AN EVENT FOR REJOICING

Smiles were broad as fire consumed the note of indebtedness in services at First Baptist Church Sunday, August 24. This indicates that all money owed on the church building has been paid. The Rev. Roy Collins, pastor, at left, light-

Schedule Given for Four Wellington Football Teams

The playing schedule for Wellington's four football teams was announced this week by the coaches.

Wellington Skyrockets open their season Friday, Sept. 5, against Hollis, on the Tiger's field. Game time is 8:00 p.m., according to

One night earlier, Thursday, September 4, the three younger teams will open at Powell Field, all meeting their coordinate teams from Shamrock.

The B team game will begin at 7:30 p.m., the eight grade at 6:00 and seventh grade at 4:30.

The varsity schedule with all games played on Friday, will include:

Sept. 5, Hollis there, 8:00 p.m.

Sept. 12, Paducah there, 8:00 p.m.

Sept. 19, open.

Sept. 26, Childress here 8:00 p.m.

Rockets Scrimmage Canadian Saturday

The Wellington-Canadian football scrimmages have been rescheduled for Saturday, August 30, Head Coach James Williams announced. It will be held here.

The B team game will be at 6:30, and the varsity teams will play immediately afterward, about 7:30 p.m.

This week also Coach Williams and his assistants selected the varsity team, to include 24 of the more than 50 who reported for practice.

The remainder make up the strong B team which Wellington will field.

Coach Williams said that Wellington followers of the Rockets will have a better indication of the kind of team they will see this year after the boys scrimmage Canadian.

"They are more our size, they have more men back from last year, and in many ways, they are about like us."

The Skyrockets crossed the Lefors goal line six times in the scrimmage Friday,

August 22, but Wellington's defense never allowed the Pirates to penetrate beyond the 50.

Wellington coaches pointed out, however, that Lefors

Enlarged Livestock Show Will Be Featured at Fair

A completely revamped animal division will be featured at the 1975 Collingsworth County Fair, Chairman Billy Moseley announced.

The show will be one day only, Saturday, September 6. The traditional beef cattle show will be held at 9:00 a.m.

A baby animal or small animal show will begin at 11:00 a.m.

The horse show is scheduled to start at 2:00 p.m.

This year, also, the entire animal division moves back to the Youth Project Show Barn on Amarillo Street between 6th and 7th Streets.

This is the first time in Fair history for a baby animal show. Mr. Moseley said that this event was proved highly popular in Amarillo, where it is a standard event.

He pointed out also that it will give dozens of boys and girls, from tiny tots up, to have an entry in the Fair.

He listed these rules:

Any pet can be shown except snakes or a dangerous animal, and the chairman reserves the right to reject any undesirable animal.

They must be in place at 11:00 a.m. and remain until released by the chairman. All entries must be on a leash or in their own container furnished by the owner.

Ribbons will be given for first through fourth place. The beef cattle show returns to the fair after a year's absence. All must be in place by 9:00 a.m. Saturday and remain until released by the chairman. Prize money will be given and ribbons awarded for first through fifth places.

Classes include:

- Beef cows
- Beef heifers

Ace Rainey, 83, Retired Farmer, Dies Sunday

Ace D. Rainey, 83, widely known retired farmer and resident of the county more than 55 years, died in Thomas Nursing Center at 10:00 p.m. Sunday, August 22, after being critically ill for a number of weeks.

His home was at 509 Haskell Street.

Mr. Rainey came here in 1919 and farmed in the Aberdeen and Lutie area for many years.

Although he had retired from his own farming operations, Mr. Rainey remained active and did the work of men far younger than he. He continued to be associated with his son,

Family Service Center Will Open for County September 4

Opening of the Collingsworth Family Service Center will provide individual, family and marital counseling and therapy was announced this week as one of the services provided through the Amarillo Mental Health Mental Retardation Regional Center.

Announcement of the new family service center came after a year and a half of work toward the goal and was made by Mrs. B.M. Sims, board member for the Amarillo MHMR from the Eastern Division.

It will begin operation September 4 in Collingsworth and Donley counties, two of the four in District 6 of the MHMR Eastern Division.

Director of the family service center is Floyd Robertson, who met with a Wellington group Thursday, August 21, to lay groundwork for the opening.

As the associate clinical psychologist assigned to this district, Mr. Robertson will begin counseling at the Collingsworth Family Service Center on Thursday, September 4.

The tentative office location is a room in the educational building of First Baptist Church. A telephone and secretary to take appointments will be made available.

Following this initial meeting, Mr. Robertson will be at the Wellington center for counseling on the afternoons of the first and third Thursdays of each month. The September dates will be September 4 and 18, according to Mrs. Charlene Poteet, a member of the District 6 board of directors for MHMR.

"This service will provide individual, family, marital counseling and therapy and follow-up aftercare for people returning from hospitals," Mr. Robertson explained.

"A sliding fee scale will be used so that no one is refused services because of inability to pay.

"The Collingsworth Family Service Center will provide evaluation and diagnosis for children through adults, serve as a liaison between the community and mental hospitals, and make referrals to local agencies according to need.

"The CFSC will assist in community education by presenting programs on mental health resources and principles to professional community personnel, physicians, ministers, nurses, local clubs and interested groups and organizations. It is the purpose of the center to assist the individual experiencing a problem within his own community. The CFSC is a community based program and will serve the people in Collingsworth and Donley counties."

Contract Will Be Let September 18 on US 83

The contract for expanding the second section of US 83 into a dual lane highway will be let Thursday, September 18, O.V. Johnson, resident highway engineer, has been notified.

This is the 6.780 mile section from Lutie north to the Elm Creek Hill.

The State Department of Highways and Public Transportation will open and read the bids at 9:00 a.m. on the designated date, September 18.

It is expected that the contract on this part of the highway will be in excess of $1,000,000.

It is expected that the construction company receiving the contract will move quickly on the location, and work should start immediately afterwards.

Construction will continue through the winter, to the point of pouring the asphalt, according to Mr. Johnson.

When one stretch of highway north of Matador is completed in about two weeks, there will be no highway construction under way in District 25, Mr. Johnson said.

He added that this is the first time in the more than 30 years he has been with the highway department that he can remember this being true.

Flag Raising Opens Bicentennial Fair

A flag raising ceremony at 10:00 a.m. Friday, September 5, will open this county's Bicentennial observance, as well as the 1975 Collingsworth County Fair.

Plans were announced jointly by Henry Sullivan, Bicentennial chairman, and John Coleman, chairman of this ceremony.

The guest speaker will be John T. Forbis, Childress attorney and former 100th District Attorney, who grew up in Wellington. He will be introduced by Mayor Bill Hatch.

Participating in the flag raising itself will be color guards from the Frank King Post, American Legion, and Glynn Moore Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, along with the National Guard, Boy Scouts, and Girl Scouts. Jimmy Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.I. Morgan, will play "To the Colors" as a bugle solo.

Opening the ceremony will be the Invocation by the Rev. James Boswell, pastor of First United Methodist Church, who will be introduced by County Judge Zook Thomas. Benny Kilgo, associate pastor of First Baptist Church, will sing "Star Spangled Banner."

It will close with all those present singing "God Bless America," led by a trio composed of Mrs. Gary Archer, Tom Wilkins and Truett Holland.

County Enforces School Zone Traffic Laws

Traffic laws in the Wellington School zones will be strictly enforced this year, Chief Deputy Richard Keller has announced, adding that this is at the request of several individuals, the school and city council.

Childress Street along the east side of Elementary School is designated a no-parking zone, and new signs are going up.

This will be used for school buses to load and unload children, and for parents in cars or other vehicles to stop a reasonable amount of time to drop off children or pick them up, Deputy Keller said.

Prolonged parking will not be allowed in this area.

The school zone on 15th Street is from East Avenue westward to El Paso Street. Flashing lights with a designated speed during school hours of 20 miles per hour were in operation Tuesday.

