient cause shown, exercise of its sound discretion, amend, correct, revise, supplement, open, or vacate such judgments."

The court said it has recognized and applied this principle in many cases and that it is applicable to the Broadfoot order.

Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd welcomed the decision, as one that "will send shudders of fear through the ranks of certain Duval County politicians because it opens the door to a full scrutiny of their activities."

Shepperd described the decision as "the key to the Duval puzzle." He said he hoped it would lead to quick formation of an impartial grand jury to consider what he termed the "multitudes of crimes and irregularities which had been rampant in the South Texas area."

The attorney general said the Duval County politicians whom he had in mind "want anything but a fair investigation by an impartial grand jury.

"The three things most feared there are an impartial grand jury, an impartial auditor, and an impartial judge," said Shepperd, "and we may look for more delaying tactics to postpone the day of reckoning."

No Clues In Safe Job Here

No clues have been found concerning the theft last Thursday night of a safe containing betwen $75 and $100, taken in the burglary of the office of Caperton Bros., a new and used car lot on East Highway.

The safe, which weighed about 250 pounds, has not been found since burglars removed it from the office through a window. No fingerprints of suspects were found, although thorough checks for such were made. Several prints of cotton gloves were found.

Officers of the sheriff's department opined the safe may have been dumped into a creek or river and submerged, most creeks now running since the recent rains.

In addition to cash, the safe also contained checks for a total of more than $70.

Moderate Temperatures

Temperatures fell to a low of 50 degrees last night and had been to a high of only 70 yesterday, according to Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn weather observer. Reading at 7:30 o'clock this morning was 59.

Pilotless Plane Crash In City

NEWARK, Del. (AP)—An Air Force twin engine plane crashed into a lumber yard in downtown Newark last night and exploded into a terrific blaze. No one was injured in the fire and both the pilot and copilot safely parachuted over the city.

The C-45 exploded on impact and the flames, fed by a half million dollars worth of lumber, leaped 100 feet into the air.

The two flyers were taken to the New Castle County Air Force Base near Wilmington, 12 miles northeast of Newark. A spokesman said there would be an investigation.

The plane was on a routine nonstop training flight from Mitchel Air Force Base, Long Island, N.Y., to Washington, D. C. and return.

The pilot, Capt. Leroy B. Hansen, 32, of Salt Lake City, Utah, said the ship suddenly developed engine trouble and when emergency measures failed, he and copilot Capt. Howard N. Franklyn, 32, of Medford, Mass., bailed out.

Houston Council Has Negroes' Use Of Parks Under Discussion Today

HOUSTON (AP)—The City Council scheduled discussions today on use of three municipal golf courses by Negroes.

An interpretation of a 5th Court of Civil Appeals ruling made final Monday by the Supreme Court was before the group for study. The ruling directed the city to make the courses available to Negroes but to maintain segregation.

It was considered likely the council would take no action at once. City ordinances provide for three parks to be set aside for use by Negroes.

Shifting Move By Reds Made In Indochina

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—Vietminh troops moving east from captured Dien Bien Phu suddenly veered north today in an apparent attempt to encircle French defenses in the vital Red River delta.

The shift of Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap's Communist-led legions was believed designed to form a giant pincers squeezing the delta's northern perimeter while other Vietminh troops threaten it from the west.

The French sent out U.S.-supplied B26 bombers and Corsairs to pound the racing columns. The air strike was concentrated on troops bunched near Nha Phu, about 90 miles southwest of Hanoi.

In the delta itself only light action was reported. Twelve rebels were killed as French warplanes pounded Vietminh forces harassing outposts southeast of Hanoi.

Meanwhile, the airlift of French wounded from Dien Bien Phu continued. The French command said 148 were flown out last night, bringing the total evacuated to 710. The French hope to wind up the shuttle today. The rebels have given permission to evacuate a total of 858.

The French command in Saigon said it will build up 13 new military units from the reserves of Viet Nam battalions lost at Dien Bien Phu. A spokesman said, with reinforcements expected from France, the new units will total some 12,000. This is about the number lost at Dien Bien Phu.

The spokesman said the new units would be sent in to bolster the imperiled delta.

GROUNDWORK FOR ALIBI

Demos Fire Back At Charges 'Roadblocks' Leveled By Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) said today the White House is "attempting to lay the groundwork to alibi an almost total lack of legislative progress by this Republican Congress."

Sparkman and Sen. Russell (D-Ga) derided a claim by Bernard M. Shanley, President Eisenhower's special counsel, that Democrats are placing "important roadblocks" in the path of Eisenhower's legislative program and at the same time trying to ride Eisenhower's coattails to victory in the coming congressional elections.

Sparkman, his party's 1952 vice presidential candidate, said it looked to him as though Eisenhower "is riding the coattails of the Democrats, with his proposals in the field of social security and housing." The Alabaman said these were "extensions" of Democrats' ideas.

And Russell said Eisenhower could not reconcile his request for a constitutional amendment to lower the voting age to 18 on a national basis with the President's "many campaign statements" that he "believed in and would foster" states' rights.

Russell led the opposition when this proposal was defeated last week in the Senate.

In a speech Monday night, Shanley listed three items in the president's legislative program which he said the Democrats had tried to block: Taft-Hartley Act revision, administration tax proposals and the teen-age vote plan.

The tax bill passed the House, but only after a stiff fight over Democratic efforts to raise personal income tax exemptions. The 18-year-old vote and Taft-Hartley revision proposals were both killed in the Senate.

Sparkman said Democratic support saved Eisenhower from defeat on "several major items." He mentioned the constitutional amendment proposed by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) to limit the President's treaty-making powers. This proposal failed in the Senate.

Sparkman predicted that before this session of Congress ends, Eisenhower will look "with thanks" to Democrats for what the Alabaman said would be their support of such presidential proposals as social security extension, housing and foreign aid.

Puerto Ricans Are Arrested

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell today announced the arrest of 11 leaders of the Nationalist party of Puerto Rico on charges of seditious conspiracy to overthrow the U.S. government.

Six of the arrests were made in Chicago, four in New York City and one in San Juan, the capital of Puerto Rico.

Brownell placed detainers against six other members of the Nationalist party, including the four in jail here charged with shooting five members of the House of Representatives on March 1.

The other two detainers were placed against two Puerto Ricans now imprisoned in the federal correctional institution at Danbury, Conn.

The roundup resulted from a lengthy FBI investigation into Nationalist party activity extending back to 1936.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover noted in connection with today's roundup that members of the party were responsible for a bloody revolutionary attempt in Puerto Rico in October and November, 1950, for the attempted assassination of former President Harry S. Truman at Blair House in November of that year, and for the recent shooting affray in the House here.

Quiet Political Front Over State, Wait For Athens Fete

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

A curious quiet settled along the Texas political front Wednesday.

Seasoned politicians knew there was a flurry of behind the scenes skirmishing.

This blacked-out tussle for campaign expenses, support from local leaders, and votes probably will reach a climax in Henderson County of East Texas Friday. That's when Athens puts on its Old Fiddlers Reunion.

From then on until the primaries July 24 most politicians will get down to serious business.

19TH FIDDLE YEAR

The Old Fiddlers Reunion, in its 19th year, has long been a gathering ground for politicians. Few hear even the twang of fiddle string but gather in Stirman's Drug Store during the day and then go to a barbecue at night.

That's when many a deal in past political campaigns has been made. Hosts have been varied but Arch Underwood of Lubbock, a former Athens resident, has probably been the most frequent along with Rupert Craig, Athens banker, former newspaperman and an ex-member of the State Democratic Executive Committee.