"The School zones will be patrolled in the morning from 7:45 to 8:20; at noon from 12:00 to 12:40 and in the

Bloodmobile to Be At New Site Sept. 9

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in a new location when it visits Wellington Tuesday, September 9.

This will be the fellowship hall of First Baptist Church, according to the Rev. Carl McKinney, chairman.

Plans for the recruitment drive were laid Thursday afternoon, during a visit of Miss Vickie Noble, field worker for the Red River Regional Blood Center, Wichita Falls, with Rev. McKinney and other workers.

In order to secure the 150 donors needed to provide the 118 unit allotment, 15 recruiters will be named, and each of these will have as a goal securing 10 persons committed to give blood on September 9.

The hours which the bloodmobile will be here are 1:00 to 6:00 p.m.

Again, potential donors were reminded that Collingsworth General Hospital must depend on the Wichita Falls center for all the blood used for its patients. This includes both whole blood and the various parts into which blood may be processed to meet specific needs.

It was also emphasized, that by using the Red Cross Blood Program, the hospital has access to all of the blood that any patient may need and of any type, including the rare types, which are not likely to be found quickly when walking donors are depended upon.

The giving of the unit of blood -- approximately a pint -- is almost painless, has no adverse effect on the donor, and may be repeated as often as every 8 weeks.

EVENT TO REMEMBER

Posters such as this will go up over town, reminding of the date of the Red Cross Bloodmobile visit, September 9. Shown during a planning session are the Rev. Carl McKinney, chairman of the blood drive, and Mrs. Vickie Noble, field representative of the Red River Regional Blood Center, Wichita Falls.

Military Exhibit Placed in Museum

There will be a short-term special exhibit at the Collingsworth County Historical Museum during the Fair, Mrs. Clyde Drake, museum director, has announced.

The exhibit will include military uniforms and related articles, including medals and decorations received by Collingsworth County men.

The Museum will be open the same hours as the Fair, 11:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Friday and 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Saturday.

Items in this exhibit will be in the large locked display case, Mrs. Drake said.

Part of the items come from the Museum's permanent collection and some are on short-term loan.

Mrs. Drake and Mrs. Cecil Masten, a member of the museum board who is assisting with this exhibit, are asking for the loan of additional medals and ribbons, for this exhibit only. They assure the items will be shown only in a locked case.

Anyone who will loan an article for this military exhibit should bring it to the museum Tuesday afternoon, September 2.

Prize Offered Biggest Family In Fair Parade

There will be special recognition this year to the family that has the most members taking part in the big opening parade of the Collingsworth County Fair!

Plans for this were announced by Mrs. Edd Henard, parade co-chairman.

"We received this as a suggestion, and I have taken it as a challenge," said Mrs. Henard, adding that now she must work doubly hard to get all the cousins, and other relatives to participate.

There are a number of large families in the county, so let's see how many we can get to participate, she declared.

"Our fair parade is shaping up really well," Mrs. Henard continued. "More people have expressed interest and are working on different things to have in the parade this year."

Those participating in the parade must go by the Chamber of Commerce office to register the floats in the different categories, and receive a number which must be clearly displayed during the Fair.

Horseback riders, bicycles and motorcycles also must have a number if they are to be judged.

"Let's work to make this a big, colorful and fun parade," the chairman urged.

has back only 5 or 6 of the players from last year's team that went to the state playoffs in Class B football.

"I thought the kids executed real well," said Coach Williams. "They still busted a few plays. They got behind the Pirates but they didn't catch the ball as well as they should. We're working on that."

"I thought that fundamentally our kids were trying to get to where they should. It's just a matter of time and we'll have a pretty good football team."

Artists' Studio Club Planned

Mary Hamilton Mitchell, an Amarillo artist, will be in Wellington to help organize an Artists Studio Club, according to Mrs. Larry Crump.

The meeting will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, September 4, in the art room at Dwane Scott's home and frame shop.

Anyone who paints is eligible to join, Mrs. Crump said, and she urged all Wellington artists to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Mitchell was one of the organizers of the Artists' Studio in Amarillo and is a past president.

Dove Season September 1 To October 30

The 1975 dove season will follow the long-established dates for the North Zone, September 1 through October 30.

The daily bag limit is 10 and the possession limit 20. Hunting hours are 12:00 noon to sunset.

Shotguns are to be plugged permanently to three-shell capacity and may not be larger than 10-gauge. Hunting doves with rifles is prohibited.

In the south hunting zone, which includes only south and southeast Texas, a split season was set and all-day hunting will be allowed.

"Mourning doves have been on a slow decline in Texas since 1972," said Dr. Hal Irby, migratory game bird program director for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. "Full-day hunting statewide would not be wise at this time."

The seasons and bag limits on other migratory game birds already set by TP&W include: king, clapper, sora and Virginia rails: Sept. 1 - Nov. 9, daily bag and possession limit, 25, singly or in aggregate.

The Commission will set the seasons on ducks, geese, coots, sandhill cranes, woodcock and snipe in late August.

Cattle Killed In Collision
Four head of cattle were killed when they were hit by a truck in the southbound lane of US 83 four miles north of Wellington Tuesday, August 26, about 6:30 a.m., the Sheriff's Department has reported.

According to Gary Thomas, investigating officer, the driver of the empty cattle truck was Eddie Thomas Smith of Ft. Worth. It belongs to Jerry W. Thomas, owner of a Weatherford cattle company.

A fifth animal, which was hit, got up and ran off. Raymond Ward was listed as owner of the cattle.

There was considerable damage to the front of the truck, according to the sheriff's office.

Smith was taken to Collingsworth General Hospital where he was examined and released.

Cars Collide At Intersection
Vehicles driven by Claude Smith and Oren Walker collided at the intersection of 9th Street and East Avenue about 10:00 a.m. Tuesday, August 26, Chief Deputy Richard Keller reported.

He said there was considerable damage to the Walker car. Mr. Walker also was checked for injuries at a doctor's office.

with his problem, it may refer him to a psychiatrist, or as a last resort to a mental hospital.

Mr. Robertson emphasized to the Wellington group the need to take care of such mental health problems within the community, if at all possible, rather than by sending the patient to a mental hospital.

Fair Art Show Offers Classes for All Ages

The paintings of Collingsworth County residents, both adults and students, will be a major part of the Collingsworth County Fair Friday and Saturday, September 5 and 6. Divisions and rules were announced this week by Mrs. Larry Crump, chairman. She will be assisted by Mrs. Dwane Scott and Mrs. Bob Weatherly. There will be divisions for adults, junior and senior high school students, and elementary students.

Mrs. Crump emphasized that paintings may not be entered which have previously been entered. Entries are to be brought to Bura Handley Community Center between 4:00 and 6:00 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 4, and remain until Saturday, Sept. 6, at 5:00 p.m.

First, second and third place ribbons will be awarded in each class and grand champion and reserve champion rosettes in each division.

Classes for adults and juniors are the same: Class I, oils, acrylics on canvas and wood; Class II, acrylics, pastels, water colors, charcoal and pen and ink on paper; Class III, sculpture.

In the junior division, exhibitors must be enrolled in either junior or senior high school.

In the elementary division, two classes are listed: I, oils or acrylics on canvas and wood, and II, water colors or crayons on paper.

In addition to ribbons and rosettes, winners in the elementary division will receive money prizes, with $50 allotted for the total premiums.

RSVP News

By Mecca Manuel

Here we are again with the RSVP News of the week. All the Volunteers have put in a busy week. Besides going to the Nursing Home and playing bingo and 42, visiting and running errands, we had dozens of others telephoning shut-ins or taking them to church, to pay bills or grocery shopping.