The celebrated "New Athenians," so named recently by a national magazine, rarely show up in person, but many have representatives there. It's their purses that have financed numerous political races in the past.

SPAWNS "BIG RICH"

These so-called "New Athenians" are men who once lived in the small East Texas town and have become some of the nation's most fabulous "Big Rich." They include, among others, such men as Sid Richardson, Clint Murchison, and Underwood. All still have deep roots in the Athens community.

Richardson reputedly was one of Republican Dwight Eisenhower's heaviest backers with cash.

Underwood was one of Texas' original New Deal Democrats and backed the campaigns of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman. He has also taken part in numerous gubernatorial and senate campaigns, backing such candidates as James V. Allred and Grover Sellers. Underwood has won and lost, too.

A Beeville rancher seeking to grab the Democratic nomination for the Senate from Lyndon Johnson stayed active. Dudley Dougherty was in Goliad Tuesday. He said the United States should sever relations with Russia. He said it would be the first step toward the defeat of world communism.

The 30-year-old rancher and oilman also said secret agreements made by the United States at Yalta and Potsdam should be abrogated and that Senator Johnson "from his record . . . favors the Yalta and Potsdam agreements."

Two Snyderites Graduate From A&M College

Two Snyder men received degrees last week at graduation of Texas A&M College.

They were Donald D. Cress, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cress, Diamond M Building, and Joe B. McAlister, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. McAlister, 308 Thirty-third Street.

Cress, 26, received his docotrate of veterinary medicine. He took his pre-vet training at John Tarleton State College. He is yet undecided where he will begin his veterinary practice but is considering California. He is to take state board examinations June 2-3. Cress is married to the former Miss Gwen Whitfield of Sweetwater. He graduated from high school at Kemper Military School, Boonville, Mo. He is a veteran of two years in the Marine Corps, several months of which he served in China.

McAlister, 21, was presented a bachelor degree in mechanical engineering. He will go within a few days to Dallas, where he will be employed by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. as an engineer in the plant department. A lieutenant in the Army reserve, McAlister will report in December to Ft. Monmouth, N. J., for active duty. He received the school's Faculty Achievement Award on graduation.

The awards are made each year to outstanding students in the school of engineering. Last year he won the Hugh Scott Cameron Award in mechanical engineering. McAlister graduated from high school in Abilene.

Mother's Plea Doesn't Save Rapist Due To Die In Chair Tonight

AUSTIN (AP)—Charles Klinedinst is scheduled to be electrocuted at Huntsville tonight despite a plea from the mother of the girl, 13, he was convicted of raping.

The Pardons Board rejected yesterday the last clemency plea for Klinedinst. A letter from the mother of the molested girl said she bore Klinedinst no malice and wanted the sentence commuted to life imprisonment.

Klinedinst and his common-law wife were both convicted of raping the young girl in Dallas. The wife was sentenced to 10 years for helping Klinedinst and taking pictures while the girl was being attacked.

Sleeping Bags Win Battle For Youths

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—For three and a half hours a stubborn battle was fought in silence along a lonely road here.

It began when two cars met on the narrow thoroughfare—too narrow for both to pass.

The impasse grew tense. Soon three youths hopped from one car. They lounged on the road bank, read, played cards. The other driver gnashed his teeth, but refused to back out.

When the trio reached for sleeping bags—210 minutes later—their battle was won.

Surplus Food Is Given Away

Government-purchased surplus food commodities were distributed here to 22 families by noon today in the first day of a new program of the federal government for disposition of foods bought under the support price program.

Mrs. Leamon Land, welfare official for the county, is handling the distribution program here. She estimated that about 12 more families known to be eligible for receipt of foods would apply this afternoon.

Commodities given the needy families includes canned beef and gravy, butter, cheese, powdered milk, shortening, beans, and potatoes.

Families participating must be needy because of inability of the head of the house to work, either because of no available employment, sickness, or other disability. The largest family receiving foods today had 12 members, the smallest only one.

Grand Jury Is Due To Report On Insurance

AUSTIN (AP)—A grand jury report on its investigation into possible criminal violations of Texas' insurance laws was expected tomorrow or Friday.

Dist. Atty. Bob Long, under whose urging the inquiry started, said yesterday the jury has only one remaining subpoenaed witness to hear today and three "invited" ones to hear tomorrow.

If the invited ones do not show up, Long said the report may be ready tomorrow. If they do, Long expected the report Friday.

TERM ENDS FRIDAY

The grand jury's term ends automatically Saturday.

Scheduled to be heard today in an afternoon session was Paul Key of El Paso, an official of the Southwest National Bank there.

Tomorrow's invited guests are Paul and Leslie Lowry of Beaumont, organizers of the now bankrupt Texas Mutual Insurance Co. of Beaumont, and Spencer Treharne, organizer of two El Paso insurance companies now in receivership.

The grand jury went to work Friday on circumstances surrounding the bankrupt companies following a recent opinion from the 3rd Court of Civil Appeals. In the opinion, Justice R. G. Hughes charged there had been gross if not criminal laxness in insurance law enforcement.

SEN. MOORE APPEARS

Two linked in the opinion with Texas Mutual, state Sen. William Moore of Bryan and former Insurance Commission Examiner Virgil Thompson of San Antonio, appeared before the jury yesterday.

Moore interrupted his campaign for re-election when he heard he was wanted for questioning. He told reporters it appeared he was being used as "a sort of whipping boy" for the insurance furor.

"I have violated no law," he said.

Moore had been named in the Hughes opinion as receiving $13,000 in fees for serving as attorney for Texas Mutual from 1949 to 1953.

The senator told reporters he would be happy to tell the grand jury or any other "constituted authority" what he did to earn his fees but he did not feel it was fair to his clients to make the information public.

Nelson Funeral Here Tomorrow

Funeral services for Mrs. May Alline Nelson, 25, a former Scurry County resident, are to be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the First Baptist Church here.

Mrs. Nelson died Sunday of injuries received in an automobile accident Saturday near Reno, Nev. She and her husband, Marvin Emmet (Buck) Nelson, had lived in Reno since January. The couple was married in Reno in 1950.

The Rev. E. K. Shepherd, pastor of the church, will officiate at the rites. Burial is to be in the Dermott cemetery under direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Mrs. Nelson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. (Jack) Goswick of Plainview, was born in Scurry County on Oct. 28, 1929. She was a member of the Baptist Church.

Survivors in addition to the husband and parents include a sister, Shirley Ann Goswick of Plainview; five brothers, Van Wayne Goswick, Hairms Goswick and Donnie Ray Goswick, all of Plainview, James Goswick of Conway, Ark., and Robert Goswick.

Dallas Baptist Preacher Says He Shot Wife To Death With Shotgun

DALLAS (AP)—"I killed my wife," a preacher said as he walked into police headquarters clutching a large Bible.

"Send an ambulance," said the carpenter and part-time Baptist pastor. "My wife is dead. I killed her with a shotgun. I'll make a statement about it."

Capt. W. R. Westbrook jailed Stafford Lee, 38, and sent patrolmen to the Lee home. They found Mrs. Annie Lee dead on a bed, shot through the chest. A shotgun was nearby.

Lee said his wife was about to divorce him and they had argued as he tried to talk her out of it.

New Auditor Is NamedInDuval

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Judge A. S. Broadfoot named a political foe of George Parr yesterday as Duval County auditor. He asked county commissioners to call a special meeting to approve the man's bond.

After a previous effort by Broadfoot to fill the vacancy the commissioners voted to abolish the office.