We had a good crowd for our monthly birthday luncheon. Happy Birthday was sung to Mrs. Lonnie Harrison, Mrs. Oliver Young, Mrs. Tom Parker, Mrs. Ozro Bartlett and Mrs. S.L. Lindsey. We take each one's picture and display them on our bulletin board. Those that had birthdays in August but couldn't attend were Mrs. Willie B. Harwell, Mrs. A.V. Mote, Mrs. Beatrice West, Mrs. Morris Barton, George Brewer, Mrs. Newt Trout and Mrs. Zook Thomas.

All of the Senior Citizens are getting anxious to get started re-modeling the Senior Citizen Center. Plans have been made that we want to do, so we are anxious to get into action!

Mrs. Lonnie Harrison is making a lot of Centennial Bonnets. If anyone would like to buy one, call 2935. They are real pretty and cost $3.00 each.

We are still making things to sell at the Country Store.

We have several projects going to make some money for the RSVP program. We will have a booth at the Livestock Show during the county fair to sell cokes and sandwiches. If anyone would like to donate sandwiches or

Three Couples Travel Across Central and Western Canada

Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Parsons, along with two former Wellington couples, returned recently from a trip that took them north into Canada to attend the International Airstream Convention at Brandon, Manitoba, then westward at a leisurely pace into the Canadian Rockies.

"Orval and Marian Couch of Homer, La., Lois and I left Wellington June 9, at 1:30 p.m. traveling north on Highway 83. We met Dick and Floy Rapp of Amarillo at Perryton and proceeded on to Liberal, Kansas, by night," said Mr. Parsons.

"Next day we traveled on US 83 to North Platt, Nebraska, and observed lush green wheat and grain crops all the way.

"The next two days found us in the Dakotas, where we saw rolling hills and grassland. Here we enjoyed Mt. Rushmore, we visited Deadwood, saw the gold mine, stopped at Spearfish Canyon and Ice Box Canyon.

"We enjoyed the Roosevelt National Park area several days, then drove on into Canada June 20."

Just outside of Regina, Saskatchewan, the Parsons Airstream dropped its trailer hitch, and they had to hunt a Chevrolet dealer to have it repaired.

Sandy Parsons visited the people as well as the country, and while the hitch was being repaired, he learned of the booming conditions around Regina. Carpenters draw $14 to $16 per hour wages, and a house that would cost around $40,000 in Wellington would be valued at from $80,000 to $90,000 in Regina, Mr. Parsons told.

It was about this time, also that the three couples made the acquaintance of the metric system, to which Canada has already converted. Listening to a weathercast, they learned the temperature would be 13 degrees that night - 13 degrees centigrade. The Texans figured this to be about 55 degrees fahrenheit.

After two days in Regina, the group moved on to Killarney, where they joined up with 18 trailers from the Top of Texas Group.

"Wednesday, June 25, we headed north to Brandon and when we were within about 8 miles of the city we found a solid line of Airstream

Finally, when we were parked, we began to participate in the Rally. We attended breakfast for Caravan 100, which toured Eastern Canada last summer and visited with many good friends we had made. On June 27, we went to a giant barbecue and air show given by the Canadian Airforce and Snowbird team.

"Sunday in the arena we saw the Royal Mounted Police musical."

The gracious hospitality of Brandon and the entire province of Saskatchewan impressed the visitors. Present during part of the rally were the governor of the province, head of the Chamber of Commerce for the Province, and the mayor of Brandon. For seven days, the Airstream visitors were entertained with outstanding shows.

Brandon is a city of 35,000 population.

"There were 12,000 rally visitors in 4,209 trailers. We covered every vacant lot in Brandon," said Sandy Parsons. "A caravan like that will leave two or three million dollars in a place, and the Canadians were aware of this."

Mr. Parsons, president of

Volunteer Ambulance Service Report

Eleven ambulance calls were made by Collingsworth Volunteer Ambulance Service during the first 19 days of August. They included:

Mrs. Bertha Barton, Collingsworth General Hospital to Thomas Nursing Center, Aug. 8.

Bill Snellson, Collingsworth General to High Plains Hospital, Amarillo, Aug. 5.

Malicia Phillips of Vernon, from accident scene south of Wellington to Collingsworth General, August 13.

several days, then on to Flathead Lake, where we met the Gene Craigs, who were with the Telephone Company here some years back, and the McQueens of Memphis.

"The cherries were ripe so we spent a week here enjoying the fresh cherries and beautiful scenery. While we were in the Teton area, we took a float trip down the Snake River.

One stop on the return trip was in Salt Lake City, Utah, where they visited the Mormon Tabernacle and Temple Square, as well as the Salt Lake beach. Denver, Colorado, was the next major stop before reaching home.

"Weather with a few exceptions was cool and beautiful. In all, it has been a wonderful experience," he concluded.

Youths Hold "Live Off The Land" Camp-Out

Five youths, members of Garland Hightower's Sunday School class at Dodson Church of the Nazarene, held a "Live off the land" camp-out Friday and Saturday, August 22 and 23.

Nothing they ate came from a grocery store except baking powder for their bread. They did compromise and use matches to build their fires because they couldn't locate a flint.

The camp-out started at 5:00 p.m. Friday and was over Saturday afternoon.

The boys took along a milk goat they borrowed from Merlyn Carter and all had a chance to milk her. Some discovered they didn't like the taste of goat milk.

Their supper, a hearty stew, was cooked in a pit dug into the ground, Indian fashion. One boy brought meat which his family had butchered, and the other boys added fresh corn, tomatoes, onions and newly-dug potatoes.

Mr. Hightower brought flour for the bread. This was from wheat he had raised, washed, and dried out in his wife's oven. It was ground into flour in an electric blender.

This flour was used again next morning for pancakes, along with sausage furnished by one of the group. He had raised the pig as a show project and helped make the

AC to Offer Agri-Business

Training in agricultural and agri-business fields will be offered in Agri-Business Management by Amarillo College, beginning in September.

The two-year associate degree program will include courses in the principles of plant science, animal science, agri-business management training, soil science, agricultural economy and agricultural cooperatives management, among other courses.

Texas cooperatives will place students in part-time jobs for training while they are in college and will provide permanent jobs and opportunities for promotion upon graduation.

sausage, which were stuffed in natural casings.

Peaches from a local orchard, wild plums, and watermelon finished off their morning meal.

Fish the youths caught in a pond near Dodson gave variety to their meals.

In "kangaroo court" Friday night, penalties were meted out to boys who violated the no-buying-in stores rule. For instance, the boy who just couldn't eat supper without catsup had to carry water.

Vegetables and milk were kept cool in a way known to housewives of yesteryear. Put in water-tight containers, in an improvised trough, it was taken to a windmill where water was pumped over it.

Boys taking part in this "live off the land" experiment were Stacey Urban, Roy Dean Cardwell, Jeffrey Camp, Joe Wilson, Jon Lane Beanland, and their sponsors, Garland Hightower and John Elmer Hightower.

Key Club Puts Up U.S. Flags On Holidays

Wellington High School Key Club members will put up the United States Flag on official holidays in front of those business houses and homes subscribing to the service during the current year, according to Gary Archer, Chairman of the Kiwanis Club Key Club committee.

Kiwanians have sponsored the flag program for several years, but Key Club only recently took over the work.

The boys will put out the flags early on the designated official holidays and take them up before sundown in the evening.

The official holidays for flying the flag are New Year's, George Washington's birthday, Memorial Day, Flag Day, July 4, Labor Day, Veteran's Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

In addition, the flags will be put up on the day of the Ex-Students reunion each year, and around the square

There are four ways to get fluid out of a bottle: pour it, squeeze it, spray it or pump it. Recent publicity over the use of aerosol sprays and their possible damaging effect to lungs and the ozone layer above the earth, has made it highly probable that aerosol sprays may be banned permanently or altered dramatically enough to make their effectiveness questionable. So, it's back to the pump or old-fashioned mechanical sprayers. Only 300,000 mechanical sprayers were manufactured last year, just a tiny amount compared to the 3 billion aerosol cans.

But pump manufacturers are running full-blast to meet orders flooding in from makers of household products, drugs, cosmetics and toiletries.