Broadfoot's new choice was Donato Serna, an organizer and leader in the Freedom party, Parr's opposition.

Broadfoot filed Serna's appointment yesterday with the district court clerk. That alone would usually be accepted as sufficient notice to the commissioners court. He also filed copies with the county clerk and wrote each member of the commissioners court asking them to meet in special session.

Broadfoot said that "after considering a number of applications and particularly those applications from within Duval County, I hereby appoint Donato Serna to be county auditor of Duval County."

The judge said he had investigated Serna, found him honest and a hard worker, and the best qualified applicant.

Broadfoot's previous appointee to the office, John Thomason of Brownwood, withdrew, after being unable to get his bond accepted.

Thomason had been named after W. M. Benson of Alice resigned. Benson was appointed by Woodrow Laughlin of Alice as his last official act before Laughlin was ousted by the Supreme Court as district judge. Broadfoot was named to succeed Laughlin.

Gas Explosion Injures Man

Lowell Wade, 1109 Fourteenth Street, was burned when butane exploded in his house last night, but extent of his injuries will not be known until bandages have been removed, attendants at Battenfield Hospital said.

City firemen said Wade was changing a butane cook stove in the house when the explosion occurred. All the windows in both the living room and kitchen of the house were blown out by the explosion.

The firemen said it was believed butane escaped into the rooms, and exploded while Wade was attempting to connect the stove.

Only a slight damage resulted from a fire which followed the explosion. The fire had been put out before firemen arrived.

New GI Dough Knocks Critics Dead Overseas

TOKYO (AP)—Uncle Sam may have slowed the counterfeiters with his worldwide switch in military money.

But he knocked the art critics dead.

Blurted one shaken soldier when he saw the female figures on the new military scrips.

"Where did they get those beats!"

Another shook his head in disbelief.

"It doesn't look as good as monopoly money!"

A third swallowed and edged toward the window. . . .

"Those colors — they make me ill!"

The old scrip called in yesterday never would have won a prize at the Museum of Modern Art.

But it had a sort of classic neutrality, mostly curlicues and swirls. You could take it or leave it.

But the new dough goes right after you. It forces you to make up your mind.

Each one of the seven denominations has two female figures on it—one heads, one tails.

Now this isn't a bad idea—but it all depends on how you do it.

If they had made this money in Atlantic City or Hollywood instead of Philadelphia (or wherever they do make it), you could see the possibilities.

But that ain't how they did it.

The Army started passing out the new stuff Tuesday and in less than an hour three opinions had crystallized on where they got the models.

1. Metrpolitan Opera stars of 1900.
2. Statues from the Columbian Exposition.
3. All the rejects stacked up in Printing since Grover Cleveland's first administration.

Shivers Is In South Korea

SEOUL (AP)—Govs. Allan Shivers of Texas, Dan Thornton of Colorado and John Fine of Pennsylvania inspected forward area rehabilitation projects for Korean civilians today and chatted with soldiers from their states.

Shivers presented a huge Texas state flag as a 27th birthday present to Sgt. William Simmons of Sherman, Tex. Simmons turned the banner over to the 8th Army commander, Gen. Maxwell Taylor.

The Texas governor was joined at lunch by several men from his state, including: Sgt. James Hutchings, Longview; Cpl. Moses Palomo, San Antonio; Pfc. Jim Pierce, Beckville; Cpl. Cone Johnson, Houston; and Cpl. Ernest Obannon, Fort Worth.

Missing Tot Is Found With Man Last Night

MADERA, Calif. (AP)—A 4-year-old girl missing from her Burlingame, Calif., home since Sunday was found last night.

Ervin L. Arnold, 46, a widower who recently asked to adopt her, was held by police for questioning.

Highway patrolmen picked up little Kathie Dahleen Langdon and Arnold near here. A hospital check indicated she had not been harmed.

Kathie disappeared Sunday from in front of the Burlingame home of her grandfather, Peter Dahl, and neighbor children reported she rode off with a man who drove up and talked to her.

Dewey Rushing, an investigator for the district attorney's office here, said Arnold related:

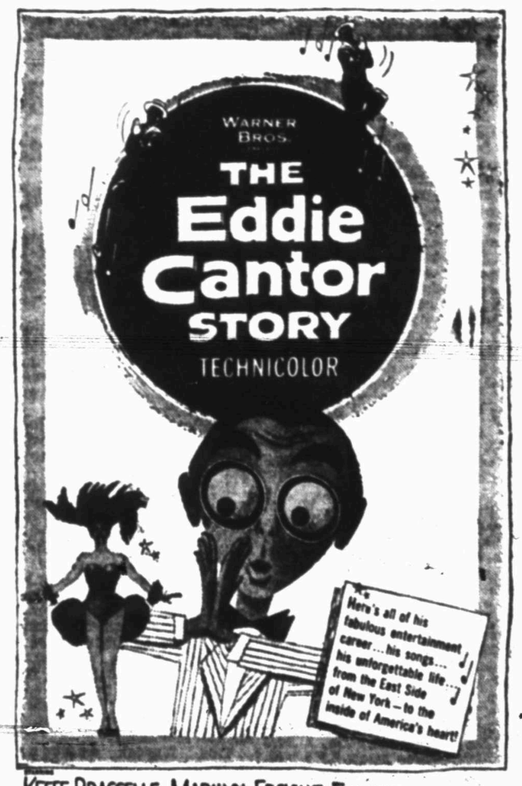

He picked up Kathie Sunday, took her across San Francisco Bay to San Leandro and left her at the home of a Mr. Archer.

He went to San Francisco to transact business. He left San Leandro with the little girl Tuesday and was headed south when apprehended.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bowen, who will take to the road Friday in their recently purchased trailer house, look over a map of their proposed route to Canada. They are new to trailer living but well pleased with the home on wheels after six weeks of residence in it. (Lee Watson photograph)

SOCIETY SCRIBBLINGS

Trading the role of teacher for that of student is an every-summer event for Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES A. BOWEN. This summer, however, they plan to get in a little vacationing with their studying.

Their first step in the project was to buy a trailer house. The trailer is to accompany them on a vacation to Canada and be their summer home while they attend Greeley State College of Education in Greeley, Colo.

The shortage of housing for summer students at the Colorado college was a major factor in the purchase of the trailer. The winter enrollment there multiplies during the summer months as teaching couples flock to the vacation-land school. Mr. and Mrs. Bowen have already made reservations at a trailer park in Greeley, a practice strongly recommended by college authorities.

There's some apprehension about the maneuverability of the trailer right now. Neither of the Bowens has ever lived in a trailer before, and some of their cautious friends have warned that the 38-foot vehicle may present more obstacles than they can imagine. They had more food for thought when they saw the movie "The Long, Long Trailer," the story of a couple with a 40-foot job. The troubles of the movie couple were probably exaggerated, Mr. Bowen thoughtfully considers, and their hopes aren't dampened much.

There will be a shakedown cruise to Abilene Friday when work at the schools here is ended. Mr. and Mrs. Bowen own a house in Abilene, and are to go there to make arrangements to sell it. They plan to park in the yard of the house for convenience.

The Bowen's young son, Lane, now three and a half, is enthusiastic about the trailer house. So is Mrs. Bowen, who finds that keeping it clean is a breeze compared to the work involved in the usual two-bedroom house. The trailer house offers sleeping accommodations for six persons, and may become the family's permanent home if all goes well this summer.

This will be the first real vacation the Bowens have had since 1941. The summers between then and now have been filled with school or army. Those summers haven't been exactly wasted, since both Mr. and Mrs. Bowen now hold masters degrees in education, but the rush of school closing and summer enrollment and school opening has cut their vacation time slim.

The young son will get in on the family's education plans, too. He has already been enrolled in the nursery school at the Greeley college.

Several other Snyder teachers will do their summer college stints nearer home. Among the teachers who plan to commute to Texas Tech are Mrs. FORREST BEAVERS, Mrs. NELLIE SMITH and Mrs. NOTCHEY STARR. Mrs. C. I. HILL, Mr. and Mrs. VIRGIL JOINES, Mrs. M. M. O'REAR and Mrs. VERA SHIFFLETT are to receive their masters' degrees in education at the end of this summer's work. Miss GENEVA MARSHALL will be doing graduate work at Abilene Christian College.

Miss LAMOYANE HARRELL and Miss FRANCES WADDELL, both elementary school music teachers, have made tentative plans to attend a music workshop in Denver, Colo., in July. Summer school at Tech is also on the agenda.

Mrs. JESSE E. LEMONS, junior high school librarian, plans to be among the stay-at-homes. There will be plenty to keep her busy, though—all the time-consuming projects postponed during nine months of school.

Freshly baked, homemade cookies are ready in a moment when you have the makings ready for baking. How? With refrigerator cookies, of course. These Cinnamon Slices are made with a pancake mix (or you own basic mix) for even more time saving.

½ cup butter or margarine
¾ cup brown sugar
1 egg, beaten
1 tablespoon milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup finely chopped nutmeats
3 teaspoons cinnamon
2 cups pancake mix

Beat the butter until creamy, then add the sugar, egg, milk and vanilla and mix until fluffy. Add nutmeats, cinnamon and pancake mix, stirring until well mixed. Form the dough into long rolls about one and one-half inches in diameter. Wrap in waxed paper and chill several hours or overnight. Cut the rolls into quarter-inch thick slices and bake on ungreased cookie sheets in a moderate oven for about 10 minutes. Makes three dozen cookies.

Your beautiful wool blankets deserve the best care, but don't be afraid to wash them when they need it. Here are some washing tips from a leading blanket manufacturer.

Never, never soak your blankets. Wash one blanket at a time, and wash it quickly.

Have plenty of lukewarm water, between 90 and 100 degrees, and heavy suds, made from a reliable staple soap, before putting the blanket in the tub. Keep the suds heavy.

Have a second tub of suds ready if one is not enough to remove the soil or if the suds die down.

If washing by hand, squeeze the suds through the blanket as it is raised and lowered through the suds. Never rub. The binding may be rubbed gently by hand or with a soft brush.

If washing by machine, run for two or three minutes only. If the blanket is badly soiled, wash a second time in clean water and suds.

Rinse quickly in two or more one-minute rinses of lukewarm water. Be sure all the soap is removed.

If washing by hand, squeeze dry—never wring! If running through a wringer, adjust it so there will be no undue pressure to flatten the nap.

Drying is important, too. Use two separate lines if possible. Change the position of the blanket during drying to prevent bulges. Don't hang the blanket in the sun if it can possibly be avoided. Shake the blanket gently occasionally during the drying period to help fluff up the nap. When the blanket is dry, brush with a soft brush to raise the nap, working in the direction of the binding. Press the binding with a warm iron.

INTERNATIONAL DESIGNERS PATTERN

Alan Graham, who has proved himself a successful designer both here and abroad, believes in overall simplicity of design. He depends on detail for the talking points, as you can see from the costume illustrated. The jacket is cleverly darted and gathered just below the bustline to give form and graceful contour. The sleeveless dress is flattering to square or sloped shoulders. Make it in silk, cotton, shantung, linen or pique. Size 12 requires six and five-eighth yards of 36-inch material for the dress and one-half yard of 39-inch material for the contrasting piping. To order the pattern, No. S-220, send $1 to International Designers Patterns, P.O. Box 993, Dept. SX-13, G.P.O., New York 1, N.Y. Add four cents for handling if paid by check or money order. Be sure to state your bust, waist and hip measurements to be sure of receiving the proper pattern size.

Here's a good spread to have in the refrigerator for use at snack-time. Father especially will enjoy it. Cream a half cup of butter or margarine with a half cup of crumbled blue cheese; mix in Worcestershire sauce and celery salt to taste. Use as a spread for crackers, Melba toast or for stuffing celery.

Louis S. Mills, 80, points to a problem that took him two and a half months to solve in 1897 to qualify for a teaching job at $7.25 a week in Quasset school at Woodstock, Conn. The Quasset school, a one-room structure built in 1748, became a shrine in ceremonies held this week. Here is the answer to the problem that confronted Mills: The boys sold their eggs in multiples of seven, and charged 5 cents for each seven. Each egg left over was sold for 15 cents. Boy A sold seven eggs for 5 cents and had three left over at 15 cents each. Boy B sold four lots of seven eggs for 20 cents and two eggs at 15 cents each. Boy C sold seven lots of seven eggs for 35 cents and one egg for 15 cents. Thus each boy had receipts of 50 cents.

Cities And Factories Trying To Diversify For Protection

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Diversify — and beat the rap in the next recession.

Cities and whole regions are trying it today. An increasing number of industrial corporations are trying it.

Variety as the insurance of prosperity is a goal now — even in cities that still relish being called the Auto Capital or the Steel City.

The movement has been under way ever since World War II in some cities and in many big concerns.

But it took this recession to point up the virtues — or the need.

The community with many sources of income often fared better than the one-industry town. That's because the postwar pattern has been for first one and then another industry to adjust—that is, slow down and then recover.

The city with its economic eggs in many baskets usually had only one or two factories down at a time — not all of them shut, as in some one-industry towns. It makes a lot of difference.

Corporations had the same experience. Those with many products often fared better than those with just one, when customers proved fickle.

Many cities these days are offering inducements to corporations to open new plants.

Some, notably in the South, have offered tax concessions or have floated bond issues to finance the building of new plants.

More, however, have tried other measures: surveying for possible industrial sites, rezoning to encourage them, providing transportation for materials and highways for employes' cars, planning the social and physical services needed by new factories, new families.

Diversification is taking many forms — replacing outmoded industries, luring new ones, adjusting to the cold war and the coming atomic age.

New England, faced with closing textile mills, has ardently wooed metal - working and electronic firms. It is nourishing entirely new industries, many born in test tubes in New England's research laboratories.

Pittsburgh, on the other hand, is proud of its steel and coal inlustries, but has a great drive on now to diversify. Nonmetal working types of factories are being courted. "We can use soft goods industries," they tell you there.

In the South the drive is to turn a once largely agricultural economy into one where industry and farming balance and all the region's resources are used. Textile mills capture the headlines, but the South is welcoming many other types of industry.

Florida, for example, is padding out its tourist and citrus industries with many small manufacturing plants, making everything from from clothing to aluminum awnings.

Or take Syracuse, N.Y. Proud as it is of its big industries — electronics and air conditioning — the Manufacturers Assn. of Syracuse boasts most of its imposing list of smaller firms, ranging from makers of candles to washing machine manufacturers. Diversification helped cushion the shock of business adjustment in Syracuse.

They'll tell you the same thing in New Orleans and Kansas City.

The nation's military program and defense problems play a role.

Take Seattle. Its two big Boeing aircraft plants are a mainstay for the merchants — and a worry for the military lest they offer a concentrated target for the enemy.

Seattle tackles the problem this way: it's busily looking for new industries, but a survey has uncovered many sites, well scattered but still accessible — with the transportation systems the city promises.