Actually, there's little new about pump sprayers -- they have been around since the 1940's and several cosmetic manufacturers were pushing them before all the hubbub about aerosol sprays and their damaging effects. I seems that a spray pump controls more easily the amount of liquid being pumped out of the bottle. The pump is also more conserving because it does not spray out in a fairly large pattern nor in the large volume an aerosol container will spray.

The relative cost of the pump spray over the aerosol is about even. Contents of an aerosol spray can are more expensive than the contents of a pump container. However, the pump costs more than the aerosol spray valve.

A big drawback of the pump spray is that it can be used only on fairly thin liquids. Pumps for thicker liquids and for dry powders are now under development. Mechanical spray pump containers won't do all the work of aerosol sprays, however. Manufacturers estimate that pump sprays can take over only about 30% of the products now dispersed in aerosol cans.

Visiting recently with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Patterson and James were her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Norman and Glynda, and her friend, Keith Wauters, all of Bryan. Mr. and Mrs. Stan Kendall and family of Amarillo also visited. The Glen Normans also visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Norman and other relatives while here.

MRS. RONALD LYNN GLENN

Church Rites Saturday Unite Jennifer Earnest, Ronald Glenn

Wedding vows were spoken by Miss Jennifer Allyne Earnest and Ronald Lynn Glenn in the sanctuary of First Baptist Church Saturday, August 23, at eight in the evening. The Reverend Roy Collins, Jr., pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fulcher, 2000 Graham Street, while the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Glenn of Albany.

Altar decorations were two seven-branched candelabras covered with emerald foliage and daisies in rainbow colors. The foliage and flowers covered the center arch, while altar flowers were baskets of daisies.

Organ music was presented by Mrs. Truman Estes, and the vocalists were Carl Earnest of Lansdale, Alabama, uncle of the bride, and Benny Kilgo, church music director.

The bride's formal gown was of all-over imported lace, fashioned on princess lines, with the full empire back sweeping to a chapel train. The bodice was detailed with a Victorian neckline and wrist-length sleeves, both outlined with seed pearls. Her chapel length mantilla was framed with scalloped Alencon lace and applied with Venise lace medallions, attached to a lace coil.

She carried a bouquet of daisies in mixed pastel colors, centered with a cymbidium orchid and tied with satin streamers.

Attending the bride were Miss Tanya Watson, maid of honor, while the bridesmaids were Miss Terri Watson of Canyon and Miss Diedra Glenn of Albany, sister of the bridegroom.

Their floor-length gowns in rainbow colors were styled with lace bodices and long sleeves. Their matching picture hats were decorated with daisies and these flowers were repeated in their nosegays, tied with satin streamers.

Donnie Glenn of Rosebud was his brother's best man, while groomsmen and ushers were Danny Neff of Albany, Eddie Bartee of Odessa, Bruce Dollar, Robert Hicks, and Phil Bailey.

Candles were lighted by Lisa White of Memphis, niece of the bride, and Amy Williams, Rustie Bawcom was the flower girl and Michael Head of Memphis, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulcher hosted the reception which followed the ceremony and which was held in the fellowship hall.

The bride's table was covered with a white chiffon cloth applied with an organza floral motif. The skirt was caught up at intervals by wedding bells and ribbon. Hand-made candles decorated with a tiny rose design were in crystal holders, and the attendants bouquets formed the centerpiece. Silver and crystal appointments were used.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Dick Sweat, Mrs. Harold Keller, Mrs. P.M. Scott, Miss Rane Taylor, Miss Janee Taylor, Miss Beth Derryberry and Miss Betty Burba.

The bride was graduated from Wellington High School this spring.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Albany High School, received his degree from Angelo State University at San Angelo. He is presently on the coaching staff of the Wellington Schools.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home here.

For an older person's maximum safety, the interior of a home requires a minimum of one permanent lighting unit per room. It should be switch-controlled at each room entrance, Mrs. Vivian Blair, family life education specialist-aging, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, reminds.

Consumers can save grocery money by shopping for in-season fruits and vegetables, Mrs. Mary Sweeten, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service,

If your new acetate dress has a disagreeable odor which you can't eliminate by airing, rinse the dress in a fabric softener. It should work. Of course, make sure the dress is washable before rinsing.

If your white plastic coat develops yellow spots, try removing them with a mixture of two parts vinegar and one part water. Next time you store the coat, be sure to cover it with a large cloth before putting it in a plastic bag.

A handy product for removing wallpaper is liquid wallpaper remover which can be purchased at paint stores. Apply it with a sponge and wallpaper can be pulled off in just a few minutes.

If your new appliance has a glue spot left by the manufacturer's label, try rubbing a bit of peanut butter on the spot and then wiping it off with a paper towel.

If your mattress develops a bad odor, try sprinkling a heavy layer of baking soda over the surface. Leave it there for several days, then vacuum it off.

Mrs. Karnes Hosts Friends

Mrs. Robert Karnes invited a few friends in Friday evening, August 22 at 7:30 for a backyard ice cream get-together.

The hostess welcomed her guests and then told of a minister who had heard it said if a person did not accept Christ in their youth, chances were they would never become a Christian. This evangelist refused to accept that statement, so as he went from place to place holding revivals, he asked his congregations this question, "What age were you when you accepted Christ?" A very very few answered that they were in their sixties, a goodly number said in their thirties or forties, but the majority were in their early twenties and younger.

The same question was also asked the group Friday night. Most everyone said they were in their early twenties or younger. Some were six or eight years of age, clearly remembering the time and place, and most all were saved during a revival.

One woman present, joined the First Methodist Church in Wellington in 1907. She was a young woman teaching at the Indian Creek School near the Lutie Community. She was Miss Emma White, now Mrs. John Henard.

Mrs. G.L. Jones and Mrs. C.A. Wilbur assisted Mrs. Karnes in serving Mrs. Tom Parker, Mrs. Henard, Mrs. W.F. Vaughan, Mrs. O.E. Dodson, Mrs. Jennie Holcomb, Mrs. S.L. Lindsey, Mrs. Mayme Somerville, Mrs. Beatrice West, Mrs. W.E. Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Alexander, Mrs. Ruby Ball, Mrs. Walter Franks, Mrs. Pearl Aaron, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, C.A. Wilbur and Bryan.

Attending were Dolie Mae Brown Wilson, Paul Williams of Norwalk, Calif., Jess Coleman of McLean, Loren and Eva Glenn Thompson, Evelyn McMinn Lowe, Bessie Jean Willis West of San Antonio, Ralph Long, Evelyn Conner Hartford of Oklahoma City, Donald and Thelma Masten Curry, Oleta Worley Deger of Shamrock, and Dela Bee Burt Ford.

Guests were Florence Williams of Norwalk, Calif., Jim Lowe, Frank and Kathleen Boston Smith of Lubbock, and Elva Masten Armstrong of Ft. Worth.

Glenns Host

Bridal Meal

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Glenn of Albany hosted a dinner honoring the wedding party of their son, Ronnie Glenn and his bride-to-be, Miss Jenny Earnest, on Friday evening, August 22.

The dinner was held at Cherokee Inn Restaurant following the wedding rehearsal.

The dining room was decorated with multicolor daisies and English ivy. This theme was repeated in the center pieces, which was used with a large brandy sniffer holding multicolor candles and ivy.

Those attending were the honored guests, Mr. Glenn and Miss Earnest; Donnie Glenn of Rosebud; Danny and Kathy Neff and Diedra Glenn of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Estes, the Rev. and Mrs. Roy Collins, Jr., Miss Tanya Watson, Miss Terri Watson of Canyon; Michael Head and Lisa White of Memphis, Miss Betty Burba, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fulcher, parents of the bride, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn.

The dinner was held at Cherokee Inn Restaurant following the wedding rehearsal.

The dining room was decorated with multicolor daisies and English ivy. This theme was repeated in the center pieces, which was used with a large brandy sniffer holding multicolor candles and ivy.