Seattle's twin solutions: diversify and prosper; disperse and survive.

Eisenhowers Complete Pennsylvania Farm Home Near Gettysburg

WASHINGTON (AP) — Weekend trips to their new farm home near Gettysburg, Pa., will be on the fall schedule of President and Mrs. Eisenhower, the First Lady says.

The home is being almost completely rebuilt on the 189-acre farm they purchased after World War II.

Mrs. Eisenhower told women reporters yesterday she is looking forward to the close of the White House social season this month so she can concentrate on decorating the house.

She will be the chief decorator, she implied, and the President is giving her a free hand.

Admiral Gives Secret Testimony To Congress On Defense Coalition

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, gives congressmen a secret insight today at the problems of creating a defense coalition for Southeast Asia.

Radford was called before the House Foreign Affairs Committee in closed session to outline the administration's program for putting into effect Secretary of State Dulles' plan for united action to combat Communist aggression in the area.

The admiral was expected to ask formally for authority to use anywhere in Southeast Asia the $1,133,000,000 now earmarked for Indochina, primarily for military aid, for the year starting July 1. The committee is studying the over-all 3½-billion-dollar aid program, on which this is a part.

White Sox Snap Cleveland's Eleven-Game Winning Streak

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cleveland Indians might have known that when their winning streak was broken the villians would be the Chicago White Sox.

The Indians put an 11-game string on the line in Chicago last night and the White Sox promptly snapped it with a 4-2 decision. If the streak had been the other w y around, Cleveland probably would have won.

That's the way these perennial runners - up in the American League have been going at each other regularly during the past three seasons in one of the most evenly matched rivalries in the majors.

Dating back through 1951 the series stands 37-34 in favor of the Indians, Cleveland's slight edge is reflected in the standings since it has finished second all three years. The White Sox own two thirds and a fourth.

A year ago the clubs broke even against each other, 11 apiece.

Chicago now has won three of five from the first-place Indians this season. Cleveland leads the league by a game and a half over the Sox with the third-place New York Yankees uncomfortably close only two games out.

The Yanks took advantage of the Indians' misfortune last night to close the gap. They beat Washington 9-3. Detroit shaded Baltimore 5-4 in 12 innings. Boston left Philadelphia in last place all alone by winning 3-2.

In the National League, the Milwaukee Braves won their eighth in a row, 3-1 over Cincinnati. The New York Giants slammed 22 hits in beating Pittsburgh 21-4. St. Louis defeated the Chicago Cubs 9-4. The Brooklyn - Philadelphia game was called off because of weather.

In beating Cleveland the White Sox not only broke the team's winning streak but they pinned the first loss of the season on Bob Lemon, who had won six.

Whitey Ford went the distance for the first time this season as the Yankees ruined Bucky Harris Night in Washington with a 17-hit assault.

Detroit's long-ball attack ruined Baltimore's hopes of breaking out of a losing streak which now runs to five games. Trailing 3-2, the Tigers tied the game in the last of the ninth on a home run by Jim Delsing. The Orioles scored in the 11th only to have Johnny Pesky get his first hit of the season, a pinch-hit homer, in the last of the 11th. In the 12th Al Kaline singled and Bill Tuttle drove him home with a triple.

Catcher Sammy White turned from goat to star with a ninth-inning home run for Boston over Philadelphia. White had hit into three double plays earlier in the game.

Two home runs sewed up Milwaukee's victory at Cincinnati. Joe Adcock doubled in the fifth and Hank Aaron homered. Then pitcher Warren Sphan followed with a home run.

New York's assault on the hapless Pirates was the second heaviest of the young season, topped only by Chicago's 23-13 victory over St. Louis late in April. The Giants scorel 11 runs in the eighth inning, tops in either league so far. In the seventh they had scored five when Whitey Lockman hit a grand-slam home run.

The Cardinals' victory over the Cubs was a runaway for rookie Wally Moon, who stole four bases. Stan Musial hit a single, double and triple and Harvey Haddix fanned nine in winning his sixth

Yankees Move Into Top Of Little Loop

The American Legion Yankees, champions of the Little League for the last two years, indicated that they intend to hold the championship last night when they moved out into the league lead.

The Yankees edged out the Kiwanis Club Braves, who had been leading the league, 6-5 and put the Braves in a tie for second place with the Holder Construction Indians, who last night downed the Quarterback Club Giants 13-5.

Richard Mahan became the hero of the Yankee-Braves game when he hit a home run with two men on base in the sixth inning while his team was trailing 5-3. That gave the Yanks the winning run. Mahan also had a home run with none on base in the third frame. Jerry Fleming homered with two on for the Braves in the fourth. That had tied the game with the Yanks, and the Braves had moved ahead in the top of the sixth. Don Martin and Lloyd Brown each got a double for the Yanks in the game.

Norman Gladson was winning hurler. Gladson relieved Mahan in the sixth when the Yanks were behind. Mahan went five innings to allow two hits, no walks, and strike out eight. Gladson, in one inning, gave up two hits, walked one, and struck out none. Billy Foree was loser, going the whole game on the mound for the Braves. He gave up eight hits and four walks and fanned five.

The Indians were behind 1-0 in the third inning when they opened up and scored five runs. They followed with four runs in the fourth and four in the fifth. Butch Niedecken homered for the Giants in the fourth. Doug Brunson brought in one runner on a double for that team. Tim Roberts doubled for the Indians to bring in two runs.

Winning hurler was Roberts, who went three innings and gave up three hits and one walk while striking out six. He was relieved for the last half of the game by Ronnie Jones, who allowed five hits and one walk and fanned three. Barry Walker, the loser, pitched three and one-third innings. He allowed four hits and four walks, and he struck out four. Brunson, who relieved Walker, gave up three hits and one walk. He fanned one.

Thursday night the Indians and Braves will meet in the 9 o'clock game to determine who will hold onto second place. The Rotary Cardinals and Lions Cubs are matched in the 7 o'clock game. The Cards are now running fourth, the Cubs at the bottom.

Dallas Slips To 6th Place

By The Associated Press

Dallas' skidding Eagles, the Texas League defending champions, had slipped to sixth place Wednesday after Tulsa's improved Oilers whipped them 8-3.

The Tuesday night Tulsa victory was half the rain-abbreviated program. Last-place Houston arose from its cellar haunts and walloped the Shreveport Sports 11-5.

Fort Worth at Oklahoma City and San Antonio at Beaumont were rained out.

The game at Dallas which sent the Eagles sliding below Tulsa in the standings was delayed an hour and 35 minutes by rain.

The Eagles' late-innings rally fell far short after they scored two in the ninth. Tulsa's Norman Camp scattered 11 Dallas hits well enough to get his fourth victory without a loss.

The Houston Buffs climbed on two Shreveport pitchers for a 10-hit 11-5 victory. The Buffs for the night performed like the old Bronx Bombers of the American League. Sonny Senerchia hit a grand-slam homer, Fritz Moarolewski smacked out a two-run homer, and Larry Miggins hit one with nobody on base.

Senerchia's blow put the Buffs ahead 7-3 and they were never in danger again. Shreveport slipped into a third-place tie with Fort Worth because of the loss.

The same teams will try it again Wednesday night at the same parks.

Johnny Temple of the Cincinnati Redlegs once hit .400. That was in 1949 at Ogden, Utah, when he led the Class C. Pioneer League in batting.

Heavyweight fighter Joe Baksi is the picture of dejection in his dressing room in Eastern Parkway Arena in Brooklyn, N.Y., after losing to Bob Baker of Pittsburgh in first big fight of a ring comeback attempt. Baksi had just been informed that his manager, Lee Feuereisen, 56, died of a heart attack during the fight.

Ardmore Cardinals Move Up In Sooner

By The Associated Press

The Ardmore Cardinals rejoiced Wednesday as they found themselves in the first division of the Sooner State League.

The Cardinals improved their position Tuesday night by beating the Lawton Braves, 10-1, to end a five-game losing streak.

Meanwhile, the league-leading Gainesville Owls lost ground as they absorbed a 3-2 defeat at the hands of the last-place Pauls Valley Raiders.

The Ada- Shawnee and Seminole-McAlester games were postponed because of rain.

Texas League Fielder Killed In Car Wreck

HUNTSVILLE (AP)—Ray Cucharini, 23, young Texas League outfielder, was killed yesterday when his car skidded into a pine tree alongside Highway 75 near here.

Cuccharini was en route to Houston to join that city's ball club. He opened with Mobile of the Southern Assn. this year and hit .326 until he was sent to Fort Worth of the Texas League in April.

He had boosted his batting average to .341 through Sunday's game when Houston's Buffs claimed him.

In 18 years of high school and college coaching, Payne has a record of 120 wins, 57 losses and 10 ties.

Pony League Lead Goes To Red Sox

The Von Roeder Red Sox took the lead alone in the Pony League last night by edging out the Courthouse Tigers, with whom they had been tied at the top, 3-2.

While the Red Sox were furthering their lead, the Scurry Butane Dodgers came up from the bottom of the league to stomp the Lions Club Phillies 16-0 and tie the Tigers for second place.

The Tigers led the Red Sox from the first inning down to the sixth, when the Red Sox moved ahead. The Tiger lead was 2-0 to the sixth. In that inning, Earl Burleson tripled and stole home, Billy Phillips walked, stole second and third, and came in on a wild throw; and Dick Hayes made first on fielder's choice, stole second and third, and came home on the third baseman's error. Burleson hit the only triple of the game, while Roger Hensley's double was the only other extra base hit.

Hayes was winning pitcher, going the entire game. He gave up only one hit and four walks while striking out 14. James Patterson, loser, allowed only one hit and five walks and fanned nine.

The Phillies played the Dodgers a close game half the way. At the end of the third, the Dodgers led only 1-0, then they went wild, scoring four runs in the fourth and 11 in the fifth. The game was called at the end of the fifth on a 10-run ground rule.

Ronnie Baker was winning hurler in that game, pitching all five innings. He struck out nine, walked only two, and gave up only one hit. Carol Wylie was loser. He pitched four innings and gave up six hits and six walks while fanning none. Roger Kerbow, his relief, allowed two hits and no walks and struck out none.

The game was filled with home runs. Mickey McGrew, Dodger centerfielder, hit two in the game, both of them grand slams. Both were in the fifth inning. Chuck Warren hit one in the fourth for the Dodgers with one man on. Maxey Carey, the only Philly who got a hit, doubled.

The Pony League will not play again until next Tuesday night.

Colonial Tournament Is Starting Tomorrow

FORT WORTH (AP)—Most of golfdom's biggest names were here today for the start tomorrow of the $25,000 Colonial Golf Tournament.

The Colonial Country Club layout was looking again like the "Hogan's Alley" of old.

Ben Hogan, the defending champion, played nine holes in practice yesterday in three-under-par 32. Hogan's course record of 65 was equalled when Ernie Vossler traveled the layout in the five-under-par figure.

Vossler, 25, is an amateur whose vocation is plumbing. He fired six birdies and a bogey for a 31-34 card. Dallas' Ray Gafford, pro at the Northwood Country Club, has also shot the par 70 course in 65.

Another pro star on hand for practice today was 127-pound Bob Toski whose Eastern Open triumph Sunday gave him three titles on the year's PGA circuit.

Odessa Rated High In State Baseball Meet

By The Associated Press

The championship game of the Texas Schoolboy Baseball Tournament might be the first one on the schedule.

The tournament opens at Austin June 2 with Odessa and Adamson (Dallas) playing the initial game. The winner of this contest will get the favorite's nod to go through to the title.

Odessa has a fine pitcher, Carl Schlemeyer, the strike-throwing quarterback of the Bronco football team who does even better than that with a baseball. Schlemeyer hurled Odessa to the bi-district championship over Wichita Falls by twirling both games of a doubleheader.

Adamson, with a staff of three capable pitchers, figures it can win the championship by getting by Odessa. The Leopards are likely to do just that, too. They beat Jimmy Bronstad, the great Paschal (Fort Worth) pitcher, twice in gaining the state tournament.

Austin (El Paso), Highland Park (Dallas), Longview, Texas City, Travis (Austin) and Ray (Corpus Christi) are other teams in the tournament with Ray boasting the best record in the state. The Corpus Christi team won 16 and lost only two. Odessa has the next best record, winning 19, losing 3 and tying 1. Schlemeyer won 12 games and dropped just one decision.

Austin (El Paso) has an 18-7 record, Adamson 24-9, Highland Park 16-6, Longview 17-6, Texas City 15-7 and Travis 14-14.

Longview has a pitcher to compare with Odessa's Schlemeyer, in fact, probably surpass him. The Lobos' George Myers, a tall right-hander, won 12 and lost two and included in his season record were two no-hit, no-run games and four 1-hit performances. One of his no-hit games was perfect—not an opposing batter reached first. Myers, who plays left field while not pitching, also batted .406.

Highland Park is another team with a standout pitcher—Don Presley, who compiled a 9-0 record in conference play.

The schedule for the tournament, to be played at Disch Field at Austin: Wednesday, June 2, 1:30 p.m., Odessa vs Adamson; 3:30 p.m. Texas City vs Travis; 7 p.m., Ray vs Longview; 9 p.m., Highland Park vs Austin (El Paso); Thursday, June 3, 7 p.m., Odessa-Adamson winner vs Texas City-Travis winner; 9 p.m. Ray-Longview winner vs Highland Park-Austin winner; Friday, June 4, 7 p.m., consolation; 9:05 p.m., championship game.

All games are seven innings except that the final may be nine if the teams agree on it.

New Mexico 9s Leading Pack In Longhorn

By The Associated Press

Roswell and Artesia batters sprayed baseshits Tuesday night as the Longhorn League's topmost teams took a pair of one-sided wins.

Roswell shattered San Angelo 22-4 and Artesia beat Sweetwater 20-6.

Big Spring edged past Midland 2-0 and Odessa and Carlsbad split a doubleheader. Odessa took the opened 6-5 then dropped the afterpiece 3-3.

There was never any doubt about the winner at Roswell. The Rockets shelled three Colt pitchers for 12 runs in the first inning, then went on to amass 24 hits, including five each for Duane White and Stubby Greer.

Ralph Carpenter had a home run for San Angelo in the fourth, but wasn't around to enjoy the glory long. Carpenter and Roswell hurler Gene Nalley were tossed out of the park in the seventh inning after tangling in a 15-minute fist fight.

Artesia stayed four games back of Roswell as the Numexers declared open season three Sweetwater pitchers, starting with Spudder Manager Red McCarty. Artesia slammed McCarty and two successors for 21 hits.

The triumph gave Big Spring a sweep of the two-game series, and dropped Midland seven games off the pace.

Ade la Torre, who once wore the Midland colors, batted in both Big Spring runs.