Those attending were the honored guests, Mr. Glenn and Miss Earnest; Donnie Glenn of Rosebud; Danny and Kathy Neff and Diedra Glenn of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Estes, the Rev. and Mrs. Roy Collins, Jr., Miss Tanya Watson, Miss Terri Watson of Canyon; Michael Head and Lisa White of Memphis, Miss Betty Burba, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fulcher, parents of the bride, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Langford, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Horton, Mrs. Geneva Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Zook Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. John Alf Thomas, LaVonda and Lindy, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hill and Suzanne Floyd, Mrs. Lowell Wells, Mrs. Dudley Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Langford and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Haralson.

Sweaters Top In Fashions

Sweater lovers -- wearers or lookers -- are sure to be happy this fall, Marlene Odle, clothing specialist, predicts.

"All styles of sweaters from sleeveless vests to turtlenecks -- to v-neck pullovers and cardigans to match -- will be fashionable," she said.

Fabrics will be softly designed acrylics, orlons and wools in rich colors of burgundy, greens, and rusts, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, specialist added.

"Detailed styling will include v-neckline, mitered stripes, and solids with contrasting white banding around the waistline and cuffs.

"As tops, sweaters will team with colorful tailored shirts and pants or below - the-knee-length skirts in bias cuts, A-lines, pleats or flares," she said.

MARY HAMILTON MITCHELL

Amarillo Artist Will Judge County Fair Show

Mary Hamilton Mitchell, an Amarillo artist, teacher and gallery owner whose work is known nationally, will judge the Collingsworth County Art Show held in conjunction with the Fair Friday and Saturday, September 5 and 6.

Mrs. Mitchell's acceptance was announced by Mrs. Larry Crump, show chairman.

Along with other divisions of the Fair, it will be held in Bura Handley Community Center, with judging to be Thursday night, September 4.

Mrs. Mitchell has studied with Merlin Enabnit, FRSA, Phoenix, Arizona; Jan Mater, R.A. Netherlands and Italy; at the Famous Artists School of Connecticut, and in St. Louis. Recently she studied with Frederic Taubes at Haverstraw, New York, sculpture with Howard Fox of Amarillo College, portraits with Ramon Froman of Dallas and landscapes with Harold Roney of San Antonio.

Her work has been exhibited frequently in the Panhandle area and she is the recipient of many major awards in Texas.

She has had several one-man shows and recently participated in circuit shows in Dallas, San Antonio, Raymondville, Corpus Christi, Sherman, Midlothian, Ingram, Mesquite and other Texas towns.

Shows which she has judged include the Collingsworth County Art Show in 1969.

Mrs. Mitchell was instrumental in organizing the Amarillo Artists Studio and has served as president. She also holds membership in a number of other artists organizations on the local and state level.

Quail Students Attend Back-to-school Retreat

BY MRS. G.T. STEPHENS

On Wednesday afternoon, August 20, a number of Quail students attended a back-to-school retreat. They went to Salt Fork River north of Quail for a picnic.

The group played different types of games, then had a fireside service in which the youth took part. It was one of the most inspiring services of Quail Baptist Church's experience, Rev. Darrell Feemster stated.

Sponsors for the occasion included Rev. and Mrs. Feemster, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Barton, Mrs. Carl Wischkaemper, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Alston, Mrs. Jimmie Aycock and Mrs. Pat

Needham.

Three-Day Annual Langley Reunion Held August 15-17

By Mrs. Aubrey Stuckey

The 22nd session of the Langley family reunion was held at the Langley Reunion ground August 15, 16, 17, with 116 relatives and 39 visitors attending. However some were already camped on the grounds Thursday night when the heavy rain came.

There was a sad note to the reunion this year since there was another vacancy left by the death of Iva Nixon and her husband Leslie. He died Dec. 9, 1974 and she on June 27, 1975. This leaves only 7 of the 10 brothers and sisters and they were all here for the reunion.

The reunion was carried on in the usual way with games of bridge, Waa-hoe, and dominoes, being played and horseshoe pitching for the men.

On Saturday night the business meeting was held, and Mrs. Audrey Burns was elected to serve as president for the coming year succeeding Mrs. Melba Marcum. Juanita Langley had done such a good job, she was re-elected as secretary-treasurer for another year. Bob Haven was elected as the rotating trustee replacing Harvey Price who had served for 3 years.

After the business meeting a song service was held, then pictures of the reunion of the late 50's and early 60's were shown, which proved to be interesting to the younger crowd as they were youngsters playing in the creek and now they are married and their children are playing in the creek.

After the reunion films, Bill Dennis showed slides of his and Skeet's trip to Hawaii, which was interesting and scenic. That is as near as many of us will ever come to seeing Hawaii.

Relatives attending according to families were: Mrs. Nannie Johnson; Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Crow, from Farmington, N.M.; Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Crow, Terry and Sheryl, Norton, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Price, Cindy, Billy, Rickey; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shadle, Che and Tracey; Arthur Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Haven, Dianne, Crystal and Bobbie, Clarendon;

Pioneer Park Setting of Hartman Family Reunion

Pioneer Park, for the first time ever, was the setting for the Hartman family reunion on Sunday, August 17.

Besides visiting, some of the group played softball, or tug of war, or waded in Salt Fork River.

Some of those attending from out of town came in campers and remained overnight, with a hot dog supper for entertainment Saturday evening.

Visitors attending were: Melody Woodruff, Ft. Worth; Dorothy Fluit, Oklahoma City; Vergie Hagan, New Orleans, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Herman, Norton, Kans.; Annie Doss, Houston; Larry Arnn and David, Memphis; Mrs. Stella Phillips, Mrs. Finch, Mrs. Salmon, Mrs. Gillispi, Memphis;

Kin Attend N.M. Wedding

A group of present and former Wellington residents attended the wedding of Miss Suelyn Speegle and Jackie Brock in Lovington, N.M. on Saturday, August 23.

These included his grandparents, Mrs. Bura Handley and Mr. and Mrs. Z.J. Neeley of Quail, also uncles and aunts, Mrs. Bill Gafford of Crowell, Mrs. Charley Hill of Wellington, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Brock, Jill and Jeanna of Amarillo, and Mrs. Carrie Shirley of Friona.

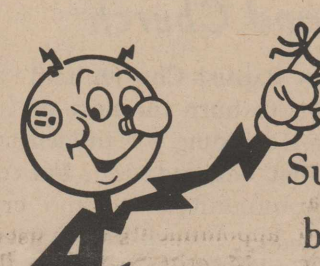

Other relatives and friends included Mrs. John Hand and Cara of Friona, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Caillet of Dallas, Mrs. J.B. Oney and Bruce Oney of Wellington, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Vaughan of Hobbs, N.M.

If the home air conditioner isn't circulating enough cool air to make the rooms comfortable during hot, muggy days, check to be sure the air filter is clean and doesn't need replacing,

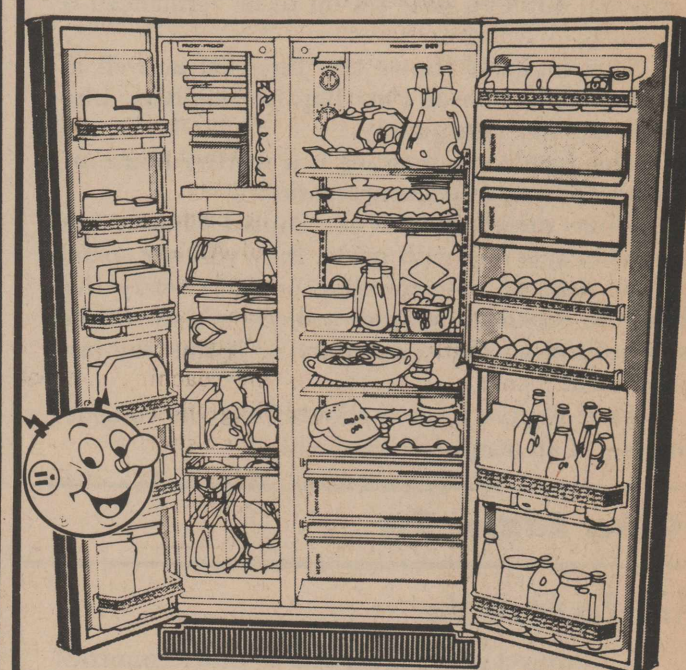

Wyrick; Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Feemster; Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Neeley; Mr. and Mrs. Doc Turner, Wellington.