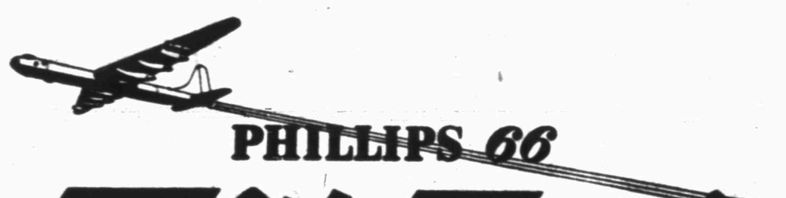

Odessa's Oilers turned theatrical in their double-header with Carlsbad, winning the first game with a last-inning rally and threatening to do the same in the nightcap before being snuffed out.

The Oilers scored three runs in the top of the seventh to win.

In the second game, Odessa was trailing 8-2 when the Oilers loaded the bases with one out. Dario Jiminez held them to one run, however.

Wednesday night's schedule sends Roswell to Odessa, Carlsbad to San Angelo, Midland to Artesia and Sweetwater to Big Spring.

Heavily Loaded Car Raises Suspicions

BALTIMORE (AP) — Boysie Ash, 27, pleaded guilty here yesterday to a charge of stealing 2,000 pounds of plumbing fixtures from a plumbing supply house.

He said he took the $1,084 worth of brass valves, faucets, elbow joints and other supplies to raise $25 due yesterday on an alimony payment.

Ash was arrested yesterday morning along with Robert L. McGee, 42, who pleaded innocent to the charges.

Both are Negroes.

Police said they became suspicious and followed the men when they noticed how their car sagged over the rear wheels. It was loaded down with the ton of plumbing fixtures.

Publisher And Reporter Draw 4-Month Terms

ATHENS (AP)—A publisher and a reporter have been sentenced to four months in prison because their weekly newspaper published a report that Field Marshal Alexander Papagos, Greece's Premier, may retire from politics soon. The men appealed the sentence and were set free pending a hearing.

They are Constantine Mayer, publisher, and Elias Bredemas, reporter, of the weekly Monday News. They were convicted of "disseminating false reports liable to cause alarm and anxiety."

JOHN LEWIS TAKES UNION INTO BIG BANK VENTURE

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — John L. Lewis seems to be taking on the unique dual role of big-time banker and big-time labor leader.

The 74-year-old United Mine Workers chief never has confirmed it, but five years ago the UMW reportedly acquired control of the National Bank of Washington, the capital's oldest.

And yesterday, it was reported that Lewis or interests closely connected with him and the UMW gained majority stock control in a second Washington bank — the Hamilton National.

Hamilton directors held a special meeting and named as their new president Barnum L. Colton, who also is head of the National Bank.

Now banking groups here expect Hamilton National and the National Bank of Washington to merge soon. This would create a banking institution only second in size to the Riggs National Bank in the capital.

Here, briefly, is the history of the reported UMW venture into banking:

When the National Bank changed hands in 1949 two UMW officials, A. D. Lewis, a brother of John, and Union Counsel Welly K. Hopkins, became directors.

Then Colton was installed as president and overnight the UMW's newspaper, which normally carries no advertising, began publishing the National's financial statements and advising UMW locals and members to deposit their funds in that bank.

In March of this year, the National invited a merger with the Hamilton National Bank. The Hamilton spurned the offer and then, in what appeared to be an effort to thwart Lewis, voted to merge with the American Security & Trust Co., also of Washington.

The very next day an investment firm began offering to buy Hamilton stock at about twice what it had been selling for only a few months earlier.

Hamilton stockholders were willing to sell and yesterday it was announced that Hamilton's directors had ditched the proposed merger with American and had elected Colton president.

Why Lewis' interest in banking?

For one thing, the veteran union chief may be seeking an investment outlet for UMW funds. The union has a 40-million-dollar treasury and its separate UMW welfare fund has nearly 100 million in reserves.

RUSSIAN CHESS TEAM IS COMING HERE FOR MEET

NEW YORK (AP)—The best chess players in Russia are coming to America for the first time to lock wits with a handpicked American team in an international match opening June 16.

The Russians, who almost came here last year but changed their minds at the last minute, will be led by world champion Mikhail Botvinnik.

In many ways the eight-day tournament will be remarkable. It will be the most definitive meeting thus far between Russian and American teams, although an American team lost to Russians in Moscow eight years ago. It will be the first time the Soviets have met America's best on their home grounds.

Botvinnik, who has dominated the upper echelons of the chess world for many years, will be pitted against the American Samuel Reshevsky.

Other pairings have not been announced.

The Botvinnik-Reshevsky match is a natural.

Reshevsky, who is 43, is generally acclaimed by his colleagues as the chess champion of the Western world.

He was a child prodigy. At the age of 7 he was playing public exhibitions and defeating major players.

Israel (Al) Horowitz, publisher of the Chess Review magazine, at 46, is the oldest man on the American team. Three of the Americans are in their early 20s. The average age of the team is 31, somewhat higher than that of the Russian squad.

Last year the Russians canceled their scheduled match here when the State Department ruled they could not stay at the country home of the Soviet United Nations delegation at Glen Cove, N.Y.

This year American chess leaders feel the match is definite. The Russians are due to arrive June 10. Ironically, this time they have elected to stay at a New York hotel, although the State Department now says they can go to Glen Cove if they want.

The tournament will be held in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Roosevelt. About 1,500 spectators are expected, with tickets for the series selling at $12.

Amendment To Help House Function In War

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposed constitutional amendment designed to permit the House to function in the event of a disastrous atomic attack on Washington has been approved by the Senate Judiciary Committee.

It would authorize state governors to fill House vacancies temporarily if a sudden blow killed 145 or more House members.

RARE EXPERIENCE IN TEXAS

Small boys weren't the only ones who had fun letting mud ooze between their toes after 9-inch rains in the Newlin, Tex., area turned the parched, wind-blown Plains into a veritable quagmire. Enjoying the unique experience for the first time in several years, Patsy Daws wades in her back yard with mud half way to her knees. Damage to crops and terraces is forgotten.

New York Central Battle To Open With Ballot Counting

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The hard-fought battle for control of the 2½-billion-dollar New York Central Railroad system reaches a showdown today as the road's annual meeting convenes at the armory here.

But whether stockholders will support the management board headed by President William White or the opposition slate led by financier Robert R. Young may not be known for at least six days and perhaps two weeks. First will come a counting of proxies by three college law professors.

About 2,500 of the Central's 50,000 stockholders are expected to crowd into the Washington Avenue Armory for the meeting, scheduled to begin at noon. Many will come from New York aboard a special train, running in two sections of 11 cars each.

Both sides have agreed to recess the session this afternoon, and election inspectors will go to work at once, counting votes and dealing with challenges. Over 90 per cent of the road's 6,447,410 common shares is expected to be voted.

White has said the count will take a minimum of six days and a maximum of two weeks.

The inspectors will be Professors Robert W. Miller of Syracuse University, John Hanna of Columbia University, and Covington Hardee of Harvard Law School. They will work under guard at the Hotel Ten Eyck here.

White was here yesterday to see to last-minute preparations for the meeting. He then returned to New York. Both White and Young planned to ride the stockholders' train this morning.

The Central lost a legal battle with Young yesterday afternoon when Presiding Justice David W. Peck of the Appellate Division, New York State Supreme Court, reserved decision on an appeal by the railroad. It had appealed a lower court ruling which refused to block the voting of 800,000 shares by their owners, Texas millionaires Clint W. Murchison and Sid W. Richardson, friends of Young. The Central also asked for postponement of the annual meeting until June 28.

In announcing that he was reserving decision, Justice Peck remarked: "You can assume we are not going to enjoin the meeting."