Mrs. Maude Clay and Mrs. Joyce Harris took care of our cooking duty again this year and did an excellent job as usual.

The reunion will be held at the same place beginning on Friday before the 3rd Sunday, 1976.

REDDY'S REFRIGERATOR SAVINGS TIPS

- Return fresh foods to the refrigerator and frozen foods, such as ice cream, to the freezer as soon as possible. Measure and remove the quantity needed for cooking or for the table, and refrigerate the remainder at once.
- Use cold controls efficiently by selecting the settings that provide about 36° F. in the refrigerator and 0° F. in the freezer.
- Fill the refrigerator with food, but be careful not to overfill. Make sure that food packages don't block air vents in the freezer or refrigerator section.
- Clean the condenser surfaces of the refrigerator, dirt restricts air flow and acts to insulate the condenser, forcing the refrigerator to work harder and longer to maintain proper temperatures.

Complaints of Telephone Service Should Be Written

General Telephone Company has asked the City of Wellington for a substantial rate increase. The City Council is currently evaluating this request. Now is the time for telephone customers to express their opinions on telephone rates and service.

Council members often receive complaints orally about phone service. But few written complaints are received. And when Councilmen attempt to carry citizens' complaints to the phone company, they have nothing to substantiate their claims.

If you have complaints about phone service or thoughts about the rate increase, write them down. Be brief, and be as specific as possible. Include dates and times of incidents if possible. And get this written information into the hands of the Mayor or one of the Councilmen before September 1.

Remember, this is one time when a phone call won't help.

Note Burning Significant to Both Community and Church

The services which First Baptist Church held Sunday afternoon, August 24, to burn the note of indebtedness on the new church building was indeed a milestone, not only for that congregation, but in the religious life of the community.

Burning of a note indicates a church building is free of all debt. This service indicated more -- that members of First Baptist Church had paid its indebtedness in two years less than planned plus an additional $35,000 note set up to be refinanced if necessary.

This in itself shows the financial as well as spiritual dedication of First Baptist members, who carried out this task quietly.

This handsome building is a worthy house of worship for this active congregation.

While members of First Baptist Church will remember this day with pride, they will not spend a great deal of time dwelling on it. Already this church is looking for other projects which will be as beneficial to the community as this one just completed.

First Baptist Church should have the congratulations of all people of good will.

Other Editors Say . . .

Aid to Insects

The subject of grain exports to other countries and what effect they will have on the price of foods is much in discussion right now.

But the fact is, unless the Environmental Protection Agency stops meddling around banning one insecticide after another, in a few years we won't have to concern ourselves about grain to export -- there won't be enough anyhow.

As to the price -- they'll leap! One reason food prices are so high now is the awesome cost of farming these days. Labor, soil preparation and the same old gamble with the weather each year and great expense to each crop. Among the most important is the pre-treatment of seed to help fight off insect invasions.

Russell Train, EPA director, made a dramatic plea for the benefit of the media recently, demanding that chlordane and heptachlor be banned from the consumer market -- "because it might cause cancer." That same old "might." The same old half-cocked opinions as in so many previous "bans."

What did the learned Mr. Train suggest be done with all the chlordane and heptachlor now on the market? "Well, it ought to be used in the normal way, not poured into the garbage or flushed down the sewer."

In other words, the EPA believes these pesticides might cause cancer but they don't believe it strongly enough that there is any danger from current usage. Makes about as much sense as the usual federal jargon.

Dr. L.S. Pope of the Texas A&M University system says a ban on the use of chlordane and heptachlor could cause a sharper rise in consumer food prices than any wheat sales overseas, and could also affect cost of exterminating termites and garden pests at home.

STATE CAPITAL

Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Campaigns for and against a new Texas constitution are getting off the ground.

Proponents of the far-reaching revision to be voted on November 4 have opened an Austin headquarters under the direction of former State Supreme Court Chief Justice Robert W. Calvert and State Rep. Ronald Earle of Austin.

Opponents, for the time being led by State Sen. Peyton McKnight of Tyler, are setting up shop in an office building across the street.

First copies of a proposed voter's guide to the revision document were placed in the mail last week. They present complete text of the eight propositions to be voted on, with a comparison summary of the "old" and "new" constitutional provisions.

Acknowledged opposition has centered largely on the proposal for annual sessions of the legislature -- a 140-day session during odd-numbered years and a 90-day meeting on even-numbered years.

House Speaker Bill Clayton and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, concerned over effect of the opposition, asked an attorney general's opinion on whether the short, even-year session could be limited by law or legislative rule to budgetary and emergency matters.

Their proposal immediately stirred strong disapproving comment from both proponents and opponents of revision, indicating, perhaps, a hot campaign during the next three months.

Ouster Rules Drawn

A Senate committee approved rules for the impeachment trial by 31 senators of 229th District

Judge O. P. Carrillo September 3.

Carrillo personally appeared at the committee hearing with his attorneys. Leon Jaworski, the former Watergate prosecutor, who will be special counsel to the Senate presiding officer, urged proceedings be conducted "on a high plane in strict accord with the rules."

The committee tentatively approved live broadcast news coverage of the trial and recommended a gag rule to restrict comments by senators on proceedings in which they sit as court and jury.

Carrillo subsequently has been indicted by a Jim Wells County grand jury. He already faced a September 8 trial date on an income tax case in federal court at Corpus Christi and an October 2 hearing by a Judicial Qualifications Commission master in removal proceedings.

Allowable Wide Open Again

The Railroad Commission set the oil allowable for the 42nd straight month at 100 per cent of potential.

Commissioner Jim Langdon said a 15 per cent shortfall is expected in interstate gas pipelines this winter.

Any action by the federal government to take Texas gas reserves to make up for shortages in other states would amount to "a rape of Texas," Langdon commented.

"If it is a cold winter, and indications are that it will be, things are going to be pretty tough, gentlemen," Langdon told oil and gas company representatives at the Commission's meeting to set the allowable.

AG Opinions

A state representative who intentionally charges expenditures to the state in excess of the authorized amount is subject to prosecution under the penal code, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

- Teachers cannot be school board members in the same district which employs them.

- Beginning September 1, judges must contribute six per cent of their annual compensation paid by the state to their retirement fund, legislators eight per cent.

- A motion for discovery rather than the Open Records Act is the appropriate means for access to information in a welfare recipient's case file concerning pending criminal charges against him.

- There is no law authorizing Wharton County to cease operation of the county's Nightingale Hospital, other than by lease.

- Texas Board of Dental Examiners may not require dental assistants to register with the Board and pay an annual fee nor permit employment of more than one dental hygienist per dentist.

- A member of the board of commissioners of the Port of Houston Authority may also be a member of the Texas Amusement Machine Commission.

- A board of regents may not compel a college faculty member or employee to take a leave of absence without pay while campaigning for public office in a school district, city or other local governmental district, but may require that for candidates for any other public office.

- Information on inventories from grain warehouse reports of the Department of Agriculture is not subject to disclosure under the Open Records Act.

Note-Burning a Milestone, Baptist Congregation Told

A landmark event in the history of First Baptist Church came Sunday, August 24, when the congregation witnessed the leveling of the cornerstone, followed by the burning of the note of indebtedness on the building.

This is the ceremony which is symbolic of the clearing of all debt on a church building.

Members of First Baptist have worshiped in their new church since May 14, 1967.

Joining the pastor, the Rev. Roy Collins, in these services were two former pastors, Dr. Glenn Hickey, who now teaches in Northern Brazil Baptist Seminary at Recife, and who worked with the early planning; and the Rev. Leroy Gaston, now in home missionary work and as pastor of a church in Spokane, Washington, instrumental in paying off the indebtedness.

Carl Earnest of Langsdale, Alabama, represented the family of the late Rev. A.B. Earnest, who was pastor during the time of construction of the building and until immediately after the first service was held in it. He was a pastor at Santa Rosa at the time of his death.

Seated with the pastor and these three were C.T. Hubbard, chairman of the building finance committee throughout this time, and Buddy Carter, chairman of the building committee.

Alvin Horton and Ernest Harwell were in charge of leveling the cornerstone. Sealed within it were the entire contents of the cornerstone from the old church, which the congregation had used 50 years, 1917 to 1967, plus a Pendleton manual given by Miss Opal Martin.

In addition, there were included the current membership roll, current officers of the church and Sunday School, names and pictures of all former pastors, a current edition of the Pendleton Manual, current copies of the Baptist Standard, church bulletin and The Wellington Leader; and a jar of coins and seed given by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Horton.

Calling this a milestone experience in the history of First Baptist Church, Dr. Hickey urged the congregation on to other milestones. He reminded the congregation that after Christ's transfiguration, He returned to the valley where people were waiting. After an experience such as that Sunday, the congregation must return to the valley of everyday experience, however much they would like to "tarry awhile" with their mountaintop experience. A milestone can become a church's tombstone if it does nothing more, or it can be a stepping stone to further and greater achievement, Dr. Hickey told his former congregation.

This is the spirit of the mountain climber, who never feels he has ascended his last mountain. "You have many avenues of service open to you," he said.

Dr. Hickey closed his sermon with a brief review of his work in Recife.

Rev. Gaston opened the service with a prayer.

Rev. Collins commended the congregation on the brevity with which they have retired the church debt, then read the contents of the cornerstone.

Mr. Carter, a deacon in the church as well as building chairman, read the scripture, then Mr. Hubbard, also a deacon, gave the background of the new building, from January 13, 1960, when, during Dr. Hickey's pastorate, the deacons recommended, and the church adopted, a recommendation that the church's future needs in regard to a building program be investigated.

The building finance committee was named in 1961 to include Mr. Hubbard, chairman, Milburn Derryberry, Woodrow Wood, Judge C.C. Bishop, the late Mrs. J.L. Burt, Mrs. H.L. Jenkins and the late Rufus Sweat. On the parking committee were J.T. Slay, James C. Cook, now of Lubbock, and the late Henry Davidson.

In December of that year, Dr. Hickey announced the first payment into the building fund, a gift of $1,000 provided in the will of the late M.A. Barton.

The building committee, named April 4, 1962, included the late Charles Cason, Sr., Mr. Carter, Jimmie Kelso, J.T. Slay and Oran Starkey.

The contract went to Killingsworth Construction Company, a firm with Wellington ties.

In October, 1965, during the pastorate of Rev. Earnest, the congregation voted to move the location to the present site on 15th Street.

The ground breaking was held October 30, 1966, with Mrs. Margaret Rountree, the oldest member, and Betty Burba, the youngest, participating.

The first services were held May 14, 1967.

With Rev. Gaston, Dr. Hickey, Mr. Hubbard, Mr. Carter and Mr. Earnest grouped around him, Rev. Collins set fire to the note.

Mr. Earnest brought greetings from his family, then sang, "Bless This House."

The history of First Baptist Church goes back to 1891, a year after the county was organized. Thirty-two pastors have served it, including Rev. Collins. In order, they are:

Rev. J.W. Brice, Rev. I.H. Willingham, Rev. G.W. Lampkins, Rev. W.H. Younger, Rev. Willingham for a second time, Rev. J.B. Cole.

Cyclists Visit Site of "McIntosh & T.J." Film

Several members of the Wellington Cycle Club spent Sunday afternoon, August 17, visiting and sightseeing in the Guthrie-Matador area where filming of the movie "McIntosh & T.J." is under way. The movie will co-star Roy Rogers and Clay

O'Brian.

Kenneth Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Barnett, Jimmy Reynolds and John Alf Thomas stopped at the headquarters of 6666 Ranch in Guthrie and talked with the ranch manager, Jim Gibson's, son. He told the group that the ranch is owned by Mrs. Ann Tandy of Tandy Leather Company and it consists of 200,000 acres. They were told the movie was being filmed both on 6666 Ranch and the Pitchfork Ranch.

At the Pitchfork Ranch headquarters the riders talked with Mrs. Jim Humphreys, wife of the ranch manager. They learned that the assistant ranch manager is Bob Moorhouse, whose wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson.

Roy Rogers and the director and producer are staying at the LL Motel in Dickens. The crew of approximately 230 to 250 are staying at the Holiday Inn in Lubbock and commute via chartered bus to the film site each day.

Rogers told the group that Sunday was his first day off in four weeks. His wife, Dale Evans, has visited him several times. She will be in Lubbock to participate in the Billy Graham Crusade this month.

Thursday, August 21, Rogers left the area for several days to perform at the Ohio State Fair and the Minnesota State Fair.

This is Clay O'Brian's ninth or tenth movie, his first being "The Cowboys" with John Wayne. Clay is a roper and he won the jack pot roping at Roaring Springs Sunday, August 10.

Judd Graduates Second High

Cpl. Dickie (Edward) Judd completed a course at Ft. Polk, La., recently, graduating with the second highest score in his group.

A good friend whose home is in Hawaii had the highest score.

Judd then spent a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Judd, and in Amarillo and Canyon with other relatives and friends.

Upon returning to Ft. Polk, he was assigned as drill corporal for the new group of recruits who will enter training August 18.

Savings Bond Chain-Letter Schemes Illegal

If someone asks you to join a money-making plan involving chain letters and U.S. Savings Bonds, you'd better refuse. You aren't likely to make any money -- it's more likely you'll lose your "investment" to get in on the deal -- and it's possible you may be prosecuted for violation of federal, state or local laws, warns the Treasury Department.

The scheme most often used works in the traditional chain-letter way. Additionally, the promoters often try to persuade the victim he is being "patriotic."

There have been arrests and convictions of promoters in some states.

Mrs. Harvey Granted M.Ed.

STEPHENVILLE* (Spl)--A total of 102 students received Masters Degrees from Tarleton State University, Sunday, August 17, during Commencement Exercises held in Wisdom Gymnasium.

Receiving the Master of Education Degree in Education Administration was Dorothy Sue Dwight Harvey.

Her husband, Gary Harvey, teaches in Tarleton State, and Mrs. Harvey in Stephenville High School. She is a graduate of Samnorwood High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dwight, now of Nixon.

Mrs. Raymond Horton Has Foot Surgery

Mrs. Raymond Horton is home after having foot surgery August 14 at High Plains Hospital in Amarillo.

She is recuperating nicely, according to her mother, Mrs. Macy Sanders of Amarillo. Mrs. Sanders is visiting for several days until Mrs. Horton has recovered.

Quail News

By Mrs. G.T. Stephens

Rev. Darrell Feemster has announced that there will be a service each Wednesday night at 8:30 p.m. at the Quail Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Boen of Azel visited recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D.R. Langley, Donna and Rancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Melton of Borger were guests in the home of Mrs. W.W. DuBose and Mr. and Mrs. G.T. Stephens Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Melton is a sister of Mrs. DuBose and Mr. Stephens.

Guy Lindleys Vacation With Son and Family

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lindley returned Saturday, August 23 from a vacation spent with their son and his family.

They first visited Mr. and Mrs. David Lindley, Susan, Robert, Bryan and Melanie and two foster daughters, Cindy and Camill in Amarillo. Then the two families spent two days in Cimarron, New Mexico and the remaining part of the week in Tres Retos.