The Texans bought the stock, the largest outstanding block, from Young's former railroad, the Chesapeake & Ohio. The Central claimed that the transfer papers were defective and that the sale was a "sham and device."

Whether Murchison and Richardson would attend the annual meeting was not known early today. Young forces said the two might fly in from Texas.

Both sides say they're confident of victory. The known facts are these:

Proxy statements showed in April that Young's forces own or control 1,118,880 shares or 17.4 per cent of the total outstanding. The present Board of Directors owns or controls 106,122 shares or 1.6 per cent.

White is reported to have a backer who owns 150,000 shares, which would raise management's total to 256,122 shares or almost 4 per cent.

The debate, therefore, has been over how the thousands of independent shareholders have been voting their proxies. Each side has contended the vote has been going its way.

White has vowed that he will not remain as president if Young wins. Young told a group of stockholders yesterday that he is considering men for White's job.

ARMS TO CENTRAL AMERICA

The arrow indicates the reported route of arms airlift from the United States to Nicaragua and Honduras which was announced by the State Department. There was no definite announcements of when the shipments start but there were reports they were being flown from Mobile, Ala., on the Gulf of Mexico. The two nations are neighbors of Guatemala, shaded, which State Department officials have said received arms from Communist Poland last week.

Bunche Meets With Loyalty Board Tuesday

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, a top United Nations official, spent most of yesterday and last night closeted with a U. S. loyalty board, and the board chairman said "no inference should be drawn from the fact."

Bunche, who won the 1950 Nobel Peace Prize for achieving an armistice in the Holy Land, is now principal director of the U. N.'s Department of Trusteeship.

While Bunche was meeting with the loyalty board, two former members of the National Committee of the Communist party were admitted to the hearing room in the Federal Building. The two were Manning Johnson and Leonard Patterson.

After the 12-hour session broke up, a statement was given to newsmen by Pierce J. Gerety of Southport, Conn., chairman of the U. S. International Organizations Employes Loyalty Board.

Gerety said Bunche, like every other American citizen employed by the 40-odd international organizations to which the United States belongs, has been investigated under executive orders issued by former President Truman and President Eisenhower.

Reports of these investigations are turned over to the International Organizations Employes Loyalty Board, he added, and then stated:

"Therefore no inference should be drawn from the fact that he had a meeting with the board today. As a matter of policy the board does not make any comment concerning any individual. The reports of the board's determinations are in all cases submitted to the secretary general or the executive head of the appropriate international agency through the State Department."

Bunche, a 49-year-old Negro from Detroit, told newsmen as he left the meeting, "I have no statement to make. Any inquiries should be directed to the board."

He and Mrs. Bunche were slated to go to Washington tomorrow, friends said, for a formal dinner at the White House given by President Eisenhower in honor of the visiting Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia.

Nepal has a national income of about $50 a year per person.

Ham Operators To Try Relay Across Nation

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — The first official attempt to span the continent by amateur radio relay on two meters is scheduled Saturday and Sunday and New Mexico hams apparently hold the key to success.

In a manner reminiscent of the early days of radio, messages will be passed from station to station all across the country. It's never been done on the two-meter amateur band—a very high frequency band where transmissions are normally limited to line of sight.

"The toughest place to cross is the Arizona-New Mexico-Texas Panhandle stretch," said A. David Middleton, one of the leaders in the project. "Towering mountains and the distance between the communities pose particular problems," he said.

The project was conceived by the Two Meter and Down Club of Los Angeles. The Albuquerque VHF Club and similar organizations and individuals all across the country will take part.

An effort will be made to move messages both ways across the nation. At opposite ends of the relay are the headquarters of the Los Angeles club and the headquarters of the American Radio Relay League in West Hartford, Conn.

The ARRL is a national organization of hams formed 40 years ago to handle just such relays as this. The first transcontinental relay on low frequency bands in the vicinity of the present broadcast band was completed in 1917.

The situation they faced then was similar to that facing the hams engaged in the higher frequency test now. The average two meter signal will travel between 100 and 200 miles.

An unofficial practice relay attempted last Sunday failed when the messages going both ways bogged down as the result of an abnormal change in weather conditions which interfered with reception at Amarillo and Sandia Crest, east of Albuquerque.

They'll try it again this week with several added stations.

"The day might come when a two-meter relay across the country could prove a lifesaver in getting an important message through," Middleton said.

Photographer Killed By Mine

HANOI, Indochina (AP) — Robert Capa, famed American war photographer, was killed yesterday in a land mine blast on the Indochina front.

A French high command announcement said the Hungarian-born cameraman died near Phuly, 30 miles south of Hanoi. He was the first American photographer killed in the Indochina war.

Capa, who won fame through his coverage for Life magazine during World War II, came here two weeks ago on a temporary assignment for Life. He had gone to Phuly—an active war sector—to do a story with John Mecklin, a Time magazine correspondent. French sources said Mecklin escaped injury.

In recognition of his World War II coverage, Gen. Eisenhower decorated Capa with the U. S. Medal of Freedom in 1947.

Capa was among six owner-members of Magnum Photos, Inc., a worldwide cooperative pictures agency.

The death of Werner Bischof, one of Capa's associates in Magnum photos, was announced in New York last night. The agency said he was killed sometime last week in an automobile accident in the mountains of Peru. He had covered assignments for many American magazines, including the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II for Life.

Russians Chide British On Anniversary Of Mutual Aid Treaty

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet press hailed the British-Soviet Mutual Aid Treaty on its 12th anniversary today as [illegible] for European security. But newspaper articles complained that Britain has drifted away from its treaty obligations "by becoming the junior partner of the United States."

Britain and Russia have a 20-year treaty [illegible].

Both Izvestia, the government official paper, and Pravda, the Communist party official paper, stressed a theme that Britain had deserted "a policy of cooperation with all its allies of the war period" by leaning toward the United States.

There are about 250,000 elevators in the United States.

Baptists Rap McCarthy At Meet In North

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The American Baptist Convention today was acting on a "statement concerning freedom," calling for a fight against "a tyranny that seems to respect neither rights of individuals nor the democratic processes of our nation."

"There are individuals and groups in American life so intent upon combatting the menace of communism that they adopt the very principles and methods which make communism frightening," the statement read.

While no names were mentioned, delegates accepted the paper as a thinly veiled reference to Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis) and his Senate investigating group. It was prepared by a church committee.

The statement went on to say the truth was being slanted for ulterior purposes or submerged in suspicion and fear as these individuals and groups:

"Attack nonconformity as subversive, make no distinction between dissent and disloyalty, confuse disagreement and disaffection, and equate accusation with guilt.

"Adherents of these un-American doctrines openly consider others guilty until proved innocent and have imperiously reinstated the discredited theory that the end justifies the means.

"Thus there is danger lest in attempting to prevent evil, greater evils arise."

In conclusion, the statement, expected to gain quick approval from the delegates, called for reaffirming "our loyalty and devotion to truth fairly arrived at by free inquiry and debate without restriction or coercion."

Plot Said Nipped By Cuban Government

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Moving to nip off a reported plot against the government, intelligence agents took three persons into custody today, including a Cuban congressman.

In a series of surprise raids centering in Havana's fashionable residential district the agents seized Cesar Lancis, accused ringleader of the plot, and Francisco Cayrol, an Authentic party congressman. They also picked up Jose Celo, a gardener working at the residence where Cayrol was arrested.

Teaff Vice President

Grant Teaff, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Teaff, 2013 Avenus S, has been elected vice president of the McMurry College student council.