They enjoyed fishing and hiking, Mrs. Lindley said. She reported the fishing was excellent. Her son caught his limit.

Deck's Didactics

—by Deskins Wells

September will soon be here bringing some change to the oppressive heat of August. The first northers of the autumn season will be welcomed for their invigorating effect.

Criminologists say crimes of violence increase during the dog days of August and recent events in Wellington bear out the contention. One killing with a hand gun and one knifing plus an attempted shooting this week seems like an excessive amount of violence for a town the size of ours.

The heat of August brought forth such old time expressions as "not fit for a dog" and "good for the cotton but terrible on man and beast."

When there is moisture as there has been this year, the hot days of August provide the heaviest fruiting of both cotton and maize. Many years the rains do not come until late August and September and then the fruiting is later. In the midst of the uncomfortable and irritating heat and humidity, there is also the hope of something better next week and next month. It is something like the darkest hour just before dawn.

The annual Collingsworth County Fair is only one week away. From all indications, it should be one of the better ones of recent years. There are plenty of farm products from which to do the selecting and plenty of able and experienced people to do the selecting. For three weeks the fair has been full of stories concerning details of the fair and there will be even more news for the next two or three issues.

Football is not just around the corner. It is here. This Saturday the Skyrockets will scrimmage Canadian on Powell Field. Canadian has had a strong club for many years and the practice game should prove highly interesting. It will be your only chance to see the Rockets in action here until way up in September when they tangle with the Childress Bobcats on the 26th.

Many yards in Wellington have lovely flowers and shrubs blooming at this time of the year. The crepe myrtle is brilliant in its effect this season and so are many other flowers. If you are a canna lover, drive by the Earl Keller home. They have a long row of yellow cannas that are eye catching in the morning sunlight. It is also worth your time to get out on the dirt roads and see the crops. It is not every year that you see such pristine green and healthy looking bolls of cotton and heads of maize.

Mr. Ford does not count it as fuel wasted if you are looking at the crops. You might be hunting for boll weevils or army worms.

The Glenn Warricks have a way of combining more good activities than one into their summer vacation. They escape the August heat and the monotony of the job in a slack period; but they also manage to visit interesting places while indulging in "his" hobby. His hobby is the Chevrolet Ranger station wagon which he has painted, polished and refurbished inside and out till its cost is more than a new Cadillac.

This year the Warricks went to Memphis, Tennessee, that historic and beautiful old-new city sitting high on the bluffs overlooking the Mississippi River. They had a room in a new Holiday Inn on the river and their evenings should have been cool. Sometimes the night wind is chilly coming off the river at this time of the year and they advise you to wear a coat or take a wrap for a boat trip on the river in the evening.

The last time I was there, they were rebuilding the old part of the city. Industry has preempted all the desirable locations fronting the river for miles; so there was no place to build new business and retail buildings on high ground except the old part

Patterson Studies Panhandle For Wind Energy Conversion

WTSU—"Amarillo is the best site in the area for the location of wind energy conversion systems," says West Texas State University graduate student in physics Eddie Patterson in his master's thesis.

The Wellington native has spent the last year analyzing data on an area which includes the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandles and small portions of eastern Oklahoma and western New Mexico.

Patterson divided this region into one-half degree squares, which he evaluated their site desirability on three criteria: the amount of wind energy available, land usage and population distribution.

To determine the amount of wind energy available Patterson established wind contour lines in the region. He then looked at how the land was being used—whether for crops, pasture, range or forest—to estimate the cost for purchase of the site location.

"You need to place the systems on the least expensive land," he noted.

of town. One block from my hotel was a four block space that had been cleared of all old buildings and on part of which new construction was already underway. Three blocks away was a two block area which had been cleared and on which new construction had been planned. At that time it was among the fastest growing cities of the South and may be still for all I know.

My father, who was raised in northern Mississippi went to Memphis to attend a business college before setting out for an unsettled part of Texas. At that time Memphis was the cotton capital of the world and still might be if it were not for Houston and New Orleans.

The final criteria for evaluation was population distribution.

"You want to have a large population next to the grid site to reduce the cost of transportation lines and the loss of energy," he said.

"No matter how you weight the factors," Patterson concludes, "Amarillo is the best site. Not just because of the population, but because of the amount of wind energy available."

Patterson graduated from West Texas State August 16 with his master's degree in physics. He received his undergraduate degree from Bethany Nazarene College in Bethany, Oklahoma.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patterson of 1202 Childress St. in Wellington.

Farming Equipment Prices May Ease Some

COLLEGE STATION -- Farmers shopping for needed equipment in the coming months may be faced with a rather pleasant change -- wider selections and, maybe, somewhat lower prices.

After a year of record low farm equipment inventories in 1974 and the resulting skyrocketing prices, equipment supplies are once again increasing to the point that prices may ease somewhat during the remainder of the year.

That's the contention of Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Although farm income was down last year and is projected to be down again during 1975, expansions in crop acreage and the recent strength in livestock prices may stimulate some equipment purchases later in the year," points out the Texas A&M University System specialist.

"Of course, a big factor would be the softening or at least stabilizing of equipment prices."

During the first half of 1975, tractor sales have been 19 per cent below the pace set during the first six months last year. However, the sales of self-propelled combines increased 25 per cent during the first half of 1975 compared to the same time period last year.

The average price farmers paid for farm machinery rose 14 per cent during the first half of this year while wholesale prices increased only 5 per cent. Also, motor vehicle prices rose only 5 per cent.

"This indicates that dealer margins on farm equipment have increased in recent years, and with inventories increasing, the time may be ripe for farmers to do some bargaining," points out Hayenga.

"Overall, it looks like the supply-demand situation for farmer equipment is shifting back from the imbalance of last year to a more traditional level," adds the economist.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Horn recently were Richard Turner and Martin Kemp from London, England. They are friends of the Horn's granddaughter, Nancy Horn, of Plainview. They were impressed with the friendliness of the people in this area.

CB Radios and Batteries Taken From Equipment

Seven citizen band radios, along with three antennas and two truck batteries were taken from equipment belonging to Don Lacy and Denizil Lacy recently.

The loss has been set by the owners and law enforcement officers at more than $1,000.

Don Lacy said that he and his brother are offering a $200 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the persons taking the equipment.

The CB radios were installed on all equipment--combines and trucks--which the two men use in their custom harvesting operations, according to Chief Deputy Sheriff Richard Keller.

The equipment was in a fenced and locked area maintained by the Lacys a little more than one-fourth mile east of Wellington on State Highway 203.

The window to one locked truck was also broken out in order to take the battery.

The Rev. and Mrs. Dale Scott of Granada Hills, California, visited recently with his mother, Mrs. Ray Scott.

Conversational Spanish Course Offered Here

Clarendon College, in co-operation with the Wellington Schools, will offer a course in conversational Spanish for area residents during the first semester.

Listed as Spanish 233, the course is designed to meet the needs of people who work with, do business with, or have a need to communicate with Spanish speaking people.

The course will be taught each Thursday night, from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m. beginning September 4 and ending December 18. Classes will be held in Wellington High School.

Mrs. Dixie Howard, who teaches Spanish in Clarendon College, will be the instructor, according to Mrs. Jimmie Sessions.

Registration will be from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. on the opening night, September 4. Tuition will be $50 for the course and books must be purchased at the time of registration, and should amount to $10 or less.

Twelve Wellington residents already have signed up for the course, and several others have enrolled tentatively.

With the payment of tuition, the course may count for college credit if the student desires. There are no prerequisites to taking the course. However, it can serve as a prerequisite to more advanced courses.

Anyone wishing additional information may call Mrs. Sessions at 447-2038.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Davis and children, Dell, Gina and Brandon are visiting this week with relatives in the Houston area.

A complete list of workers and other arrangements will be announced next week, Rev. McKinney said.

The community building, where the bloodmobile has been stationed in the past, was not available this time, due to a dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club.
